Thanks,

Good Turnout Expected For Three Elections Here

Polls Will Be Open Saturday From 7 a.m.-7 p.m.

A good turn-out of Cisco area voters has been forecast for Saturday, April 2, as residents select a mayor, two city councilmen, two hospital board directors, and three public school trustees in annual elections that will be held at the Corral Room of the Laguna Hotel.

The poll will open at 7 a.m. and remain open until 7 p.m. Serving as judges for the elections will be Earl Gorr, assisted by Elmer Escobedo, for the city and hospital voting, and Tops Bailey will supervise school trustee voting.

Residents of the city are eligible to cast ballots for mayor and city council, while residents of the school district may vote in the hospital and trustee elections. The possession of registration cards is a requirement.

The official ballots (sample copies appear elsewhere) list candidates for the three elections as follows:

City of Cisco

Mayor - Eris Ritchie, incumbent, owner of Southwest Enterprises; and W.E. (Edd) McGough, owner of Edd's Auto Salvage.

City Council Place 1 - Linton Batteas, incumbent, general contractor. City Council Place 2 - Brad Kimbrough, incumbent, owner of Kimbrough's Funeral Home.

Cisco Public Schools Place 1 - Donald Gorr, incumbent, owner of Gorr Oil Company; Lola Cozart, homemaker and wife of Roy Cozart, general contractor; and Bobby Smith, Cisco CPA.

Place 2 - Steve Cozart, building contractor; Howard Worley, oil lease operator; and Shirley (Gus) Smothers, incumbent, director of student activities at Cisco Junior College.

Place 3 - Dr. Allen McGinness, local dentist; Travis Starr, independent oil operator; and Gary L. Nichols, employee of Lone Star Gas Company.

Hospital Board Candidates for two vacancies - Bruce Stovall, oil supply company owner, incumbent; Armo Chamber, owner of Cisco Funeral Home, incumbent; and Judy Pharr Dudley, employee of Sears Order Office and wife of Robert Dudley, manager of J.C. Penney Co.

Absentee voting began March 14th and ended at 5 p.m. Tuesday, March 30. Some 25 ballots had been cast early Tuesday.

Grand Jury Is Ready To Study Lundstrom Case

An Eastland County district court grand jury was scheduled to meet at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday, March 30, to consider charges against Loyal Lundstrom, 59-year-old Ciscoan, in connection with the March 3rd murder of his wife Doris at their home in Cisco.

Lundstrom has been free under $200,000 bond after he surrendered to Cisco police at Dallas-Fort Worth airport 13 days after the death of his wife. He was being represented by Bill Hart, Eastland attorney.

Lundstrom's five children, ages 4 to 12 years, are in the temporary custody of Fred and Eileen Oehlke, parents of Doris Lundstrom, as the result of a hearing in 91st District Court last Friday. Judge Jim Wright rendered that verdict after a day-long hearing.

Lundstrom, present in the court, had sought to retain custody of the five children. After the verdict was announced, he said "no statement" to interviewers and left the courtroom. He is reported to be staying in Eastland County.

Judge Wright admitted only witnesses and those connected with the case at the child custody case hearing. Reporters and others were barred from the courtroom. The judge said that he did not want the hearing to become a "circus."

There was no immediate indication as to whether the verdict would be appealed. As they left, Attorney Hart told interviewers: "We have nothing to say at this time."

District Attorney Emory Walton will present the state's evidence in the case to the grand jury. Police Chief Randy Whittle of Cisco said "we have been told to appear at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday."

Correction

Thornton Feed Mill Sponsors Co. Show

Thornton Feed Mill of Cisco was inadvertently omitted from a list of contributors to the Eastland County Livestock Show and Sale given to The Cisco Press for publication in Sunday's paper.

Dick Woolley, treasurer, said Thornton Feed Mill did contribute and support the county auction this year, as they have in previous years.

day with all evidence in the case." Mr. Whittle directed the search for Lundstrom and the investigation, assisted by Mr. Walton, Sheriff Johnny Morren and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Oehlke have been staying with the Lundstrom children since they arrived here soon after their daughter's body was found. He has told interviewers that he would not speculate at this time as to whether he would remain in the area with the children or move elsewhere.

Cisco Attorney Wm. B. Wright, Jr., represented the Oehlkes in the custody case.

Lundstrom Officially Resigns Council Position

Loyal Lundstrom, who for the past three years has served on the Cisco City Council and has also held the designation of Mayor Pro Tem, has officially resigned his council position, according to an announcement by Cisco Mayor Eris Ritchie.

The mayor stated that he received a telephone call from Lundstrom on Monday of this week, in which the councilman stated his intention of resigning, due to the present circumstances. Then on Tuesday Mayor Ritchie received a letter of resignation addressed to the Mayor, City Manager, and Councilmen. The letter read as follows:

"I feel under the present situation for all concerned it is to the best interest of the city that I resign in Place Three on the City Council. It has been truly great to serve our City of Cisco and work with such a wonderful group of men in conducting business for the best interest of Cisco. I have counted it a great privilege."

Mr. Lundstrom's letter continued, "I trust the citizens of Cisco will continue to support our city government. Thank you for the opportunity you gave me to work in this place. It will long be remembered."

Lundstrom was first elected to the city council in 1980, when a complete turnover of members of the council was made, following a recall election. He was elected at that time to fill out a one-year unexpired term of a recalled council member. Then in 1982 he was elected, without an opponent, to a full three-year term. During both of his tenures, he was elected Mayor Pro Tem by acclamation by the other council members.

Mayor Ritchie stated that the council would act on Mr. Lundstrom's resignation at a called meeting on Tuesday, April 4. He also said that the Cisco City Charter stipulates that a special election be called to fill a vacancy with more than one year remaining. The matter of the special election will be considered in the near future, he concluded.

Deadline Extended For Contest Entry

Deadline for entries in the "You'd like living in Eastland County because..." Contest has been extended until April 10, it has been announced here.

UIL competitions and other spring events place an extra time burden on students and teachers in all the school systems, and it is hoped that the extra time will give ample time for as many entries as possible in the contest.

Winning entries will be announced in the COUNTY SPECIAL EDITION and as many entries as possible will be published. Purpose of the contest is to tell others why they'd like living in Eastland County.

"You'd like living in Eastland County because...(in 50 words or less)"

That's the phrase to complete for cash prizes by Eastland County school students.

A total of $500 will be awarded - and the fringe benefits might even be greater.

It'll be an opportunity for each county student from kindergarten to Jr. College student to put on paper the word, words, or phrase that might influence a person to locate a manufacturing plant in Eastland County which could result in J - O - B - S for now and the future.

The entries will be judged by an independent agency and all entries will be subject to be included in the County Special Publication which will be sent around the nation in an effort to attract new jobs to this county.

There will be a winner in each town (Carbon, Cisco, Eastland, Gorman, Ranger and Rising Star) with the top prize winner awarded a $50 bill. The top winner from both Cisco Junior College and Ranger Junior College will also win a $50 bill.

These eight winners will then be judged for grand prize winner which will be awarded a $100 bill. So the grand prize winner could win a total of $150 for his or her effort.

Entries may be sent immediately to CONTEST, P.O. Box 29, Eastland, TX 76448.

It is hoped that school officials from throughout the county will encourage students to participate in the event in an effort to capture the best thoughts from those who live here about the good quality of life in Eastland County.

Deadline for entries is Sunday, April 10, and all entries must be on a 3x5 inch piece of paper, which also lists the students name, grade, and school. Judging will be based on originality, sincerity and aptness of thought. No entry will be returned, and all become the property of the contest sponsor.

Time and thought are the essence: student should think about what makes this county great, and then put it into their own words - 50 or less - and get the entries into the mail. More than one entry per person is welcome, but each entry must comply with the rules.

W. E. (Edd) McGough

Edd McGough Announces For Cisco Mayor

Let W.E. (Edd) McGough be your next mayor! If you will look in the history of Eastland County you will find that the McGoughs helped settle Eastland County and Jim McGough was the first white child borned in the county.

I own and operate Edd's Used Cars, Auto Salvage, AND ? , located at 801 East 8th in Cisco. I am 50 years old, raised in Eastland County, lived in Dallas 20 years before returning to Eastland County in March of 1974. My wife, Patsy, and I have two children, a son Mike, and our daughter Beverly who is married to 'Pete' Harrell.

I believe I can help the City of Cisco. I would like to see more time spent improving our streets, especially around our grade schools, and less on making people clean up their vacant lots, or other things of such importance.

I will appreciate your vote on April 2, for Place 2 in the Cisco ISD School Trustee election.

Cong. Stenholm's Forum Called Success

WASHINGTON -- Congressman Charles W. Stenholm (D-Stamford) presided over the organizational meeting of the National Agricultural Forum today and called the gathering "a resounding success and a hopeful sign for the future."

Stenholm, instrumental in founding the Texas Agricultural Forum in 1982, said the guiding principle of a Forum, whether state or national, is to provide a full view of the policy options which face the agricultural community.

"The key word is 'alternatives,'" Stenholm said. "Through the Forum, producers and others are able to identify the alternatives before us. Then, through the democratic process, we can begin to see more effective action on the legislative front."

About 300 agricultural leaders from across the nation were present in the historic Cannon Caucus

Room in Washington as Stenholm and other members of Congress, including House Agriculture Committee chairman Kika de la Garza, presented the Forum concept and led a discussion on how it would work. Those present ranged from Kansas wheat farmers to Federal Reserve Board economists, and from Texas cattlemen to fertilizer company executives.

Stenholm stressed that the National Agricultural Forum cannot be in competition with existing farm groups which take positions on various issues.

"This is not another general farm organization," the Stamford Democrat said. "We've got some fine groups already, and the last thing we need is another one to duplicate their work. The Forum will not lobby, nor will it impose a position on the issues with which it deals."

"It will say, 'These are the options before us,'" he added, "but it will not choose among them. That's up to the individuals and groups who belong to the Forum. The lobbying, the advocacy is their job."

Stenholm led a bipartisan group of farm-state Congressmen in organizing the kickoff Forum meeting. The group includes nineteen other Members of Congress, and Stenholm said the list is growing all the time.

"There's a great feeling, both in the Congress and among agricultural groups, that the time has come for an approach like this," Stenholm said. "The idea is to bring a little unity to our diversity, not by imposing a consensus, but by helping one to develop through education."

Groups like the Texas Agricultural Forum have been formed in several states, Stenholm said, and the national effort would aim at pulling them together. In addition, he said, all segments of agriculture and agribusiness would be represented. Staffing for the Forum would be provided through the Agriculture Council of America, a non-partisan educational group which annually sponsors National Agriculture Day.

The first full-scale meeting of the National Agriculture Forum is tentatively slated for early May in Kansas City. Once the group's work gets off the ground, Stenholm said, various groupings within the larger Forum would analyze each issue and its alternative solutions, and try to predict the likely consequences of each so that policy-makers will have a better basis on which to choose.

"Never in my political experience," Stenholm said, "has there been a greater opportunity to bring agriculture together than right now — because never before have our problems been so critical. The vital thing is to move toward greater unity, and I believe the Forum is one step — a crucial, important step — along that road."

Judy Cozart Returns From Dallas Seminar

Judy Cozart, local Home Interior displayer from Cisco, returned from four days in Dallas while attending the 1983-25th year Anniversary Seminar Celebration of Home Interiors and Gifts.

Tuesday's top performers who entertained the 18,000 who attended were B.J. Thomas and Barbara Mandrell. Mrs. Mandrell previewed her latest single "In These Times" which should be released by local radio stations sometime this week.

Several days were spent in viewing new merchandise and manufacturers procedures from supplies across the nation. Drawings were held for two trips to Hawaii, games in which free merchandise, and diamond rings were given for prizes.

Home office and warehouse tours were taken by those who attended. Live music and refreshments were at every resting spot during all the entire four days.

To climax the four day event was when Mary Crowley, president and founder of Home Interiors and Gifts staged a drawing for a previous hostess having held a Home Interior show. Mrs. Crowley drew one name and gave her $25,000.00 cash. The Displayer of that show received $10,000.00. Mrs. Crowley "thanked all in attendance for coming to her 5 Million Dollar Party".

Seminars are held once a year to award the displayers their prizes for sales and recruits. Silver Punch Bowls, Diamond rings, Mink coats, crystal goblets, and trips abroad are awarded.

Judy Cozart, a four year veteran displayer, has received numerous awards and prizes. She received her Silver Punch Bowl and cups, and Queen of new displayers in 1980, 5 Silver Goblets for Queen of Sales within her unit and a Six Nugget diamond ring and Princess of the year for 1982. For she received a 5 Nugget ring for sales and recruits and one crystal Goblet for January sales.

Although she didn't win the 10,000 as a displayer she'll have another chance in May when the 2nd contest begins for another $25,000.00 give away for the Hostess and $10,000.00 for the displayer.

State Capitol Highlights Texas Press Association Lyndell Williams

AUSTIN—Several events building up steam in the Legislature came to a head last week as lawmakers scurried to find replacements for dwindling state dollars.

The hectic week began with Comptroller Bob Bullock's revised revenue forecast which was closely followed by Gov. Mark White's budget address to a joint session. Both officials recommended tax increases of different varieties.

At week's end, House Speaker Gib Lewis announced his own House Ethics Committee would investigate his failure to fully disclose his business interests.

Bullock trimmed $867 million from earlier estimates of state monies available for the next two fiscal years, blaming oil prices and sluggish tax receipts for the reduction in state cash.

His announcement immediately fueled the on-going debate of whether the Legislature should pass a tax bill or slash state spending. The Legislature itself remains visibly divided as Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby seeks a tax increase and House Speaker

Gib Lewis stands adamantly against one.

Luxury Taxes

White, who earlier opposed a tax hike, told lawmakers he supported raising an additional $800 million in state revenue by taxing alcoholic beverages, tobacco and amusements such as video games and pinball machines.

The governor also suggested issuing bonds for highway construction, which got a mixed reaction.

All in all, White's budget is still over a billion dollars more than Bullock says will be available.

If White and Bullock can't agree on revenue estimates, it should come as no surprise to onlookers who have watched the pair jockey for position these past two months: it's no secret that Bullock intends to challenge White in the '86 gubernatorial race.

Special Session

Bullock has come out in favor of a nickel-per-gallon gasoline tax hike for increased state highway construction, perhaps the most palatable tax for legislators to levy and taxpayers to accept.

Lawmakers Scurry To Find Replacements

White avoided support of any tax hike as long as he could, and whether Bullock played a role in forcing his change of stance, White responded by suggesting tax raises for luxuries, or "sin" taxes as members sometimes call them.

But legislators don't want the political heat that a tax vote might bring, and could well fail to pass any appropriations bill this session.

Some lawmakers are already predicting a special session on the state budget as their best protection for Texas. By then, the price of oil will probably have stabilized, and lawmakers will have bought time to see whether Bullock's or White's estimates come closer to the mark.

Meanwhile, the Texas unemployment rate for February rose to a record 8.8 percent, a grim reminder to lawmakers that the economy is suffering, no matter who figures the budget.

Speaker Lewis

House Speaker Gib Lewis

refigured his financial disclosure report and revealed last week he has 49 business interests not included in his original report.

Lewis, earlier caught heat from the press and some of his opposition colleagues for not revealing his business connection to alcoholic beverage interests amid charges he was sabotaging DWI reform legislation.

Last week's update revealed Lewis also has partnership ties with a horse racing lobbyist, which had gone unmentioned in an earlier financial disclosure report required by law.

Legally, Lewis slipped off the hook when the Travis County District Attorney advised that the law penalized a lawmaker for failing to file a report, but not for filing an incomplete report. Lewis will not be prosecuted, but the Ethics Committee will conduct a secret investigation.

The press also revealed that Lewis recently ordered dismantled a $100,000 sophisticated phone system in his office, which the state now has in storage.

House-Senate Fight

The Legislature narrowly averted a rare House-Senate fight last week when the House leadership retreated from a plan to change the way representatives sign up to sponsor Senate bills.

Tradition has the senator choose a House sponsor for his bill when it is considered in the House. The proposed change would have let House members sponsor bills on a first-come, first-serve basis. Critics of the plan charge it was a power grab on the part of House leadership to control, alter or kill bills already passed by their colleagues in the Senate.

Odds And Ends

—Both the House and Senate held committee hearings simultaneously on the controversial pari-mutuel gambling on horse racing bill before sending it to subcommittees for further study.

—A bill allowing gambling at Texas dog racing tracks was expected to be introduced shortly before the March 11 deadline for introducing legislation. The House began this week to debate bills on the floor.

—State Education Commissioner Raymon Bynum ruled that public school days must be at least seven hours for grades 4-12, and six hours 15 minutes for grades 1-3.

—White's two appointees to the Public Utility Commission said they will out the chairman, a Clements holdover, in favor of Commissioner Alan Erwin.

—Former congressman and ambassador Bob Krueger said he will run and soon formally announce his campaign against U.S. Sen. John Tower.

Letters to the Editor

A short time back the citizens of Cisco turned out in a record vote to change how our city was to be run. It was highly publicized by the news media. Everyone knew what was going on and how they were going to vote.

Again we are having a municipal election along with school and hospital board elections. Two men are running for mayor. Two city council members are seeking re-election unopposed. Three are candidates for the hospital board.

However, there are nine candidates seeking three school board positions. The sheer number of candidates indicate again the citizens of Cisco are seeking change, this time on how our schools are to be run.

We feel that all the candidates are amply qualified and ask that you cast your vote after careful deliberation. We do feel that among the candidates that the election of incumbent Donald Gorr, place 1; Howard Worley, place 2; and Travis Starr, place 3; would best serve the interests of the students and faculty of Cisco's schools.

We ask you, especially parents, to please let your voice be heard by casting your ballot in Saturday's election.

Bill Manire, President Cisco Booster Club and Jackie Williams, Vice-President Cisco Booster Club

Mrs. Pence Hosts DAR Meeting

The Charles Crawford Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution met February 28th, 1983 in the home of Mrs. Charles Pence of Cisco. Co-hostess for the meeting was Mrs. P.H. Kelly.

The gathering was served delicious refreshments of angel food cake, sandwiches, nuts, chips, pickles, candies, coffee, and punch.

Mrs. Joseph Perkins, regent, called the meeting to order. Members were reminded that "The Star Spangled Banner" was adopted as the national anthem, March 31, 1931. Mrs. Bess Francis gave the national defense report.

February is American History Month. This observance was begun by the DAR in 1952. It is very important to know our past history for by knowing we have been we can see where we are going. During the business portion of the meeting Linda Kiser was elected regent of the chapter.

In observing February as American History Month, the chapter was privileged to hear Mrs. Charles E. Terrell review the book, Washington Walked Here. This book was written to commemorate the 250th anniversary of Washington's birth, February 22, 1732. Last year the DAR presented this book to three of the counties libraries.

Ten members and one guest enjoyed this most interesting meeting.

A mother called her family to dinner. She noticed her young son's hands were dirty. "Son you must wash your hands."

The boy washed only one hand, the one he was going to eat with. Arriving back to the table his mother noticed that he had not washed properly. "Son, you cannot eat with us unless you wash both hands. You would not be able to eat the good food I've prepared for you with only one hand."

Friend, often we want to clean up only a part of our lives. The Word says... "present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." Romans 12:1

Jesus wants a completely redeemed body, mind and spirit. Accept all. It is then you become a new person in Christ. It is then you are prepared to partake of the blessings and unmerited favors He has prepared for you.

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

The weather stays true to form. March came in like a lamb, nice, warm and sunshine. It is really going out like a lion. The last two weeks have been miserable, cloudy, rain, cold and windy. Evidently the below freezing temperature the first of the week killed most if not all the fruit, especially, peaches, apricots and plums. But we are still lucky here. No tornadoes as yet, and no snow. The folks up in the mountains have had a lot of snow. So after all West Texas is a great country.

Mr. Arnold Pruett is spending some time in Temple Hospital undergoing tests and treatments.

Judy Maxwell's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Laflore of Cisco is ill at Hendrick Hospital at Abilene.

Mrs. Ollie Burnam spent most of the week at Coleman with the grandchildren, while James and Gayle Isenhower were at Houston on business.

Mrs. Free and Mrs. Ruie Sunderman of the Nursing Home at Baird and Mr. and Mrs. Bell Anderson of Midland had lunch at the Community Center Tuesday.

Mrs. R.C. Speegle returned home this weekend after spending the winter with her children at Odessa and Midland. Welcome back Mrs. Speegle.

Visiting the Milton Donaways were their granddaughter, Joy of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Donaway and Dianne of Odessa. The Hubert Donaways will be here all week and attend the Homecoming April 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Isenhower of Ames, Iowa, have been visiting relatives here the past week. They were here on spring break from college there.

Mrs. Calvin King, Mrs. Roddy Reynolds, and Mrs.

Buford Green hosted a stork party at the community center Friday evening, honoring the Donald Isenhowers. A large crowd attended.

Mrs. I.G. Mobley of Baird ate lunch at the community center Friday and visited friends at Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Willoughby of HSU Abilene, and Travis Crutchfield of Cisco, preached and led the singing at the Baptist Church Sunday. There will be Bible Study at the church every Wednesday evening. Everyone is invited to worship.

Mrs. Nina Lee Burns and children from Valley Mills are visiting her mother Mrs. Edith Ivie this week.

The Class of 73 of Putnam High School will meet at the community center Saturday evening at 7 p.m. Members of other classes are invited to meet with them and hash over the old times at Putnam High School.

Friday, April 1st is the last day to turn in reservations for lunch at the homecoming please contact Mary King or Laverne Rutherford. Tickets may be picked up Saturday at school house, but please let them know by Friday. Mr. "Butch" Petty of Eastland will be master of ceremonies for the meeting in the auditorium at 2 p.m. Business will be carried out and all ex students and teachers will be recognized.

Have you visited Mary Kings Art & Craft Shop lately? She has a nice line of greeting cards, gift wrap, and china. Also oil paintings, ceramics and other gift items. It will be worth your while to go and just browse around.

Don't forget Saturday is Election Day. Please go vote for Council and School Trustee.

Mr. and Mrs. Twiner Simpson of Cottonwood visited the George Weeks, Sunday. The Weeks' granddaughter, Mrs. Nancy Crow of Kinnard is spending this week with her grandparents.

Federation Of Women's Clubs Holds Spring Convention

A STORY IN THE Abilene Reporter-News last Thursday, March 24; told how Cisco Intermediate School sixth graders and others of our town have been responding to an effort to be good neighbors. The story, written by Helen Wallace, the RN's Cisco correspondent, concerned Mrs. Judy James and her two sons, Richard and William.

Both youths were hospitalized within 10 days of each other with unrelated illnesses, and their 30-year old mother had to cope with medical bills that soared to $6,000.

It started last January when Richard, a sixth grader, came down with the flu. A doctor soon determined that he was near a diabetic coma and 10 days of hospitalization in Abilene followed. While he was in the hospital, Mrs. James, mother of four and a widow, had to miss work to learn how to care for a diabetic child.

Tragedy struck again on the evening of Richard's homecoming when his 12-year old brother, William, had to undergo an emergency appendectomy and stayed four days in a hospital. There was no insurance.

Cisco sixth graders went to work under the guidance of Beth Ward, their teacher, and began a campaign to collect green stamps to be traded for cash money. Boxes were placed at checkout counters in grocery stores and stamps poured in. Some 450 books of green stamps had been collected when last we heard. And the sixth graders gathered regularly during study hall periods to lick and paste stamps in books.

Mrs. Ward said that the whole school helped, and several churches made donations as well as individuals. Half the medical bill - $3,000 - had been collected when the RN story came. We wrote a piece here January about a collection jar at the Colony Restaurant where Judy James is a favorite waitress.

Mrs. Wallace's story ended like this:

"Mrs. James, recovering from a bad, memorable winter, thanked the students, churches and townpeople in general. 'Although it has been a bad experience,' she said, 'it has brought our family closer together. We're always so busy we don't have time to think about one another.'"

Let's all pitch in and help raise the other $3,000 for this nice family. Contact a sixth grader or drop something in the jar at the Colony.

MAYOR ERIS Ritchie has a copy of a Stephenville newspaper that has this headline: "Cisco Mayor Caught, Quizzed in Murder."

A friend who lives in Stephenville sent it to the Ciscoan. Eris telephoned the newspaper editor, who accused the mayor of "nit-picking."

"How could you put 'mayor pro tem' in a headline?" the editor asked.

"If the vice president committed a crime, would your headline say 'president'?" Eris asked. He had a pretty good point, huh?

Funeral services for A.E. Estes Jr., 75, of San Antonio, will be held at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, in Kimbrough Funeral Home chapel. Rev. Buddy Sipe, pastor of First Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mr. Estes died March 28 in San Antonio Medical Center.

He was born March 24, 1908 at Statan, Tx. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Estes Sr. He moved to Cisco in 1924 with his family. He attended and graduated from Cisco High School and was a member of the Lobo band.

He married Marjorie Barker of Cisco in 1940. He owned and operated a radio have been held in our town lately with the idea of reorganizing local young men into a Junior Chamber of Commerce. The local effort is being sponsored by Abilene Jaycees, and a committee visiting Cisco for meetings included Mark Heidenheimer.

As you know, Mark is now an attorney employed by the Taylor County District Attorney. The Abilene group has been here for several night meetings.

All of us know that Jaycees do a lot of good work. They harness young men for community work and make valuable contributions.

MR. A.D. Stephens, who was born and raised in Cisco and who has lived and worked in Saudi Arabia for some 25 years, flew into Houston last week and his brother, J.W. Stephens of Thornton Feed Mill here, met him and brought him to Cisco for a visit.

Mr. ADS is an electrical engineer and plans to retire at the end of the year. He underwent by-pass surgery in his legs at Houston and is staying at Best Western Motel for a week or so before returning to Saudi Arabia.

IF YOU SEE a stray cow somewhere within a triangle that would be formed if you drew lines from Cisco to Baird to Cross Plains and back to Cisco, call Mr. Jammie Fry, local rancher. He knows that his missing cow is either there or somewhere because folks keep telling him they've seen her - always at locations 10 miles or so apart.

Two Burglary Cases Studied

Cisco police are investigating the theft of six pocket knives from Guthrie Truck Harbor, IH-20 West, and the burglary of a cottage at Lake Cisco, Chief Randy Whittle reported Tuesday.

Old Timer brand knives valued up to $49.50 each were stolen at Truck Harbor between midnight and 3:30 a.m. Sunday night, the police report said. The Truck Harbor is open 24 hours per day, and the knives were taken from a show case.

The cottage on Lots 18 and 19, north shore of Lake Cisco, was broken into during the week of March 20-26, Owner Arthur Hubert Pittman of 2726 Roberts Street, Abilene, told police. Missing items included a 22 calibre rifle, a 16 gauge shotgun and shells, a Sears television, a red tool box with tools, a battery charger, a drill and a hair dryer.

The twenty-third annual Spring Convention of the Heart of Texas District of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, held in Cisco March 25th and 26th, adjourned at 3:00 p.m., Saturday. In spite of rainstorms, a sandstorm and threatening tornadoes, some 125 District clubwomen were in attendance.

Mrs. L.A. Bryson of Rochelle, President of the Heart of Texas District, called the meeting to order at 1:30 p.m., Friday. After the Pledge to the American Flag and Salute to the Texas Flag, led by Mrs. Fred Guyger, Mrs. Truly Carter, as General Convention Chairman, introduced Mr. Randy Speegle, manager of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, who gave the welcoming address. The response was given by Mrs. Arnold Schneemann of San Angelo, District President-Elect. The afternoon was devoted to a business session.

At 7:00 p.m., the Eastland

County Federated Clubwomen were hostesses for a courtesy salad supper. Clubs and presidents are: First Industrial Arts, Cisco, Mrs. Stanley Pirtle; Twentieth Century, Cisco, Mrs. Marshall Allison; Thursday Afternoon Club, Eastland, Mrs. H.W. Sims; 1920 Club, Ranger, Mrs. Marion A. Thomas; and Saturday Club, Rising Star, Mrs. Jack Agnew.

Following the supper, the group was entertained by Dr. M.A. Treadwell of Eastland and his musical saw. He was accompanied by Mrs. Treadwell at the piano. The program was beautiful and certainly a novelty to those who had never heard these musicians before.

The evening's entertainment was climaxed by a "Fashions for Fun" style show. Club members modeled clothing which they had made, and winners received awards in several categories. Judges for the show were Mesdames Sue Davis, Jerry Stephenson and Jan Angel, all of Cisco.

Saturday's activities began with a 7:30 a.m. Prayer Breakfast in the Elephant Room of the White Elephant Restaurant. Mrs. Bryson presided. The traditional and very impressive Candle Service, based upon the Lord's Prayer, was led by Mrs. Truly Carter, with the Eastland County Club Presidents and Vice Presidents as Candle Lighters. Hymns and Scripture readings followed. Mary Stewart's Club Collect was led by Mrs. H.W. Sims and Call to Celebration was read by Mrs. Stanley Pirtle.

All music for the meetings was under the direction of Mrs. Wilson Bryan of Robert Lee, District Pianist and Choral Director. Mrs. Lynn Williams of Cisco assisted.

Speaker at the Prayer Breakfast was the Reverend John A. Holmes, Vicar of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Eastland. His subject was

C.J.C. Will Present Children's Show

The Fine Arts Department of Cisco Junior College will present their children's theatre production of A Toby Show, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, April 11, 12, and 13, at 1:00 p.m. in the Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium.

A Toby Show, by Aurand Harris, is a recreation of a type of early American entertainment brought by traveling actors into rural areas of the country. Mixing 3-act theatre with vaudeville these companies created a type of theatre in which a red-headed, freckle-faced country comedian named Toby manipulated the plot, cracked standard jokes, ad-libbed, out-smarted the city slicker, and generally ingratiated himself with audiences.

Set in 1915, the plot is the Cinderella story with Toby participating in the actions as the "fairy godmother". In this updated version, Cindy the ingenue, falls in love with a handsome young pilot who also happens to be a prince. With Toby's help she gets out from under the thumb of her wicked stepmother and all wrongs are righted.

...give little thought to the question of values when we should measure them in terms of personal worth in everything he buys, enjoys or does. For example, some folks will buy real estate without any kind of evidence of title disregarding the fact that the principal value of the purchase is in the title, not in the land itself or the improvements thereon. This kind of thinking costs property owners thousands of dollars annually which could be saved and a part of the savings wisely spent for an abstract of title or title insurance.

Real Estate Consumer

Recently many people have found it necessary to provide a portion of the financing when selling a home.

Instead of receiving the full value of the equity in cash, the seller receives some cash and lends the remainder to the buyer. This often allows the buyer to assume an existing mortgage at an interest rate which is less than that available for new financing. In many instances, however, the interest rate on the existing loan will be escalated to the current rate when the house is sold.

In addition to offering the possibility of a lower interest rate, seller financing benefits the buyer by reducing the cash down payment required to purchase the home. The seller benefits by the greater likelihood of a fast sale.

Seller financing can be a good deal for both buyers and sellers, but remember, proper legal advice is essential in a transaction as complex as the sale of a home.

resort time-sharing may be the answer.

In the present market, a one-time purchase price may be no greater than the cost of a new car. This enables middle-income families and full facilities. If you want to combine a vacation and an investment, look into resort time-sharing.

As a time-share owner, you can purchase the right to occupy a vacation dwelling for a specified time period, such as your normal two-week vacation each year.

Resort time-sharing can be looked on as a hedge against inflation. Also, it offers potential vacation savings. As resort hotel rates continue to increase, the mortgage payment remains fixed.

WHAT IS MORTGAGE INSURANCE?

Buying mortgage insurance? Sometimes the term "mortgage insurance" can be confusing. One type of mortgage insurance is really life insurance which pays off the home loan if the breadwinner dies. Before buying, compare premiums to those available on similar amounts of declining term life insurance.

Another type of mortgage insurance protects your lender in the event you default on the mortgage. When you borrow more than 80 percent of the value of a home using a conventional loan, your lender will probably require you to obtain mortgage insurance.

The cost is usually a one-time fee of 1 percent of the mortgage balance. Each year thereafter you will have to pay one-quarter of 1 percent of the mortgage balance until the loan balance is under 80 percent of the home's purchase price. After that, the mortgage insurance is no longer required.

REAL ESTATE OFFERS INVESTMENT ADVANTAGES

Are you considering purchasing real estate as an investment? Then you should be aware that real estate provides many advantages in addition to an immediate cash return.

The use of borrowed funds allows the investors to increase the return on the amount of money taken out of the investor's own pocket. Interest payments and depreciation are deductible from the income tax and often provide a tax shelter to the small investor.

Appreciation in real estate values and equity build-up often provide handsome returns upon the sale of the property. And the small investor in real estate can easily obtain investment information regarding both the market in which property is traded and the data on the property's income and expenses.

Disabled Veteran Exemptions Available

Are you a veteran with a service-connected disability, or a surviving spouse or a minor child of a deceased disabled veteran or of a person who was killed while on active duty?

Someone who fits any one or more of these descriptions may be eligible for a property tax exemption which can amount to $1,500 to $3,000 or more, according to Steve Thomas, chief appraiser of the Eastland County Appraisal District.

But an application has to be filed by May 2 with the appraisal office, for anyone to receive the exemption for this tax year.

The chief appraiser noted that the Texas Constitution permits the Legislature to provide a property tax exemption on property owned by a disabled veteran or surviving spouse or minor children of a deceased disabled veteran.

Those listed as eligible to qualify for the exemption are:

- a disabled veteran;
- a surviving spouse of a deceased disabled veteran, as long as the spouse remains unmarried;
- a surviving minor child of a deceased disabled veteran, if the veteran's spouse does not survive the veteran and if the child is both under 18 and unmarried;
- a surviving spouse of a person who was killed while on active duty, whether the spouse is remarried or not at the time of application;
- a surviving minor child of a person who was killed while on active duty, if there is no surviving spouse and the child is both under 18 and unmarried.

Qualifications for each application are explained further in the Texas Property Tax Code and in pamphlets published by the State Property Tax Board. Appraisal district personnel can also provide information on specific qualifications.

In order to qualify, a person must be a Texas resident. The amount of exemption, is based on the percentage of the veteran's disability.

An individual may be entitled to an exemption ranging from $1,500 to $3,000 from the assessed value of any property owned on January 1 of the tax year.

The exemption may also be applied to any one piece of property which the application designates, such as a home, taxable personal property or any other property owned on January 1.

Applications must be filed or a renewal signed each year with the chief appraiser; this year the application deadline is May 2. On the application, the individual must designate the single piece of property which will receive the exemption.

The applicant may be required to present documents which state the percentage of service-connected disability which are provided by the Veterans' Administration or by a branch of the armed services. Depending on the applicant, proof of marriage, death or age may also be required.

To obtain an application for the disabled veterans' and survivors' exemption or more information about specific qualifications, call the appraisal district office at 629-8597 or go by the office which is located on the 2nd floor of the Eastland County Courthouse.

Appearance Affects Job Interview

COLLEGE STATION-- "Women applying for jobs need to recognize the importance of proper dress," says Nancy Brown, clothing specialist. Brown is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

This is particularly true for women applying for jobs as secretaries, salesperson or other positions requiring contact with the public, adds Brown. Recent research shows that the more contact with clients is required by the job, the more emphasis is placed on appearance in the hiring decision.

According to Brown, clothing creates immediate impressions about the applicants' economic level, educational level, trustworthiness, social position, sophistication and moral character. These impressions influence the decision to hire or to not hire - often within the first two minutes of the interview.

"A study of hiring agents shows they judge appearance primarily by neatness, ornamentation or jewelry, and the design, cut and color of clothing," says Brown. Most say that grooming is equal to or more important than the clothing worn.

If a hiring agent believes an applicant looks sloppy, he might think that's the way she does her work. An applicant wearing "wild" style clothing might be considered immature. In general, hiring agents look for people who can represent the firm and project a good image, notes Brown.

"Both employers and employees emphasize that appearance is only one factor in the hiring decision," says Brown. Other criteria include skills, personality, promptness, attendance, cooperativeness, and the ability to handle problems. Hiring agents also rank attitudes very high, but when forming first impressions, information about attitudes is typically not available. Clothing and appearance is one thing that the job applicant has control over in the hiring situation.

"As more people enter the job market, appearance will become increasingly important, not only in hiring, but in job retention and promotion among equally skilled candidates as well," comments Brown.

Jim Parker-District 65

Perhaps the least controversial, yet most trying philosophically, of the issues of the alcohol abuse legislation, is the proposal to raise the drinking age for the State's young people from age 19 to 21. Those supporting this legislation point out the statistically provable fact that raising the drinking age would greatly reduce the number of traffic accidents and resultant fatalities. One problem with this, while absolutely correct in reasoning and theory, is that the vast majority of DWI offenders and those involved in traffic accidents are between the ages of 25 to 34. Statistically speaking, there is no question that banning this age group from the right to purchase alcohol would have a much more profound effect than banning 18 to 21-year olds from such purchases.

Proponents cite, and it is true, the fact that, nationwide support for raising the legal drinking age to 21 ranges all the way from 83% of the over age 50 group in favor to an astonishing 58% of persons aged 18-20. Maybe the majority of persons want to be regulated in what they can and cannot purchase. The philosophical difficulty arises in creating a group who would have almost all of the rights of an adult, but not quite all. They can get married, contract to buy property, be drafted, be sued, vote, and be subjected to the full range of adult criminal penalties. If we are just going to go on statistics, and if we believe in the sanctity of

Bass Club Report

Recent winds have put a damper on some folks desire to brave the elements of nature to enjoy that wonder sport of relaxing and restful fishing. These folks are the ones missing out on some of the prime times for the sport. Spring has sprung folks and fishing is hot. Even those miserable days of 30 plus winds the fish are biting. So, chin up and start casting.

Our committee on scheduling special tournaments met Thursday the 24th with good results. Starting in April there shall be open to the general public. Our first tournament will be April 17th on Cisco. Registration will open at 12:00 noon. Fishing hours shall be from 1 til 6 p.m. Prize money shall be 1st 60% of entry fee 2nd 30% and 3rd 10%. Eight dollars per person with an optional 2nd big bass pot. For more information be present at the point boat ramp prior to 12:30. Other tournaments have been scheduled including some night and team tournaments. The times and general information will be available at later dates.

Members of the Eastland County Bass Club are requested to attend this month's meeting Thursday, April 7th at 7:30 in the conference room of the Cisco National Bank. We shall be voting on a date for our invitational this year and also discussing items of interest to you as members and sportsmen and women. We'll be looking for you and bring a guest.

Raise Drinking Age

the home and marriage, then it is a statistically provable fact that if we legislatively prohibit marriage until after the age of 40, we would virtually eliminate divorce and the problem of children coming from broken homes.

Seriously, we have to determine to what extent we want to carry legislation before it becomes ridiculous.

The thinking opponents of this legislation rightfully point out that age is not the problem-alcohol is; since the incidence of alcohol abuse and traffic accidents is virtually nonexistent among females aged 18-24, should we punish them along with the males?

I, personally, have no difficulty in supporting legislation that would increase the legal drinking age in spite of the fact that I will undoubtedly have "in-house opposition" from my two sons: Shane, 20, and Kent, 18. I cannot honestly tell you that I think the impact would be significant, although I hope it would be. Maybe the fault lies not with youth, because if we survive as a species, there will always be youth; and not with alcohol, because, again, if we survive as a species, there will always be temptation and danger. Perhaps the fault lies with us, as parents and people, for failing to teach by example, or otherwise, the proper respect for what can, if abused, be as dangerous and mind-altering a drug as man has ever conceived and concocted since Noah allowed his grapes to spoil. See you next week.

Clothing Projects A Women's Image

COLLEGE STATION--Classically styled garments help the professional woman project an appropriate image for business. "With the competitiveness of today's job market, projecting this image is important," says Nancy Brown, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

According to Brown, a recent survey shows working women believe their manner of dress is important in creating a successful image. Of these women, 86 percent preferred classically styled clothing and were generally less influenced by current fashion. Because classical garments are an investment that will last for several years, less money must be allocated to the clothing budget each year. Classical designs, unlike fads, are seasonless. In women's clothing they are similar to men's tailored suits: simple, clean, yet elegant. There is no clutter and no direct focus, but rather a style that reflects a hint of authority. Brown recommends emphasis on suits, skirts, soft blouses, blazers and jacket dresses to develop a slim and natural silhouette.

For a businesslike appearance use straight lines, restrained curves, and vertical movement, Brown advises. Avoid soft curves, small detail and pastel colors because they project a weaker, feminine image. People who dress and look successful tend to receive preferential treatment in business encounters. So the proper wardrobe can be a practical aid for success in the business world, says Brown.

Shannon Bond, 7th Grade student of Carbon School, is again the area winner of the Ft. Worth Star Telegram Words Of Champion National Spelling Bee. Shannon is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Joe Bond, Rt. 3, Gorman, Texas.

The area competition was held Feb. 24 in the Carbon High School auditorium. Other contestants from Carbon were: Kenny Norris, a 6th grader, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenn Norris of Carbon, Brian Bond, a 5th grader, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bond, and Kenny Halford, a 5th grader, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Halford, Carbon.

Last year Shannon was the area winner, and competed in Ft. Worth. He placed 10th in the competition there.

The Judges at Carbon were Mr. Fred Tucker, Mrs. Eunice Gregory, and Miss Jo Ann Tubbs. The announcer was Mrs. Martha Schooler.

Mr. Jim Gambrell, Director of Educational Services for the Ft. Worth Star Telegram, was in Carbon for the Spelling Bee. Mrs. Jenoise Allison acted as the Spelling Bee Coordinator.

Shannon Bond is now eligible to compete in the 1983 Star-Telegram Championship Bee, and attend the Awards Luncheon at the Ft. Worth Hilton Hotel. These events are scheduled for April 5.

The winner at Ft. Worth will be eligible to compete in the National Spelling Bee, which will be held June 10, 1983 in Washington, D.C. With Shannon's experience in the Competition, he is very hopeful of winning a high place in the Ft. Worth contest. He is studying hard for that event.

Congressional Comments

Cong. Charles Stenholm

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Once again, the debate in Congress has heated up over a proposed "nuclear freeze" resolution, H.J. Res. 13. While I acknowledge that the call for a "freeze" on the testing, production and deployment of nuclear weaponry is rooted in an understandable and humane reaction to the frightening aspects of a continued nuclear arms race, the freeze concept has been oversold. The appeal of a freeze has resulted from its apparent simplicity, but the real issues involved are much more complicated than the rhetoric would suggest.

(1) A freeze would lock us into a current military disadvantage and compromise our ability to negotiate meaningful arms reductions. Over the last ten years, the Soviet Union has outspent the US for strategic weapons by over $290 billion — outspending us by a ratio of more than 2-to-1. Among other areas, we are behind in Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles (ICBM's), Submarine-Launched Ballistic Missiles (SLBM's), and, only recently, Strategic Bombers. "Freezing" would only perpetuate Soviet advantages in many areas, giving the Soviets no incentive to ultimately reduce weaponry. We will not convince the Soviet Union, for example, to withdraw its 600 intermediate-range missiles now pointed at our European allies if we do not retain the "bargaining chip" of our possible deployment of a comparable counter-force (none is now in place).

(2) A freeze would actually worsen our position, compared to the Soviets, over the foreseeable future. Some 77% of the Soviet Union's strategic warheads are on launchers (i.e., missiles, bombers, submarines) that are less than 5 years old. By contrast, 77% of our warheads are on launchers that are 15 years old or older. When our Poseidon submarines become obsolete in the 1990's, we will lose half our strategic warheads. Our aging bomber aircraft are fast losing their capability to penetrate expanding Soviet air defenses and our Minuteman ICBM's are already almost totally vulnerable to more powerful Soviet ICBM's.

As our strategic systems begin to fail due to normal aging, a freeze would not allow their replacement. In other words, a freeze would accomplish a gradual disarmament of the US, while Soviet forces, with their newer weapons, would remain intact.

(3) The freeze simply would not achieve the goals that its proponents claim. One of the most terrifying concepts for the American public has been the "MAD" — Mutual Assured Destruction — theory, in which any nuclear exchange escalates into a holocaust and in which there can be no conceivable winner. Soviet officials, however, believe they can win a nuclear war. They have stepped up their civil defense program while we have let ours deteriorate. In reality, the newer weapons being developed by both sides are becoming smaller in megatonnage and more accurate, making them more suitable for greater use against military, as opposed to civilian, targets.

Supporters claim that a freeze would reduce the chances of a nuclear war starting by accident. However, as we are prevented from upgrading our nuclear weapons technology under a freeze, we would continue to operate with aging systems that become less reliable, thus increasing the chances of a nuclear exchange started by human or mechanical error.

Freeze supporters criticize the recent increases in US defense spending, citing the budget savings promised by a freeze. Defense spending of any kind, however, can never be based on what we prefer to spend, but must instead be based on what we believe is necessary to ensure our security and survival. In assessing our defense needs, it is important to remember that the configuration of the Soviet military system is primarily offensive, while ours is defensive. Moreover, no such budget controversy rages in the Soviet Union: its leaders have been more than willing to starve every other sector of the Soviet economy to carry out the most massive military buildup in the history of the world. Finally, freeze supporters say a freeze is the logical prelude to meaningful arms reductions. However, if our goal is to reduce current levels of nuclear weapons, why not proceed right now with negotiating reductions? By rejecting the freeze (at least in its current, ill-advised form) and maintaining our negotiating flexibility, we are in a better position to press the Soviets for the serious arms reductions that would serve the peoples of both nations far better than a freeze.

Positive Measures For FmHA

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The House Agriculture Committee today (Thursday, March 17) unanimously passed two measures by Congressman Charles W. Stenholm (D-TX) designed to strengthen county Farmers Home Administration committees.

The Stenholm initiatives, offered as amendments to the Emergency Agricultural Credit Bill of 1983, provide for the election of some county FmHA committee members and allow FmHA borrowers to appeal deferral requests to the committee.

"This is a positive step toward allowing the county FmHA committee to function as a 'loan committee' and provide peer review for FmHA borrowers," Stenholm said. "It will strengthen the present system, give farmers a voice in the FmHA loan process and help out hard-pressed county offices."

Presently, county FmHA committees are appointed and need not be directly involved in granting deferrals on loan payments. Stenholm's amendments would allow farmers who request a deferral and are turned down to seek a review of the turnaround by the committee.

The entire bill now goes to the full House of Representatives, where action is expected in the near future. The Senate is also expected to act soon on a similar agricultural credit bill. Although the Senate bill does not yet include Stenholm's amendments, the Stamford Democrat said that since a House-Senate Conference is usually necessary to iron out differences in legislation, he is hopeful the measures will eventually be signed into law.

Under the Stenholm plan, the FmHA would set up three- or five-member committees, depending on the needs of the county. In three-member committees, two members would be elected by farmers voting in conjunction with regular ASCS elections. Thus, all the farmers in the county would have a voice in choosing these committee members. The third member would be appointed, and would represent the rest of the farming lending community (production credit associations, federal land bank associations or private lenders) or FmHA borrowers.

In five-member committees, three members would be farmer-elected, while two would be appointed. One of these would represent the lending community, and if no present or former FmHA borrower filled one of the elective spots, the other appointee would be someone with FmHA borrowing experience.

Stenholm's other initiative gives the county committee a role in hearing appeals of deferral requests, when these are rejected. Under the bill passed by the Agriculture Committee and principally written by Congressman Ed Jones (D-TN), FmHA borrowers who are unable to make payments because of circumstances beyond their control, but who can demonstrate good management practices and a good chance to repay the loan later, qualify for rescheduling, consolidation or reamortization of their loans. Borrowers who still cannot make the rescheduled payments qualify for deferral of all payments.

"I think the broad bipartisan support my amendments received shows the need for a strengthening of the FmHA loan process," Stenholm said. "By increasing the efficiency of FmHA, and by providing for the election of some members, we will increase the confidence of farmers and taxpayers in the system."

Recreational Plowing Can Be Costly Operation For Farmers

COLLEGE STATION—Plowing the back 40 "for the heck of it" or "to get out of the house" is a poor excuse for any field operation today.

In other words, "recreational plowing" is a costly operation that farmers just can't afford any longer. Furthermore, it's bad for the soil.

"More and more farmers are paying closer attention to the number of trips they make over a field each year," points out Dr. Ed Colburn, an agronomist in soil management with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "Farmers who used to cultivate their land 12 to 15 times a year are now down to five or six times. And that's still too many, in some cases."

With the current high cost of fuel, plowing for whatever reason is expensive, emphasizes the agronomist. And with farmers currently fighting for financial survival, it just makes good sense to cut back on field operations.

"Be sure any tillage operation affords some crop benefits that will contribute to higher yields rather than just appearance," says Colburn. "Combine operations where possible so that more is accomplished with each field pass."

Excessive plowing also can lead to soil compaction, which in turn can reduce crop yields due to poor water infiltration, poor root penetration and other problems that rob crops of their productivity.

With today's large tractors—some weight more than 10 tons without attached implements—compaction can be a real problem, particularly on wet, coarse-textured soils, notes Colburn. Not only do tractor wheels compact the soil, they also produce large clods that break out upon tillage. This leads to additional tillage to break up the clods, leading to further compaction.

Although some compacted soils can be broken up by deep tillage and chiseling, the best way to deal with soil compaction problems is to prevent them in the first place by reducing tillage operations, notes the agronomist.

"Not only will your land be better off with less tillage, but your bank account also will improve," says Colburn.

Texas Garden Tips

The high price of asparagus may make you think of it as a luxury vegetable, but it is quite easy to grow, and may appear more frequently on your menu if you grow it in your own garden.

The lush ferns of asparagus do best in the cooler areas of Texas, mainly in the north, east and west sections of the state, but asparagus can be successful in the alkaline black clay of Central Texas and as far south as San Antonio. Generally, you can predict success north of Austin and limited success the farther south of Austin you garden.

Asparagus is best grown from one-year-old roots called crowns. You will be able to harvest a few spears the second year after planting crowns, but production won't be in full swing until the third year.

Mary Washington and Martha Washington are two old reliable varieties, but several new hybrid varieties are now available. One of these, U.C. 157, has proved superior to older varieties in tests in Texas. A limited supply of one-year-old roots is available from Porter & Son, Seedsmen, P.O. Box 104, Dept. TG, Stephenville, TX 76401.

In planning an asparagus bed, find a sunny, well-drained spot with alkaline soil and plenty of room for expansion. The bed will be relatively permanent, so choose your spot wisely. Set the crowns out in late February or March. Just before planting your crowns, till in 2-3 pounds of 10-20-10 fertilizer per 20 feet of row.

Dig trenches about 6-10 inches deep and 12 inches wide. Trenches should be 4-6 feet apart. Dig in 1-2 inches of aged manure or compost to the bottom of the trench. Spread the crowns out evenly, spaced about 12-14 inches apart. Cover them with 2-3 inches of good garden soil. As the plants grow, gradually fill in the trench a few inches at a time with soil. Water the plants often and fertilize lightly each month.

Come winter, remove the ferns, and mulch the bed with 2-3 inches of organic matter. Next year, you will be able to harvest a few spears of asparagus, but by the third year, this delicacy will become a regular at the dinner table.

UNDERSTANDING AUCTIONEERS

Some novice auction fans worry about being able to understand what the auctioneer is saying.

In order to better understand what's going on just remember that the auctioneer only calls two numbers. He first calls the bid he has received then he asks for the next increase in bidding he would like to get.

He says "I have $10 will you give $15?" He calls what he's got and asks for what he wants. The words he says in between the numbers are called "action words" or "filler words" and they are used to add an exciting rhythm to the auctioneer's chant.

Just pay attention to the numbers when he calls the "haves" and "asks," it's as simple as that. And, if the price is right, join the bidding and a bargain may be yours. Remember, when it comes to buying or selling AUCTION'S BEST (SM).
