CATTLE

Steer Trade Less Active—Best Sell Strong, Others About Steady.

Fat steer trade this morning was lacking in the snap and vim that characterized the market on previous days of the week but aside from a little slowness in some classes the trade was in fairly satisfactory condition with a good outlet for supplies on hand. Receipts were larger than on former days this week and slightly heavier than for corresponding day last week and also a year ago. Supplies at the five leading centers are running quite a little ahead of last week, combined receipts of 92,260 head, 20,000 larger than for the first three days of last week, although for the same period local arrivals are a few hundred lighter. General receipts of around 2300 cattle today turned up a bigger proportion of fat steers than usual, only a small showing of cow and stocker stuff noted. With the comparatively generous supply of steers on offer buyers did not display as keen an appetite at the start this morning as in previous weeks. First action was on heavy weight steers, an order in the trade for this class was the usual good demand for anything of this class on steers of above a medium size was considered to be strong and possibly a shade over in some instances. Below this level, however, with the exception of attractive kinds of heavy weight steers, trading was not overly active until mid-session, although prices realized on the bulk were steady with yesterday.

Good thick steers sold up to $6.75, with a fair quota of very useful beeves going at $6.40 to $7.00, but majority of the offerings consisted of the shorter grades suitable to sell at $5.75 to $6.40.

Quality of the day's steer crop, taken as a whole, was better than for some time. Eastern orders absorbed quite a few useful kinds of beeves in a range of $5.25 to $6.00 and a pretty thorough clearance of the yards had been made before the noon hour.

TO BEAT THE ICE MAN.

It is a good time right now to begin to give some thought to the subject of how to beat the ice man when the weather gets hot next summer.

NO CHEAP MEATS.

Any way you can look the situation in the face, there does not seem to be much chance for the consumer to materially reduce his meat bills during the next few months except by the painful process of curtailment of his meat rations.

QUESTION OF TODAY.

Question of today in Missouri history. Will future generations of "show me's" have occasion to remember the famous legislature of 1911?

NEW FORM OF PERMIT.

A new form of water power permit and new regulations for water power plants on the National Forests has been approved by the secretary of agriculture.

Approval of State Authorities.

The matter is distributed with the cordial approval of the state authorities, if any, in states not having any registration of deaths, or having incomplete registration, as well as in those states of the registration area from which transcripts are received by the bureau of the census and compiled for the annual bulletin and annual report on mortality statistics.

New Zealand has been called by its inhabitants "The Fortunate Isles," "The Star of the South," and "The Wonderland of the Pacific."

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

Census Bureau Issues Physicians' Reference to Causes of Death.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 4.—In furtherance of its advocacy of the extension of the registration of deaths and births throughout the United States, the census bureau is issuing to the health officers and medical students of the country a physician's pocket reference to the International List of Causes of Death.

Sir: It seems to me that there is almost nothing more important in the entire field of statistics than vital statistics, because of their direct bearing upon the health and consequent welfare of the people.

This leaflet is designed for distribution to every physician in the United States as a part of the continuous effort of this bureau, since its permanent organization, to remedy this defect. It has been prepared by Dr. Cressy L. Wilbur, chief statistician for vital statistics, with the advice and aid of the census commission appointed under Public No. 1, Sixty-first Congress, to represent the United States in the International Commission for the Revision of the Classification of Diseases and Causes of Death, which was called by the government of France at Paris in July, 1909.

The census commission was composed of Dr. Frank P. Foster, chairman of the committee on nomenclature of diseases of the American Medical Association; Dr. Wilmer R. Batt, state registrar of Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee on classification of causes of death of the American Public Health Association, and Dr. Wilbur, more especially representing this bureau.

Twenty countries participated in the work of revision, and other countries employ the classification, preferably known as the International List, or have adopted it for use in the immediate future.

Importance of Correct Statement.

These are followed by observations regarding the statement of occupation and other important data, in which it is noted that—

The physician's responsibility is usually confined to the correct statement of the cause of death, but he may in some instances fill out the entire certificate, or he may note errors in the statement of personal particulars, the correction of which will be of service to statistical accuracy, as well as insuring more truthful legal records.

Libson in Peppy's Times.

Peppy's Diary gives an unflattering picture of the Libson court in his day. On October 17, 1861, he talked with Captain Lambert, fresh from "Portugal," who told him it was a very poor, dirty place; I mean the city and court of Libson.

Witticism Hearers Appreciated.

Stimson Ford was discussing the ethics of speech-making. "It was a long and tedious speech, but I listened attentively. I like to have people listen to my speeches, you know, and turn about is fair play. Well, I'm glad I listened, because if I hadn't I'd have missed one of the best windups I ever heard."

Output of Alaska Gold.

Seattle, Wash.—More than $10,000,000 worth of gold has been received by the United States assay office here since the first of the year, according to a statement by the assayer.

TRAIN APPLE EATER

How Consumers' League Finds Numerous Recruits.

Members Go About Calling for Fruit and When Restaurants and Hotels Refuse Demand Lives Made Miserable.

New York.—A farmer living near Soranton, Pa., disposes of his surplus apples, windfalls, etc., by shipping them to town to be distributed to the children of the factory district.

This is a good way to dispose of cull apples. Every one of these children will become an apple eater and will never get over the habit.

"I hope there is nothing wrong with the food."

"Why, it isn't all here!"

"What is lacking?"

"Apple! Many of us were born in the country and brought up on apples. We like them and want to go where they are served. Why do you not offer baked apple and apple sauce? This is a first-class restaurant—why not make it complete?"

The manager looked around and saw a dozen heads nod with "That's right!"

"Well, gentlemen, I'll get them. Thank you for the suggestion."

The next day "Baked Apple and Cream" was written in red ink on the bill of fare.

Some amusing things have grown out of it. The Pennsylvania Horticultural society met at Gettysburg one year. This is the heart of the famous York imperial section, yet there was not even the smell of an apple about the hotel.

When the New York fruit growers met at Penn Yan there was served at dinner an apple pie "like mother used to make."

Concord, N. H.—Peculiar facts connected with the death of Miss Catherine J. Mober of Manchester, at the New Hampshire Insane asylum in this city have come to light.

Miss Mober became demented about four weeks ago and was sent here for treatment. She seemed to recover to an extent which placed her out of the violent or dangerous class.

The matter was reported to the head physician, who ordered an immediate operation. Anesthetics were applied, and when the stomach was opened nine teaspoons were found therein, four being partly enveloped with hair which had been wound about her head.

A good sized screw and a piece of wire five inches in length were also found in the stomach.

The authorities say that a mania to swallow silverware is not uncommon.

Miss Mober was thirty-five years old.

Makes Oyster Harmless.

Paris.—A fortnight in filtered water, according to French scientists, will cleanse live oysters of the most virulent typhoid germs and make them harmless without lessening their gastronomic qualities.

EUGENIE TO SELL PROPERTY

Former Empress to Convert Estates Into Cash to Save Prince Victor Napoleon Worry.

Paris.—Ex-Empress Eugenie, who is now in her eighty-fifth year, is selling all her property in the country over which she once held sway, in order that Prince Victor Napoleon, who was married the other day to Princess Clementine of Belgium, may have no difficulty in gaining possession of all that belongs to her after she passes away.

It is an open secret that she intends making her nephew, the imperial claimant to the throne of France, the principal heir to her great wealth, which has been estimated as high as $80,000,000.

Among the estates is that of the famous Solferino palace, in the south of France. That former imperial residence was to have gone under the hammer here recently, but the sale has been postponed, owing to a difference of opinion over the minimum sum which should be accepted.

The emperor does not want to part with the palace for less than $120,000, but that is considered excessive by her lawyers in view of the dilapidated condition of the chateau.

Solferino was built less than half a century ago to commemorate a celebrated French victory in the war of 1859.

Originally in a bleak part of the sparsely populated department of the Midi, a whole village has since sprung into being around its walls.

The emperor was hardly ever in residence there, and all its fittings and furniture were long ago taken away.

CHURCH RUNS A MILK ROUTE

Morningside Presbyterian Looks Out for Many Sick Babies of Poor—Unique Charity.

New York.—A church that runs a milk route, the only church that does so in New York, was dedicated the other day. It is the Morningside Presbyterian, at Morningside avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-second street, and the milk route is for sick babies of the very poor.

With the milk goes a trained nurse. She sees that the milk is modified and then she teaches mothers the best methods for infant treatment.

The nurse gives her services. When the work has started there was opposition. Some thought it undignified for a church to modify milk and then it give it away, or even to sell it. But dignity did not find favor with Morningside church authorities.

The late John S. Kennedy left to Presbyterians a large amount of money, and $20,000 of it went to the milk route charity. The old building was rebuilt and a parish house erected. In this parish house are two assembly halls, a stage with scenery, a roof garden and many other things useful to serve a neighborhood.

The pastor, the Rev. Allen W. McCurdy, said that if all of the useful appliances for services were not in the new building it was because nobody had been able to think to include them.

HORNETS CLEAN OUT STUDIO

Artist Hangs Up Nest Over Fireplace and Has Decidedly Interesting Time—Got Stung.

Winsted, Conn.—Robert Hamilton, landscape artist of New York, was routed from his studio in the Berkshire hills near Lee, Mass., the other night by hornets which had been brought to the place in cold storage by two women.

The nest, almost as large as a bushel basket, was found in the woods by the women. They cut off the limb to which the nest was fastened and brought the trophy to Hamilton, who placed the nest over his fireplace.

He was on his porch waiting for the hunter's moon to show over the eastern hills when he heard a roaring noise inside. Thinking the chimney was a fire he rushed in. The room was full of hornets, swirling in clouds. The warmth from the fireplace had awakened them. The artist pried open two windows and threw open a door to cool off the place. At midnight he ventured into the house, as the cold air had reduced the army to quiet.

At 3 o'clock the next morning Hamilton had cleaned house and buried a painful of hornets under the pines.

"Did you get stung?" was asked of Hamilton.

"I'm! In what way do you mean?" he spurred. "Oh, by the hornets? No; not by them."

Fat Policeman Quits.

Kansas City, Mo.—Herman Hartman, who weighs 305 pounds, quit the local police force the other day because he became too fat on his job.

"When I joined the force five years ago I weighed 260 pounds," said Hartman. "Regardless of my efforts to keep down to my normal weight I put on flesh. I am turning in my club and star and am going into the Ozarks, where I can train down."

One of Hartman's duties was to attend drill equal meetings. He quit just in time to miss one.

Castaways

By PHILLIP KEAN

There was no sign of a storm when, on that July morning, the two young people asked Captain Green to take them over to the island.

"I've got to tow some barges up the river tomorrow," the captain said, "but I ain't got nothin' on today."

The little tug boat plowed through water that was as smooth as a mirror. Captain Green, at the wheel, threw occasional remarks to his young passengers.

"There ain't much to see on the island," he observed, "but everybody seems to want to go there."

"It's the historical interest," Helen Brewster told him. "Somebody said that, in the early days of the colonies, a Spanish vessel sailed through the bay and up the river and buried treasure on this very island. And it's there yet."

The captain laughed. "I guess every inch of that island has been dug up and nobody ain't ever found any gold."

"Well, it's fun to see the place and dream of what we might do if we should find it."

of a tempest which drove the waves high and shook the little house. Suddenly Helen voiced a fear which had been in both their hearts.

"She was answered by the rattling of the door."

"He has come," Kirk said joyfully, and went to open it.

A little woman stood there, bent and old. She had a heavy basket on one arm, and a bundle under the other.

"Well, you made yourself to home," she said cordially. "It's an awful night."

"How did you get over?" they asked her.

"The captain brought me," she said, "and he told me to tell you all that you had better spend the night here. He was afraid he would have trouble getting back."

"So we are castaways," Kirk murmured.

QUEER OLD JAP RELIC

CARVING SAID TO BE ONE THOUSAND YEARS OLD.

Wondrous Scene Engraved on Piece of Sandalwood Depicts Combat at Sea—Confiscated by a British Soldier.

Nearly one thousand years ago a Jap, crafty with such knives and tools as existed at that time, carved a wondrous scene from a solid piece of sandalwood four feet long and a foot square.

A history, written in quaint Japanese characters, twined topey-tarry on a sheet of equally curious rice paper, goes with the carving.

Traditional history says the carving was done in the year 954. During the Boxer uprising, when the strong arm of Britain was needed to subjugate malcontents bent on destruction of life and property, the quaint old relic saved a human life.

The soldier confiscated the relic and carried it with him. Later he presented it to a commanding officer and the latter sent it to a friend in the American army at Manila.

GATES FOR PANAMA

Canal Will Require Ninety-Two of Them.

Giant Portals to Be as High as Six-Story House, 65 Feet Wide, 7 Feet Thick—The Cost Will Be $5,500,000.

Pittsburg—Boys dreaming of gates they will seize as Halloween trophies would not in the wildest nightmare imagine such enormous gates as are being made in Pittsburg for the Panama Canal.

Any one of the 92 of them—for there are to be 46 pairs in all—will be about as high as a six-story building, as wide (65 feet) as many city buildings, and 7 feet thick.

The structural steel that will go to make them will weigh 60,000 tons, or over eight times as much as was used to build the Eiffel Tower in Paris.

The mighty portals, designed to admit a world's commerce from one ocean to another, must withstand a tide of criticism as well as a tremendous pressure of water and possible convulsions of the earth.

The cost of the gates will be $5,000,000. Of the 80,000 tons of steel required the heaviest single piece will weigh about 15 tons.

The thickness of the plates will range from an inch at the base to seven-sixteenths of an inch at the top.

The thickness of the plates will range from an inch at the base to seven-sixteenths of an inch at the top.

The location of the 46 pairs of gates will be: Twenty at the Gatun dam on the Pacific side, 12 at Pedro Miguel and 14 at Miraflores, near the Atlantic entrance.

Engineers assert that even if a tremendous explosion or earthquake should damage or destroy one or more sets of gates, no great disaster would ensue, for all locks are to be made in duplicate to accommodate traffic in both directions at once, and the wreckage of one set of locks would only necessitate the diversion of commerce into another set.

Each lock will be ample for a ship 50 per cent. larger than any vessel now afloat, and it has been estimated that as many as 100 ocean ships may be handled in a single day.

Later those who took part in the hunt gave a dog show and exhibition of fancy riding for the entertainment of the residents of Barre and surrounding towns.

STATE TO INSURE ALL MEN

England's Contributory Scheme to Counteract Lack of Employment—Outline of Plan.

London.—As the British government has already announced that it has in hand a national scheme of insurance against unemployment it may be taken for granted that Sir Hubert Llewellyn Smith, who is chief of the permanent staff of the board of trade, indicated semi-officially the lines on which that scheme is based in the address which he delivered recently as president of the economic science section of the British association.

"First," he said, "the scheme must be compulsory, otherwise the bad personal risks against which we must always be on our guard would be certain to predominate; second, the scheme must be contributory, for only by exacting rigorously as a necessary qualification for benefit that a sufficient number of weeks' contribution shall have been paid by each recipient can we possibly hope to put limits on the exceptionally bad risks."

"Our analysis leads us step by step to the contemplation of a national contributory scheme of insurance, within the limits of a large group of trades—a group so far as possible self-contained and carefully selected as favorable for the experiment, the funds being derived from compulsory contributions from all those engaged in these trades, with a subsidy and guarantee from the state. The rules relating to benefit should be so devised as to discriminate effectively against unemployment which is mainly due to personal causes, while giving a substantial allowance to those whose unemployment results from industrial causes beyond the control of the individual."

Such a scheme Sir Hubert regards as actually possible, at least for such a group of trades as building, engineering and shipbuilding.

Consists of Transfusion of Blood of Healthy Individuals into Veins of Afflicted.

Chicago.—A cure for pellagra is asserted to have been discovered as the result of experiments conducted at the Cook County Infirmary at Dunning. It consists of the transfusion of the blood of healthy individuals into the veins of the afflicted. Out of 34 cases so treated Dr. C. O. Whitte asserted that nearly all have been cured.

"Pellagra is common in our institution," said Dr. Whitte. "The transfusion of healthy blood into the veins of the affected persons is about the only method I know of that will cure it, and certainly we have had great success. I don't think the Rockefeller Institute has anything on us in the treatment of these cases, and, as a matter of fact, I guess we have a little the best of them because pellagra is uncommon on the east, and they can't get as many patients in New York to work on as we have."

"We have been giving this treatment for about four months and have treated 34 cases. The best blood for transfusion comes from persons who have been cured of the disease, and it only takes one inoculation. Shortly after the treatment we notice that the skin of the patient clears up and he becomes more active in body and alert in mind."

ATHLETIC GIRL IS TALLER Educators Say Young College Women Are Larger Than Their Mothers in Most Cases.

Wellesley, Mass.—It is the general opinion at Wellesley college that the girls of today are taller than their mothers and that anyone who comes into contact with large numbers of girls will answer that this is true.

Miss Hazard, for eleven years president of Wellesley, voiced the general opinion of herself and the faculty recently in an official report. She said: "Any close observer of young people, especially young women, will notice the vast difference between the mental and physical standard of today and twenty years ago."

HEALING BY MUSIC

Dyspeptic Eats to Tune of "Old Oaken Bucket."

Philadelphia.—The newest science, which is also one of the oldest, is the science of healing by music. Tests are being made in the Samaritan hospital under the supervision of the Rev. Dr. Russell Conwell, its president, famous for his eloquence on the lecture platform.

Nurses who aided in making observations unite in testifying to the beneficial effect of certain musical airs upon the temperature and pulsations of patients and the evil and depressing influence of other tunes.

They found that fever was abated and restlessness reduced by "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton;" that "Dixie" calmed a patient who had delirium, and that "Juanita" and "The Last Rose of Summer" sent pain-racked invalids into soothing healing sleep.

The following is a partial list of well known hymns and musical selections reported to have been found helpful to sick and well persons alike: "The Old Oaken Bucket," "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," "Listen to the Mocking Bird," "Dixie," "Juanita," "The Last Rose of Summer," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Folks at Home," "My Maryland," "Yankee Doodle," "America," "Auld Lang Syne," "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "Rock of Ages," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Shall We Gather at the River," "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."

The following were found to be injurious: "Dead March" from "Saul," "Home Sweet Home," "Do They Think of Me at Home?" "Old Cabin Home," "Old Black Joe," "Star Spangled Banner," "Abide With Me," "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?" "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone?" "Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken," "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me," and "Stand Up for Jesus."

STENOGRAPHERS IN OLD ROME

Even Poets Had Them in the Early Days, but They Were Slaves.

Most of us are accustomed to think of the stenographer as a product of very modern conditions. As a matter of fact, however, the profession was followed as long ago as the days of the Roman empire. Poets, who are laughed at nowadays for having private stenographers, had them in the fourth century of our era, and Professor Cole of Columbia university, in a paper on "Later Roman Education," now translates into English for the first time the very complimentary address of the poet Ausonius to his stenographic assistant. Many a modern business man might say the same thing, although in less poetic diction.

"Slave," says Ausonius, "skilful master of swift notes, come hither. Open the double page of thy tablets, where a great number of words, each expressed by different points, is written like a single word. I go through great volumes; and like dense hail the words are hurled from my noisy lips, but thine ears are not troubled, nor is thy page filled. Thy hand, scarcely moving, flies over the surface of the wax."

"I wish my mind had as swift a flight as thy right hand when it anticipates my words. Who, pray, has betrayed me? Who has told you what I was just meditating about saying? How does your winged right hand steal the secrets of my inmost thoughts?"

If we remember that in the fourth century people wrote with sharp points on wax instead of with pens on paper, the picture suggested by Ausonius and his stenographer is surprisingly like that of the business man in his office dictating a letter. The greatest difference is that Ausonius' stenographer was a slave, and the modern stenographer an independent young woman who earns her own living—YOUTH'S COMPANION.
