Keith Wells Assist Dvess A.F.B. Color Guard In Raising Flag Last Wednesday At CHS

Students Have Program In Auditorium

Veterans Of World War II Talk To Students

Cisco High School students were asked last Wednesday morning, "What does the flag mean to you?" by Mr. E.L. Jackson, long time resident of Cisco. Students gathered in the high school auditorium to hear Mr. Jackson and another special guest, Mr. Keith Wells of Abilene tell of their experiences in defending the American flag.

Mr. Jackson, who moved to Cisco in 1927 served in the Navy Corps of Engineers in the southwest Pacific during World War II. He said it was hard to leave his wife and four children (by the way who all graduated from Cisco High School) to enter the service.

He also said that some of his most pleasant memories are of his friends who were in the service, and it would be nice to be with those men again.

One memory that stands out in his mind was when he went to Pearl Harbor in 1943. He could still see all the damage and destruction from the attack on Pearl Harbor by the Japanese. He was lonesome that day while walking down the street, missing his wife and children when the bugle sounded color and he stopped and saluted the flag that was being raised. And he can still remember the feeling of pride he had for the American flag.

Another time they were doing construction work on a base getting ready for the drive on the Philippines. He was the officer of the day sitting behind a desk. The training "boots" or new guys came in on his right. One man came in and took off his hat and had tears running down his cheeks. The man told Mr. Jackson, "If I had $25,000 I would give it away to see my daughter." Mr. Jackson sat him down and asked him questions about his daughter, and let him talk about her. But Mr. Jackson could not let him go home to see the girl.

At another time when his outfit was overseas building a base a young 'kid' wanted to know how to do certain things. But Mr. Jackson couldn't let him until the 'kid' got permission. And Mr. Jackson had to get the okay from the men the 'kid' would be working with, for the young man was black. The 'kid' went to work for them after everyone agreed to it.

Mr. Jackson was sent to Australia and some months later he came back to the base and when he saw that young man, the 'kid' came over and put his arms around Mr. Jackson and hugged him. He was just so glad to see someone he knew.

Mr. Jackson spoke of the American flag and said there is only one like it. And he is proud of it. He said a lot of people don't know the etiquette of raising the American flag and how to take care of one. He said the flag is never to touch the dirt.

The flag represents the people of the United States and it's alive. It lives in our justice system, our schools. It has been shot at in war and drowned when a ship was sunk at sea.

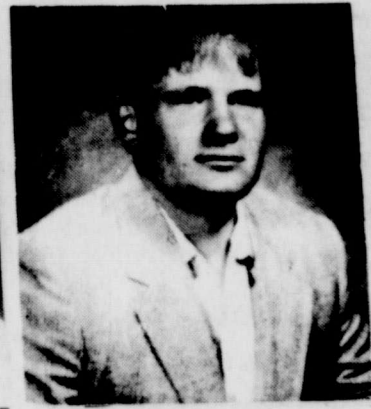

Mr. Jackson stated that he couldn't begin to tell what the flag stands for. He urged the students to, "Believe in our country and the leaders of our country. Each one should live up to the flag and be a good citizen."

Coronation To Be Friday, December 5

King and Queen Lobo LV and their court will be presented Friday, Dec. 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium on the Cisco Junior College campus. The nominees for the honor of King and Queen Lobo are chosen by the senior class. The King and Queen are then elected by the student body of Cisco High School.

Those nominated by Queen Lobo are: Kathy Choate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Choate; Tracy Edgar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edgar; Susie Endsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stovall; Stacy Willingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stovall; Stacy Willingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Butch Willingham; and Janice Woolley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Woolley.

Nominees chosen for King Lobo are: Steve Abbott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Abbott; Ricky Chambers, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Van Chambers; Stacy Edgar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edgar; Shelby Nixon, son of Barbara Nixon; and Robert Rains, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Bobby) Rains.

The royal court will also include representatives from kindergarten through Cisco Junior College. These attendants are chosen by their classmates according to the guidelines of this annual event.

Jack Martin, Cisco High School principal, will crown the newly-elected king. The queen will then be crowned by King Lobo. Following the coronation, the junior class will present a program for the entertainment of the new royalty. Tickets are $3.00 for adults and $1.00 for students. They may be purchased from members of the junior class beginning Dec. 1. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Deadline For Goodfellow Applications Will Be Friday, December 5, at 5:00

The Cisco Goodfellows are still receiving applications for help with food and toys for this Christmas season. Friday, December 5, at 5:00 p.m. is the deadline for applications to be turned into the Chamber of Commerce for anyone who needs help. The donations are still slow coming in, but they were expected to pick up after Thanksgiving. There are so many people in Cisco who will need help this year with food. These families will not be able to sit down to a large Christmas dinner unless there is enough money to buy food for everyone. Or some children will wake up Christmas morning with no toys unless the Goodfellows can help.

Citizens are asked to dig deep into their pockets and send in a check to the Cisco Goodfellows. Checks may be sent to The Cisco Press, The First National Bank in Cisco, Olney Savings in Cisco and the Cisco Chamber of Commerce.

One application received this week is from a mother of three who is also taking care of her mother. She wrote for Nina Jo Anderson reported that her mother-in-law, Mrs. L.C. (Ruby) Anderson of Ft. Worth is suffering from a fractured spine. Nina Jo said that Mrs. Anderson lived in Cico for many many years and has many friends here in Cisco.

If anyone would like to send cards and letters they may do by sending them to Mrs. L.C. Anderson, 5232 North Hampshire, Ft. Worth, 76112.

The students at CHS were given a patriotic program last Wednesday morning in the auditorium.

Mr. Jack Martin, principal introduced two guest speakers, Mr. E.L. Jackson of Cisco and Mr. Keith Wells. They both spoke of their experiences in World War II.

Before the program began Mr. Martin stated that he had heard that the servicemen would write letters to their loved ones at home before they would go onto an island where there was heavy fighting in the Pacific and place the letters in a trunk on board a ship in case they didn't make it back. They would then be farewell letters.

There is a story and pictures elsewhere in the Press about the program.

Our family ate out Thanksgiving Day and it's not the same. The food wasn't as good as homecooked and the atmosphere of a restaurant just isn't as comfortable as sitting around your family's dining table.

Now we know, and we won't ever do that again.

There were a lot of families helped this year with Thanksgiving dinners by local churches. And a lot of families will be helped this year at Christmas by the Goodfellows. Don't forget to send in your donation.

Thursday, we drove out to Lake Cisco since we haven't been out there since last summer. And I was really surprised about how low the lake is.

If it has been awhile drive out there to see it and remember the voluntary water conservation is still in effect.

Letters to the editor...

DEAR EDITOR:

Attached is a letter the City Manager received from Pastor Cecil Deadman regarding some work the city's street department crew did around the East Cisco Baptist Church. Often, the City Council only hear from negative comments, so we are always especially grateful to hear from our citizens regarding the good work our city employees do. And, on behalf of the entire Council, I would like to publicly extend our recognition and appreciation to all city employees for the difficult work that they do accomplish—often under adverse conditions and with limited resources.

To assist in this public recognition, I would appreciate it if Pastor Deadman's letter and my comments in this letter can be published in the Cisco Press in some appropriate manner.

Thank you for your help in this matter; and if you have any questions please do not hesitate to call me at the lumber company or Mike at City Hall.

Sincerely,
Joe Wheatley
Mayor
(Ed. Note: The letter Mr. Wheatley referred to is

Dear Mike,

I just wanted to drop you a note and express my thanks to you for our city employees. Frank and his crew were in our neighborhood taking care of a complaint this morning. It was not directly related to our church or our property. While visiting with him about the problem he saw the condition of an alleyway and drive that runs between the Methodist Church and Primitive Baptist Churches on Ave. A and between the Primitive Baptist and East Cisco Baptist Churches. While he was taking care of a citizen's complaint he took time to make access to the churches much easier and safer for our automobiles.

I just wanted you to know how much this work is appreciated.

Thank you,
Cecil W. Deadman

Nutrition Center

Pneumonia, an infection of the lungs, is the chief complication of influenza, and the major cause of death associated with the flu. How can you determine if you might have pneumonia? Here are some symptoms: high fever (over 101 degrees); rapid pulse (over 100 beats per minute); rapid breathing (30 to 60 breaths per minute); severe cough; brown sputum; chest pains and chills. If you have these symptoms, see your doctor.

The programs for the past week included: a nutrition talk was presented by Janet Thomas; Lydia Krauskopf, Lois Holder and Ina Thompson played the dinner music. The Senior Center Band and Choir, accompanied by Gerald Park and Billie Wood entertained the more than 250 members who came to the center for the Thanksgiving dinner.

The menus for the coming week are:
Monday—Fish with tarter sauce, French fries, mixed vegetables, chocolate cake, bread, butter and milk.
Wednesday—Chicken fiesta with cheese, stewed tomatoes with okra, tossed salad, cookies, bread, butter and milk.
Friday—Beef with brown gravy, sliced beets, broccoli with cheese sauce, pineapple raisin coleslaw, banana cake, bread, butter and milk.

Wreck On I-20 Injures Four

Four women who suffered injuries in a motor vehicle collision near the Eastland-Callahoun County line west of Cisco on I-20 at 9:15 a.m. Thursday remained in E. L. Graham Memorial Hospital here Friday. Their condition was reported as stable.

The Jaws of Life equipment was taken to the scene by the Cisco Volunteer Fire Department and it was used to free two of the women from the wreckage. Chief Richard Connell reported. It was the third time that the equipment was taken to wreck scenes and the second time it was used to save lives since it was purchased several months ago, the chief added.

Hospital attendants reported that six persons were examined and two were released. Two youths and two of the women were riding in a Chevy Suburban and the other two women were in a passenger car.

CJC Lady Wranglers To Play Here

The Lady Wranglers of Cisco Junior College, who scored a 62-to-59 victory over Howard JC's women here last Tuesday night, will be at home in basketball games Monday and Tuesday nights, Dec. 1-2. Cisco plays Western Oklahoma at 6 p.m. Monday and South Plains College at 6 p.m. Tuesday.

Lisa Schoemer and Laryssa Bliss were the top performers as the Lady Wranglers won over Howard JC. Schoemer led scoring with 16 points and had 10 rebounds plus making several crucial free throws. Bliss came off the bench in the second half to score 12 points and stand out on defense, according to Coach Ronnie Hearne.

The win gave the Lady Wranglers a 7-5 record for the year.

After the mishap, the suburban was in the area between the east and west bound lanes, while the other went across the median and came to a stop in a westbound lane.

Firemen said one vehicle was westbound and the other eastbound, and one driver apparently lost control, came across the median and collided with the other. Both vehicles were "pretty well totaled," firemen said. A Baird wrecker pickup up both vehicles.

Firemen took their Jaws of Life equipment, which was purchased early this year with funds raised by the fire department, to the scene in the rescue unit. Two other fire departments vehicles were taken to the wreck.

Firemen accompanying the equipment and helping with the rescue work included Chief Connell, Truett Horton, Rex and Ted Fields, Larry Weikel, Freddie Anderson, W. T. Easton, Bryan Jackson, Dennis Stovall, Jerry Doggett, Bill Cozart, Mark Dopson, Billy Rains, Joe Jarvis, Vandell Weathers and David Gill.

Highway patrol units from Baird and Eastland investigated the mishap. Ambulances from Cisco and Clyde responded to calls. All of the injured were brought to Cisco. Names of the accident victims were not available. They were reported to be from the Midland-Odessa area.

BAIRD
Baird won the Class A Bi-District Playoff with a score of 20-0 over Santo last Friday night, November 21. The game was played in the newly renovated stadium at the Ranger High School. The Baird Bears scored their 20 points in the first half of the game with Santo, and the Santo defense held throughout the second half. It was definitely a great game. Baird is taking on Turkey Valley in the Quarterfinals this Friday night, November 28 in Vernon. The people of Baird are really excited about their team, and have hopes of winning the State Championship.

RANGER
At a meeting of the Ranger City Commissioners the Staff Water Board requested an increase in the number of gallons of water contracted to them from Lake Leon. Helen Bradford, Staff Water Board bookkeeper, said that Ranger is contracted to supply 1,250,000 gallons of water per month to service over 300 customers. Morton Valley is contracted to receive up to 2 million gallons to service 175 customers, she said. Staff is contracted with Eastland for 1,426,000 for 130 customers, and is contracted with Carbon with 837,000 gallons for the Flatwoods and Kokomo area. Ranger Commissioners will take the matter under consideration.

Paul Wally, the new owner of Ranger Hill Truck Stop, will have a request on the next City Commissioners agenda. Wally is asking that Ranger Hill be annexed so that the area will have police and Fire Department Patrol. He will appear before Commissioners on December 8 in City Hall.

EASTLAND
A large pep rally was held Friday at 12:30 in the brick gym on High School Hill, giving the Eastland Mavericks a great send-off for the game with Electra in Denton. The Eastland National Bank sponsored a chartered bus to carry fans to this Quarterfinal game, and the Quarterback Club made arrangements with LaQuinta Inn in Denton to offer group rates to fans. Eastland has only two more games left until the playoffs for State Championship.

The Eastland County Courthouse will be closed for this weekend in observance of the Thanksgiving Holidays. A number of special events will be centered around the Courthouse and Square during the Christmas season, including the annual "Community Christmas Tree" Thursday, December 4, at 7 p.m. inside the Courthouse. The downtown Christmas decorations will be lit at this time. All churches are encouraged to send as many as possible to sing in a community choir during the program. Each person is requested to bring a can of food to be placed under the Community Christmas tree. The Eastland Goodfellows will deliver the food to needy families.

The annual Holiday Dinner of the Eastland Music Study Club will be held at Lone Cedar Country Club on Friday, December 5, at 7 p.m. A bountiful Christmas meal will be enjoyed by members and guests. Elizabeth Webb of Cisco, vocalist, will present music. The program will conclude with a unison singing of carols. Mrs. Gilbert Meredith, club president, will be the program leader.

Tommy E. Hixon, structural engineer, will be making a detailed survey of the Courthouse during the first weeks of December. He will give the Commissioners Court a complete evaluation of the condition of the building, outlining what the problems are and how to correct them. Some work has already been done on the interior of the Courthouse, repairing cracks in the walls of the County Extension Service Office, the County Auditor's office, and offices of the Tax Appraisal District.

The Eastland County Jail will be under review by the State Jail Commission in Austin on December 3. The local jail is alleged to be out of compliance on structural and other matters. The six-year-old building met all specifications at the time of its construction, but more laws have been passed since that time. County Judge Scott Bailey and other county officials will be in Austin at the Jail Standards Commission meeting.

58-Year-Old Letter Is Found In Courthouse

On October 30, 1928, a woman in Greenville, Texas dropped a letter in the mail to her son, Len Thomas, who was one of the workmen constructing the present Courthouse in Eastland. Fifty-eight years later, Oct. 30, 1986, this same letter was found by a workman who was removing wainscoting from the walls of the County Tax Appraisal office in the Courthouse.

Apparently Len Thomas, who received the letter so long ago, lost it while he was working at this point. Nothing is known about where he might be now, or whether he stayed in Eastland after finishing this historic Courthouse job.

The letter is reprinted for its human interest and the insight it gives on those times. The Eastland County Newspapers thanks Judge Bailey for supplying this letter and the details surrounding it.

Dear Len:
I have just received your letter written Friday night. I am always glad to get your letters, but this one especially helped me. I am here by myself and have been all day, and it is so dark and has rained all morning and rained yesterday. I went to SS in the pouring down rain and came home in the rain too. We didn't have any Church, the Preachers are all gone to Conference. I intended to go to the Christian Church, but it was raining so hard that when Dad came by for me I didn't say anything about going to Church.

Rub and Miss Emma Buch came to Mr. Taylor's class. Miss Emma said she enjoyed Mr. Taylor's talk so much. Mr. Taylor's talk was fine, I always feel paid for going even if I do go in the rain. He gives one something to think about all week. Rub and Miss Emma started for Dallas as soon as Church was over. I guess they got there all right...no one heard from them.

Morton Shields is President of Williams Bible Class, beginning next Sunday. There was 39 present yesterday...Dad has been duck hunting crazy. He and Mayo (illegible last name) and Homer Taylor went today, left in the pouring rain. But I can't be bothered by them. I see in today's Dallas News that we got our same Preachers back at all three Churches here. I'm so glad you went to SS and Church there, hope you (letter illegible here) If it rained there like it did here I'm afraid you didn't get to see Edith. I hope if you didn't go you can get to go while you are out there so close to her. I sure wish I could see her.

I'm glad you are having such nice material to work with for I know what pleasure pretty material is to you. I sure wish you had a good inside job for all winter. I wish you could come home and stay 'till spring. I wish I had the money to have you stay home all the time, but I guess you would be miserable if you were not working. I'm feeling better, hay fever is about gone. I'm going to Missionary Society, guess I'd better hush and run along. I wish you could know how much this letter helped me.

This portion of envelope was found in the Courthouse with the old letter on October 30. Note the date on the postmark - exactly 58 years from the day the letter was found.

Fishing Outdoors

By Terry Wilson

"Black Bass Bonanza"
Lake Brawng near San Antonio will be closed to fishing during December and January, but anglers still have time to enjoy some of the state's hottest catch-and-release largemouth bass action before Dec. 1.

A 1,350-acre lake "literally full" of small bass that resulted from a highly successful spawn in 1986.

"Fisherman can expect to catch large numbers of bass up to around 12 inches in length."

Brawng, located off U.S. Highway 281 just south of Loop 410, is one of the nation's most remarkable fishing lakes. It produces excellent fishing for introduced red drum (redfish), hybrid striped bass and catfish in addition to largemouths.

Last year regulations at the lake were changed in order to create a trophy bass fishery. Anglers are allowed to retain two bass measuring 21 inches or longer per day.

The lake now has substantial numbers of sublegal bass in the three-to-five pound class which should grow to provide a good trophy bass fishery within two years. But for now, the main attraction is the tremendous number of small bass.

When it comes to sound emitting lures, Bill Lewis Lures of Alexandria, Louisiana, wrote the book, drew the prints and built the ultimate bait in the Rat-L-Trap.

Many manufacturers have attempted to duplicate the fantastic fish catching features of this "no billed crank bait", as it is called by Ron Shearer, Bassmaster Tournament pro and host of the "Great American Outdoors" TV show.

Call it what you like folks these shad-shaped B-B loaded lures trigger bass into action. With the thought of emotions, if someone was making this much noise in your house, now wouldn't you get up and take action. So do those hawks. And the Rat-L-Trap produces some of the most bone rattling strikes this reporter has ever felt. Looking back in our fishing diary we note over 100 bass which were taken on Bill Lewis's Rat-L-Trap. And these catches were under all types of conditions the year around.

The new news from this remarkable lure is the unveiling of "System 10", a packaged system of ten Rat-L-Trap lures in color combination specifically designed to match the Color-C-Lector, invented by Dr. Loren Hill.

Hill's Color-C-Lector is considered to be the state of the art in the science of fishes' proven attraction color in their feeding habits.

The "System 10" is a package of ten Rat-L-Traps sold as a unit. Each package also contains a waterproof cord with instructions which allows the fisherman to determine the correct lure according to the reading on his Color-C-Lector.

The new Rat-L-Trap lure colors are exclusively designed for "System 10" and available in Rat-L-Trap 5 1/2 oz., Mini-Trap 1 1/4 oz., Magnum Trap 3 1/4 oz., Go Deeper 2 1/4 oz. and Little L. 1 1/4 oz.

So next time out those old moss backs seem to be asleep, wake 'em up with the original Bill Lewis Rat-L-Trap or one of its close cousins.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A deacon asked a janitor, "What do you think of our new pastor's prayers?"

"They're great!" he answered. "He prays for things the other preachers didn't know God had."

Anyone may pray. You need not be a preacher to have access to the throne of grace.

And anyone may pray anywhere. You may lift up your heart to God where you work as well as where you worship.

But do you ever wonder what to pray for? Why not use a newspaper for a prayer list? Is there trouble in your city or nation? Ask the mighty Counsellor to give wisdom to the minds of your leaders and righteousness to their hearts.

Are there accidents that touch your heart? Beg the great Physician to help and heal.

And when you come to the death notices, call upon the compassionate Comforter to sustain the loved ones.

Life is fragile. Handle it with prayer.

I've Been Wrong Before

By Gordon Clark
But since nobody knows it all and we must judge on the knowledge we have or think we have, my opinion at least has never done much more than raise a few good folks blood pressure a point or two.

Having thus avoided much responsibility I express my opinion on the subject of FIRE ANTS. As surely as they have curtailed activity for the season they will certainly come out next spring ready to deal more misery.

Having learned that bugs not only carry diseases but that they can die of their own specific pathological conditions, I wondered about those ants.

Sure, the Japanese beetle can be controlled by inoculating infested lawns with milky disease which kills the grubs. Department of Agriculture inspectors check the health of any bees shipped interstate and my bee book lists at least eight ailments and it was printed long ago. Grass hoppers die off in humid years because of a fungal infection etc but what about those ants?

So I wrote the College asking about natural controls for fire ants.

They reply that studies have and are being made, that among their natural enemies is a super fire ant. (That cure would be worse than the problem.) Nothing practical has yet been found.

The part that distresses me is that they mentioned problems which they thought might be encountered in PACKAGING AND MARKETING a control.

While chemical companies do contribute to research and benefit the public I see no justification in their influencing public-built and supported institutions to the extent that their thinking on a question of great concern is greatly stressing PACKAGING AND MARKETING to the extent that a profit for corporations becomes a limiting factor.

While an ant eater with his fly paper tongue might seem attractive, it is a tropical animal and would starve to death when winter drives its diet of ants and termites out of reach. Another problem with the ants' natural enemies is simply that in nature they both still exist and we need to ELIMINATE those ants completely. Probably the best chance of eliminating the pesky ants would be to study the genetic research conducted by the germ warfare people to develop an insect pathogen which would wipe them all out. Just imagine a picnic with no ants. Naturally there are environmentalists nuts who would rather have them crawling over the table cloth and I know many people admire the ants industrious ways but I feel the world would still turn without ants.

The chief hazard in genetic engineering to produce an ant disease would be that the infectious organism might spread to beneficial insects which had not been tested enough to demonstrate immunity. A world without honey is not a sweet thought and what about the insect in India which makes shellac. I don't about today's processes but shellac used to be vital in producing records.

Some records might have been better unmade but disc jockies without those old platters to spin would have it all on tapes and the name would no longer fit.

But seriously, the fire ant has already cost many millions and no end is in sight. Something needs to be done besides the obviously ineffective measures now in use.

Since money seems to

Check Chimney Before Using Your Fireplace

COLLEGE STATION--Preventative measures can help reduce dangerous creosote and tar buildup in your fireplace chimney and flue, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service housing specialist.

"Both flue and chimney units should be cleaned before the first fireplace fire of the season," says Dr. Susan Quiring. "It also may require cleaning again during the winter, especially if you burn wood that has not been air-dried or seasoned."

The specialist says a fourth-inch accumulation of creosote indicates the flue needs cleaning. She suggests checking the fireplace by hanging a flashlight from the top of the flue to a third of the way down the flue. Then, look up the lighted flue from the fireplace with a mirror to get an estimate of the buildup.

Wood stove distributors and some home improvement stores sell wire and plastic cleaning brushes that fit square, rectangular or round chimneys, for do-it-yourself cleaning. Or you can hire a professional chimney sweep to perform this service, Quiring remarks.

Then, every time you start a fire, allow a small quantity of dry wood to burn hot at least 20 minutes before adding more fuel, she advises. This small, hot fire will burn off some of the creosote, reducing buildup.

Also check the chimney regularly for heat damage and deterioration. Repair any cracks in the mortar and places where the mortar has broken loose and fallen out, says the specialist.

"Adequate maintenance may not make much difference in how it looks on the outside, but a clean chimney and flue will make your fireplace less of a home fire hazard," Quiring says.

Spotlights & Sidelights

By Julia Worthy

"My father says..."
A long-ago conversation with Carmen, one of my sixth-grade students, surfaced recently when I read about the recurrent controversy now pulled to the front burner: Shall English be declared the official language of our state (nation)?
Carmen's dad was a realist.

So was Carmen. I expect she still is, wherever she is. God bless her.

Carmen explained matters to me at school the day after I met her father and mother at a Parent-Teacher Association meeting the night before.

The Senor had a sufficient command of English to make our conversation mannerly if not overly informative. The Senora's English included comprehension, I thought, but not participation.

"Doesn't your mother speak English, Carmen?" I felt I knew her well enough to ask. Carmen was one of my few straight-A students, and it had not occurred to me that her parents were not both bi-lingual.

"No, ma'm," Carmen replied, then amended, "Just with the children."
"Were your parents born here or in Mexico?" I pushed on, even feeling pushy, but I wanted to know why Carmen and her four siblings in school spoke fair-to-good English and made good grades and why so many classmates did not.

"In Mexico, but all of us are citizens here," she assured me quickly. "My mother is very shy. She does not think her English is good enough to talk to you."

"I'm sorry she feels that way," I murmured.

"Well, she keeps busy," Carmen said. "I'm not sure why she chose that comment, but I honored it for the masterly understatement it was. With five children in school and two or three more at home, I'm sure 'busy' was the least that could be said of her mother's life."

"I don't quite understand why your family does so well and so many Spanish-speaking families don't."

"My father..." Carmen stopped, looked undecided, then continued, "My father says we will not ever go to live in Mexico. We will go to school here, we will work here and live here. My father says we must speak English to do these things well. It is important, my father says."

"I expect your dad is right," I agreed, thinking of other little Carmens, Domingos, and Robertos who came to school as neat and clean and beaming as Carmen's family. More often than not, they weren't as well prepared linguistically.

"My father says we must not even speak Spanish at home," Carmen continued her litany of "my father says." Her voice dropped, "He spans us if we do!" At my surprised exclamation, she nodded, "Yes, but he wants us to learn to read and write Spanish when we are in high school. He will help us then."

On various occasions since then, I have thought of Carmen and her father's grasp of things as they are.

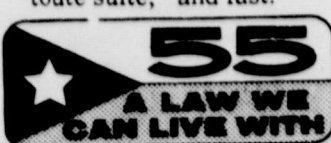

Why shouldn't English be our national language? English, used, misused and abused, IS the common denominator language of these United States of America. It is not an easy language to learn as it has absorbed so many fragments of other languages into its use, but it is the majority factor here.

As a teacher, I had youngsters who mangled English in Spanish, Bohemian, and an Asian tongue I never did identify satisfactorily. Some of my ex-students used Czech and German at home--well, enough of that, but I will defend my conviction that people who have enough backbone to GET to our country do not need the belittling gesture of bi-lingual ballots, directions, nor anything else of that ilk.

If we--meaning Texas--must print ballots in Spanish, where does this leave those who are more at home in German, Czech, Thai, or any other of our polyglot of languages? Perhaps I get the message wrong, but the special printing says to me that Hispanics aren't smart enough to read English. Most of my Spanish-speaking students neither read nor wrote Spanish, but it WASN'T because they weren't smart enough!

(Carmen's father couldn't be everywhere.)

My personal opinion is that everyone should be able to function in at least three languages, but I consider it an individual responsibility to acquire the extra two. I can read and write some Spanish and less French, but if I intended to live in Mexico or France, I would increase my proficiency "pronto," "toute suite," and fast.

LUBBOCK -- When it comes to dealing with the state's budget problem, Texans feel strongest about state spending -- cut it -- and state income tax -- forget it.

Those are the findings of a survey conducted by the Institute for Communications Research (ICR) at Texas Tech University. Survey participants were given six options for dealing with the state's fiscal problems and more than 75 percent favored cutting state spending and opposed instituting a state income tax.

Other fiscal options put to the 387 Texas residents in a mail and telephone survey during September and October included cutting college and university spending, increasing sales taxes, instituting a state lottery and initiating legal parimutel betting.

Participants were given the fiscal options and asked how strongly they agreed or disagreed with them "in order to reduce the state's budget problem."

Of the respondents, 75.3 percent favored cutting state spending. Of those, 50 percent agreed with the option and 25.3 percent strongly agreed. Only 14 percent did not favor state spending cuts while 10.7 percent of those surveyed were unsure.

Though persons making above $20,000 a year were more than twice as likely as persons earning less to favor a cut in state government spending, persons in all income categories approved a spending reduction.

Males and females favored spending cuts in comparable percentages. And, comparison of responses by education level, age and length of residency in Texas shows across the board support for spending reductions.

Initiating a state income tax was frowned on by 75.3 percent of the respondents with 38.2 percent strongly disagreeing and 37.1 percent disagreeing it was a viable option. Only 12.8 percent favored a state income tax while 11.9 percent remained unsure.

While most respondents opposed a state income tax, the older they were, the wealthier they were or the longer they had resided in Texas, the more opposed they were to initiating the tax.

The survey's closest division of opinion was over increasing the state sales tax.

On the issue 45.7 percent of the participants agreed it should be increased while 45 percent disagreed with the option. Another 9.2 percent remained unsure.

Responses to increasing the sales tax broke down by age with 26.7 percent of those 45 and under opposing it, compared to only 18.7 percent approving. By contract, 27.2 percent of those 46 and over favored increasing the sales tax, compared to 18.4 percent opposing.

Though participants in the survey favored cutting state spending, they generally felt those cuts should not come at the expense of the state's colleges and university cuts. By contract, 69 percent were against cuts in higher education. Unsure responses came from 13.5 percent of the participants on the option.

The greater the income, the more likely respondents opposed cutting college spending. Female respondents were more likely to oppose college spending reductions than male survey participants.

On issues related to gambling, about two-thirds of the participants approved of revenues generated by those methods. Some 66.6 percent favored state lottery and a slightly smaller number, 62.7 percent, liked parimutel betting to generate funds. Only 21.9 percent of those questioned opposed a lottery and 28.2 percent opposed horse race betting as a way to reduce the state's budget problem.

Men favored the gambling issues more than women. Instituting a lottery drew favorable responses from 70.9 percent of the men and 63.2 percent of the women. Horse betting was favored by 68.2 percent of the men and 58.2 percent of the women.

Survey results were announced by ICR Director

State May Put Limit On Jail

The Texas Jail Standards Commission may put a prisoner limit on the Eastland County Jail after it meets in Austin Dec. 3.

It's possible, county commissioners said Monday, that a limit on the number of prisoners housed may be imposed by the commission because of overcrowding.

The jail, which will be paid for in 1990, has been overcrowded since it was built in 1980.

Sheriff Don Underwood said during the past year, an average of 27.5 inmates have been housed nightly, but the jail was built to accommodate 24.

Underwood said it is not possible for furnish a bunk for each inmate, nor can prisoners be segregated according to offenses committed.

The facility will not be paid off until 1990, commissioners said, but an expansion of some kind may be ordered before that date.

Eastland County should be well represented when the Commission meets.

County Judge Scott Bailey, several county commissioners and several sheriff's deputies plan to attend the meeting. Bailey said he plans to ask the commission to keep the jail open.

County Sales $58 Million For 6 Months

The 518 reporting outlets in Eastland County had gross sales of $58,133,390.00 through the first six months of 1986, and that's only down .3 percent from the 1985 figures, State Comptroller Bob Bullock has reported.

First six months totals for 1985 were $58,327,166.

Thieves Take Jeweler's Rings

Thieves smashed a jewelry store window here Tuesday night and got away with two rings valued at $500.

A display window of Beskow Jewelry, 210 W. Main St., was broken sometime before 7:40 p.m., police said.

Charles Beskow, who owns

H.J. Hsia. The survey had a margin of error of plus or minus 5 percent.

amounted to $51,335.00, his report shows, with $13,482,479.00 subject to tax.

For the same period this year:

Callahan County had $11,493,771.; Stephens, $33,233,708.; Comanche, $32,462,797.00; and Palo Pinto, $72,118,739.00.

...if you are interested in buying real estate soon or at any time in the future. Buying good titles is just as important as buying good food or good medicine. Yet some people have spent life-time savings for a farm or city property with little or no thought about the title. Of course, they will learn better later, but why not avoid the pitfalls and expense of poor judgement by getting an abstract or title policy first and buying the property later.

YOU CAN FIGHT CANCER BEFORE YOU GET IT.

OR AFTER YOU GET IT.

It's a lot easier to fight cancer before you get it. Scientists estimate that up to 60% of all cancer could be prevented.

By simply making a few changes in your lifestyle. By not getting too much sun. By not smoking cigarettes. By not overeating. And by following a diet high in fiber and low in fat.

By simply doing these few things, you could drastically reduce your risk of getting cancer.

Sure, you could still get cancer. But why not give yourself the odds against it?

SICKNESS AND SIN
One thing that really concerns this writer about modern life is how sin is constantly called sickness. A man commits some moral outrage and they say he is sick—their even tell him that.
I went to see a man some time ago who had fallen into unspeakable immorality and it had caught up with him. For years his sanctimonious life had been a sham; now the mask was torn off and he was in trouble—real deep trouble. I had been telling him that now his best course was to make a clean confession—to the courts and to God. But someone else had gotten to him first. While her husband sat nearby, listening, this man told his wife: "You must get Jim to see that he's sick and needs help. I'm not condoning what he has done, but I'm hopeful that if he gets the proper help he can be cured."
What a way to evade the sin question! Of course the man was sick—I imagine you and I would be sick too, if we lived as he had. But, let's get this straight! His sickness came from his sin, not his sin

WORD OF GOD
The Fruit of the Spirit:
But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering gentleness, goodness, faith,
Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.
If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

CJC Annual Christmas Concert To Be Tuesday

The annual Christmas concert at Cisco Junior College will be presented Tuesday, December 9, at 7:30 p.m. in Harrell Fine Arts Auditorium.

Following the tradition of the past several years, the program will feature the Wrangler Band, the CJC Singers, and the Wrangler Belles, as well as Steven Zell playing the Rockwell Memorial Organ. The Wrangler Band, directed by Tim Jones will open the concert with a Spanish march, "Amparito Roco," by Jaime Texidor. Included in the presentation by the band will be some Simon and Garfunkel tunes and a medley of "swing" music arranged by John Higgins.

The Wrangler Belles, directed by Nicki Harle, will appear on stage as cute little pixies and elves helping Santa distribute candy canes and packages for a jolly Christmas. The band will accompany their antics by playing a medley of popular Christmas tunes. Organist Steven Zell will continue the popular mood with arrangements of "Little Drummer Boy," "Pat-a-Pan," and "Caroling, Caroling."
The CJC Singers, directed by Fine Arts Chairman Wyley Peebles, will conclude the concert with a variety of choral pieces, both popular and classic. The choir will sing three new Christmas songs, "A Holiday Invitation," "It Even Sounds Like Christmas," and "Glastronbury Thorn Carol," all published within the past year. The concert finale will be a Christmas medley by Paul Johnson, "Christmas Is the Best Time of the Year," that presents several traditional pieces in a modern dress.

"Not many towns the size of Cisco have the opportunity to hear live music such as this," Peebles said, "and I hope the community will make time to take advantage of it." There is no admission charge for the program.

Cisco High School Students Hear Stories Of World War II From Two Veterans

He said, "I hope there will not be another war for it isn't a pretty sight. Some people come back in terrible shape. Ever see a young man with both legs and one arm shot off? This happened to a young man when he defended his flag."

He told the students to believe in themselves, in God, in the schools and in this great nation.

The next guest speaker was Keith Wells, a man who lived through the events that students study about in history class. He was the commander of the troops that raised the flag at Iwo Jima during World War II. Five men raised the flag and they didn't think that much of it then, but the picture made of that event became the most famous photo of World War II. There is also a monument erected in Washington D.C. of the flag raising at Iwo Jima.

Mr. Wells was wounded before the flag was raised but he had two men carry him up to the hill and he helped to defend the flag and keep the Japanese from shooting it down.

Mr. Wells, who is very active in the Boys Scouts, said he was not a boy scout when he was growing up, but he is very active with them now. His mother died when he was 11, and he and his dad lived together in Longview, Texas. He was taught the secret of being loyal when he was young. And he was loyal to his town, and later to his country and to the American flag.

He said he use to get so mad when people would show disrespect for the flag.

During World War II, when he had to go to war, he didn't think he could kill anyone, but he knew he could think and pray his way to do what he had to do to get through the war and when it was over, he could think and pray his way out.

He knew he had to make up his mind what he had to do while he was in the Marine Corps. He told the students, "You can never get anything done until you make up your mind."

Mr. Wells said the average age of the fighting men in the Marines was 18-years old. He asked the students if they could imagine how many 16 and 17 year old boys there were fighting for it to be that average.

He said on Iwo Jima it was day to day killing. While they were heading into Iwo from the sea there was a speed boat that had a monstrous flag flying from it and his heart swelled with pride when he saw it. There was no doubt to the Japanese as to who was coming on the island. The Japanese hit them with no warning. But at the end of the battle, weeks later, 26,000 Japanese had been killed on Iwo. Less than 300 were taken alive and only 9 were not injured.

When he traveled to Japan after the war, the wife of the Japanese general who was killed on Iwo invited Keith and his wife, to her home. He said that there is not any need for carrying grudges.

Mr. Wells said that whatever students develop early in life whether it's good or bad, it grows and grows and that is what that person becomes. So he urged students to do something for their community, their state or their government and the American flag will mean something to them.

The Cisco Boy Scout troop carried the Texas flag and the American flag into the auditorium before the program began. Robert Franklin carried the American flag and Billy Boykin carried the Texas

Flag. Other members of the troop who participated in the program were Stephen Tynes, Bryan Kitchens, Danny Stephens, Eddie Palmer, Edward Cooper and Alan Kitchens.

Singing the national anthem was teachers, Rusty McLesky, Doyle Walker, Wayne White and high school principal Jack Martin. Wendy Wester and Julie Weathers, high school students, each sang patriotic songs and the Cisco High School Elementary Choir sang.

After the program, the Color Guard from Dyess Air Force Base in Abilene raised the flags while the CHS band played the Star Spangled Banner.

Keith Wells said that on March 6, 7 and 8th, the remaining people who helped raise the flag on Iwo Jima will be in Abilene. He invited everyone to attend.

CITY OF

November 26, 1986

Mr. Robert Moore, Manager
Southern Cable Television - TCI
201 North Seaman
Eastland, Texas 76448

Dear Mr. Moore:

On behalf of the entire City Council, I would like to extend my thanks to you for coming to our Council meeting on November 25th and personally informing the Councilmembers of the upcoming changes to our cable system. As a utility provider, we at the city appreciate your service efforts and understand the difficulty a service such as yours has in trying to please the majority, much less all, of your customers.

However, after your presentation, the members of the Council continued to express their concern over your proposed channel realignment - especially regarding the Abilene television stations. It is the unanimous consensus of all the Councilmembers present at the meeting that we pass along our concern to you and strongly recommend to you and your parent company, Tele-Communications, Inc. (TCI), that in the upcoming channel realignments you consider the following:

1. Placing the three Abilene network affiliated stations (KTXS, KTAB and KRBC) in the lower-12 channel range and move the three Dallas network stations (KDFW, WFAA and KXAS) to the higher channels. It is our opinion that the vast majority of the citizens of Cisco, especially the elderly, look much more toward Abilene in their television viewing than toward the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. We also believe that the currently proposed channel realignment will necessitate more converter box usage, instead of less.
2. Because of potentially objectionable material (i.e. "The Dr. Ruth Show") that Lifetime Channel be removed from the lower channels and transferred back to the higher channels as it is currently set up.

To help publicize our concerns and recommendations regarding the channel realignment, I am sending a copy of this letter to TCI for their information and to the newspaper requesting that they publish it as a means of letting the citizens know the Council's point-of-view.

The City Council sincerely wishes Southern Cablevision well and assure you it is our sincere belief that the concerns and recommendations contained in this letter are reasonable and, in fact, represent the views of the majority of our citizens.

Again, thank you for your time and consideration before the Council, your company's service to our community and your attention to the needs and wishes of Southern Cablevision's customers. If you have any questions on this matter or the City can be of service to you, please do not hesitate to call me or our City Manager, Michael Moore.

Sincerely,

Joe Wheatley

New Cable Prices To Go Into Effect

New pricing for cable television service will go into effect on January 1, 1987 for the subscribers of Southern Television System, said Robert Moore, the system manager.

The price adjustments will reflect new expanded programming service that will be available to Southern Television System subscribers, noted Moore. This includes the addition of new channels, simplified service and free additional outlets.

Effective on the first of the year, the basic monthly rate will be $15.00 for cable subscribers, and additional outlets will be available with no extra monthly charge for programming. This overall rate is comparable to national industry averages, Moore said.

He added that although the rate changes will cost some subscribers more per month, other subscribers will receive reductions to their monthly bills due to the elimination of the additional outlet charge. In addition, all subscribers will enjoy a better, simpler and more useable cable service, Moore said.

Lights From The Christian World

By Josephine Cleveland

MAKING MELODY IN YOUR HEART

The Pilgrims held the first Thanksgiving in 1621. It was after harvest and a previous bad winter. They trudged in the bitter-cold to their house of worship to "make melody in their hearts" to the Lord for his goodness and helpfulness.

We know that there are plenty of negative things in everyone's life that could cause us to complain and murmur. A young, beautiful lady was in a car accident. She went through the windshield of her car. The surgeons did their best to mend her scars but some remained. She rejoiced because her life was spared and praised the Lord for His intervention. She did well for a period of time as she witnessed of the goodness of the Lord. Later, she began to resent the scars. Her thankfulness gave way to resentment. Her whole personality changed. The resentment was progressive and poisoned her mind. Where her thankfulness was a healing balm, the resentment became as poison to her body. Her friends found it difficult to associate with her.

Ephesians 5:19, 20 tells us how we can overcome a negative and complaining spirit, "Speak to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; Giving thanks for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." It pays to heed the admonition to "make melody in your heart" to Him, for it will uplift you, and you will be surprised what the Lord has done.

Due Back For Baptist Revival

It'll be "old-home week" at First Baptist Church in Eastland in early December. Former Pastor Rev. Jim Hooten, now a missionary-on-leave will be speaker for the church's mid-week Mission Banquet, Dec. 3, and then lead in a four-day revival that begins at the church Sunday, Dec. 7, the pastor Dr. Robert Jeffress has announced.

Jim and Peggy Hooten, missionaries to Uganda, are presently on furlough and in Texas in a series of speaking engagements around the state.

Wylie Peebles, music director at First Baptist for the past 17 years and head of the Fine Arts Department at Cisco Junior College, will be in charge of the revival music.

Services are set at noon and 7 p.m. each evening. At the initial Dec. 7 Sunday morning service, the church is striving for an attendance record. Services will continue through Wednesday, Dec. 10th.

The public is cordially invited to all services. Dr. Jeffress emphasized.

Hints For Homeowners

Frozen Pipes: Prevention is the Cure

When frozen pipes thaw, they may not only soak your basement, they can soak your wallet as well. These kinds of problems are avoidable if you take the proper precautions.

Water pipes near an exterior wall or in the attic are especially susceptible to cold and are more likely to freeze. Here are some other tips from the experts at State Farm Insurance about how to prevent your pipes from freezing.

- Insulate pipes that are vulnerable to cold air.
- Wrap heat tape approved by an independent testing organization, such as Underwriters Laboratories Inc., around the pipes.
- If practical, use an indoor valve to shut off and drain the water supply to outdoor faucets. This will prevent freezing in the pipe that runs from the outside faucet to just inside the house.
- Keep water dripping or trickling from the faucet farthest from where a water main enters your house—usually located near your water meter. This will keep water moving through your plumbing and discourage freezing.
- If your pipes aren't in-

When the weather's cold it's time to insulate water pipes to guard against freezing.

ulated in an exterior wall near a sink, leave open cabinet doors beneath the sink to allow warm air in.

- If you plan to be away for a few days, keep your heat on high enough to discourage the pipes from freezing. Ask a neighbor to come in and check if the heat is still on.
- As an alternate plan when you're leaving: Shut off the water. Drain the water supply by opening a faucet at the lowest point in the house. Put antifreeze in the toilet bowl and traps under the sink and tub (keeping them away from pipes that carry drinking water).

With your pipes safe from freezing, cold weather doesn't have to cost you more cold cash than you anticipate.

Your Eyes

Advantages Of Glass Lenses

Glass lenses. They offer several special qualities that mean greater protection and more value for your money when choosing an eyewear wardrobe to match today's active lifestyles.

Glass is the lens of choice for many expanding their eyecare wardrobe.

- Glass lenses are tempered for impact resistance.
 - Tinted glass maintains its color and protects your eyes from harmful sunlight for the life of the prescription.
 - Some glass lenses have photochromic properties and can change from light to dark as you go from indoors to outdoors.
 - Hi index glass reduces thickness and weight in strong eyewear prescriptions.
- Function and protection are the most important attributes of glass lenses, say experts at the Glass Lens Council. Anyone who leads an active lifestyle should have a protective pair of eyewear. Your eyecare specialist can review your specific needs and recommend the appropriate lenses.
- No matter what kind of lenses you need—see your eye care specialist. It's never too early to take good care of your eyes.

Lions Club Hears Hoka Hey Story

The story of the Hoka Hey Fine Arts Gallery and Foundry near Dublin was presented to the Cisco Lions Club as the program feature at their weekly luncheon last Wednesday noon. Lion Dale Stewart was the program speaker.

Channel Five Television, Fort Worth, recently taped a story about the foundry and its activities and carried it as a feature. Mr. Stewart, local sculptor whose bronze pieces are turned out by Hoka Hey, showed the film and spoke.

The foundry was opened a number of years ago by Wade Cowan, who remains as the proprietor, at the suggestion of the late Randy Steffen, well known western artist and sculptor. The foundry uses the lost wax process, which was explained by Mr. Stewart, to turn out fine bronze statues.

Hoka Hey's major production was 26 statues of Actor John Wayne, some measuring nine feet. Mr. Stewart's bronzes from Hoka Hey included his recent bust of hotel man Conrad Hilton.

Lion John McGuire served as program chairman and presented the speaker. Guests were Rosa Lewis of Corpus Christi and Howard Turner of Cisco.

President Olin Odum announced that the club's board of directors will meet at 7 a.m. Tuesday at the Colony Restaurant.

ACCORDING TO the schedule, the Cisco High School Loboos were to have played Baird High in Baird last Tuesday night. Being in the football Class 1-A playoffs, Baird didn't have enough boys for basketball so Roby High sent their team to Baird to play the Cisco boys. And Roby won, 61-to-45.

The Lady Loboos played Baird's girls and lost, 60-54. Both varsity and junior varsity Lobo teams will go to Jim Ned on Dec. 2nd. The Loboos will play in the annual Cisco Junior College tournament here Dec. 4-6.

COACH DOYLE Walker of the football Loboos reports that they won't be able to release the All-District 13-AA team until after Eastland completes their playoff games, and we all hope they go all the way. Coaches of the district schools met recently to vote on all-district players ... President Tim Jones reports that the Cisco Country Club's board of directors will elect officers for the coming year at their regular meeting in December.

THE REV. Buddy Sipe and wife Carolyn along with both of their parents attended the homecoming football game between Baylor University and the UoFT in Waco last weekend ... Aaron Whitley, son of Arlie and Debroah Whitley of our town, underwent surgery on an arm that was injured last March at Richland Hills Memorial Hospital, Fort Worth, last Monday. His parents brought him home late Wednesday and he was expected to be back in School Monday. He suffered an injury to the arm in gymnastics.

OUR SCOUTS report that a bronze of the Indian Red Cloud that the late Randy Steffen, well known western artist and sculptor, turned out sold for $10,000 recently to a man who needed it for his collection of Steffen's work. There's a Red Cloud bronze at the CJC Library ... Jerry Boles shot a six-point buck out Scranton way the other day ... Local Lions applauded at their luncheon Wednesday when they heard that their sweetheart, Wendy Wester, received a superior in piano competition at Brownwood last Saturday.

MR. MIKE Woolley, No. 2 son of the Dick Woolleys, visited home folks on Thursday. He has just accepted a position as credit analyst for the First State Bank in Granbury. Since graduating from Angelo State University last year, Mike has worked for a bank in San Angelo.

Audie Woolley, No. 1 son of the Dick Woolleys, wasn't able to get off to spent Thanksgiving here. He was "on call" at the hospital where he is attending medical school in San Antonio.

THE MANNING Davises entertained three CJC basketballers who live too far away to go home for holidays at dinner Thursday along with their family. Son Roger came up from Waco where he is attending McLennan County JC ... The Jim Puryears spent Thursday over in Fort Worth with son Pepper and family and then went to Oklahoma to visit his mother ... The Cisco Rotary Club's regular meeting was cancelled last Thursday noon due to the holiday.

MR. JOHN McGuire, who has seen a lot of unusual sights by attending a good many county fairs and goat ropings, can't remember seeing anything quite the equal to the mud on the Lake Cisco north shore road last Tuesday night. He got stuck in their van and had to get pulled out ... Mr. Gid Bowers, who lives out on the north shore, reports that their rain gauge had two inches of water in it early Tuesday. He figures the level of Lake Cisco came up six inches or so.

THE MOBLEY Hilton was closed Thanksgiving Day but plans called for it to be open during the weekend for the benefit of visitors, reports Mrs. Kitty McCracken. She added that everything's all set for the Mobley Hilton to be open weekends during December ... Mrs. Lela Lloyd reviewed her book on Conrad Hilton and his first hotel at a meeting of retired federal employees of the county at K-Bob's Restaurant at Eastland last Tuesday night.

ONE OF THESE days before long you'll be looking around for Christmas gifts. And you might want to look at the E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital's Gift Shop where they have these items:

1. A door knob burglar alarm that operates on battery power—$4.95 without the battery.
2. Smoke alarms for $9.95.
3. "Please Call Police" banners to post in your car window if you're stalled on the highway—$4.00 each.

THERE WAS a little something extra on the Thanksgiving Dinner table at the County Jail in Eastland on Thursday. They had turkey with all the trimmings. The jail population is running between 25 and 40 persons at this time. The County Jail contracts with the cities of the county to house their prisoners on a per diem basis.

HEAR THAT Mrs. Louise Kimmell received a black eye in the little mishap a block west of her home on 14th Street at Avenue N last Sunday morning. Her car, which was extensively damaged, was in collision with a truck driven by John Mulkey.

John, who was married last month, was driving a truck belonging to his dad's oil well drilling mud company. His dad, Doug Mulkey, and his mother Brenda have lived here since 1979. Doug ran the Mobile service station at 8th and Hilton for a few years before going into the mud business. The Mulkeys have purchased the old Tompkins Broom Factory building on West 15th Street as the headquarters for their business.

The Doug Mulkeys expected son John and wife Alisha and Daughter Veronique and husband Kern

Crisman of Abilene at their house in Cisco for Thanksgiving dinner.

PASTOR Jasper Cook of the First United Methodist Church in Cross Plains reports that they're observing their 100th anniversary Sunday. They've planned a fine program, he added, and guests are expected to include a number of former pastors, including some there in the 1930s.

"Everybody's invited to come celebrate with us," Rev. Cook said.

Contract Awarded For Work At City Hall Last Week

A contract was awarded for minor renovation work at City Hall, plans to test a water well were approved, and a contract for health insurance for city employees was extended by the City Council at their semi-monthly meeting last Tuesday night.

Milton Endeck, local contractor, was awarded a contract for the City Hall work, which includes aluminum screens, painting, caulking and putting up plywood and siding. The Endeck bid of $4,500 was the lowest of three submitted.

City Manager Mike Moore reported to the Council that a water sand located in an oil well drilling project south of town indicated water in substantial quantity. It was decided to test the well for quantity and quality. An engineering report on alternate water sources is expected to be submitted to the Council on their Dec. 9th meeting.

Renewal of the Employee Health Insurance contract with Blue Cross-Blue Shield along with a revision of benefits was approved. Cost of the insurance for city workers will amount to about $52,000 for the coming year, the city manager reported.

The Council approved on second and final reading an ordinance designating a four-way stop intersection at Beech Street and East 21st Street. The ordinance become effective immediately.

An ordinance providing that a portion of dedicated right-of-way out of the 1000 block of Ash Street be vacated and abandoned was approved. The area in question is near the East Cisco Baptist Church. When finally approved, the small area of land will revert to the church and will be used as part of a parking lot.

The Council approved a resolution urging the next session of the Texas Legislature to restore state airport improvement funds to the Texas Aeronautics Commission.

A city holiday already approved for Wednesday, Dec. 24, was changed to Friday, Dec. 26, by action of the Council. This will give city employees a "long weekend."
