

Want to be District Clerk? It'll be 1967 Before You Know What Your Pay Will Be!

They're going to need a new district clerk along about January 1, 1967, but they can't tell you now just what the job will pay.

Which kind of puts things in an embarrassing position over at the courthouse. You see, the law demands that we now have both a district and a county clerk; that became necessary when the county's population passed the 8000 mark. (Up until now Hazel Gilbreath had been doing a competent job of holding down both jobs.) But the salary is a bit of a mystery. Back in 1955, the state legislature did quite a bit of re-vamping of the laws governing the salaries of county officials, points out County Judge Glen Williams.

"Seems they pretty well re-scheduled all the salary situations in all the counties," he had said, "and they also decreed that the salaries had to be set annually — and for just one year at a time, too. That salary-setting time was designated as the second Monday in January of each year.

Now there's just one little problem: Now that the new post of district clerk is being created (or is it county clerk?) there is no pay policy for the very commissioners who might set a tentative salary for the new clerk's post, themselves might not be elected. Thus they could not determine what action their successors might take in this matter of salaries.

As one county official pointed out: "There's no precedent to go by. Of course we would expect that the county commissioners would set a fair salary, and we are certain they would, but there can be no definite salary set now that would be binding next year."

This official pointed to Parker county's pay of $4500 for the second clerk's job, but sales indicate that there will be considerable interest in this year's elections, first of which is slated for May. Some here might be worth less salary. Who knows? (There's no set amount.

Meantime, it's filing time for job seekers, and so far no one has filed for the new positions, this is the year when voters select a county judge, a county treasurer, commissioners for precincts 2 and 4, and a justice of the peace.

In addition to the two clerk's positions, this is the year when county treasurer, commissioners for precincts 2 and 4, and a justice of the peace.

January 31 will be the final day for payment of poll taxes. Candidates must file not later than the first Monday in February.

Mrs. Merriott Pledges Effort; Dist. Clerk Post

Nelda Merriott, in announcing her candidacy for the office of DISTRICT CLERK made the following statement to the Journal:

Due to the growth in population of Bailey County which has necessitated the separating of the County and District Clerk's office, I am announcing my candidacy for the office of DISTRICT CLERK of Bailey County, subject to the actions of the Democratic primary.

I have been a resident of Bailey County since 1948 and for the past ten years have been employed as Deputy County and District Clerk. I believe this experience in handling the business pertaining to these offices qualifies me for this office.

Realizing the responsibility involved in discharging the duties of this office, I pledge my time, efforts and capability to fulfilling these duties, and if elected will uphold the confidence you place in me.

I will appreciate your support, vote and influence in my behalf in the coming election.

Very sincerely,
Mrs. Nelda Merriott

dist Church, will be Gil Lamb who was campaign chairman for this year's $13,500 campaign. Ten agencies are financed locally through the campaign.

Dinner music will be supplied at both the United Fund dinner and the Jan. 17 dinner of the Chamber of Commerce by "The Blue Mules," Muleshoe group, made up of 14 members and a girl vocalist, is directed by Bob Breckenridge.

Lamb is expected to give a break-down of this year's campaign, and will recognize a number of individuals and firms which contributed heavily to the campaign for 1965. Annual report will be given by Mrs. Thurman White, United Fund president for the past two years.

Mrs. Horace Hutton is general chairman of arrangements, and Mrs. J. G. Arm is in charge of decorations.

Although the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet is still 10 days off, reservations are beginning to pour into the chamber of commerce office, says Roy Davis, Manager. He said "a number of out-of-town reservations have been received. Tickets are $4 each, and both Davis and the chamber president, Dr. Charles Lewis, urged folk to make their re-

Hazel Gilbreath Expresses Thanks And Asks Support

The Muleshoe Journal has been authorized to make the following political announcement, subject to the Democratic Primary this spring:

I would like to announce my candidacy for the office of COUNTY CLERK of Bailey County. I have served the county as County and District Clerk for the past seven years, and due to the fact that the offices will be separated by statute this year after the 1960 census shows that Bailey County's population requires the separation, I am taking this means of announcing for the office of COUNTY CLERK.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation for the support you have given me in the past, and I shall be grateful for your influence and support in the coming election, and pledge myself to continue to discharge my duties to the best interests of the people of Bailey County if re-elected.

The facilities of my office will always be available to you, if I can help you in any way.

Sincerely,
Hazel Gilbreath

Lock at Pound Smashed, Dogs Take to Heels

If old Pete, the mongrel dog that had been missing for a few days turned up on the back porch during the past weekend, wagging his tail like all get-out, there was probably a pretty good reason for his sudden return.

Chances are that he had been picked up by the pound. And the chances are too, that he was among a whole flock of dogs that found an unexpected freedom during the weekend when somebody broke the lock on the pound gate and let all those pooches escape.

Commented one officer: "Must have been somebody who just didn't like to be fenced in, not even for dogs."

Police Chief Carl Neely said that one dog which was being held for observation also was a-

Cheese Pays Dividends In Time

Time's the one kitchen staple even an organized cook finds herself without in this season of hustle and bustle. Still, she can create intriguing meals with quick, quality foods such as American cheese slices and canned French-style green beans. Here the Borden Kitchen paired them to please in a Peppery Green Bean-Cheese Bake.

Peppery Green Bean-Cheese Bake

(Makes 8 servings)

- 4 cups (two 15-1/2-oz. cans) French-style green beans with mushrooms
- 1 cup (8-oz. jar) mild flavored imported Italian peperoncini, drained
- 16 slices (12-oz. pkg.) Borden's pasteurized process American cheese

Drain liquid from beans with mushrooms. Spread one-half of the beans with mushrooms over bottom of 1-1/2-quart baking dish. Remove stems from the little sweet peppers and arrange one-half of them over beans. Overlap 4 double slices of cheese on top of sweet peppers. Repeat layers with remaining ingredients, ending with cheese slices on top. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 20 minutes, until cheese begins to melt and is lightly browned.

Today's Meditation

By Herbert F. Peiman
"Lo I am with you always even unto the end of the world." Matthew 28:20.

1966 lies before us shrouded in darkness. Each day will be like opening a door into a new adventure. Each day may be full of temptation, sorrow or joy. It matters not so much what lies behind each newly opened door. It matters not whether what we encounter depresses us or exhilarates us. Far more important is how we meet each temptation, affliction, or up-lifting experience.

If you are about to take a trip, whether for a day or two or a month or two, you care fully pack your bags. You check and double check to see that you have forgotten nothing. Perhaps you will not need all you take, but you would rather be safe than sorry.

Before leaving port the captain carefully checks everything: the engines, the compass, the anchor, the life boats, the passenger list. Have you carefully checked your equipment for your journey through 1966?

You have forgotten something very important if you did not include Jesus, your Savior, for

"Jesus, Jesus, only Jesus 'Without Me, ye can do nothing.' He says. But with Him Can my heartfelt longing still"

"All's well in the darkness All's well in the night. The Lord is my watchman Tht Lamb is my light".

Democratic Party Control Fight Seen

AUSTIN — One of the big sleeper battles on the Texas political scene during 1966 will be for control of the state Democratic party machinery.

Some observers think this brewing struggle is behind the fuss between U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough and Gov. John Connally. Few think Yarborough has any intention of running against Connally for governor, as some have suggested.

But there is every reason to believe that Yarborough will be the key figure in any all-out liberal Democratic effort to wrest control of the state party committee from hands of the governor's friends.

Shifting population patterns and legislative redistricting tend to shorten long odds against a liberal victory in this year's conventions. Half the 6,000-plus delegates to the September state Democratic convention will come from 12 major counties where liberals are gathering strength.

Furthermore, the big counties will have more members on state party committees. This because of the Senate redistricting act, which adds senatorial representation in Bexar, Dallas and Harris Counties.

A personality clash at the top leadership level is necessary to whip up enthusiasm for convention warfare. The feud between Connally and Yarborough most likely will provide the spark that sets off the 1966 version of a familiar state Democratic fight.

Stakes are high, for not only is the party committee an effective power base but a powerful instrument in the process by which delegates are selected to the future (1968) presidential nominating convention.

Not since the administration of Coke Stevenson has a Texas governor lost control of the state Democratic party machinery.

Big Savings Aided — State Finance Commission has adopted new regulations, effective January 1. Rules allow higher interest to depositors with big savings accounts and an interest break for late depositors in Texas chartered savings and loan associations.

Old rules required uniform interest rates for all savings accounts in the associations. This new variable interest order, still partially subject to approval by the Federal Home Bank Board, is aimed at placing the state-chartered savings associations in a better competitive position with banks and federally-chartered savings associations.

One provision would allow "time account" certificates for investors who will keep $1,000 or more in savings for at least a year.

Other regulations would provide for paying a full month's dividend on money deposited by the 20th of the month instead of the 10th and for a full month's dividends on money withdrawn during the last three business days of a dividend period.

Under state regulation, associations have no ceiling on the dividends they may vote. However, interest returns have been running about 4-1/4 to 4-1/2 per cent. Federal regulations adopted in December have boosted allowed dividends up to 5-1/2 per cent on time deposits.

Giant Parks Plan — Most extensive state parks and recreation plan in Texas history may be submitted to the Legislature next year, says Governor Connally.

He may ask the lawmakers to approve a $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 land purchase program for parks during the next biennium. Total budget for parks this biennium is only $5,400,000. However, that is more than has been spent on the system for the past 10 years.

In mid-December, Connally said he will tour the state during 1966 discussing needs and plans — including an "expansive and ambitious" parks-creation development.

State Parks and Wildlife Department announced recently that additional facilities are being planned for all types of outdoor recreation including boating, fishing, water skiing, canoeing, swimming, sailing, bicycling, sightseeing, horseback riding, golf, hunting, "rock bounding" and nature study.

Connally Appoints — Governor Connally has appointed A. L. Dear, executive vice president and general manager of the Palestine Savings and Loan Association, as a member of the Upper Neches Municipal Water Authority.

Dear, 54, succeeds Eugene Fish of Palestine, for a term expiring Jan. 1, 1971. Fish was one of the men who pushed Lake Palestine to a reality, but died before it could be completed.

Boat Registrations — More than 200,000 motorboats are subject to registration by April 1 under Texas' new Water Safety Act, so warns State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer. Present certificates expire on March 31.

New law authorizes the motor vehicle division of the Texas Highway Department to issue certificates for boats operating in state waters. Same division handles license and title procedures for autos. Renewal notices covering boats already registered now are being mailed out, alone with a brochure outlining the Water Safety Act. Under its provisions, state game wardens now have full authority, for the first time, to enforce water safety statutes.

New registrations will cover a two-year period. Fees range from $3 for boats less than 16 feet long to $12 for those 40 feet and larger.

Safety equipment requirements include lighting, horns, bells, fire extinguishers and flame arrestors. Also required are rear view mirrors on boats towing skiers.

Building Gains — November building throughout Texas increased seven per cent, despite a traditional decline during the 11th month.

A report from the UT Bureau of Business Research also shows total construction for the month came to $133,631,000, a figure exceeded only during August and in November, 1964. Texas building during 1965 did not set a record. Record belongs to 1964.

U. S. Department of Commerce sees a nationwide 11 per cent increase in non-residential building for 1966, but only a "small advance" in private housing construction.

Counties Attack Problems — Texas counties now may get busy planning to solve their complex problems on a regional scale with state and federal aid.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr paved the way with an opinion saying the State Health Department is authorized by a 1961 act to "arrange planning assistance" when counties request it.

Cities and counties may pool problems and resources in a broad planning program under an act passed last spring. Health Department has served as the administering agency for small cities in the past, and will continue this function. Federal funds are available for part of the cost—normally two-thirds for cities and up to three-fourths for cities in depressed areas.

Although no Texas county has a master plan in effect, some have been awaiting the green light from the attorney general so the federal agencies could provide the needed money. Bexar, El Paso, Ector, Grayson, Jefferson, Nueces, Harris, Tom Green, Orange, Tarrant, Dallas, Denton and several other counties with rapidly changing areas are expected to join the program. Applications are made to the Health Department.

Gatesville Buildings — Architectural drawings have been made for a $497,370 training unit for 240 boys at Gatesville School for Boys.

A second construction project hasn't reached the architectural stage. This is a $41,160 addition to the Academic Building at the school.

Attorney General Rules — Attorney General Carr has ruled that the Texas Water Development Board may pay the tuition fees of two employees to attend an eight-day course in Earth Control and Investigation conducted by the Bureau of Reclamation, Denver Laboratories. Tuition total would be $300.

In other rulings, Carr said: — Firemen who participate in firemen's relief and retirement fund can draw out all payments made prior to August 23, 1963, when leaving fire department employment.

— Special service charges and penalties assessed against small accounts by depositories are dormant and subject to escheat by state.

Federal Role Increases — Federal government has become a virtual dictator over management of Texas Employment Commission's operation of unemployment compensation and job placement programs, a new Texas Research League study maintains.

Bureau of Employment Security of U. S. Department of Labor has tightened controls over expenditures, administration and program leadership, study reports.

"The federal-state partnership which congress intended to prevail, has deteriorated to the point where the federal agency tends to dictate the details of day-to-day management," says the League.

A real federal-state partnership concept can be restored, the study observes, only if congress: (1) restores to states responsibility for allocating earmarked administrative funds on a workable formula and (2) provides for judicial review of issues between a state and federal agency.

Short Shorts — Governor's budget office has compiled an excellent summary of state services, spending and trends. — U. S. Department of Agriculture reports citrus movements from the Rio Grande Valley during Christmas week were heaviest of the season.

Baseball is a TF Army. FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Pete Buckley, who assists former New York Giant pitcher Hal Schumacher in the baseball ball business, was doing fine until a waitress posed two questions: "What's all the talk about the draft? Are all these fellows going to Viet Nam?" "If they are," replied Buckley. "We're in pretty bad shape."

Star-spangled way to look ahead

One of the best ways to bring a fuzzy future into sharper focus is to plan for it with U. S. Savings Bonds.

Bonds just naturally make you look ahead—and what you see becomes less uncertain. No matter what you're saving for, Bonds give you a mounting feeling of confidence.

Bonds are a proven way to save. Millions of Americans are helping to provide for their years ahead with this secure investment.

They're a flexible way to save—converting easily to cash when you need it. You pay no local or state income tax. And you can defer the federal income tax until you're ready to cash your Bonds.

And they're an especially easy way to save if you use the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Savings Plan where you work. Just ask for an application.

Take a star-spangled look ahead with U. S. Savings Bonds. You'll not only be keeping a watchful eye on your own future but also on your country's.

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- ✓ You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity
- ✓ You can get your money when you need it
- ✓ Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- ✓ You can buy Bonds where you work, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Lee Mason are attending West Texas University in Canyon.

DINNER

Continued from Page One • Observations as soon as possible. This year's chamber banquet is to be held in the brand new junior-senior high cafeteria, and places will be laid for 550 persons, the largest number ever to attend a chamber of commerce built-in sound system, it is expected that much better audio facilities will be available for this year's banquet.

Dr. Lewis has not announced who will be master of ceremonies at the banquet but many features of the program are shaping up, including the booking of "The Blue Mules" for dinner music. New officers of the chamber officially will take their posts at the Jan. 17 banquet, Lewis returning as president again for another year.

Others to be introduced include Horace Hutton, a Bailey county farmer who operates farms covering 5000 acres in this county, vice-president, and Jimmy Crawford, treasurer. Crawford is a vice-president of Muleshoe State Bank.

New directors who will be starting new three-year term include A. D. Gunstream, president of the First National Bank; Robert Hooten-manager partner in Muleshoe Motor Co.; Thurman White, owner of Cash way grocery, and Wayne Williams, partner in Williams Bros Office Supply.

Hold-overs who will serve through 1966 include Earl Richards, Stan Barrett, Horace Hutton, and Boobie Allison. Other on the board include Crawford; Vic Benedict; Franklin Mann; Jacques Baker and D. B. Lancaster.

Going off the board this year are: Bob Simmons, Truman Lindsay, and W. F. Birdsong. Theme of this year's banquet, Lewis says, will be "Muleshoe on the Move." The school's art department is completing posters and displays which carry out this theme.

Of course the big attraction of this year's banquet will be the appearance for the first time of Dr. Kenneth McFarland, Topeka, Kansas, who has been called the nation's most outstanding after-dinner speaker.

Dr. McFarland, former superintendent of schools at Topeka, also is noted for the famous McFarland Trade School which he designed and built at Coffeyville, Kans. The McFarlands live on a farm near Topeka where they have one of the finest herds of horses in the nation.

Said Lewis: "We feel extremely fortunate to have secured such a top speaker for our banquet; few towns the size of Muleshoe can secure the ser-

Rotarians Hear Wildlife Science Talk by Cadieux

"Wildlife has become an exact science and bird migration predictable," Muleshoe Rotarians were advised at their weekly meeting by guest speaker Charles Cadieux, region two conservation education coordinator of Albuquerque, N. M., of U. S. Wildlife and Conservation Department.

In his talk of the changing face of wildlife management, Cadieux told of migratory data of the past three years which has been so accurate that it can be predicted what percentage of a certain type of duck will be killed of a total number of ducks killed for a given season. Census work such as brood count and estimates of the number of birds killed make this possible also, he said. Successful work is being done in controlling individual species of migratory birds.

New bodies of water created in the past few years have presented a big problem in relation to stocking of fish, Cadieux said, but use of C-46 airplanes have helped to stock lakes that are inaccessible or difficult to stock. It is less expensive and faster to use the airplane stocking method, he said.

A hint dropped to local fishermen was that the 1963 stocking of bass in Glenn Canyon Dam will net bass which have reached a weight in excess of five pounds.

Other information revealed included the use of special electrically equipped boats in Yellowstone Park areas which are used to electroshock fish in to a stunned state so that they can be caught and tagged. Summarizing the fascinating field of fish and wildlife tracing to show that it has now reached vertices of such a noted speaker as Dr. McFarland."

presented a special certificate by Jaycee president Kenneth Henry. Sil Tanguma is the chairman for the banquet's awards. Slips of paper may be picked up over town in which you may voice your opinion concerning the distinguished service award. This award will be the highlight of the week. It will be presented to Muleshoe's outstanding young man who has made an outstanding contribution to the community. The winner will be entered in the Texas Jaycee contest. The state winners will then be entered in the national competition, which chooses America's outstanding young man.

Speaker for the banquet will be the past president of the Covis Jaycees, Bob Echols. Bill Kinard is the publicity chairman for Jaycee Week.

The purpose of Jaycee week is to focus attention on young men and the work they are doing, and emphasize that Muleshoe Jaycees have done an outstanding job.

During Jaycee Week observance here, the U. S. Jaycees will be recognizing America's ten outstanding young men of 1965 in St. Paul, Minn. with national Jaycee president Jim

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill's Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm takes a sidelong glance at a new machine in use in Washington.

Dear editor: According to an article I read in a copy of a newspaper which was used for packing in a box of cups and saucers somebody sent here during the holidays — if people were more thoughtful they'd use a bigger variety of newspapers for such purposes and not tear them up into shreds — at any rate, according to it, the Democrats are planning on getting one of those huge computing and electronic-brain machines which they use for answering mail. As I understand it, the machine can memorize the names including first names and nicknames, addresses and various bits of information about millions of individuals.

A Congressman just hands the machine a list of all his constituents with all the details about each one he has found out about. Then when he wants to write them a letter, explaining why he voted for or against something, or was opposed to a pay raise but was over-ruled by the majority, or wanting to know how they feel about some pending bill, all he has to do is write the letter and hand it to the machine, which in turn writes the same letter and hand it to the machine, which in turn writes the same letter to everyone of them, each one addressed individually and by nickname if desired, with little personal touches thrown in, and then signs them all and addresses the envelopes.

Now I have been thinking about this and while it sounds like real progress and a great time-saver, I believe those boys ought to be careful.

After getting prompt and efficient mail service from this machine, some voter may get the notion it could have other uses. If it can answer the Congressman's mail, why can't it receive it too? Instead of Congressmen having a machine to write to the voters, why couldn't the voters have a machine to write to instead of a Congressman?

If it can learn every voter in the district by his first name, answer 10,000 letters an hour, and digest the views of a million people in 30 minutes

Value of Minerals Shows Sharp Gains

By Congressman Walter Rogers

For the seventh straight year, the United States in 1965 set new records for the value of its minerals production. Continuing advances may be expected next year. It is encouraging to note that growth rates in the values of all three major groups of minerals — fuels, metals, and nonmetals — closely paralleled those of 1964, with fuels showing a value gain of 3 percent, metals a gain of 10 percent, and non-metals a gain of nearly 4 percent.

and vote accordingly, all it would have to do is learn how to shake hands, and where would that leave the Congressman?

This thing has vast and explosive possibilities and if I was a Congressman I'd get that machine surrounded with enough entangling legislation to keep its use from getting too widespread.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

The strength of segments of the minerals industry, including the very important oil and natural gas industry, is a key factor in the country's general economic well-being. Of special interest to residents of the Texas Panhandle are 1965 figures related to oil, natural gas, and helium production. Some of the key points are as follows:

— The production of crude petroleum in the United States this year totaled 2,846 million barrels, valued at $8.2 billion. The total demand for petroleum products averaged 11.5 million barrels daily, up 1.1 percent from 1964.

— The marketed production of natural gas in 1965 was 16,432 billion cubic feet with an average wellhead value of 15.5 cents per thousand cubic feet, representing a 5.7 percent gain in production and a 1 cent increase in average wellhead value.

— Helium consumption in the more than 30 million cubic feet (a gain of approximately 4 percent) to an estimated 743 million cubic feet during 1965. The price from Bureau of Mines plants and the single commercial producer remained at 335 per thousand cubic feet.

— Since the Free World's supply is concentrated in the Panhandle area, helium is of special interest to us. In addition to the helium sold, more than 3.5 billion cubic feet of "crude" helium was supplied during 1965 by five privately owned plants for purchase by the Bureau of Mines under the helium conservation program. This program was set up under legislation I had introduced in order to conserve helium that would otherwise be wasted when natural gas containing it is burned as fuel. After being removed from natural gas being piped to market, the helium is piped to the Cliffside gasfield northwest of Amarillo and stored for use later, as needed. Helium is vital to projects involved in our national security; about 75 percent of helium consumed this year was purchased by the Department of Defense, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration; the Atomic Energy Commission, and other Federal agencies. Helium is becoming increasingly important as technological and scientific progress advances the frontiers of weaponry and peaceful space exploration. It is expected that the helium stored at Cliffside will one day be essential to continued progress.

Other minerals are winding up the year as follows: Bituminous coal and lignite production was up 4 percent; anthracite continued progress. Other minerals are winding up the year as follows: Bituminous coal and lignite production was up 4 percent; anthracite continued a decline down 10 percent below the 1964 figure; sulfur and fertilizer minerals showed gains with recovery of elemental sulfur from natural gas and crude oil exceeding 1 million tons for the first time; clays, refractories, and other industrial minerals showed moderate gains, aluminum production was up sharply, rising 8 percent to a new high of approximately 2.74 million short tons; the industrial demand for lead and zinc exceeded the new supply; copper faced continuing mounting demands and was in short supply despite increased was the highest since 1960 and silver output was the largest since 1956; iron and steel were produced at record rates, with ore production rising 2 percent. Good economic news — AND AROOor a good start for the New Year

Relishes Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio, (AP) — Eddie Litzenger, former Rochester American now with Victoria, B. C., in the Western Hockey League, likes to see Cleveland Barons on the opposing team's jerseys.

Last year, playing with the Americans, Litz played 14 games against the Barons on the opposing team's jerseys. Last year, playing with the Americans, Litz played 14 games against the Barons and scored five goals and registered eight assists.

In an interlocking game this fall, Litzenger resumed his attack on the Barons, an American Hockey League team, by getting two goals and making three assists. His efforts helped the Vancouver Maple Leafs beat Cleveland 7-3.

Muleshoe FFA Members Attend Convention

Muleshoe representatives from the Young Farmers and Young Homemakers of America organizations have tentative plans to join leading Young Farmers and Young Homemakers from just about every part of Texas who will be in Austin January 14-15 for the annual conventions of the two organizations, according to Bill Bickle, FFA sponsor.

An attendance of over 1200 Young Farmers and Young Homemakers is anticipated. It will be the 12th annual convention for the Young Farmers and the 4th for the Young Homemakers. The Young Farmers will meet at the Terrace Motor Hotel, 1201 South Congress. The Young Homemakers will meet at the Commodore Perry Hotel in downtown Austin. Governor John Connally will be the speaker Friday noon, when the Young Farmers and Young Homemakers get together for the annual luncheon sponsored by the Texas Electric Cooperatives. The Young Homemakers will present awards to the winners in the various State award divisions during the luncheon program.

The YHT, which has 160 chapters and approximately 24,000 members is headed by Mrs. Ray Joiner of DeLeon. The Young Farmer association is made up of 220 local chapters and some 4500 members. Ken-Ed Harvey of Parker County is State President. The Young Homemakers are sponsored by the Home Economics Teachers in the public high schools, while the Young Farmers are sponsored by vo-ag teachers. The Young Home makers will get their convention underway at 14 with a coffee honoring past State officers. Dr. Robert E. Ledbetter, Marriage and Family Counselor of Austin will give the welcome address. Other convention highlights for the Young Homemakers will be the presentation of awards at the Friday noon luncheon, an address Friday afternoon on "Communications in the Heart of the Home" by Mrs. Marine Amis of The University of Texas, and the election of a new State president and installation of new officers Saturday morning. A Fun Night Program will be held at 7:00 p.m. Friday for Young Homemakers who do not attend the Young Farmer Awards Banquet.

The highlight of the Young Farmer Convention will be the 12th Annual Awards Banquet which gets underway in the Grand Ballroom of the Terrace Motor Hotel at 6:30 p.m. Friday. Some $6,000 in awards will go to individual Young Farmers and to chapters for outstanding achievements during 1965. The climax of the awards banquet will be the announcement of the 1965 Star Young Farmer of Texas and the presentation of $1100 in bonds to the winner by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

Featured speaker at the Young Farmer Convention will be Dr. C. William Swank of Columbus, Ohio, who will present revolutionary ideas on marketing of agricultural commodities. Swank, a 35 year old Ph.D. is General Manager of the Ohio Agricultural Marketing Association. Both the Young Farmers and Young Homemakers will wind up their conventions around noon Saturday, January 15.

Good Shot: Wrong Hole
LOUISVILLE (AP) — Lawrence Warner recently scored a hole-in-one but it didn't count. On the second hole, Warner unleashed a mighty drive that disappeared behind a fringe of trees. He couldn't find the ball, dropped another and continued the round.

On hole No. 7, Warner sank his putt and inside the cup was the missing ball. A hole-in-one on the wrong hole!

Mixed-up Garden
JEFFERSONTOWN, Ky. — (AP) — Robert E. Cassidy recently scored a horticultural first of some kind; he grew tomatoes on Irish-potato vines.

Cassidy had planted both in his garden but somewhere along the line, pollen from the tomato plants wafted across and settled on the potato blooms.

In a short time, three thumb-size tomatoes appeared on four of the potato vines.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Of Law and Love

When Guest Sues Host
"One of these days," mused a well-meaning home owner, "I've got to tighten up that loose railing on the back porch."

But for months he kept postponing the needed repairs. One day a woman visitor leaned on the railing, broke through, and plunged to the ground — nine feet below.

In due course the woman sued her host for damages, and won the case. The judgment came to $5,000.

Claims of this kind, by guest against host, are arising with growing frequency. They illustrate the fact that, although your home is your castle, you must maintain the premises with due regard for the safety of your visitors.

How great is your responsibility? Clearly you are not liable for an accident if the premises are kept in proper condition. Thus, a guest who tripped on a carpeted stairway failed to collect damages, since there was nothing defective in either the carpeting or the steps.

Even if there is a defect, it must be substantial in order to support a damage claim.

For example:

A three-year-old visitor, stumbling on a driveway, brushed his cheek on a little mound of cement. Strictly speaking, the mound — about the size of a saucer — did not belong there. But a court held it was too trivial a defect to pin any blame on the home owner.

Furthermore, to justify legal liability, the defect must have a cause-and-effect connection with the accident. A guest who hurt his leg jumping on a diving board was denied damages, because he could not prove any connection between his injury and a slight looseness in the board.

On the other hand, the law usually does hold you responsible for the household booby trap (like that loose railing),

Cheese: Queen Of Quick Desserts

Hospitality is a plentiful platter of cheeses—simple but splendid accompaniments to a holiday meal, or welcome nibblers throughout a party.

The gamut of cheese-fruit combinations is great: Any cheese you choose with crisp cold apples, wedges of mellow pear, or plump grapes. But some pair better than others. Generally, fruit goes especially well with blue cheeses, plus soft-ripening, semi-soft, and firm types; berries with creamy cheeses. Dried fruit—dates stuffed with pecans and walnuts, prunes, soft-dried apricots, and figs, either plain or filled with unblanched almonds—are a delight with soft cheeses such as Liederkranz.

More specifically, present a crumbly morsel of Roquefort with a tart apple, a few grapes and a plain Melba round spread with Neufchâtel, or, in season, very-sharp Cheddar with generous chunks of melon.

The Borden Kitchen picks for a party individual triangles of nutty-sweet Gruyere and spicy Roquefort. From a baby Gouda cloaked in crimson, they cut generous wedges.

For those who want to dip in diet too: A rectangle of Neufchâtel, white, smooth, and low-colored. Also in a chunk is the robust-flavored Liederkranz, russet outside, creamy-yellow inside. The big wedge is sharp and tangy Wisconsin Cheddar.

The hostess in a hurry welcomes all cheeses, instantly ready in package, slices, or jar. All set to snack on—as is or popped on plain Melba rounds—are slices of Vera-Sharp and Swiss. The spread in a reusable jar is fixed for guests at the flip of a lid. Among the most popular are a cheese-bacon spread and Vera-Sharp.

Serve on the side pretzel nuggets, potato chips, and other favorites, for a gathering that's great for guests, but easy on the hostess.

Why Veterans Are Dropped

(AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates tried to "sell" catcher Del Crandall, 35, on a conditional 30-day basis during the baseball meetings here but found no takers and had to give the veteran his outright release.

The asking price was $5,000 plus $20,000 if Crandall stuck to team.

Crandall was dropped so that the Pirates would have room to draft two players. They drafted Dave Roberts, first baseman-outfielder 32, who hit 33 homers for Oklahoma City, and catcher Jesse Gonder from the roster. Gonder is 29.

Cattle Feeding Costs Rise Sharply After 112 Days, Experiments Show

COLLEGE STATION — Research done at Texas A&M University's Coastal Bend Experiment Station near Beeville, indicates the cost of cattle feeding goes up considerably after the cattle have been fed for 112 days.

Why does the cost go up? Ed Neal and Bill Conrad, in charge of beef cattle research at Beeville, say their tests show a sharp decrease in the conversion of fed to gain in the cattle after 112 days. This means an increase in the amount of feed required to make a unit of gain — with the end result, a higher feed bill for the cattleman.

In the experiment at the A&M field station, after 112 days in the feedlot, cattle in one group required 684 pounds of feed to make 100 pounds gain. At this conversion ratio, the researchers figured a selling price of $19.68 per cwt. was needed to break even on cost of the ration and purchase price of the cattle.

But, as the feeding time for the same group was increased to 140 days, feed required to make 100 pounds of gain jumped to 785 pounds — and a break-even price of $20.52 per cwt. was needed (an increase of $8.84 per cwt.). The researchers point out that the price of cattle may not increase this much in 28 days, in fact it may decrease or stay the same.

This was just one case, others produced similar results: And in every instance, an increase in selling price was needed to break even, as the cattle were fed to 140 days instead of 112.

The A&M researchers hasten to point out that 112 days on feed isn't a magic number, by anyone's standards — but in their tests, a significant jump in feed requirement to make a unit of gain began at 112 days.

TEXAS 4-H MEMBERS BACK HOME AFTER MEMORABLE STAY AT CHICAGO CONGRESS

A girl who can tear down an auto engine and repair it, and two other girls who have excelled in a number of 4-H projects have returned from the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

They were among 1,500 other young people from every state, Puerto Rico and Canada at the exciting five-day meeting in the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

Phyllis Stroman, 17, of Loma, received an expense-paid trip to the congress from The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company as the state's 1965 automotive project winner.

Irene Henze, 17, of San Antonio, and Sandra Schultz, 18, of Bryan, will attend as winners of Santa Fe Railway educational awards.

Miss Henze also won a $500 college scholarship donated by Santa Fe.

Miss Stroman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stroman, is rebuilding the engine of an old auto with the help of her father. The mechanical knowledge she gained in 4-H enabled her to edge out a number of boys for the automotive award.

She can change a flat tire with ease and cleans the spark plugs on the family car and the pickup truck. Last year she placed second in the state automotive program.

Miss Henze, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henze, is a four-time Bexar County clothing award winner. She competed in the state dress revue in 1962 and 1963.

She was county Gold Star girl in 1965, winner of the Lutheran Church's God-Home-Country Award and a member of the National Honor Society. She has also taken 4-H projects in canning, health, food preparation and junior leadership.

Miss Schultz, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Schultz, is a freshman at the University of St. Thomas. She was mistress of ceremonies at the state 4-H Horse Show banquet and the Brazos County 4-H Achievement program.

In 1964 she served as County 4-H Council president. She won the county and district safety awards last year and in 1963 received the county dress revue medal. In 1962, she won the county leadership medal.

Eagle-Shooting Illegal, U.S. Bureau Warns

The Department of the Interior today appealed to hunters not to shoot eagles or any other large hawk-like birds — which may actually prove to be eagles and not hawks.

The bald eagle, national emblem of the United States, is becoming increasingly rare, the Department said, and studies by Interior's Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife indicate that indiscriminate shooting is still a factor in the birds.

Allan T. Studholme, Chief of the Bureau's Division of Management and Enforcement, said that inexperienced hunters are unable to find game and "occasionally take pop shots at hawks or other living targets."

"Many of these 'hawks' turn out to be eagles," Studholme said. "Furthermore, the larger hawks themselves are protected in most States."

Practically every hawk that a hunter sees actually is beneficial, Studholme added. The only ones that occasionally might be considered less than desirable are usually so shy and secretive they are seldom seen.

Both bald and golden eagles — the two native species — are completely protected by Federal law. The bald eagle, so-called because of its white head, has been protected since 1940. Golden Eagles were given Federal protection in October, 1962.

"There is no excuse for indiscriminate shooting of eagles and the law will be rigidly enforced as in the past," Studholme said. "Surely these magnificent birds warrant all the protection people can give them."

So Elegant With Egg Nog

Egg nog's so eminently a part of Yuletide, it's bound to appear in every home at least once. Some relish it icy cold straight from the can, paper carton or bottle; others embellish it in a creamy Bavarian. This party prize from the Borden Kitchen is made in a twinkling with ever-ready, always-available canned egg nog, or with the packaged dairy-fresh product. Contrast colors in the spirit of the season by wreathing top and base with fresh whole cranberry sauce, strawberries, raspberries, or other fruit.

Egg Nog Bavarian (Makes 6 to 8 servings)

- 2 tablespoons (2 envelopes) unflavored gelatine
  - 1/4 cup cold water
  - 1/2 cup boiling water
  - 2 cups (1 pint) sour cream
  - 3 cups Borden's canned or dairy-fresh egg nog
- Let gelatine soften 5 minutes in cold water. Add boiling water; stir until gelatine is dissolved. In a large mixing bowl, slowly stir dissolved gelatine into sour cream; blend thoroughly. Slowly stir in egg nog until mixture is well blended. Pour into a slightly oiled 1-quart mold. Chill about 2 to 3 hours or until firm. To serve: unmold carefully onto serving dish. If desired, serve with fresh whole cranberry sauce. Defrosted frozen strawberries, raspberries, peaches or blueberries may also be used.

Pvt. Donald Dale Receives Orders

PVT Donald G. Dale, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Dale, Farwell, is being assigned to Viet Nam.

Dale, 22, is a 1962 graduate of Farwell High School and entered the army May 18. He completed his basic training at Fort Polk, La., and graduated from Motor Pool School at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

Pvt. Dale has been stationed with the 27th Infantry Division in Hawaii since Sept.

Homeless Horse Garaged

AURORA, Ill. (AP) — When police captured a horse running loose in a residential area, the next problem, where to stable it, was solved easily.

Plainclothesmen Hector Jordan and Pete Perez roped the critter and led it to the police station.

It will await its owner tied in the police garage, the same building where horses were kept by the police department before the advent of the horseless carriage.

YOUR OLDSMOBILE will give you better service with AMALIE 100% Pure Pennsylvania Motor Oil

Why? Today's high compression engines running at high or low speeds; running in grueling stop and go traffic require the superior oilness, the heat resistance found only in AMALIE Pennsylvania Oil.

AMALIE is the oilier oil refined from the world's finest crudes by special low-heat process. AMALIE stands up under engine heat long after conventional oils break down, thin out, drain off. Cuts wear, insures long miles of smooth engine performance...
