This picture was given to Mrs. Bettye McGinness, Cisco Centennial coordinator, by Mr. L.G. Ball. He played a doctor in the high school play that was advertised on the rear of the car. Mr. Ball took the picture in 1927. Do you recognize yourself? Or do you know who they are?

Hall Of Remarks by Herrel Hallmark

FINALLY SOMEONE is going to give some recognition to the men who fought for country during the Vietnam war. There are a number of Vietnam veterans, or relatives of these veterans, living in Cisco. I thought this article might be of interest to those of Cisco.

The article is from Texas Legion News, which is prepared and distributed by the American Legion, Department of Texas.

The recent public rejoicing over the return of the hostages from Iran has opened again the agonizing psychological wounds of the Vietnam War. Although this most unpopular conflict in American history has been over for more than seven years, many of the nine million who served in uniform still have an inner conflict raging.

Some 300,000 were wounded in Vietnam, 75,000 disabled, and over 57,000 died. With us today are the amputees, the blind, the burned, and the spiritually maimed...as from every war. But Vietnam produced a new kind of veteran, embittered, cynical or ashamed, and often feeling betrayed by his own country men.

Although most of them are proud that they served, they don't advertise it. Even now, unemployment among younger Vietnam-era veterans runs higher than among nonveterans of the same age. They are to forgotten Americans, hostages to a split in our nation's personality. It is time to speed up the healing of that split, to open our hearts and welcome home the Vietnam veteran too. On March 16, The American Legion will pre-sent its Distinguished Service Medal to the dead and missing Americans of Vietnam at the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington National Cemetery. It is the highest award of the country's largest veterans organization, and the first national recognition of this sort for those who fought in Vietnam.

It's time for all of us to separate the war from the warrior, for Americans to begin to show openly that they do appreciate the service and sacrifices of those who represented them in Vietnam.

The American Legion encourages all Americans to join with its members in a day of remembrance and gratitude on March 16, and to plan other activities to show their appreciation for the millions of Vietnam veterans who have paid dearly for even simple recognition.

> SOME VIETNAM WAR FACTS

In terms of American casualties, the Vietnam conflict ranks with World War I. The toll was higher in World War II, lower in Korea. But Vietnam stands out as the most unpopular and controversial of our wars, and the longest. And whereas the previous U.S. Military involvements ended in armistice, victory, or armed truce on restored pre-war fronts, Vietnam concluded gradual troop withdrawals and the eventual fall of Saigon.

Pictured above is one of 19 appliqued blocks on the Cisco Service Club Centennial Quilt, which depicts the history of Cisco. This block was appliqued and embroidered by Sandra Woolley, chairman of the quilting project. The Mobley Hotel, built in 1916, was purchased by the late Conrad Hilton in 1918, and was the first establishment of the Hilton empire.

Allene Smith, (standing left), and Janice Turner, (right) look on, as other Cisco Service Club members finish up appliques and embroidery work on the Centennial Quilt. The quilt depicts the history of Cisco and will be given away by drawing on May 21.

Service Club members are grateful for the use of the First National Bank Community Room for work on the quilting project. The near completed quilt may now be viewed at the Cisco Chamber of Commerce. Club members are meeting weekly for the quilting.

Tickets for the Centennial Quilt drawing are now on sale for $1.00 each through Cisco Service Club members at the Chamber of Commerce, Stanson Oil. State Farm Insurance, or Ted's and Rex's One Stop.

Proceeds will be used for various community projects by the Cisco Service Club. (Photo compliments of Brad Kimbrough)

Cisco Service Club Holds Regular Meet

The Cisco Service Club met February 26, 1981, in the Community Room of the First National Bank. Debbie Whitley, president, presided. Hostesses were Linda Cozart, Barbara Tollett, and Debbie Whitley. Members present were Rosa Escobedo, Pennie Fields, Dianne Fisher, Sherry Kimbrough, Christine Langford, Sandy Langford, Jessie Pippen, Charlotte Speegle, Hattie Weathers, Ann Williams, Gina Winnett, Sandra Woolley, Velda Witzsche and Diane Yowell. Betty Pippen was a guest of the club. The club welcomes Betty Pippen as a new member.

Sandra Woolley gave a report on the progress of the Centennial Quilt. Club members will meet each Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce at 7:00 p.m. to work on the quilt.

A discussion was held on the progress of the sale of tickets for chances on the Centennial Quilt. Tickets are available through club members for $1.00 each.

Pennie Fields, publicity chairman for the Centennial Quilt, gave a report. Christine Langford, crafts chairman, gave a report on progress of crafts for the Folklife Festival.

Pennie Fields gave a report on the outcome of the past blood drive.

Dianne Fisher and Diane Yowell were named cochairmen of the food booth for the Folklife Festival. Pennie Fields was named supply chairman.

Christine Langford and Sandy Langford are cochairmen of the crafts booth for the Folklife Festival. Other committee members are Barbara Tollett and Linda Cozart

Rotary Club Gets Glimpses Deep Into Cisco's Past Thurs.

Interesting glimpses deep into the past of Cisco and Eastland County were provided the Rotary Club Thursday noon at the Colony Restaurant by County Judge Scott Bailey and former Cisco School Supt. Arlin

Bailey, presented by Anton White and chairman of the Eastland County Historical Committee, reviewed the process by which designations are made of noteworthy historical sites. Suggested designations--including places significant of community beginnings, pioneer homes, ancient governmental and social structures, reports of that study, the State Commission either already made in the Cisco area, he said, include the site of old Scranton Academy southwest of town; The First National Bank, scene of a murderous Christmas season bank robbery in 1927: the First Baptist Church and, the latest, the First Methodist Church.

The Mobley Hotel, an obvious historical site as the first of a world-wide Conrad Hilton chain, was awarded a designation, but the medallion was never placed at the building, having been carried away by the then owner of the property. It was the second site to be designated after that of the Scranton Academy. A plaque, affixed now to the entrance, awaits possible replacement of the missing medallion, which would require the approval of the present owner, the Conrad Hilton Historical Foundation, Bailey suggested. The only residence in the county to receive designation as an historical site, is the stately, colonial, style C.U. Connellee home in Eastland, scene of many social and political events significant in the early history of the area. The home is now owned and oc-cupied by Judge and Mrs.

Austin McCloud of the County commissioner. Eleventh Court of Civil Appeals. A nomination of the Cisco Cemetery for designation will probably be made, Bailey and White agreed. Arlin Bint, guest of White, gave a brief account of the first burial there in 1876, that of an infant uncle he, of course, has never seen. The body was that of the first child of Bint's emigrant grandfather--Dawson William Bint, who left England and the lumber trade of his family in the early 70's to settle on a 160-acre tract, including what is now some of the present burial grounds, and raise sheep. Bint married a local girl and the grave of their first child is still visible in the oldest part of the cemetery, its stone so eroded that the name, if one was given, cannot be read. Arlin's father, Arch Bint, was the fourth child of the couple. He was for many years an Eastland Later, said Arlin Bint, the Rev. C.G. Stephens, pioneer Baptist minister, added land to the Bint family donation for the formal definition of what is now one of the oldest and most populous of area burial grounds.

Fifty-five Attend 4-H Clothing Training Session

Approximately 55 persons attended the annual 4-H Clothing Training last Saturday, March 7. The training was held from 9:30-2:00 p.m. in the TESCO Reddy Room according to County Extension Agent, Donna White. We were very pleased with the response of leaders and 4-Hers to the training", added Mrs. White.

The day's events began with registration and refreshments at 9:30. At 10:00 a.m. Marilyn Van Zandt from "Wearhouse" in Eastland presented a program featuring the latest spring fashions and trends. Mrs. Van Zandt brought current fashions for babies, toddlers, girls, juniors and misses. The next guest speakers were from the Texas Dept. of Agriculture in Stephenville -Mary Ann Bauman. Marketing Specialist and Rita Romans, student apprentice from T.S.U. They gave an interesting presentation on natural and manmade fibers. Their program eneded with the burning of samples of wool, cotton and polyester to see the different characteristics of the fibers. The last speaker of the morning session was Jerilynn Winfrey of Merle Norman cosmetics in Cisco. Miss Winfrey explained skin care basics and demonstrated the proper way to apply makeup on 4-H model, Leanne Brown of Eastland.

At noon, everyone enjoyed a sack lunch and a slide presentation of 4-H Fashion Revues from 1946 until 1978. After lunch, the group split into three different groups to observe sewing demonstrations given by Sandra Woolley from Nimrod 4-H, Brenda Willingham from Cisco 4-H, and Donna White, County Extension Agent. The demonstrations includ-

month ago that I would be writing the story of my own heart attack.

It has been a weird period for me, and I imagine only those who have shared by experience will appreicate and understand these words. Let me explain now that what I am saying is what was told to me by others. My memory of those days in the hospital is a complete blank. For three days before my attack I followed a normal course of daily activity, but now I have absolutely no recollection of sitting through church services in Breckenridge, of getting a haircut and a permanent the next day in Austin, or of telling my husband. Joe. that I was sick and thought I was

On the morning of Jan. 28 Joe said I told him I had been awake with indigestion since 6 a.m. I called him from the bathroom, and he found me there, my color ashen. He carried me to the bed and realized that I had stopped

He phoned Viola and Walter Grubbs, friends from Abilene who live on the fourth floor above us here in Austin, and asked them to call a doctor. Then he started giving me artificual respira-

Joe had never practiced artificial respiration or seen administered, but evidently divine interference guided him, because I begun breathing again.

book to search for a doctor, and the phone number of the Austin Emergency Medical Services seemed to jump out at her. She called them, and they were in the apartment building in seconds. screaming up in two ambulances

They rushed to my room and took over from Joe. They used every means you have heard to make my heart beat again. including electric S.W.C.D. Banquet shock and several injections of something in syringes. They removed me to Brackenridge Hospital, and the doctors began the battle to save my life

They say it is a miracle that I am alive. When they took me to the hospital I had stopped breathing twice. The doctors advised calling the family because they considered I had about a one percent chance of living. And if I lived, chances were that I would be a vegetable from lack of oxygen to my brain for such an extended period.

The doctors battled for my life in the intensive care unit. From there I recuperated another week at Seton Medical Center and then came home to the Greenwood Towers apartment where Joe and I are living during the legislative session.

It is humbling to look back on such an experience and realize how much you owe to so many people. Joe, of course, saved my life. We have enjoyed nearly 40 years of married life, but the next ones we share will mean much more because we have shared both life and death together, and our feelings for each other is stronger, deeper and more meaningful

Our children were there -Judi, Steve and Mark - and though for days I could not see or hear them, I felt the strength of their wills urging me to fight, and for them I

My family was also there beside me, and my friends, and I know they were telling me not to give up.

I received a roomfull of flowers and hundreds of get well wishes. My friends said that thousands of prayers must have been offered for me, and I know God listened. To all of you who sent flowers and cards, who called, who wished me well, who prayed for me, let me thank you from the depths of my heart - slightly damagec

But the doctors say my recovery is nothing short of miraculous, and I guess the fact I am writing this supports that fact. Except for a little weakness that I'm fas overcoming, and a tendency to forget names and places occasionally, I am really in good shape. So I hope to be home very soon and back or though it may be!

Bass Club

Well here it is 1981 and the fishing season upon us again. Even though we didn't suffer a real bad winter, there were times you couldn't go fishing! However that didn't sway the Eastland County Bass Club, after our awards presentation banquet held at Cisco Country Club early in January this year, the club's first tournament of the year started off with a bang. Twelve of the 35 members took off for Lake Proctor for a full day of fishing and fellowship, not many fish were boated but a good time was enjoyed by all.

Following the rules and regulations each member must go by, no fish under 14 inches is weighed and those lucky enough to catch one 14 inches long or longer, after weigh in the fish are released back into the lake to be enjoyed by another fisherman. Fortunately for the fisherman, most Bass Clubs in the United States today have a live release program.

In February 14 fisherman and women journeyed to Graham, Texas, to fish Lake Graham. For those of you who have never been to Lake Graham, its a power plant lake with a hot water outlet and good fishing year round. Bobby Maynard of Eastland took first place with a total of 11 pounds even. One fish weighing a little over five pounds. Bobby was fishing the treeline in shallow water on jigs.

Second place went to our lady angler Jane McBeth of Cisco, and third place went to Tommy Maynard also of Eastland. Congratulations to

A Change of Seasons

By DeMarquis Gordon

half of March have been to save that year's crop. great. It sems we are ready for a good spring now. With all the fruit trees in bloom we know spring is not far off. Let's just hope winter is over and that our fruit will not be killed again this year.

While we wait to see if the fruit is going to make it this means getting the sprayer out now.

When 70% of the petals have fallen spray with Malathion, Sevin, or Zolone. Either one of these will control the insects. A fungicide is needed to control diseases. These may be mixed and sprayed on trees on the trees in one application. The fungicides you may choose from include Captan, wet- the soil with irrigation. It is table sulfer, Benomyl, or Topsin M. One spraying will not be enough. You will need to spray three more times at 10 to 14 day intervals.

It may be necessary to repeat another spraying on late maturing varieties. No not apply insecticides within three days of harvesting plums or within seven days of harvesting peaches.

If you would like more information on control of insects and diseases on fruit you may call or come by the Extension office and ask for a copy of the Homeowner's Fruit and Nut Spray Schedule:

Root knot nematodes are the single most inportant home garden disease in Eastland County. I would estimate that at least 50% of the gardens in this area are damaged by root knot.

One problem with controlling this pest is that is is hard to detect the problem early enough for gardeners to take protective measures. Once nematodes are found on

The rains during the first plant roots, little can be done

So, it is important to inspect the roots of plants for galls as you remove them from the garden in the fall. These galls or knots indicate the presence of root knot nematodes and this is the time to take effective steps to control the pests. Another year, we must take precau- systom of root knot is tions to protect the fruit from stunted, yellow plants. Exinsects and diseases. That amine the roots of such plants for galls.

When soil temperature reaches 50 degrees F. for seven days at a depth of 6 inches, treat the area with Vapam fungicide using 1 guart water per 100 square feet. Water the chemical into the soil using 1 inch water and repeat in 48 hours.

Vapam is water soluble and will be leeched dwn into important that the chemical be moved as deep in the soil as possible to get maximum control.

This method of treatment takes care of the entire area compared to row application where only a 12-inch band is treated. After treatment, leave the area undisturbed for seven days. Then till the soil to get the chemical out. Wait an additional two weeks before planting.

Additional steps can be taken at planting to further insure nematode control. In those areas where root knot is found to be most severe in summer or fall, plant onions, garlic, or sweet corn. These crops are not susceptible to root knot, and their use will further reduce the nematode population.

Also, it should be standard practice to plant nematode resistant varities when available.

Once nematodes are found in a garden, the control program as outlined above must be followed annually. Based on current knowledge, it is impossible to completely

Blue Law - Or Not Blue Law

In the United States, one of our greatest privileges is to be able to share in the responsibility of making our own laws. When there is a law in existence that we disagree with, we also have the right to contest that law.

Such a law being contested is the Blue Law. As in years past, the bill is up before the Texas Legislature to decide whether or not to repeal it. As one may guess, there are many pros and cons on the subject.

Blue Laws started years ago during the days of the colonies. The particular law we are dealing with is known as the Sunday Closing Law.

First, argrments will be stated against having such a

The statement is made that "everyone should have a day off with their families." There is no state law that guarantees Saturday or Sunday off for the hundreds of thousands of workers who man hospitals, police stations and many other places. This matter should not be for government to decide but it should be between the employee and employer.

Energy costs should not be a consideration. In the city of Houston, which had the only available breakdown of electricity usage by type of establishment, showed that retailers used less than 1.5 percent of the city's total consumption, and that is for all retailers, many of whom are open on weekends

It is important to realize that this law is not a closing law, it is a selective sale law. There is a "shopping list" of items which is considered dangerous for public con-consecutive Saturdays or Sundays. Things like diapers (unless they are disposable), furniture, ashtrays (unless they are plastic) hats (unless they are souvenirs), candles, and the list goes on.

Thus a situation is created where part of the goods in a store (already opened) cannot be sold.

Now, the side of those in favor of keeping the Blue

Texas Retailers Association opposes the repeal of the law and gives four major reasons for retaining the law. (1) Effect on family life of retail employees; (2) Survival of independent retailers; (3) Inflation and energy; (4) Quality of life in

If the law is repealed most retail employees will have to work both Saturday and Sunday, for these will be important selling days. Employees will not have to work seven days a week but for some of them, their days off would be week days while the rest of the family is working or at

Most independent retailers work six days a week now. If the law is repealed the independent has only two choices - stay closed on Sunday and watch bigger stores take some of their business or stay open and work a seven day week.

The Feb. 5, 1979 issue of TIME magazine had an article, based on the annual report to the president by the Council of Economic Advisors, concerning the underlying causes of inflation. It stated "stores have been staying open nights and Sundays to satisfy shoppers' demands for more convenience; the longer hours forced them to hire more workers but do not add proportionately to weekly sales."

Stated simply, the additional hours cause increased prices, fueling inflation. Repealing the law would add almost two months (52 Sundays) of retail operation. Energy consumption for heating, cooling, running elevators and escalators and for employees driving to and from work would increase substantially.

The intent of the law is to effect the closing of most stores in the state at least one weekend day of each week

Now, consider seriously the question of whether or not to keep the Blue Law. Contact your elected officials and let them know where you stand concerning this law.

Eastland Co Retired Teachers

Eastland County retired teachers met on Monday afternoon in the community room of the Eastland National Bank.

A fair representation of teachers was present but many more are needed to impress the legislatures of the interest and needs of retired teachers.

Charlie Garrett, in the legislative report, said this is perhaps the best year in several for teachers who are retired.

I.W. Ussery gave an interesting and well-received report on the scientific progress in the American way of life in our generation.

officiers include Charlie Garrett, pres; Bernice Carter, Vice Pres; Clara Singleterry, Sec. and Loretta Morris, Treas. The next meeting will be in Cisco.

Letters to the Editor

Regarding the so called Phantom and Citizen Bullet. I can't imagine anyone considering themself to be a decent, respectable person to agree with such corrupt slanderous remarks. First of all, a council person deserves being called by name instead of blondie, red head, or what ever some people stoop to say.

Second, the person or people doing all of the spying around the council people's homes sure are nosey people and must have a very dull

Also I think the people of Cisco are smart enough to read the voting ballot and understand how to vote without some one trying to explain it in their own words. which are much more confusing than the ballot.

I would like to define the word "Revenge" if you haven't thought of the word lately and most of us have not. "Revenge" is the pleasure of a WEAK and NARROW MIND.

Some people really enjoy slandering a person's character and from what that person has told out of her own mouth about "herself" she is not qualified to testify against someone else's character.

Why do they keep bringing up the cream colored pickup? First of all it did not cost $7.621.00 as the Bullet so stated. It cost $7,200.00 which isn't a bad price for a brand new pickup, considering three (3) typewriters were purchased on August 28, 1980 by the "Acting" city manager for the total amount of $4,356.00. Without any bids may I add. $1,089.00 was paid down with a balance of $3,267.00 C.O.D. As a matter of fact those 3 typewriters were ordered built special without any of the council members that she bad mouths knowing anything about it. She made the deal with the typewriter salesman at the City Hall before, during the noon hour while the City Hall was locked, and finalized it after one (1) o'clock. Of course, if you special order something to be built, you can't back out. The city had no choice, but to take them. They were ordered by the "Acting City Manager" on the 28th of August before Mr. Turpin Now I am sure that is why we have never heard this brought up at the council meetings and nothing has been printed about it in the Phantom or Citizen Bullet. At least they can't blame Mr. Turpin for that, so they won't mention it at all and maybe no one will ever find out about it. Now stop and think; compare a new pickup for $7,200.00 against 3 typewriters for $4,356.00. Have you priced typewriters lately? Folks, I think the City got the short end of the deal and who do we hold responsible? Certainly not

Mr. Turpin. The Citizen Bullet printed on March 3, 1981, criticized the employees at the City Hall, saying they were sad, listless, unpolite, and filthy. You know I'm sure it sounds unbelieveable to one but they all believe in daily baths and everyone that works there 'now' also uses a deodorant. That is more than I can say for one that used to work there. If there was more soap and water used than pen and ink, there would be less filth and the Bullet wouldn't include so much trash.

Oh yes, the City Hall employess were not the ones who initiated closing during the noon hour. They were closing during the noon hour before any of them started to work there, including Mr. Turpin. I don't know why the editor of the Bullet didn't do something about that at the time of her "Acting City Manager" days, since she is so concerned about it now. Also I think someone needs to get to the back of City Hall and count those parking spaces - I think some of the 10 have disappeared.

I'll say this, the editor of the Bullet has more time to put into writing than she used to. She used to never type birth certificates, death certificates, or send receipts for lake lot lease checks for six weeks to two and a half months (21/2). She wrote something in the Bullet that would be good for her little group to follow: Quote: "It is much easier to be critical than correct. The world is full of willing people: some willing to let them. It takes courage to stand up and speak. It takes even more courage to sit down and

Concerning the $340,000.00

(per Citizen Bullet) on the airport; that amount is not correct to begin with. The correct amount is $170,000.00. The money also comes from "Texas

Aeronautics" and can 'ONLY" be used on "AIRPORTS" not on drinking water for cities. If any of the citizens of Cisco are interested in anything that goes on down at the City Hall - go down and talk with them. They are all nice, courteous people and they all are anxious for people to know how well and honest things are being taken care of down there. Oh yes, if any of you are interested in what anyone else is paying for city taxes, go down to the Tax office. You know, it is really not necessary to send a non Cisco taxpayer. Those records are open to all of the citizens of Cisco. Composed by an honest Cisco Tax payer that deals with "FACTS" not untrue gossip or rumors.

Mrs. Dottie Eudy 1308 West 14th Cisco, Texas 76437

Dear Editor:

I was handed a paper today called "Citizens for Better Government." I am so happy Mrs. Marilyn Smith wrote it and I got a copy now I know who not to vote for since she told us whose names she suggested. Oh, yes City Hall is full of filth just because she is out didn't clean it up, but some of the citizens that love the City have a broom and are trying to sweep the rest of the trouble makers out. Mrs. Allison's own words were "I'm not about to resign." Neither would Richard Nixon and he shamed the good old U.S.A. If it is in our power the people that love Cisco will rid ourselves of the Nixons in City Hall and not add to the list. I don't like to turn the news on and hear of another feud going on here it is very embarrassing.

Keep giving us the news Mr. Hallmark. You and Mr. Sitton are doing a good job. Mrs. Allison has been giving elf the black eyes. Sh didn't want our city employees to get a pay raise and no one deserved it more She wouldn't want to be called out at midnight on an icv night to dig in the mud and water to repair leaks. I also hope the ballot clearly states what we will be voting on. I wouldn't want to vote for anyone Mrs. Smith has come up with by

We need Mr. Turpin, Jeffcoat, Eudy and Pippen they seem to be the only ones with enough guts to speak out in behalf of Cisco the people.

See you at the polls folks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bralley P.S. I've heard so much talk about Mr. Turpin not doing the things he promised to do when he came here. How can he? When he came here he stepped into a hornets nest and has had to fight them off every inch of the way, but I'm proud we have some one at last that will stay and fight. We're behind you all the way Mr. Turpin. It seems the mayor and Mrs. Allison have you in the ring with a huge boxer with your hands tied behind your back and asked to slug it out. I believe Mr. Turpin will do everything he can for the city given a chance. As for my vote he will get the chance.

Dear Editor:

I take this means of expressing my concern for the sad state of city government in Cisco. Our town is made up largely of retired people. We need every young person and every young family which we can keep here. Yet many of our capable young city employees have resigned and moved their families from Cisco because of the impossible working conditions under a dictatorial administration. Despite these trying circumstances, Councilmen Jerry Jeffcoat, Bill Eudy and Harold Pippen have had the courage and stamina to stand firm for progress and any opportunities that are now available to promote the welfare of Cisco. Our town needs the vigor, enthusiasm, and vision of younger people. We have those qualities in Jeffcoat, Eudy and Pippen.

They have much to offer. It is to be hoped that the voters of Cisco will see fit to recall Cartee and Allison and give the other council members the chance to work unimpeded to get Cisco out of the headlines and into the "swing" of things once

Respectfully, Verna A. McDonald

After filing for Council member for the City of Cisco, I have had the opportunity to talk to a lot of good citizens of this fine City, which is sitting on the treshhold of growing by leaps and bounds if controlled and governed by a sound city government without constant bickering and dissention. I feel with the leadership of a compassionate and dedicated leader that all six Council members could accomplish a lot of good and wonderful things for our City

As you all know teamwork is the most essential item in all group efforts and a team that works well together wins in what endeavor that they undertake.

No one portion of this City can function without the other. We need our young people to carry on from us as we grow older and we also need our older people to guide and direct our youth to grow up to be good young men and women of our City. We need our business people of this City for survival and to fulfill our needs. We have very good group of businesses in this City from banking to shopping, and a very nice Hospital and Nursing Home for our elderly. Also we have a very efficient school system and a great

Mary Barnhill Honored On 90th Birthday Saturday

Mrs. S.O. (Mary) Barnhill, 1516 Bullard, was pleasantly surprised Saturday as friends and relatives honored her on her 90th birthday. She has resided in Cisco for 65 of those years.

Idella Taylor, Mrs. Barnhill's daughter, hosted the celebration and luncheon in her home on the Rising Star highway.

Those attending included Mr. and Mrs. N.W. Barnhill, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Barnhill, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Hatcher and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Stokes and Robyn, Mrs. Larry Leonard and Scott, and Mrs. Roger

MR. AND MRS. E. WAYNE ADAMS JR.

Wanda Jean Rohde And E. Wayne Adams Jr. Wed

Albuquerque, N.M., and E. Wayne Adams Jr. of Albuquerque, N.M., were married at 2 p.m. Saturday, March 14, at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Albuquerque, N.M. Pastor Martin Hartenberger of Redeemer Lutheran Church, Albuquerque, N.M., performed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin Robert Rohde of Albuquerque, N.M. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Wayne Adams, Sr., of Las Vegas, Nevada. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Clark of Cross Plains, formerly of Debra Dere' Adams, sister of the bridegroom, of Las Vegas, Nevada, was maid of honor. Mrs. Tressie Dixon of Albuquerque, N.M., was the bridesmatron.

James Eugene Adams of Las Vegas, Nevada, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsman was James Mansfield of Albuquerque, N.M.

Ushers were David Dixon and Dennis Casey, both of Albuquerque, N.M.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory organza Venise lace gown with an open heart shape neckline and bodice. The gown was styled with an empire waistline, sheer bishop sleeves with Venise lace and lace appliques, and chapel train. She wore a derby style veiled hart with matching Venise lace. She carried a presentation bouquet of white roses, baby's breath and ivory streamers. The bridal attendants were attired in teal panne satin dresses with cape sleeves and full skirts. The dresses had a sheer high ivory Alencon lace neckline and V-shaped bodice. They wore their hair pinned up

Wanda Jean Rohde of with baby's breath. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of white roses, assorted vellow flowers, baby's breath and teal ribbons. The bridesmatron carried a bouquet of white star mums, assorted yellow flowers, baby's breath and teal rib-

Hillary Smith sang 'Evergreen" and "The Lord's Prayer." "A Wedding March" from a Midnights Summer Dream was the recessional. A reception was held at the Ramada Inn in Albuquerque, N.M., hosted by the bride's parents. The reception was buffet style with hot and cold foods. Mrs. Judy Wagoner of Hobbs, N.M. and Ms. Cindra Sanders of Denver, Colo., registered guests. Mrs. Jana Long of Albuquerque, N.M., and Mrs. Steve Watson of Crofton, Maryland, sister of the bride, served cake,

The church was decorated with one center altar piece and two side altar pieces of white gladioli, white roses, yellow roses, baby's breath and white mums. Two white wrought iron candelabras were decorated with the same flowers as the altar

Have you ever talked with a person who is active at the Senior Center in Cisco?

You are missing an experience if you have not because you will find an individual who will tell you about the good food and the wonderful fellowship.

Those who are over 60 years of age have an opportunity to come to the Senior Center every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Some come early so they may volunteer their time in getting the tables ready. Some want to sit and talk, some play games, but all welcome each other with love and understanding of people their own age.

Call the Center on Monday, Wednesday and Friday between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. and make luncheon reservations.

Each luncheon day the programs and during the past week the following shared their talents with the members of the Center: Eris Ritchie, Jim Reaves, Nancy Hammes, Ken Hammes, Tom Slagle, Bill Roberts and Gene Kinser all from the I-20 Church of Christ presented an excellent program of religious songs: Mildred Geist sang several solos accompanied by Cora Lee Thomas: and Anna Dytzel played the dinner music.

Jim has just retired after 25 or more years as a by-line reporter for The Dallas Morning News. And, as a retirement job, he has gone to work for Sheriff Don Bird of Dallas County. In his new work, Jim will handle press relations for the sheriff.

Jim is a graduate of Cisco High School and has was a paper boy at The Press when we took over there that February day in 1948. Before long we had Jim covering high school sports and later working as a news reporter in his off-school hours.

After his school days were over, Jim got a job with The Dallas News and has earned a fine reputation as a good news and feature writer. Bet he does a good job in his retirement work.

THE SIERRA Blanca mountain country near Ruidoso, New Mexico, has the deepest and nicest snow in that state, reports the television reporters who give out ski reports. They had 56 inches of snow this past week and that's a lot of snow.

Skiing was just fine and you can get a first hand report from Mrs. Allen McGinness and children Mark and Amanda and Mrs. Mike Anderson and daughters Shannon and Amy. They got home Thursday night after visiting about a week there, where they enjoyed daily visits to the ski slopes. (Dr. McG and Mr. MA had to stay home and

THINGS CAN get complex around the house when your lady gets sick and goes to the hospital. That's the word from Mr. Marshall Jones of 1100 West 14th Street. Mrs. MJ underwent surgery over in Abilene about 10 days ago and was due home this weekend.

Marshall decided the other day that he'd like bacon and eggs so he fired up the cook stove and fried his bacon nice and crisp and then fixed two eggs - over easy. He got the food on a plate and started to the breakfast bar to eat and somehow he bumped into something and spilled eggs and bacon on the

OUR SCOUTS report that Dr. James Mobley, the youth family doctor at Fort Hood who just finished spending about a week in the offices of Dr. E.E. Addy here, and his family were pleased and impressed with Cisco. His children were particularly impressed with the fact that Cisco has a Mobley Hotel that's going to be restored. Understand Dr. Mobley will be completing his military obligation soon and will go into private practice. Let's all hope that the Mobley roots are deep enough in our community that he will decide to settle in

The average age of the Vietnam dead was 23 years: six out of ten had been in the service less than two years. three out of ten were married; eight of the dead were servicewomen. Of the U.S. dead, 49,819 were white, 7,273 black, 375 Asian and 225 confirms the fact that "a barrel full of rattlesnakes changed hands at Thornton Feed Mill the other day." Somebody who lives hereabouts sold 25 or so rattlers that he had caught and put in a barrel.

Perhaps the buyer wanted them to take them to Sweetwater where they're having their annual Rattlesnake Roundup this weekend. They give prizes for the biggest and most rattlers, and they probably don't ask questions about where they were Ciscoans Charles Clark and Frank Barrett were planning to drive to see the Sweetwater roundup on Saturday when last we talked with them. Frank, who grew up in Yankee country, wanted to taste rattlesnake meat. We tasted it once and decided that it reminded you

THERE'S TO BE a scramble golf tournament this Saturday afternoon at the Cisco Country Club. Understand you need to check in by p.m. and it's open to anyone interested . . . Let's make a reservation and attend the quarterly CofC breakfast at 7 a.m. Wednesday, March 18, out at the Colony Restaurant. There'll be a $50 attendance prize like Mr. Bruce Stovall won at the last quarterly breakfast. SEE BY THE papers that they're upping the price of postage stamps again. Come March 22nd, you'll pay 18 cents for first class postage stamps and postcards will go up to 12 cents . . . Mrs. Olin (Betty) Odom III is the organist at the First United Methodist Church, having taken over there about a month ago . . . Aren't you pleased that Mr. Jim Puryear has gone back to the helm of the CHS Loboes? And Mr. Clyde Evatt, another former Lobo head coach, will be a very welcome addition to the staff where he'll serve as defense

WHEN MRS. Betty Alford of United Savings bought a new car a year or so ago, she took a friend's advice and had an extra key made to stash where it could be handy if ever she lost or misplaced her key. Where to put the extra key? She decided to put it in her purse since women never go anywhere without their purse.

Last Monday, Mrs. BA went to work and had a sack full of stuff to take in. Later, she discovered that she had locked her keys up in the car. And (horrors) her purse was on the seat in the locked car! Rancher Doug Fry and CofC Manager Gene Abbott, who may have had previous experience jimmying their way into a locked car, came to the rescue. They took a coat hanger and liberated the key and purse.

According to a 1980 Harris survey for the Veterans Administration, more than three-quarters of World War II and Korea veterans feel people their own age gave them a friendly reception upon their return from those conflicts; less than half of Vietnam-era veterans feel that way, and the general public over whelmingly agrees that Vietnam vets were not as warmly received as those returning from earlier wars.

Bible Baptist Women Meet In Bill Gary Home

The Bible Baptist women met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gary for their monthly Bible study and fellowship. Mrs. Elizabeth Lee gave thanks and blessings for all the delicious foods. The table was covered with food of different shades of green. It was lovely to look at and delicious to eat which was truly enjoyed.

After the pleasures of eating the good food and visiting, gifts from secret pals were received with joy and new names were drawn for new secret pals. A business meeting was conducted by Wanda Payne. The minutes were read by Mrs. Nelda Gary.

The Bible study was brought by Mrs. Maunia Copeland about women described in the Old Testament as a woman of many talents and ventures. She performed many household tasks, helped the poor and needy. A virtuous woman and her children called her Blessed and husband also and he praised her. Proverbs 31:10-31. Some discussion was made and some comparisons of todays woman.

The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Nelda Gary. Those attending were Mmes. Fay Owings, Maunia Copeland, Wanda Payne, Betty Green, Sopha Eudy,

A MESSAGE OF THANKS

A message of thanks to all our dear friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness and sympathy you extended to me at the time of Dana's passing. Since moving here in August of 1977 with my wife, Dana, I have learned to love this special part of Texas and all the wonderful people I have gotten to know. I have lived all over the world and I believe this is the very best place in which to be. I feel very fortunate to be here. April 2 will be the 47th anniversary of Thornton Feed Mill. I have every intention of the mill being here another 47 years and expanding to serve your needs. Again let me thank you for your thoughtfulness and sup-
