Abell Pool Scene Of Interest As Activity Rampant

Phillips Tops Simpson High; State-Sharp May Prove Oiler; Buys Made

By Frank Gardner
Oil Editor.

High top of Simpson, middle Ordovician, in Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Sidney Silverman, virtual assurance of production from the second sand in Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 State-Sharp, and purchase by Stanolind Oil & Gas Company of more acreage kept today's limelight on the Abell pool of Northern Pecos County.

Phillips No. 1 Silverman topped the Simpson at 4,740 feet, datum of minus 2,347 and 16 feet high to Stanolind Oil & Gas Company (formerly Taubert, McKee & Slemoneit) No. 1 V. W. Crockett, discovery producer in the pool, which it offsets to the south. No. 1 Silverman this morning was drilling at 4,860 feet in Simpson lime. It is located 330 feet from the northeast, 990 from the southeast line of section 10, block 3, H.&T.C. survey.

Three-quarter mile northwest extension of the pool was promised by Magnolia No. 1 State-Sharp when it showed rise of 180 feet of 41-gravity oil and 150 feet of oil-cut mud on 50-minute drillstem test from 5,903-35 feet, with gas volume of 40,000 cubic feet daily. Zone tested was the second sand, topped at 5,915 feet. The well had shown only water with a slight seum of oil on test of the upper sand from 5,468-73 feet. No. 1 State-Sharp now is preparing to core at 5,942 feet in sand after drilling from 5-935-42.

Stanolind Buys In Area.
Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Conroy-Davis Unit, Ordovician test four miles east of the Abell discovery, is drilling lime at 2,252 feet. Showing of gas was logged from 2-015-22 feet.

Reports today, unconfirmed by the local office of Stanolind, stated the company has purchased from Culbertson & Irwin, Inc. of Midland the 40-acre O. W. Williams lease comprising lot 12, section 24, block 9, H.&G.N. survey, a short distance north of Magnolia No. 1 State-Baldwin, farthest north producer in the Abell pool. Price was said to be $800 an acre in cash.

Stanolind also is reported to have paid J. A. Eubanks of Fort Worth $350 an acre cash, plus a one-eighth override, on two tracts totaling 150 acres. The tracts involved in the deal are the 100-acre J. S. Cain tract consisting of the north 100 acres of section 26, block 9, one-half mile east of No. 1 State-Baldwin, and the 50-acre Wright & Harris tract in section 4 1-2, block 3, H. & T. C. survey, three-quarters of a mile east of the pool opener.

Martin Wildcat Drilling.
Magnolia No. 1 N. B. Teague, important wildcat in Northern Martin County, this morning was drilling unchanged at 4,747 feet in lime. The same company's No. 1 Maple

"No Defeat—"

"Britain must not be defeated," said Col. Frank Knox, secretary of the navy, as he dedicated the new $45,000,000 naval air station at Corpus Christi.

Committee Sends Huge Naval Bill For House Study

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP)—A $3,446,935,144 appropriation bill to carry forward the two-ocean navy construction program was presented to the House today along with a warning from the navy's high command that the critical world situation "may continue to grow worse for some time to come."

Recommending the huge outlay for the year starting July 1, the appropriations committee told the House that the fleet expansion program called for "collateral expenses of staggering proportions" and $5-553,976,000 additional will have to be appropriated during the fiscal year 1943-46, solely to complete the current shipbuilding program.

A total of 729 ships of all types and categories are now under construction or contracted for and, when completed, will give the United States the most powerful navy in world history.

A fund of $1,515,000,000, the largest single item in the bill, is for shipbuilding.

Secretary Knox told the committee that the German, Italian and Japanese fleets comprised 1,835,000 tons on Jan. 1, compared with this country's 1,250,000 tons. Acquisition of the French fleet would swell the Axis strength further.

John Garner Trial Starts

The state rested its case in the John Garner murder trial in 70th District Court here just before noon today. The defense is presenting its testimony this afternoon.

Garner, charged with the murder of Ike Blake, was indicted by a grand jury of the June 1939 term. Blake died from injuries suffered in a fight. The indictment read: "John Garner did voluntarily and with malice aforethought kill Ike Blake, by beating and striking him with his fists and did break his leg."

Blake was an invalid, the indictment said. The fight in which he was injured fatally occurred May 25, 1939.

Labor Heads Request President Roosevelt For Mediation Board

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP)—President Roosevelt received today from Secretary Perkins and Defense Directors Knudsen and Hallman a specific recommendation for a mediation board to handle labor problems related to the defense program.

No details of what they had suggested were announced but Miss Perkins told reporters that the idea of a mediation board was taking "definite" shape.

Hillman said several propositions were under consideration, including boards with 11, 7 or 5 members. He added that no names of prospective members had been brought into the conference with the President, which he described as "just a discussion of principles."

O'Daniel Urges Legislation For Prohibition Of Defense Strikes

Experts Study Levy On Workers To Pay For $7,000,000,000

By Jack Bell
WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP)—Congressional fiscal experts, casting about for new revenue sources to help pay the $7,000,000,000 British aid program, were reported considering today the possibility of imposing a 5 per cent tax on weekly pay of most of the nation's workers.

If such a 5 per cent "earned income" tax, should be levied, that amount would be deducted for the government each week from the pay envelopes of a large proportion of jobholders. Thus a worker now receiving $40 weekly would get, instead, $38 and a tax receipt for $2. Small wage earners—possibly those receiving $25 weekly or less—would be exempt.

Only In Study Stage
Although it was emphasized that the proposal was merely in the discussion stage and might never mature, responsible individuals who have been studying the plan said they had received estimates that a 5 per cent levy of this nature would raise $3,500,000,000 yearly.

Acknowledging that the proposal might arouse a storm of protest from wage earners, advocates said it would have to be accompanied by commensurate increases in taxes up on incomes from investments, rentals and other sources so that there could be no discrimination.

Governor Asks Quick Action In Personal Appeal

Proposed Measure Would Prevent Three Pickets Use Of Threats, Force

By The Associated Press
AUSTIN, March 13.—Asserting that any labor violence during the current national defense emergency was entirely out of place, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel asked the legislature today for quick enactment of a law prohibiting strikes or lockouts in defense industries without 60 days advance notice.

The governor, who had been in Corpus Christi yesterday for dedication of the large new naval air base there, went before the legislature personally to deliver the message.

The recommended bill also would prohibit the use of more than two pickets at any one plant and make unlawful "the use of force or violence, or threats thereof, to prevent any person from engaging in any lawful vocation."

"I am wholly opposed," O'Daniel declared, "to those academic 'liberals' who seek to show by scientific percentages that only a small percentage of our national defense factories are idle on account of strikes. I am reminded of the old saying: 'That for want of a nail the shoe was lost.'"

Rayburn Says Effort In Making To Ballot Funds Bill Tuesday

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP)—Speaker Rayburn told his press conference today it was planned to have the $7,000,000,000 British-aid appropriation bill ready for the House on Tuesday and that efforts would be made to pass it the same day.

A short time before a House appropriations subcommittee was to start brief secret hearing on the huge measure, Acting Chairman Woodrum (D-Va) told newsmen he hoped to conclude the testimony late tomorrow.

"The time has come for action," the Virginian said. "There's been enough talk."

Capitol Hill Serious
Although the magnitude of the aid program was enormous, its announcement created few ripples on Capitol Hill. One informed legislator said that the size of President Roosevelt's request had a definite purpose — "to demonstrate that Uncle Sam means business."

This congressman, who participated in the conferences at which the request was drafted, reported that originally the plans were to ask only about half the present amount in cash and the other half in authorizations. Subsequently, however, it was decided to seek the full $7,000,000,000 in cash, he said, because of the psychological effect that it might have on the Axis powers.

Uncle Sam Holds Hungarian Funds

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP)—President Roosevelt today "froze" all funds of Hungary in the United States.

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau said that the President and the treasury acted at the request of the state department, but declined to discuss the reasons.

Hungary, the 12th nation whose funds have been frozen, signed the Axis pact about two months ago. Customarily such freezing orders have been issued when nations were occupied by troops of another country.

Morgenthau declined to say whether the action meant that the United States now considered Hungary occupied by German troops.

Rotarians Honor Col. John Perkins

Colonel John Perkins today was elected an honorary member of the Midland Rotary Club which also decided to give honorary membership to all Rotarians called into military service.

A question and answer program, conducted by Boyd Kelley of KRLL, entertained Rotarians at their meeting today. Harry Gossett was in charge of the program.

In contrast to a large egg, eight inches in circumference brought to The Reporter-Telegram office last week, W. R. Gramling, 604 W. Michigan, today brought in an egg only 2 and 3/4 inches around.

Gramling said the egg was a genuine egg, laid by one of his hens yesterday. He has no bantams.

The midget egg is only one inch long and less than an inch in diameter.

Turns Down Request For Argentine Beef

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP)—The House appropriations committee has refused navy and budget bureau requests that the navy be permitted to buy Argentine beef.

Publications of committee hearings on the 1942 naval appropriations bill showed today that the prohibition, which applies to navy purchase of foreign foodstuffs except those which cannot be procured domestically "in sufficient quantities as and when needed," had been retained.

Spokesmen for both the navy and budget bureau had asked the committee to lift the restriction.

Inserted For Protection
Representative Scovingham (D-Nev.) said the restriction carried in naval appropriation bills for the "past three or four years" had been "inserted for the protection of American farmers and stockgrowers. During this emergency there has been an enormous increase in activities in nearly all lines of industry, except agriculture, and that means that all industries must bear a greatly increased tax burden."

"Now, is there any reason why the agricultural interest should thus be subjected to competition with foreign products produced, probably, by cheap labor?" he continued.

On February 22, Donald E. Nelson, director of defense purchases, announced plans for the purchase of some South American canned beef for use of armed forces in the field. Later official sources said the amount to be bought for the 1941 fiscal year would be about 20,000,000 pounds.

U. S. Officials Probe Writer Of Best Seller

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP)—Immigration officials, it was learned today, have begun an investigation of Jan Valtin, author of the current best seller, "Out of the Night."

The author's own statements, a justice department official said, were the basis on which the first step in deportation proceedings was taken.

Valtin, who acknowledges that the name he uses is a literary pseudonym, described in his book his alleged experiences first as a Communist agitator in his native Germany, then as a Gestapo (secret police) agent and later as an agitator who sought overthrow of the government in the United States. He told also of entering the country illegally and of reversing his belief in Communism.

The Traffic Cop

WELL folks, today we want to get acquainted with the traffic cop. He isn't such a bad guy, just another human being trying to get along. He has a job to do, and your money is paying him to keep you out of trouble AND KEEP SOME DRIVE FROM TAKING YOUR LIFE OR TEARING UP YOUR CAR OR SENDING YOU OR YOUR CHILDREN TO THE HOSPITAL, maybe crippled for life.

I don't want to take up your time with the number of people killed or the number of accidents that have happened. We can't do anything about that, but we CAN do a lot about the present and future. Remember what I said about keeping out of the other fellow's way and giving him the benefit of the doubt, you will be surprised how many times you will avoid a bent fender and a lot of nasty words by doing just that.

WATCH THIS SPACE EVERY DAY FOR HINTS AS TO YOUR SAFETY.

Royal Air Force Hammers Berlin, Hamburg, Bremen

Parades New Equipment As Hitler Counters By Assaults On Liverpool

Armed with United States war goods and the promise of more, Great Britain is unleashing a "really offensive war," London quarters said today. It has started with smashing overnight assaults on Berlin, Hamburg and Bremen—officially described as the heaviest raids yet launched on Germany.

The air-besieged island kingdom, it was said, now is opening up with everything, including swarms of new night fighters, heavier bargages and secret weapons guardedly announced as "other devices."

Germany's Luftwaffe struck back at the same time, blasting the port of Liverpool with thousands of fire and high-explosive bombs.

Of the war on British shipping, the authoritative Berlin commentary Dienst Aus Deutschland declared that Germany's armed forces had sunk more than 9,000,000 tons of British shipping since hostilities began.

Berlin listed 16 killed and 37 wounded as R.A.F. bombs shattered an 82-day period of immunity from aerial attack enjoyed by the German capital. The last raid on Berlin was Dec. 22.

Three others were killed and three wounded at Bremen.

As the war in the air erupted to this peak of violence, the British disclosed that several new and more powerful types of R.A.F. planes were unleashed in night forays extending "from Berlin to Boulogne and Norway."

New Planes And Bombs
London's air ministry said that the new planes carried "very heavy bombs" and that the attacks were very successful. Bright moonlight helped define targets.

While informed quarters in London declared Britain was now prepared to fill the skies over England with night fighting planes, the Germans asserted that the attack on Liverpool inflicted destruction even "exceeding that at Coventry"—a reference to the English midlands town which was all but destroyed on the night of Nov. 14.

Returning German pilots said 10-000 explosive and incendiary bombs were dropped.

Nazi flyers reported that "hell broke loose on the Mersey"—the docks and shipbuilding section of Liverpool—and described the scene as "grandiose and terrible... an ocean of flames."

On the Albanian war front, the Greeks quoted Italian prisoners as saying that Premier Mussolini was now in the field and had given his generals until Saturday to "do something."

Greek spokesman said it Duce had personally ordered the recent fierce Italian attacks on the central front, in the Tepeleni sector, which the spokesman said had been repulsed in four days of bloody fighting.

O'Daniel . . .

"For the want of a horse the rider was lost."

"For the want of a rider the battle was lost."

The address won a standing ovation when the governor concluded. House and Senate members and the gallery audience had listened intently.

O'Daniel said that "we owe a duty to those noble mothers of Texas and other states whose sons are steadily advancing toward the front."

"I do not intend," he stated, "that they shall be short a gun or a drop of oil for that gun, or anything they need, be it large or small, and be it only one-one-thousandth or less of our whole national defense production. If this is an all-out defense program, let us quit quibbling about percentages, let us make it 100 per cent, with no industries shut down which are directly or indirectly contributing to our national defense program."

The executive said he wanted to "announce to the whole world today" that there won't be any strikes or lockouts in other essential defense industries or other essential industries in Texas during the time of this national emergency, "with-out it proving to be very unprofitable for those who engage in such strikes or lockouts."

"Some folks may say that this job is for the federal government. Surely we must admit that the federal government has a host of gigantic tasks on its hands, and why should we fold our arms and wait for the federal government to do it all?"

Within a few minutes after the governor finished speaking his bill had been signed by seven senators.

Another Automobile Accident In City

Midland counted its 41st automobile accident of the year today and an interested citizen sent this letter to The Reporter-Telegram:

"To The Editor:
 This morning Midland had its 41st automobile accident. Two cars met at an intersection that was completely unobstructed. No reason for it, you may say, we wonder if there was a reason for the fatal accident east of town, the one west of town, or any of the accidents that we have had. Yes there are reasons alright—speeding, carelessness, and expecting the other driver to give the right of way. It's really BLOODY MIDLAND alright. It's not safe to get out on Midland's streets and highways, unless you are in an armored car. Midland has its worst accident record of any city its size in the state.

Predicts Late Rush Here For New Automobile Tags

With only about 500 of an expected 3,000 1941 automobile license plates sold, the tax assessor-collector's office today reminded citizens they probably won't have to stand in line for tags just before the deadline—April 1.

The licenses went on sale March 1.

SERIAL STORY

DOLLARS TO DOUGHNUTS

BY EDITH ELLINGTON

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

ESCAPE IN A SUBWAY

CHAPTER IV

NO one seemed to have noticed that a slim girl had stopped by the parcel lockers and divested herself of a mink coat; the symbol that set her apart from these hurrying, home-going workers. In her dark woolen dress, with its jacket that was almost a coat, Beatrice thought with satisfaction that she looked rather like a girl who was trying to make a costume suit do the duty of a winter coat that was too shabby.

"It's almost spring," she thought. "If I only earned a little, working in an office somewhere, I'd still be saving for a new Easter outfit. Yes, this costume suit is all right. And the hat—that could be a leftover from winter. It makes the suit seem warmer."

Like a girl in a dream, propelled by some powerful subconscious urge, Beatrice hurried to the turnstiles. She found a nickel in her change purse, dropped it into the slot, pushed at the arm of the gate, and went on. At the newsstand from which men and women snatched evening papers, she picked up a paper, left three cents. More steps down. A long platform, jammed to the edges. The black train roared into the station, drowning out the other noises.

Beatrice did not notice what train it was, or where it was going. She had stopped under a little green sign and all the people around her began to fight forward. That train's doors opened right here. She was pushed into the train, and nearly stumbled.

"Grab a seat, girlie!" a swarthy man cried. He darted past her, grabbed one himself. Beatrice realized then that this was the reason for the pushing and fighting. A seat! She took a deep breath, rushed for the empty seat beside the swarthy man, and sat down.

The train was filled in less than half a minute. The doors slid to a close, people began to rattle newspapers and the subway ride began.

BUT Beatrice couldn't read her paper. She was looking about, like an explorer in a strange, wild land. At Thirty-fourth street, the train stopped. More people rushed in, hopefully, for seats. There were no more.

A stout woman with a brown paper parcel plumped herself in front of Beatrice. A younger girl on the other side of the stout woman hung from a white tile rung and when the train lurched Beatrice thought it must have wrenched her arm out.

Once, as the stout woman juggled her parcel and knocked off Beatrice's hat, the young girl caught her eye and smiled. Beatrice thought, confused, "They're all so used to this. Pushing, being pushed. Standing. That girl—the way she smiled—grin and bear it."

She stopped staring at the other people in the car and concentrated on the girl. "She's about my age." Suddenly it seemed very important to examine her carefully, to think about her. A girl so much like herself, yet so different!

"That's a nice looking coat. It's rather like a coat I have. Oh, a copy. I remember, now. In the store, they sell things that look like the good things. . . . But her taste is good. It's like mine. . . ."

The girl was tall and slim. She wore a perky hat that came to a peak. Her hair was rolled into a soft, brown curl at her neck. It shone under the electric light. "Clean," thought Beatrice. But the girl's fingers on the strap were grubby. No gloves. And when she wasn't smiling, but sinking back into her own thoughts, her carefully made-up red lips drooped.

"She's pretty," Beatrice decided. "Not flamboyant. Intelligent looking."

What was she getting out of life, this girl who wore a cheap imitation of a good coat—this girl who must love nice things or she wouldn't have bought that coat? What was she hoping for, and what did she do to make her hopes be realized? Was she happy? Happier than Beatrice?

"Oh, yes," Beatrice murmured. "Much happier. Because I'm not happy at all."

"You talking to me?" the swarthy man on the seat demanded.

JUST then, there was a flash of intense, white light outside the window. All the yellow bulbs in the subway car went out. Someone screamed. The train jerked to a sudden halt. The people standing up swayed and caught swiftly in the darkness at whatever was nearest.

Beatrice felt something hit her in the chest. All the breath was

Army And RFC Will Assume War Equities

WASHINGTON, March 13—(AP)—A high administration official disclosed today that the army and Reconstruction Finance Corporation were negotiating to take over between $300,000,000 and $500,000,000 worth of British war contracts and factories in this country.

The official, who declined to be quoted by name but spoke to reporters in order, he said, to clear up some misapprehensions about what was happening, said the program "in no way means that the British will be relieved of the remainder of their obligations in this country."

He explained that the negotiations probably would cut British war obligations, however, between 20 and 25 per cent, indicating that their total obligations for weapons and other war materials were about $1,500,000,000.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Bang-Up Style

FORWARD bangs and forward pompadours are hair style news this spring. The coiffure above has a deep shallow wave that softens the Merry Widow pompadour and soft rolls at the sides that fill in that awkward, empty space directly behind the ears—an altogether youthful and especially becoming hair-do to wear with off-the-face hats, such as this Sally Victor rough straw bound with grosgrain ribbon.

Oven Meal And Other Dishes Are Prepared At Cooking Session Today

Preparation of a complete oven meal was a high point in the lecture-demonstration presented by Miss Mary Alice Crosson, cooking expert, at The Reporter-Telegram cooking school this morning. A rib roast of beef, steamed carrots and parsley potatoes, and peach polly formed the balanced menu prepared, planned both for nutrition and for attractiveness.

Several other dishes, including butter crisp ice cream, also were demonstrated by Miss Crosson. Following are recipe directions:

STANDING RIB ROAST OF BEEF

Choose a 2 or 3 lb. standing rib roast of beef. Season it with salt and pepper and place it, fat side up, in an open pan. No rack is needed since the ribs, when placed in this position, form the rack. Do not cover the roast and do not add water. Place the meat in a slow oven of gas range, 325 degrees F. Roast until the desired degree of doneness. Allow 18 to 20 minutes per pound for cooking a rare roast, 25 minutes per pound for medium, 27 to 30 for a well done roast.

STEAMED CARROTS

Wash, scrape and cut the carrots in cubes or slices. Add 1/2 c. boiling water, and seasoning. Cover tightly and bake with the rest of the meal.

PARSELEY POTATOES

Wash and pare potatoes. With a French cutter, cut potato balls out of large potatoes. Add salt and 1/2 cup of water. Cover tightly. Bake with rest of oven meal. Serve with parsley butter. (Boil scraps of potatoes dice for salads, or use for soups.)

PEACH POLLY

1 qt. peach halves
1 T. lemon juice
1 T. Banner butter
1/3 c. quick cooking tapioca
1/4 c. sugar
Arrange peaches in a buttered baking dish. Combine sugar, lemon juice, juice from peaches and tapioca. Pour over peaches and dot with bits of butter. Pre-heat the oven to 325 degrees F. Bake 1 hour.

SPICE CAKE

2 2/3 c. Light Crust flour
1 t. cinnamon
1/4 t. Cloves
1/2 t. Nutmeg
3/4 c. Crustace
3/4 c. Banner milk
1 t. Flavoring
Baking Powder, 3 t. tartarate or phosphate or 2 1/2 t. double action
1 t. Salt
4 Eggs
1 1/2 c. Sugar
1/2 t. Allspice
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, spices, and salt, and sift together three times. Cream Crustace thoroughly, add sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add yolks, beat thoroughly. Add flour mixture alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla with last of milk. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Bake 25 to 30 minutes in 2 greased 9-inch layer pans.

PRUNE CREAM PIE

1 T. Gelatin
3/4 c. Prune juice
3 T. Lemon juice
1/4 t. Salt
1/4 c. Cold water
1/2 c. Sugar
3/4 c. cooked Prune pulp
1 c. Banner whipping cream
Mix the prune pulp, prune juice, lemon juice and salt and cook for two minutes. Pour cold water in bowl and sprinkle gelatin on top of water. Add to hot prune mixture, stirring thoroughly, and allow to cool. When mixture begins to thicken fold in whipped cream. Fill baked pie shell with mixture and chill in the refrigerator. If desired, before serving spread thin layer of whipped cream over the pie.

GRAHAM CRACKER PIE CRUST

1 1/2 c. Graham cracker crumbs
1/3 c. Powdered Sugar
7 T. Banner butter
Crush Graham crackers, mix with butter and sugar. Pat mixture into pie pan. Place pie pan in refrigerator. Allow to stand for several hours, then fill with ice-box pie filling.

FEMININE FANCIES

By Kathleen Eiland

Another of the few times when we envy milady-stay-at-home is when something like the cooking school is in progress and we can't go and learn how to make that perfectly wonderful new salad or such delicious cake because, forsooth, we must be pounding a typewriter. Who said housewives had more troubles than business girls? That's so. Anyway, we can collect the recipes Miss Crosson distributes. That is something.

The next best thing to possessing pretty clothes, we always think, is seeing them (kind of a mental possession perhaps?). From that point of view, the style show Monday night could be a delight to any woman.

Such luscious colors, such smart lines, and such effective contrasts and accessories were shown! Now we know we need that new tailored slacks suit we've been dreaming of. And we wonder if a redingote isn't the answer to our wardrobe dream. But most of all, we fell in love all over again with those warm, sandy, tan and brown and beige tones and the neutral color beige.

We do think Mother Nature might have been more considerate when she dowered us with our likes and abilities. Why love bright red and rose red, clear yellow, pink, beige, if one can't wear them to advantage? Sheer waste of emotional power, we say. But our saying doesn't change unbecoming colors to ones that are becoming.

Among dainty little luxuries we note the new horns of plenty filled with sachet balls and vials of fragrance. A nice thought to add the superlative touch to the neatness of bureau drawers or clothes closets.

Also a variation of the no-longer-very-new fruit candles are the orange ones which are scented like oranges and come each with its own quaint old-fashioned candlestick holder, very like those carried by the night-gowned children trooping off to bed in old storybook illustrations. The holders may be used again and again.

Passur, and daughters, Evelyn and Helen, and out of town guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wicker, Pecos, grandparents of the honoree, Miss Lois Wicker, of Jal, N. ### Tracksters Will Enter Week-End Barnhart Relays

Midland high tracksters plan to enter the Barnhart relays here this week-end. A traveling squad of 15 is expected to make the trip.

They are conceded a shot at the championship but may be handicapped without the services of Windell Williams, all-around performer, who may not get to make the trip because of a job.

Included in the squad (with events) are: White—dashes, jumps, sprint relay, and hurdles; Hines, dashes, relays; Williams, dashes, jumps, weights, and relay; Noyes, mile run; Bigham, shot put, dashes; Anderson, 440-yard dash; John Ward, pole vault, dashes; I. Hall, dashes; Buffington, half-mile, relay; Wheeler, middle distance runs; Bratton 440-yard dash; and others not named by Coach Murl Freels.

Golf Old-Timers All Set For Nassau Meet

MIAMI, Fla., March 13—(AP)—Golf's golden twenties will be resurrected Saturday when four old-timers, who have won every championship worth owning, get together in Nassau for a Red Cross benefit match sponsored by the Duke of Windsor.

Bobby Jones and Tommy Armour will team against Walter Hagen and Gene Sarazen in a four-ball match sufficient to fire the imagination of every man who ever swung a golf club.

Eighteen holes are scheduled at Nassau Saturday, with the final 18 Sunday. The Duke will referee.

Southworth Has Nice Feeling Inside—Lots Of Promising Players

By Gayle Talbot
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 12—(AP)—Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals admits that he has more good-looking young players than he knows what to do with for the time being. "And it's a comfortable sort of problem to have, too," he adds.

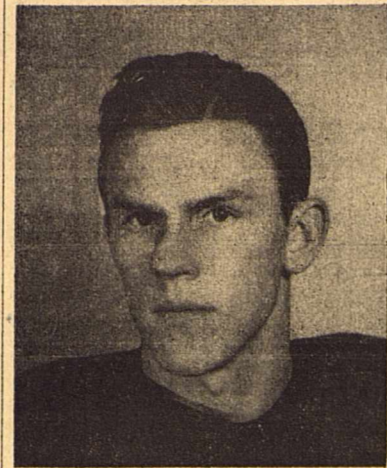

The Cards, after a disastrous start, came like the wind in the second half of the 1940 National League campaign under Southworth's leadership. They are bound to be stronger this year, and if a couple of their rookie pitchers come through they should give the Champion Cincinnati Reds a genuine battle.

Keeps Eyes On Reds

"We might be better," Southworth hedged, "but I'm not going to do any talking about beating Cincinnati—not as long as they have that pitching staff. As I see it, we're going to be in a three-cornered race Cincinnati and Brooklyn, and I have a feeling Jimmy Wilson will whip those Chicago Cubs into a contending."

"I had an infield problem when we started training, but it's all straightened out now since this Steve Mesner from San Diego took over third base."

Co-Captain

J. M. White, hurdler and sprinter, was elected co-captain of the Midland high track team. He is a senior letterman in track and football. Cletas Hines also was named co-captain.

White And Hines To Captain Tracksters

Taylor Applies For San Angelo Coaching Post

L. W. (Bud) Taylor, Midland high coach, who resigned in November, is an applicant for the head coaching job at San Angelo, vacated by Harry Taylor.

Taylor is to confer with Angelo officials today.

Bud Taylor's application is supported by a fine record as coach here plus the testimonials of several leading citizens.

Taylor and a member of the Midland school board were in San Angelo earlier in the week to confer with school board members there.

Bulldogs Poll Close Vote; Williams And Bratton Mentioned

J. M. White, hurdler and sprinter, and Cletas Hines, sprinter, were chosen co-captains of the 1941 Midland high track team.

Voting by teammates was close. Coach Murl Freels said. Three ballots were required. Also receiving votes were Windell Williams, all-around track performer, and Maurice Bratton, quarter-miler.

Fifteen tracksters drilled yesterday. Hines sprinted to a win in a 100-yard dash practice century. His time was 10.5. White and Williams ran a dead heat for second, Ivan Hall was third.

New Sprinter Wins

In another century heat, Bill Franks new sprinting find, won. Robert Wheeler was second and Jack Noyes, third.

Yesterday's 15 performers included: Mike Buffington, John Ward, Gordon Bigham, White, Hines, Bratton, Payton Anderson, Hall, Noyes, Williams, Ken Williams, Wheeler, and Franks.

Besides the dashes, Coach Freels sent the athletes through drills in the jumps, weight tosses, and other events.

Freels commended the team spirit of this year's spiked brigade, saying it was the finest he had seen among Midland athletic groups in years.

Williams Pays Visit To Houston Institute

Windell Williams, Midland high's great all-around athlete, visited the Rice Institute campus at Houston last week-end and said he "liked it."

Williams, all district football and basketball ace and track letterman, was the guest of the Southwest Conference school. He conferred with coaches there and looked over the school. He will play there in the Texas Coaches Association's all-star game in August.

Williams, who plans to study engineering, may attend Rice.

Influenza Incapacitates Six Members Of White Sox

PASADENA, Calif., March 13—(AP)—Influenza has put a serious damper on the training progress of the Chicago White Sox.

Six members of Manager Jimmy Dykes' squad were down in bed today, victims of the flu germs. Latest to be felled was Mike Tresh, who barely had recovered from a head injury sustained last Sunday in a benefit game in Los Angeles.

San Diego State Plays Texas Club In Quarterfinals

Smith Defends Title At Best-Ball Tourney

By Harold Claassen
KANSAS CITY, March 13—(AP)—San Diego State, always leaving things to the last minute like an income tax payer, is at it again.

The team which won three games in the final second last year while fighting its way to the title round of the National Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament needed five extra minutes last night to defeat Culver-Stockton, 46 to 41, to reach the quarter finals.

California's Aztecs jerked approximately 6,000 dribble daffy spectators out of their seats by squandering a four-point halftime lead and allowing the Canton, Mo., Wildcats to pull into a 38-all deadlock on Dale Love's basket 30 seconds before the final gun.

Echles Threw Goal

In the extra session Andy Echles, an all American center in 1939 but a substitute in 1941, potted a goal. Harry Hodgetts added another and Ken Hale got two.

Tonight the Californians won't dare relax if they wish to continue their record of always reaching the finals. Their opponents are the whirlwind Rams of Texas Wesleyan who have outsped every collegiate foe they encountered all season.

The Fort Worth club downed Louisiana State Normal although the Southern team's star forward, Charles (Red) Thomas won the crowd's approval by playing with his broken nose taped securely to his face.

Other quarter-finals games pit West Texas Teachers, Seeded No. 1, against Delta, Miss.; Murray, Ky., Teachers against the Maryville, Mo., Teachers and Santa Barbara, Calif., States as the opponent for Appalachian State of Boone, N. C.

Smith Defends Title At Best-Ball Tourney

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., March 13—(AP)—Horton Smith, who didn't have to qualify because he was invited, was the lead-off man today to defend the National Pro-Amateur Best Ball title he won last year with Marvin Ward of Spokane, Wash.

He was teamed with Charles Sheldon of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., up against Ed Brooks of Barton, Fla., and Tommy Aycock of Jacksonville who shot a 76-67-137 in the qualifying round yesterday.

The medal was taken with a smashing 64-65-129 by Leo Walper, Washington, D. C. pro, and Dick Chapman, amateur from Greenwich, Conn., over a windy course.

Mungo Crosses Them Up Again—He Obeys Orders

MACON, Ga., March 13—(AP)—Van Lingle Mungo, Brooklyn pitcher who was fined $200 for breaking training and banished from the Dodgers' camp at Havana last Sunday, is busily engaged in surprising everybody.

Ordered to join Montreal, Dodgers' farm club now training here, he said everyone expected him to "go to my Pagland, S. C. home and sulk."

"Well, I'm not doing that. I'm doing just what they told me to do at Havana." He added that his orders were to "remain here very quietly, say nothing and get in shape."

The Baron Joins Reformers Club

BATON ROUGE, La., March 13—(AP)—Edwood Cletus' Boots Poffenberger, passed over in the draft because of his reputation although his 1940 record was exceptional, today joined Van Lingle Mungo as a reform candidate from the big leagues.

The former eccentric pitcher for Detroit and Brooklyn, now training here with the Nashville Volunteers of the Southern Association, drew up a simple one-plank platform.

"I'm through with that bad boy stuff," he said.

Like Mungo, the Brooklyn fireballer who was banished Sunday from the Dodgers' training camp at Havana for breaking training and ordered to join Montreal, Poffenberger declared he was pointing for the big time again.

Wrestlers Move Out Tennis Stars

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 13—(AP)—Professional wrestlers, well trained in numerous feats of strength—pushed the entire National Indoor Tennis Tournament right out into the cold last night.

While some of the nation's brightest net stars quietly twiddled their thumbs, the grapplers took over the coliseum for their weekly show.

It was all pre-arranged; the tournament site having been rented to the wrestling promoters for every Wednesday night, weeks before the United States Lawn Tennis Association awarded the meet to Don McNeill's home town.

All eight seeded players were still in the running today, each scheduled to meet one of the eight other survivors in the third round of singles play.

A single round yesterday reduced the doubles field to the quarter-finals. The four matches in that division will be squeezed in tomorrow.

Use Of Left-Overs Is Perplexing And Fascinating Problem For Homemaker To Solve With Ingenuity, Novelty

Cooking School Instructor Lists Some Ways Of Achieving Interesting Variations With Those Annoying Odds And Ends Of Foods

At various times, homemakers remark, "What shall I do with the food which is left after a hearty meal?" This is a big question in the mind of the thrifty homemaker.

It is very interesting trying to make use of these left-overs, not only from the standpoint of economy but to test her ingenuity and skill, says Miss Mary Alice Crosson, conductor of The Reporter-Telegram's cooking school.

Furthermore, the homemaker does want to utilize these left-overs as disposing of them would mean destroying food value, and she wants to give it a second thought because it means there are those who become tired of left-overs. If she is to be an expert in the line of food thrift, she must be continually looking for new ways to make left-over food more attractive and appetizing.

Left-overs may be classified under two heads, Miss Crosson explains—those that are controlled or deliberately planned; and those that may be called odds and ends, which consist of accumulations of foods that are unexpectedly left over.

The first type are the result from planning ahead; for instance, sufficient potatoes may be cooked for dinner so that enough will be left to be fried for luncheon; or enough extra sauce may be made for dinner to allow a sufficient amount to serve for luncheon the next day. Another term for these left-overs, and a much more descriptive one is—foods that are cooked ahead.

Novelty Desirable

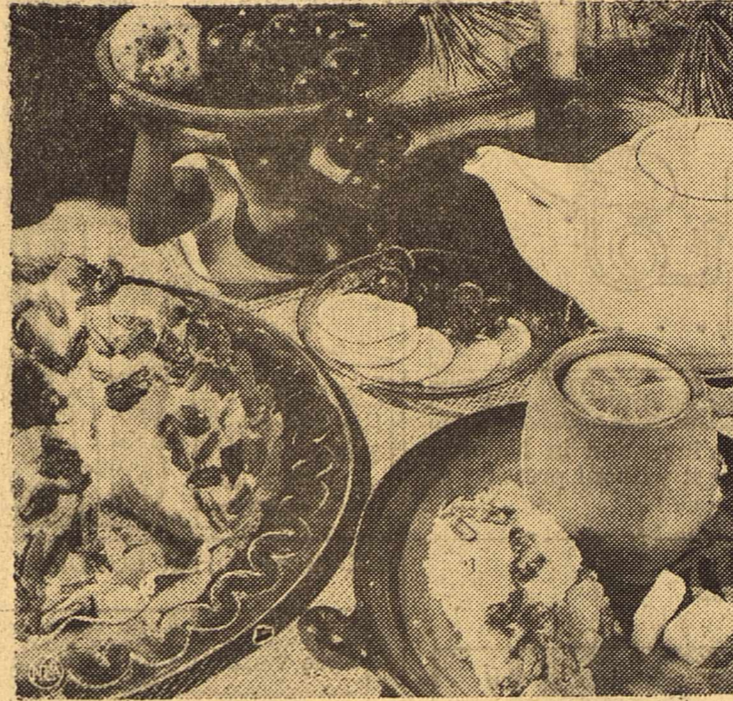

As far as the odds and ends are concerned, they accumulate in every household, for it is impossible to judge the family appetite. They include all sorts of foods and sometimes it may not seem an economy to use them, but when it is kept in mind that every bit of left-over food is as valuable as the cost of its original, the real value of those odds and ends is apparent.

The reason that in planning a week ahead, a luncheon or a supper is left vacant, is to allow for the use of these left-overs, for they are especially adapted to combination with other foods in many dishes.

When there is not a sufficient amount of any one food to make up a dish that will serve four people, an addition of a few ingredients may make these odds and ends into a delicious meal for four.

Whether it is in regard to clothes, kitchen utensils or foods the homemaker is looking for that which is

Pan-American Theme Will Vary Table Style

Use Mexican ware to serve Mexican foods.

A Pan-American background for the next meeting of your local defense group would be in harmony with the State Department's policy of good neighborliness. There are many Mexican pottery dishes on the market which you might use and the Mexican hammered tin for plates and trays is effective and inexpensive.

Try this Mexican Tea Ring:

Cool 1/2 cup of scalded milk until it is lukewarm. Then add a teaspoon of sugar and the crumbled yeast cake. Sift flour into large mixing bowl. Make a depression in the center and pour yeast mixture into cavity, stirring in enough flour to make a soft dough. Then let rise in a warm place until double in bulk. Add the remaining sugar, salt, egg, shortening and the remaining milk. (Milk should be lukewarm at this

 America's Card Authority
 I am wondering whether this year's World Bridge Olympic, which will be held April 17, will produce at least one pair of foreign winners. This will be the 10th annual World Bridge Olympic, and nearly every year either the North-South or East-West winners have represented a country other than the United States.

Generally the United States bridge players are considered superior to those of foreign countries, but in this kind of contest, which calls for careful analysis, foreign players have been very successful. Last year the North-South winners were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Learmonth, Maracaibo, Venezuela, and the East-West winners were Mrs. A. C. Bryant and Mrs. C. H. Drury of Kotzebue, Alaska.

One of the contestants in a game in Australia wrote me about a peculiar result in hand No. 1. The committee prescribed the bidding on this hand, which North was to play at four spades, with the king of clubs opening by East. North can make four spades, even though he plays the ace of clubs to the first trick. But our friend in Australia wrote that at his table they overlooked the prescribed bidding, and as a result, he, with the South cards, arrived at a six no trump contract.

The jack of diamonds was opened and won with the ace and five spade tricks were cashed. East let go two clubs and then discarded the queen of diamonds, saving hearts because South had bid on the suit. On the fifth spade South discarded his third heart.

He then led a small club from dummy, East played the queen and South won with the ace. South played the nine of diamonds, West covered with the ten and North won.

Now dummy led the jack of clubs and East correctly let it win, then stepped up on the third round of clubs; but declarer's eight of diamonds was now an entry for cashing the fourth club.

TOWN BLITZKRIEGS STRAY DOGS

LAWTON, Okla.—(UP)—The danger of a rabies epidemic in Lawton has been reduced by the slaughter of 800 stray dogs and cats. Police "execution squads" shot the animals wherever they were found. This was ordered by the city council after several persons were bitten and began Pasteur treatments.

DRAFT NUMBERS IN TIE

ADRIAN, Mich.—(UP)—Franklin Boies of Hudson claims distinction because his Lenawee County order and serial numbers are identical: 5302. Draft officials believe such coincidence is rare throughout the nation although a similar case was reported in another Michigan county.

Uncle Sam Romanticizes National Defense For Women, But Feminine Members Don't Need To Be Pushed

By Ruth Millett
Uncle Sam doesn't seem to realize just how we women feel about this business of National Defense. He evidently thinks he has to romanticize it a bit, if we're to follow along like "good girls," sending our men uncomplaining into training camps.

He has a medal now, designed to be worn by the women folk of men in the armed forces.

But we don't need any medals. We're grown up now. We're facing this emergency like adults. It's deadly serious, and we know it. There's nothing romantic about seeing the young men of our towns and cities in uniform. We don't get any quickening of the heart when we stop to watch them marching down main street in their drab uniforms. Instead we feel sad—and wise.

But that doesn't mean we aren't going to do our part. We know Uncle Sam has to have our men, and we know he has to have our cooperation. So no one is going to hear us kick.

We'll arrange our lives as best we can. We'll get jobs and manage somehow. But we can't look on this as an adventure, an exciting adventure with emblems of honor to show off to our friends.

That's the way we feel this time. No hip-hip-hooray enthusiasm. No sentimental notions about the glory of war. No thrill at the sight of men in uniforms.

This is an emergency. And we women are good at meeting emergencies, with sureness, calm, and lack of fuss.

And so, Uncle Sam, we don't need any medals.

U. S. Diet Needs Call For More Nutrient Foods

To become a stronger, healthier nation, we must improve our diet. Every modern scientist will tell you that. Many people, they report, are committing a form of slow race suicide by neglecting in their family diet essential foods either through indifference or some prejudice.

Today, under the great impetus of the drive for total national defense, many people are beginning to listen to the warnings of expert nutritionists and biochemists. We as a nation, should eat at least 60 per cent more fruits and vegetables than we do, 50 per cent more butter, milk, and eggs, and about 10 per cent more meat to attain full national health.

The following recipes combine low-cost winter vegetables with grapefruit. They are given as delicious novelties to show the way to perk up vegetables.

CITRUS PARSNIPS
Two pounds parsnips, 1 grapefruit, 4 tablespoons butter, paprika. Wash and scrape parsnips. Cut in halves or quarters. Remove woody core if present. Boil in boiling salted water until tender. Peel grapefruit, removing white membrane with peel. Cut on each side of dividing membrane and remove section by section. Place cooked parsnips in baking dish with grapefruit sections, dot with butter and sprinkle lightly with paprika. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 to 15 minutes.

CITRUS SPINACH
(Serves 4 to 6)
Two pounds spinach, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 grapefruit. Wash and drain spinach. Cook uncovered without water 6 to 10 minutes; stir occasionally. Melt butter in saucepan. Peel grapefruit, removing white membrane with peel. Cut on each side of dividing membrane and remove section by section. Add grapefruit sections to melted butter and cook very slowly until grapefruit sections are heated. To serve, season spinach with salt, and top with heated grapefruit sections and sauce.

BEEETS WITH GRAPEFRUIT
(Serves 4 to 6)
Four tablespoons butter, 1 grapefruit, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 1/2 cups sliced, cooked beets, heated. Melt butter in saucepan, add sugar. Peel grapefruit, removing white membrane with peel. Cut on each side of dividing membrane and remove section by section. Add grapefruit sections to melted butter and sugar and cook very slowly until grapefruit is heated. To serve, season beets with salt and top with heated grapefruit sections and sauce.
