New Programs Highlight Opening of School Year

U.S. 'Developmental' Projects are Launched

Muleshoe schools blasted off the 1966-67 term this week with a higher-than-expected enrollment and a flock of new federal programs highlighting the event.

The new federal programs accounted for 11 additional staff members, and along with those were 10 others who were succeeding resigned personnel. Thus pupils, when they showed up for their first full day of classes Tuesday, found 21 new faces on the staff.

Superintendent Neal Dillman was pleased with enrollment which lacked only one person of reaching the 2000 mark. "With the new farm program which had reduced our enrollments last year, we had expected a further decline this year.

Lorene Sooter Heads Library

Lorene Sooter has been named High Plains Bookmobile Librarian, succeeding Georgia Pena who resigned to become a member of the Muleshoe schools' staff.

A spokesman for the bookmobile Wednesday issued this statement: "We would like to let the Muleshoe area people know the bookmobile will not stop in Muleshoe every third Saturday afternoon any more. We will use this time for office work instead since we did not have enough customers to continue the Muleshoe stop.

"Please feel free to ask to check books on the Bookmobile every Tuesday afternoon as we'll be glad to help you anyway we can."

The statement continued: "We've had a very busy summer and since school is starting, we anticipate an even better autumn and winter. We have checked out approximately 8500 books in our four-county customers the three summer months."

The library will "give out more than 100 reading certificates in the summer reading program."

Such, however, was not the case."

He explained that he was basing an expected decline in numbers on the slump that came in the last half of the 1965-66 school year when 120 pupils were lost between January and May. He placed the blame for the less at that time, however, on the new farm program which reduced the number of necessary farm workers.

Biggest single change in the school program this year is the addition of 11 teachers under the federal program. The school this year will participate in Titles I, II, III and IV in the federal program which will bring new services to the school, including a number of "developmental" teachers—those who will teach students trailing in certain subjects, the superintendent explained.

(The complete program was explained in The Bailey County Journal for Aug. 7.)

For example, a new class in special education was started in junior high for children 13 to 17 years old. The superintendent explained that nine were enrolled in these special courses at the opening of school.

with Mrs. F. D. Harris as the teacher.

He said that two new developmental reading stations were launched in junior high school as part of the Title I be manned by Mrs. J. E. Everett and Georgia Pena. He said that the materials used in these courses, "is exceptionally well planned, designed for the levels of youngsters in this program at this particular time."

Under the same federal program, developmental classes have been established in grades 1 and 2 at both DeShazo and Richland Hills. The superintendent said that the programs are self contained, and include courses in all subjects."

Among other changes, O. E. Lumsden has been moved to the elementary schools, and a nurse has been added under the federal program. Betty Jo Davis is the new nurse added under Title I, and under the same title, Mrs. Maxine Carter has been named to the staff at DeShazo as librarian.

The superintendent said many changes in personnel have been

Driver Changes His Mind-- Wham! Wham!

A Highway 84 driver apparently changed his mind, stopped smack in the middle of the road and wham! Three cars stacked up.

Highway patrolman Freddy Jack said the first driver became interested in a highway vegetable sign, and decided to stop and investigate.

After the crackup, however, he changed his mind again and calmly drove on in the general direction of Clovis, leaving three automobiles battered and several individuals likewise. All anybody knows as to the identity of the mind-changer was that he drove a white automobile.

Driver of one vehicle, a 1963 Olds, was Willoughby Gable, 63, of Route 1, Farwell.

Driver of car No. 2, a '64 Chevrolet, was Allen Drew Rausser, 27, 18273 Hagun St., Haywood, Calif. Driver of car No. 3 in the general crackup was Lewis Wallace Nix, 50, 4323 Cadmus St., Houston, he was driving a '66 Buick.

Fortunately none of the occupants of the automobiles was injured seriously, although three persons were treated and released. They included Mrs. Rausser, 20; Jarolla Nix, 13, and Hazel Nix, 33.

Your U F - 3rd in Series United Fund, it Aids Scout Program, Too

As the Boy Scouts organization makes plans to aid the annual United Fund campaign here this autumn (it's one of 13 agencies receiving support from the UF) it is timely to review Scoutdom's purposes and its operations.

The Boy Scouts of America is what may be characterized as a "character-building" organization, which while probably accurate enough, it in no way imparts the tangible value of such an organization to the community. Scouting is essentially an educational program giving boys incentive to achieve, recognizing achievement, imparting skill, trains for participating citizenship, teaches democracy and group action, places tangible goals before curious and ambitious minds and stresses moral values.

Who pays for scouting? The boy pays an annual registration fee of 50 cents. This maintains the national work. He pays for his advancement literature, his personal equipment, basic camp costs, earned awards, special unit activities, and his unit's dues from his personal funds, thus learning the lesson of self-reliance. From members' dues and approved money earning projects that teach lessons of group responsibility, the Scout unit pays for unit meeting equipment, program supplies, leadership tools and literature, camping gear, special unit needs and its special events.

Behind every Scout and his unit stands the chartered institution and there are 35,000

The End of a Beautiful Summer!

It was the end of a beautiful summer Tuesday for Penny, the French poodle. For that matter, it was the end of a wonderful summer for Debbie Haynes, Penny's all-summer playmate (or was it the other way around?) Here Penny kisses (literally) Debbie goodbye as schooltime begins. Debbie is the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Haynes. (Journal Photo)

Threat to Economy Seen in Medicare

Eddie Faust, manager of the West Plains Hospital here sees a threat to the nation's economy in the medicare program, and with it, a threat of socialism of a much broader scale.

The young businessman gave a talk this week to the Muleshoe Rotary club in which he outlined his views, concluding with:

"To me it is inconceivable to think that people who have incomes of $500 to $850 a month could not afford to pay their own medical bills or to carry their own private insurance."

"This coupled with the fact, that there is no limitation on the amount of income a person may earn and still be eligible for medicare is a definite detriment to our whole national economy."

"This is leading us down the road toward a more complete socialistic national government in the United States today."

He discussed title 18 at considerable length, the program which made medicare for older persons possible. He pointed out that the views expressed were his own, explaining that personally he favored "the Kerr-Mills program which I think provided adequate medical care in the state of Texas to all persons who could not afford to pay for medical care."

He pointed out that medicare

Amarillo Man Wins Golf Meet

Housty Brewer, Amarillo, squeaked through winner Sunday of the annual Muleshoe invitational golf tournament after sinking a 20-foot putt on the first extra hole.

He needed every bit of it because Buddy Hamilton, who won here last year, almost chipped one in from about 18 feet to cover it up, but it rolled off and went past the cup by less than a foot.

Both golfers had tied at the end of 72 holes with 285, three-under par, forcing the playoff.

Finishing third at 287 was Jimmy Wilcoxen of Childress, the Texas Tech golfer, but fate kept him from tying for the lead. He wound up one-under par despite a two-stroke penalty on 15 when he hit the wrong golf ball.

Brewer had started the day a stroke ahead of Dickie Dyer, but in the morning round, he had soared to a 74 and Dyer shot 82, Russell Haberer of Muleshoe posted a 72 and that tied him with Brewer for the lead, going into the last eight holes.

But Brewer was one-under for the next nine holes and that opened up a two-stroke lead over Hamilton, Wilcoxen and Bill Bailey and Haberer was three back.

Wilcoxen fell a stroke back on the 10th hole when he took a birdie, but Hamilton tied Brewer by sinking a 30-foot chip shot for an eagle on 11.

Wilcoxen and Haberer moved to within two shots with birdies on the hole.

All posted birdies on 13, but Haberer climbed to within one shot as he parred 14 and both Hamilton and Brewer missed putts from less than four feet for bogeys. Wilcoxen also bogeyed the hole.

Wilcoxen fell out of the running on 15 when he hit Dyer's golf ball instead of his own and it cost him two strokes. The others parred the hole. Brewer took the lead on 16 when he made a par, but Haberer and Hamilton bogeyed the hole, Buddy missing another four-foot putt.

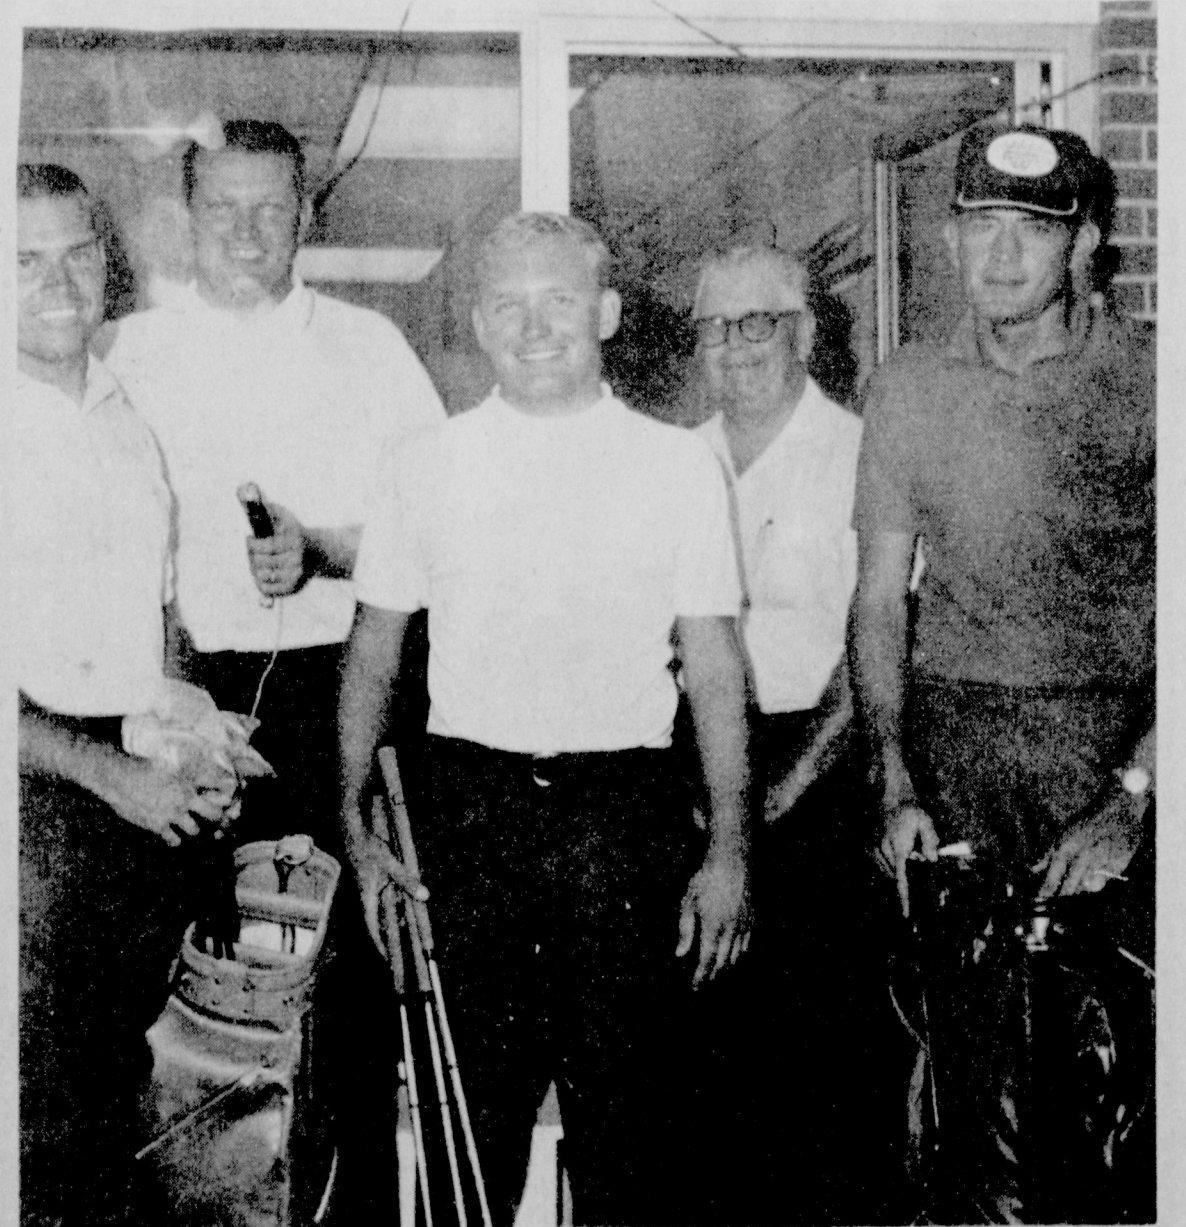

However, he evened things up on 17 when he made a four-footer and Brewer had to scramble for a par. They halved 18, then Brewer won it with the snake on the first extra hole.

Wilcoxen came on strong getting birdies on 16 and 17, but he was just too far back. Despite the penalty, he had a two-under 70 for the final round.

Hamilton had made a strong showing after losing two strokes Saturday because he hit another players golf ball on the green. He had a 69 on the morning round and a 70 in the afternoon.

Governor Sets Highway Week For Sept. 18-24

Governor John Connally today designated September 18-24 as Highway Week in Texas. He asked Texans to give serious thought to "the blessings and benefits derived from good highways and a Highway Department with vision."

The Governor called attention to the theme of Highway Week, "Better Highways Saves Lives.. Time..Money." He said the purpose of the observance was to remind the citizens of Texas of the value of the highways today and the importance of even better highways in the future.

"One of our state's most impressive achievements is the 67,000 mile Texas highway system second to none," Governor Connally said. He said history has shown that highways pump business, industry, tourism, jobs—and hence prosperity—into a community and, indeed, the whole state.

"The need for good—and better—highways will increase in future decades of unprecedented growth and economic development," he said, adding that "if we are to have a system to match that promise, we must plan now."

Governor Connally said Miss Jan Buenger of Fort Stockton served as Maid of Honor. Mrs. Jim Ward of Lubbock was bridesmatron. Bridesmaids were Miss Katy Roberson of Dallas, and Miss Brenda Drake of Sudan. Miss Traci Cowart of Sudan served as flower girl.

The attendants wore identical formal gowns of yellow silk organza over taffeta with empire bodices and bell sleeves. Ricky Humphreys of Sudan served his brother as best man. Groomsman were Jim Ward of Lubbock, John A. Humphreys and Dale Masten of Sudan. Ushers were John Armistead of Fort Stockton and Gene Bartley of Sudan. Candlelighters were Kevin Humphreys of Sudan, brother of the groom, and Mark Nicholson of Amherst, cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Jomeryl Harmon of Amherst served as organist and Miss Sue Hebel of Littlefield sang "True Love," "With This Ring," and "O Perfect Love." Mrs. John Allen Humphreys of Sudan registered the guests. Assisting at the bride's table during the reception were Mrs.

Lutherans Set Junior Program

JUNIOR ACTIVITIES GROUP TO BEGIN

Church news: The Sunday school staff of St. Paul Lutheran Church is meeting this week to consider new teaching materials for the Sunday School. Plans are underway to expand the Sunday School ability to teach more pupils in more classes, a more meaningful curriculum. Also, beginning sometime in September, the date not being set yet, will be a junior activities group.

This group will be composed of children from 1st through 6th grade in public school, from the community who will meet after school twice a month for an hour to involve themselves in activity projects of service to the community. Though sponsored by St. Paul Lutheran Church, it will be non-denominational in structure and operations.

All children from the above mentioned grades interested in projects of service to the community are invited. Some of the projects will include making things for hospital patients, projects for the public library, and other community projects. The Rev. Brian Engel is in Lubbock as a member on the planning staff for a Lay School future demands on Texas' outstanding highway system will be enormous.

"The task ahead is clear-cut. Destiny won't wait. We must meet the challenge of the future," he said.

In Texas, Highway Week is sponsored by the Texas Good Roads Association, a citizen movement dedicated to better highway transportation for all Texans.

The observance will be marked with luncheons, dinner meetings, and ribbon-cutting ceremonies to focus public attention on present and future highway needs.

A $172,612.30 budget for 'he municipality's 1966-67 fiscal year was adopted by the city council in a special meeting Thursday night. The budget reflects only a $2,516 increase over the $170,096 budget for the fiscal year now ending. In adopting the new budget, councilmen held the line on taxes, retaining a $1.00 per $100 assessed valuation tax rate, same as last year's rate. The new budget will be financed principally from the $1 rate applied to $12,981,800 tax roll--a roll which reflect a $574,800 increase over the tax roll for the year now drawing to a close, Denver City Press

There is an old saying, "if you want to get something done right, give it to a busy man to do." This is true. Some people, the busiest people, seem to find time to get more things done than others who complain that "They don't have the time." It is a source of deep wonder how some men find time to do so much. It is worth remembering that great men have but a few hours a day to be "great" and get things done. They have to sleep and dress and bathe and eat and go to the barber, the doctor, the dentist, the service station and the clothing store, The Perryton Sunday Herald

West Texans put their opinions "on the line" Wednesday last week in Amarillo as they told the Texas Water Development Board that more attention needs to be given to this area before a final plan for water for the state's projected needs is adopted.

Area men testified before the board and over a hundred persons in the session at the Herring Hotel, one of the last hearings set in the High Plains area. Final hearing will be staged in Lubbock Sept. 9 after which the legislators will begin work to draw up criteria for the state plan. Joe G. Moore, Jr., executive director of the water board, said criteria should be determined sometime in the spring of 1967. Deadline for such determination must be at least by summer due to federal rulings, he told those gathered at the hearing.

Joe Montgomery and John D. Smith were re-elected directors of the Plains Cotton Growers Association last Tuesday night as members braved the inclement weather to attend the annual meeting in the District Courtroom of the County Court House. Smith, who is currently president of the PCG, was elected to a two year term, while Montgomery was elected for another year.

The city of Plains has proposed to purchase the County water system and the Plains Independent School District water system in the city. An offer of about $26,400.00 has been made for the water holdings of the school, which seems to be more than fair, after considering investment and depreciation of the systems. Plains is an unprotected city because of the inadequate facilities offered by the water system. The city council and Mayor Kennedy have retained experts to study our outlay to see what can be done to improve the conditions in order that the health and welfare of the city residents can be assured to be adequate. The water purchase plan is one step in several which is under consideration to make our community a better place in which to live.

Formation of a Fine Arts committee in Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce was recommended to the board of directors at its monthly meeting in the Chamber of Commerce office Wednesday morning. Ted Swindle, who with Bill Thompson, chamber manager, attended a recent meeting in Amarillo to discuss fine arts encouragement with other West Texas C of C representatives, will report on that meeting and bring its recommendations to the board.

Stewart Writes Memorial to His Late Wife

It is again, in the mystery of life,
That the mystery of death laid it's hand.
It has taken our loved one to that other world,
A brighter and happier land
There's a place prepared in that Heavenly realm,
For loved ones such as she;
Our grief is so great though we pray to relent, Thy will, Lord, let it be.

that in my opinion the high standards of physicians today cannot continue to be met with this type of program in effect." He pointed out that medical school enrollments are off 25 to 30%, "and with the population trend ever increasing, this poses a real problem to the medicare care. It is inconceivable for me to understand why a young man would not want to spend 10 to 12 years of his life in medical training with the uncertainty of what the medical profession would hold for him upon his graduation. Certainly one consideration for the young man in choosing the medical profession would be the monetary gains he could receive from his practice of medicine, his social status and his prestige in the community in which he practices. Under medicare, there is no provision for any element of profit for the hospitals today. It remains only to be seen how long it would be before the government would place a limitation on what the physician's fees could be.

"Without a profit factor being involved for this patient in medicare, it poses the question of how long there would remain any private hospitals, and will the government have to come in and take over the hospitals in each community in order to provide medical service, and if so, would the physicians be retained on a salary basis as a government employee for the practice of medicine in that community?"

"If this should happen, your whole free enterprise system concept is out of the window. The medicare bill, as it was passed, did not offer as good a coverage for the medically indigent as the Kerr-Mills program, however, the Kerr-Mills program from the state level has come back and supplemented medicare so that now the medically indigent actually have as good or better coverage as before.

Subhead title 19 (of the medicare bill) provides medical assistance for persons (1) under 21 years of age, (2) the blind, (3) Those 18 and older who are permanently and totally disabled, and (4) all persons 65 and older whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all such costs.

"The national figure being discussed as being insufficient income is an annual earning of $6000 or $5000 a month. The Jew York plan which was signed April 30 this year, would cover seven to eight million persons--almost half the state population. In some cases, families with incomes as high as $10,000 would be covered under this program. Concerned over the New York plan has also been felt in Washington. All this is leading us down the road toward a more complete socialistic national government in the United States today."

this full program of Scouting for every boy, regardless of race, color, or creed. Here's an investment today that will pay off in tomorrow's citizens!"

The local council is made up of men of influence and vision who build effective budgets, men who emphasize health and safety factors, men who feel deep concern for the values that come to boys through participating in camping and outdoor activities, men dedicated to organizing additional units so effectively that they will enrich boys' lives and provide satisfaction to adults.

A local program can not be operated by volunteers alone. The overall direction of the council program, training of leaders, scheduling and coordinating of functions in keeping the units active, well-informed, and organized requires the services of professional Scout leaders - most of whom started as Boy Scouts themselves.

John Shelton, local drive chairman, said, "The contribution you give goes to help maintain the Council Scout Camps at Tres Ritos, N.M., and Camp Post, near Post, Texas and Camp Haynes near Silverton, Texas. The rest of the funds are used for administrative expenses and materials, professional service to the local Scout units, education and leadership training. Most of the recognition and advancement awards are furnished also.

Of course one of the major changes was announced at mid-summer when Ralph Stevenson was named head of the federal program. He formerly was principal of senior high. Enrollment on the first day by schools was as follows: Senior high, 481 (enrollment was not broken down into grades);

Junior high, 8th grade, 190; seventh grade, 172; sixth grade, 186 and special education 9 for a total of 557.

DeShazo Elementary: Fifth grade, 88; fourth grade, 95; third grade, 91; second grade, 105, first grade, 125 and special education 8 for a total of 512.

Fish & Game Licenses Ready

AUSTIN-- At the same old price, and the earliest ever! The hired hands at the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department contributed that much to sportsmen's kickoff success for the new fiscal year September 1. And it's all a part of the painless routine of financing the State's unmatched game management program.

In other words, replacements for the old hunting and fishing license that are invalid after August 31, have been distributed to approximately 2500 dealers in all 254 Texas counties well in advance of the deadline.

A spokesman for the Department pointed out that persons hunting or fishing beginning September 1 should have the new licenses.

But until that time the law requires all participating in either sport to have a license on their person.

The department observed that recent year efforts to expedite distribution of the licenses in advance of the new fiscal year have worked out so well that an even earlier shipment schedule was adopted this year.

A spokesman credited the news media, particularly the growing number of regular outdoor writers, for contributing to the accommodation of license buyers by publicizing details. Cooperation of the hundreds of dealers naturally has been a major factor.

Individual fishing licenses cost $2.15 for both residents and non-residents. Resident hunting licenses are $3.15.

Non-resident hunting licenses cost $25.00.

There is a five-day non-resident license for hunting migratory game birds, costing $5.00. This, of course, applies to the white-winged dove hunt, September 3-5 and September 9-11, that attracts many out-of-staters.

Basically, persons 17 years of age and under 65 need the regular Texas resident licenses.

Forecast..41 To Die in Texas

AUSTIN—Department of Public Safety estimates that 41 persons will die in traffic accidents on Texas highways during the upcoming three-day Labor Day weekend.

"The current traffic trend indicates that Texas is headed for its third straight record high in terms of fatal accidents," says Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., DPS director. "At the present time, we are approximately 15 per cent ahead of the same time in 1965, and we are still faced with the four months of the year which generally produce the most deaths."

Garrison points out that: "More people are killed in Texas each year in traffic than are killed in all the United States by murder, and the deaths are just as senseless, as needless and as tragic, but not nearly as well publicized."

He analyzed the reasons citizens have failed to take positive action in traffic safety: "Psychologists say that one reason... is the lack of personal identification with the problem. It might behoove each driver in our state to stop and consider that he has less than a 50-50 chance to go through his driving career without being involved in a traffic mishap."

In an attempt to cut back on the number of accidents and deaths during the Labor Day weekend, the DPS will conduct its "Operation Motorcade." Approximately 150 uniformed officers from other DPS services will be one the road to supplement the Highway Patrol. To call public attention to the problem, each traffic death will be tabulated and the totals will be announced three times daily in Austin.

Texas Highway Department, Texas Safety Association, Texas Council of Safety Supervisors and Texas Motor Transportation Association are joining forces to help the DPS.

SYSTEM UPHELD—Seventh Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo upheld the Texas "closed primary" election system, holding that members of one party cannot vote in the primary of another.

Court reversed the district court ruling that would have permitted to stand 71 votes of Republicans in the second Democratic primary for a Pampa judge. State Democratic Executive Committee had filed a brief urging the court to uphold the closed primary system.

AG OPINIONS—State higher education student loan funds not immediately needed to meet loan applications can be invested in direct obligations of U.S. agencies which are not unconditionally guaranteed by the government, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has held. Investment is within discretion of Coordinating Board, Texas College and University system.

In other opinions, Carr has concluded that: "A Texas Ranger can execute a writ of commitment for contempt in child custody cases on direction of judge of court of record."

Double Ring Ceremony Performed For Jonelle Wood, Michael Hand

In a double ring ceremony at First Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, August 20, Jonelle Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noyle Wood, became the bride of Michael Lynn Hand, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.R. Hand.

Wedding vows for the couple were read by Rev. Bill Burton, pastor of the church, before an arch decorated with greenery, wedding bells and red roses. The arrangement was centered with a giant bouquet of white glads and flanked by palms of Woodwardia. Brass candlebra holding white tapers completed the setting.

Mrs. Roy V. Miller, Sr., organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Ronnie Wood, Amarillo, soloist, as she sang "Because" "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride who was escorted by her father, wore a formal length gown of white silken taffeta designed with a Florentine neckline and long fitted sleeves which terminated in points over her hands. Scallop re-embroidered Alencon lace accented the natural waistline and hem of the sheath skirt.

The lace trimmed removable overskirt formed the chapel train. A cluster of pearls edged white silk roses held her elbow length English silk illusion veil. She wore an heirloom gold watch which belonged to her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. V.J. Schiller, and a string of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Her corsage was fashioned of lillies of the valley and stephanotis centered with a white orchid atop a lace covered Bible.

She borrowed the engagement ring of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ronnie Wood, and a handkerchief from the groom's sister, Mrs. Herman Bush, Jr., Lubbock, and carried them inside her Bible. She also wore pennies, minted in the years of the birth of the bridal couple and a blue garter.

Mrs. Ronnie Wood of Amarillo was matron of honor for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd Wood, Amarillo, was bridesmatron and Pat Burton, Friona, was the bridesmaid. Candelighters were Bruce Fite, Friona, and Kathy Wood, Sundown, cousins of the bride. Tawyna Hand, niece of the groom was the flower girl.

Feminine bridal attendants wore identically styled formal gowns of blue silk chiffon over taffeta. Each carried a giant red Happiness rose.

Burke Hand, brother of the groom, was the best man. Groomsmen were Herman Bush, Jr., Lubbock, brother-in-law of the groom, and Gary Hand, cousin of the groom.

Guests were seated by Ronnie Wood, Amarillo, Eddie Wood, Friona, brother of the bride, Nick Hand, brother of the groom, and Everett Gee.

The serving table for the reception in Fellowship Hall of the church was covered with white net cloth over white satin and centered with the bride's bouquet surrounded by roses carried by her attendants.

The wedding cake was white with four tiers decorated with blue rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and groom standing under an arch. A silver punch service was used. Mrs. Bill Wood, Sundown, and Mrs. Marion Fite Jr., Friona, aunts of the bride, presided at the table.

Others in the houseparty were Wessie Hand, Mrs. A.L. Black, Mrs. Kenneth Neill, Mrs. G.B. Buske, Mrs. Paul Fortenberry, Mrs. Bill Stephens, Mrs. J.L. Witten, Mrs. JeDon Gallman, Mrs. J.B. Sneed, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Mae Magness and Mrs. Roy Clements.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Herman Bush, Jr., and Glenda McClellan.

For a wedding trip to Ruidosa Mrs. Hand wore an onidone imported silk turquoise suit with matching shoes and beige accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Hand will be at home in Fort Worth. He is enrolled at the North Texas Horseshoeing Institute, Grapevine. They are both graduates of Friona High School. He attended Lubbock Christian College. She is attending Western Republic College, Amarillo, and will be graduated Friday evening. She is a member of Phi Beta Lambda.

COTTON TALKS
FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

LUBBOCK—Some three weeks or more ago Donald A. Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., reported USDA plans were in the mill to "freeze" about 85,000 acres of the 1967 Texas cotton allotment and about 150,000 to 200,000 acres of the national allotment.

Involved are acres not planted in 1966 as a result of the required productivity adjustments on allotments transferred by sale or lease from an area of low productivity to areas with high yield histories. Johnson reported that USDA was planning to "freeze" these acres at the state level, depriving producers of the opportunity to plant them.

Now the report has been confirmed. But Johnson still maintains the procedure is outside the law in that it will reduce the national minimum allotment below the minimum 16 million acres set by Congress in 1958.

Under Secretary of Agriculture, John A. Schnitker, replying to a question from Congressman George Mahon, has said in a letter that instructions to implement handling of such acreage are now being printed.

Mahon asked: "Will the sale of cotton acreage from low yield to high yield acres hurt our state and affect the state and national allotments?"

In short, Schnitker replied that the state's allotment would be the same as if no acres had been transferred and that no one would be adversely affected by transfers. But in the same paragraph he said that the acreage apportioned to counties and to producers from the state allotment would exclude acreage not planted in 1966 because of sale and lease transfers. The state gets the acres, but is not allowed to plant them.

PCG is not willing to drop the matter, and reproduced below is the text of a letter to Mr. Mahon from Johnson, through which Johnson hopes to get additional consideration for his views.

"Reference is made to your recent letter from Under Secretary John Schnitker concerning the effect of relative productivity adjustments under allotment transfer provisions on future State allotments.

"We are in agreement with and fully appreciative of the fact that... the State of Texas will not receive a reduced share of the national acreage allotment for 1967 or any subsequent year because of productivity adjustments."

"But, as we understand them, two other statements later in the same paragraph are difficult to reconcile.

1. "However, the allotment acreage reduced as a result of the adjustments will be frozen at the State level, that is, it will not be distributed to counties or farms." And,
2. "The freezing of allotments in connection with sales, leases and transfers by owners does not adversely affect any person involved in the transactions--either in the first year of the transfer or any subsequent year."

"Texas' share of the 16.2 million acre national allotment in 1967 has been set at 6,841,084 acres. But if something like 85,000 acres of this is to be frozen at the State level and not passed down as acres available to counties for planting, does this not have the effect of reducing the State's cotton allotment by almost 1-1/4 per cent? And will not each producer, including those involved in sales and leases, suffer his proportionate share of lost acres?"

"If our thinking is correct it would appear that the combined total of such frozen acres for all the cotton producing states would reduce the acres available for planting in 1967 and future years below the 16 million acre legal minimum set by Congress in 1958.

"Also, we would like to know what effect the acres 'regarded as planted to maintain the allotment and history acreage' will have on the State's projected yield. Dividing total State production by an acreage higher than that actually planted would tend to reduce the average per acre yield for the State, which in turn would depress projected yield. And under the present program projected yield is synonymous with dollars and cents to our producers.

"These are matters we feel need further clarification from the Department. And if our views prove correct, we would urge that the acres under discussion be made available to producers for planting, giving them the full benefit of the 16 million acre legal minimum allotment and eliminating any detriment to projected yield computations."

One of the most frequently and fervently discussed subjects in Texas lately has been the Texas Water Plan and the future water requirements of Texas which prompted its conception.

In this area, Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has its Water Committee. Texas Tech has the West Texas Water Institute. There's a "2020" Water Committee with representatives from business, industry, agriculture and finance. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has its Water Resources Committee.

And all of these are seriously concerned with the future of the area as it relates to water for municipal, industrial, and irrigation uses.

But it's not just West Texas or Texas or even just the United States that has water problems. Here are some water facts from an article in Business Week, which quotes a study committee of the National Academy of Sciences.

Over 97.2 per cent of the world's water is in the oceans or inland seas and is unfit for use without costly refinement. Another 2.1 per cent is frozen in glaciers and icecaps, leaving only 0.7 per cent in rivers, fresh water lakes and underground deposits.

That 0.7 per cent still might be sufficient to answer all fresh water demands if it were all above the earth's surface. But, say the experts, two of the most unchanging things about the world's supply of usable water are its unequal distribution and the fact that 97 per cent of it is underground.

The report does say that there is no indication of an over all shortage of water in the U.S. for the balance of this century. But there is danger of regional water shortages, particularly in the northeastern states.

The U.S. and the world has the same problem Texas has--unequal distribution.

Senator Walter Mondale's "Fair Farm Budget Act" would neither add to the cost of farm programs nor add to the tangible benefits received by farmers under farm programs. It would simply break cost and benefit figures into two columns.

Yet, it could be a highly significant bill for all of U.S. agriculture.

It would require that the USDA budget be split into two parts. One would show which expenditures were pointed toward strengthening farm incomes. The other would include money spent, or to be spent, for the benefit of consumers, businessmen and the public in general. Appropriation and budget requests would be broken down the same way.

Passage of the bill, and factual reporting to the public of both categories in USDA budgets, could go far toward alleviating the resentment of the farmer by urban taxpayers. It could show the American housewife that government programs have helped to make food and fiber the best bargain on the market.

And in our current systems of government, changing the ill will of the urban populace to good will would be a gigantic step toward more equitable farm progress, elimination of the threat of payment limitations, and a fairer shake for the farmer in all matters under the control of Congress.

Senator Mondale and the 18 co-sponsors of the "Fair Farm Budget Act" deserve a pat on the back and all the support we can give them.

In a statement before the Cotton Research and Promotion Act hearings in Dallas Aug. 25 and 26, PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson reiterated the position of Plains Cotton Growers that, in this instance, it favors deciding the issue by the "true" democratic process as opposed to the "representative" process.

He referred to the fact that in the upcoming referendum each cotton producer will have the opportunity to vote his own mind, without the necessity for PCG directors from the several counties representing him.

For the record Johnson urged that the proposed program, if finally initiated, be operated in such a way as not to interfere with current research and promotion programs either at federal, state or regional levels. He pointed out that nothing would be accomplished by simply supplanting one program with another.

In defense of what has often been referred to as the "meager" research and promotion efforts of the cotton industry, Johnson admonished the group to recognize the distinct difference between the cotton industry and industries which spend almost unlimited funds on research and promotion.

He said: "The base of the cotton industry, the cotton producer, does not have unlimited funds to commit in that direction, nor does he have the means to generate more funds than are provided by his current small margin of profits. His unit price for the past several years has been virtually set by government, with no control over his costs."

He pointed out that the producers of soap, synthetic fibers, and other items to some extent can decide first how much money needs to be spent for promotion, then set a unit price on their product that will provide that amount. "But the cotton farmer has no such opportunity," he said, and added that producer funds, therefore, should not supplant, but should supplement, federal funds.

The American bison or "buffalo" is the only representative of wild cattle in the New World.
The bison came to the U.S. late, during the Ice Age, perhaps only a little while before men came.
It is not a true buffalo, but has a close relative in the nearly extinct European bison or wisent.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"I Recognized His Voice"

"It is a case of mistaken identity," protested the defendant, accused of breaking into a woman's home at night and assaulting her.
"She herself admits the house was pitch dark."
But the woman countered:
"Even though I could not see him, I recognized his voice. I have known him for years, and I am certain he was the man."
May an accused person be convicted solely by the sound of his voice? In this case the jury believed the woman's story, and the court upheld its verdict of guilty.

True, a criminal is ordinarily identified by sight, not by sound.
But his voice, even when not conclusive evidence by itself, may still play a key role in identification.

The law recognizes that, in some circumstances, what a victim hears may reveal a lot more than what he sees.

Thus, identification-by-voice has been allowed not only in crimes committed in the dark but also in crimes committed by a masked man—or even committed over the telephone. A man who made obscene calls to a woman was convicted largely on the basis of her identification of his voice on the telephone.

But what if the criminal's voice is one that the victim has never heard prior to the crime? Even then, it may be distinctive enough to be recognized later with reasonable certainty.

In one case, a holdup victim noticed that the robber had a peculiar accent. This was held valid evidence in court that the defendant, who had a similar accent, was the guilty man.

In addition to a criminal's voice, other sounds he makes may also help to pinpoint his identity. The sound of a man's footsteps and the sound of a car's exhaust—both distinctive—have been held admissible in the courtroom.

Even the sound of a dog's barking has been held sufficient to identify him as the nocturnal slayer of a farmer's sheep.

Of course this kind of evidence, like any other, may be rejected if it is just too flimsy.

For example, in a homicide case, a witness was notably hesitant in tagging the voice of the defendant as the voice of the killer. The court held that such evidence was not convincing enough to send a man to prison for murder.

"Conjecture," observed one judge, "is not proof."

Missile to Show At Lubbock Fair

LUBBOCK—The Minuteman Intercontinental ballistic missile is coming to Lubbock.
Officials of the 49th annual Panhandle South Plains Fair said a test model of the giant ICBM will be displayed in the military area south of the merchants building throughout the 1966 exposition, set Sept. 26-
Oct. 1.

It will share the spotlight with a Navy destroyer trailer, Gemini capsule from NASA,
the junior parachute jump, which will be operated by the famed Green Berets, and many other military exhibits.

The Minuteman, smaller and lighter than the Titan and Atlas, is capable of carrying a nuclear warhead more than 5,500 nautical miles at a speed of about 15,000 miles an hour, which is Mach 22—or 22 times
the speed of sound.

The fair, now shaping up as the most gigantic ever, will be headlined by Tennessee Ernie Ford, who will be on stage in Fair Park Coliseum at 3 and 7:30 p.m. daily throughout the exposition.

Tickets for the show, also featuring the Young American Singers are already being received by the fair association at PO Box 208, Lubbock. Children under 12 are admitted for one-half price at all matinees.
Fair officials expect a record crowd of 250,000 persons.
