Looking Things Over "MACK"

During this extreme hot weather a fellow will do just what he has to do and nothing more. Therefore, true to nature (because the hot weather makes us lazy) we refuse to write a thing for this column, we refuse to copy a thing for this column and we refuse to put anything in this column, thereby giving our readers a break by having nothing here so they will not be burdened (and perhaps suffer a heat attack) with reading anything that might be found here.

Bones of Prehistoric Horse are Found in S. Briscoe County

CLARENDON, AUGUST 6—Mrs. C. S. Johnston, woman paleontologist in charge of the Donley County fossil project, made a rare discovery on Rock Creek early this week when the expedition uncovered a prehistoric horse, believed to have lived more than a quarter of a million years ago.

The fossil bed where the discovery was made is at the head of Tule Canyon about twelve miles southwest of Silverton in Briscoe County. The expedition is in search of fossils remains for the Plains Historical Society. Mrs. Johnston is said to be the only woman paleontologist in charge of a fossil expedition in America.

The fossil specimen uncovered is remarkably complete and is believed certain to create a widespread interest. Only a single limb bone is missing and fossil hunters are working overtime to recover the lost fragment. The site of the discovery is in the rich Pleistocene locality situated on the Cross McDaniel ranch already famous for numerous expeditions led into that region by such notable paleontologists as Drs. Gidley, Andrews, Frick Chase, Sturton, Wood and A. L. Johnson of Gobi Desert fame.

Extra interest is added to the find to learn that Mrs. Johnston's discovery was taken from an old fossil pit opened by Dr. Richard Lull of Yale University in 1913; the same pit from which the Yale professor took his famous ancestral horse, Equus Scotti, 23 years ago, which at the time of discovery offered the only example of a practically perfect fossil skeleton discovered in situ (as it died) in America.

The specimen will be mounted and placed on exhibit at the Plains Historical Museum in Canyon.

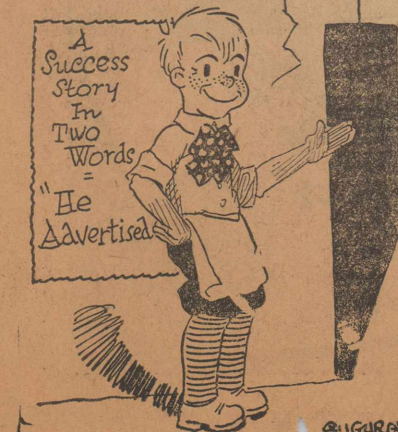

It is estimated that the little horse which Mrs. Johnson discovered became extinct 2,500 centuries ago.

QUITAQUE TEAM WINS BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

Floydada Takes Second Place In Close Games

Undefeated throughout four days of tournament play, the Quitaque Baseball nine came through Sunday afternoon to defeat Floydada decisively in a double-header and capture top honors in the First Annual Quitaque Invitational Baseball tournament.

Fifty dollars in cash prizes were awarded; the winning team receiving a thirty dollar purse while Floydada, in second place, was in the money for twenty dollars.

Six teams were entered in the tournament, which opened Wednesday, August 5, continuing through Sunday. Floydada, Parnell, Edgin, Flomot, Gasoline, and Quitaque were entered in the competition.

Play was conducted in two-game elimination style. All games were played on Patterson Field.

The locals captured five games, winning over Flomot, Parnell, and Floydada, without a defeat, to clinch the victory.

Taking an easy 17-8 win in the opening game with Flomot Wednesday afternoon, the Quitaque nine dropped the highly touted Parnell team, one of the tournament favorites, 5-2, after a hard game Thursday afternoon. Clyde Morrison, pitching air-tight ball for Quitaque and backed by excellent team-play, allowed only five hits; while the local batters touched the Parnell hurler, Spradlin, for eleven hits and forced a relief pitcher, Cope, in the ninth.

Returning to the field Friday afternoon, the locals defeated Floydada by a narrow margin, 3-2, in one of the most thrilling games of the tournament. Manager Pete Womack scored the winning run in the seventh, after Virgil Gregg, hard-hitting pitcher and outfielder, came through in the fourth to score after hitting a long double, one of the few safe hits of the game. Joe Bedwell pitched for Quitaque, with Duncan on the mound for the visitors.

Floydada eliminated Parnell with a 10-9 win in the featured game Saturday afternoon, winning the right to meet Quitaque again in the finals Sunday.

Virgil Gregg pitched the locals to a 6-1 victory in the tournament final Sunday afternoon, Callihan hurler.

Eight teams, representing nearly every town in the Panhandle and South Plains where polo is played, have entered and the winner of the three day tournament will be awarded a trophy and the title of champions of this section. Plans are being made to hold the tournament each year and the team that wins it three years consecutively will be given permanent possession of the trophy.

Texline Pampa, the Lamesa Oranges, the Lamesa Whites, Runningwater, ElRojo of Plainview and the Plainview Polo Club, sponsor of the tournament, have entered.

Three games are to be played Friday, two Saturday, with finals in the consolation and championship groups Sunday morning and afternoon.

Arrangements are being made to take care of more than 60 head of ponies at the Panhandle Plains Dairy Show barns. All games will be played on the new turf field west of Wayland College.

County Judge and Agent Attend Drought Meeting

Judge W. W. Martin and County Agent Finley White attended a meeting of County Judges and Agents representing the entire Texas Panhandle at Amarillo Tuesday, to discuss the drought situation and make plans for including the Panhandle in the Federal Drought Relief Area, which is soon to be extended.

Officials from all Panhandle Counties were present, and were entertained at a banquet at the Capital Hotel.

A round-table discussion of the drought situation was held, and every county representative asked to outline briefly the outlook in his own area, Judge Martin stated. The meeting was called Tuesday to organize county officials in the Panhandle in an effort to include the area in a Drought District under supervision of the Federal Government. A Special Commission from the national capital at Washington is scheduled to be in Amarillo August 18 to review the situation and report to Federal authorities.

AGRICULTURAL BRIEFS

BY THE BRISCOE COUNTY AGENT

The writer attended a meeting at the Capitol Hotel in Amarillo Tuesday. The purpose of this meeting was to outline to President Roosevelt's Drought Committee the most urgent needs of the Panhandle Plains area.

All the County Judges and County Agents from the Panhandle country were invited to attend this meeting and offer suggestions for their particular Counties. Judge Martin and the writer offered for Briscoe County the following:

First, road work projects for the unemployed, 2nd, make it possible for the man who comes between the pauper and the rich class to obtain a loan and other aid. 3rd, place Briscoe County on the drought freight rate for shipping in feed and shipping out cattle. 4th, increase the seed loan to $500.00 and 5th, make available a feed loan that cattle men and others might be able to hold their stock.

Heat Wave Here Drives Mercury To High Record

A burning sun drove the mercury in local thermometers steadily upward Wednesday as new heat records were made and broken over the entire state, and set a new high maximum temperature here for the year with an unofficial thermometer reading of 112 degrees.

Blistering heat waves over the major portion of the state, said by weather authorities to be the worst in twenty years, continued unbroken with no immediate relief in sight.

While slightly lower temperatures were forecast for most of the Panhandle yesterday, Quitaque experienced the summer's hottest day, with the thermometer hovering around 112 degrees for several hours—five degrees hotter than Tuesday's record reading of 107.

Farmers reported crops in this section suffering from lack of rain, as hot winds and burning sun withered vegetation. The general opinion, however, was that crops locally will not be seriously damaged if rain brings relief from the heat within a few days.

Though very dry and in need of rain, crops appeared to be suffering more from hot winds of the past few days than from the drought.

Farmer's estimates as to how much longer crops here can withstand the siege ranged from two or three days to a week or ten days, but few dared hope for more than that.

Temperatures here appeared slightly higher than in the northern section of the Panhandle. Amarillo Tuesday reported a maximum temperature of 102 degrees, and the forecast was for cooler weather today.

The heat continued, unabated, in this section, however, as temperatures rose steadily to a new mark yesterday.

Employment Rolls On Highway 86 Increased this Week

Employment rolls were increased to include approximately one hundred laborers this week as work on Highway 86 in this section of the county went into full swing.

Transfer Wednesday of fifteen men from Floyd County to the local WPA project raised the labor total to ninety-nine, according to S. R. Powell, project supervisor on the Works Project Administration Highway 86 improvement program.

Work is now in progress on both ends of the six mile strip of Highway 86 designated for improvement under a WPA grant. Right-of-way is being cleared on the eastern end of the section near the Hall County line, while another crew is making steady progress on grading and dirt work west of town.

The project, sponsored jointly by the State Highway Department and Works Progress Administration, calls for grading, drainage, and select material on approximately six miles of Highway, extending from the Hall County line to half a mile west of Quitaque.

Work is scheduled for completion on or before January 1, 1937.

Indications are, at present, according to county officials, that the work is being completed in preparation for hardsurfacing of the highway through Briscoe County.

Approximately twenty-five men will probably be added to the group now employed on the local project when they are approved and returned to the WPA rolls at the end of this quarter, Powell stated Tuesday, estimating that the total employment will reach a peak of more than 125 men this fall. Every effort is being made to bring about speedy completion of the project.

MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER

By Mrs. Annie Belle Williams

Oh dear mother how we miss you Since from home you've gone away Tho we meet again in glory, Where there is no night for all is day.

Where the City is built of Jasper Where the streets are paved with gold, Where the pearly gates will open, Where the joys will ere be told.

Our parting here was sad and lonely It left our hearts so filled with pain, Tho won't that be a glorious morning When with you we meet again.

We know your resting angel, mother, For you've left a world of care Tho won't that be a happy meeting When we meet again up there

Where there will be no more sad parting, Where there will be no more good-byes, There we'll meet again in glory In that home beyond the skies.

To that City made of Jasper, Where the streets are paved with gold,

Where we will meet our angel mother In that home thats of the soul.

And if you could talk, dear Mother, We know you would only say "Weep not, dear ones, for me, Let me sleep on till break of day."

Thompson Leads Morris In All But 12 Counties

The map above shows the positions of Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the state railroad commission, and Frank S. Morris, second man in the first primary vote in the road commission race in July. Last figures on the race showed that Thompson had led Morris 283,139 votes and had almost carried the election by a majority over all of his opponents.

Despite the overwhelming lead of his opponent, Morris is making a campaign in the run-off primary Aug. 22 against Thompson. The shaded area shows the counties in which Thompson led Morris. The white ones were the only ones in which Morris ran ahead of the forceful railroad commission chairman. In the white counties, Morris' lead was only 9,666.

Admirers Shower Major With Gifts

Major Bowes of amateur fame and part of his famous collection of "range bonnets," gifts from his Texas admirers.

Hand made, hand engraved songs are only part of the unique collection of gifts from admiring friends that have poured in to Major Edward Bowes, America's Number One honored citizen. During the past two years, as radio listeners know, every Bowes broadcast has resulted in the Major being made an honorary something or other. He is the police chief and the fire-marshal of more towns than probably any other man in the country. In Texas he is captain of the Texas Rangers besides being an honorary member of the Governor's staff, a member of the Texas Centennial and the possessor of an unusually fine collection of ten gallon Stetsons or range bonnets as they are called in the Lone Star State. In fact it has become such a steady practice for the Texas admirers of the Major to express their admiration with a gift of a typical Texas hat, and so many orders were sent in to the Stetson factory in Philadelphia from dealers for "special hats for the Major" that the manufacturer sent a representative to New York with a head measuring machine, to insure a perfect fit for the ten gallon chapeaux intended to grace the Bowes' brow. A Westerner himself Major Bowes knows his "John B's" and while they are too conspicuous for Broadway appearances, he keeps them carefully wrapped in cellophane at the top of his trophy cabinet in his New York office, against the time when he can head West and rough it a bit in the country he knows and loves so well.

The Governor shall have the power to grant one reprieve in any capital case for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days; and he shall have the power to revoke paroles and conditional pardons. With the advice and consent of the Legislature, he may grant reprieves, commutations of punishment and pardons in cases of treason.

The Legislature shall have power to regulate procedure before the Board of Pardons and Paroles and shall require it to keep record of its actions and the reasons therefor, and shall have authority to enact parole laws.

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State who are qualified to vote on proposed constitutional amendments at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1936, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon the words:

"For the amendment of Section II of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to provide for a Board of Pardons and Paroles, and to make the Governor's pardoning power subject to recommendation of said Board, except in cases of treason the Governor may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons with the advice and consent of the Legislature.

"Against the amendment of Section II of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to provide for a Board of Pardons and Paroles, and to make the Governor's pardoning power subject to recommendation of said Board, except in cases of treason the Governor may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons with the advice and consent of the Legislature."

Each voter shall strike out with pen or pencil the clause which does not indicate his desire regarding the above proposed amendment.

Sec. 3. The Governor is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and to have the above proposed amendment published in the manner and for the time required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

The above is a true and correct copy.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 5 of Article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereafter read as follows:

"Sec. 5. The Governor shall, at stated times, receive as compensation for his services an annual salary of Twelve Thousand ($12,000.00) Dollars and no more, and shall have the use and occupation of the Governor's Mansion, fixtures and furniture; provided that the amendment shall not become effective until the third Tuesday in January, 1937."

Who Pays The Job-Holders?

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN National Chairman Sentinels of the Republic

If a business man or a farmer hires a worker he likes to feel that the new hand is capable of the job. He realizes that no worth-while enterprise can be well conducted unless it is competently manned.

But in the important business of manning his government, the average citizen shows less concern. That, at any rate, is indicated by recently published figures which reveal that of the many thousand persons added to the Federal payroll since 1933, fewer than one out of 100 were appointed under the Civil Service or "merit" system.

It wasn't always that way. Here's how figures present the picture of the past twenty years:

During the Wilson Administration 67.2 per cent of employes in the Executive Department of the Federal government were under the merit system. By the Coolidge Administration the proportion had risen to 74.8 per cent. Then came the swift inflation of the public payroll during the past three years, and with it a retreat from Civil Service rules.

Today less than 58 per cent of job-holders in the Executive Department of our Federal government remain under the merit system, and in some instances new appointees replace experienced workers who won their jobs under Civil Service methods.

Probably these figures explain so many groups and individuals realize what inflated payrolls of workers and earners of America protesting against the spoils system the appointment of Federal job-holders.

They explain why those taxpayers demand a return to the merit system under which a man is appointed cause he demonstrates that he can do the work rather than because he shows that he knows the right politicians.

Public Office still remains a Public Trust. The citizen who pays his salary has a right to demand that his trustee, no matter what his office, demonstrate his ability to fill the job. Under the merit system they have that assurance. Under the spoils system they lack it.

Which method would the successful merchant or farmer follow if he wanted his affairs efficiently conducted? The answer is obvious. Taxpayers should demand the same evidence of competence in the men and women appointed to government jobs.

Remember, no matter who benefits by putting them on the public payroll, we, the people, foot the bill.

It's said that it rains on the just and unjust alike. But not if the just happens to leave his umbrella in the reach of the unjust.

Young writers wonder why people do not read this stuff, while old ones wonder why they do.

The average family, it is said, contains 5.1 persons. The .1 probably represents the father.

The criminal may not lack for tribulations, but his trials certainly are few.

Technically the husband is head of the house, but quite often the technicality is overruled.

A FARMER'S LIFE "AS HE LIVES IT"

By ED HOLMES (Station C. E. H. Farm)

FLOYDADA—I've been playing base ball with Floydada in the tournament down at Quitaque. Quitaque as a town and especially the ball players that represented them were mighty good hosts. The Quitaque boys were too much for their visitors and won the tournament without losing a single game or any friends. Floydada won second.

You can't have a successful tournament without a good umpire behind the plate. Jack Troutt, a fair "has been" ball player called the balls and strikes. There was less "kicking" at the umpires than I have ever seen in a tournament. The umpires were fine.

Floydada will probably start a tournament about Aug. 28th. Any of you amateur clubs that wish to try your skill against your friendly neighbors, write Bill Scott or Burl Holt, Floydada, Texas.

The majority of farmers from here to Quitaque are caught again in a bad shape by having their feed planted in solid rows. I'm in the bunch. My feed just looked so pretty and growing so good I couldn't see to plow up every third row. Some are plowing it up now. Chances are it will not pay. In case of a good rain, where feed has burned pretty bad and the main head damaged, it will pay to bind it in a hurry and let a new crop grow.

Good cows are now paying $3 each week through the check route or at the rate of $10 per year. In discussing this with a good business man last week who hadn't considered all the facts, told me if he lived on a farm he would have 25 good milk cows and an irrigation well.

Considering a few IFS, if he hadn't been born with a silver spoon in his mouth (and he was not) he would have to borrow money from a privileged few, if he could get it, before he would be allowed to produce anything. In this instance he would have to pay at least $500 of his hard earned money as interest each year, and if the price stayed where it is now he would get a gross income of about $7,500 per year for his family or $1,600 each. Boy that looks good if it would work, but listen!

Farmers now have a gross income per farm population of around $200 per year, yet "they say" we are over-producing and are asking us as a class to cut down. They say if we would produce less we would make more money.

If every farm family under this system produced $7,500 per year gross income, 6 out of 7 farm families would move. Where? Would it work? Yes if we could get credit to produce other things we need.

Would you be a Radical or a Socialist if you stayed with your Congressmen who are trying to loan credit (money) direct to producers for a small rate of interest to be paid direct to our Government, that you might be more prosperous by becoming an average home-owning producer?

Would the nation suffer if you were not forced as under our present system to do extra work to pay the higher interest rate mainly to the wrong source that creates unemployment and underconsumption on one hand and a few million dollar, unscrupulous, nation controlling parasites on the other?

I will readily agree that there are old people and others who are living off the interest rate that deserve it. When you try to stop the undeserving they quickly point this out.

These same Congressmen who are fighting the unfair interest rate on producers and laborers are fighting for a fair old age pension to take its place for the deserving. What is the difference when the producer always pays the bill?

Simply this. Needed legislation along this line would give us more producers and cut out some of the undeserving.

There is many of this type Congressmen in Congress and thinking producers will elect some more.

Terracing
Now is the time to have that idle crop land and cut over wheat land terraced. The road machines are doing quite a bit of work for the farmers now at a very nominal cost. It will be remembered that terracing properly done counts on the new farm program as a soil building practice and draws 40 cents per 100 feet of terrace built—not to exceed $200 per acre for the amount terraced.

When Do We Measure?
Measuring and compliance on the new farm program will not begin until after September 1. There are no contracts to sign, but there will be a certificate of performance to sign when the committeeman measures your land. All farm land and all leave out land will be measured—and maybe the pasture and waste lands too. Be prepared.
