Among the guests at the program were County Judge Scott Bailey, Congressman Stenholm representative Dale King and City Judge Doug Fry. KTAB television was also there reporting the program. Cisco High school principal Jack Martin said he is proud to bring this type of program to the students and as long as he is principal he will teach God and Country at Cisco High School. He said the program was given in honor of the American flag

Putnam News

By Rudy Weathermon

The number one order for Putnam News this week is our very own Burk Robinson - whom all of Putnam agrees was the star football player on Friday night at Ranger. No hard feelings anyone - we know it takes all of you, but we just have to brag a little and be proud!

Attending the game from Putnam were: the Robinson family, Beth Whitehead and Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Collins and boys. Also attending were Burk's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Nunley of Abilene and his grandmother, Mrs. Dovie Cope from Hamby.

Darrell and Beatrice Cavanaugh and children Kim and Lisa, were visitors of their parents, Ken and Dean, this weekend. They are from Coleman.

John Weeks from Waco visited with parents, G.W. and Margie Weeks.

Mrs. June McCulloch and Louise Bowland were Putnam visitors on Sunday. They attended the Country Musical Retreat.

Mrs. Muri Reed, a former teacher at Putnam, from Cisco, was in Putnam on Sunday to attend the musical event.

R.D. Weeks and family from Eastland were in Putnam on Sunday. He and his boys, Robert and Brandy, along with Mr. Al Anderson from Cisco, were on the stage with their fiddles.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Wadell and Mrs. Mildred Fritz from Abilene spent Sunday with his mother, Ida Mae.

Mayor Winford Fry was busy overseeing the Country Western Musical Event that was held at the Putnam School Auditorium this weekend. He presented Keys to the City of Putnam to special ones who participated in the contest. T.V. cameras, recordings and taping of the event were all performed with perfect precision throughout the contest. There were over 40 contestants in the event to pick new faces in the country music world; with music from the "Sidemen Band" from Ft. Worth.

The Library at the school was set up with kitchen and dining apparel for serving the food. Those working in the kitchen throughout the weekend were: Gertrude Riffe, Elly Feely, Anita Buchanan, Trustee's of the school, Beth Whitehead, Mrs. Henry Fry, Virginia Johnson, Annie Mae Donaway and Ruth Lindsey and others. They did a good job, and the trustee's wish to thank each one who donated food and their time in helping make this a success.

Happy Thanksgiving to everyone and if you have guests over the holiday, please call me at 662-3852 if you want to share your family and friends with the news article.

negotiate a lease purchase for a new backhoe for the city.

Council members approved the bids for two city owned grass leases at the Tuesday meeting. Jake Morgan will lease the Lake Cisco tract and B.D. Green will lease the Canyon tract lease.

A bid for the Disposal Plant tract was turned down. The council decided the bid was too low. Bids for the Disposal Plant tract will be open at the next city council meeting to be held on December 8.

The City Council awarded the employee's insurance contract to TexasCare program with the Blue Cross, Blue Shield insurance company. Mr. Moore said there will be an increase in the overall rate, but it will not be as much as the cost rise of the other insurance. Moore said the basic employee benefits will be the same.

Council members who attended the meeting were John Muller, Bural Chambers, Roy Dennis, Arlie Whitley and Allen Masters. Also attending the meeting were Mayor Joe Wheatley, City Secretary Ginger Johnson, and City Manager Mike Moore. One guest, Mrs. C.E. Reynolds was present at the meeting.

The Putnam School that closed its doors in 1975 has begun a "Face Lift" with a Restoration Grant and a Small Business Loan to connect the business world of Music for Texas at Putnam, Texas.

The stage was very attractive, with new stage curtains and lighting for the contestants to perform. There were over forty contestants from Cisco, Stephenville, Woodson, Abilene, Ft. Worth, Dallas, Odessa, San Antonio, Kilgore, Longview and Shreveport, La. who entered the talent contest. They came from all walks of life, and the crowd heard songs and music all the way from "Tumbling Tumble Weeds" to "Glory, Glory Hallelujah".

The SK-2000 From Skeeter The Bass Boat of the Future - Today!

Skeeter has always been ahead of its time, forging new and innovative paths in the bass boat industry. They designed and built the very first bass boat, the revolutionary "Skeeter," which laid the foundation for an entire new industry. With their Wrangler and Starfire models, they led the way to the modern era of high performance bass boating, establishing themselves as the undisputed leader in tournament boat development and design. Now Skeeter opens up the 21st century of the boat design with the SK-2000 - and the fishing world will never be the same.

"The SK 2000 is the most significant development in bass boat design since we introduced the Starfire series nine years ago," said Lynn Scott, vice president of sales and marketing for Skeeter boats. "It's the boat that serious fishermen have been looking for and is sure to redefine the standards by which other fishing boats are made and measured."

Designed to easily handle rough water and heavy loads, the SK-2000 is 20'7" long and 96" wide. To accommodate this length and width, Skeeter designed a special high performance deep V hull (patent pending), with assistance from world record holder Reggie Fountain, one of the foremost authorities on hull design for rough water and high speed performance. The result is a quick planing design that eliminates drag and smooths the roughest water.

Complimenting the new hull design is their revolutionary new center console that has the look and feel of a cockpit. It places the driver and rider in the center of the boat, providing excellent balance for more stability, faster acceleration and a drier ride. This new cockpit was designed for today's high-tech fishermen with assistance from Design West, whose specialized skills in ergonomics - the study of the body's comfortable interaction with technology - have been utilized by N.A.S.A., G.M. and Mazda. It features an easy-to-understand and user-friendly instrument panel, built into the metal reinforced urethane dash that comes with a built-in speedometer, voltmeter, tachometer and fuel gauge, as well as a centrally located, lockable compartment for use of the largest depth-finding sonar units.

The stern features specially designed "spoilers", which are functional air intake vents. Rated for 150-250 horsepower engines, the SK-2000 simply roars past the competition with superior handling and stability that you can't find in another bass boat. For boating and fishing comfort, the SK-2000 can't be beat. With its comfortable seats, ample leg room and plenty of storage space, this is undoubtedly the most sophisticated fishing system you've yet to experience.

With its many new and exciting features and that distinctive Skeeter quality, this peerless example of outstanding boat design is truly in a class by itself. Its power, performance and undeniable fishability will capture your imagination. It's the most revolutionary fishing boat to hit the market in years, and Skeeter brings this world class design and unique innovation from the future to you - the amazing new SK-2000.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials said the state's rainbow trout stocking program will be expanded to 17 public sites and eight state parks this winter.

Pat Hutson, trout program leader, said he anticipates stocking 137,000 rainbows beginning in early December. "Although we will have about the same number of trout as last year, we are adding nine sites to determine how well the public utilizes them," said Hutson.

The trout program is operated on a pay-as-you-go basis, funded entirely by proceeds from sales of $5 State Trout Stamps, required of anglers to fish for trout in Texas waters. Last year the department sold 18,760 stamps which produced more than $85,500 in revenue.

Fishermen also are required to possess a valid fishing license in addition to the trout stamp. The bag limit is five trout per day, ten in possession statewide. No additional fee is charged to fish for trout in state parks, only standard entrance and facility use fees.

The following are locations to be stocked, the overall number of trout expected for the season and tentative stocking dates:

Brazos River below Possum Kingdom, 35,000 trout; December 2, 16, 29, January 12, 27; February 10 and 24.

Barton Creek, Austin, 10,000 trout; December 16, 29; January 12, 27; February 10.

Spring Lake Park, Texas, 5,000 trout; December 22; January 5 and 19.

The following are state parks slated to receive trout:

Meridian, 10,000 trout; December 3, 17; January 7, 21; February 4.

Cleburne, 10,000 trout; December 3, 17; January 7, 21; February 4.

Christmas Seals Distributed

The Christmas Seals Campaign, sponsored by the American Lung Association, is celebrating its 80th anniversary this year. State Treasurer Ann Richards is serving as the 1987 Christmas Seals chairperson for Texas. More than 40 million Seals have been distributed nationwide. Contributions to the campaign will be used to promote lung health and research projects on lung diseases.

Marking their 80th year, the 1987 Christmas Seals have been mailed this year to 40 million homes nationwide including one and a half million households throughout Texas, according to J. C. Ewing Jr., president of the board of directors of the American Lung Association of Texas.

To kick-off the campaign in Texas, State Treasurer Ann Richards, 1987 chairwoman, last week unveiled at the Capitol the 80th anniversary seal which features a doll named Candy Claus with Santa.

stamps bearing the double-barred cross of the American Lung Association have become an American tradition and a symbol of the battle against all lung diseases and some of their related causes such as smoking, air pollution and occupational lung hazards," Ewing said.

"Christmas Seals are the primary support of the American Lung Association and its 139 affiliates nationwide," he said. He added that 90 percent of the funds raised in Texas will stay in the state to support research and to provide community services, public health education, patient education and professional training. Ewing pointed out that 78.7 million - almost 33 percent of the American population - have had some chronic respiratory disease ranging in severity from chronic sinusitis to emphysema. Lung disease, including lung cancer, rank third among the leading causes of death in Texas.

Contributions to Christmas Seals will support programs throughout Texas such as "Freedom from Smoking" clinics, Family Asthma Programs, Better

Breathing Clubs for patients with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, and programs for school-age children such as "Your Lungs Are For Life," "Smoking Deserves a Smart Answer," and "Marijuana: A Second Look." Funds will also support clean air policies, programs and public forums on major lung health issues.

Those who do not receive a supply of Christmas Seals in the mail may request them by calling the American Lung Association of Texas at 1-800-252-LUNG or writing to 3520 Executive Center Dr., Suite G-100, Austin, Texas 78731-1698.

Cisco Junior College To Present 14th Annual Christmas Madrigal Dinner

Cisco Junior College will present its 14th annual Christmas Madrigal Dinner, Thursday and Friday, December 3 and 4, at the Hilton Community Center.

Traditionally, the dinner is punctuated with trumpet fanfares and Christmas carols, and this year's presentation will be no exception. What will be exceptional is the new costumes the Madrigal Singers will be wearing.

Madrigal dinners feature music and decorations of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The fare will be the wassail bowl or hot punch, roast pig, and a flaming pudding - ceremoniously served. Of course, after the serving of the flaming pudding, the concert proper begins, featuring true madrigals and ending with Christmas carols.

The Madrigal Singers are a select group from the CJC choir and are directed by Wyley Peebles. "This is one of the best madrigal groups we have ever had, and the program will be a most interesting one," Peebles said.

Tim Jones, CJC Band Director, is preparing the trumpeters for the fanfares that will announce each course of the meal. Steven Zell will provide music on the harpsichord, and Lisa Sims, a student music major, will play a flute sonata.

The dinner begins at 7 p.m. each evening, and reservations are required. Tickets are $9 and reservations should be made by calling (817) 442-2567 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

CAPITOL UPDATE

by Jim Parker

Perhaps an update on the status of the Railroad Commission regulation of motor freight would be in order. As many of you have been advised (and subsequently made calls to my office) there was originally, in S.B. 595, and intention to regulate all motor freight with a gross weight over 2,000 pounds. Of course, this would include our stock trailers and pickups and would subject us to the same insurance standards, and several other standards, that would necessarily be met by true commercial haulers.

This proposal caused a significant "hue and cry" in my district and I got a number of phone calls and personal visits from concerned people in my area.

Believe it or not, it appears that, at least in this state, common sense and reason will prevail. The latest information I have had from the Railroad Commission is that agriculture products will be exempt to the first point of sale. Specifically, vehicles operated on behalf of farmers/ranchers in the conduct of their farm/ranch operations would be exempt from the definition of "commercial vehicle". Additionally, the weight ceiling appears to have been raised from 10,000 pounds to 26,000 pounds.

I can't help but be a little bit proud of our Railroad Commissioners because they did take the legislation that passed, recognized the folly of that legislation and adapt the regulations to fit the realities of farm and ranch operations. That happens all too seldom in government, be it state, federal, or otherwise, and credit should be given where credit is due.

News On The News-Social Security

By JOSEPHINE CLEVELAND

Social Security has been a part of the American system for over 50 years. The Social Security Act of 1935 set up two lines of defense against want. The first defense was a contributory social insurance; the second was public assistance. This year payments made to the 38 million people under Social Security requires $217 billion. This is the largest expenditure in the federal budget. For several years our leaders have been troubled over meeting the payments of retirees' benefits as well as of meeting all our government outlays. Yet, when Congressional leaders and White House officials met recently to consider how to economize and cut our nation's debt, President Reagan went before our nation and said, "We must find ways to balance our budget but do not cut Social Security."

Why do our leaders feel this way? This program is one of our Federal Government most popular programs. Retirees believe strongly that they are due a return on their Social Security withholding payroll tax.

They do not think of it as being a welfare program but rather as an insurance. Over the years Congress has passed many amendments to the Social Security Act. Many benefits have been added. Social Security has improved retirees' lifestyles. A 65 year-old worker who retires this year could receive the top payment of $789 a month which is 53 percent of the average wage in the United States.

Problems have arisen since Social Security's inception. Most retirees receive a bigger check each month than they have contributed. Some one must pay for this. Some argue that retirees who have worked and saved for their future could get along without these payments. But these retirees feel they should get a return on their investment.

Monthly withholding tax has increased over the years to pay for the increasing number of retirees' benefits. There are 125 million workers who help pay for these benefits. The self-employed pay approximately 12 percent of their earnings.

Congress finally partially tried to change SS inequities and now those whose yearly salaries are more, pay more. Couples who have incomes over $32,000 and single individuals with incomes over $25,000 a year must pay tax up to half their Social Security benefits. This tax will bring in about $4 billion next year.

Some economists go so far as to propose that a tax be imposed on all of the well-to-do retirees' Social Security benefits.

Some budget-cutters have suggested that $24 billion could be saved in the next three years if the cost-of-living adjustment were frozen. This is not likely - even though the Price Index failed to rise by 3 percent Congress voted on an $8.6 billion hike anyway.

Congress recently passed a bill providing for catastrophic health insurance, a worthwhile law - The elderly are faced with tremendous health costs. This bill, however, will nonetheless dramatically expand Medicare payments for serious illness. Although financed by Medicare premiums at the offset, the program will cost $1.4 billion this year, $4.5 in 1990 and untold amounts in the future.

Interest groups are concerned that they get their share of tax monies. Congress has been liberal in passing laws to provide money for these interest groups. Just how long our nation can continue going in this direction remains to be seen.

Wranglers Beat

Howard

After a sluggish first half performance, the CJC Wrangler Men came back strong in the second half to defeat the Howard College Hawks 74-71 in Wrangler Gym Tuesday night. The Wranglers could hit only two of nine free throw attempts in the first half, and as a result, trailed the Hawks 36-26 at intermission. The second half was a different story as the Wranglers came out hot and gradually chipped into the lead.

Eddie Venzant, a 6'2" sophomore transfer from Saline, LA, hit a layup with 3:16 remaining to give Cisco its first lead of the game at 62-60. The Hawks came right back to tie it at 62-62, but a fast break jumper by Thomas Miller and two free throws by Venzant gave the Wranglers a 66-62 margin, which they never relinquished. Free throws by Todd Mannon and Tyrone Williams in the last minute of play insured the victory for the Wranglers, who evened their season record at six and six.

Williams, a thin 6'5" leaper from Shreveport, LA, led CJC scoring with 16, including three dunks. Miller added fifteen while Ronald Ateman chipped in with 13. Williams was the leading rebounder with ten boards.

After a four day holiday break, the Wranglers return to action Tuesday, December 1, when they travel to Altus, OK, to play the Western Oklahoma Pioneers. Next home game is Tuesday, December 8, a return match with the Pioneers.

100 YEARS!
IT'S TRULY humbling for us to think that we have the privilege to be associated with an institution that's celebrating its one-hundredth birthday.

And first of all, we want to thank all of those who have helped make it possible.

AND NEXT we want to invite one and all to participate in this special Birthday Party, which will be held Friday, Dec. 4 from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Callahan County Star offices in Baird. This invitation is being extended throughout our area which includes the Callahan and Eastland County Newspapers.

The address is 211 Market St. in Baird, and you especially are invited to come by for a piece of birthday cake, register for special gifts, and to get to know the Callahan County Star staff better.

Editor Shirley Rorie and Associate Debby Smedley and all the folks of Callahan-Eastland County Newspapers Co. join in welcoming you to visit.

WE ALL know that the Star is in fact YOUR NEWSPAPER because it is through your faithful support over the years, that it is what it is today. So many have contributed so much. For fear of leaving out even one, it's impossible for us to list all those who have been so much a part of this solid institution which has been such a vital part of the Baird and Callahan County life for so many years.

The Star and others of our group have most recently staged "Open Houses" for their respective towns, and the response has been absolutely outstanding. This effort is typical of your local newspaper's philosophy which is to help promote and disseminate information about our local communities, telling one and all that we've got mighty fine towns whose merchants deserve our support, and encouraging one and all to band together to work together to work for the common good of all.

In these less-than-rosy economic times, we're all re-learning the importance of strengthening each other and making the most of what we have, because we all do have so much to be proud of, thankful for, and boastful about.

IT IS indeed humbling for those of us who are associated with such age-old companies to recognize the responsibilities that are ours and to dedicate ourselves to doing the best job we can, to help maintain the quality, improve where we can, and to help carrying on the fine old traditions which are so important to all of us.

It's true in Callahan and Eastland counties, that the good people who are our faithful readers and advertisers are the backbone of efforts. Without these, very little can be done. And of course that's true for all the other businesses and organizations in these good communities: it takes good people working together to provide the needs of our people.

ONCE AGAIN, please consider yourself especially invited to join the Centennial Celebration at the Callahan County Star on Friday, Dec. 4, at mid-day, and if it's not possible, then, why drop by anytime and get acquainted with Shirley and Debby, and they'll be glad to know how long you've read the Star, and looked to it for news and information about your town.

AND AT this Thanksgiving Season, we'd be quick to add that we are especially grateful for the opportunity of working for the good people of Callahan and Eastland counties. They're our kind of folks.

AND AS we close by wishing you and yours a Happy Thanksgiving and Joyous Christmas Season, we're reminded that we're looking forward to next 100 years of service.

WE TRUST that we will always be found faithful to the trust that has been given us, and can in some way contribute meaningfully to the future well-being of the areas we serve.

WE'LL BE looking for you Friday, Dec. 4, mid-day at the Callahan County Star.

Poet's Corner

Thanksgiving
As we walk down our country lane
We feel fall in the air.
The different color of the leaves,
As if an artist had been there.

We see the presence of Thy love
In every living thing,
Squirrels playing hide and seek,
And an early morning rain.

As we gather around our tables,
This Thanksgiving day,
We all count our many blessings
That thou hast sent our way.

Let us never forget our brother
In the hour of his need.

As the time comes near for the snows to start falling and the wind to start piercing we think of those a little less fortunate than ourselves. Our theme this month is going to be the giving season. We will let you know what the clubs and organizations of Cisco High School are doing to help others. If you have any input on this subject we would like you to let us know. We would even like to know about things happening around town that have to do with the giving season.

Cisco High School had a flag raising ceremony Thursday, Nov. 25. Congressman Jack Hightower came to town to share some of his ideas about our liberties and freedoms. The program contained a lot of preparation from a lot of people. We had the Color Guard from Dyess Air Force Base to raise the flag. KTAB news from Abilene was here to cover the event. Wayne

White and YNSC Marlin Powledge also delivered speeches and their ideas of freedom. It was a very inspirational event that will be remembered here for a long time.
