Defense Aviation Board for State Is Named by Governor

AUSTIN, June 6 (AP)—Governor W. Lee O'Daniel Wednesday named a nine-member National Defense Aviation Board for Texas to aid in facilitating naval and military aviation expansion.

The board was named following a conference between the governor and Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson who reported President Roosevelt suggested the board could provide the government with urgently needed data.

The governor announced the board, which will meet with him and Johnson today, was selected because of the urgency of aviation training facilities and the fact that Texas is ideally adapted for training bases.

Members were R. W. Briggs of San Antonio, John A. Mobley of Corpus Christi, Maj. O. C. Scott of Houston, Maj. J. R. Parton of Houston, Gen. John A. Eulen of Ft. Worth, Arch Underwood of Lubbock, Col. R. O. Cuddell of Houston, T. E. Jackson of Dallas and Robert J. Smith of Dallas.

In a telegram to President Roosevelt the governor said:

"Plan for creation of a National Defense Aviation Board for Texas transmitted to me personally today by Congressman Lyndon Johnson is considered practical and urgent. I have immediately made appointment of nine outstanding experienced patriotic business men of this state to serve on this board. First meeting will be held in my office Thursday morning at 10 o'clock."

The congressman, a member of the House Naval Affairs Committee, pointed out that Texas probably will share to a large extent in the aviation phase of the national defense program.

President Kring in Noon Address Tells How to Get Projects

Proper steps for taking immediate advantage of the nation's defense plans, and to secure establishment of training centers or other projects included in the defense program, were discussed by members of the Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers' Association, in convention here, at noon luncheon today.

Sidney Kring, president of the association and manager of the Wichita Falls chamber, who had just returned from a trip to Washington in the interest of securing appropriations for such projects, led the discussion. He told of experience gained in making proper contacts, of the necessity for having information about local situations properly prepared, and of the immediate action to be taken on defense plans.

He stressed the likelihood of huge expenditures in the southwest for training in aviation and predicted that the greatest era of air training in the history of the United States was no imminent.

Concrete examples by which chamber of commerce managers may keep in touch with Washington governmental departments and keep abreast of the defense activities were outlined by the speaker.

Margaret Murray, accompanied at the piano by Doris Lynn Pemberton gave two vocal numbers at the luncheon. Her rendition of "God Save America" brought loud cheers from the crowd. Jean Schottlander was presented in two dance numbers.

The noon luncheon, attended 100 per cent by the 150 or more TCCM members, their wives and guests who are already on hand, bore out the earlier intimation that the convention theme of "future betterment" will revolve around plans for aiding national defense in the various communities.

The convention program will continue this afternoon in the ball room of Hotel Scharbauer, to be followed at 5:30 o'clock by a chuck wagon supper given by Col. and Mrs. Clarence Scharbauer at their "South Curtis" ranch six miles north of Midland.

Friday's program includes morning and afternoon sessions, another noon luncheon and a banquet in the evening. A dance will be given Friday night.

Special entertainment for visiting ladies Friday, of which Mrs. Carl Covington, former manager of the chamber here, is chairman, include: 10 a. m., morning coffee at the home of Mrs. N. A. Lancaster, and 3:30 p. m., reception at the Midland Country Club.

On Saturday morning, final business session and convention program will be held, with adjournment before noon.

Shakeup for Cabinet of The French

PARIS, June 6 (AP)—Premier Paul Reynaud made over his cabinet early today, reinforcing it to face the critical phase of the war opened by the German offensive toward Paris and the prospects of Italian entry into the conflict.

Reynaud himself took the two most important posts of foreign minister and war minister in addition to the premiership and dropped Erouard Daladier, former premier, and more recently foreign minister, along with other political hold-overs from previous regimes.

The new cabinet was announced two hours after a 50-minute cabinet session which began at 11:30 p. m. (4:30 p. m. CST) last night.

A brief communique issued early this morning after a six-hour cabinet session with President Albert Lebrun at Elysee Palace informed Frenchmen that the man whose energy and frankness in one of France's great historical crises has won praise, had become a one-man director of the war.

"The premier becomes minister of foreign affairs at the same time as minister of national defense, these two ministers assuring the conduct of the war," the communique said.

Paul Boudouin, secretary of the administrative staff of the economic warfare committee and president of the Bank of Indo-China, was appointed assistant to Reynaud in the foreign ministry.

Gen. Charles de Gaulle, who was promoted from colonel in the May 25 army house-cleaning in which 15 of France's highest ranking commanders were ousted, became chief assistant to Reynaud in the war ministry.

Apart from the ouster of Daladier, the appointment of Jean Prouvost, France's outstanding newspaper publisher, to the post of minister (See SHAKEUP, page 3)

MIDLAND AIRPORT IS DEFENSE "CENTER"

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The Midland, Texas, municipal airport today was recognized as an important cog in national defense plans.

Improvement of the airport was among the 73 projects which Col. F. C. Harrington, WPA commissioner, gave priority to all other relief works.

Seventy-three developments were listed by the war and navy departments as of first importance to national defense.

High-ranking army officials were in Midland recently and it was on their endorsement that the field was designated one of the 73 national defense projects.

Mayor M. C. Ulmer recently made an extensive visit to governmental departments at Washington in connection with plans for linking the $125,000 Midland municipal airport with first projects of the national defense program.

Former Midland Officer Is Near Death in Angelo

SAN ANGELO, June 6 (Special)—The condition of Lonnie Koon, traffic squad member of the San Angelo police, was said critical and with chances of recovery extremely slight by an attending physician at a local hospital where Koon was carried after he had jumped backwards from the last few steps of a windmill at his residence and struck a sawed-off hoe handle which penetrated his body 18 inches.

Before Koon could be moved to a hospital two ambulance attendants of the Robert Massie Company and Policemen A. F. Brister and Duwin Reese had to saw off a part of the handle the pain being too intense to remove the section in his body.

At the hospital physicians performed a major operation removing the remainder of the handle.

The handle, which had been sawed off and was being used to mix cement, was standing near the base of the windmill when Koon jumped, police said.

Koon was formerly city patrolman in Midland, serving for several months here before returning to San Angelo, where he had previously made his home.

ALL ADVANCES SAID STOPPED

PARIS, June 6 (AP)—German motorized divisions and tank corps heading the Nazis' great drive for Paris smashed into the Weygand line along the Somme and Aisne rivers today, French sources reported, but only to be engulfed and broken by the "quagmire" defense of the French.

New French tactics for meeting the blitzkrieg were said to have entangled German tanks in forward zones, permitting their destruction at will.

Germans Claim Advances Along Entire Front

BERLIN, June 6 (AP)—The German high command announced today its troops, pushing toward the heart of France, had gained ground "everywhere" in its sweep toward the southwest.

This, however, was the only indication of the course of the Somme offensive given in a communique.

It related "successful" German raids last night on Cherbourg, the French channel port, and on air-dromes in central France and on the east and southeast coast of England.

It was reported total enemy airplane losses during the 24 hours had been 143.

A terse statement of the southwestward direction of the drive supported previous German indications that LeHavre and Cherbourg may be the first objectives of the offensive.

Frenchmen declared first results from the second day of the "battle for Paris" in which 2,000,000 men were engaged had proven the efficacy of the "quagmire" defense.

Paris commentators declared German tank divisions had suffered heavy losses.

French "75's" and anti-tank guns caught German tanks in a tangle of fire on the Somme front today in a

Rigid Restrictions Upon Admittance of Aliens Instituted

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The State Department clamped rigid restrictions upon the admission of aliens to the United States last night in an extension of the government's drive against the formation of a "fifth column" within this country.

Under two executive orders, entry will be permitted only to those who can establish a "legitimate purpose or reasonable need" for coming into the nation, and the shore leave of alien seamen will be sharply and cautiously limited.

The announcement followed a request by President Roosevelt that Congress provide funds for 500 additional agents for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, bringing the total to about 1,600.

The Bureau said that the bureau needed the additional sum "to meet the obligations that will be imposed upon it by the proposed expansion of the national security and defense program."

Meanwhile, General George C. Marshall, chief of staff, proposed that the army be increased from 230,000 to 400,000 men as a means, he hoped, of avoiding any (See RESTRICTIONS, page 8)

Mine Fields Sown By Italy as Move To Protect Self

ROME, June 6 (AP)—Mine fields have been sown in a 12-mile danger zone which Italy seeks to protect herself as a prospective war partner of Germany, a reliable informant disclosed today, while an authentic source in Rome warned the United States to keep out of the war.

U. S. Ambassadors Ask Materials Be Rushed to Allies

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The White House reported today America's ambassadors to Paris and London were telephoning and cabling their respective governments to speed up production of military essentials.

Stephen Early, presidential secretary, made the statement when asked about reports envoys had transmitted to the government a request that plane and military equipment to the allies be rushed.

The Town Quack

well the TCOM boys and girls are entertained. Time out—while we show the visitors a good time.

This is the kind of barbecues, banquets and kindred entertainments. To be able to attend one each evening for four days is fine, but to have to choose between a couple, missing the other, on two of those evenings, is bad.

For the benefit of chamber of commerce members, here for the convention, when Paul T. Vickers lived in Midland he was known as "Paul Truthful." The Reporter-Telegram editor, with initial and name reversed, naturally was known as "Truthful Paul."

A couple of citizens believe that we write a story on the front page about someone being under suspicion as a German sympathizer so as to sell him an ad on the back page denying it.

Yesterday's dairy show was a worthwhile exhibition and was viewed by hundreds of citizens. The milk cow is the foster mother of the human race, according to Jess Miles. Just to give something else to look at, Jess exhibited a three year old Milking Shorthorn bull which weighed 1850 and had a chassis like a truck.

Seminole citizens, despite the war, are going to stage a "third of a century" celebration June 14 and 15, holding a rodeo at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. each day, with a big free barbecue, dancing, sports and air maneuvers. Bronco riding, steering, riding, calf roping and bulldogging are on the rodeo program and it is expected that some of the best rodeo hands of the country will participate. A flock of Gaines county automobiles, ferrying a host of busy Seminole citizens, invited Midland yesterday afternoon while literature was distributed and the celebration was advertised. No doubt, Midlanders will be among those present, in goodly numbers.

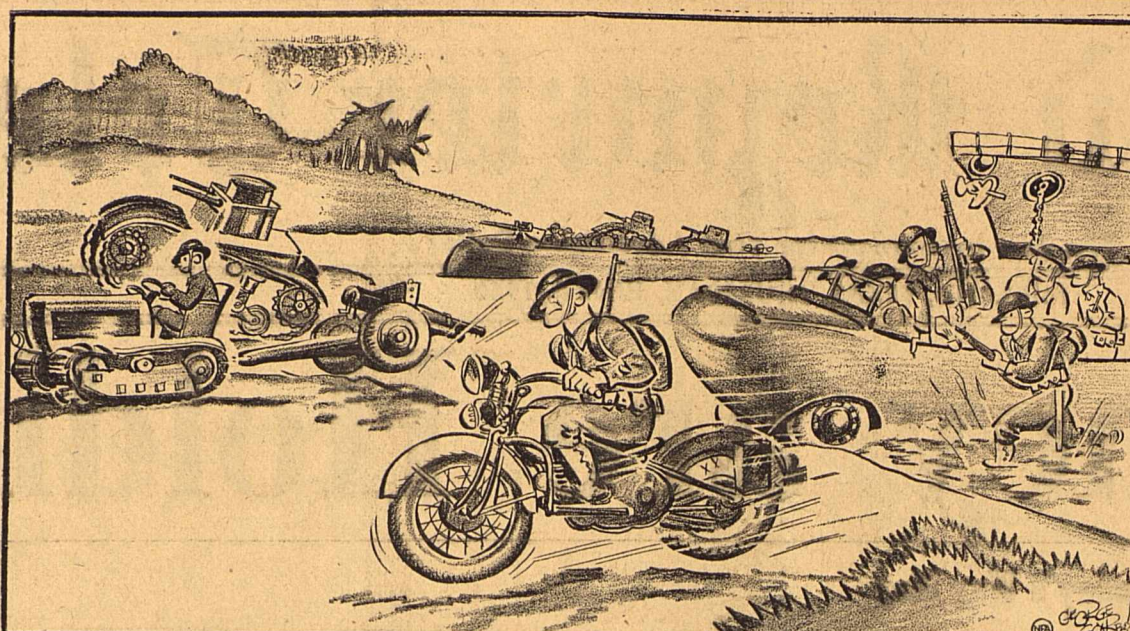

This is the day set aside for some Midland resident to pilot Paul T. Vickers out past the riding academy to his former homestead. The visiting McAllen chamber of commerce manager, who is one of the principal speakers on today's convention program, sent word ahead that he would like to have a bonded guide show him over the city and help him locate old landmarks. To find the old Vickers estate, one starts at the Petroleum Building, proceeds eastward on Texas to Lorraine, goes a block south to Hotel Scharbauer, enters the lobby, goes out again unless stopped and engaged in a long-winded argument about France's chances of stopping the Nazi onslaught, goes east to Main street, starts south, crosses the tracks, continues southward through a couple of brick columns (just west of the riding academy) which designate the entrance to "beautiful Belmont," continues on Main two blocks, goes west two blocks, then if he can't sight the place, turns around and comes back to town.

To talk to a visiting chamber of commerce manager on any subject is to hear, eventually, a discourse on the merits of said manager's home town. But let's hope that by the time the visitors return home, they will have time to sing a few praises of Midland and its citizenship. A lot will depend on how

Pension Client Cautious And So Loses Everything

DENVER, (UP). — A Fremont county old-age pension client, who refused a $1,000 offer for a $60 piece of property because he feared the money would deprive him of the Colorado benefits, is without both the money and the payments, where as he could have had both. Earl M. Kouns, director of the state welfare board, revealed that the unidentified client could have evaded a state regulation prohibiting ownership of property valued at more than $500 by selling it for the $1,000. Thus his payments would have continued. His refusal resulted in his dismissal from state rolls and meantime the $1,000 offer was dropped.

"At the present time I consider land use planning the most important job farm people, the Extension Service, and other agencies of the government have set themselves to do," M. L. Wilson, director of extension work, wrote recently in an agricultural publication.

U. S. MARINES TO BE MECHANIZED

BY BRUCE CATTON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—The next time the U. S. marines land to get a situation well in hand, they are likely to look a good deal different than the leathernecks of tradition. Instead of a group of little young men in bleached khaki, spilling out of small boats to splash through the surf and form on a sandy beach, the picture may be something like this:

An armored, amphibian boat heads for the beach, lets down wheels when it hits the shallows, and rolls up on dry land spitting fire from its plating. Another boat comes in and disgorges a detachment of light tanks which go wading into the jungle in the latest blitzkrieg style. And from still another boat emerges a platoon of marines on motorcycles, followed by light tractors hauling field pieces.

MONEY IN SIGHT FOR MECHANIZATION

WITH the money it is about to get from the emergency preparedness budget, the navy visualizes motorized tactics along this line, hopes to do something effective about mechanizing the marine corps. The "horse marines" may have been more mythical than actual, in the past, but the modern leatherneck is going to have all the mechanized equipment and protection his comrade-in-arms in the cavalry possesses.

Devil Dogs May Land Next Time With Boats on Wheels, Wading Tanks, Jungle Motorcycles

Some degree of mechanization has already been provided. The marines now have a few trucks, motorcycles and similar machines. But plans now under consideration would go a great deal farther.

If the program is carried through, every battleship and cruiser which carries a complement of marines would probably carry a few light tanks and armored cars as well. The armored amphibian-type boats mentioned above exist so far merely as ideas, but they may come into actual being as part of the mechanization program. In any case, the idea would be to enable the marines to play a full part in mechanized warfare without calling on the army to help.

CARIBBEAN ISLANDS ISSUE AT STAKE

THIS has a direct bearing on the current national defense problem. Naval strategists believe that the chief item in keeping any foe from striking at the United States is to keep all islands such as those which dot the Caribbean out of enemy hands. In case of war, that would mean landing parties going ashore to get the islands first.

Any such protective measures would have to come promptly or they would be too late. Once the war started, there probably wouldn't be time to mechanize the marines. Hence the desire now to get the job started.

Mechanized landing parties wouldn't be especially needed for the ordinary banana - republic-revolution fort of fracas. They'd be essential, though, in a contest with a first-class, well-armed overseas foe. And that's what's back of this new program.

SERIAL STORY

AN EYE FOR A GAL

BY HARRY HARRISON KROLL

CHAPTER IV.
THE terrific impact of Hannah Shriver's hand on Rossy McAfee's face left a glowing, four-pronged picture on his amazed and bloodless cheek. He yelped a moment on the floor, where he had fallen after the girl slapped the fire out of him. He gulped, started to rise. Murderer ran through his arteries and muscles. "You—you'll knock the tar out of you—"

Hannah made ready to meet him blow for blow. "Knock the tar out of me, dad-burn your low-life! I'll just come on and knock the tar out of me!" Rossy looked up at the passionate face of the girl he had once asked to marry him. He remembered that day, in the spring when the orchard trees were pink and white and the bland wind waved her tawny hair.

Rossy and Hannah had been sweethearts—and enemies—up from their childhood. Both families had known all along in time they would marry. Rossy had never given thought to anything else, nor had Hannah. At least not until this moment, though they had fought as often and as hard as they had hugged and kissed.

Anger went out of him. He got clumsily to his feet, and stood just staring at her. The commotion of their scrap brought a heavy figure to the door, and there stood Mrs. Patterson.

"Well, of all things!" the horrified lady cried, seeing what had just happened. She advanced upon Hannah. "Fighting! Quarreling! And you have only got here. Who ever heard of such goings on? I'm a mind to send you away, not let you stay another moment in my house—with all my nice girls—"

"It was my fault," Rossy said. "Blame it on me, not her. I reckon on it'll take me a little time to act like white folks." "I'll report you to Dr. Tollivar, sir!" Mrs. Patterson promised grimly.

Rossy picked up his hat from the floor and clamped it on his head. "I'll be seeing you," he said mechanically. Hannah bawled, "I don't want never to see you again, Rossy McAfee!" He turned upon her, "Them's the death-bed words of all the gals that make up the world's mess of old maids." He added with a sneer, "But I reckon you'd like to see our dear Cousin Steve Hogg again! He's got money that's never been spent!" Hannah came right back, "Yes, and he asked me to marry him, too, and at least he wouldn't two-time me every time I turned my back a minute!"

ROSSY knew this led to a renewal of the battle. He went sadly out and stood looking up at the stars. Mrs. Patterson would feel through his emotions to her real meaning. She gave his hand a pat and released it. "You see, Rossy, father knew all the while you had something to you. When Coach Hurd went up in Hell'n-Damnation to look you over, saw you play ball last summer, and came back and reported to daddy about you, we all had faith enough in you to work out a way for you to come to college. You don't know it, but you were the subject of a lot of discussion in our home as far back as last July."

"Was I?" he asked, studying her in bewilderment. "I never knew that." "I'm telling you now because you have to make good to make our faith come true." He sat there turning this in mind. Finally he turned to her. "Let me ask you something."

"Go ahead. If I can answer your question I will." "Was you a paw ever up in Hell'n-Damnation Hogg?" "ONLY for an instant did any change come into her expression. It was so little as a flicker of her long lashes.

"Why, I suppose so, Rossy. When he came to be president of Lincoln College he covered just about all the territory in this end of the state. He felt he should travel over his territory so as to know the people who would come to his school. I think he visited your neighborhood, too."

"I don't mean that way. I mean

Passenger Loses Seat, Is Run Over by Auto

MOBILE, Ala. (UP)—Here's a man who was run over by the car in which he was riding. President Williams, 50-year-old negro landscape worker, was a passenger in an automobile going out of Mobile. The machine skidded into a ditch. As it struck, the impact caused the door to open and threw Williams out into the ravine.

Meantime, the auto continued its wild careening and finally rolled over Williams' legs as he lay helpless in the ditch. He was not seriously injured.

"Did he ever live up in there?" "My father? Why, no. I can't think of his ever living in Hell'n-Damnation Hogg. If you're asking whether he is a relative of the family of Tollivers up in your country, the feuding Tollivers your family have been traditionally at odds with, no. How could we be?"

"Can't you see how absurd that would all be? My father a member of a feud clan, and his being president of one of the best colleges in the mountain country? That wouldn't make sense, would it?" She was leaning forward persuasively, and her very anxiety for him to accept the absurdity put him on his guard. Cousin Steve Hogg would have said, "She's mealy-mouthed you. She's sneaking up on your blind side. She's trying to catch you in a left-handed moment and hog the you." Something in Rossy believed that too. And he knew what Hannah would say, and his mother—all his kinfolks. "My father has always been in school work," that sweet, determined voice went on. "Ever since I can remember. He was principal of a big high school, then he went to the university and we lived there four years while father finished his master's and took his doctor's degree. He was a professor of education two years in a northern college. "That was before my mother died. Then this place called him. Naturally, the board of trustees would examine carefully the whole history of a man before they put him in a responsible job like this. Well, they gave him the presidency of Lincoln College. He has always been a fine, clean man. For me he's a great man, Rossy." But for Rossy he was the man who killed his father. (To Be Continued).

in which he paid tribute to the membership, the officers and directors and the efficient committees of the TCCM for their functioning during the year. Using data prepared by Secretary Shipp, he listed the names of members who were mentioned in the monthly TCCM News for their activities during the year.

He said that although the convention theme, "Future Betterment," was adopted some time before the present unrest caused by current European tragedies, and that the picture had changed as to possibilities for future betterment, there was a new challenge to national freedom and by reason of a changed economic world. He declared that chamber of commerce managers have the responsibility of giving sane guidance in their respective communities.

"Thank God that we are still in America," he said, predicting that beneficial ideas would be exchanged at the convention for the preservation of the freedom and ideas of American citizens.

Report of Grady Shipp of Longview, who is secretary and treasurer of the TCCM association, showed a gain in membership over the previous year, a substantial financial condition and an active program for the betterment of the profession.

Jerry Debenport, manager of the Odessa chamber, gave the principal address of the morning of interest to the TCCM members, outlining specific ideas and programs for organization work and for committee structure to get the best of information constituted the biggest cabinet change.

Proyvost replaced Louis O. Frossard who took over the ministry of public works from Anatole de Monzie. Frossard had been information minister since Reynaud became premier last March 21.

Yvon Delbos, foreign minister in the Popular Loen Blum cabinet, became minister of education, a post he held in the Daladier government.

Albert Sarraut, education minister and another veteran of French cabinets, was left out of the new line-up.

Lucian Lamareux was supplanted at the finance ministry by Marcel Routhillier, who was Reynaud's right-hand man when the premier was finance minister under Daladier.

Georges Pernot was named minister of the French family, with special control of the former ministry of public health previously under Marcel Herault.

Reynaud succeeded Daladier last March when the Daladier government fell as a result of the Allied debacle in Norway.

It was he who brought General Maxime Weygand and Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, both World War heroes, back into active charge of the war when the Germans broke through the Meuse front and subse-

Amphibian Tank Of 40-Man Size
Built for Navy

CLEARWATER, Fla. (U.P.) — A monster war-machine, an amphibian tank capable of carrying 40 soldiers of 7,000 pounds of cargo, is being built here by Donald Roebing, under a navy department contract.

Roebing, who had built two similar tanks for Red Cross and Coast Guard rescue work, has switched his attention from mercy to war at the request of navy officials. After witnessing demonstrations in which the early tanks splashed through water, climbed steep banks and moved swiftly through dense underbrush, they commissioned him to build an experimental naval tank.

The navy men believed that the machine might be used to transport men and supplies from ship to shore where favorable landing conditions are not available. Materials for the $25,000 model have already been ordered.

The machine probably will be similar in design to the amphibians already completed. Traction for the machines is furnished by wide caterpillar treads which grip soggy mud almost as easily as solid earth. They have a land speed of 25 miles an hour and a water speed of 8 1/2 miles an hour.

Giant Shotgun
As Air Weapon
Has 5 Barrels

M A C O N, Ga. (U.P.) — A Macon stockbroker, who shoots pigeons in his spare time, is awaiting word from Washington concerning an invention which, he says, would damage a flight of enemy war-planes as much as a shotgun blast does a covey of birds.

Norbert Dempsey, who served with the field artillery during the World War, has completed plans for a gigantic five-barreled shotgun which he asserts will bore a quarter-mile hole through the atmosphere. The plans have been sent to the War Department.

Dempsey said he first conceived the idea while on a hunting trip. "Why doesn't anti-aircraft fire work like this?" he asked himself as he reloaded his shotgun. "Shooting a plane with single shot or shrapnel is like shooting a dove with a rifle."

He devoted several months to a study of methods of fire and ordnance design, at an Atlanta gun shop, before making a final design for his proposed weapon. Army officials acknowledged receipt of the plans, and said they would receive careful study.

According to Dempsey, the gun would have an effective range of 25,000 to 35,000 feet.

quently drove to the English Channel.

At that time Reynaud made Weygand generalissimo of the Allied force, succeeding General Maurice Gustave Gamelin, and appointed Petain vice-premier.

The new "ministry of the French family" was created to meet refugee problems.

DAIRY EXHIBITS

A total of 44 exhibits, well-distributed among the six classes, were displayed by members of the county home demonstration clubs, under supervision of Miss Alpha Lynn, county home demonstration agent.

W. V. Maddox, A&M specialist in the manufacture of dairy products, judged the products, assisted by Prof. K. M. Renner, head of the dairy department of Texas Technological college at Lubbock, and his brother "Prof" Renner, creamery proprietor at Lamesa.

The judges declared that the cheese products were particularly good for this season of the year. Off-flavors in milk and butter, as well as cheese, they considered indicative of feeds, particularly bitter weeds and possibly other plants. Their comment on butter was that the temperature and time in churning had affected the grain of the product.

Winners in the six classes of dairy products exhibited were as follows: Cottage cheese—Blue ribbon, Mrs. Arthur Judkins; red ribbon, Mrs. Dick Abbott; white ribbon, Mrs. Johnnie Graham and Mrs. M. D. Rutherford.

Cooked cheese—Blue ribbon, Mrs. Dick Midkiff, Mrs. J. E. Wallace; red ribbon, Mrs. M. D. Rutherford, Mrs. Jeff King, Mrs. John Hemingway, and Mrs. Ray Hargis.

Neufchatel cheese—Red ribbon, Mrs. Ray Hargis, Mrs. Johnnie Graham; white ribbon, Mrs. M. D. Rutherford, Mrs. John Hemingway, Mrs. Johnnie Graham.

Sweet milk—Blue ribbon, Mrs. Neal Staton; red ribbon, Mrs. John King, Mrs. John Hemingway; white ribbon, Mrs. Jeff King.

Butter—Red ribbon, Mrs. John King; white ribbon, Mrs. Jeff King, Mrs. Warren Skaggs, Mrs. Arthur Judkins.

Blue ribbon winners of all classes drew for first, second and third premiums. Mrs. J. E. Wallace received the covered milk pail, Mrs. John King the milk stool, and Mrs. Johnnie Graham the strainer pads.

Miss Lynn expressed appreciation of the spirit shown by those whose products were judged and criticized and reported that club women and girls seemed pleased with the results of the day's exhibits.

Sculptor Finds McNutt Ideal Bust Subject

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (U.P.) — The handsome features of Social Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt have been transferred to a 2,300-pound block of white Alabama marble by E. H. Daniels of Indianapolis.

It is the second portrait bust of the Hoosier notable sculptured by the capital city artist. The first was in bronze, life size and unveiled in the Memorial Union building of the University of Indiana in 1934.

"In the McNutt head, the handsome quality goes far deeper than the mere exterior effects of white hair and tanned skin," declared Daniels. "He has a powerfully constructed head, with ideally proportioned features, and this structure contributes primarily to the handsome appearance of the man."

"McNutt has the most scholarly head in American public life today."

Egisto Calluzzi, a native of Carrara, Italy, has aided Daniels in "pointing up" the head. The Hoosier sculptor regards Calluzzi as a foremost expert in this work, which consists of making replicas in marble from plaster casts.

Vital Sun Rays To Be Metered

EVANSTON, Ill. (U.P.) — Northwestern University has obtained the first unit in a proposed nationwide network for measuring the intensity of the sun's ultra-violet rays, vital to the health of people, trees and plants.

The measuring device utilizes a magnesium-coated nickel disc on which the rays, arriving from any angle, strike up electric current which flows through tiny wires to a meter. Variation in the intensity of the rays striking the disc is reflected in changes in the amount of current recorded on the meter.

An automatic camera takes hourly meter readings.

The new type photo-electric cell utilizing the magnesium disc was designed by Dr. Robert J. Cashman, assistant physics professor at Northwestern, in collaboration with Dr. W. W. Coblenz, radiation physicist in the U. S. Bureau of Standards and a member of the council on physical therapy of the American Medical Association.

six years' experimentation, is more sensitive to ultra-violet radiation than any cell previously devised. It records certain ultra-violet wave lengths, invisible to the eye, but essential to life.

Physicians regard the measuring experiment with keen interest because of ultra-violet rays' wide usage in therapeutic treatment, their production of vitamin D through chemical reactions, their curative effect on rickets and their effect on living things, enabling them to assimilate chemicals for bones and teeth.

During 1939, 4,320,829 trucks were registered in the United States. This was an all-time high for the nation.

Prison Admits Woman After Fourth Refusal

MANILA (U.P.) — After four vain attempts a Filipino woman finally was permitted to enter Bilbid prison to begin a two-year sentence after she properly identified herself to the satisfaction of prison officials.

Sentenced in Camarines Sur province, the woman voluntarily came to Manila and surrendered at the prison but was four times turned away because she could not identify herself as the person described in the commitment papers she carried. Locating a Manila man who knew her, she induced prison authorities to let her begin her sentence.

During 1939 a total of $399,097.00 was collected in state registration fees.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.
The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Scouts Prepare for Their Summer Camp

Much preparation for camp is being made daily by scouts of troop 54 who meet at the scout hall and plan the things they are going to do while in camp and build their camp boxes to keep their equipment in during transportation and while in camp. The fee for 10 days in camp is $9.50 and meals on the way up and back from camp will be about $1.50 and with a small amount to spend while there the scouts can have a complete camp for less than $15.00. Plans also include a stop over at Carlsbad Caverns but this extra trip probably can be made without any extra cost.
Troop 54 will have 30 or more campers, according to the latest reports, and several scouts have received promotions in order to better handle all patrols during the summer—both at camp and at home. Kenneth Taylor was promoted from patrol leader to junior assistant scoutmaster. Kenneth holds the rank of Eagle with a good record. Glenn Murray, Star scout, was raised from assistant patrol leader of the Python patrol to leader of the Wolf patrol. Burvin Hines, Star scout, was promoted to patrol leader of the Flaming Arrow patrol from assistant of the Horned Frog patrol. John Sindorf was promoted in the Fox patrol from assistant to patrol leader. Preston Dickson was placed in command of the Deer patrol for the summer during the absence of the regular leader, Frank Troseth.
Scouts may come to the scout hall daily where they can get help on scout work and preparation for camp.

COWBOYS LOSE OPENER TO THE GOLD SOX

Teams Will Meet in Two Games Tonight On Amarillo Field

AMARILLO, June 6 (Special)—The Amarillo Gold Sox took the opener of a four-game series with the Midland Cowboys here last night by a score of 9-5.

Eight of the Sox runs came in the first two innings, four in each frame. After that, Red Hay held them to one run but the game was too far gone for the Cowboys ever to catch up.

Each team collected 12 hits but the Sox managed to bunch theirs to a better advantage. Only three errors were made, one by the Cowboys and two by the Sox.

The team will meet in two games tonight, the first starting at 6:30. The final game of the series will be played here tomorrow night and the Cowboys will return home to open up a 10-day home stand.

The Gold Sox hit 'em where Sammy Hale's Cowboys couldn't field them last night, out of the park. Seven of Amarillo's nine runs were made by four home runs, E. Altenburg in the first with two on, Sanders in the first with none on, Fullenwider in the second with one on and Fullenwider in the fourth with none on.

Two unearned runs were given Amarillo in the second when Naranjo fielded Duarte's single, overthrew into the third base dugout with the bases loaded.

Hale led the Cowboy hitters with two doubles and two singles in five times at bat. Kirby Jordan homered with none on in the seventh.

First Pecos Golf Tourney Slated For July 3 and 4

PECOS, June 6.—Pecos's first annual golf tournament will be played over the Sierra Vista Golf Course Wednesday and Thursday, July 3 and 4.

Webb Armstrong, owner, and Cathryn Armstrong, manager, this week announced plans for the tournament, the first to be held in Pecos in a number of years. Entrance will be $2.

Qualifying rounds may be turned in any time before 7 o'clock the day of July 3, with a Calcutta pool scheduled to be held at that time. Match play starts at 7 o'clock Thursday morning, July 4, to continue throughout the day.

Players entered and their families will be guests of the management Thursday evening at a barbecue to be served at the course, Mr. Armstrong said.

For the benefit of out of town persons or local golfers unable to play qualifying round on Wednesday, July 3, scores will be accepted before that time in all except the championship flight. Out of town entrants may mail scores in from home courses and local players will be allowed to qualify on the Sierra Vista course the weekend preceding the tournament.

Mr. Armstrong pointed out the tournament was being planned to conflict in no way with the staging of the 11th annual Pecos Rodeo and Celebration on the same dates. The Calcutta pool and serving of the barbecue on successive evenings are being arranged to be over before the night performance of the rodeo.

The tournament is expected to attract and score or more local players as well as draw from surrounding towns. Handsome prizes will be offered in all flights and in consolation tournament.

"Golfers who enter will be assured of as smooth running a tournament as possible for us to put on in one day," Mr. Armstrong said. "Matches will be run off in business like manner, and long unnecessary waits will be out of order."

At present plans for including a woman's flight in the tournament are being discussed but have not passed that stage. The course operators are anxious to determine the reaction to a woman's flight before including it.

DETROIT ZOO DIRECTOR WANTS MEN UNTRAINED

DETROIT (U.P.)—Experts may be required to care for animals of some public zoos, but John T. Millen, Detroit's zoo director, wants only greenhorns.

Working for him as the season opening nears are eight former farmers, six automotive employes, two carpenters, two mechanics, a building construction worker, a millwright, a driver of a milk truck, a blueprinting worker, and a grocery proprietor.

Millen tells his recruits the habits of the animals they deal with, but he has only one set rule for all employes: "Close the doors behind you and be sure they're closed."

Driscoll Hails Veteran Squad At Marquette

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (U.P.)—Marquette University's football team will be stronger all around next fall and should chalk up its finest season since Coach John Leo (Paddy) Driscoll took over the Golden Avalanche four years ago, observers here believe.

Last year Marquette split an eight-game schedule. Next fall, Driscoll's team will play nine games against Wisconsin, Iowa State, Creighton, Texas Tech, Duquesne, Manhattan, Michigan State, Detroit and Arizona.

When the Marquette squad completed spring training, Driscoll termed it the most satisfactory since he came to Milwaukee.

"We've got our team picked already," said Driscoll, "and that's something we've never been able to do before in the spring."

Squad Has 18 Veterans.

His team is built around 18 lettermen and a crop of promising freshmen who probably will replace some of the veteran players when they become sophomores next fall. The starting backfield will consist of three juniors, Jimmy Richardson, the squad's ace passer, Johnny Goodyear, and Doug Renzel, and one senior, Bill Phillips, quarterback. A second unit is composed of three veterans and a freshman, John Piese, quarterback. The season's players are Bob McCahill and Charles Kriz, halfbacks, and Steve Seskowski, fullback. Two top-ranking fullbacks will be able to step in for either Renzel or Seskowski. They are Freddy Rice and Bob Rank.

Still other promising backs are Clair Voss, Charles Beyer, Steve Zimmerman, Bob Dams, Bob O'Fagan, Norm, Woods, and Art Kube.

Line Competition Strong.

Only two sophomores have a chance of breaking into Marquette's veteran line. They are Jack Pfeiffer, tackle, and Al Klug, end. Three veterans will defend the middle of the line—Ray Apolskis, center, and Bob Kennitz and Ten Tunis, guards. Charlie Pfeiffer is sure of one of the tackle posts and Ed Thomsen and Don Vossberg will start at ends. However Klug and Selske probably will see a lot of action at the wing positions.

Other able linemen include Gregory Prodomus and Jim Briggs, center; Edwin Tarnow, Joe Kinsey, and Irv Cohen, guards; Ery Rink, Dick Brye, Bill Fugate and Gordon Muster, tackles, and Frank Schweers, Dick Roche and Ed Geraghty, ends.

Driscoll will begin fall practice Sept. 10. Marquette's first opponent will be its intra-state rival, Wisconsin, on Oct. 5.

Biography of Dr. D. J. Sandefur Is Now Off Presses

ABILENE.—The contribution of a Christian educator, nationally known, to the building of the empire that is West Texas, is the story told in the newly published biography of Jefferson Davis Sandefur, for 31 years president of Hardin-Simmons University, here in Abilene.

Dr. Sandefur, a namesake of Jefferson Davis, the great Southern statesman, was president of Hardin-Simmons from 1909 until his death last March 22.

The biography, titled Jefferson Davis Sandefur, Christian Educator, was written by Inez Woodward Sandefur, a daughter-in-law, and wife of the late Prexy's younger son, Gib, and is published by the Boardman Press, in Nashville.

From Dr. Sandefur's birth in a cabin on "Peckerwood Creek, on Nubbin Ridge, near Evening Shade in Sharp county, Arkansas," through boyhood days as a rail splitter, to come a self-made man and educator, and rise to a role as the dean among senior college and university presidents in the Southwest, a position that was his for several years before his death, is the story the biography tells.

"It is absolutely the finest presentation of the cause of Christian Education as envisioned and expressed in the seen," said Dr. John L. Hill, Nashville publisher. "It contains iron and cheer for all who believe that the building of character is the chief end of education."

Dr. R. N. Richardson, Hardin-Simmons executive vice president, and a Southwest history authority, termed it a "great inspirational volume, and a fine life story of a great Christian layman and educator."

"It is more than a biography. It is an account of the educational and cultural development of West Texas," said Wendell Bedichek, managing editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, in the first review of the 376-page illustrated volume received.

Inez Woodward Sandefur, the biography's author, is a Nolan county and West Texas girl, whose mother died in early childhood, and who was reared by her grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Woodward, of Roscoe. She is an alumna of Hardin-Simmons, and was a campus favorite as an undergraduate. She holds bachelor and master's degrees from H-SU.

Eleven years residence with the family of Dr. Sandefur, since her marriage to G. B. Sandefur in 1929, form the intimate, personal background on which the author draws for her biography.

Dedication of the volume is to the "alumni and ex-students of Hardin-Simmons University, which number includes my mother, Annie Destine Thomas Woodward." A foreword is by Dr. T. Wilkinson Riddle, Plymouth, England, divine who said, "Prexy Sandefur knew how to trust in God and keep his powder dry."

Beautifully designed, with cover in the university's purple and gold colors, the biography contains 26 full pages of illustrations, and photographic end papers of Hardin-Simmons campus scenes.

"It is an invaluable history of the school, and its publication is timely as plans for the university's semi-centennial celebration in 1941 and 1942 go forward," said Dr. Richardson.

Texas Ready to Aid In Building Homes

COLLEGE STATION.—Texas is ready to cooperate in the program to promote the building of low-cost homes in rural communities and for far buildings and repairs, H. H. Williamson, director of the Texas A. and M. Extension Service, has announced.

Plans for the program have been drawn up by M. L. Wilson, director of the USDA Extension Service and chairman of the Central Housing Committee.

The building industry has set up the National Homes Foundation to cooperate with various federal agencies, including the Farm Credit Administration, Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Federal Housing Administration, Federal National Mortgage Association, and the RFC Mortgage Company.

necessity for emergency peace time mobilization of the national guard.

Late in the day, President Roosevelt expressed opposition to a plan advanced by Senator Austin (R-Vt) for the creation of a five-member noon-partisan authority to assist the President with his defense program. Mr. Roosevelt described the proposal as "unnecessary" in view of the defense commission which he appointed last week.

Earlier, committees of the House and Senate, acting swiftly and all but unanimously, approved a congressional restatement of the Monroe Doctrine, phrased in unmistakable terms and addressed, the Senate group said, specifically to Germany.

Formally reported the legislation, the Senate committee said the contemplated action was "material and urgent at the present time by reason of the ownership by The Netherlands of certain islands in the Gulf of Mexico and the conquest of The Netherlands by Germany."

The legislation, introduced by Senator Pittman (D-NeV) and Rep.

Ray Trammell and J. C. Smith returned Tuesday from Dallas where they attended a shoe convention.

Bloom (D-NY), states that the United States would neither recognize for acquiescence in the transfer of title to any portion of the Western Hemisphere from one non-American nation to another.

After voting its approval of this, the Senate committee proceeded to flatten again an effort by Senator Pepper (D-Fla) to put American assistance to the Allies on an "every thing-short-of-war" basis.

"At the army's instance, President Roosevelt had requested authority to call out the national guard so that it might relieve regular army units for emergency duty at the Panama Canal, Puerto Rico or elsewhere, if necessary. This aroused opposition in Congress and brought proposals that the regular army be increased instead.

Rotary Joint Session To Be Well Attended

The inter-city meeting will be at the new Odessa Country Club, on the highway near the line of Midland and Ector counties, starting at 8:15 p.m. A chicken barbecue will form basis of the feast.

An attendance contest is being staged between the two clubs, a Rotarian and wife or lady guest to count one, and a single Rotarian only one-half.

No luncheon of the club here was held today but visiting Rotarians were given "make up" cards at noon at Hotel Scharbauer.

Color Shades Restricted To Dozen in Britain

LONDON (U.P.) — Women will spend much less time this year matching colorful patterns for the reason they will have only 12 shades to choose from.

Men, too, will have to be content with some half dozen shades of brown, blues and grays.

The dyeing section of the Yorkshire woolen industry considers this reduction in colors necessary to offset the tremendous war demand for khaki, air force blue and navy blue. They are concentrating on the lighter shades for spring.

West End dressmakers approve of the idea. They consider women have become color conscious with the present multitudinous choice, and that "equally good effects can be obtained within a smaller range.
