

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

I FEEL THAT the following article has some very good advice for everyone to follow. If you have ever had the misfortune of knowing someone who was killed in an automobile accident caused by a drunken driver, then you know the pain and anguish felt by the family and friends of the lost loved one.

I hope you will read the article and pay attention to what it says. It is being borrowed from the August 1982 edition of The Electric Times, a magazine published each month by West Texas Utilities for its employees. It is as follows:

24-HOUR SAFETY WATCH

Two acronyms all too often keep one another company on police and hospital records. They are DWI (driving while intoxicated) and DOA (dead on arrival.) This is a tragic situation!

We talk a lot about safety. We want a safe place to work and a safe place to live for us and our children. We want to keep injuries and deaths to a minimum.

Do we?

Here's how we keep our highways safe:

Drunk drivers are involved in over half of all fatal crashes taking place on America's highways. Almost 30,000 men, women and children are killed each year in accidents involving the drunk driver. Half a million more are injured in drunk driving accidents, and economic losses exceed $6 billion every year. One out of every 25 drivers (some sources say more) on the road is drunk!

What can be done about it? Obviously mere publicity campaigns haven't worked. 30,000 lives! most of those killed were not those who did the drinking! After years of trying to convince the public that "if you drink, don't drive." No appreciable progress has been made in reducing alcohol-related traffic deaths.

Two things seem to hinder progress in reducing these deaths. One is attitude. The other is simple chemistry.

The second cannot be changed to reduce deaths. Alcohol is a so-called "foreign substance" as far as food and drink consumption is concerned. It wasn't intended to be ingested or digested. Anyone, if he wants to, can readily obtain information about what alcohol does to the body. Most of it is not good.

But, that's not the big problem. Alcohol itself is not the culprit. Attitude is. Alcohol itself kills no one. The attitude toward its consumption is ultimately responsible for the deaths.

Government officials and concerned citizens ranging from the President of the United States to local community groups are beginning to speak out in favor of stricter laws, greater enforcement and stiffer penalties for drunk driving offenders. Their battle cry is: "Get the drinking driver off the road!"

The drunk driver problem is being studied carefully in many state safety commissions. It is their responsibility to make suggestions and recommendations to state governors.

Whatever is done by these concerned people will not help, however, unless the attitude problem is solved. They say that "money moves alcohol." The predominant attitude toward drinking will never change as long as it is advertised as "the American way," or "smart people relax" with this or that. Alcohol never was and never will be a matter of status, nor does the amount of consumption of such ever determine or promote "manhood."

Neither style nor taste make any difference. It is only a matter of personal preference.

An attitude of temperance, moderation and common sense is the key. Saving a life is serious. Whether it takes .0001 or .10 percent blood alcohol to determine drunkenness is a matter of clinical debate, not that of saving lives.

Although many choose for various reason not to consume alcohol, that, of course, is a matter of personal preference as well. Obviously these people kill no one. The responsibility for "attitude adjusting" for safety rests with consumers.

Here are a few suggestions for starters:

1. Drink in moderation.
2. If you know you'll be going to a party or place where consumption will take place, arrange for someone to drive you home.

3. If you are alone, please accept the idea that no one is going to injure or damage your reputation if you do not accept that refill, or for that matter, any drink at all.
4. Recognize the fact that driving immediately after any alcoholic consumption is potentially dangerous.

5. Recognize the fact that DWI and DOA go hand in hand. That it is estimated that 1 out of every 4 drivers on the road has consumed some alcoholic beverages.
6. If you are the party host, don't urge too many drinks on a hesitant friend. Resist the urge to live up a party by stiffening the drinks. It doesn't accomplish its objective.

7. Adjust your attitude on "attitude adjustment."

City Manager Put On Rate Committee

Mike Moore, Cisco city manager, has been named by the Texas League of Municipalities to serve on a state-wide committee to study the request of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company for a substantial increase in telephone rates across the state.

Mr. Moore is a member of a 17-man committee of which Tom James of the City of Dallas is chairman. The Ciscoan is representing the smallest city of committee members which held a meeting last Friday in Dallas to begin its work.

SWBell recently filed a request with the Texas Utilities Commission for a rate increase amounting to $471,500,000 in additional revenue. The rate hike would not affect long distance service - only local telephone rates in the various cities served by SWBell.

The rate increase requested would be a hike of 64.3 per cent, Mr. Moore said, for the smaller towns. Larger towns would have their rates increased by 46.5

Golf Scramble Set

A golf scramble will be held Saturday, August 28, at the Cisco Country Club. Tee off time will be at 1:30 p.m. The cost will be $3.00 for members and $6.00 for non-members.

Fans Impressed As Lobos Go Through Scrimmage Program

The Cisco High School Lobos looked impressive to coaches and fans as they went through a controlled scrimmage program with the Merkel High School teams last Friday night at Chesley Field.

In the program, the teams alternated running offense and five times the Lobos surged across the Merkel goal line. Only once did the Lobo defense allow Merkel to score.

The Lobo starting backfield included Quarterback Randall Rattan, Tailback Jason Potter, Wingback Doug Hendricks and Fullback David Seabourn. Rattan completed nine of 13 passes for 250 yards, a pretty impressive set of stats. Seabourn and Potter logged the most yards rushing.

Other offense starters

TWO GRASS FIRES
Cisco volunteer firemen answered two alarms caused by grass fires last Sunday. They went to Country Club Ridge to put out a grass fire near the Dan Dixon home. Later in the day, an alarm was telephoned from Dothan where burning grass threatened a house. Both blazes were put out without damage.

School Enrollment Is 957 First Day

Enrollment in the Cisco Public Schools totaled 957 as the 1982-83 school year got underway Monday in all units of the system, Superintendent James Couch reported.

The total was 47 short of the number that enrolled on opening day last school year, Mr. Couch said. The drop was largely in kindergarten which enrolled 67 students this year as compared with 87 last year. High school enrollment was 279, which was about the same as last year.

Mr. Couch's report showed enrollment by grades as follows: Kindergarten, 67; 1st, 83; 2nd, 67; 3rd, 70; 4th, 69; 5th, 71; 6th, 86; 7th, 75; 8th, 90; 9th, 75; 10th, 74; 11th, 64; and 12th, 66.

"We are looking forward to a good school year," Mr. Couch said. "Opening day went off without incident."

The total enrollment was expected to increase slightly in the next few days.

On the left are Aileen and Everett Martin, winners of this 1982 Oldsmobile Cutless Supreme Brougham. The Martins who are residents of Cisco, received the car when they reached their current level with Shaklee Corp., headquartered in San Francisco, California. With the Martins, on the right of the car, are Sybil Woodard, Laverne Maynard both of Eastland and Daisy Davis of Cisco. All five are area Shaklee distributors. The car was picked up at Jim Caldwell Motors in Eastland.

were Larry Adams and Mike Gallegos, ends; Robert McCulloch and Mark Petree, tackles; Johnny Seabourn and Kenneth Preston, guards; and Bud Wood, center.

The Lobo defense had Mike Gallegos, Bud Wood, Kenneth Preston and Robert McCulloch as the four down linemen; Mark Petree, Brad Hawari and Mike Williams, linebackers; and Larry Adams, Randall Rattan, Glen Starr and Jason Potter, defensive backs.

All members of the squads of both schools saw action during the program.

Since practice began on a twice-a-day basis last August 9th, the Lobo squad has dropped from 60 to 48 and they're all enthusiastic football players, Coach Jim Puryear reported. Workouts were at 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. through last Thursday. Since the opening of school, workouts are held each afternoon.

There have been no injuries to date "and we want to keep it that way," Coach Puryear said. Preparations

Sixth Juror Is Picked Tuesday In LeFlore Capital Murder Trial

A 50 yr. old fence builder from Rising Star was accepted for jury duty at 10:20 a.m. Tuesday.

He was the first to be questioned Tuesday and the thirty-sixth to be examined in the Charles LeFlore Capitol murder case. This brings the total to five selected - three women and two men since questioning began a week ago, August 18th.

A 28 yr. old Cisco man who works for the gas company was the second questioned and also accepted just before noon on Tuesday.

Six jurors have been selected after six days in the Charles LeFlore capital murder trial now under way in 91st District Court, which began Monday, Aug. 16.

Prospective jurors are being questioned individually and through Monday of this week, 34 persons have been interviewed, with most being excused because they stated that they could not give a minimum sentence if the defendant is found guilty, or Hostesses for the meeting will be Francille Winnett and Gina Winnett.

Cisco P.T.O. Honors Teachers With A Coffee

An autumn theme was used in the decorations when the Cisco Parent Teacher Organization honored the teachers on August 16, with a coffee at the High School Cafeteria.

Home made sweet breads, coffee and cokes were served. The delicious breads were made by the officers of P.T.O. Doris Lundstrom, president, introduced her officers for this coming year. Superintendent James Couch thanked P.T.O. in behalf of the Cisco Independent School District teachers.

Billy Lundstrom, son of the president, drew the winning teacher's name for the centerpiece. First grade teacher, Diana Yowett, won the Autumn silk flower arrangement. A pleasant and productive year was wished for all the teachers from the Cisco Parent Teacher Organization.

Rodney Huffman Receives Degree

Rodney Huffman of Cisco was among 165 graduates receiving diplomas during Sul Ross State University in Alpine summer commencement August 13. He received his MED degree in education.

that they do not believe in capital punishment.

The second batch of 25 prospective jurors was being examined Tuesday. There remains about three and a half groups of 25 to be questioned.

Both the defense and the prosecution is allowed 15 strikes each, and others can be excused for "cause".

LeFlore is being tried for the murder of Debra Garcia in Cisco last November.

A second person, Brenda Gail Andrews, 20, also of Cisco, was indicted Friday by a 91st District Court Grand jury on capital murder indictment in connection with the murder.

Friday, Aug. 20

The first prospective juror was excused after undergoing an hour and ten minutes on the witness stand. A Carbon man, working in an Eastland grocery store, said he could not consider the minimum sentence or probation if the defendant was found guilty of murder.

A Carbon man, owner of a body shop, stated that being away from business would create hardship. Excused after about 10 minutes.

A Cisco woman, first said she could consider the full range of punishment in a murder case. After undergoing almost an hour's examination, she was excused when she told Don Wilson she could not vote for the minimum sentence nor probation if the defendant was found guilty.

A Ranger woman was excused after about ten minutes after she stated that she already has formed an opinion.

The next prospective juror, from Ranger, a business owner, was excused after about 1 hr. and twenty minutes questioning. He stated he had an unhappy experience with law enforcement when three juveniles burglarized his business.

The sixth prospective juror, an Eastland woman, was excused at the request of the state when after forty-five minutes she said she could not take a jury oath to render a verdict on circumstantial evidence.

A Ranger woman, who said her husband was a heart patient with no one else to care for him was excused at the request of both attys.

An Eastland man, employed at an iron foundry, was dismissed when he said reports he had read had influenced him and he already had an opinion.

A Cisco man, self employed, said his business duties would keep him from concentrating on the trial and that he could not be away from his job.

MONDAY

The first person to be examined Monday as a prospective juror in the Charles Allen LeFlore capital trial was a Gorman man. After forty-five minutes he was excused at the request of both the state and defense when he said murder is murder and he could not consider the minimum sentence if LeFlore was found guilty.

This newspaper apologizes to all who may have been embarrassed and/or confused by the article.

The next to be examined, a Rising Star woman, said she was working for the city of Rising Star when the murder occurred. She has served on a grand jury. Excused at request of state after thirty minutes when it was determined she would require the state prove guilty to a certainty and not a reasonable doubt.

A former Cisco woman, now living in Eastland was dismissed after fifteen minutes at the request of the state when she twice stated she is against capital punishment.

A Gorman man who has served on grand juries and civil juries, said he had already formed an opinion that would influence how he voted. Excused by both sides.

The next to be questioned, an Eastland woman, emphatically said she could never sentence a man to death. Was excused after 15 minutes.

A Cisco man was excused after attorneys met with judge Wright and defendant in his chambers. He said he had known defendant 15 yrs. He said LeFlores family had met with him seeking council in this case. He said if certain events happen during the trial his opinion would be influenced by prior contact with the family.

An Eastland man, who has prior jury experience, was excused by the defense after an hour and half when he stated he could not consider the minimum sentence for murder.

A man from Ranger, a self employed trucker, was excused by the state after one hr. He stated that he thought eye witness evidence was stronger than circumstantial. He said the state would have to prove its case in a capital murder trial.

A Cisco woman, was excused at the defense request after she stated she would first have to hear the evidence but could not envision voting the minimum sentence if the defendant was found guilty.

A Gorman man, who farms and said he is a minister, was discharged after one hr. and 15 minutes when he said he could not consider the minimum sentence for murder.

CORRECTION AND CLARIFICATION

Mrs. Jack (Louise) Carter, owner of Louise's Cafe in Eastland is not divorced from her husband, Mr. Jack Carter, as was indicated in an article in this newspaper Sunday in the questioning of prospective jurors in the LeFlore murder trial now in progress in 91st District Court.

This newspaper apologizes to all who may have been embarrassed and/or confused by the article.

THE BEAUTIFUL BLUE BURRO'S TAIL

The spindle-shaped leaves on the dangling tassels of Burro's Tail create a plant of such symmetrical grace that you'll never tire of looking at it.

Besides its beauty, Sedum Morganianum is one of the fastest growing of all succulents. It possesses an unusual metabolic property that allows it to use carbon dioxide during the night, as well as during the daylight hours, for the perpetual synthesis of food and water. This characteristic, called Crassulacean Acid Metabolism, is also shared by the Jade Plants, and it results in dramatic increase in growth. Burro's Tail is certainly one of the loveliest of all succulents. It grows with long, dangling stems lined with chubby leaves bunched banana-fashion along the entire length. These tidy, tumbling braids are an unusual color that sparkles in contrast to the greens in your foliage window. The Burro's Tail plants are green, all right, but they're frosted with blue sheen, in much the same manner as blueberries and plums. The effect is a stunning silver-blue shimmer.

In its native land, the dry plateaus and semi-arid regions of Central and Northern Mexico, Burro's Tail grows in fast-draining porous soil in a climate that produces hot days and cool nights with a minimum annual rainfall.

Use these natural preferences as a guide to the culture of the easy-growing Burro's Tail, and be careful not to over water the plant. It stores moisture in its leaves, so it shouldn't be watered until the soil is completely dry. Be sure to hang the plant where it won't be bumped, because the stems shatter easily, dropping leaves like raindrops. The fallen leaves, however, can be inserted into moist soil for rooting.

Most plants are killed by TLC (Too much Tender Loving Care) such as overwatering and too much direct sun light. This plant the Burro's Tail is one of the easiest to kill by over-watering yet it is the easiest to grow by neglect. The Burro's Tail should be grown in a hanging basket or in a pot that has room for it to trail over the side for several feet. This is an excellent plant for balconies and porches.

GOOD BARDENING UNTIL NEXT WEEK FROM YOUR GARDEN EDITOR

To Tabulate Vote

Secretary of State David A. Dean announced today the Secretary of State will undertake vote tabulation in primary and general elections beginning with the November 2 general election. Dean noted that the Texas Election Bureau (TEB) had unanimously voted not to tabulate results for the upcoming general election and instead supported a merger of experience and expertise with the Secretary of State's Office.

Secretary Dean stated "I am extremely appreciative of this vote of confidence and the support expressed by the TEB Directors. I have no doubt that their pledge of support and resources ensures that the undertaking will be a successful venture. Our combined talents will maximize the state's ability to quickly and accurately report statewide vote totals.

The natural consequence of our efforts will be minimized opportunity for election fraud and a maximized flow of election results to the public and candidates."

Dean also stated that he was inviting the current members of the TEB to serve on an advisory task force to the Secretary of State to oversee the election reporting project, particularly with respect to formatting the returns to be reported on November 2, 1982. "The TEB had indeed filled a void for the State since 1916 and is to be commended for their service to the State to assume the vote tabulation function and for it to be carried on by the state."

Burl Osborne, Executive Editor of the Dallas Morning News, and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Texas Election Bureau, stated that the TEB Board of Directors had carefully analyzed the Secretary of State's proposal and had unanimously come to the decision to support the state sponsored project. Osborne stated, "Based on assurances from Secretary Dean, the reports of the TEB staff, and the views expressed by our Board members, we have asked Secretary Dean to proceed with our cooperation."

Dean noted that the Subcommittee on Public Disclosure of the Public Servants Standards of Conduct Committee had, on August 3, 1982, ratified a proposal calling for the Secretary of State to assume the vote tabulation process with full Committee approval expected in October. In addition, Governor Clements, Lt. Governor Hobby, Speaker Clayton, and State Representative Gib Lewis, had endorsed the Secretary of State sponsored project. Dean noted that Representative Lewis will be the House sponsor of the legislation to institutionalize the process in the Secretary of State's Office by statute.

Secretary Dean concluded "I look forward to working with the membership of the TEB in this endeavor and know full well that their support coupled with that of the county clerks and news media, will result in an efficient and effective statewide vote tabulation project beginning on November 2, 1982.

Ciscoan Paul Ivie Has Article In 'Bowhunter' Magazine

An Eastland County writer, Paul Ivie of Cisco, has an article in the 1982 Hunting Animal of "Bowhunter" magazine, which is now on news stands now all across the U.S. "Bowhunter" is published in Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

The Ivie article, titled "How to Bag A Gobbler", discusses the use of special blinds developed by the author. Other articles in this special issue cover various aspects of hunting with a bow, such as elk hunting.

Paul, a native of the Cisco area, and his wife Marie live on an acreage S.E. of town. He retired from Exxon Corp.

in 1971, and now spends his time ranching, well pumping, outdoor cooking, or hunting and writing about it.

He became interested in archery and bowhunting several years ago, and much of his writing reflects this specialty. His first outdoor magazine article was published in 1977, and since then several more on hunting and campfire cooking have gone into print.

"Writing for outdoor publications, The Texas ones included, is highly competitive - but I enjoy it," Ivie states.

"After 40 years of hunting and fishing, I decided to tackle writing about it."

Readers of this article indicate that a lot of personal knowledge, experience and skill has gone into each one.

Boss Northcutt

John Northcutt

These pictures were brought in to The Eastland Telegram by Boss Northcutt from Rt. 1, DeLeon. They show Desdemona in 1919 when Northcutt's father, John Northcutt, ran a store in the town during the oil boom.

Boss Northcutt, who was a boy at the time, remembers that the muddy roads were so bad that his father "Had to go around by Stephenville to get to Ranger". He also recalls that many people live around Desdemona in "tents and everything else" for some time. One picture shows a team of oxen.

When he was a young man Boss Northcutt homesteaded west of Ft. Sumner New Mexico, but came back to this area. He still operates his farm in Comanche County, where he raises peanuts.

'Enchanted Rock' Still Attracts

By Viola Payne
Sometimes the lesser-known Texas State Parks are also the most attractive. This certainly holds true for "Enchanted Rock", a pinkish-tan dome of granite between Llano and Fredericksburg.

This ranch area, which is only 165 mi. S.W. of here by way of Brownwood, San Saba, Llano, and paved road No. 965, appears to be one of the most unspoiled in the Park System. I visited it on a weekday (Tuesday) recently, and found little traffic on the road and no one at the tree-shaded picnic ground beneath the mammoth rock.

The boulder, which covers about 640 acres and is 500 ft. high, is striking contrast in color and form to the green valley below it. Sandy Creek, as the stream is called, spirals around the Rock into the distance.

Enchanted Rock lies in the area of the pioneer German settlement of the 1850's, but it had a history even before that. It is said to be the site of human sacrifices by early Indian tribes, who held it in awe and reverence.

Later Indians, such as the Comanches, used it as a rallying point. They stayed away from it at night, however, believing that "ghost lights" flickered on its crest in the moonlight. They also reported wierd creaking and groaning sounds from the rock at night. But the Comanches weren't much for getting out at night anyhow. Too many evil spirits roaming around, they said.

Geologists now explain the mysterious night sounds from the rock as being caused by cooling and contraction after the days heat.

As I passed by the rock, a shower flirted with the egg-shaped expanse. I hope the rain would hit, for I had heard that the rock "changes color" when wet, with myriads of crystalline bits flashing shades of green, rose and gold.

But the shower moved a few miles east of the rock. When I reached it, the wild sweet smells of wet oaks and cedars rose to meet me. It was a fitting goodbye from the stunning country around Enchanted Rock.

Party Over For Unlicensed Bingo

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said today the party is over for unlicensed bingo games in Texas.

"Turn out the lights and throw away the number," Bullock said. "If voters in your area haven't approved legal bingo and you haven't got a license to conduct your game, then we're looking for you."

Bullock said the state's new Bingo Enabling Act, which took effect last November, gave voters in every Texas community three chances to petition their local governments to have an election this year.

"Their last chance was last Saturday. We have given seven months grace to some games in this state, making sure they had every chance the law allows to get legal. We intend to file gaming charges against those who have not fully complied with the law. We will be working with local law enforcement authorities and the Attorney General and we will also be checking to see if there are other back taxes these illegal games might owe," Bullock said.

George Garland, director of the Comptroller's Bingo Regulation Division, said allowing unlicensed games to continue would be unfair to groups and organizations who "went to the trouble of getting their petition signed, calling an electin, getting licenses and doing things the right way."

Garland pointed out that because 1982 is a general election year, voters will not have the opportunity to vote on the bingo question in November, as they could in any other year.

"This is one of the problems with the bingo law," Garland said. "There are some others and some provisions that need to be changed. Some people think that we made all this up and that they should be able to just go back to playing illegal bingo the way they used to. We tell them we're only doing what the Legislature told us to do when they passed this law. If they want to change the law, we tell them to go back to the Legislature."

Lights from the Christian World

By: Josephine Cleveland

A lady shared with me that while she was praying in church about an urgent matter in her life she stopped praying and was tempted to doubt whether her prayer would be answered. As she pondered the quality of her faith, she suddenly envisioned images as if she were viewing a small television screen.

Before her she saw tall, snow-capped mountains. The day was dawning and as the sun rose it shone against the snow of the mountains and created a beautiful sight. Then the sun became visible over the mountains. It seemed to burst into view in a radiance of glory. In the presence of the sun, the snow on the mountains began to melt rapidly.

As she looked, she began to speak the words aloud as they came to her. "Faith is like the sun rising over the 'snow of Lebanon' (Jer. 18:14) and melting all the snow away."

This experience fortified her many times in her life during times of testings. She was always assured that Christ was able and would do that which she could not do

DPS Plans For Labor Day After 7 Killed In July

During the month of July, 7 persons were killed as a result of 6 fatal rural motor vehicle traffic accidents in the 25 counties of the Abilene district of the Texas Department of Public Safety, according to the figures released by Captain G.J. Matthews, Texas Highway Patrol in Abilene.

troopers in Eastland Co. investigated a total of 24 accidents during the month of July according to Sgt. Jerry Matthews of the Eastland office of the Texas Highway Patrol. Sgt. Matthews said 3 of the accidents resulted in 4 individuals being injured and there were 20 accidents doing damage to property. He said one fatal accident occurred during the month of July in Eastland County killing 2 persons.

Sgt. Matthews said the total accidents are the same as occurred during the month of July in 1981. Injury accidents are the same as occurred last year with 6 persons injured. No fatal accidents occurred last year in July, he said.

Captain G.J. Matthews, Commander of the Texas Highway Patrol for the Abilene District said, "The Labor Day holiday period is the time for the last trip of the summer for a lot of Texans. While Texas drivers are planning their activities for the holiday weekend, the Texas Department of Public Safety is planning how to remove the dangerous drivers off the highways. The DPS will be striving to prevent traffic accidents and save peoples lives."

"We are concerned about the safety of all drivers on the highways," Captain Matthews said, "even though some drivers don't show much concern for their own safety much less the safety of someone else." In driving he said, "The one thing to look out for is your life. Don't do anything that you could be sorry for later."

The Department of Public Safety will have all available troopers on duty and will be especially watchful for those drivers who are committing accident causing violations. The two major areas of concern for the DPS are speed and driving while intoxicated.

Sandy Doyett was 3rd with 1 fish weighing 1 lb. 15 oz. There were a lot of fish caught this trip and everyone had an enjoyable time. Throckmorton is one of our smaller lakes in the area, but it does hold some nice fishing. Most of the fish taken were on jig & pig. Using the flipping & dabbling technique.

Reports around area lakes are generally slow. Some moderate crappie catches upriver at Leon. Early and late bass are slowing some with warmer days. See you at our September meeting.

The Carters -And A Letter- Go To Mississippi

By Viola Payne

On July 12 the six children of the late S.E. (Bud) and Julia Dwyer Carter Sr. of Eastland, with two of the daughters-in-law, began a unique trip to Meridian, Mississippi.

This could be called a "sentimental journey", for it was inspired by a letter written to their father 72 years ago.

They planned to visit the person who had written the letter, a 91 yr. old cousin of their fathers named Annie Ivy Sellers. They also hoped to renew ties with other living relatives of S.E. Carter's parents (the S.M. Carters), and to search out family records.

J.D. Carter and his wife Frieda of Eastland left their home at a dark 3:45 a.m., driving a van specially purchased for the occasion. The Carters wanted to ride together and visit with each other during the trip, as well as get acquainted with relatives.

At Desdemona they picked up Lucille Carter Johnson and Winnie Carter Rainey (who live in that area) and Jean Carter Jernigan, who had come from her home at Lake Proctor to meet them.

The next stop was at Euless around 7:00 a.m., where they picked up S.E. Carter (Jr.) and his wife Melba, and Esther Carter Cannon of Conroe, Texas. Now the whole family was off for Mississippi.

Eastland County pioneers who came from Mississippi the "hard way" would have had trouble believing this "journey backward". For in spite of battery and water pump trouble on the van, a

6:30 notation by Lucille Johnson reads: "Spent night at Magnolia Inn in Vicksburg."

The Carters were carrying along the original of Cousin Annie Sellers letter, fragile now with age. It was dated Sept. 1, 1910, at De Sota, Miss. Annie was twenty years old at the time, newly wed, and cousin S.E. Carter was away out at Eastland, Texas, and unmarried.

The S.M. Carters first came to Texas in the 1880's, and lived around Dallas and Palo Pinto County. S.E. was born in Hill County, Tex. in 1889. The family came to Eastland County when he was a boy, in 1901.

Annie Sellers wrote the letter because she wanted S.E. Carter to make a trip to Mississippi to meet some unmarried cousins of her husbands. She felt he could find a suitable wife among these girls.

It wasn't long until S.E. followed the advice in the letter and went to Mississippi.

To this day no one knows details of how the courtships turned out. But probably not so well, for S.E. came back to Texas and stayed single for several more years. He married Julia Dwyer in 1971, and this happy marriage were born the six people who were now on the 1982 trip.

S.E. Carter Sr. died in 1969 without ever going back to visit his relatives in Mississippi. His wife, Julia, died in 1981.

When the Carters were going through papers their parents left behind, they found the old letter from "Miss Annie", as she was affectionately called. It was written in pencil, was six pages long, and very expressive.

When S.E. Carter Jr. read the old letter, he hurried to a phone and called Information. To his delight, Cousin Annie Sellers was still living.

She answered the telephone with amazement, for she couldn't remember S.E. Carter Sr., the trip, or the letter. She said, however, that she would believe everything when she saw it! And that was all it took to start the Carter family on plans for the trip.

The next morning after reaching Vicksburg, the energetic Carters toured the Civil War Memorial before leaving the area. This was located at the site of a crucial mountain-top battle.

As they drove to Jackson, the state capitol, they enjoyed looking over the countryside. Farms with soybeans, corn and cattle dotted the landscape. In Jackson they visited the archives, and located census records on grandparents William J. Carter, Andrew Jackson Ivy, Silas Monk and Memesia Ivy Carter.

They spent the night with friends in Jackson, Tommy and Margie Pee, who had graduated from Cisco High School in 1947 with S.E. Jr. They had continued to be friends with the Carters down through the years since.

On the morning of the 14th the group reached Meridian and the attractive white home of Annie Sellers. A lovely elderly lady greeted them, and they handed her the letter. She smiled, studied the pages, and blinked back tears.

"Yes, this is my handwriting," she said. The Carters found that Annie Sellers did not live alone. Daughters Zoie and Vickie lived with her, and her son lived near by.

But "Miss Annie", as she was still called, did some of her cooking, kept her room, worked in her small garden, and still enjoyed attending Church.

The Carters soon found that Annie Sellers was alert and generally inspiring. Memories of their parents and their feelings for long-lost family members from this part of Mississippi became all tangled up together. So it was quite a homecoming for the Texas kinspeople.

Soon Annie Sellers got on the phone and called up relatives. Reservations were made for dinner in the ballroom of a local restaurant on the night of the 15th - a large enough place for everyone to meet.

After a good visit with Annie Sellers the Carters drifted out to talk to other relatives and check out cemeteries. They drove into Clark County, stopping in the towns of Enterprise, Quitman and Stonewall. They talked to a number of people and located family graves, and also visited land which had belonged to a great-grandfather.

Part of the next day was spent touring cemeteries and visiting. But by 3:30 the Carter group was back in Meridian, looking forward to the dinner in Morrison's cafeteria.

It turned out to be a gala occasion. Besides the eight persons in the Carter group, the dinner was attended by Ab and Kate Ivy, Raymond and Myrtle Sellers, Katherine Hamrick, Annie Sellers, Zoie Sellers, and Victoria Sellers Chancellor. "We had a wonderful time," says Lucille Johnson. "We talked and talked - trying to catch up on what had happened to all of us."

The group left the cafeteria and went back to "Miss Annie's" for more refreshments and visiting. Finally it was time for good byes - and this was the hard part.

The last day in Mississippi was spent reading microfilm in the archives at Jackson. More interesting family records were discovered. By 2:00 p.m., however, the Carter van was headed back toward Texas. Across the Mississippi, the old landmark for pioneers, on to Minden, La. There, at the Bayou Inn, the travelers report they had "A delicious meal of catfish, red beans, onion, hushpuppies, green tomato relish, and slaw."

They left a motel the next morning for the last part of the trip home. A quiet, uneventful journey, with time to reflect on what it had meant to them. Gradually the Carters were dispersed, with J.D., Frieda and the van rolling into Eastland by night.

Then, late in July, a letter followed them up. For "Miss Annie" Sellers could still write. She sent a newsy three-page letter, the sort of thing a Mother or any loved relative would write to her people. Along with a number of things, she said:

"My dears, All of you, when you left that nite I had to choke to keep from crying, just to think what a happy time we had. See, I am a loner, no brothers or sisters..."

"The reason I can't write, I had an appt. with Dr. on Friday, then in hospital 9 days, Xrays and many tests run. I think the Drs. do all this to make money - I'm no better. I hurt all over worse than anywhere else! I'm not going to write much 'till I get better - can't hardly read my own writing."

"Anyway this was one of the happiest times of my life - to think all of you came to see us."

"Raymond was so glad I talked him into joining us." After much more family news, she concludes: "Remember, we love every one of you."

As Lucille Johnson read the letter, she realized that meeting "Miss Annie" was alone worth the trip - not to mention the other people, and things which had happened. So there had been nothing superficial about the trip to Mississippi.

The Carters had touched the past and found it good.

*****
By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

The calendar says August is quickly drawing to a close and September is just around the corner. Surely we will have a change in the weather by then and some much needed rain. We are thankful that the stock tanks and lakes have a good supply of water due to the early summer rains. School bells will be ringing in most places this week. The old school teacher is like an old race horse, when the bell rings we want to get going! The children and their mothers are busy shopping for school supplies. My little neighbor came to show me her new school clothes and how cute she looked.

Mr. Wilburn McKinney came home this week from a 3½ month stay at Hendrick Memorial Hospital at Abilene. Welcome back home Mr. McKinney.

We are sorry to learn of the death this week of Mr. Dick Yarbrough at Junction. The Yarbroughs lived north of Putnam for many years. Our sympathy goes to the family.

Our sympathy also to the families of Mrs. Katie McCleary of Baird who was buried Saturday, and to the family of Gary Weeks of Blackwell who was buried at Baird Thursday. He was the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Weeks here and the son of G.W. Weeks of Brownwood.

Mrs. Julia Green returned to her home at Phoenix, Ariz., Wednesday after spending some time with her daughter-in-law, Jewel Mobley and I.G. Mrs. Mary King and Jewel Mobley took her to Midland to catch a plane to Phoenix.

Little Miss Brandi Whitehead of Houston is visiting her grandparents, the Joe Whiteheads.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Lee Donaway and sons of Hereford spent last week with his parents, the Milton Donaways and his grandmother, Mrs. R.C. Speegle.

Mrs. Edith Ivie spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Bonnie McCleskey at Cisco. Mrs. McCleskey is recuperating from recent surgery.

Mrs. Judy Maxwell and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. LaFlore at DeLeon this weekend.

Chris Heidelberg of Breckenridge spent this past week with his great-grandmother, Ollie Burnam. His mother Dianne Heidelberg came for him Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Wagley of Baird attended church at Putnam Sunday and visited her son, Billy and family.

If you want to hear some good singing come to the Baptist Church at Putnam. Mr. Travis Crutchfield of Cisco is leading the singing and doing a good job.

CHANGING ATTITUDES ABOUT DWI

Few things in this country have changed as much during the past few years as public attitudes on drunk drivers. It is a change we can all be thankful for.

Most of that change, in my opinion, can be attributed to the organization of Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD), and the attendant publicity and editorial support they have received from our newspapers. They have succeeded, where others have failed, in drawing attention to the tragedy that has claimed the lives of thousands of Texans.

It was not long ago, for instance, when some public officials who ought to lead by example were openly contemptuous of our laws against driving while drunk. Much of this problem started nine years ago when my opponent became Lt. Governor and helped pass the law reducing the legal drinking age from twenty-one to eighteen years of age. Now Mr.

Hobby, feeling the heat of irate parents and loved ones, and perhaps personal remorse, has said he favors tougher drunk driving laws—another switch from a previous position.

Political promises, however, are easily made. If a politician can't get excited about an issue of this magnitude in nine years, it seems unlikely that he would get excited and pursue corrective legislation in another four years.

So I hope the Mothers Against Drunk Drivers will stick to their guns, and I hope they continue getting support from the people of our state. Their efforts to put an end to this carnage on our highways has my support, and I hope it has yours.

Of one thing we can be reasonably sure: Starting next year we will have a new Lt. Governor, and that will make it easier. If you have thoughts on this subject, please write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, 78705.

Teenage Girls Softball ended with the Gorman Tournament July 29, 30 and 31.

Eight Eastland County teams entered all the tournaments, and this one finished out as the last three, with the Cisco Little Bits and the Eastland Stingrays fighting it out for the winning title. It was a replay of the Ranger tournament, with the Stingrays playing four games back to back. The Stingrays beat the Little Bits the 3rd game, then had to play them again for the championship. The game ended with the Little Bits winning by 3 points, closing a very exciting season.

Girls receiving all star trophies were as follows: Eastland Yankees

Ranger Moonrunners
Carlene Jackson

Tam Anderson
Brenda Scitern
Carbon
Becky Sewell

After outscoring the San Diego Chargers in their second exhibition game, the Dallas Cowboys are now having to make their first official squad cut of the season as league rules require that the teams be down to seventy players this week.

Backup quarterback Glen Carano went out of the San Diego game with a deep knee bruise according to team president Tex Schramm. It will be in a cast for two weeks after which team personnel say they hope he will be able to resume workouts.

The team is looking forward to returning home to Dallas after another week of training camp says head coach Tom Landry.

He also says that it will take more competition to definitely determine the replacements for Charlie Waters at strong safety and D.D. Lewis at linebacker. Dextor Clinkscale, expected to challenge Benny Barnes for the starting strong safety job, and Anthony Dickerson, expected to compete with Guy Brown to start at weakside linebacker, have both missed much of the camp with minor injuries but are still in the race for a starting job. Ron Fellows, considered the quickest defensive player on the team, showed that he can contribute and challenge as he joined starting cornerbacks Everson Wallas and Dennis Thurman in making a pass interception.

The entire defensive secondary including rookie Rod Hill turned in good performances and seemed to be proving that last year was no fluke, and that the secondary is a team strength now.

Tim Newsome seemed to adjust quickly to his move to tailback and rookies George Peoples at fullback and Phil Pozderac at offensive tackle are impressing people.

Tackle Howard Richards started for Kurt Petersen at right guard and rookie Brian Baldinger also got to play at guard.

Petersen, Carano, and Jay Saldi are not expected to play when the Cowboys meet New England Saturday night at 8 in Texas Stadium in the third exhibition game. Gary Hogeboom and Danny White are expected to divide the time at quarterback.

Allen Gets 5 Yrs For Jail Escape

Jerry Allen, 18, of Rising Star was given a five-year prison sentence Monday by state Dist. District Judge Jim Wright after pleading guilty to a charge of escaping from Eastland County Jail July 22.

He escaped from the jail by breaking a window from a front office area, sheriff's officials said, and was caught 15 hours later in the Flatwood community south of here.

Allen had received a three-year sentence in May for criminal mischief and was awaiting the sentence when he escaped.

Wright ordered the two sentences to run concurrently.

People n Things

IF YOU HEARD loud cheers and applause out at the Cisco Country Club the other day, it was for Mary Ann Perry. Her tee shot on the 140-yard No. 2 hole was straight to the cup for a hole-in-one.

Witnesses included her dad, Carrel Smith, Vandell Weathers, Joe Sifton, Bernard Campbell and maybe some others. It was Mary Ann's first ace in a good many years of playing golf. She used a No. 3 wood for the shot.

CISCO VISITORS last weekend were Dr. Donald Morris and his wife Gloria of Cool, Calif. They were in Cisco to look over our town with the view of re-locating here. Dr. Morris practices at Auburn, Calif., a few miles from his home, and they're interested in moving to Texas.

The Morrisses did a lot of house hunting, attended church, met a lot of people, were impressed and made a good impression. Hopefully, we'll be hearing more from them soon.

VISITING OUT in Ruidoso, New Mexico, the other day, we went to a store for an item. And the first person we saw was Mr. H.K. Neely of Cisco. He and wife were there on vacation and expected to be home soon if they're not already.

And driving toward home Sunday, a car passed us on Highway 84 north of Roscoe. They honked their horn as they passed and in a little while, the car stopped and Charles Clark of Cisco got out. We all went to lunch together at a place near Sweetwater.

The Clarks were returning from a mini-vacation.

They'd been to Canyon and saw the outdoor musical TEXAS for the second time. They visited in Lubbock before returning home Sunday.

MR. ED FARLEY of our town had oughta write his memoirs and tell us all about the time in 1911 that he and his late father went by covered wagon from near Dublin, Texas, to Oklahoma. It was a long and arduous trip through country with few roads.

And in 1923, the whole Farley family, including in-laws, loaded up in two Model T Fords and drove from Dublin to California. Roads were somewhat better but it took them about three weeks to make the trip. Ed recalls that they carried food, water, bedding, clothing, tools and the like. There weren't many service stations and virtually no motels.

Driving through the Mohave Desert in California, they had six flat tires in a 10-mile stretch of road. Several times, they had to stop and re-line brakes. After a year, the Farleys loaded up the Model T's and returned to Dublin, Texas.

When Ed finished high school, he went to a school and learned telegraphy. Soon after graduating, he went to work for Humble Pipe Line Co. and stayed with that company until he retired. Visiting on Pike's Peak, Colo., once, Ed talked to a telegraph operator up there who told him that when he sent messages from the Peak he did so very slowly. The messages came in a lot faster down below due to the altitude, the man told Ed. And Ed still hasn't bought the man's story.

CITY JUDGE Jasper Cook drove down to Waco last weekend to bring his wife Evelyn back home to Cisco. And Mrs. JC had been there for a couple of weeks to help welcome Ryan Michael Smith into the home of Mike and Sharon (daughter of the Cooks) Smith.

Little Mike weighed in at nine pounds and 15 ounces and is the first born of the Smiths. He and his mother are doing nicely. Grandparents are the Jasper Cooks of Cisco and the David Smiths of Dallas. The S.L. Cooks of Cisco are great grandparents.

OUR SCOUTS report that Gary Speegel, who was a star ball carrier and linebacker for the CHS Lobos last year, has enrolled at Angelo State University and doesn't plan to play football. They honored Dan Dixon on Birthday No. 40 the other night at their Country Club Ridge home.

The First United Methodist Church bulletin lists their young folks going to college as follows: Dickey Seider, Paula Pruitt and Mary McGrew, CJC; Steve Ward and Kyle Wallace, UofTexas; Cyd Fry and Phil Fry, Southwest Texas U at San Marcos; Alicia Gordon, Sam Houston State; Kory Wallace and Cheryl Ward, Texas A&MU; Laura Jeffcoat, Tarleton State U; Blair Boyd, Angelo State; Blake Boyd, Texas Tech; Greg Qualls, Texas Wesleyan; Miss Sharla Qualls, graduate of CHS, CJC and Tarleton, has accepted a position in Newcastle Schools and will live in Olney.
