Quitaque Wins In Folk Festival Twenty-Two Seniors To Graduate Local Players Plan Trip to National Meet in June

Looking Things Over

By "MACK"

And the Post joins with the whole town, the whole county, the entire district—and the world in general in congratulating Mrs. Price, Mrs. Graham and the cast of "An After Supper Scene at the Old F Ranch" for their winning the Upper Red River Valley Regional Folk Festival. Now all we want them to do is to win the National Festival in Dallas next month. Plenty more about this thing next week.

And while we are in the congratulating mood, the Post extends sincere congratulations to the Members of the Centennial Year Graduating Class. We wish each one a long, successful and happy life.

According to Mrs. J. F. Jago, who got her information from Ben Jago, Charles Goodnight named the town of Quitaque. A. R. Jago constructed the first building here and the postoffice was located in that building. Walter Dyer was official postmaster, coming in from the F Ranch to make out the postal reports. The mail was hauled from Clarendon. Other interesting bits of early history of Quitaque will be greatly appreciated.

The Comanche Chief credits the following story to an Oklahoma editor (and we got it out of the Clarendon News):

An old Indian came to his office to subscribe for a paper. The editor took the money, but the Indian wanted a receipt. The editor tried to talk him out of it, but the Indian insisted on getting a receipt. After making out the receipt the editor wanted to know why the Indian was so persistent about wanting such recognition. The Indian said: "Me die some day. Go to big gate. St. Peter ask if I had been good Indian. I say yes. He say, 'Did you pay editor for paper?' I say yes. He say, 'Where is receipt?' I no have it. I have to run all over other place to find you and get receipt."

Rev. E. L. Yeats, Chas. W. Dean, Are Speakers

Twenty-two Seniors will receive diplomas from Quitaque High School Monday evening at the School Auditorium as Commencement Exercises mark the close of the 1935-36 term of school.

Superintendent E. W. Scheid will present the certificates to twenty-two graduates of the Centennial year Class, among the largest ever to graduate from the local school.

Baccalaureate Services will be conducted at the Auditorium Sunday morning, beginning at eleven o'clock, with Rev. E. L. Yeats of Spur in charge. Charles W. Dean, Plainview, will deliver the Commencement address Monday evening, exercises beginning at eight-thirty.

Henry Gardiner, Jr., was named Tuesday as Valedictorian of the Class of '36, completing four years in the local High School with an average grade of 98, the highest ever recorded here. He has served as President of his graduating class this year, and has made a notable record in extra-curricular activities.

Jack Hall was named Salutatorian, with a four year average of 83.

Evelyn Moore, who entered Quitaque High School this year from Gasoline, will be Honor Girl, winning the place with an average of 95 for the Senior year. Ernest Kelly, a transfer from Edgin Schools, was selected as Honor Boy, making an average grade of 86 during the year.

Programs for Commencement and Baccalaureate Services have been completed, and will present two outstanding speakers in the two principal addresses.

Rev. E. L. Yeats, who will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday morning is pastor of the First Methodist Church of Spur, and was formerly pastor of the local church. He is well-known here as a fine and sincere speaker.

Charles W. Dean, District Attorney of the 64th Judicial District, Plainview, selected to deliver the Commencement address Monday evening, has established a wide reputation as a competent and inspirational speaker.

Henry Gardiner and Jack Hall will deliver the Valedictory and Salutatory addresses, respectively, during the Commencement program Monday evening.

Presentation of the diplomas Monday evening by Superintendent Scheid will climax Senior Week activities, and mark the end of the High School careers of twenty two graduates.

The Class of '36 has been entertained during the past week at banquets, parties, and picnics given in their honor by schoolmate and civic organizations of the city. Members of the Class returned Sunday from a three day trip to Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Brother-Sister Act

A Brother-Sister Act holds the spotlight at the Quitaque Public School this week. Henry G. Gardiner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gardiner, was named Valedictorian of the Senior Class with the highest four year average ever made by a local student. Emily Margaret Gardiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gardiner, was named Valedictorian of the Grammar School, with a very high average.

Incidentally, Henry Jr. was valedictorian of the Grammar School four years ago, and local citizens are looking forward four years when they expect Emily Margaret to lead the High School.

Only Light Rains Fall In Quitaque During the Week

Light showers Sunday afternoon and early Tuesday morning brought more than half an inch of rainfall to this immediate territory, the rain Tuesday extending south and east to Flomot and Turkey, with heavier showers in that area.

Little rain was received on the west, but good showers have been reported north of town, and a heavy rain was reported Tuesday between Plainview and Silverton.

Rainfall here this week brought the May total to slightly more than three-quarters of an inch. Sunday's shower measured .15 inches, while the rain Tuesday was .37 of an inch.

SCHOOL APPROPRIATION IS RAISED ONE DOLLAR

A raise of one dollar per capita in the State school appropriation for the current year was announced last week by the State Superintendent of Education. The additional appropriation was made from a million dollar surplus in the state school fund.

The per capita appropriation has been raised from $17.50 to $18.50, representing an increase in the amount received from the State by Quitaque schools of approximately $400, according to Supt. E. W. Scheid.

The raise was effective for the 1935-36 term of school, and brings the total amount received by local schools from the State fund to slightly less than $7,500.

Ruby Dell Case Buried at Turkey Friday Afternoon

Last rites for Ruby Dell Case, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Case of Gasoline, were spoken Friday afternoon at the First Christian Church in Turkey. Rev. Alvie Johnson, pastor of the Turkey church, conducted the services.

Friends and relatives of the deceased from over this entire section packed the church auditorium as funeral rites were completed.

Gov. Allred to Attend Pioneer Round-Up at Plainview Saturday

PLAINVIEW, May 19.—Plainview's Ninth Annual Round-Up on Saturday, May 23rd, is expected to be the largest gathering of pioneers and plains citizens in its history.

This year the celebration will be three fold: The celebration of the Texas Centennial, a celebration of the golden anniversary of Plainview, and the annual gathering of Hale County and Plains pioneers.

The Round-Up program will open at 1 o'clock P. M. on Saturday with a Pioneers Reception which will last until four o'clock.

A parade will move at six o'clock, consisting of floats depicting early history, chuck wagons, prairie schooners, cowboys, side saddles, top buggies, and two wheel carts, beside many other features.

A chuck wagon supper will be served inside the City Auditorium, with cowboys and cow-girls dishing up the "chuck."

Governor James V. Allred will deliver the Centennial address. A pageant depicting colorful bits of history including the Six Flags will be given.

Following the program, an old-time square dance will take place on the stage at the City Auditorium, in which all who are familiar with the old-fashioned dance may participate, and a round dance elsewhere to accommodate the modern dancers.

State Inspector Recommends Four New School Credits

Affiliation in five commercial courses added to the curriculum this year was virtually assured for Quitaque High School last week, according to Supt. E. W. Scheid.

J. D. Wilson, State Inspector for the Department of Education, was in Quitaque Friday, and filed his recommendation for affiliation in the five courses after a tour of inspection in the local school's. The inspector's recommendation is generally considered indicative of acceptance by the State Department.

Application for affiliation was made in Bookkeeping, Junior Business Training, Typing, Commercial Law, and Commercial Arithmetic. The five commercial courses were added at the opening of the current school year.

Granting of affiliation in the five courses will give the local high school four additional units of affiliation, bringing the total now offered high school students to 24 fully accredited units, according to Scheid.

Bookkeeping, Junior Business Training and Typing all carry fully credits, while the two commercial subjects, which are half-year courses, offer one-half credit each.

The new courses were added at the beginning of the school year as a part of a large program of modernization and improvement inaugurated by Superintendent Scheid. Ten new standard machines were purchased at that time for use in the typing classes.

Additional courses and improvements are being considered in planning the curriculum for the coming year.

Characters and scenes from the romantic history of the Old F Ranch will live again on the Texas Centennial stage as Quitaque's outstanding contribution to the One Hundredth Birthday Celebration.

"An After Supper Scene at the Old F Ranch"—written by Mrs. Lucille Ross Graham, and directed by E. C. Price—Quitaque's entry in the Red River Valley Folk Festival at Memphis Tuesday evening, carried honors and won the right, with Crowell and Childress to represent this region in the National Folk Festival Texas Centennial in Dallas next month.

The thirty-minute sketch depicting the old days on the famous "F" ranch was selected by judges from the National Folk Festival Commission as one of the finest and most representative of the section. Judges' decisions were returned early Wednesday morning, and C. B. McDonald, local sponsor, was notified immediately by Supt. W. C. Davis, Regional Chairman, of Memphis.

Entries from Childress and Crowell were selected by the judges with the Quitaque entry to represent the region. No ratings were given.

The play will be presented in National competition as a part of the National Folk Festival in Dallas June 14-21.

Presented Tuesday night at the Memphis High School Auditorium for the first time after only four days rehearsal, the play received a great ovation. In competition with entries from Matador, Crowell, Clarendon, and Childress, the Quitaque entry was awarded first place with Childress and Crowell.

In the face of many difficulties, the winning play was written, arranged, cast, and presented on the stage within a space of five days. Written on a moment's notice by Mrs. Graham, who drew on her store of knowledge of the history of the locale and period, it presented an authentic and realistic portrayal of the old ranch days at the turn of the century.

Characters impersonated in the dramatization were all real people—cowhands on the "F" ranch during that period—many of whom are still living.

Scenes and events were drawn from true tales of the old ranch days and represent an authentic portion of the wealth of historic and romantic tales still recounted by the cowboys of another day.

It was this very realism and authenticity, together with the true to life characterizations of the players, that won the title for the local play.

Buck Russell, O. W. Stroup, and J. Henry Hughes are among the familiar characters who were represented in the pioneer drama. All three are still prominent in local affairs.

Rain Halts Ball Game with Lockney Sunday Afternoon

Sunday's baseball game, the second of a series between Lockney and Quitaque clubs, was halted in the fourth inning by rain, Lockney leading by a score of 3-1.

The game was called Sunday afternoon on the local diamond at Patterson Field.

Longhorn runners scored on errors putting two runs across in the first and one in the third inning, while the locals scored in the first frame. Roberson pitched again for Lockney, Bill Walker taking the mound for the Quitaque club. Quitaque batters collected four hits off the Lockney hurler, while Walkers allowed three in four innings played.

The game was the second of the season between the two clubs, Quitaque taking a close decision at Lockney last week. They will meet again at Lockney next Sunday, playing a return game here the following week, according to Manager Pete Womack.

Lee and Hill are scheduled for the pitching assignment next week, Womack stated, while the remainder of the line-up will be the same, with Mott 1f, Bedwell 2b, Wilson ss, Reynolds 1b, Womack c, J. Bedwell rf, Medler cf, and Monk 3b. Garner may be included in the line-up.

Seniors Entertained By Baptist W. M. S. Monday Evening

Twenty-five members of the Senior Class and High School faculty, together with eleven special guests and hostesses, were delightfully entertained Monday evening at a "tacky" party given by the ladies of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society in honor of the members of the graduating class.

The party was held in the Jago building. The entire hall was gaily decorated in class colors of red and white, hung with streamers and ribbons.

Mrs. Ray Persons, president of the WMS, made the address of welcome as the party opened, and Mrs. C. E. Bedwell took charge of the entertainment, leading the gaily attired group in a number of amusing and entertaining games.

Judge awarded prizes to Miss Yvonne Thomas, Senior Class sponsor, and to Trenton Davis, selecting them as the tackiest girl and boy in the group. Miss Thomas received a set of jacks, Mr. Davis being presented with a yo-yo. C. R. Badgett, Ray Persons and Gene Bedwell were invited to judge the group and select the prize winners.

Refreshments were served in two courses. The first, carrying out the spirit of the occasion, consisted of soda biscuits and sorghum, served from heavy black pans to a number of somewhat dubious guests, who were equipped with newspapers and rags in place of napkins.

A delightful plate, with angel food cake and ice cream, made up the second course. Plate favors were dol's made from candy all-day suckers and cleverly dressed in the red and white of the Senior class.

Each guest, upon entering, signed a register which was later presented to Henry Gardiner, Jr., class president.

Mmes. C. E. Bedwell, Ray Persons, Cushenberry, Walter Merrell, A. C. Bickford, Jr., J. W. Lyon, Jr., and Roy Burgess served the refreshments and assisted in the entertainment.

Radio Studios Started at Texas Exposition

This is an architect's sketch of the Gulf Oil radio studios, being built at the Texas Centennial Exposition, the $25,000,000 World's Fair opening in Dallas June 6. Here all programs from the grounds will originate for chain and local broadcasts. Glass-front studios line the court of the U-shaped building so visitors may watch the broadcasts. The largest public address system of history also operates from 250 speaker units. Twelve radio programs and 6 grounds programs can be turned into 18 different speaker units, simultaneously, each of the 18 carrying any combination of the 250 speakers. The studios will furnish pre-opening broadcasts as well as those originating during the actual Exposition period. Radio and public address engineers from all over the country already acclaim the broadcast and speaker system as the most perfect so far devised.

SALE OF NEW CAR SHOW INCREASE OVER LAST YEAR

AUSTIN, May 19.—Sales of new passenger car registrations during April were still substantially above 1935, but declined in comparison with the preceding month, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Reports from fifteen representative counties gave a total of 6,330 new passenger car registrations, 18.1 per cent below those of March but 15 per cent above those of April last year. For the first quarter aggregate sales were up 15 per cent from the corresponding period last year.

The tendency which has been noted for many months of the greatest sales increase to occur in the higher price groups was again in evidence during April.

PALO DURO STATE PARK PREPARES FOR BIG CROWDS IN '36

With the opening of spring picnicking weather, hundreds of car loads of people are visiting the Palo Duro State Park each week. The attendance so far this spring has greatly surpassed that of last spring. 65,000 people visited the Palo Duro State Park during 1935, and it is anticipated that fully 100,000 people will visit the Park during 1936.

One CCC company is located at the Park, with work mapped out for two years in advance.

Four rock cabins are finished and fully equipped, and another double cabin is nearly completed. It is planned to construct 20 additional rock cabins in the Park.

125 picnicking units are constructed along the eight mile drive on the floor of the canyon, so that thousands of people may be accommodated at one time with the greatest of comfort. The 15,500 acre Park is rapidly assuming shape for a great gathering center for Northwest Texas.

The National Park Service calls the Palo Duro the greatest Regional Park in the Southwest, and everything constructed must be according to the high standards of this organization.

A paved highway from Canyon, and hard surfaced roads in the Park make this play ground accessible to the people of this section throughout the year. The entrance to the Park is 12 miles east of the Museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, another great attraction to the people of Northwest Texas.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

Mrs. Paul Hamilton and Miss Y. Thomas were the Sponsors who had charge of chapel this last Thursday morning. A very interesting program was presented which consisted of a play presented by the seventh grade, and the class prophecy for the Seniors.

It had been formerly announced that the Seniors would present a full program on that day, however, class problems during the first part of the week demanded too much of their time and they were unable to work up a full program.

The first number on the chapel program was given by the Seniors. The remainder of the program was given by the 7th grade reading class. The first number was a novelty song "The Wooden Soldier and the China Doll," presented by Isabell Holloman, Martin A. Holloman, Charles T. Berry, Betty Jo Bogan, Wiladeen Owens, June Edmundson, Jean Hamilton, Ray Robertson, William Rucker, Boyd Self, Evelyn Wakefield, La Ruth Walden, Marie Hall, Jessie James Hall and Ophelia Hatton.

The second number was an announcement in form of crazy comebacks by Jessie James Hall and Boyd Self. Next was a dialogue, "The Railroad Crossing," by Ray Robertson and William Rucker. Q H S SENIOR CLASS

The Senior class, which is sponsored by Miss Y. Thomas, left early Friday morning to visit the scenic wonder of the west, "Carlsbad Caverns."

Those who drove cars were: Noman Hamilton, Betty Cutbirth, Mrs. Frank Gillespie, Mr. John Taylor. Those who accompanied the Seniors besides the drivers were: Mrs. O. S. Cutbirth and Mrs. Noman Hamilton.

The party arrived at Carlsbad at five o'clock in the afternoon. Immediately after arriving, they went to the northern part of the city where they made arrangements to spend the night on the banks of the Pecos River. This is a very beautiful place. An acre or more of green grass which was surrounded by a river on one side and trees on the other. This helps to describe the beauty of the place. After arrangements had been made to spend the night, the party returned to town where they enjoyed a good show.

After spending the night at the camp the merry group had an early breakfast, and then motored to the Caverns. An hour was spent in exploring the regions immediately about the cave.

At ten thirty the whistle was blown and more than seven hundred people began their long march through the cave. Five hundred of these people were from Texas, two from California, two from Venezuela, two from Africa, and other states represented were: Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Iowa.

At twelve thirty we reached the lunch room of the cavern, where we ate our lunches. After this, we journeyed to the most interesting part of the cave, where we saw largest stalagmite in the world. Other scenes of interest were: Ro. Ages, Bottomless Pit, Totem Pole, and the fact that we were in the largest underground room in the world.

Returning to the lunch room those who desired to return to the elevators were permitted to do so. The others took a short rest.

Form here, the tired group returned to Carlsbad where they ate dinner. After a brief intermission, homeward trip was begun.

The weary group of explorers arrived at Quitaque Sunday morning, at eight thirty, and even though it was early in the morning, they were all looking for a bed.

Q H S JUNIOR NEWS

The Junior class, under the sponsorship of Miss W. King, journeyed last Saturday to visit the scenic wonders of Palo Duro Canyon.

Those who were present, and took cars on the trip were: Jack Bradley, Roy Gregg, and Charles Walden. Johnny Womack drove Mr. Womack's car and Miss King drove Mr. Scheid's car.

The party left Quitaque at 7:00 and arrived at the canyon about 10:30. They explored the canyon, and spread their lunches under the trees where fresh water could be found close by.

They stayed in the canyon until 2:30, and then journeyed to Amarillo where they all attended a picture show. Then they returned home, arriving in Quitaque at about 9:00 Saturday night after a big day of fun and frolic.

Concerning the beauties of Palo Duro canyon, several of the Juniors said, as do most other of the Quitaque citizens say who travel that far to see the canyon, "The surrounding views of Quitaque are just as rugged and beautiful as those to be found in that State park." Such a remark does not in any way slander the beauty of the park, but rather, it is proof that Quitaque is just as eligible, so far as natural beauty is concerned to have a beautiful park as is Canyon.

Q H S SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomore class, which is sponsored by Coach Davis, had a party at the Los Lingos Hotel last Saturday night. The students began to play games 8:00, fun and frolic lasted for about two hours, after which refreshments were served and the gay party broke up.

Weather Control Man Predicts Big Flood For Briscoe Sinners

P. O. Woods, Quitaque's No. One Weather Control Man, is predicting a downpour for this territory that will rise to near-flood proportions. Since he has been in charge of the weather in this country, P. O. has been a bit chary with the heavenly moisture—some of his more ardent supporters even claim that he's down right stingy—and the very radical have gone so far as to circulate dark rumors that he's going to bring on a drought.

P. O. has been doing a great deal of studying over the matter—burning the midnight oil, so to speak—and has at last discovered the flaw in his technique.

"I've been directing the weather along the lines prescribed in the Bible," P. O. explains, quoting the Biblical passage, "and the shall fall alike on the Just and Unjust."

"Trying to treat everybody alike hasn't got the job done," mourns the WCM. "While I've been trying to direct that rain to fall on the Just, the whole county has been rising up in arms and proclaiming a drought."

In desperation, P. O. turned again to the Bible, with remarkable results and now has so much faith in his idea that he's considering building a boat before putting the plan in operation.

P. O., who has been in absolute control of the Weather in Briscoe County for the past five years, has taken a lesson from Noah—He's going to have the rain fall only on the Unjust, and is confidently predicting a FLOOD.

Frigidaire Unharmed After Plunge from Blimp into Bay

Look out there! It's a flying Frigidaire falling from a Goodyear dirigible into salty Biscayne bay at Miami, Fla. Subjected to one of the most severe tests ever given an electric refrigerator, this stock model unit built by Frigidaire Division of General Motors was dropped 100 feet from a blimp into Florida waters. Towed around by a speedboat to guarantee complete submersion, it was hauled out, found sealed as tightly as when it left the factory and was put into immediate operation freezing ice-cubes. Aeronauts who witnessed the spectacular test were amazed that the refrigerator survived the terrific impact of the drop and came out without a single leak in its permanently sealed mechanism or a break in its cabinet, because, after all, they reasoned; household refrigerators are not supposed to be manhandled that way.

The Spirit of Jefferson

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

"Since the days when Jefferson expounded his code of political philosophy, the whole world has become his pupil."

Many Americans undoubtedly recalled that tribute during the celebration of the centennial of our independence.

How well our world's children of today remember the teachings of the Sage of Monticello? How faithfully do they live by his principles? Let's recall—for them and for ourselves—some of the precepts that Thomas Jefferson left us as a guide. Here, in his own words, is a record of his answers to many of the problems which confront us today—

Our Constitution
"I do, with sincere zeal, wish an inviolable preservation of our present Federal Constitution according to the true sense in which it was adopted by the states."
"No Constitution was ever before so well calculated as ours for extensive empire and self-government."

Public Debt
"Taxation follows public debt, and in its train wretchedness and oppression."
Economy in Government
"I am for a government rigorous, frugal and simple."
"We must make our election betwixt economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude."
Centralization of Power
"It is not by the consolidation or centralization of powers, but by their distribution that good government is effected."
"Were we directed from Wash'gton when to sow and when to reap should soon want bread."
Personal Liberty
"A wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring another, which shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government."
Freedom of the Press
"Our liberty cannot be guarded but by the freedom of the press, nor that be limited without danger of losing it."
The People
"If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them, they must remain happy."
So long as our public men—and we, ourselves—remember those teachings, the spirit of Jefferson lives. When we forget them, that spirit dies—and with it the true spirit of America.

est is trying to shift the burden to the other. Truly, it must be admitted that there will never be enacted a tax measure that will be suitable, in all respects, to every element alike.

"It is a simple task to enact a measure increasing taxes, but the passage of a measure lowering the levy must be admitted by all to be well nigh impossible. The conditions of the day demand first, that before an increase in taxation is had, every means possible, yet consistent with good government, should be used and exhausted toward substantially reducing our expenditures. Economy must be the watch-word—every citizen must become tax-conscious. So, therefore, let's first take up the slack and effect a substantial reduction, and, when this is done, should the savings fail to produce the revenue needed, let us then proceed in an orderly and systematic course toward the readjustment and equalization of the burden to the end that all be accorded the same measure of justice, fairness and equality.

I am opposed to any character of new taxation unless the ad valorem, to the extent of our homes and the necessities of life, at least, be totally abolished. The ad valorem tax on real estate beyond the homestead should be abolished, or else decreased, to the extent where ownership of real estate will be an asset rather than a liability. I will oppose any further taxation that may have as its subject those articles which are basically and necessarily fundamental to our very existence.

"The natural gas reserve in the Panhandle of Texas is the largest natural gas reservoir in all the world. This gas belongs to the people of Texas as a whole—it is a product of nature that can never be replaced when gone. It is an indispensable natural reserve. It is a fuel that every housewife should be privileged to use and a comfort that should be enjoyed in every home. Shall we extend to a few, at the expense of many, the right to enrich themselves by exhausting this vast natural resource?"

"I am for the unqualified, positive and absolute conservation of this great natural resource. Four years have passed since our first conservation law was enacted, yet, since that time, the amount of gas wasted represents enough to supply all of the domestic consumers of Texas for a period of fifty years.

"It is high time that the public, and not the conflicting interests be represented in this matter.

"The progress and enlightenment of the day demands the inauguration of a pension system for old age assistance. The principle is good, and no one should question the high-minded purpose of those who wish to care for the aged.

"Whatever be the defects of our present law, time will give us the opportunity to observe and make such corrections as are necessary. In any event, though, immediate provision should be made to pay the pension now provided for by law; the delay on this matter is unexcusable. The law came as the result of a direct mandate from the people. The Legislature of Texas had two full sessions in which to make proper provision for payment, yet it is doubtful today whether any revenue of an appreciable amount is now, or will be, available to pay this bill. The pension should be paid immediately so that those who are to share the benefits thereunder will not be held in further doubt.

"If I am elected, I shall strive honestly to interpret the will of the great rank and file of our citizenship. No special interest or faction will dictate the course of my policies. My sole purpose will be to carry forth a program that will be for the common good of all."

ARE YOU GAMBLING EVERY DAY?

It is not necessary for you to shoot craps to gamble, neither is it necessary to bet on horse races. There are folks who go on day after day suffering with indigestion, heartburn, stomach ulcers, acid dyspepsia, gassiness, sour or upset stomach, bloating, constipation, bad breath, sleeplessness, headaches, tired feeling, despondency, due to excess acid.

And in this way are gambling with your most valued possession, which is your good health. Why not give Gas-Ton (the scientific tablets) an opportunity. They may give you the relief you yourself expect; if not, your money refunded. You take no gamble here. Gas-Tons are sold in Quitaque by Burgess Pharmacy. Trial size bottle (25 tablets) $1.00; 100 tablets $3.00. adv.
