Commissioner's Appoint New Election Workers

Coke County Commissioners' Court met Monday, and work was done toward setting up election machinery in the county for the coming year. The commissioners appointed election judges and assistants, defined precinct boundaries and set hours and pay of election officers. Few changes were made from the present setup, according to Judge D. W. Sims.

Election judges and assistant judges are listed below in that order;

Precinct 1: Patti Ivey and Charlotte Wojtek

Precinct 2: Royce Fancher and Flora Smith.

Precinct 3: Victor Wojtek and Polly Large.

Precinct 4: Lora Belle Brown and Bruce Sonnenberg.

Precinct 5: Willie B. Edmiston and Pearl May Andrews.

Precinct 9: D. O. King and Connie Millican.

Members of the absentee canvassing board are Kenneth Lackey, Noel Percifull, James Arrott and Golda Smith.

The commissioners also appointed the following persons to serve on the Coke County Child Welfare Board: Joy Bagwell, Judy Millican, Brenda Tidwell, Dorris Saunders and Juanita Schnabel as regular members, and Judge Sims, ex-officio member.

Paul Martin of San Angelo Blue Cross and Blue Shield insurance representative, presented the commissioners with

Rapid Rabbit Thoughts

Even though last week's lead story in this newspaper stated that taxes are not going to be raised to the amount listed on the form which property owners would pay if the tax rate were the same as last year, there is an official meeting coming up for every taxing unit which entice taxpayers to be present and participate.

Soon, all the taxing entities of the county are going to hold budget hearings on how much money will be spent by each of them in the next year. Included are the county, the cities, the schools, the hospital districts, water districts and all other governmental agencies which have the power to levy taxes. The decisions made at these budget hearings will determine how much money is to be spent and for what, and will be the big factor in determining the tax rates.

You, as citizens and taxpayers, are entitled to be heard at these meetings. You owe it to yourself and to your fellow citizens to participate in deciding how tax money will be budgeted and spent during the coming year.

But you have to be present at these meetings to be heard. This newspaper will publish a story each week when a budget hearing is scheduled. I a health insurance plan. County officials and employees are now covered by insurance purchased from American Security Insurance Co., represented in this area by R. T. Caperton. Judge Sims said the court will make a thorough study of each company's plan before a decision is reached as to who will serve Coke County.

The commissioners spent considerable time working on the budget for next year, Judge Sims said. "We are trying our best to keep the amount of taxes about the same as last year," he said.

Sims said his office is still receiving lots of inquiries from concerned citizens who received notices last week showing the new valuations which have been placed on all property in the county. He said there is no way the new tax rate can be determined until after the county equalization board meets and reaches a final decision on valuations.

When the total valuation for each taxing entity is determined, and the budget requirements of each have been decided, "then and only then can we know what tax rates will be," Judge Sims said.

He did point out, however, that any taxing unit cannot raise its total tax take by more than three per cent without notifying all the affected taxpayers. A three per cent raise on county taxes would amount to approximately one cent per $100 valuation, the judge said.

Three Charged With Burglary Of Lake Store

Three persons were taken to Tom Green County jail early Sunday after they were apprehended trying to enter Triangle Grocery & Bait near Lake Spence near Robert Lee.

Charged with attempted burglary of a building were Virginia Paula Henderson, 38, David Edward Barrett, 21, and Daniel W. Smith, 23. They all gave San Angelo addresses. Bond was set at $25,000 on each of the accused.

Sheriff Marshall Millican said information he received revealed that Henry Autrey, owner of the business, became suspicious when he noticed a car driving in the area. He called law enforcement officers and Deputy John Paul McGuire and Game Warden Sparks Burdett headed for Autrey's place.

In the meantime, Millican said, the three got out of their car and attempted to break into the building. Autrey held them at gunpoint until McGuire and Burdett arrived and made the arrests.

A Bronte man was arrested in Robert Lee Saturday and taken to Tom Green County jail. Charged with indecency with a child was Eliseo Martinez Sanchez, 29. Millican said Tuesday night that he had been released on $25,000 bond.

Coach Epperson Optimistic; 36 Steers Report For Practice

Coach Jerald Epperson expressed his pleasure Tuesday concerning opening days of the annual two-a-day workouts for the Robert Lee Steers. Thirty-six boys reported Monday morning at 7:00 o'clock for the beginning of the 1981-1982 football season. Players and coaches alike were happy about the cool, cloudy weather.

Epperson stated the squad, in general, was in surprisingly good physical condition, many of them having worked this summer on various jobs. He was especially pleased with the tremendous attitude shown by the boys and said "that means a lot to a team throughout the season."

Players will be in shorts this week, and pads will be issued for the Friday practice.

The Steers will have an intrasquad scrimmage Saturday morning from 8-9 and Coach Epperson invited "our fans and players' families to this" and welcomes all spectators to the practices. "We would be glad to see them all there," he said.

Tax Cut: On The Books

Of all the lobbying, organized demonstrations, promises and protests in the 24 hours preceding the historic tax vote in Congress no voices were heard with greater clarity and impact than yours -- the folks at home.

With your telegrams, telephone calls and personal visits you provided the impetus -- the winning edge -- to enable us to pass this phase of President Reagan's program for economic recovery.

Because of what happened before the vote -- a bold reaffirmation of the November mandate -- Republicans and Democrats in the Congress came together and passed a bill to provide a tax cut necessary to offset the massive tax increases so severely penalizing working Americans.

The bipartisan tax reduction program is essential to restore the certainty needed to increase savings, investments and economic growth. And I emphasize, it will put pressure on Congress to continue to hold the line on spending programs.

Restoring incentive to the economy and unleashing the genius of the American people has been the driving force behind the President's program. Key to this effort is an across-the-board cut in marginal income tax rates for everyone.

Cutting taxes is a message to all that we will no longer be penalized for trying to earn a living or for trying to save more of the money we earn.

This tax cut is long overdue. For too long the Federal government has overspent and overtaxed and everyone knows the result: an economic mess worse than any since the Depression.

Remember this tax cut is designed to stimulate the economy. With growth comes a larger tax base and with that more revenues. As revenues increase, while we keep the brakes on Federal spending, we can balance the budget by 1984.

The Conable-Hance bipartisan tax bill provides a full three years of personal tax rate reductions totaling 25 percent across the board. These reductions are permanent reductions, guaranteed to be permanent by the adoption of tax indexing -- the annual adjustment of the tax brackets and personal exemptions for inflation. This will end the hidden tax increases that result when cost of living increases push taxpayers into higher brackets. Those hidden tax increases, the so-called "bracket creep," have robbed Americans of every one of the five so-called tax cuts of the last ten years to the tune of $400 billion!

The President and Members of Congress who have supported the Conable-Hance bill made a bipartisan pledge to get your taxes down, keep your taxes down, and avoid hidden tax increases of the kind which have put us where we are today.

In all of this talk of tax there is for all of us a bottom line. Our struggle for independence two centuries ago, our unrelenting fight to hold on to those freedoms, our very ability to formulate and execute public policy through debate and law is based on the assurance that we are free. Free to shape our lives. Free to set and reach our goals.

You, the people, made the difference this time and you will make the difference again!

EXTENSION EXTRAS

By Mary Anne Lackey

The Extension Service has recently published a bulletin entitled, "The Sodium-Restricted Diet."

Many people who are being treated for hypertension (high blood pressure) are prescribed a sodium-restricted diet.

Did you know that baking soda and baking powder are rich in sodium? Foods from plants contain less sodium than foods from animals.

In Coke County, the sodium content of our water is a factor that is often forgotten when planning sodium intake.

This booklet may serve as an important resource to many Texans in our area. It is available free of charge from the Coke County Extension Office.

Spray Pecans For Shuckworm

By Sterling Lindsey
County Extension Agent

We have received several calls about spraying to control shuckworm in pecans. Now is the time to spray to control the shuckworm. And, if you had 20% or more shuckworm damage last year, a second application of insecticide in 10 days or two weeks is suggested.

The insecticides that may be used for shuckworm control are guthion or zolone. If you are having a problem with aphids (honeydew) then I would suggest the zolone. It is a pretty good all purpose spray.

Several people have called about nuts shedding. This is an age old problem that can occur almost anytime from the nutlet stage through August. Some form of stress or a combination of stresses can cause pecan trees, particularly those with a heavy load of nuts, to shed. The water stage that the nuts just passed through is one of the more common times for pecans to shed. Some combination of heat, not enough water, insect damage, zinc deficiency, nitrogen deficiency, disease of too much water can trigger the trees to free themselves of the burden of producing fruit. Lately aphids and heat stress have been contributing factors, and if your tree has or had a heavy crop of nuts, ample water before the stress hits is a must. This is particularly true on young, growing trees.

THE PEACHTREE BORER

The Peachtree borer, can be one of the most destructive insect pests of peaches in Texas. Damage occurs as a result of the larvae feeding around a tree's base just under bark. Severe infestations reduce tree vigor and can kill a tree if allowed to continue uncontrolled for several years. Populations that average more than one larva per tree should be treated. Control is achieved with a single late August application of insecticide if Lorsban (R) is used.

Peachtree borer eggs are laid on the bark near the soil line of a peachtree. Hatch occurs in about 10 days. Newly emerged larvae bore into and feed in the bark cambium for 10-14 months. Mature larvae migrate from the tree out into the soil for a distance up to 12 inches and form a bullet-shaped puparium just below the surface. Eggs are generally laid in August or September with adults emerging the following August/September.

Research has demonstrated that a single late August application of the insecticide Lorsban(R) will effectively control the peachtree borer. It is applied at a treatment rate of 5 teaspoons Lorsban(R) 4E per gallon of water or 3 quarts of Lorsban(R) 4E per 100 gallons of water (3 lbs. active ingredient per 100 gallons water). Treatment is made by thoroughly wetting the base of each tree (about 1/2 - 1 gallon) with the spray mixture.

Bucks & Billies...There's a difference!

Every few years I have to get on my soapbox and reeducate raisers on the right names of the products they produce. Having grown up in a family of registered Angora goat breeders, it is surprising and little disconcerting to hear well-educated folks not refer to their animals correctly.

Last weekend at Junction while attending the largest Angora bucks -- "billies" -- and Angora does -- "nannies". These terms are incorrect.

According to publications on the Angora goat, put out by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the male animal is properly called a BUCK and the female, a DOE. The same is true of the promotional booklets on the Angora, published by the American Angora Goat Breeders Association. Webster's New World Dictionary gives the definition of "buck" as, "a male goat, rabbit, etc.; the female is a doe."

Now, for those who don't know by now, the colorful, straight-haired Spanish goat of our parts are referred to as "billies" and "nannies", and those terms are correct.

One of the most beautiful of domestic animals, the Angora goat has a history older than the written records of man. Mohair from Angora goats was used during the time of Moses, according to the Bible, "and archaeologists have discovered that mohair was one of the first textile fibers used by man.

The first Angora goats imported to the United States were two bucks and seven does, gifts from the Sultan of Turkey to Dr. James B. Davis of Columbia, South Carolina. In 1900, the Angora goat industry had grown to such an extent that a registry association was needed.

The American Angora Goat Breeders Association was organized then to keep records showing pedigrees of all purebred Angoras and to issue certificates or registration. Today, the United States, Turkey and South Africa raise nearly all the Angora goats in the world. Texas ranchmen have over 90 percent of the Angoras in this country, according to Fred Campbell, executive director of the Mohair Council of America.

The terms, "billy goat" and "nanny goat" are colloquialisms, according to "Webster". They are used in "familiar conversation, friendly letters, or informal speeches," but they are "unsuited to formal speech or writing." And, these terms are generally used, as I mentioned, in describing common or Spanish goats.

To my way of thinking, calling a purebred Angora a "billy" or a "nanny" is like calling a fine registered Quarter Horse a "nag".

Let's keep the high standards of purebred Angoras where they should be when we talk about "BUCKS" and "DOES".

The election to consolidate Valley View, Wild Cat, and Paint Creek School Districts with Robert Lee comes off tomorrow. If you are for it go to the polls and vote. If you are lukewarm, swap out with one another in kicking your britches until you crawl down off the fence on one side or the other. No use in telling them that's against it, for they are wide awake already. It's the sleepy bunch who wins or loses most elections. If it carries, it will mean adding approximately 419 school children to the Robert Lee School District.

Born last Friday, Jan. 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barger, a 9 pound boy, Gerald Don Barger.

Elder G. C. McCraw was taken to San Angelo Thursday for an operation. Miss Myrtle Hurley's car was stolen from her while she was sitting up with him.

Beginning Monday, Feb. 2, 1931, Mr. F. W. Dawson, agent for the State Rodent Central Department will join County Agent B. J. Baskin in a campaign to poison as many jack rabbits in Coke County as we have requests. Only expense attached is for the poison used. The services of Mr. Dawson & Baskin are free.

The campaign will also poison prairie dogs, ground squirrels, and gophers if requested. This, followed by drives will do much to rid Coke County of these pests.

Dr. J. E. Reed and Mrs. Julia Reed were re-united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Brown Monday. Mr. Brown officiated the ceremony.

G. A. Harmon bought 4 acres of land out of the SW Corner of Mrs. C. J. Danner's field this week to get out from under the city tax and also in case they build the river dam and it breaks and washes Robert Lee away, he will be on the hill. Says he will move his little house up there, too. The vacant lot he leaves won't be worth the taxes where it's located.

Mt. Creek Golf Club News

Taking second were Ben Bessent, Ivan Slaughter, Fern Havins, and John Stewart with a 63 score. Shooting a 66 for third were Jim Crowder, Roy Epperson, Randy Prince, and Glenn Bridges.

Another ABC tourney will be held this week-end on Saturday and will tee off at 1:00.

Coming up on the local course will be the Labor Day two-day partnership tournament on Sept. 6 and 7. Entries will consist of two-party teams and fees will be $50.00 per team.

Visiting Friday night and Saturday with Helen Fowler and Janis were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fowler, Sherry and Karen of Alvarado, Pat Taft, Little Sam and Tammy Jo of San Angelo and Sammie Baker of Robert Lee.

MRS. EPPERSON TO TEACH FIRST GRADE AT HIGHLAND

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE TOWN COMMISSION OF THE TOWN OF ROBERT LEE, TEXAS:

SECTION 1. As of the effective date of this amendatory ordinance, and upon acceptance by Lone Star Gas Company of the provisions hereof, Section 4 of the aforesaid captioned franchise ordinance enacted on October 1, 1963, shall be stricken, cancelled and nullified and there shall be substituted in lieu thereof a new provision reading as follows:

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Oglesby,

Please print this letter in both THE BRONTE ENTERPRISE and THE ROBERT LEE OBSERVER as it is my wish that it will reach all the "Rabbit Twisters" and other fine citizens of Coke County. Please bill me as necessary.

Sincerely,
Gerry Key
7418 Canterfield Drive
San Antonio, Tx. 78204

Dear Citizens of Coke County,

During the recent showing of "OLE COKE COUNTY-Home of the Rabbit Twisters", I had the great pleasure and privilege of being a participant, playing the part of my great grandfather, Dr. W. F. Key. My wife, Mary, and I would like to thank all the good people of Coke County who made our stay there so enjoyable. You do not know how welcome you made us feel, and we cannot express ourselves adequately so just let us say "thank you" from the bottom of our hearts.

The names of the people we met and made friends with are too numerous to name individually but they know who they are and we will be forever grateful for the respect and affection they showed us.

Coke County has a great heritage and a beautiful way of telling her history in your annual pageant. I would strongly urge all the citizens of Coke to get further involved in it and make the events which made the county great, as well as the pageant, more widely known. You have a little "gold mine" there and with dedication of all the citizens it can grow even larger.

I will always be a "Rabbit Twister" at heart for my roots are in Coke County. I hope to return sometime soon and say hello again to my friends. Thank you again for your wonderful hospitality. Best regards to all.

Sincerely,

hope you will attend and speak your piece--let it be known to these boards how you feel.

Most all of the members of various boards are taxpayers just as you are, and they will be receptive to your ideas. Most of the board members have no axe to grind; they are simply serving as your representatives, and would welcome a little help in reaching decisions which are important to all of us.

Watch for budget hearing dates and go--tell the boards what you want your money used for. Official notices of all the meetings must be published, so I will try to watch for them.

Things are tough over Sterling City way, and I think it would be most neighborly if we could help our friends to the west. I am especially interested in the welfare of my friend and colleague, Jack Douthit, publisher of the Sterling City News-Record.

Old Jack's a good fellow and deserves all the help he can get. He's facing a real problem. Even though it seems now that the weather will never again get cold, we all realize that freezes, frosts, snows and blizzards could well be in store for us in the next few months. That's when he's going to be in real trouble.

Jack's problem is that he doesn't have any shoes. He had two pair, but he has worn them out stomping the grasshoppers in his yard. I can appreciate his problem, for I have, for many years, risked arrest for hazardous driving, as I tried to run over the invading insects. Jack has had the same problem, according to his column, "Behind the Eight Ball," as he weaved his car around the highway in an effort to run over as many of the hoppers as possible.

I'm going to send 50 cents to Jack to go toward the purchase of a new pair of shoes. Since this is a somewhat personal drive for a friend, I would not expect readers to be so generous. But I was wondering if you could send him 25 cents. Just send it to Jack Douthit/News - Record Office/Sterling City, Texas 76951. Or, bring your contribution by the office if you don't feel like spending 18 cents on a stamp. We'll see that old Jack gets it, for he really does need some new shoes.

There is a possibility that if we don't help out on this crusade, Jack and his wife will not be able to take their annual flying trip to England next year. So in the interest of humanitarianism, please help.

Older women

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) -- Because so many older women outlive men, the problem of their aloneness and loneliness is one of the saddest in society, says an official of The University of Texas Hogg Foundation for Mental Health.

"There are nine bridegrooms for every bride over the age of 65," says Bert Kruger Smith. While older men who are widowed often reach back 30 years and find younger brides, "most women do not have this kind of option," she says.

She predicts elderly women will learn to overcome their aloneness by finding more meaningful lives through new cooperative living, planning and social arrangements.

Play Day Results Given

"We had another really good turn out at the play day last Saturday," officials of the Coke County Rodeo Association said this week.

There are only two play days left this season; the next one will be Aug. 22 and the last one will be Sept. 5. There will be a meeting at 7 p.m. Sept. 5 to elect new officers for next year. Association officers urged everyone to turn out for the last two meetings of 1981.

It has been discovered there was a professional rodeo photographer at the rodeo this year. To find out if your child was photographed, write Gerry DePree, 1309 S. David, in San Angelo or call 653-2603. He needs to know your child's name, age group and events participated in.

Scherf and Markwood Repeat Vows

Sunken Garden Park in San Angelo was the setting for the August 2nd wedding of Patricia Carney Scherf and Frank Edward Markwood II. The Rev. Jack Wallace of Hawley was the officiant.

Mrs. Markwood is the daughter of Mrs. Joanne Carney of San Angelo and the late John R. Carney. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Gladys Markwood of Robert Lee and the late Frank Edward Markwood.

Attending the couple were Dianne Holland of Ballinger as matron of honor and Murl Andrews of Bronte as best man.

Leslie Dianne Scherf served as flower girl. Ring bearer was Brian Lee Schert.

The bride is a graduate of San Angelo Central High School and American Commercial College. She attended Angelo State University. She is a secretary.

Following a wedding trip to Galveston, the couple will live in San Angelo.

Scouts Relate Experiences At Jamboree

The 1981 National Scout Jamboree is over, but for the 47 Boy Scouts and leaders who attended from the Concho Valley Council, the experience will remain memorable for years to come.

"The jamboree is held every four years and is one of Scouting's most exciting events," said Gene Hinnard, Jamboree Scoutmaster. The 1981 jamboree was held at Fort A. P. Hill, Va., from July 29 through Aug. 4. Nearly 30,000 Scouts and leaders from all 50 states attended, as well as contingents from more than 25 foreign countries.

Highlights for the local youth included a tour of Washington, D.C., Mount Vernon and Fredericksburg. In addition, awards were won by local participants, including Bill Shannon who placed high enough to compete on the National level on the Wayfarer course, the Rattlesnake Patrol placed first in Subcamp Tug of War and the Troop won a Blue Ribbon for See'N'Do.

"Perhaps the most rewarding experience of all was having the opportunity to meet others in Scouting from different parts of the country, as well as from other nations," Hinnard said. "The experiences of a national jamboree will last a lifetime."

John Hinnard of Robert Lee was the Scout from the local troop who attended jamboree. He is attending the National Order of the Arrow Conference this week at the University of Texas at Austin.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Chesney were Mrs. Chesney's daughters, Lela Shelton of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Thomas of Fort Worth. Chris Thomas of Alvarado also accompanied them. The group attended the "Ole Coke County" performance and visited other local relatives.

PERSONALS

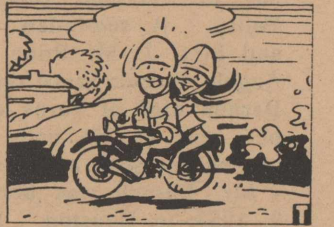

Spending the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Turney Casey were Mr. and Mrs. Tammy Lewis of Clute, Mrs. Jerry Ellis of Odessa, Myrtle Pessarra of Freeport, and Mrs. Iva Brewington of Manchacca. They Caseys and their visitors attended the Lewis reunion.

Kelly Sims of Houston spent several days recently in the homes of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Buzz Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sims. She was accompanied to Robert Lee by a friend, Ginger Garner, also of Houston.

DO YOU KNOW?

Everyone has heard the expression, "back seat driver." But did you know that on a motorcycle, the passenger can actually steer the cycle? It's true. If a motorcycle passenger leans the opposite way from the rider, the passenger can control the cycle's direction.

The Motorcycle Safety Foundation cautions riders to remember the following when they have passengers with them:

- Check your passenger's clothing to make sure nothing will tangle in the chain or spokes. Make sure your passenger is wearing all protective gear, including a helmet.
 - Warn your passenger about accidentally touching hot parts of the motorcycle like the exhaust pipes and muffler.
 - Have your passenger hold you lightly but securely around the waist.
 - Tell your passenger to lean with you when you make turns and start up from a stop.
- Riding "two-up" (with a passenger) can be enjoyable for both persons when these basic rules are followed.

Double or nothing?

Saving money these days is difficult for most everyone. But there is a plan guaranteed to build your savings. Even for those who can't seem to ever save a cent. Buying U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. The amount you'd like to save is taken out automatically. When you accumulate the purchase price, you get a Bond. A $50 Bond costs only $25. Or a $100 Bond costs only $50. Whatever the amount, you'll double your money if you hold the Bond to maturity.

Remember, you can double your money for sure or put off saving and do nothing. Double or nothing.

When you put part of your savings into U.S. Savings Bonds you're helping to build a brighter future for your country and for yourself.
