Making the biggest gains last month were adult women The department said women over age 20 outgained adult men two to one both in looking for jobs and finding them

Analysts said women may have been encouraged to seek more jobs to supplement family incomes. Women workers have also become more available because they have been staying single longer, have fewer children and are more educated. government studies have shown.

Although the trend has continued for years, the increase of 200,000 women in the labor force last month was larger than usual

Despite the increased job op portunities, the black unemployment rate grew from 11.8 percent to 12.4 percent, the department said About 39 percent of black youths

Economists had no explanation for there increases but said it often takes more man a month to stablish the trend for black unemployment. However, black unemployment has shown little change over the past year while total unemployment has fallen from a 7.4 percent rate to 6.2

The March unemployment increase was the first since a rise from 6.9 percent to 7 percent last August. Since then, it has dropped to 6.8 percent in September and October. 6.7 percent in November, 64 percent in December, 6.3 percent in January and 6.1 percent in February

In March, the average worker increased his weekly hours from 35.8 to 36.1 hours, with most of the gains taking place in factories, the

Federal firefighters to join resort battle

Forest Service firefighters from New Mexico were expected to be on the fire line today of the range fire that has burned here for seven days.

Approval for the forest service firefighters came from the office of Governor Dolph Briscoe late Friday after strong winds rekindled the fire danger for the Davis Mountain Resort, located about 15 miles west of Fort Davis on Texas 166

One specially equipped Forest Service heliocopter arrived at the fire-plagued Mountain Resort late Friday, said Larry Stewart, manager. Another is expected to arrive today, Stewart said Friday

"At last we are getting the help we need," said Stewart.

Although a fire on Skyline Ridge overlooking Limpia Canyon near the Mountain Resort was contained late Thursday, strong winds Friday afternoon stired the fire so that again it threatened the residences of 25 families who live permanently in the area and another 25 structures that are used as vacation homes, Stewart

Criticism coincides with plans

The Washington Post

WASHINGTON - Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev's prodding criticism of the Carter administration Friday on nuclear arms control negotiations coincides with intensive planning by U.S. strategists for talks in Moscow on April 20-21.

The timing appeared to be quite deliberate. Both nations are putting a high stake on this month's negotiations, in which Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance will lead a delegation to the Kremlin for the second time in the Carter administration. Their first encounter, in March 1977, ended in deadlock that took months to overcome. Administration spokesmen offered no immediate official comment on the Brezhnev speech, which broke no new ground and continued Soviet claims that the United States is dragging its feet on completing the long-delayed strategic arms limitation talks

The Brezhnev speech, in tone and in setting, was virtually a response to President Carter's stern speech at Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem N.C., on March 17, before Carter boarded nuclear-powered aircraft carrier U.S.S. Eisenhower for a display of American military Carter in that speech warned against an "excessive Soviet buildup" of military forces. He also described the Soviet projection of "proxy forces" into distant conflicts (meaning the use of Cuban troops in the Horn of Africa) as an "ominous" sign, and said he will assure that a new SALT agreement "preserves the strategic balance.

Administration leaders are now engaged in intensive preparations for the new Moscow round of nuclear bargaining.

Vance, Defense Secretary Harold Brown and national security adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski had lunch Friday at the State Department. Later, at the Pentagon, Vance and Brown met with the Joint Chief's of Staff on negotiating strategy for the Moscow nuclear talks.

Consultations on SALT will continue at the White House early next week, as both Vance and Brown will be abroad during the days immediately preceding the Moscow talks.

Brown is leaving Washington Tuesday night for Western Europe, on a trip that concludes in Copenhagen for a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's nuclear planning group.

Vance is scheduled to leave Washington on Thursday on an exhausting schedule of travel to Africa, from which he just returned with President Carter, and then on to

With arrangements still subject to change. Vance plans to meet in Arusha, Tanzania, April 15-16 with British Foreign Secretaray David Owen and leaders of the Patriotic Front, which is conducting guerrilla

Warhead arouses both critics, supporters

By FREDS. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) - The neutron warhead is designed to stop onrushing Soviet tanks by sickening and killing their crews with shafts of intense radiation.

The warhead would differ from older tactical nuclear weapons by limiting the area in which human life and buildings would be incinerated and shattered by biast and heat from the nuclear explosion. President Carter announced Friday he will delay production of neutron warheads and watch for the Soviets to show restraint in both conventional and nuclear arms The nuclear scientists who conceived the "enhanced radiation" neutron warhead intended it to serve as a weapon that would equalize the disparity between NATO armor and antitank fire power and the heavy forces of Soviet tanks.

Current NATO estimates place the Soviet tank numerical advantage over the western allies at about 3-1.

The feature of the neutron warhead that appealed to many U.S. planners was its limited killing range which, they felt, would spare civilian lives and towns on the perifery of the immediate battlefield in Europe while achieving the military purpose of destroying the attacking tank force.

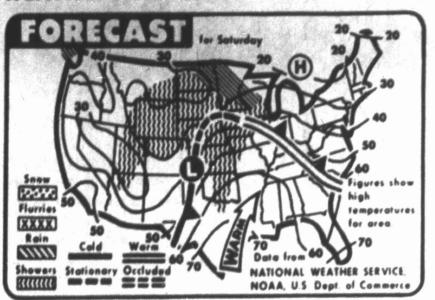

But it was this very limitation of what is called "collateral damage" that aroused some of the strongest opposition. Critics argued that the less widespread damage caused by the neutron warhead would make it easier for nuclear powers to use the weapon without worrying about catastrophic civilan casualties.

Thus, the critics said, such a weapon would make nuclear war in the European battifield more

Clarification demand likely from senators

The Washington Post

WASHINGTON - Several key senators including important backers of the Panama Canal treaties are likely to demand a clarification of Panama's attitude toward a key amendment to the first canal treaty. Senate sources said Friday.

This demand could pose a new and potentially serious Senate obstacle to the treaties The amendment in question is a 'reservation' to the first treaty already approved by the Senate that asserts America's right to intervene militarily in Panama after the year 2000 to keep the canal open.

The government of Panama Frida issued a formal statement denying it has already rejected the reservation. This was a response to published reports that the reservation had so angered the Panamanians that they could not stomach it.

Despite Panama's denial, reliable sources said several key senators were worried and angered about messages Panama has sent to other governments noting the reservation with obvious disapproval. One of these messages, a letter signed by Panama's leader, Gen. Omar Torrijos, suggested the reservation violated the charters of the United Nations and the Organization of American States

News of these messages circulated in Washington for the first time Thursday, Friday, key Senate aides said Panama's denial it had already rejected the reservation - known as the DeConcini reservation for the Arizona Democrat who introduced it would not allay doubts about Torrijos' true intentions.

Some sources, including an aide to

Although less critical of the Texas Forest Service. Stewart think they really came here to study the fire. And really, I think they might of picked up the whole ball of yarn and gone back to Lufkin without us getting any more unless we persisted."

According to residents, those heavy winds Friday afternoon did not stir up fires that had been contained just north of Mount Livermore, where the fire began on March 31 after a lightning storm.

Approximately 150 volunteers, including firemen from cities as far away as Fort Stockton, and college students have assisted area residents fight the fire.

Dennis DeConcini, suggested he or other senators might demand that Torrijos publicly embrace the DeConcini amendment before Washington Post special correspondent Marlise Simons reported from Panama City Friday night that government officials there insisted they had no intention of rejecting the treaty because of the DeConcini reservation.

Bush jogging, rapping for West Texas votes

By BROOKS KELLER

George Bush is not only jogging for votes on television these days, he is knocking on doors in Lubbock to get them, the candidate told the Jaycees at their weekly luncheon Friday in the Midland Hilton Hotel. Going door to door, he said he had visited 140 Lubbock homes in the last Bush touched on several topics in his talk, including Israel, the Central Intelligence Agency, trade relations with Japan and the American agriculture movement.

On Israel, he said, "I would never let Israel be driven into the sea by the Palestine Liberation Organization." But, he added, Israel has a tough public relations problem these days in that many people here and abroad are wondering if the large-scale invasion of Lebanon was not an over-reaction to the PLO terrorist attack in early March in which 36 Israeli citizens were killed. Referring to the CIA and the hundreds of agents recently dismissed at that agency, Bush said: "When Stansfield Turner (the current head of CIA) tried to take the human element out of it, my dad (George H. Bush, former CIA head) and I both put up a loud protest. Calling himself a "free trader" and one who dislikes the idea of protective tariffs. Bush said that protectionism might be the only way to influence Japan to buy more American products, particularly farm products.

He said the American Agricultural Movement of the past few months had made more progress in a shorter time than any movement he could think of, With several bills to help the embattled farmers already in the congressional hoppers.

But, Bush said, "over the long haul, foreign markets are the answer to the farmer's problems. In our trade negotiations, agricultural products have been treated like second-class

He pointed out to Jaycees that West Texas grows more cotton than any place in the world, and that two-thirds of this cotton is sold in foreign markets.

LONG BEACH, Calif. - A bunch of inexperienced high school kids are building an unconventional house in a way that's never been tried before. and whoever eventually buys it probably will consider himself to be pret-

The buyer will have the results of two years' labor and some of the best minds in the Long Beach Unified School District.

It will be a house in six parts, each part to be hoisted onto a truck and deposited onto a concrete foundation on the buyer's own lot, then to have all the plumbing and electrical and whatever connections made and then: Presto! Complete, ready for oc-

The separate parts, called modules, are now under construction at Jordan High School where 18 students in the beginners' construction technology class are learning by doing. The project originated with Glenn Warrick, district consultant in industrial education.

Thinking big, Warrick took his idea for a vacation house first to drafting teacher Charles Copeland of Wilson High School, and then to architect Craig Wheeler.

They conceived modules with wood siding and sheetrock inner walls that could be hoisted by two forklifts onto flatbed trucks. Put together, they will form a house suitable for beach or mountains, Warrick said, or for a city dweller who can get by on 864 square

The students are doing everything. They have erected the framework and are now attaching outer plywood which eventually will be covered by six-inch redwood siding.

They will roof the modules, make and install the doors and windows and install the plumbing. A Jordan High electrical class will do all the electrical work. Warrick says he doesn't know yet if the house will have some appliances installed, but the kitchen-allows space for the usual refrigerator, stove, etc. Nor does he know how much profit to anticipate from the investment of only $15,000 for materials.

But he does know for sure that the house will meet all current building code requirements, having run the plans through the Long Beach Department of Building and Safety and an Industry Advisory Committee, as well as meeting inspections along the way. And he does know the house will sell, because the district has had in-

is being built, says it's a slow process.

First, there has been difficulty in getting the materials, and then came the rains which delay outdoor work.

But mostly, it's slow because his students are true beginners. Most of them don't even know how to hammer a nail or pull a bent one, he said.

But they care, and that makes all the difference. They are meticulous, they take pride in their accomplishments, and they're demonstrating that by showing up with some of their own nail aprons and equipment, something previous construction students haven't done. Filipek said that they're also finding their own interests just by wide exposure to a number of skills that are

Texas child abuse law under review

By SUSAN STOLER

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Texas' child abuse caseworkers face a "real problem situation" while the U.S. Supreme Court reviews a decision striking down parts of the Texas Family Code, says a state official.

We're telling them that if they don't have a solid or effective order. they can't hold a child regardless of whether the child needs protection from a life-threatening situation." said Assistant Attorney General Colin

A three-judge federal court in Houston recently held unconstitutional parts of the Texas law dealing with custody hearings and computerized records of child abuse. Supreme Court Justice Lewis Powell last week refused to postpone effects of the Houston decision. Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sims of Houston challenged the child abuse law in federal court after their children were taken from them in

Teachers began to suspect the oldest child, 9-year-old Paul Sims, was a victim of severe child abuse and beatings. A caseworker for the Harris County Child Welfare Unit investigated, took custody of all three children and filed a complaint against the parents in iuvenile court. Judge Robert L. Lowry signed an order removing the children from their parents' custody for 10 days. Under state law, a judge must return children to their parents after 10 days or order additional court proceedings on permanent custody.

He said he doubted the high court would reach the case until this fall. The federal court said a hearing child is taken from his parents. "We're not going to appeal the necessity of having the 24-hour period, but the court apparently said the hearing has to be within 24 hours, not excluding weekends," Carl said. "We've talked to prosecuting attorneys and judges and they either can't or won't do that on weekends. The next scheduled work day seems appropriate.

Only court-handled cases may be filed in the Texas Department of Human Resources computer system. the court said.

Until the decision was handed down, the department put all caseworker reports of child abuse into its computer bank, regardless of whether they received court action.

"Some cases may never have ended in judicial determination, but from the department's point of view there was some substance to them," Carl said. Having background on a case might help a caseworker choose which cases should get the highest priority, he added.

The Singing Binions, a widely known family of gospel singers, will be Midland visitors this weekend to provide special music at the Church of God, 5300 Thomason Drive.

Highlighting the weekend at the Midland church will be Pastor Appreciation Sunday, during which the Church of God congregation will honor its pastor, the Rev. George W.

Ivy has been pastor of the church since 1976.

A special Sunday morning service will feature a concert by the Binion family. It will be open to all residents of the community. A luncheon at the church honoring Pastor Ivy will follow the service.

Three-week study set

A church wide study, "The Local Church in God's Mission," will involve members of St. Luke's United Methodist Church for the next three Sunday evenings.

Helen Terry, coordinator, said the study is designed to examine today's church and its mission in the world, and to explore ways in which each individual can be involved in mission. The study will utilize as text a volume by John Killinger titled "Steeple at Good Shepherd Church People and the World: Planning for Mission Through the Church." Leader for the initial study session

Church to open annual missionary convention

Gardens Assembly of God, 2901 W. Kansas Ave., is preparing to open its 7th annual Missionary Convention this weekend

The convention, at which several outstanding Assemblies of God missionaries will be guest speakers, will begin Sunday and continue through Wednesday, said the Rev. Paul Coxe, host pastor. Theme for the gathering is "Push Back the Darkness," which will be carried out in special displays, music and special events, he said. All convention services and events will be open to interested residents of the community.

Among visiting missionaries at the convention will be the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Kornelson, from South Africa, and the Rev. and Mrs. Warren Newberry, from Malawi. In addition, the Rev. Robert Mackish will be the missionary representative of Assemblies of God groups behind the Iron Curtain of eastern Europe and

The main speaker for the convention services is to be the Rev. Paul Lowenberg, Assemblies of God district superintendent for Kansas and widely known as a dynamic speaker and preacher. The Kornelsons have spent many years in evangelistic work in South Africa, and the Newberrys have been in Malawi for the last decade. Each couple will be reporting on its work in its respective mission field. As a special feature of the Tuesday night missions service, a telephone call will be made to an overseas missionary, and the teleph versation will be carried through the church's public address system so that it can be heard by all persons attending the service.

Preceding nightly services at 7:30 will be a prayer meeting beginning at 7:10 p.m., directed by Dick and Ann Bledsoe. Special music by the Gardens Assembly choir will be a feature of all services.

Monkey fetus research may open door to 'fetal neuropsychology'

By VICTOR COHN The Washington Post

WASHINGTON -- Using a surgical technique that could one day help human babies, scientists are taking monkey fetuses from the womb, operating on them, then returning them to their mothers to be born at the normal time.

The federally financed research which practitioners say could lead to dramatic repairs of human abnormalities before birth - is being done at two Washington-area laboratories and one at Harvard University.

The technique's success undercut the belief, once widely held in medicine, that if a womb is cut open, a pregnancy will usually end

'That isn't true." said Dr. Edward Taub, director of this work at the private, nonprofit Institute of Behavioral Research in Silver Spring.

"We've removed some fetuses twofifths of the way through gestation" that is, pregnancy - "kept them on the operating table for nearly two hours for our studies, then brought them to normal term." he explained.

"I think the old assumption was that if you opened the uterus, the fetus would almost automatically be aborted. But people simply hadn't

What is more, he said, "We've kept animals alive three years after birth. This is like nine years in a human being. These animals remained entirely normal except for the deficits (injuries) we induce in our operations to

Sinatra performs a Carey benefit

NEW YORK (AP) - It was hard to tell whose blue eyes were shining brighter - Frank Sinatra's or Gov. Hugh Carey's.

Sinatra, backed by a 39-piece orchestra, appeared before 800 politicians, businessmen, labor leaders and others at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. The dinnerdance sponsored by Friends of Gov. Carey raised about $800,000 to wipe out Carey's 1974 gubernatorial campaign debt.

learn about fetal development. There was no indication these animals would not have led a perfectly normal life span.

Now, he added, "I think we're on the verge of a new era of what might be called 'fetal neuropsychology."' or the study of the way the fetal nerve system and brain develop and produce behavior.

Other researchers have studied other fetal developments in ways that would have been impossible by other methods. So the field may become not just the study of the brain and nerves but one covering all areas of fetal growth - and, in time, ways to correct abnormal growth to make a normal infant.

Getting to this point has taken nearly two decades of effort.

The first work was done in the early 1960s by two professors of obstetrics, Dr. Albert Plentl of Columbia University and Dr. D.L. Hutchinson of the University of Pittsburgh. Both brought some monkey infants to normal birth after removing them from the womb, then returning them.

But the largest sustained effort with a high degree of success - both in keeping the fetuses alive and advancing knowledge - was made by Dr. Ronald Myers of the National Institute of Neurological and Communicative Disorders and Stroke. part of the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md.

Starting in 1964 at an NIH laboratory in Puerto Rico, Myers and colleagues did fetal surgery on "from 25 to 30" developing monkeys, with what he described as "a success rate varying from 40 to 70 to 80 percent." That is, that many of the fetuses were brought to term, or normal birth, with the number varying according to the rigors of the experiments.

For Myers' goal was not just survival but knowledge. For example, he clamped the umblical cords of fetal monkeys halfway through gestation. According to a report in Science magazine, he was thus able to study the effects of depriving the brain of oxygen to the placenta, the organ through which the mother and fetus exchange many materials, and on subsequent fetal growth. Myers showed that undersized-primate babies almost certainly including human babies, since humans are primates are not necessarily premature babies but are sometimes babies who have lacked enough oxygen.

"This was very interesting and also important," he said in an interview. 'Up to then it had been assumed that any small newborn baby was premature. And if the mother had given a date nine months earlier for onset of pregnancy, it was assumed she was wrong. We showed she wasn't necessarily wrong.

A few people elsewhere did similar work, some at the University of Oregon Primate Center. Myers turned to other methods, but first taught the technique to Taub.

Now Taub, with Drs. Gilbert Barro, David Martin (of (Litton-Bionetics Labories in Rockville, Vd.) and Michael Goldberg (of the Medical College of Pennsylvania), has done fetal surgery on 36 developing monkeys, with a 33 percent success rate.

By cutting various nerve roots, the Taub group has abolished sensation from different parts of the developing body. And it has learned that despite the devastating loss of sensation and sensory feedback - these monkeys as infants exhibit nearly normal limb movements. "In short," Taub said, we've learned that these motor patterns do not necessarily depend on sensory feedback, as often proposed, but are instead parts of the animals' genetic en-

Taub taught the methodology to Dr. Patricia Goldman, who is part of a National Institute of Mental Health group working at NIH.

The group is removing parts of the fetal brain to study effects on later learning, and has found that even when much of the prefrontal cortex. an area considered vital to learning, is removed (at the two-thirds point in gestation), the monkey infant can later learn normally.

Dr. Pasko Rakic of Harvard Medical School has studied the development of vision in fetal monkeys. "But the number of people doing fetal surgery is still few." Myers said. "I think it has a great deal to do with the fact that federal funding of research today is too low. I think a lot of people don't have the money to take advantage of the method."

U.S., Red Union continue diplomatic 'travel war'

By DAN FISHER The Los Angeles Times

MOSCOW - The Soviet Foreign Ministry continues to refuse permission to American diplomats trying to visit newly "opened" areas here and Washington has begun to reciprocate by turning down Soviets wishing to travel in the United States, it has been learned.

The "travel war" may have involved as many as 30 Soviet and American diplomatic "victims" so far, and it shows no signs of letting up.

The real reasons behind the Soviet travel refusals are unclear. Officially, the Foreign Ministry has usually cited only "reasons of a temporary nature" in vetoing the travel plans. The areas involved were all declared newly "opened" under what was billed early last January as the first major liberalization of Soviet travel rules in over 10 years.

local goons properly briefed." cracked one American diplomat. The refusals seem directed specifically at American diplomats. One reason may be that the U.S. Embassy here has been much more aggressive than other Western embassies in testing the new travel rules. Other signs, however, point to discrimination. An American and a British diplomat, filing to travel together to Magnitogorsk, in February were turned down. Later, however, another British diplomat was told he could go. Two British defense attaches have reportedly visited a newly opened city near Leningrad

French diplomats have been permitted to travel to Magnitogorsk. And American and other Western journalists have recently been allowed to visit a city for which an American diplomat was soon afterward refused permission. A British and an rules require diplomats to travel in ment of foreigners in all the signatory American correspondent traveling pairs, so at least 14 Americans have countries was one of the provisions in alone were also allowed to visit a newly opened city in the Baltic States.

American embassy personnel. meanwhile, have so far been unable to visit any of the newly opened areas outside of the immediate Moscow area, according to embassy sources. U.S. diplomats were allowed to visit one newly open city near Moscow, but even then they were stopped and questioned by police before being allowed to proceed into town, the sources said

A total of seven separate trips involving 10 supposedly "open" cities and towns have been rejected by Soviet authorities since the new travel rules were delivered to the U.S. Embassy here Jan. 9. The refusals involve six different republics scattered over thousands of miles of Soviet territory from the Baltic states to central Asia and Siberia. Embassy travel

A similar number of Soviet diplomats in the United States may also have been affected. As a result of the turndowns here "Soviets attempting to travel in the United States are having some troubles these days,' said one embassy official. Every refusal of a Soviet travel notice in the United States is accompanied by an explanation saying that it is in response to a specific travel turn down here. "We-believe in reciprocity." the source said.

The timing of the new Soviet travel rules was widely interpreted as tied to the opening of the final round of the European Security Review Conference in Belgrade. The diplomatic note announcing the changes said that they were aimed at "extending the possibilities of travel within the territory of the U.S.S.R." Freer move-

For many Americans, filing income tax returns means shuffling through shoeboxes, rummaging in drawers and poking about closets for financial records. If you're one of those people, you can save time next year by getting organized this year. Throw things

Keeping too many documents and keeping them for too long - can be just as dangerous as keeping too few for too short a period.

Take income tax records, for example. Do you have drawers crammed with copies of the past 25 years' returns? Weed out the old ones.

With a few exceptions, the Internal Revenue Service has up to three years n which to audit lederal tax returns You can, therefore, generally discard receipts and other tax deduction records after the three year period. Some papers you don't even have to keep that long; once you have compared the stubs from your weekly or monthly salary payments against your year-end W-2 form, throw them out - assuming there is no discrepancy, of course.

(If you fail to report more than 25 percent of your gross income, the IRS has six years to audit your return. There are no time limits if you file a fraudlent return or fail to file any return at all.) To help you get organized, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, has a brief pamphlet called "Keeping Household Records: What to Discard." A newly updated version isavailable, at no charge, from the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 638F, Pueblo, Colo., 81009.

Start by dividing your papers into two categories: replaceable and irreplaceable. Keep irreplaceable records - including things that would be difficult or costly to duplicate - in a safe deposit box at a bank. (The boxes come in sizes starting at about 2 by 5 by 24 inches; annual rentals start at about $5.) Sort other financial papers into three piles - active, dead storage and throw out. Here is a specific list of what to put where:

SAFE DEPOSIT BOX - birth, death and marriage certificates: citizenship, adoption and veteran's papers; divorce decrees, wills, deeds, automobile titles, household inventory, bonds and stock certificates, HOUSEHOLD ACTIVE FILE - tax receipts, unpaid bills, paid bill receipts, current bank statements and cancelled checks, income tax working papers, employment records, health benefit information, credit card data, insurance policies, copies of wills, family health records, appliance manuals and warranties and receipts for those items on which the warranties are still in force, education information, a list of what is in the safe deposit box, loan records, receipts for expensive items which have not been paid for.

DEAD STORAGE: As a rule of thumb, anything that is more than three years old and cannot be thrown out should go in dead storage.

DISCARD: cancelled checks for cash or nondeductible expenses, expired warranties and coupons, salary

Forms for time extension available to late filers

Taxpayers can receive an automatic two-month extension of their income tax return filing deadline by filing a Form 4868, according to the Internal Revenue Form 4868, titled "Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U. S. Individual Income Tax Return.' may be obtained at the Midland IRS office and most other local IRS of-

When requesting an extension, the taxpayer must make two copies of Form 4868, filing the original with the IRS on or before the due date of the tax return. On this original, taxpayer must estimate his or her tax bill for the year and enclose full payment for the tax liability. Then, when the taxpayer later files his actual tax return, the duplicate Form 4868 must be attached and the amount of tax previously paid entered on the appropriate line of Form 1040. Taxpayers receiving an extension cannot use short Form 1040A or have the IRS reported. compute tax bill.

If the taxpayer underestimated the tax bill on his Form 4868, he or she must pay interest on the unpaid amount. In addition, if the unpaid In contest amount is more than 10 percent of the total tax bill, the IRS will levy additional penalties on the taxpayer.

U. S. citizens outside the U.S. or Puerto Rico on the date of their tax deadline can receive an automatic two-month extension of filing deadline without submitting Form 4868, the IRS said. This provision is for taxpayers whose deadline is April 15 and those who file their returns on a fiscal year basis. Taxpayers who qualify for this extension must attach a statement to their tax return when they file it, stating that they were outside the U.S. or Puerto Rico on the date of the regular filing deadline.

Lions group to sponsor rabies vaccination clinic

GREENWOOD - The Greenwood Lions Club will sponsor a rabies vaccination clinic for household pets from 2:30 to 5 p.m. next April 15 at Greenwood Baptist Church, said Lions secretary Chris King.

King said the Lions decided to hold the clinic after 14-year-old Phil Higgins was bitten by a ground squirrel suspected of being rabid and after several skunks, also believed to be rabid, were found dead at Greenwood.

The squirrel died not long after the boy had picked it up near his family home, his mother Linda Higgins, said

"He (Phil) went outside and put it (the squirrel) in a box . . . at no trouble at all. That's what worried us," she said.

She said she and her husband. Lester, then suspected that the wild animal was sick and took it to the Animal Shelter at Midland. It died

Phil was bitten by the squirrel on March 19, and last Tuesday, he was administered the first of 14 vaccinations. The series of shots is to end in a week's time, his mother said.

The squirrel was not conclusively proven rabid, she said

'It's like the doctor said: 'If it's one chance in a million (that the animal was rabid), you still can't take the chance."

Both men have raised $1 million or more for their campaigns. Also joining the million-dollar campaign expense club was a Republican candidate, Bill Clements. Campaign finance reports were submitted to Secretary of State Steve Oaks on Friday They indicated that Briscoe and his various campaign committees have spent $1,926,300 to Hill's $881,997. Briscoe, meanwhile, has raised $1,254,653 to Hill's $1,066,050, the reports showed.

Hill's reports reflect no indebtedness, but Briscoe said he has borrowed $500,000 and has additional loan authorizations totaling $400,000 from seven Texas banks.

Briscoe's loans are guaranteed by various supporters.

He said he borrowed in March from Mercantile National Bank and Republic National Bank of Dallas: Texas State Bank, Austin National Bank and Capital National Bank in Austin; Allied Bank of Texas in Houston; and Alamo National Bank of San Antonio

Also borrowing heavily to finance his campaign is Clements, who reported $1,295,000 in loans - $400,000 of which have been repaid.

Clements personally guaranteed $650,000 in bank loans, and he "lent" his campaign another $400,000.

The former deputy secretary of defense said he has received $263,886 in donations while spending $1,512,829 on his campaign for the GOP gubernatorial nomination. Clements is hiscampaign's biggest contributor, pouring $65,000 of his own money into it as

No report had been received as of mid-day Friday from the other Republican candidate for governor, Ray Hutchison.

Former Gov. Preston Smith, the third Democrat in the gubernatorial race, reported spending $54,478, with contributions totaling $62,041, including a $12,500 loan from himself.

The primaries are May 6, and the next deadline for financial reporting Spending was lighter in the races

Missing children, leader found on mountain meadow

By JOHN KENDALL The Los Angeles Times

IDYLLWILD, Calif. - Eight schoolchildren and their adult hike leader, missing since late Thursday, were rescued Friday by helicopter from a snowy mountain meadow after a nightlong air and ground search.

"It was horrible all the way," said 33-year-old Bill O'Neill, the hike leader. The children, three boys and five girls, ranged in age from 9 to 11.

One of the girls was taken by ambulance to Hemet Hospital after being plucked from the 7,000-foot level of a meadow in the San Jacinto Mountains east of Los Angeles. It was not believed that the girl was seriously injured, and none of the others required medical treatment. The girl's name

Abilene has always been tough for

Coach Ernie Johnson's Rebels take on the Eagles at 2 p.m. today at Blackburn field in an attempt to stay on top in the District 5-4A baseball

Lee sports a 4-1 league record to share top spot with Odessa Permian which also stands 4-1.

Right behind the Rebels and Panthers are the two Key City teams - Abilene and Cooper with 3-2 marks. Victories by the Warbirds and Cougars along with a Permian loss to San Angelo would cause a four-way tie for first place after today's action. Johnson's hard-hitting crew has its work cut out today, because the Eagles are doubly tough at home.

While Lee and Abilene square off, Midland High entertains Abilene Cooper at the Memorial Stadium diamond. Mojo, meanwhile, takes on San Angelo Central in Odessa while OHS plays Big Spring in Big Spring.

place with Mojo. Johnson will start Chris Sapyta at first base; Don Rasure at second; Steve Pitts at short and Terry Willis at third. In the outfield it will be Todd Clements in left, Pat Moore in center and Tyler Alcorn in right with Richard Josefy the designated hitter and Craig Van Horn will handle the catching chores. Josefy leads 5-4A in hitting with a robust .625 average and had a triple against Permian despite a pulled hamstring muscle.

ABILENE'S TOP hitter is Mark Pierce with a .462 average. Lee's Willis and Clay Calhoun are hitting at a .444 and .421 clip while Greg Stirman of the Eagles, owns a .417 loop average.

Moore and Rasure follow with .400 and .357 averages, respectively for the Tall City team while Cowboy , Hester and teammate Byron Roberts are hitting well with .400 and .364 averages.

Johnson can either use Calhoun the designated hitter or pinch hit him along with John White and John Bob Hopkins.

Midland High has two good sticks in catcher James Allen and infielder Jimmy Zachry. Allen is hitting .462 and Zachry .400 while Cooper's big guns are Trey Kendrick, Tracy Thomas and Sam Houston with .500, 462 and .429 averages.

Midland will start Archie Booth (3-1) on the mound with Allen behind the plate; Mark Mead at first base; Tracy Gann at second; Steve Cole at short and Zachry at third with Rick Foster or Steve Cooper in left; Ricky Goode in center and Joe Mowles in

Lee Trevino squats down and bites lip as a putt fails to drop on

Lee's return may mean merry Masters

AUGUSTA, Gar (AP) - The storied Masters, which somehow seems to have a corner on sports drama unmatched by any other event, has been primed by the pumped-up grandson of a Mexican gravedigger for what could be its greatest theatrics ever.

"This time I came to play." said Lee Trevino, grim-faced as an Aztec god after a solid 69 had sent him swaggering into a share of the secondround lead with Rod Funseth Friday in the classic he once vowed he never would play again.

"I'm not quite so jolly," said Trevino, who made himself a part of the American legend in his selfcreated role as the Merry Mexican.

THEN HE quickly belied his own statement with a rapid-fire run of oneliners. But they came after the fact, after he had stalked the gentle, flowered hills he once said he never again would tread, after he had put himself into position to win the tournament that has been his personal nemesis

Trevino, the ultimate actor, always on stage; the gesturing, grimacing, clown-hero, has set the stage for the high drama that has come to be expected over the last two rounds of golf's greatest show.

In recent years, it has produced the Jack Nicklaus-Tom Weiskopf-Johnny Miller finish; the Tom Watson-Nicklaus confrontation last year; Ray Floyd's five-wood heroics; Gary Player's incredibly beautiful approach on No.17. In earlier years, there was the tearful "I am a stupid," of Roberto de Vicenzo, Nicklaus' record-shattering performance; the inspired performances of the early-'60s Arnold Palmer; the Sam Snead-Ben Hogan playoff in '54, Hogan-Byron Nelson in '42; the Gene Sarazen double-eagle.

JUST AS it seems there are no more such scripts left, along comes a Trevino and it's all there again - the man trying to win where he said he

And facing him is a collection of the finest shot-makers in the world.

'I came into this like the baseball World Series," Trevino said. "I've won two games now. I'm going for the sixth hole at the Masters Friday. (AP Laserphoto)

"I want to keep my guest badges," Trevino said, straightfaced as could be while an embarrassed, red-faced. greenjacketed official of the sometimes-stuffy Augusta National Golf Club squirmed beside him. He and Funseth, who putted his way to a 66, the best round of the tournament. They had matching 36-hole totals of 139, 5 shots below the listed par for this famed, 7,040-yard layout that was the brainchild of Bobby Jones and, for years, the personal nemesis of Trevino, whose low, rightto-left shots were ill-suited for its hills and dogleg-left fairways. In 1969 he swore he'd never play here again. He boycotted the tournament several times. But, with his victory in the PGA in 1974, he took another look at his priorities. With a pair of British Open titles and as many American Open crowns, he needed only the Masters to become the fifth man to score a sweep of the game's Big Four events.

"Sure I want to win this tournament now," he said. "There's not too many who have won all the Big Four. It's pretty good company to be in," he said and reeled off the names of those who have done it: Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Ben Hogan, Gene

"If I win it on Sunday," he said, "I'll tell you, I'll get in a condition so that I don't know I've won it until the Trevino and Funseth, who also shared the second-round lead last year then disappeared on rounds of 74, 73, held a 1-shot edge over dangerous Hale Irwin and the quiet, 47-year-old veteran Gene Littler. Irwin and Littler played together in the hot, humid, hazy weather. Irwin had to work hard for a 67 — birdies on two of the last three holes and a 20foot, par-saving putt on the last hole. Littler had what he called "my best putting round in a long time" that produced a 68. Tom Watson, the 1977 Player of the Year and seeking to become only the second man ever to successfully defend the green jacket that goes to the winner of this sports classic, lean and lanky U.S. Open champion Hubert Green and bulky Leonard Thompson were in strong position another shot back at 141.

"Only my putting is holding me back," the red-haired Watson said after his round of 68. "And that's coming around. I'm gaining momentum and I'm much more

Green, firmly entrenched as one of the game's great players and seeking to confirm his position with a second major title, shot a 69 as did Thompson, a two-time winner on the tour.

Arnold Palmer, 48, who has won this tournament four times, scored an eagle-three on the 15th hole, played his back nine in 33 and stirred

MHS, Lee run wild at Angelo

By TERRY WILLIAMSON R-T Sportswriter

SAN ANGELO-Midland High and Midland Lee had a field day here Friday in the opening day of the San Angelo Relays with both squads doing very little to disappoint.

The Bulldogs qualified seven individuals and two relay teams for today's finals, which begin at 1 p.m., while the Rebels managed two relays and six runners. Odessa Permian and San Angele, appear to have more depth, however. Permian has only two and nine while San Angelo has one and 13 for the finals. Permian scored 17 points.

Midland High's Alvin Price had another field day in the 100-yard dash and the 220 with 9.7 and 22.6 times to easily win both heats. Lee on the other hand knocked off two seconds in the mile relay for the year's best time of 3:22.4, a full two seconds than their previous best. They also had the best time in the sprint relay, and those two races could give the Rebs a big boost

Price coasted to his 9.7 in the 100, setting up a showdown today with Del Rio's Dan Pitts who had a 9.8. Price had a state best of 9.4 last week in El Paso and says he is ready for another good showing toady.

"I was called for one fast start in the 100 and I was early the second time, but they didn't stop us. I went ahead and ran my race after that. I'll be ready for Pitts. I don't think he can beat me now." Price said.

THE REST of the 100 was one big heart ache for Midland sprinters. The Bulldogs' Jerry Bundage had his best time of the year with a 9.8, and failed to qualify, finishing behind Price and Del Rio's Mike Washington of Del Rio. Lee's Dwight Washington had a 10.0 in another heat and didn't qualify.

Lee made up for it, however, in the relays and 440-yard dash. The Rebels clocked the 440 relay time of 43.2 in high winds that plagued the meet and times behind Jerry Moore, Jami Berry, Doug Guthrie and Washington. Midland had the next best time of 43.8 with Jeff Robnett, Chris Sliger, Price and Budnage carrying the load.

In the mile relay, Lee's best time of 3:22.4 was set by Arthur Pertile. Washington, Berry and Phil Carleton. Midland had a 3:33.6 behind Chuck Stump, Bobby Stovall, Sliger and Jeff Robnett to just miss being cut from the finals.

Carleton, Lee's super sophomore, matched his best time of the year in the 440 to win his heat with a 50.4 while teammate Berry had his best mark with a second place 51.5 with both going to the finals.

"I sprinted the first part of the race and then just leaned into the wind at the finish. If the wind is calmer Saturday, I will do better," Carleton said.

THE 220 was another race that had its ups and downs for the Midland runners. Price's 22.6 was the fastest time recorded in the prelims, but was far off his state's third best time of 21.5 set last week. He still won by five vards.

Lee sophomore Mike Ybarra posted a surprising 23.1 to qualify in his first varsity attempt, but Robnett had the same time in another heat and failed to qualify. Guthrie had a 23.4 and didn't make the finals for Lee in a

It was a red letter day in the mile run as three from MHS and two from Lee qualified even though the times were not real good in the high winds. Jeff Adkins, 4:43.5, the meet favorite: Pat Darden, 4:30.7; and Bob Gleen. 4:40.0, all qualified for the Bulldogs while Lee placed Steve Hooper, 4:37.2 and Ricky Parsons, 4:42.8 in the finals.

The 880 runners also went through the motions as none of them broke the two-minute barrier. Lee's Arthur Pertile had a 2:05.6 while Midland's Gene Tuttle was a surprise qualifier with a 2:05.7. Chuck Stump, the Bulldog ace in this event, had a meager 2:06.1, but just ran well enough to qualify. The Rebs are a bit on the crippled side with Guthrie and Moore slowed with injuries. Both are needed in the sprint relay. Guthrie has a sore leg muscle and dropped out of hte 110 while Moore says he can run, but an ankle injury has been nagging him for three weeks. Moore still placed fifth in the long jump. Finals today begin at 1 p.m.

Mystery ends for Cubs' Sau Chicago after playing at Pom-BY TED BATTLES Albert, Tom Butler, infielders

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz .-Manager Jim Saul at last has what he has been wishing for all spring, a ball club he can call his very own. Barring last minute changes, which have been known to happen, Saul began working with the Midland Cubs team that will open the season Tuesday in San Antonio against the Los Angeles Dodgers hands. And Saul is quite pleased with the team he wound up with after two three-hour bargaining sessions with Farm Director C.V. Davis and all the coaches and managers who have been working with the four farm clubs manager just goes into a meeting and plucks the players he wants isn't quite the way it works. Opinions are offered by everyone in the farm system as to the potential and progress of a player and where he belongs in the system.

If majority opinion decrees that a player a manager might want belongs a grade lower, then it takes some persistent and convincing persuasion to reverse the verdict. A good example was outfielder Karl Pagel, who was ficketed for Pompano Beach a year ago, but finally was assigned to the Cubs after Saul staged a filibuster. Pagel wound up the Texas League'a MVP. The team Saul winds up with finds nine 1977 Cubs returning to Midland. They include catcher Duane Gustavson, pitchers Jack Ledbetter, Randy Martz, Jeff

Never have so many done so little for so much

The Los Angeles Times Syn-

This is the weekend a couple hundred bizarrely-costumed millionaires step out in public and begin earning more money faster for doing less than any group since the Hohenzollerns or the Hapsburgs. Never have so many done so little for so much. The baseball season opens.

You can't beat the hours, the working conditions are ideal, and, as Vin Scully would say, there's no heavy lifting. Some of them are going to get almost $5,000 a day for just standing there for an hour chewing gum, or for sitting on a cushioned seat all night trying to stay awake and look interested

It's called "our national pastime" - and it consists mainly of throwing sockfuls of money at a group of individuals who have a talent so esoteric as to be invisible to three-quarters of the world's population. Guys used to have to have railroads in the family for generations to pile up the kind of money these plutocrats have. They're instant millionaires. Some of them are going from $20,000 a year to $450,000 a year - in one year. Even their agents have fur coats.

THE COUNTRY screams about a coal miner's wage hike, or a steel price increase, but sports heroes live in mansions not even the inventor of the openhearth furnace could afford. Guys who flunk out of high school drive Rolls-Royces while class valedictorians pump gas. Horatio Alger would never believe this world. The only good thing about it is, nobody could fix a World Series any more with these kind of salaries.

But only the wages will change. The game will remain the same. As the season progresses, expect the following events to transpire:

April 12 - The first story speculating on whether Rod Carew will hit .400 will appear. He won't. Neither will anyone

April 21 - A wire service story will report Billy Martin and Reggie Jackson no longer speak, which will immediately up Reggie Jackson's batting average by 60 points.

May 1 - Thurman Munson will bite somebody.

MAY 3 - Of all the free agents signed, the ones with the California Angels will wrench their backs putting out the cat or break their hands pushing a stalled

May 10 - Charlie Finley will offer his Oakland franchise in any direction as the team shows a minus attendance with more people in the dugouts than the stands, on some nights more umpires than spectators. Bowie Kuhn will nix the deal because it's in the best interests of Charlie

Finley. May 20 - Steve Garvey will go 4-for-4 thereby earning the instant enmity of the rest of the infield, but the Dodgers will continue to lead the league in hugging. And not much else.

MAY 30 - Jimmy the Greek will pick the wrong teams in all divisions.

June 15 - Because the Yankees are trailing by two games. George Steinbrenner will buy up the American League. Bowie Kuhn will OK it.

July 2 - Howard Cosell will describe a Monday night game accurately - as "dull." Most people will think he's overrating it. The TV camera will show a designated hitter sound asleep in the dugout, but the letter writers will still say only a Communist wouldn't love baseball.

Aug. 14 - the Baltimore Orioles will threaten to move. The Atlanta Braves will threaten

Aug. 20 - Nolan Ryan will set a world record for pitches in a single game, 705. This will give him 19,000 for the season, 9,000 strikes, 500 wild, 81 hit batsmen, and the rest bouncers - not to the infield, to the plate.

OCT. 21 - The Philadelphia

Phillies will get in the World Series - but not for long. Reggie Jackson will hit a home run every time up, and television will show him doing a commercial for a compact car - which he keeps in the trunk of his Rolls.

And, over the winter, 100 new guys who batted .240 or more will become free agents and sign for an average of $350,000 apiece over the next 10 years, and at the same time the White House will call an emergency conference over whether bituminous coal miners have to buy their own canaries, and if not what it'll do to the country's wage-price spiral. The public will back a baseball players' strike to lower the games to seven innings, on grounds the greedy owners only want the extra two innings to sell more peanuts and Cracker Jack.

the Steers stood 7-1, but have done a tailspin ever since. Class AAA Snyder polished off the Bovines, 3-1, Thur-sday as the Tigers were chalking up their 15th win in 19 outings.

Permian, like Lee, has plenty of sock in its lineup with Dean Fields and Brian Vickers the No. 2 and No. 3 hitters in the league with averages of .500 and .583 and .500. Teammate Gary Hix is hitting .429 for the Pansaid Martin. "Last year I would hear a lot of things second hand. Now he talks ... that's good. Not that he's not going to get excited.

"I'm not exactly a lilly when it comes to losing. But like I've told you guys down here before, a man has to learn to control his temper."

Martin was back home - he lives in Arlington - and loving it. Particularly since he was fired by Ranger owner Brad Corbett.

MARTIN GLANCED around the recently expanded stadium and said. 'That's nice. I wish they had done that when I was here. They still don't have any place for the fans to go when bad weather hits. They'll probably get around to that in about 10 years." Martin talked in depth about his

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ken Reitz hit a home run and Jerry Morales made his debut with St. Louis with three hits as the Cardinals beat the Philadelphia Phillies 5-1 in a National League opener Friday The Cardinals battered Steve Carlton, last year's DOX SCORES

NL Cy Young Award winner, for 10 hits and four runs in four innings, as the defending East Division champions lost their season opener for the fourth straight year. St. Louis right-hander Bob Forsch, a 20-game winner last season, limited the Phillies to five hits but had to leave after walking Bob Boone with one out in the eighth inning when he suffered cramps in his right forearm and leg. Reliever Pete Vuckovich finished, allowing the Phillies' only run on a basesloaded walk later in the inning. An error by shortstop Larry Bowa on Keith Hernandez' roller set up the first St. Louis run in the second inning. An infield out and Mike Tyson's single produced a 1-0 Cardinals lead. St. Louis boosted it advantage to 3-0 in the fourth on E-Burroughs, Rocket

ATLANTA (AP) - Dave Lopes knocked in four runs, three with a homer, stole three bases and scored twice, while Rick Monday also drove in four runs, leading the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 13-4 triumph over the Atlanta Braves Friday night and spoiling the managerial debut of Bobby Cox.

Lopes homered in the third to wipe out a 3-0 Braves' lead built on solo blasts by Rowland Office and a two-run shot by Dale Murphy off Los Angeles starter Don Sutton.

Jerry Royster gave the Braves their last lead at 4-3 with a leadodf homer in the third before Sutton settled down and the Dodger bats came alive.

Doster's homer sacks Astros

CINCINNATI (AP) - George Foster slammed a three-run homer and Bill Bonham won his debut/with Cincinnati as the Reds rallied for a 5-4 victory over the Houston Astros Friday night.

Foster, whose 52 home runs last year were the most in the National League since 1949, enabled the Reds to overcome a 4-2 deficit with his first of the 1978 season, an opposite-field shot to right in the fifth off losing pitcher Joe Niekro.

Bonham, acquired from the Chicago Cubs last winter, survived a shaky start, then retired 11 of 12 batters before Dave Tomlin was summoned in the ninth after pinch-hitter Wilbur Howard singled.

Foster, who had a perfect 3for-3 game, homered after Pete Rose singled and Joe Morgan walked. It was the Reds' second straight comeback victory over the Astros, who beat Cincinnati 13 times in 18 meetings last year.

Saul will have two more days in which to work with the club, something he has been anxious to do. 'We don't have much time, but we have a lot of

Hisle, Lezcano key Brewers over Birds

MILWAUKEE (AP) - Larry Hisle crashed a two-run homer in the fifth inning and Sixto Lezcano belted his first major league bases-loaded homer in the seventh, powering the Milwaukee Brewers to an 11-3 rout of the Baltimore Orioles in an American League opener Friday.

Winner Jerry Augustine checked the Orioles on six hits until the ninth inning when the Orioles scored twice and had the bases loaded with one out. Ed Rodriguez came on to get the final out after a third run came home on a sacrifice fly ..

Andy Etchebarren doubled home two runs and scored in the second to key the Brewers to a 3-0 lead in the second. A walk to Lezcano and a two-out single by Lenn Sakata set up the scoring. Etchebarren drove home both runners with his double into the right centerfield gap, then came home on rookie Paul Molitor's first major league hit, a single up the middle.

The Brewers made it 4-0 with a third-inning run chasing loser Mike Flanagan on a double by Hisle and a two-out RBI single by Cecil Cooper.

Sal Bando reached base on an error by Mark Belanger with two out in the fifth, and Hisle, who signed for a reported $3.1 million, followed with his blast high into the left field bleachers off Tim Stoddard to give the Brewers a 6-0 lead. The Brewers filled the bases against Stoddard with one out in the seventh on an error by Lee May, a walk and a hit bats-man. Lezcano followed with his longhome run into the left-center field seats.

Hisle, loudly cheered every time he came to bat or made a play in the field, said he had feared some hostile fan response because of his hefty salary. "This was one of the toughest days of my career, as far as pressure" said Hisle, who led the American Legue with 119 RBI last

"But when the pressure is greatest, for some reason I am able to concentrate better," he said. "When I got that double my second time up, I clapped when I got to second place. And when I hit that home run, I clapped. I normally don't do that."

The Los Angeles Times Syn-

This is the weekend a couple hundred bizarrely-costumed millionaires step out in public and begin earning more money faster for doing less than any group since the Hohenzollerns or the Hapsburgs. Never have so many done so little for so much. The baseball season opens.

You can't beat the hours, the working conditions are ideal, and, as Vin Scully would say, there's no heavy lifting. Some of them are going to get almost $5,000 a day for just standing there for an hour chewing gum. or for sitting on a cushioned seat all night trying to stay awake and look interested

It's called "our national pastime" - and it consists mainly of throwing sockfuls of money at a group of individuals who have a talent so esoteric as to be invisible to three-quarters of the world's population. Guys used to have to have railroads in the family for generations to pile up the kind of money these plutocrats have. They're instant millionaires. Some of them are going from $20,000 a year to $450,000 a year - in one year. Even their agents have fur coats.

THE COUNTRY screams about a coal miner's wage hike. or a steel price increase, but sports heroes live in mansions not even the inventor of the openhearth furnace could afford. Guys who flunk out of high school drive Rolls-Royces while class valedictorians pump gas. Horatio Alger would never believe this world. The only good thing about it is, nobody could fix a World Series any more with these kind of salaries.

But only the wages will change. The game will remain the same. As the season progresses, expect the following events to transpire:

April 12 - The first story speculating on whether Rod Carew will hit .400 will appear. He won't. Neither will anyone else.

April 21 - A wire service story will report Billy Martin and Reggie Jackson no longer speak, which will immediately up Reggie Jackson's batting average by 60 points.

May 1 - Thurman Munson will bite somebody.

MAY 3 - Of all the free agents signed, the ones with the California Angels will wrench their backs putting out the cat or break their hands pushing a stalled Maserati.

May 10 - Charlie Finley will offer his Oakland franchise in any direction as the team shows a minus attendance with more people in the dugouts than the stands, on some nights more umpires than spectators. Bowie Kuhn will nix the deal because it's in the best interests of Charlie

May 20 - Steve Garvey will go 4-for-4 thereby earning the instant enmity of the rest of the infield, but the Dodgers will continue to lead the league in hugging. And not much else.

MAY 30 - Jimmy the Greek will pick the wrong teams in all divisions.

June 15 - Because the Yankees are trailing by two games. George Steinbrenner will buy up the American League. Bowie Kuhn will OK it.

July 2 - Howard Cosell will describe a Monday night game accurately - as "dull." Most people will think he's overrating it. The TV camera will show a designated hitter sound asleep in the dugout, but the letter writers will still say only a Communist wouldn't love baseball.

Aug. 14 - the Baltimore Orioles will threaten to move. The Atlanta Braves will threaten

Aug. 20 - Nolan Ryan will set a world record for pitches in a single game, 705. This will give him 19,000 for the season, 9,000 strikes, 500 wild, 81 hit batsmen, and the rest bouncers - not to the infield, to the plate.

OCT. 21 - The Philadelphia

Phillies will get in the World Series - but not for long. Reggie Jackson will hit a home run every time up, and television will show him doing a commercial for a compact car - which he keeps in the trunk of his Rolls.

And, over the winter, 100 new guys who batted .240 or more will become free agents and sign for an average of $350,000 apiece over the next 10 years, and at the same time the White House will call an emergency conference over whether bituminous coal miners have to buy their own canaries, and if not what it'll do to the country's wage-price spiral. The public will back a baseball players' strike to lower the games to seven innings, on grounds the greedy owners only want the extra two innings to sell more peanuts and Cracker Jack.

Billy survives NY phone call

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) - The telephone rang in the New York Yankee dressing room and someone told Billy Martin it was George Stein-

"Oh me. I've been fired and the season hasn't even started." Martin joked in mock seriousness.

Martin later cradled the telephone and said with a smile: "Nope, he gave me raise. Laughter

Manager Martin and owner Steinbrenner have had their communication problems in the past. But a world championship and a silent, productive spring training have put their volatile emotions on the backburner — temporarily at least.

the Steers stood 7-1, but have done a tailspin ever since. Class AAA Snyder polished off the Bovines, 3-1, Thursday as the Tigers were chalking up their 15th win in 19 outings.

Permian, like Lee, has plenty of sock in its lineup with Dean Fields and Brian Vickers the No. 2 and No. 3 hitters in the league with averages of .500 and .583 and .500. Teammate Gary Hix is hitting .429 for the Pansaid Martin. "Last year I would hear a lot of things second hand. Now he talks ... that's good. Not that he's not going to get excited. "I'm not exactly a lilly when it comes to losing. But like I've told you guys down here before, a man has to learn to control his temper.' More laughter.

Martin was back home - he lives in Arlington - and loving it. Particularly since he was fired by Ranger owner Brad Corbett. MARTIN GLANCED around the recently expanded stadium and said. 'That's nice. I wish they had done that when I was here. They still don't have any place for the fans to go when bad weather hits. They'll probably get satisfactory progress, around to that in about 10 years." Martin talked in depth about his club, saying, "All I hear is about all the peace and quiet we've had this spring. There are always gonna be grumbles. But this team has been together a year now and are learning to do things the 'Yankee way.' A manager's biggest job is still in the

Asked what the "Yankee Way" was, Martin said, "Well, for one thing not many people know we have a ground to cover, things dress code ... shirts and ties when we like pickoffs, base go from one town to another, things coverage, cutoffs and like that."

MARTIN, WHO will start lefty Ron Guidry against Texas lefthander Jon Matlack in the nationally televised game, predicted the Yanks will be in a close battle with Boston, Baltimore and Detroit in the American League

CHICAGO (AP) - Ron Blomberg's home run, his first hit in three years, tied the game in the ninth inning and Wayne Nordhagen's fluke double scored Chet Lemon with the winning run Friday to give the Chicago White Sox a 6-5 victory over the Boston Red Sox before a record opening day crowd of 50,754 in Chicago. Hisle, Lezcano key Brewers over Birds

MILWAUKEE (AP) - Larry Hisle crashed a two-run homer in the fifth inning and Sixto Lezcano belted his first major league bases-loaded homer in the seventh, powering the Milwaukee Brewers to an 11-3 rout of the Baltimore Orioles in an American League opener Friday.

Winner Jerry Augustine checked the Orioles on six hits until the ninth inning when the Orioles scored twice and had the bases loaded with one out. Ed Rodriguez came on to get the final out after a third run came home on a

Andy Etchebarren doubled home two runs and scored in the second to key the Brewers to a 3-0 lead in the second. A walk to Lezcano and a two-out single by Lenn Sakata set up the scoring. Etchebarren drove home both runners with his double into the right centerfield gap, then came home on rookie Paul Molitor's first major league hit, a single up the middle.

The Brewers made it 4-0 with a third-inning run chasing loser Mike Flanagan on a double by Hisle and a two-out RBI single by Cecil Cooper.

Sal Bando reached base on an error by Mark Belanger with two out in the fifth, and Hisle, who signed for a reported $3.1 million, followed with his blast high into the left field bleachers off Tim Stoddard to give the Brewers a 6-0 lead. The Brewers filled the bases against Stoddard with one out in the seventh on an error by Lee May, a walk and a hit bats-man. Lezcano followed with his longhome run into the left-center field seats.

Hisle, loudly cheered every time he came to bat or made a play in the field, said he had feared some hostile fan response because of his hefty salary. "This was one of the toughest days of my career, as far as pressure" said Hisle, who led the American Legue with 119 RBI last

"But when the pressure is greatest, for some reason I am able to concentrate better." he said. "When I got that double my second time up, I clapped when I got to second place. And when I hit that home run, I clapped. I normally don't do that."
