

Soil Conservation Tour Set For Friday Morning

Just another reminder of the blue panic grass tour to be held on Travis Martin ranch, Friday morning, August 12.

The tour is to begin at the Martin ranch house at 9:00 a. m. This is 12 miles west of Roby, near Buffalo Creek bridge.

The group from Rotan expect to go as a caravan, to meet at Soil Conservation office at 8:15 to leave at 8:30.

Mrs. J. Frank Johnson Hosts Luncheon For Maxine Jenkins

A luncheon, hosted in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Frank Johnson, honored Maxine Jenkins, bride-elect of Max John Luther III of Corpus Christi, last week.

Luther, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Luther of Corpus Christi, is a law student in the University of Texas. Miss Jenkins, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ewell Jenkins, is a graduate of the University of Texas.

Margaret Mary May and Irene May, nieces of the Johnsons who are visiting from Salinas, Calif., assisted Mrs. Johnson in greeting guests and seating them. Dr. Johnson's sister, Janie Mae Johnson, visiting from Sioux Fall, S. D., was at the guest registry.

Mrs. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Parker Rister from Lubbock, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Tate May, Hamlin, presided at the dining table, where the luncheon was served, buffet style.

Pink dalias, asters and sweet peas were in vased arrangement in the living room. Pink rosebuds in crystal were on the registry table.

Dining table was laid with cloth of silver lame, overlaid with net, fringed with double wedding rings in silver braid. Both were handmade by Mrs. Johnson. Shining through the net cloth, appliques on the front drape of the lame cloth featured bridal motifs done in seed pearls, iridescents, rhinestones and colored sequins.

Centering the applique arrangement was a three tiered wedding cake in pearls, topped with hand-painted miniature bridal couple.

Table appointments, including imported double buffet server, were in brass and silver.

Centerpiece was an heirloom brass jewel chest, belonging to Mrs. R. T. Williams. Jewels spilled from the chest, which held an arrangement of long stemmed pink carnations and silver caspia. At either side were branched candelabra, holding lighted pink candles.

Artificial dogwood in brass container was on the mantel.

Guests dined at foursome tables. Place cards were miniature beaded oval cakes.

The honoree's table was done in replica of the dining table.

Place card for the honoree's mother was a miniature book, titled "Mothers-In-Law Advice To Son-In-Law," by Myrtle Kitchen Jenkins. The inside pages were blank. Mrs. Jenkins wisely passed the book around for each mother-in-law present to write a bit of advice.

After the luncheon, entertainment was a court scene, with a desk placard, bearing the name of the bridegroom-to-be as Judge Max John Luther III. In the role of Judge Luther was Mrs. Johnson's nephew, Bob May, of Salinas, California, who was garbed in frock-coat, Mrs. R. T. Williams acted as bailiff. Prosecuting attorney was Margaret Mary May; defense attorney was Irene May.

The judge read the case as that of those here assembled against Miss Maxine Jenkins, accused of planning to commit matrimony on Sept. 3rd, and the prosecuting attorney asked that she be found guilty. The defense attorney declared she should have freedom to commit matrimony because "America is the land of the free and the home of the brave."

The judge decided in favor of the defendant, and demanded that reparation be made for embarrassment caused her.

Bailiff wheeled in the reparation, which was a wrought iron tea cart, gift from the honoree's mother, filled to overflow with "make it yourself" gilded kitchen items. High red gift tag on the cart was a pot holder. Mouse traps, kitchen gloves, aprons, cup towels — all were aglitter with hard work.

Gift from the host and her houseguests was an automatic percolator.

Besides the honoree and her mother, the house guests, and those having a part on the program, others present were Meses, Elmo Cummins, E. W. Cade, Jr., Charlie Joe Helms, Clinton Barrow, Truman Gilliland, C. E. Leon, Ira Branch, Virgil Weems, Guy Patterson, R. D. Sartor, E. N. Patton, Roger Smith, J. O. Kennedy, D. J. FHA To Have New Credit Program

Details of a new credit program tailored to the needs of farmers and ranchers in the Great Plains area, combining established real estate and production loan programs of the Farmers Home Administration with a greatly expanded emergency loan program, was announced today by Ed Deaton, County Supervisor.

The loans will be available in Fisher county and applications can be filed at the Farmers Home Administration office at Roby. Program is an outgrowth of recommendations made at the Great Plains Agricultural Conference called by Secretary Benson and held last May 30-June 2 in Denver.

Loans will be made for reseeding and the establishment of grasslands and other approved conservation and land use practices including soil and water erosion control measures; development and improvement of domestic and irrigation water supplies, repair and improvement of existing farm buildings, and the purchase of additional land needed to enlarge a farm to a family-type size.

Loans also may be made to purchase livestock, farm equipment, farm equipment repairs, seed, fertilizer, feed, insecticides, farm supplies, and for payment of interest and taxes.

A carefully developed Farm and Home Plan will be a part of the processing of each loan. It is not intended that loans shall be made prior to proper classification of the land involved, and the Farm and Home Plans will take into consideration such things as the type of farming best suited to the land, and borrowers will be required to follow farm management practices recognized locally as best for their particular type of land.

Rotan Is Proud . . . Of It's Churches

HE BLESSED the CHILDREN

As naturally as the flower turns its face to the sun, so does the human child respond to the love and grace of God... they know He loves them. Jesus, who knew the Father's heart, said to some good people of His time — "Let the little children come unto me and forbid them not." Surely no woman or man would detour a child in his natural search for God and goodness. Take them to church... show them the way... the Master still commands us. They may be ours for a few short years. They are His forever. How important then to introduce them to Jesus. Here they meet Him, know Him and love Him, for such is the Kingdom of God.

Sherman Daniels Joan Horton Marries

In candlelight service at 6:30 Sunday, July 24th, Joan Horton of Rotan became the bride of Sherman Daniel of Roby.

Double ring rites were read in Weathersbee Chapel in Rotan by the Rev. Carl Underhill, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, here.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Barney Horton, Rotan, and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Daniel, Roby.

Chapel arrangements included baskets of gladiolas and asters, tied with satin, with greenery in the background. Branched candelabra held lighted white tapers. Asters were on the piano. Satin roping, tied in bows, marked family pews.

Ushers were Leamon Wilburn and Vernon Daniel, both of Roby.

Wedding music was by Mrs. Tom Collins of Rotan. She also accompanied Jo Del Shipp, who sang, "Always," and "Yours."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length bridal gown of dotted white sheer over satin, with accents of lace. She wore a jeweled lace hat, white opera pumps, and carried a cascade of pink rose buds tied with satin.

Matron of honor was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charlie Horton of Roby. She was gowned in pink cotton frock, with pink accessories, and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Bridesmaid was a sister, Sally Horton of Rotan. She wore an aqua dress with white accessories, and wore a white corsage.

Best man was Lawayne Harris of Rotan. Groomsman was Leamon Wil-

Reception table was laid with ecru lace and centered with wedding flowers. Appointments were silver and crystal. The bride-groom's sisters, Mrs. W. D. Early and Mrs. Nolan Hicks, served.

Guests were registered by Sandra George of Rotan.

For the wedding trip, the bride traveled in a dress fashioned of green sheer, and wore white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

The bride attended Rotan schools. The bridegroom attended Roby schools, and served two years in the Army, with duty in Korea. They will live in Rotan.

Prior to the wedding, a gift tea honored the bride in the home of Mrs. Ted Underhill, in Rotan. Hosting the tea with Mrs. Underhill were Mmes. Bernice Hargrove, C. C. Bruce, P. A. Traffic Safety Drive Moving Successful

The summer-long Slow Down and Live traffic safety campaign is achieving good results in spite of the heaviest traffic volume in the history of transportation, according to William M. Greene, chairman of the National Conference of State Safety Coordinators, sponsors of the 101-day highway safety program.

According to virtually complete figures released today by J. O. Musick of Austin, state safety coordinator, there were 409 traffic fatalities over the 78-hour July Fourth weekend, accounting for a 3.8% increase over the 394 deaths experienced during the July Fourth weekend last year. These figures are based on reports from all 48 states and the District of Columbia.

Fatality results for Memorial Day and July Fourth, the two holidays encompassed thus far in the 1955 program, show a slight increase of only seven-tenths of one percent over the same periods last year.

"This small increase is particularly gratifying in view of our tremendous increase in traffic volume this year," Mr. Green said. "If we can continue to hold our fatality experience to this level we can count the 1955 Slow Down and Live campaign a success measurable by several score living human beings."

By regions, the July Fourth results showed a 4.2% reduction in the midwest and 3.1% reduction in the south central area of the United States over last year's experience. The southeast area held even and there were increases of 10.4% in the far west and 29% in the northeast section.

Fourteen states made substantial reductions. They were led by North Dakota and Vermont which reduced fatalities 100%. Other states with decreases were Nebraska, 83.3%; Arizona, 72.2%; Montana, 66.0%; West Virginia, 60.0%; Florida, 54.5%; Delaware, 50.0%; Texas, 50.0%; Ohio, 40.9%; Indiana, 40.0%; Michigan, 38.8%; Wisconsin, 36.3% and Alabama, 21.4%.

There were no deaths in Vermont, North Dakota or the District of Columbia, and seven states held exactly even: Connecticut, Maryland, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Kentucky, Mississippi and Oklahoma.

Commenting on the record for Texas, coordinator Musick said: "Although the record for Texas is incomplete covering traffic fatalities during the Fourth of July holidays, we estimate that a substantial reduction will have been effected over the same period last year."

Musick added that when the final death figure for the period is tabulated that it is expected to reflect a decrease of about one-third over last year.

Virginia Rook has returned to her home in Grand Prairie after visiting relatives in Rotan, Aspermont and Snyder three weeks.

The Rotan Advance Thursday, August 11, 1955 No. 28 Paid In Full

John owned Fred $200 which he had borrowed several years back. John had been having a hard time and owed many bills. Because of his situation he thought Fred might accept less than $200 as payment in full. He sent Fred a check for $125 marked "In full for balance due on loan" on the face of the check. Fred cashed the check and started action to recover the other $75. Can he collect?

Yes, he can, as a promise or agreement is unenforceable unless supported by consideration or by giving of value by the other party. John did not give Fred anything he was not obligated to give and hence there was nothing to bind any agreement to accept the $125 as payment in full.

However, there are two variations of this situation in which John could accomplish his result.

First, if there was an honest dispute concerning the balance due on the loan, much as a dispute over credits allegedly agreed upon for work performed for Fred, or a dispute over the interest due, then acceptance of the check could constitute what is called an "accord and satisfaction". This may satisfy the debt in full, especially if "paid in full" is marked on the back of the check and Fred endorses beneath it.

Second, if John should give something in addition to the check, other than money, such as a piece of furniture or an animal, the debt would be satisfied in full if Fred accepted both the check and the additional consideration.

There is a common conception in the minds of many people that a person cannot be sued on a debt so long as monthly payments in any amount (even $1) are made. This is not so, as once a debt is due the creditor may bring suit for the full amount, and acceptance of any lesser amounts does not waive rights of suit except as indicated above.

Gift Tea Affair For Jimia Lee Hammit

A gift tea, hosted in the home of Mrs. A. Branscum, Thursday, August 4th, from four to six p.m., honored Jimia Lee Hammit, bride-elect of Harold Warneke.

The two will be wed in the First Baptist Church in Rotan at 7:30 p. m. August 19th.

Miss Hammit is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hester Lee Hammit of Rotan, and is a graduate of local schools. She has been employed in the ASC office in Roby for more than a year.

Warneke is a 1953 graduate of Graham High school, and is employed as driller for Camden Drilling Co. in Aspermont. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Warneke, Snyder.

Hosting the tea with Mrs. Branscum were Meses. Jesse Boen, L. J. Streetman, Joe Little, Fant Posey, Billy Wayne McMeans, Alfred White, Wayne Nowlin, Herman McSpadden, Buck Ash, W. A. Bowen, and Meses Helen Jo Turner, Betty Jane Clark, Ouida Fillin-gim, and Peggy Jo Roberson.

Mrs. Branscum headed the receiving group, which included the honoree and her mother and Mrs. Warneke of Snyder. For the affair Miss Hammit wore a tangerine gown fashioned of crisp, shantung weave dacron, with tucks in the bouffant skirt, and neckline accented with small, round collar of white linen. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Hammit wore white linen with white cor-sae.

Members of the party wore yellow corsages, gift from Miss Hammit and her mother.

Zinnias were in vased arrangement on the registry table, where Leta Branscum and Miss Roberson presided.

The tea table, here Miss Fillingim and Mrs. McMeans presided, was laid with lace over green, and centered with massed arrangement of pink crepe myrtle in crystal. Other table appointments were in crystal and silver.

Besides the hosting group, others in the house party were Mrs. Roy Carter, Dalhart; Mrs. Johnny Barker, Snyder; and Mrs. Page Harbin, Snyder. They assisted the hostesses in serving, and in the three gift display rooms.

Learning should continue as long as there is anything you do not know and, if we may believe the proverb, as long as you live.

Mrs. J. M. Jackson and Johnny went to Amarillo last Thursday where Mrs. Jackson will have eye surgery.

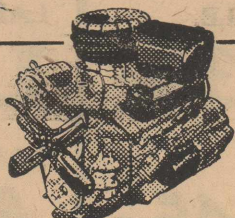

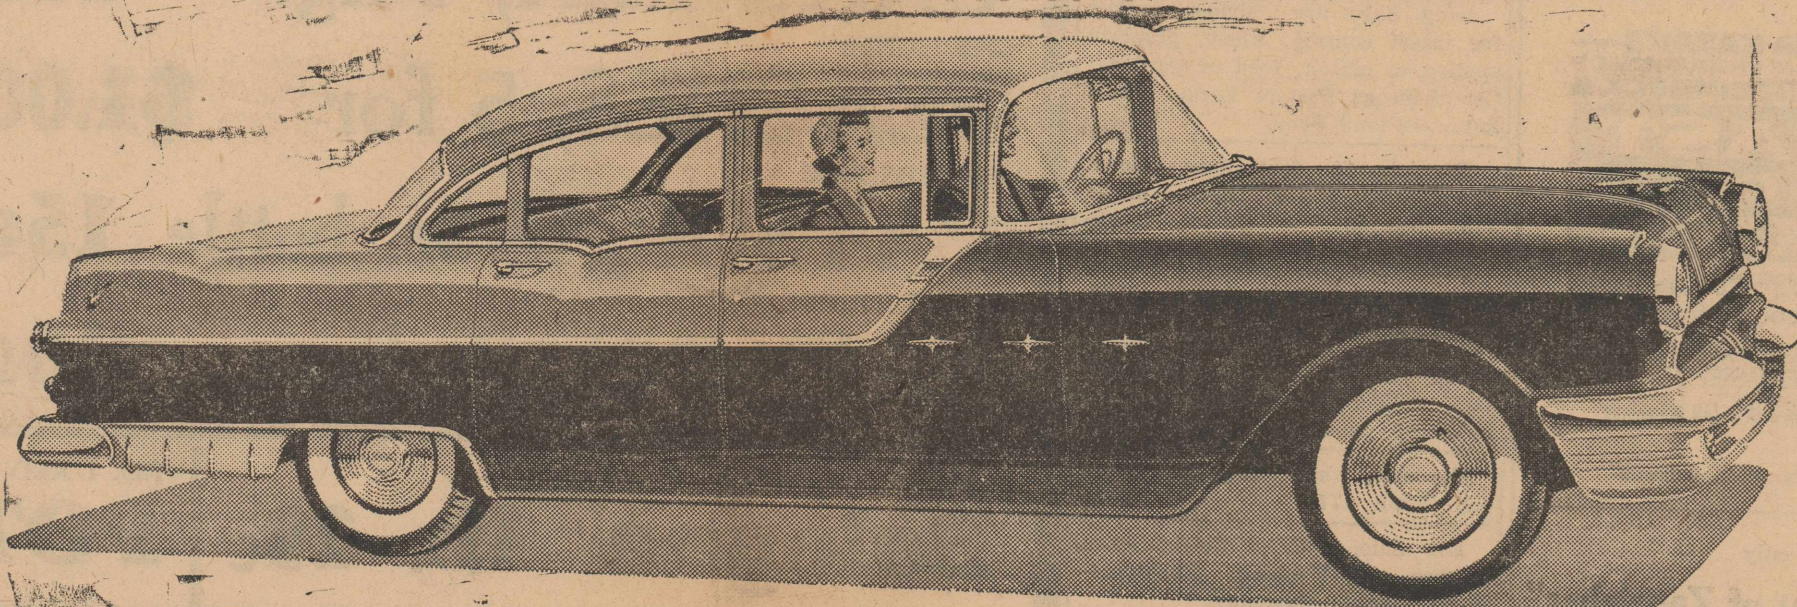

Patient waiting is often the highest way of doing God's will.

John Jackson left Wednesday of last week for Kansas City where he will visit the family of his sister. He will also visit in Dallas.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF ROTAN:

To each of you, and especially to Dr. Johnson and the entire staff of Callan Hospital, to Mr. Dave Posey, and Mr. Bernard Rodgers who gave blood at the first call, and to those who so generously sent food and came with words of encouragement — Our heartfelt thanks and deepest gratitude.

We were strangers and you took us in with the same regard you show our sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Campbell. Because of your kindness our belief in the brotherhood of man will ever be strengthened.

Grately yours,
Karl Booker and family

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this means of thanking everyone for the many flowers, cards, letters and visitors during my stay in the hospital. May God bless each of you.
