Downpours In Central East Texas Threaten Major Floods

Cold Weather And Ice In Panhandle, Cities Lose Power

Agents Report Serious Damage To Crops With One Fatality Recorded

Torrential rains continued in central East Texas late last night, sending streams out of their banks and bringing a major flood threat to that area.

The Little River, fed by the Leon, Lampasas and San Gabriels, spread over Bell and Milan counties where thousands of acres of farmlands were expected to be under water by morning.

Catesville, with 5 inches of rain at 6 p. m. reported a heavy wall of water coming down the bank-full Leon. The Lampasas river was up 20 feet and rising. The Leon was up 15 and over the highway between the highway 81 bridge and Belton.

At Flood Stage. Georgetown reported the San Gabriels at flood stage and still rising. Rains over the area averaged 4 to 6 inches already with the downpour in many places the greatest on record, continuing.

Meanwhile ice gripped the Panhandle of Texas and Oklahoma.

Amarillo reported the situation growing worse as a 14-mile wind whipped wires and trees loaded with an inch of ice. Some Panhandle communities were without power. The weather bureau forecast temperatures of 33 to 30 with continued wind during the night. Warmer was predicted Sunday.

Child Dies. The death of a child and the serious injury of a farmer were attributed to the weather in East Texas.

County agents reported serious damage to farm lands, bridges were washed out, dams broken and travel stopped in an area extending from East Texas into Louisiana.

A slow drizzle fell over most of Oklahoma after replacing light snows in the Panhandle. The mercury in the northern half of that state dropped to the 20's before dark. The southern, southeastern areas received most of the precipitation late Saturday.

Girdley Verdict States Harrison Fired Automatic

Pronouncement Closes Inquest Of Two Days; Funeral Here Saturday

Justice of the Peace B. C. Girdley said Mrs. Lillian Harrison, 24, was shot to death by her husband, James P. Harrison, 37, who then ended his own life with a bullet from an automatic pistol.

The official yesterday concluded an inquest and three-day investigation into the tragedy at the Harrison home early last Thursday. Harrison, business manager of The Reporter-Telegram and his wife were found dead in their automobile which was parked in the driveway of the new home, 1206 West Kentucky Street.

The bodies were found about 1:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

In his verdict, Girdley said: "After extensive and thorough investigation, I give verdict that Lillian Harrison met her death from gunshot wounds inflicted by her husband, James P. Harrison, whose death resulted from self-inflicted gunshot wounds."

The verdict was read in Girdley's office, after four last witnesses testified in the inquest, County Attorney Merritt F. Hines questioned witnesses.

Bobby Conner, 10-year-old boy, said he saw a man close the door of the Harrison car and go into Harrison's residence early a. m. Thursday, but neighbors testified gunshots were heard about midnight.

Heard Quarreling. Mrs. O. L. Morrisset, 1204 W. Kentucky St., said she heard quarreling about 11 p. m. Wednesday night and that after the Harrisons stood in front of their home awhile, she heard the couple go into the house.

"A few minutes after going into the house, I heard them come out and very soon I heard a noise like a shot, then another," Mrs. Morrisset testified.

She explained that the window of her bedroom was open. She lives next door to the Harrison residence. The Conner boy who was playing in the yard of his sister, Mrs. E. M. Ferrell, 1208 W. Kentucky, said he saw Harrison's car in the driveway when he arrived at his sister's house about 9:10 a. m. He said, he later saw a man close the door of the car and walk into the house.

The boy testified that later he noticed through the glass "what looked like a lady's head."

At Cafe-Club. Myron Hubbard and his wife were with the Harrisons, the evening of Nov. 20 and he testified the couple apparently was in good humor when the four were at a cafe-club. Hubbard said Mrs. Harrison was reluctant to leave his automobile when she returned to his residence, but that he and Mrs. Hubbard asked her to go on with Harrison, who had asked her to "come on and go home."

Whether Bullitt would be offered another government position or would return to private life, the temporary White House was not prepared to say. It had not been determined, either, when Leahy's nomination would be sent to the Senate. Presumably, he will be allowed time to wind up his affairs in Puerto Rico.

ATTORNEY VISITS IN LUBBOCK

James H. Goodman, Midland attorney-legislator, left yesterday afternoon for a business trip at Lubbock.

Constable Lee testified the pistol found in the Harrison coupe was Harrison's gun.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harrison were conducted Friday at Colorado City, home of her mother, Mrs. Lucy Fuller.

Services for Harrison were held at the First Baptist Church here Saturday afternoon with the Rev. H. D. Bruce officiating. Interment was in Fairview cemetery.

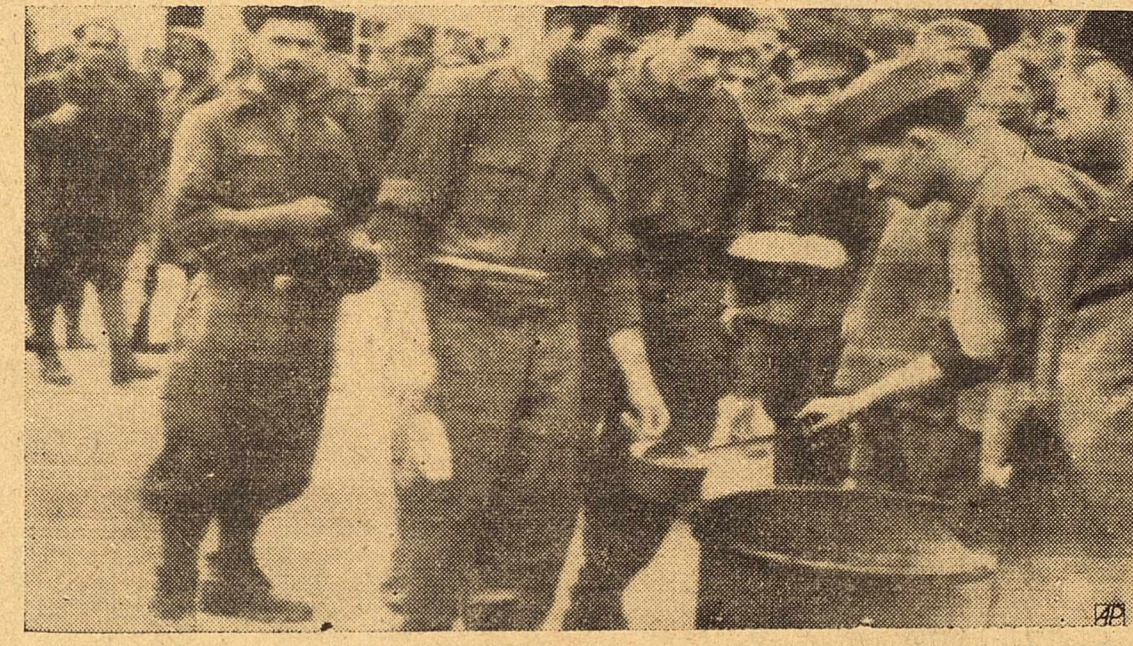

Surviving Harrison are his mother, Mrs. Minnie Harrison; a sister, Mrs. Clyde Barron; both of Grand Junction, Colo.; and a brother, Bryan Harrison of Coleman. All attended the funeral.

The Harrisons were married last July 10.

Farmers Of County To Vote Dec. 7 On Marketing Quotas

Midland County farmers, who produced cotton in 1940 are eligible to vote in a referendum Dec. 7 to determine if cotton marketing quotas will be effective on the 1941 crop.

B. T. Hale, chairman of the county A. C. A. committee, announced.

Under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, marketing quotas are applicable to all cotton except that with a staple length of 1 1/4 inches or more. Each 1940 cotton producer, owner, tenant, or sharecropper, will be entitled to one vote, Hale said.

The county committee is in charge of arrangements. Voting will be carried out as in any other election. The committee will choose three farmers to serve as the referendum committee at each community voting place.

The county committee will designate the voting place in each community. Voting lasts from 7 a. m. to 4 p. m. If two-thirds of the voting farmers approve the referendum, quotas will be in effect.

Hale urged farmers to consider the quota provisions and the present cotton situation voting.

Antonescu Signs Terms With Hitler As Influence Presses Near Angry Turkey Living Under Martial Law

British Throw Fierce Air Attack At Bases Of Reich As Von Papen Confers With Turk; Greeks Report Splitting Fleeing Italians

Rumania, territorially enriched by the World War but stripped of much of her acquired lands at the bidding of the Axis powers last summer, threw in her lot yesterday with the Berlin-Tokyo military, political and economic alliance.

In Adolf Hitler's ornate chancellery in Berlin, the Rumanian dictator, Gen. Ion Antonescu, signed the same terms which Rumania's none too friendly neighbor, Hungary, signed only a few days ago.

Bulgaria and Nazi-dominated Slovakia, remnant of Czechoslovakia, are expected to sign next.

The alignment of Rumania with the Axis forces brought the Nazi influence to within 250 miles of the Dardanelles, and intensified diplomatic and governmental activity in Turkey, now under martial law. Receives Envoy.

The Turkish foreign minister Suktu Saracoglu received the Greek and British ambassadors in separate audiences.

British bombers struck last night at Berlin where Rumania yesterday formally joined the expanding alliance.

German sources said the low-flying planes all were turned back by anti-aircraft defense fire.

London reported other British airmen loosed one of the heaviest attacks yet on Nazi-held continental bases, spraying explosives over a wide area.

Von Papen conferred almost an hour with Saracoglu last night, presumably to hand him the terms of such a proposal, but the result of the convention was not disclosed.

The Turkish official radio dismissed Rumania's joining of the Axis as a mere formality, and declared if Germany moved her forces to aid Italy against Greece it "would be a final and devastating blow to Italian prestige."

RAF headquarters in Cairo reported its bombers had destroyed communications of retreating Italians at Pogradetz, Albania, 20 miles north of Greek-captured Koriza.

There were other reports that Pogradetz had been abandoned by the Fascists.

Italy's naval base at Taranto and Bari also were bombed by the RAF, the communique said.

Spits Italians. The Greeks, happy over the fall of Koriza, Albania, an Italian base city, were reported to have split the retreating Italian army in two and to be driving from the Pindus Mountain sector through the Fascist lines. Military observers said the rout was so great that Italians were unable to form a new line of defense.

Bulgaria ordered its first nationwide blackout and restricted the internal telephone communications but the public was assured in numerous communications that no army was likely to march through the country to battle.

An American, J. K. Gordon, long a resident of Athens, declared Britain was giving Greece a great deal more help than London admitted officially. Gordon said he was impressed by the number of troops, planes, ships and war materials placed at the disposal of the Greeks.

London had three daylight raids and bombs fell in one suburb and on a Thames Estuary town. British fighters were declared to have shot down seven Italian and one German plane in a battle over the Dover Strait, and three German planes elsewhere.

German sources said Italian planes shot down four British planes and lost two.

There was no official disclosure about the extent of the damage in Friday night's 11-hour bombing of Odessa and the El Paso Natural Gas Company.

Red Termites Seek Shelter

On the statute books of the United States there is a certain Voorhis act which requires registration with the secretary of state for every organization subject to foreign control, or which is engaged in political activities, or civilian-military activities, or whose purpose is to overthrow the government by force, violence or threat. Negligence so to register is punishable by heavy fine and imprisonment.

Faced by this law, the Communist Party of America dissolved its organizational affiliation with the Communist International. But, at the same time, the leaders denounced the Voorhis act as a Fascist law and satisfied their old leanings by reaffirming their unshakable adherence to "the proletarian internationalism of Marx, Engels, Lenin and Stalin."

That, of course, makes the whole proceeding smack of subterfuge. The Communists evidently do not fancy United States authorities looking into their books, seeing how their organization works and whose money makes the mare go.

The finances of any party are important. Money is always necessary for the building up of a framework around which the believers and converts can gather. It is needed for the spread of literature. It is the thing which makes possible a party press. Small parties need such a press more than the big political organizations.

The new situation suggests various questions. Is a real American Communist Party, without European ties and backing, possible in the United States? At present numerically small, can the party finance its own activities or will it dry up for lack of funds? Or will it still get money from abroad?

The latter method is possible. The Communist Party, as such, may have cut itself loose from European affiliations, but there are still ways of beating the devil around the stump. There is no American law which prevents Comrade Redsky of Russia from sending a gift of money to his dear American friend, Mr. Red. And there is no American law which prevents the recipient of that money from being a party patriot and making a present to the party treasury.

Small Communist parties, which might grow into bigger and more dangerous ones, have existed before. In spite of the war and the position of Russia toward the belligerents, there is still a Communist party in Great Britain and it still has one member in the House of Commons who makes himself vocal on any and all occasions.

So far, the American Communist Party has never elected a congressman, but it can always try to cash in on monetary discontents and disappointments of the people. The great safeguard is that the American voters are pretty well on to the curves of the Red termites.

The Louis Brandeis Way

Recently Louis D. Brandeis, who retired from the United States Supreme Court in 1939 after 16 years of great service, celebrated his 84th birthday. He could look back upon many years of success in the practice of his profession, of fighting for great liberal causes, of crusading for the under dog and of topping off his career with a place on the bench of his country's greatest tribunal.

One of the Americans Brandeis has always admired is Thomas Jefferson. Jefferson in his time was member of the Continental Congress, governor of Virginia, negotiator abroad of important treaties, secretary of state under Washington, vice president under Adams and President himself for two terms. Yet when he came to write his own simple epitaph, he omitted mention of all his high offices.

He preferred this: "Here was buried Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence, of the Statute of Virginia for Religious Freedom, and Father of the University of Virginia."

Mrs. Brandeis, asked what her distinguished husband had been doing since his retirement from the bench, spoke simple words which might well be his epitaph some day: "He saw people and helped wherever he could."

$100,000,000 To Throw Away

Some people must have money. Every wagering record in the United States was shattered by New York's recently-closed racing season in which sporting citizens tossed $103,159,429 into the parimutuel machines. Besides which, 11,690 people found time each and every day of the season to go out and watch horses run around in a circle.

The fellow who first noticed that one horse can run faster than another was the unconscious founder of a big business. These New Yorkers contributed $5,157,971.45 in taxes to the state, and who is a better mark for taxes on the "ability to pay" principle than the people who can afford to toss a hundred million dollars a year out on the pony track?

The average toss-away per person per day was $50. Yet we'll bet there were not lacking some citizens among this throng who could be heard to mutter from time to time, "Things are tough!"

Von Papen a-Popping

When Franz von Papen was sent to Turkey a year or so ago as German ambassador, we recall suggesting that the Turks had better begin nailing down everything that lay loose. Von Papen's record here in the days before the World War as instigator of subversive activities was fresh in American memory, and the Turks should have known what they were getting.

Well, 38 persons have been arrested in Istanbul in the breaking up of the biggest spy ring ever uncovered there, together with a list of 150 German agents active in keeping the Gestapo informed.

Whether Von Papen had anything to do with this, we wouldn't know. But when you know the Old Maestro is sitting in a room, and you hear sweet music coming out of that room, you don't guess that it's the iceman playing.

Mountain Folk Tune Up Guitars---Kinnie Wagner, Jail Breaker For Sixteen Years, Is At Large Again

By NEA Service.

Kinnie Wagner, one of those killers who inspire men in mountain cabins to tune the old guitar and make up songs, is at large again.

Somewhere around northwestern Mississippi and Arkansas, the bushy-haired, beetle-browed gunman who has killed at least five men has the authorities once more on his trail. Before they find him there ought to be several more stanzas added to the hillbilly near-classic "Kinnie Wagner Was His Name."

Wagner first earned immortality in song among the Tennessee hillbillies by shooting two peace officers. He had practiced for this feat by running away from his Virginia home and joining a circus, where he became a crack shot. He left the circus at Meridian, Miss., in 1924, and while working at lumbering found himself in the Lucedale jail for petty larceny.

He obtained a saw, cut his cell bars, slugged the jailer, who was bringing him his breakfast, and escaped. For nearly a month he was a fugitive, but on Christmas Eve, 1924, he moved down with shotgun two deputy sheriffs who knocked on the door of his hideout. He got away.

Four months Wagner was a shadow, appearing briefly in this city or that, then vanishing. But on April 13, 1925, a deputy and a policeman were shot to death, and a second policeman badly wounded in answering a complaint of a disturbance near Kingsport, Tenn. Wagner's arrest followed next day at Blountville, and he was promptly sentenced to be electrocuted. An appeal to the Tennessee supreme court saved him this time, and while awaiting a new trial, Wagner improved his time by escaping from a jail at Knoxville.

Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Mexico passed under Wagner's elusive feet, but he was run to earth in the Red River bottoms near Texarkana in the summer of 1926. The posse, led by a Mrs. Lillie Barber, who had succeeded to the sheriff's badge after her husband had been killed by bootleggers, closed in on Wagner. He came out of a clump of bushes, hands up, and surrendered.

"I gave up because I was tired of being hounded like a dog," Wagner said, possibly thinking of another verse for the ballad. "When I saw that a woman was leading the posse, I threw in the sponge. I don't fight against women." You could almost hear the chords of the guitar, Wagner being fresh from the murder of two friends in a fight the night before.

Became a Trusty. That October, Wagner went on trial again for murder, but the jury could not bear to give the death penalty to so heroic a figure, and the judge imposed a life sentence.

On the way to Parchman, Miss., penitentiary, Wagner tried again to escape, but missed, and the following year tried again to escape, by beating a guard, grabbing his rifle and shooting another guard. Confronted by a third guard with a fine bead on his forehead, Wagner surrendered.

This record qualified Wagner to become a trusty, which status he enjoyed for several years. He justified his jailers' leniency and confidence the other day. Forcing a convict camp driver to take him out of the prison camp in a prison car, he stole the driver's clothes and the car, set him afoot, and vanished.

SERIAL STORY

DUDE COLLEGE

BY OREN ARNOLD

YESTERDAY: Ronnie's sharp-shooting helps Officer Starr capture the men who had shot at her plane. Later, telling the story to Ronnie's father, Starr explains that the men were not aliens, but American citizens. Bailey believes they may have some interest in the bombing tests to be held soon. Starr agrees.

WES IS UP IN THE AIR. Chapter VII.

"I have asked you to come in," Dr. Woodrow Wesley York was saying, "because it is a faculty ruling that we make a first-week check of our students, Miss Bailey. Pueblo University always maintains close touch with its registrants, to assist them in every way. Have you found your courses satisfactory? What you hoped they might be?"

"Oh, yes, Dr. York!" Ronnie Bailey had a way of saying "Oh, yes." She emphasized the yes, made it a sound of enthusiasm and gratitude so that it was distinctly complimentary. Dr. York looked up from his record book at her.

"Ah—quite so," he murmured then, inadequately. Miss Bailey always distracted him.

"And Dr. York, I'm sorry I got myself talked about. Am I to be punished? Daddy said I ought to be skinned for—"

"Miss Bailey, you are regarded as an adult here, which of course you are. Pueblo does not 'punish.' Of course, certain disciplinary measures have to be invoked from time to time, but you—ah—episode with the airplane and the Border Patrol was distinctly your own affair, and not reprehensible in the slightest, so far as I can see."

"Mr. Starr says that it demonstrates the need for additional autogiro planes in the border service. With only three autogiros now, more should be added as rapidly as—"

"Do you like to fly, Dr. York?" "I beg pardon?" He looked astonished. "I, myself?"

"Yes! Do you?" "Why, ah—no. That is, I have never once been in—"

"Goodness, Dr. York, you ought to be ashamed! This isn't the covered wagon era. This is 1940!"

"Quite so, Miss Bailey. But my scholastic pursuits—"

"Oh, ps-s-s-s-it!" She hissed at the idea, wrinkling her nose, then winked imperiously before she talked on. "Listen here, Dr. York, the kids all say you are very human, really."

"They—they—how was that?" He put down his record book and frowned, incredulous through his heavy-rimmed spectacles.

"The older students say you are a swell sort if you'd let yourself be, and you're not broken down in years. Now listen—you're going flying with me—today!"

"Why, aw, Miss Bailey, I—"

"Come on! Classes are over for the day and it's still just 3:30. Come on, Dr. York! Don't be a droop!"

"A—droop." He echoed it. Droop. It was new in his vocabulary of recognized slang. Droop. Patently, one who not expected to be a droop, if one would exert proper influence over the students. And the university president had said that he, a very young Ph.D., should perhaps be closer to the student activities than any other faculty man. The thought of flying—and Miss Bailey's unmistakably charming manner and, ah, her lips—

"Good! I knew you'd go. It's too lovely an afternoon to waste in an office anyway. Now my car is right outside and—"

She maneuvered him as she might have bossed her plane itself, guiding him and making him like it. Before the scholarly young gentleman realized it he was skimming over the road at 60, and when he became rational, he was skimming over New Mexico at 160. In abject awe he looked down.

"Not over 4000 feet," she answered his thoughts, shouting in his ear. "Like it?" Her grin was impish.

"Good! We'll coast some." Sliding, loafing along up high, motor idling, enabled them to talk more easily. Ronnie noted that his somewhat pale, indoorish skin had taken on a pink glow of exhilaration. Also, he had taken his glasses off.

"It's surprising how much different you look," she said. "I beg pardon?"

"Without your glasses, I mean. You look so much nicer. No, I don't mean that, Dr. York. I mean younger. Of course you look nice with them."

"I—ah, thank you, I—"

"What I mean is you should get smaller frames, I think. These are too heavy. Do you have to wear them?"

"Only when I read, but one gets into a habit, and—"

"That's all of that, then. You start leaving them off."

He looked at her with raised eyebrows. Here was a girl, a student, actually ordering him! Giving him personal commands. It wasn't done in a university, he felt, but—oddy, he liked it. It was distinctly pleasant, and it made sense.

Dr. Woodrow Wesley York blinked. He glanced at Ronica Bailey again and decided that yes, she was undoubtedly the prettiest of all the girls who had ever matriculated at Pueblo University. It made one wish that Fate had not—

"There's a dance Saturday night," she suddenly announced. "Quite so."

"Stop it!" she commanded, gaily. "Quite so" is something to say when you turn 50 years, Dr. York. Can't you be yourself?"

He was shocked again, and looked it.

"I—I—you—"

She laughed happily, musically. "You're funny but I like you, really. I think you haven't been any too happy. Have you?"

"—yes. That is—"

"Will you take me to the dance Saturday, Dr. York?"

She might have shot a gun. Or power dived or looped a loop, or, say, slapped him. No matter; it couldn't have astonished him as much as what she had said. His own voice, though, was paralyzed now.

"The kids say you have been girl shy," she went on, eyes dancing, "but the truth is, you're awfully good-looking and you're not as old as you think you are. I told some of the girls I bet I could break you out of your shell."

"Still he could say nothing. "Mind if I drop the 'Doctor'? I mean outside the classroom? Of course. How about 'Wesley'? What do your intimate friends call you?"

"W-Wes." He finally croaked that.

"Wes. It's okay—Wes! It's human. Here, you want to handle the controls some? Seriously, I'm not trying to flirt with you, I never flirt. I despise flirts. Wes, I'm just trying to stir you awake and I hope you don't get mad at me. Now grasp this lever first, and—"

Get mad at her! Get mad at Ronica Bailey. Poor Wes York, at once miserable and exalted, had no words despite his broad vocabulary. Get mad at her! Never! The girl spoke truth! He knew it, and in him was an almost frantic outpouring of gladness, a welcoming of her frank comradeship; this vivacious, impulsive girl had suddenly brought life to him.

He swallowed hard, thrust his shoulders back determinedly and turned to her. Pink though he was he spoke with conviction now.

"Miss Bailey—that is, Ronica—I am both literally and figuratively up in the clouds, but I certainly shall take you to the dance! I—in fact, I was about to ask you myself!"

He wondered what gave him the temerity to utter that last falsehood. But no matter; he felt a powerful new stimulant streaming through his veins.

Gubernatorial Race Remains In Confusion

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 23 (AP)—The Kansas gubernatorial race came to the end of another week today with one Supreme Court decision and threats of further court action.

Tabulation of more than 6,000 out-state absentee ballots this week gave Gov. Payne Rater, Republican, a lead of 427 votes over William H. Burke, Democrat. Before the absentee count began Burke was leading.

Today the Supreme Court denied the Democratic nominee a writ of mandamus to compel the state canvassing board to allow his representative to scan the affidavits detached from the ballots.

Burke's lawyers threatened further court action.

Dies Says Second 'White Paper' On Italian Activities In U. S. Being Prepared By Investigating Members

ORANGE, Tex., Nov. 23 (AP).—A second "white paper" dealing "exclusively with Italian activities and propaganda in the United States" is being prepared by the House committee investigating un-American activities, Chairman Dies (D-Tex.) said tonight.

"The papers will contain letters to consular Italian officers and to Americans of Italian descent in this country showing that consuls have been active in building up pro-Fascist sympathies and followers in this country and in raising funds for Italy," he said.

Dies, whose committee Thursday released a "white paper" on alleged German activities, declared in an interview the next statement would show that "a vast amount of financial aid has been received by Italy from Italians and Americans of Italian descent here in the past four years."

To Reveal U. S. Aid.

"The report will reveal the large part American donations played in the conquest of Ethiopia and the slow, quiet campaign underway here to aid Italy in the present war."

Termining the Italian situation far more serious than "recent German exposures," Dies said the report on Fascist activities would be released in Washington.

"The report will contain excerpts from textbooks printed in Italy and sent to the United States for instruction of Italian children. In these textbooks Mussolini and the Fascist government are extolled to the obvious disparagement of democracy."

George Chairman Of Foreign Group

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (AP).—Senator Walter F. George, veteran Southern Democrat, was selected today to be chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and immediately declared he would pursue a policy of working in "close harmony" with the state department.

In a talk with reporters, the gray-haired Georgia Senator also indicated that he thought it would be unwise to seek Congressional action at this session on "constitutional matters" in the field of international affairs.

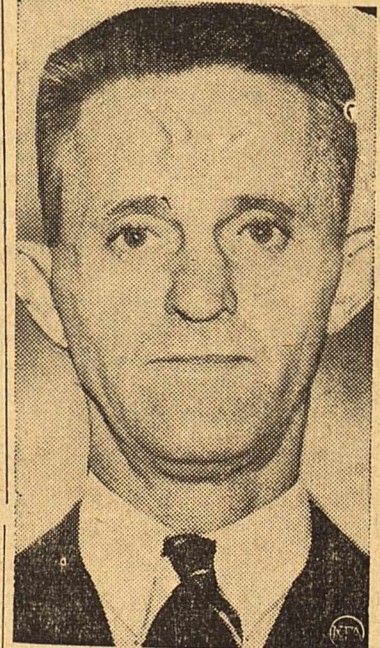

"It will be difficult to maintain a quorum," he said. Only 45 Senators—four less than the quorum necessary for transaction of business—attended yesterday's Senate meeting.

Buries Credit Talk

George's attitude appeared to rule out the possibility, talked by some Senators, of action at this session on the question of extending credit to Great Britain.

Senator George was the unanimous choice of the Senate Democratic steering committee for the chairmanship of the foreign relations committee, left vacant by the death of Senator Pittman (D-Nev.).

Farm Department Wants Stamp Cash

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (AP).—The Agriculture Department today urged a $400,000,000-a-year appropriation to permit extension to all relief families of its stamp program for distributing surplus foods. Inaugurated experimentally in a few cities a year and a half ago, the program now reaches 202 cities and counties and a total of 2,500,000 relief clients. Officials said about $100,000,000 would be spent on it this year.

The recommendation for an extension of the program was made in an analysis of its operations to date which said that "farmers, low-income consumers and food dealers would all benefit substantially" from

Harmon Supplants Grange In Rout Of Ohio

Great Wolverine Runner Shatters Touchdown Mark

Receives Reverberating Ovation By 73,000 Fans; Michigan Wins By 40-0

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 23 (AP).—The glory that was "Red" Grange's shifted to the stalwart shoulders of Michigan's mighty Tom Harmon today as the Gary ghost ground Ohio's Buckeyes to a 40-0 defeat—their worst walloping in 35 years.

A crowd of 73,648 rain-drenched fans gazed through a haze as the all-America halfback scored three touchdowns, tossed passes for two others, and kicked four placements for extra points to wind up the most brilliant scoring career in Western Conference annals.

The scoring record of 31 touchdowns held by Illinois' immortal Harold "Red" Grange for the last 15 years went into the runnerup spot as Harmon, with the shiftest running the Buckeye Stadium has ever witnessed, boosted his three-year touchdown total to 33.

On top of that, the Michigan maestro has booted 33 goals for touchdowns, and a pair of field goals for a 24-game total of 237 points.

When Harmon left the game after his final touchdown—with only 38 seconds to play—the crowd gave him one of the greatest ovations ever tendered in Ohio Stadium.

The game was only a few minutes old when the Wolves struck. Starting on their own 20 after a punt, Harmon going over from the eight-yard line. Three minutes later Paul Kromer took a punt on his own 19 and swayed and swerved 31 yards for another touchdown.

Harmon passed 17 yards to Capt. Forrest Evashevski, quarterback, for the third touchdown in the second session to end a 77-yard march and passed 16 yards to End Edward Frutig for the fourth, after a 101-yard advance which started as Harmon took the kickoff behind his own goal line and ran it to the Michigan 22.

Later in the third period after Robert Westfall had intercepted an Ohio pass on his own 48, the Wolves marched 52 yards in five plays for another touchdown, Harmon going over from the 18 on an end sweep. The wily Wolverine faked a pass and then skirted end for the final touchdown, going six yards on the play.

Revenge For Lew

Lew Jenkins

Some fans thought Pete Lello would repeat his victory in Chicago a few years ago over Lew Jenkins (above), but the Sweet-water swatter exploded this myth and belted out the challenger in two rounds Friday night in Madison Square Garden, successfully defending his world's lightweight championship.

Ithacans Become Cocky; Get Beat By Penn's Team

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23 (AP).—A cocky Cornell football team threw two ill-starred forward passes this afternoon and with them tossed away its claim to the Ivy League championship.

At the time the passes were thrown the Ithacans were leading Penn by 13-0. But as the final whistle blew, Penn was winner by 22-20.

It was a grand triumph for Penn, beaten only by Michigan this year, and a grand finale for the Red and Blue's fine heavy duty back, Francis Xavier Reagan. Performing before a crowd of 79,935, Reagan scored all three touchdowns, held the ball for Gene Davis' field goal and extra point, and set a new Pennsylvania one year scoring record of 103 points.

Ithacans Drive Twice.
The Ithacans went 80 yards and 60 yards to two quick touchdowns in the first quarter, but then suddenly had a rush of overconfidence. After the Ithacans were backed to their own 8 by a Reagan punt they tried two passes. The first fell incomplete, but Ray Frick intercepted the second and returned it to the Cornell 11 and in five smashes Reagan took it over.

In the second period Reagan, after helping move to the Cornell 12, faked as if to pass, sucked the Cornell defense to one side and then ran up the other for his second touchdown. A few minutes later he ran 52 yards to put the ball in position for Davis' field goal from the 28.

Cornell came back after the second half kickoff to March 71 yards and go in front again by 20-16. But from then on Reagan's punting kept the Big Red in the hole and himself found time to score the winning touchdown from 16 yards out.

CLASSIFIEDS—SMALL COST—BIG RESULTS

Minnesota, Tennessee And Boston Roll On Undeclared; Volunteers And Eagles Eye Sugar Bowl Game

By Herb Barker.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (AP).—Minnesota, Boston College and Tennessee rolled on undefeated today but the football headlines belonged to an individual this time—Tommy Harmon of Michigan.

The great all-American halfback closed his intercollegiate career in a blaze of glory as the Wolverines smashed Ohio State, 40-0. Harmon ran his three-year record for touchdowns to 33, two more than the record hung up by Red Grange, and boosted his total points for the same period to 237, another new record.

Minnesota, which handed Michigan its lone defeat, 7-6, wound up an unbeaten, untied season with a 22-13 victory over Wisconsin, and with the conference championship firmly in its grasp.

Boston Rolls Along.
Boston College, also boosting a perfect record and looking ahead to a probable invitation to the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, crushed Auburn's Plainsmen, 33-7, in another smashing display of all-around class, Tennessee, which probably will be the Eagles' opponent at New Orleans, rolled up a 33-0 count on Kentucky to protect its undefeated, untied status.

Also standing firm were Lafayette which closed its campaign with a perfect start by romping over Lehigh, 46-0; Hardin-Simmons, which trounced San Francisco, 28-18, and Mississippi State which routed Mississippi in convincing fashion, 19-0. State was tied by Auburn early in the season but otherwise was all victorious.

Penn State finally saw its unbeaten record go by the boards as Pitt ground out a 20-7 triumph.

Nearly 80,000 sat in at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, and saw Penn, paced by Frank Reagan, hand Cornell its second successive setback, 22-20, and win the Ivy League title. Cornell ran up a quick 13-0 lead but could not stop Reagan when the Penn machine began to roll.

Harvard crushed Yale, 28-0, before 47,000 in the 79th game between these ancient rivals. Dave Gardner's passing carried Princeton to a 26-19 decision over Army. Joe Segal's 55-yard run with an intercepted pass provided Columbia with its winning margin in a 20-17 thriller with Colgate. Eddie Kast scored twice for Dartmouth as the Indians trounced Brown, 20-6.

Johnny Supulski pitched three passes for Manhattan in the fourth quarter but the New Yorkers dropped a 33-25 decision to Holy Cross. Georgetown had a surprising fight on its hands before it could get past George Washington, 8-0. Duquesne had to come from behind to nip Villanova, 14-10.

Easy For Wildcats.
Bill De Corveant and Don Clawson provided Northwestern with too much punch for Notre Dame and the Wildcats won easily, 20-0. Gene White's field goal from the 27-yard line in the last 13 seconds enabled Indiana to halt Purdue, 3-0. Iowa rolled over Illinois, 18-7, in the other Western Conference feature. Detroit scored over Marquette, 19-0, and Michigan State stopped West Virginia, 17-0.

Nebraska spotted Iowa two touchdowns and then rallied to win, 21-12, thus assuring itself of at least a tie for the Big Six crown. Oklahoma's Sooners won from Temple, 9-6. Tulsa trounced Oklahoma A. and M., 19-6, to win the Missouri Valley title.

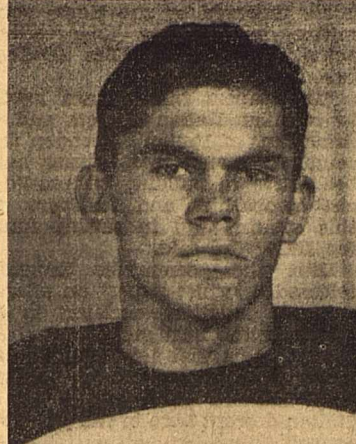

In the Southwest, Rice chased an ancient jinx in a 14-6 victory over Texas Christian, while Southern Methodist topped Baylor, 7-4. Alabama Wins.

Vanderbilt put up a great fight in a Southeastern Conference tussle with Alabama but finally went down, 25-21, on Jimmy Nelson's fourth-quarter touchdown pass. Florida spilled Georgia Tech, 16-7. Sewanee dropped a 13-7 verdict to Citadel of the Southern Conference.

Clemson, rallying to trip Furman, 13-7, clinched the Southern Conference title as Duke ran wild over North Carolina State, 42-6. Harry Dunkle's field goal gave North Carolina a 10-7 victory over Virginia.

In the far west, Washington crushed U. C. L. A., 41-0, while Washington State won over Gonzaga, 14-7. Brigham Young and Colorado State played to a 13-13 draw in a Big Seven contest.

Leading Scorer

Windell Williams, Midland Bulldog quarterback, whose 16 points in the Odessa game ran his season's total to 69, is leading scorer of District 3-A. He has racked up 10 touchdowns, 6 extra points and one field goal. Williams forged ahead of Hogan, Odessa, who led the scorers up to Thursday with 56 points.

Pace May Enter Midland Golden Gloves Ringmen

Midland may enter a boxing team in the Golden Gloves district contests to be held during January in Odessa it was learned yesterday.

Earl Pace is seeking to form a team here. Pace has won the welter title of the district for three straight years. He will coach the boxers, he said.

At the district contests held in Midland last January, several home fighters won crowns.

Mike Buffington, football tackle, copped the heavyweight title and Dexter Jay, Midland, then of Monahans, was bantamweight champ.

Kimbrough's Cowboys Live Up To Tradition

By Harry Grayson NEA Service Sports Editor

One of the more entertaining football teams this season is that of Hardin-Simmons University.

The Baptist Cowboys live up to the tradition of the great southwest . . . are one of the throw-in clubs in the country.

For their size they don't make a pair of touchdown twins better than Owen Goodnight and L. B. Russell, who take turns pitching and catching. Goodnight throws the football like a baseball. Russell throws the floater variety, and the boys pick the ball out of the air on the dead run.

Frank Kimbrough, coaching brother of All-America John and Jack of Texas A. & M., has developed one of the slickest passing attacks ever witnessed. Pass protection is ironclad.

Hardin-Simmons can smash too. Russell, the half-pint, spark; Fagan (Moon) Mullins, power fullback, and Moose Bryson ramrod a vicious running game.

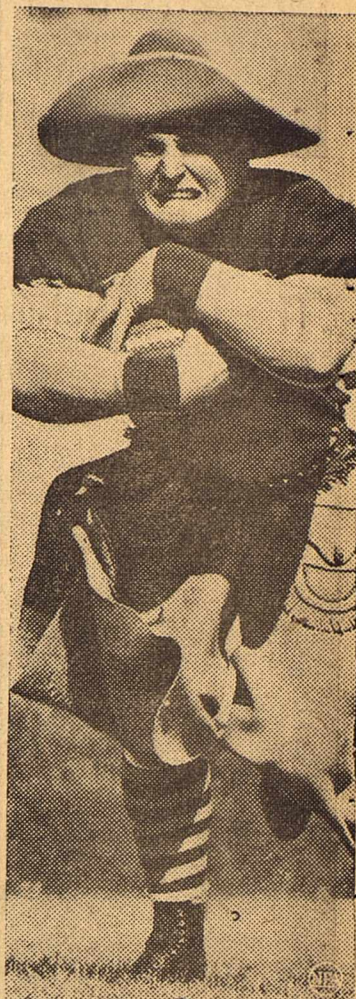

After crushing Loyola in Los Angeles, 40-6, they remained in the home corral only three days before shoving off for Washington and another longer leg of a 7,000-mile trip.

Turns Jawn Away
From West Texas material, mainly from Class B and C high schools, Kimbrough has turned out numerous stars.

Clyde (Bulldog) Turner, the Chicago professional Bears' prize recruit center, tops players drilled by him.

Frank Kimbrough, handsome and genial, is the oldest of six brothers to play football for Haskell, Tex., high school. He is an old cowhand himself, his career a four-sport man dating back to Simmons College days of the mid-20s.

On their graduation from high school, Big Brother Frank debated whether the kid brothers, Fullback Jarrin' John and End Jack should play football for Hardin-Simmons.

Boo! It's Fagan Mullins, power plunger, garbed to thoroughly convince you that Hardin-Simmons players are Cowboys.

"You'd better not come out for my team," at last he told me. "I don't want to be embarrassed by your ability."

Frank Kimbrough did Texas A. & M. a good turn, but he's doing all right with what he has.

Estes pool, established daily potential of 2,493.60 barrels upon completion at 2,695 feet. It was shot with 400 quarts in pay horizon topped at 2,430 feet. Oil tests 35-gravity, and gas-oil ratio is 925-1.

Heam et al was given a similar amount of acid at 5,250 feet and flowed at the rate of 492 barrels daily. Flow of 368.24 barrels per day was gauged by Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company No. 2-B R. M. Kendrick after 6,500-gallon acid injection in pay lime from 4,931 to 5,123 feet.

Forest Development No. 1 A. C. Whisenant, Southeastern Yoakum wildcat, is swaging out 7-inch casing. The pipe collapsed at 4,329 feet, and crew yesterday was swaging at 4,349.

It was acidized with 1,000 gallons under an oil load and last was reported showing a small amount of new oil and gas while swabbing tubing 3,500 feet from the surface.

Gulf No. 229 J. T. McElroy, on the Upton County side of the Gulf-McElroy pool in Crane and Upton counties, flowed 3,504.42 barrels of oil plus three per cent water on 24-hour gauge. It had been shot with 510 quarts at total depth of 2,845 feet.

Posse Scours Woods For Negro Suspects

HAMMOND, La., Nov. 23 (AP).—Several hundred, state, parish and city officials and possemen, aided by bloodhounds scoured the woods of Southern Tangipahoa Parish tonight searching for two negro suspects in the sensational early morning robbery and slaying of Steve Bench, wealthy Hungarian farmer.

Most of the more than $5,000 in currency and securities reported missing, was recovered during the day, the last of it when Policeman Dick Cutrer fired upon but failed to stop one negro, who fled into the woods, after tossing a wad of bills totaling $2,600 over a fence.

Mustangs Win Over Baylor Bruins, 7-4 On Sloppy Field

San Angelo Back Sprints To Goal In Last Quarter

Wilson And Johnston Stage Great Punting Spectacle For Crowd

WACO, Nov. 23 (AP).—One lunging sprint by Bobby Brown, San Angelo, through a hog's heaven of mud and blinding rain, plus some canny charity in the fading minutes gave Southern Methodist a weird 7-4 triumph over Baylor today.

Anchored in the muck of an indescribable field through three periods of nothing but magnificent punting by both teams, the Methodist won a ball game on the second play of the fourth period. Three thousand soaked, chilled fans watched Preston Johnston's perfect kick skid out of bounds on the Baylor 4. Back in the end zone Jack Wilson, a grand football player who did a heroic job of kicking, slammed one out to the Baylor 39.

Muddled, tired Bobby Brown gathered it in, splashed for the sidelines, fell in behind a couple of blockers and skidded 30 yards for the touchdown. Tailback Johnny Clement plunged the point after Baylor had been penalized to the one for off-sides.

Deep in the final period this big man Wilson, a boy who had the incredible average of 38.5 yards on 26 kicks of a soaked ball swishing through constant rain, dropped a punt out on the Methodist 2.

But Ray Mallouf, the Methodist boy who did some kicking himself with 33.8 yards on 11 tries and also tossed in a 50-yard sideline run, calmly stepped back into the end zone and grounded the ball for an intentional safety.

Only 20 seconds remained when Southern Methodist gave away two more points. Halfback Cliff Hagerman came racing into the game with the Methodists in possession on their own 30.

The rain was pouring and the field was a lake when he took the snap-back, started gradually falling back and finally retreated the entire 30 yards behind his own goal line for another Baylor safety.

That was the ball game—and a great one. The kicking was amazing. Besides Wilson and Mallouf, Johnston kicked 10 times for a 41.2 yard average. To further give the picture a touch of magic, there was only one outright fumble and Centers Ray Pope of SMU and Bob Nelson of Baylor, 60 minute boys, did the remarkable job of snapping back the wet ball with only one bad pass.

Jack Rabbit Runner Leads Oklahoma To Win Against Temple

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 23 (AP).—Little Coy Matthews, as fast as a jack rabbit and not much bigger, led Oklahoma's Sooners to a 9 to 6 victory over the Owls of Temple University in an intersectional grid battle played here today in the teeth of a chill wind.

Mathews made 8,000 fans forget the cold in the third period when he fielded a punt on the first hop at the Sooners' 23 yard line and was off like a shot, with every Temple player between him and his destination.

Twelve Pecos Eagles Finish Grid Careers

PECOS, Nov. 23 (Special).—Twelve Pecos Eagle football players, six of them regulars, finished grid careers Thursday in the Thanksgiving battle here with Wink.

Connie Wouillard, ace of Eagle scorers, and little Neil "Skeeter" Prewitt, are the backfield men who will be missed.

Graduation will slash the line taking two fine ends, L. A. Richards, two-letter performer and Pete Atkins. Both guards, Marian Cook and Jerry Duncan, will also finish.

Rex Owens, diminutive center, ends his high school eligibility as does the co-captain, Charles Williams, reserve tackle.

Reserves Hiram Bond, guard, E. F. Briggs, end, and Harold Hallard, guard, and Harold Burton, tackle, will not be back.

Rice Breaks TCU's Sixteen-Year Spell

Golden Gophers Stake Out Claim For Grid Title

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 23 (AP).—The Golden Gophers of Minnesota posted a strong claim to a share of the mythical national football championship today, finishing the season undefeated and untied with a 22 to 13 victory over Wisconsin before 40,000 spectators.

The giant Norsemen, who clinched the Western Conference championship a week ago, brushed aside the Badgers as they had seven other teams after spotting the home aggregation 13 points.

Wisconsin scored twice early in the game, George Paekvan hitting center for two. Then Johnny Tennant passed to Dave Schreiner, who shook off two tacklers on the Gopher 45 and ran for a touchdown.

The aroused Gophers then settled down. Sophomore Bill Daley ran 27 yards to the Wisconsin 45 in the second period.

Six plays put the ball on the 12. Daley smashing over from this point, Joe Merrick's placekick was wide.

Daley paved the way for the tying tally, intercepting a pass attempt and returning 17 yards to the Badger 30. Minnesota scored in eight plays, Smith going off right tackle and cutting back for the touchdown from the eight. Gordon Paschka's placekick was good.

Early in the final period George Franck backed the Badgers to their six with a punt.

Paschka smacked the line for two before Mark Hoskins tried a pass. Franck snatched the ball and raced down the sidelines 27 yards to the touchdown that clinched the victory. Paschka's kick was blocked.

Tulsa Wins Laurels Beating Aggies, 19-6

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 23 (AP).—Mud, cold, rain and the Oklahoma Aggies couldn't stop the University of Tulsa today and the Golden Hurricane skidded to a 19 to 6 football victory that meant the Missouri Valley Conference championship.

Week-long rains had made the field an island surrounded by a moat, which would have been the running track on drier days.

A cold north wind sent officials onto the gridiron wearing gloves. Coed cheerleaders frolicked in ski suits.

Nebraska Power Is Too Much For Iowa, 21-12

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 23 (AP).—Nebraska power beat Iowa State in the soggy turf of Memorial Stadium today as the Huskers stormed back in the third and fourth periods to wipe out a 12-to-0 cyclone half-time lead and take a 21-to-12 victory.

The win assured Nebraska of at least a tie for Big Six Conference championship honors.

MISSISSIPPI MAROONS TAKE UNIVERSITY, 19-0

By William T. Rives.

HOUSTON, Nov. 23 (AP).—The Rice Owls, famished after a 16-year drought, helped themselves to the horn of plenty today, ploughing over slippery turf to register a 14-6 victory over Texas Christian.

Ten thousand fans watched Rice pluck the prize it sought in vain through good years and bad. The Christians' hex has been the most persistent in Southwest Conference history, operating even when Rice won conference titles.

It took an obscure player, Dick Dwelle of Dallas, to put Rice in the breaddle.

Was Third Stringer. Almost lost this year with the third-string boys, Dwelle switched his hips on two great runs to set up the Owls' touchdowns.

He scored the first time he carried the ball.

The Christians' aerial attack was virtually nullified by the low ceiling. They completed two passes of eight attempted for 40 yards.

Rice stuck to the ground, although Texas Christian got the jump with a first-quarter score.

Races 56 Yards. Frank Kring, big fullback, intercepted one of Weems' passes and raced 56 yards to the Rice 29.

Gillespie then hit Connie Sparks, end, with a pass on the Rice 7 and plunged over from the 4 after two tries at the line. Phil Roach, another end, failed to kick the extra point.

Taking the ball on the Christian 40 after a punt Rice came back. Brumley struck for a first down on the 30 and then Dwelle burst around right end to score standing up. Brumley kicked the extra point.

The Owls tallied again in the third. On the Frogs' 20, Dwelle broke to the 1-yard line before he was stopped.

Brumley ploughed over for the score and added the extra point.

El Paso Eleven Wins District Grid Title

He Kicked Out On the 2

Halfback Jack Wilson of Baylor University was phenomenal yesterday as he kicked in rain and mud for a 38.5 yard average against Southern Methodist. His grand punting didn't keep the Mustangs, also abetted by superb kicking, from winning, 7-4.

Hardin-Simmons Counts On Passes

ABILENE, Nov. 23 (AP).—Hardin-Simmons' Cowboys made passes count through a chill weather on a field deep in mud today to win the tough San Francisco University Dons 28-18 before a homecoming crowd of 3,000.

Coach Frank Kimbrough's club jumped into an early lead. The Cowboys received the kickoff on their own 47 and on straight power, mixed with one 13-yard pass, L. E. Russell to D. A. Parker, advanced to the Dons' two. Fullback Moon Mullins crashed right guard to score and Murray Evans kicked the extra point.

Minutes later Evans of H-S dropped back to kick a field goal from the 20.

Russell's interception of a San Francisco heave in midfield led to the next Cowboy touchdown. Goodnight passed to Russell on the 19-yard line, and the Hardin-Simmons quarterback danced over the goal.

Goodnight's heave to Walsh in the end zone scored again for Hardin-Simmons.

Opening the third period, Russell tossed a long pass to Parker for 43 yards, and Parker ran to the eight. Mullins tore through standing for the touchdown, and Moore's kick was blocked.

Sixteen Bulldogs Will Finish Grid Careers Against Andrews

Sixteen members of the Midland high Bulldog team end football careers here Wednesday.

Purple and gold performers such as Bob Eldson, scrappy guard, Windell Williams, scoring ace, Mike Buffington, large tackle, Billy "Tuffy" Hall, defensive stalwart, Odie Kelly, passer, Herbert Rehders, pivot man, and others complete eligibility in the Andrews tussel. The game starts at 4 p. m.

Maurice Bratton, 6-foot end who has won three letters, is another senior.

Lomer "Preacher" Green, another end, finishes.

Two Regulars Returning. Left Tackle Selman Cooke and Right End Willford Lester are the only first string gridlers returning in 1941.

Cooke, 170-pound junior, will earn his second letter.

Buffington, 190 pounder, is one of the district's best tackles. He may attend San Angelo junior college.

Co-captain "Boog" Eldson will be sorely missed next year. At 150, he is the team's hardest blocker and a capable leader.

Hall has been a fine guard. Rehders to A. & M.

Rehders at center, will be at Texas A&M next fall. He graduates with two letters, at guard and at center.

Bigham, senior back, was handicapped by eligibility and injuries.

Odie Kelly can sling passes with the best in District 3-AA.

TCU gave Midland a capable assistant coach this year in Earle Clark. Midland may return the favor by sending the Frogs its star, Windell Williams. The big quarterback, whose right toe help win several games is an all-around performer. Bidding for all-district honors, Williams, is a letterman in basketball, track, and football. He was all-district guard in basketball, and went to the finals at Austin in the state track meet.

Baylor May Get White. Baylor U. is likely to get J. M. "Jim" White, one of Midland's best. White is a fine punter, runner, and blocker. He has earned two letters.

Other men graduating or running out their eligibility are Tony Watson, John Ward, Roger Sidwell, Joe Conking, Peyton Anderson, and Cletas Hines.

With such a loss, material outlook for next season is not bright.

Three regulars return. They are Lester, end, Ivan Hall, speedy reserve back, and Cooke, guard.

Boston College Beats Powerful Auburn Team

BOSTON, Nov. 23 (AP).—Unbeaten Boston College crumbled a powerful Auburn eleven through the first half today and then took the Southern Plainsmen apart at the seams to roll up a 33-7 total in their ninth straight victory before 35,000 spectators.

The high-flying Eagles, whose supporters were lamenting the absence of Gene Goodreault, their great right end, from the lineup for the first time in his college career, found ample cause for rejoicing in the performances of Charlie O'Rourke and Frank Maznicke.

O'Rourke sparked two Boston touchdowns drives with his bullet-like passing and his tricky running. Maznicki scored twice.

Panthers Sink Crack Penn State Gridsters

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 23 (AP).—Penn State's visions of a post-season bowl bid vanished today in the smoky dusk of the steel city where a Pitt eleven rated only so-so topped the favored Lions from the ranks of the nation's undefeated football teams in a 20 to 7 upset.

A crowd of 31,000 saw the Panthers level State's vaunted line.

Harvard Crushes Yale In Traditional Melee

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 23 (AP).—A merciless Harvard eleven put the finishing touches on one of the most disastrous football seasons in Yale history by crushing its old rival, 28 to 0, before a crowd of 47,000 in Yale Bowl today.

The victory brought a tie with Princeton for the "Big Three" title.

look for next season is not bright.

Three regulars return. They are Lester, end, Ivan Hall, speedy reserve back, and Cooke, guard.

Tennessee Tramples Kentucky Team, 33-0

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 23 (AP).—A great Tennessee football team all but nailed down the lid on a post-season bowl invitation today, beating a courageous Kentucky outfit, 33-0, before a homecoming crowd of 25,000.

Only Vanderbilt remains unbeaten, untied season.

A blocked Kentucky punt in the second period, when Mike Baltisaris slashed through to bat Eral Al-len's try, set up Tennessee's first touchdown. Little Johnny Butler whipped an overhead to Baltisaris in the end zone. Fred Newman's placekick was good.

Smallhorst To Begin Food School Monday

Caterers and food handlers of Midland "go to school" tomorrow to hear lectures by David Smallhorst, itinerant instructor for the industrial training service.

The school, sponsored by the Midland city-county health department, is a training course dealing with sanitation as related to food handling.

Sessions will be held in the courthouse twice a week, Mondays and Wednesdays, two hours, at 2:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. Six meetings for each group are planned.

Persons attending five of the six meetings will receive certificates from the State Board of Vocational Education.

Smallhorst, who has conducted schools in 10 or 12 leading Texas cities, said response in Midland from employers was indicative of a successful school.

Midland citizens who intend to make application for commissions as notary publics should apply at the county clerk's office, Mrs. Susie Noble said yesterday.

Applications will be sent to the secretary of state.

After appointments are granted, applicants are required to appear before the county clerk to qualify.

Twelve emergency commission applications have been sent to the secretary of state from Midland County, Mrs. Noble said.

Says Many Americans Have Bogus Divorces

EL PASO, Nov. 23 (AP).—The possibility that "several hundred Americans" may be possessors of bogus Mexican divorces, manufactured by an alleged "counterfeit divorce factory," drew the attention today of both U. S. and Mexican authorities.

The bogus decrees, it was said, bore the signatures of minor court judges of Villa Ahumada and Praxedis G. Guerrero, small towns in the state of Chihuahua.

Attention of U. S. postal authorities in El Paso was called to the case by Judge Ricardo Carrillo Duran of the Juarez civil court— itself for years the mecca of Americans seeking "easy" but legal Mexican divorces.

Judge Carrillo Duran said he believed at least 48 "divorce" documents—impressively garnished with seals and red ribbon—had been granted to Americans, all of the documents bearing the signature of minor Chihuahua judges.

"Possibly several hundred Americans have these bogus divorces. Since many doubtless have re-married, they are in for a lot of trouble," he remarked.

CONFEDERATE VETERAN DIES IN COLLINS COUNTY

Rep. Dies Says FBI Isn't Geared To Cope With Vast Network Of Columnists In U. S.

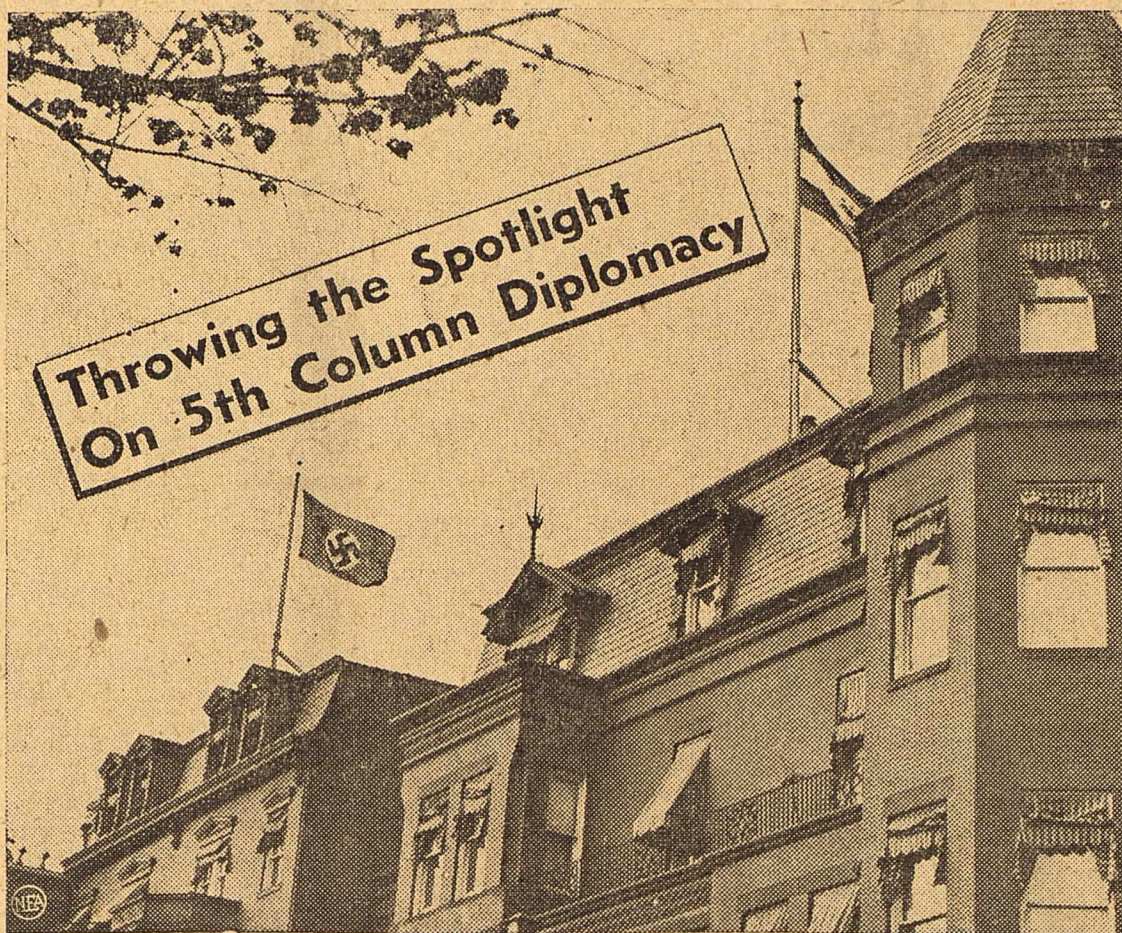

First of three articles telling the real story of German and Italian fifth column activities as directed by axis diplomats in the United States.

By Bruce Catton
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Behind all the excitement over the Dies committee's "White Paper" is Chairman Martin Dies' firm belief that America today confronts a fifth column peril more serious than anything in its previous history.

A network of axis agents has been thrown over the nation for sabotage, espionage and propaganda purposes. This network puts potential trouble-makers into national defense industries and works under the direction of foreign consular and diplomatic agents who cannot be reached by American law.

This is a peril which American law-enforcement machinery is not geared to meet—and unless there is developed some new method to cope with it, the nation is in for serious

The swastika flies over the German embassy in Washington.

1917 situation was met is like preparing our army to fight the kind of war that was fought in 1917.

The FBI is doubling its staff and is making every effort to keep thoroughly informed on the fifth column's activities. But, as Dies points out, the FBI is severely handicapped. For the most part, the things that have been done to date are not illegal. It isn't, for instance, against the law for a member of the German-American Bund to hold a job in a steel mill or an airplane factory.

Dies Disagrees

Before the World War began, the British intelligence service got hold of a fairly complete list of German agents who were at work in England. The British bided their time, instead of striking at once; when the war started, they rounded up all the agents at one swoop. It is often argued that the FBI plus the army and navy intelligence services, can play the same game in America today—that so long as they know what the set-up is they can safely wait until overt acts are committed, then make their round-up.

Dies disagrees.

Supplemental legislation will be needed, in Dies' opinion. All organizations like the Bund, the Communist party, the American Fascist party, and so on, which are under the control of a foreign power, should be outlawed, Dies holds. Beyond that, though, he believes that a good part of the problem can be solved simply by relentless exposure.

Sabotage . . .

Dies hopes the next Congress will give his committee more funds—a million dollars is the sum he thinks necessary—and will strengthen its powers both to subpoena witnesses and to punish witnesses who refuse to testify. If that is done, he believes, the committee can complete its exposure of foreign agents who are employed either in defense industries or in the government, and can insist on their discharge.

"That's the only way we can prevent a wave of sabotage that would absolutely cripple our defense program," he says. "We've got to insist that no member of any foreign-controlled group may work for the government or for a defense industry. The longer we delay the more it's going to cost us."

Control By Embassies

By following up leads obtained through earlier testimony of witnesses, by raiding the offices of organizations which have served the axis powers, by sending out investigators to pry into local situations, Dies says his committee has obtained a broad general picture of the fifth column peril. As a sample of the sort of thing uncovered, he cites one instance—a navy yard whose roster of employes includes 23 members of the German-American Bund and 19 members of the Communist party.

The particular danger is that the control of the fifth column network is lodged in embassies and consulates which are protected from ordinary legal processes by diplomatic immunity.

This is true to such an extent that the administration has for months been reluctant to give the Dies committee a green light, for fear its revelations might force a break in diplomatic relations with Germany.

trouble.

"The orthodox methods the Federal Bureau of Investigation has been using just aren't going to work in this situation," says Dies. "What we are facing is entirely different from the situation of 1917. Preparing to meet it as the

Collection Of Musical Instruments Pride Of Teacher

By Kathleen Eiland

Cherished treasure of genial, music-loving Ned Watson, Midland music teacher, is his collection of violins or as he refers to them "fiddles" and other musical instruments.

The oldest of the instruments is a Stainer made in 1765, which the owner believes is genuine. Stainer was the greatest German violin maker and he is said to have labeled his instruments in the way this one is labeled.

As in the case of other instruments in his collection, Mr. Watson bought this one for a song (or at least for one dollar) from its possessor whose purse was empty.

Another of his special prizes is a Johann George Lippold violin made in 1819 on which he has papers to attest its authenticity. Valued at $500 the instrument was purchased in Kansas City after the World War.

"My prize beauty" is the loving title he gives an imitation Antonius Stradivarius violin. Although not the actual product of the famous Italian violin maker of Cremona, Mr. Watson considers this the best-made factory violin he has seen.

Various other "fiddles," including a modern handmade one by Franz Weidler of Shilbach, bring the total to seven. In addition, he possesses a one-string Chinese violin, purchased in Chicago, which resembles a glorified cigar box but is capable of producing good music.

Mr. Watson has a viola which was once the property of the cellist for Theodore Thomas who founded the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

There's a cello by Albin L. Paulus Jr., violin maker to the Royal Court of Saxony, Germany, a fine instrument which Mr. Watson uses in his programs in Midland; a five-string banjo made by Washburn which no longer makes this type; one of the first makes of Gibson guitars, cut out of one block of wood; and other interesting instruments.

A set of minstrel bones used in minstrel shows of 40 years ago is an unusual, though minor part, of the assembly. These "bones," which look like sticks to the eyes of the uninitiated were held dexterously between the fingers and shaken to produce a sound similar to present-day castanets.

"Mr. Ned" or "Ned" as he is known to most Midlanders has been collecting musical instruments "for 40 years," he says. He believes his collection is the largest privately-owned one between Fort Worth and El Paso.

He plays and teaches twelve instruments including: violin, viola, bass violin, cello, mandolin, banjo, guitar, all the wind instruments, trombone, saxophone, clarinet, especially the cornet and the piano accordion. In addition, he studied piano as a foundation for his musical knowledge and can teach beginners on the piano.

Mr. Ned conducts his musical classes in his own special studio at 210 W. Ohio, where he and his sister, Miss Lydia G. Watson, reside. Miss Watson teaches piano, conducting a two-piano studio.

The Watsons have an extensive musical library including valuable editions and musical textbooks, some of them inherited, with encyclopedias in volumes.

Book Review

"Internal Constitution of the Earth," by several authors; Edited by G. Gutenberg; reviewed by Robert L. Bates, The Texas Company, Midland.

Internal Constitution of the Earth," one of the books recently acquired by the West Texas Geological Society for the geological book shelf at Midland County Library is Volume VII of a series of monographs which, when complete, will constitute an exhaustive treatise on the physics of the earth.

Each of the volumes is written by one or more acknowledged leaders of thought and experiment in the specific field. Beno Gutenberg, professor of geophysics at the California Institute of Technology, edits "Internal Constitution of the Earth," himself contributes several chapters and other contributors include six geophysicists, one seismologist and one geologist.

Only scientists of broad training and considerable intellectual ability can reconstruct rationally the history of the origin and nature of the earth as the medium of geophysics, that "boundary science" which overlaps on the domains of astronomy, geology, physics, chemistry and seismology. In a book treating of such a range of precise knowledge, it is to be expected that sections dealing with specialized fields will be difficult for the person not trained in such fields, to understand.

As Jeffreys points out in an early chapter, the study of the earth as a whole is made difficult by two obvious facts: There were no human witnesses when the earth was formed, and man is unable to penetrate into the earth more than a tiny fraction of its radius.

Gutenberg states that it seems probable that the source of the great heat within the earth, as evidenced by eruption of hot lava, the increase of temperature with depth in mines and wells, etc., is due to a combination of heat-generating chemical processes and the breakdown of radium-uranium materials to lead; that is, radioactivity.

Some of the chapters in the book contain summaries. The entire work is summarized by Gutenberg in 5 pages at the end of the volume. There is a biography after each chapter, and the volume is indexed.

Air Hostesses Must Keep Up Their Appearance Within a Budget—And Do

Airlines hostesses are noted for their smart appearance, general air of efficient alertness. Typical is flight stewardess Delores 'Burr' above. She flies between New York and Chicago.

By Alicia Hart NEA Service Staff Writer

Airline hostesses, those good-looking girls in a comparatively new field of work for women, are excellent proof of the sound theory that being attractive is more a matter of time and good taste than of money. All of these girls in regular attendance on most of America's passenger airplanes manage to look extremely well on low budgets.

Being attractive is an important part of the hostess' job. It is a matter of fact, near the top, on a list of requirements which include, among other things, the ability to be a really interesting listener; being good-natured; whether she feels like it or not, calmness in an emergency; and ability to figure out time tables (a neat trick). In addition, when she makes application for a job as airline hostess, a girl must be a registered nurse, between the ages of 21 and 28. She cannot weigh more than 120 pounds or be taller than 5 ft. 6 in.

First thing the student airline hostess is asked to do when she enters the training class for hostesses at American Airlines is to get an excellent permanent wave. Then, during the six weeks of training, she is expected to wash and set her own hair and to manicure her own nails. Whether she continues to do her own hair and nails after graduation is up to each student. The chances are that she will.

never have to run the risk of looking frosty for even a day simply because there's no beauty shop handy. Each American Airlines hostess uses a lubricating cream on her skin every night to combat the dryness which continuous flying in high altitudes is likely to bring about. The average hostess buys tiny jars of the more expensive brands of night cream. She always carries a makeup kit which includes cleansing cream as well as makeup.

Among other rules that her employers insist she follow are: Use a deodorant every day. Use a mouthwash before every trip and, if it's a long one, several times during the trip. Apply hand cream frequently. Remove superfluous hair from the legs once a week. Wear only the light shades of nail polish. Wear no eye makeup unless lashes and brows are quite colorless.

THEY WATCH THEIR WEIGHT The average airline hostess plans to use part of the day every other time she is off duty to care for her clothes as well as her person. She goes about washing and ironing blouses, taking shoes to the repair shop for lifts and shimes, securing straps on slips and pressing her attractive uniform-suits in a business-like way.

The index is none too inclusive; the important term "radioactivity," for instance, is not listed. There are a few illustrations, mostly in the form of maps and diagrams. Pursual of any of the bibliographies reveals what a great literature on geophysics already exists in German. Germany seems to have been the center of this type of research. Gutenberg and his co-authors have done an excellent job of writing, in a readable manner, the first authoritative treatise on the interior of the earth to appear in English.

Geological Members Hear Permian Speech Six members of the West Texas Geological Society Friday night heard Dr. C. E. Needham of Socorro, N. M., lecture on "The Permian of Central New Mexico." Fred F. Koyza, secretary-treasurer of the West Texas society, presided, and L. C. Thomas introduced Dr. Needham.

Midland Girls Drum Majorettes For Girls' Band

Miss Louise McLain and Miss Lucille McHargue of Midland have the unusual distinction of belonging to one of the few all-girls bands in the South. At John Tarleton College in Stephenville where they are students, they were selected the drum majorettes of the unusual group. Conducted by Harold J. Blum of the music and fine arts department, the smartly uniformed musical unit led by three dazzling drum majorettes is fast growing a reputation throughout West Texas. Louise and Lucille are the last two girls on the first row.

Southeast New Mexico Interest Of Week Divided Between Dayton Area Of Eddy And Arrowhead Pool Of Lea

HOBBS, N. M., Nov. 23.—Leading developments this week in Southeast New Mexico included staking of a new test and assurance of two more producers in the Dayton area of Eddy County, increases in production found by an outpost wildcat in the east part of the same county and completion of two large oilers in the Arrowhead pool of Lea County.

Skelly Oil Company No. 1-B J. S. Lea, Eastern Eddy wildcat, three-quarters of a mile west of the Maljamar pool, which lies mainly in Lea, was flowing all accumulated oil out of the hole every seven hours as it drilled to 3,826 feet in lime.

On East Edge Of Block.
The well had week had attracted interest by filling 500 feet with oil in seven hours after drilling pay lime from 3,930 to 3,536 feet and from 3,550 to 3,556 feet. Increase in oil was logged from 3,700 to 3,712 feet, with oil rising from 500 to 1,100 feet. While drilling progressed to 3,720 feet hole gradually filled to 800 feet. Drilling was halted at 3,730 feet, where hole was swabbed down. The well then filled 300 feet the first hour and an additional 1,200 feet the next eight hours. Another gas and oil increase was found from 3,775 to 3,800 feet. Hole filled 3,000 feet in 14 hours and cleaned itself when drilling had reached 3,800 feet.

No. 1-B Lea is 1,980 feet from the south, 660 from the east line of section 23-17s-31e, on the east edge of Skelly's 6,400-acre Lynch-Dow-Lea block.

Dayton Start.
Barney Cockburn No. 22-B Beish, Maljamar pool well in Western Lea, was completed for flow of 15 barrels of oil per hour on four-hour gauge taken through open 2-inch tubing set at 3,131 feet, with perforations at 3,100 and packer at 2,975 feet. The well topped pay at 3,900 feet and is bottomed in lime at 4,103 feet. It was shot twice with nitro, first with 60 quarts from 4,043 to 4,103 feet then with 200 quarts from 3,896 to 3,996 feet. Location is 1,980 feet from the north, 660 from the east line of section 23-17s-32e.

In Eddy's Dayton area Brewer Drilling Company has started its No. 1 Kindle, 2,310 feet from the north and east lines of section 26-18s-26e.

Pay In Sand.
Jones, Yates & Nix No. 1 Crozier, 990 feet from the north and 2,310 from the west line of the same section, is flowing an estimated 50 to 75 barrels of oil per day while cleaning out shot cavings. It was drilled to total depth of 1,250 feet in lime, bridged back to 1,055 feet, and shot with 500 quarts from 945 feet to top of bridge.

Martin Yates, Jr. and others No. 1 E. M. Williams Estate, 330 feet from the north, 1,550 from the west line of section 25-18s-26e, encountered main pay in sand from 1,029 to 1,036 feet and filled 300 feet with oil. Hole was bottomed at 1,041 feet and 70-quart shot was discharged from 1,028 to total depth.

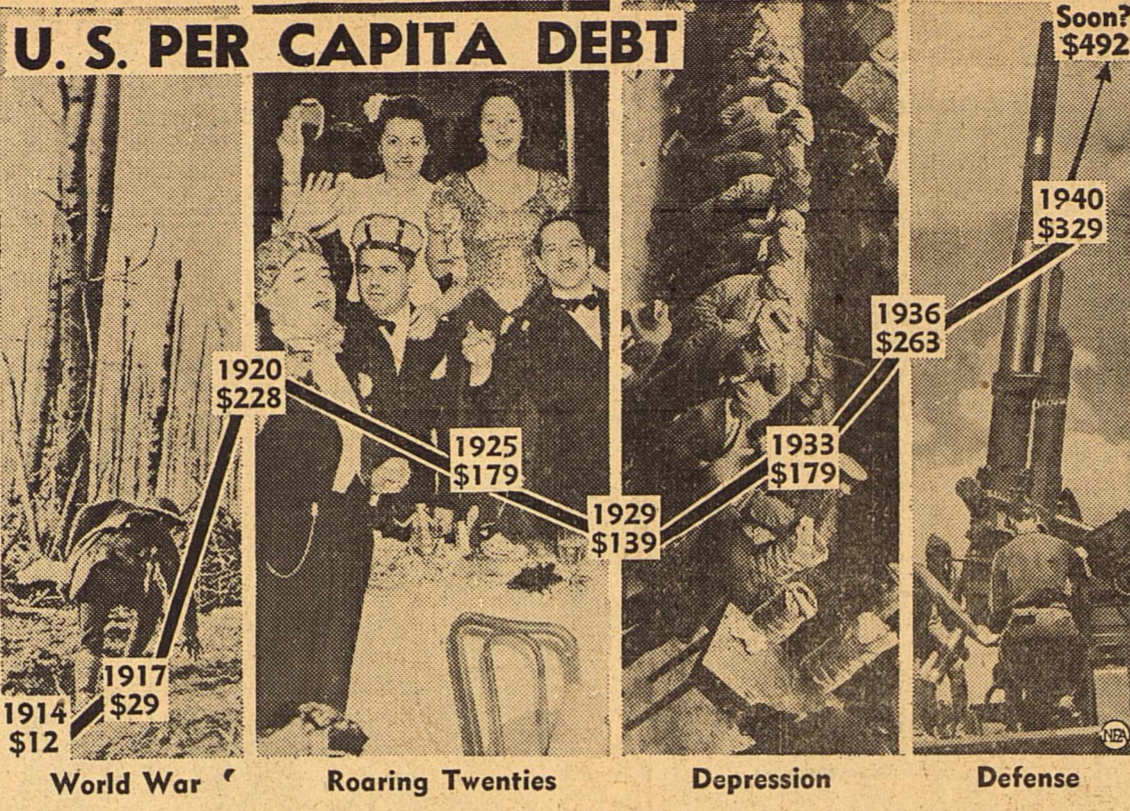

In the same section Jones & Yates No. 1 Everst is drilling below 1,330 feet in lime.

Arrowhead Duo.
Continental Oil Company No. 11-J-2 State, in the Arrowhead pool of Lea, on natural test flowed 135 barrels of oil an hour for two hours through drillpipe and casing, with 2,330,000 cubic feet of gas daily. Two-inch tubing then was run to 3,841 feet, and the well gauged 66 barrels an hour for two hours through 3/4-inch choke, with 900,000 feet of gas. Pay lime was entered at 3,760 feet, and total depth is 3,852 feet. The well is in section 2-22s-36e.

Also at Arrowhead, Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 5-M State, in section 19-22s-37e, was completed at 3,719 feet in lime for flow of 128 barrels in eight hours through open 2-inch tubing set at 3,695 feet. Pay was topped at 3,540 feet. Gas volume gauged 210,000 feet for a gas-oil ratio of 547-1. Oil tested 37.8-gravity.

Otero Wildcat.
Large gas production was registered by Genesee No. 1-B-25 Sholes, in the Jai district of Lea. On test through 7-inch casing it flowed 45,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day. The gas zone was topped at 2,873 feet, and total depth is 2,950 feet. Location is 2,310 feet from the north, 990 from the east line of sec-

America's Card Authority.

One of the things I like best about bridge championships is that they can be won by old and young alike. A 20 or 21-year-old boy may win a national title. In the recent Metropolitan Tournament in New York, one of the winners of the women's pair championship was Mrs. Gussie Planco, a genial, smiling grandmother.

In yesterday's article I pointed out that Mrs. Fred Horn, Mrs. Planco's partner, is anything but a timid player. By no means do I want to leave the impression that Mrs. Planco is timid. Her bidding is equally optimistic and in today's hand it warded off the only possible opening that would have defeated the contract. Six no trump is ice-cold unless North opens a spade, but Mrs. Planco's two-spade bid more or less prevented a lead in that suit.

The jack of diamonds opening made it easy for Mrs. Planco to take twelve tricks. She simply drew up one heart trick, establishing the fourth heart for the twelfth trick.

Fatalities In Home Equal Road Deaths

Deaths in accidents in and about homes in the United States equaled the number of deaths in highway accidents in the year ended June 30, according to the annual report of the American Red Cross for that period.

Red Cross officials declared that "the tragedy is emphasized by the truth that in most instances these accidents should not have happened—were preventable."

Timely repair of many dangerous points in the home would do much to curb the high accident rate.

Stock Market Closes Week Trying To Rally

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (AP)—The stock market today ended another bad week striving unsuccessfully for a rally.

Business news remained favorable and foreign war dispatches were no worse than usual, but many traders exhibited an inclination to keep accounts light over the week-end.

There were scattered spots of quiet strength. At the close small plus and minus signs were fairly even.

The Associated Press average of 83 issues was off 1 point at 44.4. And on the week showed a loss of one full point.

Dealings were slack with the turnover of 241,000 shares the smallest since Oct. 19.

October Building Loans Climb High

Modernization and property improvement loans numbering 77,882 for $31,202,473 were reported to the Federal Housing Administration under the National Housing Act last month, a gain of 42.2 per cent in number and 43.5 per cent in amount over loans reported in October 1939, Federal Housing Administrator Stewart McDonald, announced.

This brings the total of modernization loans insured this year to 510,594 loans for $219,448,553, Mr. McDonald said, pointing to a new record for the year. In the same period last year, 399,042 loans for $187,206,297 were insured.

A large volume of residential building is still needed, it is said, to provide enough homes to supply the growing demand occasioned by industrial expansion, obsolescence of old homes, and lack of residential building during the depression.

One of the dangers of an accelerated real estate movement, however, is overbuilding in unit areas. While it is properly contended that in general overbuilding of residences is unlikely for some time to come, yet it is entirely possible for overbuilding to occur in specific localities. The overbuilding of a community or even a neighborhood should be avoided to the end that it may not upset the value structure.

One of the greatest sources of grief that could result would be disproportionate building not only in the quantitative sense but also in regard to the distribution of dwellings in various price ranges.

Better Homes Better Living

Wood, brick, stucco, and stone may all be used effectively and attractively as outside wall materials in the construction of new small homes.

The wood clapboard wall is interesting in appearance, inexpensive, and adaptable to many styles of houses.

Wood shingles are especially appropriate for an informal type house. They may be sawed or split. So-called "hand-made shingles" have an interesting texture. Shingles may be laid in a variety of ways. They are usually colored by stain.

Work On Padre Island Pass Will Start Soon

AUSTIN, Nov. 23 (AP)—Chairman A. E. Wood of the Texas Game Commission announced today the long-contemplated cutting of a pass through Padre Island at Murdock Landing will start within 10 days.

More than 100 feet wide, the pass will be nearly 10,000 feet long, slicing the island from the Gulf of Mexico to Baffin Bay. The department dredge is being towed from Corpus Christi to Murdock Landing.

The pass will help supply fresh water to Laguna Madre, considered one of the greatest natural spawning beds along the nation's coast.

MIDLAND BOY TO PLAY AT GAME

AUSTIN, Nov. 23. — When the University of Texas football team meets the Texas Aggies Thursday, November 28, Col. George E. Hurt's Longhorn Band, 155-men strong, will be on the field to give support to the Texas Steers.

Longhorn band members this season include Billy Harold Walker of Penwell, clarinet; L. L. Anthony of Odessa, trombone; William Duke Kimbrough of Midland, clarinet.

Premier Outlines Thailand's Case

Brick lends charm and beauty to many new homes. Brick makes a handsome wall. It is fire-resistant and, properly constructed, is durable and strong.

Flexible and adaptable to many styles of houses, stucco can be given a great variety of color and texture. Wide variation in possible surface texture is available, ranging from quite smooth to comparatively rough. Color variations in materials are possible.

Construction Factors Aid Supplies Outlook

Factors favorable to building have resulted in a decided improvement in the building materials and supplies outlook for the final quarter.

Among indications of this acceleration of the building industry are the continued high volume of single-family home production.

A contra-seasonal demand for building materials is being reported by five large manufacturers, reflecting the advance in private building.

Congratulations to: Mr. and Mrs. John M. Speed Jr. on the birth of a daughter in Ryan's Hospital, Saturday afternoon. The baby weighed 6 pounds 5 ounces.

Home Construction Should Be Based On Regulated Programs

Home construction must be carried out according to programs which recognize requirements in different price ranges and localities if the ills which were prevalent during the twenties are to be avoided, according to building officials.

Builders must recognize that the size of the pocketbooks of potential home buyers varies and residential building must conform to these conditions.

One of the largest factors contributing to the severity of the recent depression in the home real estate market was over production of homes in the higher price ranges which found their way into the hands of families unable to afford them.

A large volume of residential building is still needed, it is said, to provide enough homes to supply the growing demand occasioned by industrial expansion, obsolescence of old homes, and lack of residential building during the depression.

One of the dangers of an accelerated real estate movement, however, is overbuilding in unit areas. While it is properly contended that in general overbuilding of residences is unlikely for some time to come, yet it is entirely possible for overbuilding to occur in specific localities.

The overbuilding of a community or even a neighborhood should be avoided to the end that it may not upset the value structure.

One of the greatest sources of grief that could result would be disproportionate building not only in the quantitative sense but also in regard to the distribution of dwellings in various price ranges.

The mechanical wing, pictured above, is the latest brain child of inventor R. Buckminster Fuller, already famed for his futuristic, three wheeled, Dymaxion car. Storing all the conveniences of home, except living quarters, it is designed to be taken, trailer-fashion, to that cabin in the pines, tent in the Ozarks, or cabana in Mexico that is perfect for a weekend but without modern conveniences.

The bath-dressing room unit is supplied with a water line connection, in case water is available, and combustion compressed-air, water and chemical fog-gun cleaning devices.

Transportation Factor In Location Of Home

Ready access to places of employment, main shopping districts, and other neighborhoods within the city is a requisite of neighborhood stability.

In many cases, it was pointed out, a single transportation line may furnish entirely adequate facilities for the area it serves. Better service is often afforded, however, when two or more means of transportation are available.

Four Factors Affecting Stability Of Investment

A brief digest of the factors which influence the stability of a home investment are as follows:

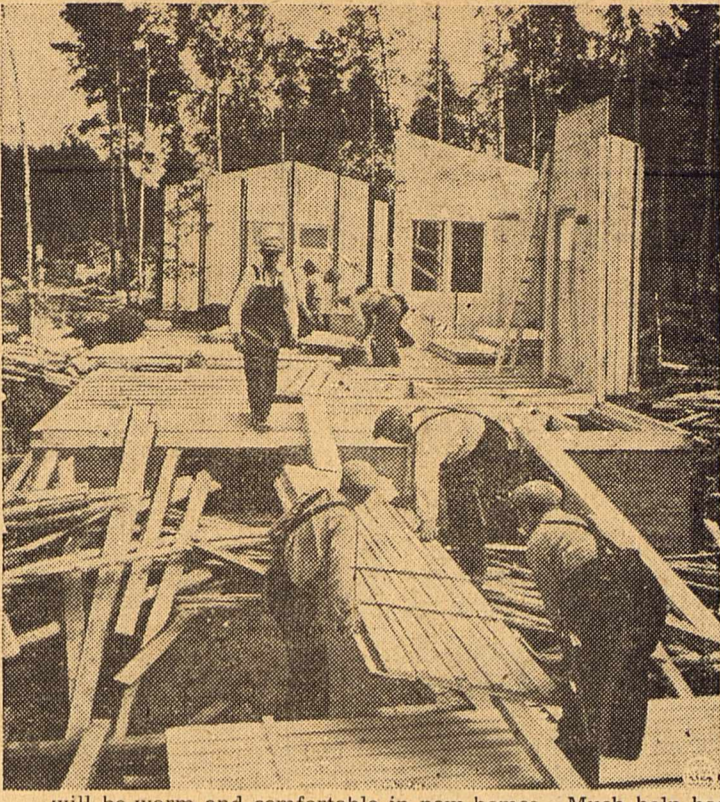

1. The property should be favorably located for residential purposes.

2. The lot should be of sufficient size to afford an attractive plot plan.

3. The house itself should be well-planned.

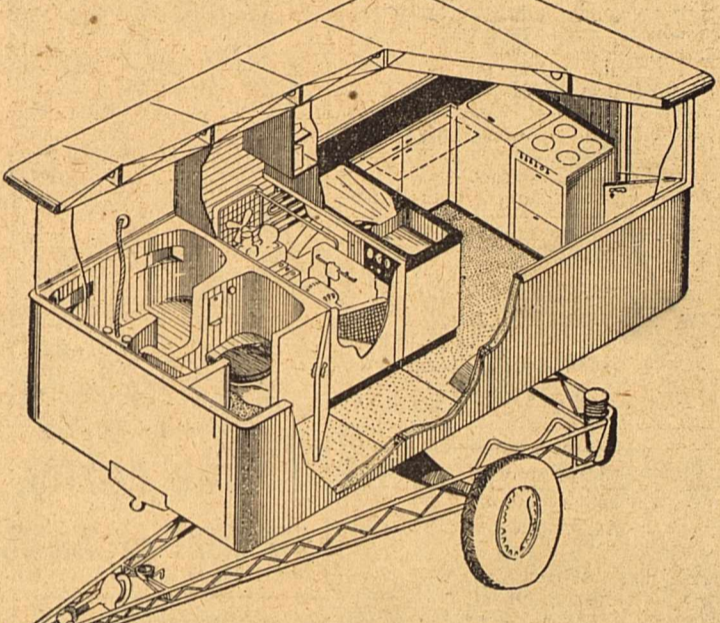

4. The exterior design of the house should have a character that will retain popular acceptance.

Austin Moves To Front In Week's Construction When Half Million Dollars Building Is Authorized

Texas Construction Totals 176 Millions

AUSTIN, Nov. 23.—Construction contracts in Texas during the first ten months of this year amounted to $176,255,000, according to figures compiled in the office of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

The Governor's industrial staff is now conducting a survey of the market for building materials in the State, with the idea of encouraging promotion of industries supplying these items.

Reports received by the Governor's office indicated that more homes proportionately now are being built in the South. In 1939, one and two family houses built per 100,000 were at the rate of 2,122 for the South and 1,025 for the rest of the United States.

Sixteen Points For Condition Of Homes

Every home owner knows that his house need regular repairs and improvements.

If essential repairs are long neglected, future repair bills accumulate. When neglected too long, any house loses its worth as a dwelling and as an investment.

A list of questions for checking the condition of the home follows:

Are the foundation walls sound and in good condition? Do the basements have adequate natural light?

Is the water-heating system in good order with hot water always on tap? Is the electric wiring system and lighting up-to-date and safe?

Are the floors in good condition, modern, attractive? Does the basement woodwork in first-class condition?

Are the stairs convenient, safe-well-lighted? Are there sufficient electrical outlets and up-to-date electric fixtures properly located?

Does your attic have adequate lighting and ventilation? Is the plumbing system in good condition? Are exterior walls in good weather-tight condition?

Has the exterior wood-work been painted within the last three years? Are gutters, downspouts, and flashing in sound condition? Is the chimney in good condition? No loose bricks or stones? Are the walks in good repair? Is exterior lighting adequate?

WORN OUT ROOFS LOWER HOME VALUES

A dilapidated roof can quickly lower the value of a home. It is unsightly and detracts from the beauty of the neighborhood, and many times it is also a dangerous fire hazard.

CELLAR STAIRS BEAR HOMES HEAVIEST LOADS

Cellar stairs deserve more consideration than they have been receiving. Although cellar stairs bear more heavy loads than other stairs in the house, they are frequently constructed in a careless manner.
