CATTLE.

Liberal Showing of Beef Steers—Trade Opened About Steady.

There was a slightly increased run of cattle at this point today compared with a week ago, but at the five points the aggregate for two days is about the same as last week and not larger than should warrant a good healthy market.

Local receipts, included a liberal proportion of beef steers, mostly of the everyday qualities and weights that have been selling in a range of $4.85 to $5.15, although several bunches of higher priced qualities were offered. Buyers were out in pretty good season and moving around as though they had a place for the offerings. However, with other markets reported as opening only steady, the local market opposed any advance in prices and bought the supply largely on a steady basis.

Offerings carried several lots of fat cow weights and fairly well finished heaves that sold readily on a basis of $5.00 to $5.25, these including the style and finish that are wanted for the high class dressed beef trade as well as the eastern demand for beef on the hoof. Bulk of steers were of the grades that sell from $4.75 to around $5.10 and they too found ready sale, light and lower priced steers selling noticeably lower than fat steers, this causing buyers to favor the steers.

Demand was strong enough to absorb the offerings in good season.

COWS, BULLS AND MIXED.

The supply of cows and heifers on offer today was the largest in some time. Demand, however, was strong and the market opened early and continued active until supplies were exhausted. Prices were generally steady all along the line. But a small proportion of the offerings was in the good to choice class, receipts running largely to the medium to fair qualities. A strong demand prevailed for desirable light weight heifers and mixed lots, both shippers and packers being active after this class of stock. A load of yearling steers and heifers on choice order, weighing 438 lbs. sold at $4.50 @ 4.85. Not many straight heifers landed above $4.50 and there was nothing to compare with yesterday's $4.75 styles on offer. No full loads of good to choice cows were at hand and sales were chiefly under $4.00.

Demand for bulls was good and the trade for this class of stock ruled active at steady prices.

Calves were in liberal supply and the feeling in the market was weak. Sales were slowly made and prices ruled steady to 25c lower.

HOGS.

Big Increase in Local Receipts, Sharp Slump in Prices.

The bull prophet in the hog trade got a jar in the solar plexus today when the country suddenly demonstrated that it is always possible to get up a big run when it is least looked for. Local receipts were larger than for Monday and Tuesday combined last week, while at five points the run of 83,000 was 25,000 larger than for last week. The five point total for two days is 172,000 and shows an increase of 19,000 over same period last week.

With the big run in sight and all outside markets reported as opening lower, the local trade started out bidding 10 to 15 cents under prices of Monday, but were not able to make much headway on this basis, as sellers were not willing to accept so heavy a decline. It was well along in the day before trade got to going in any considerable volume and the final market basis was at around a 10 cent decline on bulk of hogs offered.

Quality was not quite as good as Monday and there was a somewhat wider range in prices.

Prices ranged from $4.17 1/2 @ 4.45, with the bulk selling at $4.25 @ 4.35. The bulk yesterday sold at $4.35 @ 4.47 1/2, a week ago at $4.15 @ 4.35, a month ago at $4.25 @ 4.40, a year ago at $5.80 @ 6.50, two years ago at $4.90 @ 6.30, three years ago at $4.90 @ 5.05, four years ago at $5.30 @ 5.50.

STOCKERS AND FEEDERS.

There was a fair showing of stocker and feeder grades in today's cattle arrivals. And yet there is no material improvement in the country demand and supplies continue to pile up in the stocker division. Despite this fact, however, there was pretty fair call from regular dealers for stockers and feeders where good quality was involved and most of the useful styles found outlet at steady prices. Feeders sold in a range of $4.40 @ 4.60 and a good class of stockers went $4.30 @ 4.75. In the cheaper priced offerings of trade ruled drab and tendency of prices was toward a weaker level. Little country demand was in evidence yesterday and few lookers were around this morning. Speculators have a liberal assortment of stock cattle on hand, the supply containing everything from stock calves to weighty yearlings. Quality is generally good and there is a big contingent of popular weight, desirable Colorado feeders included in present holdings.

Stock heifers are still in strong request and buyers complain of the scarcity. A range of $3.00 @ 3.85 took most of the desirable grades.

SKIPS AND CULLS.

TIDE FLOATS BY.

It is noticed that the spring tide of immigration from the efete and worn-out east to the only partially developed west has begun. It is also noted that Missouri is not getting much of that immigration. Why? Well, it is principally because Missouri has been relying on natural resources to attract immigration and development. She is the best in the west today, she is long on natural resources, longer than any state west of the Allegheny mountains, but she needs wind jammers to play up her resources. She needs to get away from the fear that somebody might come into the state and make a few dollars. It is impossible for John Smith to make a million without giving Bill Jones a chance to do a little swelling up and developing unless the said Jones is a "dead one."

BIG RECEIPTS OF HOGS.

Arrivals of hogs at the South St. Joseph market for January and February were easily the largest for any two similar months in the history of this trade. The total reached above the half million mark and they have all been taken care of without any stagnation or over-crowding of the market. Prices have not been to the extent of the better classes especially. Yesterday Mr. Riley Lake of Lake City, Kan., one of the largest feeders and ranchmen in southern Kansas, had in two loads of spayed heifers, which sold at the top of the market, $4.75, averaging 1,047 lbs. These heifers had been fed on kaffir corn and cotton seed meal. They were of the "Bell" brand from the famous Bell ranch in New Mexico. At the beginning of the season Mr. Lake had 800 of these heifers on feed, about 200 of which he has already marketed. He recently placed an order with the Bell outfit for another big string of heifers, which he will grade and feed during the summer and fall. Yesterday's shipment was the first of Mr. Lake's heifers to be marketed here this season, heretofore his consignments stopping "sixty miles down the river," and it is worthy of note that the price obtained on this market was the highest yet realized by Mr. Lake for his heifers.

SATURDAY'S BUSINESS

CATTLE.

Small Saturday Run Mostly Direct—Trade in Fair Tone.

There have not been cattle enough at leading markets during the past two days to affect market conditions and trade at the close stands about the same as on Thursday.

The aggregate at five markets was 465,100, against 499,200 last week, 472,400 a month ago, 349,000 a year ago, 561,500 two years ago, 342,800 three years ago and 290,700 four years ago.

Prices ranged from $4.25@4.55, with the bulk selling at $4.35@4.50. The bulk yesterday sold at $4.20@4.45, a week ago at $4.00@4.10, a month ago at $3.25@4.35, a year ago at $5.85@6.15, three years ago at $4.90@4.95, four years ago at $3.10@3.25.

Receipts for the week at the five points for the week at $4.90@4.95, four years ago at $3.10@3.25. The quality of the week compared with last week. There has been a good active demand right along for steers of attractive and useful merit and weighing under 1,250 pounds.

The receipts for the week have not been any too large, but it is hardly time of year yet for a general and reliable improvement in the market.

There have not been many really choice cattle of strong weight here during the week, although on Wednesday one load of prime 1,425 lb. heifers arrived and sold at $5.75, the highest price of the week at any of the river markets.

Trading in cows and heifers today was of too small volume to constitute a market feature, but quotable prices were unchanged at recent quotations.

Activity, rather than any radical advance in values, has been the conspicuous feature of the trade in cows and heifers this week.

There has not been any material change in market for bulls this week and prices are quotable steady to strong with demand heavy.

Another consignment of Colorado feeders direct to local dealers got in this morning, but trade out of first hands was of a nominal character.

There has been a rather quiet week in the stock cattle trade with very little attendance to the market.

Receipts have not been heavy and a good share of arrivals were direct to dealers from Colorado.

Stock heifers are in strong request at present and with prices 10@15c higher than a week ago, arrivals have been insufficient to meet the demand.

Best grades sell in a range of $3.00@3.35.

A steady basis compared with yesterday. The day's market as a whole was quotable as steady to 5 cents higher, closing with the strength lost.

Hogs were fairly good in quality, although carrying long light tops in mixed droves and the discrimination of buyers against light weights is more marked than heretofore this season.

Total receipts for the week at the five points for the week at $4.90@4.95, four years ago at $3.10@3.25.

week and, while this abstemious period is not the bug-bear in trade that it was formerly, the first few days of the season generally find the market nervous with a downward tendency in prices.

While receipts of hogs at this point show a small increase over last Monday, the total at five leading points was 76,000 and shows a decrease of 12,000 compared with a week ago.

Prices ranged from $4.25@4.55, with the bulk selling at $4.35@4.50. The bulk yesterday sold at $4.20@4.45, a week ago at $4.00@4.10, a month ago at $3.25@4.35, a year ago at $5.85@6.15, three years ago at $4.90@4.95, four years ago at $3.10@3.25.

DEFENDS WILFLEY

Judge of the United States Court of Shanghai, China, Strongly Commended by President.

CHARGES WERE NOT PROVEN

Conditions Were Disgraceful When He Took Charge—Has Stamped Out Vice and Crime—Why He Was Sent.

Washington, Mar. 3.—President Roosevelt's defense of Lebeus R. Wilfley, based on an analytical review by Secretary Root, of the charges against him, was made public Monday.

After disposing of each of the seven charges by showing that neither of them is the proper basis of criticism against Judge Wilfley, Secretary Root reviews conditions in the foreign quarter of Shanghai, showing that because of the heretofore lax American administration of justice there affairs had grown disgraceful.

"The circumstances thus present exhibit a motive for the attempt to drive Judge Wilfley from his position. They present a strong probability of misjudgment, legislation and distortion of facts on the part of the lawyers who have personally suffered from the changed conditions. They make it clear that upon no trifling grounds should our government incur the public infortune which would be involved in putting the stamp of disapproval on the work for decency and righteousness that the United States court for China has done."

"My opinion is that Judge Wilfley is entitled, not to commendation but to commendation and high credit for his conduct in office and that the charges against him should be dismissed."

President Roosevelt's vindication is contained in a letter to Secretary Root. He first comments that it appears that Congressman Wade of New York stands sponsor for the charges. "I cordially concur in your findings," he continues, "which is to the effect that Judge Wilfley is not only innocent but is attacked solely because of the fearlessness and integrity with which he has stamped out vice and crime in Shanghai."

It is clear that Judge Wilfley has been attacked not because he has done evil but because he has done good. The assault on him is simply an impeachment of decency and zeal for the public good, and if successful would tend to cow and discourage every honest public servant who dares to withstand the forces banded together for evil and would do grave damage to the honor and interest of our country in the Orient. If the attack were to succeed, the beneficiaries would be every keeper of a house of prostitution, every swindling lawyer, every man who lives by blackmail and corruption in the cities of the far east. These are the people whose hopes have been revived by the effort to overthrow this upright and fearless judge who has already done so much for the good name of America in China. It is not too much to say that this assault on Judge Wilfley in the interest of the vicious and criminal classes is a public scandal."

Not An Anarchist He Says. Denver, Col., Mar. 3.—District Attorney George A. Strider said Monday that he has used every means to secure from Giuseppe Alo, a confession of the connection of others in the assassination of Father Leo Heinrich. The prisoner, however, stands firm in his assertions that he is not an anarchist and is not a member of any society, and that no one was connected with him in the killing of Father Leo.

Contesting Delegations. St. Louis, Mo., Mar. 3.—Rival Republican conventions, under police guard, were held Monday in the Tenth Congressional district for the election of delegates to the Chicago convention. Each convention elected two delegates and two alternates. The Chicago convention, through its credentials committee, will have to decide which delegation to accept.

To Protect English Trade Marks. London, Mar. 3.—The negotiations between Great Britain and Japan, looking to an agreement for the protection of British trade marks in the Far East, are about concluded. This understanding is an outcome of the continued complaints of British merchants that Japanese firms were using their trade marks.

Harriman Wins Again. Chicago, Mar. 3.—Judge Ball Monday morning denied the petition of H. W. Leman for an injunction restraining the voting of 281,231 shares of stock held by the Union Pacific railroad and the Railroad Securities company at the annual meeting of the Illinois Central Monday.

Homesteads May Be 320 Acres. Washington, Mar. 3.—The senate Monday passed a bill authorizing the entry under the homestead laws of 320 acres of land instead of 160 as at present when the land is arid and incapable of irrigation.

JAP EMIGRATION STOPS

The Authorities There Show Determination to Suppress It.

They Believe Japanese Prestige Will Best Be Served by Keeping Undesirable Class at Home.

Tokyo, Mar. 3.—Information reaching Tokyo in a roundabout way from India indicates that the steamship and emigration companies are now turning their attention to India, emigration from Japan having been cut off by Japan's voluntary action. It is stated that a very large number of laborers from India are taking passage from Hong Kong to Vancouver. A first installment of these is said to be going by the steamship Mont Eagle.

So far as the Japanese authorities are concerned, every day there is additional evidence of the determined attitude of the government. Emigration to Hawaii, Canada, America and Mexico has actually stopped pending the final conclusion of the negotiation with the United States under which certain classes will be allowed entrance to American ports. The delicate question of Japanese prestige has been comfortably settled by the reiteration from high quarters and from leading men who have influence in Japan that injury to the prestige of the country comes in much greater degree from permitting the emigration of an undesirable class of coolies who misrepresent the nation abroad, than from any emigration or immigration restrictions placed by America or Japan itself.

BIG HAUL IN MEXICO.

The Banco De Minerio de Chihuahua Robbed of $295,000 in Notes of Large Denominations.

El Paso, Tex., Mar. 3.—A telegram received from Chihuahua, Mexico, late Monday afternoon says that the Banco De Minerio owned by Ambassador Creel, has been robbed of $295,000 in Mexican money. The bank notes taken are in denominations of $1,000, $100, $50 and $20.

A telegram from Gov. Creel of Chihuahua was received by Chief Ponce of Puares Monday afternoon, stating that a liberal reward had been offered for the capture of the bank robbers, and asked that the United States immigration authorities be requested to keep a lookout for suspicious characters and for bills of the denominations missing. The immigration authorities here have issued instructions to their border riders and to the officials at the stations along the line to keep a lookout for the missing bills.

Cannot Restrain Legislative Action. Detroit, Mich., Mar. 3.—Judge Swan, in the United States circuit court Monday announced that he will dissolve the injunction obtained by the Guarantee Trust company of New York, in 1907, restraining the common council of the city of Detroit from passing the Hally ordinance, under which the Detroit United railway would be compelled after any of its existing franchises expire to sell strips of five tickets for 15 cents. Judge Swan stated that it is not competent for United States courts to restrain legislative action, but intimated that in his opinion the proposed franchise would not be valid after it had passed the council.

The Erie Reduced Wages. Cornell, N. Y., Mar. 3.—A general reduction in the wages for engine and train crews on the Erie railroad was announced Monday. The cut will affect engineers, firemen, trainmen, clerks, shopmen and station agents. In most instances the cut is 10 per cent. The engineers cut will be effective March 22 and on the others at once. A meeting of the wage committee of all brotherhoods has been called for March 26 in New York.

Drilled Dynamite and Disappeared. Spokane, Wash., Mar. 3.—Two men were instantly killed by an explosion near Marcus, Wash., Monday morning. Two more are believed to be dead, another is fatally injured, while several are suffering from bruises. A wrecking crew were putting in a blast to clear the track and a stick of dynamite had been placed in one of the holes. An Italian began to tamp it with his drill. Not a piece of him had been found at last reports.

Plague Spreads in Ecuador. Guayaquil, Ecuador, Mar. 3.—Although the existence of the bubonic plague here has not yet been officially announced, the disease continues to spread on all sides of the city. There have been 27 cases and 12 deaths since the first appearance of the plague in this neighborhood. A special advisory board for its suppression has been organized. Many families are leaving the city.

The Consular Bill Passed. Washington, Mar. 3.—A bill to reorganize the consular service of the United States passed the senate Monday. Mr. Lodge stated that the net result of the measure is to save about $1,000 to close 28 consulates and to create 17 new ones. No consuls will be dropped as a result of this legislation which will take effect July 1, 1908.

Labor Conditions in the South. Washington, Mar. 3.—An investigation by the immigration committee of labor conditions in the turpentine camps, plantations and other industries of the south, especially the existence of peonage is provided for in a resolution passed up by the house Monday under suspension of the rules.

STARTED THE ROW

Commander Sims, Naval Aide to the President, Responsible for Criticism of Battleships.

COMMITTEE CUT HIM SHORT

He Wanted to Tell His Story in His Own Way But Was Not Permitted—Admiral Capps Tries to Cross Examine.

Washington, Mar. 3.—Commander William H. Sims, naval aide to President Roosevelt, by his own statement is responsible for the "row" over criticism of battleship construction. At the outset of his testimony before the senate committee on naval affairs Monday he gave the committee to understand it could expect some sensations. This was done in a preliminary statement outlining what he had to do with naval criticisms, which he said, began back of 1895 and was confined to official channels. "Much of my service has dealt with these criticisms," he said, and continued: "I began when I was 36 years old and now I am nearly fifty. I put this in because I am persistently called a young man. I am older than Admiral Capps, who has referred to me as a 'young man.'"

Continuing, he said he would have to go into unpleasant facts, such as charging officers or inventors with having made misleading statements, the secretion of official documents, and the refusal of superior officers to accept suggestions of value.

The plan of Commander Sims to give the committee a sensation was upset immediately by Senator Tillman who suggested that the witness be instructed to confine his testimony to alleged faulty construction and to say nothing at this time of criticisms made of personnel, or incomplete organization, or other matters which are to be taken up later. The commander asked that he be permitted to continue his statement without interruption and that the senators would not cross-examine him until he had concluded his statement in his own way. His request was ignored.

When confined to criticisms of construction Commander Sims protested that the procedure of the committee "upset him."

"You would upset the committee if you went into all of those things at this time," said Senator Tillman.

Chairman Hale said the witness was not to say anything now about "resistance of criticism by naval officers," as that was a matter of ethics. "Don't you care to know if the department has resisted criticism?" asked the commander.

"Not from you," was the reply. This incident furnished an illustration of subsequent proceedings during Commander Sims' testimony. He got away from the line of inquiry again and again and members of the committee called him back sharply.

"The armor belt on all our battleships is too low," Commander Sims stated broadly. He charged that the statements made by Rear Admirals Converse and Capps were misleading.

"If an admiral got out of port without full bunkers—say on a cruise to the Pacific—and should meet an enemy—say in the West Indies—he would be court-martialed," said the commander.

"There might be a heavy sea running and the fleet not be able to use their guns for a week. Then the ships would need fuel bunkers." He said that the logs of the ships of the battleship fleet should be secured and these would show the water line of all the ships.

"That's for us to get, not for you to state," said Chairman Hale.

Commander Sims said that the French allow for extra and anticipated weights, and that the Germans in designing ships figure on a normal line with full bunkers. He said that when the American fleet arrived at Rio de Janeiro, the water lines of the Connecticut class were fully a foot and a half below normal.

At the conclusion of the criticism of the water lines, which were made in the most general terms, Admiral Capps was given permission to cross examine the witness. The admiral did this chiefly by raising direct issue with the witness. He denied that the German constructors figure on full bunkers in locating the water line; that the logs of a ship are accurate to use their guns for a week. Then the ships would need fuel bunkers. He said that the logs of the ships of the battleship fleet should be secured and these would show the water line of all the ships.

"That's for us to get, not for you to state," said Chairman Hale.

St. Joseph, Mo. Topeka, Kan. Wichita, Kan. Grand Island, Neb. TALLOW, FURS, PELTS, WOOL, HIDES. We still leave our prices unchanged. We don't know whether hides are lower than last week or not, as there are no sales being made on which to base value. We will likely let our traveling buyers go out soon and try their luck at about 1-2c below consignment prices quoted below. If you want the best that is going, ship to us. You will generally find us skirmishing around near the top, when we know where that is. The fur market is strong and active, but, as the springy skins will be coming in almost from now on we may expect lower prices any time. We guarantee below prices for the week ending Saturday, March 7.
