

Rewards Totaling $5,995 Paid By Crime Line

By DAVE KNAPP
A-J Executive Editor
REWARDS totaling $5,995 have been paid to informants and more than 50 felony cases have been cleared from police records since the fledgling Crime Line Inc. program was instituted five months ago, Mayor Dirk West has announced.

In addition, directors elected two new members to the board of the non-profit corporation, increasing its membership to 22. New members are Dan Griffin and M. B. Smith.

Donations to the unique program, which already has outgrown expectations, still are coming in almost daily and more is needed. The anti-crime effort is funded entirely through contributions. Persons interested in making tax-free donations may mail checks to Crime Line Inc., P.O. BOX 2000, Lubbock, Texas 79495.

This week, rewards of $300 are offered for information in each of the following cases:

Information is being sought into the whereabouts of a wanted fugitive Raul Davila, 31, 5-4, 175 pounds, who is wanted on a justice of the peace warrant alleging threat to kill, warrant 19852-45 for aiding organized crime, another warrant for felony theft and a fourth for theft by check.

Data is needed in an aggravated robbery incident which occurred Sept. 1 at Town and Country Food Store, 1524 50th St. A black male, about 24, medium length black hair with long sideburns, 5-7, medium build, wearing a tan, short-brimmed flop hat, white shirt with brown diamond designs and tan trousers entered the store and browsed around. After purchasing a package of chewing gum, the intruder then drew a small chrome automatic pistol, handed the attendant a note ordering her to "give me all the money." The woman attendant placed $250 in a paper sack and gave it to the gunman.

Burglars entered a residence at 1902 E. 1st St. on Aug. 25 or 26 and made off with a four-foot by two-inches woodgrain stereo console and felt speaker covers, brand unknown. Also, two large blue lamps, one box fan (blue), five C. R. Anthony's men's suits (size 42, brown, white and black, silver and white, silver and the fifth black). Loss was estimated at $1,000.

The House of Antiques at 1216 Ave. A was burglarized between Aug. 25 and 27, with intruders making off with a .22 caliber lever action, breech-loader antique rifle, a .32 or .38 caliber bolt action antique rifle, 12 new Dayton 1/4-horsepower motors, seven garden rakes, six hoes, three grubbing hoes, three short-handled scoops and 10 rolls of cyclone fence. Loss was pegged at $800.

Thieves smashed a window to gain entry into the Radio Shack at 1918 34th St. on Aug. 27, taking one STA-820 Realistic receiver in genuine walnut veneer case with a white and silver front, one LAB500 Realistic turnable Quartz lock direct drive and dust cover, two T200 speakers (woodgrain). Loss was estimated at $1,340.

Persons having information regarding any of these incidents are urged to call Crime Line, 741-1000, as soon as possible. Identities are completely confidential and only code numbers are used. Rewards are paid immediately after a case is cleared.

U.S. Condemned At Cuba Summit

Mideast Peace Plan Attacked

HAVANA (AP) — The summit conference of non-aligned nations ended Sunday with a resolution "energetically condemning" the Israeli-Egyptian peace treaty and the Camp David talks that led to it.

The peace treaty condemnation, part of an overall final declaration, capped six hours of debate on one of the most divisive issues at the Havana conference. The declaration is to serve as a guideline for the movement over the next three years until the next summit, scheduled for 1982 in Baghdad.

For six days, one more than was scheduled, delegates struggled to determine whether the movement should continue non-aligned or take the anti-imperialist tack proposed by Cuban President Fidel Castro.

Castro Speaks

In a closing speech, Castro, the conference host, said his stewardship of the movement over the next three years is "not to benefit Cuba." This evidently was a response to critics in the 95-member group who feared Castro would try to push the non-aligned movement closer to the Soviet camp.

After a night-long, 13-hour closed-door session, the summit delegates approved the overall declaration which contained a wide-ranging attack on U.S. foreign policy, but also preserved the movement's independent character.

The hard-line Arab bloc, which earlier had proposed suspension of Egypt from the non-aligned movement, settled for the resolution condemning the peace treaty after it ran into solid opposition from the numerically powerful African bloc. But the delegates agreed to assign a committee to review Egypt's peace initiatives and decide whether the President Anwar Sadat's government should be suspended.

According to conference sources, there was acrimonious debate between the Arabs and a group of 15 largely pro-Western African states led by Liberia and Senegal. The Africans argued that a member nation should not be suspended for waging peace. Underlying the dispute was growing resentment from the poorer oil-consuming nations in Africa over higher prices imposed by the Arab-led oil producers' cartel.

Promise Brings Compromise
The sources said a pledge from an oil-rich state of an undisclosed sum of money to offset oil price hikes made compromise with the African states possible.

The Arabs said Egypt must be punished to dissuade other countries from supporting what they regard as a peace treaty that sells out the overall Arab cause to gain back territory lost to Israel in wartime.

The delegates ignored fervent appeals from Butros Ghali, Egyptian Minister of State for Foreign Affairs, who said his government's initiative did not amount to a separate peace with Israel but a first step toward an overall Mideast settlement.

Ghali appeared to have won the fight Friday when the movement's political committee was hopelessly divided on the Egyptian question. The issue then was referred to the presidential commission, which is weighted heavily against the Egyptian cause. Condemnation was approved there and the recommendation

BOAT PEOPLE REMEMBERED
LONDON (AP) — Vietnamese refugees tossed thousands of flower petals into the Thames River from Westminster Bridge Sunday in tribute to an estimated one million "boat people" who may have perished in the South China Sea.

WEBB BECOMES PRISON HOME — Shown in the left panel is a dormitory formerly occupied by student pilots at Webb Air Force Base, but now the new home of minimum security federal prisoners. One of the exceptions is that the parking lot sign does not qualify the prisoners who will occupy the no-walls facility to bring along their cars. However, special privileges are given the inmates to qualify to serve

Prison Bars Bad Apples

BIG SPRING — A casual glance reveals nothing that indicates the Big Spring Federal Camp is really a prison.

There are no walls, no gates, no guns, no uniforms. There is only the new sign above the old headquarters for Webb Air Force Base and the movement of work crews putting closed buildings into working order.

The minimum security federal prison now takes up nearly 64 acres of the former air installation. When in full operation in January, it will hold a maximum of 500 prisoners. Inmates will be "white collar offenders" plus good conduct transfers from other prisons.

Wall types (maximum security prisons) have to take what the judges send them, but we get to pick," the camp assistant superintendent, J. A. Edwards, said.

"The people we get here are more mature."

Types Of Inmates

They include, he added, white collar offenders in narcotics, income tax evasion, fraud and government offenders.

There are doctors, lawyers and the like, plus "some congressmen."

Narcotics traffic violators make up the big percentage, but the camp "might have a bank robber" if he exhibited good behavior in another institution.

Non-white collar offenders are inmates "on the short end of the sentence" who have good records in walled institutions. The camp offers an environment to help them ease from maximum security to free society by the time the sentence ends.

"Our first mission is to protect the public and make sure sentences are served," Edwards said.

Aimed At Changes

The aim of the camp is to try to make a change in the person, to discover a way to trigger a change through counseling, vocational training and education.

"If he doesn't want to change, if the community has so ingrained him, he won't change, but it is here for him," Edwards said.

John W. Allman, camp superintendent, described the camp as a safe place for the inmate to function and an educational tool by which he could take responsibility for his own life, re-enter society "and not come back."

Right now, Edwards noted, all emphasis is on "getting doors open and 'oil limits' signs removed on property that has been let lay for two years."

An electronics cable factory is being readied for employing some inmates, and, by the first of the year, a fabric factory is expected to be in operation.

About a dozen of the structures turned over to the Federal Bureau of Prisons this spring have been renovated in part since the camp was opened in June.

The 152 inmates on the site are completing the work as their assigned tasks, handling everything from electronics to yard maintenance to overhaul and maintain the facility.

Inmates Man Jobs

Inmates will do all the work. It is a part of their agreement for coming to the minimum security situation. If they do not work, Edwards emphasized, they are in danger of "losing their good time." In addition, he noted, work records are valuable assets for parole reviews.

All candidates for the camp are screened at a regional office, then

Panamanian Ship's 'Mutiny' Quelled

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (UPI) — A Panamanian oil tanker that reportedly was taken over by crew members will remain in the Chesapeake Bay until repairs are made and some crewmen are replaced, a spokesman for the ship's owners said Sunday. A TTT Ship Agencies Inc. spokesman, who declined to be identified, refused to say how many new crewmen were on their way to the vessel. But Maryland state police spokesman William Clark said a full crew of 23 men would replace the members of the existing crew who were fired.

Clark said state troopers and marine police, armed with shotguns, boarded the Youssea B after the vessel's steamship agent called marine police to report a mutiny.

British Open Rhodesian Summit

LONDON (UPI) — Leaders of Zimbabwe Rhodesia's warring factions gathered Sunday for a conference convened by Britain in an effort to end the bloody conflict which has cost more than 25,000 lives in the southern African country. The British government feared that if the fighting continues, it will expand into an international conflict with probable Soviet, Cuban and South African involvement. But the outlook for success at the talks was not good, judging by preliminary exchanges of insults.

Former Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith, who unilaterally declared Rhodesia's independence from Britain in 1965 rather than accept black majority rule, was the last to arrive.

A strong police force, including sharpshooters posted on rooftops, ringed London's Heathrow airport as Smith stepped out from a South African airliner. He made no statement at the airport and was driven to his hotel, where he was met by rival groups of hostile and friendly demonstrators.

This was Smith's first visit to Britain in 14 years and the government had to issue an Order in Council guaranteeing he would not be arrested on possible treason charges.

By coincidence, Smith encountered Sir Harold Wilson at the airport. Wilson was prime minister when Smith declared Rhodesia independent. The two men exchanged greetings and Wilson said he hoped the conference would be a success.

The conference formally begins today at Lancaster House near Buckingham Palace under the chairmanship of Foreign Secretary Lord Carrington.

Its aim, following 14 years of failure and deadlock, was to get the warring factions to accept a peace settlement and to end the economic sanctions against the African country.

The participants lost no time in insulting each other. President Abel Muzorewa described Joshua Nkomo, one of two Patriotic Front guerrilla leaders, as "a confused fool and wanton dictator."

"His cowardly terrorists have turned the country into a slaughterhouse," he said.

Nkomo denounced Muzorewa, a Methodist bishop, as "one of a bunch of bandits."

"This ignorant bishop has no real power. The real power is in the hands of Ian Smith and his white clique," Nkomo said Sunday. Nkomo said he would refuse to talk to the bishop and would speak only to the British.

Robert Mugabe, Marxist leader of the other main guerrilla faction, said "I am only here for talks about talks with the British government." He said he wants only a total handover of power or military victory for the guerrillas.

JAMES LLOYD MAINES
Killed in Truck Mishap

In another incident, a 56-year-old man was found dead in his car Sunday afternoon about 500 yards south of Loop 289.

Glen Dale Barrett, 56, reportedly of Sweetwater, was pronounced dead at the scene at 5:30 p.m. by Lubbock Justice of the Peace L.J. Blalack. Blalack said the man had been dead for about two hours.

Lubbock police found the car in a ditch.

Blalack is withholding a ruling in the death and has ordered an autopsy to be performed at St. Mary's Hospital this morning.

Services for Barrett are pending with Henderson-Singleton Funeral Directors.

Democratic National Chairman White Says Carter Will Run

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democratic National Chairman John White Sunday labeled as "pure horse manure" suggestions that President Carter withdraw from the 1980 presidential race.

White was commenting on a published report that Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., at an unannounced White House luncheon Friday, suggested Carter not seek re-election.

The Democratic chairman said he had suggested a Kennedy-Carter meeting last month but flatly rejected any Carter pullout. Such suggestions, he said, were "pure horse manure."

Two days after the luncheon, the Carter-Kennedy meeting was still making waves — with journalists, presidential aides and even first lady Rosalynn Carter offering their versions of what happened.

The Atlanta Journal and Constitution, quoting unidentified sources, carried a page one story Sunday with the banner headline: "Kennedy suggests Carter withdraw from '80 race."

In their combined Sunday edition, the two newspapers said Kennedy is convinced he can beat Carter in several primaries next year, but doesn't want a divisive fight that would hurt congressional Democrats up for re-election.

The newspapers said Kennedy believes Carter is a liability to fellow Democrats and told the president a fight for the party nomination would likely bring a Republican to the White House.

The papers reported no evidence of Carter being shaken by Kennedy's comments — and noted the president's re-election committee moved into bigger quarters this weekend to gear up for the campaign effort.

Jody Powell, the president's spokesman, later denied the Atlanta newspapers' account of the meeting, but the denial was weak by White House standards.

"That's not our understanding of what went on at the meeting," Powell said. "It's our understanding it was not that specific."

Informant McCrory 'More Relaxed'

FORT WORTH (AP) — There have been more than physical changes in the David McCrory testifying against Cullen Davis and the David McCrory who took the stand in Houston.

Aside from his slimmer physique, shorter hair and moustache, observers say McCrory seems more poised on the stand, better able to handle rigorous cross-examination of lead defense attorney Richard "Racehorse" Haynes.

"I think David certainly is more relaxed on the stand," said prosecutor Jack Strickland. "David's recollection of those events is much, much clearer."

Last week, Strickland presented the meat of the state's case against millionaire Cullen Davis through McCrory.

McCrory, 41, says Davis ordered him to hire the murder of District Judge Joe Eidson and others. No one on the alleged "hit list" was ever harmed. Davis is standing trial a second time on murder solicitation charges. His first trial ended in a hung jury.

McCrory also took the stand in the first trial, and generally did not fare well under Haynes' meticulous questioning. Haynes also has been openly skeptical, even incredulous, at some of McCrory's testimony that has included new information.

"That's the kind of response I would expect," Strickland said of defense contentions that McCrory's new information is fabrication. "If he doesn't recall it, then poke fun at him. If he does, they say he has been coached or it's fabrication."

Haynes' first attempt to discredit McCrory last Thursday focused on the preparations he made before taking the stand.

McCrory said he was questioned by law intern Bonnie Cade between four and six hours every day for about a month before appearing in court. Haynes tried to imply the Mrs. Cade coached McCrory on what to say during the sessions.

"I don't attribute his poise to anybody but David," Strickland said. "He was scared as hell, even in Houston."

McCrory has been enrolled in the federal Witness Protection Program, living with a new identity in another city.

But Davis' former buddy and pool-shooting companion is not always cool and collected.

Once when McCrory disagreed with Haynes' method of questioning he suggested the attorney try another approach.

"Is there anything more you want to say about what I've done?" Haynes snapped.

"Yes, sir. There are a lot of things I'd like to say about what you've done," McCrory responded angrily.

"It's distressing to me when he does that," Strickland said. "He (McCrory) is playing Haynes' game. In Haynes' game a large part of Haynes' role is that of a provocateur... that of a bully."

Haynes does not mind showing his disdain for McCrory, to the point of calling him a "slimy little (expletive)" in front of reporters once.

"He (Haynes) loathes David McCrory because he represents everything that Racehorse despises," said defense team attorney Steve Sumner. "The big bully in the neighborhood who will do whatever it takes and will push anybody around for his own personal gain."

Weather To Remain Warm Next Week

Lubbock and the South Plains will continue their easy slide into autumn throughout the early part of the week under partly cloudy skies and very warm temperatures.

The near-perfect weather of the past week is expected to continue, thanks to a high pressure system to the north bringing in slightly cooler and drier air to the area. That system will leave mostly fair skies above Lubbock with little chance for precipitation.

Highs today are expected to be near 90 across the region with lows tonight dropping into the low 60s. Winds should be southerly at 10 to 15 mph today.

Most of the nation is expected to enjoy sunshine today, with scattered showers wetting the northern Great Lakes region and parts of upper New England as well as portions of Florida and Arizona.

Readings should range from above 100 in the western desert regions into the 80s across the Midwest and into the 70s in the northeastern sections.

Oil Outlook Not Good Beyond 18 Months

NEW YORK (AP) — The world probably will avoid a repeat of this year's oil crisis over the next 18 months, but the outlook beyond that is not very good, according to two new studies of petroleum supplies.

"Barring unforeseen negative developments, a continued improvement in the near-term world oil supply-demand balance can be anticipated," says a study released Sunday by Petroleum Industry Research Foundation, a non-profit research organization financed in part by the oil industry.

But, the study adds, "in 1981 the market outlook becomes potentially more troublesome," because increases in demand will surpass growth in supply.

That opinion is echoed in a recently released study of the oil situation by the Central Intelligence Agency, which says, "Although the current oil shortages may disappear when economic activity slows, they are likely to recur during the upswing of the next business cycle."

Unless there is another crimp in the world's supply of oil — such as the revolution that crippled oil production in Iran for two months earlier this year — world oil supply should remain stable and possibly even increase a little through 1980, according to the reports.

At the same time, economic slowdowns around the world, particularly in the United States, will moderate demand, keeping oil markets in balance.

"The oil shortage which has plagued the U.S. and threatened other major importing countries for the past six months has begun to recede," according to the petroleum foundation report. "The restoration of a balance between global oil supply and demand, ending the trauma of physical constraints on consumption, is now under way."

John Lichtblau, executive director of the industry group, warned that the balance is "precarious" and might be upset by further turmoil in the Middle East, particularly in Iran. Many oil executives say privately that resentment against the new Iranian government could build to revolution in the next few months.

"In 1981 the market outlook becomes potentially more troublesome..."

"The political nature of the production function in several of the major OPEC countries renders supply inherently more unpredictable than demand," Lichtblau said.

On the other side of the supply-demand equation, however, "world oil demand is growing more slowly under the impact of a slowdown in economic activity and higher oil prices," according to the study.

Teachers Expected To Join Picket Lines

By The Associated Press
More than 40,000 teachers are expected to be on picket lines in 15 states Monday, as contract disputes over pay and benefits affect fall classes for about 900,000 students.

In Michigan, which accounts for half the nation's totals, classes were scheduled to begin Monday for about 213,000 students in Detroit, but 12,000 teachers narrowly voted late last week to reject a contract offer and union officials said they would not work. School officials urged teachers to defy the vote and cross picket lines, but there were no indications on how many might do so.

The Detroit teachers turned down a contract providing a 23 percent pay raise over three years. The educators, who now earn from $12,884 to $24,132, are demanding a 31 percent increase with a provision for a cost of living increase.

Miss America Predicted
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A Northern Illinois University professor, using a mathematical formula based on Miss America Pageant records, successfully predicted that Miss Mississippi would win this year's crown.

Economics forecaster Dr. George L. Miller told The Press of Atlantic City last week that Cheryl Prewitt had a one-in-four chance and was most likely to become Miss America 1980.
Miller used a formula developed in a 40-page study titled "The Anatomy of Miss America" written by himself and a colleague, Dr. Chipei P. Tseng. The paper was presented at last month's meeting of the American Statistical Association in Washington, D.C.
Miller and Tseng studied the hard, statistical facts of Miss America Pageants from 1958 through last year and concluded that this year's Miss America would likely:
• Be between 19 and 23. (Miss Prewitt is 22.)
• Stand between 5 feet 4 inches and 5 feet 10 inches tall. (She is 5 feet 7 inches tall.)
• Weigh between 105 and 135 pounds. (She weighs 110 pounds.)
• Be at least a college junior, but not a graduate student. (Miss Prewitt recently received her bachelor's degree from Mississippi State University.)
• Have a figure of about 35-23-35. (Miss Prewitt measures 35-23-36.)
• Have a plain name.
• Not be from Delaware, Maryland, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota and Vermont.
• Be born in April. (She was born Feb. 15.)
• Play the piano or sing. (Miss Prewitt did both in a piano and vocal rendition of the popular song "Don't Cry Out Loud.")
• Live in a small town, preferably in California. (Miss Prewitt lives in Ackerman, Miss., a rural town of about 1,600.)

KNOW-HOW AND RIGHT EQUIPMENT — Jess Nichols, service manager at Don Crow Chevrolet, conveniently located off Loop 289 and Slide Road in southwest Lubbock, is shown with one of the scope units in the big service department in which the firm takes special pride.

Don Crow Chevrolet's Service Staff Stresses 'Preventative Maintenance'

The Service Department at Don Crow Chevrolet is so interested in seeing that customers drive safely, comfortably and economically that they put the emphasis on "preventative maintenance."

"Such maintenance is the key to long life of the vehicle," Service Manager Jess Nichols points out, adding that "of course we offer all the services of a better dealership."

From the service manager to the service advisors and technicians, the entire service staff at Don Crow Chevrolet, Inc. Slide Road at South Loop 289, takes pride in the ultimate in customer service.

All service work is guaranteed 90 days or 4,000 miles on all General Motors parts and accessories.

Fourteen technicians and three service advisors are on the job.

Areas of service within the department include new car make ready, used car make ready, quick service, heavy line service and the paint and body department.

Service advisors include Mrs. Jess (Eve) Nichols, Ron Scott and Andy Holt. Both Holt and Scott have completed GM training as service advisors, and Mrs. Nichols is certified from the Cadillac Motor Division.

The advisors, together with technicians, mark both practical experience and special training among their qualifications. Several are certified as master technicians.

Jack Faulks Auctioneers Puts Emphasis On Complete Service

An auction can be the quickest, easiest way to liquidate business or personal property.

The use of an auction service, such as Jack Faulks Auctioneers, phone 806-763-4919, can save you the hassle of trying to sell your business inventory, estate, farm equipment or other items on the open market.

"Besides assuring the highest market price through competitive bidding, the auctioneer also assumes the responsibilities of advertising the sale, all bookkeeping and check and tax collection."

Follows Rules

Jack Faulks is bonded and licensed by the State of Texas and adheres to the rules and regulations set forth for auctioneers by the Department of Labor Standards.

An escrow account, in which the receipts of a sale are deposited so that they remain separate from the auctioneer's personal funds, is another service Jack Faulks provides his customers.

Not all sales at public auction are exempt from state and city sales taxes, therefore an auctioneer must have an understanding of sales tax laws and hold a sales tax number issued by the Office of the State comptroller of Texas. A failure on the part of the auctioneer in this regard can mean the customer could, in some instances, become liable for the uncollected tax.

Jack Faulks' clerking and cashing personnel are familiar with all sales tax laws so that they may deal with persons holding exemption certificates or resale permits. They are also experienced in making the proper reports to the State. Though a written contract is not necessary, Jack Faulks Auctioneers feel both parties should be fully aware of the obligations of both sides in the auction transaction.

Added Service

Jack Faulks Auctioneers also take the responsibility of collecting all checks from buyers he brings to the sale through advertising.

The process of settling the auction should only take a short period of time. Because an auctioneer ordinarily does accept checks, it will take a short time for them to go through normal banking channels so settlement of the day of the sale is not possible.

Jack Faulks is a professional auctioneer who has spent a great deal of time building a good financial reputation and good will with former customers. A new customer or prospective customer who is entrusting his assets to Faulks has a right to check references.

Professional System

Jack Faulks Auctioneers boasts a reliable and professional clerking and cashing system. Because the pace of an auction is fast and furious, Faulks employs a consistent system to keep up with the price and buyer of each item.

Faulks also maintains a complete file on each auction for reference by the seller if the need arises in the future.

Advertising Stressed

The Print Shoppe, a subsidiary of Jack Faulks Auctioneers, handles all brochures, and advertising. The able staff has an excellent knowledge of design, printing and all forms of media advertising.

All of the advertising, including brochures and catalogues, for Jack Faulks

Water Conditioning, Equipment Needs Given Full Lellem Welch Attention

Lellem Welch, Inc. at 1401 Ave. J, sells and services Bruner water conditioning equipment for home, commercial use and industrial situations.

The Lellem Welch firm has scads of other products and services, but its message this week is devoted to tips on water conditioners, tips that can be a very real benefit to you as a resident of Lubbock and area.

Water isn't always what one expects! Sometimes it is hard, soft, tastes bad or is even tasteless. But no matter the source, water usually needs some treatment to be the kind of water one needs for all the uses you will put it to.

City water is invariably safe for drinking purposes, but in order to keep water rates low, and because over 80 percent of city water is used for sprinkling lawns, flushing toilets, fighting fires, washing cars, and industrial use, very few communities make it of the highest quality for drinking. Improving water can be done simply and economically in the home or at the point where it is used, and this is where the quality products and services from Lellem Welch can be of key benefit.

Hard Water Damaging

It is reasonably simple to detect hard water. Soap doesn't lather, or scantly so, if any. It combines with water's hardness minerals to form a curd that leaves a scummy deposit on surfaces, hair or clothing. When water is heated, minerals deposit as a rock-like scale. It may clog plumbing pipes, heaters, shower heads and can interfere with the operation of water-using appliances.

To find out how hard your tap water really is, check with Lellem Welch. The folks there can tell you its condition. In addition, obtain a comparative analysis of the water from your local health department to ascertain the need of a water softener when private wells are concerned.

Water hardness can be measured as grains per gallon (gpg). Lubbock water is between 22-30 grains per gallon, Welch reports. GPG less than 1.0 is considered soft water, and 10.5 and over is very hard.

Water is softened by the use of an appliance that removes sediment by filtration, and invisible dissolved hardness by a process called ion exchange. The ion exchange process substitutes sodium ions for the calcium ions present in hard water. Because this increases the sodium content of the water, users of a low-salt diet should be informed of this fact, as a high salt content in the soft water can be hazardous to some people, Welch points out.

Lellem Welch is glad to tell one what to look for when buying a water conditioner, a selection actually a bit more involved than when buying the average appliance. No single type of water conditioning appliance will cure all water problems. The water should be sampled and analyzed to determine if water conditioning equipment is needed, as example. And the size of unit also is determined by amount of water consumption.

Then, buy from a reputable dealer, Lellem Welch at 1401 Ave. J, is such a firm.

National Fire Extinguisher Cited For Products, Services

National Fire Extinguisher Co., Inc., at 3407 Ave. A, phone 765-6532, can fill all your fire extinguisher needs. A master warehouse and distributor of quality portable fire extinguishers, the firm is owned and actively managed by the husband-wife team of Furd and Betty Taylor, assisted by an experience, well-trained and customer oriented staff. Take a good staff, a good product and service, and a genuine desire to serve best, and there you have a firm worth turning to. In this instance the National Fire Extinguisher Co., affording 24-hour service.

"Folks You Know"
In operation since back in 1963, the firm has only recently come under ownership of the Taylors. Furd Taylor is a Texas Tech graduate of '59 and is certified as a safety professional (learned by examination) by the Insurance Board of Texas. Mrs. Taylor, the former Betty Meyers, is a lifelong resident of Lubbock and is a graduate of Cooper High School.

Jerry Frasier is shop manager, with Eddie Cox in shop and service, and Ron Childers and Joe Threatt are in sales and service. All are licensed and experienced service men.

Two lines dominate the stock of the firm — the General fire extinguishers (since 1903) and the Badger-Powhatan lines, both for home and business.

Last a Lifetime
All extinguishers sold by National Fire Extinguisher are best quality, all fully rechargeable, and being all-metal products, they last a lifetime.

Sales and service, retail and wholesale, are provided. The Lubbock firm also sells through dealers in eastern New Mexico and throughout the south plains. Routinely the entire area.

A really good stock of fire extinguishers is kept in stock, the shop is fully equipped, and the firm does all its own work, never sending extinguishers elsewhere for repairs.

"See why we say that National Fire Extinguisher can fill all your fire extinguisher needs!"

Whether selection is from a General (think of fire before it starts) unit, or one from Badger-Powhatan (the protection people), assurance of a quality, long-lasting unit is the picture.

General is the only manufacturer in North America with a complete line of portable fire extinguishers, and has long been recognized as a leader, the knowledgeable management at the National Fire Extinguisher firm emphasizes. General manufactures all its vital component parts, valves, shells, hose assemblies, powder and many other parts. This integration assures the buyer of a quality product manufactured under strict control.

"For the best in portable fire protection equipment, depend upon the home-owned National Fire Extinguisher Co., Inc., 3407 Ave. A, phone 765-6532, in Lubbock."

Economical Quality, Fashion, Variety Marking Like-Nu Shop

Welcome to the Like-Nu Shop, 1918 Ave. Q, one of Lubbock's most unusual clothing shops. Clothing is handled on a consignment basis, and people who have clothing or accessory items that they no longer use or wear are invited to bring their items. The policy of the shop specifies only clothing of good quality, with no stains, tears, missing buttons or hems out. Also, up-to-date styles are preferred.

The women's clothing categories include street-length dresses, long dresses, blouses, slacks, jumpsuits, pantsuits, skirts, jeans and coveralls.

Men's clothing is divided into shirts, slacks, sport coats and suits. Men's accessories such as ties also are available.

Even Shoes
The Like-Nu Shop is now taking shoes in all sizes, too. New costume jewelry is available, and some wedding dresses are presently in stock.

Accessories stocked include handbags, gloves, hose for young girls, scarves, belts and knitted caps. Some gloves are in stock for children at this time. (Some of these things will come in especially handy for this winter. Coats and sweaters also are coming in all the time now.)

The Like-Nu Shop has moved from another Lubbock location to its present 1918 Ave. Q shop where parking is available on both north and south side of the building.

Super-Bargain Rack
The Like-Nu Shop has one rack that always has items priced at one-half or less.

Toward the end of each 90-day consignment period, each item left for sale will be marked one-half price for quick sale.

"At today's clothing prices, the entire family can expect considerable savings by shopping the Like-Nu Shop."
Martha Morris, manager of the shop, welcomes one's inquiries and business. "Come by and browse soon for those last-minute school clothes. Our business hours are 11-6, on Mondays and on Wednesday through Fridays (closed presently on Tuesdays), and also open from 12 until 6 on Saturday. Please direct any questions you may have to phone 765-8944."

Special Offer
"In September we are having a store-wide clearance sale. By bringing in this story or the Like-Nu ad on these pages, you will receive 10 per cent off on your entire purchase during this month. Also, some clothing throughout the store is marked 50 per cent off. Come in now to get a head start on that good selection at the Like-Nu Shop, 1918 Ave. Q, where every item is clearly marked, and where good quality and economy prices are a certainty."

LIKE-NU NO IDLE CLAIM — New-season budget-considering consignment wear is shown here by manager Martha Morris at the Like-Nu Shop where a special September discount offer is offered and outlined in the accompanying story.

FOR HAIR CARE AT SENSIBLE PRICE — Shown at Bernice's Hair Fashions, near Methodist Hospital, are staff members (standing) Barbara Huffman, manager; and Judy Tate and Judy Garcia, with Helen Cross seated. Each has a record of top training, achievement and expertise.

Bernice's Hair Fashions Reveals One-Week Offer, Other Benefits

Bernice's Hair Fashions, 2107 Knoxville Ave., has a most attractive back-to-school offer.

After the long, hot summer sun, your hair needs to be conditioned. Right? So during this week only, at Bernice's one will receive a free conditioner with a hair cut and set at the regular low price for which the popular salon is known.

Near Methodist Hospital, the salon is especially convenient to hospital-related personnel, and "walk ins" are welcome. Special attention is called to the all-new Zotos texture foam perm (go foam, its fabulous!).

For Men, Too

The friendly staff is schooled and most adept in all the new hairstyles and latest methods, and one could do well to form the habit of depending upon Bernice's, phone 795-2604. Early and late appointments can be arranged.

Men are welcome at the shop, too, with expert hair care assured.

Barbara Huffman, a Jessie Lee graduate well recognized in the trade and by customers who appreciate quality in beauty and hair care, is manager. Barbara has been with Bernice's for over 15 years.

Bernice Sturdivant still is owner of the shop.

Barbara is assisted by an able staff including Helen Cross, Judy Tate and Judy Garcia.

Helen is a graduate of Mickie's Beauty Academy, and though most proficient in all the beauty services, she specializes in sculptured nails, hair straighteners and men's hair services. She presently is offering a back-to-school look on a new luster curl for controlled curly look, also a new ERA gel hair relaxer.

Both Judy Garcia and Judy Tate are Jessie Lee graduates and render a really superior beauty service.

With these operators, one can be sure of expertise and friendly attention.

Stylish, Yet Inexpensive

Whether long or short hair styles are the situation, or if old or new style cuts are preferred, Bernice's can be a sensible solution... for style without exorbitant expense.

Bernice's is open six days a week.

Remember the location, one-half block south of Methodist Hospital at 2107 Knoxville Ave., phone 795-2604, a location especially appreciated by residents of that area and by hospital personnel, visitors, etc.

"The best of beauty care is just as near as Bernice's Hair Fashions in Lubbock, where the coffeepot always is on and a friendly, casual atmosphere prevails.

"And don't forget this week's special offer."

Selection, Expanded Stock Highlight Storkie's First-Year Serving Region

Storkie's Maternity and Baby Shop, in the Family Park Shopping Center at 34th & H, is one year old, and owner Faye Spoth says "thank you for your patronage during this first year of operation."

Since the Sept. 1, 1978, opening, Storkie's has expanded its maternity and baby departments considerably.

Attention is directed to current advantages at Storkie's (next door to Anthony's in Family Park):

"Working girls, we're listening at Storkie's! We have some sharp looking dresses, pant suits and tops arriving. You want to look smart on the job, and marketing was done recently with you in mind. Merchandise is arriving daily."

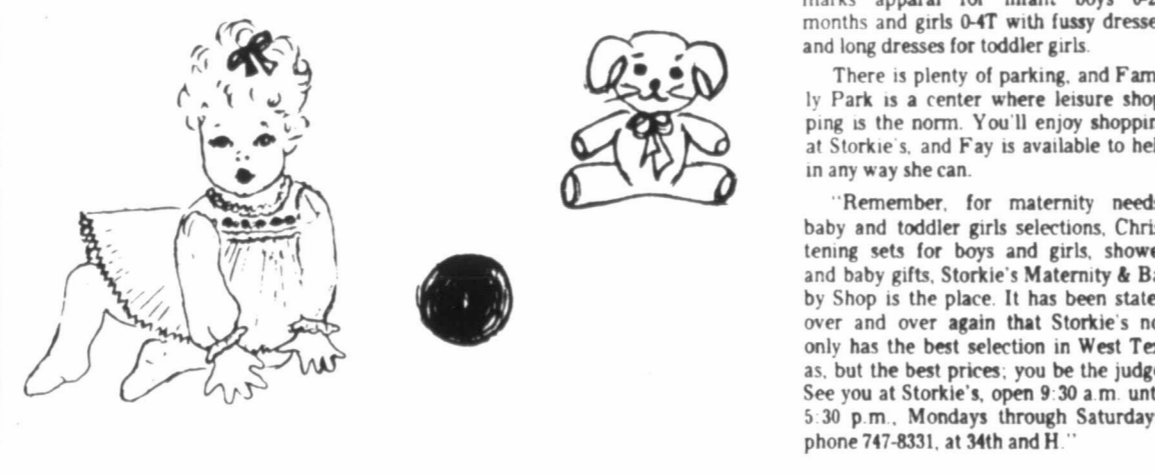

Blue Jeans

Storkie's has a fantastic selection of blue jeans including designer jeans, straight legs, X-long jeans, flares and the new jeans as featured in Glamour magazine, the jean designed to be worn not only during your pregnancy but afterward as well. This is a real saving, and jeans are priced from $9.50 to $19.50.

There are many dress pants, colors and sizes to supplement the wardrobe.

Formal selections for those special occasions, such as pretty long dresses and party pant suits, always are available.

ANNIVERSARY WEEK FOR FIRM — Jerry D. McLaughlin longtime business at 2811 Texas Ave. is shown with one of the late model autos that dominate the

McLaughlin Marks Tenth Year Serving Area At Auto Corral

It is Tenth Anniversary time for Jerry D. McLaughlin at the Auto Corral, 2811 Texas Ave. in Lubbock. A decade in one location, with ever-increasing business, speaks well of any firm, and Jerry believes the formula is in treating folks right, adhering to an honorable code of ethics, providing the right product and at the right price. On occasion of the anniversary, owner Jerry McLaughlin and his wife, Penny, invite old customers to come by, together with new ones. "There's always a cup of coffee or a Coke waiting for you at The Auto Corral. It's just that kind of place... friendly and appreciative of friends and customers." As a bit of history, it can be pointed out that Jerry McLaughlin is no newcomer in the business or in Lubbock. He marks 21 years in the auto field here, and is a lifelong Lubbock resident. He is a '57 graduate of Lubbock High School where he lettered in football, playing with the Westerners three years, and he attended Texas Tech for three more years. "It always is a pleasure to visit with old friends and customers," Jerry emphasizes, "and my wife and I especially want you to come by this month during our anniversary. "Honesty, integrity and dependability" are characteristics McLaughlin likes to use and prove in describing his business concept. "Customer Comes First" "Personal service and a meaningful guarantee has resulted in a situation of absolutely no customer relations problems," he adds. "In fact, some of my customers have been repeat buyers, time and again, some trading with me since I first was in business." The Auto Corral sells both retail and wholesale, specializing in late model used cars, with some new cars also on the lot. Jerry can secure any make new car and welcomes the opportunity of finding one's preference. McLaughlin is a member of the Lubbock Independent Auto Dealers Association, of the Texas organization of which he is a director, and a member of NADA, also. The Auto Corral, easy to find at 2811 Texas Ave., is open from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m., Mondays through Fridays, closing at an earlier 3 p.m. on Saturday. One-stop shopping is enabled for the auto buyer at The Auto Corral, with late model intermediates and pickups dominating the stock. Bank-rate financing, insurance arrangements and all can be transacted right at the firm's offices. "I can honestly say we've had the very best year yet at The Auto Corral," Jerry McLaughlin reports, "and our low overhead helps us continue selling for less." "May we have the pleasure of your visits, consideration and trade? It has been a pleasure serving many of you for a decade in this location, and some even longer in my other associations. We want to make new friends, too, so come on down!"

Mahon Martinizing Cleaners' Multiple Services Itemized

"Did you realize that at any of the Mahon Martinizing Cleaners in Lubbock cleaning brought in before 11 a.m. Saturdays can be picked up the same day before closing at 3 p.m.?" One likely has recognized that 1-day cleaning service is available throughout the week, but the added Saturday convenience may not have been realized... and all this considerate service is at no extra charge. In Lubbock there is a Mahon Martinizing Cleaners easily accessible to you, no matter your Lubbock address. The same great services are available at each of the plants... at 49th Street and Knoxville Avenue, at 3322 83rd St. (one block east of Indiana on 83rd) or at the 30th & Slide unit. Students Welcomed College students and other students alike can appreciate this convenience, together with other attributes of these better cleaners. Students, just as traveling men, etc., often can find the quick service a lifesaver. (Ask about quick-service deadlines other than the specified Saturday hours listed above.) With back-to-school demands on the wardrobe, with a change of seasons and with new materials popular this year, expert cleaning attention at this time is advised. Summer wear should be cleaned before storing for the winter. And there are lots of wools this year. These deserve no less than the gentleness and other advantages of Valclene dry-cleaning. (If you have a problem garment, ask your cleaner to Valclene!) Pillow Cleaning Check other Mahon Martinizing advantages. Pillow cleaning is a very important and specialized service, whether foam rubber or feather bed pillows. In the pillow cleaning process, all feathers are removed from ticking and the contents are individually sanitized. Refilled and clean, they are put into new ticking, returned soft and buoyant as new. Choices Available Ozone gas is utilized in deodorizing the feathers. New ticking plus added feathers as desired are part of the finished operation. (You get your own feathers back, with added ones as asked.) A choice of ticking in coloring and patterns is available, with all guaranteed fast color 100 per cent new cotton that is feather-proof and down-proof.

Other Mahon Martinizing advantages. Waterproofing is available, great for raincoats, jeans, etc. Complete alteration service is afforded. Pockets and half pockets are available, too, as are the two-way reversible zippers. Unusual lengths and several colors of zippers are kept in stock. Drapery cleaning is a specialty. There is Steamex rental for carpet cleaning. Each Martinizing facility here serves as a pick-up station for laundry, too. Drive-in window service is afforded at each of the locations. With the Lubbock facilities owned by Gordon Mahon, each is managed and manned by capable, respected personnel. Sam Caddell is manager of the Knoxville location; Johnnie Bates heads the Slide Road unit, and Scott Rickman is manager of the newest facility, at 3322 83rd St. Special Capabilities For cleaning of suedes, bonded fabrics, knits, most plastics, fur-lined and trimmed garments, leather and even jeweled garments and pile coats, one can entrust the job with confidence to the nearest Mahon Martinizing Cleaners!

Gunther Piano Studios Reveals Fall Pre-School Openings Still Available

There's good news from Gunther Piano Studios, 4819 58th St., phone 793-1672, a fantastic studio by any measure.

There still are openings in the exciting Fall '79 semester for pre-school piano students, with accommodations for several more, especially in the 4 and 5-year-old groups. (The Gunther Studio welcomes piano students age 4 through adults, but most classes other than the pre-school group have been filled to capacity.)

Gunther Studios are located across the street from Williams Elementary School, just three blocks east of South Plains Mall, easy to find and easy to reach.

Bonnie Apple Gunther, a Texas Tech graduate of '64, an area native (from Monahans) is more recently from Urbana, Ill., where she was assistant professor of music at the University of Illinois. As a special consultant to the national education offices of Baldwin and Wurlitzer Companies, Mrs. Gunther has conducted workshops and seminars in class piano at universities and public schools throughout the nation. She often is featured as a special clinician on national and state convention programs.

The group instruction in which she is specializing here is most innovative.

Electrical pianos dominate the big studio, and during piano practice, Mrs. Gunther and the children wear headphones. Switches on the piano enable the students to tune in only on their own and the teacher's piano or to listen to the entire class. The instructor can tune in or talk to any of the students when desired, and the pianos can be turned to full sound or muted. Sounding boards are replaced by an electronic device.

Fun exercises, such as a giant keyboard to serve as "home base" in a catching game, are part of the comprehensive programs arranged at the Gunther Studio.

Operating on theory that children learn best when they learn with others, in a lab atmosphere and with finest lab facilities, the students grouped by age level acquire such important skills as solo performance, sight reading, transposition, harmonization and improvisation.

In addition to learning to play the piano, students learn here about music in general through theory study, rhythm activities and critical listening.

It is a real delight to be included in studies at the Gunther Piano Studios! Classes are available for beginners, intermediate and advanced. Special exciting pre-school classes for 4 and 5-year-old children are conducted.

Morning and afternoon classes are available, and each involve four to six students.

Pre-schoolers come for one hour, twice a week. All other classes meet once a week for an hour and 15 minutes.

Bonnie Gunther is a member of the Lubbock Music Teachers Association, Texas Group Piano Teachers, and Music Teachers National Association. She has co-authored a series of studies used in public school labs and is now in process of authoring another.

Bonnie enjoys teaching. "It is fun," she emphasizes "to introduce and assist the student to new achievements and joys," and a visit to the studio will correctly convey that the student... from age 4 to even those above 70... share in the pleasure. It is a different kind of studio, a fun laboratory, an innovative gateway to new horizons.

Beck's Warp 'n Weave Slates Workshops, Classes For Fall

Beck's Warp 'n Weave, at 3021 34th St., phone 799-0151, has done it again! A really exciting schedule of Fall classes and workshops has been arranged, and of immediate special interest is the Joan Holborn Beginning Spinning Workshop, for two days, Sept. 29-30.

Involved will be preparing of the fleece, cleaning and then spinning of the fleece.

Joan is from Hobbs, N.M., and her previous instruction here proved most popular. A Michigan native, she has taught spinning, natural dyeing and weaving for three years in Roswell (N.M.) where she has been president of the Roswell Fibercraft Guild before recently returning to Hobbs. She has held numerous one-person shows and is now working on a commission of several pieces for Eastern New Mexico Medical Center in Roswell.

"Advance registration and arrangements are necessary for this workshop, as for others at Warp 'n Weave, due to the enrollment limits and the popularity of the classes. The Joan Holborn Workshop fee is only $29. For full details on class content, supplies, costs, etc., Warp 'n Weave should be contacted at earliest possible date, phone 799-0151, at 3021 34th St.

The above workshop is just another of the special events at the shop that not only has a tremendous selection of yarns and supplies for the fiber arts, but that prides in an instruction schedule "second to none."

JOAN HOLBORN WORKSHOP NEAR — Registration is now being taken at Warp 'n Weave for the Sept. 29-30 Beginning Spinning workshop conducted by Joan Holborn, popular New Mexico instructor and weaver of note. Numerous classes and other workshops are announced by Beck's Warp 'n Weave.

New Kits
 In brief, for anyone interested in tatting, crochet work, knitting and numerous other fiber projects, Beck's Warp 'n Weave has a most intriguing presentation of goods and services.

Punchwork kits are available at this time, both miniature and regular rotary punch, great for apparel or wall hangings.

And the shop has the finest textured and handspun yarns ever for knitting, crocheting, weaving and all.

Classes Listed
 A Harness Loom class, under direction of the firm's owner, Tom Beck, will be conducted on Tuesdays, from Sept. 18 to Oct. 23, from 6:30 p.m. until 9 p.m.

Beginning Frame Loom classes, on Thursdays, Sept. 20 — Oct. 11, will be at the same evening hours on announced dates, and taught by Nancy Beck.

Nancy also will teach Coiled Basketry on Thursdays, Oct. 18-Nov. 8, in the evening.

Beginning Tatting, by Betty Bradford, begins Sept. 20 for Thursday classes 7-9 p.m., and on Tuesday, Oct. 30 for a 1:30 p.m. schedule.

Advanced Tatting, also by Betty Bradford, will be on Tuesdays, Oct. 9-23, in evenings.

Mark Hammack, with a Texas Tech degree in Interior Design will conduct a new Needlepunch Design with Rotary Needlepunch class, Tuesdays, Oct. 30 — Nov. 20, from 6:30 p.m. until 9 p.m.

Cardweaving by Virginia Riggs is scheduled Saturdays, Sept. 15 and 22, from 1:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m., and again Nov. 3 and 10.

Later workshops include Advanced Basketry by Lynn Haney on Oct. 27, and 28. Color (Harness Loom), Nov. 17, 18, by Charlotte Funk.

One must come in to the attractive and "different" 3021 34th Street store to fully comprehend the incredible supply provided in weaving and related fields. Customers from throughout the Southwest have expressed amazement at the shop's large but selective offering.

Discover how Warp 'n Weave is really "something special," with distinct appeal to beginner, advanced weaving enthusiasts, or for just anyone who appreciates beautiful yarns and the other products brought to the areas by Warp 'n Weave.

HUNTERS' HEADQUARTERS — James Oswald of Woolco points out how a fine selection of firearms is stocked from manufacturers such as Mossberg, Remington, Springfield Winchester and Ruger. A variety in gauges and calibers is provided to meet one's needs. For the beginner, a .410 single shot Stevens might be the thing, and Woolco priced at just $49.99; or the Mossberg 600 AKTV 12 ga. pump shotgun with vent rib, at $129.99. In rifles there is the Marlin .783 22 mag rifle at $64.99, or model 336C, 30-30 lever action rifle at $129.99. Should we conceivably not have your needs, we can special order for you; is the pledge in the Woolco sporting goods department.

EARLY BIRD SPECIAL SEEN AS FANTASTIC VALUE — Between 9:30 a.m. and 10 a.m., today and Tuesday at Woolco, one may purchase shredded foam packets (as pictured) at the low price of 3 for $1, instead of regular $1.17 price. Limit is three per customer at the special low price. Shredded foam is ideal for toy and decorative pillow stuffing, and is non-allergenic.

FISHER VALUES EMPHASIZED — The Fisher line of audio component systems is one of the effective ways Woolco proves it wants to be your favorite store! Three different packages are featured. The first consists of receiver, turntable and speakers which if bought separately would cost $529.80; but Woolco's low price is just $299.95 which means a saving to you of $229.85! The middle unit consists of receiver with graphic equalizer, record changer and speakers which if purchased separately would cost $589.80, but Woolco's low price is a much lesser $399.95! Our top-of-the-line with receiver, also with graphic equalizer, 45 watt RMS per channel, professional belt driven turntable and speakers with 10-in woofer, 2-in tweeter, 3-in mid-range driver, which if bought separately would run $1,019.80. Woolco's low price is $649.95, saving you over $369! And Woolco has some nice stereo cabinets for these units, selling for only $119.95.

3 CONVENIENT WAYS TO ...

NO PRISON LOOK — A time for being alone, for personal growth or just relaxing is part of the curriculum at the Big Spring Federal Camp. Robert Martinez, left panel, takes advantage of after-work hours to browse in the chapel library. Donnie Hiroms, right panel, looks like any other carpenter as he scrapes loose paint from the front of the administration building at the prison camp. Prison dress is not required at the minimum security camp. (AP Laserphoto)

Air Base Becomes Prison Camp

screened again at the camp level. Any slight indecision about ability to fulfill the requirements of personal responsibility and the person is "shipped back to the walls."

Some inmates, he said, need the security of being told every step to take and need the feeling of the walls around them.

Not all offenders, he stressed, are "bad men." Not all need the supervision and security of maximum security walls.

In addition, there is the major factor of cost to the taxpayer. While it costs about $14,000 a year per inmate behind walls, a minimum security camp can operate with half the staff and a fraction of the cost.

Camps offer less prison shock with its resulting problems. They also provide an environment easing the transfer to society. Camp graduates tend to be a better prison product and are much cheaper for taxpayers.

Inmates work a half-hour less than the normal eight-hour day on a five-day basis. The rest of the waking hours can be spent as individuals desire — sports, television, reading or just loafing.

On weekends they are free to receive visitors or continue recreational pursuits.

They move into the community by paying an escort from wages earned on prison jobs to attend rodeos and ball games. Their own teams compete in downtown leagues. Some attend classes at Howard County College.

Dress is the same as for any group — a mixture of jogging shorts, wash and wear casuals, jeans and tee shirts. Occasionally, there is the heavy khaki of prison issue, but not often, and Army surplus khaki does not look out of place at the former military base.

Quarters are new dormitories designed for and occupied briefly by student pilots undergoing jet training.

An inmate is responsible for his own movements after working hours, but, working or not, he is a number on a supervisor's count made many times a day.

Directly across from headquarters, the old officers' club awaits use, just granted, by Big Spring's senior citizens.

And, angling southeasterly, a street sweeps briefly down, then up and disappears past the boarded up security police station at what was once the main gate to Webb AFB.

Beyond is freedom and a civilian community which already has accepted the camp as a part of its future.

Brown Running Hard In New Hampshire

NASHUA, N.H. (AP) — California Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. arrived in New Hampshire on Sunday with a political road team that bore all the trappings of a presidential campaign except for a formally declared candidate.

More than 200 reporters, photographers and video and film camera operators from six nations were on hand for Brown's 12-hour trip to seek support for an expected bid for the 1980 Democratic presidential nomination.

New Hampshire is home of the nation's earliest primary each presidential election year. The primary will be held next Feb. 26.

Brown, 41, opened his visit with a sharp criticism of President Carter and his handling of surveillance of Cuba, where the presence of a Soviet combat unit was recently discovered. In a meeting with prominent state Democrats, he castigated the president's handling of the nation's problems, saying Carter tried to do too much and accomplished too little.

At the Hillsboro County Democratic picnic, Brown called for voters "to say no to chronic deficits and no to nuke power." He shared the platform with Miss Lillian, who was campaigning for her son Jimmy Carter.

Amid published reports that Carter may be under pressure to bow out of a race for a second term from Democrats who fear a Republican victory, Miss Lillian assured voters Carter will win "if he runs."

Referring to Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., another potential challenger to Carter, she said, "I still can't believe Kennedy's going to run, but it looks like he is."

She also said: "I wish him all the luck in the world and I hope nothing happens to him."

The remark caused a couple of people to boo, apparently because they believed the remark was a reference to Kennedy's assassinated brothers. To the boos, Miss Lillian replied, "That wasn't nice, was it? I don't know if you're booing me or him, but don't boo either of us."

Brown came amid wide speculation that Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., soon would enter the 1980 White House campaign. Kennedy let it be known late last week that his family had dropped objections to his seeking the presidency.

Carter has not said formally that he will seek a second term and neither Kennedy nor Brown has made an official announcement of presidential intentions. Moments after Brown arrived at a Bedford hotel, he sped off to a nearby

Roman Catholic church for a folk Mass.

As Brown entered the church, a dusty black cat momentarily paused in his path and scampered away. But, Tom Quinn, Brown's campaign manager, said, "It doesn't matter what color the cat is. Brown's not superstitious."

After the Mass, Brown went to the Manchester home of William Kanteres, son of Leo Kanteres, a prominent Democrat who heads a citizen committee for Gov. Hugh Gallen. Gallen is leader of the Carter re-election committee in New Hampshire.

The house was packed as Brown delineated Carter's faults.

"The laundry list approach just won't work. He tried to do far, far too much and little was accomplished," Brown said.

One Carter supporter, J. Willcox Brown, the state's national Democratic committeeman, left the meeting and said, "Brown is a great talker."

Sylvia Chaplain, a Democratic activist involved in several past liberal presidential campaigns, said that "if it wasn't for Proposition 13 and the way he's flip-flopped on other issues, Brown would be a very appealing candidate."

Earlier in the day, Brown sharply criticized Carter for a 1977 order halting reconnaissance flights over Cuba. While he praised Carter's restraint, he said the Soviet combat unit recently discovered in Cuba "might well have been detected" earlier if Carter had not suspended the flights in his first month in office.

Dayan Seeks German Promise Of Support

BONN, West Germany (AP) — Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan arrived here Sunday for a three-day visit seeking reassurances West Germany is not shifting toward the Arab position in the Mideast.

Dayan was received warmly by West German Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher, who accompanied him to Cologne where he laid a wreath at a synagogue in memory of the Jewish victims of Nazism.

In his talks with Genscher and Chancellor Helmut Schmidt, Dayan is expected to discuss the Mideast situation, bilateral relations and ties between Israel and the Common Market, said sources who asked not to be identified.

They said Genscher will tell Dayan that Israel can count on continued support from the Bonn government. Genscher returned a week ago from an eight-day visit to Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and Egypt. One of his advance men met with a Palestine Liberation Organization representative, which alarmed Israel.

There have been reports in Israel and West Germany that the Bonn government was moving closer to Arab Mideast policy, which demands statehood for the Palestinian people. The government sources, however, denied that West Germany would alter its policy on the Mideast.

Schmidt is to explain to Dayan why for some time he has postponed a trip to Israel — interpreted unfavorably in Tel Aviv. The sources said Schmidt wants the visit to come at a time when it can contribute to bringing peace to the region, perhaps next year.

The Bonn government is convinced a comprehensive, just and lasting solution of the Mideast conflict requires respect-

Mumps Frequency Now Decreasing

ATLANTA (UPI) — Another of childhood's painful ailments — mumps — is yielding to a highly effective vaccine, with the national Center for Disease Control reporting a further decline in cases of the disease.

The CDC said that so far this year there have been 11,015 cases of mumps, a 16.6 decrease from the number reported for a similar period of 1978. The total for all of 1978 was 16,817 cases, and that figure was the lowest number of mumps cases since reporting of the disease began in 1922.

Man Who Tried To Kill Truman Given Freedom

Four Puerto Rican nationalists, imprisoned more than 20 years ago for the attempted assassination of President Harry Truman and a shooting spree that injured five congressmen, will be freed Monday and reunited.

The four — granted clemency last week by President Carter in what has been hailed as a humanitarian move — are scheduled to be released from federal institutions at 10 a.m. Monday.

The plans for the reunion and rally in Chicago, which have not been finalized, were announced in Washington by Nelson Canals, the president of the Ad Hoc Puerto Rican National Committee to Free the Nationalist Prisoners.

Wardens in four federal prisons will be served with the clemency papers that Carter signed Thursday. Following the reunion, Canals said the nationalists will return to Puerto Rico Tuesday or Wednesday.

Guard Killed

The oldest, Oscar Collazo, 65, has served 28 years of a life sentence at Leavenworth, Kan., for his role in the Nov. 1, 1950, aborted attempt to kill Truman outside Blair House. Collazo's accomplice and a federal guard were killed in a shootout outside Truman's residence.

The others — Lolita Lebron, 59; Irving Florez-Rodriguez, 53, and Rafael Cancel-Miranda, 49 — were serving varying terms of up to 75 years for the March 1, 1954, attack on the House of Representatives.

Five congressmen were wounded when Lebron, Cancel-Miranda, Flores and the late Andres Figueroa Cordero sprayed the floor of the House with gunfire from a visitors' gallery.

Argument Ends In Death Of County Man

A Lubbock County man is dead and a 26-year-old man is in county jail after a shooting incident outside a county residence Sunday night.

Sheriff's deputies found Chester D. Burks, 63, of 1122 96th St. lying in a pool of blood outside his residence about 6:53 p.m.

Justice of the Peace L.J. Blalock ruled the death a homicide — the county's 10th of the year — and ordered an autopsy which was to be performed today at St. Mary's Hospital.

Preliminary reports indicate Burks suffered gunshot wounds to the back, chest and hand.

Deputies arrested the suspect at the scene and also recovered a .30 caliber rifle. When deputies arrived at the scene, they found the suspect sitting on a worn-out couch about 15 feet from the body. The suspect was placed into a deputy's car and taken to county jail.

Deputy Lonnie Bright said that an argument had erupted between the two men Saturday night over a car that Burks had accused the suspect of damaging. Bright said the suspect was arrested for public intoxication Saturday and taken to jail. Reports indicate that the suspect was released from jail Sunday afternoon and apparently returned to the county residence to continue the Saturday argument.

Deputies also found a knife in Burks' right hand.

Services for Burks are pending with Henderson-Singleton Funeral Directors.

was passed on to the summit level.

The conference, split on the question of which competing faction in Cambodia should occupy that country's seat in the movement, decided to appoint another committee to study the issue. The seat was left vacant at the conference.

Lisandro Otero, spokesman for the Cuban Foreign Ministry, said neither the deposed Khmer Rouge regime of Pol Pot nor the Vietnamese-backed successor regime of Heng Samrin would represent Cambodia in the non-aligned movement until the issue is resolved.

When the summit was all over, Castro embraced Yugoslavian President Josip Broz Tito, grand old man of the movement and the driving force behind efforts to keep non-alignment on a middle course between the superpowers.

The leaders gave a standing ovation and special tribute to Tito, the movement's only surviving founder.

U.S. Rep Aspin Assails Draft Recruiting Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Les Aspin charged Sunday that unnamed Pentagon officials "may be trying to sabotage the all-volunteer force by raising recruiting standards so high they can't be met."

"If we took in the same proportion of low intelligence recruits nowadays as we did in the years under the draft, we would actually be exceeding our recruiting goals," Aspin said in a press release.

The Wisconsin Democrat said Pentagon analysts found in 1972 that the four military services have enough low-skill jobs that 14 to 18 percent of their personnel could be in the lowest acceptable mental category.

Engine-Room Fire Forces 721 Passengers To Evacuate Ship

MIAMI (AP) — Nearing port after a seven-day Caribbean cruise, 721 vacationers suddenly found themselves aboard lifeboats after flames erupted on their luxury liner. But officials said Sunday the engine-room fire produced lots of smoke but no panic.

Passengers fled the Skyward, a Norwegian Lines ship, to its sister ship, the Starward, after a fire early Saturday that broke out while the Skyward was about 30 miles from Miami's port.

"It was so safe that most of us didn't even wear a life jacket," said passenger Patty Bryant of Nashville, Tenn., after the Saturday afternoon transfer. No injuries were reported in the seven-hour maneuver.

Fire broke out in an auxiliary engine of the 550-foot, 18,000-ton Skyward while the ship was returning from a seven-day cruise in the Caribbean.

Norwegian Lines spokesman Ric Widmer said the engine where the fire started powered the Skyward's electrical generators. An automatic system extinguished the fire, but also shut down the ship's main propulsion system.

Without the auxiliary engine, the crew was unable to restart the propulsion system and the ship was left adrift. Electrical power was restored using emergency generators, Widmer said.

No damage estimate was available on Sunday and Widmer said the cause of the blaze had not been determined.

"The cabin boys kept pounding on the doors saying, 'Everyone to the boat deck,'" said passenger Norm Milos of Boca Raton, Fla. "Then we all went to the boat deck. There was no panic whatsoever. A lot of smoke, but no panic." He called the movement of passengers "very orderly."

Crew members determined the Skyward could not continue to Miami, so cruise officials dispatched the Starward, which had already disembarked its passengers, to aid the Skyward.

Crew Called Impressive

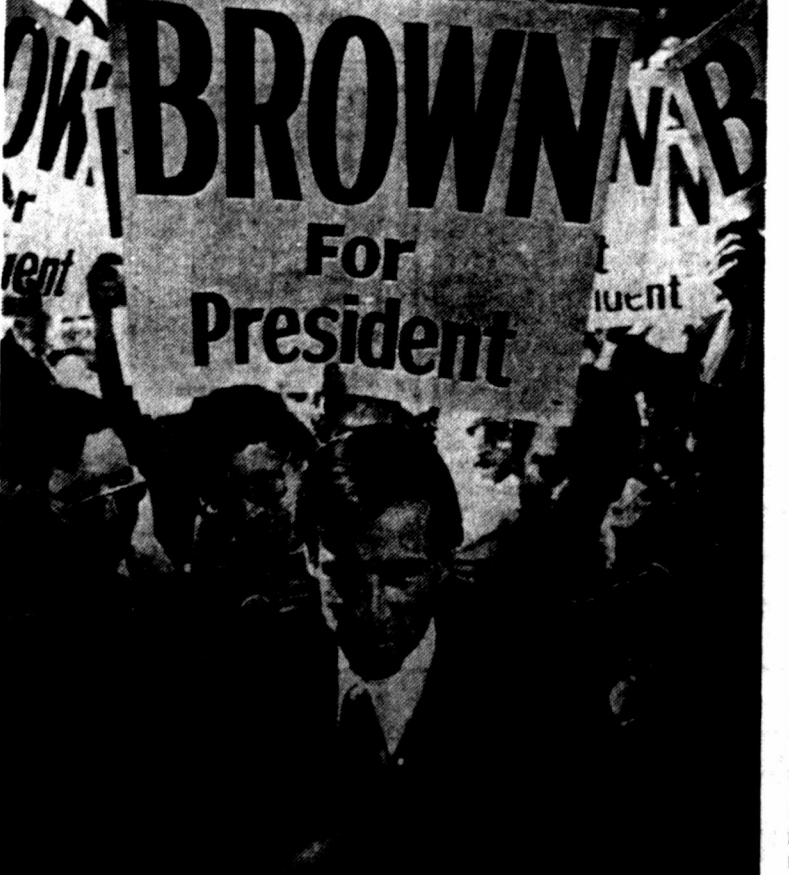

When the Starward arrived from Miami, passengers boarded two 40-foot, 110-passenger lifeboats for the short trip between the ships.

The transfer of passengers and 2,000 pieces of luggage "was a very slow process," Widmer said.

"The ship's crew, they were very impressive," said Margaret Ellis of Macon, Ga. "They knew what they were doing."

The Starward arrived at Miami late Saturday, Widmer said, causing many passengers to miss connecting flights home.

"We thought of that," Widmer said. "When the (harbor) pilot boarded Starward, we had memos for everybody, list-

AIRWEST STRIKE THREATENED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal mediators carried on contract talks Sunday night in an attempt to avert a threatened strike at 12:01 a.m. Monday by about 2,000 employees of Hughes Airwest airlines. Harry Bickford, the National Mediation Board representative in the talks, said Sunday night that bargainers for the airline and the Airline Employees Association were continuing their negotiations. The San Francisco-based airline serves cities in the western half of the country.

Rallies Held Against, For Cleveland Busing

CLEVELAND (AP) — Busing advocates and opponents called for simultaneous rallies Sunday on a bridge connecting black and white neighborhoods as Ohio's largest city prepared to begin court-ordered busing to integrate public schools.

Police said they expected both demonstrations to be peaceful.

The city's desegregation effort, resulting from a six-year legal fight, includes the use of 123 buses to ferry black and white students to classes beginning Monday.

Where the Detroit-Superior Bridge spans the Cuyahoga, the river is a boundary between Cleveland's predominantly white west side and the mostly black east side.

Leaders of WELCOME, an organization seeking to foster racial unity in this Lake Erie port city of 680,000 people, said busing supporters would gather from throughout the city at the middle of the bridge.

Organizers of Citizens Opposed to Rearranging Kids, one of several groups with an anti-busing stance promoting a boycott of classes, said their group would rally nearby.

Last week, busing began without incident for a fourth year in Dayton and for the first year in the state capital, Columbus.

On the eve of busing in Cleveland, school officials were still working on student assignments and busing schedules for the state's largest system with an estimated 88,000 pupils, two-thirds of them non-white.

Under the limited desegregation plan for the fall, up to 9,500 pupils will be bused. Affected will be an estimated 26,470 students in 26 elementary, four junior high schools and three high schools.

The court-ordered timetable calls for systemwide integration by September 1980 and could involve the busing of up to 52,000 pupils.

U.S. District Judge Frank J. Battisti ruled, and a federal appeals court affirmed, that the school system intentionally fostered segregated conditions through decisions on where to build new schools and assign faculty. The Supreme Court has yet to review the case.

Kindergarten pupils in Cleveland are exempt from the desegregation plan.

'Zoom': New Upper With Legal Twist

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — A stimulant called "Zoom" is causing a sensation on the drug scene, where users say they are finding a new "high" from the pill and its unusual selling point — it's legal.

Zoom is being touted as "a natural organic stimulant and appetite depressant," and health food stores across the nation say they cannot keep enough of the stuff in stock.

Although Zoom's main ingredient, the Brazilian herb guarana, is legal, the Food and Drug Administration says it has launched an investigation of this new "upper."

Users have compared Zoom's kick to cocaine, even though initial FDA tests show its chief active ingredient is caffeine, the same amount as in a few cups of coffee.

Marc Bernstein, the Beverly Hills entrepreneur who launched Zoom after abandoning a career in the garment industry, said last week his product will solve what he calls the nation's human energy crisis while, at the same time, making him a multimillionaire.

"We're talking about a business that will do millions of dollars of business in this country, and we are equipped to handle this," he said. "I've been getting orders for as many as 3,000 cases a day. They're driving me crazy."

The Zoom bottle, with a bubble-gum style label in pink, black and yellow, recommends two to four tablets a half hour before breakfast for an energy lift. But whether Zoom can truly provide that lift remains in dispute.

Its base, guarana powder derived from a woody vine grown in the Amazon jungles of South America, has been the main ingredient in a Brazilian carbonated soft drink for years. A related plant is used by Indians in Colombia to stave off hunger.

However, the Los Angeles Times recently quoted Dr. Ronald Siegel, a UCLA psychopharmacologist, as saying, "Caffeine is the only active alkaloid in guarana."

"Users say they don't get the tremors or crash at the end the way they do when they drink coffee," he said. "But pharmacologically there is no basis for those claims. It's just caffeine."

In an interview, Bernstein declined to compare Zoom to coffee or cocaine, saying he uses neither.

"People say it's like coffee and cocaine. People say it's speed (amphetamines) with a buzz like cocaine," said Bernstein. "I make no claims. What I say is it's a pure energy food for vitality. I'm not into illegal or illicit drugs. I'm a reputable guy."

He conceded that Zoom pills contain 2.6 percent caffeine.

"The caffeine in five pills equals the amount in about one cup of coffee," he said. "But my contention is it's the way the body assimilates the entire herb that causes the effect, not just the caffeine."

Bernstein said he tested Zoom on himself and found no ill effects. "I've taken as many as 12 at a time," he said. "If you take too many, it acts as a mild laxative. So teen-agers won't be overdosing on it."

Danger Of Explosions Remains At Derailment Site

JOAQUIN, Texas (AP) — The danger of more explosions and intense heat held firefighters at bay Sunday at the site of a derailed train where three separate fires burned near tank cars loaded with various chemicals, some highly flammable.

"There could be further explosions. That's one of the reasons no one has been allowed in the area — not even our own people," said Southern Pacific public relations manager Joe Bart.

About 200 persons were evacuated from their homes in this sparsely populated rural area of deep East Texas when the derailment occurred Saturday. They were told to stay away from the area Sunday.

Five persons suffered minor injuries, including one trainman who jumped from the rear of the train and four residents who suffered mostly chemical burns on their feet and arms.

"Our people have looked at the scene from a helicopter, and there are a couple of cars with flammable material in them. We can't tell whether the cars are still loaded or whether they've leaked out all the chemicals," Bart said.

But he said they were taking no chances.

"Right now our strategy is to let it burn itself out," Bart said. He said 32 cars and two locomotive units were derailed and 19 or 20 have been destroyed and are still burning. There are three separate fires in the pile-up.

A Shelby County deputy near the site said the flames were red and the smoke was black. But officials said there was no danger of the blaze spreading into a forest fire.

Bart said the wrecked cars contained a variety of corrosive or flammable chemicals including butadiene, isobutylene, tetrahydrofuran, hydrofluoric acid, ethyl oxide, vinyl acetate, methanol, ethyl acrylate, ethyl acrylate, synthetic rubber, and others.

The 53-car train, on a run from Houston to East St. Louis, Ill., derailed at 4:25 p.m. Saturday, setting off a series of explosions and fires five miles south of Joaquin.

"We still don't know what's burning. It's too hot to get up there and see what the cargo is," said Texas Department of Public Safety trooper Steve Whittenberg.

Bart said representatives from the National Transportation Safety Board and the Texas Railroad Commission were en route to the derailment scene, but he said the cause of the wreck was not known.

Bart said Southern Pacific officials were not allowing anyone — including firefighters, sheriff's deputies and DPS troopers — any closer than a quarter of a mile to the wrecked train. DPS troopers said the radius of the evacuated area was about a mile and a half from the derailment.

"Approximately 200 persons had to leave their houses or mobile homes," said Whittenberg. He said they were staying in motels or with friends and relatives.

Sadat Urges PLO Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Egyptian President Anwar Sadat called on the United States yesterday to begin talks with the Palestine Liberation Organization, saying such a dialogue is necessary if the Mideast peace process is to succeed.

The Egyptian president said he has been urging presidents since Richard Nixon to talk with the Palestinians, but conceded "it is for the United States to decide" how to reconcile such negotiations with promises made to Israel.

The United States has said it will have no dealings with the PLO until the Palestinians recognize Israel's right to exist as a nation.

YOUR PERSONAL BIORHYTHMS

By Bernard Gittelson, Author of "Biorhythm: A Personal Science"

The personal science of biorhythm can tell you how your day will go. Now you can judge the highs and lows of not only yourself, but loved ones and friends, and celebrities and stars...

BIORHYTHMS FOR SEP. 10, 1979

Table with 3 columns: PHYSICAL, EMOTIONAL, INTELLECTUAL. Each column contains a grid of numbers representing biorhythm cycles for different dates in September 1979.

Enter your own permanent numbers in the chart in the bottom right-hand corner. To figure your own permanent numbers, follow these three steps:

Step 1: From the year chart, find the numbers corresponding to your year of birth. For instance, if you were born in 1947, your number for Physical would be 21, Emotional 17, Intellectual 19.

Year charts for 1900-09, 1910-19, 1920-29, 1930-39, 1940-49, 1950-59, 1960-69, and 1970-79. Each chart shows letters P, E, and I corresponding to numbers.

Step 2: Now find the corresponding number for the month you were born. If your month is February, and your year numbers were preceded by a B, your month numbers would be 8 for Physical, 3 for Emotional and 31 for Intellectual.

Month charts for Jan., Feb., March, April, May, June, July, Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov., Dec. Each chart shows letters P, E, and I corresponding to numbers.

Step 3: In the figure chart, enter your day of birth three times, one each for Physical (P), Emotional (E) and Intellectual (I). (If you were born on April 3, for instance, place a 3 in each column.)

Add the three columns to derive your permanent biorhythm numbers for your Physical, Emotional and Intellectual cycles. Now you can refer to today's rhythms.

Figure Here: A grid with columns P, E, I and rows for Step 1. Birth Year, Step 2. A-B Month of Birth, Step 3. Day of Birth, and a TOTAL row.

INVESTORS' GUIDE

By William A. Doyle

Q. You have answered a number of questions about Series E U.S. Savings Bonds, but I am still confused about our situation. My mother-in-law has several War Bonds purchased during the early 1940's. She is a widow and retired.

Does she have to redeem them now? Or can she keep them, retaining their value, to be passed on to her daughter and grandchildren as beneficiaries? Who pays the income tax on the interest, in either case?

A. She doesn't HAVE to redeem her E bonds. But as soon as those bonds reach their final maturities, she most certainly should redeem them or exchange them for the new Series HH bonds.

When an E bond reaches its "final maturity," it will stop accruing interest and will no longer increase in value. Also, at final maturity, federal income tax will be due on the interest that has built up on the bond.

The only way to avoid that tax bite will be to exchange the old Es for the new HHs. That move would postpone the tax on the E bond interest until some later date, when the HHs are redeemed.

The HHs—like the Series H bonds now being sold—will pay interest by check every six months. Those interest checks are subject to federal income tax.

Your mother-in-law and millions of other Americans are faced with this problem because the U.S. Treasury Department refused to grant further "extended maturities" to older E bonds. As a result, E bonds issued from May, 1941, through April, 1952, will reach their final maturities exactly 40 years after their issue dates.

Who pays the income tax on the interest? As the owner of the bonds, your mother-in-law does. If she passes on, her beneficiaries who then own the bonds do.

Because your mother-in-law is retired and is probably in a low or non-existent income tax bracket, it would most likely be a wise move for her to cash in those

E bonds now. She would pay little or no tax on the accrued interest. If the bonds reach their final maturities after she dies, her beneficiaries—who are probably in higher tax brackets—could be stuck with sizable tax bills on that interest.

This is an example of the unhappy decisions families are being forced to make because of the Treasury Department's refusal to grant further extended maturities on U.S. Savings Bonds.

Q. I have a suggestion for people who have difficulty selling one or just a few shares of stock because of the high brokerage commission. Make a gift of the stock to your favorite charity, church or college and take a charitable deduction for the value of the stock on your income tax return. Good idea?

A. It is for the person who does it—as far as taxes are concerned. But unless the charity, church or college owns more shares of the same stock, it's going to have the same problem selling.

Passing that problem along doesn't seem very "charitable." Q. I am in my late 20s and have two shares of stock acquired through an employees purchase plan at a company I no longer work for. Would it be wise to enroll in that company's dividend reinvestment plan? There is a "service charge" of 4 percent or $2—whichever is less on each reinvestment.

A. Starting out with only two shares, you're not going to build a bundle through dividend reinvestment. Nevertheless, I say do it. It will give you a start on an investment nest egg. And, because that company's plan allows stockholders to buy additional shares by sending in anywhere from $10 to $1,000 in "new money," you should consider adding your spare cash from time to time.

Some companies have dividend reinvestment plans with no charges. The modest charge on your company's plan is typical of many such plans and still lower than brokerage commissions.

DOYLE welcomes written questions, but he will be able to provide answers only through the column.

Architect, Historian To Begin Tech Guest Lecture Series

The Texas Tech University Division of Architecture will initiate its 1979-80 series of guest lectures with the visit Monday through Wednesday of Prof. Gaston Martiny, architect, urban planner and art historian, from Brussels, Belgium.

Martiny will deliver two lectures of general interest, and the public is invited to attend at no charge. The first, "Architectural Education: The Ecole des Beaux-Arts System," will be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Biology Building auditorium. The second, "History of Brussels," will be given at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Business Administration Building auditorium. Both will be illustrated lectures.

Dr. Diane S. Wood of the Texas Tech French faculty will serve as interpreter for Martiny while he is visiting the campus.

Martiny is architect-planning director for the Province of Brabant and professor in the history of art and archeology at Brussels' Universite Libre where he earned the diploma in urban studies.

He designed the Brabant Pavilion for the International Exposition in Brussels. He also was designer for the Park for the Children of Queen Astrid in Brussels and the Monument for Leopold at La Panne. The Institute of Horticulture and Agriculture at Louvain was built from designs Martiny executed in 1973. He also has carried out projects in residential architecture and in the restoration of renaissance and medieval monuments.

Martiny is president of the Center of Information on Architecture, Urban Planning and Design. He is 1979 director of the Royal Academy of Science, Letters and the Fine Arts of Belgium and a member of the Royal Commission of Monuments and Historic Sites. He is past president of the Royal Federation of the Architectural Societies of Belgium, and last year he participated in the World Assembly of the International Conference of Architects in Mexico City.

Although Martiny is widely traveled, his publications center upon the architecture of his homeland and are historical. His most recent book, written in collaboration with others and published this year, is "Histoire de Bruxelles. He also wrote "The Heart of the City: The Grand Place of Brussels."

Martiny received the diplomas in architecture and in the history of art and archeology from the Academie royale des beaux-arts de Bruxelles.

Wisconsin Democrats Defend Open Primary

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Wisconsin Democrats may have to boycott the 1980 national convention in New York because of the party's dislike of the state's open presidential primary, the state party chairman says.

Joseph W. Checota said the state party's election strength would be seriously weakened if it went along with national party demands to close the April primary to voters who are not declared Democrats.

If the Democratic National Committee refuses to compromise, he said, "then the Democratic Party of Wisconsin perhaps ought to make it clear that, after careful reflection, it has concluded that the open primary is more important than participation in the national convention."

The state Democratic Party, he said, might then back a suit filed in state Supreme Court by Attorney General Bronson C. La Follette challenging the national party's powers to ignore state primary election laws. Arguments on the suit are scheduled to be heard Wednesday.

Checota, interviewed Saturday, said he had not polled the state party's 41-member administrative committee about the boycott idea.

Since 1911, Wisconsin voters have been able to ballot for any party's candidates in presidential preference primaries without having to divulge party affiliation.

National Democrats say the open primary allows Republicans and independents to cast mischievous votes for weak and insincere candidates.

HEARTLINE: Could you tell me how to go about getting Medicare? — M.P.

If you are fully insured under Social Security, you may apply for Medicare at a Social Security office three months before your 65th birthday (or at any age if you have been eligible for Social Security disability benefits for 24 months).

"Fully insured" means that you have enough quarters of Social Security coverage to be eligible for, or to be receiving, Social Security retirement or disability benefits.

If you are not fully insured under Social Security but your spouse is, you would be eligible for Medicare under your spouse's work record. However, your spouse must be at least age 62 and have signed up for Social Security, or be drawing a Social Security benefit before you are eligible for Medicare on a spouse's record.

If neither you nor your spouse is fully insured under Social Security and are not eligible for a Social Security benefit, then your option is to purchase Medicare coverage in the same way you would purchase private health insurance coverage and pay the monthly premiums. Medicare is fairly expensive if you must purchase it outright. For information on the monthly premium charges of Medicare, contact your nearest Social Security office.

HEARTLINE: After 22 years of marriage, I was divorced. I raised two children myself with no assistance from my ex-husband. Then, after 17 years, I remarried, and it has lasted three months. If I should divorce this man, would I be able to get my first husband's benefits from Black Lung? —N.G.

If you divorce your present husband, you should apply to your nearest Department of Labor Black Lung Office or at your Social Security office for divorced wife's benefits.

We were told that you would probably be eligible for Black Lung if there had been at one time a court order for your first husband to pay you an amount of alimony. Or, even if there was no court order, you could be eligible if your first husband voluntarily assisted you financially by providing half or more of your income.

Your children are possibly eligible whether their father did or did not pay you alimony. In fact, the children might be eligible even if you do not divorce your current husband of three months. However, the children would have to either be under the age of 18, or under the age of 22 if they are still full-time students.

HEARTLINE: I recently read where a death benefit is paid if a person dies before he has ever claimed any payments from Social Security. Our son passed away in 1965. We never heard from the Social Security office regarding this payment. Also, if he was not eligible for a death benefit, what happens to the monies he paid in? It seems unfair that none of this ever returned. —V.B.

There is currently a $255 death benefit payable to survivors of persons who die before retirement or who are fully insured and drawing Social Security re-irement. If your son was full insured under Social Security, he may have been eligible for a death benefit. However, there is a time limit on filing a claim and it is highly doubtful that you would be able to collect it at this late date. Any monies your son paid in will be in his name in the event he has a widow or children who may draw on his account. If he did not have a wife or children, then the monies he paid in will be placed in the general fund.

Will Kennedy Push Carter To Bow Out?

ATLANTA (AP) — Sen. Edward Kennedy remains reluctant to challenge Jimmy Carter in the 1980 Democratic presidential primaries, but he hopes the president will bow out of the race for the sake of the party, according to a newspaper report on Sunday.

Kennedy, D-Mass., considers Carter a "political cripple" who cannot win reelection and may drag fellow Democratic candidates down in defeat, the Atlanta Journal and Constitution quoted unidentified political sources as saying.

The paper said Kennedy believes that as campaigning gathers momentum in the fall, Carter will re-evaluate his faltering political status and bow out. In any event, the newspaper said, Kennedy expects Carter to be pressured by party leaders, governors, senators and House members not to seek a second term in the White House.

A Gallup poll released during the weekend said Kennedy was preferred over Carter in terms of leadership qualities and his ability to make known his stance on issues. In the interviews with more than 1,500 adults during the second week of August, the president was viewed as having higher principles than Kennedy.

NORVAL POLLARD Stephens' Hit Won't Be Forgotten

I WILL NEVER FORGET THE HIT Texas Tech cornerback Willie Stephens delivered to USC tailback Michael Hayes early in the fourth quarter of Saturday's brutal battle between the Red Raiders and the Trojans.

And I'd be greatly surprised if the lick vanished from Hayes' memory in the near future. It was one of those lethal tackles from the Jack Tatum school of hitting — the kind that draws a collective groan from the crowd.

Hayes, who replaced All-American Charles White in the second quarter, was heading around his right flank when Stephens kissed him, so to speak. The two met helmet-to-helmet on the dead run and the impact of the collision put Hayes on his back. POW! It was like he had been hit by a bolt of lightning.

Stephens never even had time to wrap his arms around Hayes. I remember Stephens standing directly over the crumpled ball carrier. Hayes probably shook his head a couple times, glanced up at Stephens and mumbled, "Hey, Willie, was it something I might have said?"

Stephens' hit typified the physical pounding dealt by both squads. Before White exited the game with a badly bruised right shoulder, USC lost huge offensive tackle Anthony Munoz with a strained left knee. The Trojans later lost center Chris Foote and roverbback Ronnie Lott.

SEVERAL RED RAIDERS ALSO ENDED UP on the casualty list. Sophomore cornerback Alan Swann reinjured his right knee and may be out of action for some time. Senior strong safety Larry Flowers suffered a severely sprained ankle. It will be sometime today before the final diagnosis is made on those two starters.

Stephens' tackle was also symbolic in that it let the Trojans know that they wouldn't get out of Lubbock with that highly sought victory without a fight to the finish. The Tech defenders spent a good deal of time on the field Saturday night, but they never let up. Their performance was more than admirable.

"We fought hard the whole game," Tech's Rex Dockery stated Sunday. "We had an excellent effort. There was good intensity on the sidelines from all the players. Right now the players are very disappointed that we didn't win. They definitely felt we had the chance to."

THAT 21-7 FINAL SCORE was NOT indicative of the closeness of the football game. Tech did more than just play a close, physical game against the nation's No. 1 team. The Red Raiders came within two critical plays of maybe turning around that score.

I don't like to harp on the "if" aspect of any athletic contest, but the fourth-and-less-than-one situation in the fourth quarter and Roger Jones' nullified interception deep inside Southern Cal territory in the third quarter were two breaks the Red Raiders could have changed history with.

The Red Raiders had definitely usurped USC's early second-half momentum when Ron Reeves scored from one yard out to cut the deficit to 14-7. Jones' interception would have given Tech the ball on the USC 32. Instead, the roughing-the-passer miscue allowed the Trojans to continue offensively.

I wonder what the Red Raiders could have done with that first-and-10 at the USC 32 — trailing by only seven points and snuffing upset.

Failing to pick up the first down on fourth-and-inches at the Trojan 43 really took the wind out of Tech's sails. The Red Raiders had been successful running the sweep against USC, but on that occasion the roof fell in. A drive that began way back on Tech's two-yard line died and the Red Raiders only got their hands on the football three more times in the final 13 minutes of play.

"If we had made that first down I believe good things would have happened," Dockery reflected. "Two things could have turned that game around, but we couldn't get the breaks."

ALL LOSSES BRING DISAPPOINTMENT, but the Red Raiders have absolutely nothing to be ashamed of. They gave the Trojans the fight of their lives and USC head coach John Robinson's prediction that winning in Lubbock would be no easy task was correct.

This was an outstanding win for us, but we had to play hard to beat one of the best teams in the country," Robinson declared after the game. "It was a very, very hard game. But we expected that type of game. I thought that it was a great win against a team that is rapidly becoming one of the best teams in this the Southwest conference. Tonight, I'm just satisfied to get out of Texas with a win."

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Houston quarterback Dan Pastorni was sacked five times, intercepted three times and finally knocked out of action with a jammed arm as the Pittsburgh Steelers crushed the Oilers 38-7 Sunday in a National Football League game.

"They did everything that got them to the Super Bowl," said Houston Coach Bum Phillips.

Terry Bradshaw passed for two Steeler touchdowns and running back Sidney Thornton scored two to support a devastating Pittsburgh defense that also held Oiler fullback Earl Campbell to 38 yards on 16 carries, lowest output of his pro career.

Overall, Houston managed just 124 net offensive yards — 22 passing and 102 rushing — in the rematch of last January's American Football Conference title game, won 34-5 by Pittsburgh.

"We just played a good football team today. We just couldn't get nothing going," Campbell said.

Steeler defensive tackle Joe Greene went one step further. He said, "It was a devastating effort, the kind of effort that can take the life out of a football team."

Linebacker Dennis Winston capped the Steeler defensive effort when he intercepted a fourth-quarter pass by backup quarterback Gifford Neisen and returned it 41 yards for the Steeler's final touchdown. Neisen hit Quido Merkins with a 9-yard touchdown pass with eight seconds left to avert a shutout.

Freezing rain hampered the Oilers in the title game last January, but the Steeler defense did even more damage on a dry field Sunday.

"You ought to win a football game when you've got a defense playing like this," Bradshaw said.

Pastorni left the field on a stretcher. X-rays were negative, but there was no immediate word on the overall severity of the injury.

Oiler wide receiver Billy Johnson also left the game with a fourth-quarter knee injury of undetermined seriousness.

Staubach Silences 49ers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers threw everything they had, including a seemingly healthy O. J. Simpson, at the Dallas Cowboys.

Dallas countered with quarterback Roger Staubach's first two touchdown passes of the National Football League season and pulled out a 21-13 victory Sunday.

"Staubach is always the difference in a game like that," said 49er Coach Bill Walsh.

Simpson, playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury late last season, put San Francisco ahead with a 1-yard touchdown run in the second period and flashed some of the form which has allowed him to gain more than 10,000 yards as a pro.

"I felt pretty good. In fact, I wish we'd run the ball more," said Simpson.

The Dallas offense leaned heavily on Staubach's passing, and he said later, "We consider ourselves a running team. We only like to pass about 20 times a game."

Staubach threw 33 times, partly because the Cowboys were forced into several passing situations by committing 14 penalties.

"I've never seen so many yellow flags. I'll be seeing them in my sleep," said Coach Tom Landry.

The Cowboys' Tony Dorsett also played for the first time this season and rushed 19 times for 54 yards to lead the Dallas running backs. Both teams averaged under three yards per rush, relying mostly on passing.

Staubach increased his string of pass attempts without an interception to 116, with 20 completions on 33 tries, but two of his passes were in San Francisco hands only to be dropped. Staubach, an instant before going down under a blitz, fired a 22-yard touchdown pass to Drew Pearson late in the third period, wiping out a 10-6 San Francisco lead.

An interception by linebacker D. D. Lewis set up Staubach's 13-yard touchdown pass to tight end Billy Joe DuFree in the fourth quarter.

Rafael Septien, who kicked two first-half field goals, missed the extra point after Dupree's touchdown and the 49ers narrowed the score to 13-13 on a 44-yard field goal by Ray Wersching. The Cowboys clinched the victory which made their season record 8-4, when defensive end Harvey Martin tackled 49er quarterback Steve Deberg in the end zone for a safety with two minutes remaining.

Simpson, who missed the entire exhibition schedule and the season opener because of a knee injury and the death of a daughter, played most of the game and rushed for 43 yards on 14 carries.

The 49ers, 9-2, led 3-0 early in the game on a 36-yard field goal by Wersching. They trailed 6-3 before Simpson drove over left guard for a touchdown with 29 seconds remaining in the first half.

Youth Rules U.S. Open

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP) — In what must certainly be a glimpse into the future of tennis, 16-year-old Tracy Austin and 20-year-old John McEnroe won the U.S. Open championships Sunday, beating older, more experienced players.

Miss Austin beat four-time defending champion Chris Evert Lloyd 6-4, 6-3 to become the youngest ever to win the U.S. women's title.

"I don't really think about that part — just the championship part. The last game was the toughest," she said. "I could see the championship right there in reach."

McEnroe downed fellow New Yorker Vitas Gerulaitis 7-5, 6-3, 6-3. He is one of the youngest men ever to win the championship.

"It's the best feeling — about tennis — I've ever had. Not the best overall, I guess," he said, pausing slightly for reporters' laughter, "but it's pretty nice. That's all I can say."

"I can't even speak now. I didn't think I'd get nervous at matches. But these last two have been something."

John McEnroe was suddenly the champion of the United States, one of the two most important titles in all of tennis. And he was momentarily, at least, speechless.

Remember that he is 20 years old. He is known the world over as Superbrat, a distinction based partly on his occasional tough talk and his frequent ire over line calls. It's a distinction based also on the imaginations of writers who, at a loss to understand brilliance in one so young, chose to spotlight his youthful anxiety and his naturally and almost permanently petulant face.

He answers misinformed, rude and probing questions with blunt answers. A reporter wanted to know what he planned to do to celebrate Sunday night.

"None of your business," McEnroe answered without hesitation. Then he smiled sheepishly.

"I am happy he didn't play the best he can," he said after beating fellow New Yorker Vitas Gerulaitis 7-5, 6-3, 6-3 in the final. "But I'm sure we'll play a lot of close matches in the future and I know he'll win one."

He has played some awesome tennis since he joined the pro tour two years ago. And he has been a dedicated player in the U.S. Davis Cup effort. He led the team to victory over Great Britain last December, gaining back the Cup for the first time since 1972.

For McEnroe and Gerulaitis — who will be partners when the U.S. plays against Argentina in the Davis Cup series this week — it was a scrapping battle for one set. McEnroe broke service in the fourth game, but Gerulaitis broke back for 5-5. Both attacked and ran all over. McEnroe broke again at 30 in the 11th game.

The youngster was devastating in the 12th game, hitting a winning passing shot, an ace and a service winner. Gerulaitis netted a forehand to give McEnroe the set game at love.

They battled on fairly even terms for three games of the next set, but McEnroe took the 2-2 game at love, then broke in the fifth with a passing shot that nicked the baseline.

Gerulaitis won his next service game at love, but some of the steam seemed to have escaped his net game. McEnroe broke him again in the ninth game for the set.

McEnroe made it five games in a row.

Patriots Give New Coach 56-3 Victory

Ottis Anderson became only the fourth rookie in National Football League history to rush for 100 yards in his first two games as the St. Louis Cardinals rallied from an early two-touchdown deficit to beat the New York Giants 27-14.

Browns 27, Chiefs 21
Brian Sipe fired a 21-yard touchdown strike to Reggie Rucker with 52 seconds left, lifting the Cleveland Browns to a 27-24 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs, who had rallied behind rookie quarterback Steve Fuller with three second-half touchdowns to take a 24-20 lead.

The rout, in which the Patriots set or tied eight team or individual records — including 567 yards total offense — was sparked by quarterback Steve Grogan, who tossed five touchdown passes.

Quarterback Dan Fouts rifled three touchdown passes and the San Diego defense added a touchdown on a 32-yard pass interception run by Woodrow Lowe, propelling the Chargers to a 30-10 victory over the Oakland Raiders.

Unfaded in two starts, the Chargers raced to a 21-3 halftime lead on the way to avenging last year's controversial "immaculate deception" loss at the hands of the Raiders — which Oakland won on a tainted touchdown in the final seconds when quarterback Ken Stabler fumbled intentionally on fourth down, and other Raiders pushed the ball into the end zone before falling on it.

Miss Austin Eliminates Heroine

men's doubles. Miss Austin, who spoiled Mrs. Lloyd's bid for a fifth straight U.S. Open title, answered, "Honestly?" when asked if she'd felt a little twinge of sympathy for the 24-year-old Mrs. Lloyd.

"It's kind of unbelievable to be younger than Maureen Connolly," she said. "She won just about everything. But just winning the championship was more incredible."

Miss Austin had turned back the woman of whom she often has been called a mirror image. Indeed, in the first set, it was the sort of baseline contest one might have expected it to be. There were brief flurries at the net — which grew more numerous in the second set — and Mrs. Lloyd played them well.

She had said before the tournament she did not know how badly she wanted it. And after each victory on the way to the final she said she couldn't be sure whether she was playing well enough to win.

It's getting so that Slaton head coach Ed Cook is thinking about exchanging Christmas cards with the Colorado City football team and its boosters.

The Tigers have met the Wolves three times in less than a year's time. The first was late in the pre-district season last year. Then they played again in the bi-district round of the playoffs. The teams met again Friday night and, for the third time, Slaton won. But if Cook is contemplating cards for the Colorado City bunch, you can bet he's got something much nicer planned for Lance Bowns.

Bowns scored all four of the Tigers' touchdowns and rushed for 239 yards on only 23 carries Friday night. If he keeps that up Cook might fix him up with a key to the city, or maybe his own case of wintertime liniment.

One thing's for sure, he won't have to present him with any honors, especially not the Avalanche-Journal's South Plains Offensive Player of the Week award, it's gift-wrapped and waiting for him.

Wilson linebacker Quentin Talkmitt wound up with the defensive honors for this week, banging in for 16 tackles in the Mustangs' 6-0 upset of Class A O'Donnell.
Also honored for their performances in that game were O'Donnell linebacker Tony Acosta, an all-South Plains selection last year who made 14 tackles in the opener, and Wilson runningback Kendall Wilke. Wilke, freshman brother of 1978all-South Plains back Calvin Wilke, rushed for 98 yards on 21 carries and scored the game's only TD. Some debut.

Giving Bowns a run for his money for the top offensive spot was Seagraves back Ronnie Griffin. The senior half-back gained 238 yards, scored on runs of nine and 48 yards and returned a punt 85 for another as the Eagles romped over Eunice 40-6.

It was a good night for passers Friday. Littlefield's Eddie Gregory completed an amazing 10-of-13 for 190 yards and a touchdown as the Wildcats kicked Freshship 35-14.

Another quarterback didn't get quite so many yards but accomplished just as much. Klondike thrower Todd Airhart completed six of his 11 passes for 87 yards, but more importantly scored four touchdowns as the Cougars befuddled Borden County 42-0.

Sundown running back Larry Henderson, an honorable mention all-South Plains last year, opened his senior season with a bang, romping for 156 yards on 20 carries and catching one pass for 50 yards. His Roughnecks gentled Ropes 19-12.

Eliseo Curiel, a tailback for Meadow, found the sledging fairly smooth against Whiteface. He rushed for 133 yards and scored five times, including runs of 24, 25, 25, five and 70 yards.
Whiteface, incidentally, scored seven points in the 30-7 loss, equalling last year's total point output. The Antelope still are winless since the seventh game of the 1977 season.

Shallowater back Rodney Jackson rushed for 110 yards against Sudan and, more importantly, scored twice in the last quarter to ensure the Mustangs 26-18 win over the Hornets.

Sudan back Victor King, meanwhile, gained 130 yards and scored twice to give his team that lead.

AAAA Favorites Beaten

By JIM FERGUSON

It was certainly a tough week on district favorites last week on the South Plains.

And they're still smarting, a bit. Amarillo, pegged the favorite in District 3-AAAA by the loop's head coaches, was edged by Odessa High Friday night 15-14. Meanwhile, in Plainview, the Bulldogs, also heavily favored to win the 4-AAAA crown for the second year, fell to Estacado 13-7.

In fact, the only loop favorite, Abilene Cooper, posted an opening-night victory. Against the state's top-ranked Class AAA team, Brownfield, the Eagles romped to an easy 50-14 victory.

By the way, the Eagles are the numero uno team in Class AAAA, if both wire services in the state are to be believed.
In the balloting among the loop's bosses, Amarillo garnered all but one first-place vote. The other one, went to Caprock, expected to finish second behind the Sandies.

The two, Amarillo and Caprock, are followed by Pampa, Tascosa and Palo Duro. The battle between Caprock and Pampa was quite close, with the Longhorns grabbing 12 points and the Har-vesters notching 11.

Meanwhile, Monterey, picked to finish second in 4-AAAA, was the loop's only opening-night winner. The Plainsmen, using the strong running of senior Willie Johnson and the passing of quarterback Kent Potts, raced to a 35-7 victory over Canyon at Kimbrough Stadium.

Point-wise, it was the largest victory for Monterey since it defeated Hereford back in 1977 on the final Friday night of the season.

Not only was the Monterey offense, which racked up 396 total yards, awesome, but so was the Plainsmen defense. In the first half, Monterey held Canyon to zero first downs and just five yards total offense. The Eagles finished the night with just four firsts.

In the loop balloting, Monterey finished with 13 points, while Plainview had 16, Coronado 10, and Hereford and Lubbock High five points each.

As expected, District 5-AAAA teams romped and stomped on opening night. Only three of the eight teams comprising the loop lost. Abilene was edged by Wichita Falls Rider 14-10, Austin nipped San Angelo Central 16-2 and Andrews bopped Big Spring 40-6.

The 40-6 setback turned out to be Big Spring's 19th consecutive loss. The losing streak dates all the way back to Sept. 16, 1977 when the Sters lost to Snyder 12-7.

While Cooper was garnering all the first-place votes in 5-AAAA, Big Spring received every last-place ballot. Cooper finished with 49 points, followed by defending champ Permian with 43, Midland Lee 30, Odessa 27, Midland 20, Abilene 14, San Angelo 8 and Big Spring 7.

In this week's action, a key game looms between Amarillo and Odessa Permian, set for Friday night in Odessa. Other key contests are Monterey and Wichita Falls Rider. Rider upended Abilene last week 14-10.

Matadors Bid For State's Top Ranking

By CHUCK McDONALD
Avalanche-Journal Sports Staff
Don't be too surprised if the Estacado Matadors jump into first place in the Associated Press AAA schoolboy poll — due to be released later this week.

Estacado, which had been ranked fourth in the poll last week, defeated the powerful Plainview Bulldogs of District 4-AAAA 13-7 Friday night in Plainview. That victory, coupled with losses to the top two AAA teams, could move the Mats into the drivers seat.

No 1-ranked Brownwood was humiliated 50-14 by Abilene Cooper and No 2-ranked McKinney dropped a 15-14 decision to Paris. The Nos 3 and 4 AAA teams were victorious, but the wins came against unknown and unranked opponents.

And if the Matadors do advance in the rankings, they can credit a stout defense and a little bit of dippy-doodle.

On the field for most of the contest Friday night, the Matador defense held back repeated drives by the Bulldogs that allowed them to come from behind in the fourth quarter.

And the first Matador score came on a play right out of the Tom Landry playbook. EHS quarterback Jerry Gray flipped a pitch out to halfback James Rose who took a couple of steps backwards and lofted a 37-yard bomb to receiver Kenneth Cade who was all alone at the five.

That score seemed to ignite the Mats, who scored quickly again for the victory.
But Lubbock's other 1-AAA team, the Dunbar Panthers, didn't fare as well. For the second straight year, the were shut out by the defense of Dallas St. Marks and dropped a close 7-0 decision.

The only other school in the district to record a victory was Levelland. Bert Gravit's Lobos took a 14-13 thriller from the Brownfield Cubs of District 3-AAA. Borger also scored a win as they took an easy 21-7 decision over Lubbock High Thursday night.

Canyon and Dumas weren't as fortunate as they suffered opening game defeats.

District 2-AAA schools ventured into non-district competition in the first weekend of play and found the menu much to their liking. Andrews, Fort Stockton, Odessa Ector and Pecos all took lopsided victories Friday night. Only Monahan's spoiled the district record by bowing to Seminole 13-7.

But Andrews rolled over Big Spring 40-6. Fort Stockton clobbered Canutillo 20-0. Ector blanked Amarillo Caprock 20-zip and Pecos pulverized hapless Lamesa 26-0.

In District 3-AAA though, the squads found the going a little tougher. Only San Angelo Lake View was able to salvage an opening-game victory as they defeated Del Rio 25-0.

Brownfield was on the losing end of a 14-13 game with Levelland, as was Lamesa in that 26-0 debacle against Pecos. Sweetwater was crushed 40-7 at Breckenridge and Snyder dropped a tough one to Midland Lee.

Snyder, ranked 10th in the first AAA poll of the season, was shut out 13-0 by Lee at home.

And while the defeat could hurt Snyder's state ranking, the Matadors can move only up.
"Our defense just did a heck of a job," said EHS coach Louis Kelley immediately after the Matadors victory Friday night.

"Offensively we had some problems in the first half (when the Mats were held to only 30 yards total offense)," he added. "But I was proud of the way we came back in the second half."

Allison Cruises To Win

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — After breezing to an easy victory in the Capital City 400 Grand National stock car race Sunday, Bobby Allison said he hoped it marked a turning point for him and his crew.

"We've had a little bad luck lately. Today's victory was just real good medicine for everybody," Allison said after he took the lead several times early in the race and held it nearly all the rest of the way.

The Hueytown, Ala., driver said his Ford "handled like a charm all day." Allison had outdueled defending champion Darrell Waltrip of Franklin, Tenn., through the middle of the race before pulling steadily away at the end over the half-mile track as a crowd of more than 20,000 looked on at Fairgrounds Raceway.

Waltrip, the Grand National point leader who had the lead briefly under a caution flag, finished second in a Chevrolet and was the only driver in the same lap with Allison at the finish.

Next in line were Ricky Rudd of Chesapeake, Va., in a Ford; rookie Dale Earnhardt of Kannapolis, N.C., in a Chevrolet; Cale Yarborough of Timmonsville, S.C., in an Oldsmobile; and Richard Petty of Randleman, N.C., in a Chevrolet.

Earnhardt had won the pole position over Allison in Friday's qualifying in his first start since he was injured in July in a race at Pocono, Pa.

"Dale is really a great young competitor and he was running good early," Allison said. "Finally, he slipped and I got under him, and from there on I was able to lead pretty easily, and that's a great feeling."

Bobby Knight Balks At Return

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Indiana University basketball Coach Bobby Knight said Sunday night he will not return to Puerto Rico on Monday for sentencing on his conviction of aggravated assault stemming from an incident at the Pan American Games in July.

He said the incident, for which he was sentenced to six months in jail, has been "so immensely magnified beyond what it should have been."

Imposition of the sentence, also including a $500 fine, was postponed two weeks ago at the request of Knight's attorney in San Juan, who said he would "do everything possible to solicit the presence" of the embattled coach.

Judge Rurico Rivera said he would hear an appeal, and hinted he would suspend the jail term, if Knight appeared in person. But the judge said the delay to Monday is "the last time the sentence is postponed. Otherwise, the court will proceed to confiscate the $100 bail."

Knight said, however, he is convinced that he would jailed if he returns to Puerto Rico.

Knight addressed a 1-hour televised news conference in Indiana University's Assembly Hall to "at last present the case as it occurred. It is important I talk about what I feel was a real misconception of the events of what happened."

He released a copy of a letter he has written to Puerto Rico Gov. Carlos Romero Barcelo, apologizing for any actions that might have been regarded as being offensive to the people of Puerto Rico. But he said he would never apologize to Jose D. Silva, the San Juan policeman he was convicted of hitting during an argument over rights to a practice floor.

"There are still some questions that will remain unanswered. I'm positively willing to apologize for anything I have said or done to those other than the police officer involved," Knight said.

Graham Recovers, Wins PGA

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — Veteran Lou Graham grudgingly surrendered the lead in the third round in the morning, then rebounded with a pressure-packed effort Sunday afternoon for a one-stroke victory over Ben Crenshaw in the $250,000 Pleasant Valley Golf Classic.

Forced to play two rounds in one day because of a rain-delayed start, the 41-year-old Graham reacted like a youngster, touring the final 18 holes in 2-under-par 69 for a 73-hole total of 275.

Owner of a two-stroke lead at 135, 7-under par, after 36 holes, Graham took a regulation 71 in the third round, slipping one stroke behind 1978 NCAA champion Dave Edwards, who fired a 66 for a 205 at the three-quarter mark.

The 23-year-old Edwards, a former Oklahoma State All-American, who qualified for the PGA tour last Fall, faded with most other challengers, with only the veteran Crenshaw managing to stay close to Graham.

Graham put together rounds of 68, 67, 71 and 69 in only his fifth victory in 16 years on the tour.

One of 23 million-dollar winners on the tour, Graham, the 1975 U.S. Open champion, broke a long-slump by winning a playoff at Philadelphia in late July.

Crenshaw started the final round tied with Graham, but was hurt by a couple of bogies on the 57th and 62nd holes offsetting two birdies.

As Graham got down in par on the 71st hole, Crenshaw finished with a birdie on the 72nd, moving to within one-stroke of the lead. However, Graham protected his slim margin with a par on the final green, two-putting from 12 feet.

The victory was worth $45,000 to Graham, boosting his earnings for the year to nearly $135,000. It also qualified him for the World Series of Golf Sept. 27-30 as a two-time winner this year.

Rookie Wallace Wins USAC

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Rookie Rusty Wallace of Arnold, Mo., held off veterans Joe Rutman and A.J. Foyt Sunday to win the Governor's Cup 250 mile U.S. Auto Club stock car race.

Wallace, driving a 1979 Pontiac Firebird, finished three seconds ahead of Ramo Stott, Keokuk, Iowa, who drove a 1978 Chevrolet Camaro.

Bob Brevak, Ashland, Wis., was third in a 1978 Camaro, followed by Ken Rowley of Bloomington, Ill., and Sal Tovella, Addison, Ill., both in 1977 Plymouth Volares.

The victory, Wallace's second in as many USAC stock races, earned him the winner's share of a $43,500 purse before a crowd of 13,478. Wallace recently won a 150 mile USAC stock race on the dirt track at DuQuin, Ill.

Lyle Captures European

TURNBERRY, Scotland (AP) — Sandy Lyle, a 21-year-old Scot who has been a professional for only two years, won the $210,000 European Open Golf Championship Sunday.

Lyle, who won this year's Jersey and Scandinavian Opens to play himself into a Ryder Cup debut against the United States later this week, shot a brilliant final round 65, 5-under-par, to take the $35,000 first prize by a massive 7 strokes send shot a 72 Sunday.

British Open champion Severiano Ballesteros of Spain finished in a three-way tie for sixth at 284 after a final-round 71 and now has been overtaken at the top of the European Order of Merit by Lyle, who was Rookie of the Year in Europe last season. His 1979 winnings now are $77,000.

Leading Americans were last year's champion, Bobby Wadkins, and Larry Nelson, who were tied for 15th at 289.

He had a 5-under-par total of 275 with South African Dale Hayes and Briton Peter Townsend sharing second spot with 2-over-par 282s. Each won $18,000. Hayes had a final-round 68 and Town-

Frosh Phenoms Dickerson, James Spark SMU

By The Associated Press Southern Methodist's blue-chip kid-die corps of Eric Dickerson and Craig James saved junior quarterback Mike Ford from one of his poorest nights Saturday and "Mustang Mania" lives al- though severely spooked by the scrappy schoolboy All-America from Sealy who scored three touchdowns. Dickerson's "average" evening also included 123 yards rushing. He had one run of 43 yards. "It was just an average one for Dickerson," said Meyer. "I would hate to see the team that Dickerson unloads on. I've seen him play much better." Dickerson added "You'll see better in the future. This was nothing special."

UCLA had a 9-0 lead on three field goals by Peter Boormeester midway through the third period and Houston hadn't penetrated further than the Bruins' 49-yard line when David Hodge made a diving interception of an attempted screen pass by Rick Bashore.

Elsewhere in the Southwest Conference, Texas Tech stubbornly battled No. 1 ranked Southern California before the Trojans prevailed 21-7. Baylor finally subdued Lamar University 20-6, and the Texas A&M Aggies were nicked 18-17 by Brigham Young despite 140 yards rushing by Curtis Dickey.

There are two big conference games on tap this week. SMU travels to Fort Worth to meet Texas Christian while Texas A&M is at Baylor.

Little Garners LPGA Crown

DENVER (AP) — Veteran Sally Little, enjoying her best year on the tour, carded an even par 72 Sunday to claim a two-stroke victory in a $100,000 Ladies Professional Golf Association tournament here. Little, winner of only two tournaments in her previous eight years on the women's tour, recorded her third victory of 1979 and won $15,000, swelling her year's earnings to $115,000. The slender, blonde South African, who now lives in Dallas, led from the start after an opening round 66. Tied for second place at 211 were Judy Rankin and rookie Beth Daniel. Rankin, who began the day one stroke behind Little, had a 73 Sunday. Daniel fired a two-under 70 despite a disastrous double bogey on the par-three 11th hole.

Scheckter Wins Prix

MONZA, Italy (AP) — South Africa's Jody Scheckter clinched the World 1979 Formula-One auto racing title Sunday by winning the Italian Grand Prix. The 28-year-old ace from East London crossed the finish line narrowly ahead of his Canadian teammate, Gilles Villeneuve, to lead the Ferrari team to a 1-2 triumph on its home ground at the Monza Autodrome before a partisan crowd of 110,000. Scheckter, scoring his third Grand Prix victory of the season and the 10th of his career, appeared a certain winner of both the race and the world title after France's Jacques Laffite halted his Ligier at the pits in the 42nd lap and withdrew from the race. Laffite, who was second to Scheckter in the world standings before the race, blamed engine failure and brake trouble. After Laffite's pullout, Scheckter's remaining eight laps to victory were paced by warm applause from the fans, who chanted "Jody, Jody." The South African covered the total 50 laps or 180 miles in 1 hour, 22 minutes, 00.22 seconds, for an average speed of 132 mph. It was a record for the race, although the distance was shortened this year. Swiss veteran Clay Regazzoni, twice a winner here, drove his Saudia-Williams racer to third place, nearly five seconds behind Scheckter. Regazzoni staged a strong comeback in the final laps, partly because the Ferrari cars slowed a bit because of their wide lead.

Niki Lauda of Austria, winner of last year's Italian Grand Prix, drove his Brabham to fourth place, gaining world points for the second time this year. He finished 54.4 seconds behind. 5.3 seconds faster than Mario Andretti, the defending world champion from Nazareth, Pa., who placed fifth in his Lotus.

A near sellout crowd of 60,217 fans drawn by Mustang Mania promotions and the two sensational frosh crowded their way into Texas Stadium. Ford completed 13 of 22 passes for 127 yards and was intercepted three times. "If that had happened a year ago, you could have forgotten about SMU winning a game," said Ford, who completed only two passes to All-America wide receiver Emanuel Tolbert. A third quarter interception turned things around as 16th-ranked Houston rallied for a 24-16 victory over UCLA Saturday night in a college football season-opener.

Suddenly, Houston had the football at the UCLA 31 and the Cougars were in control after that, scoring on their next four possessions. Regarding the game, Yeoman said, "It was obvious that we were not ready to play in the first half and UCLA was. In the second half, we made mechanical changes. It was all upstairs. We played a little bit better, but we have a million miles to go."

UCLA Coach Terry Donahue closed the Bruins' dressing room for 15 minutes after the game. He then emerged, saying, "I hate to lose tonight's game. We prepared very well and the team made an all-out effort, but critical errors were what beat us, as well as a very good Houston team."
