U.S. Court Declines Probation Injunction

An application to halt activities of the Eastland County probation office was declined by U.S. District Judge Hal Woodward in a hearing of the recently filed class-action civil rights suit at Lubbock Thursday.

The action, brought by Cisco Attorney Stan Boose last week on behalf of Plaintiffs Robert Tipton, Dorothy Webb and Barbara Williams, alleges that Eastland County has "no viable probation department," and it named eight county and district officials as defendants.

Judge Woodward gave Attorney Boose until August 9th to amend his suit and replead his arguments in the action. The judge said that additional proceedings probably would be held in Abilene.

Eastland County District Attorney Emory Walton, one of the defendants, represented the defendants in the hearing. The judge ruled in favor of a motion by Mr. Walton to quash a subpoena for all probation office records filed since January, 1980.

The suit seeks attorney's fees, some punitive damages, and a return of probation supervision fees.

Defendants were Mr. Walton, County Commissioners C.B. Dill, O.E. Blackwell, L.T. Owen and Richard Robinson, District Judge Jim Wright, County Judge Scott Bailey and Earl Conner, Jr., retired district judge.

All of the defendants except Judge Conner were in Lubbock for the hearing. Judge Conner, who was presiding in a district court trial at Weatherford by special appointment, was excused.

For some seven years, probation affairs in Eastland County have been administered by a legal method that calls for an office to be held with a clerk whose work is supervised by Judge Bailey for county court matters and Judge Wright for district court matters.

The county probation office is located on the third floor of the court house in the old 88th District Court quarters and Mrs. Judi Armstrong serves as the clerk for district cases. Mrs. Jean White, the county judge's secretary, handles clerical affairs for county court cases.

Al Young, chairman of the District 2E-1 band committee that took some 40 musicians to the recent convention of Lions International, showed picture slides and told the club about highlights of the annual event that was held in Atlanta, Ga.

President Ivan Webb told the club about a visit at Lake Cisco last Tuesday of 42 Lions International exchange students. They were guests of Dr. Bill King of Abilene at his Lake Cisco cabin. A group of Lions helped entertain the visitors.

The annual Cisco Junior College "Drive-In Band Camp" will be held on the campus of CJC during the week of August 2-6. Registration will take place at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, August 2, in the band hall which is located on the second floor of the Harrell Fine Arts building.

Instructors for the camp will be from area towns and Mr. Tim Jones, CJC band director, will be band camp director and coordinator. Courses to be offered include band rehearsals, section rehearsals, rhythm classes, theory, and possibly a stage band class. Classes will meet from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. A recreational break period will be included in each day's activities.

Attendance fee for all students is $30 which includes five full days of instruction and the noon meal for students attending camp. The camp will conclude on Friday afternoon with a "cook-out" and swimming at the Cisco city park.

Pair Recaptured After 15 Hour Escape From Eastland Jail

After an all-night search by some 40 peace officers Thursday night, two 18-year old youths who escaped from the Eastland County jail were recaptured by Sheriff Johnnie Morren, Chief Deputy Ben Sancillio and Eastland Patrolman David Sancillio.

The two youths, Daymond Dale Lynn Benson of Brownwood and Jerry Allen of Rising Star, escaped after breaking out a window in a jail office that they were cleaning around 9:15 p.m. Thursday. The two men used a hatrack to break the window and were therefore unharmed.

Bond has been set for Allen $60,000 and at $25,000 for Johnson called the courthouse, where the call was relayed to the Sheriff.

Upon arrival at the Johnson farm, the three officers apprehended the two escapees.

The two youths, Daymond Dale Lynn Benson of Brownwood and Jerry Allen of Rising Star, escaped after breaking out a window in a jail office that they were cleaning around 9:15 p.m. Thursday. The two men used a hatrack to break the window and were therefore unharmed.

Bond has been set for Allen $60,000 and at $25,000 for Benson. They are presently in custody at the Eastland County Jail.

Assisting in the search Thursday night and Friday morning were Police Chief Raymond Blevins and two members of the Cisco Police Department, along with officers from Ranger, Gorman and Rising Star, joined by the Eastland city police, the sheriff's office, a Texas Ranger and the Highway Patrol in looking for the youths. Airplanes joined in the search Friday morning.

Authorities in Stephens, Palo Pinto, Taylor, Erath, Brown and Callahan Counties were notified of the jail break and highway patrolmen were alerted throughout the region.

Sheriff Morren said that Benson, the Brownwood youth, was awaiting transfer to the TDC, the state prison at Huntsville, after his recent conviction on charges of burglarizing the Eastland High School Band Hall last Jan. 22. He was given a three-year sentence in 91st District Court.

Allen, who was recently convicted on charges of malicious mischief, was awaiting appeal of the verdict.

Forty-two young people, mostly in their late teens, spent several hours last Tuesday at the Lake Cisco cabin and dock of Dr. Bill King of Abilene. They were a group of Lions Club youth exchange students from throughout the world.

The young people were guests of Lions Club members in the Dallas-Fort Worth area for some three weeks and were being taken on a bus tour of the state, including stops in Abilene, Cisco and elsewhere. They left for Odessa after the outing here. A trip to San Antonio was planned.

At Lake Cisco, Dr. King and others, including President Ivan Webb of the Cisco Lions Club, had boats to take the young people water skiing and riding. They enjoyed swimming the North Shore cabin area. Mayor Eris Ritchie, Lions Al Young and Winston Heidenheimer and others greeted them. A sandwich luncheon was served before they departed.

Plans call for the visitors to return to their homes August 17th.

Penny Wilson (left) of Duncanville and Margie Briscoe of Sherman were accompanying the foreign students as hostesses and counsellors. They were enjoying paddling an inner-tube when the photograph caught them. Two young men also were along as hosts. (Staff Photo)

Before we know it, August is going to be here. And August means back to school for all the kids in Eastland County. Many mothers will be shopping for school clothes in the near future.

The choices in back-to-school girls wear is varied with some new looks for fall and winter. Directions for back-to-school wear centers on sweatsuit dressing, feminine English romantic and country girl styles, plus active sportswear separates.

Throughout, colors are new and an integral part of styles - deepened jewel tones for romantics, rustic shades for country looks and intense, vivid colorations for sweats and sportswear.

Fleece is in the forefront in basic sweat styling and, more importantly, in new shapes, lengths and combinations. Mini floppy and split skirts are the basis for newly detailed tops featuring geometric patterns, color blocking and stripes.

Denim is forever, but the newest entry is lightweight. Six-ounce denim provides greater drapability than its heavier cousins. It is fashioned into flounced prairie skirts and pinafore ruffled blouses and shows up in split skirts, jodhpur and jogging pants.

Floated and tiered skirts in corduroy are paired with soft, highly detailed blouses. Floated petticoats peek from tweedy coat skirts. Tweeds are mixed with velvets in bottoms and tied together with soft blouses.

GORDON SPOT

by DeMarquis Gordon

Along with hot temperatures, mid-summer in Eastland County may bring special lawn problems - drought, weeds, insects and disease.

These lawn problems can cause concerns for homeowners unless accurate diagnosis and proper treatment takes place before they become severe. Dry spots, thin turf and weeds can result from improper watering, fertilizing and mowing practices.

Also, raise mowing heights one-half inch to improve drought tolerance in mid-summer. Lack of nitrogen or iron often creates a lawn problem.

Grass leaves that have yellow stripes parallel to the leaf margins may be deficient in iron. An application of iron sulfate or iron chelate at six ounces per 1,000 sq. ft. will usually solve this problem.

Chinch bugs and white grubs feed heavily on lawns during mid-summer, and their damage resembles drought injury. If turf does not respond to applications of water, suspect these insects. Both pests damage St. Augustine grass, but only white grub damages bermudagrass lawns. Chinch bugs and white grubs can be controlled with insecticides. Water the lawn thoroughly prior to applying an insecticide for chinch bug control, and follow with a light watering.

Drench the lawn after an insecticide is applied for grub control, since grubs feed in the soil.

We will be attending the Texas County Agricultural Agent's Association annual meeting in Tyler August 1-4. The annual professional conference will be highlighted by a number of key-note speakers, business sessions and recognition ceremonies.

Among featured speakers will be Deputy Chancellor for Agriculture Perry L. Adkisson of Texas A&M University System; U.S. Rep. Ralph Hall of the 4th Congressional District; Dr. Zerle Carpenter, who will become Extension Service Director on Sept. 1; Mr. Frank Naylor, Under Secretary of Agriculture for Small Communities and Rural Development.

Highlighting the first day's program will be a special luncheon honoring seven county agents who have been named recipients of the Distinguished Service Award for 1982. A special banquet honoring recipients of the "Man of the Year in Texas Agriculture" Award will highlight the second day's program.

Homemaking Hints

Follow simple washer-and-dryer "do's and don'ts" for efficiency, longer equipment lifecycles and your own personal safety, advises Alma Fonseca, a clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Key guidelines include these: keep lint filters clean, use only suggested laundry cleaning aids, follow manufacturer recommendations, don't overload and don't reach into the washer or dryer until it stops.

Family-oriented personnel policies may be in the near future for employees, says Diane Welch, a family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

A greater public awareness of the need for family-sensitive personnel policies was a major outgrowth of the 1980 White House Conference on Families, she says.

As a result, greater flexibility will be expected from employers, along with a more dedicated effort from company insurers to make "pick-and-choose" employee-benefit packages available, she says.

Try generic-labeled food products - they're almost always a "good value" for the money, and they offer an alternative to the highly advertised, more expensive brands, says Mary K. Sweeten, a food and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Don't fall for "bait and switch" tactics at the marketplace, warns Bonnie Piernot, a family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. An illegal tactic, "bait and switch" works this way: a merchant offers an item at a special price and then tries to sell you a different or more expensive item.

Change In Beef Cattle Herd

Permanent change and, it is hoped, improvement in a beef cattle herd is realized through the selection of breeding replacement, both bulls and cows. However, replacement sires exert most of the genetic influence in the herd since each bull leaves so many more offspring than even the most prolific cow.

Five factors are of paramount importance in selecting future herd sires.

These are discussed as follows:

1. Growing Ability—this trait is best evaluated through standardized performance tests. Common measures of growth are weaning weight, postweaning gain, and yearling weight. Desirable prospects should be above average in all of these factors. Attempts to visually evaluate growing ability are usually unsuccessful.

2. Body Composition—desirable gain in young bulls consists of a minimum amount of fat. Bulls which tend to fatten too soon are early maturing. Consequently, such individuals generally sire calves which quit growing at relatively light weights.

3. Skeletal Size—fast growing, muscular bulls generally are above average in skeletal size. In the absence of gain-test information, relative skeletal size may provide some indication of growing ability.

4. Structural Soundness—regardless of other desirable characteristics, a bull must be structurally sound. Bulls should be able to travel freely and easily. Common defects are crooked legs, bad feet, and coarse, weak shoulders.

5. Sex Character—the best indication of sex character is a satisfactory semen evaluation. Such a test should be obtained, if at all possible. Otherwise, visual evaluation should reveal a burly, masculine bull with a well-developed set of testicles.

In conclusion, comparisons among individuals should be limited to those which are about the same age. Also, bulls should have been developed under the same conditions. Bulls which measure up in all the factors that have been discussed, will cost somewhat more than poorer individuals. However, such outstanding sires will more than repay their extra initial costs in the form of faster growing calves for sale and higher-producing replacement heifers.

Let Us Possess The Land

"For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them."—II Peter 2:21

Unbelief days. Friend, Jesus can only do for you what you allow Him to do. Moses was directed by God in leading the children of Israel out of their Egyptian bondage. The march to Kadesh-Barnea was to have brought them to their last stop before going on into the promised land, Canaan. But the Hebrews refused to take the last step of obedience by which they were to inherit the land of Canaan. Possess the land was God's order...but lack of faith prevented them. They requested twelve spies to go into the land of Canaan to spy out the land. Ten spies returned and reported, "We are not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we."—Numbers 13:31. Caleb and Joshua returned and said, "Let us go up at once and possess it: for we are well able to overcome it."—Numbers 13:30. "Oh, but Giants are in the Land," exclaimed the ten spies. Fear mounted as the people were told this. Then they murmured against Moses and in spite of all the favor of the Lord as they traveled from Egypt to the border of Canaan, they wanted to return to the slavery of Egypt. Fear! What torment, what delays it can cause. The delay was disastrous. Lack of faith in the Lord's direction and plan for them cost them God's blessings. Friend, move ahead willingly in full surrender to the Lord's plan for your life. The right way is not always the flower-strewn path, but it is the only way to Victory. Purpose to do His will in His way and time. Resistance to the Lord's Will renders you weak and brings only discontentment. His plan for you is the enjoyment and fulfillment of all His promises. Experience the fullness of His plan for you and it will bring you into a "land flowing with spiritual milk and honey."

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

There is a saying among the sociologist "think old, and you are old, think positive and the problems go away."
There are 46 million, about 20% of the population, are over 55, more than 1/3 of the households are headed by someone 55 or older. Manufacturers and marketers are giving more and more attention to this large number of people. They have in their research found some interesting facts:
1. Fewer than 5% are in nursing homes.
2. Only one person in 20 is confined to his home due to poor health.
3. The older people have tremendous buying impact upon the community; the older person is no longer being stereotyped as a "senile" individual but one who is a contributor to the community in finances, experiences and a guide for the next generations.
Programs for the week were: Marcia Adams, Ruthie Keyes and Brenda Thomas singing religious songs. The ladies also sang several favorite "ole songs" and Marcia accompanied on the guitar. Herhsall McDonald thrilled the group by singing "You Are My Sunshine" with the ladies. Everyone enjoyed the beautiful music. Dinner music was provided by Rea Hunt, playing the harmonica, Vida Killion accompanied on the piano, Marguerite King on the piano, A.E. McNeeley played the violin and the Senior Citizens choir with Billie Wood as accompanist. We appreciate the many volunteers that share their time and talents to make the Senior Citizens Program so enjoyable.
The menus for the week, July 26 thru 30 are:
Monday—meat balls, mushroom gravy, spinach, tossed salad/french dressing, vanilla pudding, bread, butter and drink.
Tuesday—braised beef tips, rice, golden carrots, raw vegetable salad w/vinegar, jello w/bananas, bread, butter and drink.
Wednesday—beef stew, pineapple/raisin coleslaw, baked rice custard, vanilla cookie, cornbread, butter and drink.
Thursday—beef tips, rice, golden carrots, raw vegetable salad w/vinegar, jello w/bananas, bread, butter and drink.
Friday—beef stew, pineapple/raisin coleslaw, baked rice custard, vanilla cookie, cornbread, butter and drink.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"Passing the buck" is something that is common to all of us when we don't want to be held responsible for certain actions. It is something we do when we don't want to admit that maybe we were at fault. . . maybe part of the blame should be on us . . . maybe the other person or persons involved weren't totally at fault. After all, do we really want to admit that we were "WRONG"? CAN we admit that we were "WRONG"?
Isn't it a lot easier to blame someone else than to take the responsibility ourselves? Isn't it a lot easier to say "It's his fault", than to say, "Maybe I'm partly to blame for what happened"? Also, isn't it easier to ask someone else to do something you should have done yourself?
If we're honest with ourselves we'll recall at least one, probably several times when we've been guilty of "passing the buck" . . . when we've shirked our responsibility for something that went wrong or for something that wasn't done.
The late President Truman put a sign on his desk: "The Buck Stops Here!" Not a bad idea . . . What do you think?"

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

There are several wonderful books about early oil and the men who dedicated their lives to it in the Southwest. "Early Texas Oil to 1936" and "Oil in West Texas and New Mexico" are both by Walter Rundell, Jr. recently published by Texas A&M Press.

In my memory train from living in Cisco from age 4 to 40 are some wonderful early oil seekers like L.A. Warren, Harry Reynolds, Ernest Sneed, J.C. Anderson, Tom O'Brien, Charles Mount, Robert E. Lee, Richard Bearman, L.M. Flourney, Silas Hill, Charles Kleiner, G.P. Mitchem, Sr., Robert Kamon, Sr., Edger Davis and others.

I could tell you interesting stories about any of these—but just a couple here. Charlie Mount was a giant redheaded, good-hearted, struggling man from the first oil fields of West Virginia. God bless him—he tried so hard—my heart goes out to him even yet. He was at the Beaumont big 1903 discovery where his Yount-Lee friends all got rich. But not he—the local WAGS called him "Dry-Hole Charlie." He even drilled in India where the well cratered and swallowed up the entire rig. That was back in the cable tool days. Now India, according to "Oil and Gas Journal" this month, is a tremendous developing oil area.

SHK-SPR said, "There is a Tide in the affairs of man—when taken at the ebb—Leads on to Fortune—or missed, Leaves one stranded on the sands of desolation."

I have missed some and hit some. The biggest miss came when my close friend Ernest Sneed was drilling out near Snyder about 1950 for Lone Star Gas. He called me, saying "come quick." I went that cold night taking good friend L.A. Warren and my father-in-law, John Russell. Ernest said, "I have a hell of a discovery here—and look at those humble 'dry-hole' logs—they are four miles away and exactly the same. Everything between here and there is oil. Just get out there and buy some minerals or leases." L.A. and J.W. evidently didn't believe it—though I did. But I didn't have any money—yet, it is my fault, because I could have begged—borrowed or made some real effort to get the money. That area turned out to be one of the giants ever discovered in this U.S. of A.

I had another "ebb tide" opportunity in 1971 when my friend, a seismographic company owner, said "Look at this Anadarko Basin area—there is a 2000 foot closure here. Go buy royalty—do not buy minerals or you will ruin my reputation with the big companies." I put 5% of my bank stock in this. The pressure was so great that three wells collapsed the casing at 20,000 feet. The ten year 600 acres of royalty all ran out last year. But we, fortunately, had gone 10 miles further north where we bought 160 acres of minerals. Leases there now bring $4000 per acre, and ten producing acres will play $3600 per month—so we didn't get stranded on that old SHK-SPR sand-bar.

There are more characters in West Texas, I think, than in any similar area on earth. The greatest in my recollections was Edger Davis, who started out at Desdemona about 1919 as a roughneck. The situation after WWI was so rough employment-wise that the drillers and rig hands each carried at least $20 in cash.

If you were held-up and you didn't have any money, you could get shot. Edger got to be worth millions—he never lost his sense of humor even though he took a lot of kidding, because he never learned to read and write.

He did all his deals on the phone. I went with him about 1952 to see all the big money people on Wall Street—but he couldn't, for the above reason, get any cooperation. When we walked into the lobby of the Commodore Hotel—the bell-boys were virtually freaked out. Edger was a 360 pound giant in his big leather jacket, cowboy boots and old ten gallon hat. At the dinner table, he had the menu upside down. He asked, "Young Miss—what kind of fish do we have today?" She said—and he replied, "That's just what I need." They used to tease him, and he always took it good naturedly. His wife, a school teacher, would say "Now Edger, if you don't do this—I won't read you the funny papers." There never was a better man of ability and honesty in the oil-patch than Edger Davis.

Another wonderful guy, and smart as they come, was Charlie Kleiner who, incidentally, got the city's impossible debt cut from 4 million to about 1½ million dollars. I asked Charlie, "How in the heck are you so successful in finding shallow oil." He said, "I just start walking across the land—if I don't get the feel, I just keep walking. When I get the feel—I drill." And brother he hit real regularly! When they asked Charlie to run for mayor—he said, "I ain't got the fixidity and the fiddity for that." But he was outstanding in that and anything else that he put his mind to.

Lordy—I love to think about all these wonderful people I knew out there.

Snyder Man Arrested In Hit And Run

A 20-year-old Snyder man was arrested in Palo Pinto County Thursday night shortly after he allegedly struck and killed a 9-year-old Caddo boy with his vehicle and then fled the scene.

Lt. Harmon Watts of the Palo Pinto County Sheriff's Department said Martin D. Baeza was stopped at 6:42 p.m. just west of Palo Pinto when officers noted his 1973 Chevelle matched the description provided by a witness of the hit-and-run suspect's car.

Watts said he and Deputy Monty Parker took Baeza into custody on a DWI charge and held him for Stephens County authorities who charged him with involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of Ryan Langford. The suspect did not offer any resistance when arrested, Watts said.

A spokesman for the Department of Public Safety at Breckenridge said the boy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Langford, was riding his bicycle along U.S. 183 near his home in Caddo about 6:15 p.m. when he was struck by a car that left the scene.

Central Texas MHRM Applies For Recreational Funding

Bass Club Report

Clients of the Central Texas Mental Health Mental Retardation Center may soon have some new help in Brown, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, McCulloch, Mills and San Saba Counties.

Von Heflin, Director of Mental Retardation Program at the main center in Brownwood said that her staff members have applied for federal funding for a new program to provide recreational services for MHRM clients.

quest. Any comments may be directed to James K. Compton, P.O. Box 3195, Abilene, TX 79604. Comments should be in Abilene by Monday, July 26. Compton may be reached by phone at 1-915-672-8544.

Heflin said that her staff had recently sent in two other proposals. One was for Early Childhood Intervention programs. The other was for a Developmental Disabilities Program.

The first program would provide funding to screen and treat children four years and younger. According to Heflin, the program would help treat problem children early and prevent any further problems that might occur if the treatment were delayed.

The developmental disabilities program provides for supervision of clients living on their own in the community. These clients, according to Heflin are past the stage of being in a half-way house.

Heflin said she referred to it as a "three-quarter way program." This program has been in operation for one year, and approval of funding for the second year is pending. Heflin said she would know by August 1 if the program would continue.

The program would provide three workers to work in the six county area. They would help orient MHRM clients to recreational facilities available to them in their local areas.

The federal funding would also provide for renovation of a gym in Brownwood and the purchase of vehicles to transport clients to and from the gym from the surrounding county. The gym would be available 7 days a week.

Heflin said, "A lot of clients in Eastland that I can identify would just love to go on some field trips, to basketball games, and so on."

The West Central Council of Governments is accepting comments on the funding request.

Leon on the upswing for bassers. Our back yard pond; Leon, is full and rather active. We held our July tourney at Leon. A lot of fish were caught this month with Bobby Maynard bringing in 3 fish weighing 6 lbs. 10 oz. Second place went to Tommy Maynard with 3 lbs. 3 oz. Third place was Ronnie White with 1 lb. 12 oz. Over 60 fish were reported to have been caught and released.

In the race for angler of the year they go as follows Tommy Maynard 11 lb. 2 oz., Terry Wilson 10 lbs. 14 oz., Bobby Maynard 10 lbs. 10 oz., Ronnie White 7 lbs. 15 oz., and Melvin Windy 6 lbs. 1 oz. The year is just half over and a 10 lb. stringer could put anyone in the running. Our monthly tournaments are one of the benefits of being a member of an organization such as The Eastland County Bass Club. There are many other plus factors of being a club member.

We would like to extend an open invitation to anyone interested in joining our organization to please fill free to attend our next meeting Thursday, August 5th. Lets all mark this as a red letter day on our calendars and plan to attend. Will see you all at the Cisco National Bank Building at 7:30. Good luck and keep plugging.

"Informance" Gave Listeners Heavenly Sounding Music

Ethereal sounding music arrived in Cisco Sunday afternoon, July 18, when internationally known harpist Sally Goodwin gave a concert in the First Methodist Church.

About 350 persons from a wide area of north-central Texas filled the auditorium for Miss Goodwin's "Informance"—a title she gave to her combination of music, discussion, and occasional poetry. The audience ranged in age from 94 to 4, and all were absorbed in her program.

The harpist seemed to effortlessly project waves of sound from her golden instrument. She explained, however, that the concert harp is a highly technical creation, requiring physical strength and intensive training.

She appeared to have great control of the harmonious shower of notes—the glissando, or waterfall, the plucking, strumming, guitar-like sounds—and those similar to a harpsichord.

Beginning with "Etude to Concert", described as "the sound of sunlight", the program explored a wide variety of compositions. A number of French and German composers were included, with Debussy's haunting "Claire De Lune", the "First Movement for Harp" by Bach, and the stunning "Fantasy in Themes" by Haydn. "Feelings", a contemporary number, had a theme with floating, shifting images. The concert was closed with "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Goodwin, of Rock Island, Ill., has been playing the harp in concerts since she was 12 years old. She studied at the Juillard School of Music, New York, under famed French harpist Marcel Grandjany.

She has played with a number of Symphony Orchestras in the United States, as well as for recitals and concerts. She has performed for numerous international dignitaries, and for television and documentary films. She made her Carnegie Hall debut in 1978, and recently received acclaim for concerts in West Germany.

After the Cisco concert an Aunt and Uncle of Sally Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gorr of Cisco, hosted a reception in the Church hospitality room. Miss Goodwin's mother, Mrs. Ruth Miller of Anaheim, California, presided at the guest book. Other relatives from the Gorr houseparty who assisted were Mrs. Rochelle Speegle of Abilene, the Gorr daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Nelson, Miss Goodwin's Aunt and Uncle from Aurora, Ill.

Guests expressed appreciation for Miss Goodwin and her music. One person said: "If 'The Lord's Prayer' had been the only piece on the program—it would have still been more than worth my time to come!"

After leaving Cisco Miss Goodwin drove to Los Angeles, where she will be playing in "The Crystal Cathedral."

PRICE OF FREEDOM

Democracy is expensive! Participation does reduce the cost however. Take the June 5th Primary Run-Off Election for example. Only 1,345 (of some 10,000 qualified voters) took the effort to vote in the Democratic Party primary.

Being a party function to nominate candidates for the fall General Election, costs for conducting the election are paid by the Party, through filing fees of the various candidates who are running.

It cost $1,669. to count the 1,345 voters — so you can see that the cost per vote runs pretty high. The more voters reduces the per-vote cost.

The Eastland and Cisco voting boxes had the best per-vote rate because more people voted in these boxes, and Carbon, the highest per-vote cost.

Here's the breakdown on the run-off election costs:

Box	Voting	Worker Cost	Cost Per Vote
Eastland	148	$188.50	$1.27
Olden	57	191.00	3.35
Ranger	661	244.00	3.69
Desdemona	84	137.50	1.63
Gorman	64	226.00	3.53
Carbon	29	175.00	6.03
Rising Star	60	149.50	2.49
Cisco	145	220.00	1.51
Lake Leon	49	137	2.80
Absentee			48
TOTAL	1345	$1,669.00	$1.24

Historical Marker Will Be Dedicated At Hargus Farm

A Texas Historical Marker for the Hargus farm, located on the E20 Access Rd. 2 mi. E. of Eastland, will be dedicated on Saturday, July 31, 2:00 p.m. This will be the first time in Eastland County that a Family Land Heritage Award farm has had a Marker erected.

The Family Land Heritage Award recognizes Texas families who have maintained continuous agricultural production on the same land for 100 years or more.

Mrs. Pebble Hargus Boles, the present owner, and her son, Winston Boles, will host the event. The public is invited.

Larry Hargus, the original farm owner, and his wife Mary (Corder) came to Eastland County in 1879. In 1881 they bought the original tract of their farm at the site from C.U. Connelley, a founder of Eastland.

The Hargus family were also active in the development of a local Methodist Church. The family farm was later inherited by Larry Hargus's son Barry, who lived there with his wife Mackie (Gilbert) and eight children. Three of these children are still living: Pebble Hargus Boles of Eastland, Valera Hargus of Belton, and Gilbert Hargus of Tyler.

Pebble Hargus Boles married Claude Boles of Eastland, who operated the farm for a number of years. Eventually the Boles purchased all the property from the other heirs. After the death of Claude Boles, in 1965, the Boles son Winston began active management of the land.

Judge Scott Bailey of Eastland, Chairman of the Eastland County Historical Commission, will speak during the program and make the Dedication of the Historic Marker. Descendants of the Hargus family will also participate on the program.

A large group of family, friends, and Civic leaders are expected to attend.

Letters To The Editor

Editor I am seeking information on a family who lived in the town of Desdemona during the 1950's.

W.E. Wright and wife Sadie McKenzie. She was the daughter of John and Ellen McKenzie of Valley Mills, Texas.

If anyone knows of this family I would like to be in contact with them.

Thank you

of university teaching. We will continue to reside until we have sold our office building. Then we will be leaving unless we find permanent employment here. We continue to have a great concern for the moral and spiritual condition of the county and would like to see more progress in this area.
Sincerely,
John D. Hill

Dear Editor

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the Eastland County residents who supported Kathy and I in our attempt to practice general dentistry here through the last 12 months. Unfortunately there were not enough of you and we have now closed our office permanently. Actually a large part of this move was prompted by the fact that my interest and enjoyment is no longer in the clinical practice of dentistry. I frankly have missed the stimulation of the university atmosphere and now plan to work toward the profession

ONE OF THE hazards of smoking a pipe is that you're liable to lay one down and go off and leave it. Lawyer D.D. Williams, who quit cigarettes and took a pipe some 15 years ago, says he has driven as far as 30 miles to go back to an office or a restaurant to retrieve a pipe that he forgot to pick up. Pipe smoking won't hurt you—they won't stay lit long enough, says Mr. Williams.

THERE SOME good news and some bad news about the sales tax. The bad news is nobody likes to pay taxes. The good news is that the City of Cisco received $12,839 from the State Comptroller for June sales tax collections in our town. Sales tax income since last Oct. 1 is considerably over budget expectations.

Elsewhere in the area, June sales taxes enriched the City of Eastland by $10,858. Ranger's amounted to $9,602 and Rising Star received $849.

IT PROBABLY won't happen again, but Cisco's Evening Lions Club was without an elected leader at their meeting last Monday night at Colony Restaurant. President Jerry Jeffcoat and Vice Presidents Gene Gwinn, Dick Wages and Steve Cozart were all absent. Understand most of them were in Coleman for the Little League All-Star game. The evening club meets again next Monday night at 6:30 o'clock at the Colony Restaurant.

MR. DELBURT Schaefer, school teacher, sign painter, fisherman and golfer, was pretty dejected when he went home from the local golf course last Saturday afternoon. His score added up to 66 strokes for 18 holes—two under par—and he had lost to City Champ Bobby Smith, 4 up.

Things were a bit different Sunday afternoon. Delbert's 69 won. The city champ must have had a bad day.

THE CISCO Little League All-Stars lost a 4-0 decision in the regional playoff opener at Coleman last Monday night. Guess Coleman was evening the score. Cisco beat Coleman in the regional opener last year. Maybe they ought to make it a best-two-out-of-three affair. Mr. J.C. Fletcher has been playing golf this past week with his granddaughter's husband. Their visitors are from California.

IS THERE A story back of Mrs. Lloyd London's black eye?

We saw her and couldn't resist asking that question. She said that Lloyd is getting the blame although it happened because she stepped on a rake and the handle flew up and hit her. Mrs. LL was walking among flowers in the yard at Kamon House where her husband is an official when the mishap occurred the other day.

It took four stitches to sew up the cut but only time will take the black from around a blackeye, the doctor told Mrs. LL. The Londons are planning a vacation that will include visits in several western states, Seattle, Wash., and Vancouver, D.C., she reports. Mr. LL flew to Denver Thursday on business for the oil companies at Kamon House.

MAYOR ERIS Ritchie spent the past week catching up on things around the office and home after holding successful camps for cheer leaders and drum majors at the University of Houston. The coming week will require him to attend two conventions of band and music folks in San Antonio. Then, the following week, his biggest camp of the year will be held in San Antonio.

Mr. Ritchie, who has been conducting camps or schools for a good many years, said that this year has been the best.

MR. AND MRS. David Davies of Kerrville spent the past week here as guests of old friends Mary and Sutton Crofts. Mr. Davies is a retired banker. They enjoyed golf and recreation at the Crofts cabin (Sut's Hut) at Lake Cisco. It was 25 years ago this week that Ralph Glenn, CJC business manager, watched with awe as his tee shot at No. 2 hole at the Cisco Country Club hit the green and went into the cup. It was his first and only hole-in-one. Dan Dixon of the auto store owns nine goats—eight nannies and a billy name Willis.

MR. ODELL RAINS, a Cisco old-timer, "hung 'em up" the other day. He retired, ending a career with Lone Star Gas Company. Plans for retirement call for taking things easy. He'll work part-time for Jake Morgan over at Farm & Ranch Supply. The Willis Parkers entertained some 50 folks who attended a reunion of her family at their Lake Cisco cabin last weekend. Mrs. Eddie McMillan and son Brett spent several days in Big D this past week for him to take a course in computers at Texas Instruments. And Eddie has about recovered from helping son Lee dig a ditch for a gas line out at the new house that Lee and Angie McMillan are building. The ditcher hit and cut a water line and broke down. Two days later, the water line had been repaired and the gas line laid.

DURING A RECENT business trip to the Calgary country of Canada, Cisco Oil Man Ivan Webb found that the famous Calgary Stampede was going on. It is one of the world's top rodeo attractions so Ivan took time to attend a performance. Probably the most unusual event for Ivan was the chuck wagon races, a top program item at Calgary. In this event, four-horse teams put a wagon in a race around a track. Two out-riders accompany each chuck wagon. It makes for an exciting few minutes when four or five chuck wagon crews take to the track, Ivan reports.

MR. HUBERT Kennedy, who collects aluminum cans mostly for the exercise, loaded up nearly 30,000 of them the other day and went to market. Our scouts report that trophy winners in the recent Methodist Fishing Tournament were Joe and Jan Cooper. They received trophies at the church program at Lake Cisco. A trophy for "most energetic" fisherman went to Dan Dixon. He fished all day and didn't catch anything. Somebody called City Hall recently and said that a neighbor's snake, a boa constrictor, had escaped and that there ought to be a law. City Hall folks sympathized.

but wondered if there wasn't some leg pulling going on. In any event, a boa constrictor should not be hard to recognize if you see one. They grow to about 12 feet long.

A CITY POLICE auto caught fire when the motor backfired the other afternoon. It was on 7th Street between Avenue E and Hilton Avenue. Damage was slight. The final three performances of the Roof Garden Dinner Theater's current offering (July 22-24) were sell-outs.

OUR SCOUTS report that Mr. John McGuire, who suffered a broken leg last Sunday, is doing just about as well as a man could with a heavy cast on his leg, from toes to hip. And his doctor has indicated that he might be released from Hendrick Hospital, Abilene, to return home to Lake Cisco this weekend. The air conditioning system picked a day when temperatures were around the 100-mark Thursday to quit out at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital. Maintenance Supervisor Phil Schaefer had a crew on the job Friday and hoped to solve the problems soon. Meanwhile, the Hospital Auxiliary put out the word and rounded up a bunch of electric fans that were helping folks survive the heat.

Ciscoans Attend ACU Band Camp

Mark McGinness and Frank Schaefer, students from Cisco Junior High School attended the annual Junior High School Band Camp at Abilene Christian University July 11-16. Mark is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Allen McGinness of 1401 Ave. L. Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schaefer of P.O. Box 1206. The two were among about 100 students from across the state to participate in the camp, directed this year by John Whitwell, director of bands at ACU.

Super Duper Builders Lick Spring Problem

Snow just east of Eastland in July? No, that white stuff on the ground at the soon to be location of Super Duper Grocery was lime, even though some may have figured that snow in July was as likely as a building being successfully built on top of the spring on the site.

"When will Super Duper come," was a question often asked by locals as construction was delayed and water from an underground stream flowing through sand on top of a layer of solid rock about six feet down escaped to the surface just where the new store and parking lot are to be built.

It was quickly decided that store and spring could not share the same spot, so contractor Dub Langston from Grandbury was brought in to move the spring, bring the dirt to grade, and construct the parking lot.

Lake Cisco Home Club Meets

The Lake Cisco Home Extension Club met at the Federated Clubhouse Wednesday, July 21, for the regular monthly meeting with Etta Judia, president, presiding. The opening exercises were followed by Mrs. Maude Bailey followed with roll call response "An Unforgettable Day."

After committee reports and brief business, a forum was led by the program leader, Edna Bint, on the subject "Self-Protection for Women." Informal fellowship followed. Visitors and new members are always welcome.

According to Bill Umphress of the Langston firm, ditches were dug and four inch drain pipes were laid at various locations on the site to drain the underground stream into the highway drainage ditch, then the spring was filled with rock, as a layer of rock up to six feet thick at points was leveled over the site.

A layer of lime was plowed into a layer of earth over the rock layer so that with the addition of water a type of cement is formed sealing off the underground water from the surface. A crushed rock base and finally pavement goes over the seal.

As applying the lime created some dust along the highway, the company had planned to apply it at about 3 a.m. but breakdowns delayed it to heavier traffic hours.

Meanwhile Butler Brothers Construction Co. has been setting forms and digging ditches for the concrete beams and floor of the new building. Company employees were hoping to pour the concrete by next week.

As construction progresses, the spring takes its new course flowing from the pipes into the drainage ditch with the original full four inch pipe flow diminished but still healthy.

Receives Honor

Richard T. Dye, a sophomore in electrical engineering from Cisco, has earned "Distinguished Student" status at Texas A&M University.

Recipients of the "Distinguished Student" honor must earn at least a 3.25 grade point ratio, out of a possible 4.0, during the most recent grading period.
