The first annual Cisco Lake Fishing Fellowship Tournament, sponsored by the First United Methodist Church, will be held Saturday, July 10. There will be prizes given in several categories as well as ribbons presented. An overall tournament winner will be designated with his or her name being inscribed on a trophy which will then be displayed during the year at the church.

Registration for the community wide event will be available during the Sunday morning worship services, July 4th, as well as at the church office (442-1334) during the week.

There is no set registration fee, however this project is sponsored on behalf of the overall ministry of the church. Therefore, a donation is requested with the donation going towards the repayment of the loan on the van owned by the church.

Fishing will begin no earlier than 6:00 a.m. the morning of the 10th at Lake Cisco. There will be weigh-ins held throughout the day with the final weigh-in at 8:00 p.m. Trophies and prizes will be awarded Sunday evening at 6:00 p.m. during the church-wide picnic.

Caudle Team Wins Pro-Am Tourney

A team captained by David Caudle of Bronte posted a score of 163 to win first honors in a July the Fourth weekend pro-am golf tournament at the Cisco Country Club last Saturday afternoon.

Scores were earned on points - three for a birdie, two for par and one for a bogie - and the Caudle team had a one-point margin over the Kevin Winnett team that posted a 162 for second place. Third was won with 158 points by the Delbert Schaefer team, while the Bobby Smith team had a 158 for fourth place.

Playing with Caudle were Dorothy Farnsworth, Fred Wende and Flo Robinson. They received 34 golf balls for the victory. Winnett's team included George and Pat Owens, and Gene Abbott. On Schaefer's team were Jeff Graham, Ruth Pugliese and Ed Wende.

Bobby Smith, captain of the fourth place team, had the day's best individual score. He scored 54 points. Dorothy Farnsworth was next with 49 and Bennie Nichols had 48.

Forty-eight players made up eight teams in the event.

Bill Austin, Jr., is Senex, a wealthy Roman, in the play, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" which opens Thursday, July 8, at the award-winning Roof Garden Dinner Theatre at the Laguna Hotel. This musical comedy by Larry Gelbart and Burt Shevelove with music by Stephen Sondheim is the first large-scale musical to be presented at the Roof Garden. The show is an unusual combination of vaudeville and Latin comedy. With its cast of eighteen it is packed with energy, big musical numbers, and plenty of hilarious comic situations. Reservations are still available for most performances. Call (817) 442-2567 for reservations.

Local Golfers Win Tourney Honors

Bobby Smith and Delbert Schaefer, a team of local golfers, had a net score of 206 to win first place in the July the Fourth Partnership Golf Tournament that was played last Sunday and Monday at the Cisco Country Club.

Second place went to the team of Bennie Nichols and Bob Bennie who had a two-day score of 201. Tied for third place with scores of 187 were the teams of Bennie Nichols and Tracy Owens and Delbert Schaefer and Carrel Smith.

In the first flight, first place went to the Carrel Smith-Bobby Smith team that had a two-day score of 187. Second place went to the Ralph Glenn-Dorothy Farnsworth team with a score of 180. Third was won by B.J. Perry and Mary Ann Perry with a score of 171.

Winning the second flight was the team of Tim Jones and Bernard Campbell with a score of 174. Second went to Gerry Webb and D. Tipton, while third place was won by Ralph Glenn and Flo Robinson.

The third flight winning team was composed of Bobby McCoy and Mary Ann Smith with a score of 162. Second went to R. Harris and P. Harris, while third place was won by Robbie Robinson and Dorothy Farnsworth.

The team of Bennie

Nichols and John Schaal won the fourth flight with a score of 145. Second money went to Bob Bennie and Lamar Elton with a 144. Third was won by Flo and Robbie Robinson.

Rules permitted any player to have as many partners as he or she desired. Scoring was on the basis of points earned by individual players on each hole. Entry fee was $20 per team and winning teams received $60 for 1st play, $35 for 2nd and $20 for third.

Tournament Chairman Bobby Smith said the event was a good success.

Susan Schaefer of Cisco is the "orchestra" for the hilarious musical comedy, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," which opens Thursday, July 8, at the award-winning Roof Garden Dinner Theatre. Some seats are still available for all performances. Call (817) 442-2567 for reservations.

LL Giants Playing In District Event

The Giants, winners of the 1982 Little League in Cisco, were to meet the Mineral Wells league champions in a district tournament baseball game at 6 p.m. Tuesday (July 6) in Albany. The tournament will continue during the week.

Baird and Coleman were also on the Tuesday night schedule. Wednesday night, Weatherford meets Breckenridge, and Albany plays the winner of the Springtown-Clyde game. The semi-finals will be played Thursday night with the finals Friday night.

Robert Wages, the Giants' southpaw, was scheduled to pitch the Tuesday night game and, if the Giants win, Andy Woody will be on the mound Wednesday night.

Other members of the Giants team are Jason Phillips, Chad Flores, Dee Wages, Chucky Cochran, Chris Wylie, John Clark, John Srader, Bobby Lightfoot, Craig Mason and Bill Nunn.

A good crowd was expected to accompany the Cisco team to Albany for the opening and, if they win, subsequent games.

PREPARING A barbecue sandwich was the task of Lion Eddie McMillan, above, when this picture was made. The Cisco Lions Club's barbecue booth was busy from 11 a.m. until after the fireworks, serving sandwiches, drinks and sno-cones. (Staff Photo)

THE CROWD AT the City Swimming Pool had thinned out a bit when this picture was made at 2:30 p.m. Monday. A rain shower had moved in and somebody shouted to the swimmers "take cover or you'll get wet." The pool had a big crowd all day. (Staff Photo)

Bench Marks For 1982 School District

BUDGETS IN TEXAS
AUSTIN—Many Texas school districts have been raising property taxes more than necessary, a Texas Research League report says. Last fall school trustees adopted budgets increasing operating expenses by $718 million. The legislature provided $483 million of additional state aid and the budgets proposed to use $125 million of fund balances leaving $110 million to be paid from increased local property taxes.

But school districts boosted taxes by $325 million for operating purposes plus another $58 million increase for debt service.

The figures come from the latest issue of Bench Marks for School District Budgets in Texas, an annual publication of the League. The Texas Research League is a private, nonprofit, Austin-based corporation engaged in governmental research.

Locally, the Cisco, Eastland, Ranger ISD's tax levy was increased by 15.5% for Cisco, 48.2% for Eastland and 18.8% for Ranger for 1981-82 as compared to a 15.4 percent increase for the average school district in Texas.

School budgets adopted for 1981-82 called for spending

$2,175.65 per student for current operations. Cisco, Eastland, Rangers budget provided for $1556.61 for Cisco, $1781.34 for Eastland and $1802.93 for Ranger per student based on the 850 for Cisco, 784 for Eastland 569 for Ranger students in average daily attendance in 1980-81.

The average salary for classroom teachers paid by Cisco, Eastland and Ranger ISD in 1980-81 was $14307 for Cisco, $13965 for Eastland and $14768 for Ranger which was above the minimum salary prescribed by the state. The average among all school districts in Texas was $15,690 per classroom teacher, or 18.7 percent over the minimum. The legislature has increased the state minimum by $80 a month for 1981-82 and by another $88 a month for 1982-83.

There was an average of one teacher for 19.2 students in Cisco, 21.2 in Eastland and 17.2 in Ranger ISD compared to a statewide pupil-teacher ratio of 1 to 16.4. The pupil-teacher ratio is not the same thing as the average class size because teachers and students are not necessarily in class the same number of hours each day.

The report noted that the share of the total school payroll paid to classroom teachers has dropped from 73.4 percent of the total in 1969-70 to 60.9 cents of each payroll dollar last year as many more nonteaching personnel have been hired. Locally, classroom teachers were paid 65.7, 57.5 and 64.8 percent of the school payroll in 1980-81.

School districts are permitted to levy property taxes above the amount needed to pay the local share of the Foundation Program cost. In 1981-82 the average school district levied property taxes five times the $159 per student needed for the Foundation Program, leaving $728 per student for enrichment. The Cisco, Eastland and Ranger ISD needed $137 for Cisco, $142 for Eastland and $120 for Ranger for the local share, leaving $439 for Cisco, $499 for Eastland and $465 for Ranger per student for spending beyond the Foundation Program level.

For next year, the 67th Legislature provided an additional $297 million of state aid to schools. The minimum salary has been increased by $88 a month and the operating allowance was upped by $17 per student. Local school trustees must adopt a school budget and set a tax rate before the new school year starts on September 1. Beginning this year, if the school board increases property taxes by more than 8 percent, voters may exercise a limited form of initiative and referendum to roll back the increase the following year.

Crepe Myrtle, The Lilac Of The South

Crepe myrtle, lagerstroemia indica, is a deciduous shrub or small tree that has been cultivated in the Southern United States for more than 150 years. The plant was introduced to the United States from Asia and has become associated in this country with Southern gardens and ante-bellum grandeur. Sometimes referred to as the "Lilac of the South" crepe myrtle derives its common name from its crepe-like, crinkled and ruffled petals and resemblance of its leaves to the true myrtle.

The flowering season begins in June or July and continues until fall. Each long panicle is comprised of hundreds of one- to two-inch red, pink, white, lavender or purple flowers. Leaves are often garnet tinged in spring, glossy dark green in summer and dull to intense yellow, orange or red in autumn.

When the leaves fall in the winter, the crepe myrtle becomes a living sculpture. The trunk and branches have an attractively gnarled, twisted character with smooth bark varying in color from light straw to rich deep brown. The bark exfoliates in early summer to reveal new bark ranging in color from light pink to pale green.

Full sun is necessary for good flowering. Crepe myrtle is cold hardy throughout the Southern United States. The planting site should be slightly elevated and open to allow free air movement to avoid mildew problems. For example, planting near a wall is undesirable because of restricted air movement around the plant.

Crepe myrtle tolerates a wide range of soil conditions, but grows best in a heavy loam that is slightly acidic (pH 5.0 to 6.5). Nutrient requirements are minimal; high fertility levels produce excessive vegetative growth and fewer flower panicles. Application of 6-6-6 or 8-8-8 fertilizer in early spring at the rate of one to two pounds per 100 square feet of planting bed may be beneficial to established plants, especially those growing in poor soils. Mulches of cedar bark or hardwood chips are beneficial in retaining soil moisture and minimizing soil temperature fluctuations during the summer. The ideal time for transplanting container-grown crepe myrtle is late spring or early summer, when new shoots are emerging. Balled and burlapped or bareroot plants are best transplanted during dormant periods.

Deep soil watering is required periodically during dry periods in summer when the plant is actively growing and producing flowers. Insufficient watering may prevent flower formation and result in premature leaf drop. Crepe myrtle requires little pruning to maintain its naturally graceful form. However, tip pruning to remove old flower clusters will promote more abundant flowers and renewal of new wood. Small twiggy growth should be thinned out from underneath the canopy to keep the trunk clean and allow free air circulation. Crepe myrtle can also be trained into single-stemmed, tree-like plants by removing all but the strongest stem while the plant is young. Spanish moss may be found growing on crepe myrtle. It should be removed to allow better circulation. The crepe myrtle is virtually insect free and has few disease problems. When planning additions to your landscape include the beautiful crepe myrtle for beauty as well as maintenance free.

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

We haven't had any rain at Putnam this week. Therefore things have dried out considerably. The grass and weeds continue to grow and gardens are still flourishing. Our kind neighbors and friends keep us stocked with beans, squash and cucumbers. Tomatoes and okra are coming on now. We have been busy all week making squash relish and cucumber pickles.

Everyone seems busy getting ready for the holiday weekend. The Callahan County Pioneers Reunion will be at Baird tomorrow. I hope to see a lot of my old friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Nichols of Baird are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. They both were former pupils of this reporter at the Gilleland and Jackson schools.

Ollie Burnam is having most of her family home to celebrate the 4th. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown, son and daughter, of Fort Worth. The James Isenhower family of Coleman, Alice Richter and family of Forney, Dianne and Jim Heidelberg and son of Breckenridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sunderman of Canyon have been at Putnam all this week at the Sunderman home. Mrs. Ruie Sunderman spent Wednesday with them. All the Sunderman family are meeting this weekend at Lake Leon to celebrate Ruie's 90th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Stovall of Odessa and Mrs. Lavell Speegle of California visited Mrs. R.C. Speegle this week. Mrs. Speegle is a niece. She is also visiting her parents, the Clines at Moran.

Ray Maxwell's mother is very ill in the Cisco hospital. Wilburn McKinney is still in Hendricks Hospital at Abilene. We were sorry to hear of the death of Mel Rouse of Fort Worth. He formerly lived in the Atwell community and was well known around Putnam. Our sympathy to the family.

The Hubert Donaway family of Odessa are visiting his parents, the Milton Donaways. They have been vacationing in New Mexico. The Donaway family are meeting this weekend for the annual reunion at the Old Donaway home at Dothan.

The Joe Whiteheads have installed a new storm cellar at their home.

Calvin King, Syd Weathermon and John Doyle Isenhower have been installing a new air conditioner at the Community Center.

News is a little short this week due to the fact that we are writing it early on account of the holiday weekend.

QUESTION: What about the World's Fair at Knoxville? Should you go?

ANSWER: Definitely, if you're in the neighborhood. Otherwise, well, there are a lot of other good things in the area, so you might want to consider a round-robin, and/or kill two birds with one stone.

We were at the Fair fairly early, so the heat was not bad, and even on a Sunday, the crowd wasn't really crushing - except in spots. (We now read that people are dropping from the heat in droves.)

"Energy" is the theme, so you can guess that after you've seen one country's static display of "what we're doing to conserve and/or create more energy" you've pretty well seen 'em all. That's not to say that these are not important, but you just got to admit that those countries which displayed a major portion of their culture along with their energy themes, were the most interesting displays. These would include China, the Philippines, Japan and a few others.

As you might guess, China is the "hottest" exhibit and we stood shoulder-to-shoulder and inched our way through to see a vast world of art objects, (a piece of the Wall and life-size statues of soldier and horses from the graves of an early emperor), as well as fine craft items, and skills. If one could take one's time and do that one exhibit at leisure, uncrowded, it alone would be worth the time and effort to go.

We enjoyed the Philippines because they brought a troop of singers and dancers who entertained.

We had just done a Tennessee exhibit which included an original Rembrandt "The Incredulosity of Thomas", and stepped back out onto the pavement, when wonder of wonders, so far from home, you can imagine our surprise and joy to run into the Judge Jim Wright family of Eastland, Texas; Jim and Shelia, Kevin, Vicki and Kristi. We just nearly all embraced to be with homefolks again. The Wrights were vacationing and had just done Gatlinburg, Tenn., which they highly recommend, and which we got down to later.

Back to the Fair: Guitarist Chet Atkins and the Nashville Symphony were in concert the night we were there in an open-air free concert, but would you believe we could barely get close enough to hear the music.

Vance would have gladly stayed and read every exhibit in every building, but age, weariness and eagerness to move on, kept us from taking in near as much as there is there to see.

We especially enjoyed the Baptist Ministries exhibit which had as its theme: "The WORD is...energy".

Next time, we'll tell you about things around Knoxville including Oak Ridge, Gatlinburg, the Smokies, the Cherokee Reservation etc., but here's a capsule of the Fair for your consideration: The 1982 Fair is the first to be held anywhere since 1975-and the first ever in the southeastern United States.

The world is focusing on this energetic, gifted metropolis (population 450,000), home of the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Oak Ridge National Laboratory (birthplace of the atomic age), and the gateway to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

In the tradition of great World's Fairs in Montreal, Brussels, Paris, Spokane, Seattle, San Antonio, Chicago and New York, The 1982 Fair will draw millions of visitors from around the world during its six-month run. It is expected that when the Fair ends, 11 million visits will have been made to this exposition.

Foreign nations from every continent are represented, and in terms of international exhibitory, it is the largest sanctioned World's Fair to be held in the United States in over 40 years.

Among the countries taking part are Australia, Canada, the Federal Republic of Germany, France, the Hungarian People's Republic, Italy, Japan, Peru, the Republic of Korea, Mexico, Panama, the People's Republic of China, Egypt, the Philippines, the Royal Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the United Kingdom and the European Community including Belgium, the Netherlands, Denmark, Ireland, Luxemburg and Greece.

Leading corporations are also taking part. Ford Motor Company is showcasing automobiles and fuels of the future. Stokley-Van Camp has produced a Folklife Festival, the largest ever, revolving around the arts, crafts, entertainment, food and lifestyle of the Southern Appalachian region of the United States. The firm is also sponsoring the Gatorade Sports Hall of Fame, featuring memorabilia from sports halls of fame across the country. General Electric is sponsoring a World's Fair visit by the musical troupe "Up With People." Federal Express Corporation is presenting a spectacular laser sky show highlighting transportation and communication in the years ahead.

Among the other major companies, U.S. Steel, Occidental Petroleum, Tenneco Inc., North American Phillips, Eastman Kodak, Coca-Cola, Philips Business and Information Systems, Du Pont, Control Data, and Ford Motor Company.

Gas and electric industries have impressive pavilions at the Fair, as will the Tennessee Valley Authority, religious organizations, several states, and Knoxville, the host city. Other corporations are jointly sponsoring the Home of the Future, the Solar Home, and other fascinating presentations.

Each World's Fair has put an indelible stamp on history, and The 1982 Fair promises to be one of the most important and influential fairs in recent times. In a city within 400 miles of 42 million people, visitors will come from around the world to share a once-in-a-lifetime experience, to teach, to learn, and to discover the products, ideas, innovations, technologies, talents, and sense of fun and adventure that is a World's Fair.

Among the exciting new ideas that will be introduced at the Fair is a new milk product of Dairymen, Inc. The milk is processed at ultra high temperatures (UHT) so that it can be stored anywhere without refrigeration.

Robots and industrial robotics are being introduced to the general public on a grand scale. And The 1982 World's Fair will firmly establish computers as commonplace tools and toys, now and in the future.

The theme structure for The Fair is the 266-foot-high Sunsphere, topped by a giant globe encased in glass manufactured with genuine 24-karat gold dust. The energy-efficient glass will give the sphere a distinctive glow visible for miles. Inside the sphere is a two-level restaurant and three observation decks affording a commanding view of the 72-acre, mile-long Fair site.

The centerpiece and a major highlight of The 1982 World's Fair is the $12.4 million United States Pavilion-an architectural wonder and energy showcase with an abundance of awesome and dazzling demonstrations and entertainment. The cantilevered structure rises dramatically six stories into the air, and is crowned by a 5,000-square-foot solar collector running the entire length of the pavilion, powering the building's air conditioning and hot water system.

Inside-a plethora of advanced scientific, electronic and technological miracles.

Nearby, a reflection of the past in the L&N Station, one of 12 turn-of-the-century and Victorian structures that have been restored and incorporated into the Fair's mosaic. The L&N Station will house a railway-themed restaurant and boutiques; the L&N Depot will become an international art museum; an 1865 Foundry has been transformed into an authentic German Festhaus; and a Candy Factory, built in the early 1900's, will become an international emporium and restaurants, snack bars and shops.

There are 65 food outlets in all, serving foods from around the world. Authentic international gift items and souvenirs are sold throughout the site.

Producers of this World's Fair have defined energy in its broadest terms. Thus, the spiritual energy of the world's religious; the creative energy of the world's artists, craftsmen, musicians and entertainers; and the physical energies of some of the world's finest athletes are part of the Fair.

"Headliner" entertainment including Bob Hope, Bill Cosby and Johnny Cash; Broadway shows; world-renowned orchestras; and ballet and opera companies are showcasing their very special kind of energy 12 hours a day, every day of the six-month international exposition, on a variety of stages and in the Tennessee State Amphitheatre (capacity: 2,500), created especially for The 1982 World's Fair.

Nightly fireworks spectaculars; parades; strolling entertainers; theme characters; and international dance, vocal and instrumental groups all add to the color and excitement every day.

One of the largest ferris wheels in the world is at The 1982 World Fair along with a new kind of roller coaster, never before seen in the United States, that travels at breathtaking speed. Many other new and popular adventures are on site, including state-of-the-art electronic games and amusements.

The Athletic Congress Track and Field Championships, the Avon Women's 10K Road Race, and international baseball and basketball tournaments are among the major sports events scheduled to take place during the Fair.

Dancing fountains, the meandering Tennessee River, a giant "Family Fun-Fair," a manmade 3.7-acre lake... man and nature have combined forces to create one of the finest World's Fair sites in history.

A 75-foot-high aerial gondola and a chairlift will whisk visitors around the site, and riverboats will cruise the Tennessee River bordering the World Fair site.

And the energies of thousands of people from countries around the world will serve to create what has already been forecast as one of the world's greatest World's Fairs.

One-day admission to the Fair is $9.95 for adults, $9.25 for those over 55, and $8.25 for children 4-11. Children under four are admitted free. Two-day admission is $15.95.

To reserve lodging in Knoxville, call the World's Fair Housing Bureau at (615) 971-1000. Accommodations include hotels, motels, campsites, houseboats, college dormitories, private homes, apartments, recreation vehicles and condominiums.

Parking lots in and around the city and in neighboring communities, together with a shuttle bus system, make travel to the Fair site easy, comfortable and trouble free.

A visit to the Knoxville World's Fair in 1982 will change you.

USDA Moves To Improve School Lunch Application Accountability

A new monthly reporting and budgeting system that reduces food stamp losses and improves program administration was announced by a U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) official.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Mary C. Jarratt said the system changes the way benefits are computed and requires monthly reports of income from most participants. "This will improve the program's operation because it will base benefits on a family's actual financial status rather than anticipating what next month's status will be," Jarratt said. It is expected to save $280 million in fiscal year 1984 when all states must have the system implemented, she said.

Many states have implemented similar systems for their Aid to Families with Dependent Children programs. These states include Louisiana and Oklahoma in the Southwest Region of USDA's Food and Nutrition Service (FNS), which oversees the food stamp program. Representatives of these two states will meet their counterparts from Texas, Arkansas and New Mexico in Arlington, Texas, in mid-June to discuss implementation of the new procedures, said Gene Dickey, FNS administrator in the Southwest.

The rule announced today allows states to incorporate the food stamp and AFDC systems into a single coordinated system of reporting and budgeting for both programs.

Under the system, all households except migrant households will receive monthly benefits based on their income and other circumstances in a prior month, although in certain hardship cases a household may be exempted from the new accounting system at the time of initial application for benefits. Migrant participants will continue to get benefits based on anticipated income.

Currently, food stamp allotments are based on participants' anticipated monthly income. If the household's income or other circumstances change during the certification period, recipients are required to notify the food stamp office. The future allotments are then adjusted to reflect changes in income or other circumstances.

This system will permit state agencies to require most food stamp participants to report their financial circumstances on a monthly basis, in order to provide an accurate assessment of a recipient's financial status. If a household fails to submit a monthly report of income, after it has been notified to do so, its food stamp benefits may be terminated.

Migrants, the elderly and disabled, all households whose income fluctuates very little, are exempt from the monthly reporting requirement. They will continue to report changes in income when they occur.

"Our old way of computing food stamp benefits didn't work well for households with fluctuating income or unpredictable changes in circumstances," said Jarratt. "Another problem was some households simply did not report changes. These households continue to receive food stamps until the food stamp office learned of the changes or until their certification periods expired. The state then had to recover any food stamp losses."

States must have the system in operation by Oct. 1, 1983. However, states that wish to use the new system before that time, may do so after the interim rule has been published.

Comments on this rule will be accepted until Sept. 22 and will be considered in developing final rules. Comments will be accepted by Christopher Martin, acting deputy administrator for family nutrition programs, Food and Nutrition Service, USDA, Alexandria, VA., 22302.

Bass Club Report

Warm weather is here. Fishing is warming up also with good catches coming from Cisco, Throckmorton and Clyde lakes. Leon is a little slow on bass fishing but the catfish are in full swing.

Rumor has it that an eleven pound plus fish was taken last week at the feather light pits in Ranger. This would be a mature black bass and a beauty.

Our frely tourney will be Sunday the 11th. We shall meet at the White Elephant restaurant before we draw our lake. Everyone is urged to attend. There are still some money beans left to be drawn. See you at the coffee shop Sunday.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

Cortez was a Spanish adventurer. He sailed for the West Indies in 1504 and crushed a revolt in Santo Domingo. As a reward for his courage and skill in battle, he was appointed commander of a fleet. The fleet had eleven small ships manned by about seven hundred men.

One day he was sent on a mission to Mexico. When he landed at the port of San Juan de Ulloa on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, he commanded, "Burn the ships!" Why? So his men would fight, not flee!

Paul, the commander of a company of Christians put it like this: "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong!"

The word "watch" means be on the alert. It means more than the absence of sleep. It is the act of scrutinizing. The words "stand fast" mean to resist, not to relinquish; to counterattack, not to cave in. And the word "quit" is the opposite from a quitter."

The Lord wants courageous men and women, not cowards; those who will stand, not shrink; who will die for Him, but not deny Him.

Dare you burn your ships for the Lord?

New USDA Food Stamp Program Reporting/Budgeting System Announced

In an effort to ensure that school lunch benefits go only to those legitimately entitled, the U.S. Department of Agriculture is proposing that states verify the information on a sampling of applications for free and reduced price lunches and breakfasts.

The rules, implementing the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981, were issued along with a companion proposal clarifying the specific information parents must provide.

"Congress initiated these changes because verification will greatly improve the integrity of the school feeding programs," said Mary Jarratt, assistant secretary for food and consumer services. "We are very concerned about the potential abuse in the school lunch program that can be caused when parents under-report their incomes on free and reduced price meal applications. We believe this regulation strikes the balance between the need we have for increased accountability without imposing excessive paper requirements on school officials," she added.

Under the verification proposal, state agencies are required to ensure that for school year 1982-83, a minimum of 3 percent or 3,000, of all applications for free and reduced price lunch, whichever is less, on file in each school food authority are verified. Verification procedures will be at state and local discretion.

"This proposal will provide a way to counter abuses in the current free and reduced-priced application system," Jarratt said.

The companion proposal clarifies the information required on the application forms, including the requirement that parents must provide social security numbers for household members that are at least 21 years old.

Previously, applications for free and reduced price meals required only information only if they could show they had reason to suspect it was false or erroneous.

The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 requires that applications include the social security number of all adult household members and requires USDA to set up standards for schools to document the information on the applications.

The proposals, published in two regulations, are scheduled to appear in the May 25 Federal Register. Comments on the revised application procedures rule are due by June 24 for consideration. The comment period for the verification proposal extends through July 26.

Comments will be accepted by Stanley C. Garnett, school programs division, Food and Nutrition Service, USDA, Alexandria, VA., 22302.

100 to Speak at International Rancher's Roundup in Del Rio

DEL RIO—More than 100 of the ranching industry's best noted experts and policy makers will present their expertise at the 2nd annual International Ranchers Roundup (IRR) Aug. 10-12 in this festive border city.

In addition, tours of progressive Southwest Texas ranchers are scheduled Aug. 9 and Mexico ranch tours, Aug. 13.

"Effective Ranch Management" is the theme of IRR-82.

Headline keynote speaker include Raymond D. Lett, executive assistant to Agriculture Secretary John Block; Charles G. Scruggs, vice-president and editor of Progressive Farmer magazine; Susan McBee, Texas State Representative; Stan Parsons, Savory Grazing System consultant; Bob Bliss, Friona Industries; and Terry Mitchell, with the Australian Department of Agriculture.

Since the deadline for tour registration and the $50 registration fee discount is July 15, prospective participants are urged to send promptly for registration materials. Both tours will be limited to the first 200 registrants. Registration material is available by writing to IRR, P.O. Box 1849, Uvalde, Texas 78801.

Last year's IRR, the first and largest of its kind ever held in the Southwest, attracted some 700 ranches and industry leaders to the border area for five days of educational activities. Based on enthusiastic comments from many of those participants throughout the year, plans are being made to accommodate 1,000 registrants this summer.

Producer's comments ranged from "it was like trying to take the entire Texas A&M animal science curriculum in five days...just overwhelming" to "there were too many beneficial activities occurring at once...I didn't know which to attend first."

All general session talks will be presented Tuesday, Aug. 10, in the Del Rio Civic Center.

Current sessions geared to more effective management of beef cattle, sheep and Angora goats, meat goat production, range resources and wildlife will be conducted at Del Rio High School Aug. 11-12. Some programs such as ranch business management have been incorporated into major commodity discussions. Simultaneous translation will be provided in session important to Mexican ranching.

This year a special feature is being added for all female participants. "Woman in Ranching" will feature experts from around the country discussing such topics as "Protecting Women's Economic Interest in Ranching," "The Ranch vs. The Family," "Micro-computers in the Ranch Home," "Ranch Estate Planning" and "Together We Can!"

IRR participants will be treated to a Mexican Fiesta Aug. 10 in Ciudad Acuna hosted by that city's mayor and a country-western dance Aug. 11 following a steak banquet. No evening functions are scheduled Aug. 12, allowing IRR participants to enjoy the many varied entertainment opportunities and dining cuisine available in this border area.

IRR is being organized by Texas Agricultural Extension Service specialists based at the Texas A&M Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Uvalde. The program is designed to present updated technology from a variety of experts in various fields which can make individual management ranching decisions easier and more profitable while providing an opportunity for idea exchange among participating ranchers from throughout the country.

Texas Animal Health Commissioner Reports On Brucellosis Regulations Tightened

AUSTIN--Oklahoma and Missouri are two of several states which are tightening brucellosis regulations on Texas cattle, Dr. John W. Holcombe, executive director, Texas Animal Health Commission, reports.

Missouri has already imposed stiffer entry requirements on Texas livestock, and Oklahoma's tougher regulations go in effect July 1. Iowa has also put in effect a regulation which would treat Texas as a Class C state instead of a B and C state as provided for in federal regulations, that means more testing of this state's cattle for entry into Iowa.

"It appears that Texas livestock producers can expect more states to increase their requirements for Texas' cattle relating to brucellosis," Dr. Holcombe said.

He cited a couple of reasons for this:

1. Several states are taking action to comply with proposed federal rules;
2. States free or virtually free of brucellosis want to remain that way, and thus are imposing the more stringent regulations.

Missouri probably has the most stringent regulations on receiving Texas cattle: All cattle moving into Missouri, including steers, will require a prior permit from the Missouri Department of Agriculture Animal Health division. Other requirements include: individual identification on health certificates; two consecutive negative tests before movement for females over 18 months of age, followed by a 60 to 120 day quarantine and retest at owner's expense; and one negative test within 30 days of movement for females between four and 18 months of age followed by the same quarantine and retest.

Also, male or female calves under 12 months of age from quarantined herds and adult vaccinated cattle from Texas would not be allowed entry into Missouri under any circumstances. "These same restrictions apply to cattle from Oklahoma, Florida, Louisiana, and Mississippi entering Missouri," Dr. Holcombe noted.

Effective July 1, all female cattle born after Jan. 1, 1982, which are four months of age or older, entering Oklahoma, must be official brucellosis vaccinates, S branded, or spayed prior to entry.

S branded cattle may move only to a quarantined feedlot or directly to slaughter. S branded cattle or those which may have been exposed to brucellosis. In addition, out of state farm origin cattle may be consigned to an approved market in Oklahoma without prior test, permit, or vaccination. Before being released from such market, they must meet all of Oklahoma's requirements.

According to records of the TAHC, Oklahoma received 213,000 head of cattle and calves in 1981, Missouri received 4,000 head, and Iowa received 47,000 head. "This will give us some idea as the amount of trading we do with just those three states," Dr. Holcombe said.

Nationwide, Texas shipped more than 2,046,000 head of cattle to other states in 1981. "The Texas' livestock industry does indeed depend on other states for markets, so it is imperative that we in this state get on with the job of controlling brucellosis," Dr. Holcombe said.

He said the Texas brucellosis plan is geared to control and eventually eradicate the disease, and a great deal of progress has been made in the past two years when revised regulations were put in effect.

"Cooperation of livestock producers in Texas is on the increase, and this is the key to cleaning up Texas' brucellosis problem," Dr. Holcombe said.

Ranger Volunteer Firemen Offer Big Drawing Prizes At Rodeo July 10

All Ranger Volunteer Firemen have raffle tickets for you for only a $2.00 donation each.

This year they have the biggest and best prizes offered by the firemen, a Yamaha motorcycle in one drawing and in another a Zenith portable color TV. The drawing will be during the Jaycee Rodeo July 10.

The motorcycle is from Chesnut Cycle Center. The stylishly elegant Towny, that will get an incredible 100 miles per gallon. All the guys and many of the gals would really love to own this bike.

From Vinson's TV the pretty 13 inch Slim-Line Zenith portable TV. Adults or children need a television like this one.

All donations will go toward the purchase of needed equipment for the firemen. To equip men and a station with the essential equipment is very expensive. The basic indispensable items necessary to fight fires of any type have to be replaced occasionally and some of the larger things are needed. The volunteers must be well-equipped to be successful in saving property and lives.

THE CISCO High School Class of 1947 held their 35th anniversary reunion last Saturday out at the CHS cafeteria and 30 class members and a total of 65 persons enjoyed the event. That's the report of Mrs. Jeanne (Hansen) Lee of Cisco who was one of the organizers.

The group enjoyed a noon luncheon and an afternoon of visiting... Stanley and Barbara Williams of Waco were among those attending. As you know, Stanley was a Lobo football star who went on to Baylor to play in the Southwest Conference... Helping organize the gathering were Mrs. Lee, Raymond Penn, Mildred Cooper and Lee Kinnard of Cisco, Betty Gorman of Lawn, Doris Greenham of Abilene and others.

Mrs. Lee promised to prepare a complete write-up about the gathering for The Press. But it will have to wait a few days. Her 7th grandchild arrived June 30th at Santa Anna and she has gone down there to help Mrs. Bobby Lee a few days. The little girl was named Jenna Kay and she has a two-year-old brother. Bobby has been in Santa Anna four years and has a plumbing business.

CISCO WAS WELL represented in the Hawaiian Islands last week by Mrs. Nova Graham, Mrs. Wilma Waters and Mrs. Lucy Collier. That's the word from the Reporter-News (Abilene) tour directors who led some 75 Big Country folks on an 11-day trip to three of the Hawaiian Islands.

The group flew by American Airlines 747 for seven and a half hours to land in Honolulu. They spent nearly a week there at the Hyatt-Regency Hotel and saw such sights as Pearl Harbor and its battle ship memorial, the national cemetery, the beautiful beaches, hotels, flowers and things of interest. A luau dinner show was an entertainment highlight.

The group flew next to the island of Kauai where they stayed at the Sheraton Coconut Beach Hotel. A motor launch trip up a river to the famed Fern Grotto with its waterfalls and chapel where movie stars and prominent folks have gone to be married was an interesting outing. Swimming in the ocean and hotel pool, a dinner show and the like kept the folks busy when they weren't out sightseeing.

The final four days at a fine hotel on the island of Maui was the icing on the cake, Mrs. Waters told us. Here the last night, they enjoyed a dinner show program that featured natives in song and dance. They staged the famous grass skirt routines and reminded you that you needed to watch the hands of the dancers for the ultimate in meaningful entertainment.

The Ciscoans didn't try on any grass skirts but they brought some home... Mrs. Graham's daughter Gloria met their plane in Dallas and took her mother home there for a visit, while Wilma and Lucy bused home with the tour group.

OVER AT THE First Baptist Church last Sunday morning, the service program had a July the Fourth theme. They opened with Carlene Spicer of Abilene (daughter of the Carlton Holders of Cisco) singing the national anthem. Then, Carolyn Sipe (wife of the pastor) sang "America the Beautiful."

Next came pledges to the United States flag, the Christian flag and to the Bible. The pledges are as follows: Flag—I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Christian—I pledge allegiance to the Christian flag, and to the Savior for whose kingdom it stands, one brotherhood uniting all Christians in service and love.

Bible—I pledge allegiance to the Bible, God's Holy Word, and will make it a lamp unto my feet, a light unto my path, and hide its words in my heart that I may not sin against God.

The Rev. Buddy Sipe's message continued the theme of the day.

THE BULLETIN of the First United Methodist Church for last weekend reports that congregation has two events of note on their schedule for next few days.

On Saturday, July 10, the church's first annual Cisco Lake Fishing Fellowship Tournament will be held. The Family and Adult Ministries Coordinators of the official Council are excited about this event. There will be prizes in several categories as well as ribbons, and an over-all tournament winner will receive a trophy. Those entering should register at the church this week. It's open to one and all. There's no set registration fee but donations will go to the church's fund.

Then, on Sunday, July 11, the church is having a church-wide fellowship at Lake Cisco - at the Sutton Crofts dock and the adjoining First National Bank lot. They've planned a fish fry, boating, swimming, table games - fun and fellowship. It will start at 3 p.m.

Dinner will be served beginning at 6 p.m. The fishing tournament trophies will be presented at the dinner.

MET UP WITH Col. Morris White in town last Sunday. He came to bring his travel trailer that's been sold. They've sold their ranch northeast of town and reside at Bayfield, Colorado... The Ben Strieffs visited her mother in Lubbock one day last week... Saw Cindy Broyles Frailey of Fort Worth with her mother, Mrs. Rosa Lee Broyles, here last weekend... Also saw one of the Hart twins with her mother, Mrs. Guss Hart, at church last Sunday. Don't know whether we saw Sandra or Sylvia. We used to could tell them apart when they sang in the church choir for one opened her mouth a bit wider than the other as they sang. (We once knew twin Greek men who operated a cafeteria and the only way you could tell them apart was that one gave you more potatoes with your plate lunch than the other.)

GUESS YOU SAW the picture of Walt Tollett of Cisco in Monday's Abilene newspaper. It showed Walt, 5, who'll be a first grader next month, with a horned toad on his cap.

Walt, son of the Jack Tolletts, was in Baird to take part in a Horned Toad Derby when the photographer made the picture. The toad was placed on Walt's cap and sat real still for the picture.

The photographing experience must have had a hypnotic effect on the horned frog. He hardly ran when the race began and came in last. Walt and the Tollett family enjoyed the Baird outing. They brought the toad home to live in their garden.

BRET McMILLAN, son of the Eddie McMillans, has been riding one of those three-wheel motor scooters - a big wheel machine - for four years now. And he's never had a mishap. But during the four years, the machine has been on top of Bret's dad twice... Saw J.D. Yardley and his Abilene daughter Janie in town the other day. She was here for the CHS Class of 1962 reunion out at the Best Western last Saturday. Same was an outstanding affair on their 20th anniversary, we heard several folks say... Cadets Tish Feiner and April Cotton and Senior Scouts Karen Fisher and Sheila Prickett helped CofC Manager Gene Abbott entertain the group of Georgia Girl Scouts here one day last week.
