British Prepare To Quit Rumania As Break Looms

Secret Documents Of Legation Destroyed As Germans Move In

By The Associated Press

BUCHAREST, Oct. 10.—British legation officials began destroying secret documents today, apparently indicating a break in diplomatic relations with Rumania was near as German troops filtered into the country.

High ranking German officers arriving in Bucharest took over choice suites in the leading hotels and rushed from conference to conference making preparations for garrisoning Nazi soldiers soon to be stationed throughout the country.

British authorities said they had no new information concerning the arrival of German troops in Rumania, but one official said he had personally seen Italian army officers at Galatz, on the Danube river, about 100 miles from the Black Sea.

An official announcement said German-Rumanian economic talks would begin in Berlin Oct. 18.

Score British

The German Language Press opened a violent anti-British campaign and said Britain was considering setting up opposition "Rumanian government" in London.

Sources close to the British legation said departure of all British citizens from Rumania "appears to be only a matter of a few days."

A Rumanian war council presided over by Premier General Ion Antonescu was authoritatively reported to have voted vital measures designed to strengthen the nation militarily and prepare it for possible air attack.

It was announced that German and Rumanian negotiators who will meet at Berlin Oct. 18 will discuss the banning of all exports except to Germany, Italy and countries friendly to the Axis as well as the immediate shipment of 15,000 pigs, 5,000 cattle and 5,000 cars of lumber to Germany.

Give Up Investments

Although reluctant to abandon their $300,000,000 investment in the rich Rumanian oil fields and their most important "listing post" in the Balkans, the British admittedly were apprehensive of being trapped by the advancing nazis if they hesitated too long.

Many Britons already have left the country.

Sir Reginald Hoare, British minister to Rumania, remained at his post in Bucharest, but it appeared he had virtually exhausted all possibilities of obtaining some kind of official reassurance from Rumanian officials which would permit Britain to continue normal diplomatic relations with the new Iron Guard State.

Bombs Heading Down

De Gaulle Raises Free French Flag Over Cameroons

By The Associated Press

DUALA, Cameroons, With The De Gaulle Expedition, Oct. 9 (Delayed).—General Charles De Gaulle landed here today and raised his standard of the "free French" forces on French soil for the first time since the French-German armistice.

De Gaulle stepped ashore at 12:30 p. m. from the gunboat commandant Duboc which took part in the ill-starred attempt to land at Dakar. He kissed governor general Leclerc on both cheeks and then the two reviewed native soldiers and sailors and French troops of the Cameroons garrison on the pier.

The Cameroons decided some time ago to join De Gaulle's movement to carry on the war against Germany. While the members of the expedition were departing, Gen. De Gaulle, who has been administering the "free French" fight against Germany from London, drove through the densely packed streets of the beleaguered city to the governor's palace.

There he was presented to local officials and native chieftains, many of whom had come from Senegal, Dahomey and the Ivory Coast to join his fight.

In presenting the "free French" leader, Leclerc said: "I have not promised the people of the Cameroons an easy life but rather one of sacrifice. There are no weak hearts here. We are men of firm resolution. Cameroons is ready for all eventualities."

Japanese Prevent Arrest Of Swiss

SHANGHAI, Oct. 10 (AP).—Japanese gendarmes today prevented Shanghai Municipal Council Police from arresting L. A. Winder, a Swiss national on a Swiss consular warrant charging him with a $1,000,000 larceny.

The Municipal Police asserted Winder was known to have close connections with the Japanese. The case is expected to have widespread repercussions. Authorities of the International Settlement held it constituted overt Japanese interference with the Settlement's police powers.

The charge—larceny of 20,000,000 Chinese dollars worth of Chinese coins and ingots—is the biggest such case in Shanghai's history. The coins and ingots were deposited in a warehouse of the Commercial Express and Storage Company in the center of the International Settlement.

It is charged in the warrant which Municipal Police attempted to serve today that Winder leased part of the warehouse, ostensibly to manufacture bullet-proof vests, but actually at night removed the copper by trucks and shipped it across Soochow Creek into Hongkew, repackaging it to be sand and cement.

If arrested Winder will be tried in a Swiss consular court.

PIE SUPPER POSTPONED

Zero Hour In Far East Is Believed Near

Exodus Of American Women And Children From China Starts

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, Oct. 10.—The exodus of American women and children in response to State Department advice gained momentum tonight amid the growing conviction that the zero hour in Japanese-United States relations is approaching.

No panic was discernible, but there was a nervous tension as households here were rapidly broken up, furniture packers overwhelmed with orders and banks crowded with foreigners attempting to transfer funds.

A partial survey showed that about 250 Americans either had booked passage from Japan or applied for reservations.

Intense speculation was aroused by United States Ambassador Joseph C. Crew's two-hour conference yesterday with Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka, their second in three days.

Official quarters maintained rigid silence. The lone authoritative comment was, "the conversations were not confined to any single issue." Observers expressed belief that a powerful effort was being made to ease the strain and deflect any acute crisis.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 10 (AP).—Congestion of Japanese-controlled shipping and railway lines will prevent several hundred Americans from leaving the Orient for many weeks, it was learned today, even if the State Department should send ships to Shanghai at once for their removal.

Most of these Americans are in North China. Others are in Indo-China, isolated at present by the interruption of all normal transportation. Removal of those in North China would involve considerable delay even if a ship were sent to Chinwangtao or other northern ports.

The first alarm caused by the advice of the State Department had passed today and most Americans held the view the next move was up to the State Department itself.

Italian "Big Push" Into Egypt Thought Ready By British

By Edward Kennedy

WITH THE BRITISH FORCES IN EGYPT, Oct. 10 (AP).—Sudden activity of Italian desert patrols around Sidi Barrani after three weeks of quiet led British military men to believe today that the Italians are making final preparations for their long-awaited "big push" into Egypt.

The British, strongly reinforced by Australian, New Zealand and "Free French" troops which have been streaming into Egypt, expressed confidence in their ability to throw back such an offensive.

Despite predictions of the Fascist press that Italy would oust Britain swiftly from the Mediterranean on her entrance into the war last June 10, the British still hold both ends of what Italians call "mare nostrum" (our sea) and they claim to have broken communication between Italy and Libya.

Thus far Italy's only territorial gain in Africa has been British Somaliland and a narrow strip along the Egyptian coast 70 miles long.

The Italians were permitted to advance into Egypt as far as Sidi Barrani, it is explained, in line with the British decision to choose their own defense lines and the knowledge that the further East the Italians are extended the further they will be from their base of supplies.

University Lands To Be Offered For Lease

AUSTIN, Oct. 10 (AP).—Sixty-one tracts of West Texas land will be offered by the University of Texas for oil and gas development in a public auction of leases Nov. 8. The tracts are located in Andrews, Crane, Upton, Crockett and Pecos counties. Most of them are 160 acres in size.

Nazis Report Heavy Damage On Thames, In London Proper

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, Oct. 10.—Informed German sources said today Nazi fliers observed four big fires in the vicinity of the House of Parliament buildings in London during the early morning hours.

The high command itself said the "heaviest damage was inflicted on docks in the Thames bend" in an all night raid which followed an incessant day attack.

Blasts of Nazi observation planes, reporting to Berlin, said they saw one extensive blaze still burning in central London today.

Nazi bombers claimed scores of direct hits on fortifications and railroad stations in South England this morning with heavy and medium caliber bombs.

Informed sources declared several hundred night fliers unloaded more than 200,000 pounds of explosives on London.

Reviewing action of the past 24 hours, the high command reported: "Direct hits which destroyed hangars, barracks and grounded planes at St. Eval, Penrose and St. Merryn, among "several" airports attacked in central and southern England.

Sinking of two British merchantmen by submarine and several bomb hits amidship on a British merchant ship at sea, causing it to halt, break into flames and list and "Bombing of the port of Cardiff."

The high command dismissed British raids on German and German-occupied territory with the statement that the damage could be quickly repaired.

Ten British planes were said to have been destroyed yesterday, while four German planes were reported missing.

Taubert Well Draws Pay Horizon Neared Interest As McKee

By Frank Gardner
Oilmen's attention was focused today upon Taubert, McKee & Sienoneit No. 1 Mrs. Virginia W. Crockett, northern Pecos County deep test, as it neared the point in which an abandoned well a mile and a quarter to the north, Magnolia Petroleum Company and Tex-Mex Petroleum Corporation No. 1-A J. H. McKee, headed high-gravity oil and gas from Simpson sand of the middle Ordovician.

Taubert and associates' well this morning was drilling at 5,248 feet in Simpson lime and shale. It is said to be running about flat with the old McKee well, which cored Simpson oil sand from 5,271-80 feet. There is only seven feet difference in elevation between the two wells, No. 1 Crockett being the higher.

Continuance Asked In Scarborough Will Case In Court Here

Continuance in the suit contesting validity of the will left by the late W. F. Scarborough, Midland and Winkler county ranchman, was asked of District Judge Cecil Collins this afternoon by attorneys, for Mrs. Hollis Scarborough.

A codicil to the will excluding Hollis Scarborough an his children from sharing in the estate is being contested by Mrs. Hollis Scarborough. W. F. Scarborough died as a result of gunshot wounds inflicted by Hollis Scarborough, his son. The codicil was added to the will before his death.

Hollis Scarborough, after a hearing, was sent to a veterans' hospital and later committed suicide by hanging himself.

Celebration Of East Texas Field Starts

KILGORE, Tex., Oct. 10 (AP).—The world's largest oil field was bedecked with flags today as its 1,016 owners paused for a three-day birthday celebration.

The giant of the petroleum world, which has yielded more than 1,500,000,000 (billion) barrels of oil, has about 26,000 wells as evidence of its greatness on its tenth anniversary.

Oil men who had gathered were relating a few statistics as compiled by geologists. These included: The field has already produced enough oil to cover its entire 136,000 productive acres with a foot and a half of oil. The ultimate recovery, now estimated at 5,000,000,000 barrels, would submerge the entire field under four feet of oil.

Chamber Of Commerce Membership Campaign Teams Report Tonight

A detailed statement on the annual membership campaign of the Midland Chamber of Commerce will be made this evening, and chamber of commerce officials were highly optimistic over results to date.

The drive started yesterday morning and will be brought to a close at five o'clock this afternoon. Follow up work will be continued by the membership committee until all prospects have been visited.

The thirty-five or more workers who have participated in the campaign for new members for the civic organization will meet in the Blue Room of Hotel Scarbauer at 7 o'clock this evening to make reports.

The winning team in the campaign contest will be announced and members of the losing side will pay for the dinner of the winners. One team is captained by Daniel H. Griffith and the other by John P. Butler.

All workers in the drive are requested to check in at the chamber of commerce office not later than 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Dutch Seek Planes To Defend Indies

MANILA, Oct. 10 (AP).—Major M. Van Haselen, flight commander of the Dutch Indies air force, arrived here today by special plane from Java enroute to the United States on an official mission in connection with defense of the East Indies.

Japanese Foreign Minister Attempts To Soothe Far East Crisis By Declaring Axis Pact Is Directed For, Not Against United States

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP).—Discussions between the United States and Great Britain on the possibilities of joint defense action in the Pacific were reported today by R. A. Butler, undersecretary of foreign affairs, in a statement to the House of Commons.

The disclosure—indicating a tightening Anglo-American bond against the new Rome-Berlin-Tokyo alliance—came as Londoners trudged through debris-littered streets after another night of terror from the skies.

Kirk Will Return Home For Report On German Conditions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP).—Alexander Kirk, American Charge D'Affairs in Berlin, has been called back to Washington for consultation.

The state department, announcing this today, said Kirk might later assume the Charge D'Affairs post in Rome because William Phillips, Ambassador to Italy, was too ill to return immediately.

Kirk has been in charge of American affairs in Germany about two years since Ambassador Hugh Wilson was recalled. He will leave the embassy temporarily in charge of Leland Morris, who formerly was consul at Vienna.

Rotarians Told Work Will Make Democracy Safe

"Work will make this democracy safe for the world," Tom Seay, attorney, told the Midland Rotary Club at its meeting today.

Seay outlined the trials, troubles and tribulations of a modern day life and asserted "lots of people are practicing law on street corners without a license."

He described the law business as a profession that is agreeable and interesting but requiring lots of other profession or business.

"Work your head off and you can succeed in almost any business," he said. "That holds true for the law business."

Frank Stubbeman spoke on "Fire Prevention," urging continuation of educational work to prevent fires. He pointed to the decrease in fire insurance rates as a result of prevention work.

Lt. Col. W. C. Lattimore of Waco told Rotarians "People of this section are interested in national defense and prepared to do their part."

C. L. Gladden was introduced as a new member of the club.

Glass And Yeckel Back From Bear Hunt

George W. Glass and Phil Yeckel returned last night from a bear hunt in the Mogollon mountains northwest of Silver City, N. M. They hunted horseback with dogs and sighted four bear on the hunt. Glass netting his animal, but they never came close enough for a second. They were gone about ten days.

The High Cost Of Killing

How much is a human life worth? There have been many answers, widely varied. The chemical constituents of the body can be purchased in a drug store currently for about $1.05. A few weeks ago a cold criminal asked $100,000 for the life of a child, would have got it if his plans hadn't gone astray.

The Germans have their own answer. London admits it suffered 400 deaths in a recent day's raids, when 2200 tons of bombs were dumped on the city. That's an average of 5 1/2 tons of bombs for one human life.

Now in the United States a 1000-pound bomb costs between $175 and $200, so 5 1/2 tons would run to between $1650 and $2200. In Germany, where labor is cheaper and factories are government-run, the cost may be somewhat lower. But in addition to the cost of the bomb, there must be planes and men to drop the bombs on London, and they must have gas and oil, food and shelter. It would be a fair estimate to say each life the German bombers have taken cost at least $2000—and that's not counting plane losses.

That's the price Adolf Hitler is willing to pay for the life of one man or woman or child in his self-imposed task of carrying the Nazi kultur to England.

Uncle Sam--Animal Dealer

Uncle Sam has a pretty sizable debt right now, and this defense business is costing him more and more every day, so you can't exactly blame the old boy for trying to make an honest penny now and then.

Right now he's advertising animals for sale. He has a surplus of 109 buffaloes, 58 elk and 50 mule deer on four of his wildlife refuges. So he's offering them at prices ranging from $30 to $60.

Anyone who wants buffaloes or elk or mule deer can buy them alive and crated or butchered and dressed, although preference will be given to applications for purchasing them alive for breeding or exhibition. Orders are being taken at the Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior.

All this means Uncle Sam's protection and conservation measures are a fine thing for the animals, aside from any money he's going to take in, which obviously won't be a great deal.

Sales Tax--English Version

Great Britain's latest tax measure proves again a fact which no longer needs proving—that was cost money.

Scheduled to go into effect Oct. 21 is a "purchase tax," similar to the sales tax now used in many parts of the United States. The rate on such common items as books, newspapers, shoes, kitchen utensils and clothing will be 12 per cent. On "luxury" goods, as silk stockings, furs and jewelry, the rate will be 24 per cent. Compare those rates with American sales taxes which range between 1 and 3 per cent generally.

Yet that is the way it must be. Somehow this war must be paid for if Britain has any hope of rebuilding economically after the dark days pass.

SERIAL STORY

NEW YORK JUNGLE

BY WRAY WADE SEVERN

COPYRIGHT, 1940. NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Adam introduces his wife, Pat, 20 years younger than himself, Marta makes a brilliant entrance, and the tension eases. Coffee is served in Adam's basement trophy room. Nella hears footsteps in the hall. She tries the door, fails to open it. Hugh also tries, then announces: "We're locked in."

A SHOT IN THE DARK

ADAM jerked at the door. "It's locked, all right."

"Locked in!" Patricia Langdon breathed, eyes half ironical, half afraid. "What a climax to the evening!"

"Climax?" Say beginning, Pat, Gundrum corrected. "Probably a gang of thieves are upstairs, looting the place."

"Then we are as helpless as rats in a trap," Nella began to cry.

"Stop that, Nella!" Hugh commanded. With five able-bodied men and a gun rack to protect you, what have you to fear?"

"Were all the windows closed on the upper floors, Togi?" Adam asked.

"Closed because of storm. Maybe thief could get in by using pen-knife at window latch," the valet replied.

"Someone may be playing a joke on us," Marta suggested.

"Who that we know would be out in this storm, breaking into a house just for a joke?" Sidney demanded.

"A low rumble of thunder, followed by a gust of wind and a torrent of rain gave point to his words."

"The sooner we get upstairs, the less we'll find missing," Hugh said. "Shall I shoot the lock, Adam?"

"Yes, but stand as far as possible from the door so as not to splinter the oak," Adam Langdon told him.

"Don't shoot until all of us are armed," Hugh, Sidney suggested. "There may be a gang up there. Never can tell, and it's best to play safe."

Acting immediately on his own suggestion, Braitwood led the way to the gun racks. While most of Langdon's guns were antiques, they were all in working order—Adam insisted upon that. Insisted, too, that each derring-doe and dueling pistol be kept loaded.

"A gun is no good if it can't be used," he had explained. "I like to see just how well they shoot, anyway."

In a few seconds each man had selected a weapon. Hugh squared before the door.

"If anyone is in the hall trying to play a joke on us, get out of the way," he called. "I'm shooting the lock."

The ticking of the clock above the fireplace was the only sound while they waited for the sound of retreating steps. Then another gust of wind and a loud peal of thunder wiped out the silence.

A second terrific detonation followed. It rocked the house with such loud violence that none knew whether or not Hugh had actually fired. Instantly, the lights went out.

TERROR swept through the blackness of the room. A pin-point of light flickered beneath the coffee urn. Vivid flashes of lightning revealed frightened faces. A woman screamed. Then thunder crashed about them, as the full fury of the storm seemed concentrated on this single, isolated house.

A brilliant flash illuminated the room for a fraction of a second. Almost instantly the explosion of thunder shook the house again.

Outside, a tree crashed to the ground. Stillness followed. A match flickered momentarily in the blackness, went out. Then the storm unleashed a new barrage. No one spoke. All stood tense, half afraid the house might be struck.

Braitwood, at Hugh's right, moved toward the door. It swung open at his pull. He struck a match, held it high, as he peered out into the hall. The draft from the open door extinguished the light.

"Stay here and guard the woman, Adam!" Hugh's voice rang out. "Sid and I will go upstairs. Gundrum, you'd better look in the storeroom. Togi, you search the furnace room. If you get in a corner, call us and we'll come running back."

The men, grouped about the door, heard the directions, but over at the table where the women remained, his words were not audible above the storm, as it later appeared. At the foot of the stairs, leading up from the hall outside the Jungle, the four men separated, Sidney following Hugh, gun in hand. Gundrum and Togi turned to near-by doors.

Hugh and Sidney found the door at the top of the stairs unlocked, and, to their surprise, the upper floors fully lighted.

"By Jove," Hugh exclaimed. "I thought the entire lighting plant had been crippled. Must have been a fuse that blew out in the Jungle."

They moved cautiously forward to the front door. It was locked. There were no wet footprints to suggest that anyone had come in that way. Back and side doors also were locked.

"Somehow, I don't have that uncanny feeling that I always get when I'm stalking big game," Sid, Hugh whispered in a puzzled tone. Gundrum, followed by Togi, joined them, neither having found the lower rooms disturbed. They, too, were surprised at finding the upper part of the house still lighted, and Togi agreed that a fuse must have blown out in the Jungle.

"I take candles down to ladies. She did not answer. Nor did

They afraid in the darkness," he said.

Hugh nodded and Togi snatched candles from the dinner table. As he disappeared down the basement stairway, the three men moved toward the drawing room.

An agonized cry—a woman's scream of terror—came from the Jungle.

SIDNEY was the first to reach the doorway of the Jungle. Togi was trying to light a candle, but his hands shook so that the match went out. The valet had been out of sight only an instant.

Braitwood grabbed the candle, lighted it, held the flickering light high above his head. He knew Hugh and Gundrum had rushed down the stairs at his heels; he heard Craig call out of Pat.

Adam Langdon's wife still sat behind the tiny flame of the old-fashioned percolator. Nella was at the far end of the table, her face covered with her hands.

"Marta! Marta!" Sidney shouted.

She did not answer. Nor did

The War Today

By DeWitt MacKenzie

There are very positive signs of Axis worry in the fact that Signor Mussolini's newspaper, Il Popolo D'Italia, has taken our Uncle Sam up into a high mountain, shown him the kingdoms of the world and offered him a princely bribe if he will "remain neutral until the destruction of the British empire has been effected."

Specifically Canada, Newfoundland, the Bahamas, Bermuda and Jamaica. He might also get Australia and New Zealand.

That offer was made yesterday. Just so there wouldn't be any misunderstanding, Il Duce's paper the day before announced that Germany, Italy and Japan were prepared to go to war with America if we rejected the triple alliance offers and "throw down the gauntlet."

I doubt if the three musketeers really believe Uncle Sam would knife anybody—either foe or friend—for gain. However, their threats and overtures indicate their anxiety over England's increasing strength—admittedly due in no small degree to the material assistance which the United States is giving.

It is also significant that these moves of the triple alliance are coincident with a sudden display of amiable gestures among Russia, America and Britain—with Britain's strategically situated ally, Turkey, also waving a friendly hand to the Muscovites. Active collaboration by Washington, London and Moscow is the last thing the alliance wants.

It is understandable that the Axis should have particular concern over the situation at this precise time, since indications are that Messrs. Hitler and Mussolini are on the verge of launching a new great offensive against Britain—quite likely in the Mediterranean theater.

It is imperative from the standpoint of our prestige both at home and abroad that they succeed in this new venture in view of the Nazi failure to crush England by direct assault on the British Isles.

Adam.

Togi finally succeeded in lighting another candle, moved cautiously forward.

"Mr. Langdon!" The valet's voice was shrill as the light revealed the new lioness.

Adam Langdon's wife still sat at the head of his trophy in an odd, unnatural manner. His head slumped forward. At his feet lay Marta.

Not two feet from her outstretched hand was the pistol with which Adam had armed himself when they had discovered that the door was locked.

YOUR NERVES

This is one of a series of special articles revealing typical cases of nervous and mental disorders and their treatment through thought control as carried out by the author and his associates at the Boston Dispensary, famous charitable health clinic.

By Winfred Rhoades WHEN Mrs. L., a few days ago, told with enthusiasm of the great improvement in her physical condition since she had begun to learn the art of thought control, she bore witness to the fact that even in one's later years it is possible to learn. For she is no longer young. Mrs. M. illustrated the same fact when she wrote, that same day: "Feeling very happy this beautiful morning, and owe it all to this class training. I was very miserable when I first came here—but have learned to ignore my aches and pains and take things as they come, the bitter along with the sweet."

Family worries kept his fractured leg from healing.

Mrs. R.'s words were in similar vein: "Thought control... can work miracles if you will put it to practice faithfully. Live one day at a time; no yesterday, and no tomorrows."

"When I cast out the fear of food, I could eat anything," said Mrs. L., and that reference to the effect of the emotions upon digestion makes an important point. Digestive distress is one of the commonest kick-backs of emotional distress.

Of course it is true that if you grab a sandwich and a cup of coffee and bolt them down while your head is in a rushing whirl of business, or if too much food is crowded into the stomach at one time, or if large quantities of liquid are poured into the stomach immediately after eating, the digestive processes are likely to be affected unpleasantly.

But what is not commonly realized is that anxiety, fear, anger, grief, the worry habit, and other emotions of a negative kind have a still worse effect upon the stomach and intestines. They retard the flow of saliva and hinder the secretion of gastric juice. For many hours after the initial experience has passed away the bad effects of a depressing emotional state may still be felt.

Dr. Cabot, of Harvard, tells of a man whose fractured leg refused to heal. The reason was that his anxiety about the family left at home interfered with his desire for food. The leg promptly healed up when the man's mind was relieved. Dr. Cannon, of Harvard, quotes one of his authorities as saying that one-third of the people who come with digestive complaints are suffering because of a lack of emotional balance.

There is such a thing as an allergy constitution. Now and then a person appears who is morbidly sensitive to some food element, or some pollen, or some kind of dust. But emotional maladjustment is a much more frequent cause of digestive trouble.

All of us, all the while, hear two voices whispering in our ears. One voice whispers: "I am discouraged; I am afraid; I can't stand another thing, and I won't!" The other says: "I can stand this, and I can stand yet more; and I'm going to stand it if I have to! And I'm going to make a good job of it too!"

The leg promptly healed when the man's mind was relieved.

One voice whispers thoughts that undermine the morale and break down the health; the other whispers thoughts that build up both morale and health. You can choose which voice you will listen to and heed. You will help yourself if you hold in your mind continually desires and thoughts that are strong, positive, bracing, constructive.

Albuquerque Woman To Present Lecture On Occultism Of Navajo Medicine Men This Evening At Junior High School

A Navajo medicine man's healing ceremony will be described by Mrs. Franc Johnson Newcomb of Albuquerque, New Mexico, as one of high points in her lecture on "Occultism as Practiced by Navajo Medicine Men" to be presented at the Junior High School tonight at 7:30 o'clock. One-eighth of the 45,000 Navajos are estimated to be medicine men.

For 25 years Mrs. Newcomb lived among the Indians and is now rated as an authority on the Navajos. She has brought with her 24 sandpaintings, some of which she will explain in her talk tonight, as well as rugs, silver, a Navajo costume and other interesting articles. She will tell of Navajo beliefs and of her experiences with the Indians. An open forum will follow the lecture.

THE world championship team-of-four contest is conducted on the knockout basis. One team-of-four plays against the other team, and at the end of the given number of boards, the total score determines the winners. I like the care with which Oscar J. Brotman, of Washington, and his partner Alvin R. Roth, members of this year's winning team, handled today's hand.

FEMININE FANCIES

Newest use for glass that we noted in our meanderings about town is in a raincoat and matching hat.

There's no doubt that glass will keep off rain, but we had a perfectly wicked desire to say, "Yes, but what if it starts raining?" to the saleslady who reeled off to us its list of virtues.

All joking aside, the material is beautiful, a thick, soft, pliable, cloudily-transparent stuff that is designed into an attractive garment. The coat has raglan sleeves, a belted back, and is touched up with a contrasting color binding—scarlet makes a vivid note for any gray day.

With the coat goes a crushable hat with brim and a full bloused crown (no other word will do), fitted to the head with a latex section.

Add things we look at longingly: Bedroom slippers of latex velvet, snugly conforming to the wearer's foot and in luscious colors that add to their luxury-look; more and more bright-colored pottery; a clever slicer-thing, warranted to give home cooked potatoes that professional, pie fringe. The griddle is swathed in green gloves; a brooch that is set with beautiful blue stones.

A black evening gown, sheath-like in silhouette, is lifted into something almost exotic by a wide triangular girde of gold and green, edged (believe it or not) with purple fringe. The girde is swathed tightly about the hip line.

Purple-and-gold socks have won such instant approval from Midland High School pep-squad members that more must be ordered. There's nothing like having the old school spirit—from top to toe.

Charming is the word for the lacy-delicate triangular shawl (it looks like crochet or knitting and is reminiscent of the fascinators Mother wore when a young woman) which flaunts a brilliant fringe setting off the multi-colors of its design. Shawls may or may not lend glamour—we're no authority on that subject. But they are satisfyingly swishy!

HE SAID HE WAS NOT PLAYING HOOKY, TRUTHFULLY
ATLANTA, Oct. 10 (AP)—DeKalb County School Superintendent W. M. Rainey saw 10-year-old Ben Jenkins in a drug store during school yesterday and asked sternly: "Young man, why aren't you in school?"

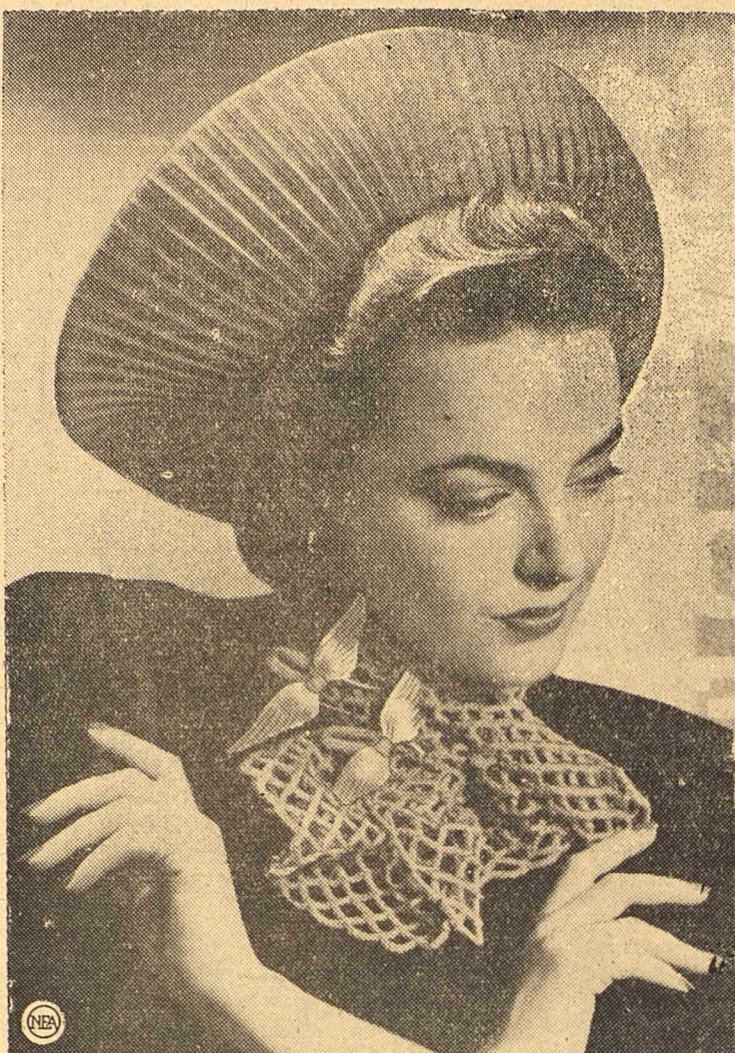

"I got a peanut in my lungs and I am getting some cough syrup," replied Ben.
Said Rainey to himself: "Ah! Ha! This is a new excuse for truancy."
Said Rainey to Ben: "Well, you come along with me and we'll see about that peanut."
Off they went to a hospital. While Rainey silently rehearsed a homily on the evils of playing hooky, surgeons reported that there was a peanut in the lad's right lung.

A bronchoscope was used to remove the nut. Ben will be back in school in a few days and Superintendent Rainey will be less skeptical.

"Soldier's Heart" Remedy Discovered

By Harold C. McKinley
CLEVELAND, Oct. 10 (AP)—Soldier's heart—a disease producing a condition akin to stage fright—has been treated successfully by "short circuiting" the system controlling human energy, the association of U. S. military surgeons was told today as it opened a three-day convention.

THE treatment was described in a paper prepared by Brig. Gen. George C. C. Clarke, noted surgeon who helped found the Cleveland clinic, and Dr. E. P. McCullagh, clinic colleague.

Soldier's heart, so called because of its prevalence in the military forces during the World War, actually is a disease found only in man in his most civilized state, the surgeons reported. Its symptoms were described as "palpitations," nervousness, restlessness, flushing and pallor, sweating and coldness of hands and feet.

Concluding that the disease was an abnormality of the system controlling energy—the brain, thyroid and adrenal glands and the sympathetic nervous system—Dr. Clarke reasoned that breaking the circuit of the system might effect a cure.

He cut a nerve center of the sympathetic nervous system located near the adrenal glands. The effect, he said, was to denervate the adrenals. He reported cure or improvement in 107 out of 114 cases treated.

Three Are Hostesses For Gift-Shower Honoring Mrs. John M. Speed, Jr., At Home Of Mrs. C. C. Thomas Wednesday

In compliment to Mrs. John M. Speed Jr., three hostesses, Mrs. C. C. Thomas, Mrs. Ed Watts, and Mrs. Ish McKnight, entertained with a pink- and blue shower at the home of Mrs. Thomas, 701 N. Pecos, Wednesday afternoon.

Roses and baby chrysanthemums decorated the party rooms.

Gifts were displayed on a table where a trio of large storks emphasized the theme of the party.

Storks made of pink ice cream lent a novel note to the tea plates.

The invitation list included: The honoree, Mmes. Chas. West, Ralph Hickman, Ralph Geisler, Ben Black, Tom Sealy, W. L. Crothers, Thomas Lee Speed, Ray Parker of Odessa, M. I. Tarrant, W. M. Mrs. Drummond Presents Program At Home Arts Club

Mrs. John Drummond presented a program on a "Famous Woman in Religion" at the meeting of Home Arts Club with Mrs. B. C. Girdley, 1900 W. Missouri, Wednesday afternoon.

She discussed the life and work of Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science, bringing out the fact that her mother church in Boston had only eight members and that her third husband was her first patient.

During the business session which was presided over by the president, Mrs. John B. Mills, Mrs. John Dunagan resigned as secretary and Mrs. Hugh Walker was elected to the office.

Featuring the afternoon was a pink-and-blue shower with which the club honored Mrs. Tom Potter and Mrs. Drummond.

Three visitors, Mrs. Elmer Freeman, Mrs. W. M. Ford, and Mrs. Malcolm Brenneman, were present.

Members attending were: Mmes. Hugh Walker, Clinton Dunagan, N. W. Bigham, Marvin English, Tom Potter, John Drummond, Guy Brenneman, John B. Mills, Paul Filson, and the hostess.

Three Take Part On Study Program At Club Wednesday

Under the general subject of "Current Periodicals," a three-part program was presented at the meeting of the Fine Arts Club with Mrs. W. H. Gilmore, 511 North D street, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. P. C. Tucker discussed "Literary Awards," telling something of the lives of the people who donate such prizes as the Nobel and Pulitzer awards.

Mrs. Fred Fuhrman read an essay by Pearl Buck from "Our Changing World," in which was brought-out the writer's belief that American women are not as happy as those in other parts of the world because they are educated for one thing (a career) and spend their lives at another (homekeeping).

She prefaced the reading with a sketch of Mrs. Esck's life.

The concluding paper, "Coronado's Country," was presented by Mrs. J. Webb Miller on New Mexico.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Fred Wilcox, the first vice-president, Mrs. Curtis Gilmore, presided.

Members present were: Mmes. T. Paul Barron, Tom C. Bobo, Charles Brown, L. G. Eyerley, Fuhrman, Curtis Gilmore, O. J. Hubbard, George Kidd, Miller, Roy Parks, Tom Sloan, Tucker, Miss Lydia G. Watson, Mrs. J. M. White, Mrs. E. Hazen Woods, and the hostess.

Miss Sheppard And Ernest Childers Wed In Quiet Service

With the Rev. John E. Pickering reading the single ring ritual, Miss Helen May Sheppard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Sheppard, and Ernest W. Childers were married quietly in the office of the First Christian Church, Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

The couple had no attendants.

The bride wore an afternoon costume of heavy gold crepe with black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of orchids.

After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Childers left for a honeymoon trip to Fort Worth. They will be away about a week and upon their return will be at home at 508 W. Storey.

Mrs. Childers has lived in Midland for several years and is a graduate of Midland High School.

Mr. Childers has made his home in Midland for the past several years, being employed as petroleum engineer with the Tide Water Associated Oil Company. He attended Oklahoma University.

Writer Tells How Bombs Blow Him Out Of His Bed

By Robert E. Bunnelle
LONDON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Reichsmarshal Goering's Luftwaffe bombed me right out of bed this morning with a hit on one of London's largest apartment buildings.

Three bombs formed a triangle around my rooftop flat. One blasted a hole in a row of houses across the alley from my bedroom window.

A second struck the main entrance, smashing the lobby. The third landed at the nearest street corner, setting fire to a shattered gas main. The fire shot skyward like a burning gas well. It is still burning as I send this.

I had just returned home from the office last night after a nightmare mile walk and a two-mile taxi ride through glass-strewn streets with bombs dropping on all sides and shells bursting in the sky.

I met Mrs. Bunnelle in the lounge and we decided to retire as things seemed to be calming down.

The apartment porter joked about my jaunt from the office, during which I was forced to seek shelter three times, and laughed, "all you need to make the night complete is a hit here."

The next time I saw him in the wrecked lobby he was wrapped in bandages.

I was just dozing when "my" bombs fell. Mrs. Bunnelle and I were awakened by the scream of a bomb and then an explosion rocked the building. Glass and masonry were still clattering down when two more bombs hit almost simultaneously.

For a moment I thought the building was going to collapse. I remember thinking hazily:

"Well, if it falls, maybe this bed will soften the bump."

My wife and I slipped into a few clothes and scurried to the stairway. The corridor was filled with smoke but we dashed through it to get to the ground floor.

Several tenants who had been in the basement shelter rushed upstairs and air raid wardens were trying to shoot them back. The raiders were still above us.

Everyone was choking with smoke and groping around in broken glass and fallen plaster. Several wardens were cut by glass, but most escaped serious injury.

British Seize Art Treasures From Ship

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—Masterpieces of art with a possible value of $500,000 were removed from the American export liner Excalibur by British authorities at Bermuda last week, line officials said today.

The line said more than 500 paintings by such masters as Gauguin, Degas, Manet, Monet, Cezanne, Renoir, and Picasso were seized from the ship's strong room as well as a box of books with illustrations by Rouault.

The company said it was not aware of the value of the shipment because the shipper, Martin Fabiani of Lisbon, had listed the value at $10,000 for ship records.

The British consul at Lisbon issued a navicert for the shipment, which was consigned to the Bignou Galleries in New York. Bignou officials were not available for comment.

Officials said they had been told that Britain regarded the pictures as "enemy exports" and a use by the Germans to secure dollar exchange in America.

The pictures were reported unofficially to have been removed from Paris museums.

Defense Industries Jobs Not To Keep Men From the Army

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Selective service headquarters advised men today against flocking to defense industries for jobs in the hope of evading the draft.

"The chances for such men being selected for military training will be increased rather than diminished," said Maj. Joseph F. Battley, "because one of the first things a local board will want to know about a man claiming occupational deferment is how long he has been on his current job."

"My advice is for men to stay on their present jobs and not flock to defense industries merely for the sake of seeking to avoid selection," Battley, just back from a 12-state round of conferences with state advisors on occupational deferments, said the army did not want to conscript any man if his removal from a civilian job would interfere with an industry's productivity, regardless of whether it was engaged on defense orders or not.

In that connection, he said in his opinion there would be no need for any disruption of industries because he believed the army would have no trouble in filling the "great bulk" of the first conscription quota of 400,000 men from the ranks of those who already have signified their intention of volunteering in order to get the mandatory year's service behind them.

Mussolini Views Big Military Show

By The Associated Press
PADUA, Italy, Oct. 10.—Premier Mussolini witnessed a great military demonstration on the historic plain today—a show which some observers believed might be the prelude to a new Axis thrust—but refrained from any speech or hint of Axis intent.

It had been expected that Il Duce might choose the occasion of his review of 20,000 young Fascist soldiers to deliver an address. The newspaper Il Piccolo called the parade "a prologue" to undisclosed events to come.

Delegations from semi-military Fascist youth organizations in Spain, Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria participated in the review in addition to a group of German Nazis.

Diplomatic representatives of the same five countries also were assembled in Padua to greet Il Duce on his arrival from nearby Baona, where he inspected 22 battalions and 18-year-old recruits and then witnessed a sham battle for the second time in two days.

Where Mussolini expects to use the "blitzkrieg army" he has been inspecting is a matter of conjecture but many foreign observers expect a move eastward through the Balkans toward the oil so essential to ships, planes and tanks.

Bomb Shown By Army

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 10 (AP)—A U. S. army observer is satisfied a new billion candlepower photographing bomb will provide this country with "an extra hour of daylight" during war time.

At the conclusion of a poisey preview of the "weapon" by which the army hopes to penetrate darkness-shrouded military operations, Major George W. Goddard exclaimed:

"There have been times when an extra hour of daylight would have changed the history of the world. We have that daylight here!"

A dozen times last night, the secret bomb burst over this city, each time lighting a five-mile area "with the light of day." Each time, too, a synchronizing aerial camera snapped the scene from 5,000 feet in the air.

State Representative Convicted For Fraud

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 10 (AP)—State Representative Harold Hankamer of El Paso was given a three-year prison term by a district court jury which convicted him last night of conversion of $4413 in funds from the Priscilla Hoehne Estate, for which he was administrator.

The jury deliberated about an hour and a half.

Hankamer, who wept when he testified, received the verdict calmly.

"Mother India" Writer Is Dead

BEDFORD HILLS, N. Y., Oct. 10 (AP)—Miss Katherine Mayo, whose book "Mother India" caused her to be burned in effigy numerous times in that country, is dead.

The 72-year-old author of crusading books and articles died yesterday at the home of her lifelong friend and collaborator, Miss Moya M. Newell, after an illness of eight months.

New England Votes Sought By Wilkie; Democrats Active

By The Associated Press
In another strenuous stretch of campaigning, Wendell L. Wilkie appealed for New England votes today with a series of scheduled speeches in Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

The Republican presidential standard bearer hit the trail again after telling a demonstrative assemblage at New Haven last night that there was need for revitalizing small businesses as "the backbone of America."

Wilkie charged that the "New Deal has put a brake on production" and promised, "I intend to put my foot on the accelerator."

While Wilkie spoke in Connecticut, Attorney General Jackson took to the air waves from Washington with a speech asserting that the Republican party had nothing to offer America and that Wilkie's campaign proved it.

Jackson called Wilkie's foreign policy "confused" and said the Republican candidate debated "with himself, taking both sides of every issue."

The campaign brought fresh announcements of transferred political allegiance.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO CARRY ROOTERS FOR BULLDOGS TO SWEETWATER FRIDAY

When the Midland high school Bulldogs journey to Sweetwater tomorrow for their game Friday night at eight o'clock with the Sweetwater high school Mustangs they will find a club that is confident of repeating last year's victory.

The Mustangs after losing two games, came through with a 19-0 victory over the rough Mineral Wells club last Friday and Sweetwater scribes now declare the team is on the high road to another championship. One writer says that weight and performance of the team add up to strange above balance and now look like the class of the district.

A special train will leave the depot here tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock bearing approximately 400 Midland fans to the game. After arrival of the train in Sweetwater the Midland band will parade through downtown streets accompanied by all members of the pep squad that make the trip. Round trip fare is $1.60 and tickets may be bought at the chamber of commerce up to train time. Tickets to the game are also on sale at the chamber of commerce office and will remain on sale until two o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The Bulldogs get their final workout of the week tonight on Lackey field. Only a light conditioning drill will be held since the coaches have had the boys at hard work all week. Barring unforeseen incidents, the Bulldogs will be at full strength for Bulldogs will be at full strength for the year to date. The Bulldogs have won one conference game and in a win over Sweetwater would materially strengthen their hopes for a championship this year.

It is a cinch that the Bulldogs will not cover up anything in the game. They are prepared to shoot the works all the way. Scouts for other games will be disregarded.

Kimbrough To Quit Hospital For Game On Saturday

By Felix R. McKnight
DALLAS, Oct. 10 (AP)—Jarrin John Kimbrough will rise from his hospital bed here today, or possibly tomorrow, and plane it to the Pacific Coast to catch up with the Texas Aggies, due for a Saturday afternoon date with UCLA at Los Angeles. . . . The iron-legged all-America fullback, barring unexpected setbacks, will play.

The big fellow dropped off the train when the team passed through Dallas and settled down for treatment to a throat ailment and a bruised leg. . . . Rumors flew over Dallas that Kimbrough was seriously ailing. . . . He wasn't; the Aggies were just taking no chances.

Stiff was the blow Southern Methodist took last night upon departure for the Pitt game when fleet Foster Elder, slated to open at quarterback Saturday, received serious injuries in a car crash. . . . The crafty signal caller and blocker who muscled into the starting crew with fine work against UCLA and North Texas State, is out for the season. A fractured pelvis bone and other injuries. . . . Clinton McClain, star halfback, and Bill Thomas, the sensational scat back who just drifted in a few weeks ago and asked for a tryout with SMU, were in the crash but will join the Methodists for the Pitt game. . . . The lads, along with Pete Bostick, a tackle whose injuries were keeping him at home, missed the train when the team departed and were en route to a nearby village to join the team.

Demure Betty Jameson of San Antonio, for two years now the women's National Golf Champion, has definitely chilled reports that she would turn professional. . . . The Texas girl laughs off the rumors and answers by giving her 1941 tournament schedule—the amateur way.

Down in a Beeville hospital, in serious condition, is a giant of man who gave countless thousands the biggest thrills of their lives. . . . Dick Shelton, former world's champion bulldogger and perhaps the most colorful rodeo performer of two decades, came out of retirement the other day for a farewell appearance in the same rodeo ring in which he started 21 years ago.

Dick swung from his horse, grabbed a steer's horns. . . . His horse failed to team with him, crowded him into a fence post. . . . veteran cowboy's head struck the post—and the career of a man who rode down steers at Pendleton, Ore., Midson Square Garden, England, Canada, Mexico and the famed Fort Worth rodeos, was over.

Strangely, and rather sadly, the team with the weakest passing attack in the Southwest Conference is a team that only a year ago was still riding as the "passingest team in the nation," Arkansas. . . . Texas University, with its assorted collection of backs, is leading the league in total yards gained from passes and runs—something over 700 yards in two games.

Stanton Journeys To Andrews Friday

STANTON, Oct. 10 (Special)—The Stanton High School Buffaloes trek to Andrews to meet the Andrews High School Mustangs Friday in a non-conference tilt. Due to lack of eligible players, the Mustangs have withdrawn from conference 6B running, forfeiting the scheduled games but continuing to play using ineligible men.

The Buffaloes thus far are on top in district 6B, having won one game from Seminole, in a 0-0 battle, on penetrations. Season standings show that the Stanton squad has won two and lost three. The Bison handed Andrews two whitewashings last season to the tune of 20 to 6 in the first game, and a closer decision of 19 to 13 in the last meeting.

Andrews seems to have something on the ball this year. Last Friday's game with Loraine ended in a 0-0 deadlock, and the Loraine club has been picked for this year's champs in their district. The "Hosses" gave Seagraves a thorough going over in a 25 to 0 rough and tumble mix-up last September 27.

The Mustangs will be out to avenge the two losses last year, and the Buffaloes will be there to add another to the others.

Odessa Is All Set For Record Crowd At Mines-HSU Game

ODESSA, Oct. 10 (Special)—Odessa is all set for more than a thousand college students when they come here Saturday for the Hardin-Simmons-Texas Mines football game with kickoff at 2:30 at Fly field.

A special train from El Paso will bring the Mines' band and women's pep organization, the Gold Diggers, with fifty-five members in each group. An additional five hundred Mines' College students will be in the train, said Frank Junell, school public relations director.

Hardin-Simmons University is sending the Cowboy Band and the Cowgirls, girls' organization to Odessa for the all-important meeting. Between four and five hundred H-SU students have made reservations to ride the special from Abilene, reports Gib Sandefer of the University.

Ten High School Bands

As a part of the day's activities high school bands from the Permian Basin will be in Odessa, taking part in the gigantic down-town parade shortly before noon and going through marching formations and drills on the football field starting at one fifteen.

High schools which will be represented here on Saturday by bands are Crane, McCamey, Monahans, Midland, Wink, Kermit, Andrews, Iraan, Eunice, New Mexico, and Hobbs, New Mexico. The Odessa senior high school band, official band of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, will be host organization for the day.

Footballers Special Guests

Football coaches over the Permian Basin area have been invited to bring their squads to Odessa for the college game at special prices. More than ten teams have notified officials they will attend.

Tommy Dwyer, resident of Odessa for the past fourteen years, was first coach at the College of Mines when it opened its initial session in 1914. Dwyer remained as coach of the Mines until the outbreak of the war in 1917. After serving with the overseas forces during the war, Dwyer returned to the Mines as coach for one year. He is now chief engineer of Gulf Oil Corporation West Texas District.

Sports Roundup

By Eddie Brietz
NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—Well, ladies and gents, now that baseball is over, we can get down to the serious business of football. . . . Who was it said Notre Dame would murder Georgia Tech Saturday? . . . We don't believe it—we think those Engineers from the deep South will give the Irish one of their toughest battles of the season. . . . and don't forget, your Uncle Charlie picked those Reds in six or seven games.

Tom Meany, New York P. M.: "Of all the Dodgers who had such high hopes in the Spring, Jimmy Rippie was the only one to get into the world's series, except as a spectator. . . . And he made it by way of Montreal."

Series Aftermath

After all, it's asking a lot of any pitcher to win three games in a world's series, but that big Newsom almost made it, didn't he? . . . Most amazed guy in the Reds' dressing room after the final was Young Mike McCormick. The kid couldn't bring himself to believe he was on a world's championship team. As the telegrams poured in, Mike could only mumble: "Geez, I'm getting wires from fellows I haven't seen or heard from in ten years. Say, this is a great life, ain't it?"

Tommy Bridges, the Detroit pitcher, who went to school at U. of Tennessee, received many fine twirling pointers from Maj. Bob Neyland, Tennessee's great football coach, who was quite a pitcher himself during his West Point days.

Hank Gowdy, the Reds' coach, has a necktie he calls his power tie. . . . He first wore it the day the Reds put the crushers on the Dodgers for the National League napkin. . . . He next wore it last Thursday when Bucky Walters hurled the Reds back into the series. . . . Hank forgot to take it to Detroit, but he had it on Monday and you can bet your life he was strutting around in it Tuesday morning.

Today's True Story

One of the brightest stars on one of North Carolina's big football teams had to take a history test to be eligible the next Saturday. . . . The Prof. asked him one simple question, "what is the capital of North Carolina?" "Pikeville," replied the guy. . . . "Well," said the academic, "if you had answered correctly you would have had 1000. Since Pikeville is only 15 miles from Raleigh, I will give you 85 and pass you." . . . (Two days later the fellow toted the mail, as usual.)

3 Southwest Grid Teams On Road For Battles This Week

By The Associated Press

Three Southwest Conference grid-iron contingents were en route today to widely separated cities—each hopeful of keeping untarnished the loop's 1940 record against outsiders.

The Southern Methodist Mustangs, who have a stiff assignment against Pitt at Pittsburgh Saturday, received a severe blow yesterday when Foster Elder, senior back, was seriously hurt in an automobile accident.

After Elder and two teammates missed the train in which the Ponies left Dallas, they tried to catch it at a nearby station. Their automobile overturned. Elder suffered a fractured pelvis, and neck and bladder injuries. He probably will be out the rest of the season. Clinton McClain and Bill Thomas, backs escaped with bruises and left by plane last night to join the squad. Also in the automobile and bruised was tackle Lynn Bostick, who already was on the injured list and therefore was being left at home.

The Texas Aggies were without Big John Kimbrough, all-America fullback, when they stopped at El Paso for a practice. Coach Homer Norton said Kimbrough was suffering with a bad cold and would catch up with the team at Tucson. It was learned he had been in a Dallas hospital receiving treatment for a throat ailment. The Aggies play UCLA at Los Angeles Saturday.

Texas Christian University's Horned Frogs journeyed through the deep south en route to their Saturday engagement with the University of North Carolina.

The Arkansas Razorbacks, who meet Baylor at Fayetteville Saturday in the only conference game, lost halfback Babe Clalome, when he received a dislocated knee in scrimmage.

The University of Texas Longhorns, who showed plenty in their first two contests, stepped through a hard scrimmage. Ticket sales indicated the largest crowd in Oklahoma University—University of Texas as football history, more than 30,000, for the attraction at Dallas Saturday.

The Rice Owls readied for their test again Louisiana State University at Houston Saturday night.

Newark Is Winner Of Little World Series

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 10 (AP)—The power-house Newark Bears were back on top of the minor league baseball world today after defeating the Louisville Colonels of the American Association four games to two in the 1940 little world series.

Putting on the pressure last night the International Leaguers tounded the Colonels, 6 to 1, behind the six hit pitching of knuckle-baller Steve Peck to end the 22nd renewal of the annual best-of-seven series.

Courtney Bidding For Championship Of the District

COURTNEY, Oct. 10 (Special)—The Courtney high school Eagles, who will meet the Coahoma six-man football team in Midland Friday night at eight o'clock, finished in second place in the eight-club district last year and this year confidently expects to take the championship.

The Eagles lost only one regular of the 1939 team and the 1940 squad has been helped by some promising recruits. Two other schools, Westbrook and Sterling City also lost only one veteran each.

The league is made up of eight schools: Four of these are Courtney, Water Valley, Garden City, and Sterling City, each having less than 100 students in high school, and Westbrook, Forsan, Garner, Coahoma, all with more than 100 students.

Coach Robinett of the Courtney team says he is expecting a tough game in Midland Friday night, but believes his boys can come through with a win. Buses will convey fans from Courtney and Coahoma to the game here.

Early Advances On Stock Market Lost

By Victor Eubank
 NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—The stock market swung into a nice forenoon rally today but failed to follow through.
 Early gains ran a point or more for steel and other selected industrial. At the close, extreme advances were cut substantially in some cases and declines were in evidence here and there.
 Transfers were around 400,000 shares.
 Various reasons were given by brokers for the better appearance presented by the list. For one thing, prices on average had been unable to make any progress in the preceding six sessions and had conceded a portion of their upturn from the May lows. This led technical thinkers to believe there was a chance for at least a temporary come-back.
 Stocks on the upside at one time or another were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Dow Chemical, Johns-Manville, Union Carbide, Douglas Aircraft, Boeing, Oliver Farm, U. S. Rubber, American Smelting, Great Northern, Southern Railway, International Nickel and Woolworth.
 Mostly in arrears were Standard Oil of N. J., Bristol-Myers, American Can, Allied Chemical, U. S. Gypsum and Sears Roebuck.

Man Who Kept Body Of Girl Said Sane

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 10 (AP)—A court-appointed commission ruled today that Karl Tanzler Van Cosel, who kept the carefully preserved body of a young woman beside him for seven years, is sane.

The sanity commission discharged the 70-year-old unemployed x-ray specialist after a lengthy, private examination at which he was reported to have answered technical scientific questions.

Cold Germs Travel A Mile a Minute

By Stephen J. McDonough Associated Press Science Writer DETROIT, Oct. 10—The germs and viruses of the common cold, influenza, infantile paralysis and other diseases travel at mile-a-minute speed from one person to another.

For many years people have been taught to cover their mouths and noses when they cough or sneeze, but today for the first time three scientists of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass., demonstrated the actual necessity for it to prevent diseases of the nose and throat from leaping from one individual to another.

In a report before the American public health association, Dr. Clair E. Turner, Dr. Marshall W. Jennison and Dr. Harold E. Edgerton demonstrated in pictures that the droplets of a sneeze or a cough speed through the air at the rate of more than a mile per minute and have a range of 30 feet or more.

A second hazard, in addition to the actual bombardment of germs and viruses from one person to another is the delayed action of tiny droplets which hang in the air for several minutes and become a hazard for anyone who walks into them with his mouth open or is drawing a breath.

The Massachusetts Institute scientists determined the speed and range of the disease bullets by photographing sneezes and coughs with a high-speed motion-picture camera capable of taking pictures at the rate of 6,000 per second or "still" pictures with an exposure of only one millionth of a second.

Those who are at sea or abroad must report to their local selective service boards for registration within five days after returning.

Any man who is ill and not in a hospital may send any competent person to the registration board to be deputized as a registrar and take his registration. Those who are quarantined or too sick to register must report as soon as possible after recovering. Those in hospitals will be registered by special registrars, who also will be appointed at camps, schools, colleges, etc.

Superintendents or wardens of insane asylums, jails, penitentiaries and reformatories will register inmates on the day of their release. National park superintendents will register residents and visitors in their territories. Superintendents of Indian reservations will do the same. Company commanders will register CCC enrollees.

What? Registrars, who generally will be election officials or school teachers, will want to know from each man his name, age, permanent mail address, telephone number, occupation, employer, nearest relative, and citizenship status. Care will be exercised to register all data correctly. Each registrant will be interviewed an average of 20 minutes. His general description will be placed on the back of his card.

Negress Gets Five Years in Penitentiary

Fannie Mae Franklin, negress accused of killing six Sanders during a June "teenth" celebration at the Flats, was sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary yesterday by the District Court.

The jury deliberated on the case about three hours. No jury trials were on the docket today, and court recessed until tomorrow morning.

Cornell Rates Top Offensive Position

By Gail Fowler SEATTLE, Oct. 10 (AP)—Cornell's 1940 gridiron debut last week was just as impressive on the yardstick as it was on the yard lines.

The American Football Statistical Bureau, starting its annual compilation of the nation's collegiate football performances, today pegged the Ithacans as the country's top passing team and ranged them second on total offense—gains from rushing and passing—on the basis of the 34-0 thumping of Colgate.

Drake University, mainly through swamping Montana State 56-0 in its opener, has a two-game average of 46.5 yards per game to lead in total offense. Cornell is second with 42.0, followed by Brown, 42.5 in two games, Mississippi, with 42.1 in three games, and Rice, 42.0 in one game, Creighton, Iowa, Illinois, and Arizona follow.

Creighton has the highest rushing average per game, 39.4 yards, followed by Brown, 38.5; Lafayette, conqueror of NYU 37-0; Iowa, 36.8; and Mississippi State, 33.5. Michigan, Wake Forest, Mississippi, Northwestern and Tennessee, playing tougher opposition than some of the first five, still push their way into the top ten. Wake Forest led this classification in 1939.

Cornell's 276 yards from 11 completions ranks the Red first as a passing team. Illinois, with a 257 yard average, is second; Indiana third with 234; Missouri fourth with 205 and Texas A&M, fifth with 183. Texas, Baylor, Rice, Arizona and Oklahoma pad out the list with strong representation.

Mississippi State, which plays Auburn this week, is the best defensive team to date, holding the opposition to 14.5 yards per game from both rushing and passing.

The top ten punting teams are Texas Mines, Kentucky, Tulsa, Stanford, Georgia, Texas A&M, North Carolina, Clemson, Boston College and Richmond.

Grand Jury Indicts National Bund Head

NEWTON, N. J., Oct. 10 (AP)—The Sussex County grand jury today indicted Wilhelm Kunze, national German-American Bund leader, and eight others for "promoting hatred against people of the Jewish religion" at the Bund's Camp Nordland, Andover.

Klapprott and Mathias Kohler, state Bund treasurer, were indicted for making and permitting speeches promoting racial hatred. Indicted with them for making such speeches were Wilbur V. Keenan, West New York Bund attorney, and Leonard D. Clark, New York writer for the Bund's magazine, "Free America."

Kunze was indicted with the Rev. John C. Pitting, state Bund secretary, and Richard Schiele, Paul Schaarschmidt, Carl J. Schippkopf and George Neuppert, trustees of the Bund Auxiliary, owners of Camp Nordland, for permitting the speeches.

To Make a Long Tale Short

A young man came in yesterday and was looking at one of the use cars in our last week's list. He casually remarked that his father was in bed and could not be seen. "Hope it is not something serious," we said, to which he replied: "Oh no, not at all; he will be up as soon as mother gets his pants patched." No one in business today can hope to progress by following the methods of yesterday; selling use cars is no exception.

Northwestern, Ohio State Meet Saturday In Conference Game

By Earl Hilligan CHICAGO, Oct. 10 (AP)—A package of dynamite is going to explode in Dwyer Stadium Saturday and the repercussions may sound ominous in Minneapolis and Ithaca, N. Y.

Ohio State's powerful Buckeyes will meet the surprising Northwestern Wildcats before an anticipated sell-out crowd of 45,000 in a battle which ranks as one of the day's naturals.

The skirmish, 19th in a series which has seen Ohio State win 12 games and the one, will bring together two eleven which apparently "have it" this season. More than that, the battle should provide a tip-off on the national championship chances of not only the teams involved but also of Minnesota's Gophers and the big Red machine of Cornell.

Ohio State, victorious over Pittsburgh and Purdue, will be favored over a Wildcat team which routed Syracuse, 40 to 0. And victory for Ohio State could prove a big stride toward national ranking, what with Minnesota on the Buckeye schedule a week from Saturday and a battle coming Oct. 26 with Cornell, Eastern Intercollegiate champions who ranked fourth in the final National Associated Press poll in 1939.

An Ohio State victory Saturday and then a win over Minnesota, which has an open date this week-end, could set the stage for a great battle between the Western Conference champions and Cornell, which easily beat Colgate and should win handily over Army and Syracuse in its next two starts.

But it's a cinch OSU coach, Francis Schmidt, isn't thinking of Cornell—yet. He has Northwestern to worry about, then Minnesota. In a season which promises one of the toughest title fights in Big Ten history, no one realizes better than Schmidt that its better to clean up things in your own back yard before looking for trouble elsewhere.

Light Showers Fall Over Midland County

Scattered showers that fell throughout the day reached a total of seven one-hundredths of an inch in Midland, an official gauge at two o'clock this afternoon showed.

Reports from over the county indicated the showers were general but all were too light to benefit crops or grass.

CLASS GIVES PROGRAM

Miss Sue Lattimore's second grade pupils presented a brief program on fire prevention in general assembly at Courtney School, Wednesday morning. The program was in the form of a playlet entitled "Careful and Careless."

After the play, Mrs. Riggs Shepard and Mrs. Blanche Alcorn sang "Neapolitan Nights," accompanied by Miss Alice Ruth Cross at the piano. The Rev. Ritchburg was a visitor.

The state legislature of Maine, at Augusta, introduced a bill in January, 1939, making it illegal to put tomatoes in clam chowder.
