Oil States Rubber Co. Holds Christmas Dinner

The annual Christmas dinner for the employees of Oil States Rubber Co. was held on December 21. Some 23 employees and three company officials attended. The dinner was catered by the Colony Restaurant.

Mr. Bob Brock, vice president of Manufacturing, presented pins to five employees. John Ritchie, outgoing plant manager, received a 20 year pin. Randy Speegle, who is the new plant manager, received a 10 year pin. Also receiving a 10 year pin was Paul Green who works in the maintenance department. Receiving five year pins were Terry Speegle and Kenneth Boyd, both men work as press operators.

Recently a change in management was made at the plant due to the resignation of John Ritchie. John had been the manager of the Cisco plant since its beginning. He is leaving Oil States to accept a management position in another company. Randy Speegle was named to fill the manager position. He has been the assistant manager for the past four years. Randy and his wife, Charlotte and daughter, Lori Ann, live at 1403 Bliss. He is active in the Lions Club and 4-H. Jimmy Parrigan was named to fill the assistant manager position.

In July of 1969 Oil States Rubber Company began its operation in Cisco. From the beginning expansion has been the key word. The plant went from 10 presses in September of 1969 to a present total of 27. The pressline has not been the only expansion of the plant. The trim department has tripled since it started in November of 1969. A recent addition of a final inspection and boxing department has made it possible for parts molded here to be ready for the customer before leaving the plant. These operations were formerly the responsibility of other Oil

Bob Brock, vice president of Manufacturing for Oil States Rubber Co., presents Randy Speegle with a pin for 10 years of service with the company. Randy is the new plant manager for the Cisco plant.

Five employees of Oil States Rubber Co. were presented pins for a combine total of over fifty years of service to the company. They are (left to right) Kenneth Boyd, Terry Speegle, Randy Speegle, Paul Green and John Ritchie.

States plants. Another expansion project nearing completion is the insert department. This department will supply the Cisco pressline with inserts which are used in many parts manufactured by the plant. As one project is completed another is started. Many times

Judge Bailey Looks At Old, New Year

By Viola M. Payne

My first interview with Eastland County Judge Scott Bailey was in December, 1978, in which he gave some observations on what the year 1979 would be like. Although his projections were hardly optimistic, most readers appreciated his honest evaluations. And - as the year went by - his comments turned out to be amazingly accurate. So, with 1980 rolling over the horizon, I decided to go back and see what the Judge was thinking.

The general scene was the same - gray clouds threading the sky over the County Seat. Christmas glitter around the downtown square. The Courthouse sat in the middle, gray and imposing and somehow permanent enough to be reassuring. Quiet halls inside. Marble floors - oak paneling. Even Judge Bailey's office looked the same.

But life is not like that. A lot of things had happened to a lot of people. Even the Judge was a bit different - tall, dark-haired, but thinner than the year before.

"No, things are really not the same," Judge Bailey commented. "We are living in a different world from when you were here last year - in a world where our destiny is no longer in our own hands." He picked up a square envelope from the stacks of correspondence on his desk. "My family and I are sending a Christmas card to one of the hostages. We picked one of the names, thinking this would give the letter more chance to be delivered." He shook his head. "This hostage thing is something I could not foresee."

"Well none of us..." I burst out - "Could imagine our Country reduced to this position..."

The Judge sighed. "I just hope this card, or something, helps. I believe it has been brought home to us that just because we're part of the United States of America doesn't mean that we're respected in this world. I believe we will have to strengthen our armed Forces - I see no other way out. I once taught history - it gives you a feeling of destiny. I believe our country has been on the road to these problems for a long time. But I do see that Americans are united, and ready to defend their country - more so than any time since Pearl Harbor. This unity is the only good thing to come out of this."

"But back to County Government, Judge. That's where Government really begins, isn't it?"

"Absolutely. If we can't handle things well on a County level, how can we expect Government to be any better somewhere else?"

"Hasn't there been a big change of Courthouse personnel in 1979?"

"There certainly has. We expected some of the changes - other we did not."

We discussed changes - District Judge Earl Conner, Jr. retired during the year, with Attorney Jim Wright appointed to fill his place. Sheriff Ronnie White resigned during the year, and Johnnie Morren was appointed to replace him. Burl Walker resigned as Jailor, and was replaced by Terry Petree. Mrs. Burl Walker resigned as Jail Matron and Office Deputy. Risa Livingston replaced her. Mrs. Jo Anne Johnson is now the County Clerk, replacing Johnson Smith. Roy Lane was elected as District Clerk, replacing Joe Gray. Ellen Justice retired from the office of County Treasurer, and was replaced by Edith McCullough. And - a person who affected Eastland County government a great deal, by his ruling on the jail situation, died during the year. This was Federal Judge Leo Brewster, whose office is now vacant.

"I notice that the new Jail is not finished. Wasn't your deadline Jan. 1st, 1980?"

"We ran into a delay on brick, which is supplied from Henderson County, in East Texas. We asked for a sixty day extension to finish the building, which should be completed by March 1st. I am pleased to report that the cost of the new Jail will be $775,000, considerably less than the $1,000,000. I estimated last year.

"I suppose none of the citizens like the manner in which we were forced to provide this building. But the new one, with its block-type construction, will be much more secure. I can remember at least thirteen breaks from the old Jail, over the years."

"Judge, I still feel the ruling by the Federal Judge set a dangerous precedent, making elected County Officials financially responsible for a situation they did not create."

"Be that as it may - it happened. And we have tried to live with it. Crime is running at about the same percentage in Eastland County - no sharp jumps. But the solving of crimes, and arrests, were sharply up during the year. That's one encouraging sign. If you steal something in Eastland County now, there's a good chance you will be caught."

"Alcoholism and D.W.I.'s are far too high. About ninety per cent of the D.W.I.'s plead guilty when caught, and these come to my County Court. Sometimes people fail to realize that 1-20 furnishes about half the violators for D.W.I., as well as for other law breaking. It is estimated that 9,000 vehicles, containing around 27,000 persons, go down the Freeway every twenty-four hours. That's as many people as live in all the County. D.W.I.'s from all walks of life come to me off the Freeway. Among them has been a Clergyman, a physician - others."

The Judge expects continued inflation in 1980, with no quick solution to the energy problem. The County has a balanced budget, but has to allow for a 12 per cent inflation rate on any proposed expenditures. The budget for 1980 is $1,233,375.00.

"Eastland County," the Judge mentions, "is in better economic shape than some other places. We have oil development, and a diversified income base. The price of cattle is higher, and the Homestead Exemption Tax has helped. The people raise some of their food, and know how to manage and conserve what they have. I believe that will be more urgent in the future - learning how to take care of our resources. The day of the 'disposable' society are over, when we throw away or tore down or junked anything that wasn't the very latest. This conservation should extend to old buildings. As President of the County Historical Society, I am very aware of the historical and practical value of usable old buildings. The purchase of the old Mobley Hotel, in Cisco, (Continued On Back Page)

Cisco Public Schools To Resume Classes Wednesday

Cisco Public Schools will resume classes Wednesday, January 2, at the usual time. The students were dismissed for the Christmas and New Year's break Friday, December 21.

Senior Citizen's Nutrition Menu

The Christmas holidays caused some doubling up on the events at the Senior Center this past week, but everything is back to normal for this week. We will have our luncheons every Monday, Wednesday and Friday as usual. Those who are 60 years of age may come to the Senior Center so call the office, 442-2263 for luncheon reservations.

We had a special guest when the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Agnew, Pat Agnew Kincaid, sang for the group and led in group singing.

The following provided special music during the week and the Senior Center is so appreciative: Anna Dyzel, Marguerite King, Ima Thompson, Pauline Jackson and John Coats. John Coats, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H.V. Coats, presented special piano music.

1980 is "just around the corner" and the senior adults who participate at the Senior Center are looking forward to increased attendance at the various programs. They encourage all who are eligible to make reservations to call the office and come down and share in the food and fellowship.

The menus for the week are:

Monday: barbecue beef, french fries, black eyed peas, tossed salad, peanut butter pudding, cornbread and drink.

Wednesday: meat loaf with cheese, pinto beans, turnip greens, fruited gelatin, bread and drink.

Friday: fish fillet with tartar sauce, buttered corn, glazed carrots, gingerbread, bread and drink.

VERY VITAL TO the economy of Eastland County is the Victor Cornelius Menu Co. Their employees are from throughout this area and according to their latest figures, over two million "out of town" dollars came to Eastland County in 1979 for their services including restaurant menus, Redclips, nursing home color coded tray cards, theatrical advertising and chamber of commerce membership plaques.

ESTIMATED VALUE OF the 1979 peanut crop is almost up to the record figures of 1976, according to information just released by the ASCS office for Eastland County. The crop just harvested is guessed to be somewhere in the neighborhood of $9,700,000. -- that's just a little below the $9,713,731.70 figure of '76.

There were a few thousand pounds less harvested this year, but the yields per acre is the highest ever. There were 25,883.3 acres harvested, producing 40,517,579 pounds. That equals 1,565 pounds per acre, and 52 bushel to the acre.

AS THE '70s end and a new decade begins, this article by Bailey Marshall, director of the Texas Interscholastic League is especially appropriate:

BY BAILEY MARSHALL
League Director
[Ed. Note: In the second of a two-part series, Dr. Bailey Marshall looks at the challenges facing the League as it enters the 1980's.

As mentioned in the first installment of this series, it would be dangerously simplistic to deal with the problems of the 1980's by using methods and procedures of the 1960's and 1970's.

As time change, the League must also change. But we must be careful that we do not change for change's sake alone. Change should precipitate progress. Unfortunately, many people equate change with progress and this is not always the case.

As the 1980's open, it will be our responsibility to take a long, hard look at the League program and decide if its taking the course we have intended for it to, and if not, to make changes necessary for it to move in that direction.

FINANCES
The financial impact of interscholastic programs will continue to be an item of consideration. As we move into the 80's, the public will focus on the cost of any activity as well as the benefits.

Athletics and interschool competition continue to be one of the best bargains for the public taxpayer. While transportation costs have continued to rise for interscholastic programs, this cost is only a small fraction of the total overall increase for all school transportation expenses-not only those in interscholastic competition.

School administrators will be asked to account for tax dollars and athletic receipt dollars in a businesslike manner. General, fiscally unsound methods will no longer be tolerated. The public, when it understands the total picture, will recognize the value of the interscholastic competition program.

MEET STUDENTS' NEEDS
In the area of activities, the public schools must continually look for better ways to accommodate the needs of the students. This may not mean competition sponsored to a state level in all activities.

It could mean a more comprehensive intramural program within large school systems that, heretofore, allow only a small percentage of its students to participate in interschool activities. It could mean overlapping seasons for activities.

Thousands of youngsters now participating in youth soccer programs will be reaching high school age with no soccer program at school. Many female athletes in youth athletic programs have no place to continue that athletic participation at a high school level. Intervention of HW [formally HEW] and Title IX implications will have to be answered and accommodated.

Fortunately, we cannot, as the cowboy of the old west, gun down all our problems and ride off into the sunset to live happily ever after. We must live with problems and learn to choose wisely to better serve the needs of all.

EXPLAIN BASIC VALUES
Coaches and sponsors of interschool activities will need to be better trained, especially in the area of how their activity benefits the youngsters. No longer will platitudes such as "football makes great citizens" be effective in explaining the football program. Basic values and benefits must be explained to the public and pointed out to participants in order to maintain a viable program.

Any activity which requires students to train all year round, in fact, all specialization programs must be examined to see if this is the direction public schools want to go. Trustees and the administrators must ever be aware of the benefits derived from a coach or a sponsor who doesn't necessarily win but implants needed and essential values to the young people with whom he works. While winning will always be important and should be a top priority, it should not be the only criteria for which or by which we judge an individual.

If this were true, over 80 percent of the coaches and sponsors would have to be replaced each year because their teams did not win at their district level.

Teachers and interested members of the public must join together in a firm reasonable voice to demand better working conditions and salary conditions for its public school employees. If the public expects a quality product from schools involving the lives and livelihood of children, quality must be placed into the programs. Unfortunately, some coaches and sponsors will not be better if they are paid twice as much. But the assurance of having quality people is greatly enhanced if better wages are available. Too often, we hear how poor a job our school teachers are doing. Too little is said about the tremendous dedication, loyalty, and effectiveness present in our public school staff.

We are educating students that would not even have been in school 20 years ago-even 10 years ago. Quality education programs are being implemented to keep these youngsters in school and provide them with saleable skills, life appreciation, and make them a contributing member of society. When test scores are compared with national norms from years ago, these facts must be considered in order to obtain a fair comparison.

UPLIFT NEGLECTED AREAS
Knowledgeable public school administrators must continue to push for minority programs and an end to sex discrimination. We do not advocate the payment of the same salary to men and women coaches or want the same activities for male and female athletes. We urge you to take an objective and comprehensive look into the needs of students, a direct and frank response to areas and groups which have been neglected.

The programs of interscholastic competition are not for everyone. They have been, are now, and will continue to be for those students who are willing to make the sacrifices to meet eligibility requirements.

If these basic guidelines are ignored, we have lost educational value, and would be better off with activities out of the schools and in some type of community sponsored programs. Pity the day this happens. Above all, everyone must realize that there is a place for order instead of chaos-a place for regulation instead of a profusion of exceptions which have no resemblance to order. Nothing is perfect. Nor can we expect our programs to be perfect.

On the other hand, unless considerable, intelligent thought and action are applied, we cannot even begin to approach "adequate" much less perfect.

Your part is to be active. Your goal is our goal. The motivation is for the 80's is the joy of knowing future generations will have their lives enhanced and enriched through interscholastic competition. Yours is the opportunity and also the challenge. Tomorrow depends on you.

FB REPORT CHRISTMAS 1979
 All nations, including the United States, are facing many confusing problems which demand clear thinking, but the world has always faced confusing problems. Clear thinking for correct problem solving can only come from people who have a fundamental belief in God. Man is not capable of dealing with problems of the world without the leadership of God.

ISRAEL CUTS SUBSIDIES
 The Israeli government, battling to harness one hundred percent inflation, abolished many government subsidies, squeezed credit to industry and announced cutbacks in government employee and public projects.

STATE RIGHT TO WORK LAW
 The National Right To Work Legal Defense Foundation reported, on December 5, 1979, that a state's right to work law protecting employees against compulsory unionism may remain effective on property ceded by the state to the federal government. This decision by a U.S. District Court in Florida involved a laborer on a Cape Canaveral Air Force Station. This ruling would seem to overturn or weaken a previous ruling which indicated that state right to work laws could not be effective on

KENNEDY'S VOTING RECORD
 The Americans For Democratic Action Campaign Committee reported that Senator Edward M. Kennedy, who is now a candidate for U.S. President, has a solid liberal voting record. ADA offers as evidence the following:
 (1) ADA's reported record of 91%;
 (2) Labor's Committee on Political Education record of 93%;
 (3) National Farmers Union record 89%;
 (4) Conservative Americans For Constitutional Action record of 5%

ENERGY REPORT
 The U.S. Department of Energy released the following general 1978 summary of crude petroleum products and natural gas liquids:
 Production of crude petroleum (including lease condensate) in the United States in 1978 averaged 8,707,000 barrels per day, an increase of 462,000 barrels per day, or 5.6 percent, above the 1977 level, reports the Energy Information Administration, United States Department of Energy. Of the total crude oil produced, Texas accounted for 33.8 percent, Louisiana, 16.8 percent, Alaska, 14.1 percent, and California, 10.9 percent in 1978. Imports of crude oil in 1978 averaged 6,356,000 barrels per day, 3.9 percent lower than the previous year. Of the total crude oil imported in 1978, 5,184,000 barrels per day, or 81.6 percent of the total, came from OPEC countries. This was a decrease of 8.1 percent below the 5,643,000 barrels per day the same countries supplied in 1977. Stocks of crude oil, both domestic and foreign, totaled 376,281,000 barrels at the end of 1978, 28.6 million barrels above the 1977 year-end level.

 The average value of crude oil at the wellhead in 1978 was $8.96 per barrel, an increase of $3.39 per barrel above the 1977 average price. The number of oil wells completed in 1978 totaled 17,775 compared with 18,912 in 1977.
 Production of products at natural gas processing plants during 1978 totaled 1,567,000 barrels per day compared with 1,618,000 barrels per day during 1977. The stock level of products at natural gas processing plants, terminals and pipelines at the end of 1978 totaled 127,479,000 barrels, 2.0 million barrels below that of a year earlier.
 Total disposition of primary supply of all oils in 1978 averaged 19,224,000 barrels per day. It included 18,847,000 barrels per day of products supplied for domestic use, refined products exports of 203,000 barrels per day, crude oil exports of 158,000 barrels per day, and crude losses of 16,000 barrels per day. Compared to 1977, total products supplied for domestic use increased by 416,000 barrels daily, or 2.3 percent.

Of the major fuels supplied for domestic use in 1978, gasoline, jet fuel, and distillate fuel oil showed gains of 3.3 percent, 1.7 percent, and 2.4 percent, respectively, while residual fuel oil declined by 1.6 percent.
 Refined products stocks at the end of 1978 totaled 784,619,000 barrels, reflecting a stock decrease of 57.9 million barrels during the year.

BEEF AND VEAL CONSUMPTION
 Beef and veal per capita consumption is expected to be in the vicinity of 105 to 106 pounds per person. These figures indicate that the per capita consumption is down 24 pounds from the record high of 129 pounds in 1976. To restore consumption to the 1976 level of 129 pounds per capita would require a 27 percent increase in beef production and imports during 1980. (WESTERN LIVE-STOCK ROUNDUP, December 1979)

FOREIGN REAL ESTATE HOLDINGS
 OKLAHOMA CITY—An Oklahoma court granted a temporary restraining order to keep the state's attorney general from forcing a "foreign" corporation to shed its real estate holdings in the state.
FARM INCOME
 The indicated net income per farm after inventory adjustments for 1979 at the end of the third quarter is estimated at $11,570.00, compared to $10,434.00 in 1978.

If the 1979 estimate is converted to 1967 dollars, the 1979 net income per farm would be $5,240.00, compared to $5,340.00 in 1978.

NATIONAL PERSPECTIVE
 ALLAN GRANT, PRESIDENT
 AMERICAN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION
Political Medicine

A sound, stable, valuable, U.S. dollar would do more to improve American health care than all of the national health schemes ever devised by Washington.
 There is a direct link between the state of personal and family finances and personal and family health. People of limited means tend to limit preventive medicine or even to avoid life-saving treatment.

Present U.S. inflation rates at nearly 14 percent, now far outpace gains in wages. Increases in productivity have come to a national halt, further stalling improvements in personal living standards.

Federal deficit spending has forced another in the continuing procession of boosts in the national debt limit, now to 970 billion dollars—ALMOST A TRILLION DOLLARS!

Citizens everywhere are demanding limits on state and federal spending.

Isn't it incredible that under these circumstances, some members of Congress and the administration continue to promote new massive federal spending for unneeded and unwanted national health insurance schemes?

The more prominent of the proposed plans would:

- Be comprehensive, universal and mandatory for all residents of the United States....
- Rely upon the federal treasury for a major portion of new funds....
- Set limits and charges for hospital care—based on federally mandated "national targets"....
- Replace supposed "inefficiency" of present private health delivery systems with government efficiency....

We now suffer from the gross inefficiencies of federally politicized post offices, highways, railroads, welfare and school systems. The last thing American taxpayers need, or want, is the added burden of political medicine.

National health insurance WILL NOT become the law of the land because of any proven need. All statistics, including those involving catastrophic care, prove otherwise.

Federal medicine WILL NOT be found necessary because people of this country have been unable to pay for adequate hospital and doctor care. The records show differently.

Government medicine could only arrive on a political platter, served up by an irresponsible congress, to be force-fed to indifferent citizens who do not care enough to demand its rejection.

Some time ago, humorist Art Buchwald examined the part such public indifference could have played in altering the course of the American revolution—and American history.

Buchwald suggested that perhaps 83 percent of the colonists back in 1776 may have thought that an attack by the minutemen on the British troops at Lexington "would cause our image to suffer."

Buchwald fantasized that perhaps 63 percent of the colonists thought the British were doing an "adequate" job of administering the colonies, 22 percent "not so good" while perhaps 15 percent were "undecided."

How terrible if national health insurance were to be imposed by default!

There is hope to be found in the climate of growing discontent throughout the country. People no longer accept easy answers to complex political and economic questions.

People of all political persuasions can be helped to understand that the only health care cost crisis that exists is one that has been artificially produced by government through policies which erode the value of money, discourage savings and kill initiative.

Medicine by political mandate is NOT an idea whose time has come for America.

Determined farm and ranch people, joined by alerted citizens everywhere, CAN STOP IT COLD.

Eastland County Art Assoc.

Jay Bethnay, Instructor of Art at Ranger Junior College will be the guest demonstrator for the Eastland County Art Association Thursday night January 3rd at 7:00 p.m. in the Texas Electric Reddy Room.

Mr. Bethnay graduated from Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth with a major in art. He spent two summer in T.C.V. taking drawing and painting courses. He did graduate work at North Texas State University in Denton. For five years Mr. Bethnay worked as an illustrator for General Dynamics in Fort Worth.

In his demonstration he will be creating three dimensional illusions on two dimensional surfaces. This is a basic principal of perspective drawing in dealing with a specific problem, such as those problems related to the drawing of old houses and old barns.

Most all artists working in these areas will encounter problems at some time. He will discuss how he deals with developing a drawing or painting.

If you have a problem with your drawing or painting in this area, and will present it to Mr. Bethnay at the specified time, he will deal with as many of your problems as our time permits.

We urge all of our membership to attend this meeting and bring their yearbook to take notes.

Non members are welcome and may attend by paying

$1.00. This demonstration will benefit all who have problems with perspective drawing and painting. Call another member and see us at 7:00 p.m. Texas Electric Reddy Room January 3rd.

ART DISPLAY AT EASTLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce is happy to have for the month of January, 1980 the artistic works of Eugene R. Swinson who is a very proficient historical illustrative artist. Along with a few contemporary western painters, Eugene presents an original, realistic style that is distinctive and almost oriental in nature.

During WWII Eugene rendered many illustrations and paintings for the 8th and 9th Airforce. He flew on many combat missions to gain knowledge and technical data for these paintings.

After the war he attended Hardin-Simmons University where he won many awards for excellence in ceramics, wood carving and painting. He also studied with "Art Instruction Inc." Where one of his paintings was obtained by the school for permanent display. He also won a place on the Latham Foundation International (for human education). This exhibit traveled throughout the United States and seven European countries.

Eugene has shown paintings at "The Old Town Gallery" in Albuquerque,

New Mexico, the Fine Arts Museum in Abilene, Texas, the Harvest Gallery in Wichita Falls and throughout the southwest. Collectors from nearly every state have his paintings.

Eugene won numerous awards, he won first place in the professionals division of acrylic paintings last year in the Eastland County Art Exhibit.

Hints For The Aged & Handicapped

By PATRICIA GALBREATH

DEAR PAT—I am a quad with a C-5 level and in June of this year I hope to marry a girl who had polio as a child.

At the present time, we both require attendant care but our minds are made up and come hither or yon we plan to marry.

Attendant care is needed only a little while in the morning and a little at night. During the day after we are in our chairs we get around fairly well.

We realize our life will not be "normal" as other know it, but it will be great for us.

Now here's our problem and I know you can help.

I know there are some apartment housing complexes that specialize in living quarters for handicapped people who require some help in getting around. There are some that have attendant available and there are other apartments where you have to be able to take care of yourself.

I need to know the whereabouts of the apartments that can provide us with minimal care.

We both receive disability benefits and I am able to earn a little money so I believe our basic needs will be taken care of.

We live in Minnesota but I read your column in the Indianapolis Star. You have been very helpful by providing me with information on what others are doing. I thank all who wrote to you because I have learned so much from them. —R.G., Minnesota few apartment complexes like the one you are looking for but fortunately there are several more in the planning stages.

DEAR R.—There are far to

With physically handicapped people like yourself who are not afraid to live as "near normal" life as possible, more and more complexes will be built. There should be at least one or two in every state, while at present there are less than a dozen.

The one nearest you is: Christian League for the Handicapped, Box, 98, Walworth, Wis. 53185. —PAT

DEAR PAT—Got some good idea for women on finding easier ways of dressing.

I've used a wheelchair for 15 years and a few of the things I have come up with—hope you'll pass them along to others.

*wear the pull-over type blouse because it eliminates the "pulled-out" ruffled look. It also enhances the appearance of those who have a little too much "tummy". If you have any kind of hand or finger problems, you don't have to worry about buttons or zippers on most of them.

*Zippers are easier to grasp if you add a large decorative ring, button or other ornament to the pull-tab. A pretty chain can set off a casual blouse. A man's leather bootstring may be added if you are sports-minded.

*large buttons are easier to manage than small ones. You may be able to change them and enlarge the button holes. *for long sleeves: sew the button on with elasticized thread. You are then able to slide your hand through the pre-buttoned cuff.

*we all know about the bra that hooks in the front but even that is difficult to some to manage. I use the stretch bra. No hooks, zippers, fasteners of any kind. You can pull it up over your hips or put it on over your head.

*in cold weather I like the poncho. Easy to get on and off.

Love your column. —Mrs. U.H., Ga.

There are about 28 trailer families at all times. The club meets once a month at a place selected by a committee, one year in advance. Members select the month they want to act as host and hostess and they plan all the activities, and the Sunday Morning devotional camp out. OUR MARKET ANALYSIS. YOUR HOME'S VALUE BASED ON WISDOM, NOT WHIM.

Knowledge and experience. The two most important factors in pricing your home to sell, at a price that makes it worthwhile.

At CENTURY 21 we compare the location, size, condition, and improvements of your property to the price of homes recently sold, those currently for sale, and those homes that did not sell, perhaps because of inflated price-tags. What emerges is a competitive price range and a selling price that may pleasantly surprise you.

GORDON SPOT

By DeMarquis Gordon

Do you know the protein level of the hay you're feeding livestock? Few producers do. Most think a bale is hay is a bale of hay.

Individuals can guess protein content of hay from physical characteristics but may miss the actual value by several percentage points. Low quality hay can be distinguished easily from high quality hay, but true feeding value can only be estimated. This is where forage test comes in.

A forage analysis is a chemically determined value of the hay's protein content. A forage test provides a protein feeding value that can be used to determine feeding and supplementation needs for each class of animals fed.

For example, 6 percent crude protein hay does not compare in feeding value to hay with 12 percent crude protein. Each type of hay should be fed differently. Different levels of protein might indicate types of animals that could be fed with the two hays.

A 6 percent crude protein hay is low in quality not only because the protein is low but its digestibility will likely be low. Young stock, like steers and heifers, may not be able to physically eat enough of this hay, even with protein supplementation, to meet their nutritional requirements. Instead, such hay should be fed to dry, mature cows and should be supplemented with a protein source. Six percent crude protein hay will not provide the mature cow with enough nutrition to maintain herself without additional protein.

Twelve percent crude protein hay is a good quality hay that has a good level of protein and will probably be good in digestibility. This hay will probably meet the nutritional requirements of a steer of pregnant heifer.

Since such hay is high in protein and digestibility, an animal will be able to eat more and meet its requirements. This same hay would need to be supplemented with protein if fed to cows with calves since they have high nutritional needs.

Hay varies widely in feeding value. Hay from each cutting is different from every other cutting. However, hay for a single cutting is similar in protein content and digestibility. Once feeding value of a bale or two from a cutting is determined, the general value of all bales from that cutting should be similar.

Since feeding values types of hay are going to vary widely, a forage test is essential to help determine if supplemental protein is needed and how much. A forage test of each different type hay to be used this winter will pay dividends in better animal nutrition.

Information on forage testing may be obtained from our office.

TEXAS HUNTERS APPARENTLY IMPROVING SAFETY RECORD

Texas hunters may be having their safest hunting season in 20 years.

Hunter casualty reports compiled by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's Hunter Safety Section indicate that so far there have been only 35 hunting accidents -- five involving fatalities -- in 1979.

By comparison, during calendar year 1978 a total of 83 accidents was reported, involving 19 fatalities.

"With only a few days remaining to hunt in 1979, it appears we will record the fewest accidents and fatalities in 20 years," said T.D. Carroll, hunter safety coordinator.

Carroll reminded hunters that most hunting accidents result from carelessness or failure to observe the basic rules of firearms safety: treat every gun with respect due a loaded gun; always point the muzzle in a safe direction; and be sure of your target before you fire.

The Parks and Wildlife Department believes if hunters will follow these rules and use common sense and courtesy in the field, 1979 will indeed be a banner year for safe hunting in Texas.

For The Men Who Succeed

Way Back in the Early 20's our predecessors and in the Middle 40's
...We started out in the abstract business in Eastland County. Then, as now, the abstract was a necessary part of every real estate transaction. We soon learned that an abstract was something more than a bundle of pages with numbers on them. Even more important today, it must not only be accurate, responsible and revealing, but it must be a quality product of completeness prepared to stand the most thorough and critical title examinations.

Faith Baptist Church Holds Christmas Dinner

Faith Baptist Church had their Christmas dinner on Saturday, December 8. Family and friends of each member of the church were invited. Turkey and dressing and all the trimmings were served.

Following the dinner, Bro. Gaylon Nelms of Arlington showed slides that he and his wife made while on their trip to the Holy Land. These slides were especially interesting as the Christmas season is upon us. The birth place of Christ was viewed and it seemed as though the scriptures came alive with the viewing of Nazareth, the Garden of Getheseme and Golgotha as well as many other places in the land of Christ. The City of Rome and the vatican were equally impressive.

MR. LLOYD London, whose resignation as vice president and trust officer at the First National Bank was dated Dec. 31st, had to leave Friday so early that many of us didn't get to wave goodbye to him. A call came in Thursday from Conifer, Colo., where they're moving so he can be president of the Mountain Valley State Bank, and they wanted him there for a meeting and to preside Jan. 3rd at the official opening of the new bank that he heads.

Mrs. London stayed behind to supervise the packing of their furnishings. Understand Mr. LL will be back in 10 days or so to complete the chores he has at the FNB here. He spent a lot of the Christmas season working early and late to clear off his Cisco desk.

We'll all look forward to saying goodbye and good luck when he gets back to town.

OUR SCOUTS report that Dr. Renaldo Petrini, head of the School of Architecture at University of Houston, will be in town briefly in the next few days in connection with the Hilton (Moblely Hotel) Restoration Project. He has an engagement in Australia about Jan. 15th and wants to look in on the local project before flying there.

Work has been proceeding on a new roof for the First Hilton.

TEN BASKETS of food, including a chicken hen with all the trimmings, went out to needy families from the Chamber of Commerce office a few days before Christmas. Manager Gene Abbott worked with the Cisco Ministerial Alliance and local club and church groups in the project. Ciscoans attending the annual West Texas Utilities Company Yuletide dinner and party over in Abilene recently included the Don Reynolds, the E.L. Jacksons and the Vandell Weatherses. Old Santa brought Evelyn McGuire, who lives out at Lake Cisco, two jogging suits. Our scouts report that the honorable Nick Miller, former long-time Cisco business leader, now makes his home in Dallas and is getting along quite well, thank you.

HATS OFF TO Mr. J.L. Stafford and Mr. George Owens of S and M Supply Co. Their aluminum window factory needs to add equipment and increase their ability to meet the growing demand for Reynolds windows and doors. Obtaining equipment was easy. But how about people to operate it? An ad in this newspaper offers employment on a half-time basis to senior citizens. And a dozen or so retired men and women have applied or inquired about the jobs. Mr. Stafford tells us that they believe the assembly lines will be operating with a good many new faces in a few weeks.

Interested senior citizens who would like to work full or part-time are invited to drop in at S and M Supply and check on details of the job offer. A lot of senior citizens decide they'd like something to keep them busy after a few months of retirement.

A CHRISTMAS card from a cousin provided Mr. Bill Smith, retired Exxon employee who now has a retirement job at the First National Bank here, with the news that his mother's old home place still stands back in Switzerland. And she moved as a child to Austin, Texas, about 100 years ago. The relative was in Switzerland a few weeks ago and looked up the old family home and made pictures of it. You might guess that Mr. Smith hopes to visit his mother over in Arkansas to see the pictures and hear more about the trip.

Steve Smith and wife visited in the home of his parents, the Bill Smiths, during the Christmas weekend. Steve is a lawyer in Bryan, and his wife is a brand new graduate of Texas A and M University.

Bill's great grandfather, Moses B. Smith, was among those who died in the Alamo that day that Santa Anna and his hordes stormed that cradle of Texas Democracy.

A GRANDMOTHER we know was combing her 4-year old grandson's hair the other day. In the middle of the operation, he stopped her to inquire: "Grandmother, what makes the TV talk?" Mr. Earl Conner, who retired recently as judge of the 91st District Court, has been called in a few times lately to preside in cases where the new judge, Mr. Jim Wright, had to disqualify himself because he had been an attorney in the cases. The Raymond McCauleys of Fort Worth stopped in Cisco last Wednesday to visit briefly with old friends. He reports that he sold the building which the Dixon Auto Supply has occupied for several years - the Dixons recently. The McCauleys formerly lived in Cisco.

GLAD TO HEAR that Mr. Carlton Holder, local justice of the peace, may get to come home from Hendrick Hospital (Room C-409), Abilene, this week. He had hip joint surgery several months ago and had to go back into the hospital a month or so ago for more surgery. Bill and Martha Austin of Houston have spent the past week here with his parents, the Wm. E. Austins. Steve and Betsy Austin and little son of Abilene were also here for Santa's visit at their parents home.

OLD SANTA Claus was pretty good to the folks out at the Tom Autrey home on the Rising Star Highway. But he should have been for they built a new fireplace with a big chimney for Santa to use. Tom and son Robert helped Randy Taylor build the

Judge Bailey Looks On 1979

Continued From Front Page the Hilton Foundation - and the restoration plan they revealed - was a highlight of 1979. We look forward to the completion of this project in 1980. We ought to follow that example and attract more of those 27,000 daily travelers off the Freeway so they can see what we have. They would find some attractive recreational areas in the County. We who live here can enjoy nearby places without buying a lot of gas."

Judge Bailey points out that the work on one important road through the County - Highway 183 from Cisco to Rising Star - was completed in 1979. A stretch of Farm-to-Market Road 2583, from Kokomo to Lake Leon, is under construction now, and will be completed in the fall of 1980.

Judge Bailey serves as a Director on the Eastland County Resource and Development Group. These County leaders study and propose measures to improve the quality of life in the County. There are a number of proposals under consideration at this time. These include:

handsome rock fireplace. Steve Wheeler of the CJC Data Processing Department told Cisco Rotarians about his work in a talk at their weekly luncheon last Thursday noon. The Anthony Strothers of Conroe were out at the Gene Abbott home this weekend. Saw three Hart sisters - Violet Hart Frasier of Abilene, Effie Hart Kamon of Cisco and Fern Hart of Corpus Christi - having coffee at The Spot the other day. It was a nice rain, huh? Local rain gauges measured well over an inch by noon Friday.

IT IS SOMETIMES easy to get highway turn-offs and access roads a little mixed up in the bigger towns. For example, Mrs. Lee Wallace, who with her family is visiting here in the home of her parents, the Marshall Joneses, and a friend went over to Abilene Friday. Lynn (Mrs. LW) was driving and they headed home. Fifteen miles later, a sign welcomed them to Hawley.

The Wallaces plan to head back to North Carolina, where Lee is a vice president in a large supply company, soon after they celebrate the New Year. Happy New Year to one and all!
