DR. HENRY McCullough purchases the first souvenir calendar from Wrangler Belles Lieutenant Ginny Steele of San Angelo and Captain Tonya Thompson of Houston.

ARA FOOD Director Jim Schrader received a double thank you "smack" and is surrounded by Wrangler Belles.

CJC Wrangler Belles Will Sell Souvenir Calendar With Pics

Cisco Junior College Homecoming activities last weekend kicked off the sale of 1988 souvenir calendars by the Wrangler Belles. This is a first-time project to raise funds for upcoming trips and for recruiting. Each Wrangler Belle is featured on one of the months with an individual picture along with her name and hometown listed. Also included in the calendar are group pictures of the performing team and a collage of action shots from the beginning of this semester.

Each Wrangler Belle hopes to promote the organization through sales in her hometown. In Cisco the calendars are available at the Chamber of Commerce office, Quickway, Bill's and Olney Savings. Please support the group by purchasing one of the calendars. They will make great Christmas gifts and stocking stuffers.

To help initiate the project CJC President Henry McCullough purchased the first official "sold" calendar. Jim Schrader, ARA Food Director on the campus, offered to give $25 for a calendar autographed by each of the Belles. His offer was gratefully accepted. The calendars sell for $5 but if anyone else wants to offer more for an autographed copy, they are encouraged to call the Wrangler Belle office on campus.

We received the following letter at The Press last week. It read:

Dr. G.W. French, Jr., former pastor of First United Methodist Church in Cisco has recently joined the staff of First United Methodist Church in Dallas. As "director of lay life and work" he will develop a program of Lay Pastoral Care for the six thousand member Dallas church.

French was pastor of the Cisco church for three years, 1961-64.

He remembers as leaders in the church more than a quarter of a century ago names that include Dr. E.E. Addy, S.H. Nance, Kenneth Cooper, Bill Wright, Leo Clinton, Lela Lloyd, Rachel Smith, Patsy Nance, A.G. Sander, Rufus Merket, Olin Odum, Richard Smith, Lloyd McGrew, and many more, far more than room permits.

The letter was signed by G.W. French, Jr., of the First United Methodist Church, 1928 Ross Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75201.

At the Hico game last Friday night, a collection was taken up for Todd Whitehead, the De Leon football player who was seriously injured in a football game at the start of this year's season.

It was announced at the game that Hico collected over $200.00 for Todd's family. I'm sure it will be greatly appreciated.

Cisco High School Cross Country Team To Run In State Competition Saturday

Eight Cisco High School students will be traveling to Georgetown, Saturday, November 14, to participate in the State Championship Cross Country Track Meet. The meet will be held at the Southwestern University Golf Course at 10:00 a.m.

This is the first year Cisco has had a Cross Country race team according to girls

The students who will be running the two mile course in the State Championship Cross Country meet are, seniors Leigh Callarman and Krista Shepard, juniors Cindy Choate, Angie Mitchell, Ginny Pope and Kay Ingram,

The track students participated in the Area Cross Country Track Meet held at Vandergriff Park last Saturday in Arlington. The girls, as a team, placed third in the meet to qualify them for the state contest in Georgetown. There were 124 high school students in the Class 2A division at the Regional meet. There were also four other district divisions of high school students running that day.

Applications To Goodfellows Are Coming In At Chamber

The Cisco Goodfellows have received several applications from citizens in Cisco asking the Goodfellows to help them make their family's Christmas a little brighter.

One woman wrote in her application that her husband got a job two months ago with an oil company but he has been laid off since then. They have a four year old daughter. She said she has been looking for a job, but they have no phone for people to call her for work. She said she needs work and her husband does too. All they have is food stamps once a month, and her family needs the Goodfellows help. She said the bills have not been paid this month, and they got notices for the gas, electric and water bills already. She wrote, "please, I need help from the Goodfellows".

Another woman with five children, wrote asking for help with Christmas this year. She said they are a family of eight, and her husband is not working, because there is no work. She said they look for work, but they have no luck. They live in a two bedroom house and she said she is asking for the Goodfellows help because they need it.

Cisco High School Loboos Beat Hico Tigers 50-to-7 Fri. At Hico

The Cisco High School Loboos finished out their 1987 Football Season with a bang when they defeated the Hico Tigers 50-to-7, in a game played last Friday in Hico.

This brought the Loboos up to a 3-2 District Standing and a 5-5 Season Standing.

Senior Loboos Curtis Taylor, Kevin Kirk, Bobby Webb, Chad Rogers and Gordon Davis met the Hico team on the field for the coin toss. Cisco won and chose to receive the first kick.

Cisco received a 15-yard penalty for clipping and had two incomplete passes before kicking the ball back to Hico.

Hico moved the ball down to Cisco's 11-yard line, but had to turn the ball back over to Cisco with 9:58 left in the first quarter.

Joe Flores, Bryan Wagnon, Mark McGinness, and Kody Wallace ran the ball down to the 8-yard line during several plays. Joe Flores ran the ball across the goal line for a touchdown, but it was called back due to a penalty against Cisco for holding.

On the first play after the second quarter started, Joe Flores made a 9-yard run to make the first touchdown for the Loboos. Kevin Kirk kicked the PAT.

Cisco kicked the ball to Hico, but the Tigers fumbled during the first play and the ball went back to Cisco on the 45-yard line. Quarterback Jarrod Jeffcoat threw a pass to Kody Wallace in the end zone for a touchdown with 11:30 left in the 2nd. Kevin Kirk kicked the PAT, making the score 14-to-0.

Cisco Lobo Shannon Berry, kicked the ball to Hico at the 42 yard line. Hico fumbled and Lobo Chad Rogers recovered for Cisco to take over the ball again.

Jeffcoat threw a pass to Wallace, who ran the ball down to the 8-yard line. On the third play, Cisco fumbled. Continued On Next Page

CJC And RJC To Play Game Saturday At RJC Stadium

Everyone will again have the chance to see a match-up between those cross-county rivals, Cisco Junior College Wranglers and the Ranger Junior College Rangers. These two teams always play a hard fought, well played, great football game, and the next meeting between these two teams will be Saturday, November 14, at 2:00 p.m. at the Ranger Junior College Stadium. The last match-up between these two teams was in September at the annual area Lion's Clubs Benefit Bowl. CJC defeated RJC that night, a low blow to their ego!

It's up to the Cisco Wranglers to stay on top and be known as the "Best in the County" in Junior College football.

Everyone is invited to attend the game, and show their support for the CJC Wranglers, so they can again "Beat The RJC Rangers!"

Another application to the Goodfellows is from a couple whose son is awaiting surgery in a major city in Texas. The father has been laid off of work. Friends of the family have been buying groceries and giving the couple gas money for the trips they have to take to the hospital. They have no income coming in at the present time.

The Cisco Goodfellows will be able to help these and other families with groceries and food for small children again this year at Christmas, if they receive the amount they need.

CHECK YOUR FILTER

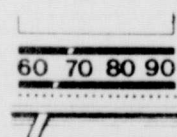

The purpose of a filter in your heating or air conditioning air blower is to catch dust or dirt before it can enter your unit. If your filter gets clogged, your unit will have to work harder to do the heating or cooling job required, and it will use more electricity.

To avoid damage to your unit and to save energy and money, be sure your filter is clean. WTU recommends checking your filter once every 30 days. Permanent types can be cleaned according to manufacturer's instructions, while non-permanent filters should be replaced.

A clean filter, along with other conservation measures you can do at home, will help you save energy and money!

Set Thermostat at 68°

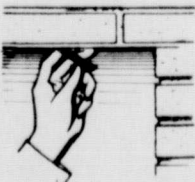

Set your thermostat at 68 degrees or lower. Turn it down at night and use an electric blanket. Turn it down even lower when you leave home for an extended period of time. Every degree you lower your thermostat will help to increase your energy savings.

Keep Damper Closed

Tightly close the damper in your fireplace when you're not using it. The same draft that is needed to help make a fire burn could circulate through your fireplace and pull warm air out of your home.

For more conservation tips, call your local WTU office.

Back To School In County

By Lula Mae Basham
Griggs school located about one mile Southwest of Romney, was district 17 organized in 1902 consolidated to Cisco in 1930. Named for Louis Jack Griggs as he raised a large family there. Some remember this school and stories of things in this community as far back as 1890. Porch Jack Baptist Church, and the Lutheran Church was about one mile north of the Griggs school. There was a cemetery. There are still reunions in memory of this community. Edith Bostic is secretary. I talk of Aunt

Lucy Curtis and James Gardener now living in Rising Star and Cisco. They were born in Griggs community. Some people that taught in the school, were Pearl Pence; Faye (Rasmusen) Gardenhire, Molly Bryson, Festus Woods for 1925-1930. Hatty Bryson, Reba Ranson, Valley Ranson, Velma Roach and Loucile Nunally. Some teachers went to Romney when the school went to Romney to continue teaching there. Each year before school started a small boy was let down in the cistern in a bucket to clean out the cistern of all the leaves and small animals, birds and leaves that had fallen into the cistern during the summer. The older boys would toss fire crackers in the stove, just something for fun. One day at school a pipe line burst and filled the ditches with oil. Someone said I wonder if this black stuff would really burn. It was described to me by one who knows, "not I", that Orvil Gryder gave Duke Gardner a match and sure enough it caught fire fences and posts the whole field burned off. The community had a various number of activities in the school house, like box suppers and displays of each grades school work and now and then a speaker would come to address the community. This is the stories that were told to me from former residence or students living there when it was a large community.

4-H Junior Leaders Meeting

A meeting of the 4-H Junior Leaders Association was held on November 8, at 3:00 p.m. The main objective of the meeting was to finalize the plans on a Jr. Leadership Workshop. This Workshop will be held on November 14 at the County Showgrounds. The workshop is open to all Jr. 4-H'ers or children ages 12 to 14. Sessions will begin at 6 p.m. and go until 7:30. Refreshments will be served. At 8:00 p.m. a dance will be held for all those who participated in the earlier events, a special session will be given before the dance for all those who don't know how to dance so they may learn. This will be very good experience for the Jr. 4-H'ers and lots of fun too!

CAPITOL UPDATE

by Jim Parker

Rural health care clearly is undergoing an evolutionary process with the end result of that process being an item of significant speculation and concern. Across my district and in the surrounding rural area rural hospital after rural hospital has closed its door with many more at or near the point of closing. Almost on a daily basis I am asked where this process is going. The truth is, I'm not sure I know. At least two factors have contributed to the demise of rural hospitals, the first and foremost being Medicare/Medicaid regulations applicable to rural hospitals. A simple operation done in DeLeon, Texas, has a rated amount to be paid by Medicare/Medicaid. That same operation in Dallas has a much higher payment schedule rating and, in San Francisco, still a higher payment rating. For the life of me I cannot see the basis for the difference in the amount Medicare/Medicaid pays, regardless of where the operation is performed. Many rural hospitals simply can't measure up to Medicare/Medicaid requirements and if they could, they couldn't compete with larger hospitals. The other factor that appears to be of increasing importance in the demise of rural hospitals is that local ad valorem taxpayers are consistently demonstrating adamant opposition to a tax structure necessary to fund the operation of rural hospitals. Two possible solutions are: (1) on the federal level, we need to bring some semblance of reason and reasonableness to the Medicare/Medicaid criteria; and (2) on the local level, perhaps, we need to study new alternatives to finance hospitals. It has been said that one must be careful not to "ride a good horse to death." Truly, we may have ridden the ad valorem tax horse to death and that may well be the reason for such strident opposition to recent hospital bond issues in my district and in the area. Perhaps, it's time to look at some innovative financing. Innovative methods are available and are being used but it's very difficult to break out of the decades-old method of thinking that ad valorem taxation is the only means of financing available. By way of prediction, assuming something fairly significant isn't done, rural health care is going to consist of something roughly equivalent to the "minor emergency clinics" that we see so many of in metropolitan areas. They will, of course, take you in, do a quick diagnosis and ship you somewhere else. Unfortunately, for all too many people I fear that "somewhere else" may be the funeral parlor.

The Memorial Tablet in the new Court house stands as a fitting and lasting reminder of the courage and the valor of the 762 Eastland County boys who followed the colors of their country through the great conflict. Of this number thirty never returned. Whether they died on the battle field or succumbed to the ravages of disease, their last service in life and their last days on earth were spent for the defense of their nation. To them a solemn memory is ever due. For those who are among the living of the land may there be everlasting gratitude and honor.

The names of the thirty who died in the service, with the respective localities from which they enlisted, as far as it was possible to learn, are as follows:

The Next Best Thing -

...to a clear conscience and a good night's sleep is the feeling of security in owning your own home with a clear title. Peculiar to the real estate field, values are based on land and the improvements thereon, if any. But values on these are based on the title. The title then becomes the most important item to be considered when purchase of real property is contemplated. So be careful to buy good title based on an abstract of title or a policy of title insurance.

WHAT DID we learn from Aldersgate?

Something, hopefully. They were the Methodist-associated group that looked at Eastland County for the possible location of a $12 million facility which would have housed some 100 residents and employed about 100 people.

They asked for and got a united Eastland County effort - but unfortunately, this county wasn't picked for the final three. We obviously were up into the really big numbers, and towns (areas) like Brownwood, Weatherford and Corsicana apparently offered more inducements, and they, being good business people, narrowed their choices down to where the big bucks were to be found.

In vetoing Eastland County, they left at least $200,000.00 on the table; $100,000.00 from the Eastland Industrial Foundation in the form of a cost-free site, plus a $100,000.00 from an anonymous donor who would have contributed that amount had the site been in this county, plus no telling how much more support and effort had this been the site.

But it wasn't and isn't, so what do we do for an encore?

Sit on our collective hands and wait for some other sugar daddy to smile favorably at us? We've tried that route, and it hasn't paid off in spades. It's certainly the conservative thing to do, but it don't provide jobs.

Thankfully, there are some, who did learn from the Aldersgate experience. By working together with neighbors we came within a cat's whisker of getting that big one.

Specifically, the chamber of commerce leaders in Cisco are talking further cooperation, and the possibility of putting together immediately a meeting to sit down with neighbors and talk about what could be going on - instead of warming our hands under us.

They're to be commended and we've passed out support of the newspapers to help them generate, stimulate and formulate some COUNTY-WIDE cooperative efforts - to launch out, seek out, and woo. Maybe we can't immediately land the biggy with hundreds of employees, but if we jointly could work together to garner several employers who will help put our people to work, then the effort will not have been in vain.

Many recognize that it really doesn't matter where a new plant is located in the county, it's going to benefit everyone in the county. Some still don't see it that way, but they may be forced to some day.

The state's economy and a lot of other things are going to mandate some day that changes be made just to survive - and wouldn't it be great if the good people of this county had in advance made plans, discussed common problems, and worked out viable programs, not only to save what we have, but to expand on our economy. It could be done.

But it's going to take the kind of attitude the folks at the Cisco chamber are displaying to make it happen. Individually, these towns have pluses and minuses, but collectively, we've got one of the most marketable commodities going today. Aldersgate visitors emphasized that it would take a collective effort to land them. Were we listening? Some were.

Yes, county-wide efforts have been tried before, and at this minute, all previous efforts appear to be stalled, but is that any reason not to try again?

It's going to take real enthusiasm from each of the towns. It's going to take leaders who are willing to work with neighbors and commit for the long haul together.

Is there some (one?) who will step forward and with the Cisco Chamber people say, "Let's get truckin'."

They are ready.

Letter To The Editor

Editor,

The elections may be over but the issues rarely are. Therefore, although it may be rare after the votes are counted, I wanted to express my gratitude to fellow citizens of Eastland County who came to the polls and expressed their opinion concerning parimutual wagering. As a member of Texans Who Care, opponents of parimutual wagering, I was particularly pleased that the majority of voters in Eastland County understood the big picture and opposed the referendum.

Thank you Eastland County.

November 13 Deadline For Hay Show

Friday, November 13, is the deadline to enter hay in the Eastland County Hay Show, reminds County Extension Agent, DeMarquis Gordon. Entries may be left at any feed store in the county or at the County Extension Agent's office on or before November 13.

An entry may be 1/4 of a small bale or 3 to 5 pounds taken from any bale or stack. The sample from the small bale should be at least 8 inches thick and tied with string or wire. The loose hay from the large bale may be put in a cardboard box. The fertilizer dealers of Eastland County are sponsoring the hay show. There will be no entry fee charged.

The hay show is an educational event to help producers learn how to produce high quality forage. Producers will learn the protein content of their hay and the physical score based on maturity, texture, leafiness, and freedom from foreign material. Ribbons will be given and plaques will be awarded champions of each class.

Classes include: alfalfa and other Legumes; Coastal Bermudagrass; Other Bermudagrasses; Sorghym-Sudan and Hybrids; Other Perennial grasses; Oats and other winter annuals; and Peanut hay.

The hay show and program will be at the Eastland County Livestock Showbarn at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, November 19.

Back To School In Eastland County

By Lula Mae Basham

All the small schools in 1949 was ruled to consolidate to the nearest independent school district. Some had already transferred but out of over one hundred common schools there were only six districts called independent as far as I have found. Finally all organized 38 districts were consolidated into today's, six. I stand corrected if I am wrong Gorman, Carbon, Rising Star, Cisco, Eastland, Ranger.

I have tried to find information from some of the small school that may be of interest to you. I don't mean facts to put in our Eastland County history book because these notes were made from conversations I had with individuals that just give me what they remembered.

Word school was one mile Southwest of Cisco. In district 15 and organized in 1887 and dissolved in 1936 to Cisco. It was named from the Word family that had a number of children of their won that had been teaching them and neighbors since 1880.

Wilborn Curtis started to school in the first grade at Word school in 1907. His first teacher was named Crump. Mrs. Eulia Howard was superintendent of the Eastland County schools. She also taught at the Word school. Edgar Strickland taught there.

I was also told that Willie Word still lives in Cisco. That, I do not know. Maybe Donica McCracken could tell a number of things about Word school if you have any questions, I didn't get to talk to her.

There is still some time left to register for the 1987 Junior Leadership Workshop for Junior 4-H'ers. The theme of the program is "You Are Something Special." This is an excellent opportunity for 4-H members 11-13 years of age to learn about several basic leadership skills.

The objectives of the workshop are to learn and practice the following leadership skills: Relating to others, learning/sharing, communications, understanding self.

ON CARPET CARE

Expert Advice From The Hoover Company

Decorative floor coverings require special care, say the experts at The Hoover Company. Oriental rugs, for instance, are often best cleaned with an agitator type cleaner. When approaching a fringed edge with an upright cleaner, slightly lift up the cleaner nozzle by lowering the handle and push the cleaner completely off the carpet. This will allow cleaning of the fringe without catching it. When using a canister with a power nozzle, stop before reaching the fringed edge. Fringe may then be cleaned with suction, using the upholstery tool or floor brush.

Powerhead canister cleaners with high horsepower motors and cleaning tools for upholstery, draperies, carved furniture, tight corners and small spaces make thorough cleaning a breeze.

Moving Insurance: How Much Is Enough?

Here's a moving fact: when you move, you need insurance. Many people think the coverage provided by the van line is enough to cover their belongings. The fact is, the limited liability provided may or may not cover the entire amount of your possessions. That's because the coverage—less than a dollar per pound—usually doesn't cover the full market value of valuables. Here are answers to some common questions on moving insurance:

Q What kinds of coverage are available?
A Two types: 1. Depreciated reimbursement is based on the depreciated value of your goods. For items that do not appreciate such as antiques and jewelry, current market value applies. 2. Full replacement coverage where depreciation isn't a factor.

Q Why is the bill of lading important?
A This serves as your final contract and lists the weight of shipment, changes in liability coverage, additional packing performed, if any, and total cost.

Q How is a claim processed by a van line?
A Van lines require a form with specific information on the items claimed. The amount must be supported by either a repair estimate or a receipt verifying the acquisition date.

A wise move is to cover your possessions with adequate liability insurance when you move.

Q How long does it take to settle a claim?
A The industry average is usually 15-30 days. Delays can be caused by lack of data from the shipper.

Q How are claims disagreements settled?
A If an amicable agreement on a claim can't be reached, arbitration may be entered into by customers whose carrier subscribes to it. The arbitration board is sanctioned by the Interstate Commerce Commission and is an independent, non-partisan organization.

Hints On Safety And Economy From The Experts At A Leading Tool Company

Saw Blades: See The Difference?

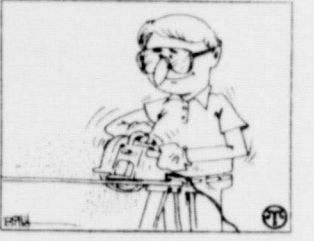

Knowing what to look for when buying carbide-tipped circular saw blades can keep you from going "round and round" trying to find the right one. Especially when you need a blade that must stand up to frequent use.

Perhaps the most important quality is the blade tip. Saw blades with tips made from genuine tungsten carbide are the top of the line. There are several classes in the carbide-tipped variety, with those with C4 grade tips holding an edge longer than the C2 grade commonly used.

Another important factor is the steel blade banks used to hold the tips. These banks should be hardened to produce a sawplate capable of withstanding the pressures of constant operation and produce a smoother, quieter cut.

Vermont American Tool Company, the recognized leader in carbide-tipped saw blade technology, has developed a new saw blade that features the C4 tips and heavy duty steel banks that are heat treated and tempered for long life.

This new Premier™ saw blade has the largest tips found in the industry, thus providing more resharpenings and longer blade life. Each Premier tooth has been sharpened twice, with the second pass being made with a 400 grit diamond wheel to polish each tool to a mirror

Your sawing jobs can be a cut above the rest when you know how to choose a circular saw blade.

This precision honing to a fine finish insures the fastest and smoothest cutting possible.

The body of each Premier blade is machined or milled from thick premium steel, which is then heat treated, tempered, surface ground and tensioned to give the blade stiffness to produce a smooth, quiet cut without distortion under heavy loads.

For the professional or home craftsman who appreciates the performance of a fine carbide-tipped saw blade, the Premier provides sizes ranging from 8 to 16 inches and teeth ranging from 24 to 80 per blade.

For more information on the Premier saw blades and carbide-tipped saw blades in general, write: Vermont American Tool Company, P.O. Box 340, Lincolnton, NC 28093-0340.

FASHION UPDATE: KNITS

What's the one fashion category no woman should overlook this season? No question about it, it's knits, say the experts at Lane Bryant. The good news for women who wear size 14 and up is that this year all the best knit looks come in their size.

Leading the current fashion choices are classic and traditional looks updated with vibrant color; novelty textures such as tweedy marled yarns; and bold graphic jacquard designs.

Among the newsmaking knits from the Venezia™ collection at Lane Bryant stores are one- or two-piece sweater dresses that can go from casual to career to dress-up with a quick change of accessories. They are sure to be some of the most versatile pieces in your wardrobe. Other good choices are classic sweater sets given new styling with rounded shoulders and deep raglan sleeves; or another fashion "must"—the cardigan, which can easily take the place of a more tailored jacket.

If you want to double your knit impact, pair a favorite sweater with either a straight tubular skirt, or the new pleated knit skirt, either long or hovering at the knee.

Choose from the deep vibrant colors of the season—cherry red, mallard blue, chestnut, dark jade, sparked by brights and neutrals, to give you a flattering glow.

Having trouble sleeping? People once believed diamonds cured insomnia.

Asparagus, like string beans, should snap when broken; otherwise freshness is suspect.

MAKING FAMILY LIFE MORE FUN

Unique Camera Works in All Weather and Even Underwater

The new weather/waterproof camera.

Here's news for a rainy day: a damp day doesn't mean you can't take pictures on a family outing. A new camera makes picture taking in wet weather or even underwater a snap!

New from the Minolta Corporation is the Weathermatic Dual 35—the world's first all weather/waterproof camera with dual lens selection. The new camera is O-Ring sealed against moisture, sand and dust. This makes it ideal for use on snowy hillsides, sandy beaches, in the rain or even 16.5 feet underwater. You don't have to worry about letting young children use the camera—if it is dropped in a pool or overboard while boating, it will float.

Snorkelers will be happy to hear the camera switches automatically from auto-focusing to Focus-Free—fixed focus—operation when used underwater. Other features include automatic exposure and auto frame advance and rewind—so family members can take all the pictures they want in a flash!

Relive Austin 1954 At Majestic-Nadine

This weekend at the majestic Theater in Eastland see Austin, Texas, 1954 - Hollywood-style. "Nadine" starring Jeff Bridges and Kim Basinger is the newest comedy - romance - mystery from Robert Benton ("Kramer vs. Kramer") and "Places in the Heart". Kim Basinger; plays Nadine Hightower, a manicurist, who has a problem: her husband (Jeff Bridges) is stepping out on her. Make that they've both got a problem - a photographer who took suggestive pictures of Nadine turns up dead, and she and her philandering spouse emerge as the principal suspects.

It's a likeable movie made because Benton wanted to spend time with people and a place for which he has obvious affection. He draws warm, funny performances from everyone. Bridges is easy and natural. Basinger is at her best; she plays off bridges' masculinity and it makes her a sassy, strong comic presence. Rip Torn as a local entrepreneur/crime boss delivers another of his juicy renditions of cheerful mendacity. Glenne Headly ("Making Mr. Right" as Bridges' girlfriend magically turns a couple of scenes into a major supporting roles. These are not the Noble Country People of "Places in the Heart". These are just folks and Benton seems to get a kick out of them. And so do audiences.

See "Nadine" at the recently renovated Majestic Theatre in Eastland. Features Friday, Saturday, and Sunday at 7:30 p.m. and matinees Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m.!

The PEOPLE'S FORUM

I've Been Wrong Before

By Gordon S. Clark
What with corporate raiders, leveraged buy outs, hostile take overs and all that other financial jargon I can't keep up with who is skinning whom. Only one thing does seem clear to me and that is that you may not be doing business with the people you thought you were. Some old names will disappear and in other cases the new people cheapen the product and trade as long as they can on the old company reputation.

Sad as it may seem, it has even been so. Companies merge and the old men pass on. It takes a good organization to escape the malignant forces of the cut-throat world of high finance.

Very very few people recognize the name Atwater Kent. He developed the first superheterodyne radio. Breaking that down to digestable size, he modernized radio to something more like you use today than the old crystal set, until the transistor, his work set the pattern.

The first radio my folks had that I recall was a big 12 tube Atwater Kent and in East Liverpool, Ohio, we listened to station KDKA Pittsburgh, Penn. which was the very first radio station to produce regularly scheduled programming.

I even recall the announcer of the regular morning program. He was named Eddy Chauncy with a British accent and on the MUSICAL CLOCK he never seemed to tire of playing "The Whistler & His Dog" and "The Jolly Coppersmith". Gee, I wonder what those old records would be worth today?

Another program, I think, was "Cherrio" but on that bit of trivia I am not certain. Still more trivia many may not recognize is the unusual call letters of KDKA. Since it was among the first and call letters began rather haphazardly it began with a K while today stations west of the Mississippi have K beginning their call letters and east of the Miss. they are assigned letters starting with X. Here you may pick up a station with X which originates in Mexico even if the junk advertised is sent for at Clint, Texas.

A friend has an old radio I would like to con him out of. I am not a professional antique collector though some I really love, like my wife in her 60s and Mother who is long past 80. Some people even commercialize on that class of antiques. But my friends radio is a Crosley. WHAT?? You don't remember that name? While I would hardly expect you to remember Crosley's Ice-Ball refrigerator which came with a kerosene heater and a bucket there must be still a few who recall the Shelvador refrigerator. That old Ice-Ball would be great at a fishing or hunting camp. The unit lifted out with one ball set over the heater and the other in the water bucket for an hour or so. Then they were hung back on the box with the heated one out and the one with a tray for ice cubes insides. The cold lasted 24 to 36 hours.

Was the Shelvador the first refrigerator with shelves in the door? Right now I don't know of any that don't have but there was a time --. What about the Crosley automobile? Those were just after WW II. I remember a teacher at Parker County Vocational School who had one. He was Captain Vivian Andrews and went back to service with the start of the Korean War. The men kidded him about that Crosley by calling it his Shelvador. They would get four husky boys on the corners and carry it around. Cap. Andrews was about as heavy as that car. I hadn't thought of him in years until my friend mentioned his radio. A Crosley. How soon the great old companies are forgotten. How fleeting is fame.

Auto race fans recognize Unser, Folt, and Andretti but like the Crosley car there will be about as many who remember Barney Oldfield. I believe he was the race car driver who first went 60 miles an hour then retired saying that cars were getting too fast for him to risk it any more. Kids liked to build soap-box-racers and pretend they were Barney Oldfield. I think we had more fun in those days. One movie a week was extravagance and the nickle ice cream cone that show day (generally Saturday) was a

Roy Cartee Attends AARP National Meeting

Roy Cartee, Associate State Coordinator for the State of Texas for AARP Health Advocacy Services has just returned from a week's meeting in Annapolis, Md.

Mr. Cartee said, "The meeting focused upon three issues: the Medicare catastrophic health plan, long term care, and rural health care."

The Medicare catastrophic health plan is still being worked by Congress. The changes will be many and the cost will be as much as three times the present premium.

The long term care is a real thing to look forward to. Don't they make ice cream that good anymore or do they just make too much for it to mean anything?

nation-wide problem and AARP will be assisting in developing plans that will provide service for all ages. Rural health care is a problem as many hospitals in the rural areas are closing and the doctors are going to the urban hospitals.

"We have put the American health care on the 'back burner,' budget wise, for so long it consumes more than a billion dollars a day to give minimum care for our citizens," stated Mr. Cartee. Mr. Cartee continued to remark, "The rural health care is having its problems and if positive action is not taken soon the rural individual will find health care ranges from none to very, very limited availability. The trouble with programs for the rural health care is that we have delayed so long that the costs are very high and we have to choose between health care and dollars."

Maxcine Rowch -- "Filling The Void"

By Viola Payne
What is a meaningful life composed of?
This is one of the questions Mrs. Maxcine Rowch of Eastland faced during the past few years.
Her search for an answer led her into far-away countries of the earth, and placed her lifestyle and religion against different cultures and concepts.
"I was left a widow in 1981," Mrs. Rowch says. "I needed something meaningful to fill the void in my life."
An LVN, Mrs. Rowch still had her work and home. There were two grown children and grandchildren - living elsewhere - and the Church of Christ and many friends. But there was still some lonely time to be filled.
Mrs. Rowch did not want to move from Eastland, for she and her late husband, P.R. (Gene) Rowch, were both raised in the County. They left in 1952, and lived away until 1979, when Gene Rowch took an early retirement from Gulf Oil Co.

In the summer of 1984 some friends told Maxcine Rowch about an extensive mission program called "Campaigns For Christ", which was being directed by the North Davis Church of Christ in Arlington. The purpose of the CFC was to share God's word with interested people.
"In October, 1984 a Campaign was being planned for Anchorage, Alaska," Mrs. Rowch says. "My friends invited me to attend a workshop in Arlington with them."
"I did, and was so impressed that I decided to work with the Campaign. Christians from nine different states and three from South Africa also went to Anchorage."

On this trip she learned quickly that members of the Campaign were along for a practical purpose.
"We walked and walked," she says. "I learned that you had to be strong and adaptable. As we knocked on doors, we never knew what kind of reception we'd receive. But we left several new Christians in Anchorage."
Two shorter trips came after that - one in April, 1985 to Farmington, New Mexico, and another in Sept. 1985 to Odessa, Texas. There was a lot of walking, here too, but Mrs. Rowch was strong enough to keep going.
If she thought Odessa was hot and dusty she soon learned about what tropical heat could be.
"In October 1985 one more person was needed to go to Mora Heights, Kingston, Jamaica, so I went," she says. "We really walked a lot there."

She found Jamaica a great learning experience - the weather was stifling, the roads dusty, and most of the people were black and very poor. Few could hope to make over $400 per year, and food not grown there was very expensive. But the people were hospitable - very sweet and receptive to strangers. The CFC group stayed in the homes of Christians.
"One thing probably all of us will remember was the temporary H2O shortage," Mrs. Rowch smiles. "A water truck would go to a different part of town every day, and people would meet that truck with almost anything that would hold water."
"My friends Vera Bratcher of Cleburne and I were in a home together, and would use about a quart of water each for a bath." An older gentleman who lived near the hospital had water, and some kind person made arrangements for Vera and me to have a shower in his vacant rent house. The water was cold, but that was the best shower and shampoo we'd ever had. Can you imagine not having a bath for a week?"

But in this place, also, they left behind several new Christians. So it was worth the inconvenience, she says.
Back home in Eastland Mrs. Rowch received a call in March 1986 to go to a totally different part of the world. She joined Christians from eight states on a Campaign in Auckland, New Zealand.
Here the country was beautiful, and most of the people were living comfortably. But sprinkled among the generally decent reception were bits of cold treatment, with remarks such as "Yankee, go home!" or "The United States is trying to start a war." It seemed unfair -- hearing such remarks about your country.

The group persisted, and knocked on over 11,000 doors. They were up at 6 a.m. and to bed at 11 p.m. in order to carry out this work. Several new Christians resulted.
In June 1986, Mrs. Rowch made another trip to Jamaica. As she went she realized that she really cared for the place. And things were more comfortable this time she stayed in a motel with plenty of hot water!
Visiting the Churches was fun. "Those people can really sing," she reports. "They never sing just the first and last stanza of the song, as we often do here in Church. And sometimes the sermon will be an hour long, with everyone sitting on hard, uncomfortable chairs, or benches."
"There's no air conditioning, either. Yet the people listen as if they'll never hear God's word again. And when they become Christians, they really get busy for the Lord."
After Jamaica came a brief trip to Wyoming, then a call to Aberdeen, Scotland. Eighteen people from six states left on the trip in June of this year.
The weather was rainy and cold, and most of the group wore a winter coat every day. This was the most beautiful country they had seen, and the culture and music was distinctive. The group knocked on many doors, but some of the response was not favorable.
"I have the Church of Scotland, I listen to my preacher, and that's all I need," one man said.
"I have the Church of Scotland and I don't need anyone coming in and preaching a foreign gospel to me!" One elderly man stated.

Then there was the woman who said she was "perfect" and "didn't sin"! But everyone didn't classify themselves with her, and 10 new Christians took their stand after the Campaign.
Mrs. Rowch has not gone on another missionary trip since this one, but she plans to. "I feel like I've left a little bit of myself every place I've been. Yet home looks so good, once you've been so far away."
"You know what I'd like to do?" She asks. "I'd like to live on a Navajo Indian Reservation and work with them at least a year."

And the expression on her face shows that she isn't asking about a meaningful life any more. She found what she was looking for.

Safety Hints: Love Thy Plumbing As Thyself

Your health, your money and your home's longevity. That's what could be at stake when it comes to keeping your plumbing in good repair.
These tips come from a new booklet prepared by the experts at Moen Faucets, America's leading faucet maker. They can help you solve pressing emergencies, but a professional plumber will usually be needed for permanent repairs.
• Your plumbing system includes a series of emergency shut-off valves throughout the home - in the basement, under sinks, and in the kitchen. Find and identify them. Washing machines, dishwashers and hot water heaters usually have their own shut-off valves on or near the appliance.
• The water line coming in from the street is often connected to the water meter followed by a master shut-off valve for the entire home. Close this one valve and you have shut off water throughout the house - it's instant action for serious emergencies. It's also recommended you shut this valve before going on vacation. If you do this, you must turn off your water heater, too.
• If you need to shut off the water at the main valves, make sure the hot water tank is turned down to pilot. If you have a hot water heating system you will also need to make sure the furnace has a sufficient supply of water.

A free booklet from Moen Faucets can tell you what to do when plumbing chaos occurs.

• Equip yourself with basic emergency tools. You should have a medium-sized pipe wrench and an adjustable wrench, various sized screwdrivers, adjustable pliers, a rubber force cup or plunger and cleanout auger ("snake") for drain clogs. Also have pipe joint compound for connecting threaded pipes, and plumber's putty for resealing the drain on sinks when leaks develop.
• Dip a ring in the drain? Besides losing a precious object, you could clog and damage the sink. Below the sink drain, you'll find a large, curved pipe called a "P-trap." Put a pan below the pipe and loosen the two large nuts at either end. Keep turning and the whole curved piece of pipe will drop off in your hands. Note the washers used - they go back when you reinstall the fixture trap.
• Small leaks in a pipe can often be repaired with a rubber patch and metal clamp or sleeve. This must be considered an emergency repair job and should be followed by a permanent repair as soon as possible.

HIGH PERFORMANCE NUTRITION tips

TEENS NEED BREAKFAST POWER

Parents are often concerned about their teenagers' eating habits. But when a teenager is athletic, what he or she eats is especially important to supply the extra energy needed to perform.
"Young athletes need to be as consistent about diet as they are about training," states Liz Applegate, Ph.D., an expert in sports nutrition who counsels athletes from pre-teen through professional.

Applegate is concerned that some athletic teens may follow rigorous training schedules, yet fall short of their best performance by eating erratically. To give active young bodies the fuel to perform at their best, she recommends a diet rich in complex carbohydrates. Good sources of carbohydrates which teens should work into their everyday diet are whole-grain breads and cereals, pasta, fruits and vegetables.
Teen athletes should start their day with a high-carbohydrate breakfast, emphasizes Applegate. It's not only what you eat, but when you eat that can affect energy levels and performance. To store ready energy, athletes should eat a few hours before any sports competition, she points out.
Teenagers frequently skip breakfast, Applegate notes, expecting a pre-game snack to fulfill their energy needs. They may eat a candy bar, for example, right before competition, thinking this will boost energy levels. Unfortunately, this kind of pre-game snack can actually cause fluctuations in the blood sugar level and may lead to early fatigue during competition.
For the best training effect, a high-carbohydrate breakfast should be eaten within three hours of rising, and about three hours before any sports event. This allows sufficient time for food to digest.

One athlete who makes good nutrition part of his training is Mark Allen, world champion triathlete. The sport of triathlon combines swimming, cycling and running into a single demanding competition.
Allen, who burns 4,000-6,000 calories daily during training, considers breakfast a key training meal. At the start of his super-active day, the triathlete typically fuels up with a morning meal including Kellogg's Pro Grain™, a cereal rich in complex carbohydrates, designated "the official breakfast cereal of the Ironman Triathlon."
Any active teen can enjoy increased energy and be more fit by not skipping meals and by consuming more carbohydrates. "Skipping meals, especially breakfast, may leave an athletic young person energy poor and performance may suffer," says Applegate.
Even for teens who compete in the battle of the bulge, a nutritious breakfast is a powerful teammate. A dieting teen who skips a healthy, high-carbohydrate breakfast may succumb to strong hunger cravings by mid-afternoon when energy reserves drain low.

"KEYS TO THE SELL"

Co-op and Color
-one saves money
-one gives clout

Retailers should take advantage of those Sillion$ of co-op dollars being offered to help pay for their ads, and for using color in the copy. Co-op saves you money. And color adds clout to your message.

- Use of color increases sales of the advertised product by as much as 64%
- Use of color increases readership of the ad by 50 to 80%.
- Over $3-billion in offered co-op dollars were left on the table unspent in 1986.

CJC Board Of Regents Agree To Redo Doors And Locks At FineArts

The Cisco Junior College Board of Regents met Monday night for their regular meeting.

The board members decided to redo all the doors and place new locks on the Fine Arts building, after hearing a report from Rudolph Schaefer, who is in charge of the building committee.

The Board of Regents accepted the auditors report on the 1986-87 school year. Bobby Smith, auditor with Smitt, Verett, Parker, PC, presented the report to the board, which showed the college to be in good financial condition.

In other matters the Board allocated $66,000 to the 1988-89 budget from last year's $100,000 used in plant maintenance. The college had used $37,644.

President Henry McCullough presented the board with the annual president's report, giving the board a summary of the activities at the college.

The board approved the tuition and rates for the adult education classes. Tuition rates will be $1.00 per contact hour and 75 cents per contact hour for out of district students. Lab fees will be $1.00 up to $24.00.

The board also approved a bid to SOFT Warehouse for fifteen IBM processing software IV, for $4,488.

An agreement with the Hilton board was renewed for the Cisco Junior College to use the Hilton Community Center for 1988, to become effective January 1.

The Board of Regents voted not to meet in December, but to meet in January for the next meeting.

Report Monday

The Cisco Independent School District board members met last Monday night for their regular monthly meeting.

Board members accepted the 1986 audit report given by Joe Cooper, who is the certified public accountant for the school system.

The board also approved the purchase of a Savin Copier to be used in the Cisco Elementary school, and agreed to the high school gym being re-roofed. The work has been awarded to the lowest bidder. School superintendent Ray Saunders told the board he will be in touch with the contractor to see when the work can begin.

The board approved the appointment of a text book committee that will adopt the 1988-89 school textbooks to be used in the Cisco schools.

The State of Texas requires an annual performance report and the board approved the Cisco 1986-87 annual report.

The next meeting of the school board will be held December 14, when the Cisco High School economic class will serve the board of directors a Christmas dinner. The meeting will be held after the dinner.

Department occupied much of the County Commissioners Attention during meetings Monday.

Chief Probation Officer Joe Housson brought the request, which did not include a salary raise for himself.

He explained that the Juvenile Probation Department, which is wholly funded by the State, had already received a raise by approval of Judge Jim Wright.

Contacted Tuesday morning, Judge Wright stated that in view of the confusion, he is immediately suspending the previously approved budgets for the Juvenile and Adult Probation offices pending further study and cooperation with county and state officials.

He further explained that the Juvenile and Adult Probation office budgets are considered from 30 to 60 days prior to the deliberation on the county budget and therefore there is no opportunity for comparisons.

The Adult Department, Housson said, is partially funded by the county, receives $27,000 annually from the state and also brings in $30 monthly in fees from each case handled.

Right now 250 persons are being supervised by the Department, with $70,000 anticipated from this source for next year.

This money is all paid into the county, and the county turns back checks for salaries and expenses for the Department.

The Commissioners discussed whether or not the Probation Department should be considered a "County" or "State" agency, and who had jurisdiction over it. Judge Bailey said the County was obligated to furnish an office, equipment, travel expenses and salary to this state-mandated office.

Agnes Johnson of the Auditor's office came to the Court to discuss the status of salaries and of the Department. After reviewing these, the Commissioners said that the Probation workers were making far more than most others in the Courthouse, and did not feel the court should make an exception and give this Department a raise. They repeated that they were trying to hold the line on county spending, no matter how much an office "brought in".

During the afternoon meeting, however, the Commissioners were informed that Judge Jim Wright had already granted pay raises for ALL the officials in the Probation Office. Adult as well as Juvenile workers will get a 6 percent raise.

The Commissioners stated that they did not grant this pay raise, neither did they guarantee that they will pay salaries above the old approved budget if Probation Department fees start dropping and the agency runs short of funds.

CJC Wranglers Defeat Blinn JC 31-to-17 Saturday

SATURDAY'S conference football game between Cisco and Ranger Junior Colleges at Ranger at 2 p.m. Saturday can well be called a championship game for the Wranglers. If Cisco wins, the Wranglers will be the host team in the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference Bowl at Tyler, playing as the district champions.

If CJC loses to Ranger, the Wranglers will accept an invitation to play in the Valley of Sun Bowl at Phoenix on Thanksgiving Day. The invitation came to Coach Rich Frazier the other day. The Wranglers are 8-1 for the year.

Ranger has three wins, five losses (including the last four in a row) and one tie for the year. Cisco won when the two teams met in the annual Lions Benefit Bowl at Breckenridge in September. The game was originally planned for Eastland stadium but plans for it did not work out. So it will be played at RJC Stadium.

Coach Frazier and his staff have a fine team.

OVER AT THE First Christian Church, a new and nice sign with the church's name has gone up in the vicinity of the big window out front. It was engineered by the late Vandell Weathers, long-time faithful member there who passed away recently.

The sign was put up as planned and stands as a memorial to Mr. Weathers. You'll want to notice it when you're by there at night.

YOU DON'T NEED to go by the First Christian Church at night to admire the beautiful flower bed out front. It's chock full of Cocks Combs, Periwinkles and Bachelor's Buttons. Beautiful, indeed.

A lot of folks went around front for a close-up look at the flower bed when they attended the bazaar last Friday and Saturday. And the bazaar was very nice, indeed. They served breakfast of sausage and eggs and biscuits and gravy each morning and lunch each noon during the two days.

Profits from the food and from sale of assorted bazaar items, including the bake sale, amounted to between $3,000 and $4,000, reports Mrs. Olga Fay Parker of the church. And she expressed appreciation to folks who attended and bought things and to those who contributed bazaar items.

OUT AT THE BIG Russell Newman plant, the operators are real pleased when there's a pause in the busy day for the singing of the birthday song to one of them. A leader in this has been Justin Shelton, reports one of our scouts. And Justin was due to turn age 34 on Nov. 10th and the ladies were ready to sing to him, reports the scout.

This sort of thing is often done during the noon break while folks are eating their sack lunches. Happy birthday, Justin!

GUESS YOU noticed the change in temperature early Monday. From balmy weather, the mercury dropped to around 43 degrees here as a cold front moved through about daylight Monday, and it was still in the mid-forties at noon. Temperatures dropped to around 35 degrees Tuesday morning.

The weather man said no freeze is in sight yet. The first frost usually occurs here about Nov. 15th. It's time to move tender flowers and plant inside for the winter, reports the gardner at our house.

COACH BUDDY Sharp and his staff can be proud of their Lobos who finished their 1987 football season with a 5-5 record last Friday. The 14 senior members of the squad showed a lot of improvement to give the team good balance.

The loss of 14 seniors for next year will be made easier when you consider the progress made by the juniors and sophomores. And the school's Junior Varsity team, made up mostly of freshmen and sophomores, had a 5-4 season. The 8th grade team lost only one game, and the 7th grade team had no losses but one tie and was scored on only once.

"We have a super attitude," Coach Sharp said. "And that goes a very long way in building football programs."

THE BILLY Wrights of Cisco were in the stands that stood up and cheered all afternoon out at Lubbock last Saturday afternoon. Texas Tech, their alma mater, scored a one point 36-to-35 win over the Horned Frogs of TCU, Fort Worth. It was a super game, he reports. Our scouts report that the drama folks out at CJC have a tape of the nice program presented there recently. People who missed their final show can borrow the tape. Manager Don Shepard of the Chamber of Commerce reports that they've been getting some water from their well lately. By doing some rearranging here and there and some cleaning out, they hope to have a more substantial flow by spring.

YOU'LL READ elsewhere about the first meeting of the new scrabble club last Thursday night. Interest and attendance was so good that Chairman Gloria Turner was hunting for a larger place for meetings. They filled the Olney Savings meeting room, overflowing to the old bank community room across the street (now Bill Philpott's offices). Some 31 Scrabblers had signed up to play this week. And they'll play at the White Elephant Dining Room, we

The Cisco Junior College Wranglers defeated Blinn JC here Saturday at the annual CJC Homecoming game. This win notched the Wranglers closer to becoming the conference champions. The Wranglers' last conference game will be against Ranger JC in Ranger Saturday at 7:30 p.m. If the Wranglers win, they will be the conference champs and will advance to play in a bowl game.

Coach Frazier commented, "This was an important win for us. This game put us in a position to win our conference. This win assured us a bowl bid. We will be playing in our second bowl game in three years. If we win over Ranger, we will play in the Texas "Rose" Bowl in Tyler. If we lose, we will play in the "Valley of the Sun" Bowl in Phoenix, Arizona. We have set our goal to be the best. If we meet it, we will be the first team in CJC history to win nine games."

Coach Chuck Lawrence, defensive coordinator, named Cedric Showels, a 6'0, 185-pound sophomore from Austin Lanier, as the Top understand, at 6 p.m. Thursday. Anyone interested can play. Take your scrabble board.

Margaret Webb won high for experienced players last Thursday with Pat Owens coming in 2nd. Cam and Cindy Webb had identical scores for the night, so guess they're the same smart.

WENT OVER TO Arlington last weekend and out to Vandergriff City Park at 9 a.m. we saw the cross country regional racers. There were literally acres of them - high school students in track uniforms everywhere. There's a story elsewhere about Cisco's team.

A good many folks went over Thursday night after the football game at Hico and spent the night to be on hand for the cross country races. Among Ciscoans we saw were Don and Janice Shepard and youngsters, Jerry and Jim Choate and their youngsters and the David Callarman family.

Defensive Player of the week. Cedric wears jersey No. 37.

In the first quarter, CJC and Blinn both scored one field goal. Blinn took the lead on a 37-yard field goal, kicked by Evans. Then CJC tied the score on a 27-yard field goal made by Eric Edwards. This made the score 3-3 at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Blinn left CJC scoreless. Blinn's Meyer scored on a 20-yard pass from Brown.

Evans' kick was good. The Wranglers were unable to connect for any points. At the half, Blinn led 10-3.

In the third quarter, Cisco shot out with full force. The Wranglers dominated the third quarter. They scored two touchdowns and left Blinn scoreless. Monty Cuba scored on a 4-yard run. Edwards kicked the extra point. The next touchdown was almost identical. Cuba scored on a 7-yard run. Edwards kicked the extra point. At the end of the third quarter, the Wranglers led 17-10.

In the fourth quarter, CJC again took the lead offensively. The Wranglers scored two touchdowns and allowed Blinn to score only one touchdown. The Wranglers were first to score. Pepper Proctor scored after he ran 22 yards to step into the end zone. Eric Edwards scored the extra point. Blinn then scored on a 6-yard run. The kick was good. The fifth and final scoring play by the Wranglers was made by Cedric Showels. Showels ran 34 yards on a kick-off return to score. Edwards kicked the extra point. The final score of the game was 31-17, Wranglers.

The leader in rushing for the Wranglers was Pepper Proctor. He rushed 101 yards. Congratulations, Wranglers, on a job well done! GOOD LUCK!!!!

Wranglers Lose Three In Midland Play At Howard Classics This Weekend

The CJC Wrangler Men, suffering from poor field goal and free throw shooting, lost all three games at the Chapparral Classic in Midland last weekend. With a season record of 1-3, the Wranglers next action is Thursday at 2 p.m. against Western Texas in the opening round of the Howard College Classic in Big Spring.

The game is a rematch between the two schools, as the Wranglers opened the season with a 95-92 win over WTC in Snyder last Tuesday.

The losses at Midland came at the hands of three national powers, Midland (86-57), Jacksonville Baptist (89-81,) and Garden City, Kansas (76-46).

opener on Thursday, CJC stayed close during most of the opening period, only to fall behind by 10 (42-32) as a result of two costly turnovers just before halftime. They came back to make it a close game with two quick baskets at the beginning of the second half, but the Chaps quickly regained the momentum and pulled away for the easy win. On Friday, the Wranglers actually led at halftime 25-23 against nationally ranked Garden City, but could not find the basket in the second half. As a result, the much taller Kansas team was able to blow the game wide open. On Saturday, the Wranglers again led Jacksonville 36-33 at the half, but could not contain the East Texans' inside game during the second half. The result was an eight point loss.

After four games, Ronald Ateman, a 6-4 freshman from Garland, leads the team in scoring with a 12.3 point average. He also leads in rebounding with 6.8 per game, while Tony Gould, a 6-1 sophomore from Wichita Falls, is the assist leader with 4.8 per game. Todd Mannon, a 6-5 sophomore from Truth or Consequences, New Mexico, has the leading shooting percentage with an even 50 per cent.

Report Is Given On Jail Standards At County Commissioners Meeting Mon.

During the County Commissioners meeting Monday Billy Bacon, Comm. of

Pct. 4, reported that there were 16 prisoners in the county jail. He also said that the Inter-Com has been installed and is working "perfectly", and that the new light fixtures have arrived and will be installed shortly.

"It looks like the jail will soon be up to standard," Bacon added. The Commissioner said that as soon as the light fixtures were in the Texas Jail Standards Commission would be notified, and that an inspection would probably take place soon afterward.

33 Scrabble Players Turn Out For First Meeting

The first meeting of the Cisco Scrabble Players Club last Thursday night was an outstanding success with 33 Scrabblers present to play Scrabble.

Seventeen Scrabblers were in the beginner group and were led by Mrs. Jay (Betty) Williams of Fort Worth. This group met in the Community Room of the old First National Bank Building. Liz Murphy won all four of her games and received first prize of a Scrabble bag in which to carry her game. Pat Wallace came in second, also winning all four of her games but with less points than Mrs. Murphy. Mrs. Wallace won a tie bag.

Sixteen Scrabblers were in the advanced group, led by Mrs. James H. (Gloria) Turner, which met in the Community Room of Olney Savings. Margaret Webb won all four of her games and won a Scrabble bag. Pat Owens was second, winning all but one game. Mrs. Webb beat her in the last game.

A total of 31 Scrabblers have signed up to play Thursday, Nov. 12, at 6 p.m. in the White Elephant Dining Room.

Anyone wanting to join the Scrabble Club should call Mrs. Turner at 442-4808 during the evening.

Important safety tips from Lone Star Gas

You can take comfort in Natural Gas.

Trusting gas for your home is a natural. After all, Lone Star Gas Company has been faithfully serving its customers for more than 75 years. Through the years, we have worked to earn your trust by providing safe, dependable natural gas.

Do you know why gas has a strong odor? Because we have added a harmless odorant to the gas that lets you know it's there. This is for your safety, so if you ever smell the strong odor of gas in your home, follow these rules:

- 1 Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Do not use your own telephone (telephones use small amounts of electricity). Do not strike a match, and do not do anything that might cause a spark.
- 2 Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving doors open for ventilation.
- 3 Go to the nearest telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the cause before returning to your home.

Since gas lines run underground, you should also take precautions against disrupting these lines, particularly if you plan to:

- 1 Put in a new fence.
- 2 Install an underground sprinkler system.
- 3 Perform any major landscape renovation.

Before you dig, call your local Lone Star Gas office. If you smell a gas odor while you're outside, immediately contact Lone Star Gas.

In our continuing effort to provide better, safer service, local Lone Star Gas offices are ready to answer any questions that contractors may have concerning the location of gas lines in their areas.

The safety record for natural gas is impressive, and peace of mind is an important part of what natural gas has to offer. By following these simple rules, you can take even greater comfort in natural gas.
