O'Daniel Approves Oil Proration Law Bill

Vetoes Amendment To Fix Production On Statewide Basis

By The Associated Press AUSTIN (AP).—For the first time in history, Texas oil proration laws were permanent Thursday.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel signed a bill to that effect while vetoing one amending the oil statutes to prorate crude production on a statewide rather than field-by-field basis.

Meanwhile the Railroad Commission, state oil regulatory agency, set the regular monthly statewide proration hearing on July 16 and altered the method of measuring crude oil in pipe lines.

In providing indefinite extension of the proration laws, the legislative branch from custom since the statutes previously had been reenacted for two years only. Proponents argued it was essential the lawmakers show their faith in proration in view of possible federal control.

Proposal Undemocratic. The vetoed bill favored by a majority of the commission, assertedly would have eliminated claimed selective buying of crude and ended purported discrimination among fields producing near-identical types of oil.

O'Daniel declared the proposal was undemocratic and monopolistic in principle because it sought to give an administrative body legislative and judicial powers. He added he believed it would curtail Texas' allowable production as compared with other states and result in endless court battles on constitutionality.

The bill would have fully legalized a method of allowable distribution used in recent months by the commission but which has suffered under court rulings.

At the statewide proration hearing the commission will, as usual, take evidence on which to base allowable allocation in August.

Apco Ellenburger Well Swabbing New Oil With Sulphur Water On Test

By Frank Gardner Oil Editor.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1, J. F. McKee, indicating first Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, production for the Abell pool of Northern Pecos County, which normally produces from Simpson sand of the middle Ordovician, recovered 137 barrels of fresh oil and 148 barrels of sulphur water on a 21-hour swabbing test through casing. President Will Address Nation On July Fourth

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia of New York City, U. S. director of Civilian Defense, in a letter to Mayor M. C. Ulmer calls attention to the nation-wide July Fourth program of rededication to liberty to be built around a short speech by the President of the United States.

President Roosevelt's statement concerning the program follows:

"The approach of Independence Day this year will kindle in all American hearts an appreciation of the dark days that preceded and followed July 4, 1776. Those were the times that tried men's souls even as are these times in another crisis in American life.

"But these days are also days of hope and as the birthday of American Independence draws near it is altogether fitting that we should rededicate ourselves to defend and perpetuate those inalienable rights which found true expression in the immortal Declaration. Those words never had a deeper or more solemn meaning for America than they have in this hour of anxiety and peril.

"The Fourth of July has always been a happy festival, a day of joy and exaltation in which all Americans have caught something of the spirit of liberty which the Fathers of the Republic proclaimed to all the world on that midsummer day in Philadelphia in 1776. It has been essentially a home festival.

"I am glad, therefore, to learn that the Office of Civilian Defense is to lead the Nation this year in a grand rededication to liberty on the Fourth of July. I commend this celebration to Americans everywhere to the end that in this solemn commemoration we may find renewed faith in the blessings which are ours because of the struggle and sacrifice, the courage and fortitude and vision of those who made this Nation a reality."

The Plan. The Fourth of July rededication is to take place simultaneously throughout the nation at 3:00 p.m., Central Time.

The rededication will begin with a five-minute radio speech by President Roosevelt. This will be followed by the playing of the national anthem started by the U. S. Marine Band in Washington, and picked up by bands all over the country. Following the national anthem, all citizens led by the President will repeat the Oath of Allegiance to the United States.

Mediation Board Demands Action At Arms Factory

By The Associated Press The National Defense Mediation Board called for a showdown Thursday on a union recognition dispute which caused a strike threat at an important ammunition factory.

The board set the deadline for acceptance or rejection of its recommendation that the Western Carttridge Company recognize the AFL-Chemical Workers Union as collective bargaining agent for 550 men employed in the firm's smokeless powder division at Alton, Ill. The men have voted to walk out next Monday.

Defense officials at Washington were declared determined to prevent any interruption in ammunition production, which President Roosevelt stated only last Friday to be far behind schedule. The National Labor Relations Board has officially certified the union as the proper bargaining agency, but the company thus far has not recognized it as such.

AUSTIN (AP).—The threat of an injunction suit Thursday hung over a legislation appropriation of $1,500,000 to purchase land for the proposed Big Bend Park in West Texas. Asserting the park would be "a glorified wagon yard and dude ranch," Rep. A. H. King, Throckmorton rancher, declared Wednesday night he intended to file suit alleging the appropriation unconstitutional and seeking to halt its payment.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt was urged Thursday by two foes of administration foreign policy to make a Fourth of July plea for a negotiated peace in the European war.

Senators Wheeler (D-Mont) and Nye (R-ND) voiced the opinion that the President's Independence Day address to the nation would give him "an appropriate opportunity" for such a message.

A third administrative critic, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) expressed himself in favor of having Mr. Roosevelt explore peace possibilities, but thought this should be done without publicity.

Ickes Will Ask Police To Arrest Gas Wasters

WASHINGTON (AP)—Petroleum Coordinator Ickes announced Thursday he would request city police and state highway patrols in the East to arrest motorists wasting gasoline by use of improperly adjusted cars and making "jackrabbit" starts.

Conservation measures to combat the predicted oil scarcity on the seaboard, Ickes said, are "going to require something more than persuasion."

A few "judicious arrests," he told the press conference, might bring the desired results. He noted that most cities and states had laws or regulations against use of automobiles emitting obnoxious fumes caused by improper and wasteful combustion.

Stalin Calls On Muscovites For Guerilla System To Save Soviet

Communist Leader Admits Danger And Big Nazi Advances

By The Associated Press MOSCOW, Thursday (AP)

—Joseph Stalin, Soviet premier and chairman of the state defense council, warned his people by radio Thursday they were gravely menaced by a sweeping Nazi advance into Russia and demanded a vast "scorched earth" and guerilla system to help defeat the Germans.

"A grave danger overhangs our country," he said. Telling this nation's millions German troops had captured Lithuania and a considerable part of Latvia and were inside White Russia and the Ukraine, Stalin suggested this plan to defeat the invaders:

Organization of guerilla or militia fighting units to help the regular Red Army by behind-the-lines looting and sabotage; destruction of all foodstuffs and equipment likely to fall in German hands, and removal of all cattle and available transports to the rear; the setting of huge forest fires to slow the Nazi March.

Red Political Gain. He declared Hitler would suffer the same defeat Napoleon and Kaiser Wilhelm met, but sought to arouse the nation to its danger.

He said Germany had gained "a certain advantageous position for her troops for a short period" by attacking the U.S.S.R., but she "has lost politically by exposing herself in the eyes of the entire world as a blood-thirsty aggressor."

Soviet Russia, he added, had made a tremendous political gain. The speech broadcast at 6 a.m. (9 p.m. Wednesday C.S.T.) and repeated at intervals during the day on public loudspeaker systems and on house radios, marked the first time the Russian people had heard Stalin's voice since 1936 when he announced the constitution.

Asserting "millions of the masses of our people will rise," Stalin, speaking in measured tones, announced that workers in Leningrad and Moscow already had started the organization of thousands into peoples' armies to support the Red Army and urged similar action in "every city under the threat of invasion."

Ulmer And Whitaker Address Citizens On Big Housing Problem

Midland citizens were told at a city-wide mass meeting on the courthouse lawn that it is their patriotic duty to aid in housing the thousands of men who will be employed in constructing the $4,500,000 Advanced Twin-Engine and Bombardier Training Center here of the U. S. Army Air Corps.

"Every person in Midland faces the challenge," Mayor M. C. Ulmer said in his address Wednesday night to the citizens. "Every person must cooperate. You have a part to play in this development. We must find as many places as we can to house the workers. It is physically impossible to take all of them, but Midland will do its best."

"Make an earnest effort to do your part. Take care of the men who will be in charge of this construction work. It is an immense job for Midland. Do your part unselfishly. I hope the people of Midland will not take advantage of the shortage of houses, rooms and eating places to raise prices. We must do our part for National Defense with a reasonable reward. It's our patriotic duty. There must be no profiteering. (See ADDRESS, page 2)

U. S. Gives Full Endorsement To Uruguay's Plan

WASHINGTON (AP).—The United States, holding that "the safety of the Americas hangs in the balance today," wholeheartedly endorsed the proposal of Uruguay that the 21 American republics exchange specific pledges of "constructive and practical cooperation" for defense.

The endorsement carried an appeal to the other republics to subscribe to the proposal because the western hemisphere was facing a threat of "aggression without comparison in history."

Under the Uruguayan proposal, submitted to all hemisphere republics by Foreign Minister Guan on June 21, the nations would pledge themselves "not to treat as a belligerent any American country which, in defense of its own rights, should find itself in a state of war with nations of other continents."

Argentine Is Question. (The practical effect of all the republics uniting in such a policy of benevolent neutrality would be that the United States—if it became involved in the war with the Axis—could utilize the naval bases, airfields and other defense facilities of South and Central American nations.)

The United States endorsement of the Uruguayan proposal followed reports from South America that Brazil favored the formula. However the Argentine government Monday sent a note to Uruguay saying it was "perhaps unnecessary and superfluous" to have a new accord in the light of previous inter-American pacts which the Argentinians interpreted as serving the same purpose.

Columns Invade Syria From Iraq

VICHY, Unoccupied France (AP).—Military advances Thursday said two new British columns were invading Syria from Iraq in addition to those attacking Palmyra and Deir-Ez-Zor and that the living quarters of General Henri Dentz in Beirut again had been attacked by British bombers.

The Red Army also was reported to have halted and inflicted "a heavy defeat" on a German mechanized column driving toward Shepetovka, 20 miles inside the old border of the Ukraine, on the road to Kiev, the capital.

"Throughout the whole night, our troops in heavy fighting stemmed the advance of enemy troops," a Soviet war bulletin said.

The Soviet war bulletin, far from indicating any general collapse of Russia's armies, reported fierce battles raging in the vicinity of Borisov, 50 miles along the 450-mile motor highway from Minsk to Moscow, and on a triangular front 70 miles east of German-captured Lwow, in old Poland.

In the Far North, in violent all-night fighting, the Russians declared they had inflicted "a great defeat" on two German infantry divisions—about 30,000 troops—which yesterday launched a drive up the Sredni Peninsula against the ice-free Arctic port of Murmansk.

Stray dogs will be picked up by the dog-catcher. Dogs with licenses or tagged also will not be permitted to run at large. Councilmen said dogs must be licensed. Permits may be obtained at the city hall.

Great Chaos Reigns On 2000-Mile Front From Baltic To Sea

BERLIN (AP)—A few hours after the German high command declared today that resistance of the Red Army apparently had been broken, DNB, official German news agency, told of "obstinate resistance" and bad weather on the eastern front. The agency said the weather was affecting the fighting.

By The Associated Press

Adolf Hitler's high command declared Thursday resistance of the Red Army appeared smashed along the entire 2,000-mile front from the Arctic to the Black Sea and that "unimaginable chaos" has broken over the Soviet armies.

While the Nazi high command pictured a decisive turn in the 12-day-old struggle, a Soviet communique asserted the main German thrust toward Moscow had been blocked and that Russian troops were locked with the Germans in a vast new battle on the road to the Soviet capital.

"United armies of the entire front between the Black Sea and the Arctic have started to attack," the German high command said, announcing Nazi and Russian troops crossed the P. River toward the Dniestr yesterday.

"It now appears that resistance of the Soviet army is broken. Backward movements of the enemy have become apparent on the entire front."

Slopes Moscow March. The Prut River forms a boundary between Rumania and Russia-held Bessarabia.

Amid these assertions by Hitler's headquarters, the Russian high command declared the vanguard of the Moscow-bound Nazi invasion force had been hurled back in repeated attempts to cross the Berezhina River, whose waters were reddened by the blood of Napoleon's troops in the bitter retreat from Moscow in 1812.

The Red Army also was reported to have halted and inflicted "a heavy defeat" on a German mechanized column driving toward Shepetovka, 20 miles inside the old border of the Ukraine, on the road to Kiev, the capital.

"Throughout the whole night, our troops in heavy fighting stemmed the advance of enemy troops," a Soviet war bulletin said.

They Saw It Through

Now it is the Fourth of July again, and we turn naturally to the memory of the day when the American colonies declared their independence of Great Britain and became an independent nation.

Let us not look back at that day in 1776 through a rosy haze of historical fuddlement. When the bell rang in Philadelphia on that hot July day it was no signal for one great unanimous upswelling of joy. More than a year of war already lay behind the struggling colonies when Hancock wrote his bold signature; nearly seven more years of bitter struggle lay ahead.

It was no exercise in literary composition, that declaration, it was a decision. It was a decision of value only as it was made to stick with a cement of grit and blood.

The country was by no means unanimous in the decision, any more than it is unanimous in decisions that are being made today.

Many wagged their heads and said "We Americans can't win," in words not unfamiliar. Others gloomily feared that the radicals were in the saddle and that even a successful separation from England would leave a country scarcely fit to live in. Some feared for their lives, some for their money and property. Some found it better business to sell their provisions and supplies to the British for gold than to the Continental Congress for depreciating paper. Some snorted at the possibility of a French alliance—was not Louis XVI a dictator and no fit company for good democrats? Some felt it would be better, cheaper in the long run, to pay unjust taxes than to fight a costly war. Some feared change itself as they felt their world slipping out from under them.

Oh, they were not all heroes then, those founding fathers who plunked for independence on July 4, 1776. They were about like us, good and bad, strong and weak, far-visioned and near-sighted—and just middling. They weren't giants, they were just people like us, with their personal problems, likes, and dislikes. But in the end they faced their crisis and they saw it through. When the time came, they decided, and having decided, they allowed neither domestic dissidents nor foreign enemies to stop them.

That is the one thing to remember about the forebears whose Declaration of Independence we celebrate today. They wanted a world in which they could breathe the air freely. They went out and got it.

Tennis Crowd Almost Overlooks Key Match

NEW YORK (AP)—From now on the cash customers at the Eastern Clay Court Tennis Championships are going to keep the clubhouse surrounded, instead of just congregating in one spot.

Early Wednesday afternoon while spectators jammed the veranda to watch Patricia Canning, of Hidden Valley, Calif., defeat Helen Marlowe, of Los Angeles, a couple of men named Frankie Parker and Joey Fishback sneaked out to the backyard to play a fourth round match. It was a torrid affair, too, but few people knew about it until Parker and Fishback had played nearly half the first set.

After Parker had defeated Fishback to gain the quarter-final round, the folks remained behind the clubhouse tearing apart Parker's new forehead, which is more than Fishback was able to do.

Some franchises have had narrow squeaks, managers have difficulty meeting payrolls, but—the old league just keeps a-rollin' along.

NEW YORK (AP). — Sam H. Harris, 69, one of Broadway's most successful theatrical managers and producers, died Thursday at his hotel apartment. The veteran producer, a native New Yorker, was thrown on his own resources when he was 11 and within six years had organized several entertainments.

Fruit Will Lend Variety, Interest To Daily Meals

COLLEGE STATION. — It is easier to have variety and interest in fruits for breakfast than in breads, or in bacon and eggs, according to Jennie Camp, extension specialist in home production planning.

Speaking on the fruit day program at the Nacogdoches Experiment Station recently she showed that it is as easy for a housewife to use fruits at each meal as it is to use bacon and eggs, meat and bread, or milk and mush, provided she makes them as much a part of meal planning as she does those staple items.

"Let's build a breakfast around hot biscuits, scrambled eggs, or bacon and eggs," proposes Miss Camp. "With them we might serve dried figs or peaches in yellow corn meal mush with cream and sugar." As alternatives she suggests raisins with oatmeal, or tomato juice, or fresh tomatoes, or cantaloupe, or red plums with dew still clinging, or fresh peaches, or cherries, or berries steeped in sugar.

However, Miss Camp does not let fruit-on-the-menu stop at breakfast. Starting with beef roast for dinner, she suggests hot spiced figs side by side with buttered onions, potatoes baked in the roast gravy, glazed carrots, yellow cornmeal muffins and milk, with an appetizing dessert of peaches and cream. With pork she recommends pickled peach as an accompaniment and cantaloupe for dessert. A tart mixture of fruit juices is a good appetizer for leg of lamb, and canned peaches with plain cookies makes a good dessert. Grape juice is a good starter for a fish dinner and baked berry preserves is a good stopper. Boiled or baked beans as the main dish calls for hot apple dumplings with cinnamon sauce.

Hot applesauce with cinnamon and sugar makes a tasty end to a substantial supper, and mixed fruit salad a light one. Miss Camp defines the fruit-at-every-meal program. "Fruits for Defense." Besides minerals, vitamins and other food substances, fruits give color, variety, zest, flavor and attractiveness, Miss Camp declares. "They are good before, after, and at every meal 365 days in the year in native or elaborate state, alone or in combination, cold, hot or medium."

FEMININE FANCIES

By Kathleen Eiland

The individual match boxes which are an indispensable part of so many modern parties display a bewildering variety of decorative themes. But the cutest (no other word will do) of them all are the ones which are adorned with wee replicas of Grandmother's unmentionables.

Embroidery panties and lace trimmed, buttoned corset covers or sashes top the little boxes and are bound to excite enough laughter and reminiscences of early childhood memories to break the ice in any group.

Runner-up for our approval among these little accessories are those decorated with cutout flowerpots and tiny, tiny blossoms of bright felt. These, by the way, go very nicely with the plastic cards which are of glass or clear plastic with space for writing and erasing the name of the guest and which also carry the figures of the little felt flowerpots with their load of gay blossoms.

And while we're on the subject of party accessories, we might make mention of the place card which doubles for a cigarette holder. Made of a simple-lined block of lucite or transparent plastic, it has the new space for writing names and then erasing them for future use of the cards. In the back of the lucite block, two round spaces are hollowed out to hold two cigarettes at a pleasant angle. Very nice, we think, and practical too, eliminating the need of cigarette-passing.

We don't often buy such things as jewelry of any kind, costume or not, is one of the minor luxuries and certainly not one of the important things of life to us. But when we saw a "jewelled" white pagan mask with sinister black-lined eye slits, red-lined mouth and dangling red ear-rings—we just had to have it, that's all. We always did like the barbaric note and this time we got it. Our room-mate tells us frankly it's horrible but we STILL like it.

America's Card Authority.

There is one trophy in bridge which cannot be won. It is awarded each year by the Wetzlar committee to a man who has been outstanding in the game. This year the Wetzlar trophy was won by Harold S. Vanderbilt, who introduced contract into the United States in 1925.

Vanderbilt is chairman of the laws committee of the Whist Club of New York, which has always prepared the laws for rubber bridge. He is also the donor of the Vanderbilt Cup, the trophy awarded to the winners of the national knock-out team-of-four championship, and of course he is the originator of the Vanderbilt bidding system.

This system incorporates an artificial club bid to show a hand containing about three and one-half honor tricks. Partner is forced to respond and any response other than one diamond shows about two tricks. Here is an example of the use of the Vanderbilt club convention.

Despite his long strong club suit, North must not bid two clubs over the conventional club bid by South. He must respond with one diamond, to show less than two honor tricks. But having done this duty, he is entitled to make a jump take-out over one no trump.

South realizes at once, after hearing the diamond response, that North cannot hold two aces. Therefore a slam appears impossible, and South must put on the brakes no matter how strongly North bids. If North has one ace and a void, he must make up his own mind about the slam. Hence, over four clubs South is careful not to indulge in any slam try, such as four no trump. It is too difficult to stop at the

MUSTANG BOYS' CLUB COLUMN

True to our promise, that softball game Wednesday with the "All-Troop" Scout team from Odessa was a whiz for interest and suspense. Both teams played ball. The Mustangs "picked up the marbles," winning, 17 to 14. Maurice Bratton's batting was the sensation. He hit for a home run with the bases loaded. The brones have done this but twice this year. The Odessa pitcher also was a bad actor with right contract of five after a slam try. This simple raise to five clubs says, "As you won't agree to stop at three no trump, I will play five clubs, but I can't propose any higher contract."

the bat. Mustangs playing were Ivan Hall, Red Roy, E. G. Foster, Odie Kelly, Chas. Kelly, Paul Simons, Tom Tisdale, Maurice Bratton, Chas. Forster, Jimmy Watson, Odessa players were Blanton, Reynolds, Casparis, Zugg, Whitlock, Kerr, Reynolds, Prewitt, Clark, Moorman. The team play this same team at Odessa next Tuesday at 7 p. m.

The Mustang Junior team (Mid-gets) are playing the Latin-American Juniors this afternoon on the Mustang diamond. Both gangs have snappy little teams and handle the ball surprisingly well.

Water is king riday when skads of Musty sea-horses stampede Pa-goda for the holiday scramble in our "Old Swimming Hole". Splashes, crashes and water dashes will be the order of the day. Contests will be served in large numbers. Enough nickels to choke a jack-pot will be used for prizes. A big smile, a pair of trunks and 8c will get you in. It will take a team of mules to drag

Merchants Apply For Cotton Plan

Lawrence Rollins, representative of the surplus marketing corporation, reported Thursday six Midland merchants had filled application blanks to participate in the cotton stamp plan in Midland County.

He conferred with merchants and predicted several more Midland firms would apply to participate in the program, executed by the county agent's and AAA office.

When the program will start in Midland County has not been announced. Farmers, who produce cotton, are issued stamps, which may be exchanged for merchandise. The government redeems the stamps.

County Agent I. O. Sturkie and a Midland County 4-H Club judging team will attend the farmers short course and state 4-H judging contests at College station, it was announced Thursday.

Sturkie, Eugene Jones, Bill Franks, Delma Ray Bizzell, and Clayte Graham returned from Lubbock, where the boys judged in district practice events at Texas Tech.

Midland is entering judging contests at College Station, it was announced. The team will leave July 12 and the team will follow July 16.

At Lubbock, the youths judged classes of beef cattle, hogs, sheep, draft mares, and mules.

Stock Market Course Is Steady Despite War

NEW YORK (AP.)—The stock market shifted over a relatively steady course during the greater part of Thursday's session as most customers ignored the cloudy war news.

The list extended Wednesday's mild rally by fractions in the forenoon but some issues backed away after mid-day. Modest gains, however, were well distributed at the close.

Dealings were fairly lively for a while at the opening but dwindled later. Transfers for the full proceedings were around 450,000 shares.

SERIAL STORY

ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE

BY DONNA ASHWORTH

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: At last Lita makes her decision. She tells Jerry. He tries to show her that she is just infatuated, that she will get over loving Ken, but she refuses to believe him. When it does end, Jerry promises, she will call for him and he'll come, not because he wants to, but because he loves her. Jerry leaves. Ken calls. Lita tells him she is going to Reno.

LITA MEETS A RIVAL

CHAPTER V

LITA walked down Fifth Avenue that January morning. It hardly seemed possible that eight weeks could change life so completely, that the apartment in which she and Jerry had lived and had been so happy could be occupied by someone else, that Jerry could have another dancing partner, that she could have gone to Reno, and was now quite free.

She walked briskly. A cold wind whipped through her fur coat though the sky was clear and the sun made the morning bright. The windows were filled with advance spring clothes and bizarre hats. She looked at her own reflection in the windows as she passed—slim and straight, a jaunty fur hat that matched her coat at just exactly the right angle.

As she walked along she thought of Jerry, the past; then brought herself up with a start. She mustn't look back. She must look forward.

Sally Green was going to Farmington with her and pretend to be her aunt, because Ken had insisted she must have a chaperone. He had come up from Farmington to help select the furniture for the house Lita was going to rent. She was on her way to meet Sally now. They were to see about a new dress for Lita, then go by Ken's hotel. Ken had a business engagement which would keep him busy all morning, and in the afternoon they would begin shopping for furniture.

"I thought I'd come to meet you."

"Oh, Sally," Lita caught the hand of the plump, middle-aged woman who came up to her. "You certainly do look the part of my maiden aunt, with gray hair, dignified glasses, your motherly way. It's a good thing you can play character parts."

"Yes, Lita." She could feel Sally's disapproval. "I'll help you all I can. I guess I'd better begin calling you Ann now, because I might forget."

"You know I don't approve of this wild escapade, of your getting a divorce from Jerry, or your going down to this crazy little town and pretending that you are an entirely different sort of person from what you really are."

going down to this crazy little town and pretending that you are an entirely different sort of person from what you really are."

"Now, Sally, please! Please! You've gone over all that a dozen times already. I know you don't approve of me, but you love me, and that's enough. Ken has everything planned perfectly. It can't possibly go wrong. It's a new adventure. And you'll adore Ken."

"I've heard that before, too, darling. I won't adore Ken. I don't even like him. He's a ladies' man with a flattering line and he falls for every new face. I know his type exactly. They're always rich, too rich for their own good, and they always paint the right pictures."

"But he's taking another man's wife. He's a thief. I have no use for him. But I'll put up with him, because you're in love with him."

"That's fine," Lita squeezed her arm. "And now back to Jerry. Have you seen him since I've been gone? Have you talked to him? How is he doing?"

"He's getting along," said Sally as they walked along. "He has been giving Ruth Eustace a terrific rush. I wouldn't be surprised if he married her."

"The words left Lita cold. When she had thought about Jerry's remarriage herself, that had been one thing; but for other people to think about it was something else. She didn't like the idea. It couldn't be that she was jealous.

"Yes. She has everything, beauty, wealth, social position. Any man would be crazy who didn't marry her if he could," continued Sally. "And everybody knows she is crazy about Jerry."

"I guess you're right," Lita felt suddenly tired. "But he can't do anything for six months. He insisted I agree the divorce would not be final for six months before I could get my divorce."

"Maybe he thought you'd change your mind."

"No," Lita shook her head. "I think he thought it would irritate Ken, knowing that he couldn't marry me, even if he wanted to. Jerry acted as if he hated Ken, but I can't imagine Jerry really hating anyone."

"I'm afraid you don't know Jerry," Sally halted abruptly. "There he is in his new car. Isn't it a beauty? Ruth Eustace is with him."

Lita looked out in the traffic. Jerry and Ruth. Just what she had planned. Now that she saw it, it made her perfectly furious.

She didn't count any more. She was out of Jerry's life. And he had turned right away to another woman. He hadn't meant what he had said about caring.

He wasn't hurt, even if he had pretended to be. Hurt! Loved her! Jerry hadn't known anything about love, really, not a love like hers and Ken's.

"Let's get a taxi and go on over to Ken's hotel," Lita suggested abruptly. "I don't feel like looking for new clothes."

THEY hailed a taxi. All at once she had to see Ken. It was reassured that she was doing the right thing. Last night she had been certain, with his kiss against her lips, but now she wasn't. She wanted him to tell her again that this was the only thing to do. She had to see him.

The taxi stopped. As she started to pay the driver, she saw a couple coming toward the hotel entrance. It was Ken and one of the most striking girls she had ever seen. A slim, straight, dark woman who walked with the haughty assurance of a queen. Her suit was black, with a fur thrown about her shoulders. An arrogant black hat with a bright red feather was perched on her head. Both the strange girl and Ken were laughing, entirely oblivious of the passing crowd. Lita was sure Ken had not noticed her, waiting under the hotel canopy.

They stopped by a gray coupe parked at the curb. Ken opened the door for the girl. They talked a moment. Ken smiled. The girl had started the engine. Suddenly Ken pulled the door open and, leaning in, kissed the girl, then slammed the door and stood on the walk, smiling, as the car eased into the traffic.

Lita paid the taxi man and turned toward the hotel. "What's the matter, darling?" Sally was looking at her curiously. "You look as if you've seen a ghost."

"Nothing," she tried to laugh, "except that the man who just kissed the girl in that car goodby was Ken."

"Ken?" She moved toward him. "Oh, Lita—Ann." He said the two words at once as he hurried toward her. "I hope I haven't kept you waiting."

"No, we only came a moment ago. And I'm dreadfully curious. I suppose the young lady was the 'business engagement' you had this morning." Her voice was cool. "Who was she?"

"Haven't I told you about her, Honey? That was Janet Carstairs, a girl I used to be engaged to."

Named in the indictments, were: Wilson & Co., Inc.; Armour & Co.; Swift & Co.; The American Meat Institute.

Roosevelt Approves Deficiency Measure

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP.)—President Roosevelt signed a $1,041,444,829 deficiency appropriation bill Thursday but reluctantly because it carried a provision forbidding extension of the civil service to the Farm Security Administration.

"It is my earnest hope," Mr. Roosevelt said in a statement, "that congress will take prompt action to repeal this rider so as to make it possible to extend civil service after appropriate examinations to employees of the Farm Security Administration at the earliest possible opportunity."

HARPSWELL, Me., (AP.)—Casco Bay Thursday gave up the 12th body from the cabin cruiser Don disaster, in which 35 excursionists apparently died.

Hope that at least one of the party might have survived faded when State Police Lieutenant John E. Marks branded as a hoax a note found in a preserve jar.

Behind The Headlines

By DeWitt MacKenzie.

Stalin's call upon his people for the extreme measure of a "scorched earth" campaign to stem the Nazi advance, which is sweeping onto the Soviet, gives a clear picture of the gravity of that vast country's position.

It means, of course, that Russia is in danger of being smashed by Hitler.

Still, I believe it would be wrong to call this amazingly frank declaration of the Bolshevik leader an act of desperation, because this would denote despair. Certainly it is a summons for a last ditch stand, but it is a fighting appeal which is calculated to inspire the people to give to the utmost in defense of their land.

As one reads Stalin's speech one inevitably harks back a little more than a year to the historic summons of Britain to the battlements by Premier Churchill. There was warning but no despair, in his "I have nothing to offer but blood, toil, tears and sweat."

Policy May Save Russia.

Hitler's legions are sweeping into Russia at most points along the 2,000-mile front. The Swastika may fly above the Kremlin in Moscow soon and Nazi hob-nailed boots may swarm across the fertile fields of the Ukraine.

In view of the "immensity of the danger that threatens our country," as Stalin bluntly put it, his "scorched earth" policy may well be the strategy most likely to save Russia in the long run. This means burning all crops which might fall into Nazi hands, and destruction of all supplies of every description that might help Hitler.

Along with this the people are admonished to carry on guerrilla warfare and sabotage, to help the Red Army defeat the invaders.

Many To Attend Events In Texas

Midland planned no special observance of the Fourth of July but its citizens will celebrate Independence Day in various sectors of the state and at home.

The post office, governmental agencies, banks, courthouse offices, retail stores and oil company offices will be closed.

The Woods W. Lynch Post No. 19 of the American Legion urged citizens and business firms to display flags Friday. I. J. Prager announced the legion could supply flags for firms wishing to purchase them.

Many citizens will go to rodeos and other celebrations, such as at Pecos, Canadian, Big Spring and Stamford.

Merchants Players Win 12-11 Thriller

Fort Worth Cats Come To Life To Win Double Bill

By The Associated Press.

The Fort Worth Cats have come to life and are gaining covetously at the Texas League season spot currently occupied by Shreveport. (First place is out of the question—that's virtually sewed up by Houston.)

The Cats, who have been annexing quite a few victories these hot days are only three games behind third-place Tulsa and by no means too far back of Shreveport to be a threat.

Showing the hustled that has distinguished them lately, the Cats scored a double win over the Indians at Oklahoma City last night, taking the first game 6-4 and the second 1-0.

The Oilers at Tulsa ended a five-game losing streak by defeating the Dallas Rebels 7-2; the Buffaloes went down before San Antonio 5-4 at Houston, and the Sports sloughed off a game by the score of 3 to 1 to the Exporters at Beaumont.

The Rebels were unable to do much with Henry Wyse's offerings. Wyse allowed seven hits to 12 for Garth Mann, crack Rebel hurler, who was driven to the showers in the seventh when the Oilers scored four runs.

Freddy Martin, who pitched for Houston, gave up only five hits.

Bob Uhle of the Exporters let Shreveport down with four hits and was never in trouble.

Southern Ice Club Leads Until 6-Run Barrage In Ninth

Merchants Girls of Odessa edged out Southern Ice 12-11 Wednesday night in the city league after the Iceers had given them the scare of their softball lives.

Playing in the best form they have displayed this season, the Iceers had the Merchants on the hip until the last inning. It was 11-6 Southern Ice when the Odessans came to bat in the first of the seventh. They staged a rally that won the ball game with hits by James, Gray, Hubbard, Olivares, Starnes, and Stevenson.

Southern Ice was one run down in the last of the seventh but failed to show. White grounded out, Bartlett struck out and Ware's line drive was stabbed, retiring the side.

The Iceers played well. They got a run in the first and added three in each of the 4th and 5th frames and four in the sixth.

The wild and woolly meles kept players in a frenzy and spectators were not aware of the score until scorekeepers added the count.

The lineups with runs scored:

SOUTHERN ICE: Morren, c, 1; Johnson, p, 2; Nalley, lb, 1; White, 2b, 0; Bartlett, 3b, 0; Ware, cf, 2; Smith, ss, 1; G. Martin, cf, 2; J. Martin, lf, 2; Whately, rf, 1.

MERCHANTS GIRLS: Gray, 3b, 3; Hubbard, 2b, 2; Rogers, lb, 0; Kiker, p, 1; Olivares, cf, 2; Taylor, c, 2; Starnes, rf, 1; Stevenson, ss, 0; J. Wheat, lf, 0; James, cf, 1.

Zivic Hammers Davis All Over Ring To Triumph

NEW YORK (AP) — Fritzie Zivic was strictly on a higher plane than a fighter last night and gave Al (Bummy) Davis an artistic lacing in stopping the "lovely little character" from Brooklyn in ten rounds of a 12-round bout at the Polo Grounds. Zivic lifted 149 1/4, Davis 148.

The world welterweight champion making a previous triumph "stick", did everything but paint a picture all over Bummy's hide as he won one of the easiest victories of his career.

He floored Davis for a seven-count just before the end of the first round and from there on never got his hair mussed until Referee Arthur Donovan stopped the proceedings at 1:12 of the tenth round when Bummy hollered "uncle" after receiving a particularly solid shot flush in the "tummy."

Only a slim crowd was on hand, but those who were there were treated to an artist at work. Zivic had Davis bleeding from the nose as early as the third round, gashed Bummy on lower lip in the eighth, staggered him half a dozen times during the bout, and generally had just an easy workout.

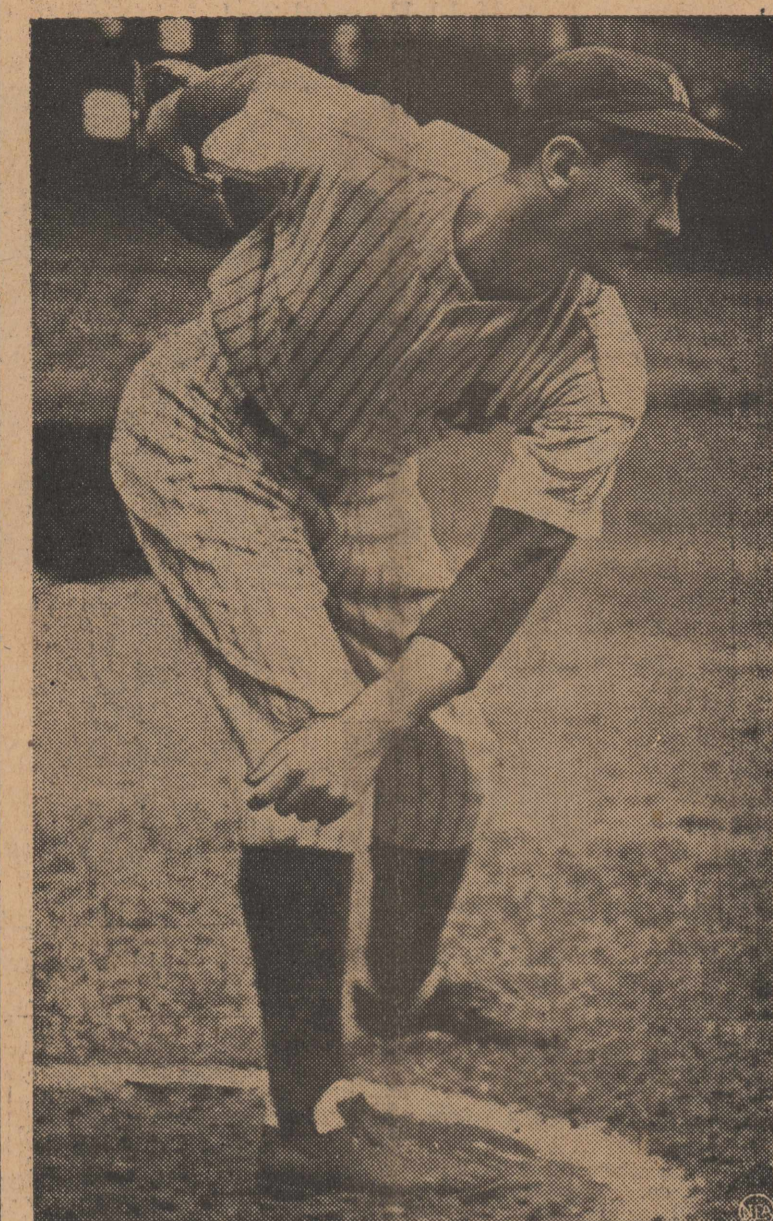

Barney Ross was last.

The ringside regular tried to remember any boxer who had absorbed a worse licking in a local ring just before Bummy finally sagged against the ropes in the 10th round and signified he had taken enough.

It was agreed that the last one to receive such a terrible beating here was Barney Ross on the night he gave up the welterweight title to Henry Armstrong almost four years ago. Barney took it almost as well as he did, the difference being that Davis did not feel honor bound to stick it out for the distance like Ross.

Zivic did an artistic job on the soldier boy, taking full revenge for the four shots Davis poured into his trunks at their first meeting last November.

Texas Big Football System In 1941 Will Be Nation's Largest

By Harold V. Ratliff
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas' far-flung schoolboy football campaign will include 858 schools next fall—the largest field in history and the largest number for any state in the nation. . . . Texas is the leading state in number of six-man teams, the total having almost quadrupled in the four years this sport has been conducted.

For the first time the annual high school football coaching school, scheduled next month at Houston, will provide an instructor for six-man football. Kurt Lenser, Crane, considered one of the nation's outstanding authorities on this sport, has been selected.

Dempsey Observes Two Anniversaries

NEW YORK (UP).—This is a fortnight of anniversaries for Jack Dempsey—his 46th birthday was June 24, and 22 years ago, on July 4, 1919, he rose to the heavyweight championship by defeating Jess Willard at Toledo, O.

The Old Manassas mauler is still a fine figure of a man although time has thickened his middle, and touched a few of his black curly hairs with gray. He trains when business permits and friends remark that even in these playful bouts his face fixes in the black scowl that was characteristic in the days when his fists ruled the boxing rule.

Two Players Vie For Righthfielder

DALLAS (AP) — A good many present outfielders have played a lot of games in right for the four Northern clubs this year but only a pair have flashed enough all-around form to justify selection in the Texas League's sixth annual all-star game at Beaumont July 16.

Heinz Becker of Dallas and Ed Zydowsky of Tulsa are the only two who have hit consistently. The former with .319 is the only right fielder above .300. Zydowsky has good but not spectacular .285 average.

The other six players range from a top of .240 to a low of .172. Also only Art Rebel of Fort Worth can be regarded with Becker and Zydowsky as a season regular on the job.

Western Golf Champ Seeks To Break Jinx Applying To Winners

COLORADO SPRINGS (AP)—A young, powerful-wristed northwesterner armed himself with a long-hitting driver and an accurate putter Thursday to trail a jinx that has dogged Western Amateur golf tournament champions 17 years.

Blue-eyed Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane, Wash., who won this title last year in his first crack at the 42-year-old tournament, scoffed at superstition and said "it doesn't matter whether you're champion or not; it's whether you're hitting that ball that counts."

Ward and stoical Harry Todd of Dallas, medalist with a one-over-par 141 for two days of qualifying over Broadmoor's Mountain Meadows, are the big favorites and are in opposite brackets. Ward was National Amateur Champion two years ago.

The defending titleholder drew a strong foe, Rodney Bliss of Omaha, for his first round 18-hole match Thursday. Todd, Western Champion in 1939 and low amateur at this year's National Open, was up against Lyman Wright, former Montana rodeo rider from Colorado Springs.

Heavyweight Champ's Wife Wants Divorce

CHICAGO (AP)—Two weeks after a dinner for which she said "I cooked everything he liked in hopes we'd patch things up," Mrs. Joe Louis has filed suit for divorce from the world's heavyweight boxing champion. She alleged extreme and repeated cruelty.

In the action, filed Wednesday in circuit court, she said the famous Brown Bomber dealt her "a violent blow in the mouth with his hand" Jan. 2, 1941, and "hit her in the face and stepped on her ankle" April 19.

Smyres Pitches Independents To Win Over Texas

Eddie Smyres elbowed a three-hit, 11-2, win for his Independent mates over the Texas Company Wednesday night.

It was the tricky Independent topper's first league game and he had the usually hard hitting Texans at his mercy throughout. Only one hit, that by Jimmy Walker, was made off Smyres until the sixth frame. He allowed only bingles by Walker, Jones and B. Bizzell.

The Texans were blanked until the seventh. The Bizzell boys, Elmo and Bennie, scored runs. The alert Independents nipped a run at the plate in this inning.

Face tossed a steady game for the Yanks until the sixth when the big guns of Independents exploded and a six-run cloud blew up.

It was definitely not a Texas night as the Gassers failed to "talk it up" or play at top speed. On the other hand the Independents smelled a victory and kept the talk going and runs coming in.

DiMaggio Smacks Record-Breaking Hit; Yankees Win

By Judson Bailey
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Poker-faced Joe DiMaggio, the greatest player, excluding pitchers, in the present era of baseball, has reached his goal of a new all-time major league record for hitting in 45 consecutive games, and now can try shooting for another prize—the "triple crown of batting."

This bauble is the championship in percentage hitting, home runs and runs batted in and is one of the most elusive batting honors in the game.

In the last 15 years it has been won only by the immortal Lou Gehrig, who, incidentally, is to be memorialized by the New York Yankees and fans in a ceremony in Yankee Stadium before Friday's double-header. Gehrig captured all three in 1934 when he hit .363, collected 49 home runs and batted in 165 tallies.

Babe Ruth was never able to hit this target. Rogers Hornsby did it twice in the National League in 1922 and 1925.

DiMaggio has a chance. His blow Wednesday to break the 44-year-old mark of Willie Keeler for hitting in the most consecutive games was a sizzling home run, his 18th of the season and preserved his leadership in this department.

Bats In Three Runs.
In batting in three runs to help the Yanks rip open the Boston Red Sox 8-4 he also lifted himself within four "RBIs" of the league leader, teammate Charley Keller.

Joe's batting average of .348 is 53 points behind the 401 pace of Boston's Ted Williams, but their marks have been sliding closer.

Wednesday's victory was New York's sixth straight and 20th in 24 games in a furious surge that has given the Yanks a lead of three full games over the second-place Cleveland Indians, who were idle Wednesday.

In the other American League tussles the Philadelphia Athletics clipped the Washington Senators 7-3 on Bob Johnson's seventeenth home run in the tenth inning and Detroit nosed out the Chicago White Sox 1-0 in a spectacular night game pitching duel between Bobo Newsom and Bill Dietrich.

In the National League the Brooklyn Dodgers punished the Phils for Tuesday's setback by taking a 5-3 decision and chopping the lead of the idle St. Louis Cardinals to half a game. Dixie Walker led a 12-hit attack with two triples and a single, batting in five runs.

Pittsburgh beat the Cincinnati Reds 8-3 for Paul Derringer's tenth loss of the season.

The Boston Braves and New York Giants divided a double-header, Boston winning the first game 5-4 and New York the nightcap 6-0.

Cancel Thursday Night's Contests
City softball league games scheduled for Thursday night were cancelled and no games will be played Monday night.

Thursday tilts were called off because of many players leaving the city for Fourth of July week-ends. Monday night the softballers will give way to hard baseball. The Midland semi-pros are playing the Boston Hoboes at the baseball park. The schedule in softball was revamped this week and one night's games were postponed because of wet grounds.
