

Ray's 'Ritin'

By RAY MARTIN

Bet you didn't know it, but this is "National Dog Week," the one week out of the year when you are supposed to pat a dog on the head instead of kicking him when he knocks over your garbage can.

As a matter of fact, the dog week started last Sunday, so you will have to do a little extra head patting if you are just now starting your be-kind-to-Fido activities.

Carl Byoir, an advertising outfit in Chicago that handles publicity for one Chemetron Corp which makes stuff for dogs and humans (in that order???) has come up with the information that there are 1,043,000 dogs in Texas, a large percentage of which live out near Gopher Flats Estate, our town house, and bark at the missus and me when we take our little evening neighborhood walks to keep mama from getting fat.

I'm not certain whether Mr. Byoir and his associates included Cinderella Louis Darfordorfer, our Dachshund, in their count or not, but if they didn't, then the total dog population should be 1,043,401 for Texas.

This same Mr. Byoir has come up with the information that there are 903,000 dog-owning families in Texas. Now that statement I question; I think it would be more accurate to say that there are 903,000 families that are owned by dogs, which may partially account for a large percentage of the population going to the dogs.

Mr. Byoir's organization says these 903,000 families spend $8,669,000 each year for care and feeding of pet dogs, which, even in these days when the term "millions" has been supplanted by the word "billions," is a considerable sum.

Byoir and his boys say that of $8 million plus that Texans spend on their dogs, $605,000 goes for medicine alone, which partly accounts for the sound financial condition of firms like Mr. Byoir's clients, the Chemetron outfit, who probably also own dogs.

And this next statement in Mr. Byoir's little epistle he put out for his client, was really surprising: We spend more money for pet food TWO TO ONE than we do for baby food.

But, come to think of it, that statement probably isn't so surprising after all; we may not be able to afford steak very often out at our house, but our two oversized cats and Cindy not only demand but get their six square meals every day. In fact our cats are so well filled with highly advertised commercial food they probably wouldn't eat a mouse (just assuming that a mouse ran across their paws and they caught it) unless they had its nutritional value analyzed.

Mr. Byoir's epistle contains the information that there are 21,000 veterinarians in the U.S. and that 22 percent of these fellows do expressively pet practice. But they are the ones who make the money — that 22 percent — because they get 45 percent of the entire income in the field. And that runs to the neat figure of $60 million a year. All of which may account for the fact that you seldom see a veterinarian's name among the bankruptcy cases filed.

This also means, as Mr. Byoir's boys point out, that Fido has nothing to growl about, but, being a dog, he probably will anyway. Speaking of growling, the publicity release for Fido says that they now have "happy pills," for your dogs which can be bought on prescription.

These pills probably won't stop Fido from biting the postman, but they will keep Fido from enjoying the job as much as he would if he hadn't taken the pills. These pills also (which probably just happened to be made by this Chemetron outfit) will keep Fido from barking his head off without reason; he won't just stand and bark at the moon, in other words.

In these days of tensions, tranquilizers for pets are not unusual. With human beings as tense as they are, it only follows that such persons would make the dog nervous. So, when the master takes his tranquilizer, Fido can take one too and two can lie down to pleasant dreams together. (See RAY'S, page 7)

SECOND BALE — Here's Muleshoe's second bale of 1962 cotton, brought in by J. C. Gatewood (right) who farms northeast of Muleshoe. With him is Billy Darnell of Paymaster Gin Co., which ginned the bale free and paid 50 cents a pound for the cotton. Bagging and tagging also were free. Gatewood, who formerly worked for the Journal, brought the bale in last Monday. The load weighed 2,060 pounds — 420 pounds lint. (Journal Photo & Engraving)

C-C Group Backs Courthouse Project

The civic affairs committee of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce has recommended that the chamber pledge its support of the forthcoming courthouse and jail remodeling project it was announced Thursday.

A civic affairs committee has studied the need for adequate courthouse and jail facilities for approximately three years, and has met with the commissioner court several times during that period, urging the commissioners to institute action on the project.

At a meeting set for next Friday, the court will make final evaluation of plans for the remodeling and renovation of the present building.

The recommendation of the committee points out the need for adequate and humane jail facilities, as well as for adequate office and storage space for county government for the present and foreseeable future needs.

Members of the committee expressed the hope that the bond issue for the construction can be placed before the public on November 8, date of the general election.

"We feel," said L.B. Hall, chairman, "that in this way, a more general expression of public opinion may be obtained, than in a special election at a later date."

Another shop had men's haircuts pegged at the usual $1.25, but had marked down children's haircuts to 75 cents.

Two or three shops apparently did not join in the war at all, maintaining the prevailing prices.

No one would say exactly what set off the price-cutting, although it was learned that the near-war broke out after at least one shop had asked that prices be raised from $1.25 to $1.50.

Russell Bryant Wins Contest; Splawn 2nd

Russell Bryant, 1905 West Ave. D, a Muleshoe sportsman and white-wing dove hunter, took the Journal's top money in last week's football contest. Howard Splawn, a previous winner, finished second.

Bryant got seven of the college games right, missing only the Texas Tech - West Texas State game. Splawn wrong-guessed the Oklahoma - Syracuse game and the Baylor - Houston skirmish.

Meantime, the contest is continuing and may be found on Page 4B this week. Five bucks goes to the winner, three bucks to the second place winner.

Entries must be in the Journal office by 5 p.m. Friday or bear a 5 p.m. postmark if mailed in.

Grand prize winner gets $50 expense money and two tickets to the New Year's game in the Cotton Bowl, Dallas.

Crops Facing Crucial Days, Frost is Key

"If" days have arrived for Bailey County's two major crops — cotton and grain sorghum.

If it continues cold and wet and frost comes early, crops could be almost a failure.

But if the weather warms up and frost doesn't stick its chilly nose into the Plains earlier than usual, Bailey county irrigated lands and drylands alike will ring up a major crop yield record — maybe even an all-time high.

As for the weather at the moment — chilly and damp — it's best for wheat and ducks.

Those are the views of County Agent J. K. Adams who cautiously sums up the present condition with these words: "Extra moisture at this time is undesirable, but we can always expect wet, cold weather at this time or a bit later."

And he added: "We much prefer that the moisture come now instead of after cotton opens." Cotton, in general, is not open.

It boils down to this: "If we have open weather with bright warm sun, cotton will open rapidly in the next 30 days, regardless of whether we have an early frost or not."

The average date for a killing frost here is October 28; at Plainview the average date over a 44-year period, is November 2. Horace Hutton one of the bigger dryland cotton farmers, has told the county agent that his dryland yield this year COULD run to as high as three-quarters of a bale to the acre, depending on whether the growing season (See WEATHER, page 3)

Monday is poll tax paying time again, and Jean Lovelady of the county tax office, said Thursday that receipts will be issued for the 1962-63 voting year. In order to vote in elections after January 1, 1963, it will be necessary for voters to have their new receipts, she explained.

All persons over 21 and under 60 who expect to vote in city, county or state elections next year must have their tax receipts. Fee is $1.75 per person. Those over 60 do not have to pay poll tax and no exemptions certificates are necessary in the county. Those who are exempt because of age must have become 60 years of age before January 1 this year.

Those who are paying poll tax for the first time—young men and women who have turned 21, will have to cast their first ballots.

The possibility looms that this may be the last year poll tax payments will be a requisite to voting in federal elections. The Congress is considering now a bill which would prohibit poll tax payments as a requisite to voting in a federal election of any type.

Meantime, it was announced that absentee voting for the November 6 election will start Oct. (See POLL TAX, page 3)

Farmers living in the southeast quarter of the county will vote next Tuesday at Bula for a soil conservation supervisor for that area. It was announced Thursday by Sherman Tomman, chairman of the Board of the Blackwater Valley (Bailey County) SCS district.

The election will be held in the Bula school, and territory included is zone 4 of the district which starts at the south border and extends north 20 miles, lying east of State Highway 214 (Mo- (See ELECTION, page 3)

Cavara Draws 5-Year Suspended Sentence; Williams Gets 3 Years

A five-year suspended sentence, a three-year sentence and a judgement withheld, marked the first three days of a criminal term of district court here with Judge E. A. Bills presiding.

The criminal cases were called after all but one case in a six-case docket was disposed of severely in the week.

Drawing a five-year suspended sentence in a jury trial after a plea of guilty was Joe Cavara, 18-year-old Muleshoe man who was charged with statutory rape of a 13-year-old girl. The case took practically all of Tuesday to hear.

Billy Bob Williams, 20, Muleshoe, was given a three-year sentence by Judge Bills on a charge of forgery.

Judgement was withheld by the judge in the case of Dewey Frank Rush, Jr., charged with indecent exposure.

Two other cases were due for trial this week. B.C. Locke faces a charge of forging and passing, and Simon Chavez is due to be tried on a charge of burglary.

A civil case was due to be heard this week also: Curlie Landrum vs. Texas Employers Insurance Association, a compensation suit.

Civil cases passed earlier in the week include: Paul Reed vs. Jerry Ivan Elli (See CAVARA, page 7)

Farm Group Opposes School Consolidation

Bula voters will go to the polls Saturday to vote on a proposal to consolidate the Bula school district with Littlefield, but opposition mounted this week after the Bula Young Farmers' Association threw its weight against the proposal.

Also opposing the consolidation were members of the Bula school board. Twenty-one Young Farmers signed a resolution condemning the move, and the list included all members of the school board.

The election was called recently by Bailey County Judge Glen Williams and Lamb County Judge Pat Boone, Jr. after a petition had been handed both judges, asking that the election be called. Under the law the judges must issue the election call if as many as 20 patrons petition for the election; 24 signed the petitions presented to the two judges. An election also must be held on the same date in Littlefield when people there must decide whether they will accept the consolidation if Bula voters app. (See GROUP, page 3)

Minister Resigns Pastorate Here, Goes to Kansas

Rev. Finis G. Hodges, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here for the past year has resigned to accept the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church in Coldwater, Kans.

The resignation came last Sunday afternoon when Mr. Hodges requested the congregation to join him in asking the Plains Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relation," it was explained. The move was made at a special meeting of the congregation.

The Plains Presbytery will meet here Friday at 2 p.m. to act upon the request. Commissioners elected from the congregation to that meeting are Carroll Poucey, Julian Lenau and Peggy Childers. The delegate to the Presbytery is Ruling Elder Julian Lenau.

Next Sunday will be the final day here for Mr. Hodges, and he has announced that his morning worship service will be titled "The Servant Lord Calls His Servant" (See MINISTER, page 7)

Road Record Better; Only One is Injured

The month of August was a relatively quiet one on Bailey County highways when only five rural accidents occurred and only one person was injured.

This 5 DPS office in Lubbock, said property damage for that month was only $2,100.

Altogether, the patrol counted up first eight months' accident list at 31 crashes with one killed and 17 persons injured. Total property damage up to September 1 amounted to $24,450, DPS estimates. The figures were announced by D. S. Lawson, patrol supervisor of this area.

In the 29-county region 5.30 deaths occurred on highways during the month, and 198 persons were injured. Thirteen fatal accidents were reported. Property damage for the area ran up to $178,540.

As a result of a train-automobile crash during August in which seven young people from Olton were killed near Shallowater, Lubbock county led the area with 13 deaths. Hale County had 10 deaths. Fatal accidents accounted also for one death each in Floyd, Garza, Lamb, Montague, Palo Pinto, Parker and Wichita counties.

Lubbock County also led in the total number of accidents.

Vaccine Figure: 5,241

Bailey County Medical Society has written off Type I polio immunization project as a success with a total of 5,241 receiving the sugar-saturated doses at junior high school immunization center here.

Dr. Ray Santos, chairman of the project, said the next mass immunization day will be one month after the first doses were administered. This would mean that Type II SOS Sunday will come on October 14, followed by the final immunization — Type III — a month later.

In some areas, Type III is not being given to adults. However, no announcement on that phase, the final one, has been made here.

Last Sunday was "make-up" day for those who had missed the mass Sabin Oral Sunday project the previous Sunday. Altogether, 1,109 persons flocked through the junior high halls to eat the sugar cubes. The previous Sunday, 4,132 had taken the vaccine which brings the total for the two Sundays for Type I vaccine to 5,241.

Doctors consider this a "very successful" project. Usually an 80-percent goal is sought. Here the 5,241 figure is considerably beyond the 80 percent mark.

C-C to Count Ballots; Yule Work to Resume

Muleshoe's elaborate Christmas program, which includes a vast Christmas scene display sprawling all over the courthouse lawn, will be featured next week when the Christmas committee meets to make additional plans for the event.

At the moment, the project is somewhat stymied by questionnaires which were sent to merchants several weeks ago, asking that they indicate whether they will enter the program this year.

However, the questionnaires ballots are placed in an envelope which also has members votes for new directors, and these cannot be opened until next Monday. Of 177 ballots sent out last month, 105 were returned before the deadline, Wednesday, Chamber Manager Carroll Pouncey said.

Meantime, Santa's own personal house has been completed and will be moved to the courthouse lawn in November. It is a complete small house in every detail with clapboards — shingle roof. Santa expects to be on hand most of the time after December 1 to greet his many friends and learn from the young fry what they would like to have for Christmas.

Under the plans for the 1962 observance of Christmas promotion, the chamber has decided to cover the courthouse lawn with various displays, entered by clubs, religious organizations and commercial firms. The scenes (See BALLOTS, page 7)

Neighboring Clovis Comes Visiting, Mules Seek Ways to End 3-Game Losing Streak

By J. C. SPAIN

Muleshoe Mules licked wounds inflicted by three straight defeats this week and girded for foe No. 4, the long-time enemy club from Clovis.

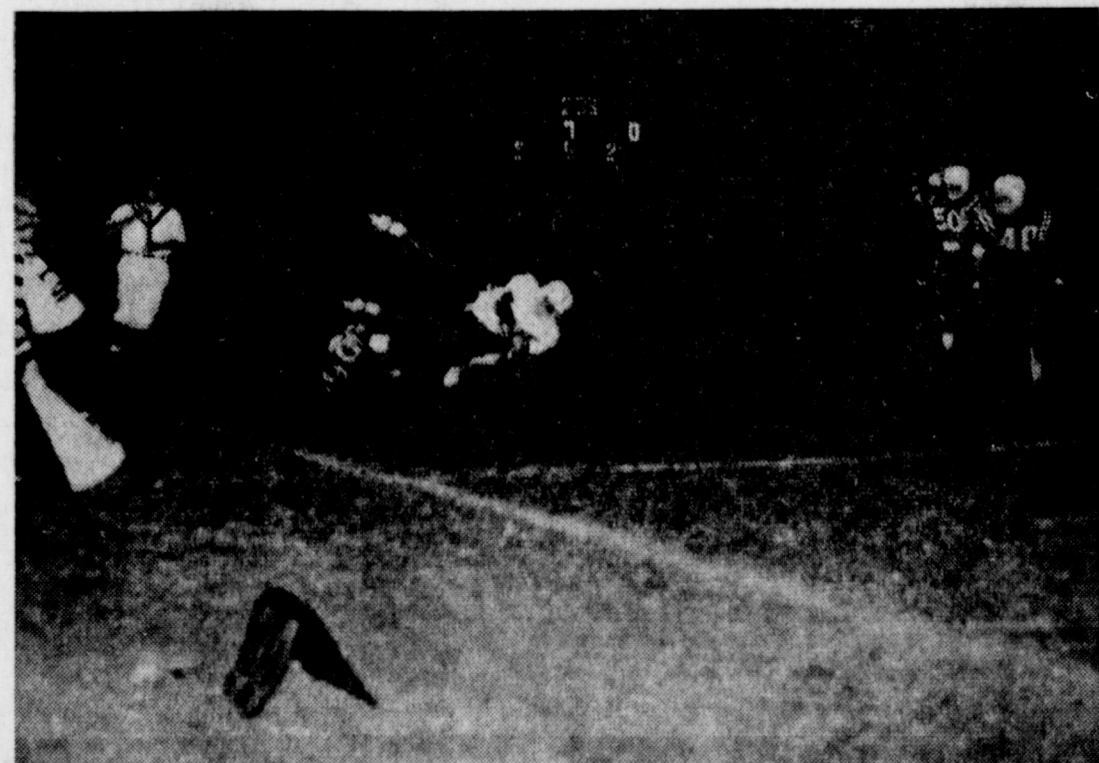

Coach Bill Taylor and his assistants have been shoving the lads through some pretty stiff workouts this week, including a bit of toe education; bad kicks hurt the Mules last Friday when they met Tulia.

To the tune of 21 to 0, the Muleshoe Mules suffered a defeat last Friday night at Tulia at the hands of a Hornet powerhouse.

The Mules started out with a bang: On the kickoff, Dan Smith Mule fullback romped from the five-yard line to the 35. Two plays later the Muleshoe lads had pushed the ball up to the midstripe. Then it happened: A fumble cost 15 yards and the Mules were forced to punt, and that fizzled out only 11 yards — to the Mules' 46-yard stripe.

The Hornets got going to shove the ball up to the Mules' 26 and then their drive fizzled; they lost on downs. The Mules took over, but three plays later they had ground only to the 44. A nice punt booted the ball 47

(See CLOVIS, page 7)

TOUCHDOWN PASS STOPPED — With only Jimmy Cabrara between him and a touchdown, this pass might have gone for a Tulia touchdown in last Friday night's game. It was in the second quarter, with Tulia already out in front by one TD. Charles Shelton was on the receiving end of a long pass that would have put him in the clear—except for Cabrara's fast work. TODAY'S MEDITATION

By LYNN STEPHENS
Matthew 4:4 "But he answered and said, It is written, man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Who can deny that "materialistic" is the one word which best describes humanity today. On every hand it is evidenced that man thinks first and most about satisfying the desires of the flesh. Jesus teaches in Matthew 6:25, that our life is more than meat, and our body more than raiment. To this truth we give mental agreement and then too frequently continue living in such a manner as to say, "I believe it, but had rather not accept it". Jesus asks in Matthew 16:26 "For what is man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" Literally millions of people are by-passing the prospect of eternal life and facing the fact of eternal condemnation in hell, not because they are gaining the whole world, but rather because they are pursuing the things of the world at the expense of salvation and Christian living. Jesus taught that we should seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and then our lives would be so directed of Him as to assure the necessities of life as well as give opportunity to serve and please Him. May God give each one sufficient grace that we may choose eternal life rather than the temporal things of this life.

rove such a move. The Young Farmers' Association at Bula in its resolution said:

"We, the Bula Young Farmers' Association, wish to express our feeling in regard to the consolidation of the Bula Independent School District with the Littlefield Independent School district.

Wherefore, we the Bula young Farmers Association are 100 percent behind the Bula Independent School District, and do not wish to consolidate this school with any other district at this time or any time in the future.

"We, as parents of the majority of the children in the school do feel that it would be our loss and our children's loss if we consolidate with the Littlefield district.

"We, knowing that the Bula school is fully accredited and feeling that our school finances are in safe and sound condition."

Members and associate members of the Young Farmers' Association who signed the resolution include J. C. Smitker, Raymond Austin Jr., Harold Layton, Jim Drake, Ivan Clawson, Donald Joe Cox, Norwell Roberts, Bennie Claunch, J. E. Layton, Jim Claunch, A. M. McBee, Jim Pat Claunch, Eddie Wallace, John Hubbard, J. F. Lands, Jr., Robert Claunch, Bill Sowder, Chester B. Seltiff, Dewitt Tiller, Donald Grusendorf, J. Ray Spence.

is average, in fact, to make such a record, frost will have to be later than usual to visit the Plains if such a record is rung up.

And by the same token, if frost decides to start its annual trip south earlier than usual, cotton could be an almost complete loss Adams says.

As for the grain sorghum outlook, there is a good possibility of a one-ton-per-acre yield—maybe more.

But an early freeze would practically eliminate dryland sorghum. Late planting in the spring has made necessary a later than usual frost if grain sorghum is to come through for a big money maker.

On irrigated land, grain sorghum harvest was well under way when the current wet spell hit, and harvest activities as a result have practically stalled. However, indications are that the yield will be slightly lower than in 1960, the county agent says.

One of the factors that has brightened the sorghum outlook—and money returns—has been the early planting practice in this community. "This early planting," Adams says, "has made it possible to avoid the midge, an insect which frequently does heavy damage to late-planted crops. Growing off grain ahead of this pest has meant hundreds of extra dollars for grain growers."

Adams said there is "some concern" that if the wet weather continues, grain sorghum may lodge (fall down) in the rows. However, new machinery permits picking up such grain, although labor costs are increased.

Serving in the supervisor's capacity now from that area is E. N. (Shorty) McCall, Enochs, Farmers may either re-elect McCall or name some other farmer to the post.

To be eligible to vote in a soil conservation district supervisor's election, a person must own agricultural land within the subdivision where the election is held, it was explained, and must in a county "all or any part of which is in the soil conservation district. They must be 21, but no poll tax receipt is required. Under the community property laws of Texas, the wife of a landowner also owns land and is entitled to vote and hold office.

SCS officials here explained that the position is "largely one of service," since the pay is only $48 a year for the supervisor. District supervisors serve a term of five years.

Barley continues to be the leading field seed crop under certification in North Dakota. Of the 1961 crop, 161,394 bushels were tagged and sealed. Durum and flax continue in second and third place.

'Cold' Surgery Used Successfully In Texas Cases

"Numb with cold," a common saying, is being put to practical use by modern surgeons.

As an operative technique in lowering of body temperature (subnormal levels) is being used successfully in Texas, a report in the September issue of the Texas State Journal of Medicine reveals. Although it is employed as an anesthetic aid during surgery, it also causes other changes in the brain which make neurosurgery easier for both surgeon and patient.

Changes in the brain which are caused by controlled cooling include shrinkage in its size and reduction of blood pressure. Blood flows more slowly, metabolism is slowed, and less oxygen is consumed. These enable the surgeon to carry out procedures which otherwise would be technically difficult or impossible.

The use of cold as an aid to surgery is not new. Napoleon's military surgeon applied ice on the battlefield to perform painless amputations, and the use of snow and ice water as a local analgesic dates back to the 11th century. In 1939, generalized hypothermia was introduced into practical medicine in the treatment of cancer. More recently, it has attracted wide publicity for its use in heart surgery, and since 1945, controlled lowering of body temperature has been used to reduce the risks of brain surgery.

In an article appearing in the September issue of the Journal four cases are reported in which successful neurosurgery was performed on patients whose temperatures were reduced to 88 F. These cases summarize problems in which hypothermia "has been helpful and even life-saving."

Hunting Days Here, Caution With Guns Urged

AUSTIN—For 16 million Americans the days between now and mid-January are the golden days of the hunt, perhaps the most avidly anticipated season on the sporting calendar.

It's a satisfying time, with man in quiet communion with a bountiful nature.

Before it ends, an estimated 1,100,000 hopeful Texans—young and old of both sexes, skilled and unskilled—will have taken to the field in eager expectation.

Fleet mourning doves are present targets of a thousand guns by virtue of a 60-day north zone season which opened September 1 and runs through October 30, 25 through November 23.

Our Statue In Dallas Area, Ugh!

The item below is taken from George Dolan's "This is West Texas" in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram:

Don Stapleton of Plainview suggests a solution to the controversy between Muleshoe and Gatesville over which town should erect a statue to the mule.

"Why not put the mule statue where it will be most appreciated?" Stapleton asks. "Make it sort of a regional statue servicing two or more major cities. This should be the ultimate answer to muledom's needs."

"Perhaps it could be located somewhere between Fort Worth and Dallas—unless, of course, Dallas already has one. In that case, a full-scale investigation would be in order."

Jehovah's Witness

"YOUR WORD IS TRUTH." John 17:17. The oldest book in the world is still the world's "best seller". Its circulation is now reaching toward the three-billion mark. No other book, in whole or in part, has been translated into as many languages — more than 1,125! No other book has as wide a circulation or has exercised such overpowering influence on the lives, history and culture of whole races of people. Moses began its writing by 1513 B.C., the apostle John completed the last book around A.D. 98, and at least thirty-three others contributed portions, but what they wrote is the Word of God. Said David: "The spirit of Jehovah it was that spoke by me, and his word was upon my tongue." (2 Samuel 23:2) History confirms the Bible accounts; archaeology and geology provide corroborative evidence, but the strongest evidence of its inspiration is prophecy, its amazing predictions of the future. Man could not be the author of such a book, and he is not. "Prophecy was at no time brought by man's will, but men spoke from God as they were borne along by holy spirit." — 2 Peter 1:21. When we listen to the Bible we listen to God. The things it says were provided by God "for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope." (Romans 15:4) Through its pages He answers our questions. He tells us who he is and how to worship him. He tells us about the origin of man, why evil is permitted, and how this wicked system of things will be removed and a righteous new world ushered in. By its counsel the lives of men are transformed and by acceptance of its teachings they come to have hope of everlasting life in the new world. If we desire everlasting life, we must study GOD'S WORD, learn the principles stated therein and then live our lives in accordance therewith.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

OBERLIN, KAN., HERALD: "Recent polls reveal that three out of four Americans polled do not want to see a tax cut if it means no balancing the budget. This is a good omen. The only way Americans will get responsible legislation is to act like responsible citizens. If the politicians find that we are fed up with so-called something-for-nothing schemes, we're on our way to better things. The road may be a little harder to travel, but it will be far better than getting into the trough now and letting our children and grandchildren worry about trying to pay for gluttony."

HAGERSTOWN, MD., MORNING HERALD: "We hope you have noticed in our news stories involving government money a spade is being called a spade. For instance: There was a time when we used the phrase 'federal funds' or 'state funds' as acceptable journalism. But what are federal and state funds? They're yours and mine. The federal government doesn't earn a dime unless you include some of the unintentional profits that accrue from intrusion into business competition with private enterprise. So, unless there's a slip by a reporter and/or editor, we have changed 'federal funds' to 'taxpayers' money. Ditto 'the state government.'"

BEVERLY, MASS., EVENING TIMES: "Washington by maintaining artificially high prices through its price-support programs, regulation of commerce wage laws and a lengthy list of other intercessions on behalf of one economic or political segment or another, is more guilty of shunning the consumer than either labor or management."

RESS-BULLETIN: "The international importance of science was brought home to the ordinary citizen during the famous International Geophysical Year. . . ."

Duncan, Big Spring; Carl Fred Duncan, Tacoma, Wash., and Caly Irvin Duncan who is with the U.S. Army in France; one daughter, Mrs. Frank Tubez, Chicago, three brothers and a sister. Registration Day Set For Brownies

All mothers of second grade girls who wish to become Brownies are requested to come by the Girl Scout House on Monday, October 1, between the hour of 3 and 4 p.m. to register their girls. If working mothers are unable to come by, they may call Mrs. Roy Wrinkle, Phone 5882, or Mrs. Cloy Covan, phone 8284 to register their girls.

The IGY was no one-shot extravaganza, however. A number of other 'international years' are under way or scheduled. . . . This cooperation has come about not merely because of the obvious fact that it is physically one world. It is also because scientific knowledge has become so vast and complicated and all-embracing that no one nation has enough brains or wealth to go it alone. There can be no nationalism or isolationism in science."

In an attempt to relieve the teacher shortage situation that has become acute, State Supt. L.A. Woods has authorized a special examination for second-class certificates to be given October 16 and 17.

High School graduates and other qualified people in Bailey County, at least 18 years of age, who are interested should register with County Supt. Jim Cook by October 1.

It has been announced that marriage vows were solemnized for Madge Winders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Winders, Dimmitt, and W.H. Autry, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Autry, Muleshoe on September 13.

Again another fumble, this one by the Hornets on the Mules' 47, was recovered by Bill Harbin, a sophomore guard.

The Mules ran one play good for five yards, but on the next play, fumbled and thereby set up the first Tulia score of the ball game. Seven plays later Eddie DeVoll pushed over from the 3-yard line. Frank Hooper, Hornet quarterback, kicked the extra point and the score stood at 7-0.

The Mules took the kick on the 5-yard line, and in seven plays had worked the ball down to their own 49 when their drive stalled. They were forced to punt. The Hornets themselves were unable to budge and were forced to kick after only three plays.

A 15-yard penalty and four plays later, the Mules lost the ball on downs on Tulia's 24. And again the Hornets couldn't get going and had to punt. But a penalty and a hard-pressing Tulia defense stalled drive, forcing a kick which was killed on the 4-yard stripe.

The Hornets then fumbled on their first play and Ronnie Johnson recovered on Tulia's 13, but the Mules drew a 15-yard penalty to the 28. Time in the half was running out, so the Mules went to the airways and threw two incomplete passes for the half ended with the score on the side of Tulia, 7-0.

Tulia came alive in the second half with a touchdown only eight plays after they received the kickoff. Jim Arnold was the man who slipped over for the six-pointer. Frank Hooper tried to run across for the extra two points, but was met with a solid Mule wall that stopped him cold.

The Mules then took the ball on the 20 and 10 plays later had Hooper on the Hornets' own 31. Hooper ran out to the 38 before he was brought down.

The ball then changed hands three times on downs before the Mules took to the air and had three incomplete passes in row. And then a 15-yard penalty and a bad punt that was good for only 13 yards to the Muleshoe 38. But Tulia was penalized again and this put them back to the 50. Nine plays later, Jim Arnold crossed the goal line from the one yard line for the final touchdown of the ball game. Frank Hooper ran around end on keeper for the extra two points to make the score, Tulia 21, Muleshoe 0.

The Mules took over the ball and ran four plays and then tried to pass. The first was incomplete and the second was intercepted by John Howell of Tulia. The Hornets settled down and ran the clock out five plays later, winding up on their own 48-yard line.

This hand-out for Mr. Chemtron and his corporation offers the reason for increased money being spent on dog medicines. It says, "People are more knowledgeable about their pets today. They know about medical care available and want to take advantage of it. When people drove Model T's, they made repairs themselves; not so today. It's the same with pet owners: They tend not to try to doctor a pet's illness, but go to a veterinarian."

In other words, it's another case of specialization. Then the well-prepared article which Mr. Byoir's boys have turned out for their client, concludes with suggestions for the dog just in case the tranquilizers don't do their work. Take him the thing." So, they have a luxury liner, can send the dog to London on called "France," a new floating this ritzy canoe. "France" for palace, that has just the place only $50 one way. (Both ways for Fido. $100, one presumes.)

'63 CHEVROLET IMPALA SPORT SEDAN

Tomorrow-GO JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLET for '63

Cover this car's price tag and you might think it cost a thousand dollars more. It offers luxurious styling, extremely comfortable, spacious and silent interiors... plus ways to keep it looking and running like new when a lot of others have started to sag and sigh: a new way to flush and dry rocker panels under the doors of its Body by Fisher to guard against rusting... self-adjusting brakes... Delcotron generator for longer battery life. If you ever wondered why Chevrolet leads its field, a drive in this '63 should answer all your questions.

'63 CHEVY II NOVA SPORT COUPE

Hard as it may be to believe, this year's Chevy II is better, better than last year's and better than anything in its class. It combines the new easy-care features of the big Chevrolet with its own wonderful attributes of parkable size, four- or six-cylinder fuel economy and interiors that would do justice to cars that cost twice as much.

'63 CORVAIR MONZA CONVERTIBLE

Change it? Calm yourself, nobody's going to mess with a winner like this one! We did add self-adjusting brakes and a fully aluminized muffler; interiors are refined a bit, and you'll notice some trim changes, but the rest is pure untampered-with Corvair. Oh yes, we changed the taillights so all those people you pass will know you're driving a '63.

PAG RESEARCH—Louie Camp, research hybrids to dealers in this area at the PAG director, Pfister Associated Growers, Inc., Sorghum research nursery in Hutchinson, explains new techniques in developing new Kan.

Area Pfister Dealers Attend Research Nursery Tour in Kansas

Hugh Alexander, R. F. Parkinson and Cecil Atchley all of Muleshoe, and Freeman Davis, Lazbuddie, and Don Gerles of Lariat, recently attended a dealer tour of the research nursery of Pfister Associated Growers, Inc., in Hutchinson, Kan.

This group were several of 78 West Texas and Eastern New Mexico dealers to attend this field trip. He boarded an American Flyers Airline Constellation at the (Lubbock) municipal airport. The flight originated in Lubbock and stopped at Amarillo to pick up additional dealer representatives enroute to the research farm in Hutchinson.

Upon arrival in Hutchinson dealers were met by nursery representatives who were hosts for the day of events. Chartered busses transported the dealers to the Baker hotel in Hutchinson for the first phase of the program. The meeting was called to order and talks were given by P.A. G. departmental heads and by Bill Dorman of Dorman & Company, Lubbock.

A luncheon was given for the visiting 133 dealers and distributors from every part of the United States considered to be in the sorghum belt. The Texas delegation, sponsored by Dorman & Company of Lubbock, comprised more than half of all the representatives attending.

During the afternoon, a field trip was taken to the P.A.G. Sorghum Research Nursery where the actual plant breeding and research take place. Procedures were explained by departmental heads in charge of individual experiments. It was shown in detail how pollination was controlled to develop new hybrids and varieties of seeds. Included in observation plots of the nursery were hybrid sorghums, hybrid forage sorghums, cotton, and other seeds being tested.

Upon completion of the field tour, the group returned to the hotel headquarters and a panel discussion was held to answer questions. During the discussion research workers became better acquainted with the specific problems of each area. After an evening meal the meeting was dismissed and the local area dealers were returned to the Amarillo and Lubbock airports in the chartered aircraft.

Farmers' Loans Hit Record High

The Farmers Home Administration of the U.S. Department of Agriculture loaned farm families and other rural people a record $637 million in fiscal 1962 which ended on June 30, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has announced.

The volume of loans, largest during any 12-month period in the agency's history, was 61 percent larger than the 1961 total of $395.7 million, and 106 percent above the $308.9 million loaned in 1960.

Nearly half of the total loaned during fiscal 1962 went for farm operating expenses, almost a third for the purchase, development, or enlargement of family farms, and about a sixth went for the construction and improvement of houses and service buildings on farms and in rural communities.

Approximately 255,000 families were using Farmers Home Administration credit for these and other purposes at the end of the fiscal year — 12 percent more than the year before.

"The rise in the number and amount of loans," said Secretary Freeman, "reflects a continuing increase in operating expenses necessary to keep pace with today's modern farming methods. It also indicates the reduced returns from the sale of farm products which have many efficient farm-owners hard pressed."

Secretary Freeman added, "I believe it is especially noteworthy that in spite of the enormously increased activity in its lending programs and management work with farm families, the Farmers Home Administration has scarcely increased its personnel at all."

Sells Bros. Circus Coming Here, Sponsored by Fire Department

Earl Ladd, Chief of the Fire Department today announced that they plan to sponsor the famous Sells Bros. Circus in Muleshoe Thursday Oct. 18th.

The show, a genuine old time 3-Ring Circus "under the big top," and the largest to play in this area in many years, will give performances at 4 and 8 p.m. at the show grounds located at Boy Scout Grounds for one day only.

Sells Bros. 3-Ring Circus, "the oldest and proudest name in the circus world," presents over 30 feature acts in 3 rings, bringing all the thrills of circus day to young and old alike. The tented circus is not dead, and the Sells Bros. prove it with an outstanding array of talent from the four corners of the world. Aerial artists and wire walkers share the spot light with jugglers, tumblers and funny old clowns; while amazing animal actors cavort in all three rings to show that circus day is still the happiest holiday of the year. Dogs, ponies, monkeys, bears, lions, and many more will hold the attention of the small fry, while the entire family will marvel at the performing herds of elephants.

Traveling on two vast convoys of motorized equipment, Sells Bros. famous 3 Ring Circus presents an all new show for the 1962 season. They boast a huge big top, with comfortable seating for thousands. No games of chance or gambling devices are carried with the show, and the sponsor draws attention to the fact that the Sells Bros. Circus is good, clean entertainment for the entire family.

Tickets are on sale now from any member of the sponsoring group, and the sponsor urges everyone to buy their tickets early to avoid the line at the box office on Circus Day. All proceeds will go to local activities of the sponsor.

Farm Bureau Plans County Convention

BY RAYMOND EULER

Parmer County Farm Bureau members will hold their 14th annual convention next Monday night at the Bovina school cafeteria.

The primary purpose is to get on record the beliefs and desires of the farmer members regarding the future of agriculture.

Those who are interested enough will be there to let themselves be heard where it counts. These people know that action taken will be considered by representatives of over 82,000 Texas Farm Bureau members and more than 1.5 million members of American Farm Bureau. They also know that these considered decisions of farmers are given consideration in state and national legislation.

Farm Bureau does not claim to be popular in state and national legislative circles, but it is well known that Farm Bureau is highly respected because its policies, which originate with locals like Parmer County's represent a majority opinion. Rarely, if ever, is the precise opinion of any individual will, if it is in accord with most other farmers of his area, have a good chance of becoming state, and even national policy.

Be it resolved that Farm Bureau oppose the present administration's method of handling foreign affairs, specifically pertaining to defense of this hemisphere in regard to the rapid encroachment of Communism.

Rural Housing Funds Boosted

An additional $152 million has been made available for rural housing loans, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman announced Thurs.

Thursdays action makes a total of $182 million available through the Farmers Home Administration for this type of credit during fiscal 1963. The funds come from the $430 million authorized by the housing act of 1961, to be expended within a four-year period. Approximately $95 million was obligated during fiscal 1962.

According to John C. Kennedy, County Supervisor of the local Farmers Home Administration, Bailey County now has 10 rural housing loans. In addition, one loan was approved last week and two more applications are on hand.

"These funds will help 20,000 rural families who do not now have adequate housing to obtain credit to finance a new home or improve the home they already own," Secretary Freeman said.

"The rural housing program is also a driving force in rural areas development. The construction carried on with the funds provides work for local carpenters, masons, plumbers and electricians and steps up the sales of building supply dealers and other merchants in small rural communities. The wages received by the workmen and the profits retained by the businessmen are in turn circulated through local trade channels, invested in local enterprises. The effect of the housing dollar is multiplied many times before its force is diminished.

"In addition the housing loans are helping to stabilize and strengthen rural communities by creating attractive modern living facilities, the type of house construction that makes communities desirable places in which to live.

The Sandhills Philosopher

If There are Intelligent Beings Out in Space, Let 'em Look Us Up

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm takes a non-progressive view toward space this week, his letter indicates.

Dear Editor:
A man asked me the other day if I was opposed to exploring outer space.
"Didn't know Congress was going to put it to a vote," I said. "That's not what I mean," he said. "But from what I read in your letters a while back, I got the notion you think we could be spending our money someplace else."
"We are spending our money some place else; in fact, every place else there is," I told him, and added that I wasn't opposed to exploring space, but space ain't my main preoccupation.

Here's the thing: we ought to explore space, but it has always struck me as funny to speculate on a scientist taking aim to fire a space ship a million miles out into the unknown and having to stop to scratch a chigger bite. What sort of scientific advance is it if a scheduled trip to the moon, after years of painstaking planning and with all lights flashing GO, has to be postponed because the astronaut has a bad cold?

This year we're spending five billion dollars on space, and seven million on trying to get fresh water from the ocean. That's what I'm talking about. I can see a lot more fun in having all the fresh water this Johnson grass farm needs than in traveling through space. I think we ought to whip space, but I'm in favor of whipping droughts, flies, chiggers and mosquitoes too.
Now I know people will say, yeah, but space is a great new adventure, nobody knows what's out there, there may be untold resources, there may be even creatures more intelligent than we.

Well, there may be, but my position is, if there are intelligent creatures out there, why aren't they looking us up? Let's let them share at least part of the tax burden and explore us. There must be as much scientific data they could collect from us as we from them.

This is like saying a man isn't educated till he has visited us. My contention is that a man can be ignorant either way, whether he goes or stays.
I hope my television set doesn't blow a tube right when we send a man to the moon. I'll be there watching, fly-swatter in hand.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

What is happening at Lampasas? What did Lt. General Thomas W. Dunn, commander of Fort Hood, mean when he said "I can't visualize a native Texan failing to do his duty in maintaining WORLD SECURITY"? Why didn't he say NATIONAL SECURITY? Why should a Texas landowner turn over his property for the sake of the world instead of his nation? Why should he pledge allegiance to any nation other than the United States of America?

What is wrong with a United States officer when he expects a United States citizen to be concerned about the world first, before he is concerned about the United States?

What happened at Lampasas in 1952 to make these farmers and ranchers so bitter? Was the town of Lampasas taken over by United States troops in the name of the United Nations? Did our own boys capture Lampasas for the United Nations in that maneuver? Is this new maneuver training our boys for the same purpose? Yes, I know they are being trained for guerrilla warfare for use in other nations. But why meddle in other Nations' affairs; and couldn't these same trained guerrillas be used to put down citizen rebellions when our government, rightly or wrongly, decided that our citizens were defying our government?

This same unconventional warfare called Swift Strike was held in Sumpter, S. C. in August. General Herbert B. Powell, Commanding General of the U.S. Army Continental Army Command, defined counter-insurgency as an action including all military, political, economical, psychological and sociological activities directed toward preventing and suppressing resistance groups whose actions range in degrees of violence and scope from subversive political activity to violent actions by large guerrilla elements to overthrow Who would be the resistance groups in the United States? Wouldn't it be our own United States citizens? Especially if our citizens should get tired of our no-win policy?

I can't help but feel that things are not quite what they seem to be in Lampasas, right now. I believe that any farmer would gladly do his share to furnish needed land to train troops to defend our own United States; but I doubt very seriously that he would see the wisdom or need in furnishing good Texas land to train troops to fight for foreign nations.

Senator John Tower (R-Texas) reaffirms his concern regarding recent developments in the Cuban situation. The text of his report follows.

"I think you know that I'm always prepared to support the President's foreign and military policy if I think it serves United States' needs. I'm just truly perplexed, like many Americans are, as to what that policy is.

Russian tanks, rockets, military planes and high velocity artillery have been brought into Cuba. As I have said before, Cuba is becoming a staging area for the infiltration of subversion and eventual invasion of other Latin American countries. Even further, these weapons which have been brought into Cuba could be employed to try to neutralize our Guantanamo Naval Base there. They threaten the entire United States east of the Mississippi. Pads for light rockets have already been built in Cuba by Russian and Chinese Red technicians, and I've been reliably informed that launching pads for medium rockets with a 1500 mile plus range can be built in under four days.

It has been announced that the Russians have PT boats based on Cuba with rockets capable of firing 15 to 18 miles. Now, what's to keep these PT boats from slipping into either Guantanamo or Miami?

Yet, we have not invoked the Monroe Doctrine, or even the latest variation of the Monroe Doctrine. And, apparently the U. S. Marines and the U.S. Army divisions have been misled. Every time a crisis arises, our reserves are yanked out of their civilian lives. The last time this happened, the East Germans constructed the Berlin wall with impunity. Nothing was done about it. Are proposing now to call reserves to cover capitulation or surrender in Cuba or in Berlin? Are we going to double our fist at home, while adopting a conciliatory attitude toward the Soviets every time they foment a crisis on some cold war front?

I don't see that again imposing on civilians is the answer to the Cuban problem or a substitute to giving the American people the security they have a right to expect by eliminating an enemy that's well established just ninety miles off our shore of Florida.

I noted the other day the senator from Minnesota likened the presence of the Soviets in Cuba to our bases overseas. There is no comparison between this situation in Cuba and our bases overseas. The whole free world was disarmed in the late 1940's when the Communists were consolidating their eastern European empire. This led to the U.S. draft law, that led to free world rearming and defensive alliances. That led friendly countries freely and willingly to grant us bases in their lands to help protect them from Soviet aggression.

In Cuba, a free people have been put in bondage by force and without free elections. Tens of thousands of people have fled the Castro blood bath. They've fled prisons and tortures. The Russians and Red Chinese are in Cuba illegally, immorally, and without the slightest right to be there. The difference between their position and ours should be apparent to free people everywhere.

Americans are perplexed about our foreign policy. Within the past few weeks, we agreed to pull all our rockets out of England.

and I understand, we are about to pull them all out of France. This U.S. unilateral nuclear disarming can be an invitation for attack upon us. It certainly endangers our fleet in the Mediterranean, which for a long time has acted as a major deterrent to Communist attack. Yet, while we propose to call up civilians. Are we going to throw away our modern weapons and use conventional weapon against nuclear arms? I know that some Administration advisers have devised a plan for us to give away our Air Force, Navy, Marines, and Army to the United Nations within ten years.

There are several worthwhile proposals before the Senate, which have been made by responsible Senators, both Democrat and Republican, relative to handling the Cuban problem. This is a problem of great importance. Our hemispheric security is in jeopardy, and I think the Senate should move to urgent consideration of these various proposals to deal affirmatively and firmly with Castro."

By VERN SANFORD
Hunters who go after mule deer in the Trans-Pecos area this year will get a better break. They'll have two weeks for hunting, beginning December 1.

For a number of years the season has been limited to eight days. Also this year there will be a greater number of deer permits in that country west of the Pecos, where the big deer grow.

Mule deer situation in West Texas now appears to be fairly good. The high country has had more rain than other parts of Texas. Furthermore, ranchers there do not overgraze like they did at one time.

Hunting muleys differs a great deal from hunting white-tailed deer. For the most part the big mule deer are in the high country, or the canyons leading off the principal mountains. However, there are a number of white-tails found in the mountain area of far West Texas.

Although Marfa and Alpine generally are considered the gateway to the best mule deer country, other places like Sanderson, Fort Stockton, Fort Daves, Van Horn and Pecos are surrounded with good hunting territory.

Of particular significance in this part of Texas is the Black Gap Wildlife Management area. This area is bounded on the west by the Rio Grande and on the north partially by Big Bend National Park.

Under strict surveillance at all times the management area, operated by the Game & Fish Commission, provides many of the mule deer for West Texas. Area itself covers only slightly more than 100,000 acres. Influence of the management program, however, is felt throughout an even wider area. Result is more and better deer.

In addition there is the Sierra Diablo area in Hudspeth County also owned and operated by the state. This area lies north of Highway 80, and is in the general vicinity of the highest mountains of Texas. It is bounded on one side by Victoria Canyon, which approaches the Grand Canyon both in size and grandeur.

Good mule deer hunting in this mountainous country is, for the most part, rough hunting. Not much is done on foot.

In bygone days a great deal of this hunting was from horseback. Today hunters use the four wheel-drive jeeps and climb as high as possible to work out the timbered canyons.

Despite the barren appearance of this area, at first glance, there is considerable timber back in the deep canyons running off the high peaks. Most of the timber is oak, with mesquite and cedar for fill-in. Above the timberline at an altitude of approximately 5,000 feet, also is found pinion a form of pine.

During the early fall mule deer often will feed in the open pasture land. But at the first sign of winter, they go into the back country. So that is where the best hunting generally is to be found.

Sometimes the big old bucks go to the high plateaus. Here they find good grazing and ready canyons to dash into when the hunter shows up.

A person who has never hunted mule deer might not appreciate the amount of work necessary to get one of these big bucks down from the mountains.

Many times it must be toled several miles before transportation can be found. Since the largest bucks weigh from 150 pounds up, their weight and the rough terrain present a real problem.

In addition this is high country where breath comes short and quick for the man not accustomed to it.

Land owners recognize this problem. So, nearly every rancher who sells leases or has guests is prepared to aid the hunters. He will have a packhorse ready.

Cowboys are available too. In fact, when these fellows hear a shot, they start out. It's amazing how accurate these cowboys are in locating the hunter after they hear his shot.

Many of the best mule deer hunting ranches of West Texas are leased on an annual basis. However, there are numerous ranches where one can hunt for so much a gun, or by the day.

Details on the various hunting ranches may be obtained from the Chambers of Commerce in either Alpine or Marfa. Each season they compile a list of available hunting leases.

They also can tell you which of the leases will have deer permits.

This fall the Game & Fish Commission again will announce its drawing for free hunting in the management areas. Biologists right now are checking the deer of those areas.

Dates for the drawings will be announced within a few weeks. Then you can write to the Game and Fish Commission in Austin and ask for an application blank. If you'll fill it out and return it, your name will go into the hopper for the drawing.

Don't write to the commission, however, until you see the announcement in the newspapers. If you've never hunted mule deer, give it a try.

In the Oriental philosophy, age is an important factor in determining the status of a person. Proper marriage, various ceremonies, rites, taboos and symbols all hinge on the year in which a person, regardless of sex, was born. To lie about your age in the Mysterious East is as heinous a crime as perjury before the altar or the court.
