Recent out-of-town visitors in the home of Lela Latch Lloyd have been her sister and niece, Mrs. R.V. Rendall and Mrs. Mary Jane Little of Ranger; Maggie Baker of Bedias, Tx.; Mrs. Clara Baker of League City; and Mrs. Ruth Mitchell Kinard of Bastrop. Mrs. Kinard is a guest of her sister-in-law, Jewel Kinard, but she, Verena Wattenbarger, and Lela Lloyd are all T.W.C.-Exes and are having a mini reunion in Cisco.

Mrs. Vera Hyatt Wood of 4009 Ave. G, Austin, answered the letter to Project Lobo with: "Celebrated my 85th birthday May 9, 1989. I am looking forward to the 'All Class Reunion' June 9, 1990. See you there. I'm counting on seeing a goodly number of my class of 1922 also!"

Mrs. Woods enclosed a check for the Project Lobo and addressed it to the attention of Lela Latch Lloyd since they were friends in the '20s.

And now comes a letter from Jacksboro from Fern Huestis Poyner. The brief message reads: Jerry, here is $25.00 to help with your 'Project Lobo' from Glenn ('45) and me ('46).

Tell Lela Latch "hello" for me PLEASE.

And it was signed: Sincerely, Fern Poyner.

Word comes from a "bird-watcher deluxe" that Labor Day is the day to stop feeding hummingbirds so they can fly south.

Ted Rogers brought into The Press office the following article that appeared in the Perryton newspaper recently. It was entitled "1915- Rules for School Teachers" as set down in the Buckeye Farm News for teachers in 1915.

"You will not marry during the term of your contract.

"You are not to keep company with men.

"You must be home between the hours of 8 p.m. and 6 a.m. unless attending school functions.

"You may not travel beyond the city limits unless you have the permission of the chairman of the board.

"You may not ride in a carriage or automobile with any man unless he is your father or brother.

"You may not smoke cigarettes.

"You may not dress in bright colors.

"You may, under no circumstances, dye your hair.

"You must wear at least two petticoats.

"Your dresses must not be any shorter than two inches above the ankle.

"To keep the schoolroom neat and clean, you must: sweep the floor at least once daily; scrub the floor at least once a week with hot, soapy water; clean the blackboards at least once a day; and start a fire at 7 a.m. so the room will be warm by 8 a.m."

This just proves how much things have changed since the turn of the century.

A personal note: I want to thank everyone who has dropped by the office or called to wish me well on my new task. I appreciate your kind thoughts.

If any of you have news... visitors, trips, births, weddings, anniversaries, etc., please give us a call at 442-2244. This is your "hometown newspaper" and we need YOUR news.

Hospital Auxiliary Needs Books For Book Fair

Keep all those books coming, is the message from the E.L. Graham Hospital Auxiliary.

The group is soliciting donations of books - hardbacks and paperbacks - for its annual book fair to be held Sept. 15-16 in the Corral Room.

Persons who have excess books they would like to give to this cause are encouraged to do so, says auxiliary project chairman Janelle Schrader.

"We are hoping for a good turnout at the fair which will also include a bake sale. The money we raise will go to a worthy cause," she said. The group is hoping to help pay for a vital piece of equipment for the hospital, she explained.

Hours for the book fair are from 5 to 9 p.m. Friday, Sept. 15, and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 16.

Those who have books they would like to donate may call Mrs. Schrader at 442-3329, or drop them by the Chamber of Commerce office or Thrift Mart.

Loboes Scrimmage Baird Bears Last Friday

The Loboes showed an ability to run with the ball Friday in a scrimmage with Baird, but more work is needed on the passing game. Cisco didn't succeed in efforts to run the ball into the end zone.

Deadlines Change Due To Labor Day Holiday Monday

The Cisco Press office will be closed Monday, Sept. 4, in observance of Labor Day. Deadline for the Thursday, Sept. 7, edition of the paper will be 10 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5. No articles or advertisements will be accepted after that time.

Ruben, Mary Lynn and Sky Gaeta

Ruben Gaeta Joins The Mt. Top Church Staff

Pastor John C. Jones is pleased to announce the addition of Ruben R. Gaeta, Jr. to the pastor's staff of the Mountain Top Church, located in the 600 block of Highway 80 East, Cisco.

Ruben Gaeta, his wife Mary Lynn and daughter, Sky, age 7, are shown in the above photograph. Their home is located in Eastland and they are co-owners of Ruben's I-20 Gulf Station and Ramona's Mexican Food Restaurant in Eastland. Rev. Gaeta entered into the ministry on September 8, 1986, and came to the Mountain Top Church from Evange Temple in Azle, Texas. Ruben has been involved with the ministries of Charlie Martinez of Fort Worth and has conducted meetings across the United States and Central America, as well as Dave Roever Evangelistic and Commoal Ground Campus Ministries of Fort Worth. Ruben is instrumental in bringing the famous Dave Roever to Eastland and Cisco on January 4, 1990.

Pastor Jones travels extensively overseas annually and relies on the pastor's staff to conduct the spiritual ministries of the church in his absence. He is scheduled to preach a "Faith Conference" for the entire Amazon district in Brazil in December and a national conference for the nation of Brazil in February, 1990. His past overseas ministries have taken him the distance of "four times around the world." Pastor Jones ministers in Brazil, and especially the remote Amazon Jungle regions at least once a year average for the past six years, and often up to three "Faith Conferences" per year. The other members of the Mountain Top pastor's staff are Walter Williams of Cisco, senior staff member; Doyle Rascoe of Abilene; Director of Music Ron Pipkin; and now Ruben Gaeta, Jr.

With the church being a "worship center" for all denominations, it draws people from all areas of Christian religion as a "trans-denominational" church, where all people are welcome to come and enjoy "Spirit-filled" services of praise and worship. For many it is a "filling-station" for main-line Christians to come and release their spirit in open praise and the study of "the supernatural side of the Christian church" through God's word. The same international ministry that has trained ministers of the South Pacific, Africa, Italy, South American, in "faith principles" is available weekly at the Mountain Top Church through the pastor's ministry and the staff. The pastor feels Rev. Gaeta's involvement with various ministries will add a new dimension to the church and the staff.

Rev. Gaeta states, "We give God the glory and honor for placing us on this wonderful staff at the Mountain Top Church and we look forward to serving Cisco and Eastland county. We invite one and all to come and be a part of something that God has put together for his glory."

Everyone is invited to join together under God's anointing and leadership during this season of revival and renewal.

Mineral Wells Man Killed On I-20 Last Friday

A Mineral Wells employee of Southwestern Gas, aged 50 to 52 years, was killed instantly in a collision on I-20 west of Eastland Friday morning.

His employer, who was following just out of sight behind him in another vehicle, was one of the first on the scene, and he said he didn't know what happened. He came over a hill and there the service pickup was in the proper lane with the front end pushed back to the windshield. He ran to the wrecked pickup to find that its driver had been killed instantly.

The wrecked pickup then burst into flames and two fire trucks from eastland responded, extinguishing the fire consuming the wreck. Eastland firemen then used the jaws of life to extract the body from the pickup.

D.P.S. officers were investigating the collision and CISCO JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL was completed in time for the first day of school Monday. The new brick facility is located just north of Cisco High School and contains classrooms for seventh and eighth grade students. Rick Payne, CISD maintenance supervisor, is shown getting the flag pole ready Monday. Jim Puryear is Junior High School principal.

Sheriff's Dept. News

"I don't know if it is the weather or what," says Sheriff Dee Hogan, "but people seem to be looking for a fight, they want to kill somebody." And that seemed to be the case as he reviewed the crime reports for Monday.

A young couple, married only a short time, were breaking up and he tried to keep her from taking her clothes and leaving. A threatening note was on the door and inside was a "sawed off type" 12 ga. shotgun attached to the bed next to a large stuffed bear and aimed at the door. A string was routed from the gun's trigger to the door knob, so that movement at the door could pull the trigger.

The young woman asked a deputy to escort her to get her clothes, and the "rigged" gun was found along with a note. Deputies Don Griffith and David Franklin arrested the young man and his bond was set at $30,000.

There has been a dispute between relatives owning a ranch near Anger, and reportedly one owner instructed the ranch foreman to hire hired guns to keep the others, who care for and water their livestock on the ranch, away from the ranch by shooting them if necessary. Deputies were trying to locate the foreman to inform him not to carry out any such orders or the Sheriff's dept. would become involved and he could face criminal charges.

A man who had formerly been in Eastland was having his background checked. He reported had threatened to kill three game wardens in Oregon.

Two speakers were reported taken from a residence about 2 miles from Ranger.

Someone turned the water on at a Lake Leon home and run up a $1200 water bill.

A Stihl chain saw taken in the burglary of the Perkins Building was recovered.

An intoxicated subject in a parked car on a roadway was placed in jail for public intoxication. There were also two assault warrants from Callahan County for the subject.

A deputy responded to a family disturbance in the Ringling Lake area near Eastland, but there was no physical violence.

A family disturbance in Gorman was referred to Gorman Police.

Some tires were reported stolen at Tiner's Truck Terminal near Eastland. Cisco Police made arrests for stealing the tires when the suspects stopped at the White Elephant Truck Stop in Cisco.

A person was also arrested at Tiner's for creating a disturbance.

A theft was reported north of Desdemona, but the parties involved settled it.

Deputies were asked to check the whereabouts of a son missing after he attended a party at Lake Cisco.

An emergency message was relayed.

The burglary of an Eastland building was being investigated.

Deputy Don Griffith located and arrested a young man in Abilene for the unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and for forgery. He was placed in jail under $50,000 bond.

An Eastland man reported that his horse had been let out of a pen onto the highway.

A truck driver called to inquire about the condition of some I-20 accident victims.

Deputies were attempting to locate two people on theft charges.

In an attempt to even out their extra hours, the "deputy on call" will be rotated among the deputies.

Three Dept. employees are attending jail certification school. Cathy Trout, James Holbrook and Arlene Holland are attending the WTCOG training school.

A man charged with possession of illegal drugs was released by the court because the wrong date was typed on legal papers.

Two men in the County Jail had previously been paroled by TDG. One prisoner was released because no charges were filed and another because Callahan County didn't pick him up.

TDH Reminds Texas Pet Owners That Animals Should Receive Annual Rabies Vaccination

The Texas Department of Health (TDH) regularly reminds the Texas public about the importance that pet owners make sure their animals receive annual vaccinations against rabies, as required by law.

This year, especially in South Texas, dog owners should heed the advice. An unusually large outbreak of canine rabies, found mostly in dogs and in wild coyotes, has totaled about 40 rabies cases in the Hidalgo-Starr County area since September of last year.

Although no human cases have been reported,

'domestic dogs have been the most frequent carriers in this outbreak. The potential of a person being infected by the family pet has always been there,' according to Dr. Foy V. McCasland, Chief of the TDH Bureau of Veterinary Public Health in Austin.

McCasland explained that, of the three basic strains of rabies most common in Texas, the canine strain is potentially the most dangerous to humans, since people are more likely to be exposed by a dog than by most other animals.

Although another strain of rabies occurs most frequently in Texas, it is usually found among skunks in the wild. 'Any strain of rabies is dangerous to humans and other animals, but some animals are more susceptible to particular strains,' Dr. McCasland said.

McCasland said that an unusual feature of the canine rabies outbreak in South Texas is that the link between many of the infected dogs appears to be the infected coyotes. Coyotes are not notorious carriers of the strain, although almost any wild mammal can be infected.

Dr. McCasland expressly warns against adopting a wild animal as a pet. There is no approved rabies vaccine for wild species.

'People should be especially careful not to handle wild animals showing abnormal behavior, such as not being afraid of people. Such behavior is not natural, and is a good clue that the animal could be sick, possibly with rabies,' he said.

If a person is bitten by a wild animal, it is important that the animal be tested at a TDH lab for rabies.

In 1988, TDH laboratories in Austin, Houston, San Antonio, and El Paso diagnosed 434 cases of rabies among the 10,498 specimens they examined, of those 434 infected animals, there were: 266 skinks, 57 bats, 30 cats, 21 dogs, 20 foxes, 14 cattle, nine horses, six coyotes, four raccoons, three goats, a deer, a ringtail, a bobcat and a sheep.

'Any animal bite should be taken seriously,' Dr. McCasland said. If the animal is a dog or cat, it should be isolated and observed for ten days. Dogs and cats cannot transmit rabies for more than ten days before they show symptoms of the disease. All bites should be reported to the local health authority, which will assist with animals. The wound should be cleaned with soap and water, and a physician should be contacted about treatment.

West Texans Believe In Local Public Schools

People living in West Texas believe their local public schools are doing a good job educating students, but they have even more confidence in the ability of the local teachers who staff these schools.

These are the findings of a recent Texas Poll conducted July 23-Aug. 8, 1989 for the Texas State Teacher's Association by Harte-Hanks Communications and Texas A&M University.

Over a thousand residents were randomly polled statewide, including 106 in West Texas. The poll has a margin of error of plus or minus three percentage points.

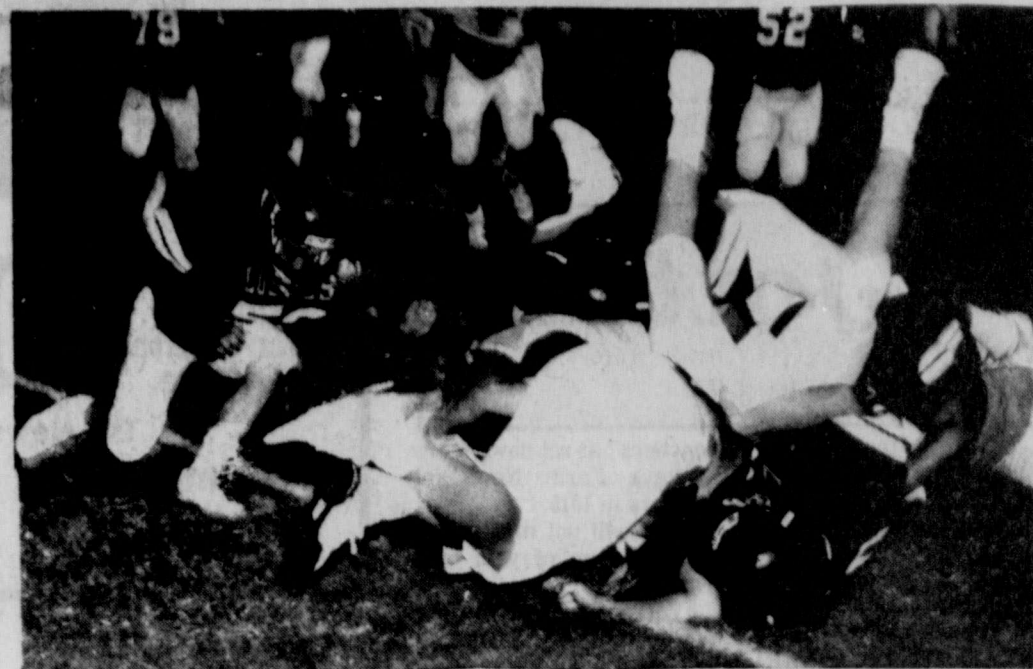

West Texans say local teachers are doing a very good job in the schools in spite of the fact that they believe them to be 'under-paid' and 'over-stressed.' These same residents give overall good marks to the local public school systems and believe that the quality of education is directly linked to their level of funding.

Seventy-one percent of the residents give schools a 'passing grade' while the plurality believe the schools are under-funded.

TSTA President Ollie Besteiro said it is extremely heartening to the teachers that 81 percent believe local teachers care about students; 85 percent say teachers are hard working; and 79 percent believe teachers are well-informed on their subject matter.

Seventy-six percent of the respondents said that teachers deserve a pay increase this year.

'That makes it all the more ironic that many school districts in this area failed to even pass on to the teachers the mere $1,800 raise that the Loboes practice bear wrestling as they gang tackle a Baird Bear running back in a scrimmage in Cisco Friday evening. They held the highly rated Class A Bears to only two scores by passes.

Death Count For Labor Day Weekend Could Go As High As 34 Persons

AUSTIN—The traffic death count for the Labor Day weekend could go as high as 34 persons, the Department of Public Safety has estimated.

'This may scare you, but you need to know that as many as 34 people could die in traffic accidents in Texas this Labor Day weekend,' DPS Director Col. Joe Milner said.

In 1988, 30 persons died in traffic accidents during the 78-hour Labor Day period. Two critically-injured persons died later, for a total of 32 fatalities. This year's Labor Day period also is 78 hours, beginning at 6 p.m. Friday, Sept. 1, and continuing through midnight, Monday, Sept. 4.

'The Department of Public Safety will be doing everything it can to ensure you have a safe holiday, but we need your help,' Col. Milner said. 'Please, don't drink and drive, stay within the speed limit, and wear your safety belt.'

Last year, 21 persons died in DWI or speed-related accidents during the Labor Day period. That amounts to 66 percent of all the deaths. Also last year, of the 23 persons killed as occupants of cars, trucks or buses, 18—or 78 percent—had not been wearing safety belts.

'We believe safety awareness does make a difference,' Col. Milner said. 'So far, no traffic fatality has been reported anywhere in Texas for June 13. If this holds up, it will be the first time since 1977 we have had a day with no traffic deaths in Texas. Let's make it happen again this Labor Day.'

During the Labor Day period, all available DPS Troopers will be patrolling the state's roadways. Periodic reports on the number of traffic fatalities will be issued to remind motorists of the need for safe driving.

A Thought For The Day...
DeAlva Chambers

Labor Day is one of the youngest of our national holidays and an important day - not only for those in the ranks of labor, but for every citizen in this land. It took labor of all kinds to carve this nation out of a wilderness... to cross treacherous rivers... to carve roads through the trackless forests... to clear lands and build towns.

Today many do not celebrate the day as it was originally dedicated for. There are, of course, the parades, but for many Labor Day marks the beginning of fall. Pumpkins are ripening. School is starting. Nights are cooler. Football is re-asserting its claim to be the national game. Vacationers are having their last fling. In the cities, people are shaking off their apathy of summer.

We're glad the Knights of Labor invented the idea in the 1880's and Congress made it official in 1984. Today, maybe it isn't what they had in mind, but they gave us all a day on which to say a hearty "Welcome back" to Fall... And as we say a welcome to Fall, let us stop and think about our nation that was melded out of people from all sorts of backgrounds - provided they were willing and ready to work together...

Texas Legislature granted this past session,' Besteiro said.

'Top performance should be rewarded with top salaries,' the TSTA President added. 'Instead, our top Texas teachers are among the lowest paid in the nation—the average Texas teacher salary ranks 31st among the 50 states. It is obvious that legislators and school boards do not have their fingers on the public pulse in setting teacher salaries.'

Besteiro noted the irony in that 83 percent of the residents in West Texas believe that teachers should have a say in the educational decisions that are made in local school districts. Only 12 percent said those decisions should be left exclusively to the school boards and administrators.

'During this past legislative session, TSTA introduced a bill that would have provided a process for teachers to have a voice in local policy decisions,' Besteiro noted. 'It was the school board and administrator associations that lobbied hard to defeat the bill.'

'We're glad to know that the public agrees with TSTA in believing that teacher input can make a real difference in educational quality.'

Seventy-three percent said that the amount of money spent per student in a school district affects the quality of education offered in that district. In the area of school reforms, 43 percent believe they have improved the quality of education and another 34 percent believe they had no impact. A majority said the reforms have not affected teacher pay or teacher quality.

Residents are split in their opinions on the fairness of funding public education in Texas. Thirty-nine percent believe it's fair; another 30 percent said it's not fair; and the remainder are unsure. An overwhelming 80 percent believe that it is the state's responsibility to come up with an equitable funding system. 'On behalf of the thousands of TSTA members in this area, we thank West Texans for their support and confidence,' Besteiro added. 'During this year we will be asking the public's support to help TSTA to bring about the changes that both teachers and the majority of all Texans want in order to upgrade our public schools and the teaching profession, in general.'

Area News Briefs

CISCO

The Cisco Hospital Board will hold a Public Hearing on a Tax Revenue Proposal at 1 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 5 at the Hilton Community Center. The subject of recent surveys concerning the tax rate hike will also be discussed. Surveys were sent out asking Ciscoans how they felt about the tax rate hike, with a deadline for the Survey of August 14. There will probably be some discussion on the handling of this matter, as well as the possible amount of taxes to be generated by a proposed raise. Currently Graham Memorial Hospital in Cisco is reported to need more funding in order to provide service.

The city tax rate will stay the same for Cisco citizens this year, according to a preliminary budget prepared by the City Council and City Manager Mike Moore. A bonus for city employees will be a 3 percent cost of living payroll increase. Council members have agreed to cost cutting measures on the budget. One cut that was decided on is reducing residential trash collection to once a week instead of the present two times per week. This will begin Oct. 1.

City Manager Mike Moore has reported that the Drug Dog Program for Cisco has been slightly delayed. He says it is taking a little bit longer than expected to train a dog, but a Labrador Retriever should be ready by Sept. 21. The Cisco Police Department will use the dog.

Jim Yates is the new Pastor at I-20 Church of Christ in Cisco. Jim and his wife, Jeanie, have one daughter, Lisa. They moved to Cisco from Rogers, Texas, where Yates was Pastor at the Church of Christ for eight years. Jim Yates says he wants to be involved in the Cisco Community, for he believes in putting something back into the place where he lives. His wife, Jeanie, is a 5th and 6th grade teacher at Carbon, and daughter Lisa is a Freshman at Abilene Christian University. The public is invited to the I-20 Church of Christ to hear Jim Yates speak.

The Contest Awards Meeting of the Cisco Writer's Club will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 12 at 7 p.m. at the Community Room of First National Bank. The Contest was a good one, and there will be a number of excited winners. The public is invited to come out and watch these writers receive their awards. Winning entries will be read, as time permits.

The Sabanno Cemetery, south of Cisco, is in need of work. A Sabanno Cemetery Association Board member reports that several Eastland County residents have family members who are buried at the Cemetery. He suggested that they go out and look over the grounds. For it is reported that several tombstones have been overturned and are broken. Families who have used the Cemetery are responsible for the upkeep of the property. To send in money to help with the upkeep, send a check to the Sabanno Cemetery Association, c/o Citizens National Bank, Cross Plains, Tex. 76443.

RANGER

Cris Cockburn will appear on the Johnny High's Country Music Revue at Will Roger's Coliseum in Fort Worth on Saturday, Sept. 2 at 7 p.m. Cris is the son of Jim and Lyndell Cockburn, and is a student at Ranger Junior College. He is a regular performer on the Cross Timber Opry in Stephenville, and is also a member of the "Shade Tree" Country Band in Abilene.

Ranger Rockets Tumbling and Trampoline will begin classes Sept. 12. Registration should be made on or before Sept. 5 by calling Christy Renteria at 647-1001. Competition will resume in January for those who wish to compete. Classes will also be given for non-competitors. Ages are 3 to 16 years. Look for this group at Roaring Ranger Days.

The Ranger Branch of the American Association of University Women announces its 1989-90 officers as Oleta Wade, President, Ruby K. Halbert, First Vice President, Wynell Lang, Secretary, and Maria Da Rocha, Treasurer. The first meeting will be during the third week in September, with exact time and place to be announced. Old and new members are welcome. Dues should be paid to Maria Da Rocha by Sept. 10 if possible. The slate of appointive officers will be completed by the President in September. The first meeting will be dedicated to Charter members, with at least four of them still living in Ranger. EASTLAND

The 1989-90 Eastland High School Maverick Marching Band will stage its first show of the year during the Eastland/Stamford Football game in Stamford on Sept. 8. Much of the activity will be around the Courthouse Square, with the 10 a.m. Parade beginning the activities. There will be entertainment from noon until night, with a Band Marching Contest, an Antique Car Show, a Fiddler's Contest, dancing groups and featured attractions. The football field and the Majestic Theatre will also be used for activities. Don't wait too long to rent a booth - you can reserve one for $15 by calling the Eastland Chamber of Commerce Office. The Chamber can also give information on entering the Parade, which is traditionally one of the largest in the area.

Busy August For The Weeks Family

"Keeping up with the Week's" is hard work for a journalist in this hot weather! This family hasn't slowed down a bit during August - Robert D. Sr. and his boys have been playing in Contests all over the area and winning most of them.

At this time Robert D. Sr. is in a big winning streak - he has captured 10 straight Firsts this summer in Senior Divisions. He also has a current Grand Champion and other Major Awards to his credit.

Highlights of activities in August include an Old Settler's Reunion in Big Spring, Tex. on Aug. 5. Robert D. Weeks Sr. won at this one. Robert Jr. and Brandy did not play in this competition.

At the Peach and Melon Festival at De Leon Robert Sr. was award First in his Division, and Brandy won First in the 0-10 yr. Division.

At an Old Settler's Reunion in Waco Robert Jr. won

First in his Division, then went on to win the Grand Championship, playing against fiddlers of all ages.

Not long after that, however, Robert Jr. injured one of the playing fingers on his left hand, and had to drop out of two big competitions.

On Friday, Aug. 18 at Alvarado Robert Sr. won First in his Division, and then won assured that a lot of good fiddlers and guitar pickers will be present for the Contest. Weeks says he would like to have appropriate money awards for these top players, and is accepting contributions to help out with the prizes.

Some businesses and individuals have already contributed to the fund. Others who wish to be invited to call Bob Weeks at 629-8404.

Let's put Eastland County on the map as a place which welcomes musicians in a big way!

the Grand Championship in a big playoff. The next night, Aug. 19 at Burnett Brandy, age 9, won the Texas State Champion for the 0-12 age group.

During the Burnett Contest Robert Sr. was elected a Director of the Texas State Old-Time Fiddler's Association, and also named as "Favorite Fiddler."

Safe Driving Tips from Rhonda

What do you suppose is the no. 1 killer of children these days? Automobile collisions! Although the seat belt law has been enacted for several years now, people continue to drive around with children climbing, hanging out windows, and standing in the front seat. Children can't be held accountable for not wearing seat belts, so their parents should be responsible enough to take the time and initiative to see that their children are safe in a vehicle.

Wedding Bells

Sayler - Faulkner

Tracy Lou Sayler and Jack Lynn Faulkner, were united in marriage Saturday, August 12 at Merriman Baptist Church in Ranger.

Rev. Lester Swan performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Troy and Mary Lou Sayler of Olden. The groom is the son of Otis and Patsy Harvey of Dublin and the grandson of Elsie Faulkner of Dublin.

Music was provided by Joyce Speed of Ranger. Shelly Dowell of Stephenville, niece of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a tea length gown of peach satin and carried a bouquet of peach and white roses.

Max Tipton of Stephenville served as bestman. Kenny and Greg Johnson, nephews of the bride served as ushers.

The floral arrangements were designed by Ranger Florist of Ranger.

As the traditional wedding march was played the bride entered escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents.

She wore a gown designed by Michele Piccione from the Couture Collection. Created in French Ivory taffeta, the princess bodice featured a Sabrina neckline accented by hand beaded re-embroidered Alencon lace. Renaissance sleeves of English net were adorned with beaded alencon lace. Medallions and pearl clusters. A basque waistline accented the full skirt embellished with hand clipped beaded re-embroidered alencon lace medallions. The back bodice featured a dropped V neckline.

Her headpiece of pearl sprays and baby's breath.

She carried a cascade bouquet of bridal white and peach: sonia roses, complimented with pearls and peach ribbons.

The groom wore a charcoal gray morning coat with charcoal gray pants. His boutonniere was a peach and white rose.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Serving at the reception were Angela Shelton of Dublin, Tina Hill of Dublin, nieces of the groom and Sharon Johnson of Stephenville, sister of the bride.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at K-Bob's in Eastland.

Jack is a graduate of Brewer High School in White Settlement, Texas and is now employed at Dublin Recovery Center in Dublin, Texas.

Tracy attended Eastland High School and is attending Tarleton State University.

Following their honeymoon to the Bahamas the couple will be residing in Dublin.

All Night Youth Fellowship Draws 200

By Richard Kurklin

About 58 young people from Cisco and 15 from Ranger were among 198 young people who attended Burnout '89 on August 11. An all-night youth fellowship which attracted youth from Cisco Association Southern Baptist churches and from some rural churches near Abilene, many activities were made available in a end of summer party which lasted from 7 p.m. Friday until 9 a.m. Saturday.

Various facilities around Eastland were rented for recreation and entertainment. First there was swimming at the pool and activities on Park Hill. James McCloud of Tye spoke to the group, and Cindy McCloud and Tonya Meme brought special music. Later a film at the Majestic lasted for two hours, and there was two hours of recreation at the Olden gym.

The group went to the Olden Baptist Church, and there was a 3:30 a.m. watermelon feed. Then there was bowling from 5 until 7 in the morning followed by a final program at Camp Inspiration.

Even the Gunsight and Lake Leon Baptist churches were represented among the nearly 200 young people and 18 adult sponsors, but even though the activities were in and around Eastland, the Eastland young people did not participate. So often wonderful things close to home are overlooked, it seems.

Sponsors called it a real good fellowship.

Robert D. Weeks Sr. Named Member Of Texas Fiddlers Association Board

Robert D. Weeks, Sr. of Eastland has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Texas Old-Time Fiddlers Association.

The announcement was made at the State Association Play-offs at Burnett, Texas on Aug. 19. Bob Weeks was also presented with the "Favorite Fiddler Award" during this competition.

Weeks will serve with four other Directors, assisting with management and policies of the Association. Jim Day is President of the group, which has around 500 members in Texas.

One of the purposes of the organization is to preserve and support traditional fiddle-playing. The Association publishes a magazine and sponsors a number of contests during the year.

The next such Contest in this area will be on Saturday, evening Oct. 7 at 5 p.m. on the Courthouse Square. This will be during Old Rip Day in Eastland. Weeks will be Director of the competition, with James Wright Master of Ceremonies.

A number of top fiddle players are expected to be in Eastland for the event.

Voters Must Be Registered

To be able to vote in upcoming elections, you must be registered at least thirty days before the election in which you wish to vote. If you have registered in the past, you will stay on the roll of eligible voters unless you have moved, according to employees of Voter Registrar Nancy Trout.

You need a card identifying you as a registered voter or your name on the list of qualified voters to identify you as a legal voter.

Be sure that you are registered, then vote. You can help control your future.

Voter registration cards may be picked up at the Courthouse, the Tax Office, or at Herman's Garage in Cisco.

Regional Jazz Contests To Be Held In Eastland

There will be a new contest for bands and high school band students in Region II this year. Jazz ensembles will try out for the All-Regional Jazz Band. There will be one Regional band for classes A, AA and AAA, and another Regional band for 4-A and 5-A.

And the good news continues. The Region II Regional Band tryouts will start at 9 a.m. on October 14 and they will be held at Eastland High School. Rehearsals for both bands will be from 1 until 5 that afternoon, and then at 7 p.m. the All-Regional bands will play a concert for the public in the Eastland High School Auditorium.

Of course Eastland's own director, Phil Hewett, is deeply involved with this additional effort to bring both good music and a large group of band students and their parents to Eastland. He is also working on the Old Rip Marching Contest and a big show at the Majestic, which will be big features during the Old Rip Fest and Parade on Saturday, Oct. 7. The Marching Contest has already prosed to be highly successful at drawing visitors to Eastland, and the All-Regional Band competition is also expected to do well.

Students may also register for All State tryouts and be taped during the Regional competition.

Saxophones, trombones, trumpets, pianos, guitars and drum sets will be among the instruments used by students as they play popular jazz numbers.

Region II band directors are being encouraged to return information forms to Phil Hewett at Eastland High School and to be in Eastland on Saturday, Oct. 14. It will be the Saturday following the Old Rip Fest.

County Commissioners Discuss Financing Of Proposed Prison Site

Eastland County Commissioners Monday discussed financing arrangements for purchase of land for a prison — then decided to put the matter on the agenda for the next time.

Several of the Commissioners said they wanted to have Dr. Charles Barnes (Project Manager) tell the next Court meeting how much money had been raised by the group promoting the prison before a final decision was made on County financing.

County Judge Scott Bailey opened the discussion by telling the Commissioners that the location of a prison in Eastland County was "very much a possibility."

A task force from the state prison system is expected to fly into Eastland County later this week and review the site and look over documents, the Judge said.

The site under discussion is an 1100 acre tract of land near Carbon which has been offered for sale at $650 an acre.

Judge Bailey asked if the Commissioners had any preference as to how the County would raise this money if the site was chosen.

He said the amount could run $650,000 (or more), and mentioned that the money could probably be borrowed and paid back at around $100,000 per year.

Commissioners Billy Bacon and Norman Christian replied that they thought the County Economic group was going to try to get some of the money donated.

"The promised they could get some of that," Christian said.

Judge Bailey remarked that if the prison system representatives decided on Eastland County there would be only a short while to raise the money to purchase the land.

The Commissioners agreed in early July to support the financing of land for a prison location.

Meredith Baze; Donald, Nancy and Georgia Ann Hughes. From Gorman were Wynell Brown; and Jenoise Allison.

Visiting Dorothy Jackson last week were Bob and Freddie Jackson of Odessa; also the Stan Tuckers of Sweetwater.

Ethleen Johnson and Dorothy Jackson had the opportunity to attend a Texas Ranger Baseball game Saturday night. We did see them win.

With the school bells ringing, the bicycles, skate boards and swim suits will be put in storage for another year, school activities take up most of the students time once classes start. With all the paint and fix up activities that have taken place at Carbon school all summer, all is ready for the students Monday, August 28th for a full week of classes.

The softball tournament was a big success and a lot of money was raised. Would like to thank each player, concession stand worker, each person who made contributions, and all who helped make it a big success. All the money will go for useful projects around the school.

The ice cream supper was a huge success Aug. 22. Many freezers of ice cream and cake were eaten. Parents, students and Carbon school faculty enjoyed a good time.

The next meeting date for the Carbon Community Action Club is September 19, 7 p.m.

The Carbon Wolverines looked good in their first scrimmage. Their second scrimmage will be Aug. 31 here at 6 p.m.

You could say school started off with a bang, as I walked in the locker doors were clanging right and left. The students sounded all excited. It was a sight to see all the K and 1st grades, they seemed so little to be going away from their mothers and dads. A few tears may be shed before the day is out.

Bro. Donnie Auvenshine of Abilene will be the guest speaker next Sunday, Sept. 3 at the Baptist Church.

Wedding Bells

Campbell - Faires

Kery Ann Campbell became the bride of Corey Bryan Faires on June 16th at 2 p.m. at the I-20 Church of Christ in Cisco. They were united in marriage by W.K. Boyce.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Campbell of Cisco. The granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Campbell and Mrs. Billie Clark, all of Cisco.

The groom is the son of Roland Faires of Ranger, and Karen Faires of Portales, N.M. The grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Faires of Stroud, Oklahoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King of Dora, N.M.

The bride was given in marriage by her father who wore a black tuxedo. The bride's dress was of shirred taffeta with a pick-up skirt over deep lace flounces, lace with sequins and simulated pearls trims the sweetheart neckline. The back was enhanced with a candy box bow. She wore a hat of satin with flowers, lace, simulated pearls, sequins, pouf and streamer. She wore a gold antique locket of her mothers with her fathers picture enclosed for something borrowed. She carried a cascading bouquet of dusty rose and country blue silk roses with pearls for something blue, atop her white Bible which was something old covered with a silk precious moments handkerchief.

The maid of honor, Medi Campbell, sister of the bride, wore a princess style print, dusty rose tea length dress with a white v-back and candy box bow accented with appliqued collar. The bridesmaids were Sherri Faires of Portales, N.M., sister of the groom, and Kim Rhodes, cousin of the bride. Their dresses were identical to the maid of honor's in country blue. They all wore large picture hats with chiffon bows and white wrist gloves. They carried long stem silk roses of country blue and dusty rose.

The groom wore a tuxedo of solid white with a silk rose boutonniere of country blue and dusty rose. The best man, Mike Wolfe of Stroud, Ok., wore a grey tuxedo with a dusty rose tie and cummerbund. The groomsmen were Joe Campbell, brother of the bride, and Dennis Campbell, uncle of the bride. They wore grey tuxedos with a silk rose boutonniere.

The flower girls were Misti and Marci Senterfitt, cousins of the bride. They were dressed in country blue and dusty rose floral street length dresses with sash bows in back, accented with white collars. They wore white picture hats and white wrist gloves. They wore a wrist corsage of country blue and dusty rose silk roses and carried a white tulle net, trimmed in lace basket, accented with country blue and dusty rose ribbons. They dropped petals of white roses down the aisle.

The ring bearer was Leslie Crocker of Cushing, Ok., cousin of the groom. He wore a tuxedo of solid white with a rose boutonniere. He carried a white satin pillow with satin ribbon, with gold rings sewn to the pillow. The bride's train was carried by Roland Crocker of Cushing, Ok., cousin of the groom. He wore a blue suit and a rose boutonniere.

The candlelighters were Mandi Senterfitt, of Cisco, and Yvonne Clark of Grand Prairie, both cousins of the bride. Their dresses were identical street length, drop waist of dusty rose print accented with white satin bows. They wore large picture hats with satin bows and white wrist gloves. They wore wrist corsages of dusty rose and country blue silk roses and carried brass candle lighters.

Outside entrance to the church was decorated with large blue and rose bows. Julie Casey of Gorman and Tracy Seabourn of Eastland presided over the bride's book in the vestibule. The pews were dressed with large arrangements of greenery, baby's breath, and roses. The altar was dressed with brass archway, two spirals, two hearts, and two v-brass candleholders with 200 clear votive cup candles. All brass was intertwined with greenery and country blue and dusty rose bows. A brass stand held the unity candle.

As candles were lit, 'The Lord's Prayer' was sung by Glenda Dennison. 'Unchained Melody' was sung by Pat Boyce, Marcia Adams, Glenda Dennison, Jon Dennison, and Ken Boyce as the grandparents were being ushered in. The bride's grandparents were ushered in by Al Senterfitt, uncle of the bride, and the groom's grandparents were ushered by Ted Crocker of Cushing, Ok., uncle of the groom. The groom's candle was lit by his mother, who wore a country blue print two piece suit, with a white collar and wore a white hat, and carried white gloves. Her mother wore a flora tea length princess style dress with v-back and ruffle accented

Rural Health: "The Bad News And The Good News"

by Congressman Charles Stenholm

The saying always goes, "There's good news and there's bad news," and the funny thing is that sometimes the same news can be both. Such, I believe, is the case with rural health today.

I don't have to remind you about the bad news. You read in the big city papers, or hear on the national news, stories which tell you that since 1980, about 175 rural community hospitals have had to close their doors, while another 600 face closure within five years. In your own local community you see the expenses which must be met if the Hospital is shoulders.

'Turn Around' was sung before the ceremony. The attendants entered as 'Let It Be Me' was sung. 'The Wedding Song' was sung as bride entered and presented her mother with a long stem rose. 'If' was sung prior to double ring ceremony. The bride and groom lit the unity candle to the song of 'The Lord Bless You and Keep You'. The bride and groom presented the groom's mother with a long stem rose while exiting to the song 'Joyful Joyful'.

A lawn reception at the home of the bride's parents immediately followed the ceremony. Set up and catered by the florist using a Precious Moments theme, the bride's table was displayed under a blue and white gazebo consisting of a three tiered cake topped with a Precious Moments figurine which was made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Douglas Campbell. Along with the bride's bouquet as the table centerpiece, Twila Senterfitt and Nancy Rhodes, both aunts of the bride, served at her table. Julie Casey and Tracy Seabourn attended the groom's table serving assorted fruit out of a watermelon basket, various cookies and ice tea on a white wrought iron tea cart.

Perhaps it would be easy to get discouraged. But I'm a farmer and, as many of you, that occupation often requires an "incurable optimism." And so while I see the many discouraging aspects to rural health today, I can't help but also see the many hopeful signs of "good news."

Take our small communities for example. Good leadership has led to many great and creative ideas for improving health care in the most cost effective manner. Your own hospital administrator recently joined other area hospital administrators and tackled the formidable task of writing a lengthy grant application for a "rural transition grant" to bring additional federal dollars to your hospital. Citizens of many rural towns are joining together to sponsor bake sales, entertainment shows, car washes, and other fund raisers, all for the good of the local hospital. With such signs, its hard to stay too discouraged.

Likewise, when I look around me here in Washington, I feel a sense of encouragement which makes me believe things are going to get better. Three years ago, there were a handful of Members of Congress who started talking about the problems facing rural hospitals and doctors. We were generally on parochial, special interest concerns.

Now, the House Rural Health Care Coalition includes more than 100 Members—about one-quarter of the House of Representatives—who have joined together to work towards relief for rural health care providers. At last, I believe we have gotten across the point that rural health care is not a parochial problem. It should not be regarded as an urban-rural confrontation; it is a National problem. As a recent report from our state asserted, the Dallasite who is critically injured in an automobile accident in Comanche and the child from Houston bitten by a rattlesnake in Sweetwater must have access to timely and quality medical care.

For those who live in the rural areas, the problem is, of course, a more daily and central concern. And it is for you who live with a daily fear of losing your hospital that I fight my best fight to preserve your way of life—the way of life in which I was raised and which will always be my home and heart.

No issue over the past several years has had more importance to me than rural health. I have committed a large portion of my own time, as well as the time of my staff, to helping resolve the rural health problems. I have "preached" to my urban colleagues about unfair Medicare reimbursement policies and the need to remedy those inequities. I have brought federal government officials into the District to see firsthand what West Texas rural health care is all about. My staff and I have worked with hospitals such as your own Eastland Memorial Hospital to develop grant proposals. I have intervened with the Texas Department of Health when hospital closures seemed imminent. I have complained to the Health Care Financing Administration about unfair policies. I have fought successfully to include Peer Review provisions, and other legislative initiatives, in new law.

But the farmer in me won't let me believe that the "bad news" will get the last word in this story. I have too strong a belief in rural Americans across the Country, and I am too unwilling to give up the fight here in Washington to become a pessimist now. How about you?

Following their honeymoon trip the couple now resides in Morton Valley.

1982 Publication of the University of Texas Press,
Texas GRAVEYARDS: A CULTURAL LEGACY by Terry B. Jordan.

Although the title may lead a prospective reader to believe that this volume contains records concerning Texas graveyards, this is not the case. Instead, be researching graveyard customs of the varied cultures which have endured throughout the years, the author leads the reader through the cemeteries of Texas, their pasts and presents.

The book is broken into six chapters in which Mr. Jordan delves into the many different ways Texas has laid their dead to rest. In the chapter on the Southern Folk Cemetery in Texas, the custom of "scraping" is explained and also the use of shells to decorate the graves of loved ones. The chapter on Traditional Southern Grave

Markers walks the reader
through many of the quiet burial grounds in search of both common and unique grave markers. Mr. Jordan explores the mystic of the Hispanic culture influence as well as the German attention to detail in the chapters on The Mexican Graveyard in Texas and The Texas German Graveyard.

Even though there are no hard and fast facts offered to the genealogist which would lead to an ancestor, the book is a pleasant stroll through many quaint and forgotten customs which are evident to anyone who has spent a quiet Sunday afternoon wandering the paths of any of Texas' graveyards.

Fishing Outdoors

By Terry Wilson

A New Lake On The Land "Joe Pool"

If any of you folks went boating over the weekend and were lonely, you didn't go to the new Joe Pool reservoir. Located in the metroplex (Grand Prairie) this mid sized impoundment has drawn more attention than even the now famous Lake Fork.

Joe Pool was built as a flood control project for the Trinity River Authority of Texas and filled the bill during our floods this year. The lake prior to the August 18, 1989 opening date had risen to a teen foot above normal pool level due to the excessive water down stream.

During my visit this past weekend the lake was reported to still be two feet above normal pool and falling. For those of you who have visited the new Ballinger lake, think of this on the scale of Brownwood and then you have Joe Pool. Lots of flooded small timber black Jack, mesquite, oak cedar etc. Water color ranged from off colored (1 foot less visibility) to clear (6 feet or less).

Due to the expected pressure due to the large populus, Texas Parks and Wildlife Officials placed a three fish 18 inch minimum on the black bass.

Fishing for the blacks during my visit was fair, with a number of small fish coming on cranks and Rat-L-Traps. But the (18 inch) keepers and near keepers (15-17 inches) were taken on spinners and jigs. Most of these fish were taken in 12 to 15 feet of water near the dam area.

This impoundment can and I feel will live up to its potential once the new wears off and lake levels stabilize. Opening weekend attendance was reported to be over 2,000 persons. And this past weekend's running total since the opening was near 5,500 persons according to a Trinity River employee.

The lake is serviced by two pay parks, Lynn Creek and Loyd Park. There is also one park which has no charge. The entry fee for Lynn and Loyd are $2.00 per person per day, over 65 $1.00, $2.00 per day per vehicles and $2.00 per day per boat.

Facility Fees: Campsites with utilities $8.00 per day; campsites primitive $3.00 per day; Group Picnic shelter $25.00 per day; Group Campground $100.00 per day; and Group Pavillion $35.00 per day. All fees paid by park guests are used only for repayment of debts and for park operation and maintenance cost. The Parks were constructed with federal funds which these fees will repay.

At present the large black bass that was reported to us since the opening was 8 pounds 11 ounces. Current catfish and crappie seem to be biting better than the bass, but I'm sure after the rush dies down with close management this impoundment will become a true trophy lake.

For more information on Joe Pool lake and facilities you may call (817) 467-2104.

Lake Leon really turned out some lunkers this past weekend. With a 8 pound 11 ounce lunker and 7.46 lunker. Both these fish were taken by Eastland County Bass Club members. Their names are a mystery by request due to upcoming tournaments Sunday, September 3, 1989 and Sunday, September 10, 1989.

The crappie are also doing quiet well at Leon. With some nice 1/2 to 1 1/4 slabs being taken on minnows in the mid lake area from 12 feet of water.

A quick tip. After loading your boat from a fun day on the lake walk around and check your trailer light. Often we unloaded so quick that the bulbs are still hot and can burn out when gotten wet. It could save you a possible ticket after you start home and only takes a few minutes. This reminder was brought to my attention by one of our fine D.P.S. Troopers who works so hard to help keep us all safe on our highways.

Till next week remember where your fishing roots began, with someone who loves you as you love them.

Immunizations Required By School And Day Care

As the new school year approaches, the Texas Department of Health (TDH) stresses that parents should check their children's immunization records to see that they are up-to-date.

State law requires that children entering Texas schools or day care must show proof of immunizations for six communicable diseases-polio, tetanus, measles, rubella (German measles), mumps, and diphtheria. Whooping cough (pertussis) vaccine is required for all children younger than five entering day care or public school, although TDH recommends that children through age six also receive the vaccine.

According to Wes Hodgson, in the TDH Immunization Division, until the recent highly publicized outbreaks of measles and whooping cough, some parents appeared to believe that so-called "childhood diseases" were virtually wiped out.

"It is true that cases of some of these illnesses had diminished for a few years, but that was a reflection of how well most of the population was complying with vaccination requirements. None of these communicable disease are extinct, so the threat of infection is always present for anyone who has not been vaccinated, or who has not had the diseases," Hodgson said.

Hodgson said that the measles outbreak was one of the largest in recent history. "About 3,000 cases, including nine deaths, have been reported since the epidemic began last Thanksgiving in Houston." The state had not experienced so many cases since an even larger epidemic struck in 1971, when 9,585 cases were reported.

He said that recent whooping cough outbreaks in Tarrant, Travis and Bexar counties also have been cause for serious concern. More than 80 cases of the highly contagious disease have been reported. "With children returning to school, those infected may spread pertussis among unimmunized classmates. We want parents to be doubly sure that their children are protected, or we may have an escalation of the present outbreaks."

If parents have any doubts about their children's immunizations, they should check with their family physician or local health department. "One overlooked vaccination or booster can mean a sick child, able to infect others who may also be susceptible," Hodgson added.

Other vaccine-preventable diseases reported in Texas last year included mumps (327 cases), rubella (30), and tetanus (6). There were no cases of polio or diphtheria reported.

Hearing Date Set For ATPE Career Ladder Lawsuit

An Aug. 31 hearing date is set for a state district judge to hear initial arguments regarding a lawsuit filed by the Association of Texas Professional Educators.

The ATPE lawsuit was filed July 28 in Travis County District Court and seeks to have House Bill 2566 declared unconstitutional on the grounds that the version signed by the governor is not the version passed by the 71st Texas Legislature.

"We're pleased to be moving forward," said ATPE State President Carolyn Little, a classroom teacher from Ballinger. "I'm confident the court will understand and appreciate our concern and confusion with House Bill 2566."

"Right now, we have previous year appraisals used for level one, current year appraisals for level two and previous year appraisals for level three, and the educators of this state are not sure where they stand," Little said. "Additionally, some teachers will be appraised based on one set of statewide criteria in 1989, then turn around and be appraised on a stricter set of statewide criteria in 1990."

"Educators should be thinking about the kids who will be returning to school, but unfortunately, they're still confused over what has been done to them."

ATPE, the largest independent, nonunion educators' association in the state and nation, has a statewide membership of 50,200, which consists of mostly classroom teachers but also includes administrators, paraprofessionals, retired educators, education students and public members.

POEM

LOVE
Brightly beams our Father's mercy
As He sends to us His love
Like a shepherd that lost his sheep
In this sinful, trouble world.

Oh little child of sorry and trouble
Cast your eyes to the heavenly sky
You can see an artists
masterpiece
As He paints the stars on high.

So when the load gets too heavy and you never seem to get to the end
Remember that someone still loves you
In our Jesus you still have a friend.

So when the final trumpet are sounded
And the dead in Christ shall rise
Will you join in the celebration
Or forever be cast aside.

Solid Waste Management Options Conference

A conference on Solid Waste Management Options for the Big Country will be presented by the West Central Texas Council of Government on August 30th from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at Embassy Suites in Abilene.

Solid waste disposal is an increasingly eminent problem in each and every community in our region. Solid waste disposal and onsite wastewater system regulations are under going major changes from the Environment Protection Agency (EPA). In addition, recent reshaping of Texas waste disposal laws is causing city and county officials to look for alternatives to current disposal uses.

The conference objective is to provide answers to questions about new regulations and explore current available options.

Enclosed is a list of panelists and guests.

If you plan to attend or need additional information, please contact Alison Benton at 915/672-8544.

ASCS Committee To Discuss Provisions And Requirements Of Current Farm Programs

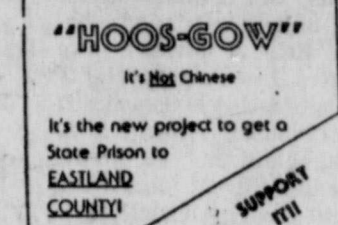

WASHINGTON, D.C.— At the request of Congressman Charles W. Stenholm (D-TX), the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) Committee will hold a meeting in the 17th Congressional District to discuss the provisions and requirements of current farm programs as mandated under the Food Security Act of 1985.

"This meeting will serve as an excellent opportunity for producers to visit with, and express concerns to the State committee," Stenholm said. "The committee will meet in Abilene on Aug. 29, 30 and 31 to conduct State ASCS business and meet with the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association and the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers," he added.

The State ASCS Committee is responsible for administering farm commodity and resource conservation programs through a network of county offices. The State committee reviews county operations and makes decisions on how the programs apply throughout the state, giving Texas farmers a say in how the Federal programs are applied.
