

Invasion Of Scotland Threatens Ickes Urges Oil Exports Ban Without U. S. Approval Votes Indefinite Proration Law Extension

Senate's Action Probably Breaks Prolonged Block Texas Chamber Abandons Two-Year Extension To Side With Coordinator

By The Associated Press AUSTIN.—A deadlock in the Texas Legislature apparently was smashed Tuesday as the Senate agreed to extend the oil proration law indefinitely.

Abandoning its previous stand for an extension of only two years, the Senate adopted a conference committee report on a bill which in effect would make proration permanent unless the law was changed by a subsequent legislature.

Permanent proration in Texas, largest oil producing state in the country, had been advocated by Secretary Ickes, national oil administrator, and the Texas Railroad Commission, state regulator of the industry.

House Voted Permanent Law Olin Culberson and Jerry Sadler, members of the commission, recently conferred with Ickes in Washington, and Monday they reported his opinion to a statewide meeting of oil operators in Austin.

The House of Representatives long ago voted for permanent proration. Making the conference committee report, Senator Weaver Moore of Houston said: "I hope this will ease the pain."

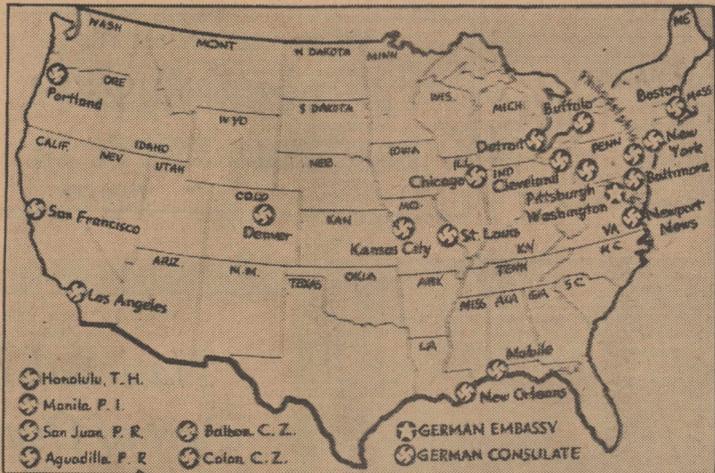

Another veto by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel was set aside by the legislature when the Senate, following the example of the House, voted to override his disapproval of the "drunk driving" bill.

The vote was 24 ayes and 5 noes.

Behind The Headlines Mr. Roosevelt's decision to close the German consulates and tourist-propaganda agencies in this country on the ground that their activities have been inimical to our welfare presents to Nazi world policy a piercing challenge, in some ways the strongest since Sir Neville Henderson delivered Britain's two-hour ultimatum to the Wilhelmstrasse on September 3, 1939.

U. S. Petroleum Industry Debates Tankers Vs. Lines To Supply Big East Demand

By Charles E. Harner NEW YORK.—(Special News Service).—The petroleum industry is torn with internal dissension today over supplying the eastern part of the nation with gasoline this summer and fuel oil this winter.

Secretary of the Interior Ickes, petroleum coordinator, has warned that some system of rationing may be necessary. Some oil men agree with him wholeheartedly; others definitely do not.

The oil crisis was brought to a focus by the withdrawal to British service of 50 tankers which formerly served the eastern seaboard out of Gulf and South American ports. These were part of a fleet of 280 ships which delivered gasoline to the East at a rate of 225,000 barrels daily.

It was less than two months ago, before the effects of the tanker diversion were felt, that leaders of the industry proudly proclaimed that the "oil business on its present basis can meet any conceivable defense demands."

Now, however, as the summer morning season advances, areas of the nation well removed from oil supplies are finding their gasoline stockpiles dwindling and the outlook for the fuel and heating oil with which much of the East uses in winter is not optimistic.

Some authorities are suggesting that oil and gasoline storage along the North Atlantic Coast may be replenished by obtaining from the British use of some of the withdrawn tankers for a few rapid coast-wise trips and by placing on the East Coast run tankers now engaged in carrying oil and gasoline in the Far Eastern service.

In the five months which will elapse before heating oil demands become heavy one tanker could carry half a million barrels of oil from Texas to New York.

Meanwhile, to eliminate the possibility of future East Coast shortages and to permit the transfer of more tankers to British use, oil men foresee the likelihood of construction this year of between 2,000 and 4,450 miles of new pipelines East of the Mississippi River at a cost of $100,000,000 to $230,000,000.

One proposed line, 1,600 miles long, would run from the Texas Coast to the New York area, carrying gasoline and other refined products. Another 900 miles long, would transport crude oil from the Illinois fields to Eastern refineries.

Two others in the South are under construction, preparing to carry gasoline and fuel oil into the industrial regions. A fifth has been started across New England from Portland, Me., to carry crude oil from ocean tankers to Montreal refineries.

Not all the industry favors such a pipeline program. Many oil experts say ocean tankers are the best and cheapest transports of oil from Texas up the East Coast. This is where controversy rages.

Some cost accountants assert oil and gasoline can be delivered in New Jersey from Texas by tanker at a minimum cost of 12 cents a barrel; they say the lowest cost which could be obtained on a parallel

Proposal Would Affect Eastern Coastal Sector

Action Follows Block On 240,000 Gallons Shipment To Japanese

By The Associated Press WASHINGTON.—A complete ban on exports of oil from the east coast of the United States, without prior government approval of individual shipments, was proposed to the petroleum industry Tuesday by Secretary Ickes, defense petroleum coordinator.

The action followed close on the heels of the stoppage Monday of a 240,000 gallon shipment of oil from Philadelphia to Japan, because of the threatened oil famine on the Eastern Seaboard.

Ickes' assistant petroleum coordinator, R. K. Davies, addressed identical telegrams to 32 East Coast oil shippers, as follows:

"In view of the impending petroleum shortage in the Atlantic Coast area, it is imperative that drainage of stocks from this region be avoided. I suggest therefore that no further sales of petroleum products for offshore shipment be made without prior consideration by this office."

This procedure, Ickes' aides said, was taken under coordinator's authority to make "petroleum and petroleum products available adequately and continuously at the proper places, and to make specific recommendations x x x to insure the maintenance of ready and adequate supply of petroleum and petroleum products."

Complete Plans For Streamlined C. Of C. Campaign

With prospect lists practically ready and with a sufficient number of volunteer workers assured, final arrangements are nearing completion for the big streamlined, all-out, one-day Chamber of Commerce membership campaign Thursday.

Daniel H. Griffith, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce membership committee, who is directing the campaign, predicted Tuesday the drive will be the most successful in the history of the organization.

Citizens, he said, appreciate the work done by the Chamber of Commerce in having Midland designated as the site for the Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombardier Training Center and they are ready to show their appreciation by assisting in adequately financing the Chamber of Commerce for the busy days ahead.

Several citizens voluntarily joined the Chamber of Commerce and others voluntarily authorized the increase of dues.

Need More Land For Bombardier School

More land for the Army Air Corps Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombardier Training Center at Midland was sought Tuesday by the United States government and steps were promptly taken to increase the acreage for the big training center from 860 to approximately 1,200 acres.

Air Corps officers explained plans now call for four runways 6,000 feet long. The extra acreage is needed to extend them.

Engineers measured the proposed additional land and plans were made to procure it.

Major C. R. Storrie of Randolph Field who has worked closely with Midland citizens to bring the training center here plans to arrive Tuesday evening in time to attend a Chamber of Commerce directors meeting. Members of the city council also will attend.

Housing plans will be discussed at the session and other activities in connection with the development considered.

Chamber of Commerce officials have been making a study of housing problems and were informed by Jim Cramer of the defense housing coordinator's office in Washington that if citizens are unable to provide sufficient housing under the regular FHA plan, an application for the designation of Midland as a defense housing area should be filed.

This request would go to the FHA headquarters and also to the defense housing coordinator's office in Washington.

Officers Investigate Slaying Of Secretary

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Detectives searched through one of the capital's best residential sections Tuesday for the missing clothes of a comely young war department stenographer who Sunday before she was waylaid, raped and strangled.

Police counted on the finding of the clothes to give them a valuable lead in the mystery surrounding the death of 23-year-old Jessie E. Strieff, whose nude body was found yesterday, sprawled in the garage of a retired professor, near fashionable DuPont circle.

All evidence indicated that the crime had been committed elsewhere and that the girl's body was thrust into the garage for temporary concealment. Abrasions on her back and legs led authorities to believe that she had been dragged some distance.

Midland Police Hold Girl From Louisiana

City police reported Tuesday a runaway girl from Louisiana would be held here pending word from her parents.

The city judge fined four drunks. A Mexican man was fined $35 for violating the law of the road and another fined $5 for operating without a driver's license.

London Reports German Troops Mass In Norway

Britons Face Stiffened Resistance By French; Columns Near Damascus

By Frank Gardner, Oil Editor

Adolf Hitler was reported massing "large numbers" of German troops Tuesday on the west coast of Norway—possible springboard for invasion of Scotland—and advances reaching London said a steady stream of troop trains and sea-going transports was moving toward coastal bases.

Only a few days ago, Soviet Russia announced officially that German soldiers were moving back into Northern and Northeastern Germany from the Balkans.

The Soviet announcement said it must be assumed that the Nazi troop movements were not directed against Russia, and the British declared talk of friction between Germany and Russia might be a feint to mask preparations for Hitler's long-awaited attempt to invade the British Isles.

Coincidentally, the Finnish newspaper Sanomat in Helsinki declared that the military situation in the Baltic was ripe for surprises likely to affect Finland.

Organize Bicycle Club In Midland

The Midland Safety Council and city police Tuesday organized a bicycle club for boys and girls of Midland.

Registration blanks were handed out at a meeting at Yucca Theater and first instruction in safety riding given at the ball park.

B. W. Stevens, member of the safety council's educational committee, L. P. McCasland, chief of police, and D. H. Casper first-aid expert, spoke at the meeting and films were shown.

The club will operate during the summer months, stressing safety among bicycle riders. Field meets and entertainment programs will be held. A junior safety patrol will report violators, and prizes will be awarded safe riders.

Life saving and safety instruction will be given later in the summer. Boys and girls of the city are eligible for the club. A record will be kept at city hall of safety rule violators.

Certificates will be awarded members of the club.

Mussolini Blocks Italian Payments To United States

ROME.—(AP)—The Italian government, freezing American credits in Italy, Tuesday blocked all payments from Italy of private debts to Americans under a decree published in the official Gazette in reprisal for the freezing of Italian credits in the United States.

Fascist spokesmen estimated the freezing action to be better than two to one in Italy's favor. Il Giornale d'Italia estimating American investments in Italy at $145,000,000 against Italian investments of from $60,000,000 to $85,000,000 in America.

The decree ordered Italian individuals and firms to report all American credits against them within 20 days.

Earlier Virginia Gayda, authoritative Fascist editor, declared that the United States' economic and financial measures against Italians and Germans constituted "an open declaration of economic war against the Axis powers" which might lead to actual war.

Persons in Italy were forbidden to make debt payments or transfer securities to Americans, but Italians residing in the United States and Americans residing in Italy were exempted from this provision.

The Growing State Guards

Few people realize how rapidly the State Guard idea has been growing. Twenty-eight states now have such guard units, with authorized strength of more than 110,000 men. Roughly half of these are now getting weekly instruction, the Council of State Governments finds.

Each state has its own law establishing such guards, with the result that there is considerable variation in matters like uniforms, which run from blue through khaki to "Confederate gray" in South Carolina.

As they become better organized, trained and equipped, they should provide the complex answer for any groups who are tempted to function on an amateur vigilante basis. For these there is no place. Only regularly authorized, responsible law-enforcement and protection services have any place in today's picture.

Governor Finds Opposition At Houston Speech

By The Associated Press
Beginning a brisk 11-day campaign in an effort to be Texas' new United States Senator, Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel encountered competition at Houston Monday night in the form of a barbecue.

The governor spoke at Buffalo Stadium, not far from Herman Park, where a crowd attending a barbecue was addressed by Harris County officials in behalf of Congressman Lyndon Johnson, a rival senatorial candidate.

O'Daniel declared he had settled the social security problem in Texas and now desired to go to Washington to obtain more federal funds for old-age pensioners. He also said he had solved the National Defense labor question in Texas by procuring passage of the first anti-violence strike law in the nation and wanted an opportunity to introduce a similar act in Congress.

Johnson Praised
In a speech at Austin, Johnson asserted that "Texas wants Communism and Nazism stamped out of this country. Your president forcefully and effectively did a real job when he ordered the Nazi consulates closed. This is better than talk."

With a microphone strapped to his chest, so he could use his hands freely, Attorney General Gerald C. Mann claimed at Wichita Falls that he was making more speeches than anyone in the Senate race, which he said was between him and O'Daniel. "We have in the White House a man of action," he declared, "and when I go to the Senate I'll cooperate with him just as I have cooperated with the governor of Texas."

Congressman Martin Dies in a speech at Texarkana, the home town of the late Senator Morris Sheppard whose seat is to be filled at a special election June 28, urged quick action against totalitarian agents in the United States and praised state department action in closing German consulates. A move he said he had advocated for two years.

The 79th air base group will leave about July 5, according to war department announcement, with a strength of 450 men. Other units to leave July 5 include headquarters, squadron, 140 men; 70th air base squadron, 150; 50th and 351 school squadrons, 200 men each; July 10 the 352nd and 353rd school squadrons, 200 men each, will leave for Las Vegas.

Kelly Field will send the 79th material squadron and 359th school squadron to Taft, Calif., and the 327th school squadron to Bakersfield, Calif., July 15, each will have a strength of 200 men.

July 15 Randolph Field will ship 1400 men in the 33th, 337th, 338th, 339th, 340th, 341st and 342nd school squadrons to Mather Field, Calif.

Specialties Interest Brings Life To Market

NEW YORK—(AP)—What appeared to be a revival of investment buying in specialties and senior stocks Tuesday pried the market out of its declining groove.

While gains of fractions were the rule at the close, scattered favorites were up 1 to 3 or more points. Recovery signs came in at the start but many issues failed to get anywhere in particular. There were occasional relapses and forward swings with prices around their best in the final hour. Volume expanded somewhat and transfers approximated 400,000 shares.

Included are: William Thomas Allen, Malcolm Douglas Patterson, James Lewis Bielby, Booker Little McDearman, Olin Marion Potter, Fred Evans Bishop, and Gregorio Uriquidez Collozo.

The draft board will send out 500 more questionnaires as soon as materials are received. This will complete the list of men under the first registration of October 1940.

Freezing Will Affect $2,500,000,000 Assets

WASHINGTON—(AP)—John W. Pehle, the treasury department's controller for foreign funds, estimated Tuesday that some $2,500,000,000 in cash and other assets were affected by President Roosevelt's order "freezing" the holdings of Germany, Italy and other continental European nations in the United States.

Previous freezing orders had put $4,500,000,000 of foreign assets under his control, making the total of restricted foreign funds here approximately $7,000,000,000. An inventory is being taken to determine the exact amount.

McCarran Speaks Against Closing German Consulate

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The state department order for the closing of all German consulates in the United States by July 10 drew many expressions of Senate approval Tuesday, but Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) called it a step toward severing diplomatic relations.

"I am sorry that such such an order was made," McCarran told reporters, explaining that he feared the action might push the nations closer to war.

"Of course, if we are going to be forced into war, it was essential. But so far as propaganda activities are concerned it would be well if the state department had ordered a cessation by Soviet Russia." Undersecretary of State Welles, however, denied that any diplomatic rupture was implied.

The order was directed specifically at German consulates and other agencies, such as the German Library of Information, the German Tourist Bureau and the Nazi Transocean News Service, which were accused if activities "injurious to the welfare of this country."

Congratulations to:

Headlines . . .

cedure, such as the severance of diplomatic relations in the calm and traditional manner, is not the Hitler way.

One must also take note of the fact that the German public up to this morning does not even know the bare facts of the case and certainly has not been prepared for a diplomatic break with the United States, much less a state of war. An abrupt diplomatic break on Germany's initiative and unpreceded by elaborate explanation and internal propaganda, would be a stunning blow to German morale and an admission of German aggressive intent. Hitler has never done that.

Instead, if he follows the pattern he has cut for himself, we may expect another Reichstag speech in which the Roosevelt administration will be comprehensively damned for unreasoning war-making and Germany completely white-washed, plus a thunderous press campaign against the United States which will climb to new heights of venom. Not until then—if the pattern is followed—is Germany's complete reprisal likely to be revealed, although preliminary action is possible as a face-saving device.

Lawmakers Urge Separate Branch To Head Aviation

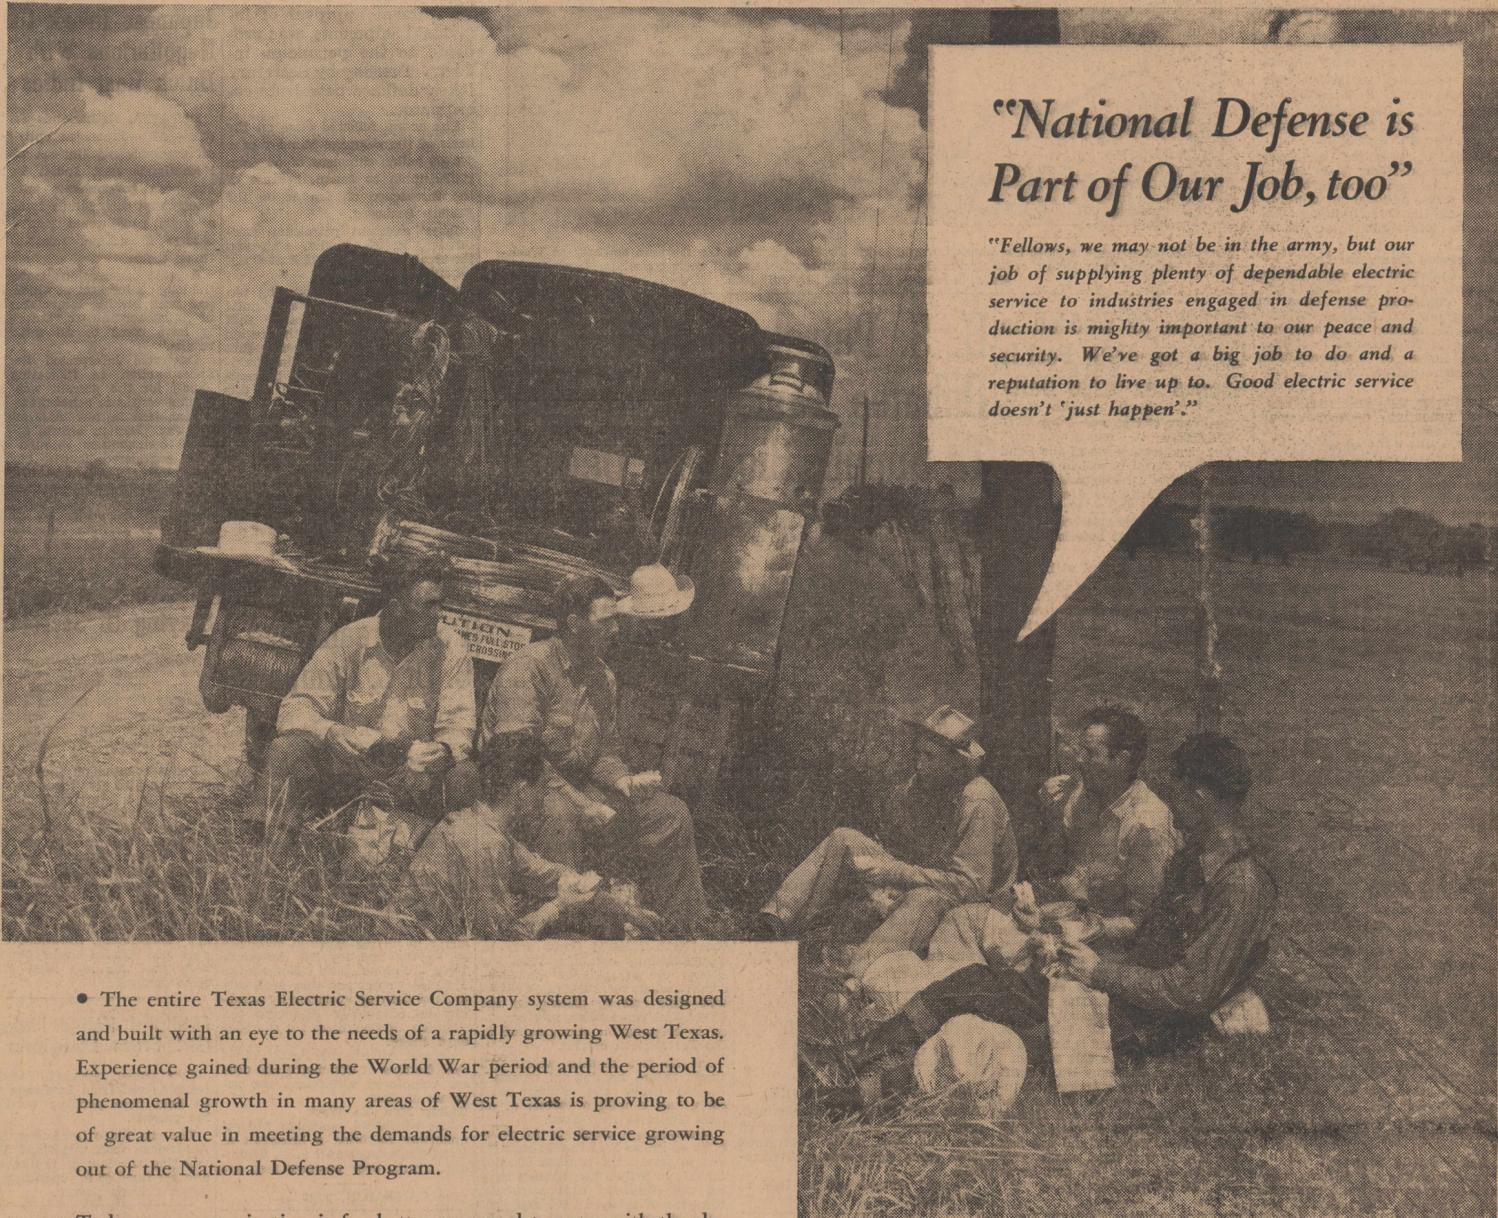

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A proposal for the creation of a separate air force under a new "department of aviation" attracted ready support in the Senate Tuesday.

Senator McCarran (D-Nev.), who introduced the legislation Monday, told reporters that "we must have an air force second to none in the world. The only way to get it is to establish it under an independent department, where a secretary will have a voice at the President's cabinet table."

He conceded that the measure was bound to arouse formidable opposition from the Army and Navy. Chairman Reynolds (D-NC) of the Senate military committee gave wholehearted approval to McCarran's proposal, declaring:

"The lessons of this war, especially Crete, have demonstrated that air power can sometimes overcome both land and sea power. Both in Britain and in the Axis countries, it has been demonstrated that a separate air force can work in perfect coordination with land and naval forces."

However, Senators Connally (D-Tex) and Hill (D-Ala) both declared that a separate air department was not feasible at present.

Miss Mittie Lee Allen Is Honored At Shower Given By Group Of Six Hostesses At The Klapproth Home

Pink And White Are Favored In Party Appointments

Miss Mittie Lee Allen whose marriage to Bill Buck of Fresno, California, will take place this week, was honored at a shower given by a group of hostesses, Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Anna Klapproth, 402 S. Marienfeld. Entertaining were: Miss Theresa Klapproth, Mrs. F. W. Stonehocker, Mrs. J. S. Allen, Mrs. J. L. Tidwell, Mrs. W. F. Prothro, and Miss Kathleen Eiland.

Pink and white were chosen colors for party appointments. Featuring decorations in the living room was an unique "wedding bell tree" in bridal white, the base encircled by a wreath of white leaves. Pink and white sweetpeas, pink and white verbenas, and mixed bouquets of other seasonal flowers were used at vantage points.

Sweetpeas, in pink and white, tied with pink ribbon formed the corsage for the bride-elect. Similar corsages were worn by the hostesses, Mrs. Klapproth, and Mrs. M. J. Allen, mother of the honoree. Junior members of the house party, Misses Beth Prothro, Betty Jean McDonald, and Helen Connor, wore pansy corsages.

Guests signed a pink and white bride's book, bearing the picture of a bride on the cover.

The courtesy had been planned as a surprise to Miss Allen, who was asked to come to the house on an improvised errand.

"Blueprint" Game. After her arrival guests were shown blueprints of a home and asked to make a bid on the concrete foundation for it. The game had reference to the bridegroom-elect's work as contractor. Low bid went to Miss Allen who was declared winner of the contract.

Little Charles David Klapproth, son of Judge and Mrs. Chas. Klapproth, pushed into the room a small wheelbarrow filled with gift packages which he presented to the honoree, other gifts being brought in by the members of the houseparty. Packages were opened and gifts inspected.

Two-Faced Fashion

Big news in summer millinery circles are hats which may be worn two ways. Robert Dudley's hat of white baku with navy veiling and ribbon, for instance, is smart when the bow is worn above the forehead with the veil trailing behind, as shown at left. It would be charming with a silk or shantung street suit or with dark sheer or print dresses.

The two-way bonnet, right, is just as smart when turned around and worn with the veiling shading the eyes and the bow at the nape of the neck. Other two-way flatterers for summer include cartwheels so cleverly designed that they are equally smart on the back of the head or forward and dipping slightly over one eye.

Evangelists Class Has Breakfast At Home Of Teacher

Roses and Queen Anne's lace decked the table when members of the Evangelists Class of the First Baptist Church met Monday morning at 9 o'clock for a breakfast at the home of the teacher, Mrs. J. Howard Hodge, 1301 W. Missouri. Rooms were decorated with white and red gladiolas.

Breakfast was served in buffet style, and Mrs. Leif Olson poured coffee.

Mrs. O. J. Hubbard, chairman of hospitality, was in charge of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Pearl Blair and Mrs. Hodge. Attending were: Mmes. R. Chanslor, I. O. Sturkie, J. P. Inman, C. G. Murray, A. B. Clements, John Godwin, L. W. Leggett, Stanley Erskine, J. C. Hudman, S. C. Dougherty, H. E. Skipper, Herbert King, V. C. Ray, Jack A. Wright, J. B. Ford, Leif Olson, W. G. Epley, Hubbard, C. A. Travelstead, Blair, and the hostess.

Red Cross Office In Baptist Church Annex

Midland's chapter of the American Red Cross will open a headquarters office and workroom in the old Baptist Church annex building on Main Street Wednesday.

The office and headquarters will be open daily except Saturday's from 9 to 12 a.m.

Carpenters of the city donated services in preparing the office and workroom. John P. Howe Company installed plumbing and Phillips Electric utility lines free.

Citizens were invited to visit the office.

The chapter appealed for a sewing machine and office furniture. Repeated in the party plate served later. Plate doilies were pink, pink napkins bore the names "Mitsie" and "Bill" in white, and the individual white-iced angel food squares were topped with designs of a wedding bell in pink.

The invitation list included: Mesdames M. D. Johnson Sr., Golden Donovan, J. M. Prothro, Mary S. Ray, L. C. Stephenson, W. A. Black, Alma Thomas, H. C. ## Unexpected Club Has "School Party" At Hunter Home

In keeping with the Unexpected Club's theme of providing a surprise for members at each meeting, Monday night's session at the home of Mrs. Forest Hunter, 407 West Missouri, proved to be a "school party," held on the lawn.

Miss Aimee Falcon and Mrs. Russell Willis, as "school mams," instructed their pupils in the mysteries of "readin', riting," and "rithmetick," with the "dishonor system" in force. Contests were held.

At the refreshment hour, the guests formed a line in cafeteria style and filed into the house where school lunches in paper bags were served.

Four new members were initiated. Present were three visitors, W. P. Sims, Coleman Sims, and Miss Edith Thomas of Waxahachie, and the following members: Miss Eleanor Kenley, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Golladay, Rex Bozarth, Jimmie Holder, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Willis, Mrs. Bland Bounds, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Williams, Miss Wilma Ruth Holman, Leslie Young, Miss Brittie E. Neill, Horace Hardin, Jack Cross, Miss Lou Annice Reeves, Elton Settles, Vincent White, Miss Velma Johnson, Miss Falcon, Forest Mac Hunter, and the sponsor, Mrs. Forest Hunter.

The next entertainment will be planned by a committee composed of Miss Holman, chairman, and Messrs. Cross, Bozarth, and Holder.

Signal Mount Union Meets At Cloverdale

Leagues of the First Methodist Church and Wesley Memorial Church at Big Spring and of the First Methodist Church here were represented in the approximately 50 persons attending the Signal Mount Union meeting of Methodist young people here, Monday evening.

The session was in the form of a picnic at Cloverdale Park.

The evening opened with games played under direction of Woodrow Wadzeck of Big Spring, adult counselor.

A picnic supper was spread by the group, with the Midland young people, as hosts, serving drinks.

After supper, Miss Reta Mae Bigony of Big Spring, new district director, discussed "What Assembly Meant to Me."

In the business period, Miss Ferrol Pickett of Midland was elected superintendent of publicity to take the place of Miss Norma Turner of Stanton who has resigned.

Midland was presented the banner to put in the new church.

It was decided to send one officer from the Signal Mount Union to the young people's leadership conference at Sequoyah, Arkansas, August 19-30.

Announcements of meetings this summer include: Council meeting July 6 at Big Spring; Union meeting July 21 at Stanton; district meeting, July 19-20 in the form of an encampment at Midland.

PATMAN PROPOSES BILL FOR INCREASED PAY

WASHINGTON—(AP)—An excise tax on intangible property to raise revenue for increased pay for members of the nation's armed forces was proposed Monday by Representative Patman (D-Tex.).

Patman introduced a bill to require the payment of a $20 service certificate monthly to service men from funds raised through a tax of two mills per year on the value over $50,000 of holdings of intangible property. The certificates would bear three per cent interest and be redeemable within two years after their issuance.

Where's the best place to choose your new car?
A. ON THE ROAD!
We'll match the "showroom value" of the Ford with anyone... but if you want to know how great a car this is, take one out on the road. That's where you use a car. That's where we build the Ford to be at its best!
TEST THE PERFORMANCE... IN ACTION. There never was another low price engine like this 90 horsepower Ford V-8. Take it out in traffic—then step out on the open road—challenge the toughest hills. Draw your own conclusions—see why no other low-priced car has even attempted to match it.
TEST THE RIDE... IN ACTION. Ride on the pavement, then ride the roughest road you know. You'll find the new Ford ride is the kind of ride you like. Smooth where the going's good. Soft and steady over the bumps.
TEST THE ROOM... IN ACTION. Measurements show this Ford greatest in its whole field in actual passenger space. A ride will show how much this means. Take the front seat, then the back. Cross your legs this way, then the other. Bigness counts and here it is!
TEST THE VALUE... IN ACTION. Stop with the biggest hydraulic brakes anywhere near the price. Rest your toe on the pedal of a fine-car type of semi-centrifugal clutch. Flick through the gears with the easy, silent kind of finger-tip shift that high-priced cars use.

Germany Says Planes Did Not Bomb Dublin

BERLIN (AP)—The German government said "after the most careful, most meticulous investigations," it finds no evidence proving that German planes had dropped bombs over Dublin.

The possibility that German planes might have flown over Dublin mistakenly is admitted, according to authorized sources, but it was said that certainly no bombs were released.

Pensioners' Payment Will Be Double Sized

AUSTIN (AP)—More than 130,000 old age pensioners in Texas have the assurance of Director J. S. Murchison of the state public welfare department that they would soon receive June checks almost twice as big as were first anticipated.

The director asserted only formal notification from the social security board in Washington was needed to make absolutely certain payments averaging $18.50 a month instead of $9.50.

The legislature recently appropriated $1,750,000 additional for the months of June, July and August for pensioners.

Reid and Greer Are In All-Star Eligible List

DALLAS (AP)—Thirty players eligible for selection in the Texas League's sixth annual all-star game July 16 have previously been chosen for the honor by the fans.

The list of hold-overs includes two players who have been held over all in the fan vote—Jackie Reid, given 67,804 votes when pitching for Fort Worth in 1937 and Ed (Beartracks) Greer, who had 26,493 votes as a pitcher for the same club in 1939.

pipeline delivery would be 15 cents a barrel.

Might Violate Anti-Trust

As far as railroad tank transportation is concerned, they cite the rate as $2.37 a barrel and, therefore, out of question economically. Several of the leading oil companies have tried to get together to build a 12-way shipyard, probably at Savannah, where they could construct 36 high-speed ocean-going tankers a year.

Such a combination of corporations might violate the anti-trust laws and, besides, there is a definite shortage of ship building materials and skilled shipyard workers.

Oil men are in agreement in opposition to the idea of gasolineless Sundays, except as a last resort. They point out that thousands of filling station operators, farmers, resort operators and employees, and even federal and state treasuries, would be hard hit by such a drastic restriction.

serted that 100 British armored units had been destroyed in violent clashes in the desert around the Egyptian frontier post of Salum.

The British reports pictured the fighting as continuing with unabated fury, with British mechanized units striking at Axis communication lines in swift flanking thrusts. These reports said the lightning British drive which knifed 40 miles into Libya was localized "for the moment," but that operations were developing.

Meanwhile, a British exchange telegraph dispatch from Helsinki, Finland, said reports of Russian troop mobilization were causing "anxiety" throughout Finland and Scandinavia.

Simultaneously, the British reported that "several German divisions" were now stationed in Finland.

There was still no answer, however, to the riddle of German-Russian relations.

SERIAL STORY

CALIBAN FROM CALEB

BY NORMAN KAHL

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Angus returned a few days later, discovers Adoreen has gone to New York. She has seen an ad for chorus girls, and is off to get the job. Hauling 2000 pounds of butter, Angus acts out for New York, knowing he will be fired. But he has to find Adoreen. Next morning, he is speeding down the highway, when a patrolman catches him. Angus explains, but the officer says he'll give the girl a break. . . . Angus is going with him.

BUTTER—SPREAD THIN

CHAPTER III

IT is easy for Angus to see that this trooper does not look like the kind that will listen to reason. The officer reaches in and takes Angus' ignition key out of the switch. Then he walks around to the front of the truck and starts writing in his notebook.

Angus has to make a decision in a hurry. He pulls his spare ignition key out of his pocket and inserts it in the switch. Then he reaches into the back of the truck and fumbles around until he finds what he wants.

When the cop comes back to the cab, he is in no mood to negotiate. "No inter-state license," he booms. "Boy, you'll get 20 years for this. What are you hauling?"

"Butter," says Angus. It is plain to see that the cop is up against something they didn't teach him in the state troopers' training school. He is trying to remember what rule covers a case like this when all of a sudden, all rules are suspended.

The trooper sees Angus' hand come up from the seat and he sees something golden and glistening in that vast, paw—something that drips. But he doesn't duck in time. There is a menacing squish! Then an unpleasant plof! And a pound of oily slightly melted butter spreads itself out on the cop's face.

It is only when the officer rubs his sleeve across his eyes that Angus has sense enough to start his engine and jerk away from the bitter scene. Angus pushes the accelerator to the floor, but he is painfully aware that if the trooper ever manages to unbutton himself sufficiently to operate his motorcycle again, there will be another race, with the odds in favor of the cop.

ANGUS has no burning desire to meet this same trooper again—socially or otherwise. He does not even care to let his imagination play with the idea of what will happen if he gets within shooting distance. It is perfectly clear that further steps will have to be taken. With a little luck, and without the annoying interference of the law, Angus can make New York some time during the next morning.

When Angus whirls around the next curve, he jams on the brake and comes to a dead stop in the middle of the road. There is no other traffic in sight, which is just as well. Angus hops out of the truck and hurries around to the back. He flings open the doors and jumps back.

A cascade of rich, sunny butter, of no further use on the farm produce market, splashes and bubbles on the hot highway. In a rapidly widening stream, it runs toward both ditches and spreads an even coating of bilious oil over the surface of the road.

In a few minutes the road looks like the State Highway Department's engineers, even in their flightiest moods, could never have imagined it. It is barricaded with butter two feet deep and the ditches on each side are beginning to look like an oily version of the Johnstown flood.

Angus can already hear the roar of a motorcycle getting louder and louder just before he pulls away and he is only a few hundreds yards down the road when he looks into his rear-view mirror and sees the trooper bending around the curve at a speed that makes Angus wince.

What happens then happens so fast that afterward Angus never can remember anything clearly. He is glad he can't see the trooper's face. All he can see is a motorcycle spinning around like a top with a lot of butter shooting up like a geyser. Then, suddenly, the spinning stops, and the cop isn't on the motorcycle any longer but is shooting down the well-greased pavement on his stomach.

Angus can't bear to watch any more. He concentrates on the road ahead until just before he reaches the crest of a hill. He takes one final look. The trooper is sitting in the ditch, his head buried in his hands. It looks as if he is sobbing.

IT is after 9 the next morning when Angus pulls out of the Holland Tunnel and finds himself in the middle of Manhattan's traffic. The first thing to do obviously is to see the mayor. Maybe the mayor has heard about Adoreen.

If Angus can find her right away, they can start back for Caleb before midnight and it is possible that Mr. Wittenbaum will understand about the butter and everything.

Angus is driving along a narrow street with a lot of automobiles shooting out at him from side streets and stopping dead with screeching brakes within a couple inches of his truck. He is reflecting on the incompetence of New York drivers and is keeping his eyes peeled for the city hall when he hears a chorus of sirens and his heart shrinks.

By the time he pulls up to the curb, he is surrounded by six policemen who pile out of three cars. The biggest one pushes back his hat. "What's the big idea, Buddy? Do you know how many lights you crashed?"

"If you will let me go and find my girl, I will write you a letter when I get back to Caleb," Angus promises, "and I will explain everything."

The big cop smirks. "Hear that, boys? He's gonna write us a letter. He's probably just dropped into town on a harmless visit to rob a bank and we're detaining him."

The cop's face turns a queer shade of purple. "Get out of that truck and let's see yer driver's license." Angus gets out and presents his license. The large officer studies it a minute and says, "Caleb, eh? What're you doin' here, MacPhillips?"

"I told you. I came to get my girl."

"Where is she?"

"I don't know." The cop lets out a funny sound.

"Okay. If you're gonna be like that, we can play too." He turns to the other patrolman and says, "Get the wagon, one of you guys."

"You can't arrest me," Angus protests.

"That's a matter of opinion," says the cop.

Angus backs up a step and aims a fist at the big cop's jaw. The officer folds up and hits the pavement like a soggy pancake. The other uniformed men pounce on Angus, but it is like running head-first into a tractor. The patrolman who is telephoning a block away takes one look and says, "Cancel that wagon—send the riot-squad."

IT is not easy to keep score from then on. It seems Angus is slugging every cop in New York. Some of them come back a second time. Most of them just curl up. The street and gutter are cluttered up with policemen stretched out as if they are asleep on duty. Occasionally somebody gets in a poke at Angus.

Angus doesn't see the night stick until it is too late to duck. It connects with his head and makes a noise like an anvil. Everything starts spinning around as he sinks to the ground.

The last thing he hears is someone saying, "Tell the marines never mind." Then he closes his eyes and lets the blackness close in.

being asked by Chairman Griffith to give one day of their time to the campaign. Follow-up work will be done by members of the membership committee.

An effort will be made to get present members to increase pledges to the best of their ability and to obtain memberships from all non-members. The Chamber of Commerce belongs to the citizens, is operated solely for their benefit and it is the civic duty of each to support his organization.

The Chamber of Commerce already has taxed its limited budget in the preliminary work connected with bringing the Air Corps center to Midland, and now that the goal has been accomplished many new details have been added to the program of the civic organization. The increased activities make it essential that the budget of the Chamber of Commerce be increased substantially if the organization is to function as it should.

Sitting as an equalization board, members of Griffith's committee have attempted to properly distribute the cost of operation of the Chamber of Commerce among all business and professional men of the city.

Voluntary campaign workers will do their best to make the membership drive the most outstanding ever staged here. Pull support and cooperation of all citizens in the drive is requested by Chairman Griffith and members of his committee.

Texans Blast Out Win Over Wilson's

Batters Smash Ten Runs In First And Elrod Handles Slab

The Texas team went on a hit and run spree Monday night to conquer Wilson Dry Goods, 21-7, and sound a warning in the city softball league wars.

Wilson's could never get in the ball game and the Texans leveled off after punching out 10 runs in the first inning and coasted to the win with Curly Elrod twirling. The airport gang also had a fat first inning, getting five runners.

Carroll, Beatty, and Elrod had big nights at the plate for Texas, each tapping out three hits. Carter Warren and Hicks hit well for Wilsons.

The big first inning provided the winning margin. Cagial walked. Beatty blasted a two-bagger, scoring Cagial. Jones hit sending Beatty to third. Hart batted a two-base walk-up and scored Beatty. Donkey Roberts got on base on an error and Jones scored. Hart scored and Roberts was tagged out at second.

Carroll hit and scored Moseley, who had rattled out a two-bagger. Walker hit and scored Carroll. Pace hit. Elrod hit and scored Walker and Pace. Cagial hit. Beatty smashed a three-bagger and scored Elrod and Cagial. Jones flew out. Hart scored Beatty. Roberts hit and died on base as Moseley flew out.

Wilson's continued the slugfest. Cartwright hit and stole second. Meadows struck out. Warren hit a two-base single and scored Carter. Warren scored when Price got on base on an error. O'Shea hit. Crump hit and scored Price. Hicks walked. O'Shea scored by stealing home. Huxtable grounded out. Crump scoring on the play. Gregory grounded out.

Texas had another big rally in the fourth frame getting five runs. Carroll's three-bagger and Walker's double with hits by Cagial and Beatty featured the barrage.

Salica Uses Jab And Wins Fight Over Challenger

PHILADELPHIA.—(AP)—Crafty ring-wise Lou Salica of Brooklyn still is bantamweight champion of the world because he had a plan and stuck to it.

On the verge of losing his 118-pound title to Philadelphia's Tommy Forte for the second time in six months, he came from behind Monday to gain an unanimous 15-round decision over the challenger before 14,500 at Shibe Park.

Before entering the ring an 8 to 5 underdog because of Forte's excellent showing against him in January, Salica said he planned to win with a jab. That's exactly what he did.

Right from the start Forte found Salica's left stuck in his face. For five rounds it didn't slow up the challenger, but over the last 10 stanzas and especially from the eighth through the 13th Salica repeatedly stung Forte with jab after jab, seldom taking a punch in return.

Mackey's To Play Independents In Softball Contest

Those snappy gentlemen of swat and field—Mackey Motors, league leading softballers—take on the Independents Tuesday night and John P. Howe's Blueshirts are out to curb Sewell Motors at the same time in women's circuit play.

It's good softball then with the league leaders and runners up in action in both divisions.

Some day the Independents are going to pop loose and beat somebody. Maybe Mackey tonight.

Sewell Motors, on the heels of John P. Howe in the women's league, is the pride of Odessa. Howe's is Midland's best.

Yankees Reduce Indians Margin To Single Game

By The Associated Press.
The New York Yankees have a psychological edge over their rivals whenever they get rolling; high and handsome in their present manner.

In winning their eighth consecutive game Monday they appeared to overawe the Cleveland Indians—and this should be a danger signal for the rest of the American League. In their days of glory the Yankees always had two strikes on every foe before they ever sauntered onto the field and they now look as if they are spellbinding the opposition again this season.

The bombers didn't out-hit the Indians and they didn't outpitch them, but they won, 6-4, and cut Cleveland's first-place margin to a single game.

Giants Blank Reds.
The Washington Senators downed the Detroit Tigers, 3-1, in the only other American League game. Ken Chase put on a fine pitching show for his first victory since April 19, scattering eight hits and fanning seven batters.

In the National League the New York Giants shut out the Cincinnati Reds, 6-0, on the three-hit hurling of Bill Lohman and the wildness of John Vander Meer and Gene (Junior) Thompson.

The Chicago Cubs cuffed the Phillies, 3-1, with a fielding show in which Babe Dahlgren, their new first baseman, played an important part. He handled a dozen chances and participated in three double plays, two of which were routed by home plate. He also made a hit and got two walks at the plate. Jake Mooty kept the tail-enders scoreless until the ninth.

York Launches Home Run Campaign Early And May Threaten Great Record Of Ruth

By Harry Grayson
NEA Service Sports Editor.
DETROIT.—Because he never before had so many home runs so early in June and fairly roars along in the stretch, baseball men now see Rudolph Preston York as a definite threat to Babe Ruth's major league home run record of 60.

Where Ted Williams, the left-hand hitter, has to smite the sphere 380 feet to manufacture a circuit clout to right field at Fenway Park and to get one to right-center, Rudy York, the right-hand batter, has the left field stand at Briggs Stadium in sight in half his games.

Competent judges say York, who has 13 home runs as this is written, should be 10 ahead of the field by Aug. 1, when he usually starts his drive.

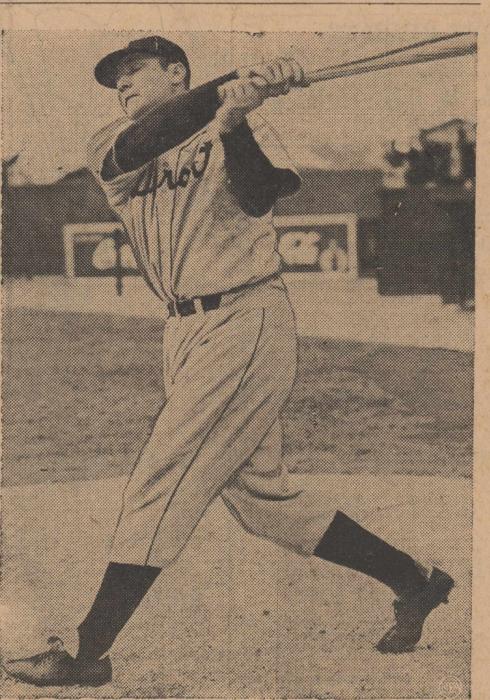

It will be recalled that York patted the pill into the left field stand of Cleveland's Hoge Municipal Stadium to beat Bob Feller and the Cleveland Indians for the 1940 American League pennant for the surprising Detroit club.

York Hit 18 Homers.
York topped one of Ruth's marks in his freshman year—1937, when in August he clicked 18 home runs off some of the slickest slingers the junior wheel could offer. Not even Ruth in the peak month of his palm-tree days matched that figure.

The Sultan of Swat's maximum was 17 during September, 1927.

York belted 35 home runs in '37, but got in only 104 games as a third baseman and catcher so he actually was hitting at a rate of 32 a year. Many of his appearances were in the role of a pinch-hitter.

The Cherokee may be retarded somewhat by the absence of Hank Greenberg. York hit behind Greenberg and pitchers preferred to take their chances with the younger man. Greenberg would walk and pitchers gambled on stopping York, who consequently had ample opportunity to hit. Now he draws as many passes as Greenberg formerly received.

Business Booms At Jacobs' Ticket Window As $400,000 Gate Appears Likely For Louis And Conn Scrap

By Gayle Talbot
NEW YORK.—(AP)—Their training completed, brash Billy Conn and big Joe Louis were scheduled to take things mutually easy Tuesday, merely fiddling around and resting up in preparation for Wednesday night's championship battle at the Polo Grounds.

Billy, who surrendered his 175-pound title in order to get a crack at Louis' unlimited crown, was down for a limbering-up session in one of this city's smaller gymnasiums, while the negro champion remained at the cool of his training camp at Greenwood Lake. They will weigh in Wednesday noon at the offices of the athletic commission.

Both appear geared for a furious tussle. Business is booming at Promoter Mike Jacobs' ticket windows, the rush having caused Mike to smile benignly and predict a crowd of 40,000 and a gate of $400,000. The odds against Conn winning remain at 13 to 5, about where they belong.

Broadway hotels are filled with the fight crowd, and many more will pour in from Pittsburgh on special trains and by car. The advance guard from the challenger's home town is backing Bill heavily at the odds, figuring he has a good chance of dethroning Joe by a decision in 15 rounds.

Jacobs Attached To Conn
Most of Conn's backing stems from sentiment and the fact that Billy is a middleweight and a light-heavyweight turned in a brilliant and unbroken string of victories. The hard truth remains that Wednesday night's fight brings together a fine little man, who ability to stand against even a top-ranking heavyweight has yet to be proved, and a great, big man who for four years has slaughtered all comers.

The build-up for this bout has been an amazing thing. Last summer, when Conn and his fidgity little manager, Johnny Ray, first began talking about fighting Joe Louis, they were good for many a hearty laugh around fight headquarters here. The boys asked Johnny if he were serious about wanting to get Billy killed.

Then Mike Jacobs became personally attached to the handsome boy from Pittsburgh. Billy, frequently Mike's house-guest, must have convinced the crusty old promoter, who usually is about as sentimental as a bill collector, that he might win Louis. At any rate, here is Conn about to fight the man-killer—and Billy isn't a bit better qualified than he was a year ago.

If Billy lasts more than three rounds, it will be astounding.

Tulsa Wins 11-5 Game From Buffs

By The Associated Press.
The determined Tulsa Oilers not only beat the fearsome Houston Buffs by the lopsided score of 11-5 Monday, but they came from behind to do it—and that's gliding the lily.

The Buffs, playing at Tulsa, ran up five unearned runs in the first inning. The Oilers retaliated by getting four markers, all unearned, and then proceeded to amass seven more while Emil Kush held Houston scoreless.

In other Texas League contests, Ed (Beartracks) Greer, Fort Worth hurler who seems to improve with years, pitched tight ball to enable the Cats to win 6-2 over the Shreveport Sports at Fort Worth. The Beaumont Exporters fell before the Rebels of Dallas 4-1, and San Antonio dropped a 9-2 decision to the Indians at Oklahoma City.

Sports Roundup

By Eddie Brietz
NEW YORK.—Looks like Larry MacPhail is going to have more trouble unloading Babe Phelps than he did trying to kidnap the Kaiser.

Seven of the 13 varsity athletes who were graduated this month from Brigham Young University received honors for a high degree of scholarship.

Paul Brown, Okla. State grid coach, dropped by the state pen the other day and showed his practice movies to some 2,500 inmates, all red-hot Buckeye fans.

Eddie Brietz off to little Jones County Junior College way down in Ellisville, Miss., which won state championships in football, baseball, track and basketball this past season.

Chet Smith of the Pittsburgh Press says all the writers from out yonder are picking Louis over the home-town pride and joy. Ed Barrow of the Yankees paid his first visit to the Polo Grounds the other day for the first time since the 1937 world's series when his Yanks won four games to one.

Today's Guest Star
Art Cohn, Oakland Tribune: "The other night, while reading aloud at home, I mentioned that Ed Oliver, the golfer, had lost 18 pounds in one three-hour round. Next morning the storm and strife took up golf."

Sports Cocktail
Just by chance, the phone number of Denny Myers, the Boston College football coach, is exactly the reverse of the number of John P. Curley, graduate manager of athletics at Boston University.

(Aside to S. E. Bruce, Houston: Jess Willard won the title from Jack Johnson, Sammy Angott is the N. B. A. lightweight champ and Lew Jenkins the New York-California version. The three Stunderland brothers of Denver were members of three basketball teams which won three different state titles in one week.)

Pastor Has Scott Groggy At Finish

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Bob Pastor, hopeful of bouncing back as a heavyweight headliner, showed enough power to outpoint Buddy Scott of Washington decisively in a 10-rounder here Monday.

Some 2,500 spectators watched Pastor belt Scott almost at will for nine rounds of the bout. Buddy was practically out on his feet at the end.

Pastor went to the canvas in the fifth—the only knock down of the bout—when Scott connected with a short right to the head. That round was the only one credited to Buddy.

Off tongue or pen: It's Feller's turn To pitch again.—H. H. McGill.

Add Oddities
In a baseball game between two Nebraska high schools, Wendell Godeken, the Naponee pitcher, faced six men in one inning and struck them all out. Naturally you say how come? Well, the catcher dropped the third strike on the first three hitters and the got on base.

Fight Tip
We know one of the newspaper boys down in Mississippi who already has written his headline for tomorrow mornings fight story. It is "Conn-demned."

REPORTS DOMESTIC PLANTING INCREASED

ST. LOUIS.—(AP)—Real-life Pop-pies will get their spinach next year—even though the war has cut importation of seed, most of which came from Europe.

George C. Elder, senior marketing specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture, told the American seed trade association in session Tuesday, that increases in domestic planting has offset somewhat the dearth of foreign seeds.

"This is especially true of spinach," he said. "I do not anticipate any shortage despite some alarming predictions."

FUNERAL IS INDEFINITE FOR THEATER MANAGER

SAN ANTONIO.—(AP)—Funeral arrangements were pending today for V. D. (Buddy) Welker, 43, manager of a local theater and widely known throughout Texas theater circles. He died suddenly Monday after suffering a stroke while playing golf.
