

Mr. Muleshoe . . .

By J. M. Forbes

It was so quiet in Muleshoe Monday that a mouse, tiptoeing across a bale of cotton at a gin a quarter of a mile away from Main Street, people's ears were quick to pick it up. An old Nichols & Sheppard threshing machine when a pitchfork accidentally went in with a bundle of grain. Everybody's busy, they don't have time to come to town, is the way it was explained to me. Well, I wish they would get unbusy a while and come on in here and spend some money with our merchants, who would then give us pore benighted printers something to do. Am getting tired of wearing out one fly swatter after another, swatting flies and pretending to be dead over head work.

Earl Ladd would be the last to try to want to do anything which would de-emphasize athletics and their importance in our schools. He wouldn't miss a Yellow Jacket game for any reason. But he has come forward with a plan to accord those boys and girls whose achievements in the studies and literary activities of the schools are outstanding the recognition which automatically, it seems, goes to the boy or girl who is superior in athletics.

Reading, writing, and arithmetic still are mighty important in the lives of us all; students who excel in their efforts to master these subjects and many others ought to get the same publicity as the star athlete. We will hear more of this later. Suffice it to say just now that the highest authorities in our local school are sympathetic to a plan and propose a part of it will go into effect this school year.

Clyde Taylor's new business, the automatic vending of ice, has made way in the air. Whilst old Clyde and family have their ease at home or in the theatre, this editor continues to grind out copy for the week's issue of the Journal. We are going to install an automatic reporter - an automatic rewrite man - an automatic typesetting machine, a composing galley, a press and a mangle. We will not be outdone by an ice company. We are going to have it so that you can put 20 cents in a slot and get 25 pounds of news - or 50 pounds for 40 cents. We don't know how we are going to do it, but we are determined to do it and pretty soon at that.

If you, the readers of this newspaper, should one day be shopping for food in your favorite food store, and you should run across a can of green beans labeled "Heart of the Plains," take this writer's advice and buy it before someone beats you to it, for this can contains Muleshoe green beans. Grown and packed here at Muleshoe. The label is the official brand of the Muleshoe Canning Co.

One day James Case gave my editor a can of their fancy whole green beans and after some bribery and persuasion in the kitchen, department of his home establishment, the beans appeared upon the table. I am one who can take green beans or leave them alone, but these were so good I lit into them. They look good and have a wonderful flavor.

While on the subject, I want to come out unequivocally for Muleshoe vegetables of all kinds. I have talked with many men, and they all say that Muleshoe grown vegetables just have the good looks and the flavor to be top shelf anywhere. You won't find better tasting vegetables being grown on our soil and the sun that shines above these Plains on so many days just put the right ingredients into them. We may yet become famous as the place where all those good looking, good tasting vegetables are grown.

They took a gem, not too large or gaudy, not so small as to be insignificant, placed it in a perfectly mounted setting which permitted the gem to glow in all its brilliance and they called it "Belle for Americans." When they showed it Friday night the audience could only stare in awe and wonder that our youngsters, guided by two fine ladies, could produce such a little jewel of a performance. They had around $200.00 to apply on the purchase of a piano. We may consider ourselves fortunate that they didn't raise enough at one blow to buy a fine piano for the auditorium, for now they will have to present another performance of some kind and you and I will be the beneficiaries, spiritually, thereof.

"When you find better looking, or better tasting tomatoes than those now being grown at Muleshoe, you'll be going home!" These words were uttered by C. C. McIlwain, of Edouchoe, Texas, who has opened a shed here to buy green wrap and ship our tomatoes by the carlot. Mr. McIlwain is a veteran vegetable buyer. He went to the Magic Valley of the Rio Grand in 1907, has lived there ever since, and helped to pioneer the vegetable industry of the valley. Therefore his appraisal of our tomatoes may be taken at its full value and we may take a just pride in our vegetables, which are now bringing in cash money at a time when cash money is very desirable.

HERE FROM FORT WORTH
Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Beavers, of Fort Worth, were here to attend the funeral services for Emmanuel Jennings, held Tuesday. They also visited with their son, Spencer Beavers and family and with old friends while here.

Rotary Hears Views Of City Dads On Paving Program For Muleshoe

Members of the Rotary Club of Muleshoe were brought up to date on what has been learned by the city commission members in their study of the possibilities of inaugurating a street paving program here. Harold King, mayor, and Jim Cox, commissioner, talked briefly and told their listeners the progress they have made so far. Another commissioner, Loyd Roberts, was unable to attend.

The speakers were introduced by J. M. Forbes, who had charge of the program for the day.

The commission is thinking now of a program which would permit the paving of all streets in Muleshoe if the residents on each street favor such improvement. Bonds would be voted, to be issued if and when the residents of a group of blocks got ready for paving, and not to be issued or to draw interest until their issuance is needed.

Bonds would be short-term, so that long time interest charges would be avoided. King said he saw no reason why twenty year bonds should be issued, entailing a total cost to the city and people of nearly twice what the paving should cost. The city commission favors at this time a rather wide, permanent type pavement, with curb and gutter. More on this matter will be forthcoming for publication in The Journal within the next few days.

A number of visitors attended the luncheon. District Judge E. A. Bills, charter member of the Littlefield Rotary Club, here in court that day, complimented the people of Muleshoe on considering a paving project and said nothing improves a town so much. He touched briefly on the parking meter situation and reminded his hearers that he would hear arguments pro and con in the district courtroom September 15. Judge Bills said he had granted a temporary restraining order and that the hearing that was to have been held August 18 was postponed to accommodate lawyers on both sides.

"Sarge" Lyle, Sudan Banker, and Rev. Sherrill, Sudan Methodist pastor, were other Rotary visitors. Buddy Blackman, president of the JayCees also was a guest and was introduced as the head of the club which has helped to get the paving project to rolling. Arnold Morris, vice-president, presided in the absence of Ray Keeling, president.

Tennis Courts Being Built

Work is well underway on construction of two tennis courts behind the junior high school. These courts are being built by the Junior Chamber of Commerce with the assistance of the Tennis Club.

These courts will be used by the schools during the day and members of the tennis club and public will have the use of the courts after school and at night. The courts will be lighted for night playing.

Drive-In Theatre Offers Wahoo Game

Cox Drive-In As-U-R Theatre, of Muleshoe, has announced that "a pleasant surprise" is in store for their patrons in the new screen game that they will inaugurate on Thursday night, Sept. 7. The game is known as "Wahoo", and is so similar to Bingo that one could hardly tell the difference.

The numbers will be flashed on the screen. Each patron will have a Wahoo card and the one who wins will find a prize awaiting him.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cox, proprietors of the theatre, said they believe the people will enjoy playing this new game. It will be a regular Thursday night feature.

Swim Pool In Black First Year

Muleshoe's Municipal Swimming Pool made money in the very first year of operation! The pool, installed early this year, will close for the season today, August 31. Figures released by the office of city secretary R. J. Klump showed a balance of receipts over expenditures of $1,709.20. Local people will be surprised to learn the municipal enterprise took in $3,032.99 in its first season.

The secretary's office gave the following detailed statement of receipts and disbursements:

Receipts:
Swim Admission	$2,586.39
Season Tickets	224.60
Concession	222.00
Total	$3,032.99

Expense
Salaries	$ 564.21
Supplies	542.68
Freight In	10.68
Electric Power	56.22
Insurance	150.00
Total	$1,323.79
Balance	$1,709.20

The pool was installed with a $30,000 bond issue, payable $1,000 a year with 3 per cent interest to 1968 and $2,000 a year thereafter until 1974. Total bond retirement this year would be $1,030, still leaving a very comfortable margin.

The people have some more money invested in the pool for bathrooms, extra concrete, etc., but this was paid for in cash.

Grain Drier Is Installed Here

A grain drier has been installed at King Bros. Grain & Seed Co. in Muleshoe and will be available to farmers in the coming grain sorghum harvest. A notice of this service is being carried in an advertisement in another part of this paper.

Paradoxically, the elevator is in the position of advertising a service which the management sincerely hopes the farmers will not have to use.

H. D. King of the firm said the drier is for use where circumstances force the farmer to cut his grain before it has fully matured and has the minimum moisture. He said the farmer profited by waiting, if at all possible, until conditions are right before he combines his grain and that therefore the company hopes few will have to use the drier but that the service is available if needed.

Free X-ray Exams Are Scheduled

Free X-ray examinations for possible tuberculosis will be offered the people of this territory October 17, 18, and 19 it was announced today.

Charles H. Hoover of the T. B. Division, State Health Department, Austin, was in Muleshoe this week to make preliminary arrangements.

The visit here of the health unit that will give free chest examinations will be sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Associations of Muleshoe, whose members began work on the project last year and now have brought it to a successful conclusion.

Mr. Hoover will return Sept. 15 to organize committees and make final preparation for the health unit's visit.

Baseball Finals Here Sunday

The second game of the final playoff of the Amateur West Texas-New Mexico Baseball League will be played here Sunday between the Muleshoe team and the Portales, N. M., team. The game is scheduled to start at 2:30 p. m.

Everyone is invited to come out and witness this game and boost for the home team. It will be one of the best games of the season.

ATTEND REGIONAL MEETING

JayCees and their wives attending bi-regional meeting of the Junior of Commerce in Hereford over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linderer, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Keeling, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Vaughan, and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Barnett. John Ben Sheppard, secretary of state and former president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, was honor guest of the Muleshoe club.

20,000 Cases Of Green Beans Were Canned This Year

Muleshoe Canning Company has wound up another canning season, after packing 20,000 cases of green beans grown in this immediate territory.

There remains now for the company the problem of marketing. However, on all except the best grade of beans, the demand has been better than the supply.

The company, whose product is known as "Heart of the Plains", packs three different grades of beans. Their top quality beans are whole green beans and naturally are slower to move than the cut green beans. However one big wholesaler, after seeing the texture and color, and testing the flavor, last week ordered 100 cases of these fine beans as a starter. The company puts the Wapco label on some of the beans they can especially for Waples Platter Grocery Co.

The canning company has cleared the decks for possible canning of some of the tomatoes now rapidly maturing in the Muleshoe country.

Supt. Grandy Addresses Lions

Supt. of Schools C. W. Grandy was guest speaker at the Lions club luncheon Wednesday noon at Gerald's Cafe.

Mr. Grandy said there would be little change in the way the school would be conducted this year and last year. He stated that it required approximately $225,000 a year to operate the schools. Last year the enrollment was about 1400 scholars with an average daily attendance of approximately 1200.

Mr. Grandy said that the Muleshoe school district was the second largest in the state with an area of 506 square miles. Buses travel as far as 30 miles from Muleshoe, and only six miles going to school. Mr. Grandy said the largest school district in the state.

This year the school will have 16 buses and drivers, bus superintendent, 56 instructors, dietitian, eight lunchroom workers, school nurse, grade supervisor, high school principal and elementary principal besides the superintendent's position.

The attendance contest ended Wednesday and the losing side piloted by Tye Young is to treat Bill Moore's Roger and Buddy Pool, Moore's winning side in the near future. Mr. Young has not set the date of the "hamburger feast."

The Lions Club will also entertain the faculty of the Muleshoe schools with a watermelon feast in the near future. Lion Boss Blondie Ray appointed a committee to make necessary arrangements composed of Shorty Lambert, Jack Lenderson, and Loyd Roberts.

Guests today were: Jack Young, guest of his father, Tye Young, J. Lewis Morris, guest of W. Q. Casey, Wayne Bristow, guest of Bill Moore; Roger and Buddy Pool, guests of their father, Lee Pool; Bo Bryant, guest of his father, Boots Bryant; Little Miss Doris Ann Gilbreath, guest of her father, Rufus Gilbreath; and William W. Dayton of Plainview, guest of Jeff Peeler.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a brother at home.

Couch is reported to be the first Lamb county man to have been killed in action.

Less Than 300 Voters Cast Ballots In Bailey County Second Primary

Less than 300 votes were cast in all of Bailey County in the run-off primary held last Saturday, largely because there were no local contests to be decided.

Bailey County folks largely followed the trend in Texas. They favored Ben Ramsey for lieutenant governor; Fagan Dickson for associate justice of the supreme court, place 1; gave a whopping majority to Meade F. Griffin of Plainview in his race for the supreme court, place 3; gave a two to one majority to W. A. Morrison for judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals; and, finally, voted two to one for John C. White, the young political sensation from Wichita Falls, who downed the veteran J. E. McDonald for Commissioner of Agriculture, in what has been called the biggest political upset in Texas in 12 years.

Mr. Jennings, manager of the Muleshoe Municipal Airport, was killed when the Piper dusting plane he was flying crashed on the John Stein farm six miles north and east of Sudan about 7:15 Sunday night. He was dusting cotton on the Matt Nix farm.

Witnesses reported he had just taken off from the Robert Maston farm, which he was using for headquarters, made a sharp turn, and crashed. It was reported he was flying about 30 feet off the ground. The plane struck on its nose and right wing and burst into flames.

Farmers of the surrounding area went after torches to cut the twisted wreckage so his body could be removed. The plane was owned by D. O. Smith of Muleshoe.

Mr. Jennings had been manager of the local airport for the last two years. Prior to this he was employed in the market of Waggon Grocery and Market. He was a veteran with 18 months service in the Navy.

He was born at Comanche, in Stevens County, Oklahoma, on March 11, 1917. He moved to Muleshoe in 1933 and had lived in this area ever since.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Juanita Jennings; two sons, Phillip, 11, and Lenore, 8; his mother, Mrs. Mary Jennings, Duncan, Okla.; two brothers, Robert L. Jennings, Seminole, Okla., and William L. Jennings, Duncan, Okla., and three sisters, Mrs. D. L. Roper, Comanche, Okla., Mrs. Carolyn Hakala and Miss Mildred Jennings, both of Duncan, Okla.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. at the residence of Mrs. M. F. Blackman, Conrad, Williams, Carroll Howell, Bob Maston, and Pinky Barbour.

Honorary pallbearers were Dewitt Elmore and Willis Farrell.

Muleshoe Area Tomatoes Good

Two sheds have been set up in Muleshoe to handle the tomato crop of this territory, it was learned this week.

Carl Case and sons, of the Muleshoe Canning Company, have leased the E. R. Hart Company warehouse on Clovis highway and have installed grading machinery. This arrangement is for the Price Produce of Dallas, which will operate the shed.

Another shed has been established in the Bill Millen potato shed, located on the Sudan highway. This shed is operated by the McIlwain Vegetable Company, of Edouchoe, Texas, associated with W. R. "Bill" Flow, also of the Rio Grande Valley. C. C. McIlwain, veteran vegetable handler and Mr. Flow are on the ground now and will be here during the season. A representative of the Price Produce also is in Muleshoe.

Mr. Case and sons, Billy Bob and James, told The Journal that about 350 acres of tomatoes are the fruit just getting to the harvest stage, are located right near Muleshoe. They themselves have 100 acres.

In addition there are about 100 acres at Littlefield, and these tomatoes are expected to be routed through Muleshoe sheds. Furthermore, they said, some tomatoes around Hereford may be routed through here.

The Journal man in his rounds has heard some very complimentary things said about the quality and appearance of tomatoes grown here, and a prediction that tomatoes will yet "put Muleshoe on the map."

Mr. McIlwain said tomatoes he buys locally are graded, wrapped and packed in lugs to be loaded onto freight cars and sold in carlots to the San-Pat Vegetable Company.

Muleshoe tomatoes last year went in vegetable vans as far as New York City to delight the hungry millions in that great metropolis.

Muleshoe Canning Company, which has just completed packing 20,000 cases of green beans, is rigged up this week in anticipation of canning at least a part of the crop. The Cases said that if the market for green wrap tomatoes is not to their liking they will allow the tomatoes to ripen and can some of them. Presumably they will can those which do not meet specifications as to size, also.

Funeral For E. L. Jennings Tuesday

Funeral services for Emmanuel Leon Jennings, 33, who was killed in an airplane crash near Sudan Sunday night, were held in the First Methodist Church, Tuesday, August 29, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Jennings of Springfield, Mo., officiated, assisted by Rev. W. Blaine, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Rev. W. H. Hanks, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and Rev. M. C. Cox, pastor of the Assembly of God Church. Burial was in the Muleshoe Cemetery under the direction of Muleshoe Funeral Home.

Mr. Jennings, manager of the Muleshoe Municipal Airport, was killed when the Piper dusting plane he was flying crashed on the John Stein farm six miles north and east of Sudan about 7:15 Sunday night. He was dusting cotton on the Matt Nix farm.

Witnesses reported he had just taken off from the Robert Maston farm, which he was using for headquarters, made a sharp turn, and crashed. It was reported he was flying about 30 feet off the ground. The plane struck on its nose and right wing and burst into flames.

Farmers of the surrounding area went after torches to cut the twisted wreckage so his body could be removed. The plane was owned by D. O. Smith of Muleshoe.

Mr. Jennings had been manager of the local airport for the last two years. Prior to this he was employed in the market of Waggon Grocery and Market. He was a veteran with 18 months service in the Navy.

He was born at Comanche, in Stevens County, Oklahoma, on March 11, 1917. He moved to Muleshoe in 1933 and had lived in this area ever since.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Juanita Jennings; two sons, Phillip, 11, and Lenore, 8; his mother, Mrs. Mary Jennings, Duncan, Okla.; two brothers, Robert L. Jennings, Seminole, Okla., and William L. Jennings, Duncan, Okla., and three sisters, Mrs. D. L. Roper, Comanche, Okla., Mrs. Carolyn Hakala and Miss Mildred Jennings, both of Duncan, Okla.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. at the residence of Mrs. M. F. Blackman, Conrad, Williams, Carroll Howell, Bob Maston, and Pinky Barbour.

Honorary pallbearers were Dewitt Elmore and Willis Farrell.

Jackets Open At Tahoka 8th

Muleshoe High School Yellow Jackets football squad will open their formidable 1950 grid season with a game at Tahoka Friday night of next week, September 8. First home game of the season will be against Portales here September 15.

During the last several days a football training camp has been underway at the high school with Coaches Green and Bailey putting their charges through two practice sessions daily.

The boys looked good in their scrimmage here last Thursday night and returned the scrimmage there Tuesday night of this week. A good crowd turned out for their first chance to see the 1950 squad in action last Thursday.

A ten game schedule has been arranged for the local boys. Only three games, those with Portales, Sudan, and Hereford will be non-conference. On nearly every Friday night for the next several weeks the Yellow Jackets will be in there seeking to improve their conference standing.

HO, HUM ITEM

W. M. Pool, Jr., is again on a fishing trip. This week he's around Fort Worth trying his luck at various well known angling spots. Mrs. Pool is with him. However, it was learned on good authority that Myron hadn't been fishing in two, three days before he took off on this jaunt.

Rainfall Here 4.71 Inches In August

Muleshoe received nearly an inch and a half of rainfall since Saturday, but indications were that part of it least was not in general character but was heavier on the town section than anywhere else.

A shower Saturday night left .71 of an inch of moisture in Muleshoe and probably covered considerable territory. It rained all the way to Plainview on the east and as far as Clovis on the west, that night with a heavy rain recorded around Earth.

Then Tuesday afternoon another .74 of an inch fell. This shower appeared to be very local. It brought the total here to 4.71 for August, highest rainfall recorded in August since 1942. R. J. Klump, weather recorder, said.

Meanwhile crops in part of the territory are suffering for rain, as much as has fallen in the last two months. It was said that plants have developed very little root system due to the weather last winter which did not allow residue vegetation to rot and form a mulch and to other causes. Consequently the plants suffer quickly when the rain stops.

Much is being heard about the devastation being caused by worms. Leafworms are said to be working on cotton foliage in big way on some farms, and dusting goes on all over this territory.

Fair Preparations Now Underway

Preparations are underway for the annual Bailey County Fair, to be held on the campus of the new Muleshoe high school Sept. 21, 22 and 23. Some barracks belonging to the schools will be moved into position this week to house exhibits.

The D. S. Dudley shows, one of the better known carnivals, will be playing in Plainview during the time, moving in here September 15 and playing through September 23. The carnival will be located on campus south of the school building, in front of and to the right of the swimming pool.

The Fair will have the following departments: Flower show, canned foods, cakes, art show, infant clothing, needle work, educational booths, crops, beef cattle, dairy cattle, hogs and poultry.

Vocational Agriculture student of Muleshoe, Three Way, and Bula county home demonstration club members, 4-H Club members, and members of various other clubs are cooperating. It seems certain now that there will be the biggest exhibits this year that have ever been assembled for a Bailey County Fair.

The Journal will begin this week publishing the list of premiums and the schedule of exhibits by departments. Since the list is long the list will be carried in installments and all interested are asked to preserve a copy of the list as installments are published.

The accident occurred late Wednesday evening, August 23, as they were returning to Cline's Corner, N. M., where Miss Truelock was employed as a cashier.

Miss Truelock, who returned to Muleshoe late Tuesday evening described his sister's condition as still very critical. She had not yet regained consciousness.

Society News

THE MULESHOE JOURNAL, Thursday, August 31, 1950

Mr. And Mrs. J. C. Hart Celebrate Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hart celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary Wednesday, August 16, at their home in Muleshoe.

Lunch was served to seventy-four relatives and friends on a long table under the shade trees in their garden of beautiful blooming flowers.

Many pictures were made through out the day by members of the party. Alvin Dalton, of the Western Auto Supply, also made pictures before and during the reception.

Open house was held from three to five o'clock in the afternoon. The serving table was most attractively covered with gold satin and over laid with a lovely crocheted dinner cloth. ## The Highlights Of State THDA

By Mrs. A. W. Copley

The annual state convention of the Texas Home Demonstration Association was held at Big Spring, August 23-25. Five hundred and seven delegates, twenty-five officers and two hundred and two visitors from the length and breadth of the state attended this meeting.

The three delegates from Bailey county were Mrs. S. L. Busbice, Mrs. A. W. Copley, and Mrs. J. J. Gross. Mrs. G. T. Maltby of Muleshoe, vice president of district 2, was also at the meeting.

Tuesday evening there was a "Get-Together" on the mezzanine floor of the Settles Hotel.

Wednesday morning general assembly was held in the Municipal auditorium, after which registration began. In the afternoon session there was a panel discussion of the THDA program work.

The Howard County club women were hostesses to a chuck wagon supper held at the City Park. That evening many ladies visited Big Spring State Park, and the historical big spring from which the town derived its name.

The highlights of Thursday were the group meetings held in Work Shops on Legislation, Recreation, Education, 4-H, and Marketing. Then the guest speaker of the convention, Dr. L. D. Haskev, dean of the College of Education, University of Texas, discussed "Better Homes Make A Better World."

The election of state officers came next: Mrs. R. M. Almanrode of Munday was elected president; Mrs. E. M. Harris of Plainview was elected vice president at large; Mrs. John Gollightly of Hico, Secretary; and Mrs. Vaughan D. Bailey, Treasurer.

Thursday evening the installation service was held in the Municipal auditorium, when state officers and the vice presidents for the fourteen districts of the state, and the THDA Chairmen of each county present were installed. A reception was held after the installation service in the ballroom of the Settles Hotel and the HD Club women of District 6 were hostesses.

Friday morning was spent in group meetings for the Messinger, THDA, and in Work Shops. During the general assembly, a skit, "United We Stand," was presented to the group. It showed the relationship of the THDA and the home demonstration clubs to the Extension service.

One of the most worthwhile projects of the convention was the adoption of another $500 scholarship for a worthy 4-H girl. This scholarship will be called the Helen Swift Scholarship.

Next year the THDA will celebrate its 25th anniversary. Invitations were extended from A. & M. College at College Station, Galveston, Denton, and Dallas for the 1951 convention. The meeting place will be selected by the board members at a later date.

The benediction was given by 35 club women from District 5 in the form of a chorus.

TO ATTEND A & M

Texas A. & M. College continues to attract students from Muleshoe high school. Ted Lawler is another graduate of MHS who will be enrolled at A. & M. this fall. He expects to leave for the college about Sept. 8.

"Ballad" Pleases Local Audience

"Ballad for Americans," presented in the high school auditorium Friday night by a group of young Muleshoe men and women, thrilled an audience of about three hundred persons and revealed to what extent the youngsters have advanced.

"Ballad for Americans" is the story of America—its past, present, and future, told in dialogue and music. The audience was enthusiastic over the singing of Dale Covert and Dixie Lee Jennings, and local people are still amazed that such artists are growing up and studying for their careers right here in this little community.

The playing of Jane Scott and Joan Ann Darby delighted those who attended. The perfect acting of others in the cast and their singing was also something to be remembered.

The performance was staged by the youngsters for the purpose of raising money to purchase a fine piano for the auditorium.

The cast of characters was: G. L. Joe, Marvin Grandy; Strangers, Dale Covert; Rosie, Dixie Jennings; Dancers, Helen Gardner and John D. Whipple; Soldier, Bill Green; Night Club Singer, Dixie Lee Jennings; Sailor, Jerry Julian; Marine, Jerry Parsley; Nurse, Barbara Grandy.

Musical numbers presented were: "Tea for Two," Joan Darby and Jane Scott (two pianos); "Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child," Dixie Lee Jennings; "Eli" (God), sung in Jewish by Dale Covert; "Boogie," Joan Darby; "Blue Danube," Jane Scott; "When Day Is Done," Dixie Jennings; Taps and Reville, John D. Whipple.

Personnel for the entire production was Bass-baritone lead, Dale Covert; Chorus members—Pat Glascock, Helen Gardner, Ann Howell, Barbara Blackman, Dixie Lee Jennings, J. Ann Weyer, Joan Darby, Barbara Klutts, Barbara Grandy, Jeanette Kirk, Marilyn Gupton, Jerry Julian, Bill Green, Marvin Grandy, Jerry Parsley. Accompanist, Jane Scott.

Mrs. C. W. Grandy directed the production and the script was prepared by Mrs. Alice Covert, a professional writer who lives in Muleshoe.

THE COWMAN SURPRISED BY THE PLOWMAN

Written by R. E. Luttrell, in 1923

Way out west in Bailey County, At the line of New Mexico, Where the prairie turns to "till" land, Where the corn and cotton grow.

There's no place like Bailey County, There's no place in all the west; That will beat old Bailey County, When you put her to a test.

The land that stood a year ago, With waving grass and turf, Now grows the finest cotton and corn, That ever grew out of the earth.

There is the old and rugged rancher, That has been grazing here for many years, When he sees the farmer plowing, Knows he has to move his steers.

There's many an old time cowboy, Who worked for thirty bucks so cheap, But he can hitch up to a pick sack, And make his thirty bucks a week.

That's why out west in Bailey County, At the line of New Mexico, Where the prairie turns to "till" land, Where the corn and cotton grow.

So you had better coil your lariar, boys, And hang it up to rest, For the "cowboy" days are over, In this part of the west.

Mrs. Alice Lent Covert Has Long Successful Career As Writer

(Written for The Journal by a friend of Mrs. Covert)

Many people, since hearing "Ballad for Americans," have inquired as to the background of Alice Lent Covert, who wrote the script which tied the first part of the production to the "Ballad" itself, which was sung in the last half.

The beautiful backdrop of the national capital was also the work of Mrs. Covert.

Her career as a writer was launched in 1939 by Walter Winchell, who brought to the publisher's attention her very successful first novel, "Return To Dust." She studied law in Oklahoma for two years but abandoned it to become a police reporter, later applied her knowledge to the well known "O' Judge" story series for Saturday Evening Post. She has written more than 30 stories for the Post alone and also for Readers Digest, Cosmopolitan, Good Housekeeping, Redbook, Woman's Home Companion and Liberty.

Radio Uses Her Work Much of her work has been dramatized for the radio her characters recreated by such stars as Otto Kruger for Hallmark "Command Performance." She is twice selected by the National Democratic Committee as "Most Notable Southern Writer." She is the author of 10 published novels, the best known being "Return To Dust," "The Months Of Rain," "Fighting Parson," and "All That's Mine."

At present she is under contract to Redbook, one of that magazine's leading writers for the past six years, writing two novel-length and several short stories for them annually. Much of her work is published in England, Canada and Australia.

Right now she is completing work on a new serious novel, "Come Weep With Me." She is keenly interested in rural life and her early work dealing with farming people won high critical praise. "Come Weep With Me" will be the first of such stories in five years.

Mrs. Covert was raised and educated in the Panhandle country but was forced to leave it in 1934 when dust pneumonia developed into serious trouble. This is her first venture back and despite storms of spring she discovered herself to be no longer susceptible to dust. She came to Muleshoe in February for a brief visit, and, intrigued by the friendly people and their progressive spirit, she decided to remain permanently. She is contemplating a story dealing with the High Plains area.

Two deaths in a few days of each other have struck the family of Mrs. Buck Creamer of Muleshoe. Mr. and Mrs. Creamer were in Jefferson City, Mo., last Saturday, August 26, for the funeral of her brother, Joe Davidson, 55, who passed away suddenly August 23.

They had to rush back to Texas to attend funeral services for an uncle, Morgan Davidson, 75, oldest active man on the Lubbock police force and a veteran officer, who also died unexpectedly while talking with his wife and reading the paper. His rites were held in Lubbock Monday, August 28. Mr. Creamer is a deputy sheriff of Bailey County.

Good Baking Quality, As Well As Good Yield Important In Wheat Selection

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 28—Good baking quality, as well as good yield, is important in the selection of a variety of wheat for planting, says E. A. Miller, extension agronomist of Texas A. & M. College.

Most of the wheat produced goes into the flour trade, and about 85 per cent of the flour is used by commercial bakeries. The bakeries require a quality of flour with which they can bake the kind of bread that their customers demand.

Miller says that Texas formerly had a reputation for producing fine quality wheat which was in demand because it was nearly all produced from good baking varieties. This reputation has been temporarily lost because new wheat varieties with poor baking qualities have been brought in from other states.

However, Miller reports that recent surveys by the Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Program reveal that Texas is now regaining its reputation. The surveys show that there has been a 30 per cent, or approximately 1,500,000 acres, increase in the acreage of good wheat varieties planted in Texas from 1947 to 1950.

New improved varieties developed by Experiment Stations and private plant breeders are not only good yielders, but also have good baking quality. Since the new varieties are good yielders, Miller says that there is no longer any need for planting varieties with poor baking quality.

As recommended varieties for the main wheat area of Texas, he lists Comanche and Westar for baker's flour and Wichita and Triumph for family trade flour. Tenmarq and Turkey produce excellent quality baking flour, but do not give as high yields as Comanche and Westar. Miller points out that the big market demand is for the varieties of high quality baker's flour and that producers should keep this in mind when selecting their wheat varieties.

Miller says that, as soon as more seed are available, the new Quannah wheat variety will probably become popular in the Rolling Plains area and in North and Central Texas, where it is well adapted.

 How is it prepared?
 By broiling or panbroiling. In broiling the steak is placed on the rack so that its top surface is 3 inches from the heat (the farther the better from the heat.) The top side is browned then the steak is seasoned, turned and broiled on second side, and served from 15 to 20 minutes is ready for 1-inch steak; 35 to 45 minutes for 2-inch steak. In panbroiling thinner steaks, the meat is broiled in a frying-pan and turned occasionally for even cooking. Ex-fat is poured off as it accumulates.

PROTECT SCHOOL CHILDREN BY SAFE DRIVING

In a few more days the "Little Red School House" will again become the center of attraction for approximately 2,375,000 youngsters of Texas of school age. For the next nine months the children will be going to and from school obtaining the education which will aid them in finding a place in our modern society in years to come. We citizens of the state have learned that a certain amount of education is essential for a successful life in our modern world. For that reason we have attempted to provide the best education system possible for our school children of today who will be our citizens of tomorrow.

Even though we have gone to great expense in time, effort and money to provide these facilities for our young students, we deny this privilege to many of them each year because of a few careless seconds on the part of some of us. Each year, many school children are killed or permanently disabled in accidents involving a motor vehicle. Many of the more seriously injured children never return to school, and scores of the children injured in accidents that are less severe are deprived of days, weeks and even months of training.

The sound judgment necessary to urging you to accept the responsibility of a never ending vigil to protect the safety of these youngsters while you are driving your car in the streets and highways. These young children do not have the sound judgement necessary to respect an automobile and to fear accidents, therefore it is up to the adult people of the state to protect these boys and girls and to insure their safety when they are around us.

The fact that you would not be liable to the legal action for the death of the youngster who darts out into the street and under the wheels would not ease your mind, or bring back the life which would be lost.

Drive carefully, the child's life you save may be your own!

No Suspension Of '50 Cotton Quotas Is Intended, PMA Head Declares

There is no intention of suspending or terminating cotton marketing quotas for the 1950 crop, according to B. F. Vance, Chairman of the State Production and Marketing Administration Committee. Mr. Vance said that he had received this word from Ralph S. Trigg, National PMA Administrator, who pointed out that it would not be in the general interest of cotton farmers of the long-range production-adjustment program.

Suspending marketing quotas, Mr. Vance explained, would in effect break faith with the great majority of cotton farmers who have cooperated with their acreage allotments and would give a complete advantage to a relatively small minority of cotton farmers. This would mean that many producers would suffer a loss by having complied with the cotton program, while those farmers who did not cooperate would profit, both by having excess cotton to harvest and by reaping the benefits of any price advances brought about by the adjustments cooperators made.

Then, too, Mr. Vance said, if excess plantings were harvested and marketed free of penalty, the questionable benefits resulting from the small additional cotton production would not compensate

NEAT CONVERSION!

Fumigate Your Stored Grain

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 28—Stored grain must be fumigated for insect control if the same quality grain is to be removed from the bin as was stored, cautions J. A. Deer, assistant extension entomologist of Texas A. & M. College. Deer recommends that the initial fumigation be made within a month after the grain has been placed in the bin. Monthly inspections during warm weather are recommended to determine whether or not refumigation is necessary. Since insects are likely to be found near the surface of a bin, the degree of infestation can usually be determined by sifting a sample of the surface grain. If as many as two weevils or five bran beetles are found in a two pound sample, the bin should be refumigated. If the grain is stored in wooden bins, 1000 bushels of the grain can be fumigated with a mixture of ten gallons of one part carbon tetrachloride and three parts ethylene dichloride. Other recommended dosages are eight gallons of carbon tetrachloride and one part of carbon mixture of four parts carbon tetrachloride and one part of carbon disulfide per 1000 bushels of grain. The dosages of the three fumigants can be reduced by 25 per cent if the grain is stored in steel bins. Fumigants should be applied from the outside of the bin by means of a bucket pump or other type sprayer, and they should be distributed evenly over the surface of the grain. Deer warns that it is unwise to attempt to apply the fumigant with a sprinkling can because the vapors are dangerous to breathe. Deer cautions that the person applying the fumigant should avoid spilling the insecticide on his skin, clothing, or in his shoes. If the clothing becomes wet, it should be removed at once, and the skin should be washed with soap and water to prevent blistering.

Pullorum Said Still Dangerous

County Agent J. K. Adams has called the attention of poultry raisers to the following communication from A. & M. concerning the poultry diseases, pullorum.

Since pullorum disease control has been emphasized so much during the past ten years, you might think that the disease would be pretty well in hand by now. However, such is not the case, according to Dr. W. A. Boney, poultry pathologist of the department of veterinary medicine of Texas A. & M. College.

Dr. Boney says that pullorum disease is still the number one killer of baby chicks. Since last September, A. & M. College veterinarians have found pullorum disease in chicks under three weeks old more often than other diseases.

In addition to the death losses from the disease in baby chicks, Dr. Boney points out that pullorum may also cause periodic losses in laying flocks.
