What is your church, club or group doing for the Centennial? Is your float in the planning stages? If so, please let myself or the Chamber of Commerce office know what you are doing. We would not want to repeat the same idea on the floats. If your group wants its idea kept a secret, it will be! It's not too late to plan a float if your group has not already. As a take-off on the oil well TV commercial "if you don't have a float-get one!"

The following groups or businesses have already started planning their floats: Otis Engineering; Cisco Lumber & Supply, Cisco Service Club, Softball Association, Cisco Civic League, Thornton Feed Mill, Home Demonstration Club, Senior Citizens and Chamber of Commerce. If you aren't listed get busy!

During the week of Centennial activities we would like everyone to dress the part of the last 100 years. Ladies get out your antique dress from grandmother or get out your sewing machine. Awards will be given during this week for "dressing centennial."

Gentlemen, we know you who have just started your Centennial beards are getting some strange looks but don't cut it yet - even though it itches! In ancient times the beard was considered in almost all nations as a sign of strength and manhood; and it was carefully cherished. Remind your wife or sweetheart of this. There will be a beard judging during Centennial week. So start your beard!

The next time you come downtown come by the Chamber office and get your bumper stickers for only 50 cents each. Advertise your Centennial wherever you go.

'Beyond The Cross' To Be Shown At East Cisco Baptist Church Wednesday At 7

"Beyond the Cross" will be shown at the East Cisco Baptist Church 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, January 21. Plan now to see and hear this revealing message that the Church in Soviet Russia filmed at great risk.

The Christians of Communist lands are sending a message to the Church in the West... a message of suffering and pain. However it is also a message of triumph and victorious Christian growth as the Church under Communist oppression risks life to worship, to fellowship, and to receive the Word of

GRASS FIRE
The Cisco Volunteer Fire Department was called to Avenue A and 6th Street Wednesday to put out a grass fire on the T&P Railway right-of-way. The blaze started from sparks flying from a "hot box" on a boxcar wheel, firemen said. There was no damage.

In Brief

Mrs. Burnice Gorr has returned from Anaheim, Calif., after spending Christmas with her two sisters there. While there she attended the new Crystal Cathedral pastored by Dr. Robert Schuller at Garden Grove, Calif., and also heard her niece, Sally Goodwin, who was featured as the harp soloist for both morning services. It was the first communion service to be held in the new all glass cathedral and there was over 4,000 in attendance at each service.

and Avenue N, on Wednesday night, January 21, at 7:30 p.m.

This fifteen minute film is a dynamic presentation of the urgent need to get the Scriptures into China. The project is sponsored by Brother Andrew, author of "God's Smuggler."

According to Brother Andrew, China is the biggest challenge the church faces today. The request from the church in China is for one million Scriptures. "Project Pearl" is the response to this plea.

Everyone is cordially invited to see this film. Christians are asked to undergird this project with prayer and with their financial support.

Any organizations or churches wishing to see this film should contact Mrs. Elaine Schaefer at 1-639-2238.

God. This message is graphically portrayed in "Beyond the Cross" - a newly released film produced by Underground Evangelism, a missionary outreach based in Los Angeles, California.

"Beyond the Cross" was filmed over the past several years. Many of the scenes were actually filmed by the persecuted Church inside the Soviet Union.

"Beyond the Cross" is a stirring documentary of the heart-rending story of Ivan Moiseyev, a young Russian who was cruelly murdered for his faith. Scenes of Christian leaders being reunited with their families only moments after being released from prison; interviews with exiled believers confined to the barren, frigid wastelands of Siberia - one will witness it all in "Beyond the Cross."

Cisco Police Report

W.A. Pence, Cisco Chief of Police, has released the following Police report for January 1-13: seven arrests, four P.I., three thefts; 70 people paid parking tickets; 23 traffic tickets issued; 39 offense reports; four assault; three threats by telephone; four wrecks; 10 thefts; two disorderly conduct; five criminal mischief; two impounded vehicles; two stolen vehicles recovered; one civil disturbance; one runaway; one destruction of private property; four animal calls; 152 calls to dispatch; 76 calls to PD of various kinds.

Tony Gonzales, (left), assistant manager of the Allsup's store at 913 West 8th Street in Cisco, receives his diploma from Ray Stewart, instructor, for fulfilling the requirements of the Allsup's Assistant Store Manager Training Course. The class, held at the company's home offices in Clovis, New Mexico, is a requirement for all Allsup's Assistant Managers. According to Stewart, "The training covers proper food handling, cooked food procedures, store cleanliness and maintenance as well as public relations. Ultimately, we provide customers with a professional who can better serve them, while at the same time preparing the employee for future advancement."

Rotary Club Hears Nursing Program

A program of nursing care intermediate to hospital and conventional nursing institutions and keeping the patient in the home environment was described to the Rotary Club Thursday noon by Mrs. Nancy Clark, R.N., in charge of the Eastland County Station of the West Central Texas Home Health Agency.

The program is privately organized and operated - a free enterprise development, said Mrs. Clark. It sprang from a church-sponsored relief effort in a growing area of social concern, the care of the aged and disabled, and has grown into national proportions.

The West Central Texas district, headquartered in Abilene, supervises nursing stations in 23 counties, including Eastland. The Eastland county station, located at 104 West Commerce, Eastland, has, in addition to Mrs. Clark, a staff of two LVN's - Dee Nell Madison and Sue Stuard - and a nurse's aide, Velma Brown.

A great variety of physical and therapeutic services, equivalent to those offered in standard nursing homes, is taken into the homes of the patients on a visitation basis under the supervision of the family physician. The techniques are both administered directly by the LVN's and taught members of the family group who have the care of the patient.

No "eight-hour" nursing service is provided. The visits are limited to two hours on a schedule determined by need and the orders of the doctor.

The result, Mrs. Clark pointed out, is to "relieve the pressure" on conventional nursing homes, hospitals and doctors, somewhat in the tradition of the British system which emphasizes home care for all medical patients.

Eligibility for the services is not based on financial need; it is available to all ages and economic levels, and paid for at the rate of $35 per visit by Medicare or Medicaid in the case of the elderly, provisional health insurance, or by private payment, Mrs. Clark said. Most standard health insurance policies provide for it, she told the club. The charges represent a considerable saving in health care costs compared to hospital and nursing home rates, she said, while the service engenders a patient emotional satisfaction available only in a home atmosphere. Institutional care tends to be reserved for those too helpless or burdensome for home care, she suggested.

The program has been in operation in Eastland County for the past five years, and the patient "load" now numbers about 40 visits a week. Nursing services offered include: surgical dressings, catheterization, catheter irrigations, injections, intravenous feedings, blood pressure monitoring

Mission Group To Speak Sunday At First Baptist

The Mission group that just returned from Mexico will be speaking at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning, January 18, at 10:50. Kelly Stovall, Meg Reynolds, Keri Zellman and Martin Cuellar will present some Spanish coritos. Each will then share something about the trip and Baptist work in Mexico.

The group conducted Bible school for the children in three different villages, helped build a new church building in one village, and conducted evangelistic services for three nights in another village.

Francille Winnett and the college girls prepared the materials and worked in the

City Approves Contracts For Extension Of Sewer To Motel

Contracts that will permit work to be resumed and completed on a sewer line extension to serve a new motel in southwest Cisco were approved at a special called meeting of the City Council at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday at City Hall. City Manager R.J. Turpin said the some 2,800 feet of sewer line from the area of old Highway 80 across property owned by C.L. Webb to the area of the White Elephant Inn and Restaurant and Guthrie Truck Stop would be completed in two to three weeks.

In the agreement, S.C. Guthrie of the truck stop and other property agreed to provide money for the six and eight inch plastic sewer pipe that will be used. He will be reimbursed for the pipe by discounting sewer bills 50% until the full amount is paid, it was noted.

The C.L. Webbs and the S.C. Guthries signed agreements, providing right-of-way for the sewer line.

Mr. Turpin said the new line will eliminate the need for a sewage pump now being used in the White Elephant area and would save the city considerable money in this instance. Frank Young, director of city utilities, will supervise the project.

In other action, the Council asked for additional bids for an oil and gas lease on city-owned land at Lake Cisco and Lake Bernie.

The matter of purchasing equipment for the street department, including a self propelled street sweeper, a new backhoe machine, a truck mounted asphalt distributor, and a self propelled pavement roller was discussed. Mr. Turpin said the equipment would be paid for with revenue sharing funds.

The equipment would enable the city street department to do a much better job of building and maintaining streets, Mr. Turpin said. Additional bids are being requested to be opened soon. Bids also will be sought to sell surplus police vehicles and scrap metal.

The meeting was called by an order signed by William J. Eudy, mayor pro tem, and Councilman Harold Phippen and Jerry Jeffcoat so the sewer line project could be built in time for the scheduled opening of the new White Elephant Inn, it was pointed out.

The regularly scheduled meeting of the City Council on Tuesday night, Jan. 13, was not held for lack of a quorum of members. Only Mayor Roy Cartee and Councilwoman Louise Allison showed up for the meeting. All members of the council except Councilman Raymond Whitley attended the Wednesday meeting.

Following the business agenda at the special meeting, Mrs. Allison made a statement in which she noted that she has heard that petitions asking for a recall election were being circulated and that she would like to be advised immediately if and when such petitions are filed with the city secretary.

Mr. Turpin told her that this matter was not on the agenda for the meeting and she would have to place it on the agenda for a future meeting and that he would not comply with her request unless specifically instructed by Council order.

Plans Near Completion For Annual CC Dinner

Reservations and tickets may be obtained at the CofC offices (phone 442-2537) until noon Thursday, CofC Manager Gene Abbott reported. The dinner is open to the general public.

The program will feature a report on the progress of education in Cisco - in the Cisco Public Schools and at Cisco Junior College. Supt. James Couch of the city schools and CJC President Norman Wallace are assisting with the program. Eris Ritchie will serve as master of ceremonies.

A program highlight will be announcement of annual awards for community service, an "over-due" award, a municipal service award, and awards for academic excellence in the schools. Place mats for the dinner are being provided by students of Intermediate School. Each mat will be individually designed and decorated by a student from Grades 3 through 6.

The dinner will feature a steak with all the trimmings from the catering department of the White Elephant Restaurant.

Brothers Of Pro Enroll At A.C.U.

Jerry and Leonard Montgomery, who helped Cisco Junior College to a 9-1 football season last fall, have enrolled at Abilene Christian University for the 1981 spring semester.

They are brothers of former ACU players Wilbert and Cleotha Montgomery, now playing professional football in the National Football League.

Jerry and Leonard will be eligible to play next fall as sophomores for coach Ted Sitton's Wildcats. They are the second and third new players added to the 1981 ACU roster.

Leonard, 5-8, 177, was Cisco's leading rusher with 235 yards (5.0 average). He also caught six passes for 79 yards and scored one touchdown. (CJC used eight running backs during the season).

Jerry, 5-10, 165, caught eight passes for 126 yards. Both were all-state performers in high school in Greenville, Miss. Leonard ran for 1,457 yards in two letterman years, and Jerry ran for more than 1,000 yards as a sophomore before being moved to wide receiver.

"Leonard has lots of ability as a running back," CJC coach Bill Anderson said. "He has a lot of the things Wilbert has, but he's not as big and durable. And Jerry should make a good wide receiver. They'll help Ted's team. They're good kids."

Sitton said Leonard will be tried at both fullback and tailback during spring training. ACU coaches will look at Jerry as wide receiver, running back and defensive back. "We feel like they can help us because of their speed and quickness," Sitton said. "We see things we like in both of them."

1980 City Taxes Due January 31st

In order to avoid paying penalty and interest, citizens must come in and pay their 1980 Personal and Property Taxes by January 31, 1981. They will become delinquent as of that date. Toy Bryant is the Cisco City Tax Assessor-Collector.

Hearing Slated For Gov't Grant On Application

The West Texas Council of Government has scheduled a hearing for 11 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 21, in Abilene on the City of Cisco's pre-application for a block grant project, City Manager R.J. Turpin reported Thursday. Mr. Turpin plans to attend the meeting.

The application for a $600,000 grant for use in a Cisco street and sewer improvement program is being handled for the city by Barber and Traylor Associates of Tyler, and the pre-application is the initial step in seeking approval of the project, Mr. Turpin said.

Rumors that the program would require 50% matching funds are entirely false, Mr. Turpin said. He added that, if approved, the grant would come 100% free to the taxpayers of Cisco.

IWU Reflections in Perspective

By I. Will Ussery

Iranian homes are constructed each in an individual compound generally similar in shape and size to our "lots". The lot is enclosed in a wall, usually a minimum of eight feet high...many times much higher. The Persian prizes his privacy, and his security. Many of the walls are topped with broken glass imbedded in a course of concrete atop the wall which is constructed of brick, concrete block or adobe.

While the homesites are usually a bit larger than those to which we are accustomed, they all carry the same identification. They are always referred to as "gardens". One does not speak of his "yard" in Iran. It is his garden. And hidden behind those walls are sometimes the most beautiful arrangements of lawn and beds of flower beds one can imagine. And without exception they are tended by a full- or part-time gardener who is considered to be a member of the household staff of servants. On larger estates the gardener is housed, along with his family within the compound.

Our residence in Heheran was one of 210 homes which were built during an acute housing shortage on 1959 by IBEC (International Board of Economic Consultants), a branch of the Rockefeller Foundation. All the homes were built inside a single walled area on the upper toe of the slope of the Alborz mountain range which runs generally knorthwest-to-southeast (mostly easterly-westerly) to the north of the city. And while all the homes were enclosed within the larger compound, each home had its own garden wall. And built, as has been described as "to American standards with a Persian accent", the garden walls were low enough that "wall-visiting" between neighbors was not only possible, it was a not uncommon practice.

Our residence, as were all the others in the section which, although it was officially identified as "Sahegherranieh - Niavaran" was known throughout the city as "IBEC", faced toward the city. Being situated almost 2,000 feet above the city, the panoramic view of Teheran was little short of spectacular. And with the mountains rising almost abruptly and majestically to a height of 14,000 feet behind us, we were against a magnificent backdrop. And the slope of our garden was such that it was graded into three levels, and while the front was toward the lower slope the generally used entrance was in the back. And we had a full-time gardener.

My Lovely Wife affectionately named him "Old Baggy Pants" when he first came to take care of our garden and greenhouse. With what reached a total of 185 potted plants, one can appreciate originally the importance of the greenhouse which was constructed in the northwest corner of the garden and alongside the servants' quarters. Old Baggy Pants made a full-time job of it.

But he was known lovingly to everyone as "Baba", which is a sort of nickname which we'd use in the familiar term of "Dad". I never learned his surname. And we did not have quarters for Baba. He lived in two-room adobe structure not too far away. His home was inside a rather large fruit orchard where his wife served as "Bhadji" (housemaid) in the home of the owner. Baba lived there with his wife and their lovely teen-age daughter, Pari. We financed Pari's schooling as a seamstress, but more of that at another time. This story is about Baba.

When he first came to work for us, our cook-houseboy learned that he "thought that he was bout 81 years old". Baba, a meek, sweet, kindly little man was almost totally illiterate. And he was faithful. Regardless of the weather, and one year we had a total snowfall of 96 inches, he was there each morning. In winter, to mind the potted plants in the greenhouse—in summer to tend the grass and the flower beds.

Dressed as he was in castoff clothing which was given to him (we made our contribution), MLW's nickname was not inappropriate. Baba, (however, never knew what she called him for the first year or two of his ten years of service. And she dropped it. He was just "Baba". Meek, always smiling, dependable little old Baba.

Baba had bad knees. I suspected cartilage failures. And as age crept inexorably upon him, the knees became worse. He began leaning upon a hand-made crutch. We begged him to allow us to put him into a hospital for surgery. Our personal physician told us that he could arrange for the surgery if we could encourage Baba to allow it. Baba was a devout Moslem. His faith would not allow any man to tamper with God's creation to the extent of cutting on the human frame. Allah would take care of everything. And if it were the will of Allah that he spend his remaining year apartial cripple...it was the will of Allah. Not to be questioned; to do so would be to question Allah's wisdom.

After ten years of service, we retired Baba. Our cook and bhadji said that they could take care of the garden...and they did. So, retired Baba at half pay, which amounted to $13.33 (his retirement pay) per month.

Although Baba was illiterate, he knew the passing of time. Each month, toward the end of the fourth week, Baba would be sitting on the curb near the entrance to the IBEC compound. We'd stop, hand him his pittance, and he'd kiss our hand and thank us profusely while giving thanks to Allah for our generosity.

When we departed Teheran we informed our successor of the arrangement with Baba. He promised to keep up the payment of his retirement. We hope that he did. We loved Old Baggy Pants, and we are convinced that he loved us. And we doubt that any bombastic propaganda can change his opinion...nor that of millions of other "Baba's" in Iran of Americans, generally.

County Judge Bailey By Camp Salmon Memorial

Ceremony To Commemorate Countians Roles In Civil War

On Monday, January 19 at 12:30 p.m. a ceremony will be held to commemorate the roles of Eastland Countians in the Civil War.

The ceremony will take place on the northwest side of the courthouse lawn, by the Camp Salmon memorial.

During the Civil War all the able bodied men of Eastland County went to fight with the Confederates. The Indians took advantage of this and raided the farms.

The Confederate Army set up a camp in Eastland County, for their soldiers to prevent these raids. This was known as Camp Salmon.

At noon, Texans all over the state will commemorate the roles of Texans in the Civil War. This day has been designated by the Legislature as Texas Confederate Heroes Day, a time for a special observance honoring soldiers, civilians, and officials who distinguished themselves during this period of conflict.

Eastland Ceremonies will be headed by Roy Cartee, co-chairman of the Eastland County Historical Committee. County Judge Scott Bailey will also be on the program. The Rev. Wilburn Jones will give the invocation.

According to Mr. Cartee, the ceremony will take place in the courthouse lobby if the weather is bad.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A father said, "When you're bad, son, you add another grey hair to your father's head."

"Wowie!" cried the boy. "By the looks of grandpa's head, you must have been a very, very bad boy."

Badness may not add a grey hair to your father's head, but it will add grief to his heart.

Young people, the Living Bible says, "Obey your parents, this is the right thing to do because God has placed them in authority over you. Honor your father and mother. This is the first of God's Ten Commandments that ends with a promise. And this is the promise: that if you honor your father and mother, yours will be a long life, full of blessing."

Father and mother, you must be worthy of their honor. You are their copy book. You are what you make them.

A child is not likely to find a Father in God, unless he finds something of God in his father.

Every child has a right to God-honoring, Bible-reading, prayer-practicing parents.

LOVE

by Michelle Lindsey

Our word this week is LOVE. Webster's Dictionary gives the definition as "a strong affection for another arising out of kinship or personal ties; warm attachment, enthusiasm or devotion; to hold, dear, cherish".

Personally, I like the definition given in the bible in I Corinthians 13:4-7 better. It says "Love is very patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud, never haughty or selfish or rude. Love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable or touchy. It does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong. It is never glad about injustice, but rejoices whenever truth wins out. If you love someone you will be loyal to him no matter what the cost. You will always believe in him, always expect the best of him, and always stand your ground in defending him" (Living Bible).

Every person is born with a need to be loved, but to often love is not received. Love is a word easily said but hard to put into action.

One of my favorite sayings is "I can't hear what you are saying because your actions are louder than your words."

It is important to say you love someone but it is more important to do things to show your love. Ask yourself when was the last time I did something for someone to let them know I love them.

Since it is the first of the year and people are making New Year Resolutions we need to resolve to love not only in word but also in deed.

Love was never meant to be kept but to be given away.

Dietz Brothers To Be In Concert Sat. Jan. 24

The Dietz Brothers of Lubbock, Texas will be in concert Saturday, January 24 at 7:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Eastland.

Without question, the Dietz Brothers are among the finest in Christian music today. Their music is quality. Their message is clear.

Phil and Andy Dietz present concerts which appeal to young and old alike. For several successive years they have returned by popular demand to Senior High Youth Camp at Lueders, Texas.

They performed last summer at Super Summer '80, a gathering of 15,000 young people at Reunion Arena in Dallas. Their travels have included a USO tour where they sang for our military troops stationed in other lands. They also have presented many concerts in jails and prisons throughout the United States.

Don't miss this opportunity to hear the Dietz Brothers, one night only, January 24 at the First Baptist Church in Eastland. There is no charge for admission.

Auto Service Tips

If your automatic transmission shifts erratically, or is noisy, transmission fluid may be low. A faulty vacuum valve may suck fluid out of transmission and into the carburetor. If this happens, you see smoke coming from the tail pipe. Fluid may also leak from a split hose or leaky gasket. Repairs are essential to prevent damage to transmission.

KERC DJ'S Join Country Stars At "Rehab 81"

KERC personalities Dan Dennis, Dale Brooks and Rusty Frasier joined country singers Rex Allen, Jr., Margo Smith, and Jeannie C. Riley, along with numerous other stars, at "Rehab '81", the annual telethon which benefits the West Texas Rehabilitation Centers in Abilene, San Angelo, and Snyder.

All of the stars that the trio from KERC spoke to had nothing but praise for Shelley V. Smith, director of WTRC. "You've got a diamond here," said Pedro Gonzales Gonzales of the Rehab director.

Dennis said everyone he spoke to "was fantastic. They'd sit and talk to you like you were a cousin."

Plans are in the works to provide coverage of "Rehab '82" next year. All three personalities at KERC urge everyone to give as much as they can to the WTRC, not only during the telethons, but all through the year.

Homemaking Hints

Ceiling fans probably reached their all-time low in popularity about 20 years ago when their heavy motors reportedly were used for boat anchors. This is hard to believe today when they are among the most desired home appliance.

Though many ceiling fans were bought for their looks at the beginning of the recent nostalgia craze, owners soon realized a fan's value as an energy saver on both cooling and heating bills.

I, from experience, agree with those who say you can be quite comfortable in the summer in an 80 degree room with a ceiling fan running. Therein lies the energy savings. While air conditioning units are gluttons of energy, the average ceiling fan uses less than 150 watts. That is less energy than is used by most home multi-bulb ceiling light fixtures.

Ceiling fans are certainly making a big comeback because of their energy saving features.

What should consumers watch out for? It is important that you consider such items as blade revolutions per minute (RPM), warranty, motor construction and custom features. Beware of "ceiling fans" that aren't really fans. Some are only decorations with no motors at all.

Isn't a fan only good in the summer? No. Fans can be used year around. During the spring and fall you can open your windows and keep the cool air circulating. During the winter months, by using the fan on low speed, the gentle circulation will move the warm ceiling air down to the floor which will produce a warming effect and cut down on your heating costs.

Some fans have a reversible motor. The reverse can be useful in several situations. When you use a large fan over a table or desk the reverse could be used so papers aren't blown or food isn't cooled off. There are two type of reverse mechanisms. One is a change in the pitch of blades. The other is an actual motor reverse. Not all fans have reverse options. The standard air flow is down from the fan blades, across the floor and up the walls. When you reverse the air flow, the air is pulled up, across the ceiling and down the walls.

One very important consideration for consumers is the warranty. All the ceiling fans that I have seen have at least a one year manufacturer's warranty. Some manufacturers warranty their fans up to five years.

Where is the best place for a fan? Any room where you spend much of your time. By centering the fan in a room, you get the best effect from the air movement.

You may be concerned that a fan requires an unusually high ceiling. They used to! But now fan manufacturers all make their fans for installation in 8 foot ceilings. Most of the fans have a 7 foot blade clearance. Even if you have a light on the fan, there will be a 6 foot to 6 foot 4 inch clearance under the light.

If you are considering a ceiling fan for your home, you may be wondering what size fan to purchase. It depends on the size of the room. If the room is 12 x 12 foot or less and has an 8 foot ceiling, a 36 inch blade fan is large enough. Generally a room that is up to 24 foot in length will need one 52" fan. The 52" fan is usually used in living room, family room, and patios. If the room is over 24 feet in length, you will need two 52 inch fan.

Ceiling fans vary greatly in price, starting around $100. Most of the cost variation has to do with decorating.

RECIPE FOR THE WEEK:

At Flatwood Extension Homemakers Club meeting this week, I received a recipe that is highly recommended by Juanita Massengale, Nita Faye Parsons and Zelma Lusk. It's called Western Pound Cake, and is an old recipe. Nita Faye shared that she has been baking this favorite pound cake for close to thirty years and it's the best. It freezes beautifully and is excellent served as strawberry shortcake.

WESTERN POUND CAKE

1 box powdered sugar
1 box (fill the empty sugar box) with sifted all-purpose flour
4 sticks margarine
6 eggs

Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hr. and 15 minutes. These ladies said they sometimes add a little vanilla or almond extract for flavor but it's not necessary. Mrs. Lusk said she always puts a little butter extract flavoring in her cake.

Let's try it! Sounds good!

4-H Adult Leaders To Meet Thurs. Jan. 22

A meeting of the 4-H Adult Leaders has been announced for Thursday, January 22 according to Mrs. Donna White, County Extension Agent. A vote will be taken to decide on a fund raising idea for our county 4-H'er's, so it is important that all clubs are represented at this meeting. A representative from "World's Finest Chocolate" will be on hand to answer any questions about candy as a fund-raising idea.

A special presentation is also being planned by the youth who attended the Teen Leader Retreat in Brownwood recently. Any 4-H member, parent or leader is welcome to attend this meeting.

by Viola Payne

Mention the Senior Citizen's Center in Cisco, Eastland, and Rising Star and almost immediately you will hear the name of Director Ruth (Mrs. Roy) Cartee. For Mrs. Cartee, during her five years with these programs, has endeared herself to the more than three hundred people who attend. And few programs have been as popular as the Nutrition and Recreational and Educational project funded by the West Central Texas Council of Government - with Dot Vanderslits as Project Developer. These programs are sponsored by Cisco Junior College, with Dean John Muller as Supervisor. Judge Scott Bailey is the project Chairman for Cisco, and Eastland will elect a Chairman in the near future. Rising Star has an all-volunteer program, with potluck dinners and many worthwhile projects.

Anyone who visits the Nutrition Program - where good meals are served three days each week to persons over 60 years old - comes away with a multitude of impressions of Ruth Cartee. Ruth is a trim, attractive woman with an invincible smile, and she manages to appear unruffled during all situations. As the crowds converge on the Corral Room of the Laguna Hotel in Cisco, her duties range from greeting visiting dignitaries to checking out the food in the kitchen. She has an uncanny way of materializing just in time to adjust a crackling microphone, wipe up something which has spilled, or help carry dinner trays to persons to weak to stand in the serving line.

It is easy for Ruth Cartee to greet the Senior Citizens as old friends, for many of them were neighbors during her childhood in Cisco.

"Among my former teachers who attend the Centers are Lela Lloyd and Ella White," she says.

Ruth remembers her youthful days in Cisco as serene and happy ones. Her Grandparents, on both sides of her family, were pioneers in the area. Her father's family, the Hibberts, settled near Breckenridge in the early days, while her Mother's family, the Carlises, established a farm home in the Bedford Community, N.E. of Cisco. Some of the best days of Ruth's childhood were spent on the Carlisle farm, with her Grandmother leading out in interesting activities.

"I suppose I first learned to appreciate Senior Citizens," Ruth remarks. "During those good times with my wonderful Grandmother"

Ruth's father, Charles Hibbert, helped construct the dam at Lake Cisco. The family had two daughters besides Ruth, Wanda and Jean. During these years Ruth attended the Nazarene Church with her family, and became a member of this Church.

After graduation from Grade and High School in Cisco, Ruth attended Business College in Springfield, Missouri. By the time she finished this training World War II had begun, and she was offered a job as Chief Bookkeeper in Western Union in Abilene.

Western Union was a busy place in those days, with Branch Offices in area towns. Messages - both happy and tragic - flashed back and forth.

While working in Abilene Ruth met a young man who impressed her - Roy Cartee, the Red Cross Field Director at Camp Barkley. This personable native of Kansas was busy with his work, but not too busy to notice this pretty girl. They were married in Chapel I at Camp Barkley, and soon afterward Ruth traveled with Roy to assignments at Ft. Hood and Lubbock Airforce Base.

When the war was over the young couple moved to Manhattan, Kansas, and Roy finished his Degree at Kansas State University. Soon afterward the Cartees began work for Boeing Aircraft Co., with Ruth working in the Security Section. The last twelve years of this work were spent in New Orleans, La.

During these years Ruth's Mother died, and her sisters married and moved away from Cisco. At the present time her Father resides in Cisco Nursing Home.

While working in the large cities Ruth remembered her happy, peaceful childhood in Cisco, and she kept mentioning to Roy what a pleasant life they could have there someday. So in 1973 they left Boeing, and decided to live in Cisco. In 1977, upon the retirement of Kathleen Lamb, Mr. Cartee became Director of the Eastland County Red Cross. In 1980 he was elected Mayor of Cisco.

His work for the community has included volunteer work for the Senior Center.

Ruth credits Cisco Junior College with much of the expansion of the Senior Citizen's Program. "Ralph Glenn, as Director, had been leading out with Recreation and other things before I took the job in early 1976. Dr. Norman Wallace and other College personnel were very helpful in the planning. Judge Scott Bailey has always encouraged and supported the work. The business people of the towns, the Program Directors, the volunteers and the good publicity in the newspapers have all contributed to the success of the projects."

In Cisco the College provided a location for the meetings in the Corral Room of the Laguna Hotel, and many Eastland people attended there until their own Center was remodeled in late Nov. of 1980. A wing of the old Dr. Carpenter Hospital is now the Center in Rising Star, thanks to many hours of work. All these places have been renovated, and brightened with attractive decor and furnishings. The redecorating of the Laguna Hotel was celebrated by a large Open House on Feb. 15, 1979. The Eastland Open House was Dec. 1, 1980.

Shortly after Ruth Cartee began her work as Director, Lillie Smith of Cisco became the first Green Thumb worker. The Green Thumb Program, financed by the Farmer's Union, gives Senior Citizens opportunities to work in a number of special jobs. Among these are the local Program Directors, who plan interesting events for the groups. Annie Rendall directs in Cisco, Vinita Miller in Eastland, and Marjorie West in Rising Star.

Among other special projects is Telephone Reassurance, with Jo Phillips in charge, Thelma Tickner in Games and Crafts, and Nellie Housh in Ceramics.

"The workers and volunteers are the most dedicated people I have ever seen," remarks Ruth Cartee. Take our cooks, for example. What would the Nutrition Program be without good food? Mrs. Verda Reed and three other cooks prepare meals which taste like good home cooking. At this time they prepare both Cisco and Eastland food, which amounts to around 250 meals most days. We recently acquired a van with which to transport meals to Eastland."

Along with many memories of Open Houses and special celebrations at all the Centers, and awards for her work, Ruth Cartee has an ever-expanding list of services, functions, and programs. These include:

The 80 Plus Club, which has more than 100 members.

Visits by Congressman Charles Stenholm, State Rep. Joe Hanna, and County Officials.

Programs by Health Nurses.

Programs by Janet Thomas, Extension Agent. Ceramics - one of the most popular projects.

Exercise Classes. Birthday parties and Anniversary parties, Christmas programs.

Telephone reassurance checking on members who might be ill.

Participation in parades, the County Fair, and Senior Citizen Bazaar.

Take out meals for ill or handicapped persons.

Art Classes.

Programs by various Minister, Churches, Schools, and the College.

Much music of various types - dinner music, the German Band, stringed instruments, the regular choir, and special singers. The Star Brite Band of Rising Star - an ever popular group. The Treadwell family musical group.

Games such as dominoes, '42, and others.

Naturally people come to the Centers for the good food and the programs, but there is another very important ingredient to be found. You sense it when Ruth Cartee greets all who come through the door as if they were honored guests arriving at a special party. This welcome seems to touch even the most sad, neglected and discouraged visitors, drawing them back toward life.

For you can't come week after week and eat with people without caring something about them - without celebrating life a little bit.

No wonder many Eastland County Citizens plan their time around the meals, the crafts, and the inspiration of the Centers.

Then It's Too Late

Why is it? A man wakes up in the morning after sleeping on an advertised bed, in advertised pajamas. He will bathe in an advertised tub, wash with advertised soap, shave with an advertised razor, have a breakfast of advertised juice, cereal and toast (toasted in an advertised toaster), put on advertised clothes and glance at his advertised watch.

He will ride to work in an advertised car, sit at an advertised desk, smoke advertised cigars and write with an advertised pen. Yet this man hesitates to advertise, saying that advertising does not pay. Finally, when his unadvertised business goes under, he will advertise it for sale.

People Things

THE TRIP OF eight Ciscoans to Mexico to spend ten days or so helping a missionary church with a building project and to assist with a Vacation Bible School was real interesting and rewarding. That's the report of Mrs. Gerald Winnett, one of the group that got home Friday night of last week.

Mr. Bruce Stovall, local oil service company official, headed the group that included Jim Webb, the Gerald Winnetts, Arley Whitley, and Misses Kelly Stovall, Keri Zellman and Meg Reynolds. They went in a pickup and a van to Morales, near Torreon. This was about the 20th such trip for Mr. Stovall, and Mr. Webb has been there several times.

WHEN YOU attend the annual CofC banquet next Thursday night, you'll have something entirely original in a dinner place mat. And you'll very probably want to take care and not soil it so you can take it home after the dinner.

The place mats are being made by students from the 3rd through 6th grades at Cisco Intermediate School. Principal Bob Landsey told them "make something about education." Those who have seen some of the results report that you're going to be real pleased.

You can get CofC banquet reservations by calling the CofC offices.

MR. C.H. (Cats) Ingram, who looks after things out at Lake Cisco, is pretty excited about the outlook for fishing out there. As you may know, the lake was stocked last spring with Mississippi blue catfish and striped bass.

The Blues should weigh between five and six pounds next year, and the striped bass should be keepers by 1982. If you hook one this year, toss it back and let it mature, suggests Cats. The Parks and Wildlife folks stocked the lake with 26,000 Blues and about that many strippers.

Cats reports that there's quite a bit of fishing going on now with fair results.

THE BEARDS and mustaches are flourishing out at Cisco High School, reports one of our scouts. Principal Jim Puryear looks like Gabby Hayes, the actor, in person they say. And Supt. James Couch is beginning to look pretty woolly.

Lawyer Truman Kirk's full beard shows promise of being a prize winner. Reaction to it is mixed out at the Kirk house, he says. Dr. Chief Brown's beard is only about five days old, so you'll have to wait a while to judge it. Bill Roberts of CJC has a red-looking set of whiskers. And Eddie McMillan couldn't take it any longer. He shaved his off!

MR. CHARLES Clark, the rancher (retired CPA), sustained the worst injury of his life the other afternoon. He was changing a pickup truck tire and the jack under the wheel collapsed as he started to put the tire on it. He lost a lot of skin from his right forearm and hand.

Mr. CC has never been sick enough to go to a hospital and never had to go see a doctor with an injury before. There were no broken bones but he has a black and blue hand that's real sore.

OUR SCOUTS report that the Lloyd Londons of Conifer, Colo., expect to move back to Cisco come Feb. 1. Let's all get ready to say a big welcome to this fine couple. . . . Jill Perry, former CHS and CJC cheerleader, took off for NTSU after midterm exams at CJC. . . . John Scott, who is helping his dad erect a building that will house their helicopter crop duster manufacturing company on the Lake Road, has a handsome beard. . . . Leonard and Jerry Montgomery, little brothers of Philadelphia's football star Wilbert Montgomery, have transferred from CJC to Abilene Christian U. where their big brother was a football star before going with the pros.

A DAY OR two before his death, Mr. Con Collins of the hardware store sold a gift $25 certificate to a man. And a note on the store door instructs folks with any business there to see Gene Abbott at the CofC.

The man went to Gene's office the other day with the gift certificate. Gene took him to the store and the man said he had always wanted a pair of left-handed Wiss pinking shears. Gene looked, and found some. The price was about $13. The man then told Gene that his sister was also left-handed and he'd like another pair for her.

Gene didn't have any idea there would be a second pair but a look through several boxes produced the second pair. And who would have thought you could buy Wiss left-handed pinking shears in Cisco.

YOU'LL BE pleased to hear that Mrs. Billy Joe Taylor, English teacher at CHS for a good many years, will resume her duties there Monday. She underwent open heart surgery in late October and her improvement has been steady and positive. And a checkup the other day resulted in approval for her to return to work.

Mr. BJT, local mail man, reports that progress is slow but steady at the new home he is building southwest of town at their farm. Their twin sons help him some on weekends.

OUT AT CJC, there's a new organization - the Blue Jackets. And the club will be composed of 12 CJC girls who will be selected from nominees by a faculty committee. They'll wear Blue Jackets and white skirts and their duties will be to perform numerous service projects throughout town during the year - for civic affairs groups and college events. They'll help at athletic contests, with registration, at college assemblies and programs and the like.

You'll meet some of the Blue Jackets at the CofC banquet next Thursday night. . . . Mrs. Connie Rattan of the CJC faculty is their sponsor.

MR. GEORGE Downey of San Antonio, a former Ciscoan, visited old friends here several days last weekend. . . . The Dick Cuttings of Lake Leon visited in town Thursday. . . . The Jammie Frys flew out with a group from Big D the other night for a snow skiing vacation at Baniff in the Canadian Rocky Mountain country. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Arley Whitley were in Henrietta much of the past week to attend funeral services for her father who died there Tuesday night.

Fletcher Gives Vacation Report

Lion J.C. Fletcher told members of the Cisco Lions Club about a vacation trip that he and his wife enjoyed recently in California in a talk at the weekly luncheon Wednesday noon. Lion Ivan Webb was the program chairman and introduced Mr. Fletcher.

The Fletchers visited their daughter and family, the Bob Lloyds, at Hansford, Calif. He noted that the San Joaquin Valley area around Hansford was closed in by fog virtually every day until noon while they were there. He enjoyed visiting a Lions Club there.

Club members were urged to attend a mid-winter conference of District 2-E-1 clubs at Stamford this weekend. Guests at the luncheon included Sue Scott and Treva Webb.

Senior Citizen's Nutrition Menu

The senior citizens program in Cisco and Eastland has been very busy during the past week. More than 465 meals were served in Cisco while more than 279 meals were served in Eastland. So more than 744 meals were prepared by the kitchen staff at the Cisco Senior Center.

There is a reason why so many people over the age of 60 feel a need to participate in the nutrition program. The members not only receive a nutritious meal but the matter of fellowship is necessary for this age level. Many of the people who share in the program also share their talents in helping one another outside the regular activities of the program.

If any citizen is 60 years or older they should come to the Senior Center and become acquainted, and they will be surprised to know how many of their friends are participating in the program.

The Center has a program at every luncheon and during the past week the following people helped: Vida Killion, Rev. O.T. Killion, A.E. McNeely, Mozelle Phillips, and Dixie Montgomery, sang several songs that are liked and enjoyed by those who are of senior age; and then Roland Smith, an outstanding country and western singer, presented his program.

The menus for the week are:

Monday: braised beef/gravy, butter beans, turnip greens, apricot cobbler, bread, butter and drink.

Wednesday: swiss steak, asparagus tips, pineapple-carrot jello, fruit cobbler, bread, butter and drink.

Friday: beef stew/vegetables, corn bread, vanilla pudding, bread, butter and drink.

Spring Registration At CJC Is Looking Good

Spring registration at Cisco Junior College is looking very good, according to Olin O. Odom, Registrar. Odom is projecting an increase in enrollment over the Spring of 1980, noting that "there is an unusually high number of new students for a Spring registration."

Although classes began January 13, students wishing to register for classes at Cisco Junior College may still do so. They should register as soon as possible to keep from getting behind in their work.

Students may register during regular office hours (8:00-5:00, and 1:00-5:00) until January 22 at the Registrar's office on the Cisco campus, the Clyde Educational Center in Clyde, or the Community College Center in Abilene at 1600 Sherman.

Academic, vocational, and financial assistance counseling are available. For full information call (817) 442-2567 in Cisco; (915) 893-5976 in Clyde; or (915) 698-2212 in Abilene.

Women's Clubs Property Takes On New Look

The City Federation of Women's Clubs property at 400 West 7th, has taken on a trim, new look. The project was initiated by the Cisco Garden Club.

Recognition for a job well-done goes to several people. Mrs. Jack Kelly was responsible for obtaining Norman Shelton to do the trees and shrubbery pruning. Jack Kelly lent his tools for the job. Others who helped clean away the debris were Mrs. Ed Harrell, Mrs. Alfred Cole, Mrs. Arlin Bint, Mrs. Jack Kelly and C.L. Webb. Mrs. J.T. Carson served coffee to the volunteer crew.
