Quitauque business men, and people who have the interest of this community at heart, are missing something good when they miss the meetings of the Quitauque Community Club. Tuesday, twenty-one business men were present, and a very enjoyable time was had by the entire group. Better line up with that bunch and be ready when the civic enterprises are presented. You will enjoy it.

Free Advice—better go into strict physical training so you can stand the hand-shaking grind from the candidates—that ordeal will start within the next few minutes.

And — don't forget to pay that poll tax—there is nothing in the world that will give you the same amount of enjoyment for the same price as a poll tax. Indications are that the woods will be full of candidates again this year. Three have already announced in this end of the county. Vaughn Chandler rates No. 1, as he said his little piece the middle of last December. The High Sheriff, old Jake Honea himself, was No. 2—announcing for re-election last week. This week presents Miss Lizzie Gregg, announcing for re-election to the treasurer's office. You can load both barrels with one poll tax—and member, you must get them before midnight, January 31st, 1936.

The AAA—no comment.

Merlene Broyles Becomes Bride of Harmon Collins

Announcement was made this week of the marriage of Miss Merlene Broyles, local beauty shop operator, to Mr. Harmon Collins of Flomot. The wedding was solemnized before a Justice of the Peace at Paducah Sunday, January 5.

Mrs. Collins, well-known in Quitauque, is the daughter of Mrs. E. M. Morris of this city.

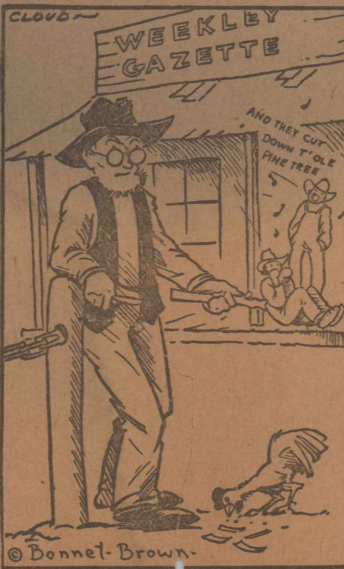

Mr. Collins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Collins of Flomot.

The young couple have not announced their plans for the future, but are at home to their friends at the present time in Quitauque.

Mrs. Collins is an operator at the Quitauque Beauty Shop here.

Judge David Fitzgerald of Memphis was a business visitor here Wednesday afternoon.

LOCAL MEN HURT IN AUTO WRECK MONDAY

P. O. Woods and C. E. Anderson Are Injured

P. O. Woods, local Chevrolet dealer, and C. E. Anderson, local farmer, were seriously injured in an automobile accident near Amarillo late Monday afternoon. The accident was one of a large number occurring on the ice-covered highways of the Panhandle-Plains during the past week.

Mr. Anderson was taken to a Tulsa hospital immediately following the wreck. He was suffering from a broken collar bone, crushed shoulder, and fractured ribs.

Mr. Woods is recovering at his home here from severe bruises, head injuries and a slight concussion.

The accident occurred at about 6 o'clock Monday afternoon on the highway about 15 miles this side of Amarillo. Woods, at the wheel of a 1936 Chevrolet sedan, was forced from the pavement by an oncoming car, losing control of his machine as it skidded from the ice-covered highway into the bar-ditch.

The heavy sedan overturned, and was badly damaged, reports stated. The Chevrolet, property of H. S. Gilbert of Flomot, was being taken to Amarillo for a minor adjustment when the accident occurred.

Identity of the driver of the other car, which failed to stop when the accident occurred, has not been discovered.

Neither occupant of the wrecked machine was in critical condition, though both were suffering from painful injuries.

Church Forces To Hold Centennial Religious Rallies

A state-wide Committee representing the Methodist, Presbyterian, U. S., Presbyterian U. S. A., Nazarene, Episcopal, Baptist and Christian Churches of Texas, composed of Rev. Patrick Henry of Ft. Worth, Rev. R. N. Huckabee of Haskell and Rev. C. E. Matthew of Fort Worth, have designated the week of March 9-13 as Centennial Revival Rally Week, and will direct the holding of an interdenominational rally in each of the following cities: Texarkana, Sherman, Tyler, Houston, Harlingen, San Antonio, Austin, Waco, San Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Dallas and Angelo, El Paso, Abilene, Lubbock, Ft. Worth. The combined membership of the cooperating churches is one million two hundred thousand people in Texas.

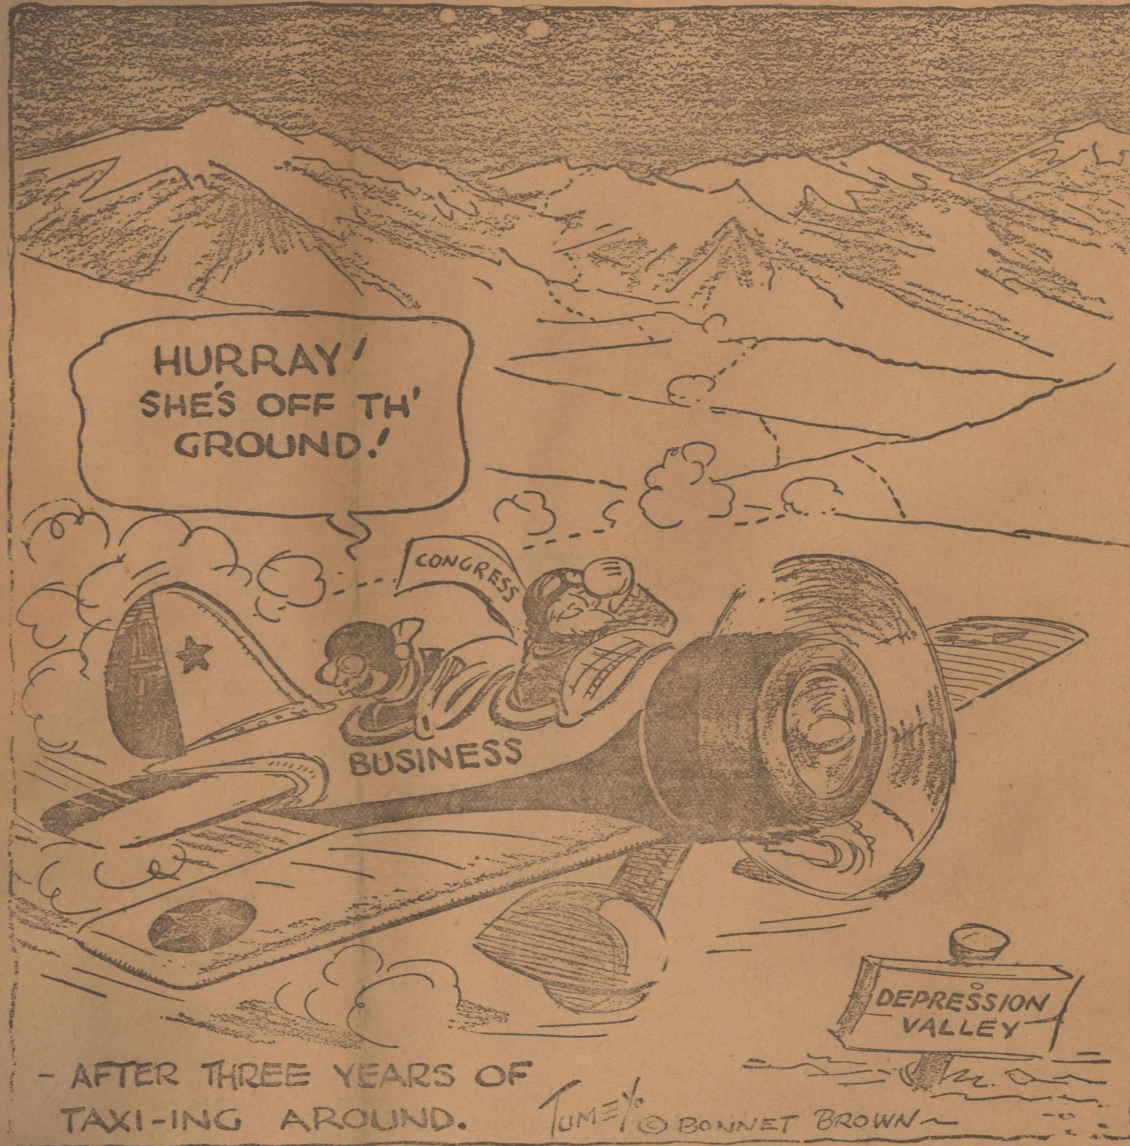

The General Interdenominational Committee, of which Rev. Huckabee is chairman, will sponsor many religious features during the Centennial Year of 1936, and this series of rallies will be the initial feature. These meetings are not in the nature of a union revival effort, but rather to urge and challenge every church of every denomination in every community in Texas to hold a revival meeting during 1936.

The program for these One Day Rallies will consist of a general meeting at 10:30 in the morning; two simultaneous meetings at 2:30, one for women and one for ministers and lay leaders; two simultaneous dinners at six, one for young people and one for men; the rally will be climaxed with a mass meeting at eight. All the speakers for the various meetings will be Texans. The list will be released at an early date.

Lucille Persons left Sunday for Denton, where she is studying at North Texas State Teachers College, after spending the holidays here with her mother, Mrs. Amos Persons. She was accompanied to Estelline Sunday by Winston Savage of Pampa, who has been a visitor in Quitauque.

Glenn Hafer of Odell was in Quitauque on business Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Gregg Announces Office of County Treasurer

Miss Lizzie Gregg has authorized the Quitauque Post to make her announcement for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the Democratic primaries.

Miss Gregg needs little introduction to the people of this county as she is our present treasurer. When we say she has made us a good hand, we mean just that. She has been constantly on the job, and is congenial, accommodating and knows her "stuff" around her office.

With her experience in this office she will be a very valuable county official the next two years. With all the work in progress we are going to need experienced and efficient people in the county offices.

When the time comes to cast your vote, if she should have an opponent, take into serious consideration, her outstanding qualifications. She will appreciate your influence and support.

A. C. BICKFORD BUYS CITY TAILOR SHOP

A. C. Bickford, Jr., this week announces the purchase of the City Tailor Shop from O. G. Gilliland of Turkey. Mr. Bickford has been manager of the plant for several months, and has had considerable experience in that line, having worked for the firm before its purchase by Gilliland last fall. The City Tailors is now a home-owned concern. See their ad in this issue of the Post.

George A. Lider of Floydada was in Quitauque on business Tuesday afternoon.

AGRICULTURAL BRIEFS

By HOMER E. THOMPSON—Cotton Assistant

There is little that we can say about the AAA, for it has all been said before we had any say coming. All we know is what we read in the papers and after reading it we don't know much more than we did when we started reading. We did gather from the papers that there isn't any such animal as AAA any more—all of which means that we won't be getting any more checks soon.

It seems that six of the "Black Robed" gentlemen at Washington don't want the Farmer to have any program, but if you feel different-

Cinco Union Hears Report of Delegates To National Meet

Dennis Coker and Carl Cooper, members of the Turkey Epworth League and delegates from the Cinco Union to the National Epworth League Council in Memphis, Tennessee, last month, addressed members of the group at a meeting of the group at the First Methodist Church at Turkey Monday evening.

Speaking on all phases of the Methodist Young People's Convention, an event conducted once every ten years, the local delegates made interesting addresses. Both Cooper and Coker were elected by the Union as delegates to the National Convention—their expenses being defrayed by members of that body.

Members of the Turkey Epworth were hosts to the group Monday evening. Refreshments of hot chocolate and cake were served to members from Matador, Flomot, Whiteflat, Turkey and Quitauque.

Attending the meeting from Quitauque were Kathryn and Korene Keever, Joe Weldon Bailey, Evelyn Messimer, Ethelyn Bailey, LaRuth Walden, Charles Walden, Emily Margaret Gardiner, Bill Cutbirth, Henry Gardiner, C. T. Rucker and Mrs. G. L. Keever.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAMS VISITING IN AMARILLO

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Williams, recovering from injuries sustained in an automobile accident shortly before Christmas, left Sunday for Amarillo, where they will visit with relatives. They were accompanied by their daughter, Majorie, and son, Clyde Williams, of that city.

RECEIPTS OF POST OFFICE SHOW INCREASE

1935 Has Large Gain Over Year of 1934

Postal receipts at the local office for the quarter just ended show definite advance, according to reports from Postmaster S. T. Bogan.

An advance in gross receipts of the office of more than $8,000 over the total for the same period was shown on the report.

A marked increase in stamp sales was also noted; with during the past quarter gross receipts totaling $450 over the total for the same period in 1934. Stamp sales for the final quarter of 1935 totaled $1,324.35, as compared with $891.78 for the same period in 1934.

Gross receipts during the quarter, including money orders, stamp sales, etc. totaled $1,324.35, as compared with $1,064.35 for the corresponding period in 1934.

Business during the past year, with the exception of the first quarter, has been definitely better than in 1934, Mr. Bogan stated.

In addition to the postal receipts mentioned above, $750 worth of Government Bonds have been sold at the local office during the past two months.

Government "Baby Bonds" are still on sale here, according to Postmaster Bogan. While the series A bonds issued last fall were called in at the end of the year, a new group, Series B, has been received and will be placed on sale during 1936. Value and price of the new issue remains the same.

Improvement Of Business Conditions Seen By Expert

AUSTIN, Jan. 7.—Prospects for a continued improvement in business conditions are apparent as the new year starts, in the opinion of Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director and statistician in the Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas.

"The upward trend in general business activity which began in July has not yet been reversed, but during the past three weeks the rate of increase has slackened considerably, and there are indications that a temporary recession in industrial activity may occur early in the new year," Dr. Buechel pointed out.

"Notwithstanding this possibility, the outlook for next and the entire year 1936 is distinctly promising. Such uncertainties as exist are mostly of political origin—the convening of Congress, and the tradition, unfounded though it may be, that a presidential election year is detrimental to business.

"Among the reasons for expecting a relatively good business year in 1936 are: The cumulative improvement in farm buying power; the probable cyclical upswing in construction both residential and commercial, as well as in other durable goods industries; and the present tendency of many industrial concerns to launch programs of plant improvement with the view to lowering costs of production as evidenced by the sharp rise in activity in the machine tools industry. Although these constructive forces fill, in part, be offset by growing taxes, a widening of profit margins should nevertheless result as industry attains more nearly its normal production strides."

Rosemary and Isabel Price left Sunday for Denton, where they are attending NTSTC, after spending the Christmas holidays here with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. Price.

F. M. Sachse, Jr., left Monday afternoon for College Station, where he is a student at Texas A & M. after spending the holidays with his parents here.

Business recovery for one town may mean business recession for a neighboring town. Which kind of town are you, Mr. MERCHANT, going to do business in, in the future?

A certain amount of business will come to a town regardless of the efforts put forth by merchants. But there isn't enough business of this kind to make any town a good business town. It is the business that may come to a town or go to a competing town, depending upon the type of merchants in the two towns, that keeps a business institution out of the red.

WOULD PROTECT BANKING FIELD IN RURAL AREAS

American Bankers Association Announces Purpose to Combat Return of Excessive Number of Banks

CITES LAX CHARTER POLICIES IN THE PAST

Finds a Chief Cause of Bank Failures Was Too Many Banks—Existing Sound Banks Serving Communities Well

NEW YORK. — Existing sound banks, especially the small banks in the rural districts which are serving their communities well, should be protected from any return of the over-banked local conditions caused by former lax chartering policies, which were mainly to blame for the unfavorable failure record of the past, says the Economic Policy Commission of the American Bankers Association. This is brought out in a report covering an investigation by the commission of bank failures and public policies in chartering banks.

"The Commission's study gives an impressive revelation of how great a part mistaken public policies in the chartering of banks played in creating the unsound banking structure which finally collapsed with the Bank Holiday in March 1933," Robert V. Fleming, president of the association, says in a foreword.

"Over-production of banks, literally by thousands, over many years in the face of insistent warnings not only from bankers and others who recognized the danger, but even more so from the mounting records of bank failures themselves, is clearly shown to have constituted as a whole one of the greatest single economic errors in the history of the Nation."

A Recurrence Feared
He refers to fears of a recurrence of over-banking recently expressed by Federal banking authorities, to the powers given the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation by the provision of the Banking Act of 1935 over the admission of banks to membership in the insurance fund, to strengthened state laws and to the policies now being followed by both national and state supervisory authorities aimed to safeguard the nation against over-banking.

"But sound laws and conscientious officials are not of themselves always sufficient safeguard in any field of our complex national life unless they have the active support of public opinion," he adds. "It is the purpose of the American Bankers Association to aid in marshaling public opinion in support of both national and state supervisory authorities in their efforts to strengthen and protect the banking structure."

The Economic Policy Commission summarizes its findings in part as follows:

"The facts show a distinct causal relationship between the over-chartering of banks and the abnormal bank failure conditions that prevailed from 1920 to the bank holiday in 1933. It is desirable that studies be made on the basis of experience to develop standards governing the number of banks or the volume of bank capital which can be successfully operated."

"Such a study would embrace the question whether banking facilities can best be supplied to the rural districts by small unit banks or by branches from banks of substantial capital in larger centers. Existing sound banks, which are serving their communities well should be protected from any return of the over-banked local conditions caused in the past by lax chartering policies."

Banking Officials Queried
"An inquiry among state bank commissioners shows a preponderant opinion against increasing materially the number of banks, coupled with the fact that present laws give them sufficient discretion to prevent a repetition of the grave errors of the past."

"Under prevailing abnormal conditions, with the Federal Government extensively exercising loaning powers in competition with the banks, and with industry itself so largely supplied with funds as to render it to a great degree independent of normal bank borrowing, the banking structure even with its present reduced numbers, finds it difficult to support its existing capital investment and operating personnel."

"These are new factors, intensifying the need for highly prudent and restrictive chartering policies. We urge the retirement of the Federal Government from the banking business as rapidly as the return of normal business conditions warrant."

Conference on Banking
NEW YORK. — An eastern states conference on banking, service will be held by the American Bankers Association in Philadelphia January 23 and 24 as a part of the organization's nationwide program on banking development, it has been announced.

Robert V. Fleming, president of the association, will preside over the meetings. It is stated that this conference will be the first of several to be held in various parts of the country presenting a program the details of which are now in the course of preparation.

The general topic of the conference will embrace the managerial, legislative and operative problems confronted by all classes of banks. An outstanding phase of the meetings will be the development of plans for promoting a general better public understanding in regard to bank functions and policies.

CHAPEL

The chapel program Friday did not offer an opportunity for any of the sponsors to exhibit the bits of sage talent found among the students but the 45 minutes was well spent. After that rowdy bunch of High school students got settled down to normal, Mrs. Paul Hamilton led the Student body in two school songs after which Coach Davis introduced Rev. Keever. Mr. Keever delivered a very interesting and encouraging speech to the student body and it was well received. The first forty five minute period was omitted from the regular schedule.

TYPING CLASS IMPROVING

Typing classes are still climbing. Henry Gardiner set a new record with 35 words a minute. Viola Robbins, second in speed and better in accuracy, rated 32 words a minute and only 2 errors. Ray Morrison made the most improvement with a climb from 11 words with 5 errors from December test to the January test by making 28 words a minute with only 2 errors. Other good rates were made by Evelyn Moore with 28 words and 3 errors, Hazel Dorsey with 27 and 1 error, Lewis Bedwell with 26 and 1 error, and Ethel Carter with 24 and 2 errors. The tests are five minute test timed and graded by International Contest Rules. The classes have done some nice outside work, and if you would like some typing done, the typing classes will be glad to do it.

JUNIOR GOSSIP

The first day that Mae Love came to Geometry class, Mr. Davis accused her of trying to hide under her chair but he learned later that she had been sitting in her natural position.

If putting that finger in his mouth helps J. R. Lusk to solve his Geometry, it would be advisable for him to put his whole fist in.

If the Junior girls were as enthusiastic about the period just after noon as they are about the one before noon, before long they would be speaking Spanish instead of English.

A Junior student at the library: Mrs. Scheid, give me a book that counts about 7 points, is big print, easy to read and very interesting.

Mrs. Scheid: I've heard of that book but I don't have it on the list.

The Juniors are worrying about their term themes which will be due soon. They will continue to worry until they start writing and then they will be too busy and interested for worry.

Students of the Junior class have been trying to round up enough money to send Jack Hutcheson to New York where he will compete for honors in the weekly "Major Bowes Amateur Hour" as a crooner. Some of the students have suggested that he go on to China.

The Juniors admit that it was useless for them to resolve to be quieter at roll call cause it jest ain't their nature to be quiet.

Johnye Womack and Korene Keever have no faults that need improving so they have not made any resolutions.

J. B. Tiffin was too lazy to say his prayers at night so he purchased a piece of cardboard and scribbled a few lines on it, each night when he hops into bed, he points toward the lines and says, "Lord, them's my sentiments."

Coach Davis announced his intentions of starting a giggling contest in Geometry classes. How bout a tournament, Coach, there is going to be competition.

He was born in Rangling, Oklahoma, November 29, 1921. He is five feet tall and weighs 103 pounds. His hair is brown and he has greenish gray eyes. His favorite subject is algebra.

Resolutions

The Sophomores felt a need for making some New Years resolutions and they took advantage of this excellent opportunity.

Jimmie has resolved to study harder during the coming year. It is hoped that Jimmie will not break this resolution and that other students will do likewise.

Nora Dell says that she is going to become more popular with the boys this year even if she has to take her mind away from her studies. One of the Sophomore philosopher declares that it is impossible for a student to devote half the time to studies and the other half to the opposite sex and be very successful in either field, even though both fields are said to be very broad.

Harold has faithfully resolved to quit singing in classes so it will be "Teacher won't have no solo singing in here."

Many others of the Sophomore class have made various resolutions and as these students round the corner and come in sight of the chalk line, (mid term exams) with only fifteen days to go, it might safely be said that "things are going to happen."

Texans to Spend Millions in 1936 As Host to U.S.A.

Southwest Empire's Fete of Independence to Center in Dallas

Dallas, Texas.—In 1936 the State of Texas will celebrate the passage of a century since her pioneer settlers won freedom from Mexican rule and established the Republic of Texas, which later became a state.

Throughout the Lone Star State there will be celebrations at places of historic and patriotic interest. The cities and towns which were battle scenes in the Texas Revolution, and communities founded during the exploration and colonization preceding the Republic, will commemorate progress of the only state that existed as an independent republic, prior to its entrance to the Union.

Under the six flags that have flown over Texas soil—those of France, Spain, Mexico, Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States—since 1519, there has been written by men and women, in thought and action, a saga that is truly mighty. Highlights of the gala and fest celebrations of the Centennial Y will be an event that is in its right an historic one. It is the 1 Centennial Exposition to open in Dallas on June 6 and continue on November 29.

The Texas celebration requires investment of more than $2,000,000. The City of Dallas pledged $1,000,000 plant of the State Fair located within her city limits used as the Exposition grounds also pledged $5,500,000 building her share of the $3,500,000 of which was a municipal bond issue and bonds sold by the Texas Central Exposition Corporation comprised of Dallas citizens.

The Texas Legislature appropriated $3,000,000 and the United States government a like sum.

The Dallas Exposition grounds consist of approximately 200 acre position buildings and their cost low:

- Texas Hall of State, $1,200,000;
- Hall of Fine Arts, $550,000;
- Hall of Industries, Electricity and Communications, $400,000;
- Hall of Transportation, $400,000;
- Hall of Livestock and Animal Husbandry, $300,000;
- United States Building, $250,000;
- Hall of Natural History, $250,000;
- Rural Boys' and Girls' Dormitory, $250,000;
- Hall of Foods and Beverages, $230,000;
- Hall of Aquatic Life, $180,000;
- Hall of Agriculture, $170,000;
- Hall of Domestic Arts, $75,000;
- Hall of Horticulture, $75,000;
- Band Shell and Pavilion, $50,000;
- Hall of Negro Life and Culture, $50,000;
- Radio, Police, Fire Station, Texas Ranger Headquarters and Hospital, $40,000.

Cost of landscaping and paving is estimated at $675,000. In addition, a half-million dollars worth of utility equipment and $350,000 in electrical equipment will be installed.

A million dollar sports plant will handle the Exposition to enable sporting events of all kinds. The grounds already have a $400,000 stadium seating 46,000 people, a horse race track and grandstand costing $300,000, and indoor boxing and wrestling arena costing $100,000 and seating 6,000 persons, a polo field, straightaway and oval running tracks and tracks suitable for automobile or motorcycle races. A standard-sized swimming pool will be constructed for aquatic events.

Main entrance of the Exposition grounds will face the Esplanade of State, 300x1,000 feet, leading to the Texas Hall of State. The esplanade's center will be a reflecting basin 200x700 feet with concealed lighting effects flashing from the pool to adjacent buildings.

The Texas Hall of State, built of native granite, will be 488x258 feet. An 80-foot high center will house the Niche of Heroes, dedicated to illustrious figures of Texas history. The front wings will be devoted to regional rooms, a replica of a Texas mission representing the Hall of 1936. An auditorium in the basement will be used for convention purposes.

Journeying to Tullia on the following evening, Saturday, the Panthe-ettes were again victorious, winning easily over the Hornets by a 38-19 score. Margaret and Frances Graham, Panthe-ettes forwards, found the goal in the final period to run up the overwhelming margin.

The Panthers, meeting the Tullia quint on the same evening, experienced more difficulty in taking a thrilling 20-19 decision. The Panthers, unable to hit the basket in the first half, scored their only points on six free shots, and trailed 15-6 as the period ended. Coming back in the second half, the Panther defense clicked to hold the Hornets to four points, while the local sharpshooters looped 14 counters.

Tying the score late in the last quarter, 18-18, the Panthers again topped behind as Tullia scored a one-point lead; Lee, center guard, going out on the floor. Jack Hutcheson beat the timing gun with a thrilling field goal closing seconds to give the Panthers the game—20-19.

Health Department Gives Advice On Meningitis Scare

AUSTIN, Jan. 8.—A definite increase in the number of cases of epidemic cerebro-spinal meningitis has been noted in Texas, according to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. While the number of these cases is not alarming as yet, preventive measures should be followed;

The best method of escaping this disease is the prevention of overcrowding either at home or in public. Overcrowded conditions in camps, barracks, jails, or other institutions where men are brought in close contact are most favorable for outbreaks. Children and old people are more susceptible than those of middle age, and Negroes contract meningitis more frequently than whites.

Persons with colds and coughs should stay indoors if possible, should practice personal hygiene and cough into their handkerchiefs. The early symptoms of meningitis are those of a cold or influenza. If one has headache, backache, fever and chilly sensations, he should consult his family doctor at once. Healthy carriers spread the disease from their nose and throat to those who are susceptible. Most adults are not susceptible to the disease. The earlier the diagnosis is made, the better are the chances of recovery. All suspicious cases must be isolated.

Milestones of American Genius

JOHN MARSHALL

JOHN MARSHALL was the fourth Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, but in the judicial annals of our land he undoubtedly stands first. At a time when the Republic was young and hesitant, in its early decades of self-government, his clear-cut decisions fortified the Constitution as the basis of our national life.

He was appointed to the highest judicial office in 1801, when the Supreme Court seemed to be one of the government agencies which was failing of its purpose. In thirty-four years of devoted work, his decisions, which have never been surpassed for clarity, brilliance and courage, gave form and substance to the Constitution and helped establish the Supreme Court as the bulwark of the American form of democratic government.

Marshall was born in 1755 of pioneer stock, the eldest of fifteen children in a family where money was scarce. His schooling was consequently irregular, though he managed to take law courses at the College of William and Mary. Endowed with an exceptionally fine legal mind, he soon achieved leadership in the Bar of Virginia. He was called to fill many public offices, including that of Secretary of State under President John Adams, before he was designated to the Supreme Court. He died at the age of eighty, in 1835. The glory of his contribution to American history has not dimmed since.

Within a few days after his death, plans for a suitable memorial in front of the Capitol in Washington were begun, but they were not carried out until half a century later. The sum of $3,000 which lay forgotten in a Memorial Fund during the intervening years had grown to $20,000. Congress matched it with a similar amount and the unveiling of the impressive monument shown in the sketch took place on May 10, 1884.

Notice to our Patients:
 Dr. Wilson Kimble left yesterday to attend the Graduate Clinic on care of the eyes of children, to be held Jan. 8th, 9th and 10th in the Hilton Hotel, Lubbock, Texas; under Dr. Skeffington, Director of Graduate Clinic Foundation, internationally known for his work in visual correction.
 These Graduate Clinics in Advanced Optometric methods of correcting the visual problems of children are being held in principal cities of the State, in connection with the Extension Program of the Texas Optometric Association.
 Dr. Wilson Kimble states that the method of analyzing the causes for ocular problems in children of school age have advanced so rapidly in the past several years that simply keeping abreast is a task for the conscientious practitioner.
 Less attention is being given to whether the child can simply see well and more is whether he is visually adapted to the demands of modern educational requirements.
 Research has shown methods of graphing this inability to learn and absorb and methods of re-adaptation have been perfected. It is to become more fully conversant with these new methods that Dr. Kimble has left his practice for these three days.
 Dr. Wilson Kimble will return to his office Saturday, Jan. 11.

Joy stays with us as long as we bid him welcome and pay the fiddler for another dance.

AT THE THEATRES

QUEEN—Quitauque
 William Powell, star of the great detective comedy, "The Thin Man"—is back again in a new role in "Rendezvous"—on the Thursday-Friday spot at the Queen Theatre—with a new and lovely leading lady in Rosalind Russell, and a stellar cast, including Binnie Barnes, Lionel Atwill and Cesar Romera.
 In a thrilling war-time drama of the secret service, Powell makes a rendezvous with love—and Death—in his greatest detective role, a national hero, Daring intrigue with nations at war, and dangerous romance behind the scenes make "Rendezvous" a thrill from start to finish.
 Saturday the Queen features "DANGER AHEAD"—western drama—with two-reel comedy.
 On the ten-cent Monday-Tuesday spot comes one of the best pictures of the famous "G-Man" series, "Let 'Em Have It." Richard Arlen and Virginia Bruce are in the leading roles in a thrilling drama of the Federal G-men in death struggle with Public enemy number one.

PALACE—Silverton
 "The Last Outpost"—featured on the Thursday night spot at the Palace Theatre—brings a new spectacle of action and romance to the screen. Designed as successor to the famous "Bengal Lancers"—The Last Outpost fails to reach the heights attained in that great drama, but is nevertheless an exciting and entertaining picture. Carey Grant, Claude Rains and Gertrude Michael are the stars.
 "The Eagles Brood"—a great yarn of the wild west, is featured Friday and Saturday.
 On the Saturday Midnight-Sunday Monday spot the Palace presents one of the best comedy-romances of the season, with Marion Davies in "Page Miss Glory". The picture is a veritable comedy of errors as Marion Davies, chambermaid in a great hotel is turned into a Miss America Beauty by her daring press agent, Pat O'Brien, and wooed and won by Crooner Dick Powell.
 Tuesday and Wednesday the Palace brings Zazu Pitts and Hugh O'Connell in a typical Pitts comedy, "The Affairs of Susan."

GEM—Turkey
 The Thursday-Friday offering at the Gem Theatre brings Kay Francis, star of many screenplays, in her greatest role as heroine of the tragic romance, "I Found Stella Parrish." The picture features lovely Kay in the role of Stella Parrish—a great actress in a ceaseless flight from a relentless past. Ivan Hunter and Paul Lukas have the supporting roles.

 On the Sunday matinee-Monday night spot the Gem presents Mae Robson, grand old lady of the screen in a hilarious kidnaping farce, "Three Kids and a Queen." May Robson is the rich old lady "kidnapped" by three kids whose greatest problem is how to get rid of their willing captive. Frankie Darro and Charlotte Henry have leading roles in the comedy farce.
 Zazu Pitts appears on the Tuesday-Wednesday spot in her latest hit, "She Gets Her Man." Hugh O'Connell, leading man, is her victim in the rollicking comedy.

Advice is something that a lawyer sells, a mother-in-law gives away, but which you cannot dispose of yourself.
