Looking Things Over

By "MACK"

Very personal to the County Agent—Finley, one of the progressive farmers of this community informed me this week that he would be glad to assist in sponsoring a 4-H club among the Quitaque farm boys. What do ye say—when do we start?

This week-end various contestants of the local schools will journey to Silverton to take part in the County Interscholastic League meet. Quitaque entrants are going into the contests to win—and we expect they will. BUT—someone is going to lose—and the ones that do not get first place are not quite as good as the ones that do—in the critical eyes of the judges. Competent judges, from out of the county and ones who do not give a hang who wins, will be in charge of the meet; They are the "Supreme Court" of this affair, and their word is not to be questioned. Lets take their decision like true sportsmen. Just grin and bear it—and promise yourself to do better next time. (This little reminder was written by request—its for the Pa's and Ma's as well as the younger folks.)

Plainview Boosters Here Tuesday In Dairy Show Interest

R. Q. Silverthorne, Ed Bishop, F. E. Smith, Mark Pool, Fred Hurlbut, Q. Perry and Arthur Reinken are in Quitaque Tuesday in the interest of the Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show which will be held at Plainview April 6, 7, 8, and 9. While in town the group called on local business firms encouraging attendance at the Ninth Annual Show.

This year the Dairy Show offers considerable more than usual, especially in an amusement program. On Monday and Wednesday a Western rodeo will feature the entertainment with 100 cowboys taking part. It will be followed in the evening by a cowboy dance at the Ware hotel.

Tuesday afternoon sixteen greyhound races will be held with 32 dogs entered to be followed by a Horse Show with thirty entries. In the evening will be the Easter Parade and Style Show with fifty girls entered from various towns and communities in this section. The official Queen's ball will be held in the evening at the Hilton Hotel.

Wednesday following the rodeo there will be the annual banquet of the dairy association with the official dance following at the Hilton.

Thursday afternoon the rabbit races and Horse show will be repeated.

Entries in the Dairy Show have already exceeded previous years and forty-three fine dairy cattle will be auctioned off on Thursday afternoon. A carnival will be on the grounds throughout the entire week.

H. J. Bailey will preside as election judge.

Investigations For Old Age Pensioners Started This Week

Investigators for the Texas Old Age Assistance Commission are starting work in the Plainview district this week, as the administrative set-up of the Commission is rushed to completion, dispatches from headquarters indicate.

Training Schools for the investigators were opened last week in each of the twenty districts, the course of study opening at Plainview, headquarters for this district, Monday of last week.

More than 140,000 applications have been received in the state, and approximately 300,000 additional are expected.

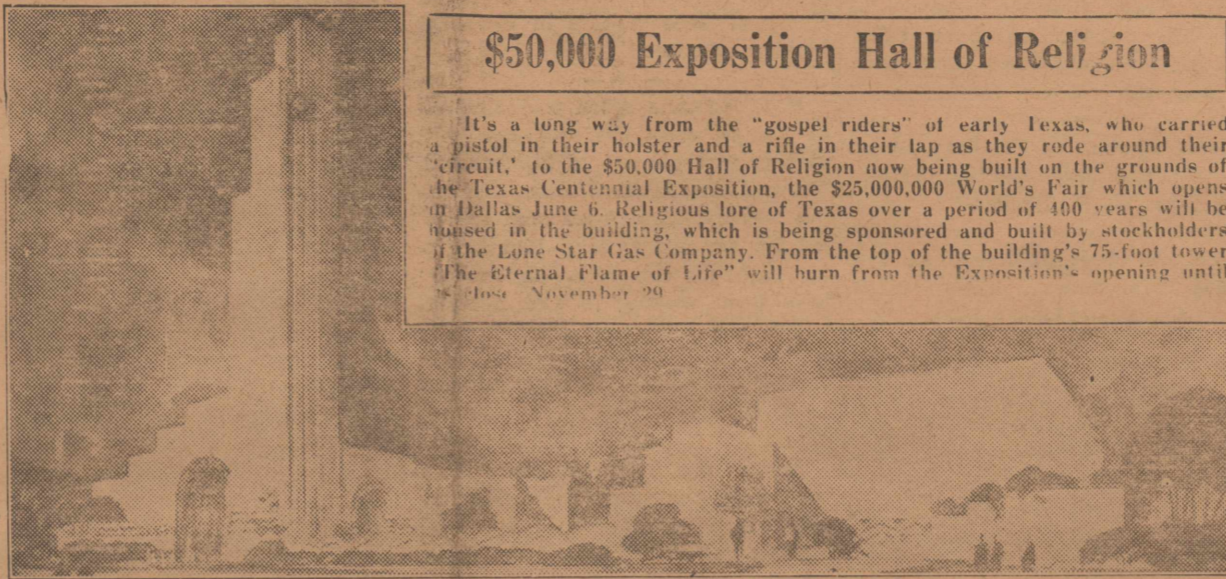

R. F. Williams, investigator for the Commission in this county, started work here Monday, and will visit all applicants in this section in the near future.

"Records of birthdates, property owned, cash in the bank, residence, and citizenship should be ready to show the investigator during the next few weeks," Williams advised.

Payments will start as soon as investigators complete their work as required by law, according to Orville S. Carpenter, Director of the State administration. The Director announces that he expects to have all applications approved and payments started by July 1.

$50,000 Exposition Hall of Religion

It's a long way from the "gospel riders" of early Texas, who carried a pistol in their holster and a rifle in their lap as they rode around their "circuit," to the $50,000 Hall of Religion now being built on the grounds of the Texas Centennial Exposition, the $25,000,000 World's Fair which opens in Dallas June 6. Religious lore of Texas over a period of 100 years will be housed in the building, which is being sponsored and built by stockholders of the Lone Star Gas Company. From the top of the building's 75-foot tower "The Eternal Flame of Life" will burn from the Exposition's opening until it closes November 29.

Successful Revival At Baptist Church Closed Sunday

Revival services at the Quitaque Baptist Church were closed Sunday evening, Rev. Frank A. Tippen, Whitesboro pastor, closing the two-weeks revival meeting with an inspiring sermon on "The Last Call."

Rev. R. Neal Greer, local pastor, announced twelve additions to the church by letter and baptism during the meeting. Baptismal services were conducted Sunday afternoon at First Baptist Church at Lockney.

Rev. Tippen left Sunday evening following the closing services for Whitesboro, where he is pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Before retiring from the pulpit Sunday evening, Rev. Tippen expressed his appreciation and gratitude to the people of Quitaque, and to the pastors of both the Methodist and Baptist Churches for their co-operation and encouragement throughout the revival.

She will be accompanied by a group of Ha'e County Club members who will assist in the program.

Mrs. J. F. Jago, president of the Quitaque Home Demonstration Club, is expected to head a delegation from this city attending the meeting at Silverton Friday afternoon.

Foreman On City WPA Job Resigned Monday Morning

Carter Boggs, foreman on the $20,000 WPA City Paving Project since January 1, has resigned to accept a position with the Austin Bridge Company, Mayor J. W. Ewing announced Tuesday. The resignation was effective Monday.

No foreman has been definitely selected for the place, Mayor Ewing stated, but negotiations are now in progress.

W. A. Moore, engineer in charge of the hardsurfacing project on the Quitaque-Flomot highway, took charge of the city work here Monday until final arrangements can be made.

Work on the project here is going forward rapidly. Concrete curbing and calche base has been virtually completed on two blocks through the business section on Main Street in preparation for hardsurfacing. Work on two blocks on First Street, north and south of Main, was started last week-end, with one block near completion at this time.

Hardsurfacing is not expected to start until the entire stretch of seven blocks blocks is prepared.

Hardsurfacing operations on the Quitaque-Flomot road, under Moore's direct on, is more than two-thirds complete, according to statements by the foreman and Commissioner L. E. Graham.

AGRICULTURAL BRIEFS

BY THE BRISCOE COUNTY AGENT

Briscoe County's Emergency Wind Erosion Program is getting well under way. During the past week many acres of blowing dirt were turned over, either by listing or chiseling.

The Government's grant of 20c per acre to pay for this job has enabled many farmers to buy fuel and feed to use in plowing. It is hoped that before April 5th arrives all the blowing fields of this county will be plowed.

There seems to be some misunderstanding among farmers about the prescribed method of treating wind damaged lands under this Emergency program. Some of the farmers are using a oneway on the land while others are using a braking plow. You are reminded that your committee is authorized to certify only where the land has been listed or chisled. The listing and chiseling is to be done on the contour where ever practical. If you haven't done the work according to the regulations don't fall out with your committee when he refuses to certify you for payment—just give your self a boot in the pants.

We have not yet received the funds for distribution on the Erosion set-up, but we expect to have the do some sometime this week. It won't be necessary for you to come in to see about the money—we'll notify you when it arrives.

New Program News

We are today in receipt of a "skeleton" set-up of the new farm program. When I say "skeleton" I mean just that. There will be a meeting of the agents in District 2 soon to get something to put on the skeleton. As soon as we get the low down from our "higher-ups" we'll call community meetings all over the county to pass the information on to the farmers.

Milestones of American Genius

Marking the grave of a great American President, at Oyster Bay, Long Island

THEODORE ROOSEVELT
BORN with physical handicaps that might have made an ordinary man a ne'er-do-well and weakling, Theodore Roosevelt became for his countrymen the very symbol of the "strenuous life." With physical vigor he combined mental leadership and a vibrant patriotism.
At his birth in New York City, on October 27, 1858, Roosevelt was a delicate, near-sighted babe who all through his boyhood seemed destined to a life of inactivity. Fortunately his family was able to give him the best of care and his was a character that refused to be hampered by obstacles. He trained in gymnastics, horsemanship and managed to build himself into the Rough Rider who was to thrill the country with his exploits.
His devotion to nature study persisted throughout his life. It is this side of his many-faceted career that was particularly me-morialized in the impressive New York State Memorial Building and monument which were formally dedicated to him on the grounds of the American Museum of Natural History in January, 1936. The monument is the work of James E. Fraser, a sculptor who has done much to make the features and character of Roosevelt familiar to a new generation.
Roosevelt began his political career at the age of twenty-three, as State Assemblyman. From that time forward he was a potent factor in the political life of his State, serving it in many capacities, including that of Governor, both before and after the Spanish-American War. In that conflict he won additional glory as Colonel of the Rough Riders who made the dramatic charge up San Juan Hill.
The assassination of President McKinley in 1901 made Roosevelt, then Vice-President, our Chief Executive at forty-two—the youngest man ever to hold that exalted office. He filled the post with characteristic vigor until 1909, distinguishing himself especially for his defense of the common people against the large trusts. His courage won the admiration of friends and enemies alike. In 1912 he ran again for the Presidency on a third-party ticket, but was defeated.
To the day of his death, January 6, 1919, President Roosevelt was active in the affairs of the country. At the same time he undertook important explorations and wrote many significant books. He was buried in the cemetery near his home, at Oyster Bay, Long Island, and his gravestone is by the stone shown in the sketch. It is the scene of annual pilgrimages by thousands of admirers.

OUR FIRST YEAR IN HIGH SCHOOL

Last September the freshmen assembled for their first day in high school. The seventh grade of the preceding year was then ready to start another climb—a climb which would last four years. Many new students joined us on that day, for several transferred students were classified as freshmen. There were thirty six enrolled.

The roll call was as follows: Ruby Jewel Boyles, Alene Broxson, Bernice Bumgarner, Clara Belle Cupell, Pauline Curtis, Florence Duvonant, Lorene Hahn, Clara Mae Hale, Beatrice Henderson, Lela Lee, Juanita Mayhall, Lola Jane Merrell, La Verne Mixon, Ora Faye Mosley, La Rue Patrick, Dorothy Payne, Lela Mae Persons, Shirley Jo Powell, Marie Riley, Doreen Shelton, Ettie Turner, Annie Merrell, Juanita Case, Margaret Clay, Gwendolyn Nall, Weldon Starkey, J. C. Rhoderick, Richard Tibbetts, McDonald Turner, Lewis Wakefield, Bill Bradley, Johnnie Gowin, Sterling Herrington, Bob Grundy, Jack Powell and Neal Thompson.

The new class that enrolled was so large that two home rooms had to be provided. The two sponsors were Miss Baucum and Mrs. Scheid. Pupils who have entered since September are John and Jack Kenion, L. B. Loudermilk, Harold Jacks and Lavinia Oglesby.

We still have the largest class in spite of withdrawals, two of which were caused by matrimony, and even though spring is in the air we hope we can stay together for the remainder of the school year; for never again (we hope) will we be freshmen in high school. We have decided now that we are almost prepared to assume that sophomore dignity that is given to the freshmen at the end of a successful first year in high school.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS IN 1946

I was talking to Mrs. Smith and asked about our Freshmen class when I was in High School. I was glad to tell her about them so I will tell you.

Allene Broxson is married and keeping the study hall in Mr. Patterson's place to make a living for her husband and five children.

I am glad to say that Bernice Bumgarner is one of the best speakers. She lives in Chicago.

You would be surprised when you see Clara Belle Cupell. She is one of the best swimmers and divers in the world.

Juanita Case is a stenographer in large corporation and is engaged to her boss.

Margaret Clay has already had two divorces and I think she is trying to get another one.

Gwendolyn Nall is a cute little telephone operator. I can just hear her say, "Nimbar Pleze."

Bob Grundy has lost that foolishness, and is now a sour faced boss. He rides around in a big car.

OUR FUTURE SCHOOL (WE HOPE)

What Our School Will Look Like Ten Years from Now

Our school becomes more attractive every year. In ten years (from now you will hardly be able to recognize it. Instead of the bare-brown yard we now see it will be covered in beautiful grass. The trees we have set out will be very tall and beautiful. The level ground will be excellent to play on.

Instead of the old grammar school building we now see there will be a very expensive brick building. There will be new curved desks, new libraries, and an auditorium and gymnasium.

In here, the library, there will be all books necessary and intended to read. There will be one teacher to keep the library first and second grades with many little red chairs at their feet. They will have all kinds that are educational to read.

When you drive by the School building you will see and gaze at the beautiful bulwork and building, the present high school, a new gymnasium with supplies necessary. They will have bottom seats and you at ease when you go there for entertainment.

Now boys and girls, instead of your old torn up lockers, there will be fine new steel lockers. Each student will have a locker of his own. There will be one hundred new typewriter writers for the typing class.

There will be several baseball and tennis courts. And we will have twenty five teachers and several men to take care of the buildings and yards. They will have six new buses and two almost new ones. In place of the wooden garage, there will be a new brick one with places for eight buses.

There will be a restaurant for the children to get their lunches so they will not have to walk all the way to town.

This is a freshman's dream.

Texas Beauty Presents "Blue Bonnet Blue"

A new high note in fashions was struck last week when the Texas Centennial Celebrations presented beautiful "Blue Bonnet Blue" to the fashion world in a style show at the Waldorf Astoria hotel in New York City. Scores of leading stylists, designers, and fashion editors applauded when lovely Janice Jarratt, San Antonio girl known to the nation as America's most photographed girl, appeared in this striking Blue Bonnet gown designed especially for the occasion by Vogue. Decorating the luxurious lounge were 250 flowering Blue Bonnet plants gathered near San Antonio and Corpus Christi and air-expressed to New York.

Official adoption of "Blue Bonnet Blue" by fashion authorities has caused the lustrous State flower of Texas to be introduced into spring and summer fashions throughout the nation. Thus enthusiasm for the Texas Centennial Celebrations, already evident in many fields, motivates progress in the fashion world.

Billy Rose To Stage Show At Frontier Event

Special to the Post

FORT WORTH, March 31.—With Billy Rose, creator of "Jumbo" New York Hippodrome show world sensation, as director general, this city, "where the West begins," will spend about $5,000,000.00 for the entertainment of Centennial visitors to Texas.

The "Fort Worth Frontier Centennial" will be the name of the amusement attraction which Rose is creating for Fort Worth's part in the State-wide observance of Texas' One Hundredth Anniversary. It will open July 1.

"Not a pale carbon copy of the Chicago World's Fair, but a living, breathing, highly exciting version of the last Frontier," is the way Rose describes the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial.

"Stars of the stage, screen and radio, with hundreds of beautiful girls gathered from over the state and Nat'on will mingle with big name orchestras and with the outstanding rodeo and circus performers of the world in this original amusement attraction that utilizes the Frontier theme in what is now being described by the critics as the show of tomorrow," Rose said.

More than $2,000,000 will be spent on sites and permanent structures and at least $500,000 more on semi permanent buildings including a Frontier City of the days of '49. Construction is already under way.

Texas Exposition 150 Per Cent Over Original Size Plan

Chrysler Contract Puts Dallas World's Fair on Top in Motor Exhibits

DALLAS, Texas.—The Texas Centennial Exposition today turned the home stretch toward its June 6 opening, two and one-half times larger than its sponsors originally anticipated.

From $10,000,000 value, estimated when the project was begun, the first World's Fair of the Southwest, has grown into a $25,000,000 affair, the steel framework of its construction jobs stretching down mile after mile of parallel courses.

New Building Ordered

With the signing of the Chrysler Motor Corporation for a huge display space the Exposition boasts the largest motor exhibit ever shown at a World's Fair.

Originally the $400,000 Hall of Transportation was intended to house exhibits of both transportation and petroleum industries.

So large was the space taken by Chrysler, however, that Exposition officials were forced to hurriedly realign their plans and build a separate Hall of Petroleum.

Ford with its own building, General Motors, with a huge, air-conditioned auditorium where changing shows of radio and stage stars will be presented in one-week engagements throughout the June 6-Nov. 29 Exposition period, and Chrysler with an elaborate participation in the making, will give Dallas a record-breaking representation of the motor industry.

Livestock Also Featured

Further, the big fair will boast the largest livestock show ever assembled.

Other exhibits keep the pace, with the daily display space at a premium and officials assured of an exhibit "sell-out" long before the opening day.

City of Dallas, the State of Texas and the Federal government are keeping step with their important Exposition building programs.

W. A. Webb, general manager of the Exposition who holds an international reputation for his railroad construction work, has announced every building will be completed by the June 6 opening date.

The spirit of the Old West will be recreated at every turn.

In a city as metropolitan as any in the nation, the frontier days will live again.

Ten-Gallon Hats Epidemic

Ten-gallon hats are blooming on every corner. Service stations are garbing their attendants in the cowpuncher's regalia. Department stores are clothing their elevator girls in cowgirl uniforms similar to those of Exposition Rangelasses. Other stores are donating the big hats to their employes with instructions to wear them on all occasions.

Even the Exposition police will be in full Old West attire.

The Texas Rangers will have a camp on the Exposition Race Track, with a replica of an old Ranger bunkhouse as their headquarters.

Not a single detail has been overlooked by the Exposition chiefs in their efforts to make the Southwest's World's Fair the most colorful in history.
