Coke Commissioners Adopt Tax Rate Of 34c Per $100 Valuation

Members of the Commissioners' Court of Coke County adopted a tax rate of 34 cents per $100 valuation when they met Monday of this week.

The huge decrease from last year's county tax rate of $1.04 may be a help to oil companies who operate in Coke County, and possibly to a few other taxpayers, but will prove to be of little help to most taxpayers who own real estate in the county, due to the big increase in valuations which have been brought on by the county's participation in the uniform appraisal of property in the county.

In other business at the Monday meeting of the court the commissioners:

*Okayed a new policy, after hearing a report from County Attorney Bill J. Helwig, to approve a request from the Tom Green County jailer to allow Tom Green officers to appoint attorneys for indigent prisoners. It was recommended that this provision be okayed and Coke commissioners approved it after considering the transportation charges and drain on the time of personnel of the sheriff's office in transporting prisoners back and forth if the action were taken in Coke County.

*Passed a resolution which will allow Coke County students to obtain loans for use in attending college. The resolution does not

4 Amendments Carry in Coke

Four of the seven proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution which were voted on Tuesday, carried in Coke County. County Clerk Mrs. Winnie Waldrop reported that 366 persons voted in the county's six voting boxes.

The amendments voted on were: No. 1 would authorize issuance of bonds to improve certain areas of cities, towns, etc. No. 2 would authorize issuance of patents on certain land which had taxes paid on it for at least 50 years, but did not have a clear title. No. 3 would allow creation of a state finance management committee. No. 4 would authorize the state to set aside surplus funds for development of water resources. No. 5 would exempt livestock and poultry from ad valorem tax. No. 6 would allow some tax relief for homeowners. No. 7 would authorize issuance of bonds for the Veterans Land Program.

Coke County voters approved Nos. 2, 5, 6 and 7, but turned thumbs down on Nos. 1, 3 and 4.

Here's how the vote went in Coke County:

	For	Agst.
No. 1	119	219
No. 2	250	97
No. 3	96	241
No. 4	149	202
No. 5	277	82
No. 6	193	149
No. 7	198	154

Coke County's 366 voters was not a turnout to brag about, but it was a considerably higher percentage of the qualified voters than voted in many places over the state.

obligate the county to stand good for any loan.

*Accepted a plat presented by George Weir on a division of Property near Lake Spence, but excluded the county from maintaining streets on the property.

*At the request of Bill Helwig, conveyed a quit claim deed to Jimmy Bell from the county on a lot, or lots, in south Robert Lee that had at one time been deeded to the county.

*Passed an order to require General Telephone Co. to contact Coke County commissioners prior to submitting applications to the court for approval of easements needed for anticipated work of the company.

*Approved a request of Mapco Pipeline Co. for an easement to cross county roads in two places and use county right of way for a pipeline.

*Discussed the matter of county citizens who live outside the city limits of Bronte to dump trash at the Bronte dumpgrounds. Action on the matter was tabled.

*Heard a report from County Judge D.W. Sims of his and Sheriff Marshall Millican's meeting with the Jails Standards Commission in Austin. Judge Sims reported they were told if required work was completed and the salary for an additional deputy sheriff who would also be qualified as a certified jailer was approved, the holding jail at Bronte probably would be allowed to continue to operate. No final approval will be made, however, until improvements now in progress have been made at the Bronte jail.

Judge Sims said the commissioners' court had a busy day Monday and the above-mentioned matters were thoroughly discussed.

50 Years Ago

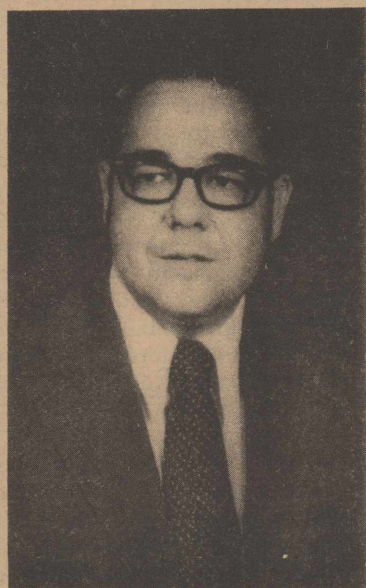

On last Friday, Lester Keenan brought 7 cultivators and 3 hoe hands to the field of G.E. Gray and cleaned up 50 acres of cotton. It was much appreciated by Mr. Gray who has been bad sick for 8 days. Those who helped were Lester Keenan, W.D. Markham, Joe Allen, Mr. Hunter and sons, Henson and Weldon Fikes, John Hamilton, Ray Ledbetter and three Mexicans.

D.E. Gilbert has sold 5 new cars since he came here a month ago. The last sale was a 4 door to El Higgins, mail carrier.

Say, folks, Robert Lee Cemetery needs attention and some way of financing it to keep it looking like something. Some of these days somebody is going to throw a cigarette over that fence from the highway and have the whole graveyard on fire. Bronte over here's got a man hired to take care of theirs and looks real nice. When people drive by, what do you suppose they think? Why, durn, let's do something about it. There are graves up there, can't tell they are graves. Some looked all around up there for N.L. Halbert's grave the other day and he hasn't been dead long. -- Editor

Dogies whip Forsan Lads 28-0

The Robert Lee Junior High Dogies gave the junior high Buffaloes of Forsan a good licking when they came here for a game Thursday of last week. Final figures on the scoreboard gave Robert Lee a 28-0 victory.

The first touchdown came on a 10 yard pass play from Kevin Johnson to Dale Hodnett. Two extra points were made by Hodnett.

The second counter was made by Johnson who went in from 10 yards and then ran the PAT, to make the score 16-0.

Jim Bob Jacobs made the third

The Robert Lee Steers will complete their 1981 football season Friday night when the Water Valley Wildcats come here for a district game. The Steers will be looking for a win on which to wind up their schedule.

Coach Jerold Epperson said the Wildcats have had a rough season and "they're hungry for a win." He pointed out that the Water Valley team has shown great improvement through the season and "we're going to get with it."

He added, "If we don't come out and play better ball than we have in some games this season, we could wind up on the short end of the score."

However, the Steers are hungry for a victory, too, after their loss last week to Sterling City. They are expected to come out fighting in season finisher.

DISTRICT 3-A STANDINGS

This Week's Games: Water Valley at Robert Lee; Loraine at Roscoe; Roby at Sterling City.

Apparently Roscoe is in the driver's seat for the district title, but a upset by Sterling City could change the whole picture.

Miss Gregston Found Dead Wednesday

Wanda Ganell Gregston, about 30 years old, was found dead in a bath tub full of water at her home in Robert Lee Wednesday morning. She was found by her mother who had been to Bronte, and returned home about 11 a.m.

The Robert Lee ambulance was called and Gene Hinnard, who answered the call, picked up Dr. Zae Zeon, and they went to the Gregston home where Dr. Zeon pronounced Miss Gregston dead.

The doctor was reported to have theorized that she possibly had a heart attack, became unconscious and drowned. Sheriff Marshall Millican said the victim died from natural causes and there was no evidence of foul play.

Miss Gregston lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gregston. Her father was working in the yard at the home when the incident occurred.

At press time Wednesday, funeral arrangements were pending at Shaffer Funeral Home.

Save for the silver lining.

There's an old song that advises you to look for the silver lining. Certainly a good piece of advice. But here's some better advice! Save for the silver lining.

Save enough to line those dark clouds. It's easy. Buy U.S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. On the Plan, you set aside a little each payday for Bonds. And that'll chase some gloom away, right off.

But if dark skies should appear, remember, Bonds can help you find the sunny side of life.

Take stock in America.

When you put part of your savings into U.S. Savings Bonds you're helping to build a brighter future for your country and for yourself.

Vacant House Burns Sunday

A small frame house was completely destroyed by fire early Sunday night. The house was located in the Bayview Estates, just off Highway 158, about 4½ miles west of Robert Lee.

Robert Lee firemen responded to the alarm about 7 p.m. but the building had collapsed before they arrived. The fire was reported by Mrs. Lillian Counts who lives nearby. She said the fire was seen by relatives as they were leaving her home.

Fire Chief J.C. Wallace Jr. reported that the house is believed to be owned by Buster Matheny of San Angelo, but was unoccupied. "No damage estimate was available and cause of the fire is unknown," Wallace said.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Schooley Sr. were their children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Simon and family of Wautauga and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schooley and Bradley of Burleson. The H.C. Schooleys returned their visit last weekend and also visited Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Allen and family at Burleson.

Checking with the Brucellosis Committee, calf vaccinations for the first three quarters of fiscal year 1981 totaled 5,705,976 compared with 4,692,444 during the same period last year, an increase of 21.6 percent. Most states vaccinated more calves this year, with ten vaccinating fewer.

The largest increase was in Puerto Rico, where 937 percent more calves were vaccinated so far this year. Most of the high incidence states increased calf vaccinations.

Missouri increased numbers vaccinated by 365 percent with 259,354 calves vaccinated. Alabama increased vaccinations by 77 percent and West Virginia, Florida and Texas all vaccinated more than 50 percent more calves.

As far as Texas is concerned, vaccination of heifer calves has continued to climb. The annual projection for 1981 is 53.2 percent compared to 24.6 percent for 1980. This is due to the acceptance and approval of the reduced dose of Strain 19. Another plus is that they can now recommend vaccination up to 12 months of age in non-infected herds.

The cooperation program in Texas is providing free vaccine and the state of Texas pays veterinarians-- about 748 of them -- if they are certified to vaccinate.

As of May 1, there are 134 counties in Class A (the western half of the state) and 105 counties in Class B (the eastern half). There are 54 counties in the western half with no known infection. Some have been clean for 2 or 3 years.

In addition to the standard tests, the central Texas lab will begin evaluating an automated ELISA test system in conjunction with Texas A&M University.

SURFACE MINE RECLAMATION

While thoughts of strip mining conjure up visions of desolate moonscapes, proper mining and reclamation methods can dispel those visions, says an agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Reclamation involves various leveling, soil preparation and seeding operations, and research is currently under way to refine these operations for reforestation. About a million acres of Texas land are suitable for surface mining and have already been extensively leased. Most of these lie within the coastal plains and include woodlands, grazing land and some cropland.

ENVIRONMENT HAS BIG IMPACT ON FAMILIES

Environment has such a major impact on families that it actually affects family behavior, says a family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Environment literally sets the states for how children and families live, grow and change. It forms the larger world of each child and adult-- confronting them with pervasive forces and pressures that individual families have no control over, including various socio-economic, physical and manmade elements. Meeting these various environmental challenges depends on coping skills--of families as groups and an individuals.

Texas A&M has been conducting research on the ELISA test and it has exhibited the capability of early detection of infected animals in non-vaccinated cattle.

Fifteen livestock producer committees have been named by commissioners of the Texas Animal Health Commission to assist in implementation of the accelerated program. Each committee has 12 members and represents one of the 15 areas of the TAHC.

This action is considered a major step forward by John Armstrong, chairman of TAHC. All the committee members are actively engaged in some form of livestock production.

The USDA has produced several new radio promotional spots with Tennessee Ernie Ford. These are similar to the Grandpa Jones tapes used in the past. They are being distributed to all stations in 12 southern states and to farm networks in the rest of the country, a total of about 3,500 stations.

Ford encourages cattlemen to vaccinate, test, quarantine and take as many precautions as necessary to insure that they don't get brucellosis in their herds.

4-H AIMED AT EDUCATION

4-H, the youth development program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, is aimed at educating young people. 4-H can help youth between the ages of 9 and 19 develop intelligent behavior by providing them information or knowledge, a positive self-concept and an awareness of their social setting, says a 4-H and youth specialist with the Extension Service. Through individual projects, group activities and adult volunteer leadership, the 4-H program attempts to help boys and girls acquire skills that will lead to self-directed and lifelong learning.

COTTON SET-ASIDE

With a lot of cotton and low prices this year, the government may create a cotton set-aside program--a program in which farmers would be paid not to grow cotton on a certain amount of land. Such a program would be optional, of course. Based on past experiences, a 15 percent set-aside would result in only a 3 to 5 percent decrease in production, points out an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. This reduced production would roughly increase cotton prices by 5 percent.

STOCKER CALVES NO AUTOMATIC PROFIT

High costs relative to livestock prices offer a dim outlook for owning and grazing stocker calves this fall and winter, believes an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Rather than the usual practice of grazing stockers until May or June, stockmen might consider removing calves early enough to harvest a grain or forage crop, grazing calves until late winter and then shipping them, shifting calves from wheat to other small grains, and spreading the price risk with multiple purchases or marketings of calves.

Green Thumb Workers Meet

Green Thumb workers from seven counties met Tuesday at the Eden Multi-Purpose Center to learn some "tricks of the trade" when it comes to finding permanent jobs in their home communities.

The workers participated in a "Job Hunt" session to teach them how to re-assess their job interests and to promote themselves to local employers.

The nearly 50 Green Thumbs who attended the session are now working under the sponsorship of non-profit community organizations such as schools, senior centers, libraries, museums, community centers, colleges and housing programs.

The Green Thumb program stresses the needed rural community services when it places a worker with a sponsor. A primary goal of the program is to assist workers in finding permanent non-Green Thumb employment to meet their individual needs.

Green Thumb, an equal opportunity employer, is the oldest federal senior citizen employment and placement program in the nation. Sponsored by National Farmers Union, Green Thumb has been active in Texas since 1970 and now has workers in 107 counties.

Local workers and sponsors attending the training session were Margaret Martin, Geneva Minnick and Lois Wallace, all of Bronte.

WATER VITAL TO RANCHING

Plenty of good quality water well-distributed over a ranch is essential for balanced forage and livestock production, says a range specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Watering facilities contribute to daily grazing behavior of livestock and influence grazing distribution. Water for livestock comes from three main sources--rain water, surface water and underground water. Developing these sources include drilling a well, constructing a tank or reservoir, or piping water. Cattle should travel no more than two miles round-trip for water--less with rough or brushy terrain. Provide one watering facility for every 50-60 head of livestock in a continuously grazed pasture.

WOOL OUTPUT UP

Wool output this year is estimated at 104 million pounds, up three million pounds over 1978, the latest year reported, says Ann Vanderpoorten, a clothing specialist. Part of the increase is credited to people's need for warmer clothes since they've turned their thermostats down, she explains.

Move Made To Revive Museum

In a move to re-open and establish the Coke Count Museum on a going organizational basis, a well attended meeting of the Coke County Historical Commission, voted at their regular monthly meeting last Tuesday, Oct. 27, to establish an executive committee with that in view.

The committee is to consist of seven members, three of whom are to be the officers of the commission and four to be chosen from the citizenry outside of the commission. The commission will sponsor the museum, working through this executive committee, until such a time as a museum association can be formed to take over its administration.

The ultimate aim is to create an association along lines similar to that of the Coke County Pageant Association, to operate independently of the commission as soon as possible.

The chairman, Ulmer Bird, pointed out that the State Historical Commission advises anyone seeking to establish a county museum be sure ahead of time that there is sufficient interest to warrant the undertaking.

The actual sponsoring of the jail house project by the commission will be determined by whether or not there is that kind of interest, which will make it possible to accomplish this -- interest among the citizenry generally, Bird said.

There is not at present any financial campaign, but some definite steps need to be taken by this proposed joint executive committee.

The old jail has for some years been designated to the Coke County Historical Commission by the county court, and it is in the hands of the commission for that use.

The County Historical Commission members were enthusiastic in the move to activate the museum, and it has priority for now, in the program and the efforts of the commission, Bird said.

It was brought out in the discussions in the commission meetings that people from outside the county are constantly coming through wanting to see the museum. Members of the commission feel there is a definite need for a place to portray the colorful history of Coke County for everyone to see.

Steers Drop 3-A Game To Sterling City, 14-0

By Stan Ray

The Robert Lee Steeres had another tough game Friday night at Sterling City when the Eagles beat down the Steers and took a 14-0 victory. In winning the game the Eagles from Sterling removed the Steers from any hope of winning the district 3-A pennant and advancing to further glory on the 1981 gridiron.

The Eagles had a total of 271 yards against the Steers. Jim Skinner led the Steers with 40 yards of his own to make up a big part of the 72 yards the Steers managed to make during the night of trying hard.

The Eagles came out swinging hard and scored 6 right off the bat, but the PAT was not good. They scored a second time during their next possession and the PAT was good, so the score was 14-0 from that point on.

The Steers held them throughout the rest of the game, but the tough Eagle defense kept the Steers from scoring, also.

It was a very defensive game from the second quarter on. With most of the second quarter ticked away, Long intercepted an Eagle pass at the 11 where Skinner ran it out to about the 40. Before the Steers could finish the drive, the half ended.

The two teams fought neck and neck during the second half, but it looked as though the Steers were going to get a break when Abalos recovered an Eagle fumble on their 31 yard line. Due to a fumble on the Eagle 27 yard line, however, the Steers could not capitalize on the opportunity. The game continued at see-saw style, as the Steers were never able to score, and ended: Eagles 14, Steers 0.

The Steers now have a 4-4-1 record for the season and a 3-2 district record.

HUNTS IN COLORADO

"Geep" McBride of Matapeake Ranch returned last week from a three-week hunting trip to Colorado. Hunting on the ranch of a family friend, he reported it snowed several times while he was there. He came home with a 10 point elk after several hard hunting trips. Large game was scarce and the bull was killed on the last day.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Watson were called out of town because of the death last week of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Leeta Dallison of El Reno, Okla. Mrs. Dallison died Monday night after a long illness and was buried last Friday in Crescent, Okla. The Watsons returned home on Saturday night.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Skinner this week are her sister, Mrs. Shirley Winger, and son, Larry Jr. of Gonzales. Mrs. Winger's husband, Larry, is on a hunting trip to Colorado with a group of friends from Sonora. He called her to say he had killed a three-point buck mule deer which field dressed 262 lbs.

Phillips, Friend Save Woman

Everybody wonders at some time or other how their children will react in the "outside" world when they grow up. Were they listening to anything they were taught? These questions were answered in one case recently as Bobby Phillips, a 1981 RLHS graduate, was involved in an incident in San Angelo.

On a recent Sunday afternoon, Bobby Phillips and a friend, Douglas Washington, were leaving nearby tennis courts, after several games, in the vicinity of Shannon Hospital. They observed a group of people gathered around a woman on the ground. The 62-year-old woman was apparently suffering breathing difficulties and a heart attack. No action had been taken by those present, so the boys immediately began to administer CPR and called for an ambulance. They continued the emergency technique until it arrived. The ambulance attendant credited them with saving the woman's life.

Washington is a nurse's aid, employed by a San Angelo hospital and CPR as part of his training.

Phillips had been in scouting for many years under Scoutmaster Gene Hinnard. The scouts have been instructed many times by Hinnard and Red Cross Instructor Sam Williams.

He is the son of J. Weldon Phillips and the grandson of Mrs. Effie Phillips, both of Robert Lee.

Recently spending several days with her daughters and husbands were Mr. and Mrs. Dave King. They visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Wilkerson of Irving and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas of Arlington. On Saturday night, they attended the wedding of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robertson
