HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

I WOULD strongly recommend, if there is any way possible for you to attend one of the remaining performances of the "Fiddler on the Roof" being presented by the Roof Garden Dinner Theatre, you make reservations to attend.

It is an extremely delightful presentation and may be enjoyed by the entire family.

THE WEATHER has been pretty nice this week with warm days and clear skies throughout most of the week. We did have some minor rain fall on Tuesday, but not enough to even hardly get the ground wet.

Registration

Set Monday

Registration for the second summer session at Cisco Junior College will be held Monday, July 11 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the Registrar's office. Classes will begin Tuesday, July 12.

employees who are observing a service anniversary with WTU. Mr. Weathers is observing his 20th such anniversary and is employed by WTU in its Cisco branch.

BY HERREL HALLMARK

The Roof Garden Dinner Theatre in Cisco opened its second presentation of the summer of 1983 Thursday night with the musical, "Fiddler on the Roof." The cast and crew, made up of some professional actors and some apprentices, did a dynamic job of entertaining the full house.

The musical, by Joseph Stein, Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick, is based on Sholem Aleichem stories placed in Tzarist Russia. The play takes place in Anatevka, a small village in Russia, in 1905, on the Eve of the Russian Revolutionary Period.

Before the play ever begins, the mood is set by the meal served to the theatre audience. A mixture of Jewish and Russian, the meal consists of Brisket Paprikish, Noodle Kugel, Peas and Carrots, Hot Rolls and Butter, Apple Strudel and Iced Tea or Coffee.

Since the servers were also cast in the play, they went about the task of serving the audience while dressed in their attire for the play. So, before the first performer was seen on stage, everyone in the audience felt they were in another time and place, just by the atmosphere.

Once the play started, everyone became so involved in the performance that no one seemed to notice the time. The two and a half hour play seemed to last only a few minutes.

During that time, all the different emotions of the musical had hit home. The anger, happiness, fear, bravery, longing and receiving were very effectively portrayed by the large cast.

The musical play is very delightful with humorous moments and sad moments. Times when you feel like joining in the celebration on stage and times when you feel your heart will break with sadness.

I feel everyone who sees the musical will be touched by the very essence of the play, as well as by the superb acting and singing ability of the entire cast. Despite the small area available for a stage, the 28 members of the musical turned in remarkable performances.

The closeness of the audience to the characters only seems to heighten the excitement and strengthen the emotions of the actors and actresses. The small area for the audience and the performance makes you feel you are an honored guest and a part of the performance, instead of just one among many in the building.

All the characters of the musical turned in outstanding performances and should be highly congratulated for their achievements. The cast of characters include the following performers: Bill Austin, Donna Dorsett, Laura Jeffcoat, Michelle Dempsey, Debbie Corlee, Renee Walker, Jana Jeffcoat, Kathy Byrne, Steven Vincent, Phil Tullos, Tom Power, John Akers, Fred Mullinax, Brad Hawari, Jim Walker, Bev Jones, Andrea Glasgow, Stan Davis, Clay Ingram, Judi Smalley, Phillip Craik, Kyle Wallace, Elizabeth Webb, Johanna Johnston, Lisa Perryman, Melody Faircloth, Jerrod Jeffcoat and Kevin Kirk.

The production staff consisted of Clay Freeman, director; Johanna Johnston, assistant to the director; Tom Power, technical director; Sandy Vincent, costume designer; Tom Power and Clay Freeman, set designers; Donna Dorsett and Clay Freeman, choreographers; Tom Armistead, pianist; and Summer Apprentices, technical crew.

The Roof Garden Dinner Theatre director Phillip Craik stated the first two weeks of "Fiddler on the Roof" are already sold out and the third week of the production is going extremely well. In fact, reservations have been so strong for the production that two Wednesday performances have been added to the schedule.

Those performances will be on July 13 and 20, in addition to the originally scheduled performances of July 7-9, 14-16, and 21-23. Tickets are still available for the July 13, July 20 and July 21-24 performances.

Tickets for the dinner and show are $12.50 with dinner served at 7 p.m. Reservations may be made by calling (817) 442-2567, weekdays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., or 442-2589, after hours and on weekends.

Following "Fiddler on the Roof", there will only be one more summer production this year. It is "Tartuffe" by Moliere, a comedy which will be played August 4-6 and 11-13.

Public Is Urged To Attend Briefing For 'The Chemical People' At CJC Library

What does it take to fight school age drug and alcohol abuse?

You! Most know the problem - and some are working on solution. All can join efforts nationally with the Public Television broadcast of "The Chemical People."

The Texans' War on Drugs is playing a key roll in the effort and a major effort is now being launched. It needs volunteers.

All persons who are interested in protecting their children, their grandchildren and Eastland County from drug abuse are urged to attend a special teleconference at 7 p.m. Monday, July 11, at the Library at Cisco Junior College, where Marilyn Golightly will outline the nation-wide program which is hosted by Nancy Reagan.

Two area-wide meetings have already been held and two others are scheduled for later in the month. Millions of teen-agers are already abusers and many more are threatened by drugs and alcohol. But when will we be willing to admit that those teens are in our communities, out schools, and our homes - not someone else's? Can we ever stop feeling helpless - and act?

Now you can join a dramatic community-wide campaign to fight school-age substance abuse.

On November 2 and 9, Public Television will broadcast THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE, a two-part series especially designed to bring concerned parents and citizens together and offer them guidelines for helping our young people. Hosted by First Lady Nancy Reagan, this unprecedented effort has the participation of over 25 national organizations, and over 200 local PBS stations all across the country.

Here's how THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE will work. Your local PBS station and community volunteers are organizing "town meetings" to watch program one which offers hard information about the alcohol and drug abuse problem. Following the broadcast, a panel of experts at each town meeting - local judges, police, teachers, counselors and teens - will discuss the local situation. Everyone will be invited to return and watch program two at which time a community task force will be organized. The second program will show how other parents, schools and neighbors are fighting drugs and alcohol and what a task force does.

THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE is a precedent-setting outreach program. When the project was piloted in Pittsburgh last year, over 12,000 people attended 85 town meetings. From there, 114 task forces were formed and are still operating today. These task forces have established a drug and alcohol hot line, provided training seminars, been active in working with legislators, and much more. These successes can be replicated in every part of the country, but your help is needed. Your local PBS station needs many volunteers to organize town meetings and form panel discussions. Please call your local station listed and get involved!

For more information on the national CHEMICAL PEOPLE project: Ricki Wertz, Community Outreach Director, The Chemical People, WQED, 4802 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15213 (412) 622-1491; Margie Moeller, Support Group Coordinator, (813) 574-1353.

Participating Organizations Many national organizations have agreed to support THE CHEMICAL PEOPLE and will be active in communities across the country. They include:

- Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration
- National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism
- National Institute on Drug Abuse

Dill Takes Over As Lions Leader

C.B. (Runt) Dill, who took over as president of the Cisco Lions Club at their noon meeting last Wednesday, was reminded of the duties of the office in a talk by O.L. Stamey, a former district governor.

Mr. Dill was installed in ceremonies last June 24 to begin duties with the new fiscal year that began July 1. He succeeded Ivan Webb.

In his talk, Mr. Stamey suggested that the new president should know his officers and directors, start and end meetings on time, and have an agenda ready for meetings. He suggested that the president and secretary should work together for the best interests of the club.

"You have an outstanding secretary in Jasper Cook," Mr. Stamey said.

A good Lions Club is one that has a major project with committees to work and to handle financing. He said the club's City Park Pavilion project was an outstanding contribution to the community.

"Your club year will be a good one if you can have good programs for your meetings, good public relations and members who remember and practice the principles of Lionism," Mr. Stamey said.

Mr. Dill told the club that one of his goals for the year was to add at least 12 new members and to keep an active program underway. Mr. Cook told the club that the July 4th program at City Park had gross receipts of some $3,000 and that he hoped to have all bills paid in a few days.

Chairman Bob Conner of the pavilion committee said plans call for a work party to meet at 6 p.m. Monday at City Park to finish the tin work. Plans call for a concrete floor to be poured in the pavilion in the next week or two. The pipe framework will be painted soon, he added.

Real Estate Consumer

David S. Jones

The Real Estate Consumer is provided as a public service by this newspaper and the Texas Real Estate Research Center. Address inquiries to The Texas Real Estate Research Center, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843.

Here is some good news for families with low-to-moderate incomes who want to buy a house. Laws passed in 1974 and 1979 have greatly improved the construction standards and quality of manufactured housing, such as mobile homes and modular units.

The result is that this type of housing—which is less expensive than regular, site-built housing—is becoming more accepted by the public. In 1980, manufactured housing provided more than one-fourth of all the new single-family units in Texas. Outside the state's major metropolitan areas, the import of manufactured housing was even greater. Such housing accounted for almost half of all single-family units produced in these areas last year.

A lot of people are turning to manufactured housing as an alternative to the high cost of buying a site-built house.

MAXIMUM LIMITS ON MORTGAGE LOANS

Shopping for a home loan? If so, you may need to consider the maximum limits often placed on mortgage loan amounts.

Many private lenders restrict their loans to an amount which can easily be sold on the mortgage market to agencies such as the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation and the Federal National Mortgage Association.

The maximum prices these two agencies will pay for home mortgages are $98,500 for a single-family home, $126,000 for a duplex, $152,000 for a three-unit dwelling and $189,000 for a four-unit dwelling.

For a Federal Housing Administration loan, the limits are $67,500 for a single-family home, $76,000 for a duplex, $92,000 for a three-unit dwelling and $107,000 for a four-unit dwelling.

'BUY DOWNS' MAKE FINANCING MORE FAVORABLE

These days the biggest barrier to buying a home is not necessarily the cost. It is the cost of the financing. To help a buyer get over this barrier, some builders are offering homes for sale with financing made favorable through what is called a "buy down." This is how it works.

A homebuyer applies for a standard mortgage at, say, 15 percent interest. The builder pays the lending institution a fee for the top two or three percent of the loan for two or three years. The builder thus "buys down" the interest rate, and the homeowner's mortgage payments are reduced for the first several years.

During that initial grace period, it is hoped the homeowners income will increase enough to support the higher payments after the builder's subsidy ends.

REAL ESTATE LICENSE REQUIREMENTS

If you are interested in obtaining a real estate license, here is some useful information. An amendment to the Texas Real Estate License Act has reduced the educational requirement for licensure from 21 to 12 semester hours.

The courses are more specific than they once were, however. You must now have six semester hours in core real estate courses, two of which must be in real estate principles.

Keep in mind the educational requirements escalate in each of three years. Ultimately the act requires salespersons to have 18 semester hours in real estate prior to the fourth annual renewal of their licenses. Twelve of the 18 hours would have to be in the core courses mentioned in the act.

If you want to know more about how to get a real estate license, contact the Texas Real Estate Commission in Austin or your local broker.

FEWER PLACES TO RENT IN TEXAS

If present trends in apartment construction continue, it may get harder and harder to find a place to rent in Texas.

Building permits for more than 51,000 apartments units were issued in 1980, but that is 25 percent below the level of the previous three years. High interest rates, small increases in rental income and changes in the demand for housing account for most of this decline.

Recently rents have risen only about half as fast as interest rates. This combined with increased operating expenses has left many apartment owners with a shortage of cash income and less incentive to own additional units. Also more young adults are buying their own dwelling units, so builders have found it more profitable to build condominiums rather than apartments. Unfortunately for the apartment dweller, this trend will likely persist for several years.

Commission To Hear Comments On Bell's Request

The Public Utility Commission of Texas has announced local hearing dates and times for receiving public comments on Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's $1.7 billion rate request. The utility filed the request on June 24.

Comments at each of the seven local hearings will be heard by a commissioner and three PUC staff members. Staff members attending the hearings include a hearing examiner, a PUC attorney or engineer and a representative from the Consumer Affairs and Information Services section.

Local hearings are scheduled from July 6 through July 16 in Houston, Corpus Christi, Brownsville, Austin, Dallas, Lubbock and El Paso. Local city and county governments in each city and the Houston Independent School District provided assistance in scheduling and providing facilities for the hearings.

"I hope customers will take this opportunity to come out to the hearings and let us know what their opinions and concerns are about this request," says Chairman Erwin.

"Local hearings have proven to be effective in the past for getting the public's opinion and for having an effect on the case. We've set up these hearings to be accessible to as many people across the state as possible with the limited staff and time we have."

To facilitate statewide access to the commission, the PUC staff members assigned to the case will be divided among the seven hearing sites. Locations were chosen to provide access to as many ratepayers as possible.

No prior registration is needed for consumer to make statements at a local hearing. Consumers unable to attend a local hearing may submit written comments addressed to the PUC's Consumer Affairs Office at 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400 North; Austin, Texas 78757.

The process for reviewing the request gets underway at a prehearing conference scheduled for 10 a.m., July 8 at the commission's Austin offices. Motions for intervention in the case will be considered for a date for the hearing on the merits will be set. Commissioners must render a final decision by December 26.

Times for local hearings are from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m., except El Paso, with a break from 4:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m.

GENE NICHOLS

Dealership For Flying Machines In Prospect

A dealership for the Eagle Ultralight, a flying machine that is not quite an airplane, is in prospect for the Cisco area. This information was released Thursday by Gene Nichols, who operates an auto sales business across the street from the Post Office.

The business will be Eagle's Nest Aerolights, Inc., a corporation that is being formed by Mr. Nichols and a cousin, Kenneth D. Hare, of Kingsville. They were at the Ultralight factory in Albuquerque last week to learn to fly the machines and to work on details of a dealership.

Plans call for the firm to have a business location on I-20 here to take advantage of the large amount of traffic on the highway. The machines will be assembled and purchasers will be given flying lessons at the Cisco Municipal Airport if all plans work out.

The Ultralight, which has recently been the subject of television programs including "Real People," has an aluminum frame covered with a durable fabric. It weighs about 250 pounds, has a motor from 20 to 65 horsepower and a wing span of 35 feet. It has three small wheels.

The planes with larger motors can carry two people who sit out in the open strapped into a seat anchored in the framework. Parachutes can be carried if desired. The machines stall at 26 miles per hour and cruise from 37 to 50 miles per hour. They carry five gallons of gas maximum. They have a ceiling of 17,500 feet and can soar like a glider under proper atmosphere conditions.

Mr. Nichols said that ten hours of instruction are sufficient for the average man or woman to solo. No government pilot's license is required since the machine is below minimums required for airplanes.

The training course at the factory and at the dealership level will provide lessons on safety, meteorology, flight rules, navigation and the like, Mr. Nichols said.

Popularity of the Ultralight has been increasing as its use has been expanded to include supervision of traffic on busy highways and streets, pipe line right-of-way inspection, ranching operations and the like. The machines sell for $4,300 to $7,000 depending on the size of the motor and extras. Most Ultralights are equipped with VHF radio and a few basic instruments.

Mr. Nichols was putting the finishing touches on the first Ultralight when he was interviewed (see accompanying picture). He brought two of the flying machines home with him, and one will be ready for flying in a few days.

A Marine Corps veteran of the Korean War, Mr. Nichols has lived with his wife and daughter here for about ten years. He is a retired Marine with some 23 years of active duty. He says "I'm looking forward to flying the Ultralight."

A runway of a few hundred feet will be sufficient to allow the machines to takeoff. Mr. Nichols is presently using Dr. Chief Brown's hangar at the Cisco airport.

The dealership's sales territory will be the region that includes Abilene, Brownwood, Weatherford and Graham.

COORDINATORS for the VCS were (l to r), Betty McGrew, Nanette Maxwell, and Pat Deitiker.

REV. DAVID ADKINS, right, presents a gift to Mae Green, program director of the Cisco Nursing Home. The presentation was made the final day of Vacation Church School, held by First Presbyterian, First Christian, and First United Methodist Churches.

A TOTAL of 181 participated in the VCS held by First Presbyterian, First Christian, and First United Methodist Churches.

Jim Parker-District 65

Being ever mindful that many reports have already been made concerning the Special Session just passed, I thought I would jump into a discussion of the future Special Session relating to the public school system.

At this point, any definite date is mere speculation; however, Gov. White has expressed hope that the Select Committee on Public Education can begin meeting soon and, after carefully studying all areas of the educational system, be ready with recommendations for the Legislature later this year. Since the issue of education, and every aspect thereof, is a critical one and one which has not been addressed in its entirety for over 34 years, I would like to take the months prior to a called session to become fully aware of the needs, problems and views of my district regarding the school system in Texas. I will begin by addressing the issues regarding teacher pay and time spent for teaching and preparation.

I understand a teacher pay increase is important and will be one of the major issues of discussion for the Committee; however, I would like to explore other ideas such as merit pay, vacation time, time spent at school, etc., also.

I have heard complaints from opponents of a pay raise because they felt that since teachers worked only 10 months of the year, had six-hour days and had long vacations during the year, such as Christmas, spring break, etc., the public was paying more through taxes but was getting less in the way of better education for their children. They cite lower overall achievement scores compared to other countries as proof of their position.

On the other hand, the proponents for a pay increase felt the teaching profession was not able to attract future good teachers because the pay relative to other professions requiring a college degree was so much lower. The fact that there were only a handful of science and math teachers graduates in the entire state last year seems to back up this view.

Teachers, by State Board of Education policy, are required to teach a minimum of 175 days per year in the classroom with an additional number of days spent in in-service training. Other time is spent in parent-teacher conferences, PTA meetings, planning time, etc. They do not feel the general public is aware of the many additional hours required to plan lessons, grade papers or participate in school projects and some become downright hostile when it is suggested that they may be allowed to leave school at 4:00 p.m., many must stay later to prepare for the next day's work and most take work home with them. Also, teachers are not allowed an hour for lunch and must sit with and supervise students even during the short time they have.

Everyone, I think, will agree that some teachers are better than others and should be paid more. This is the reason for the much touted merit pay suggestions we have all heard about recently. But, again, there are strong feelings from both sides on this issue.

Opponents feel that it would be impossible to reward the better teachers fairly. They believe that any merit money would go to the teachers who spend more time with supervisors and principals rather than those who may actually be spending extra time in school projects, planning, etc. They feel the merit pay system could not be set up until certain criteria are set-up and, to their way of thinking, no such method has been developed.

Proponents of merit pay believe there is simply not enough money to pay all teachers a substantial increase and feel that those who are asked to spend more time, get advanced degrees and generally improve their teaching by showing an increase in achievement scores should receive additional pay over those who plod along doing the same thing year after year.

Having discussed the views of both proponents and opponents of increased teacher salaries, I would now like to know how my people feel about the ideas I have mentioned.

Bass Club Report

By Terry L. Wilson

At this time the Eastland County Bass Club would like to join in welcoming our new lake warden, Mr. Bob Elliott. Bob is married with one girl Kristie and Bob's wife Norma Lou. Bob came to us from Weatherford. We asked Bob what immediate improvements or changes he would be implementing. His response was "the immediate clean up of the camping and picnic areas, is the number one goal." Repairs are already underway on the docks, and also the application of our boat permits. At present fishing and boat permits will be $5.00 each per year or 50 cents each for one day. These may be purchased at the dam from Mr. Elliott.

A band of dedicated fishermen somewhere close by are chunken and winding this morning for that ever elusive bucket mouth. With the perseverance of a treasure hunter, members of our organization will be competing today in our monthly tournament. Results of this event will be listed in our next column.

Area lakes still producing some good fishing; especially early morning and late evening. Leon's strippers are very active during our cooler mornings in the dam area. Crappie are biting well also in the deeper water. Proctor is producing some fine 3-B fish in the main lake areas. Eastland lake is steady both bass fishing and channel cats are biting with some crappie being taken in the cat-tails with live bait.

With our heat rising by the hour be sure to take some measures to avoid excessive sunlight and be sure to replace expended body liquids regularly on those boating events, whether fishing, skiing or just out for a day of sun and fun. Good luck and good fishing.

Open For Public Comment

Commission Proposes Rule

AUSTIN--The Railroad Commission has proposed for public comment a new rule that requires a non-refundable $100 fee for new or materially amended permits to drill for oil and gas in the state.

The proposed new rule is the result of recent legislation enacted by the Texas Legislature. That legislation requires the $100 fee and authorized the Railroad Commission to deposit the money into a special fund for plugging abandoned wells.

The funds can also be used for general enforcement of state pollution prevention laws involving oil and gas operations.

Comments on the proposed rule will be taken for 30 days after publication in the Texas Register, and then the proposed rule will be presented to the Commission for final consideration.

The new law will also require some procedural changes in the way drilling permits are handled at the RRC. For example, applicants must file a drilling permit application (RRC Form W-1) and the fee with the Commission's headquarters in Austin rather than with the respective RRC district office. However, applicants must still send a copy of the application to the district office.

The RRC will no longer authorize "verbal" drilling permits, but will allow an applicant to expedite processing of a permit application by "walking" it through the review process in Austin.

By law, the fee requirement is effective Sept. 1, 1983.

The Commission has sent a full explanation of the drilling permit application changes to all oil and gas operators in the state.

To answer questions, the Commission has established a toll-free telephone number (1-800-772-0091) for calls placed in Texas. Out-of-state callers should dial 512-445-1314.

McCarty To Drill No.1A-No.4A

The No. 1A thru 4A R.O. McCarty are slated to be drilled in the Eastland Regular Field by R.D. McCarty of Cisco. With projected total depths of 1,500 feet, they are to be located in an 80-acre lease of Eastland County's ET RR Co. Survey, Sec. 26, Blk. 2, two miles northwest of Rising Star.

Location has been staked by North Ridge Corp. of Grand Prairie for a 4,000-foot developmental probe in Eastland County's Ranger Field, six miles north of Eastland. The well is designated as the No. 1 M.A. Hise. Drillsite will be in a 160-acre lease in the H&TC RR Co. Survey, A-303.

The No. 1 & 2 Carter Lease, two developmental tries, in Eastland County's REB Field, are scheduled to be drilled one mile west of Morton Valley. Pearson & Adams of Abilene are listed as the operator. Locations are in a 205-acre lease in the H&TC RR Co. Survey, Sec. 16, Blk. 4. Projected total depths are 4,200 feet per well.

Location has been staked by R.D. Caraway of Cisco for a 2,500-foot wildcat in Eastland County. The explorer will be known as the No. 1 Sparks. It is in a 142-acre lease in the E.H. Thornton Survey, five miles northeast of Desdemona.

Trinity Exploration Co. of Fort Worth has revealed plans to drill a 4,000 foot developmental probe in the Foster Field, eight miles northwest of Rising Star. The well will be located in a 190-acre lease in Eastland County's Maryan Clark Survey, A-51 and is to be designated as the No. 4 James A. Cox.

Two new oil producers in Eastland County's Midkiff Field have been finalized by Palo Petroleum Inc. of Dallas. Designated as the No. 1 Johnson and the No. 5 Johnson "C", the wells indicated respective capacity to produce 30 and 33 barrels of oil per day, both on an open choke.

The wells are located nine miles north-northwest of Rising Star in the Maryan Clark Survey, A-51. The No. 1 well is in an 90-acre lease, with the No. 5 well in a 71-acre lease.

The No. 1 well bottomed at 1,233 feet and will produce from an interval of perforations 1,174 to 1,185 feet into the hole. The pay formation was first encountered at 1,168 feet.

The No. 5 well entered the pay strata at 1,144 feet and went to total drilling depth of 1,213 feet. It is producing from a set of perforations 1,148 to 1,156 feet into the hole.

Hanvey Production Co. of Dallas has added a new natural gas producer in the Ardinger Field. It is the No. 3 Hanvey-Fee, located in a 120-acre lease in Eastland County's H&TC RR Co. Survey, Sec. 76, Blk. 4, three miles northeast of Cisco. The well flowed at the rate of 637,000 CF per day on a half-inch choke. The absolute open flow came in at 699,000 CFD.

Drilling went to 4,048 bottom, after the production zone was entered at 3,356 feet. The production interval will be perforations 3,356 to 3,372 feet.

Pumping at the rate of 32 barrels of crude oil per day on an open choke, the No. 17-A Johnson was completed in Eastland County's Midkiff Field by Regal Operating Inc. of Eastland.

Drillsite is in a 240-acre lease in the Maryan Clark

Commissioner Wallace Reports Production

AUSTIN--Texas crude oil production totaled 70,867,955 barrels in April, according to Railroad Commission Chairman Mack Wallace.

The figure compares with reported March production totaling 73,171,921 barrels and April 1982 production of 72,854,773 barrels.

Texas oil production averaged 2,362,265 barrels daily in April, up from 2,360,385 barrels daily in March and down from 2,428,492 barrels daily in April 1982.

The preliminary April summary indicated Texas oil production was 23.24 percent under the allowable for the month.

The state's top producing counties in April were Pecos, 4,136,134 barrels; Ector, 3,737,442 barrels; Yoakum, 3,690,536 barrels; Gaines, 3,690,465 barrels; Gregg, 3,138,406 barrels; Andrews, 3,126,283 barrels; Hocky, 3,098,242 barrels; Scurry, 2,562,258 barrels; Crane, 2,149,957 barrels; and Refugio, 1,866,358 barrels.

Many Good And Sincere Individuals

...give little thought to the question of values when we should measure them in terms of personal worth in everything he buys, enjoys or does. For example, some folks will buy real estate without any kind of evidence of title disregarding the fact that the principal value of the purchase is in the title, not in the land itself or the improvements thereon. This kind of thinking costs property owners thousands of dollars annually which could be saved and a part of the savings wisely spent for an abstract of title or title insurance.

For years Americans paid little attention to the amount of fiber, or "roughage" in their diets. Then a study showed that people from rural Africa who consume high-fiber diets seem to have less gastro-intestinal disease than people from developed countries who consume low-fiber diets. This study created an interest in the subject, and now "high-fiber" foods are being widely promoted as the basis for healthful living.

A high-fiber "diet plan" often recommends eating more raw foods. Since foods are made more digestible by prolonged cooking, it is sometimes assumed that canned fruits and vegetables are lower in fiber content than fresh foods.

Research sponsored by the National Food Processors Association assessed the fiber and pectin contents of ten vegetables, ten fruits, and eight fruit juices in frozen, canned and cooked form. The researchers found no evidence, however, that any of the food preparation methods produce substantial fiber loss.

The need to greatly increase the amount of fiber in our diets is questionable, since the results of research on high-fiber diets have been inconclusive.

Even if you want to increase the amount of fiber in your diet by a certain amount, that can be difficult because information on the exact amounts of fiber contained in particular food items is lacking.

The problem is that the term "fiber" includes many compounds that resist digestion, but vary widely in chemical and physical characteristics.

Cellulose, hemicellulose, lignin, pectins and gums are among the compounds generally listed as classes of fiber. Each of these includes several different chemical materials.

Because almost no detailed information is available to serve as a guide for recommending either the quantity or type of fiber in the diet, moderation is probably best.

Simply eating a variety of whole grain products such as breads and cereals; raw and cooked fruits and vegetables; and nuts; will ensure a good mixture of fiber and contribute to the nutritional value of your diet.

RECIPE FOR THE WEEK

The recipe I am enclosing this week is from my personal recipe file. This is a very good bran muffin which is high in fiber. The recipe makes a large amount, you may wish to half the recipe as I do.

BRAN REFRIGERATOR MUFFINS

- 2 cups boiling water
- 2 cups raisins or dates
- 5 teaspoons soda
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 cup shortening
- 5 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 1 cup nuts
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4 cups all-bran cereal
- 2 cups 40 percent bran flakes
- 4 eggs
- 1 quart buttermilk

Pour the boiling water over the raisins. Add soda and let cool. Cream the sugar with the shortening. Sift the flour into a mixing bowl and save out 1/4 cup to flour the nuts. Add the salt and the cereal. Beat the eggs, add buttermilk and blend. Fold in the raisin mixture. Add all at once to the sifted flour and floured nut mixture; mix until dry ingredients are moistened. Cover and store in refrigerator. Makes 4 quarts.

When needed, heat oven to 375 degrees. Take out the quantity of mix desired and fill muffin cups two-thirds full. Bake 20 to 25 minutes. When kept in the refrigerator, this batter will keep for six weeks.

Centuries of cross-breeding have transformed the roses of antiquity into the vast assembly of modern roses today. At present there are more than 13,000 members of the huge rose family.

All-American Rose Selections is a non-profit research corporation, that maintains a series of test gardens to determine the worth of many new hybrid roses before they are ever offered for sale. Through this program of testing and award program that is in its forty-fourth year we have the winners each year. This year we have three winners for 1984, "Intrigue", "Impatient" and "Olympiad."

INTRIGUE: The unique color of this 1984 award winning floribunda, is bound to attract a great deal of attention where ever it is grown. The blooms, large for a floribunda, opening from blackish-purple globular buds into 3 inch, deep plum colored flowers, having a very attractive and distinctive old rose fragrance.

Intrigue is free blooming in rather small clusters, but the flowers are so large that the size of the cluster makes little difference.

The plant habit is ideal for a floribunda in that, though the canes are upright, the height of the plant is medium, as befits plants of this classification. Glossy, clean foliage, distinctly mildew resistant, provides an excellent background for the striking flowers.

IMPATIENT: A brilliantly colored, large flowered, shapely floribunda. The masses of orange-red blooms which age pleasantly, create a vivid picture, repeated again and again as the plant continues its reblooming cycles throughout the summer. The clusters of flat 3 inch flowers of 20-25 petals, have a mild fragrance and are borne prolifically all season on upright, vigorous 3-4' plant. The dense foliage, almost mahogany colored at first, becomes very dark, shiny green and has proven exceedingly resistant to disease. The clean, crisp looking blooms are held well above the leaves on long, strong stems. Impatient is an eye catcher with its vibrant orange-red blooms, thickly set on a perfect, mound-shaped bush. Even when not in bloom, which is seldom, the new mahogany colored foliage is most attractive.

OLYMPIAD: Olympiad is the first red hybrid tea to win an All-American award since Mister Lincoln, 19 years ago.

Its color is a brilliant, clear crimson, long lasting, both in the garden and as a cut flower. The bloom does not age to an unattractive bluish-purple, as do most

Experts Give Tips For Producing Ideal Steer

"The ideal steer is one with enough finish to grade Good to Low Choice and with adequate muscle, frame size, volume and skeletal correctness to produce an acceptable carcass in an efficient manner," said Dr. Harlan D. Ritchie of Michigan State University, the featured speaker.

"Basically, the ideal steer is one that will produce a 675 to 750-pound carcass (1125 to 1250 pounds live weight) with .3 to .6 inch fat cover and good muscling," Ritchie said. "The carcass should have a 50-chance of making the Choice grade."

Ritchie emphasized that the "right" kind of feeder steer is the one that "looks" right and produces the "right" carcass. And to produce this "right" kind of steer, cattlemen need to consider the following:

1. Feed resources.
2. Climate or environment.
3. Management and labor resources.
4. Market requirements—carcass size, quality grade and yield grade.

"We must match cattle to existing conditions when we consider a beef production system," said Ritchie. "Optimum size of animals and the size of our production unit should fit into the conditions we have to deal with."

In a commercial beef cattle operation, cow efficiency is of critical importance, Ritchie emphasized. "Since the cow is the factory that produces the calf, we must be sure it's functioning efficiently. Cow efficiency should be measured in pounds of calf weaned per cow exposed and involves both biological efficiency as well as economical efficiency. In other words, for any given set of environmental and economic conditions, there is an optimum cow size and milk level," he said.

According to symposium officials, steers fall into the same mold, with a host of variables involved in determining the "best" type of steer to produce, whether for show or for the feedlot.

The Steer Production and Evaluation Symposium was sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

TEXAS GARDENER TIPS

Make Direct Seeding Work in Summer Heat

It's time to start thinking about making second plantings and starting seedlings for fall-maturing crops. For certain crops, it is best to plant seed directly in your garden.

The secret to seeding directly into the garden in the midst of summer heat and having the seed germinate and produce healthy, vigorous plants is to modify the seeding area itself right in your garden.

Start by marking off the desired rows in your garden. In most areas of Texas, it is important that the soil be bedded prior to planting. This is especially true in the fall and in areas where excess rain occurs during the gardening season.

After the garden has been bedded and the rows marked off, take a hoe handle or stick and make a seed "furrow". The seed furrow will vary in depth, but in general it is usually 3/4 to 1 inch deep.

Next comes a very important step. After the seed furrow has been made, take a watering can or water hose and apply water directly into the seed furrow. Apply sufficient water to wet the loosened soil to a depth of 3 to 4 inches. In some cases, this may require that you apply water to the seed furrow several times.

After the water has been soaked in, scatter the seed evenly along the furrow. Always plant more seed than needed. Soaking the seed in water overnight will help get the germination process started.

Instead of covering the seed with garden soil, use a material such as compost, potting soil, peat moss, or vermiculite. By using a medium like compost as a covering material, you will provide a better environment in which the seed can germinate and grow. Problems associated with soil crusting and poor aeration will be eliminated. If you use a light colored material like vermiculite, the seeding area will be cooler.

In a few days time, depending on the crop planted, the seed should germinate and begin to emerge. It is especially important at this time to keep the soil from drying out. Light, frequent applications with a sprinkler are ideal due to the cooling effect of the water.

If it is very hot once the plants have emerged, protect them from the summer sun by placing a board, cardboard or cloth on the west side of the row.

Joseph F. Glidden Inventor

Of Now Famous Barbed Wire

AUSTIN, TEXAS-In 1874 Joseph F. Glidden got a patent on his barbed wire invention. It was no easy task convincing ranchers that expensive barbed wire would make ranching more profitable, and would not harm cattle.

Salesmen staged demonstrations in towns like San Antonio, where a corral for wild Mexican yearlings was built in the main plaza between Southern Hotel and the cathedral and in front of the Hole-in-the-Wall Saloon, a favorite cattlemen's hangout.

Glidden hired Henry B. Sanborn, a super salesman, to develop a ranch in the Panhandle that would show benefits of fencing. The cattle brand, which looked like a panhandle, soon became known as a frying pan, and the name stuck.

Eventually Frying Pan Ranching ran 12,000 head of cattle. The ranch proved that separating cattle could make ranching more of a scientific operation, reduce cost of spring roundups, and allow selected ranges to be grazed at specific times. Fencing also kept out droves of northern cattle, which roamed into the Panhandle during severe winters.

Panhandle ranchers began fencing in 1881 using wire freighted from Dodge City and cedar posts cut in Canadian River Valley and Palo Duro Canyon.

Arrival of the Fort Worth and Denver City Railroad in 1887 prompted establishment of Amarillo to serve as Potter County seat. Since the new townsite lay so near a lake, rains left water surrounding the community. H.B. Sanborn bought a section near Frying Pan Ranch and one mile from Amarillo to start New Amarillo in 1889. He offered such tempting inducements that merchants began relocating.

Even the saloon was moved without closing for business. Finally, only the courthouse remained in the early settlement.

The Texas Historical Commission has placed an OFFICIAL TEXAS HISTORICAL MARKER honoring Frying Pan Ranch at a roadside park off IH 40, one mile east of Bushland, Potter County. As the state agency for historic preservation, the Texas Historical Commission provides guidance and information on all aspects of heritage conservation.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

Many of our Senior Citizens of this community, and surrounding communities, have raised so many vegetables this year. Many have surplus vegetables that they have given away, and many have canned and frozen the items. If you have extra vegetables and you would like to share with the other older people why not call the Senior Center and we will put a notice on the bulletin board. Home-grown vegetables are so wholesome and we encourage all to prepare these nutritious foods.

The programs for the past week included: Viola Payne presented a wonderful program by playing her violin/solo by Ella White accompanied by Leah Brown at the piano. The Senior Center Band and choir entertained at the Fourth of July event at the Cisco City Park. The band and choir also presents programs for the members of the Senior Center each week. Dinner music by Sharla Qualls.

The menus for the week are:

Monday-ham with raisin sauce, cheese-macaroni salad, peas and carrots, orange jello with whipped topping, bread, butter and drink.

Wednesday-beef/macaroni, lettuce/tomato salad, green beans, spice cake, bread, butter and drink.

Friday-oven fried chicken, glazed carrots, whipped potatoes, fruited jello, bread, butter and drink.

Foy Reunion Is Held June 25-26

One hundred and twenty descendants of John and Edna Foy gathered at the Church of God's Camp Inspiration in Eastland for their tenth annual reunion on June 25 and 26. Some came from as far away as California, Oklahoma, Massachusetts, and many distant points in Texas.

Some members of the family were in attendance for the first time, along with several visitors.

The highlight of the reunion, as always, was the auction held on Saturday night with Judge Jasper Cook of Cisco as the auctioneer. Members of the family bring hand-made crafts, needlework, paintings, and the like. These are auctioned off to raise money to pay for the rental of the camp and for the purchase of the food for all meals. This year's auction raised over fifteen hundred dollars.

Following the auction, a few comedy skits were presented. This year's show featured Nurse Hazel White, Alvin (Chief Tecumseh) King, and others. They were applauded by the large crowd.

Those present enjoyed swimming, miniature golf, basketball, ping-pong, dominoes, taking pictures and visiting. A good time was had by all and plans are already underway for the eleventh reunion the last week-end in June, 1984.

Vida Killion Receives Honors

By Viola Payne
Feature Writer

"The years have passed so swiftly!"

This is the description Mrs. O.T. (Vida) Killion of Eastland gives of her 50 continuous years in the Ministry of the Assemblies of God.

She was presented an Honor of Recognition Certificate for these 50 years on June 8 at the North Texas District Council in the Reunion Arena, Dallas.

The Executive Presbytery of the General Council of the Assemblies of God, with Headquarters in Springfield, Missouri, conferred the Honor. Rev. James K. Bridges, North Texas District Superintendent, made the presentation.

Shortly after her marriage to Rev. O.T. Killion in 1933 Vida Frazier Killion was given a Ministerial license. This was presented at the Texas District Council at Port Arthur, Texas. At this time women Ministers were not too common, but the Killion and Frazier families had two besides Vida.

They were Verena (Killion) Holcomb, presently of Garland, Texas, and Erma (Frazier) Holcomb, now deceased.

Much of Vida Killion's work consisted of churches and projects with her husband. She received her ordination in 1944, and gave sermons when needed. The couple held evangelistic campaigns, pioneered churches, and taught training classes.

In all this slender, dark-eyed Vida proved to be a tireless worker. She planned special programs, often writing her own skits. She played the piano and accordion, sang and directed large Vacation Bible Schools.

In 1969 the Killions moved to Cisco to pastor the Assembly of God Church on West 7th St. Besides the church work, they became active in civic and community affairs. This included work with Senior Citizens programs, and weekly programs in the Nursing Home.

After the retirement of Rev. O.T. Killion the couple moved to Eastland, where they now make their home.

Vida Killion continues with church and other activities. She is a charter member of the Cisco Writer's Club, and Publicity Chairman for the Cisco Music Club. The Killions became Charter Members of the Assemblies of God Heritage Society in 1982.

the podium in Dallas to receive her Honor she had these thoughts: "This 50 years has been wonderful - but the best is yet to be! "This work has always been enjoyable to me."

Information about your changing telephone service from Bob Cox, Community Relations Manager

By now you've probably read about the company's rate request for $1.7 billion. How did we come up with that figure? Why is this request so much larger than previous rate filings? In this column, I hope to provide some answers for you.

Local rates subsidized by long distance

If somebody else were to pick up half your lunch check, what would you say? Probably, thank you. But what if they started paying half of all your meals? At some point it would be human nature to start taking them for granted. Our situation is similar.

You've been paying an average of $11 a month for something that costs about $29 a month: residence telephone service. Long distance and other services have been picking up the difference. This came about because the company wanted to keep local service as cheap as possible. That way everyone could afford to have a phone. And as long as Southwestern Bell operated as one big system, this worked fine.

But with recent government rulings, things have changed. Southwestern Bell can't continue to subsidize local rates with the money we make on optional services. As Paul Roth, vice president of revenues and public affairs, said in a recent press conference, "Local rates no longer can hide behind long distance, because we're just about out of the long distance business." For the most part, the long distance business is going to other carriers like AT&T and MCI. And, we're virtually out of the customer equipment business. As a consequence, local rates must go up... substantially.

Three main components make up rate request

Basically, the company's request for local rates can be divided into three parts: —The company is requesting an increase of $502 million statewide to recover the costs of doing business, and to produce a fair return on Texas investment.

—We're asking for an increase of $450 million in depreciation expense and other capital recovery charges that is more consistent with today's technological changes.

—The company is seeking $249 million in access charges to partially replace the subsidy provided by intrastate long distance revenues to local rates. The filing also proposes additional charges of $504 million to intercity carriers such as AT&T and MCI.

Lower cost options due later this year

We are concerned about how these increases will affect our customers... particularly those on fixed incomes. That's why we're researching several lower priced offerings as alternatives to flat-rate unlimited service.

Under such offerings, customers would pay for each call made, but the monthly rate for most would be substantially less than unlimited service.

With local rates rising to meet costs, it doesn't make sense for all customers to pay the same flat rate no matter how much or little they use their line. People who use less should pay less. This is no different than rates charged for other utility services.

For further information and background about the rate filing, send for our free booklet, "Telecommunications Changes and the Cost of Telephone Service." Address requests to: Rate Request Booklet, Southwestern Bell, P. O. Box 225265, Dallas, Texas 75265.

Birthday Brings Surprises

Annie Rendall of Cisco, states that her 76th birthday (June 27) was full of happy surprises.

"I hadn't expected anything like those big gatherings," she says. "At the first one, on the 26th, I just thought I was going over to Mary Jane's house (her daughter, Mrs. Frank Little of Olden) for dinner. And you'd never believe who was waiting for me there!"

"Who was waiting" turned out to be children and grandchildren and great grandchildren from a wide area: Robert (Rudy) Rendall of Midland, with wife Pat, and daughter Elizabeth; Greg and Lanette Rendall and son Scotty from Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; Robert Rendall Jr. and wife Jackie and daughter Margaret Anne of Midland; Beverly and Dwight Maxwell and children Dee and Gayla from Anchorage, Alaska; Gerald and Judy Erwin of Midland; Randy and Judy Hall and children Bradley, Jacob and Alesha of Cleburne; and the hosts Frank and Mary Jane Little and daughter La Dawn of Olden.

After this occasion Annie Rendall felt "her cup was running over", and certainly expected nothing more. But she was fooled again. For the next evening, the 27th, Roy and Ruth Cartee suggested that she go out and have dinner with them at the Colony in Cisco. And guess who was waiting at a long table in the dining room - about 22 Senior Citizens friends from Cisco and Eastland!

These included Ruth Brown, Lou Schurpo, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knowlden, Sue Taylor, Verda Reed, Velma Joiner, Ima Thompson, Ann Adams, Mr. and Mrs. O.T. Killion, Bero Rains, Mary Willis, J.D. Yardley, Melba Ruth Powell, Chief Bender, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Montgomery and J.D. Yardley. They were joined by hosts Roy and Ruth Cartee and the honoree.

"I can't imagine a nicer birthday surprises," says Mrs. Rendall. "I certainly appreciate my wonderful family and friends."

Awards To Be Given During Fashion Show

On July 14, Eastland County 4-H members will model garments made during 4-H clothing projects.

According to Christy Fuqua, county extension agent, the show and awards program will be held in the Siebert Elementary Cafetorium at 7:30 p.m., along with a covered dish supper which begins at 6:00 p.m. The public is encouraged to review the talents of these youth. The theme of this year's show is Sidewalk Silhouettes.

Winners will be named for sub-juniors, juniors and seniors in each of the following four divisions, daytime tailored, daytime non-tailored, active sportswear and evening and speciality wear. Trophies and ribbons have been sponsored by the Eastland County 4-H Adult Leaders Association. During judging refreshments for the 4-H'ers will be provided by the Eastland County Extension Homemaker's Council. High-point winners in each category will be eligible to compete at the District Fashion Show July 26 in Stephenville.

The Fashion Show is a state 4-H awards program conducted in Texas by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service for youth ages 9-19. Objectives of the program are for 4-H youth to exhibit skills in clothing construction, fashion interpretation, good grooming and modeling.

Pastor To Be Honored At Reception

A reception will be held honoring Rev. and Mrs. Terry Chapman on Sunday, July 10, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. at the hospitality room of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, DeLeon, Texas.

The Chapmans have resigned the pastorate of the DeLeon Assembly of God Church where they have been for the past nineteen years.

A cash money tree is planned for gifts. Individual gifts are optional.

4-Her's Plan Family Night Tuesday

There will be a countywide family night and ice cream supper, for all Eastland County 4-H members, parents and leaders, on Tuesday, July 12, at 7:00 p.m. in the Eastland City Park. Each family is asked to bring a freezer of their favorite homemade ice cream or cookies.

The county 4-H Council and the Adult Leaders Association will have a brief business meeting at this time. County Extension Agents John Blair and Christy Fuqua will present a program on the purpose of these two organizations and how they fit into the total 4-H county program.

Anyone interested in joining 4-H is encouraged to attend this "get-together." Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

State Senator Glasgow Passes Measures In Special Session

During the recent Special Session, Senator Bob Glasgow sponsored a bill establishing a brucellosis program and a measure requiring smoke alarms in hotels and motels.

Additionally, the State Senator from Stephenville helped put an amendment on another bill that provided funding for a seventh Associate Justice on the Fort Worth Court of Appeals.

Probably the most important and most controversial bill considered during the Special Session was the brucellosis bill sponsored by Representative Bruce Gibson in the House and Senator Glasgow in the Senate. The measure was passed in order to lift a threatened federal quarantine and embargo by other states of Texas cattle.

Without passage of the bill the cattle industry in Texas faced an estimated annual loss ranging from 80 to 130 million dollars," stated Senator Glasgow.

He added that the effects of a threatened quarantine had already made out-of-state buyers wary of Texas cattle and many ranchers and dairymen across the state had lost money already.

"When all segments of the cattle industry realized that the United States Department of Agriculture was serious about the quarantine, even those in opposition to the program came around to assist in the passage of a workable bill," continued Senator Glasgow.

The second bill sponsored by Senator Glasgow provided that all motels and hotels must have a smoke detector in each room that is regularly used for sleeping.

Senator Glasgow said that this bill is in direct response to the tragic fire at the Ramada Inn in Fort Worth this June. He added that while we have passed laws requiring smoke detectors in hospitals, nursing homes and other places of accommodations, we had not passed a measure relating to motels and hotels.

Also during the Special Session, Senator Glasgow attached to another bill an amendment that provided funding for the salary of the seventh judge on the Fort Worth Court of Appeals.

During the regular Session of the Legislature, a bill was passed establishing the position of a seventh Justice on the Fort Worth Court, but the bill did not provide for funding. This amendment corrected this problem.

Senator Glasgow said that there was some difficulty in locating a person who was willing to serve gratuitously.

THE TELEPHONE rang out at Dr. E.E. Addy's place of business the other day. A reporter for the Dallas Times-Herald was on the line and wanted to interview him about being the first man to receive a diploma from the UofT's Southwestern Medical School in Dallas in 1940.

How come him to be the first man to get a diploma there? He was in their first class and his name starts with the first letter of the alphabet. And when he is around and they operate by the alphabet there aren't many folks who are called before Addy.

Dr. Addy said that his class has a reunion every 10 years. He was on the committee of arrangements for the 20th anniversary party but was unable to attend. The 30th anniversary was held in 1973 and he went but can't remember anything unusual. He hopes to attend this year.

Dr. Addy went into the U.S. Army after graduation and came to Cisco when he was discharged. And he has been doctoring folks hereabouts since 1946.

GOLFERS OUT at the Cisco Country Club are real pleased with the new asphalt cart paths made possible by Letha Stafford of the golf committee. They're real nice and appreciated. Mrs. Stafford recently built a swimming pool at her home on Country Club Ridge. Back on the golf course almost every day is Mr. J.C. Fletcher, retired manager of West Texas Produce. The Fletchers got home last week from California where they visited their daughter and family, the Bob Lloyds. While there, they took a trip on Amtrack, the super train, and found it interesting and a good way to travel.

MR. PLES RAY, regarded by many as the mayor of Scranton, read the item here about Jake Morgan and Dalworth Jobe and the Liar's Table at the White Elephant Restaurant. Mr. PR says he has known them all their lives. "I was 18 or 20 years old when they were born," he told us. "But we're about the same age now."

All's well and warm and dry at Scranton. Mr. PR reports. He said he wouldn't have any comment on the qualifications of Jake and Dalworth to sit at the WE's special table.

DR. CHIEF and Marge Brown enjoyed a July 4th weekend vacation in Corpus Christi. They visited with friends who took them cruising in the bay, ate a lot of good sea food and took in the Padre Island beaches. And Dr. Chief made friends with a seagull. Kendall Anderson, tall son of the Al Andersons, had his best outing ever at the local golf course the other afternoon. He shot a 36 for nine holes - a course record for him.

A REAL NICE vacation. That's what the Charles Clarks have to say about their two weeks in Hawaii. They left from DFW airport on a Boeing 747 and flew to Honolulu where they stayed for a few days while he was a delegate to the Lions Club's International Convention from the Cisco noon club.

Then, the Clarks joined the Dr. E.H. Ramseys of San Antonio, formerly of Cisco, for a boat cruise to several of the Hawaiian Islands. They saw the smoldering volcano on Kauai, one of the most scenic of the islands, and visited the fern grotto, the grand canyon and the beautiful beaches there. Their ship stopped at Maui, where whales gather at certain times of the year, and enjoyed more nice scenery, pretty beaches and the like. Their ship was very nice, indeed, with swimming pools, good entertainment and five meals a day (Charles says he only gained five pounds.)

After the nice, leisurely cruise, the Ciscoans returned to Honolulu for a last few days before flying home. They attended a number of shows, most of which included dancers wearing grass skirts that are native to the islands. They enjoyed sampling native food, including poi. They got the traditional lei greeting when they arrived there.

OUR SCOUTS report that Mr. Paul Brashear of Austin and Scranton is a patient at Eastland Memorial Hospital where he underwent surgery this week. His condition was good. Mrs. Willis (Vallie) Parker spent a few days this past week in Baylor Hospital, Dallas, undergoing medical tests. Tracy Owens, CJC grad who enters Baylor University next month, hopes to try out for the BU golf team. All's well out at the Sunshine Valley Mobile Home Park, five miles north on the Breckenridge highway, reports Owner-Manager Leona Morton. The population there now numbers 85 persons, including children who enjoy the playground.

MISS TRACEY Couch, daughter of the James Couches, is setting a record of sorts. She's in her 5th year as sweetheart of the Cisco Lions Club, and Boss Lion C.B. Dill has just reapointed her for another year. Tracey hadn't entered high school when she was first recruited for the job. Her piano playing was adequate at first but not outstanding. It has been interesting for Lions to observe her development into an attractive young woman and a talented musician.

A senior at CHS, Tracey will be the Lobo Band drum major this fall. Lions are proud of her and she does a fine job as their sweetheart. Her dad is a long-time member of the club.

THE REV. BRUCE Stovall tells us that the revival meeting he conducted recently at May was a rewarding experience and, folks told him, it was a success and very good for the community. Several May churches were co-sponsors of the event to make it a community-wide revival.

Mr. Stovall, who operates oil well supply and service businesses, is just about as busy as a religious leader as he was while he was spending a good many years as a full-time Baptist minister. He preaches somewhere every week, helps direct the activities of the Baptist Student Union at CJC, is an active member and worker at First Baptist Church, devotes more than his vacation time to missionary work in Mexico, and is always available for counselling and community work.

CISCO'S JULY the Fourth Celebration at City Park generated a lot of publicity. The Abilene Newspaper's state editor, Marilyn Hauk, came over to make pictures and interview folks. She did a nice interview with Mr. O.L. Stamey who was on duty at the Lions Club food concession.

KRBC Television (Channel 9 or 5 on the cable) sent over a camera and reporter who interviewed a number of children at the park.

The fireworks show attracted a lot of people. A good many cars and trucks stopped on the I-20 shoulders to watch as Bruce Smith, Ivan Webb and Bobby Fink used six mortars to fire aerial salutes and colorful shots.

THEY'VE GOT one of those digital clocks with a storm warning alarm out at the Marshall Jones home on West 14th Street. The other night, the Joneses were in their back bedroom watching television and a noise started bothering TV reception.

Mr. MJ tried two or three times to fine tune the noise out with no success. Thirty minutes or so later he went to the living room for something and found that the storm warning instrument was singing out the news that there was a thunderstorm in the area.

Mr. MJ shut off the alarm and that cleared up television reception in the back bedroom.

To whom it may concern: I want to thank the person responsible for returning items taken from my lake cabin sometime in June. I was happy to get them back as one of the items in particular was high on the list of those with sentimental value to me.

Most of all though I am happy for you in making the decision you did, to return the things along with the nice note you included asking forgiveness. You certainly made the right decision and I forgive you and hope all your future decisions will be as good.

Sincerely,
