City Attorney To Amend North Shore Lake Lot Leases

The Cisco City Council agreed Tuesday night to allow City Attorney Billy Wright to draw up an amendment to North Shore Lake Lot Leases which would clarify how long the lease is good. Mr. Wright said most of the leases are good for "up to 99 years" as long as the lease is paid each year.

Council members voted to accept the minutes as corrected of the December 11 regular meeting and those of a called meeting December 20. Council member Bill Eudy made the motion and Raymond Whitley gave the second. Mayor H.C. Brown and council members, Eudy, Whitley, Louise Allison and Morgan Fleming all voted in its favor.

Council members Lucy Collier and Harold Pippen were absent from the meeting.

Council members discussed the City Manager's report and the monthly bills. Council member Eudy made a motion to accept the bills and Allison seconded the motion. All members present voted in its favor.

The council was informed of the resignation of Reverend Jerden Davis from the Housing Board of Adjustment and Appeals. Reverend Davis is being transferred to a church in Fort Worth. Mayor Brown instructed council members to bring suggestions for a new appointment to the next regular meeting.

During citizen-council discussion, Fire Chief C.W. Guthrie stated the modernization of the local housing projects is progressing. He also stated a contract has been signed for the construction of 17 new units to be constructed for the elderly along East 8th Street just east of Madison's Western Store. ### Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor
Hope everyone had a very Happy Holiday and that 1980 will be a very good year. It doesn't seem possible that we are entering another decade! The 1980s seems only yesterday when we were in the 50s, 60s and 70s. So much has happened! But we are so thankful for good health, good friends and our family.

The weather has been very cooperative. Rather pleasant most of the time and another good rain. The grain and grass is beginning to show green.

I'm sorry I have missed writing the news the last two weeks. I spent Christmas week with my children, the Homer Taylors at Sweetwater and Bobbie Taylor and Brent and Cheryl at Snyder. I was blessed to have most of my family, with me Sunday before Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Finley and Denise Tettler of Farmington, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. Gary Taylor and family of DeRidder, Louisiana, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Taylor of Weatherford, the Homer Taylors of Sweetwater, Mrs. Pete Taylor and children of Snyder, Dr. and Mrs. Randy Kunz and son of Fort Worth, Mrs. Fred Heysler and Mr. and Mrs. I.G. Mobley of Baird.

Our congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Donaway. Mrs. Annie Mae Donaway and Milton Donaway were married at the Mitchell Baptist Church on Saturday, December 29. All of her children were here except her daughter, Mrs. George Lee Ramsey of Greenwood Springs, Colo. Present were Hubert and family of Odessa, Doris Lee and family of Hereford, L.C. and girls of Abilene and Warren of Brownwood.

The Putnam Study Club sponsored a birthday party at Golden Holiday Nursing Home at Baird Friday afternoon at 4. Honoring Mrs. Laura Jobe on her 105th birthday. A large crowd helped her celebrate. A daughter-in-law, Mrs. Loren Everett, a grandson, Benny Ross Everett of Potosi, a niece, Verda Davis Mathews of Eastland and two nephews, Harpo Davis of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis of Wolf City were the relatives attending.

Mrs. Opal Francisco spent the holidays with her son, Olten Pool at Del Rio.

Two Announce As Candidates For Senate

Stephenville District Attorney Bob Glasgow today announced his candidacy for the Texas Senate, from the 22nd Senatorial District.

Glasgow, 38, will seek the Democratic Party nomination to fill the Senate seat vacated by Tom Creighton.

"It's a new year...a new decade...but we still face the same old problems of higher taxes and constant government intrusion in our lives and work," the Stephenville native told an audience of friends and supporters. "I am asking the people of the 22nd Senatorial District for the opportunity to find new solutions to those problems."

Glasgow cited his seven years as District Attorney as evidence of his dedication to serving the people of the area. "Our office has striven to insure that the guilty were punished; our lives and property protected; and that the people of the district were well served," he said.

BOB GLASGOW

He stated he would use the same energy and dedication to serve his people in the State Senate.

Glasgow graduated from Stephenville High School, Tarleton State University, and The University of Texas School of Law. He served as an administrative assistant to Governor Smith for two years before entering private practice in Stephenville.

In October, 1972 Glasgow was appointed District Attorney for the 29th Judicial District. He was elected to that post in November 1972 and reelected in 1976.

Glasgow and his wife, Deanna, have three children: Delaina, 13; Holli, 10; and Jody, 6.

WALT PARKER SEEKING TEXAS SENATE POSITION
Veteran legislator Walt Parker of Denton, one of the state's best known lawmakers, today announces his official candidacy for the Texas State Senate seat being vacated by retiring Senator Tom Creighton.

Parker, 62, a successful builder, farmer, rancher and teacher, was elected to five terms in the state legislature. In addition, he has served as the state's first Executive Director of the School Tax Assessment Practices Board, and as an assistant to the President of North Texas State University.

In beginning a vigorous campaign to occupy the Senate seat for the 22nd District, Parker is stressing three basic points:

(1) His experience in state government. As a House member from 1969 to 1978, he occupied numerous positions of leadership in Austin which gave him important knowledge on how to be an effective legislator. He points out that such experience will enable him to be more effective, more quickly, for the district in the Senate.

(2) His familiarity with the

RJC's LVN Capping Fri. 7

You are cordially invited to attend the capping ceremony of the 1980 class of Ranger Jr. College Vocational School of Nursing at 7:00 p.m. Friday, January 11 at Ranger Junior College Auditorium. The class consists of 14 members:

district. A Fort Worth native who moved to Denton following high school, Parker has been active in teaching and coaching football in area high schools, in farming and ranching in Johnson County, and in the building industry in the area for 40 years.

Thus, he has an intimate, firsthand understanding of the sprawling district and its varied problems and concerns.

(3) His record of concern for and service to the community. Long active in civic affairs, Parker has a record of service to his constituents so impressive that it is prompted a special "Salute to Walt Parker" in Denton two years ago.

In addition to his business activities and legislative service, Parker was a National Football League referee for several years, and today still is an Official Observer for the NFL, grading and judging the activities of on-the-field officials. Parker is well known throughout the district for speeches to various civic clubs and schools about professional football.

The 22nd District embraces a sprawling seventeen-county area of North Central Texas, extending from Gainesville to Hillsboro on the eastern edge, and from Graham to Comanche on the western edge.

Most political observers expect Parker to be a leading contender in the race. Voters will make their choice for the Democratic nominee in the Democratic Primary Saturday, May 4.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

A gossip went to her minister and said, "You'd be fine, pastor, but for one thing. Your tie's too long. May I take your scissors and shorten it?"
"Yes, ma'am," he said, "you may."
When she finished cutting his tie, he said, "You'd be fine but for one thing. Your tongue's too long. May I take the scissors and shorten it?"
Gossipers with long tongues have been catalogued in three different types. The vest-button type—they are always popping off. Then there is the vacuum cleaner type—they are always picking up dirt. And finally there is the liniment type—they are always rubbing it in.

But no one can have a gossiping tongue unless that one has gossiping ears.
Do not believe anything bad about another person, unless you know it to be absolutely true. Then do not tell that bad thing unless you feel it is vitally necessary. But even then, remember that God is listening to you while you are telling it.
When you brush your teeth, ask the Lord to scrub and sweeten your tongue. Then there will be no need to shorten it.

When you brush your teeth, ask the Lord to scrub and sweeten your tongue. Then there will be no need to shorten it.

FAS Awareness Week

Mrs. William P. Clements will serve as chairperson for the Fetal Alcohol Syndrome Awareness Week in Texas, January 21-27, 1980.

FAS Awareness Week is an intense campaign to alert individuals to the possibility of birth defects in children caused during pregnancy by our most popular legal drug, alcohol.

FAS Awareness Week Activities will begin January 16, 1980, with a press conference held by Mrs. Clements.

The program will stress good prenatal care with special emphasis on the fact that alcohol is so taken for granted in today's society, it is not thought of as a drug, and is consumed freely during pregnancy.

In the last several years, researchers have conducted a number of studies on infants born to women who drink. A significant number of the infants studied were born with a definite pattern of physical, mental, and behavioral abnormalities which researchers named the "fetal alcohol syndrome." The babies with this syndrome were shorter and lighter in weight than normal, and didn't "catch up" even after special post-natal care was provided.

They also had abnormally small heads, several facial irregularities, joint and limb abnormalities, heart defects, and poor coordination. Most also were mentally retarded and showed a number of behavioral problems, including hyperactivity, extreme nervousness, and poor attention spans.

County Bass Club Report

By Tommy Thompson
The Eastland County Bass Club January tournament will be this Sunday, January 13. We will meet at the White Elephant Restaurant where the lake to be fished will be drawn at 6:00 a.m. Anyone wishing to join the Bass Club can join at the tournament. This time of the year the bass are in deeper water and they bite slower. So bring the right tackle for winter fishing. Be sure to have plenty of warm clothes because it can get cold out on the lake. Also be sure to watch your boating safety because a man can only survive a short time in 40 degree water. Be extra careful not to end up overboard. Let's have a good turnout for this tournament with lots of fish at weigh in.

25 YEARS OR MORE AT VASSARETTE

Eastland's Loyalty Club formally convened for the first time on November 13 at the Ramada Inn. All members were inducted at a luncheon attended by Vice president of industrial and public relations Don Ellenberger, from Minneapolis, and Jack Williams, regional personnel manager, from Paris.

Juvenile Warning Citations

[From FBI Bulletin] Metropolitan Police Department operates a unique program to handle juveniles who are first-time offenders. The juvenile warning citation program provides police officers with a formal written response to juvenile offenses which falls between, and has several advantages over, traditional options of either verbal warning or physical arrest.

Since the beginning of the program in 1971, the use of citations has increased annually and has replaced physical arrests and transporting to juvenile court for many first-time juvenile offenders in Nashville. In brief, a warning citation can be issued for any minor law violation committed by a juvenile. The citation directs the youth's parents to contact a youth guidance citation counselor, who clears the case by way of either a telephone or face-to-face interview with parents and the youth.

Organization and Operation
Traditionally, a police officer encountering minor violations by juveniles had two ways to deal with the situation. By far the most common course of action was to issue a verbal warning to the youth and then release him. The alternative was, of course, physical arrest and transporting the youth to juvenile court facilities.

Verbal warnings are easily administered and consume little of the officer's time. They also have the obvious advantage that the youth avoids arrest and formal processing by juvenile court. Unfortunately, because there was no written documentation of the incident or the officer's response, a youth may be repeatedly warned verbally by different officers concerning the same or similar offense. Also, officers may differ considerably in their criteria for giving a verbal warning. The lack of documentation thus limits the potential consistency of police response to juvenile violations and provides little or no basis for officer accountability.

The advantage of physical arrest is that it removes the youth, at least temporarily, from further opportunities for illegal behavior and creates permanent documentation of the incident and police response. However, the arrest process is time-consuming and possibly stigmatizing to make it efficient procedure to deal with minor offenses.

The juvenile warning citation was designed to provide officers with an alternative to either physical arrest or verbal warning. A citation is similar in form and function to a traffic ticket. Although citations are meant to be used primarily for status offenses, such as curfew violation, loitering during school hours, possession of alcohol, etc., they can be issued for any misdemeanor.

The Nashville citation program is unique in that the Youth Guidance Division itself employs a staff of counselors to process the citations. This arrangement frees juvenile court from any involvement in the vast majority of status offenses.

The citation counseling section employs six full-time counselors and a supervising counselor, who are classified by the Civil Service Commission as junior probation officers and as a senior probation officer, respectively. Requirements for counselors are that they hold a B.A. degree in one of the behavioral sciences and pass a competitive civil service exam. Training is done inservice and consists of orientation tours with youth guidance court, instruction in juvenile laws, and extensive observation of counseling interviews. Following a 6-month probationary period, a counselor is assigned a regular daily workload by the supervisor.

Issuing a citation has numerous advantages over the traditional options. First, the youth is released immediately, thus saving him and the officer the time and inconvenience of juvenile court intake processing. Second, there is written documentation of the incident available to the police. Third, the youth's parents are involved in the disposition of the offense, but official juvenile court proceedings are avoided.

The citation records the youth's personal data and the time, date, location, and nature of the offense. The copy of the citation given the youth directs him to inform his parents of the citation. The parents are required to phone the Youth Guidance Division within 72 hours to arrange to discuss the citation with a counselor.

When the issuing officer submits his copies of citations to the Youth Guidance Division, a decision is made by the counseling supervisor as to the disposition of the citations. The initial decision is based on the seriousness of the charge and any previous violations by the juvenile. The citation may be settled through any of the following ways:

- 1) A counselor discusses the violation by telephone with a parent;
- 2) A counselor may also discuss the violation with the juvenile and a parent by telephone;
- 3) The juvenile and a parent may be asked to come to the Youth Guidance Division for a conference with a counselor;
- 4) If the citation cannot be settled satisfactorily in the conference, the citation is referred to juvenile court; or
- 5) A petition to juvenile court may be filed immediately on the youth if he has a lengthy prior record. The counselor's only intervention in this case would be to inform the parents of the referral to juvenile court. The alternatives serve as guidelines which can be modified according to circumstances.

The counseling section files copies of each citation chronologically and alphabetically and enters them into the metro police computer (confidential to youth guidance). Also, following clearance of each citation, a copy of the citation, including the name of the counselor and the method of clearance, is sent to juvenile court as part of its file of informal cases. Juvenile court takes no action on the cleared citations other than to file them. Thus, although the court keeps records of all warning citations, it is freed from any formal involvement in their issuance and clearance.

The format of the counseling interviews is basically the same, regardless of whether the interview is conducted by phone or in person. Upon contacting a parent, the counselor first verifies the information recorded on the citation and corrects any errors. The counselor then asks the parent about his views of the incident. If the parent wants to discuss other problems concerning the youth, such as drug use, difficulty with school work, discipline problems at home, etc., the counselor will discuss them and suggest referral to local social agencies if appropriate. The counselor discusses the specific law relevant to the citation and informs the parents about other laws which pertain specifically to juveniles. The parent is also told that the citation will be kept on file until the youth becomes 18 years old. The counseling interview may last from 15 minutes to over an hour, depending on circumstances.

The primary reasons for counseling interviews are:

- 1) To educate juveniles and their parents to juvenile laws by providing them with a brochure of selected State and local laws and by discussing several of these laws with them;
- 2) To encourage the youth to stay out of trouble;
- 3) To assist parents to become aware of problems their child is experiencing and to accept some responsibility for the child's behavior;
- 4) To serve as an avenue for public relations between the police and community;

Hull Trial Set
For Jan. 22

The long-awaited trial of Jeffrey Alan Hull of Cisco is scheduled to begin in 91st District Court here Jan. 22. Hull is charged with murder in connection with the Oct. 20, 1977 shooting death of his mother, Urma Ruth Hull, who was 45, at the time of her death. Hull was arrested and charged with the death the same day it occurred. At the time he was a student at Cisco Junior College.

Hull's trial has been scheduled and postponed three times. But the newly appointed judge of the 91st District Court said in December that the case definitely will be tried.

Jim Wright of Eastland was appointed judge in November following the retirement of Earl Conner Jr.

For The Men Who Succeed

'Way Back in the Early 20's our predecessors and in the Middle 40's

....We started out in the abstract business in Eastland County. Then, as now, the abstract was a necessary part of every real estate transaction. We soon learned that an abstract was something more than a bundle of pages with numbers on them. Even more important today, it must not only be accurate, responsible and revealing, but it must be a quality product of completeness prepared to stand the most thorough and critical title examinations.

Becky Kincaid, Jack McFarland
Wed In Stephenville

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony Becky Kincaid and Jack McFarland were united in marriage by Rev. Emil V. Becker, at the Ramada Inn, Stephenville, Texas, on Saturday, December 29, 1979 at eight o'clock p.m. The ceremony was performed before a greenery covered archway, with candleabras on either side. The bride's dress was made of antique satin with a chiffon overlay trimmed with Venetia lace. The empire waist was covered with the same lace as was the cathedral length train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion, trimmed with Venetia lace fell from a lace covered bandeau, which the bride designed herself. The bride's color of royal blue was carried out in the dresses of her attendants. Mrs. Lynn Williamson was matron of honor. Mrs. Pat Hogan, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Their identical dresses were softly gathered at the waist, with a beautifully draped neckline. Ushers were Pat Hogan, brother-in-law of the bride, and Eddie Kincaid, brother of the bride. Traditional wedding music was presented by Miss Sherry

Wheat of Eastland. The bride and groom departed beneath the crossing of sabers performed by Capt. James Williams of Stephenville and Jeff Germany of Eastland. After the ceremony a reception was hosted by the Bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kincaid at the Ramada Inn, Stephenville. The traditional saber was used to slice the wedding cake. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kincaid of Eastland, and Mr. Jone E. McFarland of Eastland and Mrs. Edwina McFarland of Fort Worth. After a wedding trip to El Paso and Ruidosa, New Mexico, the couple will live in Copperas Cove. The bride is a graduate of Eastland High School and received a B.S. in Home Economics from Tarleton State University. The groom is a graduate of Eastland High School and received a B.S. in Agri-Business from Tarleton State University. He is currently serving as Lieutenant in the 92nd Field Artillery Battalion of the United States Army at Fort Hood, Texas.

Roller Skating Becomes Sport

When was the last time you went roller-skating? If your answer is "A long time ago" or "Not lately," perhaps it's time to check out the local arena or skating-rink in our area. The latest new fad on wheels in the Famed: "Roller-Disco."

After deciding when or where you will go, consider the subject of clothing. What you wear should be comfortable, allowing for the ease of movement. Be certain that your slacks are not too long. They could become entangled in the skate's wheels.

For genuine protection, especially outdoors, wear a helmet, knee and elbow pads, and even wrist guards.

Although most rinks rent skates, owning your own is a plus, especially once you hooked. Buy the best skates you can afford. Boot skates offer more support than the sneaker type skate. Proper fit is important. Make sure the boot is not too tight; allow a bit of room for toe movement and slippage. Boots are available in leather or man-made materials such as vinyl. Leather is preferred because it allows the feet to breathe. It is also the most comfortable.

If you plan to skate outdoors, wheel hardness should be considered. A softer wheel will help to cushion the bumps and irregular areas on the surface that is somewhat less than smooth. A hard wheel is ideal for use in arena skating.

Wheel bearings may be loose or a precision type. The latter are more expensive but are quieter and allow for more efficient wheel rotation.

Before you buy a pair of skates, shop around. Prices can vary considerably from store to store. Be prepared to spend about $50 for vinyl skates with loose bearings. Double that amount for the better quality leather boots.

Take Special Care To Prevent Frostbite

Applying ice to a bruised area to reduce swelling and retard bleeding is a procedure used by many students.

Care should be taken, however, to prevent frostbite. Ice applied to an area for long periods of time can cause freezing of tissue.

To safeguard against this hazard, wrap ice in an absorbent towel and apply to bruised area for only a few minutes at a time. The cloth prevents the ice from directly contacting the injured area while absorbing the water caused by melting.

Blue Jeans Remain Popular

Blue jeans are universally popular among teenagers throughout America.

Though some changes have taken place over the past few years, basically the material and appearance of jeans has remained the same. Denim fabric sewn with contrasting stitches and reinforced with brass rivets is traditional. The widths of the leg seems to fluctuate from bells to flares, to straight legs.

When buying jeans, always try them on. Look for a pair that conforms well to the body.

Don't be overly concerned if jeans are a bit tight when first tried on. They should stretch after a few minutes of body and leg movement.

If brands or style are changed, so may the size. You may suddenly find the size 7 you were accustomed to wearing is now too large, or the size 3 is now too tight.

Considering all of their positive points, jeans don't cost a great deal. They can be cared for easily and are quite durable, lasting a long time.

No wonder they are the favorite of American teenagers everywhere.

THE CISCO AREA had a good year in 1979 and is right healthy to begin 1980, according to figures at the First National Bank. Total resources of the bank increased more than a million dollars to a record high of $25,188,190.39, according to President Dick Woolley.

The bank's biggest gain was in deposits, which were up over $800,000 to a new high of $22,987,079.77, the report showed. Loans, too, went up about a million dollars to $8,230,995.19. As you know, the condition of a community's bank is a pretty good barometer of the financial health of the area. The bank's annual meeting of stockholders will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 22, reports Mr. DW.

GLAD TO HEAR that Mr. Buford Hageman, long-time employee of West Texas Utilities Co. here, is on the mend following surgery for removal of a benign brain tumor some ten days ago at Baylor Hospital (Room 4203), Dallas. Mrs. Hageman is there with her husband. Their son, David, spent last weekend in Big D to visit his parents.

David reports that Buford hopes to be released from the hospital by the middle of next week.

MR. MANNING Davis, superintendent of the Sunday School over at the First Baptist Church, noticed a very substantial increase in attendance last Sunday over the same day a year ago. Last Sunday's total for all classes was 236 as compared with just 83 for the same Sunday in 1979.

Mr. Davis figured the weather may have played a big part in the figure comparison. Our community was covered with several inches of ice a year ago. Stranded motorists were offered bed and food at the First Baptist Church and elsewhere. And the Baptists still hear from some of the travellers who appreciated the nice treatment they received in the little City of Cisco.

A MAN DRIVING a pickup crashed into Mr. Eddie McMillan's insurance office building at the corner of Avenue D and 8th Street last Sunday at about 11:40 a.m. The driver, a Ciscoan, was not injured. His vehicle was damaged considerably. The McMillan building sustained considerable damage, including a hole in a wall and some structural damage. They were getting estimates Tuesday on the cost of repairs.

The driver must answer to charges of driving with a suspended license plus failure to control his vehicle in city court, reports Police Chief Kenneth Eaves. Mr. Arlie Whitley of Cisco Paint and Body Shop was summoned from church to use their wrecker in moving the pickup.

THE G.P. Mitchams enjoyed a holiday season skiing trip to the snowy slopes near Breckenridge, Colorado. And Mrs. GPM sustained a painful ankle sprain in a spill. Mr. GPM reports that he went out on snow skis for the first (and maybe the last) time.

City Manager John Boland, wearing a month's growth of whiskers, reports that he ran into several Ciscoans, including the Mitchams and the Dr. Ayres Cermin family. John says he wonders if Dr. Cermin may have been drumming up business for he led John to slopes considerably higher than John had ever tackled.

And John took a bad spill on slick ice coming down. Fortunately, there was no damage to bones.

The Bolands enjoyed Christmas dinner with the Cermins at the latter's combo, John reports. He added that his wife, Ann, as well as all of the Cermins enjoyed a lot of injury free skiing.

HOME FROM A holiday season vacation in Florida are the E.D. (Andy) Andersons of our town. And it was a fine trip in all reports, they report. Mrs. Gene Abbott is over in Lewisville for a few days to be with daughter Susan Isenhower who gave birth to their 3rd son last Monday. You might want to ask Dizzy Dean for the time of day and see the handsome new watch he bought with the $100 he won at JRB Super Market.
