Sherman County Development Association Has Provisions Of Services Available Under Doane Survey

Services which may be expected of the Doane Agricultural Service if a contract is signed by the Sherman County Development Association are published to acquaint the public with the proposed program and to avoid misunderstandings which might arise. The contract price of the service has been set at $4,800.00. Only one-third of the amount will be paid as retainer's fee. One-third would be paid about midway of the 4½ to 6 month survey, and the remainder would be paid when the reports were made to the county. Officers and directors of the Sherman County Development Association decided that the entire amount of money required in payment of the service would be raised before contracts would be signed. According to reports of the treasurer's office the first of the week, about one-half of the money necessary to retain the company for an agricultural survey has been raised.

Letter of Agreement

This letter is to outline the terms and conditions whereby the Sherman County Development Association located in Stratford, Texas, is employing the Doane Agricultural Service, Inc. of St. Louis, Missouri, to conduct an Agricultural Development Survey for Sherman County, Texas.

Doane is to begin work on the survey within thirty days from the date of this agreement. Five copies of a written report to the Sherman County Development Association will be delivered within six months from the date of this agreement.

Doane is to make a survey of the agricultural potential of Sherman County to determine:

- History of agricultural development in Sherman County.
 - Existing agricultural situation in the County.
 - The general attitudes and ambitions of the people.
 - Resources available in the county that could be used for the expansion of agricultural production.
 - Farm and ranching enterprises that could be produced in Sherman County.
 - Market potentials for these enterprises to establish the feasibility of their production.
 - Three representative groups of Sherman County farms and ranches and establish a typical operation within each group.
 - The farm enterprise or combination of farm enterprises best suited for each typical operation.
 - Operational plans which will maximize net farm income for each typical farm.
- These plans will be actual farming guides with variations depending on the varying levels of capital and other resources available to all farms in Sherman County.
- The type or organization which should be established to guide the proposed agricultural development program for Sherman County.

In entering this agreement Doane assumes that they will have the full cooperation and assistance of the leaders of civic, agricultural and business organizations within the county in securing facts and opinions pertaining to the area. This would include the loan to Doane of copies of any survey reports, programs of work or other literature which would contribute to an analysis of the area.

The Sherman County Development Association agrees to pay Doane a total of $4,800.00. A retainer payment of $1,600.00 will become due upon the signing of this agreement. A second payment of $1,600.00 will become due in 90 days. A third and final payment of $1,600.00 will

Irrigation Well Gas Pipeline Meeting Tuesday

Colorado Service Gas Co. representatives will make known their proposed services for supplying irrigation wells with natural gas at a meeting called by the Sherman County Development Association to be held in the district court room at the courthouse in Stratford Tuesday night at 7:30.

Donal E. Rogers of Colorado Springs, Colorado is making a survey of the county for the Colorado Service Gas Co. to determine as to whether or not it will be possible for the company to lay a system of pipelines to existing and potential irrigation wells in the county at an investment which would enable them to sell natural gas at a competitive price with other fuels.

Mr. Rogers attended the agricultural survey meeting at Spurlock Monday night and was given the locations of 17 irrigation wells in that area.

Potential business and the cost of installing a network of pipelines must be established before servicing irrigation wells with natural gas can be considered, Rogers said.

Unsung Stratford Elk basket-tees, rated as underdogs of District 1-B with a season of 13 wins and 14 losses, upset opponents to win the district championship title in a round robin district tournament held in Texline the latter part of last week.

The Elks lost in their bid for the bi-district title in a game with Spearman played at Stinnett Tuesday night. Stratford lost 53 to 33 although the game was much better than the score indicates with Spearman making only one more field goal than the Elks.

The Elk string team includes Melvin Mitts, forward; Jerry Galloway, forward; Richard McMinn, guard; Cagle Kendrick, guard; and Gary Steinberger, center. Bill Minkley, guard, Henry Harrison, guard, J. D. Plunk, forward, Tommy Lavake, forward, and James Spurlock, center, compose the second team of the Elk squad.

Melvin Mitts, Gary Steinberger and Richard McMinn were named on the all-district tournament team. Johnny George is the Elk coach.

In their first game of the district meet the Elks won over Channing 56 to 41. They paced Morse 40 to 30 in the second game. Texline dropped the Elks 49 to 45 in the third game. Hartley was nosed out 46 to 45 in the fourth game by the Elks. Again meeting Texline in the finals, the Elks swamped their opponents 44 to 36 for the district title.

THE Department of Justice recently closed the book on a story of war-time intrigue with the deportation to Germany of Hans Max Haupt.

Haupt was born in Germany in 1894 and came to this country in 1923. He was naturalized seven years later, lost his citizenship in 1944 when he was convicted of treason in the United States District Court in Chicago.

The dramatic events which led to the voiding of Hans Haupt's citizenship began in Germany. The story picked up in this country off the coast of Florida in 1942 when a German submarine landed four saboteurs—one of them Herbert Haupt, a son of Hans Haupt, of Chicago.

Herbert Haupt made his way directly to Chicago. Hans Haupt harbored his son, also purchased an automobile which the son proposed to use in his plans to carry out the sabotage assignment given him and the others by the German high command.

But Herbert Haupt, along with the three saboteurs landed with him in Florida (and four others landed elsewhere) were captured, tried and convicted by a Military Commission. Six of them, including Herbert Haupt, were electrocuted in 1942. The two others were given long prison sentences, later contingent upon their return to Germany. The same fate awaited Hans Haupt.

Convicted of treason in 1944, Hans Haupt was given a life sentence in the Danbury Federal Reformatory. Last October, he received a Presidential commutation which provided that his sentence expire "immediately upon his delivery by the Warden to Agents of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, duly authorized by the Attorney General, to receive him for the purpose of deportation."

The commutation provided that, should Haupt ever be found within the United States, or any Territory of place subject to its jurisdiction, he would be returned to prison for the completion of his sentence.

Thirty-five years after his arrival, Hans Haupt left American shores never to return again.

Washington observers believe that when its all over Congress will have voted a record amount of spending—way above and beyond the $74 billion budget outlined by the President.

With the successful launching of our first satellite, Congress is found in a mood to allocate more money for the type of defense spending that would be aimed at our getting a visible superiority over the Russians in both weapons and space achievements.

Ordinarily, an increase in defense spending might suggest a decrease in non-defense welfare allocations. But, observers indicate, this is an election year and during an election year welfare programs are more important than in other years.

TO CATCH A THIEF

By F. L. Rowley

RUMORS ARE NASTY THINGS. Some rumors, seemingly, are rooted in truth. When nourished carefully these can blossom overnight; they can blast a reputation faster than you can sneeze. It's a simple matter to find a blabbermouth to spread rumors. Most rumor-mongers work for nothing.

We had one in our town who was exceptionally good—for nothing. I'm not going to tell you the name of the town, because it might also be yours, and there's no sense in both of us being ashamed of it.

The rumor that follows concerns dogs.

G. Wozzles stole dogs. He stole dogs of assorted shapes and sizes. He turned them loose behind a high chain-link fence that surrounded his property. At the time I learned of G. Wozzles and his doggy business he had some twenty-nine animals yapping at passersby.

I work for the city. I was assigned to contact G. Wozzles and run to the sheriff's office with a signed confession.

After eyeing a phalanx of dogs for ten minutes I decided not to open G. Wozzles' gate. Perhaps I should sound out the neighbors first.

"It's about time the law is looking into this!" cried one old man as I showed my credentials. "This rustler has had things his way long enough!"

"Has anyone come up with a specific charge against him?"

The old man squinted. "You on his side?"

"Just getting the facts," I assured him.

"Name is Bates," said the old man. "Jim Bates."

"Well now, Mr. Bates, how long have you known G. Wozzles?"

"Used to be an honest town, this did," said Bates. "Remember once years back when some folks claimed the election was rigged.

Hah! A recount proved it to be the only honest election in the country.

"Tis so!" cried a portly woman wearing a babushka. "One crook like Wozzles don't ruin a town. Now if it was apples, that's—"

"Madam," I asked impatiently, "are you a neighbor of Wozzles?"

"I live on this street," she conceded.

"Have you ever heard of anyone complaining over the loss of a dog?"

"Of course not. He's shrewd. G. Wozzles is. He drives off in his station-wagon and steals dogs in other towns. Then when a reward is offered he runs to collect it."

"Can you prove this?"

She backed up to study me through frosty eyes. Then, in an aside to the old man, she hissed:

"He's with HIM all right."

A gate clanged behind him.

"What's the gathering for?"

asked a lean man with a wide mouth. "Say, you're new here!"

He said holding his hand out to me. "My name's G. Wozzle, sir."

Then, with a grin: "I steal dogs."

"You admit it?"

"That's what everyone says, ain't it?"

His eyes twinkled, then blinked at my credentials.

"Used to be a traveling veterinarian," he explained hastily, "then I took to boarding dogs. Like to meet some of 'em?"

"No thanks. Boarding dogs, you say? That's not what some of your neighbors think."

"Busybodies—bah! I got papers for every dog in the yard."

"Then I'll have to go elsewhere to catch a thief."

G. Wozzles laughed. We shook hands and I left.

And at the corner I passed a group of people with their heads together. Could it be that a new rumor was being launched? I shuddered.

Social Security Representative To Be Here March 5

Maurine Travis, social security field representative of the Amarillo office, will be at the courthouse in Stratford from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Wednesday March 5.

Self-employed people who are planning to file claim for social security benefits should bring copies of their 1957 tax return, including their Schedule C or Schedule F, plus a money-order stub, Internal Revenue receipt, or other evidence that the return was filed, according to John R. Sanderson, District Manager of the Amarillo Office of the Social Security Administration. The original of this return should be filed with the District Director of Internal Revenue.

Sanderson pointed out that it is expected that many self-employed persons who have reached retirement age (62 for women and 65 for men) will retire or limit their activities this year and apply for their social security benefits. He emphasized that the self-employed applicant's claim will be processed much sooner if he presents a copy of his income tax return, along with evidence that it has been filed with the Director of Internal Revenue.

Most people self-employed in a trade or business were covered by social security beginning with 1951 provided the annual net earnings are $400 or more. Net earnings from self-employment as an architect, professional engineer, accountant, or funeral director, are covered by the Law for taxable years ending after 1954. If you are a self-employed lawyer, dentist, osteopath, veterinarian, chiropractor, naturopath, or optometrist, your earnings for taxable years ending after 1955 will count toward social security benefits. The self-employed farmer is covered by the Law for taxable years ending after 1954, if his net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more in a year.

If you desire more information relating to old-age, survivors and disability insurance, you should contact your social security district office in Amarillo.

WOULD you believe it item: field mice spur waterfowl migration.

That's the story that came out of the Klamath Basin, the "waterfowl crossroads of the West" that straddles the Oregon-California boundary.

Last fall a swarm of lowly meadow mice took over the fields, stripping them of foodstuffs planted for ducks and geese, forcing thousands of waterfowl to hasten their migrational flight.

The greedy little rodents were not content merely to eat their fill—they stripped everything, putting away what they didn't eat for their winter stores. The waterfowl were replaced by Hawks and owls preying on the mice.

But wildlife people are not the only ones concerned. Farmers and public health authorities have been presented with a problem. Despite concentrated applications of poisons, the mice appear to be increasing.

Economic losses have been estimated at $5 million.

Tatoos for dogs: Some states, Arkansas for one, are offering a new dog license regulation which permits tattooing the owner's name and address in the dog's ear, rather than requiring that the animal wear a collar with a metal name tag attached.

Tattoo service is provided by pet shops or veterinarians and the tattooing process is said to be quick, painless and inexpensive.

For the do-it-yourselfer, there is also an inexpensive kit the owner can use to tattoo his own dog.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: American Cancer Fund and its unknown members, shareholders, officers, and representatives, and the persons who own stock or interests in and who constitute American Cancer Fund as an entity, corporation, association, firm, company or partnership, if it be any of such; and to the unknown devisee or devisees under a purported will of Clifford Mooers, deceased, dated September 24, 1956, admitted to probate in Kendall County, Texas, on December 10, 1956, and the unknown owners or claimants of any interest in the estate of such decedent or in any property standing in his name at the time of his death on November 13, 1956, including the lands and interests therein described in such suit and as described and identified in this citation, which are owned or claimed by such unknown claimants as devisee under such purported will, Defendants, each of whose identity and residence are unknown other than claimants American Cancer Society, Inc., a New York corporation, and American Cancer Society, Texas Division, Inc., a Texas corporation, who have been joined as defendants in such suit for personal service, GREETING:

You and each of you are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to plaintiff's petition before the Second 38th Judicial District Court of Kendall County, Texas, in the Courthouse in the City of Boerne, Kendall County, Texas, at or before ten o'clock a. m. on the Monday next following the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this citation, said Monday being the 17th day of March, 1958, and then and there to answer the original petition of Dolores Mooers, a widow, as plaintiff, filed in said court on the 30th day of January, 1958, against H. B. Fuqua as Independent Executor under a purported will of Clifford Mooers, deceased, and in which suit the other named defendants are those persons first named in this writ and to whom it is above directed, and other defendants to be cited personally are:

American Cancer Society, Inc., a New York corporation, and American Cancer Society, Texas Division, Inc., a Texas corporation, and Betty Nuss, Chester Green, R. J. Kelly, Mrs. Gladys Van Pelt, Genevieve Conroy, Ralph Dahlstrom, Swen Lundahl, Russell Baughman, Charley Molasky, Allan H. Ellington, Paul S. Oles, and Mrs. A. G. Koenig, as executrix under the will of A. G. Koenig, deceased, and the said Mrs. A. G. Koenig, a widow, and Elizabeth Koenig, a feme sole, as the only heirs of A. G. Koenig, deceased; John T. Claybourne, Frank Demus, Mrs. C. W. Farley (and husband, C. W. Farley), Tom Walters, Leonard Ward, Bruno Brandt, W. B. Davis, and John W. Clark, individually and as constituting and representative of that class of five-year employees given cash legacies of $500.00 each under the terms of such purported will of such decedent.

Said suit styled "Dolores Mooers, A Widow, v. H. B. Fuqua, Independent Executor, et al.," being numbered 1525 on the docket of such court and a brief statement of the nature of the suit being as follows:

Plaintiff seeking equitable review asks to set aside a settlement made with her husband, Clifford Mooers, dated May 1, 1956, and this Court's decree of approval entered the next day in cause No. 1464, styled "Ex Parte: Clifford Mooers and Wife, Dolores Mooers," recorded in the minutes, Vol. 6, p. 636, and asks an accounting and for a declaration fixing the identity of the residuary devisee under a purported will of such husband as admitted to probate December 10, 1956, in which suit it is claimed that plaintiff as the wife of such decedent for 27 years before his death was induced to consent to such property settlement and decree by the fraud of her husband and his agents, consisting of false representations and concealment of material facts as to the nature, extent and value of the community property and of plaintiff's true interest therein at such time, and because of further false promises to bequeath and on account of mistake induced by fraud of her said husband and coercion; and it is claimed that a fraud was also practiced by such decedent on this Court, and that the proceedings did not comply with Article 2624a.

It is further claimed in such suit that all or substantially all property in decedent's name at the time of such settlement and at the time of his death was community property, and that had the wife received those properties awarded to her in such settlement, such were greatly less than her share at such time, and such contract was grossly unjust and disadvantageous to her, but that there was further material fraud and deceit practiced on her as to those properties which it was recited she was to receive under such settlement because of failure of title and of consideration in material part and inability to deliver and failure to deliver personal property of the kind and value which it was represented such wife should receive.

Plaintiff offers to do equity and makes a continuing tender to restore that which she has received and asserts that due to her situation, inexperience, ignorance and deception she could not sooner have discovered such fraud and brought this action.

It is further claimed that since such husband's death the defendant H. B. Fuqua, acting as Independent Executor under the purported will of such husband, has come into possession of but has not distributed all of those properties which the husband wrongfully took under such settlement and decree and in which plaintiff had a continuing equitable ownership and interest, and that the other defendants are claiming to own or have some interest in such properties and estate as the respective cash legatees and residuary devisee under such purported will; and that among such properties are lands and interests in lands within the State of Texas including those described, listed and identified in such petition, including the following:

Over eight million American families own a pet parakeet which means that the colorful little talking birds have found perches in almost one-fifth of the homes in this country. This could indicate that the country is not going to the dogs, but is strictly for the birds!

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Mrs. F. A. F., Morenci, Michigan: I remember, way back — when a huckster came by our home selling groceries.

Mother sold eggs at six or eight cents per dozen and butter for ten or twelve cents per pound. If her produce came to more than her groceries cost, she had to take a "due bill" for the remainder and trade it out the next week.

Oats were thirteen cents per bushel and a farm hand that was paid twelve or fifteen dollars a month was making real money.

Many a time I have walked two and one-half miles to our little country post office for our mail or to post a letter and our only newspaper came twice a week. Even telephones were unknown throughout the rural districts.

Those who could afford it had rag carpets on their living room floors and straw was used for padding.

The mothers and grown-up daughters (if they had one), did the washing with a tub and wash board. They carried the water from a cug well after drawing it up with a pail and rope.

Sometimes, though, the old rain barrel supplied them with soft water to use.

Those were the "good old days" you hear about. Remember? But, I'll take the good days that we now have.

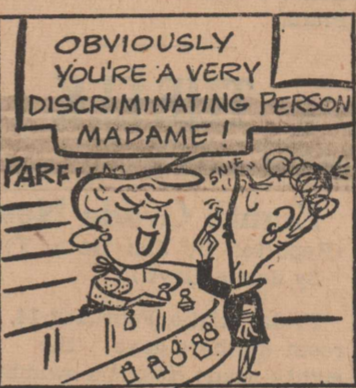

CANCER RESEARCHER... American Cancer Society granted $587,344 fund to supply life income to Dr. Paul Talalay, 34, to do cancer research at University of Chicago.

The average American spends about $410 a year for food — or about $1.12 each day. He consumes 356 pounds of milk at a total average cost of $43.60 in one year. In other words, 10.6 cents out of every food dollar is spent for milk.

Indian tribesmen believe that old elephants never die, because elephant carcasses are so rarely seen. Actually, animal remains of any kind are seldom found in Indian forests, thanks to clean-up squads of ants, vultures, jackals, and hyenas.
