Looking Things Over

By "MACK"

"Al Smith Would Not Accept Nomination" — headline in paper. That's one thing we have in common, Al, neither would we.

—M—
Tomorrow, Friday, January 31, 1936, at midnight the time will be too late to pay your poll tax. Get to the County Capital somehow—raise a dollar and six bits somewhere and pay that poll tax today—before it is too late. (Confidentially—already Mr. Chandler, Mr. Graham, and Mr. Hawkins have hinted to us that they are going to be very liberal with 5 cent cigars, drinks—soft of course—and coffee this year. This is not official, but you had better be prepared if they do pull such a stunt.)

—M—
OFFICIAL NOTICE — Beginning Saturday February 1, 1936, all farmers who have recently moved from farm to the City of Quitaque must wear a necktie when appearing on the main streets of Quitaque. Those failing to conform by the above ruling will be forced to undergo severe punishment—said punishment to be inflicted by any legal citizen of Quitaque. Fines for not obeying above ruling will range from one 5 cent cigar for the first offense to a bottle of the best bootleg whiskey that can be purchased in Quitaque for repeated offenses.

—M—
While lying in bed this morning was wishin' I had a million dollars—a car load of spending money, and could spend the winter in Florida beach lolling, I heard a faint voice in the next room saying "don't let your wishbone take the place of your back bone." I have a secret notion that it was only the voice of another radio announcer trying to fill in the gap between harmonies, but nevertheless, the thought almost dislodged my whole make-up. I am passing it on to you in case you too need a bit of an awakening. Too many of us today are using our wish bone instead of our originally gifted backbone. Nobody ever received anything "just wishin'." It takes push, ability, vitality and ambition to achieve wishes in fully developed forms. Nice little lecture, wasn't it? I'm somewhat of a wisher and hoper myself.—Jeane Suits in the Lockney Beacon.

BAPTISTS TO MEET AT FLOMOT TUESDAY

Delegates of the Floyd County Missionary Baptist Association will meet in an all-day Workers meeting with the Baptist Church at Flomot Tuesday, February 4, according to announcement by Mrs. B. L. Turner this week. The session will open at 10 a. m. The Flomot church extends an invitation to all members of the Association to spend the day at this meeting.

LOCAL CAGERS WIN SEVEN, LOSE ONE DURING WEEK

Silverton, Tulia, Flomot and Paducah Opponents

Quitaque High School Cagers fought their way to seven wins in eight starts in a busy session during the past week. The Panthers, winning three straight games, two of them conference affairs, dropped their fourth in a conference game at Paducah Tuesday evening, while the Pantherettes advanced thru a tough schedule to score four wins.

The Panthers, in conference competition, have scored eight wins to two defeats so far this season, records show.

Taking on their old rivals, the Silverton Owls, at the Silverton gym Friday evening, the Panthers captured a 24-21 decision for a conference win. Taking an early lead in the game, the local quint forged ahead with a 13-4 margin at the half, and led at the end of the third quarter 20-6.

Shooting desperately in the final frame, the Owls came from behind to run their score to 21, holding the Panther reserves to two goals, but were unable to overcome the heavy margin.

The Pantherettes, playing at Roaring Springs on the same evening, avenged a one point defeat at the hands of the Yellowjackets in the finals of the recent Roaring Springs basketball tourney, to take a 25-24 victory in a hard and fast game. The Pantherettes played heads up ball game to take the game and even the score with the Yellow Jacket sextette.

Both teams returned to the local court Saturday evening to take a double header from the Tulia cagers. The Pantherettes, opening the evening's bill, won a 26-19 victory in a closely-called contest. Holding a slight lead throughout the contest, the Pantherettes were closely pressed in the opening periods, but

County Basketball Championship Series To Start Friday

The annual play for the Briscoe County Cage crown will open at Silverton Friday evening, the Quitaque Panthers meeting the Silverton Owls there in the first game of the championship series. The winner in this series will represent this county at the District Interscholastic League tourney at Childress in February.

Quitaque and Silverton, the only teams competing, will play for three out of five games to decide the county championship. These games will have no bearing on the District 4-B conference play, although both teams are members of the newly organized conference. The county series will affect only the District 3 Interscholastic League race. The two organizations have no connection.

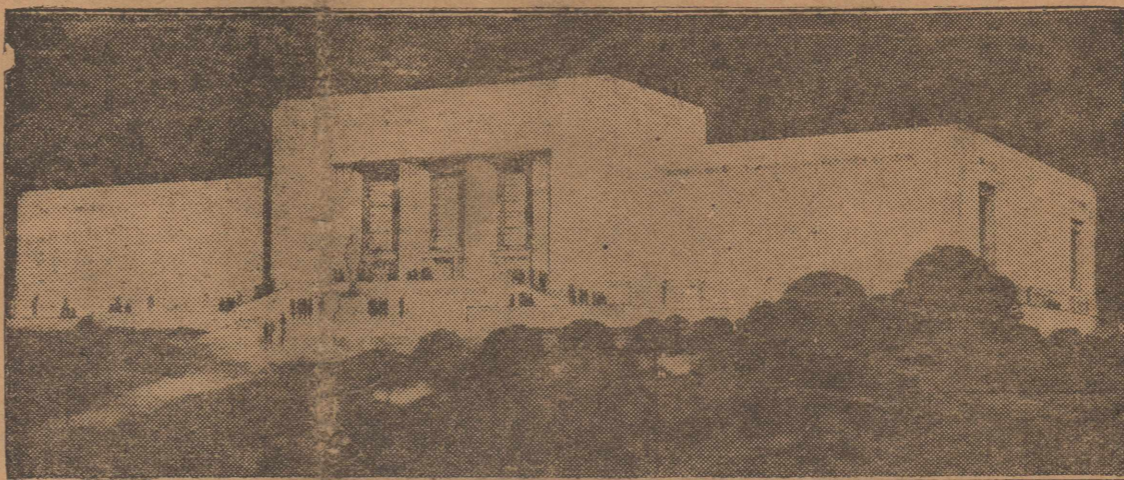

Owls and Panthers will meet at the local gym in the second game of the county series next week—the date has not been announced.

The Panther are doped to win in this county on the basis of their victory over the Owls in a game at Silverton last week, but showed no marked superiority in the small margin of victory.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK ANNOUNCES SERVICE CHARGE

The First National Bank is announcing this week the adoption of a nominal service charge which will be effective February 1. The local bank is among the last in this section to adopt the charge. Most banks over the State have found it necessary, and have had the levy in effect for several years. A detailed statement of the First National's service charges is found on page 4 of this paper.

Three pink tinted arrows were placed on the cake and pointed to the honored guests. Pink satin ribbons connected the cake with the placecards that were pink arrows with birthday greetings inside each.

Turkey Meeting

On Friday of last week the Hi-Plains Turkey Association held its annual meeting at Muleshoe. Mr. J. E. Wheelock of our own county was elected president of the association. Last year Briscoe County had to be satisfied with Mr. Wheelock as vice president but nothing less than president would satisfy us this year.

Those attending the meeting besides Mr. Wheelock were S. R. Turner, Lee D. Bomar, S. B. Boyle, Homer E. Thompson and the writer. Roast turkey and all the trimmings and pumpkin pies galore were enjoyed to the fullest extent by all that attended this meeting.

W. P. Hawkins Announces For Commissioner

W. P. Hawkins, who lives one mile south of Quitaque, requests the Quitaque Post to make the announcement that he is a candidate for the office of Commissioner, Precinct No. 2, subject to the Democratic Primary of July 25th.

Mr. Hawkins has lived in Briscoe County and Precinct two for the past twenty four years. This is the first time he has asked for public office. For the past twenty four years Mr. Hawkins has owned a farm and has been a tax payer all that time, and he states that he knows how the tax money comes—and pledges himself to see, if elected, that every cent spent will be used to the best advantage of the people.

Mr. Hawkins states that he understands the business that comes before the Commissioner's Court and feels that he has had enough business experience to handle it in the most economical way.

He also states that he is not running against any man or organization in this race, but is asking for the office of Commissioner on his own qualifications.

Mr. Hawkins will appreciate any consideration the voters see fit to give him. He will attempt to contact each and every person in the precinct before July 25th, and if he fails to see you, he requests that this announcement be an official invitation for your support and influence.

AUTO DRIVERS TO HAVE LICENSES BY APRIL FIRST

License To Be Issued Without Cost Examination

Automobile driver's licenses have been the cause of discussion since the passage of the new state law by the legislature, will be issued in the period in which 1936 licenses are issued, until April 1, when the new law goes into effect. Present arrangement, however, an announcement has been made by the Tax Collector's office. The fact that all drive automobiles must be licensed before April 1, a source of wide-spread concern, terms of the law have not been explained.

Contrary to popular impression, examination is required before issuance of a driver's license. Persons over 18 years of age must obtain a driver's license by filling the prescribed blank. The only persons barred are confirmed drunkards or drug addicts, idiots and epileptics.

Persons under 18 and over 65 years of age may obtain a driver's license under the same terms with the consent of their guardians or parents.

Operators of farm machinery, tractors, road machinery or horse drawn vehicles are exempt.

There is no charge or fee for Driver's Licenses.

The difficulty, it appears, is not in getting a license, but in keeping it. It is on that point that the real value of the new law rests.

Under the provisions of the law, the license may be cancelled or suspended for a number of reasons involving the ability of the driver. Offenses include negligent homicide, driving while drunk or under the influence of narcotics, commission of any offense punishable as a felony under traffic laws, for three misdemeanor convictions within twelve months for violating certain traffic laws, or for failing to stop after an accident.

Age Must Be Proved By All Old People Requesting Pensions

AUSTIN, Jan. 28.—Facing old-age assistance applicants will be the difficulty of proving their ages, Orville S. Carpenter, executive director of the old age assistance commission, said today when asked what he thought the most difficult problem of old people making application.

Application forms will be distributed to cities and towns over the State and will be available to all who want them February 14, when the law goes into effect. As required by the new laws certain facts must be established by the applicant. The law grants assistance to the needy who are 65 years of age or more, and each applicant must definitely and conclusively prove his or her age.

"There are many ways by which a person can establish his age," Director Carpenter stated. "The Commission will consider any evidence that proves or helps to establish definitely the age of the applicant. However, it will be necessary in each case for the applicant to establish to the satisfaction of the Commission, by whatever means he can, that he is 65 years of age."

A number of kinds of evidence to be used in proving age are the following:

1. Birth certificates.
2. Marriage certificates giving age

BILIOUS

Condition Needs Double
Action Treatment

Stimulation of liver bile flow is not enough for complete relief, but combined with intestinal stimulation that relieves temporary constipation, quick, soothing results are obtained. Herbine, a combination of herbs, combines BOTH actions and so those dizzy, headachy, indigestions, gas, rundown feelings get relieved when both liver and bowels return to normal action. Get your bottle of Herbine from druggists.

DOCTORS KNOW

Mothers read this:

THREE STEPS TO RELIEVING CONSTIPATION

A cleansing dose today; a smaller quantity tomorrow; less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

Why do people come home from a hospital with bowels working like a well-regulated watch?

The answer is simple, and it's the answer to all your bowel worries if you will only realize it: many doctors and hospitals use a liquid laxative.

If you knew what a doctor knows, you would use only the liquid form. A liquid can always be taken in gradually reduced doses. Reduced dosage is the secret of any real relief from constipation.

Ask a doctor about this. Ask your druggist how very popular liquid laxatives have become. They give the right kind of help, and right amount of help. The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara—both natural laxatives that can form no habit, even in children. So, try Syrup Pepsin. You just take regulated doses till Nature restores regularity.

Home Rule—An American Tradition
By RAYMOND FITCAIRN

National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

Dominant among American concepts in government stands the principle of Home Rule.

It is perhaps the oldest of our traditions. It is a healthy outgrowth of that insistence on self-government which found expression in the Revolutionary War. Regarded by the founders and developers of America as essential to their liberty, it has persisted through a century and a half of national history.

That explains why a growing number of citizens watch with grave misgiving many of the innovations in government being urged on the American people today. Among these they see:

Efforts to force on citizens, with all the authority of enacted law, the dictates of appointed Bureau chiefs.

Efforts to curb the powers of the Supreme Court whenever it upholds the rights reserved by our Constitution to the people and the states.

Efforts to centre in Washington powers and authority which, since the beginning of our nation, have belonged to the states and smaller communities.

These attempts are already under way. Others will undoubtedly follow. But, in whatever alluring forms they may be presented, all mean fundamentally the same thing—limiting the people's power in government, by taking from their local communities the right to run their own affairs.

In other words, the weakening of Home Rule.

The real significance of such proposals lies, therefore, not in what they promise, but in what they threaten to take away from the people in the way of rights and privileges and power. As a wise President once said:

"No method of procedure has ever been devised by which liberty could be divorced from local self-government."

Milestones of American Genius

Longfellow memorial erected in Washington, D. C., in 1909; William Couper, sculptor.

HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW

OF all Americans whose written words have been deeply engraved on our national mind and heart, none has so strong a hold on popular affection as Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. The work of the great poet was diffused with a gentleness that heightens its beauty.

He was in a profound sense American. It was the folk story of his native land that inspired him most eloquently, in immortal narrative poems like "The Courtship of Miles Standish," "Hiawatha" and "Evangeline." The everyday affairs of his everyday New England world are reflected in little masterpieces that have become a part of our national tradition, like "The Village Blacksmith" and "The Children's Hour."

Longfellow was born at Portland, Maine, on February 27, 1807, into a comfortably fixed family. His life had the serenity one finds in his songs. After graduating Bowdoin College, he travelled for a year, then filled the chair of modern languages at the same college. As soon as he found economic independence in writing he gave up teaching to devote himself only to poetry. Unlike the poets of tradition, Longfellow attained immense popularity and a comfortable income in his own lifetime. He was always accessible to aspiring young men, and his career was a piece with his work in its noble lines.

When he died at the age of 75—in Cambridge, Mass., where he had passed most of his mature life—he had won himself a permanent place in our history. Wherever an American Hall of Fame exists, there the benign features of Longfellow are to be found. Poet, humanitarian, patriot—his memory is honored in tablets and monuments throughout the land.

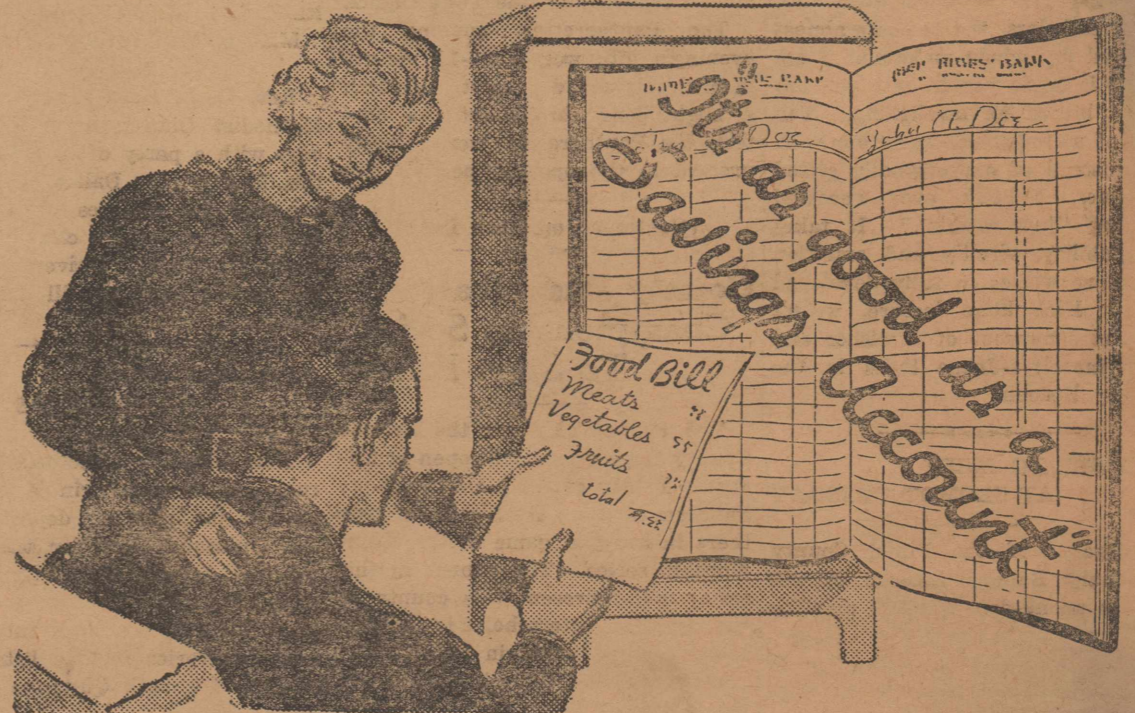

The one shown in the illustration was erected by the Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Memorial Committee at the intersection of Connecticut and Rhode Island Avenues in the national capital.

MID TERM RESOLUTIONS

The Editor has resolved to edit a paper.

He has resolved to edit a paper with news in it.

He has resolved to edit a paper with news in it if the reporters turn in the news.

SO—if students will turn in news to the reporters, the reporters will have something to give to the Chief MUD when he starts on his weekly search for prey.

It is believed that this plan will leave our efficient reporters in the high esteem of Chief Mud, and at the same time Chief Mud will be in a less embarrassing position in the sight of his superiors.

THE ENGLISH AND HISTORY BOOKS

Once upon a time a History Book was lying in one corner of the study hall and an English Book was behind the radiator. These books recognized each other one afternoon after school when everyone had gone home. This dialogue ensued:

English Book: "Oh! my back is killing me."

History Book: "Me too, I've lain here open with my cover almost torn off a week."

EB: If I possibly can, I'll crawl out from under here.

HB: Yeah! Come over here where I am.

EB: O. K. Just a minute, I have run into a big wad of paper.

HB: Hey! wait, open that piece of paper and let's read it.

EB: Is that a good idea? I ask you.

HB: Hurry up.

EB: Ha! Ha! Ha! Look at this.

HB: So, they won't get their lessons.

EB: Here I have explained every thing fully and he still won't get his lessons.

HB: This note says they'll tell their teacher they lost their books.

EB: I have an excellent idea.

HB: What is it?

EB: You have been thrown around and you are injured.

HB: I'll say I am!

EB: And I have been injured and marked in, terribly bad.

HB: Well, go on with your idea.

EB: Oh! O. K. I'm getting to that.

HB: I figured that—

EB: Oh! hush, I am still talking.

HB: Well, hurry up and finish your tale.

EB: O. K. Let's you and I slip off and hide so those students can't find us.

HB: Say, you have got some English about you.

EB: And then when the end of school rolls around they will have to pay for doing us harm.

HB: O. K. Let's start hiking.

(The History Book and English Book started out-side and they were stopped suddenly.)

EB: Look out! Here comes the janitor.

HB: We will "lay low" until he passes.

EB: Good, there he goes now.

HB: Well here we go and good luck to those students who abuse us.

EB: Two or three years from now we'll come back to this school and get ourselves checked in.

HB: Come on, pal, let's get going.

(The History Book and the English Book left and did not return until one afternoon one of their pals, the Algebra Book, came after them. They were all checked in at the same time. Those students paid dearly for throwing these books away.)

That one of Coach Davis's basketball boys escorted a certain college girl home from the M. Church. Watch out, Kathryn, she'll beat your time!

Another basketball boy was seen to enter the Church with one of Coach King's girls. Of course, it was probably an accident: they must have met outside at the same time.

Miss Baucum's favorite song appears to be "The Boy I Love Has Eyes of Blue"—or something like that. It's a puzzle!

It's still a mystery to the girls basketball team why they didn't get to go to the show at Roaring Springs after Coach King told them they could if they won the game—which they certainly did!

Could it be that the substitutes for the girl's team are not as popular as the main players. Basketball fans demand the first string for wards, especially, endeavor to play the entire game.

Miss Baucum and Miss Thomas have received the name of "Cotton-Pickers". No one seems to know the origin of this but is it possible they have been seen picking cotton?

Solong, readers, but you'd better be careful, or I might catch you the next time.

 — TYPEING

It has been almost five months ago since an awkward and uncertain group of students walked shyly into the typing room where they seated themselves and started tinkering with the small machines—machines so mechanical that they are nearly human. In fact, one of the greatest difficulties that the beginner has to encounter is learning that the machine will do exactly what the fingers tell it to do.

At first, the students were very awkward and the work was done in a very laborious manner, but after weeks of unreiring effort on the part of the students and with the assistance of careful directorship these same students are able to typ with considerable ease and accuracy.

Not only have they learned to pound a typewriter but they have become familiar with all the different parts of the machine and its uses. These students have learned correct posture while at the typewriter and they have a good knowledge of business letters.

The next term of school students will try hard for a general knowledge of typing. Sixty students will be able to type with all speed and accuracy at the end of this semester.

AT THE THEATRES

QUEEN—Quitaque

A four star picture with three of America's funniest stars, the Marx Brothers in "A Night at the Opera," opens the week's bill at the Queen Thursday and Friday nights.

Hailed by movie critics the nation over as their greatest comedy hit, "A Night at the Opera" presents the three Marx Brothers in an entirely new role—as high moguls of the grand old opera.

Harpo, Chico and Groucho, the 3 surviving members of the great "4 Marx" team, are at their best in the rollicking comedy. The scene shifts from sunny Italy to the stage of the "Met" opera house in New York for the greatest performance in the history of the opera.

Allen Jones and Kitty Carlisle—in a few serious moments, bring new song hits to the screen, while Groucho and Chico go through their antics, and Harpo, the "man with the harp," pursues his silent way.

Saturday the Queen presents an old favorite, Buck Jones, in "Deadline," followed on the Monday-Tuesday ten cent spot by another comedy hit, "Red Salute" starring Bob Young and Barbara S'anywek.

Young is lured into desertion by Miss Stanwyck, lovely young "would be" communist, in a funny version of a cross country flight—but is eventually successful in restoring her patriotism as their hilarious romance draws to a close.

GEM—Turkey

A bright new musical extravaganza, "Thanks a Million," with Dick Powell, Ann Dvorack and Fred Allen in the center of a bright group of stars, opens Thursday and Friday at the Gem. Powell sprints his way through a tuneless political campaign to the office of governor, ably assisted by his campaign manager, Fred Allen, of Town Hall fame, and Ann Dvorack, his candid-date.

Saturday matinee and night, brings Noah Beery Jr, Jean Rogers and "Rex" king of wild horses, in a new romance of the old west.

Irish eyes smile again on the Sunday-Monday spot as little Jane Withers leads a great cast in "Paddy O'Day." Laughing, singing, fighting and dancing, Jane Withers shows "the Irish in her" in a touching little romance. Pinky Tomlin is also starred.

Edmund Lowe has the leading role at the new Tuesday-Wednesday dime night in "The Great Impersonation" from the exciting mystery novel by E. Phillips Oppenheim. In a story of the world's most dangerous service, espionage, Lowe has the leading role as the master spy in a brilliantly conceived screen play.

Don't Guess But Know

Whether the "Pain" Remedy You Use is SAFE?

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations

THE person to ask whether the preparation you or your family are taking for the relief of headaches is SAFE to use regularly is your family doctor. Ask him particularly about Genuine BAYER ASPIRIN.

He will tell you that before the discovery of Bayer Aspirin most "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as bad for the stomach and, often, for the heart. Which is food for thought if you seek quick, safe relief.

Scientists rate Bayer Aspirin among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and the pains of rheumatism, neuritis and neuralgia. And the experience of millions of users has proved it safe for the average person to use regularly. In your own interest remember this.

You can get Genuine Bayer Aspirin at any drug store—simply by asking for it by its full name, BAYER ASPIRIN. Make it a point to do this—and see that you get what you want.

accident. If a driver's license is cancelled, it automatically becomes illegal for him to drive a car until a new license is issued—which means for a period of not less than six months.

Persons driving an automobile should be equipped with a license at all times. The penalties provided for driving without a license are severe.

The new law, while it does not restrict the right of any person physically and mentally sound to drive an automobile, does provide means for control of traffic violations in this state. It is expected to eliminate hit-and-run driving, as well as many other serious violations of the traffic laws.

The driver's license is free upon application to all persons included in age limits, with the exception of the types mentioned above. Get your Driver's License before April

LOCAL CAGERS

forged ahead in the last half to establish a comfortable margin. Fouls were frequent, and both teams lost star players via the personal foul route—Margaret and Frances Graham, forwards, and Ethylene Bailey, guard, leaving the game for the Pantherettes.

The Panther five took an easy 38 to 8 win from the Tulia boys in the second contest. The Horne's proved easy prey after holding the Pantherettes to a one point victory in an early season game at Tulia. "Dopey" Bedwell, Ray Morrison and Ernest Kelly, forward, center and guard, respectively, were outstanding for the locals, while the entire squad played good basketball. The game was not a conference tilt.

Panthers and Pantherettes again won in two games with the Flomot Longhorns here Monday evening. In a rough and exciting opener, the Pantherettes defeated a gamely fighting Flomot sextette by a ten point margin, 35-25. The Flomot girls, trailing throughout the game, offered a constant threat, looping long shots from near center when the Pantherette defence tightened under the goal. Frances Gramam led the scoring for the locals, with "Chick" Robins a close second. Katherine Keever and Christine Chandler were out standing at guard positions.

The Panthers bowled over the Longhorn five by a top-heavy score of 48 to 10, to add another conference win to a long string of victories. Scoring goal after goal as Ray Morrison, tall center, batted the ball from the backboards into the net for counters, the Panther held a big lead, and were never in danger after the opening minutes. Excellent team work was the keynote of the Panther victory.

In two hard games at Paducah Tuesday evening, local cagers split games with the Dragons, the Panthers going down 23-14 in a big upset, while the Pantherettes playing true to form took a 32-22 win over the Paducah girls. Both local teams had previously scored victories over the Paducah cagers in games here two weeks ago. Ray Morrison, tall Panther center, was out of the line up with an injured leg—hurt in the game with Flomot here Monday evening.

The Pantherettes, according to plans, will enter the Girl's Invitation Basketball tournament at Tell Friday. Their first round opponent has not been named.

MANY THOUSANDS ASK ABOUT TEXAS

DALLAS, Jan. 28.—Thousands of requests for information and literature on the State of Texas and its state-wide Centennial year celebrations have been pouring into the state department of information here following the opening of the national Centennial advertising campaign.

Requests for information began flooding the office following publication of the first of a series of Centennial advertisements in the January 21 issue of the Saturday Evening Post. Other advertisements will be published in Time, Colliers, Fortune, and other newspapers and magazines with state and national circulation.

Prepared literature is being mailed persons who ask information about the Centennial celebrations or the state on coupons included on the advertisements.

Officials of the department pointed out that the present campaign is the most elaborate effort ever made by a state to "sell" itself to the nation.
