Varsity Mules Kicked By Mustangs, 60-59

By Delton Wilhite
Sportswriter

The Mules traveled to Olton to open district against the Mustangs and led by three points with just three seconds remaining in the game.

One official was calling carrying the ball on the Mustang bringing the ball down the floor and the other was giving the Olton bench a time out.

The time out call prevailed. Six Mules stepped on the floor and before the extra Mule could leave the playing surface the official handed the Mustangs the ball and immediately gave the Olton lobbed the ball over the top and the 6-4 Mustang went high for the reception and was fouled.

He made both free throws to defeat the Mules 60-59.

An emergency appendectomy sidelined Eli Leal in the Mules' district home opener against Dimmitt Friday night. The Mules fell to the Bobcats 69-45.

Leal drove and dished to Shawn Atwood. Atwood fought through a foul and scored and converted the free throw. Leal dropped the ball to Atwood for his second basket.

Leal scored two hoops and a free throw and Blaine Hurtado drained a 3-pointer. Matt Barron hit a baseline jumper as the first period ended with the Mules leading 15-14.

Barron made a pair of treys in the second quarter and added a pair of free throws. Saul Sanchez made one from the charity line and hit from behind the arc.

Grey Johnson got open for a baseline jumper for a hoop. The Mules held on to a 29-28 lead at the intermission.

Austin Ross opened the second half for the Mules with a running jumper. Leal and Barron dropped in 3-pointer each but the Mules fell behind 43-39.

2012: A 'Pretty Good Year' In Muleshoe

By Larry Thornton

Part 2

The general "good" feeling from the first half of 2012 carried into the second half, with various changes across the county and at Muleshoe,

July

The month started out with a pretty big bang with one of the best July 4th celebrations the county has experienced in a handful of years, including a large parade, hosted by the Muleshoe Chamber of commerce & Agriculture.

And, in what was probably one of the quickest competitions the City of Muleshoe has ever witnessed, two local residents claimed the crowns of hot dog eatery during the Independence Day celebrations on Wednesday, July 4.

A large crowd gathered at the Bailey County Courthouse parking lot to watch two divisions, adult and juvenile, scarf down hot dogs in the Muleshoe Journal's first annual hot dog eating contest.

In all, the total time it took the two division winners to out-swallow their opponents, and face off in a challenge meet, was three minutes, nine seconds.

That includes the one minute, 56 seconds Bailey County Deputy Hugo Rivera took to leave the adult division in the proverbial dietary dust; two minutes, 30 seconds for Draven Devenport, 14, to come out on top in the juvenile division, and an additional 43 seconds for the two good-natured winners to face off in a two-hot dog challenge.

"It was a neat event," Muleshoe Mayor Pro Tem Irene Mason said, obviously not referring to the contestants' table manners.

Also in July, the Muleshoe City Council approved the appointment of Roy Rice of Stamford as the new police chief during Monday's regular meeting.

On Tuesday, July 3, City Manager David Brunson initially announced his selection of Rice for the position vacated by former Police Chief Brian Frieda, who had previously accepted a similar position at Sweetwater.

According to Brunson, Rice served with the Brownfield Police Department for 21 years. He served as assistant chief for eight years and as police chief in Brownfield for eight years.

Rice also served as emergency management coordinator for

He has since been entrusted with similar EMC duties in Bailey County.

The Bailey County Commissioners' Court, also approved raises for part-time jailers at the request of Sheriff Richard Wills during July's regular meeting.

County Judge Sherri Harrison explained that the sheriff was making the request because the jail was faced with increased staffing requirements due in large part to housing requirements for prisoners from Curry County, N.M.

And, over at the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 it was announced that winter water level measurements indicated an average decline of -2.56 feet in groundwater levels of the Ogallala Aquifer within the 16-county High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 service area in 2011, according to information received from HPWD officials.

A review of available records in the HPWD archives has documented only two other years since creation of the district — 61 years ago, where recorded average water level declines were

Dairy Delivery

In January 2012 there was an educational opportunity for some of the youngsters at the Bailey County Junior Livestock Show when one of the dairy heifers entered in the show gave birth a week early. Pictured on the right, some of the young show participants and spectators watch as two dairymen assist with a calf's delivery.

This year's junior livestock show is set for Jan. 18-19 at the Bailey County Coliseum.

Hurtado dropped in a shot from behind the arc in the second period.

The Mules jumped back into action after the Christmas break in the Littlefield Wildcat Tournament.

The Mules will open the new year by hosting the Morton Indians at 3:30 p.m. on Jan. 1 before traveling to Littlefield to play the Wildcats on Jan. 4.

God's 'Most Uncommon Decision: To Come Commonly'

"Christmas commemorates God's most uncommon decision: to come commonly."

So writes author Max Lucado so well, so truly.

Long ago it occurred to me: one of the things I like best about our Lord is his extraordinary and utterly amazing love of the ordinary, his deep delight in the utterly common.

Our society doesn't understand that at all. We disdain, disregard, disrespect, look down on, trample into the dust, rumble right over, despise — the ordinary, the common. We make much of, fawn over — yea, verily, we worship — all the wrong things, all the wrong people, all the wrong places.

To receive our worship, and thus our attention, our money, our time, our lives... To be esteemed by us as successful, worthwhile, important... all you have to do is be big and rich and loud, glitzy and proud and pompous.

In our shallow society, "Mom and Pop" stores are "Wal-Marted™" into oblivion. Sweet and already beautiful little children are painted up and thrust into "children's beauty pageants" to satisfy the ugly need of their parents to have the "most" beautiful baby or child and thus win big!

Smaller churches with a mega-quality of relationship that most mega-plastic-Piety Marts can't buy at any price are made to feel even smaller. After all, nothing that's not big or loud or glitzy is worth anything, right?

Focus On Faith
Curtis Shelburne

Wrong. Fatally so, and blind. But it's no new mistake.

In the first century, Rome was big for sure and all about power. Caesar rolled over in bed after some dream about falling off a "fiscal cliff" and decided that "all the world should be taxed." Again.

Religion was big in Palestine. If you want religion that largely ignores what God values, you can go for the consumer approach our society prefers, or you can always go for a do-it-yourself "truest of the true" approach Pharisees in Palestine, and in all ages, all places, adopt, looking to obtain salvation the "old-fashioned way," working to "earn it," disregarding God himself, all the while despising little people who don't measure up.

But when God sends his Son into this world, it's not to powerful Rome or pious and holy Jerusalem, it's to lowly Bethlehem. It's not to sit on a throne like Caesar's but to be laid in a common as dirt feed trough.

Pharisees, sure they get religion right and completely trusting in their own goodness, are passed over by Heaven for shepherds who know they'll never even smell good, much less "be" good.

But the shepherds see angels while the Pharisees are too blinded by rules to open their eyes and see how often what God calls most holy is what we disdain as most common.

When God came at Bethlehem, he came "commonly." That he still does is among the greatest of miracles and mysteries. And it's "wonder-full" indeed.

The Mules jumped out to an 11-4 lead in the first period and rolled to a 33-21 win.

Tre Villa made a pair of free throws in the first period and Javy Perez and Donavan Gutierrez added a hoop each.

The Mules added 12 points in the second period with Boo Flores hit a trey, a basket and a free throw before the half.

Dunham, Flores and Perez made a basket each in the third period. The Mules led 29-14 with one quarter left to play.

Dunham scored on a put back in the final frame and added a free throw later in the period.

Flores led the Mules with eight points and Dunham dropped in seven. Florez made all five of his points in the first quarter.

Perez and Gutierrez finished with four points each, Villa added three points and Leal chipped in two points.

On Jan. 10, the Mules play in the Levelland Lobo Tournament and return home on Jan. 17 to host the Friona Braves.

greater than those for 2011.

At the Muleshoe Independent School District, one of the changes at mid-year was the hiring of a new assistant superintendent.

After 22 years as the superintendent of the Texico School District, Texico, N.M., Dr. RL Richards jumped back into the Lone Star State, where he began his career in education 31 years ago.

Other changes at MISD during July included the announcement of a new team to head up the high school's band department.

An almost gleeful Superintendent Dr. Gene Sheets announced the pending approval of the school district's new music team.

While formal approval of the hiring of John Gibson as band director and Grady Alberts as assistant wasn't completed until the MISD's board of trustees met the next day the superintendent felt this was about as close to a musical coup as could be expected in secondary education.

"The best way to describe our band situation is probably to compare it to when we hired back Kerry Moore," the superintendent said. "Dr. Moore had retired when we asked him to come back and work with our speech program. He works part-time now, but he is here almost full-time."

A similar agreement was reached with John Gibson, who had previously retired after teaching music for 29 years.

But as highly qualified as both Gibson and Alberts are — either of whom could be considered an individual coup for the school district, there is a little something extra in this particular employment decision. John Gibson is the brother of renowned former Muleshoe High School band director Anthony Gibson.

In district court, two cases caught the attention of readers across the county. In the first Juan Mendoza Quezada, 44, was sentenced to 37 years incarceration on July 18, in a plea agreement over the attempted capital murder of Muleshoe Police Sgt. Steve Bartley in February.

Standing before Dist. Judge Gordon Green, Quezada — a resident alien — waived his right to a jury trial and the right to appeal the conviction, and was advised that his guilty plea could also result in deportation after his sentence had been served.

"Are you pleading guilty simply because you are guilty?" Judge Green asked. "Yes," Quezada replied, not bothering to use the interpreter that had been sworn in to assist if needed.

And, a Bailey County grand jury indicted Daniel A. Cardon Jr., 49, of Artesia, N.M., for capital murder on July 23.

Cardon — who was listed among 10 other true bills issued by the July grand jury — was arrested after a standoff at the City of Lubbock's water plant, east of Muleshoe on Hwy. 84, after area law enforcement officers sought him for the alleged murder of his estranged wife, Lucila Perez, 38, during the early morning hours of June 4.

According to law enforcement officers, and members of the Perez family, Cardon forced his way into the home of the alleged victim's brother and sister's residence, at 321 W. Third, in Muleshoe at about 12:30 a.m., and allegedly shot her in the presence of witnesses.

At the Muleshoe Area Hospital District action was tabled on a feasibility study to determine if the addition of a pharmacy to the rural health clinic would increase the likelihood of the clinic expansion's success during its July 26 regular meeting.

According to CEO David Burke, a recent study regarding the expansion suggested that it wouldn't pay for itself.

However, Burke also said the study didn't take into consideration the possible increase in patient visits due to the increased number of physicians the space would allow.

Under the current conditions, Burke said the report indicated the hospital would be working with $50,000 in net income — the annual cost of bond payments for the facility expansion.

"Now we need to look at whether it would benefit the community to have a pharmacy placed in the rural health clinic," Burke said, estimating the cost of the new study at up to $25,000 — an amount and expenditure board member Allen Smyer seemed to have difficulty accepting.

At the board's December meeting, Burke announced that the study was being postponed until it could be determined what the impact changes in Medicare reimbursements would be.

In county election news, Democratic Bailey County Sheriff candidate Joe Balderrama officially withdrew his candidacy in July.

As a result, the only candidate to be listed for the position on the November ballot would be incumbent Sheriff Richard Wills.

August

One of the "hot issues" in Muleshoe was finally decided in August. The effort to pass a curfew ordinance for the City of Muleshoe fizzled out with a 2-2 split vote during the city councils regular meeting.

Mayor Pro Tem Irene Mason and council member Gary Parker supported passage of the ordinance that would have required juveniles under the age of 17 to remain at home from "1 a.m. until 6 a.m. unless the night precedes a school day, and 12 a.m. (midnight) until 6 a.m. for each night that precedes a school day."

However, Mayor Cliff Black and council member Eric McElroy cast dissenting votes, tying the issue since council member Richard Orozco was again absent.

News from the Bailey County Commissioners' Court caught the attention of county residents in August when it was announced that individuals who wish to request road work to be done in their area will have to do so in Spanish, Commissioner Juan Chavez announced during the regular meeting of the commissioners' court.

In a "grand stand" display resulting from a complaint made against County Clerk Paula Benton, Chavez called — or appeared to call — his precinct road crew on his cell phone and instructed them not to accept requests in English.

"If they can't speak Spanish, we won't do anything," said Chavez.

It should be noted, however, that after the meeting Chavez said he was trying to demonstrate how ridiculous Benton's language requirement for marriage license document requirements was, and that requests for assistance from his precinct's workers are not language specific.

Problems arose for Muleshoe's city council in August, which was faced with a dilemma regarding the council seat that had been held if not always occupied by Richard Orozco for several years.

On Monday, Aug. 13, Orozco missed his fourth consecutive regular council meeting.

During the past 24 months, Orozco has missed 10 regular meetings and two special meetings, according to municipal records.

According to Muleshoe's city charter, if a council member is "absent from three consecutive regularly scheduled meetings without valid excuse, the city council must at its next regular meeting declare a vacancy to exist and shall fill said vacancy," which at least suggests that Orozco no longer meets the requirements to sit on the governing body.

At the council's next regular session, Orozco's council seat was declared vacant.

Attitudes were a bit tense at August's meeting of the Muleshoe Area Hospital District's board of directors as it moved forward with its plans to expand its rural health clinic during its Aug. 23 meeting, approving both the project's continuation and a feasibility study regarding the possibility of a pharmacy's inclusion with a 4-1 split vote.

In his presentation prior to the board's discussion of the issues, MAHD CEO David Burke noted that the idea of expanding the rural health clinic had been before the board for several years, before it was tabled in 2008 because of a "going concern" by the district's auditors.

Because of this concern, Burke said the hospital district didn't have the financial support required for the issuance of revenue bonds or certificates of obligation.

September

In September, things were looking well at the Bailey County Electric Cooperative, according to General Manager David Marricle during the organization's 73 annual meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 4, at the Bailey County Coliseum.

Regarding BCEC's financial condition, Marricle, who has been with the cooperative for 33 years, 10 as the cooperative's CEO, said, "We continue to be sound and stable."

According to the financial report presented to the members, BCEC has assets and matching liabilities totaling $65,318,697, and total operating income as of Dec. 31, 2011, of $39,383,427.

The cooperative's total operating expenses were $35,364,538.

"Your cooperative is in very good shape financially," said a representative of the cooperative's CPA, Bolinger, Sears, Gilbert & Moss.

And, in September, the Bailey County Commissioners' Court appointed Paramedic Kevin Baize as the new director of the county's emergency medical service during a special meeting.

Baize replaced Jackey Wayne Burriss as director of Bailey County EMS.

At the beginning of the special meeting, the court was ready to hear from two applicants for the directors position — Baize and Erica Bartley; however, Bartley announced that she was withdrawing her application.

"I need a little more time... a little more growth," she said, before she would be ready to take on the director's position. "I'm more than happy to continue where I am," she added.

In his interview by the members of the commissioners' court, Baize — a paramedic who started with the EMS in 2007 and was certified as a paramedic last year, said he entered the service with the desire to help people.

Baize said he would lead the EMS in a manner that would benefit the community, and would strive to improve the services it provided.

Regarding some problems the court has noted with the EMS in the past, Baize said he thought the problems could be resolved if the employees "pulled together."

Dist. 31 State Sen. Kel Seliger stopped off at Muleshoe on Tuesday, Sept. 25, to update local residents on the events of the past legislative session, along with what can be expected from the upcoming session.

"It's going to be a tough budget session," the senator said to the

 In October, members from Muleshoe Memorial Park Cemetery board approached the county commissioners' court with a request for assistance.
 "We're running out of space out there," Bob Graves of the Muleshoe Memorial Park Cemetery told the Bailey County Commissioners Court on Oct. 9 during his request for assistance.
 Graves said that the cemetery is currently arranged in four "gardens," and there is sufficient land for others to be added, but help was needed constructing a road to make the new area accessible.

"We're not out of plots now, but we're going to be," Graves said.
 "We need to fix it before we get out there," Precinct 4 Commissioner Juan Chavez joked prior to his motion, which received unanimous support, to assist with the road construction.
 And, at the end of October, Muleshoe High School students and members of the local community gathered to "Pink Out" in recognition and support of Muleshoe's efforts in support of breast cancer awareness and the ongoing fight against cancer.

2012: A 'Pretty Good Year'...

Al Ewing Jennings

Funeral services for the Rev. Al Ewing Jennings, 81, of Lazbuddie, were held on Thursday, Dec. 27, at the Lazbuddie United Methodist Church with Ken Peterson and Richard Edwards, D.S., officiating.

Burial followed in Muleshoe Memorial Park Cemetery under the direction of Ellis Funeral Home.

Rev. Jennings went to be with his heavenly Father on Sunday, Dec. 23, 2012, in Lubbock. He was born on July 22, 1931, to Finis and Alwilda Jennings in Lazbuddie.

He attended Lazbuddie School, transferring to Muleshoe High School his junior year, graduating in 1949. He met and married Virginia Powers in 1950.

Three months later he enlisted in the US Air Force, where he served for three years. Upon discharge, he returned to the farm at Lazbuddie.

He farmed with his dad for three years, before surrendering to the call to the ministry. He left the farm to attend McMurry College in Abilene and Perkins School of Theology in Dallas.

Upon ordination, he served as a Methodist pastor for 35 years of Churches in Quitaque, Vega, Olton, Abernathy, Shallowater, Crosbyton and Morton. He retired from the ministry in 1992, returning to Lazbuddie, where he lived until his death.

Survivors include his wife of 62 years — Virginia; a daughter — Linda Johnson and husband Jimmie of Levelland; a son — Rex Jennings and wife Beth of Amarillo; a sister — Mina Sheets and husband Harry of Farwell; five granddaughters — Brittany and husband Matt of Sweetwater, Shawnee Hancock and husband Nick of Frisco, Brandy Jennings of Amarillo, and Brianne, also of Amarillo; two grandsons — Cody Jennings of Denver, and Brian Batenhorst and wife Dusty of Shamrock; five great-granddaughters — Chloe, Mabry, Marly, Emma and Maryn; and a nephew, Kayle Watts and wife Denice of Lubbock.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother — Morris; a son — Johnny; and a grandson — Justin; and a niece — Cindy.

The family suggests memorials being made to the Lazbuddie Methodist Church PO Box 129, Lazbuddie, TX 79053, or to the First United Methodist Church of Levelland, 1011 Houston Street, Levelland, TX 79336.

Funeral services for Mickey Hernandez, 79, of Muleshoe, were held on Monday, Dec. 31, at the Primera Inglesia Bautista Church of Muleshoe with Father Sergio Leal and Bruce Hernandez officiating.

Burial followed in Muleshoe Memorial Park Cemetery under the direction of Ellis Funeral Home of Muleshoe.

Mr. Hernandez died on Thursday, Dec. 27, 2012, in Muleshoe. He was born on June 10, 1933, in DeWitt County, to Manuel and Martha (Guzman) Hernandez. He married Eulalia Castillo in Muleshoe on Sept. 27, 1941.

Mickey enlisted in the United States Army and served during the Korean War. He moved to the Muleshoe area in 1968 from Olton and worked as a barber for more than 30 years.

Mickey is preceded in death by his parents; step-mother Guadalupe Hernandez; brothers Pablo Hernandez, Jose Hernandez and Martin Hernandez; grandson Robert Anthony Bernal; and nephews Mark Hernandez and Randy Hernandez.

Survivors include his wife — Eulalia Hernandez; sons — Miguel Hernandez of Victoria, Senovio Hernandez of Victoria, Marty Hernandez of Yoakum, Bruce Hernandez of Amarillo, Christopher Hernandez of Cedar Hill, Hector Hernandez of Clovis, N.M., Timothy Hernandez of Clayton, N.M., Manuel Hernandez of Clovis, N.M., and Kendrick Hernandez of Earth; daughters — Consuello Bernal of Victoria, Melissa Flores of Kingsville, Arcasia

"The color pink represents the hope we had as a family," she added as she spoke of her mother's struggle against cancer and what it meant to her family.

Speaking of her own struggle and the support she received from her family, as well as the local efforts to aid in the fight for a cure, Rhonda Myers, chairperson for the Bailey County Relay for Life, said, "I'm proof to what the relay does."

November
An astonishing 891 ballots were cast in this year's early voting for the general election at the Bailey County courthouse, according to County Clerk Paula Benton.

That breaks down to a total of 743 early voters and 148 ballots by mail.

When county voters added their ballots from the regular election, the results in the only contested county race put Kent Wiley in the county constable's seat.

After the election, Dist. 88 State Representative-elect Ken King of Canadian stopped in Muleshoe to talk about the upcoming legislative session.

The gathering, which was held in Muleshoe State Bank's community room, attracted what King described as the largest number of constituents — including public officials and private citizens — to date as he journeyed through the 17 counties that make up Dist. 88.

In topics ranging from education and transportation to water rights, King addressed some of the questions and issues that are expected to come up in the next legislative session.

"I didn't come this far to go down there and be quiet," King said, also noting that he's "jumped up and down and yelled to be assigned to the State House's education committee.

And in November, after three decades with Bailey County, County Clerk Paula Benton announced she was retiring as of Dec. 21.

Benton's letter of resignation was accepted by the county commissioners' court a week after her announced resignation and pending retirement was made known at the court's Tuesday, Nov. 12, regular meeting.

"I've enjoyed serving the public," she said Monday. "Everyone has been very kind."

In her letter of resignation, Benton thanked the commissioners' court for allowing her to serve as the Bailey County Clerk.

"I have enjoyed working in the various offices over the years," Benton's resignation letter said.

December
In December, the Bailey County's Commissioners' Court appointed Robin Dickerson to fill the position that will be vacated by County Clerk Paula Benton's retirement.

While the court members interviewed both Dickerson and candidate Shirley Aguirre for the position, they did not go into closed session to discuss the candidates' the information received before approving a motion to appoint Dickerson to the position with a unanimous vote.

The calendar year ended with concerns being expressed by Superintendent Dr. Gene Sheets and MISD board members about actions taken by neighboring school districts of Lazbuddie and Farwell.

During school board's regular meeting it was noted that enrollment was down by about 30 students.

And while reported staff reductions at local dairies may have something to do with the decrease, Dr. Gene Sheets noted that it could be partly due to what appears to be recruiting efforts by both the Lazbuddie and Farwell Independent School Districts within Muleshoe.

"Lazbuddie ISD Board of Trustees recently voted to put up a billboard in the middle of Muleshoe ISD's school district," Dr. Sheets said.

"We had asked them not to put one up in our district," he said.

Dr. Sheets noted that what Lazbuddie ISD had done "wasn't illegal," but he still didn't think it was the appropriate thing to do.

Lady Mules Fall To Dimmitt, Olton

By Delton Wilhite
Sportswriter

The Lady Mules dropped their final two district games of 2012 to Olton and Dimmitt.

The Lady Mules hit the road to Olton and Fillies pushed and shoved their way past the Lady Mules 59-41.

The Lady Mules shooting touch seemed to have disappeared Friday night when they hosted the Dimmitt Bobbies.

Neither team exhibited much offense in the first half and the Lady Mules trailed 11-9 at the intermission.

The Bobbies took over in the third period when Elida Bonilla exploded for three treys. Dimmitt defeated the Lady Mules 43-33.

Kaylie Morris hit a trey in the opening quarter in Olton and Cas Moore added a free throw for the Lady Mules four points. Olton led 10-4 after one quarter.

Adrienne Precure was three-of-four from the charity line and dropped in a hoop. Morris made her second 3-pointer of the first half.

C. Moore and Jo Moore made a free throw each. McKenna Dunham made a pair of baskets and two free throws. Daniela Diaz hit a basket.

The Lady Mules had scored 16 points in the second quarter but Olton increased their advantage to 30-20 at the half.

Precure led off the third period for the Lady Mules with a 3-pointer and added a basket. Morris scored her third trey of the game and DonAnn Rempe put back an offensive rebound.

The Lady Mules briefly took a lead before Olton scored 10 points in just over a minute to reclaim the lead 45-32.

Precure led the Lady Mules with 15 points that included two treys. Morris finished with 11 points and three 3-pointers.

Dunham scored all six of her points in the second quarter and Rempe added four points. C. Moore and Diaz added two points each and J. Moore chipped in one.

Precure and Morris made the Lady Mules only two hoops of the opening quarter against Dimmitt. The Lady Mules trailed 5-4 after one quarter. Precure drained a 3-pointer in the second quarter and Dunham added a basket.

The Lady Mule defense had also held down the Bobbies and Dimmitt led 11-9 at the intermission.

JV Ladies Cruise To Victory, 47-31

By Delton Wilhite
Sportswriter

The JV Lady Mules had jumped out to a 30-14 lead over the Dimmitt Bobbies Friday night and cruised through the second half to a 47-31 win.

Carolina Franco, Angelina Perez, Desiree Gutierrez and Sasha Esparaza made a basket each in the opening quarter.

Esmeralda Flores made two from the charity stripe and Esparza chipped in one free throw.

The Lady Mule defense had held Dimmitt to four points. The Lady Mules led 11-4 after one quarter.

Perez found the range from 3-point land in the second quarter and added a basket. Gutierrez and Rosas made two baskets each. Rosas also made three-of-four free throws.

The Lady Mules had extended their lead to 30-14 by the intermission.

Perez opened the second half with a trey and Flores made a basket and a free throw.

Franco finished up the period with a hoop to push the Lady Mule lead to 38-21.

Perez made her third trey of the game in the final period. Rosas added a pair of baskets and Franco chipped in one.

Perez led the lady Mules with 13 points that included three treys. Franco and Rosas dropped in 10 points each.

Gutierrez finished with six points, Flores made five and Esparza chipped in three.

The Lady Mules will travel to Littlefield to battle the Lady Cats on Jan. 4.

fouled shooting twice in the third quarter and she made all four free throws. Dunham chipped on one charity toss and Rempe scored in the paint. Precure drained her second trey of the game.

The Lady Mules trailed 25-19 with one quarter left to play.

Precure, C. Moore and Dunham made a pair from the free throw line. Morris hit from behind the arc.

Mandy Scolley scored once from inside the arc and once from outside.

Precure led the Lady Mules with 10 points that included a pair of treys. C. Moore was perfect from the charity stripe for all six of her points. Morris, Scolley and Dunham finished with five points each and Rempe chipped in two points.

The Lady Mules will played their way back into shape in the Littlefield Wildcat Tournament Dec. 27-29.

They will travel back to Littlefield on Jan. 4 to resume district action against the Lady Cats.

The Sudan Buzz

Senator Says: 'Goodbye And Thank You'

After nearly 20 years in Washington, this is my final week as the senior US Senator from the great state of Texas.

People often wonder what compels a person to run for public office. Some think it's the power — though I can assure them that being one of a hundred senators, particularly when you're in the minority, is as far from personal power as one can get.

Some think it's the excitement of politics — but anyone who has been through a tough, mud-slinging campaign would fail to describe the politics part favorably!

For me, the reason was to give back to the state that gave me so much.

I was raised with good Texas values, in a small town — La Marque — full of honest, hardworking people, in a tight-knit community with a wonderful public education system.

Combined with the world-class education I received at the University of Texas, it gave me the tools to be whatever I wanted to be.

I got my professional start covering the statehouse at KPRC-TV in Houston, when the station owner took a chance on a young law school graduate.

And I was mentored by great Texans on my way up the political ladder, who continued their support when I got to the Senate and have stood solidly with me ever since.

For this I am grateful, and for this I have sought to give back, as have all the Texans with whom I've had the pleasure of serving. From Senator Phil Gramm to Senator John Cornyn to the entire Texas Congressional delegation, my colleagues have always been a strong and unique force in Congress.

Texas stands out as the delegation that will band together across party lines to fight tooth and nail for our state. Team Texas always has the best interests of our beloved state in mind, and while some in Washington don't quite understand our particular brand of friendliness, I always say that Team Texas's hearts are as big as our mouths.

It may seem as though nothing gets done in Washington, DC. But we have accomplished so much for Texas in the past two decades, by sticking to the good Texas values of common sense, hard work and perseverance.

With so many Texans serving in the armed forces, I fought hard for our nation's military and their families, including legislation that studied how overseas military bases compared to American ones.

That resulted in thousands of troops coming back to the US, where training and rapid deployment were superior. I also worked to secure over $82 billion for base construction, military housing and veterans' programs.

Over the years, I have visited our troops in Bosnia, Iraq and Afghanistan, and seeing our military men and women when they are in harm's way is a very powerful reminder of the sacrifices they make and how indebted we are for their service.

I brought a new medical center to the Valley for our thousands of veterans; I helped secure research for the Gulf War Syndrome that has debilitated thousands of those who served in Desert Storm; and I helped expand the beautiful Waco veterans' facility to serve as a center for treatment of post-traumatic stress disorder.

Working for women and children has been a priority, and I am proud to have taken Amber Alerts — originally a Texas initiative — national. In the years since the legislation passed, nearly 600 children have been returned home. I also introduced legislation to strengthen anti-stalking laws

I fought for and secured the right for Texans to deduct state sales tax from their federal taxes. When married couples were inexplicably punished by having their joint incomes pushed into higher tax brackets, I ensured they were treated fairly with marriage penalty relief legislation.

And I introduced the legislation for spouses who do not work outside the home to save for retirement, through the Homemaker IRA.

Texas research universities have risen from 6th to 3rd in federal funding for science and innovation, strengthening our state's economy and helping America keep our global competitive edge.

I have fought for investment in and support for our higher education systems, and Texas is now a leading destination for some of the country's — and the world's — best scientists and researchers. And Texas gets exponential benefit from the long-term funding we secured for NASA's future.

So while it may seem that Washington is in a perpetual state of gridlock, Texans can take pride that their representatives have been fighting for them and getting results.

It has been my great honor to represent our state for the past two decades. I want to thank the people of Texas for this extraordinary opportunity, and make the solemn promise that I will continue to work for our state after I leave office.

And for the last time as a US Senator, I am proud to say: God bless you and God bless Texas.

Seventh Grade Mules 'Squeeze Past' Antelopes

By Delton Wilhite
Sportswriter

23-21 in their final game of 2012.

The seventh grade Mules squeezed past the Abernathy Antelopes for the Mules in the opening quarter to lead Abernathy 4-3.

Brendon Rodriguez made back-to-back baskets in the second quarter.

Sanchez put back an offensive rebound to give the Mules a 10-7 lead at the intermission.

Michael Lozano opened the second half with a drive for a basket.

Juan Sanchez was just inside the arc when he put up a shot for a basket.

Rodriquez made one from the charity line and Christian Gonzales drove coast-to-coast for a lay-up.

The Antelopes had cut the Mule lead to 17-15.

Rodriquez was fouled driving for a lay-up in the final quarter and made both free throws. He put back a pair of offense rebounds for baskets for all six of the final period Mule points.

Rodriquez led the Mules with 11 points and Sanchez dropped in six points.

Gonzales, Lozano and Sanchez chipped in two points each.

The Mules will play in the Levelland Lobo Tournament on Jan. 10.

They return home on Jan. 14 to host the Friona Braves.
