Palestinian 'Rights' Endorsed By U.S.

JERUSALEM (AP) - Egypt repeated the Arab demands for Palestinian statehood and Israeli withdrawal from all occupied territory today, the United States endorsed the "legitimate rights" of the Palestinians, and Israel called for "concessions, compromise and mutual agreement" to achieve a peace settlement. "There will be no real peace in Palestine for the House of Israel unless there will be an equal house for the Palestinian people," Egyptian Foreign Minister Mohammed Kamel declared at the opening of new Israeli-Egyptian peace negotia-

"We have come to speak of a just and comprehensive peace based on with-drawal from all the Arab territories occupied by Israel in the 1967 war," Kamel said in an exchange of public statements before he, Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan and Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance began private negotiations.

Kamel added that the Arab territories Israel must relinquish include "Jerusalem, the holy city of peace," which Israel has said repeatedly it will never give up.

Vance, who will only remain at the talks until Friday, called for a peace settlement that recognizes "the legitimate rights" of the Palestinians and enables them "to participate in the determination of their own future." He said peace must be based on normal relations between Israel and her Arab neighbors and a withdrawal by Israel from territories it occupied in the 1967 war to "secure and recognized borders."

Shallowater was called to the hospital, and subsequently ruled the baby died of natural causes. However, a doctor at Methodist requested an autopsy, and after the procedure was performed by an Amarillo pathologist, the cause of death officially reflected the young child had suffered a severe blow to the top of the head.

After Lubbock County Sheriff's Department Deputy Alton Hobbs received the autopsy results Thursday, he and Deputy Ernest Rector went to the baby's home - a trailer house about five miles east of Lubbock - and talked with the 18-yearold mother. During further questioning at the sheriff's department, the woman reportedly said she had been living with the suspect for about 14 months.

According to Hobbs, the man, who was not the baby's father, reportedly had abused the child on several occasions.

When deputies took the woman back to the home, they encountered the suspect, an illegal alien, who said he has been in the United States for about seven years. The 22-year-old suspect then was jailed for the U.S. Border Patrol and for investigation of murder.

Deputies, who said polygraph tests were administered during the course of their three-week investigation, presented their reports to the Criminal District Attorney's Office late Monday.

The incident was the second time in six months a young child thought to have died from natural causes subsequently was adjudged murdered.

A five-year-old boy was dead on arrival at Methodist Hospital about 5 a.m. July 16 after he stopped breathing at his home in the central area of Lubbock.

The young mother originally told police the boy drowned in the bathtub earlier that night, but that she was able to revive him. Several hours later, she said, he began experiencing breathing difficulties.

According to an autopsy performed later that day, the youth died from "bronchial pneumonia complicated by severe neglect." On July 19, however, another autopsy was performed, and the cause of death was determined to be 'bleeding on the brain inflicted by trau-

The 45-year-old man with whom the mother had been living for 2 1/2 years was charged with murder, and later freed from jail after posting $10,000 bond.

Prior to today, only .14 inches of precipitation had been totaled for the year. The Rio Grande Valley and the southwest section of the state were the only areas to squeeze by with 32-degree-plus weather. The Texas Coast caught 30-de-

Lawmakers Kapped By Connally

DETROIT (UPI) - Former Treasury Secretary John B. Connally accused Congress today of "closing ranks" for a cover-up of the scandal involving South Korean influence peddling.

The Democrat-turned-Republican bitterly criticized congressional members of both parties for a hypocritical approach to investigating the alleged payoffs, particularly in contrast to their conduct in the Watergate scandal 'You're talking about dozens of members of Congress involved in millions of dollars of payoffs, and there's not been much news on it," Connally said at a news conference. "There hasn't been one

They were the first to loudly proclaim during Watergate that no one should investigate themselves," he said. "Now Congress itself is involved in a major scandal, but it says it can handle it. If they can cover it up, they're going to cover it up.

Connally was in Detroit for a meeting with about 50 Republicans to solicit contributions for the Republican party's purchase of its Washington headquarters.

Although dodging questions about his own political future, the former Texas governor criticized President Carter for a lack of leadership that he said has particularly damaged the economy.

Pentagon Predicts Increase In Worldwide Arms Sales

By ROBERT KAYLOR

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Despite an expected White House ceiling on foreign weapons sales, the Pentagon is estimating that the total of all military transfers will increase by about $2 billion this year to a new high of $13.2 billion.

President Carter has pledged to restrain arms sales worldwide.

Administration officials who confirmed the estimate said Carter still hopes to establish a ceiling that would reduce by about $1 billion sales of weapons and related items to nations not specifically exempted from his policy. Officials said the $13.2 billion figure was supplied to Carter's Office of Management and Budget and will be used in the administration's foreign military assistance presentations to Congress next

Carter issued a set of foreign arms sales guidelines last May 19, stating that the virtually unrestrained spread of conventional weaponry threatens stability in every region of the world" and "the United States must take steps to restrain its arms

The president said sales of weapons and related equipment during the pre-sent fiscal year, which started last Oct. 1, would be reduced from last year's total, except for NATO allies and three other nations with which the United States has long-standing defense treaties — Japan, Australia and New Zealand.

Although Carter's guidelines did not pecifically exempt Israel, which receives out $1 billion yearly in U.S. military

ABC Show Honors Musicians

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) - Fleetwood Mac, Stevie Wonder and Conway Twitty were the big winners in Monday night's American Music Awards, ABC's contribution to the annual series of televised awards shows. The two-hour presentation, as much a variety show as it was an awards presentation, was a slick production homage to public favorites. Unlike the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences' awards, the Grammys, Monday's winners were not chosen by music industry panels but by surveys of record buy-

Fleetwood Mac was named favorite pop group, and their high-chart-riding 'Rumours' was named favorite album in the pop category.

Stevie Wonder also scored two awards - for favorite male soul vocalist and favorite soul album for his "Songs in the Key of Life."

It was interesting that Wonder was one of those who dominated he awards, because he did not release a product in

In the country category, Conway Twitty was named favorite male vocalist, and Loretta Lynn favorite female vocalist. The two of them were named best in the country duo category. Dolly Parton's 'New Harvest, First Gathering" was favorite country album.

Although the awards don't carry the prestige of the Grammys, there were a host of big-name entertainers on hand.

One who those was Kenny Rogers, whose "Lucille" was named favorite country single. Rogers expressed the opinion of many musicians when he said, 'I know a lot of people think these awards don't mean anything. But when you've been in the business as long as I have, with all its peaks and valleys, the peaks come to mean a lot. Barry Manilow, who didn't have a big pop hit in 1977, was named favorite male vocalist, while Linda Ronstadt, who had lots of pop hits last year, was named favorite female pop singer.

Debby Boone, whose "You Light Up

My Life" was the biggest record of the year, wasn't even one of the finalists in the favorite female vocalist category, but her song was voted the year's favorite

Natalie Cole was chosen by those surveyed as their favorite female vocalist in rythm and blues, while the group Earth, Wind Fire was named favorite soul group and The Emotions had the favorite soul single, "Best of My Love."

In all, the evening was a fast-paced, entertaining affair, produced by longtime American Bandstand baby sitter Dick Clark. Among those performing or presenting awards were Rick Nelson, The Captain and Tennille, Ben Vereen, rock pioneer Chuck Berry, Kiss (via video tape), and everyone's favorite. Captain Kangaroo.

The winners of the fifth annual awards show where chosen by a national sampling of 30,000 record buyers.

Coast Guard and Navy searchers in Kodiak and Honolulu knew that only a desperate master would abandon his ship for rafts and lifeboats in the cold, whitecapped seas and gale winds of the Pacific

Four-engined search planes crisscrossed the water around the ship's last reported position, finding only the overturned yellow life raft and the body that was being tossed like a rag doll in the heavy seas. All told, 126 lives were lost in the six sinkings and the weather was a factor in each sinking, except that of the Rose S. "Winds of 50 and 60 knots are common to this area during the winter," a National Weather Service spokesman in Hawaii

Restoration Of Chamber Draws Fire

Yesterday's

WASHINGTON (AP) - George M White will go down in history as the U.S. Capitol architect who restored the original Senate, House and Supreme Court chambers much as they were in the early

But his work is not always appreciated by his contemporaries.

Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., for one, claims the architect is turning the Capitol into a mausoleum and complains the original House chamber "looks like a high-class bordello.

The architect's latest effort is a $69,000 carpet in the House chamber that is patterned roughly after one in the old chamber in 1822. It is getting mixed reviews from the relatively few House employees and reporters who have seen it.

Critics say the bright red and blue colors of the new carpeting are too striking for the somber chamber; supporters say it adds a little color to the place.

You can see it Thursday night when President Carter's State of the Union address to Congress is televised nationally from the House chamber.

The architect's partial restoration of the old House chamber - and the floral wreath pattern of the new carpet - are based on Samuel F. B. Morse's meticulous painting in 1822 of House members convening for a night session.

The old House benches, rostrum and carpeting could not be restored because the chamber is now part of the walkway thousands of tourists, congressmen and to the rest of the Capitol.

But White's restoration of the chamber's dome and walls is faithful to Morse's 1822 painting: scarlet drapes between the marble, columns, recessed designs in the dome and and a replica of the great polished brass chandelier with 30 simulated oil lamps.

This is the House chamber into which the British piled all the furniture they could find for the burning of the Capitol on Aug. 24, 1814.

The original Senate and Supreme Court chambers are not walkways and so the architect restored them completely, with fine old desks, benches, columns and carpeting, to look just as they did in the the

The two chambers were used only as House-Senate conference rooms before White restored them and that is what Stratton was complaining about, with a certain amount of humor, during a debate in the last session.

"Two or three or four spaces which we used to use for conference committees are now museums," Stratton said.

'And what they have done to Statuary Hall (the old House chamber) should not be done to anything," he said. "It looks like a high class bordello with those pink curtains hanging there.'

Rep. George E. Shipley, D-Ill., asked Stratton what a low-class bordello looks like but Stratton said "my own education has not gone quite that far." . . .

While one crew was putting down the new House carpet, others were building platforms for wheelchairs in the public galleries in both the House and Senate chambers.

It's part of a $2.7 million program to make the Capitol, its office buildings, the grounds and the Library of Congress all accessible to handicapped people in wheelchairs.

Ramps are being constructed on all steps; elevator buttons are being lowered so people in wheelchairs can reach them; and workmen have even built ramps at sidewalk corners.

Jealous Husband's Spy Mission Hurts

MILAN, Italy (AP) — A jealous husband broke a leg when he lowered himself with a rope down the outside of a four-story building Sunday night to try to catch his wife in a bachelor's apartment.

The rope broke and the 31-year-old man, identified as Giovanni G., fell onto a second-floor balcony and broke his right leg. Tenants in the building thought he was a burglar and called the police.

The police said there were three women in the bachelor's apartment but Giovanni's wife wasn't one of them.

winning confirmation for his nominations is only slightly better than that of his two Republican predecessors.

That's to be expected, of course, with a Democratic President coupled hand in glove to a Democratic Senate.

But Carter's success is less a commentary on the quality of his appointments than it is a reflection on the superficiality of the Senate's confirmation process.

THE GLARING inadequacy of that process became painfully evident with the forced resignation of Bert Lance, the President's longtime friend and director of the powerful Office of Management and Budget.

Throughout the summer hearings into Lance's dealings as a Georgia banker, it became increasingly obvious that the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee had blithely ignored innumerable danger signals during its original confirmation proceedings last January.

HAD THE committee done a half-way decent investigation in the first place, Lance or political foes, won't lead to another emprobably never would have been confirmed. barrassment like the Lance scandal.

MERVIN THE MAGICAL federal judge was sorely jealous because another Benchrider had beaten him to the punch in desexing high school

In due course, however, Mervin the Magical got his chance to build upon the precedent set by Judge Carl Rubin in Dayton, Ohio

It fell Mervin's lot to be the first to order crosstown busing to achieve sexual balance in the Essex, Sussex and Middlesex high schools.

He directed the offending schools to take affirmative action toward a numerical goal-"not a quota"-of having as many girls as boys on the three football teams.

"It is not sufficient," Mervin the Magical ruled, "to say that anyone can play football regardless of sex. A special admissions program is necessary to assure that a 5 foot 1 female person weighing 92 pounds has an equal opportunity with a 6-5 male person weighing 285.'

"BUT WE HAVE never guaranteed a boy of small stature that he could play on equal terms with the big bruiser," school officials protested. "A female person," Mervin the Magical interrupted, "has endured societal discrimination since birth. Until the last vestige of that discrimination has been overcome, she must be afforded special consideration.

While it may be argued that this discriminates against a male person of small stature, this is a to return to the U.S. to testify in court about al-small price to pay for bringing female persons into the mainstream of the football field.

And so it came to pass that in no time at all girls dominated the football statistics at all three

That was because most of the boys quit after getting Mervin the Magical to order the school trustees to let them compete in ballet like they'd always wanted

The trouble with Congress and the budget is that Congressmen don't no enough.

Considering the size of the national debt, what this country needs is somebody who can make a molehill out of a mountain.

California and Texas rank one-two in defaults on federally guaranteed student loans, accounting for 40 per cent of the total nationally, according to the U.S. Office of Education.

That is a blow to Texas' state pride. Imagine, California being ahead of us in deadbeats!

WASHINGTON-When is it bluster, and when is it fair warning? We remember Mussolini who liked to bellow at small countries and couldn't whip Albania.

But there was William ("War is hell") Sherman and George Patton. There was Truman warning the Japanese before he struck with the two

There was Krushchev frightening the British and French out of Suez by threatening "rockets" which he may not have had. There was Kennedy with a superiority of 10 to one in nuclear explosives, yet in the light of later events without the Truman nerve to pull the trigger

But in international politics of the day, it is not just a choice of either-or. The House Intelligence committee, sporadically meeting over the holidays has got three guesses about everything it's told.

IS IT INFORMATION, intended to convey knowledge? Is it misinformation, meaning that somebody read the meter wrong?

Or is it disinformation, which is a deliberate planting of seemingly logical, irrefutable and reliable fact, but only for the purpose of laying a firm foundation for false conclusions?

The House Intelligence committee happened to be around, and is too cautious to bet on a hand of four aces, but this panel allegedly is braver than I am about some purported "secret" material out of Red China. It is an executive session address to Chinese leaders by Foreign Minister Huang Hau. The document was circulated to us dumb correspondents around Christmas time. It is long (42 typed pages) and as full of clues as enything by Agatha Christie. But since the Foreign Minster of China was paid to be speaking on the party's Central Committee's instructions, it pays to give heed: UNLESS THE TRANSLATION is invented, and planted, the People's Republic of China is in an ideological confrontation with "revisionist" and "imperialist" Soviet Russia. This Soviet Union is not at all the offspring of the Marxist-Leninist gospel of pure socialism, called communism, it says here.

That true doctrine now resides with the heirs of Mao in continental China. This claim won't take any literate Westerners

"YOU MUST COMPARE one contractor against another to make sure you are hiring the right one," adds Robert G. Breniff, marketing manager for Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp., a Batts are the familiar insulation blankets, prefabricated by the manufacturer into uniform thickness and density.

Loose-fill is insulation in a chopped-up form, which is "blown" between attic floor joists and wall studs with special pneumatic equipment.

"LOOSE INSULATION is good for areas which are hard to reach," explains Breniff, "but batts offer the special advantage of assured thermal performance."

While there can be variations in the installed thickness of loose insulation (which may affect its making less than $5,000). Crime was reported as a ability to keep your home warm in winter and cool in summer), the variations are reduced with batts because the material is prefabricated into dimensionally consistent blankets before it's inports that a "flag of truce" is going up in the bat-

"They'll even tell you whether they're fully insured-and you should ask, since accidents sometimes occur. This is the best way to protect yourself against a possible lawsuit in the future." Ask for competitive bids. This is fundamental in most fields of this nature, and in insulation one contractor whose work might be of just as high quality as a competitor's, might charge you considerably less.

IN GETTING MORE than one quote, describe the job's requirements precisely the same way to each bidder to make certain you can realistically compare the merits of each proposal.

Prices charged by contractors vary, of course, depending on local labor costs and the complexity of the job you want done.

But a reliable yardstick both Sutton and Breniff agree, is that you'll pay approximately one-third more to have a contractor install insulation in your attic than if you try to do the job yourself.

The contractor will save you time as well as the cost and inconvenience of having to do most of the job all over again to correct your mistakes.

The moonshiners Big Six Henderson tracked down imparted heroic dimensions to him and respected him as much

"Mr. Big Six," one woman said when he came to haul her husband off to jail for a third time, "we're proud to have folks know we know you." More than a few moonshiners named their children for Big Six Henderson.

One even named his mash barrel for him, painted "Big Six" on it and talked to it fondly

"Good morning, Bix Six," he said to the barrel one day. "Why don't we just run ourselves off a little batch, you and I.

What do you say to that, Big Six?' "That you're caught, Thurlow," Big Six Henderson said, stepping out of the mist. At 75, Big Six Henderson is still impressive to behold.

His career as a lawyer was as rapid as his fastball.

"My first and only case was defending a guy who broke into a warehouse. He was guilty as hell, but I got him off. I decided if I had to make a living that way I might as well be a holdup man and at least be honest about it."

There is nothing complicated about Big Six Henderson's sense of justice.

So he became a federal treasury agent, a "revenooer" as they are known in the hills, and went about it with a singlemindedness that became the stuff of

Compromise Clears Way For Trial

A Dispute between Criminal Dist. Atty. Alton Griffin and defense lawyer Phil Brown was resolved to some extent Monday, clearing the way for a Jan. 30 start to the Clarence Allen Lackey capital murder trial.

The rift between the opposing attorneys surfaced Monday during a pre-trial hearing in Judge Robert C. Wright's 137th Dist. Court, when it was revealed that Griffin earlier this month had requested state witnesses not to discuss the case with the defense.

Without going into details, Griffin Monday said Brown, appointed by the court, along with attorney Tom Richards, to represent Lackey-had breached a prior agreement between the state and defense concerning witness interviews. He indicated he had personally requested-but not officially advised-state witnesses not to talk to the defense as a result of Brown's actions.

Griffin said for the record that Richards had not been involved in the alleged breach of agreement

Because of its inability to talk to witnesses, the defense had filed an application to take oral depositions from more than 70 witnesses, with the motion the main reason for Monday's hearing.

If the application had been granted, it would have meant a delay in starting the

After a series of conferences, however, which delayed the start of the hearing nearly three hours, Griffin agreed to give the defense access to witnesses.

Once the hearing got underway, Richards withdrew the motion to take oral depositions, clearing the way for the commencement of jury selection Jan. 30 in San Angelo, where the case has been moved on a change of venue.

Lackey, a strapping 23-year-old con-struction worker, was indicted for capital murder as a result of the July 31, 1977 slaying of Toni Dianne Kumpf.

The body of the former Texas Tech University Medical School secretary, also 23, was found that day lying near a field south of Lubbock. The blonde victim's throat had been slashed.

been abducted from her 1001 Ave. W residence about 6:30 a.m., some three hours before the body was discovered. Tension between Griffin and Brown was apparent throughout the hearing.

Although Griffin did not expound publicly on the disagreement, Brown revealed during the hearing that it stemmed from the fact his office had interviewed two witnesses between Dec. 19

The two sides had earlier agreed that Griffin would set up defense interviews with witnesses at state expense, and a schedule was reportedly to be worked

Griffin apparently felt Brown had not abided by an understanding that the defense would not talk to witnesses except in the prescribed manner.

Ocean Liner Ends Career

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Twenty years after her maiden voyage, the 20,-000-ton Pacific Far East Line ship Monterey will end her career this week as one of the two remaining U.S. flag cruise

After Thursday, the boat will fall beneath the shipbreaker's hammer or begin a new career with a foreign shipping line. The government subsidy which enabled the Monterey to compete with foreign vessels has run out, and a similar fate awaits her sister ship Mariposa in the

A final farewell party for the ship, whose profile was well known in the South Seas, Honolulu and West Coast ports, will be staged aboard ship on Thursday at Pier 35 in San Francisco. It will be a $25-a-head benefit for the Fishermen's and Seamen's Memorial.

The 547-foot Monterey, one of the better-known luxury liners to ply the Pacific under the American flag, made its maiden voyage in 1957 as a Matson Navigation Co. ship. The Monterey and Mariposa, which carried 365 passengers each in one class, were sold to PFEL in October 1970. The Mariposa's shutdown in spring will end American passenger cruise

The ships, prior to their entry into Pacific passenger service, were former Mariner-class cargo ships which underwent $40 million conversions at the Willamette Iron and Steel Co. at Portland, Ore.

The Mariposa originally was the Pine Tree Mariner and the Monterey the Free State Mariner. Both were built in 1951. They were the first American ships to be equipped with gyroscopic fins beneath the waterline to dampen the roll of the sea and give passengers a comfortable ride.

Lubbock County sheriff's deputies today were continuing their investigation into the slaying of a 19-year-old grocery store clerk who was shot during a robbery late Sunday.

As the search for the killer or killers of Bruce Darrell Kelley was nearing the completion of its first full day, an armed robber held up the 2017 4th St. Serv-U Food Mart about 4:30 p.m. and made off with about $1,400.

Following a brief chase on Lubbock's east side, police arrested a 29-year-old suspect minutes after the heist.

Deputies said today said they had few leads in the county's first murder-robbery of the year.

Kelley, who was working his first night alone at Vera's Grocerette on W. 4th Street was killed about 10:40 p.m. Sun-

Sheriff C.H. "Choc" Blanchard said deputies were still taking statements from patrons who claimed to have seen a Mexican-American woman "acting nervous" inside the business only a short time before a Smyer woman entered the store and found Kelley's body sprawled on the floor behind the cash register. Witnesses also reportedly saw a Mexican-American man slumped behind the steering wheel of a tan 1965-1970 Chevrolet parked outside the convenience store. But Monday neither suspect had been located. The robbers got away with about $97, although loose coins and bills, along with three spent .22-caliber shells, were scattered around Kelley's body when officers arrived at the scene. Following a partial autopsy on Kelley's body late Monday, Chief Deputy Albert Smith today said the victim had been shot three times. Wounds had been found in the stomach, shoulder and chest. Because of the position of the wounds,

Smith Monday theorized each shot came before Kelley fell. However, he did not rule out the possibility that the shoulder wound was inflicted from a different angle than the others. Kelley reportedly had only worked at the store four days before he was killed. Funeral arrangements are pending with South Plains Funeral Home

Lubbock police, though, Monday arrested a man they allege was responsible for the holdup of the Serv-U store after chasing the man several blocks and finally stopping him by firing two shots. Serv-U night clerk Robert Edgar McDowell told police a black man entered the store about 4:30 p.m. and called him over to a counter as if he needed the clerk's assistance.

When McDowell walked over, the man gave him a note and pulled up his shirt to show a gun hidden in the waistband of his

Lubbock Police Baffled Over 'Missing' Money

By PAULA TILKER Avalanche-Journal Staff

Twelve weeks of intense investigation into the possible loss of between $1,400 and $2,000 from the Memorial Civic Center has left detectives baffled and auditors clueless and unconvinced any money is missing.

Although the case remains open, Det. Capt. Wayne Love said he does not know how he will proceed with the inquiry.

"I'm not sure any money was taken," he explained. "We don't know exactly what happened that night if and when it

And because about 35 people had access to the civic center box office on concert night, Love said, the process would be complicated further. "There's no way you can do it (give polygraph tests) with all of them," he explained.

"Until they get to the point of telling me they can't trace it," Weston declared, the detectives and auditors will have to plow the same ground in their investiga-

"Right now, as far as I'm concerned, it's still not settled," said Weston, who admitted that the longer the case remains unsolved the more he doubts an answer will be found.

Although the searchers "seem to feel it wasn't theft," it is possible money in the form of tickets, personal checks or cash is missing, Weston said. Or a mathematical error may have been made, he said.

If after the exhaustive search detectives and auditors decide there is no way

The box office safe combination was changed, and only a limited number of staffers know the number, Weston said. The door lock on the box office door also was changed, with similar restrictions on the number of keys given out, he added. In addition, Weston said, these procedures will be followed:

-The safe will be closed and locked at all times (it was open continuously the night of the Doobie Brothers concert);

-Access to the box office will be restricted to designated personnel, auditors and executive staffers (35 people, including show promoters entered the office

-Personal checks will be listed and reconciled by tape (no checklist was kept

-Box office receipts will be reconciled -Money will be deposited daily;

-No tickets will be used without audit stubs for final verification; and

-Each ticket window's income will be checked daily. If money is transferred from the window to the safe, a receipt will have to be signed by whoever moves it. A teller also will have to verify the transfer. And, Weston said, now the center exec-

"It was dumb," Weston said. "There is no other word for it" besides simple neglect and carelessness.

Senate Panel J.C. McDonald Warned By Farm Leader

McDonald died Monday at his home KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) - Farmers The Alabama native lived near Spur have told a Senate panel not to "mistake and Jayton, where he farmed until retirmeekness for weakness," as farmers coning in 1962. He was a member of the tinue to demand higher prices for the products they grow. Doyle D. Rahjes of Agra, Kan., vice president of the Kansas Farm Bureau, said that Kansas farmers are "a live-andlet-live type of people" but their meekness shouldn't be misunderstood.

Rahjes and other speakers said that farmers are nearing the end of their rope financially and their demise could bring economic chaos. Some speakers warned that if they went under, they were "taking the country with them."

Some 25 farmers and farm spokesmen testified before Sen. Robert Dole, R-Kan., a Senate Agriculture committee member, and several hundred farmers who braved a snow storm and bitter cold to attend the day-long session Monday.

Monday's speakers again pressed for their goal of parity prices, and American Agriculture spokesmen forwarded an eight-point program to complement that

At full parity, farmers theoretically have the same purchasing power for the items they sell as their forebears had early in this century when prices and costs were said to be in step.

The eight-point program called for Monday included making it illegal to buy, sell or trade any agriculture product at less than 100 percent of parity and election by farmers of a National Board of Agriculture to operate within the Department of Agriculture.

Both Oren Lee Staley, president of the National Farmers Organization, and Merle Hansen, a Newton Grove, Neb., farmer, cited a recent statement by economist Eliot Janeway. Janeway linked the stock market's recent doldrums to the current farm problems, and said the pattern was the same as the one that ended in the crash of 1929 and the Depression.

Humphrey Wanted 'Celebration Of Joy'

By RICHARD McFARLAND

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) - The nation has said its last goodbye to Hubert Horatio Humphrey, a politician beloved by people of all parties. His final tributes ended the way he wanted - with a "celebration of joy.

President Carter and Vice President Walter Mondale led Monday's series of funeral eulogies to the "Happy Warrior" of American politics, a senator of almost 26 years, former vice president and presidential nominee.

Today, the enthusiastic man who loved life so much lay in a grave beneath two oak trees in snow-covered Lakewood Cemetery in Minneapolis. But as Mondale said in the two-hour service attended by 2,500 people at House of Hope Presbyterian Church:

"Hubert, your memory lifts our spirits just as your presence did.

Humphrey, 66, whose long battle against cancer touched the nation's soul, asked a week before his death that he have a simple funeral "in the spirit of a celebration" with no eulogies. His friends tried to follow his wishes, but they couldn't keep from praising him.

Carter recalled a recent visit with Humphrey by a fireside at Camp David. He said Humphrey had a yearning for peace and fought for the hungry, the poor, the minorities. "He was the expression of the good and decent and peaceful attributes of our nation."

The President said Humphrey's spirit

New Rule By CHRIS CONNELL WASHINGTON (AP) — The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists today criticized the government's proposed new restrictions on federally paid sterilizations, claiming that a mandatory 30-day waiting period may endanger some women's health. Dr. Tommy N. Evans, a spokesman for the medical group, said it may be impossible to get a patient's consent 30 days before such surgery. "This is true because spontaneous deliveries, as well as surgical procedures related to or arising during pregnancy, are frequently not possible to predict 30 days in advance," Evans told a hearing conducted by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The department, which pays for about 100,000 sterilizations of low-income persons each year, currently requires a young daughters. HEW has said the rules need tightening to ensure that no one is coerced into an operation, and it proposed extending the mandatory waiting period to 30 days. Evans testified that a woman who wanted to be sterilized while delivering a child but had neglected to sign a consent form a month in advance would have to undergo "the added costs, discomforts and risks" of a second operation.

"Why should a Medicaid patient be forced to become a second-class citizen, be deprived of her right to weigh one risk against another, and be unable to make her own decision?" he asked.

But Rep. Shirley Chisholm, D-N.Y., applauded HEW's attempt to tighten the sterilization rules.

She said that "singe abuse of the sterilization procedure rather than lack of access has been the biggest problem, we must do everything we can to tighten these procedures.

"As a black female legislator, I feel a special responsibility because poor women, women of color and women who have little or no command of English have been the chief victims of sterilization abuse," she said.

In other testimony, a consumer advocate said the government should require a second medical opinion for all hysterectomies performed on poor women.

Otherwise, said Dr. Sidney Wolfe of the Ralph Nader-affiliated Health Research Group, some doctors may perform hysterectomies solely to sterilize a woman while claiming there were other medical Mondale called his former-mentor and reasons for the operation.

HEW also said that hysterectomies should not be performed as a routine method of sterilization because other methods, such as tubal ligations, are far safer. Unless medical experts can change the government's stance, it has said it will stop paying for hysterectomies performed solely as a means of sterilization

Wolfe said an unpublished HEW survey had estimated that 150,000 of the 750,000 hysterectomies performed in the United States annually were done solely for purposes of sterilization.

Judge Bars Attorney From Case

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) - A federal judge has barred noted defense lawyer F. Lee Bailey from aiding former state GOP chairman Nelson Gross in his efforts to overturn his 1974 conviction on campaign fund abuse charges.

Chief U.S. District Court Judge Lawrence A. Whipple rulled behind closed doors here Monday that Bailey could not serve as Gross' counsel until he resolves a pending suspension order issued by the New Jersey Supreme Court in 1971.

The 46-year-old lawyer, who has gained a lofty reputation by representing big name defendants - including Patricia Hearst - is barred from practicing in the Garden State because of what was termed as "insolent, arrogant and unethical" conduct during a controversial murder trial in 1968.

The flamboyant lawyer was counsel for Harold Matzner, a newspaper executive who was one of five defendants charged with the murder of Judith Kavanaugh, a Clifton housewife, and Gabriel DeFranco, a reputed gambler.

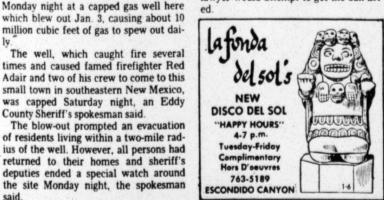

The prosecution contended the woman was shot to death in 1966 because she knew of an alleged counterfeiting ring. DeFranco, the prosecution said, was shot later that year to keep him from telling what he knew of the woman's murder.

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The government has halted a major tax advantage which saved American oil companies billions of dollars in taxes on their foreign earnings over the years.

The Internal Revenue Service Monday revoked rulings that allowed the oil firms to credit payments made to Saudi Arabia and Libya against their American income taxes. This amounted to $600 million in 1976, Treasury Department officials said.

Officials said there was a possiblity the decision could result in slightly higher gasoline prices, but probably less than onetenth of a cent per gallon.

The revocations, officias said, will take effect June 30 and are not retroactive to past tax years.

There had been speculation that retroactivity would be imposed, but the IRS said it would do that "because taxpayers are entitled to rely on an IRS ruling until the IRS concludes that the ruling is no longer valid."

The IRS has been under pressure from congressional oil critics to reverse the tax rulings which, in the case of Saudi Arabia, date back to 1955. A spoekesman for Rep, Benjamin Rosenthal, D-N.Y., chairman of a House subcommittee that has been probing the oil firm tax breaks, expressed anger at the ruling. He said the lack of retroactivity to the spring of 1976 amounted to a $2 billion windfall for the companies.

"The Treasury had every right to make the ruling retroactive to the spring of 1976," the spokesman said. issue centers on the e its and deductions in regard to taxes. Credits can be directly subtracted dollar-for-dollar from U.S. taxes owed for certain payments the companies make to were actually royalties and should be treated as deductions rather than credits. The Treasury said while it does not know if the decision will mean any tax in-the oil-producing nations. Tax deductions

Critics have contended the payments panies have saved on U.S. taxes since the rulings first took effect. Oil industry officials have generally conceded that allowing the payments to be treated as credits has saved the firms several billion dollars

Mondale Set To Discuss Energy With Canadians

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Vice President Walter Mondale is prepared to discuss a range of energy issues including the possibility of joint storage facilities for natural gas in his talks with Canadian leaders during the next two days.

Mondale, who was leaving today on his third diplomatic mission outside the United States, will visit both Canada and Mexico on this, his first trip in the Western Hemisphere.

Administration officials say Mondale carries little new in the way of U.S. policy proposals or position statements. But they stressed that by sending Mondale to Canada and Mexico early this year, President Carter hopes to reinforce and expand ties of friendship with America's nearest neighbors. Mondale's first stop is Ottawa where he ficials. He scheduled a two-hour meeting with Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau for the afternoon, with more talks likely at a dinner at the prime minister's residence

On Wednesday, Mondale will head to Edmundton, Alberta, and meetings with Premier Peter Lougheed and his top ad-

Mondale will break up his travels at midweek, returning to Washington in time for President Carter's State of the Union message to Congress Thursday. The Mexican leg of the trip will start Friday with conferences with President Lopez Portillo, and conclude Sunday.

Political, economic and trade issues will be raised in both countries, and one area expected to receive considerable attention is energy.

Stock Mart Gets Boost Early Today

NEW YORK (AP) - Stock prices jumped higher in early trading today, fueled by a stronger dollar on European foreign exchange markets and bargain hunters looking for good deals created by the market's recent slump.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks rose 3.99 points to 775.73 shortly after trading began. Gainers outnumbered losers by nearly a 2-1 margin among New York Stock Exchange listed issues. The dollar, which has been losing value against other currencies almost steadily for a year, surged ahead today in Tokyo and Europe. Money traders said recent actions by the U.S. Federal Reserve Board to shore up the sagging dollar appear to have ignited the recovery for the American currency.

Royal Dutch Petroleum led the most-active list, but was unchanged at 56. Verex Corp., which shot up more than 80 percent in value Monday after Greyhound Inc. had offered $25 a share in an acquistion bid, backed off a bit by dropping 1/8 to 231/4.

On Monday, the Dow Jones average closed down 3.99 at 771.74, its west closing since April 9, 1975. Declines outnumbered advances 949 to 464 Big Board volume totaled 18.76 nillion shares against 18.01 million n the previous session.

The NYSE's composite index dropped .17 to finish at 49.40. At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index lost 29 to close at 120.35.

Off Two Bank Loans

ATLANTA (AP) - Former federal Budget Director Bert Lance paid off a $3.4 million debt to a Chicago bank the same day he sold $2.4 million worth of National Bank of Georgia stock to a Saudi Arabian businessman, according to a published report.

The Atlanta Constitution said in today's editions that court records filed in Fulton County Superior Court last week showed Lance's payment to the National Bank of Chicago came on Jan. 4 and freed a mortgage on his home in Atlanta.

He also paid off a $443,750 loan to the United American Bank of Knoxville, Tenn., the Constitution

Lance sold 60 percent of his National Bank of Georgia stock to businessman Gaith Pharaon on Lance, who was in Valdosta, Ga., Monday night to address a civic group, did not comment on the debt payment. However, he denied a report that he was considering leaving Geor-gia to take a position with the Bank of Credit and Commercial International in London. Lance said he will remain involved in Georgia politics and is considering running for public office in the future. Lance's financial difficulties led to his resignation last September as director of the Office of Management and Budget.

While national budget director, Lance announced he would sell his bloc of National Bank of Georgia stock to satisfy President Carter's ethics requirements, but the price of the stock dropped sharply and Lance was losing money.

Lance had borrowed $3.4 million from the Chicago bank Jan. 6, 1977, as part of a series of financial actions which enabled him to buy a 16 percent interest in the Georgia bank. He pledged his 16 percent interest in the bank as collateral for

When the stock fell, the Chicago bank asked for additional collateral on Lance's loan and Lance posted 15 parcels of land in Calhoun, Ga., - including his home - and his home in Atlanta, the Constitu-

Perspective Shows Poor Economy

By JOHN CUNNIFF NEW YORK (AP) — Sometimes the economic numbers change so gradually that we become accustomed to certain levels, percentages and degrees, and even assume they have always been so. Only when we step back and obtain the perspective of time do we see the real picture. By comparing two widely separated dates we often obtain a barebone commentary on social and economic

We realize, for instance, that the prime rate has not always ranged between 6 percent and 12 percent. Why, as recently as 1947 it was only 1.5 percent. That is what the best corporate customers paid back then.

In the perspective of time we recognize that federal income taxes on corporations have not always been at a rate just above or below 50 percent. Before the 1930s they ranged downward from 15 percent. Time comparisons also show us that governments were not always in such great debt. Back in 1913 the total of federal, state and local debt per capita was only $58, compared with more than $4,-000 in 1976.

There was a time, we come to realize, when the total employment of federal, state and local governments was not around 15 million, as it is now. In 1940, there were less than one-third that num-

Consider social welfare expenditures under public programs. In 1929, expenditures amounted to only $3.9 billion. In 1975 the comparable figure was more than 70 times the amount of 1929, having nearly doubled since 1970. In 1950, expenditures for health and medical care — public and private — amount to $12 billion. By 1960, the number had more than doubled to $25.9 billion. It more than doubled again by 1970. Five years later it was $118.5 billion. But in citing such figures we can never forget, as various protagonists are inclined to do, that numbers themselves not just the things they represent change greatly. When citing figures designed to show the great growth of government, we must consider three factors: rising population, greater national production and shrinking dollar values. By far the most important of these three factors is inflation. Too often we sling numbers about as if they were hard and firm, the better to make our points.

We fudged, for example, in comparing the per capita government debt of $58 in 1913 with the $4,000 of today, because a dollar in 1913 bought a lot more than does a dollar today. By using a standard measuring stick - dollar-buying power as of 1967 - we find the 1913 dollar was worth $2.78 and the 1976 dollar only 55 cents. For comparison, therefore, that $58 becomes about $162, and the $4,000 becomes $2,200. One of the more disturbing comparsons is to go back to early 1966 and find the Dow Jones Industrial Average close to 1.-000 points - or more than 200 points higher than today. And that is when a dollar was worth twice what it is now. That perhaps says as much about economic change as any of the other numerical comparisons. Nostalgically it recalls the mood of the soaring '60s, when nothing, we thought, was impossible. Now, by contrast, we search for possi-

Anti-Submarine Exercises Held

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Official sources say the Soviet aircraft carrier Kiev and a Russian task force including the helicopter carrier Moskva are conducting anti-submarine exercises near the coast of Egypt.

The 900-foot Kiev, the first Russian warship to carry winged aircraft, has been at anchor since last week in international waters in the Gulf of Salum at the border between Egypt and Libya. Sources said the Kiev and its escort vessel, a guided missile cruiser, were joined during the weekend by a Soviet flotilla headed by the Moskva. The sources said the Kiev's Yak-36 vertical takeoff aircraft and the Moskva's helicopters were making flights and other ships were moving around in the area as part of the exercises.

The Moskva has been in the area for a while but the Kiev, which has stayed close to its home port near Murmansk on Russia's north coast since its maiden voyage a year and a half ago, entered the Mediterrnanean only early this month.

Demonstration Set Against Execution

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) - Opponents of the death penalty plan to conduct a 30-minute, candle-burning vigil at the state Capitol Tuesday night — one year after the execution of admitted killer Gary Gil-

"It has been one year now since Utah made itself internationally famous by conducting the first execution in this country in 10 years," the American Clil Liberties Union said in a statement. "The execution of Gary Gilmore on

Jan. 17, 1977, was supported by public opinion. Large segments of the population subscribe to the various myths surrounding capital punishment.
"Until the myths about the deterrence value of capital punishment and other misinformation are corrected, public support for a repeat of the tragedy we experienced a year ago will continue," the statement said.

Poll Shows Rise In Confidence

NEW YORK (AP) - Consumer confidence in the economy has risen to the highest level in five years, according to a private group called the conference

The board says it conducted a survey in December in which 27 percent of those polled said business conditions were 'good," up from 24 percent in Novem-

More than 21 percent looked for business conditions to improve in the next six months, as compared with 19 percent in the November poll, and 33.4 percent expected their incomes to rise, whereas 32 percent expected higher incomes in Nov-

The survey was taken before the most recent stock market slide and the recent troubles of the U.S. dollar abroad, both of which could normally be expected to dampen enthusiasm about the economy.

AMARILLO (AP) - A television reporter threatened with a jail term for not revealing his confidential news sources got a brief reprieve today at the trial of Potter County Attorney Kerry Knorpp.

Television Station KVII provided lawyers today for its reporter Mark Baker, who aired the fact that Knorpp would be indicted for official misconduct before it was announced by the grand jury.

State District Judge Arthur Tipps told Baker Monday he would be held in contempt of court if he did not reveal his

Knorpp's lawyers had asked that the sources be brought out in the trial and Tipps said it would be up to the defense team to file the motion to have Baker held in contempt The defense attorneys then said they needed more time to prepare the motion.

A KVII-TV spokesman said it was station policy not to reveal a newsman's confidential sources.

Knorpp is facing possible removal from office. The indictment alleges he misused county funds for travel expenses. Knorpp was indicted in November 1976

and was suspended from office October

2-year-old Juan Escamilla, who died about 4:20 a.m. Nov. 13, 1975.

After receiving autopsy results, Justice of the Peace Wayne LeCroy ruled homicide in the death of the child, who police said obviously had been beaten.

The child's mother said she awoke to check on him before dawn the morning of his death, and realized he was not breathing. She said he had been ill for several days before he died.

The mother also said she did not know her son had been beaten until the autopsy report was released. She told police the boy had fallen in the bathtub a few days

The then 26-year-old man with whom she had been living, and who was the child's natural father, later was charged with murder. However, Bonifacio Grimaldo, today remains a fugitive.

Officials of the Committee To Save the Panama Canal charged, meanwhile, that one of their representatives, Louis FattoLabor Union, had been "muzzled" by senior AFL-CIO officials and prevented from making the trip.

A spokesman for the AFL-CIO headquarters in Washington replied: "Anyone within in the AFL-CIO can express an opinion as an individual, but he cannot speak (against the treaty) on behalf of the Central Labor Union in the Canal Zone."

"The AFL-CIO's position on the Panama Canal treaty was determined last August by a meeting of the executive council and reiterated by the convention in December in Los Angeles, with no opposition whatsoever on the floor," said the spokesman, Albert Zack.

We had conferred with all of our people in Panama - Americans and Panamanians alike — and they felt that workers' rights were protected," Zack said. With that we felt that the treaties were good and should be supported.

There are actually two treaties, but they are considered indivisible.

The "truth squad," led by Sen. Paul Laxalt, R-Nev., was to have begun its tour on Monday, but postponed it a day because many members wanted to attend the funeral for Sen. Hubert H. Hum-

As a result, planned visits to Nashville and Atlanta were canceled and the squad's first stops today were in Miami and Cincinnati. Later stops include Denver and Portland, Ore., but more may be Meanwhile, seven members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee arrived in Panama for meetings with Panamanian leaders and U.S. officials and residents of the Canal Zone. Chairman John Sparkman, D-Ala., told a news conference the committee's main concern is the defense of the waterway after it passes to Panamanian control at the end of the century. "Our concern is that the United States and Panama, too, should have assurances of the continued operation of the canal, for an indefinite period," said Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, the ranking Republican on the committee. Sparkman said he has not polled the committee to determine how the members will vote on the treaty. He said he would make up his own mind after seeing the canal and hearing the issue debated. But political sources said most of the seven senators were expected to support the treaty, although some might insist on including the joint statement issued by President Carter and Panamanian leader Omar Torrijos last fall giving the United-States the right to use force to defend the canal and granting U.S. ships "expeditious" passage in time of emergency

The anti-treaty push, financed by $100.-000 in contributions from eight conservative organizations, has as its central theme the future security of the canal. Laxalt says the "gut question" is whether the Senate should approve a treaty that would relinquish any U.S. jurisdiction and control over the 64-year-old facility.

Members of the Committee to Save the Panama Canal include Sens. Strom Thur mond, R-S.C.; Jesse Helms, R-N.C.; William Scott, R-Va.; Jake Garn, R-Utah; and Reps. Philip Crane, R-Ill.; Mickey Edwards, R-Okla.; George Hansen, R-Idaho; and Larry McDonald, R-Ga.

Retired Adm. John McCain, former California Gov. Ronald Reagan and other politicians and public figures were to join along the way.

The cross-country blitz follows by a few days a swing by Secretary of State Cyrus Vance, who argued the Carter administration's case for the treaty before public

Winds in Indiana began piling up snow drifts along the Ohio River, and Evansville, with 13 inches on the ground by 8 a.m., was "just about stifled," in the words of one weather forecaster.

The University of Evansville, the Evansville campus of Indiana State University and all schools as well as major industries were closed. Fifteen inches of snow fell in parts of southern Illinois, and one resident in Cairo said "It's like the floor fell out of the sky. It's just incredible Cairo merchants closed their business-known if the paper would publish. "We have someone going around with a four-wheel drive vehicle picking up our employees," he said.

Southern Illinois University in Carbondale was closed except for the physical plant, health service and campus radio station, WSIU

Trooper Gerald Miller at Du Quoin said, "It hasn't stopped snowing since 11 o'clock the night before last, and it's still snowing. All roads are snowpacked and hazardous. We're just scared to death that it'll turn into freezing rain.

In Missouri, a 14-inch snowfall virtually shut down Cape Girardeau today.

A temperature of 12-below was reported today at Kansas City International Airport, tying the record for the date set in 1930. It was the coldest reading in Kansas City since the thermometer plunged to -13 Jan. 16, 1977.

The snow in southeast Missouri started Sunday night, and it was still snowing lightly this morning. The National Weather Service said the 14 inches of snow on the ground at Cape Girardeau was the heaviest snowfall registered at any of its weather stations.

Schools and many businesses were closed in Cape Girardeau today, and about the only vehicles moving were those with four-wheel drive or chains.

Hundreds of schools were closed and highways throughout the state were snow-packed and icy. Deputy Bob Scrivener of the Christian County sheriff's office in southwestern Missouri said roads there were "slick as skinned beef, and it doesn't look any better

A former Mobil Oil Company executive who now works for Jon-T Chemical, Inc., took the witness stand today as the John Thomas cotton price support trial continued in U.S. District Court here.

Thomas, 44, a former Brownfield business magnate who has since moved his headquarters to Houston, is charged by indictment with converting Commodity Credit Corporation funds to his own use and of supplying false information to the government agency.

The government alleges Thomas converted property to his use in 1972 and 1973 by causing cotton price supports to e allotted to individuals who actually had no substantive interest in farm land they leased from Jon-T Farms, Inc., a Thomas company

The indictment charges that the government paid out approximately $2.5 million in cotton price supports to persons who should not have been eligible

Several witnesses during the trial, now in its second week, have indicated they enlisted in joint farming ventures in Gaines County during the period in ques-

Witnesses have said they joined ventures by borrowing sums of $50,000 from area banks to lease land from Jon-T Farms and to finance cotton crops on the

The loans were secured by the individuals' assigning the banks expected price support checks, also in the $50,000 range. Under terms of the Upland Cotton Program then in effect, there was a $55,000 ceiling on price supports to individual farmers. The government contends Thomas, as the owner of cotton acreage in Gaines County, evaded the price ceiling by organizing the joint venture arrangements in which lease payments were made to his company.

To bolster that contention, prosecutors Bob Slough and Roger L. McRoberts are seeking to prove individuals who enlisted in joint ventures were in effect "straw men" who had no farming interest in land they leased.

Witness Donald E. Kingsley said today he was a New Jersey resident when he participated in a joint venture program. McRoberts showed Kingsley an assignment of payment form dated Feb. 22, 1972, in which the witness had assigned a government check to a bank Kingsley said he thought he had signed the document in New Jersey after it had been mailed to him.

Grain Futures

CHICAGO (AP) - Liquidation of grain futures contracts before release of a government crop report triggered a heavy wave of selling that sharply depressed prices on the Chicago Board of Trade to-

Wheat futures plummeted more than 6

cents a bushel moments before the close, and soybean deliveries lost an average of 14 cents. Corn deliveries resisted most of the pressure, finishing only a cent lower. The liquidation was influenced by traders' evening up their positions before the Agriculture Department released its finai estimates of corn and soybean production in the current crop year. The sharp declines in the wheat pit were attributed to selling aimed at limiting losses.

Cotton Futures NEW YORK (AP) - Cotton futures

No. 2 closed 5 cents a bale higher to $1.00 lower Monday. Late profit taking and commercial hedging erased early advances and caused prices to end lower, brokers said. The average price for strict low middling 11-16 inch spot cotton advanced 56 points to 51.17 cents a pound Friday for the ten leading markets, according to the New York Cotton Exchange.

Trading on the Woodock cotton market was active mand was good. High Plains growers sold mixed lots at 200 to 600 points over loan rates: The Lubbock Cotton Exchange's spot quotations held steady. The base price of grade 41, staple 34 cronaire, closed at 47.85 cents, up 125 points from a week ago.

High Plains classing offices graded 9,000 samples, bringing the season's total to 2,868,000. Only li-630,000 had been classed at this time a year ago. Re-ceipts Monday were about 10,000 and 14,000 were carried over as unclassed.

LUBBOCK SPOT COTTON Quotations are the approximate prices reported to the Agricultural Marketing Service for qualities equal to the U.S. Official Grade and Staple Standards. Prices are for micronaire (mike) readings of 5 through 49, in mixed lots, uncompressed, free of all charges in the warehouse in the market.

Price trend: Steady on Monday.

Farm Crop Production Soars To Record Level

WASHINGTON (AP) - Led by corn and soybeans, total farm crop production soared to a record level last year, according to the Agriculture Department.

The corn crop, the most important U.S. grain, was a record of almost 6.36 billion bushels, 1 percent more than in 1976 and the third consecutive record harvest, the department's Crop Reporting Board said

Soybean production, at a record of almost 1.72 billion bushels, was 33 percent larger than the reduced 1976 crop.

The department's "all crops" index, which is based on 1967 production, was a record of 129 percent last year, up from the previous high of 121 percent in 1976

Last November, as the crops were being harvested, the department forecast corn production at about 6.37 billion bushels and soybeans at about 1.68 billion bushels.

Thus, despite poor weather and slow progress in some harvesting areas last fall, the corn crop turned out to be only 9.5 million bushels smaller than the department forecast in November. The soybean output exceeded the November forecast.

The bumper grain harvests, although of benefit to consumers, have been a mixed blessing for farmers who have seen commodity prices tumble sharply as stockpiles of surplus grain have increased. However, the lower grain prices have triggered more feeding of beef cattle, hogs, poultry and dairy cows.

Officials said that the 1977 corn crop averaged 90.8 bushels an acre, compared with 87.9 in 1976. Sovbean yields averaged 29.6 bushels, compared with 26.1 in

Convention To Focus On Prices

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) - Wheat farmers don't want government programs unless they are needed to keep farmers from going out of business, according to Jerry Rees, executive vice president of the National Association of Wheat Growers.

During the first full day of the association's convention in Wichita Monday, Rees said that price would dominate the issues that growers will address at the convention. Convention delegates represent growers throughout the nation.

The decisions they reach during the four-day convention will guide the association's lobbying efforts in the coming

"We have to concentrated on the price situation," Rees said. "Right now, we're only at 49 percent of parity. We have a large surplus: a large carryover of our wheat. We have a set-aside program for next year. Our exports have not been as strong as we'd like, so all our action of major concern is zeroing in on what we can do about the price situation within the wheat industry at this time." Some convention delgates are promot ing policies that would protect U.S. wheat growers from international competition. Rees said he doesn't believe the protectionist policies are likely to be adopted.

"Our group has been oriented toward exports," he said. "About 60 percent of our production, and hopefully more, goes into the export market. Rees added that protectionist policies could generate backlash against U.S. exports The association helped found, and supports, two market development firms. Both are funded by wheat farmers and work to develop and maintain overseas wheat markets.

We think they benefit growers and that we should expand markets. Those (foreign nations) are our customers and there are a lot more customers out there who need our wheat. We just have to figure a way to get it to them at a price that will return a profit to the American wheat farmer. Rees said the association historically has supported parity for farmers. Parity would give farm products the same power they had in 1910-1914, a period of relative farm prosperity.

He said the association would continue to support that goal.

"There might be some differences as to how this would be achieved," he said. "We want it from the marketplace." However, he said growers think their bution problems. "So that's what it's all about, whether it comes from government action or the marketplace, it's to get a fair return," he were included in the new report.

The department last month estimated 1977 wheat output at nearly 2.03 billion bushels, down 5 percent from more than 2.14 billion in 1976 but still the third largest on record.

Estimates for cotton and rice also were unchanged from earlier reports. The 1977 cotton crop was 14.5 million bales, up 36 percent from less than 10.6 million in 1976. However, rice production dropped 14 percent to 99.2 million hundredweight from 115.6 million in 1976.

In all, farmers harvested about 331.3 million acres of principal crops last year. an increase from 325.5 million acres in partment has not forecast 1978 crop production. Last month, the winter wheat crop planted in the fall for harvest this summer was tentatively estimated at 1.32 billion bushels, a decline of 13 percent from 1977.

The Carter administration, in an at tempt to curb the rapid climb in grain surpluses, has announced a wheat acreage cutback for 1978 and has tentatively decided on a reduction for this year's corn acreage.

On Friday, the department will issue a report on a survey among farmers showing how many acres of corn, soybeans and some other crops they intend to plant

Agency Considers Relaxation Of Milk Import Restrictions

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Agriculture Department is considering a change now in force for milk and milk products" in federal regulations that would make it easier to import milk and milk product from countries which have foot and mouth disease.

According to a proposal by the department's Animal and Health Inspection Service, the products would have to undergo a process of high temperature - to 198 degrees Fahrenheit for at least 2.5 seconds - to kill potential disease virus-

The proposal also would allow unrestricted distributed of casein and caseinates - protein derivatives of milk - after those products are held 84 days in a bonded warehouse.

"Currently, imports of fresh milk from such countries are prohibited," the agency said Monday, "Dried milk and related products must undergo additional processing after entering the United States. and distribution of restricted milk products is strictly regulated."

Foot and mouth disease is a highly communicable virus disease of livestock and is found in many foreign countries. The United States and other North American countries are free of the disease However, it does persist in parts of Western Europe, a source of most imported dairy products.

Agency officials said that the heat treatment and new casein storage provisionss "would offer an economical alternative to the stringent import regulations from countries where the disease occurs. Currently, only cheese, butter and but ter oil are exempt from the tight import regulations relating to potential foot-andmouth disease infection.

Public comments on the proposal may be submitted through Feb. 13 to the Deputy Administrator for Veterinary Services, APHIS, USDA, Hyattsville, Md.

The child picks out a checker and Levy

The checker representing the patient is placed in the center of the paper. Another checker is presented and Levy says. 'This one is your mother. Where does she go?"

The child will place the checker labeled Mom on the paper according to the dictates of his feelings at the time, either close to or away from his own.

Levy said he found many children put relatively large distances between themselves and members of the family with whom they were having strained relationships.

He is careful in choosing his words to prevent influencing the child as he responds and once the checker is placed, the child is asked, "Is she closer or further away from you?" or, "Where would this person be if you were angry?

"The 'featurelessness' of the checker," he said, "lets the child make of them what he feels. What we are doing is working with the child's natural tendency to imagine and to play.

Once the family relationships are studied with the child in the center, the procedure is repeated with each member of the family in the center of the paper. Different arrangements are made by the child through his perception of family relationships.

Then Levy draws circles around the checkers to make a permanent record of the various arrangements for study at a later time.

The formative work, he said, involved Statogrums of 25 patients at Harbor General including educationally handicapped children. Their ages ranged from six to 14

'No child has been seen who could not eventually make a Statogram. All of them understood what was meant by 'Show me how close this person is to you.

Tech Places No Blame

Texas Tech medical school administrators say they can find "no conclusive evidence to pin the blame on anyone' following charges last month that a faculty member altered a medical student's exam answers.

However, The Avalanche-Journal has learned that a medical school professor is expected to quit his current position within the next two weeks although he will remain a member of the school's fac-

Administrators say they have been investigating a medical student's claim that her correct exam answers on a computergraded answer sheet were erased by her professor and incorrect answers substi-

Medical school officials, Tech President Dr. Cecil Mackey and the university's interim legal counsel Dr. Marilyn Phelan reportedly have sifted through documents and interviewed faculty members since the alleged tampering was reported in the A-J in December.

But an administrative source said Mon-day school officials could find "no con-clusive evidence" to indicate who had changed the student's answers.

The alleged tampering was first brought to light after the student requested another faculty member examine her answer sheets for changes. A comparison was made between the student's exam booklets, in which she had recorded her answers, and her answers on the computer answer sheets.

The computer sheets have small boxes which the student fills in with a pencil to correspond with the chosen answer. The faculty member apparently found evid-ence that 24 of the student's answers had been erased and the incorrect boxes filled in.

These changes had been made on four exams, causing the student's test score on each exam to drop from a passing grade to a failing one.

Following the faculty member's findings, the student was told by the med school she would be given credit for the 24 altered answers.

However, medical school officials continued their investigation of the matter after the student sought legal counsel and details of the case became public. But school officials now say that since their inquest has turned up nothing con-clusive, and since the student received credit for the test answers in question, the matter is closed.

Dr. Tyner declined to comment Monday on either the grade tampering matter or the anticipated change in faculty posi-tions at the school.

EMS Rate Increase Approved

Avalanche-Journal Staff The charge for Emergency Medical Service transportation to local hospitals will be raised from $35 to $45 under a schedule of rate hikes approved Monday by the Lubbock County Hospital District board of managers. The rate increases, still to be ratified by the Lubbock County Commissioners Court and the Lubbock City Council, will generate an extra $20,850 for the tax-subsidized public ambulance system, Gerald Bosworth, hospital district executive director, said.

On a split vote, the board agreed to plow that money, plus an annual savings of $20,500 from a revamping of the EMS administration and $18,000 from improved collection tactics this year, into the ambulance system was implemented in mid-1976. In fact, they have been the same rates charged for a few years prior to that when a private ambulance service was making emergency runs here.

Bosworth said EMS costs for the past year have increased almost 11 percent.

The new rates approved Monday by the board are expected to boost EMS revenues about 22 percent. The basic transportation rate will be from $35 to $45. and the supplementary charges for oxygen from $5 to $7.50; for night-time runs. from $5 to $6; for runs made by ambulances outside City of Lubbock limits, from $5 to $6; and for incubator services, from $15 to $25.

Immediate Government Action On Food Quality Laws Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) - The government should take immediate action to strengthen laws aimed at assuring the quality of foods, Assistant Agriculture Secretary Carol Tucker Foreman said re-

The government has to act now. The alternative is to wait until after some tragedy." she said in a speech to the Women's National Democratic Club.

The Agriculture Department is moving toward regulation of nitrites, a substance used as a preservative in ham, bacon and some processed meats such as hot dogs.

After deciding on regulations covering nitrites, the government "may have to examine many products that have too much fat or salt." Miss Foreman said.

Nutritionists have said that Americans damage their health by overconsuming fat and salt.

Miss Foreman said that in the area of food quality, the government has too great a reluctance to take action. "The tendency is to wait until there is no shadow of doubt that there is a danger to the public." she said.

The first stage of the Agriculture Department regulation of nitrites takes effect next month, applying to bacon. Another stage will take effect later and the department has left the door open to further regulation in the future.

Nitrites are used to prevent botulism, a deadly form of food poisoning. However, they have been identified in recent years as possible causes of cancer when combined with a substance already in the stomach.

Miss Foreman, as a consumer activist before joining the government a year ago, was a critic of federal action on nitration she has had a major role in formulating the tougher Agriculture Department stand on nitrites.

In her speech, she warned, that if the method of curing meats is changed there will be a substantial effect on both food producers and consumers."

"You won't be able to leave the bacon on the kitchen shelf overnight. And you won't be able to take hot dogs to the beach, leave them unrefrigerated for hours and then warm them only a little." Another effect on consumers would be higher prices for meat products "at least initially," she said. The government is going to have to be willing to undertake an educational campaign on this. It is going to be similar to the debate on saccharin," Miss Foreman

You are going to hear people say that the government wants to ban bacon. You are going to hear people claim that the government is harassing business. You are going to hear a lot about tests on rats again," she said.

In the case of saccharin, the government announced a ban on the widelyused artificial sweetener because it caused cancer in laboratory rats. But after a public outcry, Congress voted to suspend the ban while more tests are conimpregnable. However, if both those cards were wrong, he could lose three diamond tricks and a trump, or if he made the "automatic" discard of a diamond on the ace of clubs, he would still have to rely on the spade finesse for his tenth trick. Since there was no sure way to place the lie of the missing cards, declarer decided to indulge in a bit of misdirection in the hope of receiving some aid from the enemy. He won the ace of clubs in dummy and discarded a spade(!) from his hand. Now he ran the ten of trumps to West's king.

A diamond shift would have sounded a death knell for the contract, but that was a difficult shift for West to find. However, we do fault West for what he actually did. Baited by the lure declarer set with his spade sluff, West shifted to a spade.

Declarer needed no more. He won the jack of spades. drew the last trump and cashed the ace of spades. Then he crossed to dummy with a trump and discarded a diamond on the king of spades. Eventually he lost two diamond tricks, but not his contract.

There is a natural impulse for a defender to attack a suit in which he presumes declarer to be weak, and South played on that tendency when he discarded a spade at trick one. Our suggestion to West is that he should have realized that there was no hurry to open a new suit for declarer. All he had to do was to continue clubs, and in the fullness of time the defenders would have collected three more tricks to defeat the contract.

Rubber bridge clubs throughout the country use the fourdeal bridge format. Do they know something you don't? The dollar declines in value usually when the U.S. has a big trade deficit; export. One reason for the deficit in 1977 is said to be that prices of at least some U.S. products are higher than in other countries and so we may not be sufficiently competitive.

But another and very certain reason is the huge total cost of imported oil, estimated as close to $40 billion in 1977. This cost has been pyramided both by the price hikes by the oil-producing countries, and the increase in imports.

The decline in the value of the dollar has been serious enough to actually affect the consumer price index. One reason for the November rise was the higher prices of foreign cars.

The impact on your own budget depends on how much of the imported products you buy, especially big-ticket tems like cameras, TV sets and cars. Imported cars require many more U.S. dol-meaning we import much more than we lars to buy, and U.S.-made compact cars export. One reason for the deficit in 1977 are priced significantly lower than the. small foreign cars.

Price tags were raised several times last year on Volkswagens, Datsuns, Toyotas, Hondas and other imported cars.

Travelers and vacationers also have been affected. While air fares have been reduced, prices of accommodations abroad have been raised, especially in the strong-currency countries of West Germany, Japan and Switzerland.

KIDS' SAVINGS: Mrs. H.K. has received an inheritance. She writes: "I'd like to invest the $10,000 for my three grandchildren; two under age 8 and one 12. Would you suggest certificates of deposit for 10 years at 7.75 per cent, or E or

You're a generous and farsighted grandmother. You may as well buy the higher-yielding certificates of deposit since the children probably won't have enough other income to owe any taxes, and so the tax-postponable feature of the E bonds wouldn't be useful to them at

In the case of the older child, if you want to make some of the money available for college, you might put some in certificates that mature sooner although paying slightly less interest.

Also be sure you stay within the $3,000a-year-per-recipient of gifts permitted without federal gift tax.

SAVING GRACE: Congress is unable so far to agree on an energy program. Meanwhile owners of late-model cars are being squeezed hard as the price of unleaded gasoline rises further and faster than that of the leaded gas used by older cars. So gas economy has become more urgent than ever. Most drivers have been aware that driving with a light foot saves gas. But we may not have realized how Recent Department of Energy tests show that the potential saving is a nealthy 10 per cent of the 600 gallons a year the average driver uses.

A sample of drivers were given a fuelconservation driving course. Subsequent tests showed that drivers experienced an average of about 10 per cent economy improvement. Here are the six key tips offered in the course: ANTICIPATE stops, lights, turns, steak, 1 inch thick Corn oil, for frying

medium onion, sliced 1 (1-lb.) can tomatoes

2 tbsp. chopped parsley 2 bay leaves

1/2 tsp. cumin (optional) 1 tbsp. water

Mix together flour, cornstarch, salt and pepper. Coat meat with mixture. Reserve remaining flour mixture. Pour corn oil into large skillet to depth of 1/8 inch. Heat over medium high heat 3 to 4 minutes. Add meat and cook, turning once, about 25 minutes or until meat has crisp crust on both sides and has reached desired doneness. (Meat will be slightly rare in center in 25 minutes cooking time.)

Remove meat. Drain off all but about 1 tbsp. drippings from skillet. Return meat. Add onion and saute 5 minutes or until golden brown. Stir in tomatoes, parsley, bay leaves and cumin. Russians Seeking Contemporary All-Purpose Form Of Address

By SETH MYDANS

MOSCOW (AP) - Some Russians are worrying that the "proud word," comrade, is disappearing from daily use and being replaced by less attractive forms of address such as "hey, you."

"When I stand in line waiting to buy apples, I find I have no way to address the salesgirl except as 'girl,'" one Russian woman said.

A student said people had taken to using descriptive terms when they spoke to someone they didn't know: "Hey, hat" or "Hey, beard." Letter writers to the youth newspaper

Komsomolskaya Pravda recently complained that contemporary Russian lacked a good all-purpose form of address like the English Miss, Mrs. and Mr.

The newspaper responded that a whole. hierarchy of terms such as sir, gentleman and my gracious lord (sudar, gospodin, milostivy gosudar moi) disappeared when the 1917 Russian Revolution evened out the social classes.

After the French Revolution, said philologist Lev Uspensky, writing for the newspaper, monsieur and madame survived as forms of address without social implications attached. "But if my father had called a cabbie

So the Russian language was left with comrade (tovarishch) and citizen (grazhdanin, grazhdanka). But Uspensky said they had not filled the need. The result, he said, is that more and more people are calling each other dad, auntie, young lady, girl and "Hey, you." He noted with regret the passing from fashion of the "proud word," comrade, with its ineradicable shade of heartiness, warmth and friendship.' For people whose names are known Russian offers an accepted but sometimes tongue-twisting combination of first name and patronymic, so that it is proper to address Soviet President

Brezhnev as Leonid Ilyich. 'Comrade' is included in his official form of address: General Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist party of the Soviet Union, Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R., Comrade Leonid Ilyich

Mrs. Lee said she was living in Dallas when she found out that Hunt had another wife, Lyda Bunker Hunt, less than 100 miles away in Tyler, Texas.

Mrs. Lee said Hunt was away much of the time, saying he was tied up with oilfield business. A former maid, Annie Mae Solomon, 73, testified that Hunt came home frequently but rarely stayed long - "just long enough.

riage, testified that it was family knowledge that Mrs. Lee's four children had been fathered by H.L. Hunt.

In her lawsuit, Mrs. Lee sought to be declared Hunt's commonly accepted wife. She also asked for half of the wealth he accumulated from 1925 to 1934, plus everything accumulated from that amount since then.

Because Hunt's holdings were so vast and intricate, there was no accurate estimate of how much might be involved. Hunt, who became well-known for his espousal of conservative causes, died in 1974 at the age of 85.

Heirs to the Hunt estate did not dispute that the late billionaire had some kind of relationship with Mrs. Lee and considered himself the father of her children. However, the key issues in Mrs. Lee's suit were whether Hunt's marriage to her was legal and whether she relinquished any further claim to the Hunt fortune in a document she signed in 1942.

Lawyers for the Hunt estate contended that the document dropped all claims to his property in return for $100,000 in cash, plus $2,000 a month. The document identified Hunt as father of Mrs. Lee's children, but did not refer to a marriage. Mrs. Lee testified that she signed the document under pressure and kept quiet about it in future years rather than em-HOUSTON (UPI) - Behind the clut- ter promises is "75 percent grain neubarrass the man she loved. tral" - Texas Pride Beer, Lucky Strike "That was my contribution to his life," his early life. "He was never supposed to deny our er that Havoline Motor Oil did not always family existed," the son explained.

She testified that after their breakup in 1934, Hunt continued to pursue her, once wiring her that he was en route for a visit because "too strong the urging, my engine is surging.'

Mrs. Lee also testified that Hunt once took her to Salt Lake City and tried to convert her to the Mormon religion, a sect that once approved of polygamy.

Group Asks FBI Probe

BIG SPRING (UPI) - The FBI should investigate the police shooting death of a 19-year-old Mexican-American, according to the leader of a Chicano group.

Gilbert Herrerra, the Texas leader of the Brown Berets, said Monday petitions were being circulated asking the FBI to look into the death of Juan Galavez, who was shot by officers pursuing an assault suspect Dec. 8. Herrerra said the Galavez shooting and two others involving Mexican-Americans have added to growing dissatisfaction among Chicanos in Texas.

Police said the incident began when the wife of Midland College Athletic Director Delnore Poss walked to her car after a basketball game.

She said she was accosted by a man who attempted to force her to leave with him. She escaped from her assailant who then fled in her car.

Three police cars pursued the vehicle and one officer shot the suspect in the head, police said

"It's time law enforcement officers realize we're not stupid, we're not going to sit back and let this happen," Herrerra

Judge Orders Prison Officials To Pay Damages For Beatings

HOUSTON (UPI) - Three Texas Department of Corrections officials will have to pay damages because of the 1973 beatings of six prisoners, a federal judge

U.S. District Judge Finis E. Cowan signed an order adopting recommendations of U.S. Magistrute Ron Blask that he schedule a hearing to determine monetary damages. The suit was filed after an incident at the Retrieve unit of the TDC at Angleton in which the inmates claimed they were beaten by unit officials after refusing to pick corn on a Sunday.

The three officials accused of violating the constitutional rights of the inmates were Bobby E. Taylor, warden at the Retrieve unit; Angleton; Sammy C. Lanham, field major at Retrieve, and Lt. Lon

Blask, in his recommendation to Cowan, said the prisoners ware deprived of their constitutional protection against cruel and unusual punishment and their constitutional guarantee against deprivation of life, liberty or property without due process of law.

The inmates involved were Marion Ernest McMillan, Antonio Cesares, Jimmie Lee Grant, Clarence E. Blaylock, J.R. Guillory and Josepth H. Ayala.

"The force used was not applied in a good faith effort to maintain discipline or to force compliance with the order," Blask said in his recommendation

Governor Appoints Judge At Sherman

AUSTIN (UPI) - Gov. Dolph Briscoe Monday named Lloyd W. Perkins of Sherman to be judge of Grayson County Court at Law No. 2. The legislature authoried creation of the new court.

Briscoe also reappointed Julius Bucek. Leon Louis Kahanek Jr. and Alfred Neumeyer Jr. of Hallettsville to the Lavaca County Flood Control District No. 3 board of directors.

Jon Newton Defends Gas Order By JACK KEEVER AUSTIN (AP) - Railroad commissioner Jon Newton denies that his order forcing LoVaca Gathering Co. and two other companies to refund $1.6 billion in natural gas charges was adopted to force the companies to negotiate a settlement.

"The purpose (of the order) was to comply with state law and protect the public interest," Newton testified under oath Monday.

The questioning of Newton on how he arrived at the order was scheduled to continue today.

The Dec. 12 order also requires LoVaca, its parent, Coastal States Gas Corp., and another subsidiary, Coastal States Gas Producing Co., to live up to their original contract prices - which the companies claim would cost them $1.5 million a day.

Newton testified, however, that he and commission lawyer Rex White tried up until Dec. 7 to work out a "middleground" approach that would not include enforcing the contracts, "but we just couldn't make it work.'

He said some briefs by LoVaca's 400 customers were persuasive

Coastal States lawyer Tracy DuBose showed Newton a commission file labeled "Railroad Commission versus LoVaca" and asked Newton if he consider the case an "adversary proceeding." "No, I don't," replied Newton.

Company lawyers claim Newton is biased and prejudiced against the company, and his attitude was reflected in the order, which is on appeal.

They asked Newton how much time he had devoted to studying the Coastal-LoVaca case, and he said he had set aside every afternoon during a lengthy 1977 hearing to read daily transcripts of the hearing and also took material home with women and minority astronauts should be in orbit within three years, after veteran spacemen have launched the space shuttle program.

Shuttle Program Selects Women

WASHINGTON (AP) - America's first

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration on Monday named six women, three black men and an Oriental to its previously all-white male astronaut corps.

They were among 35 new crew members who will fill pilot and mission specialist seats on the shuttle, which is to make hundreds of space trips in the next

The new astronauts will begin two years of training on July 1 at NASA's Johnson Space Center in Houston to prepare for flight, said center Director Christopher C. Craft.

TEACHER SELECTED - Dr. James D.A. vanHoften, 33, a civil engineering associated professor at the University of Houston, was among the 35 new astronauts selected Monday for the space shuttle program. A former Navy fighter pilot with Vietnam service, vanHoften is a native of Fresno, Calif. (AP Laserpho-

But the practiced skills of pilots from the present 27-man corps will be needed on the first six orbital flights, all scheduled for 1979.

The women selected are Dr. Anna L. Fisher, 28, of Rancho Palos Verdes, Calif., a physician; Dr. Shannon W. Lucid, 35, of Oklahoma City, a post-doctoral fellow in biochemistry at Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation; Dr. Judith A. Resnik, 28, of Redondo Beach, Calif., an engineer at Xerox Corp.; Sally K. Ride, 26, of Stanford, Calif., a physics research assistant at Stanford University; Dr. Margaret R. Seddon, 29, Memphis, Tenn., resident surgeon, City of Memphis Hospital; and Kathryn D. Sullivan, 26, Cupertino. Calif., a post-graduate student in earth sciences at Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, Drs. Fisher and Lucid are married, and Dr. Lucid has three children. Dr. Fisher's husband, also a physician, had applied to be an astronaut, but was not accepted.

The three blacks are Air Force Maj. Guion S. Bluford Jr., 35, of Dayton, Ohio, chief of the aerodynamics and airframe branch at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio; Air Force Maj. Frederick D. Gregory, 37, of Hampton, Va., now at the Armed Services Staff College, Norfolk, Va.; and Ronald E. McNair, 27, Marina Del Rey, Calif., a civilian in the physics department of Hughes Research Labora-

The astronaut of Oriental extraction is Air Force Capt. Ellison S. Onizuka, 31, of Kealakekua, Hawaii, currently chief of the engineering support section of the test pilot school at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., and a Hawaii-born, third generation Japanese-American.

"I think all the women selected will feel a responsibility to all women to see to it that we do well," said Dr. Seddon of the women's selection. "The first women in all fields have felt that they have carried a larger burden than men carry simply because they are expected to do

Onizuka said he has wanted to be an astronaut since he was 7 years old and watched Sputnik pass overhead. Gregory also said his selection fulfilled a child hood dream of flying in space.

KISS FOR WOMAN ASTRONAUT - Anna L. Fisher, a physician, received a congratulatory kiss from her husband, William, as they posed beside an ink drawing of the space shuttle in their Rancho Palos Verdes, Cal., home Monday. Anna was one of six women chosen by the U.S. space agency to be among the 35 astronauts who will fly the nation's space shuttles in the 1980s (AP Laserphoto)

JOINS THE ASTRONAUTS - Sally K. Ride, a research assistant in the physics department at Stanford University, posed in her office Monday in Stanford. Calif., after the U.S. space agency announced that she was one of six women chosen to be astronauts (AP Laserphoto)

NAMED ASTRONAUT - Kathryn Sullivan, 26, a California native studying for her doctorate at Dalhousie University in Halifax, is one of those selected by the U.S. space agency to man space shuttles in the 1980s. Miss Sullivan is the daughter of an aerospace engineer. (AP Laserphoto)

Oklahoman Now Near Life Dream

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) - Dr. Sharrnon W. Lucid, a post-doctorate fellow in biochemisty at the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation, was named Monday as one of America's first woman astronauts. The selection brought the 35-year-old

Dr. Lucid a long step closer to her life's ambition — to be a space scientist Dr. Lucid and the other women will be among 20 mission specialists in the new astronaut class. Robert A. Frosch, head of NASA, said the new astronauts will report July 1 to NASA's Johnson Space Center in Houston. They will join 27 astronauts already on flight status. The large number of new astronauts reflects NASA's belief that by 1985 it will be launching as many as 60 space shuttles a year, each with up to seven crew mem-

Dr. Lucid said her selection is something she had hoped for but had not really expected. "They had a lot of really qualifed people down there," she said.

(But) "I've had a lot of very varied research-type experience at a lot of very different types of jobs in various laboratory situations. I think that was a big help. And then I also have a fair amount of flying experience. I don't know if that helped or not.

Dr. Lucid is certified to fly multi-engine commercial aircraft.

What I'm doing right now is synthesizing various compounds that cause cancer," Dr. Lucid said about her duties at the foundation. "I think I'll be able to wind it up pretty well so that someone else can take over.

for Kerr-McGee, "He'll have to find another job." when the family moves to Houston this summer, Dr. Lucid said.

Her duties aboard the shuttle will probably involve "life science type of experiments." Dr. Lucid said. "I have the impression that it will be at least five years (before her first flight) because they already have quite a few qualified astronauts down there that'll go first."

The dream of space flight is something Dr. Lucid said she has had since grade school

"Oh, I was interested in it long before they started the space program," she said. "I didn't think America would ever get started Dr. Lucid was born in Shanghai, China, where her father was a missionary. She attended high school in Bethany, Okla. She earned a bachelor's degree in 1963 and master's degree in 1970, both from the University of Oklahoma, and was awarded a doctorate in biochemistry from Oklahoma in 1973.

"Obviously, I'm very glad that they were willing to consider women this time." Dr. Lucid said of the first-ever selection of women for astronaut training. "I don't think you can say that men are better or women are better. I think it's the individual person, and it doesn't make any difference whether you're

Space Trip By Couple Grounded

LOS ANGELES (AP) - William and Anna Fisher's plans to go around the world together were grounded when NASA accepted only Mrs. Fish-

The Fishers - both emergency doctors in the Los Angeles area - applied last year to the Johnson Space Center in Houston for positions as mission specialists on NASA's earth-orbiting space shuttles. Mrs. Fisher, 28, and Judith Resnik of Redondo Beach, were among six women named to the job from more than 200 finalists that included William Fisher.

Fisher, 31, said there were other space jobs he might apply for after the couple moves to Houston for a twoyear astronaut training program. "I'm still a young man," he added. Mrs. Fisher said from her home in Rancho Palos Verdes that she kept her desire to ride a starship secret until the ninth grade, when she confided in a fellow hospital volunteer. "She thought I was silly, so I never said anything about being an astronaut to anyone." said Mrs. Fisher, who later received her bachelor's and medical degrees from the University of California at Los Angeles Neither Mrs. Fisher nor Miss Resnik - a 28-year-old Xerox Corp. systems engineer - Said they had any fear of flying, even on the seven-to 30day orbits planned for the shuttles. I think we'll have enough training and preparation before we go up to make it just a calculated risk," said

Miss Resnik, who received her engineering degree from Pittsburgh's Carnegie-Mellon University in 1970 and a doctorate from the University of Maryland last year. One of the black astronauts is Ronald McNair, a 27-year-old physicist at the Hughes Research Laboratories. The Asian American - Capt. Ellison Onizuka, 31, of Kealakekua. Hawaii has been stationed at Edwards Air Force Base, where he heads the engineering support section of the base's Test Pilot School

Both said in telephone interviews that they have longed for space travel since Sputnik.

Onizuki, a third-generation Japanese American, said he nurtured his love of space by building model airplanes and receiving bachelor's and master's degrees in aerospace engineering from the University of Colora-

McNair, on the other hand, said, "I was scared into wanting it." The Marina del Rev resident added, "When I was 7, everyone ran outside, pointing to the sky and saying. 'Look at that' It's Sputnik.' I took a look and thought it was going to swoop down and get McNair later graduated in physics from North Carolina Agricultural and Technical University and received a doctorate at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Man Confesses To Stabbing

NEW YORK (AP) - A man allegedly brought here from Hong Kong for a contract killing has confessed in court to stabbing the honorary mayor of Chinatown last July 11.

The victim, Man Bun Lee, who incurred the wrath of Chinatown's youth gangs because of his effort to halt extortion of businessmen, has since recovered from the stabbing.

Chik Keung Pang, 25, admitted in state Supreme Court in Manhattan Monday that he stabbed Lee three times, but said he was "confused" about why he did it.

However, Justic Burton Roberts said he understood from the district attorney's office that Pang was "a hired killer imported from Hong Kong for the purpose of assassinating Mr. Lee."

Holtz Gave

By MICKEY HERSKOWITZ And STEVE PERKINS

Q. Can you tell me anything about the incident at Arkansas involving some of its top players other than what has been in the papers? -Don E. Keller, East St. Louis, Mo.

A. A white girl, not a student, was visiting the room of a black football player, and she had very few clothes on when the three other players-Ben Cowins, Donny Bobo and Micheal Forrest-entered the room uninvited. An argument ensued and the girl left the dormitory, unmolested, after campus security police got a report of a disturbance. When contacted by the security men later, she Arkansas coach Lou Holtz told writers privately, early in the season, that one of the things that most disturbed him when he took over at Arkansas was the "bad conduct" of some of the players. He warned the team he would not put up with less than gentlemanly and moral behavior.

The players later released a statement that ended: "We have arrived at the conclusion that Coach Holtz is averse to black male white female associations.' A source close to the situation told us: "What Lou is averse to is campus disturbances involving his football players."

Q. This year more than ever before the officials are throwing their flags and it seems the players get more angry and take it out against their opponents. The football players seem to be much more aggressive than in the past. Can anything be done? Also, it seems the officiating isn't as well done as in the past. Would an official with a replay be of any help?

-Blair W. Nichols, DeRidder, La.

A. In the 1976 season there were 984 penalties marked off for 17,123 yards. This past season there were 1,541 penalties for 21,784 yards. That's an increase of 555 penalties (about three more per game) and 4,661 yards.

The NFL brought in only three new officials this season, so it's difficult to explain why the other 87 chose to throw so many more flags-except that there was a league-directed emphasis on holding calls.

In the previous two years the NFL had brought in 18 new officials. You may see the same kind of turnover when the 1978 list of officials is announced. The NFL competition committee will consider a rule allowing each coach three "appeals" per game. That is, the official who threw the flag will then have to consult with his colleagues about their views of the disputed play. Amazingly, their brethren. The "appeal" is quite common in baseball. Q. Can you please tell me if the Pittsburgh Steelers were the most penalized team in the NFL again? Also, can you explain to me why Pittsburgh baseball team originally became named the Pirates?

it has been a tradition among officials not to overrule a judgment call by one of -Shelby Donaldson, Aliquippa, Pa.

A. The Steelers (122 penalties) were edged out by the Cleveland Browns' 125. The baseball team, when it was a semipro operation, was famous for "pirating" away players from other semipro or amateur teams. Also, the owners were evidently proud of that talent.

Q. I read of several deaths on football fields this year, as every year, and I wonder if you can find out for me how many players over the years have lost their lives in football?

-Ellen Grainger, Norfolk, Va.

A. Records were not kept before 1931, but since that date 839 Americans have died of injuries directly related to football. That total includes 75 professionals and semipros, 73 collegians, 527 high school players and 164 sandlot league players. The American Football Coaches' Association compiled these figures

Kuhn To Settle Blue Question

NEW YORK (AP) - The last baseball deal, is no stranger to the commissioner's game was played three months ago and midtown office. But Commissioner Bowie Kuhn has provided plenty of fuel for hot stove discussion through two hearings with disgruntled pitchers and his stance over con-

Facing Kuhn today was an attempted resolution of the Vida Blue trade the commissioner placed in limbo when it was announced at the meetings in Hawaii last December. Among those scheduled to appear at a hearing was Charles O. Finley, who dealt Blue to the Cincinnati Reds in exchange for first baseman Dave

Also slated to participate were Cincinnati President Bob Howsam, Reds Executive Vice President Dick Wagner, New York Yankees President George Steinbrenner - an interested observer along with American League President Lee MacPhail, National League President Chub Feeney and a host of attor-

parties involved. Were Kuhn to approve the exchange, he faced possible contradiction to the stance he took in 1976, when a federal court upheld his right to void Finley's sale of Blue to the Yankees for $1.5 million and Rollie Fingers and Joe Rudi to the Boston Red Sox for $1 million each.

Steinbrenner said he would protest approval of Blue's trade to Cincinnati, since Kuhn had prevented Blue from coming to New York.

Cincinnati's claim was that there is no similarity between their attempted acquisition of Blue and the Yankees' at-

"Ours is a trade and the other was a sale," said Wagner. "We don't see how he (Kuhn) can turn the trade down. There is no reason for him to refuse it.'

Steinbrenner insisted Kuhn said that "To sell three players - Joe Rudi, Rollie Fingers and Blue - to contending clubs weakened the chances of the other teams. Cincinnati is a contending team and the cash guidelines he set previously have to hold.

Kuhn cleared one matter from his desk Monday by deciding he would "not disapprove" of the settlement between pitcher Jon Matlack and the New York Mets on bonuses claimed to be owed the left-hander. With the non-disapproval, the trade of the lefthander to the Texas Rangers finally became official.

Area Spotlight On Dimmitt, Nazareth

By WALT MCALEXANDER

Avalanche-Journal Sports Staff The calendar still reads January-not March-but there will be a state tournament-type atmosphere around Dimmitt and Nazareth tonight.

The Bobcats, ranked No. 1 in the area but No. 2 in state, will host Morton. ranked No. 1 in the state but No.2 in the area-in what promises to be another classic in their continuing story for Class AA domination over the Lone Star State.

And in Nazareth? Well, the Swiftettes. ranked No. 1 in area Class B circles, will risk their 54-game home winning streak against unbeaten Canvon, No. 1 in AAA. in a confrontation between defending state champions.

Six times during this decade the winner of 3-AA had played in the state championship contest and five times that team has been either Dimmitt or Morton.

We have the greatest respect for each other," Morton mentor Dan Smith said on the eve of the first 1978 battle. "Neither one can afford to take the other lightly. I thought Dimmitt was the second-best team in the state last year." Smith, whose chargers won the state crown with a 35-4 mark last year, ex-

The Indians will bring only a 10-8 ledger into tonight's game, but Dimmitt's Ken Cleveland, whose team was 28-3 last year and has a 19-4 reading this season. says that's that record is deceiving.

'I watched them play (Lubbock) Dunbar a couple of times and those games could have gone either way. They still have as good a team as they have had in the past and if we think we can walk all over them just because their record is not as good as ours, we're badly mistaken."

Really, if it wasn't for Lubbock teams. both Morton and Dimmitt would be flying high

Dimmitt lost to Lubbock High by three on the road, by 6 to Abilene Cooper in the finals of the Reese AFB Tournament, by 1 to Canyon at home and by 7 to Dunbar in the finals of the Caprock Tournanemt.

Morton has lost to Dunar by 2, 3 and 8. to Monterey by 2 and 5, to Estacado by 3 and Big Spring by 5 before getting blown out by 22 by Odessa Ector at home.

However, just as Dimmitt gained revenge against LHS and Canyon, Morion has gotten revenge on Estacado and Ecwinning by 11 in Odessa in what

Smith calls the pivotal game of the sea-

"I was concerned that we were down and Dimmitt was gaining momentum, Smith explained. "But winning by 11 in Odessa really helped. We got the big lift when we needed it. All our kids are expecting a tough game, but they've got the confidence. I think it will be a 2-or-3point game either way . . . but I just hope it's in our favor.'

The Indians are led by 6-3 Rusty Lamar and 5-9 Bobby Patton, both of whom are averaging 18 points a game. Other starters will be 6-2 James Johnson, 5-10 Ricky Hodge and 6-2 Dub Gilliam, with 5-10 David Lamb, 6-0 Larry Moore and 5-11 Monte Hodge the key subs

Dimmitt is sparked by 5-10 Rocky Rawls, who is averaging 18 points and 5 assists a game. Mark Summers (6-3) and Jim Bradford (6-2) are both averaging 11 points. The other starters are 6-0 Jeff Bell and 6-0 Dennis Veals, although 5-9 Thompson Mayberry often logs moreplaying time than the starters.

Nazareth, currently 24-3, supplied the only blemish on an otherwise perfect Canvon record last year by winning by a point at home

The Swiftettes have lost 61-45 (at Canyon) and 61-47 in the Queen's Classic) to the defending AAA state champs this year and by a 62-60 margin to Sanford-Fritch in the Wayland Clinic

I felt like we played too much of Canyon's games in the first two meetings, explained first-year Nazareth coach Geroge Cox. "We did a super job for three quarters, but then had a couple of turnovers and, instead of being down four or six points, it was suddenly 10 or 12 and things started to snowball.

"We held Merry Johnson to three points the first half there, but she got 20 the final 12 minutes. They have so much depth that we've got to slow it down some and be more methodical and intense in our game.

Our seniors were certainly disappointed we didn't beat them up there. But they haven't lost at home in since Hale Center beat them about five years ago.

We think things will be different here. Our girls have all the confidence in the world at home (where Nazarenth hasn't lost since Friona pulled an upset during the 1973-74 season

Schulte, our leading scorer, has been sick some and so has Coll Gerber, who missed two days of school late last week," Cox Canyon has a perfect 23-0 mark this year and has a string of 39 straight since falling to Nazareth last year.

There is one thing certain about tonight's high school basketball action, and that is, when its all said and done the Monterey Plainsmen will still remain unbeaten in district play. And for a good reason, too. They don't play tonight. Other than the Plainsmen, the other local high schools will be in action. Hereford visits Coronado and Lubbock High is. at Plainview for a pair of District 4-AAAA matches starting at 7:30 p.m., while Estacado entertains Snyder and Dunbar visits Lamesa for 3-AAA tilts beginning at 8 p.m. Also, the Estacado girls are at Snyder, the Monterey girls journey to Slaton, Lorenzo plays host to Christ The King and Lubbock Christian High hosts Lockney.

The Estacado-Snyder fem matchup and the Monterey-Slaton contest both tip off at 8 p.m., while the CTK-Lorenzo and Lockney-LCHS fem games are slated for 6:30 p.m. starts. The boys' games will follow the fem tilts.

Monterey coach Joe Michalka, who watched his Plainsmen opened the District 4-AAAA chase with an easy 60-45 win over Plainview, said the open date came at just the right time for his team.

"It will give us some time to work on a few things," Michalka said, about the Plainsmen, now 12-11 for the season. "The way we turned the ball over (against the Bulldogs) it looks like we're going to have to learn to pass the ball." Monterey will continue action Friday night when it meets rival Lubbock High in the LHS gym.

"They'll be higher than a kite," Michalka said about the Westerners. "And that worries me. We have the kind of them that really doesn't get that emotional."

Lubbock High (4-16, 1-0), 72-62 winners over Coronado last week, could grab sole position of first place in the loop with a win over the lackluster the Plainview Bulldogs (2-19, 0-1). A 2-0 record would give the Westerners a half game lead over the Plainsmen.

The Herefore 'oronado tilt will be the loop opener for the Whitefaces, who currently possess the district's top won-loss record at 13-9. Coronado holds a 6-15 mark overall and 0-1 in loop play.

An Estacado (20-2, 4-0) win over Snyder 14-13, 3-1) would put the Tigers completely out of the running for the firsthalf crown in District 3-AAA and assure the Matadors of at least a tie for the first half title. However, should Snyder pull off an upset by beating the Matadors, the district chase would be thrown a mad scramble with no less than three teams knotted at a loss apiece.

After being informed that the Mats have a shot at a piece of the title, Estacado coach J.J. Wood replied, "Well, that sure would be nice. We've never been in a position like this before, but I think we can come though."

Super Bowl XII—Was It All That Bad?

Associated Press Special Correspondent NEW ORLEANS - Bourbon Street dozed today, its energy spent by a weekend of heady wine and hijinx. This old French riverboat city returned to its normal complextion it no longer blushed with radiant orange. The exodus of football revelers was swift and merciful.

The Super Bowl dies quickly - and hard. A few football buffs, their departure aborted by congested airline schedules, hung around and - their minds now cleared by 24 hours of calm - debated the wackiest and rockiest National Football League championship of all. Was it as bad a game as the first instincts dictated?

"Just because you have a fumble or a pass interception doesn't mean it's sloppy play," said a gray-haired, Washington D.C., veteran fan of all 12 Super Bowls. "Those mistakes could be caused by the defense. You have to give the defense "Personally," interjected the bookish-looking man from Miami, "I enjoyed the game immensely. It was Dallas' mistakes that made it interesting. Almost until the very end there always was the chance Denver would get back in it." For anyone who may have just arrived on a slow boat from China, the Dallas Cowboys beat the Denver Broncos 27-10 before 76,400 Sunday in the Superdome.

It was a game that produced all sorts of records - dubious high water marks in the most systematized and professional of sports — and continuing controversy.

For instance, there were 10 fumbles, six by the Cowboys. There were 10 turnovers, including four pass interceptions in the first half charged to Denver quarterback Craig Morton. Morton was sacked three times, Dallas' Roger Staubach was sacked five times.

Dallas resorted to a couple of schoolyard razzle dazzle plays, one of which was a 29-yard touchdown pass by fullback Robert Newhouse to Golden Richards. Dallas committed almost every mental error in the book, once being caught with 12 men on the field and drew a record 12 penalties for 94 vards.

"It looked like a sandlot game at times,' groused a man from Fort Lauderdale, Fla. "You could understand if it was a backyard choose-up, but these guys are professionals making $200,000 to $400,000 a year.'

Still, they are human beings - that's what makes it so interesting," added the little guy from New York. "I thought it was a fun game." The game was so bizarre that Denver, missing two Dallas fumbles near the goal-line and suffering from a Morton interception, conceivably could have jumped to a 21-0 lead be-fore the Cowboys settled down. By the same token of crazily bouncing balls, Dallas could have led 35-0 at halftime.

Landry Nixes Campbell Deal

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) - Dallas coach Tom Landry denied reports Monday the Cowboys would try to put together a "Heisman backfield" next season by teaming Tony Dorsett and Earl Campbell.

The Cowboys traded four players to Seattle for the rights to Dorsett, the 1976 Heisman Trophy winner from the University of Pittsburgh. But Landry said his newly crowned Super Bowl champions would not attempt a similar tactic with Campbell, this year's Heisman winner from the University of Texas.

But will the relationship sour if the Broncos slump next fall?

Coach Red Miller has the unenviable task of trying to match Denver's incredible 1977 season, when a team picked to finish no better than third in its division in some pre-season polls streaked to a 12-2 record, knocked off two playoff foes and earned a berth in the Super Bowl.

The Broncos' magical mystery tour came to an abrupt halt Sunday, when the plagued Denver team 27-10 in the Superdome. The slipper wouldn't fit Cinderella's foot, and the Orange-clad Broncos became pumpkins at the stroke of 8:49 p.m. CST Some didn't care. It had been too good to let it end on such a low note. With the clock running out, the chant began as a rumble, then grew and grew. The disappointed Denver fans were paying tribute to a team that had brought them so many good times. The loss seemed to pull everybody together.

"We Love Our Broncos" was the initial refrain, then a new one promising that the Broncos would return.

"Our fans are unbelievable," said Mill-'They had to be suffering right along with us, but even when we lost and the season was over, they were saying

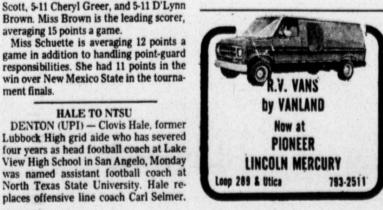

They said thanks again at Denver's Stapleton International Airport when the team arrived home Monday afternoon. About 1,000 persons braved 17-degree temperatures to stand on the roof of an airport parking lot and wave banners proclaiming their appreciation. A beaming Miller shook as many hands as he could. Others lined the corridors inside the airport, cheering and seeking autographs as the players filed through.

The craziness known as Broncomania has subsided. No more hucksters trying to capitalize on the team's success by selling orange T-shirts, orange cowboy hats, orange televisions and the like. No more shootings in bars when someone wants to play the jukebox while the Bronco game is on TV.

Broncomania promises to be back in full force next fall, however, if the Broncos can recapture their 1977 form. With a young, aggressive defense and an offense that showed steady improvement, there's reason to think it's possible.

But the Broncos won't be sneaking up on anybody next year. Denver has often marveled at how teams like Oakland and Dallas, never taken lightly, beat off challenges week after week from teams anxious to knock off the champions. Denver will find out how tough that task is.

And how about Morton? Did his true colors show on Sunday? After throwing only eight interceptions during the regular season, the four passes he threw to Cowboy defenders Sunday raise some questions. Most of Morton's problems were caused by a fierce Dallas pass rush. Miller said Morton may have been pressing to get things started offensively, hence a couple of ill-advised throws while he was being hit or dragged to the artificial turf. In those situations during the season, Morton would have absorbed the sack and not risked the interception. But perhaps even more illuminating of Denver's offensive problems was firstdown plays. Of 22 first-down plays, the Broncos either lost yardage or had no gain on 14 of them. That set up secondand-long situations, posing an invitation to the Dallas pass rushers and ultimately determining Denver's fate.

Miller didn't make any bold promises when he took the Denver job a year ago. The Broncos' success was a bonus. And he's not about to predict his team will be back in the Super Bowl next January. He made only one statement on the topic Monday: "We'll get better."

"It could have been . . . " he said, and let the sentence trail off.

It could have . . . but it wasn't. His glory dream faded and failed in the slop and goo of the back nine Monday in the rain-delayed final round and it remained for self-styled "good ol' boy" Miller Barber to coax in an across-thegreen birdie putt on the final hole and win the Phoenix Open.

Barber, admittedly just looking for a spot in the pay-line "was more surprised than anybody" when the 45-50 foot putt found the hole and lifted him one stroke clear of defending champion Jerry Pate and Lee Trevino, who spent most of the final round stretching and twisting in a vain attempt to ease the pain in his surgery-scarred back.

"I could have three-putted just as easy as I made it," said the 46-year-old Barber, who earned $40,000 from the total purse of $200,000 for his 11th career victory, one which combined with his late-season triumph at Napa, Calif. in 1977 to place him in this year's World Series of Golf.

"I was just trying to get it close to the hole, and, it fell in," Barber said after his six-under-par 65 had given him a 72-hole total of 272, 12 under par. Trevino, aching from the cold and wet that complicates his back problems, and Pate both played behind Barber They had a chance to force a playoff if either birdied the par five 18th. Neither did. Pate came close, leaving an eigh-foot putt just short. Each finished with a 69s and 273 totals.

years but the most-loved player the game ever has produced. He bolted into a share of the lead with five consecutive birdies beginning on the second hole, but, to the dismay of vainly beseeching fans, couldn't keep it going. He missed an eight-foot birdie putt on the 10th, bogeyed the 11th after a poor pitch, then failed on a four-foot birdie

"After the third or fourth birdie I was in good position to win again," said Palmer, who scored his last American triumph in the 1973 Bob Hope Desert Classic. "But my putter let me down in the final say-so.' "Still, it was pretty encouraging," said Palmer, who recorded his best finish since 1975. "I'm putting better than I have in years. I can look forward to some good golf in the next few weeks." Barber said, "I learned a long time ago that you want to get your spot in the payline. If you can't be first, be second. If you can't be second, be third. But get as close to the front as you can.

"It's a great thrill. When you get this age, you don't have too many more chances. You know, there aren't many of us still out here that came out when I did. We're the last of the good ol' boys. There's me and Don January and Gene Littler and Billy Casper and Arnold and that's about it.

But when you win one, it makes you think you can win again.'

Last week was not a very good one for the nation's top-ranked college basketball teams After Arkansas fell from the ranks of the unbeaten with a loss to Texas Saturday, Kentucky and Indiana State were left as the only major unbeaten teams. Overall, eight of the top 20 teams in The Associated Press and United Press International polls lost, and the group combined for only a 32-10 record. The result was quite evident in this week's balloting by AP's national panel of sportswriters and broadcasters and UPI's

Board of Coaches. Kentucky, for the fourth consecutive week, was a unanimous choice for AP's top spot and came with one vote of being a unanimous pick by UPI for the first time. The Wildcats, increasing their record to 12-0 with two victories, received all 46 first-place votes and a total of 920 points from AP and 40 firsts and 418 points from UPI.

Arkansas slipped from third to sixth on zorbacks' perfect year 75-69, zipped from 20th to 17th on UPI and, unranked a week ago on AP, took over the 15th spot

Marquette, the defending national champions, moved from fourth place into second on both polls. The Warriors, 12-1, won three times last week, including a 97-81 victory over highly regarded Nevada-Las Vegas.

UCLA, 13-1, made the most significant jump, rising four spots to No. 3 on AP and two places to third on UPI. The Bruins won twice and received 613 points. No. 4 Indiana State improved its record to 12-0 with two victories, and collected 576 points, climbing from sixth

Avalanche-Journal Sports Staff

The calendar still reads January-not March-but there will be a state tournament-type atmosphere around Dimmitt and Nazareth tonight.

The Bobcats, ranked No. 1 in the area but No. 2 in state, will host Morton. ranked No. 1 in the state but No.2 in the area-in what promises to be another classic in their continuing story for Class AA domination over the Lone Star State.

And in Nazareth? Well, the Swiftettes. ranked No. 1 in area Class B circles, will risk their 54-game home winning streak against unbeaten Canyon, No. 1 in AAA, in a confrontation between defending state champions.

Six times during this decade the winner of 3-AA had played in the state championship contest and five times that team has been either Dimmitt or Morton.

We have the greatest respect for each other." Morton mentor Dan Smith said on the eye of the first 1978 battle "Neither one can afford to take the other lightly. I thought Dimmitt was the second-best team in the state last year." Smith, whose chargers won the state crown with a 35-4 mark last year, explained. The Indians will bring only a 10-8 ledger into tonight's game, but Dimmitt's Ken Cleveland, whose team was 28-3 last year and has a 19-4 reading this season, says that's that record is deceiving. "I watched them play (Lubbock) Dunbar a couple of times and those games could have gone either way. They still have as good a team as they have had in the past and if we think we can walk all over them just because their record is not as good as ours, we're badly mistaken." Really, if it wasn't for Lubbock teams, both Morton and Dimmitt would be flying high.

Dimmitt lost to Lubbock High by three on the road, by 6 to Abilene Cooper in the finals of the Reese AFB Tournament, by 1 to Canyon at home and by 7 to Dunbar in the finals of the Caprock Tournanemt.

Morton has lost to Dunar by 2, 3 and 8. to Monterey by 2 and 5, to Estacado by 3 and Big Spring by 5 before getting blown out by 22 by Odessa Ector at home

However, just as Dimmitt gained revenge against LHS and Canyon, Morton has gotten revenge on Estacado and Ector, winning by 11 in Odessa in what Smith calls the pivotal game of the sea-

I was concerned that we were down and Dimmitt was gaining momentum." Smith explained. "But winning by 11 in Odessa really helped. We got the big lift when we needed it. All our kids are expecting a tough game, but they've got the confidence. I think it will be a 2-or-3point game either way . . . but I just hope

The Indians are led by 6-3 Rusty Lamar and 5-9 Bobby Patton, both of whom are averaging 18 points a game. Other starters will be 6-2 James Johnson, 5-10 Ricky Hodge and 6-2 Dub Gilliam, with 5-10 David Lamb, 6-0 Larry Moore and 5-11 Monte Hodge the key subs.

Dimmitt is sparked by 5-10 Rocky eraging 18 points as assists a game. Mark Summers (6-3) and Jim Bradford (6-2) are both averaging 11 points. The other starters are 6-0 Jeff Bell and 6-0 Dennis Veals, although 5-9 Thompson Mayberry often logs more playing time than the starters.

The Swiftettes have lost 61-45 (at Canvon) and 61-47 in the Queen's Classic) to the defending AAA state champs this year and by a 62-60 margin to Sanford-Fritch in the Wayland Clinic

"I felt like we played too much of Canvon's games in the first two meetings. explained first-year Nazareth coach Geroge Cox. "We did a super job for three quarters, but then had a couple of turnovers and, instead of being down four or six points, it was suddenly 10 or 12 and things started to snowball.

We held Merry Johnson to three points the first half there, but she got 20 the final 12 minutes. They have so much depth that we've got to slow it down some and be more methodical and intense in our game.

Our seniors were certainly disappointed we didn't beat them up there. But they haven't lost at home in since Hale Center beat them about five years ago.

We think things will be different here. Our girls have all the confidence in the world at home (where Nazarenth hasn't lost since Friona pulled an upset during the 1973-74 season

I am concerned about illness. Karen Schulte, our leading scorer, has been sick some and so has Coll Gerber, who missed two days of school late last week," Cox pointed out.

Canyon has a perfect 23-0 mark this year and has a string of 39 straight since falling to Nazareth last year.

week's Top Twenty, and the results are shown in the latest Associated Press college basketball poll.

The elite twenty combined for a dismal 32-10 record, but No. 1 Kentucky kept on rolling, winning twice to improve its record to 12-0. The Wildcats had an easy time with Auburn and I.SU, and collected all 46 first-place votes, good for 920

Of the next nine teams, only No. 9 Louisville held onto its previous ranking. Marquette, the defending NCAA champion, jumped from fourth to second, winning three times including a 97-81 triumph over Nevada-Las Vegas. The Warriors, 12-1, gathered 808 points.

UCLA moved from seventh to third. the most significant jump of the week. The Bruins beat Oregon and Oregon State to run their record to 13-1 and got 613 points. Indiana State, the nation's only other major unbeaten, won twice and moved from sixth to fourth. The Sycamores are now 12-0 and received 576 that is, when its all said and done the Monterey Plainsmen will still remain unbeaten in district play. And for a good reason, too. They don't play tonight. Other than the Plainsmen, the other local high schools will be in action. Here-

night's high school basketball action, and ford visits Coronado and Lubbock High is at Plainview for a pair of District 4-AAAA matches starting at 7:30 p.m. while Estacado entertains Snyder and Dunbar visits Lamesa for 3-AAA tilts beginning at 8 p.m. Also, the Estacado girls are at Snyder, the Monterey girls journey to Slaton, Lorenzo plays host to Christ the King and Lubbock Christian High hosts Lockney. The Estacado-Snyder fem matchup and the Monterey-Slaton contest both tip off at 8 p.m., while the CTK-Lorenzo and Lockney-LCHS fem games are slated for 6:30 p.m. starts. The boys' games will follow the fem tilts. Monterey coach Joe Michalka, who watched his Plainsmen opened the District 4-AAAA chase with an easy 60-45 win over Plainview, said the open date came at just the right time for his team.

"It will give us some time to work on a few things," Michalka said, about the Plainsmen, now 12-11 for the season. "The way we turned the ball over (against the Bulldogs) it looks like we're going to have to learn to pass the ball."

Monterey will continue action Friday night when it meets rival Lubbock High in the LHS gym.

"They'll be higher than a kite," Michalka said about the Westerners. "And that worries me. We have the kind of them that really doesn't get that emotional. Lubbock High (4-16, 1-0), 72-62 winners over Coronado last week, could grab sole position of first place in the loop with a win over the lackluster the Plainview Bulldogs (2-19, 0-1): A 2-0 record would give the Westerners a half game lead over the Plainsmen.

The Hereford-Coronado tilt will be the loop opener for the Whitefaces, who currently possess the district's top won-loss record at 13-9. Coronado holds a 6-15 mark overall and 0-1 in loop play.

An Estacado (20-2, 4-0) win over Snyder (14-13, 3-1) would put the Tigers completely out of the running for the firsthalf crown in District 3-AAA and assure the Matadors of at least a tie for the first half title. However, should Snyder pull off an upset by beating the Matadors, the district chase would be thrown a mad scramble with no less than three teams knotted at a loss apiece. After being informed that the Mats have a shot at a piece of the title, Estacado coach J.J. Wood replied, "Well, that sure would be nice. We've never been in a position like this before, but I think we can come though." Wood, who saw his team beat the Tigers at the Snyder tournament by four points earlier in the year, said the Mats' foe has run on some hard times "but they are a good team and starting to put things back together.

Down in Larnesa, the Golden Tors (16) 4, 3-1) and the Panthers (18-4, 3-1) are also meeting in a game which could spell elimination for one of the two teams from the district race.

Lamesa, which has already lost to Estacado this year, must get by the Panthers and then hope for a Matadors loss if it hopes to sneak into the District's backdoor. The same goes for Dunbar, also losers to Estacado.

ARKANSAS DIDN'T LOSE a league game last season; it may not lose many more this time. Texas, too, may not lose too many more. It whipped the Cougars in Houston, and its most difficult challenges could be in College Station, Fayetteville, Lubbock and Waco.

The Aggies, after reports of disorganization and lack of intensity-coach Shelby Metcalf even spoke of lack of desire before the home fans-have the material to give black eyes to anyone not keeping up a very good guard. Every team appears ready to rise up at any moment Rice did it to Baylor in Houston, and because of hustle, it can do it again.

Arkansas' problem could be depth, something that has concerned coach Eddie Sutton all season. Texas appears better fortified in this area. UH, the Aggies and Tech have run in enough players to develop a certain amount of reserve strength

Poor Showing Still Mystery To Red Miller

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - "Who are these guys?" Butch Cassidy and his budband of orange-jerseyed players purporting to be Denver Broncos in Super Bowl

In a most untypical performance, the Broncos declined to capitalize on good field position early in the game, then coughed up the ball eight times en route to a 27-10 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in the Superdome Sunday

Denver Coach Red Miller wasn't able to shed light on his team's performance, except to credit Dallas with being "overwhelming defensively." The Broncos appeared emotionally aroused for the game, which has been their style all year. Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach offered one explanation, however. "Maybe Denver was too emotional," he said. "It's unfortunate because all those turnovers really hurt them badly.

Craig Morton, who had led the Broncos to a 12-2 regular-season record and who had thrown only eight interceptions over the course of the season, inexplicably was picked off a Super Bowl-record four times by the Cowboys.

On several occasions, Morton was hit while releasing the ball, resulting in incomplete passes or interceptions. At other times, he simply threw the ball poorly. There seemed to be nowhere for him to go as onrushing linemen Harvey Martin and Randy White applied pressure while the Cowboys' linebackers and secondary blanketed Denvers' receivers.

Morton, who took the sack rather than risk the interception during the regular season and the playoffs, seemed to abandon the conservative style that had been successful earlier. Dallas made him pay. But Morton wasn't the only fly in the ointment. On two straight Bronco plays late in the first half, usually sure-handed receivers Jack Dolbin and Riley Odoms fumbled after catching 15 and 10-yard passes from Morton

Pokes' Potential 'Super'

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - Tom Landry let his emotionalism run rampant Mon-

He smiled a lot. "I don't know about you, but I'm not feelin' very chipper this morning," he told a news conference the day after the night of Super Bowl XII and his Dallas Cowboys' 27-10 victory over Denver. "I didn't get much sleep. We all were very keyed up after the game and we partied a

The coach of the National Football League champions, often characterized as being little more than a computer, a stoic, was little more than thatagain the day after his second Super Bowl triumph.

"I'm an emotional man," he said in his usual monotone. "I just keep it inside a lot more than other men. But I'll tell you one thing; I was emotional last night." And he winced a bit.

Landry said the current team which demolished the Broncos on defense was not as good as his first Super Bowl champion squad, but only because of its youth. Based on the experience we had then, I'd say that was the best, because we performed on an even keel, because we knew exactly how well we were going to play each week," he said of that team which walloped Miami 24-3 on Jan. 16, 1972, in Super Bowl VI at New Orleans' Tulane Stadium

But I'd say that based on the personnel we have now and on our youth at many positions, this team has the potential to be even greater than that team," Landry added.

The victory over the Broncos, which ended a string of five straight American Conference triumphs, put Landry in the company of Chuck Noll of Pittsburgh, Don Shula of Miami and the late Vince Lombardi of Green Bay as a Super Bowl double winner. It pleased him, of course, but he insisted it wasn't the most important thing in the world

"I don't have a goal of being the best coach in the business. I don't have a goal of just winning Super Bowls. There's more to life than that," he said. "My goals are to use my God-given abilities the best way I can.

There was no doubt a Dallas defense used its abilities to the fullest. "The defense played super all game," Landry said. "It played three super games in a row (including easy playoff victories over Chicago and Minnesota) and I knew all along that I'd have to have three super games from the defense to win the Super

On offense, he said, "We tried to match them emotionally at the start and that's not our game. We were a little tight. It took us about a quarter to settle down.

Th Cowboys nearly coughed up the ball on the game's opening play, a razzle-dazzle end-around, in which Butch Johnson fumbled and recovered for a 9-yard loss:

"I kept saying to myself 'I don't think I should try this for an opener'. But I went and did it anyway. But it turned out I was

Fans Welcome Team

DENVER (AP) - A thousand shivering fans stood on the roof of an airport parking lot on Monday, waving their orange banners and chanting "We love our Broncos," as the Denver Broncos returned in defeat from Super Bowl XII.

Most of the players were whisked away in a bus, but there was a roar of approval as Coach Red Miller, quarterback Craig Morton, running back Otis Armstong and tight end Riley Odoms walked into the midst of the crowd.

Backs were slapped, hands were shaken and a 34-year-old Denver woman planted a kiss on Miller's left cheek.

Denver's Cinderella season came to a crushing end in New Orleans on Sunday as the Dallas Cowboys trampled the Broncos 27-10 for the Super Bowl title.

It was 17 degrees on Denver on Monday as the crowd gathered to welcome home the Broncos. Police estimated there were 1.000 persons there.

COTTON GROWERS' ABILITY to "dial a variety" may continue to elude them, but plant breeders are on the threshhold of a new era in providing special traits to help farmers solve persistent problems.

This view of the status of cotton variety development was presented at the Beltwide Cotton Production-Mechanization Conference last week in Dallas by Henry Webb, director of cotton breeding and research at Coker's Pedigreed Seed Co. Coker is headquartered at Hartsville, S. C., and has operations at Lub-

Webb said continuing, long-range objectives of cotton breeders are to develop strains with maximum yields that will perform over a wide geographic range and give good spinning qualities.

Within these broad goals, though, breeders are called upon to develop varieties that are early, insect resistant, and disease resistant.

"NEW, HERITABLE CHARACTERS are rapidly becoming available to all breeders," he said, adding that these traits "promise to have a highly significant impact on varieties of the future and on production economics."

Among special traits Webb turned up in a survey of other cotton breeders, several showed up consistently as desirable. include varietal resistance to major cotton insect pests, early maturity, wide adaptability to major environments, fiber quality, improved seed quality, hybrids, and reduction in lint trash," he told the conference. One recent goal of cotton breeders invlives the search for better and more oil from the cottonseed. "A recent survey of 10 lines from one breeding program reveals a varietal range in oil values of from 11.6 to 25.2 percent, with protein content from 22.8 to

THE BEST COMBINATION OF THOSE components in a single strain, he said, was 24.2 percent oil and 25 percent protein. A comparison showed a check variety with 13 percent oil and 13.4 percent protein.

"This was an increase of more than a full percent a bove the check variety in each of those components," Webb pointed out.

He said recent developments in work with hybrid cotton "could introduce a new era for cotton breeding," but few breeders could predict a specific release date for a hybrid variety.

"We do have projections for releases of hybrids in the early to mid-1980s," Webb said. "It appears that hybrid cottons could become a reality in the near future.

In other crops, hybrid strains usually have meat higher yields and profits, but Webb cautioned that scientists aren't sure if this will hold true for cotton. Other benefits from hybrids could include earliness, wide geographic adaptability, and disease resistance.

Big Corn Crop Impact Noted

WASHINGTON (AP) - Last year's corn crop, an important factor in this year's food prices, was a record of almost 6.36 billion bushels, up 1 percent from 1976, the Agriculture Department said Monday.

The final estimate was 9.5 million bush. els less than the department forecast last November when the harvest was in progress. The small decline however was not expected to have an impact on total grain supplies.

Officials said the 1977 corn crop was the third record harvest in succession. topping the 6.27 billion bushels of 1976 and the 5.83 billion bushels recorded in Food prices soared at annual rates of 14.5 percent in 1973 and 1974 before slowing to a gain of 8.5 percent in 1975 and to 3.1 percent in 1976. Huge grain harvests the past three years have been a major factor.

The bumper grain harvests, although of benefit to consumers, have been a mixed blessing for farmers who have seen commodity prices tumble sharply with the increase in stockpiles. However, lower grain prices - particularly those for corn and other feed grains - have helped trigger more feeding of beef cattle, hogs, poultry and dairy cows.

Officials said that the 1977 corn crop averaged 90.8 bushels an acre, compared with 87.9 in 1976. Soybean yields averaged 29.6 bushels, compared with 26.1 an

Grain Futures

CHICAGO (AP) - Liquidation of grain futures contracts before release of a government crop report triggered a heavy wave of selling that sharply depressed prices on the Chicago Board of Trade to-

cents a bushel moments before the close, and soybean deliveries lost an average of 14 cents. Corn deliveries resisted most of the pressure, finishing only a cent lower.

The liquidation was influenced by traders' evening up their positions before the Agriculture Department released its final estimates of corn and soybean production in the current crop year,

The sharp declines in the wheat pit were attributed to selling aimed at limit-

Cattle Futures Rally

For Two-Week High Wholesale hams were unchanged to up

CHICAGO - Cattle futures rallied from initial losses of 15 points to end seven to 40 points higher Monday on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange.

The August delivery paced the move on a turnover of 7,439 cars. Prices were lifted to the highest levels in almost two weeks in mostly local trade. Much of the buying spilled over from the pork pits on an American Meat Institute nitrite statement. Traders also noted light cattle supply and discount of futures to cash coupled with a firm tone to beef despite heavy production last week. Wholesale beef was unchanged at 68 3/4 cents a pound six markets expect 15,300 head today. Cash cattle were up $1 to off 50 cents, with the best top at $46 per hundredweight at Joliet, a one-week high. Slaughter was 130,000 head. Hog futures bounced back from outset losses of 17 points and closed five to 72 points higher. February led the upturn to a new season high and the highest level since November. The contract was up

Sales volume was 6,322 cars. The AMI statement that a ban on nitrite could cause a loss of $500 million to hog producers annually was construed favorably. The discount of futures to cash and strength in hams and loins tended to 3.25 cents from recent lows.

Costs of the project will be shared equally by the department's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation and the City of Ralls.

Survey Says Americans Okay New York Loans

WASHINGTON (AP) - Nearly three out of every four Americans surveyed believes federal taxpayers' money should be used to provide continuing loan assistance to New York City, a new poll shows.

Seventy-two percent of those questioned in a poll by The Associated Press and NBC News said they feel the government should do more to help the nation's largest city remain solvent.

The conclusions were drawn from a nationwide telephone survey of 1,604 persons, conducted last Tuesday and Wednesday. Only 19 percent of those surveyed opposed the idea and 9 percent were undecided.

Those surveyed were asked to respond to the question: "As you may know, the federal government has loaned New York City money and the city has repaid it on schedule ... Do you favor or oppose a renewal of this loan agreement, if it is

INVESTORS' GUIDE

By SAM SHULSKY

Over the last four years, I've acceded once a year - to requests from readers for a list of stocks "we can afford" meaning by that, of course, a list of stocks selling at relatively low prices. (The first list - 1975 - in fact, was of stocks selling between $5 and $10 a share... a list not too hard to find at the end of 1974.) Subsequent lists - at the start of 1976 and 1977 - were mostly in the $10 to $20 range, as are the "candidates" for this new year of 1978. All the previous lists, as is the new one below, were drawn up by Robert C. Wallach, who is with the N.Y. Stock Exchange firm of Gruntal & Co.

I don't intend to bore you further with my personal disclaimers and with repetition of my personal objections to investing in stocks "by the numbers" - that is, merely by market price... low price.

The fact remains, however, that the 1975 list appreciated 73 percent that year as against 38 percent of the Dow Jones industrials; the 1976 list, 52 percent vs. 13 percent for the D-J and last year's suggestions wound up the year plus 8 percent vs. a 17 percent decline for the D-J

So much for past records. I suppose one could explain it by arguing that those years were more favorable to the second (and third?) tier stocks than to the blue chips; or that it has been a period of emerging small industries; or -? I don't know. But in response to continued requests here is Mr. Wallach's newest list of modestly priced stocks. All included this year are in the $15 to $20 area with one exception at $25. All are listed on the N.Y. Stock Exchange; most are rated B plus or better, all pay dividends and sell at reasonably low price-earnings multiples and all boast of increased earnings forecast for the new year. The list of

If you like 'em, tell Mr. Wallach; if you don't like 'em, tell Mr. Wallach, If you've, read these paragraphs for any length of time you know I do NOT recommend stocks... any stocks. I present these merely as a reasonable list, in the selection of which considerable thought and market research has been expended. If lowerpriced stocks do well in 1978, some of these may well benefit; if 1978 turns out to be the year in which $75 to $200 blue chips issues return to favor, you could do better with others.

Good luck in 1978 - either way!

Q. How can I get rid of some old stock certificates which I once bought at 35 cents a share and are now down to 21/2

A. If they are trading at 21/2 cents look for a broker who will sell them for you. You live in a big city with many brokerage firms. If the broker can't find any market for them, write off the 35 cents a share as a tax loss. Shulsky welcomes written questions, but he will be able to provide answers only through the column. For information on corporate and taxexempt bonds, please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Address your requests to Sam Shulsky, care of King Features Syndicate, 235 East 45th St., New YOrk, N.Y. 10017.
