RELIGION IN RUSSIA.

Religious freedom is one of the issues in the negotiations between the United States and the Soviet Union looking to American recognition of the communist confederation...

Protests against American recognition of Russia have been made by numerous religious bodies, demanding that Russia rescind its dictum against freedom of religious conscience and of worship.

SPACE TAKEN UP

The question that lurks in the mind of the individualist as he doubtfully views the revolutionary unrest and national reorganizations now filling the columns of the newspapers...

In Italy Mussolini has progressed with a national reorganization that subordinates the citizen, conceives of no justice where the mass is served.

Our own nation seems headed toward a period of fiat economic domination and long range planning. It is conceivable that we shall be each subordinated to a system of allocation of opportunity and land, forming little pins and cogs in a great economic machine planned to run in spite of heavenly will and high water.

It is going to take a very responsive form of government and a lot of education to put over that sort of a national program.

EXCHANGE NEWS.

Several letters have come to the editor of the Howl from neighboring schools expressing the wish of exchanging school papers weekly. In this way we may be able to show other schools the ideals, standards, and principles on which our school is based and make friends with other schools through our paper. It also may be beneficial to them if our paper is good, as it will aid us if their paper is good. However, since our space is limited and our paper is within a paper, we can publish very little exchanged news, but we may exchange ideas and are glad to do so.

STAND ALONE

A prominent newspaper columnist says that we must learn to stand alone. Success and happiness can not be achieved through someone else, but through our own efforts. For the time being we may hold to others and depend on them, but eventually those on whom we depend will fail us. Then we must learn to do our own thinking and accomplish our work alone. We may reach for a helping hand but none will be there and we will have to suffer the consequences which are bitter to face alone.

Youth is the time to learn not to depend on others for what we can do ourselves. Now is the time to learn that lesson so that we might profit by it. Remember that a habit formed early in life is hard to break in later years.

Some say that you are what you can make people think you are, but this is not true for some day in some mysterious way "Your deeds will find you out." It is impossible to fool the world and we had better be very cautious in trying.

We can learn to stand alone by doing our own work at school by ourselves, by depending on knowledge of our own and not our neighbor. If we could only learn that much more will be gained by fair play and that receiving knowledge from someone else is not a manly or intelligent thing to do, how much better the standard of our school would be than it is at present. It is an unpleasant situation that must be done away with and we alone can do it.

Do we not feel any pride in what is our very own whether it is as good as the next fellows? What a shameful thing if we do not! We would condemn a thief, but do we condemn the same thing when it comes to our own practices? Cheating is yellow and cowardly.

Listen and take heed. "We must learn to stand alone."

Honor Roll For First Six Weeks

Those making 90 or above on every subject for the first six-weeks are:

Seniors: Ilene Webster and Ralph Nance.
Juniors: Mary Catherine Donohoe.
Sophomores: Louelyn Clark.
Freshmen: Margaret Hageman.
Those whose grades averaged 90 above are:

Seniors: Marion Waters, Tenella Nance, Georgiana Spruill, Julian Ely and Marcia Mobley.
Juniors: Annie M. Throop, Mercie Clark, Muriel Whitaker, Melba Ray, Mary Spruill, Mable Halbert, and Cecil Hudson.
Sophomores: Kathryn Wagley, La Rue Ely, La Verne Dill, and Flora Bacon.
Freshmen: Jimmie Rominger, Nellie Sanders, Noma King, Bill Donohoe, and Evatt Horn.

AUDITORIUM COMMITTEE NAMED

The auditorium committee was named in Assembly, Monday, November 13. The student representatives are: Glenna Moad, senior, chairman, Bernice Mae Blumbers, junior, Victor Lawson, sophomore, Ila Phyllis Ryles, freshman. The faculty members are: Miss Chambliss, Miss Watson and Mrs. Irby.

The duty of this committee is to supply suitable chapel programs for the activity periods each week. Mr. Brandon gave them a few days to prepare the first one and everybody is looking forward to Friday and a good program.

Loboes Lose Hard Game to Bulldogs

The Loboes lost a hard fought grid-battle in the most thrilling game that has been played at Chesley Field in many years. The outcome of the game was decided in the second quarter when a pass from St. John to Harrison was intercepted by Grey who ran 80 yards for a touchdown. Anderson kicked the point.

In the last quarter Timmons recovered a fumble on Ranger's 35 yard line. The Loboes, through straight football, drove to the one yard line where Shackelford caught a fumble in mid air and plunged over. McMahon missed the point after touchdown.

Caffery, who has not played since the McMurry game was undoubtedly the best defensive man on the field. Special mention should be given Page, Graves, Blackburn, Brown, and McMahon for their all around performance. Barker and Harrison did the best offensive work; Barker being the most effective ball runner of either team while in the game.

Our next game will be with Abilene, Thanksgiving Day at Abilene.

Freshman Class Has Chapel Program

Wednesday of "Fresh Week" the freshman were asked to take charge of the chapel program. They responded to the request with the following numbers:

Piano solo—"Flower Song"—Frank Yarger.
Talk—"Books"—Noma King.
Reading—"A Request"—Dorothy J. Walker.
Presentation of books and magazines to C. H. S. Library—Noma King.
Piano Solo—Verlie Wood.
Fun—Billy Donohoe.

The program was concluded with the presentation of the freshman selections from the senior class for:

Best Sportsman—L. A. Harrison.
Smartest Boy—Melvin Lawson.
Handsomest—Billy Rutledge.
Most Beautiful—Tenella Nance.
Most conceited—Judson Russell.
Most Unruly—"Bub" Waters.
Biggest Joke—Catherine Collins.
Most Artistic—Bobby Kilpatrick.
Most Popular—Laura Wilson.
The Freshman Ideal—Delmar Borman.

GREENHAND INITIATION

The initiation of Greenhands in the Cisco chapter of P. F. A. took place Wednesday night, November 8, at the high school.

The ceremonies were carried on by Future Farmers, Mr. Bird, and Mr. Brandon who assisted with the board, Mr. Clark was also present. Following the initiation ceremonies a chili supper was served.

The following Greenhands were initiated: Julian Flaherty, Crandall Jones, Billie Wallace, Buster Martin, Roy Moad, Lynn Robertson, Carl Siddall, Jack Stephenson, George Siedge, John St. John, Lloyd Witten, Arthur Barker, Burns Brown, Brooke Pierce, and Lyle and Bob Whittan.

LIBRARY CLIPPINGS

The library is indebted to the Cisco Floral company for a number of beautiful pot-plants—blooming plants, and to the members of the freshman class for five books and more than twenty magazines.

For such interest manifested in the beauty of our library, Cisco high school is deeply grateful.

Earl Akire donated four copies of Popular Mechanics.

PRESS CLUB

At the meeting of the Press club last Tuesday, week ago, assigned topics were given, and the "Howl" was discussed.

Catherine Russell gave a talk on Feature Stories, and Mrs. Irby talked about Editorials and Sports Stories.

THE MOTHER OF C. H. S.

Here's to the mother of Cisco High.

The leader of the black and gold—Who's faithful and true the whole year through.
And is always for us in all that we do.
She's ever willing to work for our school.
With a faith in our Loboes that never shall die.
There's a place in each heart she will always hold.
This is the mother of Cisco High—Mrs. Irby.

—Mary Davis and she-meshit MARY DAVIS and LA VERNE PURVIS.

CHILDREN'S COLDS

Yield quicker to double action of VICKS VAPORUB.

STAINLESS STEEL

CALENDAR

Tuesday—November 7—Club meetings. The Choral club and Glee club are practicing on the operetta.

Wednesday—November 8—The freshmen look so cute wearing the glove. What's the idea in wearing just one glove?

Friday—November 10—Good pep rally in chapel. Tomorrow is the big day—Oh—Where did the Fish get all the boxes, bags, brooms, etc.?

Saturday—November 11—Armistice day and football game with Ranger. It's a shame we lost the game to Ranger by one point, but it was one grand game!

Monday—November 13—The football game is being played and re-played in the minds of the C. H. S. students.

New H. E. Members Given Initiation

The Home Economic club met last Wednesday night at the high school for the purpose of initiating new members. The new girls appeared dressed in short dresses and hair-ribbons, went through a short ceremony, and made their pledges for membership. Then came the real fun! Those girls did everything from eating marsh-mallows rolled in soda to rooting soap with their noses. They were all sports however, and even "the doctor's" quinine didn't daunt them. After all the "tortures" were over the old members served refreshments of cocoa and san-tar-tis with small American flags as favors to the obedient new members, while the others were politely ignored. Before leaving all the new members were branded with the red-hot H. E. C. iron across their forehead, and were told to wear the "scar" the rest of the week.

TO A FRESHMAN

Oh freshman how we envy you
With four more years in Cisco high
And all the things you'll get to do.
Before that time goes by.

We look back on our freshman year
And with a tear we sigh
For days we can't recall
In dear old Cisco High.
LA VERNE PURVIS.

RECREATION COMMITTEE MEETS

The junior class recreation committee met Wednesday afternoon after school. Plans are being made for a class party, but football games have kept us from having it the last two weeks, and it may be postponed until after football season.

Here an' There

Loboes, we are proud of you. You played a game Saturday that any school would be proud of. Remember Loboes, win or lose we are behind you till the last whistle blows.

Now the seniors understand why Miss Chambliss looks so tired at the end of the week. We spent one week trying to make freshmen do things for us. May we extend our sympathy to Miss Chambliss for the rest of the school term.

Loyalty often brings to us some of our ex-students. Velma Morrison and Quincy Lee told us Friday that they were for us in every way. It makes us feel good to know that our ex-es are still "that way" about C. H. S.

Faces Forward! Who's gonna pluck those Eagles Turkey-day?

Jack Smith of Breckenridge was a visitor Friday afternoon.

Delpha Mae and Ruby are learning to march. They spent all Friday afternoon learning to turn corners like the band does—but what success! Try again!

Edna Cooles spent the week-end in Fort Worth.

The operetta cast is working hard. They say it's going to be better than the one last year.

Word has been received that Miss Alma Wells is attending Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Minnie Mae Notgrass and Hazel Swink were C. H. S. visitors Friday.

Mrs. "Big" Edwards, who do enjoy your pep talks so much. What Cisco high school needs is more friends like you.

Such a talented freshman class! Their program Wednesday was plenty good. Let's have another one soon.

Cecil Hudson is wondering if he will have to spend the rest of his days in detention hall. Personally we think so—if there is any gum left to chew—

Dixie Bills and a group of Randolph students attended the "Sham battle" in Ranger Saturday night.

Mr. Chambliss, Fay Clark and Margaret Cogswell were visitors in C. H. S. this week.

The seniors wish to thank all the freshmen who co-operated so nicely carrying out freshmen week. We only hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

Happy to see Laura Wilson's ankle is well enough for her to be back in school. We missed you Laura.

Ilenes Inklings

Wanted—Some brains—Any brand will do—Miss Dial's commercial arithmetic class.

Didn't our band look pretty Saturday all dressed up in those new sweaters and caps?

Mrs. Dick Brian and Miss Old Perdue were visitors Friday.

Please help us out and put things in the "Howl" box.

Frederica Pollard of Holloway visited in Cisco during the week-end.

Burns Brown may go "West"—anyway as far as Sweetwater. We think for his health.

Miss Joyce Ray, ex-student was married on Friday at 6:30 to Lowell Montgomery. They will make their home in Stella, Nebraska.

Wanted—Somebody to wash my car—Miss Chambliss.

Bruce Smithenson, of Breckenridge was a visitor Friday.

Beulah Mae Taylor and Mildred Faye Farmer came to see us Friday.

It was with real regret that we said "goodbye" to Olin Odom Monday. Since Olin is a Methodist minister's son he has to live here and there—and now is there! Hope you find lots of friends in Midlothian, Olin, but don't forget C. H. S.

Bryan Lee Winston's off to a bad start; he went courtin' Saturday night, and Sunday morning the car had to be cranked because of a dead battery. Tut! Tut! My boy, this will not do!

Mr. Cluck has gone and done it again. Yeah, you guessed it, another week; it's getting to be a habit with him; eh-what?

Miss Dial was in such a hurry Friday afternoon! She was telling another faculty member Monday that "she had the grandest time!" We gather that she did not miss the train! Austin is a nice place, too!

OUT OUR WAY.

One Sure Way to End Coughs and Colds

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, and attacks the seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if your cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion.—Adv.

Ilene's Inkings

The theory that time flies evidently doesn't hold true here at school several of the wall clocks have been pointing to the same hour for the past five or six years. Something really should be done about it for it might give visitors the wrong impression and this isn't a slow school at all.

We're all sorry about losing the game Saturday but nevertheless we must not let it affect the fighting spirit of the team and the fans. It's up to the students of C. H. S. to see to it that the pep does not die down. Are we going to fall down on our job? No! No! A thousand times no!—Winning or losing we're behind the Loboes.

Don't let jangled nerves rob you of poise

Foot tapping... table drumming... just can't sit still... Immediately you brand such a person as lacking in poise... "jittery." Foot tapping is a definite sign of jangled nerves... nerves out of tune.

Watch your nerves. Get your full amount of sleep every night. Eat regularly and sensibly. Find time for recreation. And smoke Camels—for Camel's costlier tobaccos never get on your nerves.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand of cigarettes!

MRS. ODOM HONORED BY M. E. SOCIETY.
Mrs. O. Odom, who is leaving this week to make her home in Michigan, was honored yesterday afternoon by members of the Methodist Missionary society at a meeting in the home of Mrs. S. H. Nance on West Seventh street. All circles met in a joint session for a voice program. Mrs. John Shertzer gave the devotional and Mrs. P. Pettit led in prayer. An entertaining program was given. Vocal solos were given by Tommy Ross Bailey and Mrs. Wyatt Jacobs. Mrs. Jacobs was accompanied by Mrs. W. B. Statham. Marilyn Shertzer rendered a piano number. At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Neal Turner made an appropriate talk and presented Mrs. Odom with a large box of lovey gifts.

Mrs. Johnny Cox and Mrs. Shertzer were hostesses with Mrs. Nance for this delightful affair. Rooms of the Nance home were attractively decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Neal Turner presided at the tea table, which was laid with a beautiful lace cloth over green. Fruit cookies and macaroon

Thursday
The Should-da club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Van Gardenhire, 805 West Eighteenth street.

Friday
Mrs. Raby Miller will entertain the Entre Nous club Friday afternoon at her home on West Eighteenth street.

The Twentieth Century club will meet in regular session Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the club room at the Library building.

They were served with the tea. There were about thirty-five guests in attendance.

MRS. HARRISON HOSTESS TO CIRCLE.
The W. M. Burnside circle of the Baptist W. M. S. met yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. A. Harrison. Mrs. Leon Mamer, chairman, presided. During the business period, a report on the worker's conference at Moran was given by Mrs. P. P. Shepard, and Mrs. W. P. Walker gave a report on the Baptist state convention recently held at Ft. Worth. Mrs. Asa Skiles made a plea in regard to the car which is to be sent to Buckner's Orphan's home in Dallas. The car of wearing apparel, and food of all kinds is to be loaded in Cisco on November 27. Donations will be made by members of the Cisco churches as well as people in the surrounding communities. The lesson on the second chapter of James was taught by Mrs. Asa Skiles.

The hostess served refreshments of pineapple cheese sandwiches, cookies, and hot tea with orange slices during the social hour to Mesdames H. Brandon, Asa Skiles, W. F. Walker, G. B. Langston Aubrey, Foster, P. P. Shepard, Leon Mamer, and T. House.

MRS. MAYHEW RECEIVES SERVICE PIN.
The Woodmen Circle No. 336, met in a called session last evening at the W. O. W. hall. The meeting was called to order by the Guardian, Mrs. Maud Wisdom, who asked Mrs. Kate Richardson to take charge. Mrs. Richardson presented Mrs. Effie Mayhew with a ten year service pin as serving in the capacity of financial secretary for that period. Mrs. Richardson has the honor of being a twenty-five year member.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments of cake and coffee were served to Mesdames R. D. Jones, Iva Harper, Maud Wisdom, A. Clark, H. C. Wippert, Katie Cooper, E. S. Bond, Kate Richardson, Effie Mayhew, Miss Lucie Harper, Sarah Mayhew, Bobbie Lee Cooper, and Norma Jones and Leonard Mayhew.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—Dr. Rex Tugwell, No. 1 man of the Brain Trust, is embarked on a labor of love.

Food and drug law reform wasn't just a problem which fell into his lap when Mr. Roosevelt made him assistant secretary for agriculture. Tugwell reached out and embraced it.

He had an active, studious interest in protection of consumers from physical harm or swindle by dishonest makers of patent medicines, foods, and cosmetics. He was a friend of F. J. Schlink, co-author of the sensational "100,000,000 Guinea Pigs," and a backer of the Schlink-directed Consumers' Research, which informs folks on how to get their money's worth—if any—in everything they buy, from pink pills to automobiles.

The Food and Drug Administration here had sought curbs on misleading claims for years. No support came from higher up.

Tugwell promptly worked out the pure food and drug bill sponsored by Senator Copeland of New York. Under his inspiration, the Agriculture Department, against opposition from many medicine makers, began an extraordinarily intensive campaign for the legislation.

Tugwell made a sound, moving speech, reproduced locally and referred to by name—to an eye-bash dye alleged to have blinded people. Dozens of Washington beauty parlor operators wrote for information. Many were using that dye on their customers.

The department, held under Tugwell, promptly issued a press release calling the preparation by name.

NRA staff loyalty rates high. Oscar Chapman, overworked assistant secretary of the interior, gazed over a pile of documents. "Haven't time to read 'em all, but I must. If I go to jail for NRA, I want to know why," he jested. But he didn't go to jail. He's gone to the hospital. "High fever, run-down by overwork," was the doctor's verdict.

GENERAL JOHNSON'S thorough agreement with the Gerard Swope plan for turning over NRA to industry for operation was modified drastically at the behest of newspapermen who didn't believe the administrator meant what he said.

The newspapermen probably just beat the White House to it. Johnson's second statement next morning made it plain that no abandonment of government supervision was contemplated.

Workers past 50 are not ready for the scrapheap. That's the verdict of Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, she studied the new civil service rule favoring applicants over 40. "I've found workers over 50 capable, efficient, with valuable, mature judgment, better disciplined, less subject to turnover," she said. She favors a balance between younger and older workers in office and industry.

ganda, but after, not before, recognition. America insisted on Russia's yielding in these disputes as the price of recognition. For 10 years both remained obstinate.

The long period of diplomatic non-intercourse between America and Russia has resulted in some novel practices and institutions. For instance, the Soviet Union, for 12 years had in Washington an "unofficial ambassador." His name is Boris Skvirsky and his title, chief of the soviet Russian information bureau.

Officially, the state department is unaware that Skvirsky exists. Unofficially, he is frequently consulted on matters relating to the Soviet Union. He never has visited the secretary of state, but he frequently enters the state department unobtrusively and slips upstairs to see the chief of the Eastern European division, who handles Russian affairs.

Skvirsky is a colorful character. A Russian Jew of 46, he was exiled to Siberia by Tzar Nicholas. In 1913 he escaped fled to Australia. He returned to Russia after the revolution.

The first formal bid for recognition was made by Foreign Minister Chicherin of Russia in 1923. He sent a telegram to Washington suggesting that his government was prepared to discuss all outstanding issues between the Soviet Union and the United States. Secretary of State Hughes did not reply directly, but issued a public statement, cut in tone, which was presented to the soviet representative at Reval by the U. S. consul there.

Question Is Deadlocked

Thus the question of Russian-American relations was deadlocked until Mr. Roosevelt decided recently to cut boldly into the problem. Russia was willing to discuss confiscated property, debts, and propaganda.

Thereafter, intercourse with Russia ceased completely, and the allied and associated powers, acting through the supreme council, sought to isolate Russia economically.

Tired of Europe

In America, the republican administration of Warren G. Harding entered office in 1921. Tired of war and European bickering, it turned away, so far as possible, from foreign problems, and ignored Russia. Boris Bekhmeteff, stayed on in his 16th Street embassy, representing a government which did not exist, but recognized by the state department as the Russian ambassador. He remained until 1923.

ENDS and backs who have to go down for passes get quite a few hard knocks from opponents on pass defense who, too often, are out to get the receiver rather than the ball. Of course, illegal interference is promptly penalized when seen by the official, but a penalty will in no way save the injured.

Receivers, therefore, should be taught how to "take it"—how to go up after a pass, get knocked down hard, and still be able to get up.

Relax from the waist up and have the arms and the body soft and liquid. Waste must be relaxed and the hands and arms should be set, although not tensed, to gather in the ball when it reaches the passer.

If knocked down, a relaxed body gets bruised much less quickly than a tensed one.

Sketch shows the way to catch a pass.

Airplane Lines-- U. S.-Russian---

Airplane Lines--
confer a distinct advantage upon Canadian steamship companies for two reasons.

(1) The Canadian route will be somewhat shorter than the American and will offer faster service to New York and other centers.

(2) The Canadian route can be made safe for airplanes by the installation of direction stations, landing fields, lighting systems, whereas the American route calls for a direct flight from either New York or Boston, to St. John's Newfoundland, largely across water.

U. S.-All-Air Route

It is understood that United States aviation interests do not regard this impending development with enthusiasm. They have urged the immediate organization of the far northern all-air route from Cochrane, Ont., northeast along the shore of Hudson Bay, across Hudson Strait to Baffin Island, thence to Greenland, Iceland and then down to Europe.

Both Canadian and British interests have opposed this. Their reasons are that it is not economically feasible at this time. For the bulk of the inter-continental travelers the determining factors in competition routes are safety and comfort. These will not be sacrificed for the saving of a small amount of time.

The proposed British-Canadian air-water route would give a three and one-half day service between London and Montreal in summer and about four days in winter. It is doubted whether the Arctic route could clip more than a few hours of time.

Question Is Deadlocked

Thus the question of Russian-American relations was deadlocked until Mr. Roosevelt decided recently to cut boldly into the problem. Russia was willing to discuss confiscated property, debts, and propaganda.
