

FFA Boys Evaluate Practical Training

(By Karl Kirkwood and Jimmy Cameron)

Linear programming, a new tool recently developed to aid farmers in determining enterprise combinations which would return them the greatest net income from a given operation is being applied to some of the farms in our county. During the first semester, we in Agriculture IV studied linear programming, as applied to our county, and learned that marketing our grain sorghum through cattle and hogs might increase the net income from our farm operations.

Each year the farmer finds it more difficult to get a fair net profit from his farming operation. The Doane survey made of the county showed that there were no new crops that could be introduced at this time, so we must use the resources we have at hand. Present conditions would indicate that the farmer, in order to improve his standard of living, must use the resources he has in a different way. It is our opinion, that the feeding of beef cattle and hogs might improve this situation.

Our local F.F.A. Chapter has for the past five years, carried on a dry-lot beef cattle feeding program. We now have 76 Hereford steers on full feed in the chapter. We two boys won eleven of these steers and are feeding for the third year. There is a total of fifteen F.F.A. members taking part in the program this year.

The training that we have received in this program has been beneficial to us, for we feel that we have learned how to feed and take care of the cattle. Among the many things learned from this program are: how to select feeder cattle, dealing with purchase contracts, how to get a loan, disease and parasite control, figuring rations, getting cattle on full feed, keeping cattle on full feed, market-cattle, grading cattle and last but not least, record keeping. This program has given us the self confidence needed by a feeder. We feel that after graduation from high school, should the opportunity present itself, we could feed a large number of cattle with complete confidence.

After graduation from high school this spring, we may never have the chance to use the skill of feeding cattle. However the experience we have gained in dealing with others, making decisions will help us in any profession we might go into in the future.

Commercial Feeder To Speak March 8

McMurry Chanters To Sing In Stratford March 2

Talented McMurry College Chanters of Abilene will appear in the Stratford School auditorium at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, March 2.

Organized the year McMurry College first opened its doors, 1923, the Chanters are especially adept at providing spiritual, secular and religious music.

In addition to their fall and spring semester tours, the Chanters often appear before civic, service and church organizations, and perform in churches and high schools in the immediate Abilene vicinity.

This is the 74th observance of World Day of Prayer which began in 1887. On the first Friday in Lent, thousands of Christians around the world will be united in a service of prayer and thanksgiving in 60 languages and 1,000 dialects. Services begin on the Tonga Islands, west of the International Date Line, there Queen Salote leads her subjects in prayer. Throughout the day observances are held in 145 countries on six continents, ending with the setting sun on St. Lawrence Island, Alaska.

Any cattle, perhaps any livestock, shipped from an area that is not brucellosis-free must be tested at the owner's expense whenever they move across any state line. This is federal law.

Even when being shipped to some other point in the same state, they would have to be tested at the owner's expense if they were going into an area certified brucellosis-free.

These tests can get into quite an expense for the livestock owner.

Gordon Fedric Scheduled For Overseas Duty

Gordon Fedric will report to Fort Dix, New Jersey on April 15 for embarkment for duty with the U. S. Army in Europe.

Public Schools Week will be climaxed with the annual program to be held at the school building Thursday, March 3. Plans have been completed for the annual band smorgasbord and concert. The dinner will be served in the school cafeteria from 5:00 until 7:00 p. m. by the ladies of the Stratford Band Boosters Club.

A concert which will be presented by the Junior High and Senior High Bands will open in the auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Approximately 120 students will participate in the program.

The program is planned in conjunction with Public Schools Week and will afford all visitors an opportunity to visit the school both before and after the program.

Proceeds from the dinner will go to the high school band to help finance the trip to the Tri-State Music Festival at Enid, Oklahoma and to help finance band awards. No admission will be charged for the concert.

The program planned for the convenience of the public for Thursday, March 3, is Smorgasbord dinner in the cafeteria from 5:00 until 7:00; Visitation of classrooms from 6:30 until 7:30; band concert in the auditorium from 7:30 until 8:30; and visitation of the class rooms from 8:30 until 9:00.

The public is cordially invited to attend both the dinner and the concert.

Brucellosis Is Costly For Cattlemen

Dr. C. M. Patterson, Texas Extension Service veterinarian of College Station, said today that there are many reasons for fighting the serious livestock plague of brucellosis.

The disease also attacks humans under the name of human brucellosis or undulant fever. His talks at meetings in the Texas Panhandle were devoted to telling of the dangers of the disease, its needless cost to stockmen, and what can be done about it.

Even when being shipped to some other point in the same state, they would have to be tested at the owner's expense if they were going into an area certified brucellosis-free.

These tests can get into quite an expense for the livestock owner.

But if an area is certified brucellosis-free, livestock from that area can be shipped anywhere without the owner having to pay any testing charges.

Dr. Patterson stated that probably more than five percent of Texas beef cattle carry the disease. As a result, marketing of Texas cattle has become more difficult. The reason for this is that more than half of the counties in the U. S. are now modified certified brucellosis free areas.

Keep in the rut too long and you'll dig your own grave.

FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS

The Matter Of Being Respectful

By C. D. Smith

THIS WEEK'S LETTER: "We teenagers are constantly hearing about the fact that we don't show the proper respect for our elders. My question is, 'How can you show respect to people who always treat you like you were still in diapers?' They say, 'Hey, you,' or 'Hey, boy,' and every time you turn around they say you are doing something you're too young to do. If grownups treated teenagers better, they would get more respect."

OUR ANSWER: We must start off by agreeing. Many grownups do not conduct themselves in a manner that merits respect. We believe, however, that they are a minority and that teenagers should not judge the entire adult world by the few that have no manners, or "raising" as they said down on the farm.

Look at it this way: if teenagers become displeased with the man who operates the ice cream parlor on the corner, they don't stop eating ice cream and sipping milk. They take their business elsewhere. By the same token, if some grownups don't "earn" respect, it doesn't mean that teenagers should lose all respect for their elders.

Actually, if you are observant, you will see that showing respect for those older than ourselves is something that goes through life with us all. Are not our grandparents entitled to a very dignified type of respect? We may have children of our own, but do we not still profess the same type of respect for our parents that we require for our children?

"Age is wisdom" someone said. We may not entirely agree, but we must concede that youth must look to elders for example, for guidance—and for wisdom. If youth has no respect for age, and wisdom, then youth thinks too much for itself.

It may be quite difficult for a teenager to show respect to a parent or elderly person who is cross, rude, or difficult to get along with. But we suggest that, just for a little while the teenager meet rudeness with politeness and respect—and see what wonders might be accomplished with this change in tactics.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, NATIONAL WEEKLY NEWSPAPER SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

Her visit to Stratford has been planned by the Woman's Society of Christian Service to follow up a recent study of Africa. At present the church is also having a church-wide study of medical missions in Africa and other lands taught by R. W. Standefer Jr. The course of study is informative and timely. Those taking part in either study will be interested in hearing Mrs. Coffee, and those who have not made a particular study of Africa will find her observations and experiences fascinating and thought provoking. The public is welcome to attend the service.

State Capital Highlights

(By Vern Sanford)

With an eye on the growing cost of government and need for new taxes, a committee from the Texas Senate has launched an economy study.

Overall state budget for the present two-year spending period is $328,000,000 more than for the previous two-year period. It was an increase of about 11 per cent. There is every indication that the next Legislature will be faced with demands to raise salaries and expand and improve state services in approximately the same proportion.

Some of the cost increase is attributed to sheer quantity. With Texas population increasing an estimated 26 per cent from 1950-60, there are more youngsters to educate, more patients for state hospitals, more cars wearing out the roads.

More significantly, the percentages of oldsters and youngsters is increasing faster than the percentage of middle-aged people. Older and younger people generally up revenue needs, for welfare benefits and schooling, but contribute less in taxes than income earning middle-agers.

Some of the increase in costs results from a drive for quality, better schools, hospitals and highways.

With undeniable money needs so great, the Senate committee was set up to seek out any indications of extravagances or waste and "see if we are getting our dollar's worth for the money we're spending."

As a starter, the committee, headed by Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney, agreed to hold its own expense to the bare minimum.

Bridges Too Low

State Highway Department Engineers are faced with the task of re-designing bridges for the interstate highways to conform with a U. S. Defense Department requirement for a 16-foot clearance.

Texas has 254 bridges in the interstate system which do not meet the newly announced overhead clearance requirement.

U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, which works with the Highway Department in planning the joint federal and state road system, has specified only a 14.5 foot clearance.

Bridges cost approximately $140,000 apiece, and re-designing to meet the new standards would cost about 55 per cent of the original cost. By-passes for transport of missiles and other defense equipment are being considered.

Texas' need for more mental hospital space has focused attention on the number of state mental hospital beds occupied by persons not mentally ill.

"Senility is not insanity," said the governor, "and a concerted effort must be made to enable these aged citizens to be cared for in nursing homes or in their own homes."

Ammonia increases maize, wheat yields

W. O. GROVES of Spearman, Tex. reports maize yield up to 97.5 bu. per acre with 100 lbs. ammonia.

"A pre-plant application of 100 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia helped make an average of 97.5 bushels of maize per acre. Wheat has averaged 41.3 bushels per acre following pre-plant application of 75 pounds ammonia," according to W. O. Groves, who farms 480 irrigated acres.

"For several years Phillips 66 Ammonia has been used successfully. I'm stepping up my rate of application each year. Even on dryland wheat, in years with very little rain, Phillips Ammonia has produced up to 10 extra bushels per acre," he says. Thousands of Texas farmers are now using Phillips 66 Ammonia to help assure top net profits per acre—on irrigated or dryland fields . . . in wet or dry years. Actual field reports prove that Phillips 66 Ammonia (1) produces more high grade lint (2) increases sorghum grain yields (3) boosts wheat and small grain yields (4) stimulates pasture growth for more meat and milk. Cuba Accepts Communistic Penetration Senator Lyndon B. Johnson says that the communist conspiracy to invade the Western Hemisphere "took its biggest step forward" in the signing of a commercial agreement between the Soviet Union and Cuba.

Johnson described the arrangement as "more than a simple commercial agreement." "There is a question of economic penetration," he said. "And one of the most interesting facts is that Mikoyan made it clear at a press conference that the $100 million loan would be accompanied by Soviet technicians who would help the Cubans." "This is one of the classical patterns of communist penetration. There is nothing new in the story except for one very basic and important fact—it has happened right at our doorstep."

Wild rice harvesting is a million-dollar business along the upper reaches of the Mississippi River in Minnesota. The grain has long been a staple food of Indians, who are chief harvesters. A team of two, poling through marshes, can reap several hundred pounds a day.

pastured on stubble or wheat until the first of the year. At this time they were penned and the feeding program began. The boys now have their steers on a full feed ration consisting of milo, bundles and a supplement consisting of protein, vitamin A and aureomycin. Plans call for a feeding period of 130 to 140 days.

As a climax to this project, it is hoped that the boys who are feeding in this program will have the opportunity to accompany the cattle to market. On this trip, they will study the marketing and grading of cattle, as well as visit other points of interest in the city where the cattle are slaughtered. In the past years, the boys have been to Pueblo, Colorado and Oklahoma City with their cattle.

Local FFA members feeding in this program are: Keith Borth, Ronnie Pickens, Hal Bennett, Jimmy Cameron, Stephen Cleavinger, Charles Clements,

Increase Shop Work

Karl Kirkwood, president of the local FFA chapter, reports that fourth year students have taken full advantage of their welding program in the shop this year. Students have made many useful welded projects in addition to improving their skills in welding and wood working.

Some of the larger and more important projects include Hal

Bennett's portable loading chute, Karl Kirkwood's seven foot two barrel hay rack, Ernie Dyess' two barrel hay rack, Jimmy Cameron's ten foot pipe gate, Neil Harris' set of stock racks and many other smaller projects.

The agriculture III and I boys have also been in the shop for the past six weeks, and have produced many worthwhile projects of both wood and metal.

FUTURE FARMERS CELEBRATE WEEK

The Texas Association of Future Farmers of America is composed of over 36,000 boys in 905 FFA chapters in Texas. During the week, February 20-27, these boys are celebrating National FFA Week, during which time chapters throughout the state are publicizing and explaining FFA work.

To be a Future Farmer, a boy must first have enrolled in a vocational agriculture class to receive instruction in farm crops, livestock, poultry, farm mechanics, parliamentary procedure and current farm problems.

The FFA was organized on a national level during 1928 and in Texas in 1929. It was born to assist deserving students become established in their farming projects, to promote and stimulate agriculture leadership, to develop public interest in vocational agriculture, and to provide prizes and awards for students achieving distinction in various phases of agriculture.

FFA members, through active participation in chapter activities, also learn how to conduct and take part in public meetings, how to speak in public, how to solve their own problems, and how to assume civic responsibilities. The foundation upon which the FFA organization is built includes the development of agriculture leadership, citizenship, and cooperation.

The FFA is a non-profit, non-political farm youth organization with voluntary membership. It constitutes one of the most efficient agricultural teaching devices that has been discovered up to the present time. It is 100 percent American in its outlook, has no outside affiliation, and there is no secrecy in connection with any of its activities.

It is organized vocational education on a farm youth level. Improved agriculture, better local communities, a more satisfying farm home life, and more efficient farmer-citizens are emerging as a result of the boys' experiences.

Duard Lamb is the Stratford vocational agriculture teacher.
