Work To Begin On Mobley Hotel This Week

Dick Woolley, president of Cisco Chamber of Commerce, announced this week that work will begin on the renovation of the Mobley Hotel Monday. Dr. Rinaldo Petrini, architect in charge of the project, is scheduled to arrive in Cisco Sunday afternoon. He will be supervising the beginning of the actual project renovation and see that the work gets started on Monday of this week.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

The Senior Center is a place of action and this can be verified by the type of programs held during the Nutrition Luncheons.

Bob Beaver and his one-man band can cause more enthusiasm in a few minutes than many performers can in a lengthy presentation. He is always welcomed by the participants of the program and will be invited back many times.

A High School Choir, under the direction of Wayne White, presented a Christmas program that was received by the members in an enjoyable way. Mr. White, a Cisco High School teacher, is doing a very fine job with the music department. The members of the choir were Mrs. Davena Jeffcoat, the piano accompanist, Jana Jeffcoat, Greg Qualls, Paula Pruitt, Mike Keating and Mary McGrew. The Senior Center is so appreciative of this fine group of young people and want to hear them again.

Friday the Center honored one of the staff workers, Bill Haynes, an Eastland Outreach Worker. He and all those who had birthdays in the month of December were honored. His family furnished the birthday cake for the large number of attendees.

During the birthday party Roland Smith and Clyde Brymer and his band presented the music. Both of these musical groups have contributed so much to the Nutrition program and their assistance is not only helpful but appreciative.

The month of December is a full month for the Senior Center. Monday night, at 6 o'clock, the 80 Plus Club will have a "pot luck" supper. They will sing songs of old and do a lot of talking about the days when Cisco and Eastland County were being settled.

One group of Wrangler Belles are shown practicing for the Monday night's annual Christmas concert-program at Cisco Junior College.

CJC Christmas Concert Set Monday

The annual Christmas Concert, presented by the Band, Belles, and Choir from Cisco Junior College, will be held Monday, December 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium. There will be no admission charge, and the public is invited to attend.

Wyley Peebles, head of the Fine Arts Department, and director of the choir, said that the program will be part contemporary and part Christmas music.

A special feature of the program will include the well-known Wrangler Belles dance-drill performing with the band during its portion of the program.

Cliff Andrews and George Faulkner. Both of these men sang and played their musical instruments for the group. The group attending the luncheons stayed as long as the musicians would play. It is such effort as these two men make that makes the program a success.

The menus for the week are:
Monday--braised beef tips, macaroni and tomatoes, tossed salad/french dressing, apple sauce, bread, butter and drink.

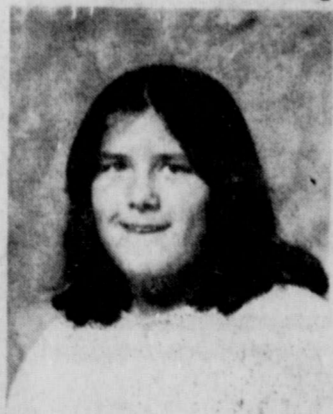

Wednesday--cabbage roll, glazed carrots, sliced pears, gingerbread, bread, butter and drink.

Friday--hamburger steak, buttered corn, green beans, white cake, tomato juice, bread, butter and drink.

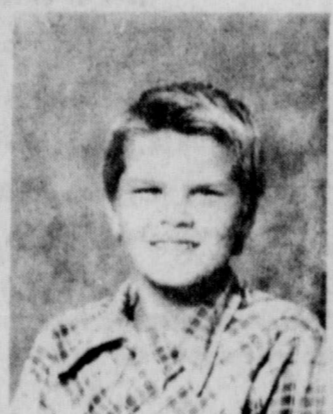

gram. The Belles are directed by Mrs. Pat Owens. The band, directed by Tim Jones, will present the first half of the evening's music. Among their selections will be "Amarrito Orca" ("Spanish March"), "New Ragtime Follies," "It's a Small World," and "Holiday for Trombones."

The CJC Singers will take the stage following a brief intermission and will do six selections. Some of their songs will include: Three Shaker Songs, Two Macedonian Folk Songs, "He's Gone Away," "Peace on Earth; a Jazz Prayer," "Is There a Parade in Bethlehem," and "Mary Had a Baby."

Eight Directors Elected For Chamber Of Commerce Board

Eight directors to serve two-year terms have been elected by members of the Chamber of Commerce, it was reported at the December board meeting last Tuesday noon at the Colony Restaurant. CofC President Dick Woolley presided at the meeting.

The eight new board members were listed as follows: Dick Woolley, Gerald Winnett, Billy Wright, Joe Wheatley, Bob Ford, Robert Dudley, Ronnie Ledbetter and Gail Hogan.

The election committee was composed of Elaine Dixon, Bobby Smith and Barbara Pope. Officers for the coming year will be elected at the January meeting when the new directors begin serving their terms.

Hold-over directors are Roy Dennis, Eddie McMillan, Brad Kimbrough, Elaine Dixon, Barbara Pope, Bobby Smith and Clois Purvis.

Mr. Woolley reported to the board that an important industrial prospect on which the CofC has been working for several months "is looking good and we should have something to announce very soon."

Officials in charge of the Mobley Hotel Restoration Project are due in town this week to begin making arrangements for work to begin, Mr. Woolley reported. The CofC has been working with the Hilton Foundation and the University of Houston's architecture department on the project of restoring the first Hilton Hotel.

Manager Gene Abbott reported on the recent business development conference sponsored here jointly by Congressman Charles Stenholm and the CofC. He told the board about attending a meeting of the Brownwood CofC recently and telling "what's happening in Cisco."

Mr. Woolley reported that the CofC has been presented an idea of developing a project for art students to paint murals on blank brick walls around town by Dr. Norman Wallace, president of Cisco Junior College. The board will study the plan for possible action next month.

Attending the luncheon were Mr. Woolley, Mrs. Dixon,

Mr. Wright, Gerald Winnett, Mr. Kimbrough, Mr. Dennis, Mr. Smith, Mr. Wheatley, Mayor Chief Brown, Mr. Dudley, Mr. Hogan, City Manager John Boalnd and Mr. Abbott.

The Graham Memorial Hospital board met with the CofC board. The hospital group had as guests Dr. and Mrs. Donald S. Merker of near Toronto, Canada, who were here with the view of locating in Cisco.

Hints For The Aged & Handicapped

By PATRICIA GALBREATH

DEAR PAT—I am disabled due to arthritis and major operations. I find I can still write without too much effort and thought perhaps I could address envelopes. However, when I answer advertisements for such services, I am told they require fees of $10 to $35 to put me in contact with "potential" employers.

I would like to do this type work and am hoping you will tell me how to go about it. I cannot pick up and deliver as I do not drive or go out often.

I checked with the Better Business Bureau and they say don't get involved.—Mrs.

D.S., Texas

DEAR MRS. S.—I am with the BBB. These advertisements are just too risky, although I am sure one in 1000 probably legitimate.

I have received many letters stating how money was lost on ads of this type but NEVER have I received a letter saying that anyone made money addressing envelopes.—PAT

DEAR PAT—I have two suggestions for Mrs. C.S.R. who needs someone to babysit with her adult sister-in-law.

Some high schools have lists of older students who need to earn extra money. They could not be expected to do any nursing, but they could read to the patient, watch T.V. with her or get her a drink. If companionship for a night out is all that's needed, I think teenage girls would be quick to respond.

Mrs. R. might phone some of the nursing homes and ask if anyone working there is interested in several hours extra work.

The latter might be more reliable if the sister-in-law requires a great deal of help. Other adult help could probably be found at the church.—Mrs. H.B., Montana

DEAR PAT—Can you help me? I am slightly handicapped, drive a car and I have a good job. I am 42 years old, unmarried and would like to correspond with a few ladies.—M.T.R., Ohio

DEAR MR. R.—I will be happy to forward all mail from the ladies.—PAT

DEAR PAT—My grandson is a cerebral palsy child. He is just over two years old. Will you please send me any literature on handicapped children that you have available? I would appreciate being placed on your mailing list so that as future material is available it will be mailed to me.—Mrs. C.W., New Jersey also contact you personally.—PAT

PAT NOTE: Address any questions you may have or hints you want to share to: HANDICAPPED, P.O. Box 368, Weatherford, Texas 76086

Green Thumb Workers Seminar

Over 100 Green Thumb workers and sponsors from twelve surrounding counties recently attended a training seminar at the Comanche Senior Center in Comanche. Cisco Green Thumb workers and sponsors attending the seminar included J.O. Elmore, Jo Phillips and Ruth Cartee, director of the Nutrition Program in Cisco.

The group was welcomed by Comanche City Manager, John Beaty, and entertained by Green Thumb worker, Inez Gaines. Other Green Thumb workers, Mamie Hedgpeth and Margaret Mabra, provided blood pressure checks for the workers attending the seminar. Jimmie Roberts, Heartland Insurance Company Agent, spoke to the group concerning tips on buying insurance. Lorene Wilson, Green Thumb worker, explained how to beat inflation when buying Christmas presents.

Victor Cornelius presents a Christmas bonus for the first time to employee Linda Hatcher of Ranger, who joined the firm in April. Though the experience may be a new one for Linda and 13 others who have been added to the company's payroll in 1979, it is old hat to Cornelius. He has been dispersing Christmas bonuses since 1936. Wednesday he awarded a total of $30,000.00 to his

70 employees. New with the company in addition to Linda are Nancy Hale and Novilla Templeton of Ranger; Donna Parrigan, Frank Sprangler, Delores Starr and Peggy Suggs of Cisco; Belinda Martin of Desdemona; Janis Slampa of Gorman; Brett Arther, Barbara Blakely, Richard Dennis, Cary Hallum and Jane Thomas of Eastland. (Photo by Lloyd Armstrong)

Green Thumb On-the-Job Specialist, Mike Pritchard, Waco, discussed the on-the-job training program.

Texas Green Thumb, a federal employment opportunity program for disadvantaged senior rural workers, is funded through the Department of Labor and sponsored by National Farmers Union.

Green Thumb workers are placed with non-profit organizations serving the needs of rural communities throughout the state.

Texas Green Thumb is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer.

Jim Wright Sworn In

Jim R. Wright, 32, Eastland city attorney, was sworn in Friday afternoon as the new 91st District judge by retiring Judge Earl Conner Jr.

Judge Conner also administered the oath to Wright when he became an attorney in 1972.

Judge Wright said his wife Sheila and 11-month-old daughter Christie witnessed the ceremony. His other children-Kevin, 13, and Vicki, 10-were in school.

Judge Wright has submitted his resignation as a member of the school board and as city attorney.

Judge Conner had some non-jury cases set for next week, Wright said, so he will begin his courtroom duties at that time.

Please allow me to utilize your newspaper to express my humble and sincere appreciation to all persons who took part in my appointment as Judge of the 91st District Court. I intend to take all steps possible to be deserving of the office. Although Governor Clements made the official appointment, I was fortunate to have many fine citizens of the district and elsewhere speak on my behalf. I cannot begin to express my appreciation to all of those people for their loyalty and support. I especially publicly want to thank my wife, Sheila, who has given me encouragement, prayers and understanding and without whom this appointment would not have been possible. I share the honor with her.

Many people have asked whether I will be a candidate for the office in the next election. As I have said, many local people have assisted me in obtaining the appointment and I will ask them to assist me in my candidacy for the office in the upcoming election. There are several good people who might possibly be candidates for the office, but I hope that I can serve in the way the people deserve and will be elected to a full four year term.

I feel very fortunate to be able to follow such distinguished persons as Judge Davenport, Judge Collie, Judge Sparks and Judge Conner in this position.

Again, my deepest thanks. I look forward to serving the people of the 91st Judicial District.

Respectfully,

Jim R. Wright

By Frances Nault

The residents of Cisco Nursing Center have selected Elsie Wheeler, LVN, as employee of the month for December. Selected by the employees as resident of the month was Beatrice Evans. Congratulations to both of you.

Tuesday night was our monthly musical. Roland Smith of Gorman and Lyndell Cockburn of Ranger performed a variety of music, some country and western, blue grass, religious and Christmas carols. Everyone really enjoyed this and want to say thanks to the performers for coming.

Those residents winning prizes in bingo this week were Velma Holdridge, Beatrice Evans and Nick Gray. Others participating were Nancy Jones, John Earp, Ethel Crow and Frankie Eaton.

The resident Christmas party has been scheduled for December 20 at 7:00 p.m. and families of the residents are invited to come and share the occasion with us. Santa Claus will be here to pass out the gifts.

As Christmas grows nearer, the staff and residents of the facility would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Olivia Pinion Powell of Arlington held her audience spellbound and oh so very quiet, with her demonstration of portrait in charcoal and pastel from a live model Thursday night at Texas Electric Reddy Room.

Demonstrating for the Eastland County Art Ass'n. she did a very good likeness of model J.C. Poe in Western Attire in less than two hours.

About every 15 minutes she would let her model rest which she talked about painting portraits and the members could ask questions.

So explicit in explaining the details of creating a portrait, she created a desire among the members to learn more about this form of art.

Mrs. Powell is a teacher and will be available at a future date to hold a portrait workshop here. She delighted her audience with her skill in creating lights and darks on the paper to become the likeness of Mr. Poe, who sat untirely throughout the demonstration.

President Neta Parsons presided during the business meeting. The Art show will be held in April this year with date and place announced at our next meeting.

She ask Janice Novak to introduce our guest demonstrator. Mrs. Novak expressed the clubs pleasure in having talented members like Mrs. Powell, who describes herself as a "collector of faces". Do our demonstration.

Nine visitors and fifteen members were served cookies, coffee and drinks.

Our next meeting will be Jan. 3 at Texas Electric Reddy Room.

Local Dealer Co-Sponsors Giveaway Of Turbo Ford Mustang and Wetbikes

"Picture yourself as the lucky winner of real Turbo Ford Mustang and two Wetbikes," Ida Carley of Brittain's Discount Center Eastland asked. "Ford's Turbo is the latest Mustang version and it's the prize in a new Sweepstakes we're co-sponsoring with Revell, Inc., the world's largest manufacturer of plastic model kits," he added.

The contest is the New "Wild Wheels" Sweepstakes. Main prize is a customized Ford 2.3 litre turbocharged Mustang pulling a trailer loaded with two customized Wetbikes by Spirit Marine. The Wetbike is a kind of aquatic motorcycle and combines the thrills of water-skiing, cycling, and boating all in one. The Wetbike skims along over water powered by the 50 h.p. jet pump.

Other prizes in the sweepstakes which local residents can enter, Ms. Carley said, include ten additional Wetbikes, forty BMX Products Motocross Bikes, twenty-five Coleman Camping Assortments, and 1000 Revell model kit assortments.

"The BMX Motocross Bike is one of the most exciting new sporting ideas in the last five years. Off road biking is a new and exciting sport, currently sweeping the nation and world," she said.

"Coleman camping assortments include a tent, two

FINANCING MOBILE HOMES

COLLEGE STATION-- Spiraling housing costs have also taken their toll on mobile home prices and have affected financing, says Dr. Richard Floyd, real estate economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"Mobile home buyers should explore all avenues to financing prior to acquiring a new or used unit," says the specialist.

Floyd says there are three common forms of financing mobile or manufactured housing--financing directly through a lending institution, through a mobile home dealer, or through a conventional home loan.

"If the wheels and axles of the unit are removed and the unit is permanently attached to a foundation, it may be eligible for a conventional home loan with home mortgage terms and government backed loans," contends Floyd. "In other words, it will be treated in a fashion similar to a site-built home."

"Typically, the individual seeking to financing a mobile home will either arrange financing directly from a lending institution or from a mobile home dealer," Floyd maintains.

The bank, savings and loan, or credit union will provide a purchase-money loan which is subject to an 8 percent maximum add-on rate for both new and used units, explains the economist.

Sunday,
December 9, 1979

sleeping bags, a stove, lantern, cooler and jug, all the elements necessary to enjoy a good time in the outdoors," she said.

Ms. Carley indicates that entry blanks are available at the store and invites those interested to stop in and pick one up. Contest closes May 31, 1980.

Many lending institutions are limiting mobile home loans to a period of 12 years for new units although longer terms are allowed under current financial regulations. Terms on used units are much shorter.

Mobile home dealers finance through retail installment sales contracts. These are subject to a maximum 7 1/2 percent add-on interest rate for new units and a 10 percent add-on rate for used units, explains the economist. Also, any mobile home financed for more than five years is limited to an annual interest rate of 13.31 percent.

Most lenders for mobile home buying will require at least a 20 percent down payment, adds Floyd.

Romney Church Of God (7th Day)

By Viola M. Payne

Since pioneer days a number of Churches have made their area headquarters in Eastland County. When Church buildings were not available, congregations met in school houses or homes. Since World War II several more Churches have been established, including the Romney Church of God (7th Day).

Although the Church of God (7th Day) is a comparatively small organization, there are members in most nations of the world. Like some other Churches, there are splinter groups among them, each having its own headquarters to give direction to its adherents.

Some of these headquarters locations are: Denver, Colorado, Salem, West Virginia, Pasadena, California (H.W. Armstrong), Tyler, Texas (Garner Ted Armstrong), Caldwell, Idaho (M.L. Ogren), Bethel, Pa. (A Sacred Name Group), Eugene, Oregon (Frank Walker) and Jerusalem, Israel. (Gordon Fauth).

Since it is the view of the congregation here in Eastland County that each local group should be autonomous, the Romney Church is not officially affiliated with any of these organizations. It does send donations to several of them, however, and orders some literature from them.

The local group has about thirty members, with Voy Wilks as the Leader. Various members of the Church sing and furnish instrumental music for the services. Alva Nelms is Treasurer of the Church, and Beth Green is Librarian.

The Eastland County Church was organized about 1963, when the group was given permission to worship in the old Romney school house. When the school house was sold, they began meeting in the home of Voy Wilks, 8 mi. south of Cisco, just off Highway 183. The congregation is planning to build a Church house next year.

The service in the Wilks home begins at 11:00 a.m. each Saturday (Sabbath) morning, and lasts about an hour. All the members and visitors sit in one room for worship, and the Bible is the literature used. There are a number of songs, prayers, Scripture readings, and a sermon.

Once each year the Church observes The Lord's Supper, called "Passover" rather than "Communion." The date is determined by a Sacred calendar from Jerusalem, a Lunar calendar which the Jewish people still follow. This is called "The Bible Calendar", or "God's Calendar" by the Church of God (7th Day). Passover is held on the night of the 14th day of the first month of Abib, and this falls in March or April - in the Easter season. Christ is considered the Pascal Lamb in this service, with the bread and wine a memorial of His death. This Lord's Supper, as well as other observances of the Church, is open to all who care to participate.

Anyone who wishes to become a member of the Romney Church is added upon their acceptance of Christ and baptism by immersion. The Church also accepts persons who have been baptised in other Churches, upon their profession of faith.

The local church, as well as the worldwide Churches of God (7th Day) accepts the Bible as the inspired word of God. The Romney Church prefers the Revised Standard Version, and this is used in Church services. A number of different versions are available in the church library, and may be checked out.

The 7th Day Churches of God agree on some other points, including that Saturday, the 7th day of the week, is the Sabbath, and is to be observed as a sign that the members are sanctified by their Creator. Most believe in one God, the Father - a form of monotheism, rejecting the concept of the Trinity. All believe that Jesus (Yahshua) is the Son of God and the true sacrifice for sin. All believe in observing the Lord's Supper, and all believe in salvation by grace.

All believe that man is a soul rather than that he has a soul within him. The Churches teach there will be a resurrection from the grave when the dead in Christ will rise to meet him in the air. This is known as the first resurrection. The rest of the dead will not rise until 1,000 years later. All believe that Christ (and his saints) will reign on this earth for 1,000 years.

All do not agree on some other points, such as the belief that man is now mortal. The local Church teaches that immortality will not be given until the first resurrection.

No one will ascend the Heaven until this resurrection of the Just, and then only for a short time. Eventually God will descend to earth and make His dwelling with man. The wicked will be destroyed, not punished with eternal torture. The Devil, too, will be cast into the lake of fire and burned up.

"We believe that Christianity is a Jewish religion - not a Gentile religion," states Voy Wilks, Leader of the Romney Church. "Jesus and all his apostles and the earliest disciples were Jewish."

"We believe that none of the covenants of promise were made with the Gentiles. All were made with the Jews-God's chosen people. Therefore the Gentiles have no chance of salvation, except to be grafted (adopted) into the Commonwealth of Israel - by baptism into Christ. To Israel belongs the covenants, the glory, the sonship, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises. To them belong the patriarchs, and of their race is the Christ!"

"We believe that not one fragment of the Law was or is to become void. Mt. 5-17-79 and Lk. 16-17."

The Church teaches that the festivals of God as mentioned in Lev. Chapt. 23 are to be observed today - the festivals which Jesus observed. The Church considers such days as Easter, St. Valentine, Whit Sunday, Good Friday, Halloween, and Christmas "religious holy days of the Gentiles" and does not observe them.

Sunday, December 9, 1979

The Church believes that God is bringing the Jewish people back to their homeland to finally bless them, when they say "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord". It also believes that the Gentiles will not be redeemed until the Jewish people are ready for salvation.

The exclusive use of the Sacred names of the Father and His Son (Yahweh and Yahshua respectively) are being taught strongly by a number of group leaders of the 7th Day Church of God.

The Church teaches that the marriage contract between a man and woman should be for a lifetime. It also recognizes that - society being what it is - this cannot always be. Divorce is forced upon some people, and they should not be held accountable for this unfortunate situation.

The Church of God teaches temperance, and does not condone drunkenness. Alcoholic beverages are not served for social occasions. If a person uses wine or strong drink as a supplement to private meals, however, or as a health measure, it is not considered a moral question.

The Church has always taught - and worked for - the separation of Church and State.

The local Church has a number of community programs and services, including a good library for public use. This includes cassette tapes of the Bible, as well as tapes on various other topics. The Church has free literature for public distribution on Bible Doctrines, Creation vs. Evolution, ect. Some of these articles have been printed by the local group. At the present time the Church is arranging a slide and filmstrip presentation for Eastland County Churches and Clubs. This will promote faith in special Creation, as opposed to faith in the evolutionary theory.

"I consider Evolution a type of National religion," states Voy Wilks. "In which the State forces the instruction of school children in that faith."

The Church will give a Young's Analytical Bible Concordance to any serious Bible student who is unable to buy one. And the Church not only makes donations to individuals, but gives generous support to the American Red Cross, West Texas Rehab., Christian Record Braille Foundation, Seventh-day Adventist World Services, the Bible Sabbath Association, Bible-Science Association, the annual Seminars on Israel, and to several of the different Churches of God (7th Day). The Church members also make personal contributions to the community. Mrs. Voy Wilks (Myrtle Wilks) is a noted artist of this area. Her paintings are on display for the month of December in C.J.C. Maner Memorial Library.

"Some of our doctrinal points are quite different from most religious groups," states Voy Wilks. "But in the areas of religious thought in which we do agree, we wish to cooperate with the different Churches of Eastland County - in an effort to offset the inroads of evolutionism, atheism, and uniformitarianism."

WORD OF GOD

Give unto the Lord, O ye mighty, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the Lord is upon many waters.

The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests; and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

The Lord sitteth upon the flood; yea, the Lord sitteth King for ever.

The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace.

For The Men Who Succeed

Way Back in the Early 20's our predecessors and in the Middle 40's
.... We started out in the abstract business in Eastland County. Then, as now, the abstract was a necessary part of every real estate transaction. We soon learned that an abstract was something more than a bundle of pages with numbers on them. Even more important today, it must not only be accurate, responsible and revealing, but it must be a quality product of completeness prepared to stand the most thorough and critical title examinations.

CHRISTMAS DREAMS

By Mike McKay
Christmas Dreams
When I believed
A night filled with wonder
Waiting to receive.

Stocking hanging from the window
Fireplace against the wall,
And the children lie in bed
They wait for Santa to call.

Hear them playing
Hear them laughing
Making all kinds of noise.
Eating candy-Running wild
Playing with their new toys.

Christmas Dreams I remember
How they were not so long ago.
Christmas Dreams I remember
And the ones that I've come to know
At Christmas Time at Christmas Time.

Christmas Dreams
Somehow So strange
Never quite the same,
They seem to have changed.

Dear Santa:

I have been as good as possible all year, Santa and I know you will understand, so I'm sending you my list.

First of all, I hear that Cactus & Calico in Ranger just got in lots of new things just my size such as jeans and shirts and vest and warm ups and sweaters and sleep wear. Also a good selection of warm coats and gloves and caps and mittens. And Santa you can fill my stocking with suspenders and earmuffs and belts and a bill fold and a back pack. And, oh, yes, Santa I'd like a sleeping bag too.

My big sister would sure like a pair of those neat overalls and jeans and a dress and a shirt and some pants and a vest and a gown and a robe and a purse and a coat.

My little sister likes clothes too so you could bring her some jeans and tops and a dress and a gown and a robe and a purse and a coat and some gloves and a cap and some jewelry especially a gold stretch belt. And also Santa desk set and a jewelry box would be nice.

I hope this doesn't over load you, Santa cause we'd all like one of the cute stuffed animals we saw at Cactus and Calico and my little sister would like a rag doll from there too.

Your very best Friend,
Ben Good

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK By Armo Chambers

JEALOUSY! Happy indeed is the person who is free of it. It has been called - very aptly - "a green-eyed monster." Perhaps nothing hurts our personal relationships with others so seriously than jealousy. It can destroy respect for others. It is fine to have admiration for someone who has better than we have. It can lead to emulation and our eventual success. But the man who is jealous cannot afford to be only haters and envies. It can destroy friendships. If we are jealous of our friends and what they have, we want their good fortune and rejoice at their failings. These studies can and do destroy friendships. Jealousy can shatter. For when we are jealous, we can no longer trust...and when we can no longer trust, we cannot truly love. It is even worse than what jealousy does to our relationships with others is what it does to ourselves. There is probably nothing that can make a person more miserable than to be in a constant state of jealousy. The jealous person is bitter sour. He is always enviously conscious of whatever others have. The Bible describes jealousy as "cruel as the grave: The thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement heat." Jealousy! Jealousy! That vehement flame. And the end is right as usual.

JUS
A CHARMING young couple looked over town over this past week. They are Dr. and Mrs. Donald S. Merker of Branalea, Ontario, Canada - near Toronto. They're studying plans to move to the USA and came to Cisco in a tour of several possible locations. Graham Hospital Administrator Garner Altom picked them up at DFW Airport last Monday night and drove them to Cisco. They spent Tuesday and Wednesday looking and meeting folks. And Pharmacist Roland Rickard of the hospital drove them back to DFW airport for their flight home.

Dr. Merker is 37 years old and has been in family medical practice ten years. He and wife Judith are the parents of four children, ages 3 to 12. They were impressed with our town's hospital, schools and so forth, they told us. Dr. and Mrs. Ayres Cermin gave a little dinner for them Tuesday night, and they visited with Dr. E.E. Addy at his clinic.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Robinson announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Donnie, to Timothy Caire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Leverque of New Orleans, Louisiana.

The couple plans to be married at 2 p.m. Saturday, December 15, at the University Catholic Center in Austin. They will live in Austin following a short honeymoon.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Cisco High School and the University of Texas at Arlington. She is attending the University of Texas at Austin.

The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of LSU in Louisiana. He is employed by the State Department of Health in Austin.

were most impressed with the fact that they used the auto air conditioner while driving around town. They left Toronto a week before with two feet of snow on the ground.

They'll find a warm welcome in a good little town if they elect to locate in Cisco.

WATCH OUT for money changers who seek to confuse you and talk you out of legal tender. That's the advice of authorities. A restaurant, a drug store and others had such visitors this past week. . . . Jeff Cermin, No. 1 son of the Dr. Ayres Cermins, is due to graduate with honors from Texas Lutheran College at mid-term. . . . The Ernest Reichs were in McAllen the past few days attending a state meeting of the Texas Farm Bureau. He is a director of the Eastland County unit. . . . Squirrel and dumplings cooked in a crock pot delighted the men folks at the Dr. Norman Wallace dinner table the other night. They shot one and Mrs. NW prepared same for the table. Bet it was delicious.

MR. BILL RICKS, who used to play basketball for SMU, wouldn't be shocked to hear that anybody has a screw loose in their head - not after reading an article that points out things about the brain like it handles 100,000,000 messages per second. . . . Mrs. Davena Jeffcoat took her 6th Grade Junior High Choir to the Laguna Hotel at noon Thursday to sing for the Cisco Rotary Club. And it was a real nice program, a number of folks told us.

AT UNITED SAVINGS OFFICES, they offered a $25 prize to the club that brought in and decorated the best Christmas tree. And the decision will be the club receiving the most votes. The Cisco Garden Club and the Cisco Service Club have attractive trees there, and you can drop in and cast your vote and register for a ham that they'll give away in time for somebody's Christmas dinner table. . . . A very nice Nativity Scene is a glow these nights out at College Hill. You'll want to notice it. . . . If you drive up Avenue N at night, you'll notice night Christmas scenes at the Tom Smartt home and across the street at the I.W. McCrum home.

HEAR THAT Mr. Wayne White, the CHS band director who is also the director of the First United Methodist Church choir, recently acquired the 165-acre farm where he was raised over in Stephens County and bought his grandparents home and moved it there. . . . CJC Band Director Tim Jones may be thinking of going snow skiing during the holidays. He is growing a beard. . . . Eddie McMillan, the big dealer at State Farm Insurance Agency, shot two deer and two turkeys when he went hun-

Children's Choir To Perform At First Christian Church

The Young Musicians, a children's choir made up of the fourth, fifth and sixth graders from MacArthur Baptist Church, Irving, will perform the musical "Once Upon a Night" Sunday, December 9, at 5:00 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), 303 West 8th. The Hand Bell Choir will be traveling with the group and will also perform.

The Young Musicians have traveled in the state and performed at various festivals in Irving, Dallas, Waco and San Antonio. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Laura Sannar and accompanied by Sandy Darley.

The choir is made up of about fifty children that enjoy singing and are looking forward to their trip to Cisco in celebration of the Advent season.

The Elders of the church invite the public to come and hear these children in their praise of God.

East Cisco Baptist Church To Have 'Christmas Celebration'

The East Cisco Baptist Church will have its first "Christmas Celebration" featuring the "Living Christmas Tree" on Saturday, December 15, at 7:00 p.m. A program consisting of contemporary Christmas songs will be presented by the young people.

It will be followed by a short readers theater, then the combined choirs will present John W. Peterson's musical, "Carol of Christmas." The profits of the Lions Club Bowl football game in Breckenridge recently.

Rodeo Film Is Shown To Lions Club

A motion picture made of the bull riding event of a rodeo program was shown by Ken Hammes, instructor at Cisco Junior College, at the weekly luncheon of the Lions Club last Wednesday noon at the Colony Restaurant.

Mr. Hammes said the movie, which had no commentary but caught the noise and sounds of the rodeo as riders came out on and rode on the big bulls, was used in classes studying films at the college. He termed the theme of the film as "man versus nature."

Walbur Knowdson, who moved to the home he purchased at 1212 West 9th Street here recently from Clayton, New York, was introduced as a transfer member. He was a long-time member of the Clayton club.

Boss Lion Archie Chamness reported that the Cisco club has received a check for $1,402 as its share of ing recently over in Stephens County. . . . Ed Farley's favorite quail hunting dog, a four year old named John Boy, suffered a bad hip cut on opening day when he tried to jump a high barbed wire fence. A trip to the veterinarian and three weeks of rest have worked wonders and John Boy is about ready to take to the hunting fields again.

CISCO'S STREET decorations for the holiday season were put up by Brad Kimbrough of the funeral home and Gerald Winnett of the oil company, using a fork lift and assorted equipment provided by Joe Wheatley of Cisco Lumber and Supply, reports CofC Manager Gene Abbott. A deal he had for the television antenna folks to help had to be cancelled due to equipment trouble. . . . A number of relatives and friends helped the LeRoy Taylors observe their 50th wedding anniversary last Sunday at the Legion Hall. Miss Ruth Lanham, Clyde banker and formerly of Cisco and the Press staff, was in charge of arrangements. . . . Met up with Steve Lanham, also formerly of the Press staff, in town Thursday. He is production superintendent for the Abilene Reporter News.

SAW A SIGN that says "I'm No. 3 - I don't try anymore!" . . . And a paper napkin we used the other night was imprinted with this: "Merry Everything." It was in holiday season colors.
