W. O. Bryant called the meeting to order, which was followed by members repeating the pledge of allegiance to the American Flag.

Chester Guthrie told the club of the misfortune of the American Legion in losing money on the Stratford Jamboree, sponsored during a season of rainy weather, which resulted in a financial loss.

Guthrie said the rodeo cost this year was approximately $2,300.00, the entrance fees paying the prize money, but the gate receipts lacked $350.00 paying for the cost of the rodeo stock. The meat for the barbecue was estimated at a cost of $350.00, but instead, rising prices boosted the cost of the meat to $524.00 with an additional cost of $95.00 for incidentals. The dances showed a profit of approximately $125.00. He described the estimated loss of staging the celebration as $800.00 although some bills had not been delivered to the American Legion. Had fair weather prevailed at the time of the celebration, the jamboree would have paid its own way except for the free barbecue, Guthrie said. In making his talk, Guthrie explained the reason for the deficit and asked cooperation of the other organizations of the city and county in assisting in raising sufficient money to pay off the indebtedness.

Farm Bureau officials expressed their willingness to support a box supper sponsored by the American Legion, a resolution which was also adopted by the Stratford Lions Club. Spokesmen for King Equipment Co., and Joe Doby, parade winners, said funds which they received as prize money would be returned to the organization for payment of the indebtedness on the celebration.

President Bryant announced that in addition to having the district governor present for a ladies night program September 18, two local scouts would be introduced September 25 to give their experiences at the National Jamboree at Valley Forge, and that wives of club members would also be welcome to attend this meeting.

Muddy Weather Creates A Desire For Paving

Rains falling during the last month and continuing this month have resulted in many streets that are almost impassable. As a result several citizens are becoming interested in a paving program if a contractor can be secured who will do the work at a reasonable price. The form printed below does not bind citizens in any way but if properly filled out and mailed to W. P. Foreman, City Secretary, it will give the Council necessary information to secure bids from contractors which will make possible the establishing of the paving cost per lot.

If you desire pavement on lots near your home, your early attention in filling this form will speed work.

Mr. W. P. Foreman, City Secretary, City of Stratford, Stratford, Texas. Dear Sir:

If it is possible to secure paving at a reasonable cost I would be interested in paving lots in Block on Street, and lots in Block on Street.

The above information is submitted to secure an estimate of the approximate cost of paving streets in the City of Stratford.

Christened In 100 Year Old Family Robe

Four generations were represented Sunday morning, August 20, in the First Methodist Church, when Rev. H. A. Nichols read the impressive christening service for Miss Winnie Louise Everett, 2 month and 13-day old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Everett, Jr., of Stratford. Accompanying the proud parents, to the altar were the paternal grandparents and the paternal great-grandparent.

Miss June Bull of Lefors, Texas was maid-of-honor. She wore a pastel blue satin dress styled with a yoke of illusion, and full length skirt. Her hat was of matching satin and tulle, and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. As the crowd assembled they were ushered to their places by Miss Jeanne Price, friend of the bride, and Miss Sibbie Bass, Dalhart, Texas, former room mate of the bride. They were attired in dresses of yellow, identical to that worn by the maid-of-honor. Their headdress was of yellow pom-poms.

Darrell Cotney of Martha, Oklahoma, served as best man. The candles were lighted by Billy McMinn and Jimmy Ingham of Stratford.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was attractive in a gown of blush bridal satin belonging to her cousin, Mrs. Henry Bates, Amarillo, Texas. The gown was styled with a portrait neckline, finished with a pleated collar, long fitted sleeves terminating in points over the hands, and a molded bodice. The pleated motif of the side front skirt and unpressed pleats in the back formed the full skirt which fell in a formal train.

Her veil of illusion, cascaded the tierra styled headdress of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible belonging to her maternal grandmother, topped with a white orchid and showered with tube roses and white satin streamers.

For something old the bride carried a handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Agnes Foster, and for something borrowed she wore pearl ear rings, belonging to Miss Dolores Smith.

Mrs. Doby, mother of the bride, wore a navy crepe dress with honey beige accessories. Her corsage was of yellow pom-poms. Mrs. Moss, mother of the groom wore a black crepe dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Ingham, friends of the bride, with Mrs. Kenneth Kendrick serving as assistant hostess. Laid with a robin blue cloth, the brides table was centered with a tiered wedding cake, flanked by lighted tapers in sterling holders.

The entertaining rooms were decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums, and jade and emerald leaves. Mrs. Billy Cummings presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Beverly Smith served the cake. Miss Marjorie Grimes secured names for the guest register. They were assisted by Mrs. Thurmond Purdy, Mrs. Charles Hooley, Mrs. William Hart, all girlhood friends of the bride.

Mrs. Moss was graduated from Virginia Intermont Preparatory School and Virginia Intermont College. She will resume her college work at Oklahoma A. & M. College, Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Duby-Moss Nuptial Vows Read Tuesday

The Methodist Church was the scene on Tuesday the twelfth of September, at six o'clock in the evening, for the marriage of Sheila Jo Doby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Doby of Stratford, Texas, to Marion Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Moss, Altus, Oklahoma. Rev. H. A. Nichols read the double-ring service.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. H. M. Flores, organist, played selections of pre-nuptial music. Mrs. Lorraine Mehner sang "Through the Years" by Youmans, and "Indian Love Call" by Friml. The traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and recessional, and "Intermetzzo" by Moschini was a soft musical background for the exchange of vows. As the ceremony ended, the couple knelt at the altar, and "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Mr. E. Cleavinger, Jr., of Dimmitt, Texas.

An arch of candelabra, flanked by arrangements of white chrysanthemums, gladioli, and fern, backed by jade, emerald and huckleberry, formed the decorative setting at the altar. The bridal aisle was marked with white satin streamers festooned with white chrysanthemums.

Life Savings of African Destroyed by Termites

AECRA, Gold Coast, Africa—Yaw Abankwa upset the town of Aecra recently with his shrill screams. Villagers ran to his home from all parts of the town, expecting to find Abankwa in terrible pain or danger.

They found the 52 year old cocoa farmer on his bed crying and moaning. Against the wall was a ladder which Abankwa still clutched in one hand. In the other was a gray soggy lump of what appeared to be clay.

Crying and pointing to the soggy lump he explained it was all he had in the world. It was his life savings, about $840, in what were once sterling notes. He had tied the bundle by a string to a board on the ceiling in fear of thieves.

Termites had eaten through the wood and masticated the paper money. Not a single note was recoverable.

Navy Asks Funds to Build Guided Missiles Vessel

WASHINGTON — The days of push button warfare, rockets, guided-missiles, and atomic powered ships is not as far off as you might think.

The house armed services committee has approved a $350,000,000 navy modernization program covering a guided-missiles ship and an atomic powered submarine.

In asking for funds to carry out the navy program, Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations, said: "We have guided missiles which are sufficiently advanced that they should be introduced into the fleet as soon as possible."

In other words, guided missiles have been developed to the stage where competent military men feel they are ready to be used and not just experimented with.

Admiral Sherman also told the committee that the navy hoped to have an atomic-powered submarine in operation within three years after the money was provided.

Presumably that would be sometime in 1954, since the program will be financed largely from funds for the 1952 fiscal year beginning July 1, 1951.

The submarine is now in the blueprint state and theoretically will be capable of cruising almost indefinitely without refueling.

Colorful replicas of days in history were mingled with designs of modern ingenuity in the grand parade Saturday morning in the Stratford Jamboree celebration.

Chosen as the best cowgirls were Sisty Flores, Bobby Cummings, and Mildred Bennett. Best cowboys were Basil Naugle, Bobby Bachman, and H. R. Tillery.

Commercial float winners were Joe A. Duby, Stratford Post Office and King Equipment.

Honors in club floats went to the Sherman County Home Demonstration Council, the Sherman County 4-H clubs, and the Future Farmers of America.

R. J. Davis led the parade, carrying the flag and American Legion colors on his plane. Stratford High School's 35-piece concert band in dress uniform, played as they marched.

The Stratford Post Office float was a mixture of patriotic colors and mail sacks, followed by floats of Ross Bros. Dry Goods, King Equipment, Lovelace Department store and Bennett Implement Co. Five cars of Hoong Gong boys appeared next.

Other floats were entered by Lucy Kelp Cleaners, Davis Bros., Stratford Refrigeration Service, Star Home Demonstration Club, and the Fire Department.

Forty-mounted cowboys and girls were followed by a group of youths on decorated bicycles. Daryl Stubblefield won first, Johnnie Marie Knight second and Stuart Crutchfield third.

Entries of the American Legion, Farm Bureau, Stratford Tractor Co., Joe Duby Frigidaire, Stratford Laundry, American Legion Auxiliary, Dumas Range Riders, Roxy Theatre, Sherman County Home Demonstration Club and 4-H Clubs were followed by 3 old fashioned cars of early day manufacture. Snake Charmers
A snake charmer could play his musical instrument like an angel, but he would not get a rise out of his snake if he did not have rhythm. Snakes have no external ears, and cannot hear sound waves in the air. They react only to the charmer's swing and sway.

Book Matches
Wood is not the only thing that goes up in match smoke. Book matches, so handy in size and so popular as an advertising medium, add more than 34,500 tons of paper-board stock to the pyre each 24 hours.

Dogs and Children
The approach of a friendly dog will not frighten a child who has first had a chance to observe one from a safe distance or has seen his mother or father pet and play with one.

Big Increase
There are now more than 600 life insurance companies in the United States, more than seven times the number in 1900. Over half of the companies are located west of the Mississippi.

Watering Pails
Never use a discarded paint can as a feeding or watering pail until all the paint has been removed; otherwise it may cause fatal lead poisoning in calves and other stock.

Cordovan Shoes
Ever wear "Cordovan" shoes? The name comes from the word "Cordova," the great leather center of Spain, and applies to leather made of horsehide.

"Tin Road"
The famous tin road led from Cornwall to the shore where tin was carried by ships to Denmark. The tin road then followed the amber roads to the Mediterranean area.

Ex-Convict Thrown For A Loss

ST. LOUIS, MO. — His face adorned with adhesive tape, Kendall Morris is shown after he was trussed up and delivered to St. Louis police by his intended victim, Morris, wearing the rubber mask (right) held up James Greig, Washington University football star, and Greig's girl friend, Miss Charlotte Obst, on a lonely road outside St. Louis and announced he was kidnaping them. Greig defied Morris' gun, tackled him, overpowered him, tied him up and took him to the law in the trunk of his car.

Naming Roses
Roses are generally named according to color, to honor some individual, place or historic event. Capistrano, a 1950 all-America award winner is named for the famous California mission. Sutter's Gold, another winner, commemorates the discovery of gold in California.

Tip for Painter
When painting an area that formerly was stained and varnished, the surface should be sanded and wiped with a lintless cloth saturated in turpentine before the under and finish coats of paint are applied.

1650 Iron Export
The first American iron exported in the regular course of commerce was "3/4 tonne, 172 bars of iron for account of R. Hutchinson of London." The order was probably made at Saugus, Massachusetts and was shipped on the "Charles" in 1650.

Lowest Rail Point

Sudsing in Middle Ages
In the Middle Ages the peasants had only three formal baths during their lifetime—at birth, before marriage, and when they died. The scarcity and high cost of soap was largely responsible for the widespread epidemics of that era.

Early Shoe Fashion

New Instrument Aids Farmer

FORD TRACTORS now coming off the assembly lines at the Ford Highland Park, Michigan, Plant are equipped with the new Proof-Meter, an instrument which "takes the guesswork out of tractor operation." Actually five instruments in one, the Proof-Meter shows engine speed, tractor speed, power take-off speed, belt pulley speed and total hours worked by the tractor. The farmer in the picture is recording hours of tractor operation for use in determining his farming costs. In the lower right hand corner is an enlarged close-up of the Proof-Meter, which Dearborn Motors officials say is the first instrument of its kind to be made available on a farm tractor.

for a score of farm uses

Here is one of the countless variations of the "Quonset 24." Three sections are used as an implement shed; the fourth section, enclosed and fitted with walk-door and window in side panel, makes an ideal workshop.

This simple adaptation, with the entire front unenclosed, is used as a loafing barn for livestock.

This sturdy, attractive roadside stand—a four-section "Quonset 24"—furnishes a fitting display for farm produce.

Designed on a new principle and built with new materials, the "Quonset 24" is a really modern farm building, better for scores of uses. It is 24 feet wide, with the length extendable in sections of 12 feet . . . 24'x24', 24'x36', 24'x48', and so on.

"Quonsets" are the only buildings that combine all-steel construction with great flexibility. Each 12-foot section can be individually equipped as desired. It may be partitioned or not; the front may be enclosed, left open or fitted with roller doors; extra sections may be added whenever required. Additional windows and walk-doors, insulation and other equipment are easily installed. This wide utility is due to a unique, fast construction method, which employs Stran-Steel nailable framing members and sheet steel covering that is nailed directly to them.

Inexpensive to build, easy to erect and maintain, fire-safe, the "Quonset 24" is a sound building investment. Write us for full details.

"Quonset" buildings are products of Great Lakes Steel Corporation, a unit of National Steel Corporation

Woman Loses Fight to Bar Murder Story From Radio

FLINT, Mich. — Back in 1941 Michigan and the country was shocked with the sensational confession of Mrs. Julia Kullnich that she murdered her husband and two children.

The case came to light again recently when Mrs. Kullnich, now 34, asked a federal court to block a coast to coast broadcast of the crime on a radio show.

Mrs. Kullnich, who is serving a life term in the Detroit house of correction for second degree murder, claimed the drama invaded her "right of privacy" and would cause her "embarrassment, ridicule and humiliation."

At first Circuit Judge Clifford A. Bishop granted the injunction but later dismissed it upon learning that the broadcast would originate in New York rather than in Flint and would use fictitious names of the principals.

Mrs. Kullnich's husband, Peter; her daughter, Helen, 7, and her son, Nicholas, 5, were found dead in their farm home September 15, 1941. At first the woman said her husband killed the children and then committed suicide. Finally she confessed to state police that she was the slayer of all three.

Slip of Knife Gives World New Eye Surgery Technique

SAN FRANCISCO—The slip of a surgeon's knife has presented the world with a new technique of eye surgery that may save the sight of hundreds of persons in this country.

The procedure was reported by Dr. Harold C. Scheie of Philadelphia.

The new technique involves a tiny drain hole in the tough covering in the eyeball. Through this hole excess fluid in a little sac in front of the eye lens can escape and reduce the pressure that causes blindness in cases of glaucoma.

In the usual operation an opening leading to the sac is made and some fluid taken out, but no drainage hole is left.

A supposedly ordinary operation was performed on a 19 year old girl threatened with total blindness by glaucoma in both eyes. Scheie operated on the left eye. Later he discovered that the knife had left a tiny cleft which acted as a filter through which additional excess fluid from the little sac could continue to drain. The eye improved and a similar operation was performed on the girl's other eye, with similar results.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Proud He Shined Dad's Shoes

NEW YORK.—What was the relationship between John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and his father, who until his death May 23, 1937, was the world's richest man?

In a rare revelatory mood, the 76-year-old Rockefeller said he always was as proud to shine his father's shoes as to represent him in any of his vast business and philanthropic interests.

Rockefeller, wearing a three-button business suit and old-fashioned high-laced shoes, publicly told for the first time how he gradually took over the Standard Oil empire. He spoke after becoming the third man to be made an honorary member of the chamber of commerce of the state of New York.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and former President Herbert Hoover, the other two honorary members, rose with the crowd at the meeting and roundly applauded the man with the shining memory of his father.

Bombay Woman Gives Birth To Infant Resembling Foal

BOMBAY, India—Thousands of persons tried to storm a house in Bombay recently after a rumor spread that a woman had given birth to a horse there.

Even after the police took possession of the stillborn "infant," which resembled a foal, thousands of men and women besieged the house. Others thronged to the police station.

Newsman who saw the infant said it was eight inches long with a hoof at the end of a limb, a rudimentary tail and an unmistakable equine head.

Authorities searched the area of the tenement house for the unidentified "mother" but no trace of her was found.

Couple Build Dream House, But on Wrong Property

CHICAGO — After years of dreaming and planning their house, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Ciszak came up with a nightmare. They built it on somebody else's property.

The couple hired a surveyor to plot lots 25 and 26 in suburban North Elmhurst. After living with their parents for three years, the house was finally finished and they prepared to move in.

They needed a loan, however, and it was then they learned that their house stood on lots 22 and 23, about 75 feet from where it should have been.

They solved their problem by selling lots 25 and 26 and borrowing enough to pay $1,600 to the owners of lots 22 and 23. Then they filed suit against the surveyor, charging he led them astray.

British Newspaperman Deserts to Communists

BERLIN, Germany—A British newspaperman has asked and received asylum in Communist east Germany because he no longer could serve "western warmongers."

The man, John Peet, 34, London, was chief of the British Reuters news agency in Berlin.

Peet said he had been given a job by the east German press ministry. It is headed by Gerhart Eisler, former American Communist leader who skipped bail in the United States and became propaganda chief of east Germany.

Peet's decision to change camps was startling in that he had handled many Reuter dispatches in recent months and none of them had been colored with Communist propaganda, according to his superiors.

In announcing his decision to change camps, he said: "We have all become, at least in part, instruments of the American guided war machine. As an English patriot and friend of peace I can stand that no longer."

Houston Television Fans See Man Commit Suicide

HOUSTON, Tex. — Stanford B. Twente committed suicide while a Texas league baseball game was being televised to Houston and area residents.

Fans who were watching the game heard a shot and a second later the camera focused on Twente's slumped body.

Justice of the Peace Tom Maes was among those watching the game on television. He returned an inquest verdict of suicide without leaving his home.

Twente died in a hospital about two hours after the shooting.

At the start of the last half of the sixth inning, Twente appeared at the television booth and told the announcer, "I got something to tell you."

The announcer waved the man away and continued narrating the game. Twente was seated between the announcer and the engineer. He suddenly pulled out a pistol and shot himself, falling across the engineer.

THE GIFT OF GIVING UP

"At her request you gave up drinking?"

"Yes."

"And you stopped smoking for the same reason?"

"Yes, I did."

"And it was for her that you gave up dancing, card parties and billiards?"

"Correct."

"Then why didn't you marry her?"

"Well, after all this reforming I decided I could do better."

State Tree of Maryland

Maryland's choice of the white oak as the official state tree is credited to the majestic Wye Oak at Wye Mills, Talbot county, on the state's "eastern shore." One of the nation's largest, the far-spreading Wye Oak is 95 feet high and about four centuries old.

 Succumbs In Amarillo

Winfield Scott Amend, an early day resident of Sherman County, and one of the early Panhandle Pioneers, died late Friday night in Amarillo at the age of 88, after two years of illness.
 Born November 23, 1861, in Lee County, Iowa, Mr. Amend came to Fannin County, Texas in 1876. In 1887, he moved to Collingsworth County and settled near Old Aberdeen. While the Indian trouble had been settled shortly before, there was still much activity around Ft. Elliott and old Mobeetie, and Mr. Amend lived through one Indian scare, which did not materialize.
 In 1902, he moved with his bride, the former Miss Leah Paris, to Sherman County. Traveling by covered wagon, they moved 10 to 12 miles per day, driving their cattle ahead of them.
 Mr. Amend served as County Commissioner of Sherman County for a few years after moving here.
 In 1918, the family moved to Canyon, Randall County in order to send their children to school. Mr. Amend continued to operate his ranch in Sherman County until 1928. He served as city commissioner of Canyon three terms during the mid-thirties.
 From 1887 to 1928, Mr. Amend was continuously engaged in farming and cattle raising. He was one of the first in Collingsworth County to raise wheat.
 Mr. Amend is survived by his wife, Mrs. Leah Paris Amend, Canyon; three sons, Finis W. Amend, Meridian, Idaho; W. Scott Amend, Jr., Plainview; J. D. Amend, Amarillo; one daughter, Mrs. R. C. Kay, Amarillo, and one grandson, J. W. Amend of Meridian, Idaho.

Funeral services were held at 3:00 P. M. Sunday at the First Christian Church in Canyon, with burial at Dreamland Cemetery in Canyon.
 Pallbearers were Charlie Burrow, A. B. Holt, Bill Black, Roy Cheatam, J. H. Lisle and W. H. Crain, all of Canyon.

Medical Board Returns
 License to Dr. Sanders

CANDIA, N. H.—Dr. Herman N. Sanders' license to practice medicine has been restored by the New Hampshire board of registration.

His license was suspended April 19, more than a month after the death of one of his patients.

International interest centered on Sanders' trial because it was expected to be a test case on euthanasia, mercy killing. That question, however, never became a trial issue.

Within 10 minutes after he had heard the decision by the New Hampshire medical board, a man telephoned: "Now that you've got your license back I can ask you about my arm." Sanders said he diagnosed the caller's trouble as bursitis and recommended treatment.

At his trial the state charged Sanders killed Mrs. Abbie Borroto, 59, a cancer patient, by injecting air into a vein in her arm. A jury acquitted him—and neighbors rang church bells—after the defense held the woman was dead before the injection.

Reginald F. Borroto, husband of the dead woman, was one of Sanders' most outspoken defenders throughout the case.

Small Boys Find Hidden
 Private Anti-Tank Arsenal

ATLANTA, GA. — A couple of treasure-hunting small boys turned up somebody's private anti-tank arsenal recently.

In the excitement, the rumor started that "enough ammunition to blow up a city block had been found."

Two patrolmen, T. M. Stribling and W. B. Parham, found two bazooka shells, a rifle grenade, a 37-mm. shell and a small, pressure-type land mine.

How the ammunition got to the wooded lot was a mystery. It was all live and was turned over to demolition experts at near-by Fort McPherson.

Names of both boys got lost in the shuffle.
 Europe is named for the goddess Europa.

WHOLESALE MURDER

Youth Says
 He Set Fires

COLUMBUS, O.—Police officers could not believe the incredible story of husky Robert Dale Segree, 20-year-old circus roustabout. He insisted he had committed four murders and set numerous fires, including the Ringling Brothers circus fire at Hartford that took 188 lives.

Ohio fire marshal Harry J. Callan said Segree had signed a statement admitting the circus fire, four slayings "by his own hands", and more than a score of major fires in Ohio, New Hampshire and Maine.

After checking his story police were inclined to believe he was telling the truth.

The fire marshal said Segree admitted beating to death 9-year-old Barbara Driscoll of Portsmouth, N. H., on a river bank on Sept. 5, 1938. His weapon was a rock.

Segree's long statement, obtained after days of questioning, told a weird story of a nightmare Indian riding a flaming horse. Prosecutor Guy B. Cline of Pickaway county recited the story this way:

The Indian appeared to Segree at night, urging him to set fires. Segree's mind then went blank. When his mind cleared, a fire had been set. At this point, the phantom rider dismounted, taunted and sneered at Segree so that he ran from the scene.

Mr. Callan said Segree identified his other murder victims as a watchman who caught him setting fire to a warehouse in Portland, Me., on March 16, 1943; a boy about 12 or 13 years old on a beach at Cape Cottage, Me., about 1943, and a boy in Japan while Segree was a member of the Army of occupation in 1949.

Mr. Callan said Segree enlisted in the army in 1948 for three years but was released a year later upon advice of the medical service.

The fire marshal declined to make public details of Segree's confession. He said the youth definitely worked for the circus from June 30 to July 13, 1944. The official said during that time there were two small circus fires before the fatal one July 6.

James A. Haley, Ringling president at the time of the tragedy, and George Smith, then the general manager, served prison terms in connection with the fire. The circus paid off more than $2,000,000 in damage claims.

"Segree admits to setting between twenty-five and thirty major fires in Portland, Me., from the latter part of 1939 until May of 1946 when he moved to Ohio," Mr. Callan said.

"When the family moved from Columbus to Adelphi, Ohio, in 1947, a series of small fires in alleys broke out in Circleville nearby. Segree admits setting these fires."
 "He also admits setting innumerable small fires in Portland, Columbus and Circleville."

Ohio officials said investigators first learned of Segree while questioning William Graham, 23, of Circleville, sent to the Ohio state hospital for the criminal insane in connection with a fire at a granary in Williamsport.

turity for home repairs, alterations or improvements." Following the past policy of placing fewer restrictions on small credits, the new regulation does not contain down payment requirements for articles costing less than $100 although, unlike the former regulation, maturities are limited.

Installment loans for the purchase of any listed article carry the same limitations that apply to the installment sale of the article, while other installment loans are limited to a maximum of 18 months.

In establishing the initial terms the Board took into account the prevailing practices and terms in the trades affected. There has been a material relaxation of installment credit terms during the past year or more, and the requirements of the Regulation are substantially tighter than the terms now widely offered.

Regulation W
 Is Effective
 September 18

Credit purchases will be curbed with reinstatement of Regulation W, effective September 18. The credit regulation is being reinstated under the authority of the Defense Production Act of 1950, the Board of Governors announce.

Regulations cover automobile installment credits of $5,000 and less and other installment credits of $2,500 and less. Except that home improvement credits are now covered and terms are generally tightened, the regulation is much the same form as the regulation which expired June 30, 1949.

The limitations initially established are: "Down payments of at least one-third, and maximum maturities of 21 months for automobiles." "Down payments of at least 15 per cent, and maximum maturities of 18 months for appliances: refrigerators, food freezers, radio or television sets, phonographs, cooking stoves, ranges, dishwashers, ironers, washing machines, clothes driers, sewing machines, suction cleaners, air conditioners and de-humidifiers." Guided Missile Is Success in First Horizontal Test

COCOA, Fla.—The pushbutton war of the future may not be as far off as most people believe. The first successful flight of a guided long-range missile was made at the Army's proving ground recently.

A huge German V-2 rocket carrying a smaller missile piggy-back made a thunderous climbing turn over the Atlantic. The V-2 got up to 2,700 miles an hour, and the smaller nose-mounted missile, called the Wac Corporal went even faster—perhaps 5,000 miles an hour. Its performance is a military secret.

The two rockets, standing 60 feet from the ground to the "Wac Corporal's" nose, rose in a burst of flame that brought the sound of a thunderclap.

From zero to 1,000 miles an hour was a matter of seconds. The two-stage projectile still spewed orange flame as it pierced a high cirrus cloud and disappeared. On the cloud an ominous black shadow appeared—the shadow of the vapor trail.

Power stayed on the V-2 only a minute. In that time 10 tons of liquid oxygen and alcohol were consumed.

Gyroscopic controls took effect soon after the vertical climb began and the thundering missile bent its path toward the sea. It was approaching a horizontal course as it disappeared.

At 51,000 feet after only a minute and 20 seconds of flight, the "Wac Corporal" separated from the bigger rocket and sped away eastward on its own. How far it went wasn't immediately known. The intended range was in excess of 175 miles.

The V-2 then traveled at 2,700 miles an hour. The speed of the smaller missile was described as "the sum of the two rockets", with no estimate made. Private estimates ran as high as 5,000 miles an hour.

After the "Wac Corporal" was gone, the V-2 went to a maximum height of 10 miles and started down. When it was down to 20,000 feet, a button was pressed exploding the captured German weapon. Its debris fell into the sea 48 miles offshore.

Napoleon crowned himself Emperor of France.

ALASKA BOOM Tomato Salad Costs $1.50

FAIRBANKS, Alaska—The greatest boom in Alaska's history, even greater than the days of the gold rush, is underway around Anchorage and Fairbanks. The boom is stimulated by government millions being spent on defense installations.

Primitive miners' cabins of the day of '98, empty and neglected for decades, are renting at $150 a month when available. Small one-room portable cottages, assembled in groups resembling cheap trailer camps in the states, bring nearly as much.

A decade ago cheap hotels had plenty of rooms for rent at 50 cents a night. Now they are bringing $3 and $4 and the occupant may find he must share his space with a stranger.

Food Prices Exorbitant A two room cottage, without improvements and utility connections, may bring as much as $5,000. The buyer must dig his own well inside the house, as is customary to protect the water supply during severe winter weather. Dilapidated gold-rush cabins are being offered for sale at prices ranging up to $9,000.

In Anchorage, where there are few miners' huts, conditions are worse, with rents from 10 to 20 percent higher than in Fairbanks.

For instance, a large house occupied by five families totaling 18 persons costs each family $100. The sensational rents are surpassed by wages reaped by building mechanics. Many receive weekly checks of $175 or $200, in addition to free board and shelter. The basic daily wage of a waitress is $8.60, of a cook $18, of a skilled chef considerably more.

Prices of some foods, particularly perishables that must be shipped to Alaska by air, are exorbitant. A plain omelet costs $1.50 or $1.75 and toast dry or buttered is 30 or 35 cents.

Hair Cut Costs $2 Milk from a Fairbanks dairy is 40 cents a quart, but many customers prefer the airborne product from the states at 54 or 55 cents. A lettuce and tomato salad, believe it or not, costs $1.50 or $1.75.

A shave may cost less than $2 but one can not get a haircut for less.

Cigarettes and liquor are exceptions in the sensational prices of Alaska. The popular brands of cigarettes are cheaper than in many places in the states. A price war brought the cost of blended whiskey down to $3.50 or $4 a fifth. Scotch and rums generally remain about 50 percent higher than in the states.

The growth of Anchorage has been even more sensational. The population there now is estimated at 11,000, not including several adjoining suburban communities that would bring the district up to nearly 20,000. In 1940 only 3,495 persons were counted within Anchorage.

The boom is due directly to a government development program involving an outlay of about $25,000,000 in construction projects.

Flock Replacements Animals that are to be used as herd and flock replacements should be tested for disease before purchase and kept in quarantine for 30 days after being brought to the farm.

Mr. Seymour Marks, 1229 Morrison St., thinks his son Gregory is the finest little boy in St. Louis, Missouri, and he isn't a bit ashamed to admit it. He also says he used to be cross, irritable and nervous, but HADACOL put a stop to all that when he found he was suffering from a lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin, and Iron.

Mr. Marks was mighty proud to make the following statement: "Before I began taking HADACOL there was many a night that I lay awake. I just couldn't get any sleep. Food didn't agree with me and my stomach gave me all sorts of trouble. I took only two bottles of HADACOL before I was feeling much better. Now I am in the best of condition and have only HADACOL to thank. One of my cousins told me about HADACOL and I have told many more people about the fine results I have had from HADACOL."

You, Too, Will Be Amazed at the wonderful results HADACOL can bring you, as it has to thousands and thousands of other fine folks who suffered a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin, and Iron, which HADACOL contains. HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every organ, and every part of your body—to the heart, liver, kidneys and lungs, even to the eyes, hair and nails.

No risk is involved . . . because HADACOL is sold on a strict money-back guarantee. You'll feel great with the first few bottles you take or your money will be refunded. Keep Him Caged

When she was four, her parents decided it was time to take little Anne to church. So the following Sunday she accompanied them to services. The minister, up high in his pulpit, was earnest and vigorous. His voice rolled out over his flock in loud tones and low, as he waved his arms and twisted his torso. And he completely fascinated small Anne. Finally, clutching her father's arm, she asked worriedly, "What do we do if he gets out?"

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Mark 3:31-35; 8:3; 1 Corinthians 15:7; Galatians 2:9-12; Acts 12:17; 15.

DEVOTIONAL READING: James 1: 19-27.

Brother to Jesus

Lesson for September 17, 1950

THEY WENT fishing together, no doubt; very likely they worked together in the shop; perhaps lit- tle James was the nuisance that small brothers sometimes are, but like all small brothers he would tag along when Jesus went walking over the Nazareth hills.

As a man in later years he be- came influential and famous; in- deed it was he who probably wrote the book in our New Testament called "James." But as a boy, his neighbors saw nothing re- markable in him. So completely commonplace he was, that as Mark 6 shows us, the natives of Nazareth couldn't believe that one of James' brothers could amount to anything.

Unbeliever

FOR years and years James grew up with Jesus, boy with boy. They lived under the same roof, ate from the same dish. James may even have worn his big brother's outgrown tunics. All his childhood days he knew the care and love of the same mother Mary that Jesus had. Through all those "silent" years when Jesus lived and worked in Nazareth, James lived and worked beside him.

And yet, the strange thing is that when Jesus left the carpen- ter shop and went about "doing good" as Peter said, James did not believe in him. It seems clear from the story in Mark 3 that both Mary and the brothers (not James only) had the idea that Jesus was out of his mind. They came to get him and would have stopped his ministry at that point, if they could. John also mentions the fact that Jesus' own brothers did not believe in him.

It seems strange, yet the reason may not be hard to find. Perhaps it was a case of the old proverb, "Familiarity breeds contempt."

Perhaps James had a sort of in- feriority complex about himself, maybe he agreed with the villagers' low opinion about him, so that he could not believe that his brother could be the Christ. In any case it is plain that if miracles could ever have compelled belief, Jesus' mir- acles would have convinced James . . . but he was an unbeliever right through the day of Calvary.

Believer

PRECISELY what changed him was never known. Some anonymous writer in early times wrote a "Gospel of James"—a piece of fic- tion never accepted by the church as genuine. What we do know is what Paul tells us: that after his resurrection, Jesus "appeared to James." It may well be that James was convinced by the risen Christ as he had never been by the Car- penter of Nazareth.

Be that as it may, as time went on and Christians began to multiply in Jerusalem, James appeared as the leader of the Christians' Home Church. At the important conference held in Jerusalem to decide the church's first great controversy, it was James whose speech was the "last word" before the de- cisive vote.

Quality of Leadership

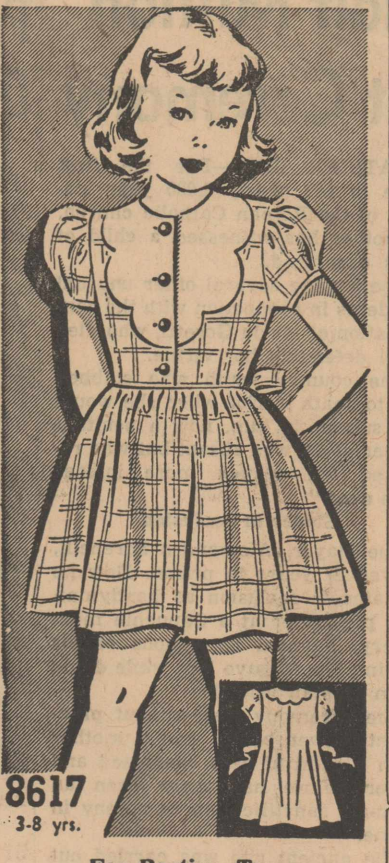

JAMES was not an accepted lead- er merely because he was a brother of Jesus. There were other brothers who remained quite ob- scure. James was a recognized leader because of his personal qual- ities. The reader is invited to study these out for himself. But there is one interesting and unusual combi- nation of qualities in this man: strictness with himself, together with flexible generosity in dealing with others.

In Acts 21:17-26 it is clear that James kept all the laws of Moses himself and expected other Jews to do the same. To the end of his life he was per- sonally a rigid conservative. But when it came to other peo- ple, he was far more tolerant.

When the question arose, How much of Jewish law shall we expect Gentle Christians to observe? James agreed to the startlingly small nucleus of laws that the Jerusalem conference set forth as the absolute minimum for all. James did not wish his own con- science to bind every one else. He did not expect every one to be bound by his own pattern. He had high standards and he lived by them. But he did not use his own standards as a club with which to beat others over the head.

Household Hints

The night before baking day wrap your shortening in waxed paper and put it into the freezing compartment of your refrigerator. In the morning it'll be hard enough to shred on a metal grate. This makes mixing it with the flour and other ingredients much easier.

Shortening, butter, or mar- garine used in baking can be measured most accurately by the water displacement method. If you want a half cup of shortening, fill a cup-half full of water, then add enough shortening to make the water rise to the top of the cup. You'll have exactly a half cup of shortening.

C. C. Culbertson Buried Monday In Dalhart

Relatives and friends of Charles C. (Chli) Culbertson gathered in Blackburn-Shaw

funeral chapel in Dalhart Monday to pay their last respects to the deceased plainsman. Rev. J. Lennol Hester, pastor of the Central Methodist Church, conducted the funeral service.

A male quartet composed of Dr. Victor R. Moore, W. E. Cantrell, Dr. E. U. Johnston, and Joe Bass, sang "Abide with Me," and "In the Garden." Dr. E. U. Johnston sang "Home on the Range," which well befitted the memory of the pioneer cattleman. Mrs. Lillian Fountain was accompanist.

Burial was made in the Culbertson family plot in Memorial Park Cemetery. Mr. Culbertson, age 70, ill for several weeks, passed away Thursday of last week in Tucumcari, New Mexico. He was a cousin of W. P. Cummings and J. G. Cummings of Stratford and was well known in the Spurlock community.

In the early days Mr. Culbertson operated a steam threshing machine in the Spurlock region.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cummings and Mrs. J. G. Cummings attended the funeral.

NEW THEORY

Eye Window For Heart

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—A new scientific technique, which is based on the theory that "the eye is the window to the heart," can simplify early detection or diagnosis by physicians of a tendency toward development of heart disease.

This technique, known as "flicker photometry," has proven to be more than 98 percent accurate in confirming known cases of hypertensive and coronary heart trouble. In the hands of doctors, it is expected to help them save many lives of potential heart-attack victims, who heretofore had little way of knowing they were developing the disease until often too late for preventative treatment.

These findings, together with facts about the new heart-blood vessel measuring instrument called the "flicker photometer," were illustrated here in a scientific exhibit at the convention of the American Medical Association. The new technique and instrument are the result of ten years research by two Chicago scientists, Drs. Louis R. Krasno and A. C. Ivy of the University of Illinois College of Medicine.

Simple Instruments
The apparently simple instrument is a black box with a tiny "window of light." In reality, it is a complex and accurate electrical device for producing controllable speeds of flickering light. It is capable of revealing, by measuring reactions of the human eye to a countable flicker of light, certain blood vessel conditions of the retina and the brain which appear to precede two important forms of heart disease.

Two easily administered tests are made. After first recording a patient's reaction to the flicker, a harmless nitroglycerin tablet is administered and a second flicker test taken. The interpretation of the tests simply depends on whether nitroglycerin increases or decreases the patient's ability to see flickering light. Over 500 patients have been studied in this research project at the University of Illinois. Further research is being continued at the University, as well as by several investigators throughout the country.

In addition to its diagnostic application against the nation's No. 1 killer, the Krasno-Ivy "flicker photometer" offers valuable assistance to physicians in determining the effectiveness of treatment in known cases of hypertension and coronary thrombosis.

Verified Importance
While meager news of the machine's existence became known last December, further research and actual use by doctors now has verified the importance of the device for real progress in the battle against heart disease. It is the first instrument able to reveal certain conditions of blood vessels of the retina and the brain, which appear to precede hypertension and/or coronary heart diseases.

It is commonly accepted that diagnosis and treatment of these two diseases can never begin too early, but diagnostic methods in general use today are of value only after the disease is further advanced clinically. The device detects this tendency at sub-clinical level, when the patient does not yet show evidence of elevated blood pressure, abnormal electrocardiogram, or any customary symptoms. It makes possible mass testing of the public, by a simple and inexpensive method.

CHILD CANONIZED

Half Million At Ceremony

VATICAN CITY—For the first time in the nearly 2,000 year history of the Roman Catholic church, a mother has witnessed a child of hers canonized.

There were several other unusual incidents in connection with the canonization of Maria Goretti, who died at 11 defending her virtue.

The country youth who stabbed her to death in 1902 when she would not submit to him, now a penitent sinner of 68, was absent but was reported "in prayer more intense than ever."

Slayer in Seclusion

The slayer, Alessandro Serenelli, served 27 years in prison. Now he remains in seclusion as handyman and pig-tender at a Capuchin monastery, haunted by visions of his victim. She forgave him while dying from 14 stab wounds.

The ceremony was without precedent. Never before had a mother seen a child of hers canonized and never before had there been an open-air sanctification ceremony in Rome.

The ancient rite was carried out in St. Peter's Square because the Basilica, world's largest church, could not hold the great Holy Year throngs wanting to attend.

The Vatican radio put the attendance at 500,000 when Pope Pius, surrounded by Cardinals and Bishops, named the country girl to the honors of the altar, to be forever venerated.

Body Displayed

In a place of special honor near the Pope's throne sat the saint's 88-year-old mother, known as Mother Assunta. She wept and cried: "My daughter, my daughter—my little Marietta!" With her were two sons and two daughters. One of the sons, Angelo, lives in New Village, N. J.

The wax-preserved body of the saint herself was brought to Rome secretly from Eitumo—near the Anzio Beach of World War II—where she died. The body was exposed in the Basilica of Saints John and Paul for veneration.

In the throng witnessing the ceremony were pilgrims from France, Spain, Belgium, The Netherlands, the United States, Switzerland and Germany. The largest part of the crowd consisted of boys and girls of Italian Catholic Action from almost every parish in the country.

As the Pope pronounced sainthood, the bronze bells of St. Peter's and Rome's nearly 500 other churches rang out.

At the same time a damask drape was dropped from the balcony revealing a painted image of the saint. The ceremony was brought to an end with the Pope's apostolic benediction.

Explain Reason For Continued Wheat Allotments

The answer to "why wheat allotments are being continued," can be found in the current supply-demand situation and outlook, according to B. F. Vance, chairman of the State Production and Marketing Administration Committee.

With wheat supplies for 1950-51 exceeding disappearance by probably about 400 to 450 million bushels, and a 1951 crop, under allotments, estimated at 1,150 million bushels, the total supply for 1951-52 may be close to the all-time record of 1.6 billion bushels reached in 1942-43 and again in 1943-44.

Mr. Vance explained that at that time large quantities of wheat were used for feed and for alcohol. Current prospects are that domestic use of wheat for food will not increase, exports will decline, and industrial use will be limited as long as supplies of corn and other grains continue large.

Allotments for the 1951 crop have been figured on the high side in order to assure abundance. "We'd rather produce too much wheat than run the risk of a shortage," Vance said.

Producing an excessive crop of wheat would also be bad for the land, the chairman pointed out. Without allotments, land would be used for wheat that might better produce other crops or remain in grass. Summer-fallowing practices, where land normally is rested in alternate years for greater acre yields the following year, would be disrupted.

ed. By holding within their acreage allotments, Vance explained, farmers can insure better practices, conserve human as well as physical resources, and make possible better mobilization of supplies in relation to the demand for wheat. Other considerations are efficiency and economy in the use of transportation warehousing, and processing facilities.

"Allotments in 1951 provide for all the wheat needed to meet foreseeable demands," Vance said. "and they make it possible for each wheat farmer to contribute his fair share of the wheat needed. Excessive planting for the 1951 crop might result in a 1951-52 wheat supply that would require marketing quotas the following year."

New Idea in Dishwashing

Operating on a "revolutionary" principle of automatic dishwashing, this new Youngstown Kitchens dishwasher will do the family's dishes in less than 10 minutes. The young lady holds the partially filled upper basket to show how cups, glasses and silverware are positioned. A lower basket holds plates, larger dishes and pans. The machine will hold table service for six people. The tube in the middle of the tub is a jet tower which spins and throws powerful streams of water which shear food particles off dishes. Water at 180 degrees is delivered from a booster heater tank in the machine.
