The Making From Sea Depths Delayed

A gale Tuesday almost ended Prof. Georges Claude's attempt at making ice in tropical seas by the action of hot-surface and cold-subsurface waters.

His floating ice factory, the Tunisie, was 62 miles off shore attempting to sink a 20-ton pig iron base as foundation for the half-mile vertical tube through which the cold water from the bottom of the sea would be raised to the surface.

The Tunisie's crew worked four days to place the big metal sphere, 30 feet in diameter, in position. Then, with the wind, the Tunisie was blown off the spot and the huge base was dragged out of place and hurled into the muddy bottom. It later was raised by electric elevators attached to a surface

"We had a grand battle, finally drawing the base up through the electric elevator attached to the buoy intended to hold up the tube at the surface," related the French in-

Favorable weather is being awaited in order to make another attempt to lower the base. Manufacture of ice, Professor Claude declared, will begin immediately after the base is

Meyer will try to build a scoring mahine to represent the Purple and White in the fast conference compeition that looms ahead.

Most of the Frog cage candidates play football also, so the practice sessions for the court game are late getting under way. Contests with local quintets will be booked as early as next week and Coach Meyer is arranging a short holiday tour for his squad. They will play at Tyler and Arp Dec. 27 and 28, and probably at Henderson Dec. 29. A tentative game has also been arranged with the North Texas Teachers at Denton either Dec. 18 or 19.

The Frogs' conference schedule: Jan. 7—Texas in Fort Worth. Jan. 14-Rice in Fort Worth. an. 18 — Arkansas in Fort Worth. Jan. 19 — Arkansas in Fort Worth. Feb. 2 - Baylor at Waco. Feb. 5 - S. M. U. at Dallas. Feb. 16-Baylor in Fort Work Feb. 22 -Rice at Housion.

A Christmas Courtesy to the wise Santa Claus

Gas Refrigerator ME Prices Reduced

Here's big news for husbands—this splendid gift for the whole Samily to enjoy, marked down at a good discount! Come in and zet your Electrolux before the stock is gone. We can install it promptly or hold it to install for Christmas.

This is the refrigerator that's so modern it needs no complicated machinery, and it runs for much less cost than any other system. It can freeze your desserts, keep foods at top form, and make the ice cubes, without a speck of noise and vibration. • Trade-in allowance for your old box. • Small down payment, balance in easy monthly payments.
