Barnsdall Sells 102 Wells At Five Millions

Transaction With Stanolind Moves Big Lease Tract

Snow Reports Transfer Involving Properties In West Texas Counties

TULSA (AP)—D. R. Snow, vice president of Barnsdall Oil Co., said Monday the company has sold, subject to further examinations of titles, 102 producing oil wells in West Texas to the Stanolind Oil & Gas Co., for $5,000,000.

The deal is one of the biggest outright sales of oil properties ever made in West Texas.

The sale includes 3,000 acres of leases on which the wells average 2,500 barrels with a net working interest of about 220 barrels daily.

The deal involves all of Barnsdall's producing properties in Ector, Andrews, Ward and Winkler counties of West Texas. It does not include any Barnsdall properties in New Mexico.

Through the deal, Stanolind obtained production of crude for which it has a ready market, while Barnsdall received an average of about $2,000 per barrel for its production in the area.

Snow said the sale would be effective as of July 1, subject to approval of titles, but that actual turning over of the properties to Stanolind was not expected before Aug. 1.

Stanolind May Buy More

Purchase of the Barnsdall properties is the costliest of several big deals made by Stanolind since the first of the year. Reliable reports indicate the firm's buying program is not yet ended.

The company is reported now to be negotiating for purchase of two groups of producing leases in the northern part of the West Texas

Officers Hold Two Men For Murder Of Two Young Girls

SALM, Mass. (AP)—A fifteen-year-old schoolboy pleaded innocent Monday on a charge of murder in the mutilation killing of Constance Shipp, 15, Reading, while police questioned a suspect in a second attack slaying, that of pretty 19-year-old Frances M. Cochran, whose body was found in a thicket off a lonely "lovers' lane."

In Woburn district court, Raymond F. Woodward Jr., Reading, burst into tears when he was held without bail for hearing July 31 in the Shipp case.

Even as the Woodward boy was being brought to court, police methodically searched Salem woodland in the Cochran case found a young man asleep in a parked car, near where the body was found, and took him into custody.

Police found the Shipp girl's body in the parsonage of the Reading Baptist Church, during the absence of the pastor and his family on vacation.

An anonymous telephoned tip led police to search the woods off a "lovers' lane" near the Salem-Swampscott line Sunday, where they found the ravished body of the Cochran girl.

Gulf 8-N State Flows 11,745 Barrels Daily

By Frank Gardner, Oil Editor. Natural potential flow of 11,744.96 barrels per day established Gulf Oil Corporation No. 8-N State as the record well of the Jordan pool in Crane and Ector counties. Its initial production exceeds by 169 barrels that of the previous largest Jordan well, The Texas Company No. 1-D State.

Gulf No. 8-N State, on the Crane side of the pool, topped pay at 3,522 feet and is bottomed at 3,900. Oil is 31.8-gravity and gas-oil ratio 378-1. It is located 330 feet from the south and 992 from the east line of section 9, block 35, University survey.

Seeking Ordovician production in Western Crane's Sand Hills pool, Gulf No. 25 W. N. Waddell et al is drilling at 5,214 feet in lime; its No. 1-B J. B. Tubb et al is drilling anhydrite past 825, and No. 5-A Tubb has reached 1,230 feet in anhydrite and salt.

Northern Basin

L. C. Harrison No. 1 Nairn estate, Lubbock County wildcat, is drilling below 4,250 feet in lime after recovering 150 feet of salty drilling fluid on 36-minute drillstem test from 4,159 to 4,229 feet.

Fluid was believed to have become contaminated while the salt section was being drilled. Three cores were pulled from 4,185 to 4,229 feet, with only negligible staining present.

Ross Sport and Uscan Oil Company No. 1 J. E. Rice, wildcat in Northern Lynn County, is drilling past 3,900 feet in lime.

In East Central Terry County, Anderson-Prichard and Osege No. 1 Frances Brownfield Christmann is drilling below 5,073 feet in lime.

J. W. Murchison No. 1 M. B. Sawyer, deep test in the northern part of the Wasson field in Yoakum County, is drilling in lime below 5,676 feet.

Ordovician Tests

Redmond, Greene et al No. 1 Tows Realty Trust, Northern Pecos County Ordovician test, is drilling below 5,940 feet in lime and shale. Core from 5,897-97 returned seven feet of green shale. The well is still in the Simpson, middle Ordovician, which topped at 5,370 feet.

Anderson-Prichard No. 1 Boren, Ordovician test southwest of the Apo-Warner pool in Northern Pecos, is drilling lime at 4,300 feet.

Gulf and L. H. Wentz No. 1 Miller et al, scheduled 6,000-foot test six and one-half miles south of Ghrin in Northeastern Pecos, is rigging up today.

In Southeastern Reagan County, Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1-RA University has passed 8,900 feet in black shale.

Slated to test the Ordovician in Eastern Upton County, Plymouth Oil Company No. 1 D. L. Alford et al is drilling at 5,897 feet in black shale and lime shells.

Legion Members To Name Officers

The annual election of officers will be held at a meeting of the Woods W. Lynch Post No. 19 of the American Legion at 8 p.m. Monday night in the assembly room of the courthouse.

A program for the year will be discussed. An executive committee to serve as a board of directors will be selected. A finance committee also will be chosen.

The post plans to establish a fund to build a legion home.

Texas Cities Start Aluminum Campaign For U. S. Airplanes

AUSTIN (AP)—Aluminum pots, pans and percolators—potential metal for American war planes—clanked into bins everywhere in Texas Monday.

The Lone Star state joined other commonwealths in a nationwide campaign to collect 15,000,000 pounds of spare metal.

Texas had a reminder from Governor W. Lee O'Daniel that each family should contribute from five-eighths of a pound to three-fourths of a pound if the goal was to be reached.

"Every 5,000 dishpans, 10,000 coffee pots, 2,000 roasters or 2,000 double boilers will permit the building of one fighter plane," he declared in a broadcast Sunday.

County judges, mayors, civic club leaders and just plain citizens joined forces in 254 counties for the campaign.

Complete instructions for disposition of the aluminum will be dispatched to local leaders soon, the governor's office announced.

Receives Lumber For Air School Building

Lumber was delivered Monday at the military reservation for construction of temporary office buildings at the site of the $5,000,000 Twin-Engine and Bombardier Training Center and a number of workmen went to the job.

The first building will be for the U. S. Army Engineering Corps staff which is supervising the construction program. The next building will be occupied by the staff of the general contractor, Case Brothers and F. M. Reeves and Sons, Inc.

Both the Army and the contractor will move their offices to the military reservation as soon as the buildings are completed and equipped. Arrangements are being made for office furniture and supplies and they are expected to be on hand when the buildings are ready.

Equipment Arrives

Meanwhile, arrangements for construction of the railway spur went forward and heavy equipment to do the job was moved to Midland. Several truck loads of heavy equipment have arrived and others will be here in a few days.

The Texas State Employment Service will open an office at the Midland Baseball Park Tuesday to register unskilled labor for the construction work. The contractor plans to recruit skilled labor for the work.

Executives of the firm urged workers not to come to Midland until they are ordered to report for work. They said the skilled men for the construction had been selected and would be notified when to report for duty here.

Construction of power and telephone lines to the building site continued over the weekend.

Britain States RAF Will Attack Enemy With Biggest Blows

LONDON (AP)—The RAF will launch the heaviest air raids in history against Germany in the next three months, authoritative sources here said Monday as a stream of British bombers kept up the non-stop air offensive against the enemy.

British raiders which swept across the channel in daylight Monday with a strong fighter escort were reported to have smashed at industrial Lille in Northern France after night squadrons had bombed the Rhineland and Rotterdam.

As the nights lengthen, attacks on a scale "which will make Coventry look like a pinprick" will be aimed at German industry from the Ruhr to Prague, this source declared.

United States-built heavy bombers were expected to be the spearhead of these attacks which, it was said, will surpass in fury the period from June 16 to July 10 in which the British have said 7,000,000 pounds of bombs were poured on Cologne, Bremen and the Ruhr.

Six German planes were reported destroyed and three RAF fighters were listed as missing in today's air assault.

Allowables Are Up 983

Commission Announces Oil Order Of 1,355,000 Barrels

AUSTIN (AP)—A statewide oil production order for August with a net daily allowable of 1,355,600 barrels, up 983 barrels from the authorized allowable reported July 19, was announced by the Railroad Commission Monday.

Commissioners Jerry Sadler and Olin Culberson said the August daily permissible would be 6,000 barrels under the Bureau of Mines recommendation.

Allowable schedules by fields and districts were under preparation, the officials declared.

The new production plan will include five shut-in days for the Panhandle and 10 for the rest of the state, including the vast East Texas pool.

Four Panhandle holidays and 11 general closing days are effective this month.

Sadler said all Panhandle wells had been placed on a 20-barrel allowable but the commission planned a hearing early next month for the purpose of determining an allowable as between wells. Some Panhandle wells are not capable of making 20 barrels daily and on the basis of testimony taken at the hearing relief will be granted to wells that can make more than marginal amount of crude, Sadler added.

A date for the hearing has not been set. Neither had the dates for Panhandle and general non-producing days been determined.

Behind The Headlines

By DeWitt MacKenzie. The Germans declare that their primary objective in the Russian war is the destruction of the Red Army rather than the capture of famous cities—a statement which may serve as a measure of excuse for the way the Muscovites have been holding the invaders off, but undoubtedly sums the position accurately.

We may take this Berlin assertion as a fact because it is so clearly logical that it brooks no dispute. Unless Hitler is able to shatter the entire Soviet fighting machine—thereby enforcing a quick cessation of its resistance—his capture of Moscow or Leningrad or Kiev will represent not victory but defeat.

This is true because, as I have pointed out before, a quick and decisive victory is essential for Hitler's purpose. A major war of long duration with Russia must break the Reich in the end.

It therefore is with a quickening of the pulse that we see this titanic struggle entering its fifth week without a decisive victory having been recorded. The Nazi claim to be advancing all along the line; the Russians say they are holding the enemy—a contradiction which means that the great front is heaving with the fierceness of the battle but that so far as has been disclosed no mortal blow has been struck by either army.

Schermerhorn Oil Well Fire Starts Up Again

Leak in the master-valve caused fire to break out again Saturday night at Schermerhorn Oil Corporation No. 14-B J. L. Johnson, oil well northwest of Odessa in Ector County, after the main blaze had been quenched a few hours.

H. L. (Pat) Patton, veteran Houston oil well fire-fighting specialist, reopened the master-valve to release pressure. He removed the damaged oil-saver at the top of the casing and saved off casing above the master-valve.

All debris was cleared away Sunday. Patton and his crew stabbed a 25,000-pound tapered manifold in the hole at 12:30 p.m. Monday, smothering the fire.

Monday afternoon Patton and his assistants were pumping water out of the cellar of the well preparatory to repairing master-valve.

The No. 14-B Johnson is in the Foster pool and first caught fire Thursday while the crew was cleaning out hole after a nitro shot. Built-up pressure blew tools out of the hole and resultant sparks ignited the large flow of oil and gas.

The Urge To Federate

Federation is in the air these days. The world is gradually realizing that a Europe cut into little chip-on-the-shoulder political subdivisions, a Balkanized Europe in short, was not good for Europe and not good for the world.

The number of such countries was increased by the World War. For instance, the old Austro-Hungarian Empire, political monstrosity though it was, had a certain amount of justification as an economic free trade area. Splitting it into tiny divisions made each of those divisions an economic torso unable to survive.

Hitler had something in his plan for economic unification of Europe. What Europe and the world cannot permit is that this unification be achieved by force and solely for the benefit and aggrandizement of the German Reich. It must be done voluntarily and without sacrificing local free self-government. Hitler is utterly incapable of accomplishing it on any such decent basis.

The world has got to stop believing that political freedom and local self-government necessarily mean economic isolationism. The day is past when the two must necessarily go together. It is possible—it must be possible in future—for countries to maintain complete internal political independence, and yet give up some previously sacred rights to set up the kind of trade barriers that insure strangulation.

The United States is taking the lead in some such plan for the small islands of the Caribbean. Most of these islands, chronically poor, depend for such wealth as they have on exports of agricultural products. The war has cut them off from Europe's markets. They are in a desperate plight. Plans are in the making for setting up a customs union between all these islands, the United States, and Britain.

Meanwhile, more and more weight is being placed behind the proposal to lower and gradually eliminate tariff barriers between the United States and Canada, looking toward some day perhaps enlarging the already vast free trade area of the United States. Canada's currency is already closely aligned to that of the United States. Why not a common currency, suggest some. It would not necessarily involve political union.

The World War resulted in breaking up Europe into small, sullen, antagonistic national fragments which succeeded in damming up and ruining the free flow of trade that might have meant prosperity for all.

This war must result in the breaking down of economic barriers by realization that political independence maintained at the expense of economic suicide is a deadly delusion.

Welles Declares Nazis Plan Blow Against Nations

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state, said Monday that the United States had information that Germany was planning new steps of aggression against remaining independent countries in Europe.

He made the statement at a press conference but did not go into details. His comment aroused speculation, however, on the possibility that he meant that Spain and Portugal might be due for attacks. At the same time Welles disclosed that the United States had promised full support to Bolivia in an event that an international incident arose from an alleged attempted Nazi coup in that country and from the ordered expulsion on the German minister there.

Only recently the Stanolind paid Bond Oil Corporation, Dallas, and Awoeb Oil Company, Lubbock, $1,086,000 for 18 producing wells on 700 acres in the Southwestern Hockley County portion of the Slaughter pool, second largest oil field in Texas. Stanolind previously had purchased the discovery well of the Abell Ordovician pool in Northern Pecos County and 3,000 acres in the area for more than $1,000,000, plus large oil payments. It bought one-half interest in the M. J. ## Dallas Horsemen's Show Goes Western; Sheiland Is Laugh

DALLAS (AP)—Horses ranging from a pup-sized Shetland to a grand champion Palomino kicked up a red cloud of dust Monday to help make the Dallas Horsemen's club's third annual Amateur Horse Show authentically western style, matching the garb of most of the riders. The biggest laugh was provided by a tiny Shetland pony, Hot Biscuit, ridden by L. D. Sawyer, Jr., of Fort Worth. The boy and the little Diamond L ranch pony were entered in the class for best child riders up to 12 years old. As he pranced around the arena, his stubby legs kicking up a cloud of dust that almost hid his rider. He's so little he ought to carry his foreleg like a dog," one wag sneered.

The crowd applauded Judge P. R. Marsteller of Texas A. and M. College when he selected J. D. Slaughter's Gold Standard first prize winner in the Palomino yearling class. Mrs. Merrell Brock's Silver Moon placed second, and Moon Beam, a full sister of the second place horse also entered by Mrs. Brock took the third place ribbon.

Miss Joan McEwen riding Mary Bonnetie won the five-gaited saddle horse class, with J. E. Casey's proud looking Angelus Rex, ridden by Mrs. Casey, placing second.

American Consular Officials Will Sail Friday On Transport

WASHINGTON (AP)—More than 300 American consular officials and employees and their families—ordered out of Axis-dominated Europe when Axis officials were expelled from the United States—moved Monday toward Lisbon, Portugal, from where they will sail for New York on Friday aboard the Navy transport West Point. The largest unit, totalling 234, comprising those expelled from Germany, Norway, occupied France, The Netherlands, Belgium and Yugoslavia, was reported concentrating at Frankfurt, Germany. This group will cross the French border into Spain at Hendaye and go on to Lisbon by special train. While reports of the concentration at Frankfurt comprised the latest information available here, an embassy in Berlin said Sunday night the group left Frankfurt Sunday by special train bound for Lisbon.

After some delay at San Remo, Italy, a smaller group composed of 76 legation and consular officials from Greece and consular officers from Italy, was reported en route across France, headed for Lisbon via Barcelona and Madrid. Both parties have been expected to enter Portugal at the same time the West Point arrives in Portuguese waters.

Churchill Gives Bracken Unlucky Information Post

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill revised his government Monday for a third time since May 2, dispatching Alfred Duff Cooper to the Far East as a special war coordinator for the cabinet and naming Brendan Bracken Minister of Information in his stead. Bracken, who has been Churchill's parliamentary private secretary, is the fourth man since the start of the war to hold the information portfolio—a post often referred to as "the graveyard of ministerial reputations" because its occupants have been the targets of such sharp criticism.

The exact nature of Cooper's new assignment was not disclosed, but it was understood his duties would be similar to those of Capt. Oliver Lyttleton, government coordinator in the Middle East. Cooper—51-year-old conservative who resigned as Prime Minister Chamberlain's First Lord of the Admiralty because he disapproved of his appeasement policy—was believed headed for Singapore, potential hot-spot if Japan should attempt an off-predicted southward thrust. Other Changes Are Made. Unlike Lyttleton, who is a special minister of state, Duff Cooper will not be a member of the inner war cabinet. He remains a member of the government, however, by virtue of his appointment as chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster in place of Lord Hankey.

Other government changes saw Lord Hankey appointed paymaster general and 38-year-old Richard Austen Butler elevated from parliamentary undersecretary for foreign affairs to president of the board of education.

Butler replaces Herwald Ramsbotham, who was appointed chairman of the unemployment assistance board to succeed Lord Rushcliffe, now retired. Ramsbotham was made a baron.

Commission Will Hear Oil Proposal

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission Monday announced it was prepared to order a special hearing on technical matters involved in a plan to permit Texas oil operators to donate one day's production to Great Britain.

Commissioner Jerry Sadler said a hearing would be granted when sponsors of the plan asked for it. The proposal came from John F. Camp, San Antonio oil man, and last week Federal Petroleum Coordinator Harold Ikes endorsed it. The commission, regulator of oil production in Texas, had announced it would officially consider the plan if the federal government and Great Britain approved it.

Thirty-One Airplanes Land At Airport Here

Thirty-one army and navy planes landed at the Midland Municipal Airport Sunday.

Types of planes were: 10 attack ships (A-20's), six AT-6A's, two observation ships (047-A's), one Lockheed bomber (10-B), two basic trainers (BT-14), and four PT-FL navy ships.

Also included were six bombers for Britain (DB-7B's). They were enroute to Hensley Field, Dallas, from El Paso.

Most of the planes were on eastward flights.

Briton Claims Win In 'Victory' Drive

LONDON (AP)—A British Broadcasting Company executive asserted Monday Britain's V-for victory campaign to raise an underground army against Germany was the "first pitched propaganda battle of the war" and the British apparently "are winning it."

The executive, European news editor N. F. Newsome, said the V drive was one of a series of experiments to test the readiness of peoples of occupied countries to accept leadership from London.

"There will be other things to worry the Germans," he added. Britons claim a "V" army of millions are mobilized throughout German-conquered nations in a whistling, tapping, sign-painting campaign aimed now at Nazi nerves.

Bolivians Seized Include Former Finance Minister

LA PAZ, Bolivia, (AP)—A number of prominent Bolivians, including former Finance Minister Victor Paz Estenssoro, were under arrest Monday in connection with an alleged Nazi plot which police said had been smashed by the timely action of President Enrique Penaranda, advocate of close cooperation with the United States.

Ernest Wendler, German minister, was ordered expelled from the country. President Penaranda said he had documentary proof that the minister had attempted to meddle in Bolivia's domestic affairs.

Essenssoro, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, and cabinet member until June 20 when he resigned in a disagreement over the exchange rate of the peso and dollar, was described by police as head of "The Nationalist Revolutionary Movement." That organization was dissolved automatically with proclamation of a state of siege.

The country still was under a stage of siege, but the capital and provinces were reported quiet. Defense Minister Gen. Miguel Candia arrived at Cochabamba, a farm center where a large German settlement is situated, to lead further investigations there.

Four newspapers, two of which were mentioned in Washington's Axis blacklist, were suspended by the government, and three newspapermen were among those arrested.

Pastor Remonstrates Against Officers And Men Swimming In Nude

Park officials had agreed that since enough swimming suits could not be obtained for so many men the soldier could swim in the raw during early morning hours while military guards diverted traffic from the beach area.

Refrigerator Prices Reduced

The average price of an electric refrigerator 20 years ago was $600.

The average price today is $154—for a lot better product.

One thing that made this price reduction possible was that millions of people bought electric refrigerators. Volume brought prices down.

And one thing that made volume possible was advertising, which taught people to want electric refrigerators.

That's how advertising helps bring prices down.

Seventy-five young people from Big Spring, Center Point, Dora, Stanton, Snyder, Sweetwater and Midland attended the Methodist district rally held at Cloverdale Park over the week-end.

Miss Rita Mae Bigony of Big Spring, district director, presided at the sessions. At the general business meeting Saturday, Miss Lena Catherine Morrison, conference treasurer from Abilene, told the group of the duties of the office. The group also elected district officers for the coming year. These were Miss Genevieve Stovall, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Ruth Gilliam, publicity officer.

Members decided to pay part of the expenses of the conference officers to a young peoples meeting at Mt. Sequoia. It also was decided that they would observe HCM Day, March 9 and Young People's Day, August 14, in addition to the special days they already observe.

The next district rally will be held October 4 and 5 at the Harlan Heights Methodist Church in Sweetwater. The sub-district council will meet in Big Spring August 3. The next sub-district meeting will be at Ackery.

The seventy-five young people attended church Sunday morning.

O'Daniel Promises Cake For Everyone At Molly's Wedding

AUSTIN (AP)—Wedding cake for everybody will be the order at Molly O'Daniel's marriage to Jack Wrathner, Jr. of Tyler at the governor's mansion July 31.

Molly's father, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, Sunday invited everyone, everywhere to attend the wedding and in a radio broadcast from the mansion requested:

"We would like to hear from all of you folks who will come so we can arrange to have enough wedding cake to go around."

The mansion, sheltered in a cluster of big trees on a knoll near the Capitol has been the scene of several big-scale social events since the O'Daniel's have occupied it.

The governor said he regarded the wedding as the climax of two years and seven months of happiness.

He added he would leave soon for Washington to qualify as United States Senator but did not announce a specific date of departure.

We, the Women

By Ruth Millett
It's a crying shame that so many writers of fiction have looked at small town gossip through rosy glasses and painted it as something folksy and harmless and a little bit funny.

It ought never to be shown in any light but the vicious, destructive thing it is.

The gossip of a small town is responsible for as much unhappiness and as much frustration as all the poverty in the community.

And it is probably as much the desire to escape the forever-wagging tongues of the busy-bodies as to find greener pastures that drives a small town's up-and-coming young people to cities to live.

No, most of the gossip in a town where everybody knows everybody is far more harmless, and far from funny.

DOES EVEN GOSSIP HARM

It does something ugly to the person who repeats it. It usually causes humiliation to the person being talked about—perhaps even to a whole family, or to more than one.

It imposes a "keep-your-business-to-yourself" attitude on the majority of folks that makes them less interesting, less real, less entertaining human beings than they would be if they weren't so afraid of what the gossips would do to the most innocent actions and expressions of opinion.

If a community would treat its most vicious gossip as though it were the smallpox, a good deal of the more destructive gossip could be stopped.

But it's so much easier and pleasanter to listen to what the gossip has to say, exclaim over it a bit, and pass it on—though with an indignant, "Isn't it awful of Mrs. Brown to be spreading such a story" apology—than it is to refuse to listen to Mrs. Brown's latest tale.

Bright-Hued Hose

With a two-piece dress of taupe jersey, Fira Benenson, famous New York designer, shows sheer stockings in a much darker shade of taupe than the dress. Bag and shoes are of black alligator, gloves of black suede.

Striding Into Fall Style Picture, Put Spotlight On Legs And Posture

By Alicia Hart
NEA Service Staff Writer

Fashion's newest brain child—colored stockings and sheer, sheer black ones—focuses attention on the legs. This is the time to decide to concentrate on learning to walk gracefully, to stand well, to have good seated posture.

Stockings in wonderful shades of wine, dark subtle greens, as well as vivid, Kelly green tones, electric blue, navy, smoky gray-blue, cyclamen (yes, cyclamen!), platinum, rich copper and, of course, sheer black put the accent on the legs. It will be a fall to use a depilatory or razor on your legs at least once a week and to make the most of the new lines of "keyed-to-the-costume" stockings.

DESIGNS KEY CLOTHES TO STOCKING SHADES

Fashion designers are entirely open-minded about the new idea. Famous Jo Copeland introduces nutria stockings to match three nutria buttons on a short taupe jacket of soft wool. And she shows wine stockings with a wine suit of rough wool. Nettie Rosenstein, another famous American designer, puts ruby red stockings on a model who wears a double-breasted fall suit of ruby red wool. Also in this collection, olive green stockings are worn with a blue, green and fuchsia silk dinner costume.

Charles Cooper, a designer who is a veritable genius with color, likes electric blue hose with a suit which includes a black jacket and a gently gored skirt in Tang blue, a new shade. Also in the Cooper collection for fall, sheerest black stockings are shown with a black wool dress with black satin yoke; Tenegra brown ones with a dinner dress in Tenegra brown with sash of red and green. Valentina, whose designs always are headline-making is showing gray stockings with every costume in her current collection. But every known shade of gray is included.

And Fira Benenson, whose creations are loved by women of South America as well as the United States, uses accessory-color stockings either to match or as a contrast to the costume—always keyed to the accessories. With a taupe jersey two-piece suit, Miss Benenson combines a taupe taffeta plaid hat and scarf, black alligator bag and shoes, black suede gloves and sheer taupe stockings in a much darker tone than the dress.

SEEKS TO STREAMLINE LEGS

While the idea of colored stockings with street, dinner and evening clothes is catching on in the designers' workrooms, the figure experts are busy thinking up new ways to reduce thick ankles, superfluous weight on calves. This is the time to revive interest in the leg and ankle exercises you haven't thought much about lately.

And, as we said, it certainly is a time to learn to stand, walk and sit properly. The smart woman—her legs encased in stockings keyed to her costume—will remember to stand with weight on both feet and with feet close together. She will take medium length steps—not long, mannish strides or, worst yet, little mincing, teetering steps. She never will sit with feet crossed at the ankles. She never will sit with knees apart. And she will cross her legs above the knees. She knows that it is awkward and aging to cross legs below the knee instead of above it.

MIND Your MANNERS

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then checking against the authoritative answers below:

- Should a house guest turn a radio on after the host and hostesses have gone to bed?
- Should a woman guest wash out several pairs of hose and leave them hanging in the bathroom that members of the family have to use?
- If a house guest awakens before the host and hostess should he be careful not to make noise and disturb them?
- Is it better for a house guest to bring his hostess a gift or send her something after he has returned home?
- If a house guest wants to take books or magazines from the living room to his bedroom should he ask his hostess if it is all right?

What would you do if—
You invite guests for a weekend and before it arrives a member of your family becomes seriously ill—
(a) Write or telephone the invited guests, explain the situation and say that you will ask them for another weekend as soon as the ill member of the family is well?
(b) Peel that since you have invited the guests you must have them?

ANSWERS
1. Not unless he is sure that they cannot hear it.
2. No. She should take them to her own room.
3. Yes.
4. Either one is correct.
5. Yes.
Best "What Would You Do" solution—(a).

some sort of record. East did not guess the killing lead of a diamond, but opened his partner's suit. Katz, sitting North, ruffed and then cashed the king and ace of clubs. The king of spades was laid down. East did not cover, and the king held, dummy discarding a diamond.

When the queen of spades was led, East covered, and dummy trumped. Another trump led put North in again to cash the rest of the spades, on which dummy shed all the diamonds, so that South in the end ruffed out North's deuce of diamonds.

One often sees two or three losers discarded, preparatory to ruffing losers in the same suit held by the partner's hand. But have you ever before seen seven losers discarded from dummy, so that dummy can ruff just one loser in declarer's hand? I never have, and I think that this situation is just as rare as a hand of thirteen spades.

German Aircraft Sinks Three British Vessels

BERLIN (AP)—Germans reported Monday their aircraft sank two freighters totaling 11,000 tons and a speedboat in English waters overnight, and acknowledged a few civilian casualties in a renewal of RAF bombing of western German cities. A dozen British raiders were declared downed.

A number of tenements were reported damaged by the incendiaries and high-explosive bombs dropped by British planes.

"During attempts by British airplanes to attack the channel coast yesterday and this morning," the high command communique said, "pursuit planes and anti-aircraft shot down eight enemy planes and patrol boats and blockade breakers of four enemy planes."

DEFENSE BOND QUIZ

Q. I cannot find the word "Defense" anywhere on the Defense Savings Stamps I have bought. Are they merely Postal Savings Stamps, or does my money invested in these Stamps go into the Defense Program?

A. The money you use to purchase these Stamps goes definitely into the Defense Program. The Stamps bear the words "America on Guard," which indicates that they are an integral part of the Defense Program.

Q. Are Defense Savings Stamps registered and are they transferable?

A. Defense Savings Stamps are not registered, but they are transferable.

Note.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office or bank.

Cabin Planes Carry 2 Persons To Death

CLAREMORE, Okla. (AP)—Two small cabin planes collided over Lake Claremore Sunday and plummeted 1,200 feet into deep water, carrying a civilian pilot and a joy-riding passenger to their deaths.

The dead were Ernest Johnson, 19-year-old Miami pilot, and Raymond Nustede, 18, Bixby, the passenger. Their bodies were recovered from the lake three hours after the crash.

Ray Mutzig, 27, Tahlequah, pilot of the ship in which Nustede was riding, was thrown out of it by the force of the collision but managed to open his parachute and floated to safety.

Urges Property Of Axis Seized

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexican labor leader Vincent Lombardo Tolezano proposed Monday confiscation of all German and Italian property and credits in the Americas as one step in a program he submitted to halt an alleged trend toward economic domination of Latin America by North American capitalism.

In an extensive study distributed to all affiliates of the confederation of Latin American workers, of which he is president, he recommended also, to establish Latin America's economic independence.

MURDER IN CONVOY

BY A. W. O'BRIEN

YESTERDAY: For a long time, the men stand at their lifeboat posts before the order to return to quarters is issued. Rollins reviews in his mind events and clues relating to the murder of Captain Tees, and always Joan Davaar seems to enter the picture. He determines to see Miley again, starts out from his cabin at night to find the lieutenant. On the way he sees a figure behind a passageway curtain and dives for it. After a brief tussle, he jerks to his feet, finds he has been wrestling with Miley.

GREG'S PLAN

CHAPTER VIII

"WHAT'S the idea, Harry, playing hide-and-seek?" puffed Rollins.

Lieutenant Harry Miley rose slowly, ruefully shaking an arm. "Well, there's no doubt about what you're playing—and you play rough!"

A sudden silence fell upon them.

"Why were you hiding behind the curtain?" snapped Rollins. "I might ask why you are prowling around this side of the ship at this hour?"

"That's easy, I was coming over to have a chat with you."

Miley laughed outright. "Okay, Gregory, that settles it. I'll confess that I was attempting to play sleuth and hide myself here in the hope of spotting anything unusual."

Rollins asked another question. "But why choose this deck in particular?" His voice slowed to a deliberate tempo. "You weren't watching for me by any chance, were you?"

Miley didn't answer. Instead, he beckoned towards the cross-passage. "Let's go along to your cabin and have that chat you wanted."

In the cabin, Rollins faced Miley squarely. "How about answering the question?"

"I will if"—Miley put emphasis on the words—"if you tell me about last night. Just exactly what you were doing just before the lifeboat alarm sounded?"

Rollins felt ice water running down his spine, but he gambled: "I had been unable to sleep and was lying in my bunk reading. Suddenly I heard a rife shot from somewhere above, followed by a second. I threw on some clothes and was about to dash out when the lifeboat alarm sounded."

Miley nodded slowly. "You get a clean ticked on that—from me at least."

MILEY lighted a cigaret.

"But that still doesn't explain one thing," Rollins said.

"What?"

"Just why you were apparently resigned to stand for hours, perhaps all night, behind the curtain. If I had been pulling something funny it's hardly likely that I would be slipping around corridors when I knew the whole ship was on the watch for something."

Miley shrugged. "I was playing a hunch, that's all. You'll notice a stairway from 'A' deck comes out a slight distance from where I was hiding."

Miley leaned forward. "I was wondering, Rollins, if that nurse would be sneaking downstairs to see you. After all..."

Rollins slashed a right cross that caught Miley squarely on the side of the face. He pitched sideways off the chair and landed on all fours.

The ship gave a bad lurch to starboard, and Rollins went slightly off balance. Miley slipped into a crouch and rushed him. A hard left upper cut caught Rollins squarely on the chin. Miley sank a right in the midriff, and Rollins clinched.

"Break clean, Big Shot!" Miley growled into the other's ear.

Rollins pushed him away, his face white with pain.

A savage right to the heart dropped Rollins to one knee. Miley stepped back.

"Let's call it quits, Greg," he panted, "I didn't know you were so sweet on the girl, or I would have phrased myself a little more delicately. You took a wrong implication—I was wondering if she was taking you into her confidence or not, and thought I might overhear something..."

ROLLINS rose slowly and sat on the end of his bed. "C'mon, Miley, there's no use to parry legals thrusts now—out with it!"

"Well, she has been reported three times for being on deck after 'Lights Out.'"

"Nothing serious about that—I suppose she just wanted some air."

Miley shrugged. "Yes, that's possible. But she has also been seen on several occasions with binoculars studying the Morse messages sent by light flashes from the battle cruiser commanding the convoy."

He paused but Rollins said nothing.

"And, finally, another nurse told me this Davaar girl has been acting queerly. A stranger to all of them, she has kept to herself for the most part, but what bits of conversation they get out of her at the table would indicate that she knows very little about nursing. You seem to be her sole friend on board and..."

Rollins looked down at his bleeding knuckles. "And what?" he asked in dull tones.

"And I had hoped that you might be able to help me out. I have kept my suspicions from the O. C. because they are admittedly shallow, but there is a question of duty. What I wanted to know from you, Rollins, is whether she has ever given you any hints as to her background... Why she has kept to herself... What she may have seen during those jaunts on deck..."

Rollins shook his head. "I can't help you there. She never discussed herself."

Miley seemed actually relieved. He smiled and stuck out his hand.

ROLLINS stood motionless, staring at the door. There was a hard glint in his eye. He had gone in search of Miley to find out one detail, and their strenuous session together had given him the answer.

Rollins was apparently the only person on board ship who had seen the miniature light flashes from "A" deck last night. His suspicion about a light being involved in the Tees murder was apparently unshared by Miley or anybody. The sentry who had reported the light on that first night somebody had been sneaking a smoke.

There was only one thing to do. The next night would find him hidden in a lifeboat close to that busy spot on "A" deck. Either he'd get the murderer or the murderer would get him. This time the game would be for keeps!

Invaders Win Two Game In Midland

Odessa Turns Back Semi-Pros 6-1 And Mexicans Defeated

By Tanner Laine.

It was a day for the visitors Sunday when Odessa stymied Midland's semi-pros 6-1 and Big Spring handed the Mexican team—Los Charros—its first defeat of the season, 5-2, in a double-header here at the baseball park.

The teams may get together again in The Reporter-Telegram tournament here starting Friday. All are definite entries in the four-weekend baseball event.

Lefty Shelton flashed his old-time form on the mound for Odessa, striking out 9 batters and limiting Midland to two hits. His fast ball was right and the curves were there when needed.

Odessa won the ball game in the second and third innings. After that "Windmill" Brown blanked the team. At least three of the Odessans' tallies were unearned. They bunched three hits in the second to get three scores and also scored three in the third on three hits and two errors.

Midland's sole tally came in the sixth frame. Hensley made it. He got on base on an error and advanced when Greenwood got on base by an error. Critenden walked and Hensley stole home. Jay Hart struck out and Harris grounded out returning the side. Midland's hits were racked up by Crites and Critenden. Critie's single was a two-bagger.

With three regular players missing and facing a potent pitcher in A. Cruz, the Los Charros went down in their first loss of the season after winning six straight games.

The Big Spring Mexicans got three runs in the second inning on two hits, a walk, and two errors.

They added two in the eighth on two hits, a walk, and an error. Fierro's two-bagger helped the cause.

Los Charros got a run in the third by Martin. The other was made in the ninth by Armando. He got on base on an error and scored on Sacarias' triple. Sacarias was put out at home plate trying to score. Manuel and Modesto struck out in order to quiet the rally.

Score by innings:

St. Louis Cardinals Return Home In Midst Of Drive Toward Top Of League, Closely Behind Dodgers

By Gayle Talbot
Associated Press Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals, on their way back west Monday, were scheduled to open a long home stand against the eastern clubs, and there is a good chance they will take complete charge of the National League race before they are again routed of Sportsman's Park.

They left that impression as they completed a smashing tour of the Seaboard with a double defeat of the Boston Braves Sunday by scores of 4 to 2 and 7 to 3. That made it seven victories in their past nine games, indicating that Billy Southworth's boys finally were rolling.

The Cards are playing breath-taking, hell-for-leather baseball, taking all sorts of chances and running wild on the paths.

Brooklyn, by doing no better than breaking even against Pittsburgh Sunday, saw its lead sliced to a game and a half, with a long road trip ahead.

Reds Thump Phillies

Whit Wyatt, the Dodger ace, lost his third straight start when the Pirates beat him, 5 to 1, in the nightcap. Fred Fitzsimmons, reliable veteran, was struck on the arm by a batted ball and forced to retire early in the first tilt, which Curt Davis went on to win, 5 to 1.

The Cincinnati Reds, who haven't yet lost hope of winning their third straight flag, climbed within two percentage points of third place by thumping the Phillies twice, 7 to 1 and 3 and 2. Paul Derringer broke a five-game losing streak in the first, in which he left 12 Phils stranded.

The New York Giants won the first from Chicago, 7 to 5, Carl Hubbell scoring his ninth victory, but the Cubs came back to take the second, 7 to 4 behind Vern Olsen.

Seven-Game Yank Lead

In the most spectacular game of a heavy day, the Yankees exploded for six runs in the 17th inning to win a 12 to 6 decision over Detroit at Briggs Stadium. Deadlocked 6-6 at the end of nine frames, they battled four hours and five minutes before the blow-off.

The hard-won victory increased the Yankees' lead to seven full games over the Cleveland Indians, who divided a brace with Washington. The Senators beat them 3 to 4, in the first behind Steve Sundra, but a rash of errors in the late innings by the Washington infield enabled the Indians to take the second, 5 to 1.

The St. Louis Browns swept their second double-header in two days over Boston's diving Red Sox, 6 to 3 and 10 to 0. Bob Muncie's shut-out of the Sox in the nightcap was only the second they have suffered all season.

Veteran Ted Lyons pitched Chicago's White Sox to a 2 to 1 win in their first bout with the Philadelphia Athletics, but the A's came back to win the second, 4 to 1, in 13 innings. Benny McCoy's deep fly drove across the winning run.

Match Top-Notch Fighters In East

By Sid Feder.
PHILADELPHIA. (AP.)—Sammy Angott was matched with Harlem's dusky skyrocket, Ray Robinson, at Shibe Park, Monday night.

In the 20-year-old skinny stick dynamite, the National Boxing Association's 135-pound boss was to fight for ten rounds or less with a kid who has risen to the top in just one year of professional punching—strictly on his ability to knock 'em dead with one poke.

Around this city of brotherly love, they said Sammy's years of experience and unorthodox style weren't enough, and he would probably wind up just like any one of the 17 fellows Roundhouse Ray has put to sleep in the 20 times he has gone to the post for pay. The other three all lost lop-sided decisions to Robinson.

Gets In First Punch, Welch Captures Meet

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—The advantage that goes with dealing out the first punch worked in behalf of quiet, Billy Welch of Houston, and he won the National Public Links golf championship as a result.

Welch defeated Jack Kerns of Denver, 6 and 5, in the scheduled 36-hole final, mainly because he could win more holes on his pet nine at Indian Canyon course—the outgoing nine—than Kerns could on his pet preserve, the incoming nine.

Payne Will Pair Baseball Teams Of Meet Thursday

The sports spotlight of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico will be focused on Midland Friday with the opening of The Reporter-Telegram invitational baseball tournament.

The tourney, which will be conducted on four successive week-ends, is open to any team in West Texas or New Mexico not a member of an organized league. Ten teams already are definite entries to compete for the four prizes. The winner is to receive $150 in cash or 30 per cent of the gate.

Extra attractions for the fans will be provided, Friday, opening day of the tourney, has been designated "Ladies Day" and women will be admitted free to the game. Saturday will be "Family Day." The most typical West Texas baseball family will be selected and honored. Children will be admitted free to the game if attending with the family.

Pairings and game brackets will be set Thursday, Jim Payne, manager of the tournament, said.

Payne waited Monday for word from Texon, one of the most baseball minded cities of West Texas, concerning that city's entry.

Payne will tour the area this week, signing up ball clubs.

Tulane Coach States Modern War Learned Methods From Football

By Mortimer Kreeger.

NEW ORLEANS. (AP.)—America's football coaches, says one of them, would know how to stop a blitzkrieg—because they invented it!

"Those fellows in Europe are just doing what we've been doing for years," declared Tulane's Coach Red Dawson, sitting before an electric fan in his office.

He diagrammed tactics used in the Russo-German war, and compared them with plays he was outlining for his own fall campaign.

"Football used to be a war of position," he said, "but changed to a 'war of movement' before you ever heard of a blitzkrieg. Teams used to lock horns and push until one of them would get a small lead, then they would dig in to protect itself until the game wore out.

"Now it's all attack—get the ball, keep it, keep scoring.

"Instead of just pushing ahead you concentrate for a quick breakthrough, and follow that up. You use tricks and cross-blocks to flow around points of strong resistance. Your downfield blockers operate just as the advance units of Panzer divisions.

"Passes were used before the Luftwaffe to surprise an enemy and soften up his ground resistance. Armies, which used to mass forces for weeks at one point and then push ahead through sheer might, now strike suddenly anywhere like a deceptive football team."

Stewart Rallies And Wins Houston Crown

GALVESTON (AP)—National Intercollegiate Champion Earl Stewart Jr., of Dallas, has a new golf crown—reward for a game which steadied under pressure and allowed him to take the last four holes in his 36-hole finals with Bob Kiersky of Houston in the Country Club Invitational.

The 19-year-old college king was two down at the end of Sunday morning's round as the result of a shaky putter and straying irons.

But he steadied in the afternoon and took the lead from the two-time State Muni champ on the par five 34th with a birdie.

Another Texas horse, Royal Fascination, entry of Northwood Farm of Fort Worth, was second.

Painting Commemorates Yellow Fever Research

CLEVELAND, O. (UP)—A painting by Dean Cronwell, depicting the isolation of the first volunteer soldier in the experiments to discover the cause of yellow fever, was unveiled here at the American Medical Association convention.

The painting, the third in the "Pioneers of American Medicine" series, shows Major Walter Reed and Dr. Carlos Finlay surrounded by Major Gen. Leonard Wood, Drs. Lazaar, Carroll and Agramonte and John R. Kissinger, the first volunteer soldier to be inoculated in the yellow fever experiments.

SEAFOOD BECOMES PART OF U. S. DAILY FARE

CHICAGO (AP)—Seafood—traditionally America's Friday menu—gradually is becoming part of the daily fare.

Statistics of shipments received at Chicago, the nation's largest inland seafood wholesale center, bear out this transition in the American diet, government market experts said Tuesday.

The growing taste of fish, they said, is due to a nationwide promotion program by the fishery industry, improved cold storage transportation facilities, and more recently, increased prices of some competing meats.

Forest Evashevskyt says he is taking twice as much punishment blasting a path for Tom Harmon in the latter's picture as he did in three years at Michigan. One play was run 19 times before the director was satisfied. And the posse which tackled Evashevskyt included two Washington Redskins linemen and four Southern California stars. . . . Eddie Simms, the old heavyweight, forgot the script and knocked leading man-Robert Sterling cold in the knockout scene of "Ringside Maisee" . . . Sammy Baugh, completing "King of the Texas Rangers," will pay a flying visit to Sweetwater, Texas, before reporting to the Washington Redskins at San Diego. . . . and John Kimbrough is considering bids from three studios for a picture to be made before he reports late next month to the New York football Yankees.

Phoenix Cowboy Wins Title By Bronc-Riding

MINNEAPOLIS. (AP.)—Frank Finley, Phoenix, Ariz., won the all-around cowboy championship at the Aquatennial rodeo here Sunday winning first in the bare-back bronc riding event and placing in several others.

Other championship winners were Jess Goodspeed, Wetumka, Okla., calf roping; Eddie Curtis, El Reno, Okla., bronco riding with saddle and Hub Whiteman, Clarksville, Tex., steer wrestling.

Famous Comedian Of Vaudeville Team Dies

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP.)—Lew Fields, half of the famous vaudeville comedy team of Weber and Fields, is dead.

His life-time partner, Joe Weber, joined the small family group which was to attend the funeral services Monday.

"It's like losing my right arm," said Weber, sadly.

"We've grown up together. He was everything to me."

Fields, 74, became ill Thursday and died Sunday. The girl-shows which he and Weber staged and starred in often featured noted players of the day.

Lillian Russell, David Warfield, Dewolf Hopper, Fay Templeton and Willie Collier were among the stage figures who appeared in Weber-Fields comedies.

Hogan Goes After Snead's $19,000 Earnings' Record

By Tom Siler

CHICAGO (AP)—Three years ago Sam Snead, the West Virginia slugger, set a money-winning record among professional golfers that was supposed to stand for a good long while.

But that was before little Ben Hogan, whose method of par-busting is almost the opposite of Snead's, hit his hot streak.

Snead mowed everything down in sight that season and collected $19,534.49 in tournament prize money. Now the 140 pound Texan, who plays out of Hershey, Pa. is after that record and stands a better than fair chance to set a new one.

Leads Vardon Contest

Hogan hit the jackpot in the Chicago Open Sunday, his 10-under-par 274 earning him $1,200. The cash boosted his 1941 tourney checks to $11,517 and kept intact his record of having finished in the money in his last 51 meets.

Ben began his streak last year when he led the pros in money earned with $10,655 and won the Vardon trophy. This bauble will be his again unless he slips. He has 383 points in the Vardon Derby, a good lead over Craig Wood's 300 in second place.

Byron Nelson, who did not compete in the Chicago Open, is third with 270, followed by Snead, 249; Vic Ghezzi, 170; Clayton Frazier, 158; and Lloyd Mangrum 149. Wood also is runner-up in money earned, the National Open. Champion having collected $7,616. Snead has earned $6,541; Nelson $6,475; Johnny Bulla $5,346, and Heafner $5,155.

CHICAGO PLAYER WINS JUNIOR NET CROWN

NEW YORK (AP)—Sturdy Jimmy Evert, having proved he can draw the punch from a rival's power-shot, Monday had the Eastern Junior Tennis title to show for it.

The Chicago youngster, winner last winter of the National Junior indoor title, won his latest crown by defeating Blair Hawley of New York, 6-1, 4-6, 6-1, 6-1, Sunday at the West Side Tennis Club in Forest Hills.
