Hall Of Remarks by Herrel Holmark

IF YOU HAVE a Hummingbird feeder you might want to leave it out for awhile longer to feed those birds which have not already flown south. We had a report that a Hummingbird was feeding at a home in Cisco Friday morning.

I HOPE YOU had a happy Thanksgiving this past week. The only thing which might have made it any better would have been a different outcome to the Dallas Cowboys and Houston Oilers football game on Thanksgiving Day. As you probably already know the Oilers won the professional game by the score of 30-24, giving the Cowboys a three game straight loss this season.

MOST BUSINESSES in Cisco were closed on Thanksgiving Day and a number of them remained closed throughout the weekend, giving their employees a four-day weekend.

IF YOU HAVE not noticed, four weeks from this coming Tuesday will be Christmas Day. If you have not already started, then you better get busy with your Christmas shopping.

SPEAKING OF Christmas shopping, there seemed to be a number of persons in town on Friday of this past week doing shopping, probably for Christmas. The downtown streets were lined with cars and most of the parking spaces along Avenue D were occupied for the better part of the day.

THERE WERE A number of persons in town this weekend visiting for the holidays. Among them were Keith Crowder of Irving, Dennis Harris of Ballinger and Mr. and Mrs. Larry John Elliott and daughter of Houston.

IF YOU HAVE not already given to the Community Chest in Cisco, then you should get in touch with one of the chairmen and give your part to the local fund raising drive.

Those persons who may be given your contribution are Rev. Jerden Davis, Jim Choate, Roy Dennis, Robert Dudley, Dick Woolley, Bobby Smith, Dan Dixon, Bob Ford, Youvonne McMillan and Dell Crockett.

Any of the above named persons will be glad to accept your contribution and see that it gets to the proper authorities.

WORK SEEMS TO be coming along nicely on the Housing Authority projects buildings on East 9th and 10th streets. The older apartments are being remodeled on the inside and an additional room is being built at the back of each dwelling.

Veteran Cisco Golfer Scores Hole-in-One At Local Course

N.C. Huston, a veteran of some 50 years as a golfer, scored a hole-in-one on the par 3 165-yard No. 8 hole at the Cisco Country Club on Friday, Nov. 16. It was the second ace for the retired West Texas Utilities Co. manager.

Mr. Huston was playing with five other golfers - J.L. Stafford, Carrel Smith, O.L. Robinson, Jim Graham and Charlie

Graham - when his No. 5 iron tee shot hit short and rolled into the cup. He scored a hole-in-one at Eastland Lakeside course in 1972.

The ace gave Mr. Huston a 71 for 18 holes - four under his age. He regular shoots 18 holes scores of 71 to 75. The lowest score he ever shot at the Cisco course was a 31 for nine holes. He won the Cisco Country Club city championship 10 times during his years of play here, and he has been a flight winner several times in area tournaments.

At the present time, Mr. Huston is assisting Mr. Stafford in coaching the Cisco Junior College golf team. He works with the junior players three days each week and usually plays himself three times a week. He credits golf with contributing to the good health he enjoys.

Mr. Huston is a native of Paint Rock and was interested in news items recently about the late Dr. G.M. Stephenson's experiences at a haunted house there. Mr. Huston said he visited the place many times as a boy.

A resident of Cisco for some 40 years, Mr. Huston retired after 45 years with WTUC. He is a past president of the Lions Club and the Chamber of Commerce. He and Mrs. Huston are Baptists and have one daughter, Mrs. Jim Tryer of Kingsville.

Parade entries for the annual Santa parade will be accepted until Monday, Dec. 3, at the Cisco Chamber of Commerce.

The parade will be held Saturday, Dec. 8, at 10:30 a.m. The parade will form at Avenue D and East 4th Street. Floats and decorated cars must be in place by 10 a.m. for pre-judging.

The parade divisions will include holiday costume; pets; decorated bicycles-six years to and including 11 years old, and 12 years old and over; uniformed or costumed groups; decorated cars; floats (Christmas theme, no Santa Claus).

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

Have you ever heard of Gilbert Copeland, the humorist? If not, chances are you have not been where Gil has performed! The attendees of the Nutrition Luncheon look forward to plenty of cornpone and lots of laughter when Mr. Copeland brings his stories to them. He is always welcomed and appreciated.

Those who furnished the dinner music for the week are Vida Killion, A.E. McNeely and Leah Brown. These volunteers are so dependable!

The day before Thanksgiving was a welcome treat! Oren Speegle gave several readings, but the one most appreciated was "The Price of the Old Violin" accompanied by Viola Payne with her violin and Mrs. Killion at the piano.

Mary Carey recalled many stories of Alaska and ended her review with "Thanksgiving in Alaska." The events that took place, as told by Mary, shows the excitement of living in an area that, while it is a state of the union, still it is very remote to most of us, and the participants of the luncheon appreciated hearing about the great state.

9-AA ROLLS ON

District 9-AA rolls along. Represented by the Breckenridge Buckaroos, District 9-AA continues to inch upward in the playoffs, after the Bucks whipped Decatur, 36-14, Friday night.

They will meet Wylie (of East Texas) Friday at a site to be named.

What Is It Like To Have Chimney Fire?

It's no fun, if it doesn't burn the house down, it will probably wreck your chimney and scare you half to death. Here's how it happens.

Begin with one dirty chimney--let's say a fireplace not cleaned for a couple of years. The soot lining the chimney flue is saturated with flammable stuff called creosote. (More detail on creosote is available in any dictionary.) It doesn't take much to ignite creosote--a newspaper fire sending flames up to the damper is enough.

Once kindled, creosote burns with joyous abandon. In a matter of seconds the fire spreads up through the flue creating a draft that only helps things along. At this point your average chimney fire begins to roar and howl, sending the occupants of the house running for cover.

If you run, you'll be treated to a real fireworks show. As the creosote fire builds and intensifies the heat melts the mortar between the brick. The red-hot mortar actually drips into the flue, only to be caught up in the tremendous updraft, and these little fire balls shoot out the chimney and onto the roof. If you're lucky, the chimney will fall apart destroying one end of the building--if you're not, this miniature volcano can bring the whole house down.

However, if you stand your ground, a chimney fire can be controlled. Put out the fire in the fireplace with an extinguisher or sand. Cover the opening with a wet blanket, call the fire department, and hope for the best. But it should be pointed out that having your chimney cleaned is a lot easier on the nerves than the sand and wet blanket method.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK By Armo Chambers

There is no other task in the world so challenging and complicated as that of raising children. Being a good parent is so difficult because it calls for two opposite qualities in balance: giving up just enough childishness to appear mature, and retaining just enough childishness so that we can empathize with the youngsters -- an equilibrium as admirable as it is rare.

The good parent is simply one who MORE THAN HALF THE TIME does the right thing instead of the wrong. He realizes that in the long run only three basic needs are essential: love, discipline and independence.

Give away your love to your children, and you will receive back more love than you can encompass. Discipline your children to recognize reality, and in so doing you will enrich your own understanding. Welcome their evolving independence, and you will be supported by the strength you have given them.

WHO IS OSCAR THOMAS WEEKS? He's the man who cooks the good barbecue at his place of business over at the corner of East 6th Street and Avenue A. And he has lived in Cisco 44 years, coming here from his native Slaton at age four.

Oscar is a retired Air Force cook, leaving the military as a sergeant. He served in both Korean and Vietnam as well as at several bases in the USA. Oscar and his wife have three children. He started his barbecue business as a sideline when he ran the Phillips service station across from the Spot for a time a year or two ago.

The barbecue business got so good that he left the service station and moved to devote full time to cooking.

Oscar got a lot of compliments for himself and Cisco when he catered the luncheon for the recent Economic Conference sponsored here for the 17th Congressional District by Rep. Charles Stenholm. Several folks asked about the attractive young ladies who helped with serving the luncheon. They're Home Ec students at CHS—Misses Susan Watts, Pam Ewalt, Gretchen Cermin, Jacque Eudy, Patti Gorr and Debbie Hill. Mrs. Ralph Glenn of the CoC staff recruited them to help and they did a fine job.

A NOTE FROM Mrs. Barbara Allsup Wylie of 210 West 16th Street, Cisco, calls attention to an error we made the other day. Says the note:

"In reference to the Alford Stores mentioned... that should have read Allsup Stores."

"Small world it seems... these are my Uncle Lonnie's (Allsup) stores. I was pleasantly surprised when I found out at a family gathering that he was planning to build in this area."

Work is coming along nicely on the new Allsup Store. They're ready to pave the parking area and the building appears ready for stocking.

COACH BILL Anderson and his staff at CJC haven't slowed down now that the football season has ended. They've hit the road to recruit players for next year. CJC loses some 30 players to graduation this year, and many of them are key performers... A 37-year old Canadian medical doctor (wife and four children) will look Cisco over Dec. 4-5, reports Graham Hospital Administrator Garner Altom... The Gene Abbotts went to Denton to eat Thanksgiving turkey with their daughter and family.

GLAD TO HEAR that Mrs. Grant Robinson, daughter of the Don Reynolds, is considerably improved at the community hospital in Brownwood. The Reynolds visited with her Thursday and ate turkey at a restaurant... Oil Man Robert Kamon, who got home a week or so ago after six weeks in Australia on business, has been in Wyoming and back... Their son, Ken Kamon of the UofT Austin, spent Thanksgiving weekend here.

THE D-FTW Home Garden Magazine lists Miss Jo Stanford of Dallas as one of the young interior designers who will provide answers to "what will be the design trends for 1980?"

Miss Stanford is a granddaughter of Mrs. Lois Whitaker of Cisco and her mother grew up here. Miss Stanford is a 1978 graduate of Tarleton State where she majored in interior design. An associate member of ASID, Jo is associated with Marguerite Green Interiors of Dallas and is quoted as saying "good interior design must outlast the trends."

MET UP WITH Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone Earnest of Chatsworth, Ga., in Cisco the other day. They were here to visit their relatives, Mesdames Lela L. Lloyd, Annie Rendall and Mary Carey. Understand a reunion of the Latch Family was on the weekend schedule for the above folks.

Mrs. Lloyd visited with the Georgia couple some time ago in search of material for a book she is writing about her ancestors... Understand that Mrs. Carey, well known as an author, is due to return home to Alaska Tuesday. She has spent two or three weeks visiting relatives in Houston and Cisco and plans to hurry home to her typewriter.

DR. AND MRS. Clark Odum and children came Friday for a weekend here with relatives, including her parents, the Ernest Reichs, and his mother, Mrs. Betty Odum and brother Olin and others. Mr. Reich went to Big D last Thursday to go to the Cowboy game with Clark and brother Olin was there for the game last Monday night.

Guess the nice thing to do would be quiet and say nothing about football around them, huh?... The Olin Odums spent Thanksgiving in Killeen with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. S.W. Reynolds.

TWO CISCO ministers, Rev. Jerden Davis of First Methodist Church and Rev. John Clinton of the Evangelical Methodist Church, wear cowboy hats these days... Raymond and Arlie Whitley are adding a new work room at their auto body shop at 4th and Avenue D... City Manager John Boland's beard is growing these days in preparation for his annual vacation to the snow ski slopes of Colorado... More than 100 students of Cisco's primary school presented a public musical program last Tuesday night at the CHS auditorium. Principal Geneva Webb asked the audience to remain seated when the program ended. Then, the students marched off the stage and stood along each side of the auditorium. Mrs. Webb then announced: "Thanks for coming. As you leave, pick up your children." And every child was united with family with a minimum of confusion. The program was real good.

Products (Glazes, Underglazes Brushes, Greenware, Collectors Items)

113 North Austin
Ranger, Texas 647-1442

On Saturday, November 10, Angela Rhea Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Davidson of Olden became the bride of Mr. Arthur A. Marston, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Marston of Hunt, Texas.

The couple were wed in the First Presbyterian Church in San Marcos, Texas, with Reverend Conway T. Wharton, Jr. of San Marcos and Reverend A. Amott Ward of Corpus Christi officiating in the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with a silk arrangement of dusty rose morning glories, roses, dried baby's breath and beige foliage. On either side of the altar stood a candelabrum accented with fall flowers. They also carried out the bride's colors of wine and dusty rose. In the center panel of the stained glass windows of the church a bouquet of fall flowers accented a single long taper candle.

The bride wore a formal gown of white organza. The bodice was covered in silk venise lace and featured a slashed neckline. Venise lace trimmed the full bishop sleeves and skirt which tapered to a chapel train. Her camelot tiara of venise lace held the three tiered finger tip veil edged with lace. Angie wore a pair of diamond earrings that she had inherited from her paternal grandmother. She carried a cascading bouquet of elegant carnations and dusty rose, accented with red roses, baby's breath and gypsophila.

The bride's attendants wore long gowns of wine lusterlo knit. The removable long sleeve capelet revealed a mushroom pleated bodice and spaghetti straps. Each carried a silk bouquet of dusty rose colored morning glories with dried baby's breath and a dusty rose streamer. They also wore silk flower hair pieces to accent their attire. The Matron of Honor was Brenda Humiston of Chillicothe, Ohio, sister of the bride. Bridesmaid were Susan Marston Evans of Los Alamos, N.M., sister of the groom; Trena Stansell of Abilene; Kelly Dunn of San Antonio; Pamela Dyson of Eastland and Valerie Davidson of Olden, sister of the bride.

Natalie Pendergast, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Pendergast, Jr. of San Marcos, Texas was the flower girl. She wore a long dress of wine lusterlo knit and carried a basket of dusty rose silk flowers accented with a dusty rose streamer. The Best Man was Douglas Ocker of Rockport. Grooms-men were Michael Evans of Los Alamos, N.M.; Mark Morris of Corpus Christi;

Steven Morgan of Sand Springs, Ok.; Arthur Speckles of Alamogorda, N.M. and Scott McGehee of San Marcos, Texas. Ushers were Elwyn Davidson of Olden, brother of the bride, John Sablatura of Baton Rouge, La. and Wayne and Freddy Penick both of Houston, cousins of the groom. The ring bearer was Michael Humiston of Chillicothe, Ohio, nephew of the bride.

Mr. Eddie Munn, of Santo, Texas, Uncle of the bride sang "If", and "The Wedding Song". His wife Judy was the accompanist.

The bride's mother wore a long gown of two-tone brown chiffon with a removable cape. She wore a brown cymbidium orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a long gown of old rose quiana knit with a cowl neckline. Her dress was accented with a rose colored cymbidium orchid corsage.

At the close of the ceremony when the couple turned to descend the altar each gave a long stemmed red rose honoring their parents.

The rehearsal dinner was held in the Grotto Room of Aquarene Springs Restaurant. The dinner was hosted by the groom's parents with fifty-eight friends and relatives attending. The reception was also held in the Grotto Room and was hosted by the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered in a white lace top and a white knit gathered full skirt. The three tiered wedding cake accented with dusty rose colored roses and the bride's wedding bouquet centered the table. The silver coffee server belonged to the groom's parents and the antique crystal fustoria punch bowl is an heirloom of the groom's paternal grandmother.

The groom's table was covered in wine colored gathered full skirt. A double ring german chocolate cake with frosted grapes atop the cake centered the table. A brass hurricane glass with a single candle decorated with greenery and dried baby's breath accented the table.

In the center of the room stood a champagne fountain. The table was covered in a wine colored gathered full skirt. The base of the fountain was decorated by the bridesmaid bouquets.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a three piece suit made of suede cloth. Her corsage was a dusty rose carnation with a single rose bud with a dusty rose ribbon. The couple spent their honeymoon in Kerrville, Texas and will make their home in San Marcos, Texas.

Pecan Pie Time

Since the Texas Legislature in 1919 designate the pecan as the official state tree of Texas, pecan crops have climbed to new highs. This year, with an estimated harvest of nearly 100 million pounds, the Texas pecan crop will be the highest in the state's history. With a plentiful supply and lower costs for pecans expected in grocery stores, the Texas Department of Agriculture developed a new variation of a traditional favorite, "Texas Pecan Pie."

Share your favorite pecan pie receipt with us.

TASTES DIFFER--and we may be prejudice -- but we think our Mrs. pecan pie is the best. Gay Nell uses what we call the Modified Omar Burleson receipt. [It's from a USDA Cookbook he sent us years ago, and she adapted it to our family's taste.] We'll share it with you, and would like for you to share your favorite pecan pie receipt. Choices vary: for instance, we think chopped nuts make a better pie than do halves.

Who can imagine the Christmas season in Texas without fruit cakes, cookies, candy and pecans? And who in Texas could even think of pecans without thinking of pecan pie...truly a Texas tradition.

According to pecan experts, the abundant crop has been caused by favorable moisture conditions, the absence of insects and the general good health of the trees throughout the state.

1979 Crop Largest Ever
Not counting the thousands of native pecan trees that shade yards of homes, the 1979 Texas commercial pecan crop is estimated to be enormous. According to figures from the Texas Pecan Growers Association, production of pecans in Texas has increased greatly in the past 50 years. In 1919 the Texas legislature declared the pecan as the official state tree. The next year Texas produced 2 million pounds of pecans. In 1968 pecan production for Texas was 69 million pounds. During the last ten years, pecan production has ranged from a low of 12 million pounds to a high of 75 million pounds. Last year, due to poor growing conditions, the crop was 26 million pounds. The 1979 crop, estimated to exceed 100 million pounds, will be the highest in the state's history.

While the Texas pecan crop is expected to set production records, the situation is not as bright in most of the other top pecan producing states. Crops in Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and Louisiana were damaged severely by Hurricane Frederick. And Georgia, which historically has been the top pecan-growing state in the country, may lose this distinction to Texas this year.

Pecans are Nutritious
The pecan is very nutritious - an excellent source of protein and carbohydrates and the oil of the pecan is one of the most highly saturated known. Like other nuts, pecans contain protein, iron, vitamins A and B, thiamine, riboflavin and niacin. And since the amount of sodium in pecans is too low to measure, they can be used to add flavor and texture to foods in low sodium diets.

Pecan Storage and Usage
While pecans are harvested during the fall months, they are easily stored for year-round enjoyment. Pecans maintain freshness longer when unshelled, storing up to one year in the refrigerator, shelled, up to nine months. Pecans may be froze for as long as two years, either shelled or unshelled. For freezing, put pecans in tightly covered freezer containers or plastic bags. After thawing, pecans should be allowed to dry before using. At room temperature, unshelled pecans will stay fresh for four months.

Shelled for two months.

Unless you have lots of time, buying shelled pecans may be more practical because the valuable time required for shelling makes them worth the higher price. If you choose to shell your own, you can usually expect about 1 pound (4 1/2 cups) of shelled pecans from 2 pounds of unshelled. If you plan to use pecans for cooking, remember that pecan pies usually cost less than halves.

Since it's not always easy to remove perfect halves when shelling pecans you may want to try this method: Soak the unshelled pecans 6 to 8 hours in a salt solution [1/2 cup salt to 3 quarts cold water]. Then drain and crack the nuts.

County Pecan Shows
County pecan shows, staged by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System, have played a major part in focusing attention on the pan. These shows, which this year will be held in 51 Texas counties from December 2-14, include pecan grading demonstrations, exhibits of pecan crafts, food exhibits and table arrangements. Your county extension agent can tell you if and when a pecan show is scheduled in your county.

Texas Pecan Week
In recognition of the state's largest pecan crop ever, the week of December 2 has been declared "Texas Pecan Week" by Texas Department of Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown. During this week attention will be focused on pecans in schools, by home economics organizations, newspapers and grocery stores where customers will find abundant supplies of pecans costing less than last year.

Following is the special Texas Pecan Pie recipe created especially for this year's traditional holiday baking season:

Texas Pecan Pie CRUST
1-1/3 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup shortening
3 tablespoons water
Mix flour and salt together; add shortening and cut into flour with fork or pastry blender. Add water and mix gently with fork in stirring motion. Gather pastry into a ball and place in pie tin. With tips of fingers, spread pastry along bottom and sides of pie tin, shaping a high, fluted edge. Make one 9" pie shell.

FILLING
1-1/2 cups Brown Sugar [firmly packed]
1/2 cup Granulated Sugar

1/4 cup water
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1-1/2 cup pecan halves
3/4 teaspoon vanilla

Combine first five ingredients in small bowl and mix well. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Add evaporated milk and mix well. Stir in pecan halves and vanilla. Mix well and turn into unbaked 9" pie shell. Cook in preheated 400 degree F. oven for 10 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degree F. and cook an additional 35 to 40 minutes, or until filling is puffed in center and is well browned. Let pie cool before cutting.

Talk is cheaper than you think.

How to save up to 60% on Long Distance.
If you're one of those who thinks a Long Distance call is a luxury, read on. The trick to saving money while keeping in touch with family or friends is knowing when to call, and calling One-Plus.

Call between 11pm and 8am.
Before you groan about how you can't stay up late or see straight in the morning, think about it. You'll be saving up to 60%! If you're a night person, you probably don't start counting sheep until after 11 pm anyway. And if you've got friends and family to call out west, it'll be a perfectly civilized 9 or 10 pm when their phone rings. If you like to see the sun rise, and you know folks back east, it'll be an hour later on their end. Call out of state anytime before 8 am and you can talk all day if you want and still save 60%. In-state calls are also greatly reduced. Just remember to dial One-Plus.

Reach out on the weekend and save up to 60%.
Now this is a stroke of good luck: a really cheap Long Distance phone call just when you may want it most. Call any time between 11 pm Friday and 5 pm Sunday and really save. For instance, dial One-Plus and you can make a ten-minute call to Atlanta for only $1.55. That's almost worth making a new friend in Atlanta for.

Even on weeknights, save up to 35%.
Sometimes you can't wait for the weekend. Or you don't want to. But you can still save plenty Sunday through Friday from 5 pm to 11 pm. Think about what a bargain it is to call someone 1900 miles away, talk it up for ten minutes, and only run a tab of about $2.00. There's just no other way to get close to a faraway friend or relative so quickly, so cheaply.

On weekdays it's still a bargain.
Here's a surprise. From 8 am to 5 pm, a Long Distance chat still doesn't cost very much. A five minute call out of state, to anywhere in the continental U.S. is only about $2.50 when you dial One-Plus. Think of how good the sound of your voice would be to a friend (not to mention your mother!) right in the middle of the day.

Reach out and touch someone.

Lights From The Christian World

...he thanked God, and took courage." Acts 28:15

Goodness in life does not always keep a person from escaping pain nor bring immediate deliverance from a problem. The world would say that one who comes out of a battle without a scratch is the winner. This is not always so. God settles accounts in the end. Jesus defeated the devil at Calvary, after encountering much pain, suffering and persecution.

Today, perhaps your Faith is being tried. You are in financial need. You need a healing in your body. Your property needs to be sold; or misunderstandings have caused you grief. Lean not on a promise in God's word, today. Instead, lean upon the Promiser, Jesus. Disregard the score; for it may not add up at this moment in your favor. The Promiser, Jesus, was an overcomer. Though He died on a cross; He arose and conquered death and the grave.

You, too, can live as an overcomer as you keep your attention directed to Him. Believe, regardless of your circumstances.

A farmer waits patiently until autumn for his precious harvest to ripen. Be patient and establish your hearts. Take courage, for the coming of the great Judge is almost here. He will even your score. Yes, there's a great day coming for you.

"There's a great day coming, a great day coming; There's a great day coming by and by, When the saints and the sinners shall be Parted right and left, Are you ready for that day to come?"

W.L. Thompson

'Way Back in the Early 20's our predecessors and in the Middle 40's

...We started out in the abstract business in Eastland County. Then, as now, the abstract was a necessary part of every real estate transaction. We soon learned that an abstract was something more than a bundle of pages with numbers on them. Even more important today, it must not only be accurate, responsible and revealing, but it must be a quality product of completeness prepared to stand the most thorough and critical title examinations.

New 1980-81 Almanac And State Industrial Guide Out

The 1980-81 Texas Almanac and State Industrial Guide, now off the presses, marks a major milestone in book publishing. It is the 50th edition of this unique book since the first edition was published in Galveston in 1857.

A special article in the new edition, written by Lee Milazzo, director of archives at Southern Methodist University and book reviewer for The Dallas Morning News, traces the history of the Texas Almanac since Willard Richardson, who was the Galveston News publisher at the time, launched the enterprise.

The Texas Almanac is available at your local newspaper in Eastland County. There have been several time gaps in the book's publication, the longest being from 1873 until 1904, when publication was resumed in Dallas by A. H. Belo & Co. The Belo Corporation, publisher of The Dallas News, has been the book's publisher since that time.

Throughout most of this century, it has been published every other year, except for a gap of several years during World War I.

Another article tells of the colorful and sometimes tragic history of the city of Galveston. The account and another on the Port of Galveston written by Robert A. Nesbitt, writer, editor and former president of the Galveston Historical Foundation.

In continuing to present a section of Texas (The Hill Country of Lyndon Johnson, 1976-77 edition, and Texas West of the Pecos, 1978-79 edition), the Gulf Coast of Texas is spotlighted in a special article in the new 1980-81 edition of the Texas Almanac. It was prepared by the staff of the Dallas Museum of Natural History.

The feature, which is liberally illustrated with color photographs made by the museum staff, discusses places, plants, birds, mammals, reptiles, fish and seashells found along the Texas Gulf Coast.

Morehead, who for many years was chief of The Dallas News' Austin Bureau, has written a history of Texas politics since 1857.

The 1980-81 edition has many other features as well as updated data on Texas weather, statewide political races, business, agriculture, mining and petroleum production, state boards and commissions, organizations—almost every subject about Texas that Texans will want to know. Also included are the lists of state and national parks, lakes and rivers—plus a special feature on floating on Texas rivers—and interesting places to visit.

The Texas Constitution, a history of Texas, gardening in Texas and the popular section—Counties of Texas with maps—are among the contents of the book's 704 pages.
