Democratic Sweep Keeps Lyndon Johnson in The Saddle

Bailey County reversed its previous Republican status to vote democratic for every candidate on the ballot with the exceptions of the Republican candidate for the senate George Bush who nosed out his opponent Ralph Yarborough by 200 votes. Lyndon B. Johnson and Hubert H. Humphrey carried Bailey County by 447 votes.

Nation wide the Johnson victory carried such Republican strongholds as Maine and Vermont. However, there could be a future political thorn in the side of the Democratic party in that Johnson failed to capture Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, South Carolina and Georgia. Johnson's winning margin was larger than Kennedy's in 1960 and is expected to be in excess of 61 per cent of the major party vote.

Representative for the 19th Congressional district George Mahon carried Bailey County by approximately 1,000 votes and was also re-elected to Congress.

Bailey County voted for all three constitutional amendments and all democratic candidates running for local office with substantial margins.

Bailey County had a record vote of 2,583 in the 1960 elections and voted Republican in 1952 as well as 1960 with Nixon - Lodge receiving 1,180 votes to 1,065 for Kennedy - Johnson.

There were 82 absentee votes in 1960. In this election, 142 had been received by County Clerk Hazel Gilbreath.

In 1960, precinct No. 1 had a total vote of 1,675 which instigated a need for 2 precincts. This election precinct No. 1 had 1,156 votes cast and precinct No. 1-A had 564.

Bailey County has approximately 2,515 names on the State Poll Tax and Exemptions list, 20 obtained "free" Poll Tax receipts to vote for federal office, 58 received a first free vote as persons who are just 21. It is estimated that another 3V person were eligible to vote by being over 60 years of age.

Dusty Thomas, Muleshoe High School Student, opened the program for the Tuesday meeting of the Rotary Club. He commented on Distributive Education and how he felt the experience was valuable to a student planning to go to college or into business after graduating from High School.

Gard pointed out that attitude is an important factor and that some people either do not want to accomplish something - had enough or convince themselves something cannot be done and take the easy way out and that community attitude reflects the sum total of thoughts of the people in the community. Self confidence.

Irrigated Grain Sorghum Harvest 95% Complete

Farmers in the Muleshoe area are still bringing in grain sorghum, with an estimated "over 95 percent" per cent of the irrigated grain sorghum crop already harvested. There is still considerable dryland sorghum to be harvested.

The speedy windup of irrigated sorghum is attributed to ideal harvesting weather - late, open, dry and with very little moisture. This year's harvest in irrigated sorghum has reaped probably one of the best sorghum has reaped probably one of the best sorghum harvests in the area in many years, according to J. K. Muleshoe Schools Announce Modern Math Film Series

"Why do we have a new or modern math? What is it?" These are questions asked by parents here as elsewhere where the new teaching operation is being used or planned.

To answer Muleshoe parents, the Muleshoe Schools announce the sponsorship of a series of six films on Modern Math for parents, Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, curriculum supervisor, announced this week.

The first of the Science Research Associates (SRA) films will be shown on November 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Auditorium, December 1 and December 8 are set for the next sessions with the final three sessions to be scheduled in the second semester.

New lens for the school movie projector and enlarged screen will be used to allow more complete and better screening facilities for the course, which is currently being used at Teacher Workshops in Lubbock.

New math does not replace traditional math, it deepens the student's understanding of mathematical operations, Mrs. Watson said. As a result many students show a greater interest and success in studying math.

The rapidly increasing demand for mathematics in business, industry, and science makes it necessary that the schools improve their program. Modern technology requires a greater understanding of mathematical operations. Simply learning to add, subtract, multiply and divide is not sufficient, she said.

The new math system explains that mathematical operations are no longer taught as separate parts. There is a relationship between subtraction and division. One does not exist without the other.

Drill is still needed and taught. It is an area in which parents learn to understand the new math system, can be particularly helpful, officials point out.

Port Hueneme Sophomore Writes About Former Resident In Studies

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is written about Mrs. Leala Burton, a resident of Muleshoe and surrounding area for more than 30 years. Mrs. Burton lived in the 400 block on East Second Street for a number of years prior to going to California where she lives with her daughter, Polly Burton and Ruth Needham. Linda is a Sophomore at Port Hueneme, Calif., and wrote the following as an English assignment.)

MY MOST UNFORGETTABLE CHARACTER

There is always one person in everyone's life that will never be forgotten. My most unforgettable character is an eighty-three year old neighbor lady that everyone calls "Granny". Her parents were of English descent, but Granny was born in Iowa in 1881.

In 1918 she moved, with her husband and children, to a farm near Muleshoe, Texas, which she still calls home.

She is a direct descendant of Sir Walter Scott, a writer of romantic poems and literature, which explains her appreciation of books and poems. At the age of sixteen Granny was teaching school and continued working to earn a living until she was seventy-nine. She then moved to Port Hueneme, California to live with her two daughters and has lived here ever since.

Since 1959 Granny has had several operations and illnesses, but she doesn't let these things stop her from doing what she wants to do. Granny has the "spirit of a lion" and the determination of a baby taking its first step. She will not be confined to a bed or a hospital for any length of time because she likes to be up and about doing things for other people. She reads her Bible daily. She makes her own bed, keeps her room neat, and prepares her own meals, and can often be seen in the kitchen preparing something. She still does most of her own ironing, not because she has to, but because she wants to. And like a true Englishman she has tea every day at three o'clock.

Granny loves flowers of any kind. On warm days she can be seen outside with her sun-bonnet on her head, watering and caring for them. She can tell you the name and description of any flower you ask her to and she thoroughly enjoys it. She has her own cactus garden in the back yard and recently packed a box of plants to send to her daughter-in-law in Muleshoe, Texas.

Granny is still interested in politics and will tell you frankly that she does not like Goldwater and doesn't like Truman very much. Watching television is one of her pleasures. She especially likes Roller Derby and enjoys seeing the skaters get into fights. She also likes some of the daily Soap Operas.

She finds short car rides enjoyable but doesn't like long ones because she is afraid of the traffic.

Poetry and books of all kinds interest Granny and she reads extensively. She can finish a library book in three or four days. When I visited her last week she handed me a notebook and wanted me to read what was in it. She had written several poems she had remembered from her childhood. I was amazed to see that she hadn't forgotten them in so many years.

Granny has already started making aprons for Christmas presents. Her friends would rather have something she made her own hands than boughten gifts.

She has many friends and is loved by everyone who knows her. She never complains about her illnesses or misfortunes. After talking with her and watching her, people feel that they have benefited and pray that they live to be as happy and kind as Granny is.

She is truly an unforgettable character.

Area Children Create Colorful Procession In Halloween Event

It was a warm, sunny day and the 68-piece Junior High School Band played stirring music as 130 costumed children marched in Muleshoe's first Halloween Parade last Saturday afternoon. Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the event drew crowds of interested spectators, fond parents, and kids, kids, kids.

Aged from 2 to 14, the youngsters filed along a 5-block parade route through downtown Muleshoe to the apparent delight of all. Many cameras were in evidence to record the moment. Some mothers, trying to be inconspicuous, walked along beside the festive procession, keeping careful watch on smaller tots.

Proudly exhibited were costumes ranging from simple to extremely elaborate, some "store-boughten", other tediously fashioned at home. There were witches, goblins, ghosts, monsters, clowns, pumpkins, hoboes, and various comic and animal figures. There was even one complete set of "Beatles". Many carried "props", such as brooms and knapsacks, and there was extensive use of make-up to heighten the effect of the different attire.

Pat Glover, Chairman of the Parade Committee, presented $35 in cash prizes for costumes judged best. Winners in the "Funniest Costume" Division were 1st place, David Owen, $7.50, 2nd place, Andrea Douglas, $5, and 3rd place, Ross McKillip, $2.50. The McKillip youth, with a giraffe's head towering 10 feet high, also won the special $5 prize for the costume showing the most originality.

In the "Scariest Costume" Division, preferred by young contestants, winners were 1st place, Debra Haynes, $7.50, 2nd place, Janie Perez, $5, and 3rd place, Eddie Stallings, $2.50.

Ushering in the holiday's schedule, the parade was a acknowledged success. At the procession's end, Glover said, "The pleasure on the faces of the participating children proved this to be a most worthwhile project—we will recommend it become an annual event."

Working under the Retail Activities program of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce, Glover's committee consisted of Harvey Bass, Douglas Haynes, Franklin Mann, Olan Burrows, Red Simmon, Jim Beller and Jimmy Lane.

Glover said the participation of the Muleshoe Junior High School Band under the direction of Bob Breckenridge added much to the occasion's success.

He also expressed appreciation for the help and patience of the mothers, children, police and Sheriff's personnel.

SCARIEST DIVISION — Skeletons, witches and wierd faces captured the judges and public eye in this division of the downtown Halloween Parade Saturday. Winners were Debra Haynes, Janie Perez and Eddie Stallings.

Games Scheduled At Jones Stadium Twirlers To Be In Competition

LUBBOCK, Nov. 2—West Texas State, only team on Tech's first football schedule being played this fall, invades Jones Stadium for a game with the Red Raiders at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Each team has won four games this season. West Texas has downed Texas Western, North Texas, Trinity, and San Jose State and lost to Ohio, Arizona State, and Memphis State to bring a 4-3 mark into the neighborhood encounter.

Six Muleshoe twirlers will compete in the Interscholastic Twirling League Saturday in Leveland.

All the fans streaming south won't be pulling for the Buffaloes, since Texas Tech is banking on products of Panhandle schoolboy football. Among these are All - America halfback candidate Donny Anderson of Stinnett, tackle Bill Malone of Phillips, end Sam Cornelius of Spearman, end Clyde Windom of McLean, end Terry McWhorter of Perryton, and halfback Jerry Lovelace of Farwell.

Texas Tech, fresh from a 6 - 6 regionally televised draw with Rice University last week, is 4-2-1. Victories have been over Mississippi State, Texas A-M, Texas Christian, and Southern Methodist. Texas and Baylor defeated the Raiders.

Attending from Muleshoe High School will be Linda Griffiths, Donna Phipps, and Jana Stevenson.

Junior High School twirlers to attend are Cindy Crane, Cindy Smith and Pam Avery.

FARMERS WINNING BATTLE OF THE BOLL WEEVIL!

BATTLE RECORD TO DATE

SPRAYING	ACRES SPRAYED	COMMENT
Number 1 (Beginning Sept. 15)	303,000 acres (Originally estimated 240,000 acres. Total includes Skip-row)	First application was hampered by rain, wind, etc. Migrating weevils caused increase in size of control zone. Extremely high adult and unemerged weevil populations encountered.
Number 2 (Beginning about October 4)	281,000 acres (Reduction due to acreage desiccated or harvested)	Field checks indicated effective kill of adult weevils but continuing emergence kept new weevil population up. Additional planes brought in to speed up sprayings.
Number 3 (Beginning about October 13)	230,000 acres (Continuing harvest and desiccation)	Field examination showed great reduction in number of adult weevils, with low occurrence of weevils in diapause stage. Also fewer unemerged weevils.
Number 4 (Beginning about October 21)	190,000 acres	Few unemerged and very young weevils left. Practically no weevils in diapause stage.

CONCLUSION: Remaining unemerged and young adult weevils will be kept from going into hibernation either by frost or a fifth spraying. Entomologists agree that hibernating weevils will have been reduced by more than 90 percent by end of this year's program.

Financial Arrangements

- Compresses to collect 50c per bale, and remit to a special boll weevil control fund in bank — no connection with P.C.G. regular funds.
- While compresses collect on all cotton, the contribution is voluntary for individual farmers who may request and receive refund.
- All funds are under direction of a Certified Public Accountant firm.
- Monthly financial reports by U.S.D.A. and Boll Weevil Steering Committee will be made — Complete audit will be published at the end of season.
- Any unexpended Steering Committee funds will be placed in interest bearing account for continuation of Boll Weevil Program next season. Unexpended U.S.D.A. funds must return to Treasury, as all appropriations are on annual basis only.

Confidence is a must and that fear defeats more people than any single thing. Also a goal is important because it gives a person purpose and direction. Sorghum ..

Every crop will yield a greater net return this year as irrigated fields show better yield and the slightly higher prices should offset increase in production costs. Prices for sorghum hold to $1.85 to $1.90 average, which is ten cents higher than last year's prices. Hershel Ward, manager of the Farmer's Cooperative Elevator, said most grain dealers were buying to sell locally, rather than for storage.

County record show 155,000 acres planted in the crop, which makes sorghum the biggest crop acreage-wise.

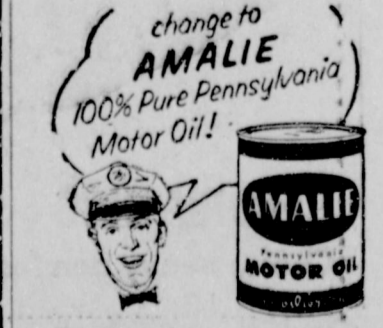

Dryland sorghum is lower than average in yield this harvest, estimated as less than 50 per cent of the normal crop by some grain men, but it is better than expected earlier in the season. Harvest of the dryland sorghum will be complete late because of the late planting and will have to wait for a killing freeze. The lower yield is attributed to the little moisture of the summer drought.

Grain is of good shape and quality this year, Jim Small of King Elevator reports.

Tin presently sells for more than $3,000 a ton and industrial demand for the metal is increasing.

Vacation In Florida Keys

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stockstill, Earth, and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Wheatley, Lazbuddie, accompanied Morgan Locker on a business flight to the Florida Keys and Vero Beach.

The group left Muleshoe Thursday morning in the Aztec and flew to Meridian where they landed for lunch and refueling. From there, they flew non-stop to Vero Beach.

At Vero Beach, they made a tour of the Piper factory Friday morning then flew on to Little Torch Island in the Florida Keys.

They took the coastal path of flight for a view of the "Gold Coast" and the fabulous resort area along the route.

While there, they toured Key West and took the 14 mile Conch Train trip seeing many of the historical and scenic points of the area.

They viewed the Audubon House built in the 1830s the home of John J. Audubon, famous ornithologist and author of many bird books.

They found Montello Towers, a Civil War Fort, Turtle Kralls and seven - mile bridge interesting, as well as a tour of the Naval Ship yards. Among other historical points of interest was The Little White House where many presidents spend vacation time, especially Presidents Truman and Eisenhower.

Also, they saw the famous "Seacat" a submarine of outstanding service; the Submarine home and museum; and the southernmost home in the United States, that of Thelma Strand, author of "Reap the Wild Wind."

A Cupan spray plane had landed on the Keys with pilots requesting political asylum and was being guarded by the Navy.

They noted very little damage from hurricanes in that area.

Wheatley and Locker went deep sea fishing and had good luck catching fish.

A planned outing and deep sea diving had to be cancelled due to rough water.

The group flew back to Vero Beach Saturday afternoon and arranged to pick up a new Chevrolet.

UF Rural Division Headed by Mel Evans

Chairman of the Rural Division of the Muleshoe Area United Fund Drive this year is Melvin Evans, manager of the Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge. This Division of the campaign is assigned the very large task of contacting farmers and rural residents throughout the Muleshoe Area, including all of Bailey County.

In line with the Funds stated aim of giving every adult person in the area an opportunity to make his gift, the Rural Division will make every effort to reach all prospective contributors.

In commenting on the drive, Evans said, "We are confident of the support of rural areas, because several member agencies directly benefit these areas, including the Junior Livestock Show, 4-H Youth Development Corporation, Boy Scouts, Babe Ruth League, and the Muleshoe Area Youth Center." He went on, "The services of all our agencies are available to all residents of the area, and an estimated 43 percent of our population is found outside of Muleshoe."

Melvin Evans was born in Denver, Colorado and raised on a wheat farm east of that city. He graduated from high school in Aurora, Colorado and attended Colorado State University in Ft. Collins, where he graduated with a degree in Wildlife Management.

He did research for the Colorado Game and Fish Department on a big game shooting preserve before joining the U. S. Bureau of Sport, Fisheries, and Wildlife as assistant manager of the Bear River Migratory Bird Refuge, Brigham City, Utah.

From there Evans was transferred in the same capacity to Kirwin National Wildlife Refuge in North Central Kansas. After nine months in that post, he was promoted to his present position of Refuge Manager and moved to Muleshoe.

He assumed his duties at the Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge June 5, 1962, one of the youngest men ever to hold such a position. Since that time, he has developed an extensive public relations program and increased public usage of the refuge about 300 percent.

Evans is a member of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce, serving on the Area Relations, Program of Work, and Recreation Committees. A Rotarian, he was Bulletin Editor last year and is now Chairman of the Safety Committee. He is a director and Membership Chairman of the Friends of the Library and he serves the Bailey County 4-H Clubs as Wildlife Coordinator.

A life member of the Order of DeMolay, he is also a member of the Colorado State Alumni, National Wildlife Society, Muleshoe Area Toastmasters, Bailey County Game Management Association, Bailey County Agriculturist Group and the First Methodist Church.

Evans resides with his wife, Alice, at the refuge headquarters 20 miles south of Muleshoe. His outside interests include duck hunting, plant identification, baseball, woodworking and developing a personal library.

He expresses "His great appreciation for the community

 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — This city once again became the seat of the executive branch of the federal government as President Johnson moved back to his home grounds for an expected prolonged post-election stay.

The President preferred to vote in person at his old box in Johnson City, rather than cast an absentee ballot.

An elaborate communications network was prepared for the election day party here. Hundreds of national press, radio and television representatives accompanied Johnson to Texas Monday night.

Major developments are anticipated at the vacation White House during days immediately following counting of the votes.

The president, while resting up from the campaign, undoubtedly will be formulating his plans for the future and staying leaders and workers who are working in the rural division all over the county for all the worthy causes represented in our United Fund."

about of national and international developments at this important period.

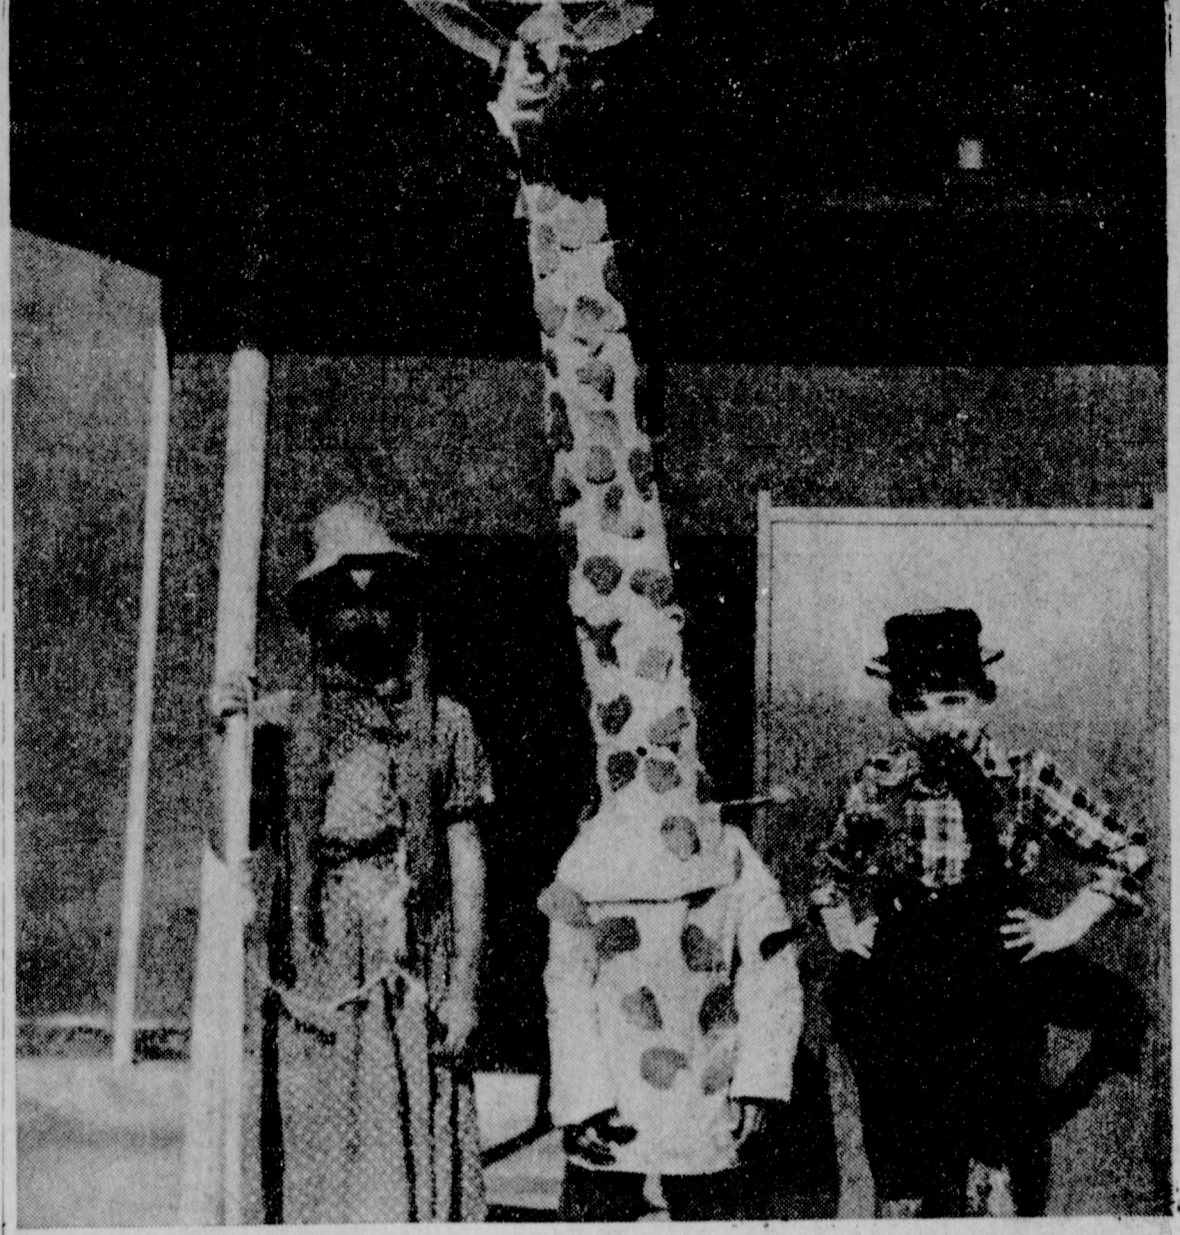

He is scheduled to entertain at least one distinguished visitor at the LBJ Ranch, Mexico's President-elect Gustavo Diaz Ordaz will visit him November 12 - 13 according to early reports.

Most observers predict the President will remain at least until mid-November, possibly longer.

COURTS SPEAK — Court of Criminal Appeals criticized state courts of inquiry but declined to declare unconstitutional the law authorizing such procedures.

Issue came before the court in the appeal of Pasadena Attorney N. A. Smith who claimed his constitutional rights were violated in a court of inquiry into Pasadena city finances. Judges ordered Smith freed of contempt of court charges arising from his refusal to testify at a court of inquiry held on June 2.

Court of Criminal Appeals also ordered a new trial for Arthur Geter on marijuana charges in Harris County, citing a new U. S. (See Highlights, Page B - 5)

FUNNIEST DIVISION — Costumes ranged from the very tall type to the common ole hobo in the "Funniest Division" of Saturday afternoon's Halloween Parade. Winners pictured are: David Owen, Andrea Douglass and Ross McKillip. Ross also received the award for most original costume.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

WATCH YOUR HAT, COAT The sign over the coat rack read: "Not responsible for lost or stolen articles." John glanced at it as he hung up his coat and hat and then turned to assist Jean, his wife, in taking off her fur coat. He put it on a hanger beside his own.

The two of them drifted casually down the corridor into the dining salon and were assigned to a table by the hostess. The lunch was exceptionally good and both were hungry. The minutes flew by. John glanced at his watch, "Golly, it's almost 1 o'clock. Better get going."

But when they got back to the coat rack, Jean's fur coat was gone. "I'm sorry, sir," said the manager, "but we are not responsible for lost articles. We put up the coat rack for the convenience of our patrons, but that sign you see makes you responsible for your own hat and coat. I'm awfully sorry, but we just can't watch everybody's possessions." Sign Not Factor

The fact is that in the case of Jeans fur coat, the restaurant would not have been responsible for its loss even if there had been no sign. One who takes off a garment and places it on a coat rack, as one would do in a restaurant, retains the power of it himself.

Ordinarily, under such circumstances, the operators of the restaurant have no responsibility toward the customer's belongings because they have not knowingly received the exclusive possession and dominion over them.

The case would be different, however, where the coat had been checked to an employee in a checkroom. In such event, the management probably would be responsible. So, also, in the cases where a customer checks valuables with a bathing house proprietor, or with a hotel desk clerk, or leaves his automobile with the parking lot attendant to be parked and stored for him, those receiving possession of the customer's property have the duty to use proper care to see that the customer's property is returned.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm this week discusses a slight of the situation in Russia.
Dear editor:
When it comes to knowing what has taken place in Russia, I don't know any more about it than Washington, London, Paris or Mr. Khrushchev did, but there is an aspect to it that has got me to thinking.
As I understand it, Mr. Khrushchev got fired, and I have no feelings about that. He got the job in the first place by getting somebody else fired.

But there was a side effect that interests me. Right after Mr. Khrushchev was fired, according to the account I read in a copy of a newspaper the next day, the editors of the two main Russian newspapers, Pravda and Ivestia, were fired too.

Can you imagine a situation where, if the Bailey County government got turned out of office, you would be too?
What would happen to this country if, every time we elected a new President, all the editors got fired?
I can see the people around here the day after an election scratching their heads and saying, "Well, I see we got a new administration in Washington. Wonder who's gonna be the next editor of the Muleshoe Journal?"
And also, while I know what they do with ousted dictators in Russia, what I'd like to know is what do they do with ousted editors? This makes for very interesting speculation, but not around here, naturally.
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

WIDE WESTERN STREETS COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) - There is a "Horse Sense" explanation for the wide streets in Colorado Springs.

The chief engineer who laid out the town in pioneer days wanted lots of room for turning a double span of horses hauling huge freight wagons.

S. Supreme Court decision that legal representation in trials is a constitutional right. Geter began serving a life term in 1952.

Supreme Court refused to review a dispute between City of Athens and Gulf State's Telephone Company over phone rates. It thus left standing the lower courts' decisions that the East Texas city's 1961 and 1962 rate ordinances do not permit the company a fair return on its investment. City asked higher court to review the case. In another case the Supreme Court agreed that Connecticut General Life Insurance Company is entitled to collect $408,661 in overpayment of occupation taxes for 1952 - 57 and for 1959. It left standing the lower court findings that United Press International libeled Bruce B. Mohs, a Madison, Wis., pilot in a story concerning a seaplane landing. Court of Civil Appeals questioned the accuracy of report of the story. Mohs was awarded some $7,900 in damages.

Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools cannot negotiate a new watersupply contract with the City of Big Spring, according to a ruling by 53rd District Judge Herman Jones. City attempted to have the Austin court set aside a 1937 contract under which it agreed to furnish water to the Big Spring State Hospital at a cost of 10 cents per 1,000 gallons. Estimated cost of furnishing this service now is set at 32 cents per 1,000 gallons. It is expected that the city will appeal Jones' decision.

BUSINESS CLIMBS — Texas building permits rose to a near-record level of $155,000,000 in September.

General Telephone Initiates Local ANC First Stage Begins

The General Telephone Company of the Southwest announced that they are now beginning the first stages of their conversion of the local system to provide ANC (all numeral calling) for this area in the near future. Also terminal - per - station equipment will be installed in the Muleshoe system.

This brings a close to many months of planning and begins the conversion for our area. This will represent a great overall change in the system from the operator system to the completed dial system.

In addition there will be a complete power change out, with the addition of 150 lines and 600 terminals. This conversion will represent several thousands of dollars to be spent in our areas, adding to the growth of this system.

Bob Saunders, District Manager stated that all numbers in the Muleshoe Exchange will be changed to seven numbers on a target date of August 15, 1965. This conversion is geared so that in time, customer toll dial will be initiated.

Saunders also stressed to the Journal the complexity of the change - over, and while every precaution will be taken to prevent service interruption, there will be such occasionally.

An undetermined amount of additional manpower will be added to aid in this construction.
