Labor Day Telethon To Be Held Locally

Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy Benefit will be held locally at the Cisco Nursing Center, starting at 8:00 p.m. Sunday, September 6, and going straight through until 6:30 p.m. Monday, September 7.

The local Telethon will be under the supervision of Mae Green, Activity Director for Cisco Nursing Center.

There will be three telephones open continuously around the clock from 8:00 p.m. September 6th until 6:30 p.m. September 7th. The following numbers will be open for any area residents to call in to pledge donations: 442-2521; 442-2523 and 442-2525.

This local Jerry Lewis Telethon produced over $700.00 in pledges last year. Director Mae Green is anticipating response of $1000.00 this year.

Your support of this worthy cause goes to relieve the distress of Muscular Dystrophy and fund research for a cure.

Don't forget to call your pledge in for this telethon. There will be volunteers on hand throughout the days and night on the dates mentioned.

Thirty Places Remain For CJC Macy's Tour

Only thirty places remain for the Thanksgiving week tour to New York City and the Macy's Parade. CJC officials have announced. The tour will accompany the Cisco Junior College Band and Wrangler Belles for their unprecedented fourth appearance in the nationally televised Turkey Day spectacular.

The tour is being coordinated by Mr. Eris Ritchie, former Band-Belles coordinator who has handled arrangements for previous trips for the Cisco group to New York, Washington, D.C. and elsewhere. Mr. Ritchie pointed out that approximately 200 extra tour places were originally available, and that 170-plus have already been taken. A total of 300, including the performing groups, are scheduled to make the trip.

"This is a terrific travel bargain for anyone interested in a trip of this kind," Ritchie said. "The $434 per person price, which includes all air and ground transportation, hotel, some meals, entertainment, and sight-seeing, is $50 LESS than the current price for a coach-class plane ticket from D/FW Airport to New York and back.

The group will depart early in the morning of Tuesday, November 24, and will go to D/FW Airport via chartered buses. They will fly to New York on American Airlines and will spend four days and three nights in the "Big Apple," returning late Friday night, the 27th.

They will be housed at the Southgate Towers Apartment Hotel, across the street from Madison Square Garden and two blocks from Macy's. Each room has a kitchenette, which is an unusual feature for a modern-day hotel, Ritchie said. Their ground transportation in New York will be by bus and subway, and the group will be near enough to several destinations to walk, he pointed out.

Some of the special features of the tour, all included in the package price, include: a full course Thanksgiving dinner and floor show at the Riverboat Restaurant "under" the Empire State Building; a ticket to the observation deck of the famous Empire State Building; a guided tour of the Radio City Music Hall, along with Christmas spectacular at the RCMH; admission to "The New York Experience," a multi-media show in Rockefeller Center; a Grey Line sightseeing tour of Manhattan; a ferry boat ride to the Statue of Liberty; and a guided tour of the United Nations Headquarters. There will also be walking tours of Rockefeller Center, St. Patrick's Cathedral, and Times Square, and of course the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

An optional feature available to those who want it is an orchestra section ticket to the award-winning Broadway musical, "Barnum," for Tuesday evening in New York. The Band-Belles group will be going to the musical, and others may accompany them by purchasing their own tickets.

Tour participants will also have one or two entirely free evenings to go to the theater, to a sports event, or do whatever they like "on their own," Mr. Ritchie said.

Tickets On Sale For Lions Benefit Bowl

Tickets for the Fourth Annual Lions Club Benefit Football Bowl went on sale today according to Tom Brashier of the Ranger Lions, chairman of this year's game. Lions from the local clubs will be selling the tickets for the big grudge match between Cisco Junior College and Ranger Junior College to be played Saturday, September 26th, at 7:30 p.m. at Buckaroo Stadium in Breckenridge.

The Benefit Bowl has grown into one of the biggest Charity fund raising projects among area Lions and this year promises to be even bigger with the participation of four more local communities. In addition to the Lions from Breckenridge, Carbon, Cisco and Ranger, the 1981 game welcomes the Lions from Albany, Baird, Clyde and Eastland.

During the last three years close to $20,000 has been raised by the Benefit Bowl for Lions charities. This money has gone to the Texas Lions Camp for Crippled, Blind and Diabetic Children, The District 2E-1 Eye Bank, the Lions-CARE program, the Lions International Foundation and local Lions projects.

The football game has all of the makings of being the best ever. Ranger rolled up big victories in 1978 and 1979 en route to their two best seasons in history, victories in the Beef Bowl and Rodeo Bowls, a national championship and a 21-game winning streak. That streak came to an end last year at the hands of Cisco in the Benefit Bowl. Cisco used that momentum to propel themselves to their finest season in recent memory, and a national ranking. Ranger slumped to a 9-2 season and began looking forward to a return match with Cisco.

To say there is bad blood between the two schools is an understatement. Although they used to play each other twice in a season, the games got so hard on both coaches that Coach Bill Anderson of Cisco and Jerry Trice of Ranger reduced the rivalry to a once a year melee. Now the Benefit Bowl has truly become a special contest for the players of both teams, one that the squads view as a "real" bowl game. At any rate it is no longer just another scrimmage for the Rangers, because with a victory this year Cisco could even the series.

Area Lions urge all football fans to get their tickets now for this great match-up and remind you that all proceeds go to charitable works. Ask a local Lion for tickets and he'll see that you get them. Tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students in advance. All tickets will be $3.00 at the gate so buy early and save.

AARP To Hold Game Night

There will be a game night for the AARP at the Corral Room Thursday, September 3, at 6:30 p.m.

Massey Reunion To Be Sunday

A covered dish meal will be served at noon after church services are dismissed.

Scranton Musical

The Scranton musical will be held Saturday night, September 5, at 7:30 at the Scranton Community Center. All area musicians are invited to attend and new musicians are especially in-

Loboes To Open 1981 Season With Haskell

The 1981 Loboes of Cisco High School will open their football season as hosts to the Haskell Indians at Cisco's Chesley Field Friday night. Kickoff is scheduled for 8:00 p.m.

The Loboes have used their two scrimmages to prepare themselves for their first game of the season. A large crowd was on hand last Friday night as the Loboes closed out their pre-season with a controlled scrimmage against Wylie High School. The defense showed tremendous improvement over their previous scrimmage and the offense continued to move the ball. The coaches are hoping that the team improves as much this week as they did the past week.

The Cisco coaches have scouted the Haskell Indians in their two scrimmages against Anson and Archer

City High Schools and the coaches have been impressed by their quickness and hitting ability. "They are not real big," said Coach Jim Puryear, "but they sure do like to mix it up and get after people. They will be a typical Haskell Indian team that always means trouble for their opponent." The other coaches agreed that the Loboes must be mentally and physically prepared for a tough game Friday night.

The Varsity squad is not complete at this time, as different combinations of players will be used before District play starts October 2nd, but the squad for this week's game will be composed of the following players from this year's roster.

Those players are: #10 Randall Rattan, 185 lb. Junior, offensive quarterback and defensive secondary; #11 Danny Garcia, 140 lb. Senior, offensive wideout, defensive secondary; #13 Doug Hendricks, 135 lb. Sophomore, offensive quarterback, defensive secondary; #14 Mike Gallegos, 210 lb. Junior, offensive end, defensive linebacker; #24 Jason Potter, 175 lb. Junior, offensive guard, defensive secondary; #25 Shane Posey, 165 lb. Senior, offensive fullback, defensive linebacker; #31 Brian Fleming, 165 lb. Junior, offensive guard, defensive secondary; #33 Gary Speegle, 185 lb.

Cheerleaders for this year include Carla Hitt, Gayla Gwinn, Velia Lopez, Carol Endebrock and Tracey Couch.

Superintendent is James Couch, principal is Mike Turner and band director is Alvin Young.

C.J.C. Offers Ceramics Course

Ceramics has become the fastest growing hobby in the country in the last few years. Ceramic shops are springing up everywhere as people discover the fun of creating a work of art out of a lump of clay. The process of transforming something so inherently unlovely as "mud" into something colorful and functional is fascinating. Cisco Junior College offers a ceramic course that begins with the basic methods of hand building and proceeds to work on the potter's wheel. The student also learns the fundamentals of glaze composition and firing. Students are encouraged to create functional objects such as teapots and cups, lidded jars, bowls, vases and other items which have a practical use.

The first method that the student learns is the pinch method where he pushes and manipulates the clay with his fingertips until he has an even-sided, symmetrical pot. This primary method of hand building is the most primitive and natural manipulation of clay. This method carries over into every type of pottery making and familiarizes the student with the nature (limitations and possibilities) of the medium. The student learns, at this initial stage, to squeeze the particles of clay together rather than pulling them apart.

The second method of pottery making that the student experiences is the coil method, which has long been the chief method of the American Indian. The student learns how to roll out the coils, seal them as the layers rise, and control the wetness of the clay. The student determines the size and shape of the pot and makes a template pattern which helps him to assure the symmetry of the pot. The student is made aware of the different ways of treating the surface of a coil pot to create interesting, decorative effects.

Another method of hand building is the use of a clay slab. The student uses a rolling pin to roll out a slab of uniform thickness, then cuts it into the desired shapes, and by using slip (liquid clay) glues the slabs together to make boxes and round, oval, or even free-form containers. Of course, this method of making pottery is very quick and can be used in combination with the coil and pinch methods. A wide variety of shapes can be achieved by paddling the clay with a wooden paddle. One contemporary potter even makes chairs using large slabs of clay. There is a great range of decorative possibilities using the slab method. After the pot is formed it can be carved into or impressed by various tools, or shapes can be cut away to achieve a delicate sculptured quality. This is also a favorite way for ceramic sculptors to construct their work. The sculptor forms his hollow piece by joining slabs or large coils, then he carves into or adds on clay to refine his subject.

The last method of pottery construction with which the student experiments is the potter's wheel. The student must be instructed in how to sit at the wheel, how to attach the clay to the wheel head, the various speeds that are best for centering and raising a pot, hand positions for opening and bringing up the sides, the best consistency for "throwing" a pot, and how to cut the pot off the wheel. This process may seem frightening to a new student, but it usually turns out to be the favorite method of pottery making.

The student learns to follow glaze recipes and to experiment to create new glazes. The student learns the basics of firing, although the actual firing is done by the teacher. Various decorative glazing techniques are explored so that the student may become more familiar with nearly all of the methods of pottery decoration.

The student is introduced to ceramic sculpture during the course and creates an original sculpture using the slab method. The students are taught to simplify and to incorporate the inherent qualities of the clay into their chosen subject matter. This piece too is glazed and fired with a simple glaze that does not detract from the form.

Cisco Junior College has recently purchased a new kiln which is capable of firing pieces up to two and one-half feet tall and about two feet wide. The department uses stoneware clay and fires to cone 6 which matures the stoneware clay. The ceramics department has three electric potter's wheels and many kick-type wheels. It also has clay which the student may purchase at a reasonable fee. The glaze materials are all furnished without cost to the student by the school.

Ceramics is a fascinating subject with great potential as a lifetime hobby for the person who enjoys working with his hands and creating an object of utilitarian function and aesthetic quality.

Registration for the fall semester will continue through September 10 during regular office hours (8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.) at the Registrar's office at the Cisco campus.

Letters to the Editor

Oh Boy! Am I excited! A new season of high school football kicks off this Friday night. And Am I ready! I've already dusted off my stadium seats, washed out my thermos for my hot chocolate, and refolded those tattered and torn blankets I use for those cold windy Friday nights. I'm still looking for my megaphone because, boy oh boy, I am going to need it this year.

The reason I'm so excited is that I've watched the Loboes practices for the last three weeks. Plus, I've watched them in two scrimmages. The Loboes have impressed me. They have a lot of talent and the coaches to bring forth that talent. I'm not one to make predictions, but what I've seen so far gives me a deep down gutty feeling that this could well be the year the Cisco Loboes howl all the way to a state championship title.

If the Loboes do howl this year then we, the fans, need to howl with them. We can't be as passive as we have been in the past. We must yell for our Loboes on every play in every game. The noise we make from the stands will inspire our Loboes to play harder and better. It will discourage our opponents. We can become the twelfth player on the field for our team if we actively support them.

S.M.U. may have their Mustang Mania, be we at Cisco need to have a little Lobo Lunacy. So if I, or someone else, ask you to join the Cisco Booster Club, please do. Be a part of that twelfth player who has the Lobo Lunacy.

The Cisco City Council has requested that the Cisco Press publish the following letter that was sent to some residents of the Park Drive area:

August 27, 1981

Mr. Orville L. "Robbie" Robinson
Mr. Herschel Penn
Raymond Hounshell
Park Drive
Cisco, Texas 76437

Dear Gentlemen,
During the Tuesday night regular meeting of the Cisco City Council, a resident of the Park Drive area told the council of the effort that you and other citizens living around the park have made in keeping the park mowed and looking good during the spring and summer months of this year.

The council would like to commend you and the other fine citizens for your civic-mindedness and for your pride in your own neighborhood of town. Certainly this was above and beyond the call of duty for you to take on the upkeep of city-owned property, but we do thank you very much. Our city crews have been spread quite thin the past few months, and in instances such as yours when citizens have pitched in to help the town look better, we all have benefited.

Again, our sincere thanks to you all.

Cordially,
Eris Ritchie
Mayor

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

One of the most urgent tasks awaiting Congress after the Labor Day recess will be passage of a new farm bill, which will set forth federal agriculture policy for the next four years.

The aim of a federal farm policy is to induce elements of predictability into an inherently unpredictable business. Agriculture products are subject to some of the most unpredictable free market conditions prevailing. Prices can fluctuate widely, depending on supply, demand and other forces in the economy.

Yet, the farmer must rely on many other segments of the economy which are regulated -- labor, energy and a host of industries which manufacture needed equipment and supplies. That means his costs do not fluctuate with the price he receives for his product.

In order to make it possible for the farm to stay in business -- and thus continue to supply adequate amounts of food for our people and the export markets -- the federal government must provide basic economic stability through its policies.

From the Great Depression until the 1960s, farm policy involved direct federal involvement in farmers' planting and marketing decisions. During the 1960s, the program evolved into a more equitable system of price supports, which allow the marketplace to allocate supplies. In essence, price supports now normally are used to provide a minimum price floor, and to allow market forces to determine commodity prices.

Under this system, the farmer has assurance of a minimum price, which gives him a basis for making intelligent market decisions.

This year, farm programs -- as all federal non-defense programs -- will be reduced somewhat and become the subject of greater scrutiny.

The Senate Agriculture Committee has gone to great lengths to produce a bill which maintains a reasonable farm program and still does not result in unacceptably high federal outlays. This is essential, because if we are unable to control federal spending, the economic chaos which will result will hurt agriculture just as it will every other segment of the economy.

Both the Administration and the Congress are keenly aware of the importance of agriculture, which continues to be the nation's largest industry. In fact, economic activity generated by agriculture accounts for 20 percent of our gross national product, employs one fifth of our labor force, and represents about one-fifth of all U.S. exports to foreign nations.

In Texas, every dollar in farm sales generates more than $3 to the general economy of the state. Texas leads the nation in production of cattle, cotton and sorghum, and is the second-leading state in agriculture cash receipts.

Therefore, I can assure you I will work for prompt passage of the farm bill. Failure to pass this legislation by September 30 could cause chaos in agriculture as well as the overall economy, because on that date, the current bill expires and without a new one we will revert to the 1949 act. Both the administrative headaches and the cost of going back to the old system make it unthinkable to allow that to happen. While stop-gap action likely would continue the status quo, Congress must not delay definitive action on this vital issue.

Congressman
Charles W. Stenholm

Congressional Comment

WASHINGTON, D.C. — There is an old axiom, long valued in our part of the country, that contends that "A man is only as good as his word." In the eyes of a cynical world, beset with conflicting examples, that might seem a naive rule of ethics long outgrown by modern society.

In light of the current Air Traffic Controllers illegal strike, however, it is an ethic that deserves a second look. Is it naive to have expected the 13,000-plus air controllers to honor their oath to their government not to participate in a strike, rather than walking out on their jobs in the first "declared" national strike against the federal government?

Is it naive to question the right of any small band of public employees to place the safety and economic welfare of the American public they supposedly serve in danger in such a fashion?

Is it naive to have expected them to follow established procedures to seek redress for what are, undeniably, some justifiable complaints concerning their unique job situations?

Is it naive for the American public to look to their government and expect it to make its own employees obey the law?

One of the controllers who chose to stay on the job, rather than participate in the controversial strike, answered those questions best when he explained why he chose to remain in place. "How can I teach my young son respect for the law if I am not willing to obey the law myself?" he asked.

This is an important moral question that every American, not just an individual segment of society no matter how dissatisfied or how justified they might be, must ask themselves. The loss of what have been considered traditional values of our country can be blamed on those who cannot answer, without reservation, without hesitation, "Respect for all law begins with me."

I have some sympathy for the families of the air controllers who have now been fired (I really think that, through their actions, they voluntarily quit) from their positions by President Reagan, but I feel the President had no alternative but to enforce the law regarding the oath taken not to strike and I support him fully. Public employees should (and do) have the right to present their grievances to the proper officials, but I do believe it is important to realize that strikes by public employees disrupt many of the essential services that our society depends upon. Each federal employee must realize that when they are employed by the government, strikes are illegal.

The law must be upheld. If the law is considered unjust, our system of government provides adequately for changes. It may take time, but the alternative is anarchy.

Able Disabled Vietnam Vet Directs Excavation Project

Craig Thomas of Spokane, Wash., grievously wounded in Vietnam 12 years ago, today typifies the spirit that stimulated naming 1981 as the International Year of Disabled Persons.

An Army infantryman, Thomas was helping clear a mine field when a mine exploded blowing off his right leg. The left leg was so smashed it had to be removed later.

In addition, he suffered shrapnel wounds to his upper body that were so severe doctors said he would never be able to use his left hand and arm.

Following agonizing months in a hospital recovering from his wounds, Thomas attended college under the Veterans Administration's rehabilitation program and received an associate degree in drafting.

Senator
Lloyd Bentsen
Watching Washington

The United States currently outdoes any other country in the world in export sales of high-technology products like aircraft and computers.

But in most areas of international trade, Americans have fallen into the "underdog" position over the past decade. And we're in danger of losing our supremacy even in high-technology trade because of the steady inroads which countries like Japan and West Germany have made in this lucrative export area.

At my request, the staff of the Joint Economic Committee has released an analysis of America's role in the international economy.

Quite simply, this report stresses that the competitive edge which the United States has been renowned for is fast slipping away.

The fact is that for the five years 1976-80 the United States bought some $131 billion more in goods from foreign countries than we sold to them. Last year alone our trade deficit came in at almost $28 billion.

Goods stamped "Made in the U.S.A.," once coveted around the world, now are bypassed in favor of goods of equal quality from countries like Japan and West Germany.

Throughout the '70s, for example, West Germany surpassed the United States as the leading exporter of manufactured goods. Germany's lead, a narrow $1.4 billion in 1970, rose to $33.9 billion in 1979. The value of Japan's manufactured exports rose from 62 percent of the U.S. level in 1970 to 85 percent in 1979.

Industrialized nations, however, aren't the only countries giving the United States a run for its trading dollar, the JEC study notes. Countries long viewed as "underdeveloped" are successfully competing with us to sell sophisticated products on the world marketplace. These countries include Singapore, Hong Kong, Taiwan and, to a lesser extent, nations like India and Brazil.

As a result, now—more than at any other time in our history—

Notes From The V.A.

The Veterans Administration's third annual Olin E. Teague Award for outstanding rehabilitation of war wounded veterans has been presented to Eric Blom, Ph.D., and Mark I. Singer, M.D., for their development of a simplified, yet revolutionary process for voice restoration. Use of their "duckbill" prosthesis provides almost immediate voice rehabilitation.

the Washington Water Power Company in Spokane. He was described as having exceptional initiative and as "a competitive fighter...one that doesn't give up."

Executives at Washington Water Power are also pleased with his professional progress and have assigned him to help renovate and redesign the underground heating system for Washington State's second largest city.

the future of our export industry is at stake. Millions of American jobs depend on its vitality; one out of six U.S. manufacturing jobs involves an export product.

We need to boost that percentage, among many reasons, because of projected growth in our work force. The JEC report predicts that the U.S. labor force will expand at the rate of 1.5 percent a year during the 1980s. Most other major exporting nations, in contrast, have stable or declining populations and work forces.

If we really mean to boost U.S. exports, we've got to exhibit more aggressive sales tactics; I was pleased recently when the President adopted my suggestion that U.S. ambassadors and other diplomatic representatives intensify their efforts to promote the sale of U.S. goods abroad. Our diplomats have been very lax about this in past years.

Beyond question this initiative will be of benefit. But it will take a lot more work to reverse our dismal balance of trade.

I'll continue my efforts in the Senate to eliminate barriers that discourage American companies from selling their products abroad. We must work to lower not only barriers raised by our foreign competitors but barriers and red tape that our own government has put in place over the years.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
I am writing to appraise you of an egregious waste of citizen funds in one of the most affluent areas in the country.
The U.S. Postal Service, which recently increased stamp prices from 15 cents to 18 cents and plans to go to 20 or 23 cents, is about to start building what amounts to a resort training site in my State Legislative District in Potomac, Md. The site is within two miles of Congressional Country Club, Burning Tree Country Club, and Bethesda Country Club in what Federal District Court Judge Harold Greene called "an enclave of exclusivity, where the average income is $45,000. There, the Postal Service spent $6 plus million dollars for eight acres of land in a residential area next to homes selling for $300,000 and $700,000. The first thing the Service did was put in a cocktail lounge. An Olympic-size swimming pool and large gymnasium were already on the property. The Service's environmental assessment statement says they plan to build eight tennis courts, a jogging trail, and a 22,000 square foot recreational area. The training resort director Dr. Buttz said a par three golf course is also planned. Selected postal supervisors from around the country will come for six week periods by air and $25 taxi rides. No public transportation will be available to the panoramic vistas of this "Taj Mahal" postal training resort. It is an outrageous example of Government waste.

While the "cash-on-the-barrelhead" price for construction is $28.3 million, the Service will finance it over a period of years, bringing construction costs to well over $50 million, including interest. Our stamp increases will pay the bill. The land and golden-domed building on it already, which puts "Tara" to shame, was purchased by the Service on October 2, 1980, just before the election without any public hearings. To me, this project is the epitome of Government extravagance—and it is within ten miles of the White House!

I was one of a handful of Maryland elected Republicans who supported President Reagan in last year's primaries. I still strongly support him. Nevertheless, this postal training resort violates his pledge to root out government waste. Hopefully, your many readers will write the President and their Congressman to protest.

Thank you,
Sincerely,
Robin Ficker, Member
Maryland House of Delegates

The Dallas Cowboys have trimmed their squad to the regular season limit of 45 players as they prepare for their opening game against the Washington Redskins Sunday at Washington.

The team has continued to improve as the Cowboys beat the Houston Oilers 28 to 20 in Saturday's final exhibition game.

Several starting and backup positions have been settled in the final week of pre-season, and the team has made some surprising trades and cuts of veterans.

Coach Tom Landry has elected to keep eight first year rookies and one second year rookie, DE Don Smerek, who was on the injured reserve last year. The other rookies are WR Doug Donley, OG Glen Fitenor, OT Howard Richards, OT Steve Wright, MLB Danny Spradlin, CB Everson Walls, CB Ron Fellows, and FS Mike Downs.

Rookie Mike Downs is to start at safety along with Charlie Waters and their backup is Benny Barnes. Walls and Fellows will backup cornerback starters Steve Wilson and Dennis Thurman, who was at safety last year.

In the final squad reduction, OC John Fitzgerald and DB Dexter Clinkscale were added to the injured reserve list that already included DB Randy Hughes, LB Bill Roe and DE Ron Spears, a rookie.

A player must be injured badly enough to be out at least four weeks to be placed on injured reserve. The team retains the players, but when they are not included in the final 45 player squad, they can not play this year unless they are first cut and are not claimed by another team.

See M.H. Perry for HOSPITALIZATION INSURANCE 629-1566 or 629-1095 104 N. Lamar-Eastland

Defensive back Aaron Mitchell was traded to Tampa Bay and DE Bruce Thornton was cut along with rookie LB Scott Pelleur.

I made a wrong guess on my last week's rookie predictions. I predicted that Pelleur would make the team and that Wright would be cut, but Wright stayed and Pelleur was cut.

Jay Saldi, Tony Hill, and Tim Newsome are questionable for the game, in which the Cowboy's new uniforms will first be worn.

As the result of pre-season trades, the Cowboys have four extra future or conditional future draft picks. But none are high.

Six linebackers and six defensive linemen are being kept along with the seven defensive backs.

The starting linebackers return and are backed by Guy Brown, Spradlin, and Anthony Dickerson.

Also returning are the defensive line starters, except that John Dutton is now a full time tackle as Larry Cole has retired. The backups are Larry Bethea and Don Smerek, a 6-7, 260 pounder.

On offense, Donley is the fourth wide receiver, and there are some changes in the offensive line. Robert Shaw at center is the only new face in the starting line. But the backup, which number five, are Kurt Peterson and Fitenor at guard and Andy Frederick, Richards, and Wright at tackle. Starters Tom Raffer-and Jim Cooper can also play center.

The large number of offensive tackles on the team, along with team G.M. Tex Schramm's statement that they will continue to look for a good punter as Danny White does the punting, encourages speculation that as rookie Richards develops as a backup tackle, Frederick may be cut to enable the team to add a punter at mid-season.

WORD of GOD

Have you accepted Jesus as your personal Saviour? Well, there is more, much more! - you can be filled with His Holy Spirit.

But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

THIRD ANNUAL FUNDAY FESTIVITIES HONORING CHARLES STENHOLM—Preparations have been completed for the Third Annual Funday Festivities at the Ericksdahl Picnic Grounds near Stamford. The event is scheduled for Saturday, September 12, 1981, and is the principal fund raising event planned for Congressman Stenholm. Friends and supporters of Stenholm are invited to attend. This is the third Funday that Stenholm and his wife Cindy, along with their three children, have returned to Texas to visit with friends and supporters from the thirty-three county 17th Congressional District. The event is sponsored by the Friends of Charlie and the Stenholm for Congress Committee. Stenholm is presently Coordinator of the much publicized Conservative Democratic Forum. He serves on the house of Representatives' Agriculture Committee and Small Business Committee. Congressman Stenholm will address the gathering at Funday concerning issues that face Congress at the present time. Tickets for the Third Annual Funday Festivities and barbeque are $10.00 each and can be purchased by contacting the Stenholm for Congress Committee Office, P.O. Box 1032, Stamford, Texas 79553, or by calling 915-773-5521. In case of bad weather, activities will be held in the Ericksdahl Luthern Church.

Cattle Need Supplemental Minerals in Diet

COLLEGE STATION--Whether on lush green pastures in East Texas or on drier ranges in West Texas, cows need mineral supplement.

"Most cows don't get enough phosphorus, magnesium and potassium from grazing, so they should be fed a mineral mix free choice the year round," says Dr. R.Q. Landers, Jr., of San Angelo, area range specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"While dry cows sometimes get enough minerals during the spring when forages are making good growth, that's seldom the case for cows with calves," contends the specialist. "Studies in both Schleicher County in West Texas and Hidalgo County in South Texas bear this out."

Phosphorus, in particular, is generally short in dry forage, says Landers. Minimum requirements are 0.18 percent of dry forage for dry cows and 0.18 to 0.39 percent for those nursing calves, depending on productivity.

As far as magnesium is concerned, dry cows need forage with 0.04 to 0.1 percent of this mineral while those with calves need about 0.18 percent. "Range forages often provide enough magnesium for dry cows but certainly not for those with calves," says Landers.

Potassium may be adequate for both dry and lactating cows during most of the year but generally falls below the minimum level during dry winter conditions, notes the range specialist. These requirements are 0.6 to 0.8 percent of the dry forage.

To deal with these mineral deficiencies, Landers suggests providing a free-choice mineral mix that contains 8 to 12 percent phosphorus in the form of dicalcium phosphate or monosodium Christi, Rocky, and Brad are very special to me—they're "my kids" and they're three of the bravest, warmest, and liveliest children I know. Unfortunately, they share another trait in common: each is afflicted by a neuro-muscular disease. And their futures—and the futures of thousands of other beautiful children—are not bright because there are still no cures or even effective treatments for most neuromuscular diseases. The only hope for "my kids" lies in MDA's intensive worldwide research program.

That's why we're having another Telethon this Labor Day weekend. The money we hope to raise will mean that we can continue to support—and increase—the work being done by the best scientists and clinicians to find the answers to muscular dystrophy and related disorders.

The fight against neuromuscular disease is everyone's battle, and—with your support—I know we're going to win it soon. So, don't miss our supershow—I promise you 21½ hours of great entertainment, exciting people and love, love, love...

RRC To Place Emphasis On Safety

AUSTIN--Railroad Commission Chairman Jim Nugent announced plans this week to place heavy emphasis on the public safety functions of the Commission's Gas Utilities Division in the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1. The Commission's plans will shift almost half of the Gas Utilities Division's work force to safety and engineering tasks. Most of these employees are field inspectors charged with locating dangerous situations and working local authorities to find remedies.

Nugent said an array of troubling statistics and a number of recent incidents posing "imminent danger to life and limb" convinced the Commission of the urgent need to focus additional attention on safety problems.

"The Commission has had the onerous duty of ordering communities to shut down their natural gas systems in the middle of winter because of immediate danger to schools, churches and residents," Nugent said.

"Our inspectors have found gas concentrations of up to 60 and 70 percent under churches, in the walls of public schools and even under one city hall," he said.

Nugent said the problems result from the natural deterioration of old natural gas lines.

Information gathered by the Railroad Commission shows that one out of every five city-owned natural gas systems loses at least 30 percent of the gas it purchases. And the cost is passed along to customers.

"The tragedy of these losses," Nugent said, "is that most of these systems serve small, rural communities with high concentrations of retired and low-income families - in other words, the people who can least afford to pay for this lost gas."

The present seven gas safety districts of the Commission will be restructured to create an eighth district headquartered in Abilene. Under the plan, the Abilene district will encompass 234 local gas distribution systems and 448 pipeline transmission systems in 31 counties in the north-central part of the state.

The Commission also intends to develop the expertise needed to assist cities in seeking funds to rebuild or repair hazardous systems.

The plans described by Nugent will be implemented next week at the start of the new fiscal year when increased funding from the state legislature becomes available.

The legislative appropriation totals $1,007,000, of which $832,000 are state funds and $175,000 are federal monies.

Mangum Baptist Holds Social Aug. 28th

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Justice, south-east of Cisco, was the setting for an August 28th social for the Young Adult Class of Mangum Baptist Church. About 65 persons, which included families and friends of members of the class, gathered at 8:00 p.m. for a delicious outdoor meal

Barbeque was served, as well as beans, hot rolls, and a large assortment of salads and various other dishes. Afterward some of the guests played ball or a variety of games, while others enjoyed visiting.

Those attending were: Pastor of the Mangum Church, Dwaine Clower and family, the Tim Webb family, Sherry and Robert Livingston, the Gary Waller Family, Tom Ishmael and family, Laura Clark and family, Viola Payne, Ethlene Johnson, Jimmie Johnson and family, Jerry and Elna Brittan, Jimmie Cate and Bobbie Skinner

Extension Homemakers Gather in Austin for State-Wide Meet

Century III-A Decade for Development" will be the theme for the Texas Extension Homemakers Association (TEHA) statewide annual convention September 7-10 at the Marriott Hotel in Austin. Attending from Eastland County will be Mrs. Zelma Lusk, Mrs. Berniece Tankersley, and Mrs. Dorothy Underwood. Also attending will be Mrs. Janet Thomas, Extension Agent representative from District 8.

Special speakers will include Texas First Lady, Mrs. Rita Clements; Mrs. Charline Warren of Longview, Washington, president of the National Extension Homemakers Council; and Chancellor Frank Hubert of Texas A&M University.

In addition, other special guests will be Robinson Risner with the DARE Foundation, Inc. of Universal City, Texas who is presently serving on the governor's "Fight Against Drug Abuse" committee, and Jack Yianitisis, Success Dynamics, of Houston.

Mrs. Alicia de Valdes of Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico, founder and director of the "Alicia Project," a program designed to help poor people in Mexico through self help, will address the Cultural Arts and International Understanding workshop during the state meet, according to Mrs. Billie McGraw of Raymondville, Texas, TEHA president.

Delegates to the meeting will attend workshops concerning citizenship and legislation, cultural arts and international understanding, family life and family resources, membership and leadership, safety and health. Mrs. Dorothy Underwood of Eastland County is State Safety and Health Committee Chairman. Mrs. Underwood will be chairman of the state safety and health workshop. Due to large-number turnout to workshops, two learning sessions have been added to the agenda for non-delegates: one on community programs and one on communications and public relations.

Convention delegates serve as research persons in their respective home-town communities for the year following the statewide meet. Throughout the year in their home communities, they will share information secured at the convention to benefit more than 20,000 additional Extension Homemakers in Texas.

In addition, they will promote countywide activities for the public that will reach thousands more homemakers and their families.

Other activities during the convention will include a program presented by a group of foreign students dressed in their native costumes, along with a fashion showing and luncheon.

Special guest for the TEHA convention will be Jack Yianitisis with Success Dynamics of Houston. Yianitisis will address the group on "The Power Within You."

Lights from the Christian World

By: Josephine Cleveland

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."—Isaiah 40:31

J.B. Phillips in his translation of the Word says, "Don't let the world squeeze you into its own mold..." How do you stop it? The answer lies in the Word. You renew your mind by discovering what is the good and perfect will of God for your life. You remove it, repair it, and return it to good condition.

Jesus tells us that the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater; so shall every word that proceedeth out of my mouth.—Luke 4:4

The Word of God is sent to accomplish in you the same thing that moisture accomplishes in the earth. It will bear fruit in your life. Peace replaces worry and anxiety—contentment is substituted for discontent—joy for sorrow—sickness for disease.

Christ desires, "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul (mind) prospereth—III John 2"

Renew your mind through His Word and you will become more and more like His image.

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

The weather still hot and dry. Missed the rains again. Guess my neighbors are not living right! The nights and mornings are nice and fallish and makes us realize that winter it not far behind. Dove season opens next week and another sign of fall is the bright yellow school bus that takes the Putnam children to school at Baird.

Our community has been saddened again by the death of another of our esteemed citizens, Burette Ramsey, who was found dead in his yard yesterday morning. Mr. Ramsey was born and reared in the Putnam community. He will be greatly missed. We extend our deepest sympathy to the family.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Lee White, who is a resident of an Eastland Nursing Home, had the misfortune to break her hip recently. She is not doing very well at last report. Clinton Waddell and Bud Flemming both spent several days at Abilene hospitals the past week. They are both doing fine.

Mrs. Ollie Burnam underwent surgery at Harris Hospital at Fort Worth Friday. The last report she had come out of the operation fine and was doing as well as could be expected.

Word has been received here of the death of Calvin King's sister in Florida.

Mrs. Marie Maxwell and Mrs. Aubrey Corn of Baird flew from DFW to Florida last week for a long vacation. Mrs. Corn's daughter lives there. Marie has closed her beauty shop while she is away.

Rev. Travis Crutchfield of HSU, Abilene is filling the pulpit at the First Baptist Church. The members have installed ceiling fans in the church which makes a very pleasant atmosphere.

Jack Ramsey and Maxie Solomon made a trip through Southwest Texas this week. They report very hot but lots of rain around the Fort Stockton area.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Taylor of Sweetwater, Kirk and Barry of Texas Tech and Mr. and Mrs. Rick Sales of Fort Worth visited Mrs. R.B. Taylor and the Arlin Bints near Cisco over the weekend. They attended the wedding of Gerry Webb and Dianna Tipton of Cisco Saturday afternoon.

The descendants of the John Blakley family formerly of Belle Plain including the Taylor family will have a family reunion at the Baird Community Center Sunday, Sept. 6. We invite all our friends to come and be with us.

VALLECITO, Colo.—Leaving Cisco for a brief Colorado vacation and visit with relatives in 95 degree weather on Aug. 23rd, it was quite a change (and relief) to encounter cooler temperatures in a matter of two days.

We had delayed our departure a few days for repairs to the auto air conditioner, but difficulty in finding parts prompted us to head out with the windows rolled down. It wasn't bad in the mornings and downright discomfort didn't begin until two or three o'clock. It wasn't unbearable unless you stopped.

Spent the first night at Clovis, New Mexico. It was comfortable when you got out of the sun, and after sundown the temperature dropped fast. You needed a blanket for comfortable sleeping with air-conditioning in a travel trailer.

Next day, we drove some 300 miles to Chama, New Mexico—just before you get into Colorado. Parked about 5 p.m., you didn't need air conditioning inside the trailer. And the temperature was around 40 during the night.

Chama is a delightful little town dedicated to the tourist. They have a picturesque setting for the village with mountain peaks on three sides. The CoC has an office in the middle of the town to provide you with any travel help you might need. They have good sight-seeing, pine trees, trout streams and good weather.

Leaving Chama next morning, we drove some 50 miles to Pagosa Springs, Colo. which is another delightful city to see and visit. It's bigger than Chama with a nice golf course, mountains, streams and the lake.

Forty or so miles on west, we came to the Vallecito Resort, a travel trailer park with two hundred or so parking places with full hookups ($7 per day). Heated water, $5.00 per barrel. Flag Race—$5.00 and Poles—$5.00.

Break-Away Roping—$7.00; Barrels—$5.00; Flag Race—$5.00 and Poles—$5.00.

for nearly a week of visiting with relatives who have a cabin on Lake Vallecito, which was formed by damming up a river for flood control and conservation purposes.

In the mountains of the area, snow falls some seven or eight feet deep in winter and the spring thaw fills the lake. Trout and pike are prizes for a good many fishermen visiting the area each year. We met folks in the trailer park who spend from June 1 until Oct. 1 there every year. And trailer park spaces are scarce in mid-summer.

A highlight for summer visitors is a trip via the Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad. You leave at 9 a.m. from Durango and ride the mini-train some 50 miles through rugged hills and mountains to Silverton, which had its beginning in the silver era of the 1880s. After the mines gave up most of their silver, the city became a ghost town of sorts.

You spend several hours in Silverton to eat lunch and look around. You learn that Silverton had a remarkable saloon and red light district and that Bat Masterson is among the ex-town marshalls. The town is a registered national historic district (which Cisco is in the process of becoming). Literally thousands of vacationers and rail buffs ride in to Silverton each year.

If you're there in your trailer, you can spend a few days seeing nearby ghost towns and taking in events like their Iron Horse Bike Race, mountain foot race, fireman's dance, hardrocker holidays, and the like. It's all guaranteed to interest and attract the tourist.

Next stop was south some 250 miles to Albuquerque, which is New Mexico's largest city. A relatively new city, Albuquerque has a nice Spanish influence in buildings that is pleasing to the eye. Days are pretty warm but the nights are dandy.
