Our Health! It's Not Good Enough

How the United States would stand up with other countries in regard to the number of men called up for military service and rejected, we don't know. Other countries are now up against more pressing matters than compiling such statistics.

But after all, we do know this: When almost half the young men called up for military service are found unfit to serve, we know that the national health isn't good enough.

It isn't as bad as it looks, but it isn't good enough. Let's get the favorable factors out of the way first: A man may be quite healthy enough for ordinary purposes, and still be rejected for military purposes, as witness some of the professional athletes who get a living by physical prowess but aren't good enough for the army.

The figures, in other words, don't mean that half the young American manhood is ailing and unfit for ordinary life.

But they are disturbing none the less. It is not the highest aim of a social order to turn out a population which shall be 100 per cent perfect for the drill field.

Great efforts have been made to preserve the health of the people, especially of youth, during the past decade of depressed conditions. While it would not seem to have been too successful, it is a fairly shuddery thought to consider what might have been the effect had the effort not been made at all.

Probably one of the things that is needed now is to teach people how to eat. It is perfectly possible to be fully fed and undernourished at the same time. Every effort to spread knowledge of nutrition is a national asset.

The Farm Price Dilemma

In these days when strenuous efforts are being made to keep prices from rising, the question of prices of farm products is a touchy one. Generally speaking, the prices of farm products have never gotten up to the point where economists believe farm income is satisfactory.

Leon Henderson, administrator of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply (OPACS) has clarified present policy. The government still wants higher farm income. Demand for meat, dairy, and poultry products is rising. To stimulate greater production of these things, the government proposes to take the risk of guaranteeing higher minimum prices, yet not setting maximum prices.

On the other hand, the OPACS has already acted to halt rises in prices of farm machinery, putting the farmer in a position to benefit still farther from higher prices for his hogs, milk and chickens.

There will be a good deal of this balancing and counterbalancing as price variations become more complex. Trial and error, mixed with a heavy leaven of patience and honest effort to co-operate, are all that can pull us through.

Prisoners Fail To Gain Freedom

ABILENE (AP).—Attempt of three prisoners in the Taylor County jail to escape was thwarted late Wednesday after a running fist-and-club fight in which Sheriff Sid McAdams was injured seriously and Jailer Jess Edwards and the prisoners were beaten up.

McAdams suffered head wounds, a broken rib, a broken hand and a slight concussion. Sixty-seven stitches were necessary to close his wounds. Edwards suffered a broken rib and minor cuts and the prisoners were less severely hurt.

The prisoners were Alfred McLure, Ed Wolfe and Doyle Morgan. McLure and Wolfe are Choctaw Indians, members of Company C, 180th Infantry of the 45th Division. They have been in jail more than a month under charges of attacking a 17-year-old Abilene girl.

Wolfe was charged with rape and McLure with accessory to rape in connection with an attack upon a 17-year-old Abilene girl. Morgan was held on an auto theft charge.

Crockett Deep Test
Acidizing with 2,000 gallons in gun-perforated Ellenburger zone from 6,280-89 feet in Amerada No. 1-B J. S. Todd estate, one mile northwest outcrop to the Todd Strawn pool in North Central Crockett County, proved disappointing as the well yielded sulphur water, spent acid and only a slight show of oil while swabbing 2,500 feet from the surface. Total depth is 6,300 feet in Ellenburger dolomite topped at 6,202. Packer on tubing is set at 6,255 feet. With the lower zone barren, operators next will test upper Ellenburger zone which carried more promising showings of oil. Casing has been perforated with 150 shots from 6,202-52 feet in the upper zone.

Three and one-half miles west of the Todd pool, Amerada No. 1-C Todd is drilling below 3,998 feet in black shale and lime shells.

East Senator Urges Congress Make Probe Of Gasoline Shortage

WASHINGTON (AP).—A New England senator Thursday urged a speedy congressional investigation to determine whether the East actually faces a gasoline shortage, as the defense petroleum office sharply reasserts is the case.

"I want to learn if there is an actual shortage or if we are being pushed around for psychological reasons," Senator Maloney (D-Conn) told reporters, saying he would ask the Senate commerce committee to act immediately on his resolution for an inquiry.

Ralph K. Davies, acting petroleum coordinator, announced Wednesday the long-predicted shortage has developed, that usable reserve stocks had dwindled to an available storage sufficient for only 10 days, and that the situation was "perilous."

Davies lashed out at the prophets he said had "arisen to proclaim that there is no danger" and that "the warnings of an impending shortage was phony."

Jones Says U. S. May Lend Soviet Money For Needs

WASHINGTON (AP).—Jesse Jones disclosed Wednesday that he was ready to put part of the RFC's huge bankroll behind Russia's armies in their struggle with the invading Nazis.

The federal loan administrator said at a press conference that he believed aid to Russia would be in the form of a cash loan, rather than a loan or lease of supplies and equipment, as is done in the case of Britain.

Parks Board To Confer On Plans

The appropriation, made at the last general session of the legislature, becomes available Sept. 1, beginning of a new fiscal year, and the board's branch office at Alpine will begin functioning Sept. 2.

As designated by Secretary Ickes of the Interior Department the national park will embrace 788,682 acres of which 112,907 are now vested in the state parks agency. This leaves 675,775 to be acquired.

Paper Declares Japan Can't Be Indifferent

TOKYO (AP).—Kokumin, which almost daily expresses the viewpoint of the more radical Japanese militarists, said Thursday "Japan as the stabilizing power in East Asia absolutely cannot remain indifferent" if Vladivostok becomes the pivot of British-American assistance to the Soviet.

Calling Vladivostok a "fuse which at any time may set off an American-Japanese war," the official Central Daily News in Chungking declared "we believe an American-Japanese war is inevitable. The question now is only when it breaks out, and whether it is to be a declared or an undeclared war."

Liner Books Passage For U. S. Officials

TOKYO (AP).—The Nyk line apparently under foreign office pressure—suddenly announced Thursday night it had reservations for 26 United States embassy and consular officials aboard the liner Tatsu Maru, scheduled to sail Aug. 28 for Shanghai.

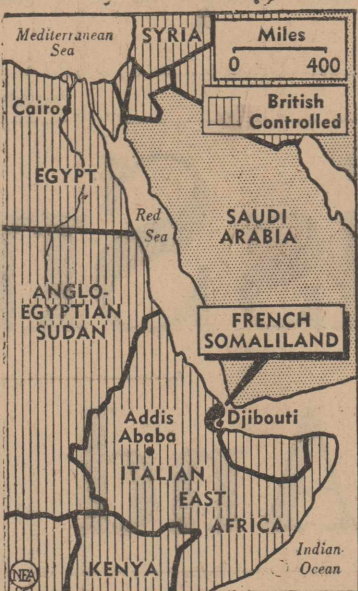

At Shanghai, most of the Americans expected to obtain trans-Pacific passage home aboard a United States transport.

Because of the unfavorable "hostage" publicity arising from the inability of United States nationals to obtain passage from Japan, the foreign office was believed to have exerted pressure.

Cotton Raisers Must Repay Loan By Oct. 1

Midland County cotton producers with 1938, 1939 and 1940 loan cotton have until Oct. 1, 1941, to repay loans and redeem cotton pledges. M. W. Whitmire, chairman of the Midland County AAA committee announced.

Cotton not redeemed by this time will be placed in pools as provided by the loan agreement and sold by the Commodity Credit Corporation after March 1, 1942. Undeclared cotton from each crop will be placed in separate pools with the producers retaining title. When the cotton is sold in each pool, net proceeds will be distributed among the producers in proportion to their interests, Whitmire said.

IPAA Says Gas And Oil Stocks Not Down

WASHINGTON (Special).—There is much confusion with regard to the threatened shortage of petroleum products in the East Coast area. Incomplete facts and careless statements have brought us dangerously near to the hysteria which often leads to hasty and unsound action, the I. P. A. A. declared.

The oil industry's transportation system has already been seriously disrupted by the diversion of tankers to British shuttle service, but the industry has obviously moved quickly to meet the situation.

Stocks of gasoline and light fuel oil have, so far, shown no tendency to be depleted. Combined, these stocks increased at an average rate of about 107,000 barrels daily during the 5 weeks ending August 9.

Patriotic Excuse Wins In Court

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (UP).—National defense isn't all sacrifice. Halted into traffic court here for parking on the wrong side of the street, Robert Wehrenberg told the judge he was guilty, but that he did so to avoid having to go around the block an extra time, thus conserving gasoline. FLOUR SACK TECHNIQUE CORALS SWARMING BEES

HAPEVILLE, Ga. (UP)—Chief of Police T. D. Clonts of Hapeville has this remedy for getting rid of bees: Take one big flour sack and two pieces of metal. Place the pieces of metal in the flour sack and hold the sack open with two hands. Then juggle the sack so the metal rattles. The bees will then enter the sack and when all are inside shut the sack and carry the bees out.

Clonts has witnessed to the success of this method. Mayor Eugene King called the police and fire department after finding bees were swarming through his house. The water and other cures failed, but then the police chief used his method. The mayor said it worked.

Crude Oil Demand Is 118,000,000 Barrels

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bureau of Mines Thursday forecast the September market demand for domestic crude oil at 118,000,000 barrels, or 3,960,000 barrels daily. This was 20,000 barrels higher than the estimated daily demand for August and 7 per cent above the actual demand in September, 1940. The bureau estimated September crude oil exports at 4,000,000 barrels, against actual exports of 4,260,000 in September last year. Domestic demand for motor fuel next month was estimated at 57,500,000 barrels, an increase of 10 per cent over the actual demand in the same month of 1940.

Combed one fourth blood was selling at 85-87 cents scoured basis, for territory wools and 45-47 cents in the grease for bright fleece wools. Machine for Threshers Cuts Down Manpower

WATERTOWN, E. D. (UP)—S. G. Washburn, Goodwin, S. D., farmer, has invented a machine designed to eliminate threshing crew field pitchers. Washburn, who tested the machine on his farm, said it did the work of six bundle wagons. The machine will pick up bundles, load them on a conveyor belt in a rack and unload them at the thrasher.

Hour Parking Blamed For Waste of Gasoline

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UP)—The city traffic commission has filed under the heading of "impertinence" a letter from a citizen. The writer suggested abolition of one-hour parking in downtown Vancouver, because the regulation led to "the silly occupation of forcing the cars to re-shuffle themselves every 60 minutes, leading to a colossal waste of gasoline."

SERIAL STORY

SECRET VOYAGE

BY JOSEPH L. CHADWICK
 COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Jim Mallory tells Jeffery Hammond there is no one in the Aurora. Hammond knows that Jim is playing along to keep Jim from reporting to the Coast Guard. He tells Jim the Aurora was scuttled by Bert Halloran, who was rescued, after being fired upon by a British warship in the American neutrality zone. She was transferring oil and rubber to a belligerent ship. Hammond offers Mallory $5000 to give up the search and be silent, but Jim refuses. He plans to stay on the scene, believes there is something on the Aurora to salvage. Later Jim tells Lois Hammond he is on the verge of bankruptcy. She refuses at first to believe him, says Mary Larsen would have gone to New York with Eric Forbes if she hadn't believed Jim would strike it rich. Jim insists he has lost everything, and an enraged Lois accuses him of telling her off.

CHILL TERROR

CHAPTER XI

JIM MALLORY watched Lois walk away in her fury. Knowing that she was walking out of his life, he strangely felt no regrets. He shrugged her out of his thoughts, tossed his cigaret over the side, and walked along the deck to the Jacob's ladder that would take him down to the Aurora's boat.

Mary Larsen stood at the railing, the sun bright on her coppery hair. She turned and faced him, smiled and said, "Well, Jim?"

He halted. His face was stiff. He said, "So you didn't go to New York as Eric Forbes' secretary?"

"No. I didn't intend to. Do you remember what you said to me when I came aboard the Aurora back at the Landing, Jim?"

"I remember."

"Well, it does interest me. And I no longer care about the Aurora."

"I know, I know, I'm the fair-haired boy now. I've got the Aurora right in my hand. You play the game safe, don't you?"

"What do you mean by that?" Her smile was gone now, and hurt was in her eyes.

"What I mean is," he said, "that you put your money on the man who looks like a winner. Right now I look like a winner, to you."

She bit her lip and stared at him wordlessly.

Jim's voice ran on, cold and hard with anger. "You handed me a line about Bert Halloran being lost at sea, and all the while you knew he was merely hiding out and working on this Aurora thing. And you were working with him."

"I didn't know he was alive until I found that cigaret case, Jim," she said miserably. "I swear it."

"All right, all right. Stick to your story."

"Jim, believe me—please."
 "Sure. Sure, I believe you. You didn't know Halloran was trying to bribe me, and threatening me. You didn't know that he was working with Forbes, and you don't know what's so valuable about the Aurora."
 "And you didn't break with Halloran and Forbes and make a play for me, right now, because I beat them to the punch. Sure, I believe your story. Go on with it. Tell me you're in love with me—so long as you think I'm in the money."
 She looked as though she had been slapped. There were tears in her eyes, and she kept biting hard on her under lip.
 Finally she said, "All right, Jim."

He went over the side and dropped into the Aurora's boat. Aboard the Aurora, he went to his cabin. Curly came in and found him pacing back and forth like a caged tiger. Curly Bates lighted his pipe and patiently waited.

"Curly, I'm the world's champion fool," Jim finally said. "I fall in love with a girl who isn't worth a man's second look."
 "I knew that girl meant trouble when she first came aboard the Ajax tug, Jim."

"She made a play for me, because she thinks the Aurora is making me rich. What a laugh!"
 "What are we going to do about the Aurora, Jim?"
 "We're going to go through her from stem to stern. There's no manganese aboard, but there's something else. I've a hunch it's something in the first mate's cabin."

BOTH got into diving suits the next morning and were lowered through forty fathoms of dark water. They reached the Aurora's hull. With the ship lying on its side they had difficulty reaching deck in its vertical position.

The crew above maneuvered their booms, swinging the divers so they finally managed to reach the wrecked bridge. Lamps had been sent down.

They worked for a time, moving loose timbers with the pincers at the ends of the diving suits' metal arms, staying below as long as they could. They didn't get into the cabin in that descent.

Aboard the Aurora again, Jim saw the Hammond yacht had lifted anchor and sailed away. He wanted to believe he was glad it had gone, but he wasn't. He wasn't yet over his love for Mary Larsen.

Just before dusk that evening one of the crew sighted a ship. Jim watched it through a pair of glasses. It was the Cuban schooner. It came in from the south, making directly for the Aurora's position, and it kept coming until it was within three miles and there it stood by. Jim could count eight men on the schooner.

Curly Bates said, "Trouble, Jim?"
 "Looks like it. But I doubt if it will come tonight. They can't know we're not armed. I think they'll try to jump us at daybreak when we'd be more likely off guard. But we're not going to be here at daybreak."
 Curly's seamed old face showed surprise. "You're going to run?"
 "Sure. After I go through the Aurora's cabin."

THERE was no moon that night, and the complete darkness was a bit of luck. The schooner couldn't observe the Aurora's activity.

Jim got into a rubber suit so that he could enter the sunken ship's cabins. He stood on the Jacob's ladder waiting for Curly to place his helmet when Blacksheep came to the railing. The Cayman's ebony face wore an uneasy grin, a sheepish look.

"Spike suh, I done got a confession to make. I done somethin' you won't like, no suh!"
 Curly said, "Scram, Blackie!"
 And eased the iron helmet down on Jim's shoulders, bolted it fast.

Jim carried a pince-bar and a small lamp down with him. He didn't light the lamp until he reached the Aurora; he didn't want the schooner's crew to know he was down. He used the bar to dig away into the Aurora's cabin. It took a lot of work and a lot of time, and he was staying below too long. But he kept at it and finally got into the cabins.

RIFLE FIRED ONLY ONCE, SAYS SPORTSMEN'S GUIDE

WILLIMANTIC, Conn. (UP) — Sporting guide Bill Early has fired a rifle only once—to save a life.

A deer became a frequent visitor at Early's home, grazing in a garden near the river. One day Early saw a hunter working his way upstream just as the deer stropped into the garden.

Fearing the hunter would blaze away at the pet, Early grabbed his .22 rifle and fired a warning shot over the animal's head. The deer scampered to safety.

Billows Will Contest Toledoan In Golf Meet

CHICAGO. (AP.)—Little Ray Billows of Poukheepsie, N. Y., is hoping this is the year he'll be able to crack the jimx that's been following him in the last six National Amateur golf championships—but if he doesn't he won't be able to say he didn't have his game ready for the big event.

The eastern expert—who learned the game's fundamentals in his native Racine, Wis.—Thursday opposed Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., for the first annual Great Lakes Amateur championship at the Knollwood Club.

PRIDE IN THE CELLAR

The meticulous housekeeper takes as much pride in a spotless and well arranged cellar as in the cleanliness and orderliness of any other room in her house. Cellars with cement floors and adequate drainage holes should be scrubbed with hot suds fairly often. A stiff brush attached to a long handle is a convenient tool to use. Open the windows and doors to let air and sunshine dry the floor quickly. Built-in cabinets and shelves for preserves, convenient racks for tools, bins for wood and coal will all help keep the cellar neat.

SEWING TIPS

The new pleated and wrap-around dirndl skirts, favorites of the school girl, are simple to make if sewing is your hobby. Even if you are a beginner-sewer of 'teen age, you can make your own skirts with smart tailored touches that look really professional. For instance, the shirring of dirndl skirts is done in a twinkling of an eye with the gathering foot attachment of the sewing machine. And if you select a style that buttons down the front even the buttonholes may be a lifetime job with the button-holer attachment. If you prefer the type of skirt with inverted pleats you will find that it's no trick at

Nazis Shut Down Cuban Consulates

Texan Team Beats First Half Champs

Softball Victory Helps Independents Keep League Lead

The Texas Company slumped a great big question mark on the city league title chase by whipping the first half champs, Mackey Motors Wednesday night, 7-5.

The Mackey met their equal as the battling Texans matched them play for play in a victory that kept the Independents on top of the league roost. Loose fielding hurt both clubs.

Mackey tied up the game in the sixth but before the inning was over the Texans were two runs out in front and stayed there. Pete Pace limited the heavy hitting Mackey to five hits, including a homer by Hardin.

Colgate Eleven May Be Winner

HAMILTON, N. Y. (UP)—Colgate's pre-season football outlook appears to be the brightest in several years and if the draft doesn't take too many stalwarts at the last moment, Coach Andy Kerr believes his Red Raiders will be one of the outstanding teams in the East.

An undefeated freshman team that defeated both Cornell and Syracuse yearling is expected to furnish some high-class material and there are some able veterans on hand. In the last group are "Indian Bill" Geyer, a speed back who excels in breaking away for long runs; Capt. Hans Guenther, a big, powerful tackle; Jo-Jo McCourt, a fast, hard-running back, and Jack Scott, a hefty guard.

St. Louis Cardinals Keep Winning Despite Procession Of Trouble; Terry Moore Is Struck On Head

Associated Press Sports Writer
The pennant problem in the National League is getting to be "can the St. Louis Cardinals keep going with all their injuries?" instead of "can the Cardinals beat the Brooklyn Dodgers?"

There have been only five games this season in which Manager Billy Southworth has had available the complete Cardinal lineup and the club's hospital list is beginning to read like a page out of who's who in baseball.

Topping off the long string of accidents, Terry Moore, the best centerfielder in the league, was struck on the head by a ball pitched by Art Johnson Wednesday at Boston. He will be out of action for a week.

Moore is captain of the Redbirds, an invaluable cog in the hub, one of the great fielding players in baseball, a 300 plus hitter, and a real Gas-Houser with the heart of a lion.

Take Double-Header.
In spite of this procession of trouble the Cardinals have kept right on coming and Wednesday they swept a doubleheader from the Braves 2-0 and 3-2. Ernie White, the Cards' great young left-hander, pitched a six-hit shutout in the first game for his 15th victory and Howard Pollett, a 20-year-old southpaw just brought up from the Texas League, pitched a four-hitter for his major league debut in the nightcap.

The double triumph enabled the Cards to climb within a game and a half of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who were given a 7-6 handout by the Pittsburgh Pirates for Brooklyn's sixth straight win.

The Cincinnati Reds reinforced their third place position by shutting out the poor Phillies twice, 2-0 and 3-0.

The Chicago Cubs cut loose with a 16-hit attack as Vallee Eaves kept eight hits spaced to beat the New York Giants 9-4.

In the American League the New York Yankees were squeezed out 1-0 by the Detroit Tigers as Tommy Bridges pitched two-hit ball for ten innings in one of the finest performances of his long career.

The Chicago White Sox chopped another game off the Yankees' campaign as John Rigney blanked the Philadelphia Athletics 9-0.

The collapsing Cleveland Indians dropped their 14th game in 15 decisions 6-3 to the Washington Senators.

Ted Williams hit two home runs, giving him a total of five in two days and 28 for the season, but his Boston Red Sox were beaten in both ends of a doubleheader by the St. Louis Browns, 11-9 and 4-3.

WASHINGTON (AP)—America's 7,500,000 licensed hunters got official assurance Thursday of a 60-day open season on ducks this fall, along with welcome word from the fish and wildlife service that the waterfowl population had more than doubled since 1935.

The interior department's 1941 regulations for shooting migratory gamebirds, announced Wednesday, permit northern sportsmen to take to the blinds on Oct. 1.

Two other broad lateral zones, stretching east-west and having the same general expectations for the advance of duck hunting weather, were assigned later opening dates. The season will start in intermediate zone October 16, and on November 2 in the southern states.

Duck Hours Are Same
A 60-day season and a bag limit of 10 again was set for ducks, but dove hunters saw their shooting period trimmed to a maximum of 42 days. The 15-day season for woodcock was continued.

The regulations continue to bar the use of bait or live decoys, and in addition prohibit the use of cattle, horses, or mules as blinds. Hunters may use shotguns not larger than 10 gauge, and repeating and automatic guns must be plugged to take no more than three shells.

Duck and goose shooting hours remain the same—sunrise to 5 p. m. Dove hunters may start gunning early, in some areas on September 1, but their game will be limited. A drastic reduction in the shooting season for mourning doves was ordered, a survey showing the numbers of these birds were "decidedly unsatisfactory." The seasons were reduced to a maximum of 42 days, against shooting periods as long as 77 days in some areas last year.

Fort Worth Cats Move Near Rebels

By The Associated Press.
The hard-pressed Dallas Rebels, who skipped from third to fourth place in the Texas League within the last few days, now have the hungry Fort Worth Cats sniffing at their heels.

While the Rebels were splitting a doubleheader with the Exporters at Beaumont Wednesday night, the Cats pulled up to within three and one-half games of Dallas by drubbing the Sports at Shreveport by the score of 9-2.

Behind the pitching of Joe DeMoran, the Rebels punched out a 7-6 victory over the Exporters in the opener, but dropped the nightcap, 5-2.

The Houston Buffs, their losing streak definitely a thing of the past, maintained the visiting Oklahoma City Indians in the time of the 2-0 in a series opener. If the Buffs win four more games they will have clinched the league pennant.

The Tulsa Oilers, who get stronger as the league season nears an end, banged out 15 hits to win 6-4 from the last-place San Antonio Missions.

Northerners Are On Team Roster For School Game

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—With the acceptance of Ed Green, Gaineville high school backfielder, all 22 members of the North Texas team were in the fold Thursday for Musk-Kat Shrine's oil bowl football game here Labor Day.

Green, one of the leading mail carriers in District 5-AA last season, will report with his mates Monday to begin practice under Coach Jess Neely of Rice and Assistant Coach T. E. Jefferies of the Wichita Falls Coyotes.

The West Texans, 22 strong, also will report Monday under Morley Jennings, Texas Tech athletic director and former Baylor coach.

His assistant will be Howard (Bull) Lynch, head coach of Amarillo's state championship high school Sandies.

Howe Will Play Icers Players

Rampaging Southern Ice and John P. Howe were scheduled to reel off the final city league women's tilt Thursday night.

The Icers, fresh from a victory, 32-6, over McCamey Tuesday night, are set for the "Blue Girls." In the McCamey slaughter, the Midland fens went on a hit parade and eight of the players hit homers.

Howe's out in front will be fighting to keep the Icers from tying up the title chase.

Seal First Baseman Becomes Good Hitter

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Ferris Fain, 20-year-old first baseman of the San Francisco Seals, is one of the few professional ball-players with a rubber contract.

Fain is regarded as a fielding genius and had trouble living down the reputation of "Another Hal Chase" when he joined the Seals. Strangely, he is living up to the title. Fain hit only 238 last season and the club offered him only a modest contract for 1941. Fain held out for more.

Then a compromise was reached. If, after two months of the 1941 schedule, Fain proved himself a Class AA hitter as well as a fielder, his spring contract would be torn up and a new one written.

Fain is hitting .343 and his contract has been rewritten.

White Lauds Club's Ruling On Golfers Playing In Shorts

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP)—The directors of the Kansas City Country club let themselves in for jibes and laughter from even their best friends when they ruled that shorts and slacks were taboo on the golf course, but they found balm for their wounded feelings in a defense of their action written by William Allen White, Emporia, Kas., editor.

The directors pointed out that players in national tournaments had to check their shorts in favor of skirts and said there was nothing about a golf swing that made it more difficult to execute while wearing what they called more conventional attire.

White, writing in his Emporia Gazette, of the course, is not in the interests of morality," he wrote. "If men and women want to run wild, eat crab grass and wear tails, they may do it without any serious infraction of the fundamental morals of the race. But the Country Club order is a matter of good taste. After all, for something more than 2,000 years, civilized people of good breeding in the temperate zone have worn clothes of one sort or another. The custom, perhaps a bit outworn, still receives the sanction of the vast majority of the human race."

White developed the thesis that shorts wearers want to show their bodies and added:

"She wants to show her little body and swish her rudimentary caudal appendage to attract the boys and men she passes on the highway." Her mother thinks she doesn't know anything about such things. Ho haw haw. Her mother has a short memory. She was off the same piece of goods at the little girl's age and has forgotten it.

The Country Club is dead right in saying to the exhibitionists who want to show themselves off—hire a hall."

There are a few outstanding first or second year men who might merit major league promotions but the number is much smaller than usual. Old timers like Babe Herman of Hollywood and Hal Turpin of Seattle generally dominate the batting and pitching averages.

Twelve young players in particular have caught the eyes of the scouts but some of them need more seasoning.

The best young pitcher in the league to date has been Larry Jansen, brought up by the San Francisco Seals from Salt Lake City this year. Mainstay of a second division club, Jansen had won 12 and lost 5 up to Aug. 1. Scouts are of the opinion, however, he could use another year of Class AA experience before graduating.

Ivory Hunters Will Find Slim Pickings

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The pickings appear to be pretty slim for the baseball ivory hunters surveying the rookie crop in the Pacific Coast League this season.

There are a few outstanding first or second year men who might merit major league promotions but the number is much smaller than usual. Old timers like Babe Herman of Hollywood and Hal Turpin of Seattle generally dominate the batting and pitching averages.

We, the Women

By Ruth Millett

Every woman owes it to herself to be as attractive and gracious a human being as possible. But almost every woman owes it to someone else, too.

A wife owes it to her husband to appear at her best even in her most casual contacts with others. The wife about whom people wonder "Why did he marry HER?" is letting her husband down, no matter how good a job she does of making a home.

HARD ON CHILDREN

A mother owes it to her children to look as well as she can and to get on with others to the best of her ability. It's hard on children to have a mother that they aren't eager for others to know, no matter how understanding and self-sacrificing she may be.

A daughter owes it to her parents to make the most of her looks and her personality. They've done their best to give her the things that will make an attractive, socially well-adjusted person of her, and they can't help but be worried and troubled if she turns into a grown-up woman who is careless of her looks and awkward in her dealings with other people.

And any woman owes it to her friends to appear to the best advantage. A friend of long standing may know all of Agatha's fine qualities, may love her for her generosity, sincerity and loyalty.

A STRAIN ON FRIENDSHIP

But it puts a strain on the friendship to have to warn strangers before they are introduced to Agatha with such phrases as, "She isn't especially attractive looking. She just doesn't care about clothes, and never seems to know whether her nose is powdered or not. But she's really a most wonderful person, and I know you'll like her."

Almost every woman owes it to someone besides herself to look and act her best, instead of being self-satisfied enough to adopt a "take-me-or-leave-me" attitude.

BIG TUNA CATCH HOLDS RECORD JUST TWO DAYS

BAILEY ISLAND, Me. (UP)—Ira Herbert of New York city struggled 3 1/2 hours with a special rod and reel and finally landed a 756-pound tuna—the largest taken from Maine waters in 1941.

Two days later while fishing from a dory with a hand line, Stanley Johnson, former National A.A.U. hammer-throwing champion, landed a 790-pound tuna after a 20-minute fight.

VIRGINIAN VOTER 62 YEARS

ASHLAND, Va. (UP)—Hugh Campbell, 61, claims to be Virginia's champion voter. Campbell, who first voted in 1882, when he was only 20, has voted in every primary or general election in 62 years. He is voting registrar of his home precinct here.

British Columbia Has Great Yards Industry

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UP)—When the story of shipbuilding in this war is told, British Columbia will stand in the forefront.

The Duke of Kent, when he toured shipyards at North Vancouver recently, learned something that many Canadians do not yet realize—that Canada now has its own Clyde-side, along the banks of war-remote Burrard Inlet.

At one stage of his tour, the duke walked between two towering, partly-completed hulls. The noise was beyond description as riveters kept on with their jobs, sparing not even a side glance for the royal visitor.

These men have developed a team spirit found in few other industries. Each riveting crew is a team—and the competition for highest speed and best workmanship is keen.

Not since the World War have British Columbia shipyards cradled hulls like these. Big, 10,000-ton ships, the first of 100 to be turned out before the end of 1943.

SCHOOLS DROP GERMAN

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP)—Kansas City high schools will have no regular classes in German this fall for the first time since World War days. School board members reported the teaching of German would be discontinued altogether except for a special class in one high school, and the French has been dropped from four schools.

WATCHDOG'S BARK UPHELD

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP)—A watchdog has the right to bark in performance of its duties, the neighbors' objections notwithstanding, City Judge Michael L. Roberts has ruled. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Wagner complained that a neighbor's dog "barked continuously from dark until midnight" when its master was away from home.

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better. Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sensations show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Tortoise Beats Hare In Race Towards Beauty

By Alicia Hart
NEA Service Staff Writer

Once you have made up your mind to be a lovelier looking, more attractive person, it's a good idea to start the self-improvement campaign slowly and cautiously. Otherwise, you are likely to become bored with the entire business and stop doing any of the planned routines. For instance, while you may know good and well that you ought to get rid of the excess oil in your hair, do something about your large pores in your nose and lose a great deal of weight, it's best to tackle one problem at a time. If, all at once, you start brushing your hair every night, dieting and exercising and using a pore mask on your nose several times a week, you're likely to be weary of the very thought of your face by the end of the first week.

But if you concentrate on doing reducing exercises for fifteen minutes each morning and eating smaller portions of food at each meal for a month, then begin on your hair, improving yourself will seem less of a problem.

REGULARITY A REQUISITE

During the second month, keep on with your exercises, and your diet, and be sure to brush your hair every night. By the end of the second month, you'll be enough of a Spartan to be able to continue the routines to improve hair and figure and do something about your face as well.

Remember, of course, that no beauty routine will be greatly effective unless you do it regularly and exactly according to directions. Don't "go off" your diet just because you have company. (You can pretend that you are eating more than you are.) And don't give up exercises just because you have weekend guests. Stick to whatever routines you start.

- 4. Is it better to say "permit me to assist you" or "let me help you?"
- 5. Is it necessary to "keep your eyes constantly on the face of the person who is talking?"

- Answers: 1. Ushers is the term now preferred.
- 2. No. "The person who telephoned."
- 3. That of a member of the family.
- 4. "Let me help you."
- 5. No. But "What Would You Do" solution—(b).

ELECTRIC TOOTHBRUSH INVENTED BY DENTIST

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UP)—After four years research a Minneapolis dentist, Dr. P. O. Rosen-dahl, has perfected an electric toothbrush which he believes will supplant the hand technique of brushing teeth.

It consists of what appears to be an ordinary toothbrush set in a handle resembling an electric shaver. A motor in the handle operates the brush in the rotary motion approved by dentists. The device can be plugged into any light socket.

Loaf of Bread 10 Feet Long

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The biggest "loaf of dough" in Philadelphia wasn't at the mint. When the Master Bakers Association held its annual outing the principal exhibit was a loaf of bread 10 feet long carried by 50 boys and girls in patriotic costumes.

Cuban Industry Feels Effect Of Clamp On Prices

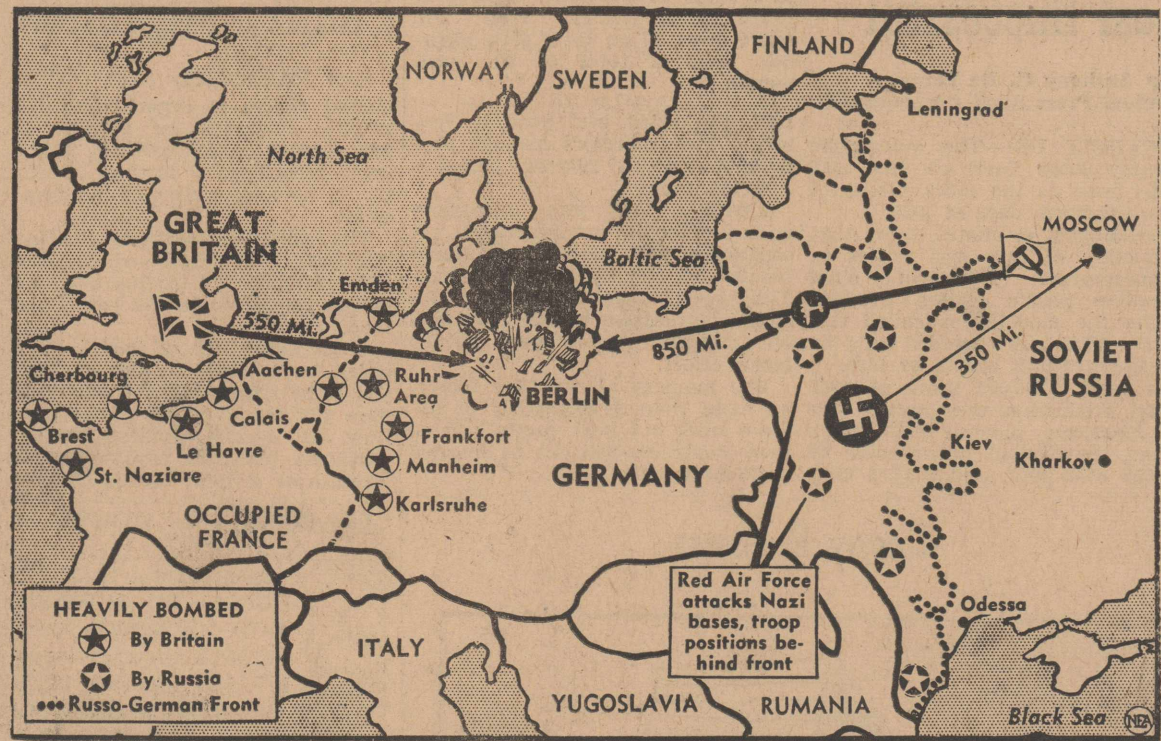

By Lawrence S. Hass
United Press Staff Correspondent

Cuba, the first country with which the United States negotiated a reciprocity trade treaty (September, 1934), under practical application of President Roosevelt's good-neighbor policy, has become the first Latin American republic whose basic industry has felt the weight of U. S. efforts to control commodity prices as a part of the general scheme of national defense.

Leon Henderson, administrator of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply, determined to protect the United States consumer from undue price advances, has set a ceiling of 35 cents a pound on raw sugars, delivered in New York, duty paid.

Leaders of the Cuban sugar industry, other important industrial and commercial figures, the press and even some persons high in government circles, immediately assailed Henderson's step as "ruinous to Cuba's economy." It was pointed out that the imposed price was 30 points below the prevailing market prices of sugar, and some Cuban commentators said that the price-fixing might give rise to "fifth column" activities in Cuba. One of the outstanding leaders in the sugar industry warned, in Havana, that serious socio-economic disorders might be provoked.

How Two R. A. F.'s Rain Bombs on German Capital

Nightly raids by two R. A. F.'s—the Royal Air Force from the west and the Red Air Force from the east—are distracting features of the Russo-German conflict for Berlin. Map compares distances allied bombers must travel with that covered by Nazi planes in raids on Moscow.

SYNTHETIC MATERIALS

The same care should be employed in laundering washable nylons and other synthetic fabrics as is used in washing any other sheer or delicate material. Generally speaking, use only very mild soapsuds, lukewarm water, gentle handling, and careful rinsing. Hard rubbing and strenuous wringing are unnecessary. After rinsing, wrap garment or hose in a thick turkish towel to blot up the excess moisture. If ironing is necessary, use only a moderately warm iron. READ THE CLASSIFIEDS

Group Seeks Greater Beauty Appreciation

NEW YORK (AP)—A group of men headed by Prof. Paul H. Douglas of the University of Chicago have enlisted the services of noted artists and illustrators in a campaign to spur appreciation of the beauties and benefits of the United States.

The campaign had its inception in a remark by a Washington official that Axis posters all seemed to laud the warlike qualities of the countries involved. This official felt Americans ought to concentrate on the less grim aspects of life.

HAMBURGER EDGES AHEAD OF HOT DOG IN FAVOR CHICAGO (UP)—If the hamburgers eaten daily in Chicago were placed end to end they would make a bridge across Lake Michigan.

The vice president in charge of hamburgers of the Chicago Restaurant Association estimated that 75,000 are consumed daily, or puts the hamburger just a little ahead of the hot dog, despite the hot dog's social advantage of being a favorite with President Roosevelt.

of the women's national committee of the American Contract Bridge League and now a member of its executive committee.

We participated in a special duplicate game in our honor, and were once again greatly impressed with Pacific coast bridge. Be prepared for quick doubles in this section of the country. You will notice the double on today's hand is very close, and fine defensive play was needed to defeat the contract on trick.

South won the opening lead with the ten of hearts and returned a diamond. The jack forced the ace, and North led the other heart. South won with the queen and shifted to the ace of clubs, followed by the seven. North took his queen of clubs and then laid down the king.

South now made a brilliant play by trumping the king of clubs. He wanted an entry lead to the ace of hearts. This lead assured North of a trump trick, which was needed to set the contract.

1941 Model Year Most Successful

By Anthony G. De Lorenzo
United Press Staff Correspondent

DETROIT (UP)—The automobile industry looks back on the 1941 model year as the most successful since the boom days of 1929.

Perliminary estimates show that production of cars and trucks in manufacturers' American and Canadian plants totaled 5,890,000 during the model year ended this month. This exceeded only by the 5,621,715-unit output of 1929.

At least 5,290,000 units of 1941 model production were turned out in American plants. The year's output represented an increase of 897,662 over 1940, and 573,563 over

Twin Postal Workers To Retire
BOSTON (UP)—Carl and William Flister plan to become the first twins in postoffice history to retire simultaneously. They will retire June 30 on their 65th birthday after a total of 60 years, service.

1937, the third best year in history. The industry's average production over a 20-year period is 3,600,144 units.

Although 1941 was a bumper year, automobile manufacturers are confronted with drastic curtailment because of the defense emergency. The government is striving for greater utilization of the industry's men and machines to speed the defense effort.

The industry already has received more than $2,000,000,000 of defense work but peak production on these contracts will not be reached until next year.

U. S. Has Great Family Migration

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The United States is experiencing the greatest migration of families to new homes since covered wagon days, according to Nathan Straus, U. S. housing authority administrator.

The difference between the two migrations, he explained, is that today families are moving into new houses completed to the last mouse trap.

On a flying trip to Pacific coast cities to see what slum districts should be eliminated and why they were not being rebuilt faster than they are, Straus declared his department plans to rehouse 193,000 families or a total of 750,000 people in 444 localities in 39 states and territories.

Three quarters of these projects, he said, are in cities of fewer than 50,000 population. "At this moment," he declared, "there is a shortage of 13,000,000 decent dwellings in the United States. We hope to be able to produce some 200,000 fit homes this year.

COLLEGE TEACHERS FIRST AID

NEW YORK (UP)—In connection with the plan to add courses which will be valuable in the Defense Program, the Hunter College Evening and Extension Division has placed in its curriculum non-credit adult education courses in First Aid, in cooperation with the New York Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Army May Buy Homing Pigeons

NEW ORLEANS (UP)—Thirty Orleansians have a hobby which in the event of war would be turned into a grim business—the training of homing pigeons.

Their grooming, which has been going on for years, might end in acquisition of the birds by the army signal corps and their use in war communications in which service other pigeons, like the famous Cher Ami, have performed so heroically in past wars.

H. P. Robbert, president of the club said the birds have been flying in regularly scheduled races, in some of them hundreds of miles. In one race from Birmingham, Ala., to New Orleans (more than

"EMBALMING" DEVELOPED TO PRESERVE ALL WOODS

PETERSHAM, Mass. (UP)—Farmers and woodland owners will have cause for rejoicing if experiments now underway at the Harvard Forest here prove successful.

Experts are testing certain preparations for the preservation of wood. The process is expected to be successful with both hardwoods and conifers.

Through a kind of "embalming" method, preservatives are forced into fence posts, log cabin walls and rustic furniture which will keep the wood from decaying.

One of Robbert's birds is a descendant of Little Hope, which carried 169 messages in the World War.

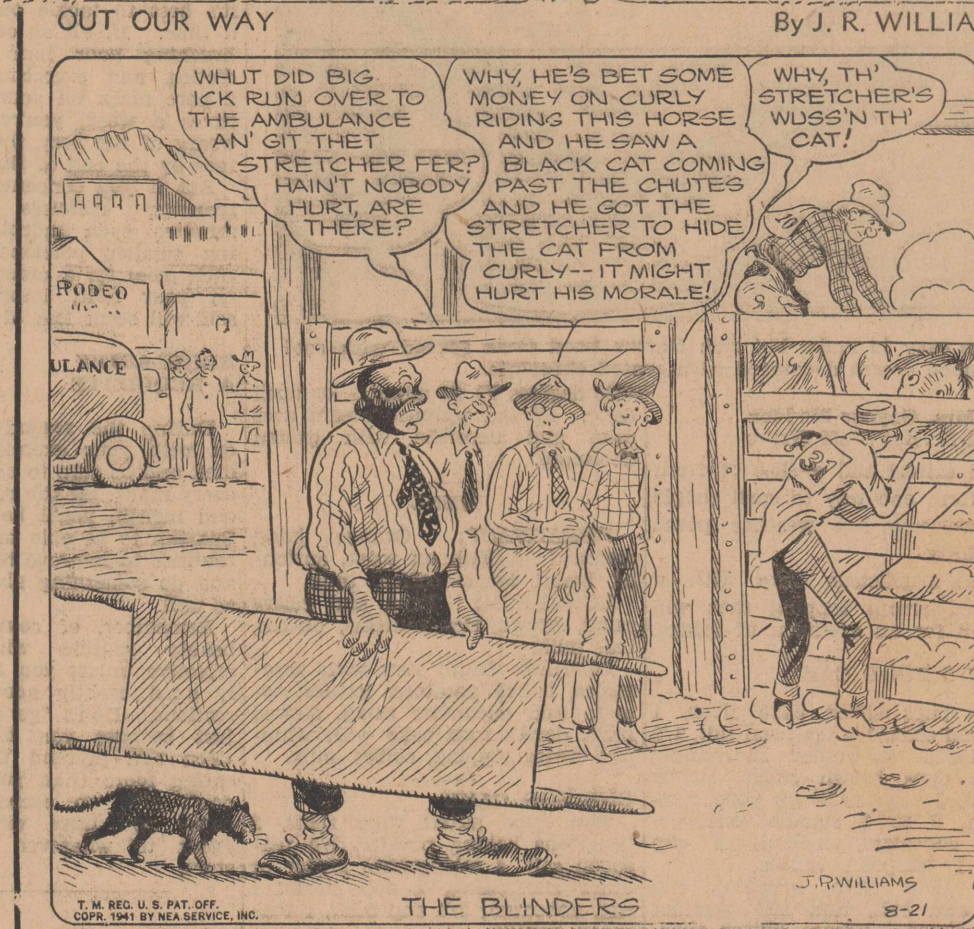

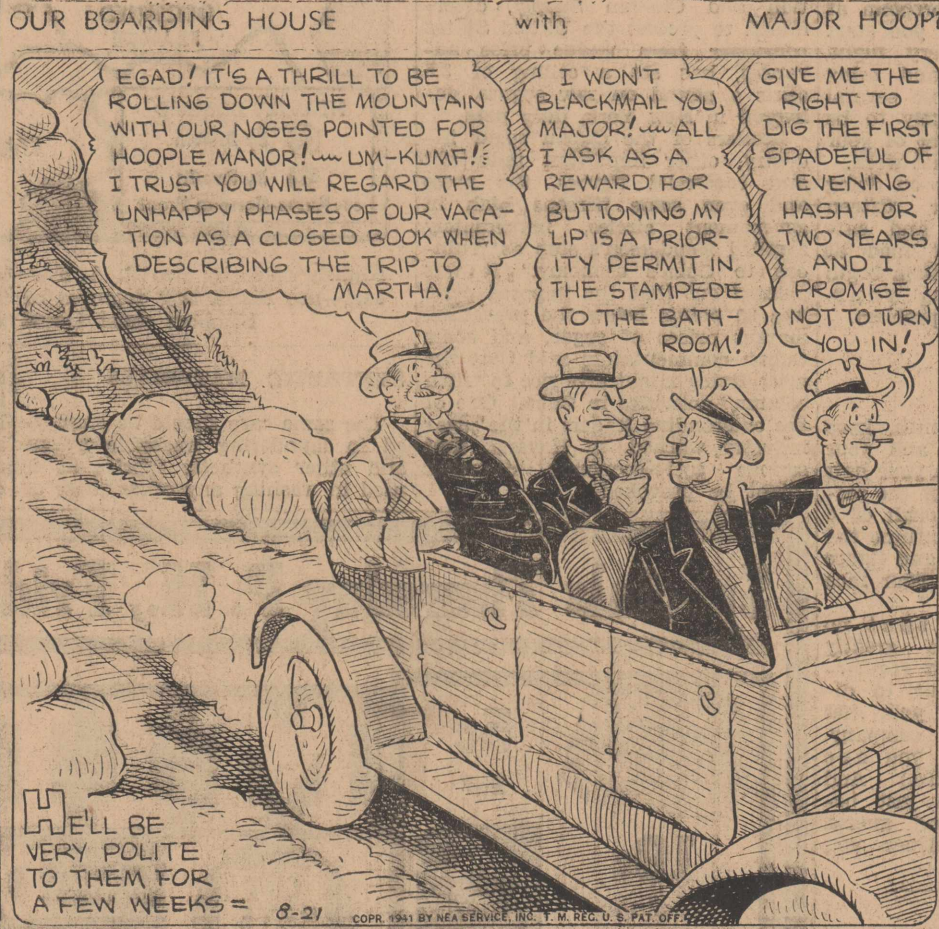

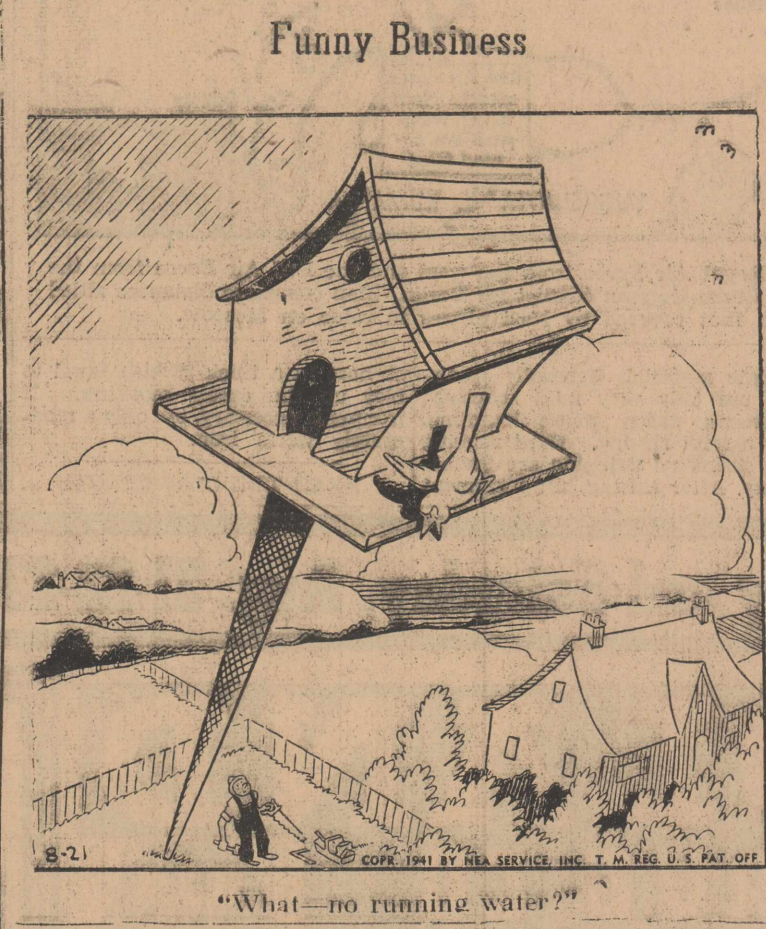

BOYS TO JAIL ON SUNDAYS

YUBA CITY, Cal. (UP)—Imprisonment on Sundays for six weeks was the penalty assessed by Police Judge H. D. Moncur of Yuba City upon Edward L. Nieto, 18, and Robert N. May, 18, accused of stealing bakery goods from a truck.

Judge Moncur suspended a 30-day jail sentence and decided upon the Sunday imprisonment when he learned that the youths had weekend jobs.

TIME SERVED IN 18 STATES

SALLEM, N. J. (UP)—Arthur James, 48, of Atoka, Okla., who is serving a 90-day sentence in County Jail here, believes he is one of the "most arrested" men in the country. James' record shows he was arrested at least 33 times, and that he has served sentence in 18 states.

SHERIFF SIGNS UP FLIERS TO AID LAW ENFORCEMENT

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UP)—Sheriff Lon Jordan of Maricopa County has organized a civilian defense air squad composed of flying county residents pledged to volunteer aid of law enforcement agencies.

The sheriff also planned to use his airplane squad for determining the extent of forest and brush fires and to direct ground forces against the flames.

The squad also may be used for running errands of mercy with food, clothing and medicine.

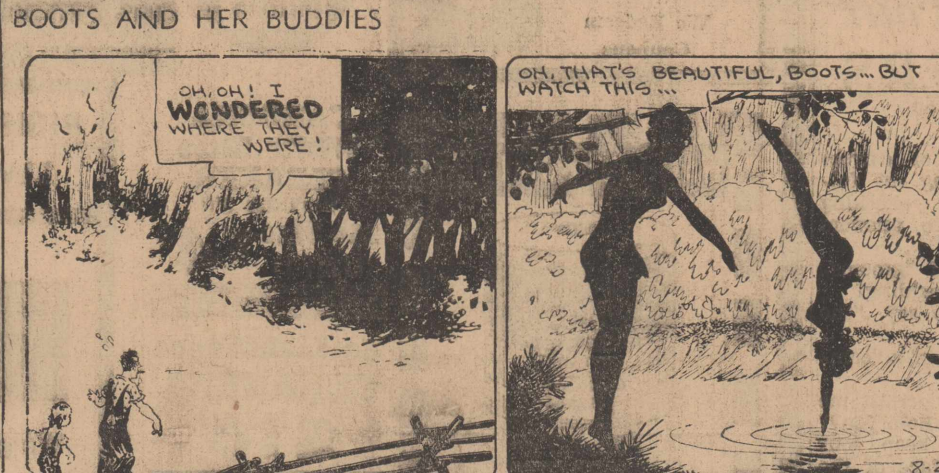

BOSTON FIRE APPARATUS TO BE PAINTED WHITE

BOSTON (UP)—A fire truck described as the nation's longest now is answering alarms in Boston.

Arrival of the 125-foot aerial ladder truck also inaugurated use of a new color for fire apparatus—it was painted white, as all engines will be in the future.

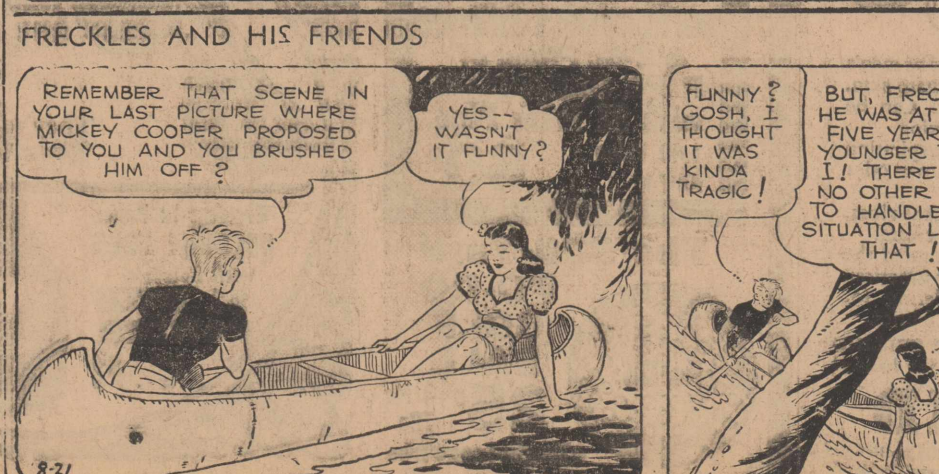

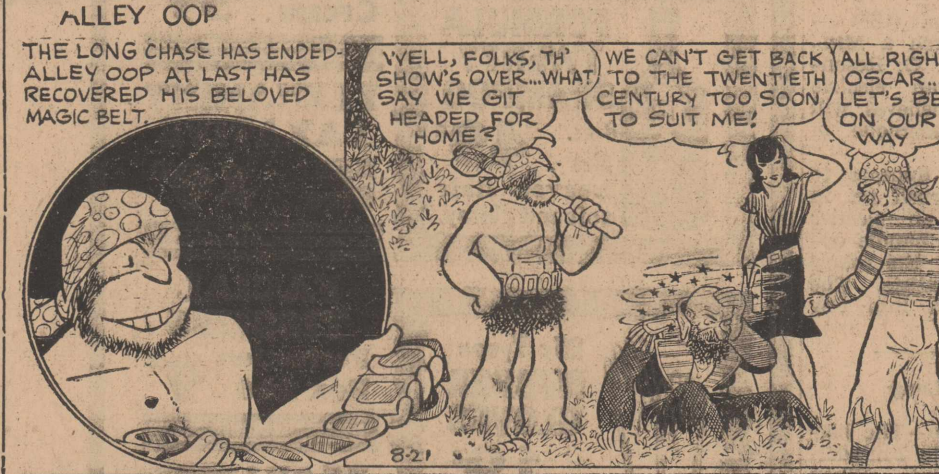

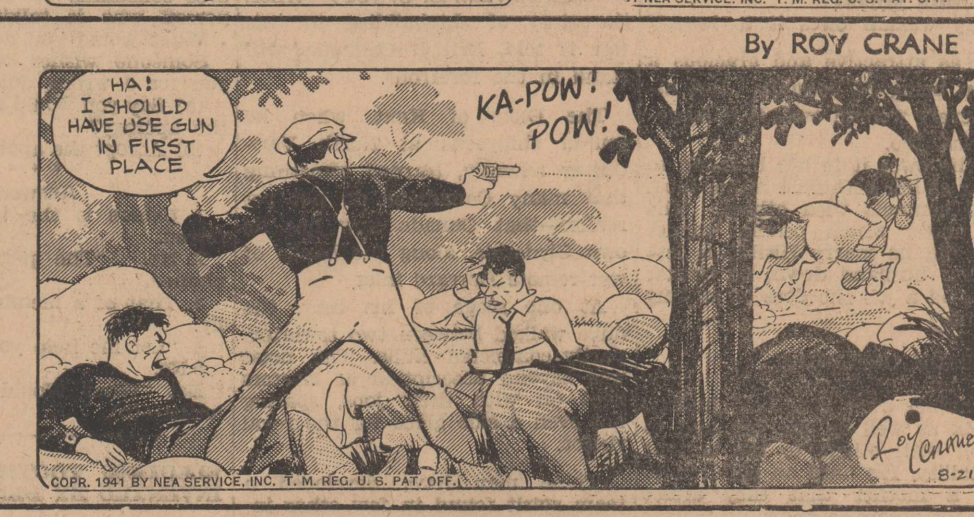

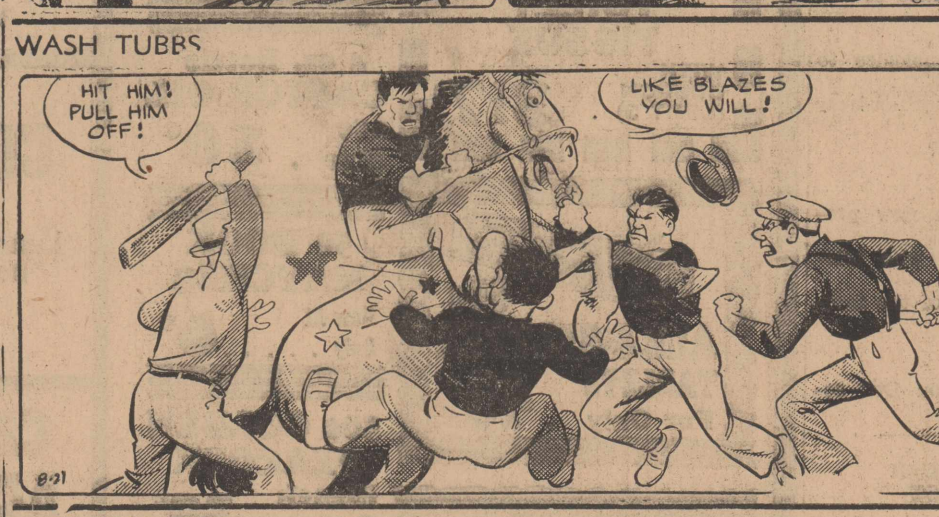

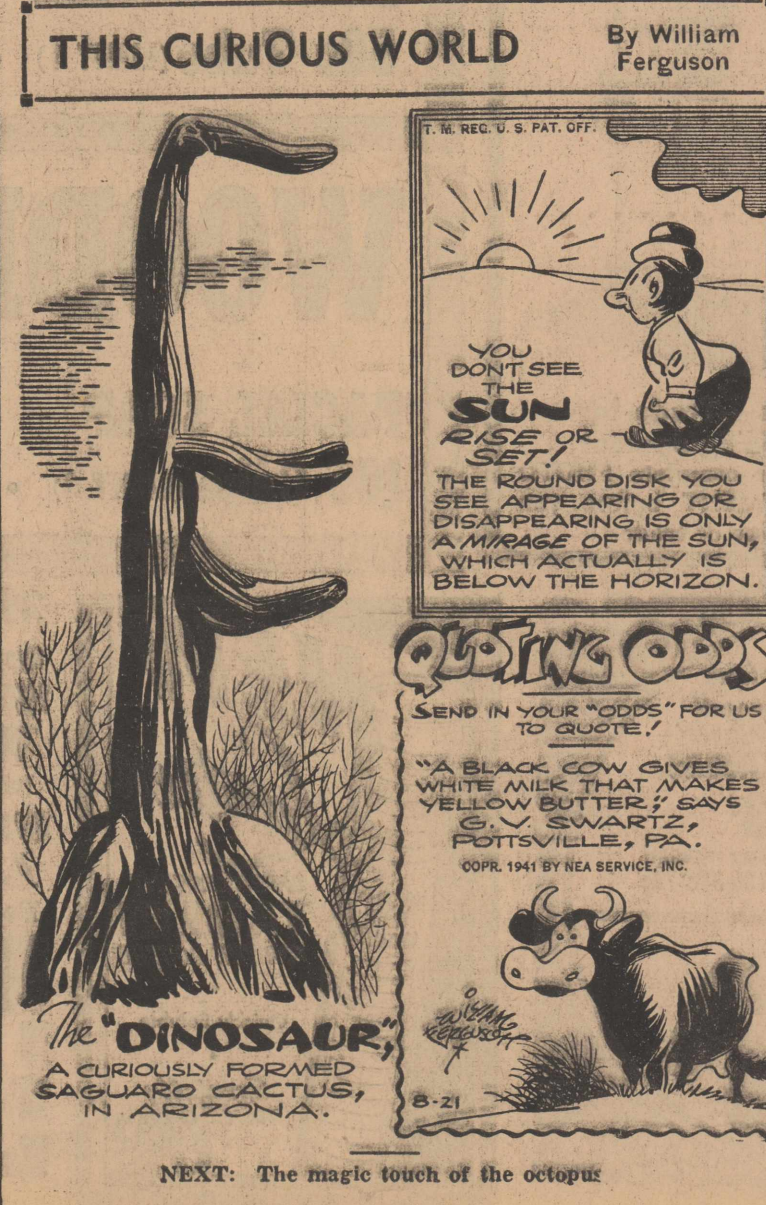

NAUTICAL SPEEDERS NABBED

SAN RAFAEL, Cal. (UP)—A newly appointed nautical traffic cop cited for the first time two boat owners for violating the speed limit on the St. Rafael canal which traverses the city. The limit is 5 miles an hour because a greater speed causes waves in the wake of the boat that damage the sides of the canal.

How Allied Bombers Check Japan

Allied bombers, with ranges of 3000 miles and up, are a major force blocking Japanese aggression southward, for they can blanket all southeast Asia and would probably meet little opposition from the older, weakening Nipponese air force. Map shows areas bombers now at Singapore, Manila, and Chungking could cover, with Vladivostok a possible base for direct bombing of Tokyo.

Jap Gunboats Bristle at Russian Border

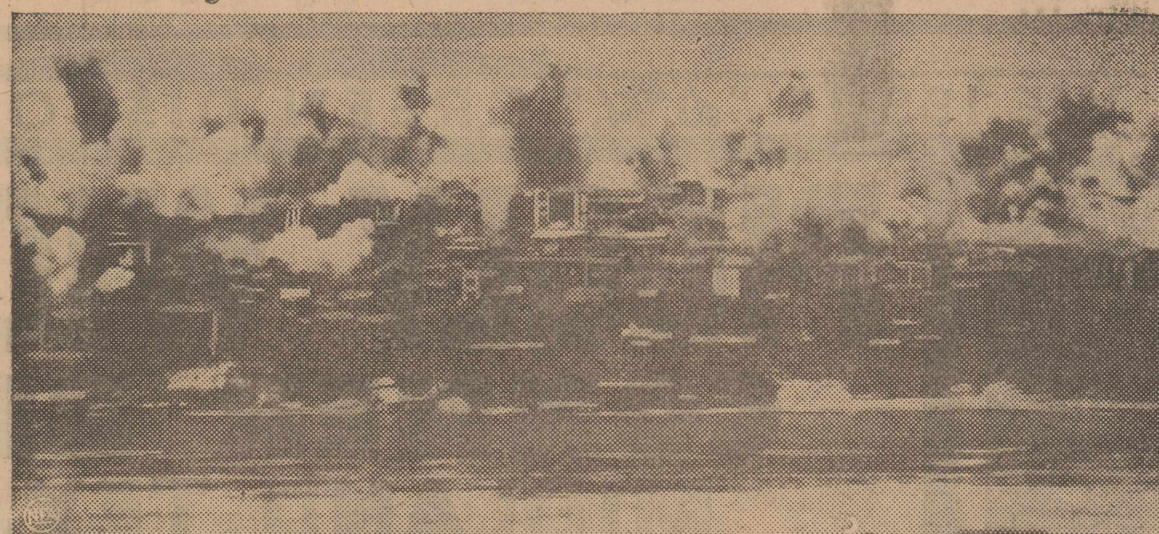

As Japan reportedly asks Russia to demilitarize its Siberian border with Nipponese-dominated Manchukuo, gunboats of that puppet state patrol waters where the Sungari flows into the Amur river. Far shore is Siberia.

Where U. S., Germany Look Southward for Bases

Guarding against German occupation of Vichy's Dakar, the U. S. is eyeing French possessions in the Western Hemisphere as possible sites for bases. Map shows where U. S. might move and how Germans at Dakar, although still farther from New York than at Brest, France, would be within bomber range of South America.
