irnde, Detective Officer KETTER-ING runs into a maze of conflicting clews.

Each of the ship's passengers appear involved in some manner. These include LADY WELTER, her daughter and son-in-law. REGINALD and MRS. JOCELAN: COLYT POSODINI: the BISHOP OF BUDE and INOSUKE HAYASHI. Only Riame's secretary. MCHOLAS STODART, appears above suspicion since he was in the ship's lounge all during the period in which the crime obviously was committed.

As the investigation progresses, kettering finds that Jocelyn and his wife falsify about their whereabouts at the time of the crime. Taking advantage of his, kettering presses Jocelyn with an accusation. Frightened, Jocelyn points out that Rocksavage had the real motive for murder—financial gain. Moreover, that Rocksavage had boasted of being able to change for dinner in four minutes, thus indicating he might have killed Blame nad still returned to the ship's lounge in time to avert suspicion.
