Darlan Obtains Broad Powers In Shake-Up Of French Government

Vichy Makes Official Minister Of National Defense For Country VICHY, Unoccupied France (AP)—Vice-Premier Admiral Jean Darlan was named minister of national defense Tuesday in a reorganization of the French cabinet which concentrated all military powers in his hands.

A decree published in a special edition of the Official Journal gave Darlan greater powers than any person or combination of persons in France except Chief of State Marshal Petain himself. The clue to the concentration of powers was seen in statements when such a measure first was hinted that Darlan would thus have his hands freer to conduct negotiations with Germany for collaboration.

Redistricting In Crane Precincts Receives Rebuff

CRANE. (Special)—The Crane County commissioner's court Monday voted 3 to 2 against the proposal to re-district the county according to population distribution. A petition signed by several hundred voters was presented to the court by Judge John Watts, who favored the proposal on the grounds that Crane is governed by a minority vote. Precinct No. 1 has 517 voters while Precincts 2, 3 and 4 have 26, 10 and 8 respectively.

Chairman Predicts Group Will Adopt Treasury Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate finance committee voiced the opinion Tuesday the committee would vote to reduce personal income tax exemptions to $750 for single persons and $1,500 for married couples, as recommended by the Treasury. Present exemptions allow $800 for single persons and $2,000 for those who are married.

Thief Returns And Makes Job Complete

MONAHANS (Special)—The most thieving thief in Monahans has been at work again. Several weeks ago a camera was stolen from the City Pharmacy here, but the thief overlooked the box in which it was packed. Mrs. Pat Hutchison, manager of the store, then placed the box near the cash register with this sign: "Free—this box for camera stolen Sunday."

Texans Join Kotmk In War Against Almat To Recover Two States Annexed In 1918

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP)—The army wants everyone—citizens as well as soldiers—to pretend that a real war is in progress when a half million men start the nation's greatest peacetime battle maneuvers in this area next month. So the propaganda staff has invented two countries—Almat under Premier Oosenay, and Kotmk under Premier Kodunkis—and a long list of Almat-Kotmk hates and grievances which read like the latest dispatches from Europe. There already are evidences that the propaganda is having the desired effect. Troop trains bringing soldiers here for the exercises bear such scrambled legends as "Kodunkis is the Bunkis."

Britain Attacks Nazi Coast With Great Aerial Offensive

LONDON (AP)—The RAF bombed Cologne in an audacious daylight raid Tuesday and sent a great air armada out to attack the coast of German-occupied France on a non-stop foray which sharply renewed Britain's large-scale air offensive against the Reich.

Superior, McCandless To Drill Deep Test In Pecos Ordovician Area

By Frank Gardner Oil Editor. Superior Oil Corporation of Tulsa and Bryce McCandless of San Angelo Tuesday announced location of an Ordovician test in the southwest extension area of the Apco-Warner pool of Northern Pecos County. It is their No. 1 V. W. Crockett and has been staked 4,575.4 feet from the south, 1,061.2 from the west line of section 5, block 110, T. C. R. R. survey. Location falls 1-320 feet northwest of McCandless and Olson No. 1 Crockett, large producer from the Ellenburger, lower Ordovician, and from granite wash.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Office of Defense Petroleum Co-ordination indicated Tuesday the land condemnation powers of the recently enacted Cole Bill might be invoked for the first time to obtain rights-of-way, especially through Georgia for the $30,000,000 pipeline by which the Plantation Pipeline Company proposes to funnel petroleum products to the Atlantic seaboard.

School Trustees Adopt $154,950 Budget For Year

New Expenditures Will Be $2800 Less; 1941-42 Term To Start Sept. 8

The Midland school board adopted budgetary expenditures for the 1941-42 term, $154,950.59, at a meeting Monday night and announced the new school term would open Sept. 8.

The new budget is $2,824.41 smaller than last year's, which was $157,775. Board members stated "It is the opinion of the board that by exercising strict economy in all branches this amount will be sufficient unless there is a great increase in enrollment due to the establishment of a military training center here."

The board ruled that students under six years of age would not be allowed to attend school during the 1941-42 term.

Districting rules will stand and students in the first four grades must attend the ward school in which district they reside.

Grid Training Camp Three new teachers were employed to instruct in South Ward school. They are: Miss Anna Marie Johnson, who will teach music education. She is a graduate of T. S. C. W. and holds B. A. and B. S. degrees in music education.

The board voted to adopt a budget system, approved by the state department, to purchase a power-law mower for the maintenance department, and approved a football training camp.

Behind The Headlines

There is little doubt that Japan is seriously considering the expediency of attacking Russia in Siberia, on the basis that this would be less likely to draw armed intervention by the United States than would an attempt at expansion from the powerful new Japanese base in French Indo-China.

Fear of the United States, rather than of preoccupied Britain, has been the chief deterrent to Japanese action thus far. This reluctance to antagonize Uncle Sam into drawing his shooting irons could hardly have been otherwise than strengthened by the remarkable warning which Kawanaka, Japanese minister to Washington, gave his people on Monday.

Mr. Wakasuci, who was at Los Angeles enroute to Tokyo, declared in a trans-Pacific telephone interview that "the United States is prepared and determined to meet the worst eventualities."

However, while Nippon definitely doesn't want to measure strength with us, she is playing an opportunist game quite openly. The Russo-German conflict is the gauge most likely to give us an accurate indication of the danger in the Far Eastern crisis. A big German breakthrough through the Red defenses might set the Japanese war-machine to rolling against the Manchukuoan border against the Bolsheviks.

The Bolshevik continue a fierce resistance in this eighth bloody week of the war. Still, I think we are warranted in concluding that there has been a gradual weakening of the Russian line—not numerically but in the power of defense.

They will be honored with talks by representatives of the Rotary Club and the American Legion, and will be presented "buddy letters" by the legion and gift flags by the Rotary Club.

The four will leave by train Tuesday night or Wednesday morning for Fort Bliss, El Paso.

In the Far East crisis, a series of swift-breaking developments indicated that events were moving inexorably nearer the explosion-point.

1. In London, authoritative quarters declared bluntly that "if Japan wants war in the Pacific there will be war, if she wants peace there will be peace."

2. In Tokyo, the militarist newspaper Kokumin said the United States and Great Britain had been warned that any further anti-Japanese pressure would bring about "nothing but the worst situation" and that Japan was bent on pushing ahead with her new order in East Asia.

3. In Melbourne, Australia's Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies called his war cabinet into a second extraordinary session, and opposition leader J. H. Curtin commented solemnly.

Fifteen Others Die In Bomber Leaving Britain

Capt. Judy Of Dallas And 8 Canadian Fliers Included In Fatalities

LONDON—The deaths of seven American officers in the British armed forces along with 15 others in the crash of a large airplane described as the "trans-oceanic" type was announced Tuesday.

The plane was believed to have been a bomber ferry. Announcement of the crash also was made in Montreal by the RAF ferry command.

Eight of the victims were Canadians. The plane crashed on a hillside Saturday just after leaving a British airport. The American victims and their addresses were listed as follows:

- Flight Engineer E. G. Reeves, Roslyn Heights, N. Y. Capt. G. T. Harris, Kansas. Capt. D. J. Duggan, Winthrop, Mass. Capt. H. R. Judy, Dallas. Capt. J. Wixen, Los Angeles. Capt. J. J. Roulstone, Long Beach, Calif. Capt. W. M. King, Arkansas.

Seven Hundred And Fifty Work At Reservation

Approximately 750 persons were at work on the Midland Military Reservation Tuesday constructing the Army's Advanced-Twin Engine and Bombardier Training Center and more are being employed.

Foremen and sub-foremen now are being employed by the general contractors, Cage Brothers and F. M. Reeves and Sons, Inc. They are anxious to employ as many men as possible who are residents of Midland and this area.

Seven more cars of building material arrived Tuesday and soon will be unloaded. This makes a total of 27 cars to arrive this week.

Everyone was busy at the reservation Tuesday and the railroad construction crew was straining to get tracks for the spur completed across Highway 80 in place to roll the first freight car into the reservation Wednesday.

On another side of the big field a mill was being set up to cut lumber used in the construction and trucks were hauling lumber from freight cars to the mill.

Work on the large quartermaster's department warehouse was progressing rapidly. Other workmen were busy on roads and grading land for the building area.

BRITAIN REPORTS TWO FLYING ACES MISSING LONDON (AP)—Wing Commander Douglas C. Bader, legless veteran of the Battle of Britain who had been credited with shooting down 15 German planes, and Acting Flight Lieutenant E. S. Lock, another ace credited with 30 victories, were reported missing Tuesday.

They will be honored with talks by representatives of the Rotary Club and the American Legion, and will be presented "buddy letters" by the legion and gift flags by the Rotary Club.

Julia In Cotton

Master Robert Herrick wrote his little poems some three hundred years ago, before blizzards and bombings, jukeboxes and Japanese junkers. So he was able to say:

Whenas in silks my Julia goes,
Then, then (methinks) how sweetly flows
That liquefaction of her clothes.
But were Master Herrick here today, he would, one hopes, revise his lines something like this:
Whenas in cotton Julia goes
She glorifies her ersatz hose,
While Hitler-ward she thumbs her nose.

Skeen Services Are Conducted At Church

Funeral services for William Curry Skeen, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Skeen who was fatally injured in an automobile accident Saturday night, were held at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday from the First Presbyterian Church. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery.
The Rev. Ben Moore, supply pastor, officiated at services. High school students served as pall bearers.
Survivors include the parents, and grandparents, Mrs. M. E. Skeen and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. West of Prairie Lee community.

Texans Seek Power Pool In Washington

FORT WORTH (AP)—Two prominent Texans were en route to Washington by plane Tuesday to file with the Public Works Administration eight projects to comprise a gigantic power pool for the operation of defense industries.
Seven new dams and a standby steam plant on the Brazos, lower Colorado and Guadalupe rivers to cost approximately $40,000,000 were proposed.
Louis Mims of Houston, president of the Brazos district, and R. D. Collins, Mineral Wells, treasurer and acting general manager of the district, will file the projects in Washington.

Hunt Succeeds Dunn As Warden At State Prison

McALESTER, Okla. (AP)—Starr Fred Hunt, promoted from warden of Granite Reformatory, took over at McAlester penitentiary Tuesday as funeral services were held for his predecessor, Jess Dunn, slain in a bloody Sabbath Day break.

Hunt, who once attracted national attention by dressing recalcitrant reformatory inmates in lace panties and seating them on a platform to receive the jeers of their fellows was named to his new post Monday night by Gov. Leon C. Phillips.

Ed O'Brien, chief clerk of the state board of affairs and a former merchant with no previous prison experience replaced Hunt at Granite.

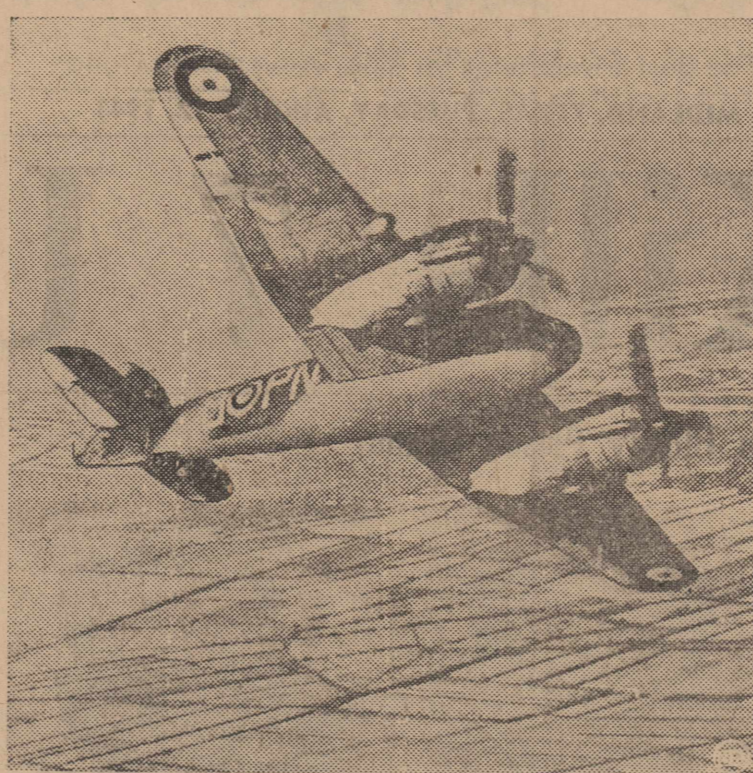

Hunt, who never lost a prisoner nor had a major break attempt during his six and one-half years as warden at Granite, took over his new post with a pledge of full cooperation from Governor Phillips.

Breaks Play Big Part
"Hunt is boss out there," said Phillips, who has been investigating personally the Sunday break in which Dunn, two convicts and a jailer were slain after four convicts seized the warden as a hostage.

"His job is to keep those men and he has my complete backing." Prison breaks have played a major part in the career of the new McAlester warden, once known as the "Boy Sheriff" of Johnston County because of his youth when he was first elected to that office.

Now in his late forties, Hunt six-foot, three-inch, 200-pound man who regularly wears cowboy boots and a ten-gallon hat, took over a Granite when 33 felons broke out in February, 1935, killing Tower Guard Pete Jones of Chickasha.

Net Around Odessa.
On the Russo-German war front, Moscow conceded that the Red armies were hard-pressed on both flanks in the 52-day-old struggle.

Advices reaching London further emphasized the critical plight of Soviet Marshal Semeon Budenny's army of the south, reporting that Adolf Hitler had thrown perhaps 1,000,000 troops into the Ukraine conflict and that German armored forces had advanced within 40 miles of the big grain and ship-building port of Nikolae, about 65 miles east of Odessa.

DXB described the German advance as "impetuous," with swift-striking panzer columns throwing a gigantic net around Odessa, main base of the Russian Black Sea fleet. Battle maps issued in Berlin showed the Nazi push forming a huge bulge deep into the southern Ukraine, below Kiev, and Nazi front-line dispatches asserted German troops also were closing in on the Ukraine capital.

Violent aerial battles were reported raging over the blood-drenched field as Soviet warplanes smashed at German infantry and motorized forces and Nazi pursuit planes attempted to fight them off.

Roosevelt Acts To Control Big Credit Business

WASHINGTON (AP)—Easy payment plans felt the impact of defense requirements Tuesday as the administration acted to curb the nation's $10,000,000,000 installment credit business.

The announced purpose of the curb was twofold:

To discourage consumers from buying many things containing materials that otherwise would be conserved for defense production needs; and

To counteract inflationary tendencies that arise when the demand for certain goods is greater than the supply.

President Roosevelt, in an executive order issued late Monday, directed that the control system be set up to regulate the huge credit business now being transacted through the country's banks, stores and personal finance companies.

Rules Not Decided
The order instructed the Federal Reserve System to formulate and administer the regulations under a World War statute which carries criminal penalties as high as 10 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine, for violations.

There was no immediate indication of what the rules would be but Mr. Roosevelt specifically authorized such measures as requiring down-payments where they are not now required; requiring bigger down-payments than now necessary; requiring larger weekly or monthly installments, and reducing the length of time such payments may run.

Credit contracts already existing or entered into before the new regulations become effective will not be subject to the new control system.

Rayburn Is Confident House Will Approve 18-Month Extension

WASHINGTON (AP) — Speaker Rayburn and other Democratic leaders expressed confidence Tuesday the House would approve an 18-month extension of service for the army's rank and file.
Rayburn previously had expressed concern over the vote of the Senate-approved legislation but now he said, "I believe the situation is all right."

It was learned that Democratic sponsors of the extension believed reports of German successes against Russia and a serious Far Eastern situation would make votes for the legislation.

Opening the last 90 minutes of general debate on the legislation, Rep. Elston (R-Ohio) argued that the nation was not in greater peril than a year ago and therefore there was no need for the extension of service.

A group of House Democrats claiming at least 25 votes drafted an amendment to the extension bill which would exempt from service after December 31, 1942, any man called to arms before Congress takes final action on the legislation.

made, it was learned that the plan contemplated would assign women pilots to ferrying training planes from factories to training centers—a task which now occupies the time of regular army fliers who could otherwise be engaged in combat training.

Governor Will Select Texans For Vacancies In Appointive Places

AUSTIN (AP)—His administration a little more than a week old, Gov. Coke R. Stevenson already is wrestling with the problem of filling vacancies in state appointive offices.

With his accession to the governorship, several boards which already were, or soon would have been, controlled by appointees of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel face return to, or continuation of, a "three-governor" status. These include the Game and Public Safety commissions and the Board of Control.

Vacancies calling for three appointments developed only recently. One was caused by the death of E. J. Kiest, Dallas publisher and member of the board of directors of A. and M. College. Others were due to expiration of terms of C. H. Page, of Austin on the board of architectural examiners July 7 and Mrs. Lillie Stone of Commerce on the cosmetology board Aug. 9.

September will be an important month for the appointive power as vacancies occur in the game commission, the industrial accident board and the board of registration of professional engineers and in the offices of state auditor and bank commissioner.

FOR THESE HOT DAYS BALANCED PROTECTION PAYS—

IT'S BALANCE which makes Humble 997 the PERFECT motor oil for every automobile owner. It would be difficult to stress one of the excellent qualities of Humble 997 Motor Oil to the exclusion of others. So we make no extravagant claims for long mileage*, for low carbon, for cleanliness, for ability to withstand heat and pressure, for modest price.

All those qualities, and others, are combined in 997, in balanced proportion, to give you efficient, economical motor oil performance 365 days in the year.

So we rest our case for 997 by asking you to try it, to see for yourself that 997 gives you the dependable balanced service which results in efficient engine performance and long range economy.

When your oil needs changing*, look for the nearest Humble sign—and drain and refill with Balanced 997 Motor Oil.

* Automotive engineers and the oil industry agree that the motor oil in your crankcase should be changed at regular intervals—on an average, at the end of each 1,000 miles of driving.

... now I'm ace-high in clubs!

A while back, at my club, I was nothing but a fourth at bridge. Another fellow to fill up a pool. Then came the momentous day when the conversation turned to beer. While the lads made claims and counter-claims, I maintained a sphinx-like silence. Not until my opinion was asked did I signal for a round of Grand Prize for the crowd.

One by one they tasted this grand-tastin' beer. A sip, a smile. Hurrahs galore then greeted my ears. In a matter of seconds, I became the man of the hour and Grand Prize, the new favorite of the club.

Now that I'm ace-high in the outfit, I give due credit to this fact—a man's first taste of Grand Prize tells him it's one of America's truly great beers. So, next time be sure the brand you buy is Grand Prize. It's your guarantee of grand-tastin' refreshment.

Reynolds To Wed Capital Heiress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Robert R. Reynolds of North Carolina, 57, red-headed and four times married, received congratulations Tuesday from his colleagues on his engagement to Evelyn W. McLean, 20-year-old Washington heiress.

"I consider myself a very fortunate man," said "our Bob," confirming reports of the forthcoming wedding. He added that no date had been set and that other information would have to come from Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean, mother of the bride-to-be.

Reynolds, as chairman of the Senate military affairs committee, is slated to leave late this week for an inspection trip to Iceland which he said would last several weeks. The wedding probably will take place shortly after his return.

Miss McLean, a tall, willowy blonde, is a close friend of one of Reynolds' two daughters. Her mother owns the celebrated Hope diamond; her father, the late Edward B. McLean, former Washington newspaper publisher, died last month in a Maryland sanitarium.

Your Electric Service Knows No Vacation!

GO AS FAR AS YOU LIKE AND STAY AS LONG AS YOU PLEASE— I'LL BE ON THE JOB WHILE YOU'RE GONE!

"Yes, folks, have a good time on your vacation. I'll stay on the job as usual, and when you get back, I'll be ready to start working for you where I left off. If you come home after dark you can light up the house at the snap of a switch, and I've kept a tray of ice cubes in your electric refrigerator."

Most everybody takes a vacation, or at least gets a day of rest, but your electric service is always instantly ready when you want it, 24 hours a day and 365 days a year. Like the sun which rises every morning, like the air we breathe, electric service is taken for granted, so dependable and so essential is electricity to our everyday comfort and convenience.

But dependable, good electric service doesn't "just happen." Skilled employees, miles of wire, great electric turbines and other equipment combine in the Texas Electric Service organization to make available for you this modern service any hour of the day or night.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By Wm. E. McKenney
America's Card Authority.

Bridge Week in California this year started in San Francisco. The second half of the tournament was played in Los Angeles. With two or three days to spare between schedules, Morgan Howard suggested that Mrs. McKenney, Waldemar von Zedtwitz and I drive with him through Yosemite National Park to Los Angeles. Howard is vice president of the American Contract Bridge League.

the recreation center. Waldemar von Zedtwitz and I kibitzed four youngsters and saw them play today's hand. After the play, we introduced ourselves and learned that the players were Ethel Seeberg and Mrs. Harold Holroyd of Oakland and Richard Gaw and Marion Hvidt of Berkeley.

I thought Miss Seeberg, the declarer, handled the play of the hand in fine style when she cross-ruffed it out to make her contract. Dummy won the opening lead with the ace and cashed the club king. North discarding a heart, then ruffing the third club. A return lead to the ace of hearts was followed by a heart ruff.

North cashed the ace of diamonds and led another for dummy to ruff, returning with another heart ruff to lead a third diamond. East played the six of spades to force dummy's ten, but a fourth lead led declarer to make her king of trumps for the tenth trick.

Monahans Jaycees Report Activities

MONAHANS. (Special)—O. G. Rudy reported on the work of the membership committee, M. L. H. Bazz on the program committee, and James Sprinkle on the publicity committee at the Junior Chamber of Commerce luncheon Monday.

Carl D. Estes made a report for the committee named last week to obtain horses for members planning to take part in the Midland rodeo Aug. 30, 31 and Sept. 1.

A. E. Pipkin was appointed by J. H. Starley, president, to arrange for a piano at the weekly meetings.

Ward Commissioners Veto Guard Requests

MONAHANS. (Special)—Members of the Ward County commissioners court met Monday and refused to permit the Monahans defense guard battalion to put a large sign on the county barn, to permit construction of barbed-wire entanglements on the county property, and to appropriate $100 for the construction of a short-wave radio station for the guard.

SERIAL STORY

SECRET VOYAGE

BY JOSEPH L. CHADWICK

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Mary Larsen tells Jim Mallory all she wanted to know was where she could find Mr. James Mallory, owner of the Ajax Salvage Company. She knows Jim only as Spike. Jim asks Mary who sent her on board, but she refuses to answer and dives overboard heading toward shore. When Mary tires and goes under, Jim swims after her and tows her to safety. He learns she is going to Jeffery Hammond's estate. Hammond owns a steamship line, and it was his ship, the Sorrow, that Jim found after it sank and whose location he won't divulge. Jim tells Mary to come down to the Ajax office the next day if she wants to see Mr. Mallory. He returns to the office to find an invitation from Jeffery Hammond to spend a week-end at the Indian Creek mansion—to talk business. *

THE SALVAGE MAN

CHAPTER III

JIM MALLORY arrived at Jeffery Hammond's house at 8, as the note requested.

The butler talked as Jim looked around. Mr. Hammond wished Mr. Mallory to accept his apologies. Something unforeseen had happened; he had been called to his office over in Miami. Mr. Mallory was to make himself at home, and Miss Lois Hammond, Mr. Hammond's daughter, would entertain him during the evening.

"Unfortunately," the servant said, "Miss Hammond hasn't returned home. No dinner is being served, sir, but I shall have something set out for you."

"I've already dined, thanks."

"Then I'll show you to your room, sir."

The room was spacious, ultra-comfortable, and the furniture had been designed by a cubist. The bath beyond had walls covered with marine murals. It was a far cry from the room Jim Mallory occupied in Carly Bates' house off Collins avenue. It was a lot like the room he would have when the Ajax Salvage Company got out of the red.

Jim got into evening clothes. Standing before a full-view mirror as he slipped on the white dinner jacket he remembered that this was the first in a long time. It had been long since he was in the money. He filled his cigarette case, then left the room and wandered downstairs. He passed through a living room whose French doors opened onto the patio. It was cool and dark out there. The air was heavy with the fragrance of flowers.

Sound came from an open door at the end of the house. Music, laughter, and chattering voices. Jim lit a cigarette and drifted toward the door. He paused, looking into a rumpus room. About ten young people were there. One of them was the girl who had come out of his boat that afternoon calling herself Mary Larsen. He wondered if she were really Lois Hammond.

A dark-haired girl in a white evening dress appeared at the far end of the room. She was strikingly good-looking. She laughingly called on the crowd for quiet.

The gay chatter died away, and somebody stopped the phonograph. The crowd gathered around the dark-haired girl. Jim Mallory didn't mean to listen, but this girl held his eyes and he stayed where he was, just outside the doorway.

"The silliest thing has happened," the girl said brightly. "Father went off and left me with a guest to look after." She wrinkled her nose distastefully. "A man in the salvage business. Imagine!"

There was laughter. Jim Mallory smiled crookedly in the darkness, remembering the old gag about an eavesdropper hearing no good of himself. He saw a pudgy young man with a drink in his hand move to the side of the dark-haired girl who seemed to be Lois Hammond.

"I had dealings with a salvage man once," he said loudly. "Boy! was he a scream. He was a shifty-eyed little guy in a derby and with a cigar butt always sticking from the corner of his mouth. He had one line: 'Mister, you cheat me.' And he stuck to it."

Everybody laughed. Jim Mallory saw, but Mary Larsen. She didn't look at all amused. He looked back at the pudgy man and Lois Hammond.

"Let's have some fun with this fellow," the man said. "We'll get him to tell us about the salvage business, for a laugh. Don't forget, everybody looks solemn and interested, for a gag. Have him join us, Lois."

"Burk is bringing him down now, Tommy," she told him. Then she looked over the heads of the others toward Mary Larsen. "Mary, be a darling and take this Mallory person off my hands for the evening. Father has a nerve, expecting me to entertain a man in the salvage business."

Mary Larsen said, "I'll take him off your hands, Lois—of course. But Mr. Mallory is in marine salvage, and that is big business."

Jim Mallory thought, "That's one in your favor, Mary." And he turned away from there.

BURK, the butler, found him in the living room. "And Burk said, 'Miss Hammond has returned, sir. She would like you to join her in the rumpus room." "Lead away, Burk," Jim Mallory said.

He nearly laughed out loud when he followed Burk into that room. Everyone had been watching the door expectantly, and it was funny how the talk stopped abruptly. The chubby young man gave a start, turned red, then moved abruptly toward the portable bar. Lois Hammond's eyes grew wide with disbelief. Jim shot a look at Mary Larsen, and she too looked surprised. But he knew Mary's surprise was caused by finding him, Spike the diver, to be James Mallory, and not because he didn't look like the pudgy man's description of a salvage man.

"Burk said, 'Mr. Mallory, Miss.' And the dark girl came toward Jim, smiling and holding out her hand.

"Mr. Mallory! I'm so glad you're here. Father said I'm to entertain you, until he gets back. Do you mind?"

Her eyes pleaded with him not to mind. Jim thought, "You shallow little hypocrite." Aloud, he said, "Not at all."

She slipped her arm through his, led him about and presented him to the others. "One or two looked a little sheepish. The chubby man was Tommy Sturdevant. Tommy gave Jim a limp hand, and asked, "Mallory, eh? What's your line, old man?"

Jim looked him squarely in the eyes. "I take in washing—old man."

Tommy reddened, choked. The crowd laughed. Lois Hammond introduced him to Mary Larsen last of all, almost as an afterthought. "Mr. Mallory, Miss Larsen, my father's secretary."

"Miss Larsen and I have already met."

"Yes," Mary said, her voice annoyed, "I think we have."

Lois turned him away. She called to someone to put on a dance record. When the music started her dark eyes asked Jim to dance. He thought, "Why not?" She looked as though she'd be a fun to dance with, fun to make a little love to. And it was nice holding her in his arms.

"You're not my idea of a man in the salvage business," she said. Her eyes said a lot more. They had a predatory look.

"It's a living," he said, and over her head he saw Mary Larsen watching them dance with a twisted and bitter smile on her lips.

CATTLE GET GREASE JOB AND ELIMINATE FLIES

COPEVILLE, Tex., (AP)—Texas farmers who have cattle and oil and flies are getting rid of the flies. George Longley led the way with a cow de-flier that works thus:

Rock salt and other minerals are placed in a wire enclosure. Gunny sacks, dripping in crankcase oil, hang on the wire.

When the cows duck under to get salt, they get oily. Flies don't go for oil.

Now when the cattle feel the flies attacking, animals march up to the triangle and get themselves a new grease job.

Committee To Study Recreational Center

The Midland recreational committee was scheduled to meet at 7 p. m. Tuesday at the city hall to continue discussions of a proposed recreation center in Midland.

Committeemen are considering a possible site for the center.

Mrs. D. R. Carter urged members of the recreational group to attend the meeting.

Macks Come Back And Defeat Texans

First Half Champs With Pace Hurling Win Battle, 6 To 4

Mighty Mackey Motors, champions of the first half season of the city league, upset the best laid plans of The Texas Company for second half domination by stinging the Texans 6-4 Monday night in one of the best games of the year.

Texas argued the issue and was hard to beat. Ten of their batters died on base—enough to win the battle. Pace, Texas pitcher, and Davidson, new Mackey flinger, hurled a duel.

Coming back after discouraging losses last week, the Macks were champions again for a night with two runs in each of the first two frames and in the sixth. Texas scored one each in the third and fourth and one in the sixth and seventh.

Gene Burnett, Texas hitting ace, got four hits in four trips. Jim Maegen, Mack batting star, went hitless.

Score by inning: Mackey Motors . . . 220 002 0-6 The Texas Co. . . . 001 101 1-4

Monahans Grid Coach Arranges Loraine Battle

MONAHANS (Special)—Only one date remains open on the 1941 Green Wave schedule, Coach Roger F. Cundriff announced Monday after booking a game Sept. 12 with Loraine. The open date is Sept. 26.

Monahans, which has had one of the outstanding teams of the turbulent 7-A football district each season for the last few years, has a gloomy outlook this season, Cundriff said. The coaches had prospects of having four lettermen from last year's squad, but the enlistment in the Navy of Clinton (Speedy) Brewer reduced the material.

Hundreds Of Golfers Will Play To Qualify For Amateur Tourney

NEW YORK (AP)—Pursuing 13 players who already have earned their places in the National Amateur Golf Championship at Omaha, some 600 crack amateur golfers will play 36-hole rounds over 27 different courses Thursday in sectional qualifying rounds.

Although this collection of shot-makers is one of the smallest in years for the amateur, it includes practically all of America's top-flight players. The full entry list announced Tuesday by the United States Golf Association, shows that only one of last year's quarter-finalists, George Dawson of Chicago, failed to enter this year's tourney.

Oilers Turn On Rebels, Win 8-1

By The Associated Press. The second-place Dallas 'Rebels' drive to knock the Tulsa Oilers from the second spot in Texas League standings was turned back Monday night when the Oilers won a crushing 8-1 victory to wind up a two-game series between the teams.

Playing at Tulsa, the Rebels scored their lone run in the first inning when Johnny Stoneham doubled to left with two out. Gray Clarke the doubled and sent Stoneham home. After that, it was a walk-away for Tulsa.

In the only other scheduled game, the Shreveport Sports celebrated Appreciation Night on their home grounds before the largest crowd of the season by taking apart the San Antonio Missions 7-2.

Tennis Players To Enter Third Round

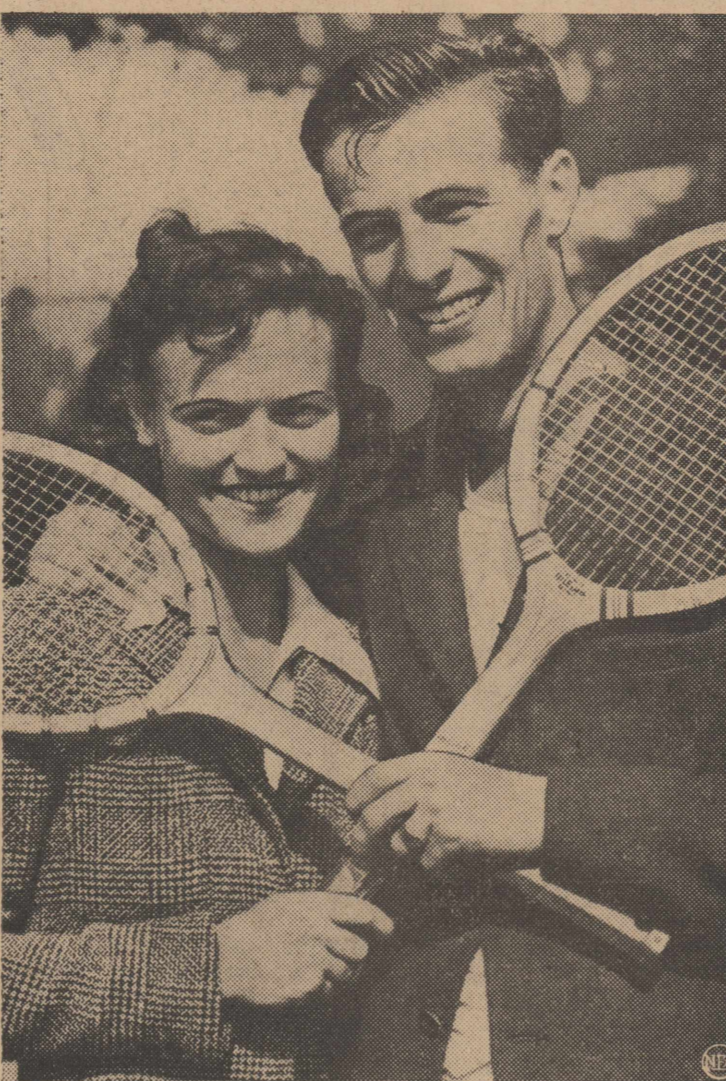

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—Favored players in the 25th annual Newport Casino Invitation Tennis tournament prepared for a third round of singles battles Tuesday in which upsets were likely in the narrowed field.

Likewise in store was the opening of the doubles matches with the team of Ted Schroeder, Glendale, Calif., and Jack Kramer, Los Angeles, favored.

Top-seeded Don McNeill, of Oklahoma City, National Champion of 1940, served notice he would be hard to beat in the singles by whipping Art Prochaska, of Hartford, Conn., and E. Blair Hawley, of New York, in easy fashion in Monday's first two rounds.

Most of the other favored performers had no serious trouble.

Athletics Manager Is Ready To Spend Money To Get Stars

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Connie Mack, who laid out some $200,000 for players during the winter of 1939-40, is again ready to take the rubber off his bankroll in an effort to make the Athletics a pennant contender.

"The old gentleman" wants, primarily, a couple of good pitchers who can be depended upon. "Everybody knows we need pitchers," he asserted Monday as the A's took the day off after dropping three straight to the Yanks.

"Otherwise, I think we have a pretty fair team right now. But I'm going to do something about the pitching. If we can get a better team, the fans will love it." Connie needn't worry about where the money is coming from. The A's already have played to nearly 600,000 at Shibe Park and from all indications this will be their best year in the front office since they won the pennant in 1931.

Oil News--

Simpson, middle Ordovician, production in the Abell pool of North-east Pecos loomed Tuesday as Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 State-Young showed oil-saturated sand in the bottom four feet of core from 5,136-46 feet, total depth. A drillstem test is being run.

In the south part of the pool, Phillips Petroleum Company No. 3 Sidney Silverman, which cored Simpson pay sand from 5,181 to 5,211 feet, is standing, bottomed at 5,223 feet in lime, after cementing 5 1/2-inch casing at 5,218 feet with 350 sacks.

Sinclair-Prairie Oil Company No. 1 State-Silverman is drilling at 5,084 feet in lime and shale. It entered the Simpson at 4,820 feet and logged the Tulip Creek marker in that formation at 4,835 feet.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Thrapp-Walker unit, one-half mile northwest outcrop to the north, is drilling at 5,700 feet in Simpson lime.

Large Crane Producer. Gulf No. 25 W. N. Waddell et al, one-quarter mile east extension to the south Sand Hills Ellenburger pool of Western Crane County established daily potential flow of 2,450.88 barrels of 37.2-gravity oil and gas-oil ratio of 2,976-1. Potential was computed from output in the last four hours of a six-hour gauge. The well topped Ellenburger pay at 5,625 feet, is bottomed at 5,651 and was acidized with 5,000 gallons.

Farther north, Gulf et al No. 1-B J. B. Tubb is drilling at 3,945 feet in lime.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1-RA University, Southeastern Reagan County Ellenburger discovery, is drilling at 9,236 feet in hard chert. One rockbit proved good for only three inches of drilling in the glasslike formation.

Plymouth Oil Company No. 1 D. L. Alford et al, in Eastern Upton County, is reaming core-hole, bottomed at 7,050 feet in black shale.

Magnolia No. 20 State-Walton, Northern Winkler County wildcat headed for the Ordovician, has passed 7,835 feet in lime and shale.

Harrison Fishing Bit. L. C. Harrison drilled 10 additional feet to 4,915 feet in his No. 1 Naim estate, Central Lubbock County wildcat, and lost bit.

A fishing job is in progress. No increases were reported logged by drilling the 10 feet. At old depth the well had swabbed a little free, black oil.

The battle between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals for the pennant in the senior circuit is as exciting as the "perils of Pauline" with the buzz saw getting closer at the end of every installment.

A couple of years ago people were poking fun at the National League as a big minor circuit but it knocked out the rival American League in two all-star games and the 1940 World Series and this summer has been giving the fans the only run for their money under the big top.

The Dodgers bashed down hard on the New York Giants Monday, 15-7, and the St. Louis Cardinals conquered the Chicago Cubs, 7-5, to continue their neck-and-neck race with the Dodgers still in front by the slender margin of .003.

Kirby Higbe pitched and batted the Dodgers to their triumph, his 16th. He checked the Giants on seven hits.

Wilson Blanks Yankees

In the only other National League contest the Phillies whipped the Boston Braves, 6-3, for Boom Boom Walter Beck's first victory of the year. The tall-enders collected 15 hits.

The listless New York Yankees, so far in front of the American League that few people pay any attention to them, were shut out, 8-0, by the Boston Red Sox as Jack Wilson pitched four-hit ball for his first complete game of the season.

The wave of "beanings" during the week-end brought on a fight as part of the doubleheader between the St. Louis Browns and the White Sox at Chicago. In the first game Elden Auker smacked Joe Kuhel on the shoulder with a pitch. One word led to another and then to fistfights. Players of both teams rushed out and Alan Strange of the Browns joined in the sparring. All three were banished.

The White Sox went on the win, 14-9, with Luke Appling batting in five runs in leading a 14-hit attack. The Browns captured the nightcap, 10-3, with a 17-hit assault for George Caster's first victory of the year.

Howe Pounds Out 19-13 Win Over Southern Icers

John P. Howe stopped Southern Ice's mad rush for honors in the women's league with a 19-13 victory in a "bat battle" Monday night.

The big guns of the Icers roared but Howe's was more consistent. Johnson hit a home for the Icers and Smallwood hit four for five for Howe.

Every Howe player got a hit. Smith hit a double and triple and Ware a triple for the Icers.

Both clubs had big innings but Howe's was the biggest. In the third frame, the "girls in blue" came to bat following the Icers' 10-run barrage and went on a spurt of their own, getting 12 tallies. It was enough.

Score by innings:
Southern Ice . . . 0110 100 1-13
John P. Howe . . . 2412 100 x-19

Sports Roundup

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr. (Pinch-Hitting for Eddie Brietz)

NEW YORK.—The 1941 football guide will be off the new publisher's presses and ready for sale August 24. . . . We've had a peak at an advance copy . . . Hawaii is bidding for the 1942 National Swimming championships, and no wonder . . . The Boston Bruins Hockey Club may be sold before the end of this month . . . Neil Broadman, a music Prof. at the U. of South Dakota, brought three pacers 2,000 miles to race at Roosevelt Raceway. . . . From down beats to hoof beats, eh?

The Eddie Blunt-Bill Poland fight August 27 at Washington is the longest scheduled heavyweight fight in two decades. . . . It's for 25 rounds, and the worst part is it might even last that long. . . . Here's one (and only one) time the Phillies are first. Danny Litwhiler was the season's first National Leaguer to hit a homer in every park in the circuit.

Doing It Up Brown. San Antonio baseball writers, who were a bit disgruntled that their club didn't get more help from the St. Looney Browns have learned why . . . When Carthage (Mo.) the Browns' other farm, wired, "We need two pitchers, two infielders, two outfielders," back came another wire: "So do we."

No Service Charge. The response to last week's appeal for plans to stage army camp football games has been gratifying. . . . One of the best comes from Bill Suman of the La Crosse (Wis.) Tribune and the Notre Dame publicity department, who points out the first crying need is for equipment, and suggests that colleges contribute what they have left from last season. . . . Ford Frick says that major league clubs will play a lot of exhibition games at the big southern army camps next spring. They won't make any money on them but it's a swell way to build up future trade. . . . The draft and defense jobs have taken so many bi-state league ump's that utility players may be called on to work some games.

Today's Guest Star. Jack Garberry, Denver Post: "Cards or Dodgers, Dodgers or Cards—either should be the Yankees' order. And October has an 'r' in it."

Short Shots. The Ebbefts Field fight press department reports that Leo Rodak, who subs for Tippy Larkin against Maxie Shapiro Tuesday, was born on the same day as Bating Nelson. . . . Dick Wakefield ($45,000, remember?) is satisfied with the Piedmont League as a place to start, but he doesn't like those long bus rides. . . . Out of Madison, Wis., the other day Golfer Clarence Garoville put his tee shot on the sixth hole six inches from the pin; rolled his seventh-hole drive within five inches and then ace'd the eighth. Ace Parker's busted gam has mended so quickly that he'll be on hand to greet the fooball Dodgers when they start training tomorrow and may play in the opening game. . . . The other American League clubs can't keep hating the Yankees. In a week's routout, the Yanks drew 123,000 customers and had three sellout crowds. . . . The California Boxing Commission held a solemn meeting a while back to ask promoters why their fight shows weren't drawing better. . . . Mike Jacobs will ask $30 for ringside seats for Louis-Nova. . . . That's the highest price since the Baer-Louis affair, which wasn't worth it either.

Personal. A sports writer, Sue Buckingham, has been doing a three-weeks job of pinch-hitting on the Dodge City (Kan.) Globe's column, "Ear to the Ground." . . . How about a line or two for our guest star section, Sue?

Georgians Will Play Negro Team In Meet

DENVER (AP)—Power hitters of the Buford, Ga., club planned Tuesday to knock off two baseball birds with one stone in the Denver Post semi-pro tournament.

If the Georgians beat the undefeated Ethiopian Clowns, barnstorming negro team, they not only would heighten their chances of capturing their second straight title but also will swell the "kitty" for every team finishing in the money.

A defeat for the Clowns would necessitate another game Wednesday, instead of a doubleheader to-night, as previously planned.

Both teams have won five games but Buford has lost one, a 6-1 setback from the Ethiopians' steller righthander, Roosevelt Davis.
